LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XVIII. FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 1, 1853. NO. 4107.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

Subscriptions payable in advance; a deduction of 50 cts. will be made

Office—No. 27 CENTRAL STREET,
(Adjoining the Post Office.)

Advertisements inserted at $1 per square for three insertions, and 25 cts. per square for each subsequent insertion—to be paid for in advance, in all cases where an account is not open. Twelve lines or less constitute a square.

Yearly and Mercantile advertisements inserted at prices according to the room and place occupied.

☞ The proprietor will not hold himself responsible for any error or omission that may occur, beyond the price charged for the advertisement.

Contracts for yearly advertising will be continued until an order is received for their discontinuance, and when discontinued at less than a year, the price of a whole year will be charged.

☞ Court notices inserted at customary rates. Papers containing them will be filed and delivered to the advertisers without additional charge.

The Lowell Weekly Journal, a paper of the largest size in the country, is published on FRIDAY MORNING, at the low price of $1 50 a year in advance, or $2 any time during the year.

All sums will be on interest, after they are due.

☞ Letters and communications by mail must be post paid.

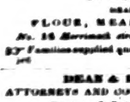
☞ No paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

BUSINESS CARDS.



Book and Job Printing
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
NEATLY & PROMPTLY EXECUTED
AT THE OFFICE OF THE
Lowell Daily Journal & Courier,
By S. J. Varney.

D. C. GRAY,
DEPUTY SHERIFF,
Office—Canal Block, Central street,
Residence, No. 6 Church street,
LOWELL, MASS.
Orders received by Mail or Express will be promptly attended to. mar26dtf

WILLIAM S. GARDNER,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
Masonic Block, Central street, opposite the American House,
LOWELL, MASS. dtf

ABEL WHITNEY,
(SUCCESSOR TO MILTON BONNEY)
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND STATIONER,
33 Merrimack street.
ACCOUNT BOOKS MADE TO ORDER.
Agent for the Sunday School Union, Tract and Mass. Sabbath school Societies.
Agent for Fire, Life and Health Insurance.
Aug. 6, 1851. aug6dly

DR. N. H. SWAIN,
DENTIST,
Office and Residence, 106 Merrimack street, Lowell.
jy22 dtf

COBURN & MIXER,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS
—AND DEALERS IN—
SPERM, WHALE, LARD AND LINSEED OILS, POTATO STARCH,
Factory Leather, Salmon, Sailor Cloth, Twine, Canal, Packing, &c.; PAINTS and GLASS,
BUTTER, CHEESE, PORK, LARD AND SALT,
Nos. 4 and 5 Merchants' Building,
Dutton street
CHAS. S. COBURN. JOHN MIXER.

SAMUEL KIDDER, Jr.,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY
Corner of Merrimack and Johnson streets
Opposite Unitarian Church.
☞ Particular attention paid to putting up Physicians' Prescriptions. Medicine delivered at any hour of the night.
jan1 etf

JOHN PEARSON,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN
W. I. GOODS, GROCERIES, FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC FRUIT, &c., &c.,
No. 3 Savings Bank Building,
(1st door from Messrs. Rogers' Hardware Store,) jan10 Shattuck st., Lowell, Mass. dly

A. P. GROSVENOR,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Corner of Central and Centre sts., Centreville.
aug30 dly

WEAVER & BROTHER,
No. 7 Central, and 26 Merrimack streets,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
ALL KINDS OF MAHOGANY AND PINE FURNITURE,
Carpets, Feathers, Curled Hair and Palm Leaf Mattresses, and Feathers Sent to all parts,
Looking Glasses, Chairs, Clocks,
&c., &c., &c.
James Weaver. C. G. Weaver.
dec23 tf

J. COBURN,
DEALER IN
FLOUR, MEAL, GRAIN, &c.,
No. 15 Merrimack street, opposite Bridge street.
☞ Families supplied and Goods delivered to order.
jy6 dly

DEAN & DINSMOOR,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Office—9 State street, BOSTON.
BENJ. DEAN, J. DINSMOOR.
oct16 dtf

GEORGE B. APPLETON,
(SUCCESSOR TO TESSETTS & APPLETON,)
IMPORTER OF
GOLD AND SILVER WATCHES,
AND DEALER IN
Watches, Jewelry, Silver, Plated, Britannia Ware, and Fancy Goods,
No. 27 Central, 3 doors from Middle st., LOWELL.
☞ Watches and Clocks carefully corrected and warranted. Jewelry neatly repaired. jy24dtf

JOHN HAYNARD,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
No. 104 Merrimack street.
☞ Prescriptions carefully prepared, and Medicines delivered at all hours of the day or night. apr15dly

CUSHING & HACK,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
STOVES, HOLLOW WARE, &c., &c.,
Basement Story of the 2d Universalist Church,
Merrimack street.
Nath'l M. Cushing, (just) Samuel G. Hack.

JOHN MERRILL,
CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.
Systems of Engineering and Mechanical Draughting,
No. 6 Savings Bank Building.
(Lately occupied by Franklin Forbes.)
References to J. B. Francis, Esq. dec30dly

C. G. SAUNDERS & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
MANUFACTURERS OF
Pennyroyal Spring Soda and Mineral Water, CORNER STORE, PERHAM'S EXCHANGE,
apr16 LOWELL. dtf

DAVID DANA,
OPPERSMITH, BRASS FOUNDER,
AND TIN-PLATE WORKER,
Jackson street, opposite Hamilton Print Works.
jan1 All orders promptly executed.

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INS. COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
JOSHUA MERRILL, Agent,
Office—No. 23 Court street. may28

HUGH McEVOY,
DRAPER AND TAILOR
No. 32 Central st., LOWELL, Mass
jan1

S. G. CHASE,
CIVIL ENGINEER
No. 9 Wilder Block, (up stairs,
Corner of Merrimack and Kirk streets,
jan15 LOWELL. 4t

R. & E. GARDINER,
DEALERS IN
SPERM, WHALE, LARD AND LINSEED OILS, VARNISHES AND JAPAN, PAINTS, GLASS, AND BRUSHES, Boutwell's Block, Market street.
4ly

CONSUMPTION.
A remedy may be found at 8
jan8

BUSINESS CARDS.

REEDS AND HARNESSES,
MADE TO ORDER, AND WARRANTED, BY
D. C. BROWN,
MIDDLE STREET, NEAR THE POST OFFICE, LOWELL.
Reed Factory, Middlest.....Harness Factory, Warren st
may23 dtf

NOTICE.

This is to certify that GEORGE HEDRICK has been for the last ten years, and is now, our only agent in Lowell and vicinity for the sale of our Piano Fortes, and persons wishing to purchase our instruments will always find a choice assortment at his Warerooms, which will be sold at the same prices, and terms, as at our Manufactory, and warranted to give entire satisfaction.
T. GILBERT & CO
Boston, April 19, 1851. apr14dtf

A. & S. STEVENS,
MANUFACTURERS OF
POWER LOOM HARNESSES AND REEDS,
And every description of
MACHINE BELTS AND STRAPS,
Corner Fletcher st. and Western Avenue
LOWELL, MASS.
ALPHA STEVENS. SOLON STEVENS.
Belts and Straps, of superior quality, for all kinds of Machinery, furnished to any extent with very short notice. Belts of all common widths; Lagging Leather for covering pullies and drums; Lacing Leather, both calf and Calcutta, and a superior article of Cement for joining Belts, constantly on hand, at such prices as cannot fail to suit the purchaser. feb6dtf

BLANCHARD & UNDERWOOD,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
WEST INDIA GOODS AND GROCERIES, FOREIGN FRUIT, WOODEN AND WILLOW WARE, &c.,
At the Corner Store, Nos. 6 and 7 Savings Bank Building, corner of Middle and Shattuck sts.,
jan6 LOWELL. dtf

STEPHEN MANSUR,
DEALER IN
HARD CROCKERY, GLASS AND CHINA WARE,
AGRICULTURAL TOOLS, &c., &c.,
jan1 No. 110 Centre street.

MORSE & CAVERLY,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Office—49 Mansur's Building, Central street,
LOWELL.
I. P. Morse, Z. B. Caverly.
dec29 dtf

ABNER FROST,
SURVEYOR OF LUMBER,
AND
MEASURER OF WOOD,
At Wm. Livingston's Office, Thorndike st.,
feb9 LOWELL, MASS. dly*

C. P. TALBOT & CO.,
MANUFACTURERS OF
DYE WOODS AND CHEMICALS.
City Market House,—LOWELL.
C. P. Talbot. [oct5dly] Thos Talbot

BLANCHARD, WRIGHT & CO.,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
No. 1 Pletcher street, LOWELL. | No. 75 Commercial st., BOSTON.
C. P. BLANCHARD, WALTER BLANCHARD, GEO. WRIGHT.
June 14, 1850. jel4dtf

M. D. COLBY,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
No. 4 Canal Block, Central street,
(Opposite the American House,)
LOWELL, MASS.
Constantly on hand, supplies of the most reliable medicines, Fancy Articles, Perfumery, &c. &c.
Physicians' Prescriptions carefully prepared at all hours day and night, by experienced persons. feb18dly

WATSON & SARGEANT,
BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS,
142 Merrimack street,
WENTWORTH'S BUILDING,—LOWELL.
Book Binding in every variety. Blank Books made to order. dec30 dtf

LOWELL MUTUAL FIRE INS. COMPANY.
—OFFICE—
Corner of Central and Market streets.
Risks taken in Massachusetts and New Hampshire
jan1 JACOB ROBBINS, Sec'y

H. G. F. CORLISS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW.
Read 80's Building, No. 46 Central street, jan12 LOWELL etf

MERRILL & STRAW,
(SUCCESSORS TO POWERS & BAGLEY,)
PUBLISHERS, BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS,
Dealers in Paper Hangings, Borders, Blank Books, &c.
Blank Books made to order, and Paper ruled to any pattern
Book Binding done with neatness and despatch
No. 33 Centre st., LOWELL. dtf
jan1

B. S. HALE & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
RETAIL DEALERS IN
DRUGS, MEDICINES, PERFUMERY, TOILET ARTICLES, &c., &c.
☞ Physicians' Prescriptions put up at all hours with the utmost care.
Pure SODA drawn at all seasons.
Corner of East Merrimack and Dandson streets, Belvidere.
jan1 dtf

SAMUEL S. WOOD
(Successor to S. Wood & Co.,)
WHOLESALE DEALER IN
FLOUR, ALL KINDS OF GRAIN, SHORTS, &c
Also Commission Merchant for the sale of
COUNTRY PRODUCE.
Market street—Opposite the Market House, Lowell, Mass

C. WEBSTER,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
BONNETS, RIBBONS, LACES, ARTIFICIAL FLOWERS, MILLINERY GOODS, &c.,
No. 43 Merrimack street, (Nesmith's New Block,)
Lowell, Mass.

MRS. WEBSTER,
Silk and Straw Millinor, SAME STORE.
jan14 1y*

LUBIN'S DOUBLE EXTRACTS.

MUSK.	Bouquet de Caroline,
Bellinge,	" Esterhazy.
Rose Geranium,	Jockey Club,
Bergamotte,	Spring Flowers,
Patchouly,	New Mown Hay,
Mignonette,	Verbena,
Winter Blossom,	Sweet Brier,
Crystal Palace,	Moussettine,
Summer Blossom,	Magnolia,
	Sweet Pea,

Received and for sale wholesale or retail by EDWARD BUSH, corner Merrimack and Central sts., under Rev Mr Brewster's Church. mar19

SHADES AND SHADE HATS.
Just received a great variety of the above Shades and Hats, so usually trimmed in some good taste, with crapes and fancy colored ribbons. Also a large assortment of black and fancy colored CAPS. Hats and Caps made to order, at apr9* 47 Central, corner of Hanover st.
BRADBURY'S

THE ROYAL TURKISH LINEN TOWEL.
THE subscriber is solicitor for the above towels, or is to send as a sample for the Ball Finish Rubbers, just received at MRS. P. BRADBURY'S, 47 Central st., corner of Market st.

INSURANCE OFFICES.

LOWELL TRADERS' AND MECHANICS'
MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
OFFICE.—COURIER BUILDING, CENTRAL ST.
AMOUNT AT RISK—$4,000,000.
ABSOLUTE AND CONDITIONAL FUNDS,
$383,485.
Directors:
SEWALL G. MACK, President.
Thomas Nesmith, | James H. Rand,
Andrew C. Wheelock, | Thomas B. Comins.
Joshua Converse, | L. G. Howe,
C. F. Blanchard, | George H. Bean.
JAMES DINSMOOR, Sec'y.
Lowell, June 23, 1853. je23dtf

HOWARD FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
OFFICE—No 17 Appleton Block, Central street,
LOWELL, MASS.
THIS Company continue to insure on Real and Personal Property to an amount not exceeding $5,000 on any one risk, on as favorable terms as other sound Companies. The amount that has been paid in on the Capital Stock of the Company is $106,190.
DIRECTORS—Nathan Allen, John A. Knowles, Frederick Parker, Sidney Spalding, William Livingston, Ephraim Brown, David Dana, Joshua Merrill, Caleb M. Marvel, Frederick Hutton, of Lowell; Benjamin B. Mussey, George S. Harris, of Boston; Stephen C. Phillips, of Salem; Syd ney Williams, of Taunton; and Elijah M. Read, of Twelsbury.
Application for insurance may be made to the Secretary, at the Office of the Company.
NATHAN ALLEN, President.
FREDERICK PARKER, Treasurer.
JOSHUA W. DANIELS, Secretary.
Lowell, Nov. 11, 1852. nov11dtf

Insurance Agency.
Office No. 21 Appleton Block, Central st.
PERSONS wishing for insurance either on LIFE or against FIRE, in good, sound, reliable Companies, can be accommodated at No. 21 Appleton Block, over Page & Fay's Store, on Central street in this city.
The public are hereby assured that the subscriber will not act for any Company that does not, in his opinion fully answer the aforesaid description.
FREDERICK PARKER.
Lowell, Nov. 19th, 1852. nov19dtf

Fire Insurance.
OFFICE, No. 21 APPLETON BLOCK
AMERICAN INSURANCE COMPANY OF PROVIDENCE, R. I.
CAPITAL $150,000.
W. HUMPHREY, Sec'y. ALLEN O. PECK, Pres't

ATLANTIC FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF PROVIDENCE, R. I.
CAPITAL $150,000.
B. STEVENS, Sec'y. SUCHET MAURAN, Pres't

SPRINGFIELD FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF SPRINGFIELD, MASS.
CAPITAL STOCK, $150,000.
EDMUND FREEMAN, President.
WILLIAM CONNER, Jr., Secretary.

WESTERN MASSACHUSETTS FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF PITTSFIELD, MASS.
CAPITAL $100,000.
J. C. GOODRIDGE, Sec'y. CHAS. M. OWEN, Pres't.

MERCHANTS' AND FARMERS' MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF WORCESTER, MASS.
C. L. PUTNAM, Sec'y. ISAAC DAVIS, Pres't.

The above named Companies, which are among the very best and soundest in New England, will insure on property in Lowell and vicinity on as favorable terms as other similar Companies.
Detached dwellings and Farmers' property insured for the term of five years at very low rates of premium.
Application for insurance may be made to the subscriber, at No. 21 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell.
FREDERICK PARKER.
Lowell, Oct. 29, 1852. oct29dtf

RELIABLE LIFE INSURANCE, ON A CAPITAL OF $2,500,000.
SURPLUS $520,304.
THE National Loan Fund Life Insurance Company, of London, England, conducting its business under Boards of Directors in the principal cities of Great Britain and the United States, affords to all assured the advantage of entire reliance with SAFE PROFITS AND NO ASSESSMENT ON POLICIES, and the most liberal settlement of claims.
☞ This Company has complied with the laws of the State of New York, and deposited with the Comptroller $100,000 as a Guarantee Fund for the assured, which is always available not only for the citizens of this State, but for the assured in the United States. The laws also of Massachusetts have been complied with by this Company.
Boston Board of Directors—G. M. Thacher, Esq., Hon. P. Dexter, Hon. B. Seaver, J. Whitney, E. A. Grafton, E. D. Brigham, and W. Elliot, Esqrs.
Canada, Australia, and Oregon risks taken at reduced rates of premium.
For rates of Home, Sea and California Risks, see pamphlets, to be had at the Agents at Lowell Office, No. 21 Appleton Block, on Central street.
ELISHA HUNTINGTON, M. D., CHARLES A. DAVIS, M. D. } Medical Examiners.
FREDERICK PARKER, Agent for Lowell and vicinity.
Lowell, Oct. 29, 1852. oct29dtf

UNITED STATES
LIFE INSURANCE,
ANNUITY AND TRUST COMPANY,
OF PENNSYLVANIA.
CAPITAL, $50,000 DOLLARS.
CASH PAYMENTS EXCLUSIVELY.
No Premium Notes, and no Assessments.
STEPHEN R. CRAWFORD, Pres't.
CHARLES G. IMLAY, Sec'y.
PLINY FISK, Actuary.
LOCAL BOARD OF REFERENCE:
Boston.

Enoch Train & Co.	James Read, Esq.
J. C. Howe & Co.	Albert Fearing, Esq.
Brown, Shipley & Co.	Hon. H. M. Holbrook, Esq.
Nash, Callender & Co.	R. B. Forbes, Esq.
J. S. Kimball & Co.	Philip Greely, Jr., Esq.
George H. Gray & Co.	Geo. William Gordon, Esq.

Hon. Wm. G. Bates, Pittsfield.

The "Mixed System" of Life Insurance adopted by this Company, and the best English Offices, secures all the commoned advantages of the Stock and Mutual systems.—The Profits are divided yearly, paid in Cash; and the present value of Annual Dividends is payable in Cash, on demand, or deducted from future Premiums, at the option of the party insured.
CALIFORNIA Life Insurance, and Permits for AUSTRALIA, OREGON, and the SANDWICH ISLANDS, at reduced rates of Premium.
GEORGE H. BATES, General Agent.
New England Branch Office, 18 Congress st., Boston, corner of Post Office Avenue, a few doors from State st.
NATHAN ALLEN, M. D., Examining Physician for Lowell.
The above named Company is one of the very best in the country. Any information in regard to the same may be obtained by applying to the Agent in Lowell.
WM. LAMSON, Jr., Agent,
Residence, Appleton st.
Dec 28, 1852. dec28dly

AMERICAN TEMPERANCE
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
HARTFORD, CONN.
Incorporated by the State of Connecticut.
Capital One Hundred Thousand Dollars,
$100,000,
Securely invested under the sanction and approval of the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

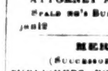
OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:
BARZILLAI HUDSON, President.
TERTIUS WADSWORTH, Vice President.
B. E. HALE, Secretary.
DIRECTORS:

Barzillai Hudson,	Tertius Wadsworth,
Francis Parsons,	Wm. W. Hoppin,
Albert Day,	James B. Horner,
Francis Gillette,	Elson Fernanden,
Noel Wheaton,	John H. Goodwin.

BOARD OF CONSULTORS:
Hon. Thomas S. Williams, Hartford, Conn.
Hon. Andrew T. Judson, Judge U. S. Cir. Dist. Court of Conn
Hon. Thomas Clerk, Treasury of Conn.
Chancellor R. H. Walworth, Saratoga Springs, N. Y
Hon. Neal Dow, Ex-Mayor of Portland, Me.
Dea. Moses Grant, Boston, Mass
John A. Foot, Esq., Cleveland, Ohio.
Edward C. Delavan, Esq. Ballston Centre, N. Y.
Hon. Salma Hale, Keene, N. H.
A. W. Bagnoms, M. D., Medical Examiner.
Archibald Welch, M. D., Consulting Physician.
John W. Graves, M. D., Examining Physician.
A. OSGOOD, Agent.
Office, Parker's Block, Centreville, Lowell.
June 10, 1852. je10dtf

DRS. CARLTON & PERRY,
SURGEON DENTISTS,
Nos. 5, 6 and 7 Wetter Block, (rooms formerly occupied by Dr. Knowles.)
Corner of Kirk and Merrimack streets.

DENTISTRY.



All operations on Teeth, including Cleansing, Filling, Extracting, Setting on Gold Plate and Pivot, from one to a full set. Also setting Irregularities and Malformations of the Teeth. Remedying Cleft Palate, (on that persons laboring under this misfortune are enabled to speak distinctly and naturally,) &c., &c.
☞ Particular attention paid to Children's Teeth.
Lowell, Jan. 16, 1853. jan16dtf

JOHN PEARSON has this day received another cask of those Sugar Cured Hams, for sale cheap at his Fruit and Grocery Store.
may7 Savings Bank Building, Shattuck st.

RAILROADS.

BOSTON AND LOWELL RAILROAD.

ON and after TUESDAY, June 21, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows, viz:
UPPER RAILROAD TRAINS
Leave Boston at 7.45, 8.15 A. M., 12 M., and *5.15 P. M.
Leave Lowell at 6.00 A. M., 12.05, 5.55 and 8 00 P. M., or on arrival of trains from the North. The 8 P. M. down train starts from the Northern Depot.
* Stops at North Woburn.
ACCOMMODATION TRAINS
Leave Boston at *7.15 and *2.30 A. M., 3.30 and 6.30 P. M.
" Lowell at *7 and 10 A. M., *2, and *5 P. M.
* Stops at North Woburn
WOBURN BRANCH TRAINS
Leave Woburn Centre at 6.00, 7.00 8 00 and 9.05, A. M., 1.15, 4.15 and 7.30 P. M.
Leave Boston at 7.00, 8.00 and 11.30 A. M., 3.00, 5.30, 7 30 and *9.00 P. M.
The Train from Woburn at 6, and from Boston at 7 A. M., carry Freight.
Also, a Train leaves Winchester for Woburn Centre on the arrival of the 6.30 P. M. Train from Boston.
* On Wednesdays at 11 P. M., and on Saturdays at 10 P. M., instead of 9 P. M.
WALDO HIGGINSON, Agent
Boston and Lowell Railroad Co.
Boston, June 16, 1853. je7dtf

SALEM AND LOWELL RAILROAD.
SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.
ON and after MONDAY, June 6, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows:
Leave Lowell for Salem at 9, A. M., and 4.15 P. M.
Leave Salem for Lowell at †10.30, A. M., and 6.15 P. M.
* Or on the arrival of the Stony Brook and Northern trains.
† Connects at Lowell with trains for Stony Brook and Northern Road.
Leave Lawrence at *8.00 A. M.; †10.30, †4.10, †7.15P.M
All the above trains stop at regular Stations, and at Flag Stations when the signal is raised.
On and after June 13th, 1853, the above trains will connect at Phillips' Wharf with the Boat for Lowell for, and Trains will leave the wharf at 10.15 A. M., and 6 P. M.
Lowell, June, 1853. F. B. NOURSE, Sup't.
je4dtf

NASHUA AND LOWELL, WILTON, AND STONY BROOK RAILROADS.
SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.
ON and after MONDAY, May 30, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows:
UPWARD.
Leave Lowell for Nashville and Northern Roads at 8.30 A. M., 12.48 and 6.10, P. M., or on arrival of the trains from Boston.
The 8.30 and 6.10 trains run through to Wilton, connecting with stages for Amherst, Francestown, Peterboro', Lyndeboro', Greenfield, Bennington, Antrim, Hancock, Stoddard, Marlow and Alstead.
Leave Lowell for Groton Junction and connecting Roads, at 7.15 A. M., 11.30 A. M., and 4.45 P. M.
The 7.15 train connects directly with the morning west ern line for Springfield, Albany, and New York Land Route, via Hartford and New Haven. The 4.45 P. M. train connects with Norwich Steamboat train for New York the same night.
DOWNWARD.
Leave Wilton at 6.40 A. M. and 10.40, A. M.
Leave Nashville at 7.05 and 11.30, A. M., and 5.05, P. M.
Leave Groton Junction at 8.10 A. M., 12.30 and 5.40 P. M. or on arrival of connecting trains.
Down trains connect at Lowell with the Boston and Lowell, Lowell and Lawrence and Salem Railroads.
All trains of the Stony Brook Railroad connect directly at Groton Junction with trains of the Worcester and Nashua and Fitchburg Railroads.
For further particulars see "Pathfinder Railway Guide."
GEO. STARK, Supt.
Nashville, N. H., May 27, 1853 may30dtf

WORCESTER AND NASHUA RAILROAD.
PASSENGER TRAINS on this Road run as follows:—

Leave	Arrive at Groton	Leave	Arrive at
6.30 a. m.	8.05 a. m.	Nashua,	8.55 a. m.
11.15 a. m.	12.30 p. m.	1.10 p.m.	1.10 p.m
4.15 p. m.	5.35 p. m.	6.30 p.m.	6.30 p.m
Leave	Arrive at	Leave Groton	Arrive at
Nashua and Lowell,	Junction,		Worcester,
7.20 a. m.	7.45 a.m.	8.00 a. m.	9.15 a.m.
11.35 a.m.	11.30 a.m.	12.30 p. m.	1.50 p.m.
5.05 p. m.	4.45 p.m.	5.35 p. m.	7.00 p.m.

CONNECTIONS WITH OTHER ROADS.
Trains arriving at Nashua connect directly with trains of Concord, Boston, Lowell and Nashua Railroads, and Passumpsic and Vermont Central R. R. The first and second trains from Nashua connect with down trains of all the above roads—the third train with those of the Boston, Concord and Montreal, and Concord Railroads.
Each train to and from Groton Junction, (except that 10.30 P. M. to Nashua, which has no connection with upward Fitchburg train leaving Boston at 10 85,) connects with upward and downward trains of Fitchburg Railroad, and Stony Brook Railroad to and from Lowell.
At Worcester, the 5.30 A. M. train connects with steamboat train from New York via Norwich. 11.15 A. M. connects with Boston and Worcester, Providence and Worcester, Norwich and Worcester, and Western Railroad trains. 4.15 P. M. connects with trains from all above named roads, including the Express Train from New York and Albany. Train arriving at 9.15 A. M. connects with the A. M. trains of all the above roads, including Express Train to New York and Albany. That arriving at 9 P. M. with P. M. trains of above roads. That arriving at 7.30 P. M. with the New York Steamboat train via Norwich.

FITCHBURG AND WORCESTER R. R. TRAINS, running in connection with Worcester and Nashua trains Leave Fitchburg at *5.45 and 8 A. M., 12.40 and 6.00 P. M. Leave Worcester at 6.30 and 11.15 A. M., *2.30 and 4.15 P. M.
FREIGHT TRAINS run daily each way between Worcester, Groton Junction, Nashua, Lowell and Fitchburg.
☞ For connections with the other roads at Worcester, Groton Junction and Nashua, see Snow & Wilder's Pathfinder and Railway Guide.
☞ Through tickets are issued at Worcester for Berlin, Glen, Montpelier, Wells River and White River Junction, at the same fare by each of the different routes, via Nashua and Fitchburg; but no change of cars is made on the Nashua route.
* Freight train with passenger car attached, stopping and starting from Lincoln Square.
J. W. STOWELL, Sup't.
Worcester, June 6, 1853. je13dtf

NEWBURYPORT RAILROAD,
SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.
ON and after MONDAY, June 6, 1853, Trains will run as follows:
Leave Newburyport at 6.45, *11.15 A. M., and 4.40 P. M.
" Byfield at 7.08 and 11.36 A. M., and 4.53 P. M.
" Georgetown at 7.15 and 11.36 A. M., and 5 P. M.
" Groveland at 7.20 and 11.46 A. M., and 5.10 P. M.
Arriving at Bradford at 7.30 and 11.55 A. M., and 5.20 P. M.
* This Train will start from the Station of the Newburyport Railroad, west of the Tunnel
† This train connects with train on Eastern Railroad from Salem and Ipswich.
Leave Bradford at 6.12 A. M., 9 and 6.30 P. M †
" Groveland at 6.22 A. M., 9.10 and 6.40 P. M.
" Georgetown at 6.32 A. M., 9.20 and 6.50 P. M.
" Byfield at 6.40 A. M., 9.28 and 7.03 P. M.
Arriving at Newburyport at 6.53 A. M., 9.41 and 7.16 P. M.
* On the arrival of the 7 A. M., 12.45 and 5.30 P. M. train from Boston.

NEW ROUTE TO BOSTON.
Passengers via the Newburyport and Boston and Maine Railroad, are ticketed through each train leaving Newburyport; and returning in the trains leaving the Depot Haymarket Square, Boston, at 7 A. M., 12.45 and 5.30 P. M.
Passengers leaving Newburyport at 6.56 A. M., and 4.40 P. M., and Boston at 12.45 and 5.30 P. M., go through without change of cars or baggage.
Fare to Boston, One Dollar.
Fare from Newburyport to Bradford, 40 cts.
☞ Connecting at Newburyport with Trains on the Eastern Railroad, to all the Stations on the eastward, and at Bradford with Trains over the Boston and Maine Railroad for Lawrence, Methuen, Salem, Derry, Manchester, and all the Stations on the Upper Route, and between Lawrence and Boston. Passengers over the Lowell and Lawrence and Stony Brook Railroads, connect at Groton Junction with Trains for Worcester and South and Western New York and Canada.
Orders for Freight, in Boston, may be left in Stone & Kenrick's Order Box, at the Boston and Maine Passenger Station; at Bradford & Midcomber's, 139 State st., and at Ariel Low's, Nos. 19 and 20 Blackstone st. Freight train once a day, will leave Newburyport for Boston at 6.53 and Georgetown at 7.20 A. M., and Bradford at 9 A. M., or on the arrival of the Freight Trains of Boston and Worcester Railroad. Leave Newburyport for Portland on the 11 A. M. No freight received within thirty minutes of the time of going starting.
All freight remaining at the Station of this Company, will be at the risk of the owners.
* Passengers are not allowed baggage above $50 in value, or 80 lbs in weight, without extra charge. For further particulars see Railway Guide.
C. E. TRASKY, Sup't.
Georgetown, June 4, 1853. je6dtf

RAILROAD AND STEAMBOAT ROUTE
FROM LOWELL TO DAVIDSON'S
AND INTERMEDIATE LANDINGS ON THE PENOBSCOT BAY AND RIVER.

VIA BOSTON AND LOWELL R. R. TO BOSTON.
Thence by the Steamer PENOBSCOT, Capt. WM. FLOWERS, which leaves Boston every TUESDAY, at 5 o'clock, P. M., and every FRIDAY, at 5 o'clock, P. M.
Returning, will leave Bangor every MONDAY and THURSDAY, at 10 o'clock, A. M.
—FARE FROM LOWELL—

To Rockland, Thomaston and Camden,	$1.25
Belfast and Searsport,	1.50
Bucksport, Frankfort, Hamden & Bangor,	1.75

For further information and Tickets apply at the American House and Merrimack House Stage Offices, and at the Ticket Office of the Boston and Lowell Railroad Company, by procuring through Tickets at the above named places will be called for and conveyed to Cars in Lowell and from Cars to Boat in Boston, no extra charge.
For freight, apply to EMERY & LAMSON, 39 Long wharf, Boston, Agents.
WM. BOYD, Steamboat Office, end of Long wharf, Boston, Agents.
Boston, May 12, 1853. may12dtf

RAILROADS.

NEW ROUTE BETWEEN BOSTON AND LOWELL.
SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.—NO CHANGE OF CARS BY EITHER TRAIN.
Depots—Middlesex street, Lowell, Haymarket Square, Boston.
ON and after MONDAY, June 6th, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows:
Leave Lowell for Boston at *7.45, †9.00, †11.50 A. M., 1.55, 4.15 P. M.
Leave Boston for Lowell at *7 45 A. M., †10 00 A. M., *12.15 P. M., 2.45 P. M., 6.15 P. M.
* Express Trains. † Connects with Train from Stony Brook Road. ‡ Connects with Train for Stony Brook Road.
Leave Lowell for Reading at 7.45, 9 A. M., 1.55 and 4.15 P. M.
Leave Lowell for South Reading Greenwood, Stoneham, Wyoming, Edgeworth, Somerville and Charlestown, at 9 A. M., 1.55 and 4 15 P. M.
Leave Lowell for Melrose and Malden at 9 and 11.50 A. M., 1.55 and 4.15 P. M.
The above trains take or leave passengers at Tewksbury, Shed's and Burt's.
The outward trains stop to take passengers at Whipple's Crossing, and the inward trains stop to leave them.
F. B. NOURSE, Sup't.

LOWELL AND LAWRENCE RAILROAD.
SPRING AND SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.
ON and after MONDAY, June 6, 1853, Passenger Trains will run between Lowell and Lawrence as follows:—
Leave Lowell at 7.15 and 10.00 A. M.; 2.45 and 6.30 P. M *
Leave Lawrence at *8.00 A. M.; †12.30, †4.10, †7.15P.M
* Connects with Trains from Stony Brook and Nashua and Lowell Roads.
† Connects with Trains from Stony Brook and Nashua and Lowell Roads.
‡ Connects at Lowell with Stony Brook Road for Groton, Fitchburg, Worcester and New York.
Passengers taking the 7.15 A. M. train from Lowell, may proceed, via Lowell and Lawrence and Boston and Maine Railroads to any station on said road and Portland, thence by Kennebec and Portland Road to Brunswick, Bath, Richmond, Gardiner, Hallowell or Augusta, and by Androscoggin and Kennebec Road to Buckfield, Lewiston, Monmouth, Winthrop, Readfield, Belgrade and Waterville, or by the Atlantic and St. Lawrence Road, to Yarmouth, Danville Junction, Mechanic Falls, South Paris, Bryant's Pond, Gorham, Northumberland, North Stratford or Island Pond, Vt., arriving at any of the above named places the same day.
The 2.45 P. M. train from Lowell connects at Lawrence with train for Haverhill, Exeter, Dover and Portland, or to any station on Kennebec and Portland Road.
Passengers for Rockland, Thomaston, Camden, Belfast, Bucksport or Bangor, leave Lowell every day except Saturday in the 9.45 train to Portland, thence by Boat.
Through Tickets for any of the above named places for sale at the office of the Lowell and Lawrence Railroad, Middlesex street.
The 6.30 train will connect at Lawrence with train for Bradford and Haverhill.
☞ Passengers are not allowed to carry baggage above $50 in value, and that personal, unless notice is given and extra amount paid.
F. H NOURSE, Sup't.
Lowell, June 1, 1853. je4dtf

NORTHERN RAILROAD.

THIS Road connects with the Passumpsic and Vermont Central Roads at White River Junction, and is the most direct route from Lowell or Boston to the Central and Northern parts of New Hampshire, Vermont and Canada, and is the only route over which cars run pass to and from Wells River, St. Johnsbury, Burlington, Rouse's Point, Ogdensburg and Montreal, or where the change of baggage is avoided.
On and after June 20, Passenger Trains, in connection with the cars of the Nashua and Concord Roads.
Leave Lowell at 8.30 A. M., and 12.45 P. M., for Lebanon, Wells River, St. Johnsbury, Montpelier, Burlington, Canada, and in the only route over which cars run pass to and from Wells River, St. Johnsbury, Burlington, Rouse's Point, Ogdensburg, Montreal, &c., and for Bristol at 12.45 P. M.
Leave White River Junction for Boston and intermediate places at 7.10 A. M., 1.30 and 4 P. M., or on arrival of trains from the Upper Roads, and Bristol at 8.20 A. M.
Passengers leaving Boston at 8.30 A. M., and 12.45 P. M., and arrive at

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Friday, July 1, 1853.

☞ Mr. John H. Warland's connection with this paper, as editor, terminated yesterday.

The Convention.

The present Convention was a coalition measure, and the early watchword of its friends was reform. The people felt no grievances, and at first refused to call it. The cry of reform was again raised, a Convention was again asked for, was made a mere party measure, and was assented to by a meagre majority of the voters of the Commonwealth. The Convention has assembled and struggled long and hard to find work for itself to do, and what has it done?—Various are the subjects which have been before it, and various are the political speeches that have been made there by coalition leaders and "flowery" young aspirants for office. The whigs have now and then made calm and dignified speeches on the principles of government, but the addresses from the opposition, with but few exceptions, have been foreign to the subjects properly before the Convention, and calculated only for party effect. The daily reports are more like those of a stormy legislative assembly, than of a body of wise and learned men collected together to elaborate the true principles of government and to amend a Constitution, whose workings for almost a century have won for it the admiration of the world.

We condemned the Convention from the outset, and its history thus far has justified us in so doing, to the full extent. We have lost the little confidence we tried to have in some of the coalition leaders, and we believe the people generally are beginning to consider the whole affair a harmless but expensive failure. What can you think of men, respectable men, prominent men, who two years ago, as coalitionists, on all occasions, vociferously advocated the plurality law, standing up impudently in this assembly, and still as coalitionists, condemning it now as a principle of government? Who does not tremble for the old Constitution in the hands of such men? Who does not know that this change of opinion is brought about by the fact that the voters will not coalesce on a candidate for Governor, and therefore for the success of the coalition, the plurality system must be laid aside, and there must be no election by the people, so that the day may be won in the end by traffic, by those who are elected to represent the people.

Alas, for such reformations as these! The day of sincerity in public men is ended, if conduct like this is sanctioned by the people. We have given up all hope of any thing of real utility coming from professions and practice like this. From an assembly called to discuss the deep and everlasting principles of freedom, we should expect the most calm and disinterested declarations and interchange of opinions, and an example in all things worthy of general imitation. Yet almost the only substantial act these Reformers have done is to fix the pay of the members at three dollars per day—an act which some men will consider one of very small meanness, when they reflect that these very men have had it under solemn deliberation whether they should not by formal enactment in the Constitution itself, deprive the members of the legislature from fixing their compensation at over two dollars per day. Two dollars per day for law-makers, has become by common law, almost the fixed compensation, and how otherwise than dishonorable, to say the least, is it in this grave body to depart from that custom in their own case, and to set such an expensive and selfish example of reform for succeeding legislators!

There are many transactions of this grave body, which we intend to discuss at some length hereafter, and which we believe a large body of the people look upon with disapprobation. We mean to be candid and dispassionate, and we think we shall not be considered as unreasonable in condemning the acts of an assembly which sinks so low as to bring down upon its management the reproof of B. F. Hallett, one of the coalition majority leaders, who represents the sentiment of a "town in the country."

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.—Thursday, June 30. Reports of Committees—By Mr. Briggs, of Pittsfield, on encouragement of literature—a resolve, that it is expedient so to amend the constitution as to provide, that no public money in this commonwealth, whether accruing from funds, or raised by taxation, shall ever be appropriated for the support of sectarian or denominational schools. Not expedient so to alter the constitution as to provide that a board of education and a board of agriculture shall be established as permanent departments of the government. Not expedient to alter the constitution so as to confer any additional powers upon the legislature, in relation to the education of females. [As a ground of their report the committee state as their opinion, that the existing constitution confers upon the legislature as ample powers to provide for the education of females, as it does for the education of males.] Severally referred to the committee of the whole.

Mr. Viles, of Lexington, submitted a proposition, additional to the huge batch of schemes now before the Convention, for a basis of House representation, which was ordered to be printed.

Reports accepted—The several reports inexpedient, &c., on the subject of reference of laws to the people—of securing to women their property—of remuneration of persons tried and acquitted—on petition of Silas Lamson and others—on the subject of a certain remedy in law, and a codification of the laws—of requiring that certain officers shall retire from office at the end of six years—were adopted in committee of the whole, and in Convention accepted.

The resolve on striking out the whole of art. 7, sec. 1, chap. 2 was finally passed in the Convention, as was also the resolve so to amend the constitution as to require that a census of all the inhabitants of the State be taken in the year 1855, and on every tenth year from and after that period, instead of the decenial census, now required by the constitution. Further discussion was had on the basis of representation in the House. An amendment of Mr Butler's proposition was moved by Mr Davis, of Plymouth, and entertained after a violent opposition on the part of Butler's friends. Mr Wilson, of Natick, also moved an amendment thereto, which, after being sustained by Messrs Wilson, Hallett, Sumner, White and Walker, and opposed by Mr Butler, was withdrawn.—Mr Schouler renewed the motion made by him several days since, a division was called for by Mr Boutwell, and the yeas and nays ordered thereon. Much time seems to have been occupied on motions which were finally lost or withdrawn. There must be another "compromise measure" hatched before the end.

☞ Hon. Daniel Adams having declined to deliver the annual address before the Essex County Agricultural Society, that duty now devolves upon his substitute, Hon Parley Poore, Esq., of West Newbury.

True and False Democracy!

There are two sorts of Democracy now being exhibited before the people of Massachusetts—the one true, the other false. One is the democracy of those who prate parrot-like about equality, justice and impartial legislation—who spit spiteful scorn at the mention of proscription, and write long satires on log-rolling: but who, the moment the interest of their hybrid party is staked, abandon all their old professions, turn like weather-cocks before the wind, legislate in log-rolling style themselves, elect a man from the heart of Boston to represent voters in Marshfield, permit a Groton politician to sit for the people of Berlin, and foster a proposition for a basis of Representation which would give to one of the most diminutive towns all the rights, all the franchises, all the immunities of a great and prosperous city. It is scarcely necessary to say that this sort of democracy is that of which the dominant party in the present Constitutional Convention is the conspicuous embodyment.

But there is another phase of democracy, of different manifestation, which makes no impudent display of infatuation for abstractions, which sheds few crocodile tears at the presence of log-rolling, but which, when "the tug of war" comes, always verifys its professions of faith in the true Republican Democracy. Of this phase, the minority party in the Constitutional Convention is the embodyment, as the party of the majority is the embodyment of the false, of the anti-republican, of the old Tory Democracy.

Our readers cannot have failed to have observed the utter want of consistency, the poverty of principle, the gross partialism, the manifest injustice, and the brass-faced insolence of the Convention coalitionists. How long is it, since all the mob-orators in Bedlam rode in full equestrian gear the hobby of the plurality principle? (We call the plurality principle a "hobby," because however great be its truth, it was nothing more than a hobby with the coalitionists.) But the instant it was perceived that the principle of plurality rule operated practically in a different manner to that in which it had been expected to operate, and in a manner adverse to the interest of the abolitionized democracy, that instant it was repudiated, that instant it was denounced as false in theory and partial and unjust in practice. Never was there a more manifest somerset—a greater caving in of horse, foot and dragoons.

It has ever been a principle in American Republicanism—and in British monarchism too, since the revolution of Old Sarum—that the representative of the people shall come from among the people. Quasi-democracy has entirely inverted this principle. Of the leaders of the majority party in the Convention, five sit for towns in which they are not residents. And the people are told that "this is all right, democratic and just!" It is a principle of the true democracy, that all men are created free and equal, that all have a just and equal right to a voice in the government, and that no circumstance of birth or rank, or station, or locality, should give to one that which cannot be enjoyed by another. But how does quasi-democracy regard this? Ask the Convention.—Let the Butler proposition tell. Does democracy endorse this now? Far from it. It utterly repudiates it. It scouts the principle of equality; it openly advocates a war of the towns against the cities—a crusade of Berkshire on Cape Cod! Their iniquity amounts to no less than a partial but real and effectual disfranchisement of all whose lines have fallen within the cities. These are but a few of a vast list of defections to principle exhibited by the dominant party. In view of these facts, the proper course to be adopted by the whig party cannot be doubtful. We trust that whigs will be speedy to adopt such a line of aggressive war on this new-fangled species of toryism, as will teach quasi-democracy the folly of injustice. We trust that wisdom will be justified of her children. In the ensuing canvass, the whig party's policy is plain, is simple, is just. Whatever hopes we may have indulged, that the labors of the Convention might be such as we could endorse, those hopes have all been crushed by the madness of democracy. No course is left but to pursue opposition unto death.

CLERICO-POLITICAL ELOQUENCE. Of the many speakers who have spoken on the basis of House Representation, one was a clergyman unused to political speech-making, who used a sort of stand formed by a hat and a collection of documents on it, and on this he put his manuscript, and thus he preached his speech. The weather was hot, and the house was far too inattentive; but, ever and anon, the general buz was broken in upon by the fall of the President's hammer and a laugh elicited by the animated speaker occasionally calling out "my hearers!" He had several times committed this excusable lapsus linguæ, and encountered the general titter; when he again unconsciously but impressively said, "my hearers!" He paused at the stir the words made, left his notes, and in a minute got the ear of the house. He remarked that duty had never before called him to address a deliberative body, but rather to discourse of things pertaining to his Master's Kingdom, when he was accustomed to speak in places where, at least, he had hearers! The hit was as fair as it was well deserved.

THREE DAYS LATER NEWS FROM EUROPE. The steamship Africa, from Liverpool, arrived yesterday at New York. Money continues abundant, and the funds are quite steady. The Turkish question occupies all minds, and contradictory rumors are rife. Russia has 130,000 men on her Danubian frontier.

Accounts from Constantinople of the 6th, say:—The Divan has just despatched an Envoy Extraordinary on a special mission to Bucharest and Jassey. The armaments continue. It was said that the last Russian ultimatum had been rejected by the Porte. The Moldavo-Wallachian Charge d'Affairs has left Constantinople for Vienna.

Constantinople letters to the London Times state that since the Turks have transmitted the note to the different embassies, declaring the intention of defending themselves, their preparations for war have been more evident.

The whole of the Bosphorus fleet has been towed to the north of the Straits, and put in the form of a crescent, to defend the northern entrance. This fleet consists of three line of battle ships, 9 frigates, 2 corvettes and 8 steamers.

On the 31st ult. the Sultan had a grand review on the plain north of Pera.

The following telegraphic despatch was received from Constantinople at Vienna, on the 11th inst: "The Emperor of Russia has fully and entirely approved of Prince Menschikoff's proceedings at Constantinople."

A formal summons, to which a formal reply is to be returned within eight days from the time of its delivery, is to be forwarded to the Porte. Floating batteries have been towed up the Danube.

A despatch to the London Times, of Saturday, dated Constantinople 9th, announces the arrival from St. Petersburg of the Czar's ultimatum, insisting upon the unconditional acceptance of the demands previously made by Menschikoff. There is every probability that the Porte will persist in its refusal.

CAVED IN. The riggers of New Bedford have been on a strike, but returned to their work on Monday, on the old scale of wages—$1.50 per day.

CITY MATTERS.

Fourth of July.

The Committee of arrangements for the celebration of the Fourth of July respectfully invite Societies, Associations, and citizens generally, to join in the procession on that occasion. Societies and Associations intending to respond to the invitation, are requested to notify the Chief Marshal, Col. T. G. Tweed, at as early day as convenient.

By order of Committee on Escort and Procession. RUFUS ROGERS, Chairman.

☞ The Committee of Arrangements for the Fourth of July are requested to meet at the Committee Room, City Government Building, to-morrow evening, July 1st., at 8 o'clock.

As this will be the last meeting of the Committee before the 4th, it is important that there be a prompt and full attendance.

Per order, M. BONNEY, Secretary.

FOURTH OF JULY DINNER TICKETS. Tickets for the dinner can be had at the bookstores, and of the Committee of Arrangements—price 50 cents each.

Ladies holding tickets will be admitted to the Hall before the procession arrives.

dtjuly3 M. BONNEY, Sec. of Com.

☞ Tickets for the 4th of July dinner should be secured before Monday morning.

THE ANNUAL FLORAL FAIR. All disposed to aid in the preparations for the coming Fourth of July are respectfully invited to send in flowers, fancy articles, or refreshments to the Free Chapel, on the afternoon of July 2d.

FIREMENS' PRESENT. The Torch Boys of Fire Engine No. 5 have presented to their Foreman, Capt. Arlin, a Belt of elegant workmanship, made to order by Mr G. S. Hatch. The belt is in Adams' window, 43 Central street.

☞ Our mammoth new City Hall is now so nearly completed that it can be conveniently occupied for the Fourth of July dinner. It is large enough to accommodate "the million," more or less. The Hall will be finally finished by the 1st of August. Mr John McCarty, one of the best plasterers and stucco workers in New England, is doing the finishing work in his best style.

FOURTH OF JULY. All who wish to show their extra patriotism on the Fourth, can find a way to do so by calling on Merrill & Straw, who have a large and extensive assortment of fire works from the celebrated labratory of Jas. G. Hovey, Boston, and are ready to supply to order, all patriots with any device desired.—call and leave your orders.

☞ The Boston "Antiques," who are coming up to help us train on the morning of the Fourth, will breakfast with Col. Thurston at the Washington House.

☞ A military company from Pelham, N. H., will visit Lowell on the Fourth—will have a place in the line of escort in the city Celebration, and will dine with the government in Huntington Hall.

INQUEST. The body of Henry Williams, the young man who was drowned by the upsetting of a boat in the Merrimack river, Wednesday, was recovered yesterday. This morning Coroner Z. Shed summoned a Jury of Inquest, who rendered a verdict that the deceased came to his death by accidental drowning. There were five young men in the boat at the time of the accident—and some of them were unduly excited.

THE PAVES. We understand that immediately after the Fourth, the work of re-paving Central and Merrimack streets, with square block granite, will be commenced. The blocks are now on hand—having recently been brought by railroad from the Westford ledges. Our citizens will rejoice over the improvement.

JULY FOURTH. Annual Floral Fair, at Jackson Hall, over the new depot, Merrimack st.—Opens at 8, A. M., closes at 6, P. M. There will be offered for sale country and city bouquets, moss and German baskets, useful and fancy articles, from the latest importations, prints, books, plaster busts, (Orsi) statues, &c. A refreshment room will be open all day.

A Juvenile Concert of Floral and National Songs, by 100 young misses and lads, under the direction of Mr I. N. Metcalf, will be given at 8 3-4 o'clock, A. M.—a voluntary contribution to the cause of charity. At 4, P. M., a Concert of National Songs, Glees, &c., by the Quartette Choir of the Lee-street Church.—Admission to the Hall, 12 1-2 cents. Children half price. Tickets may be obtained at the bookstores, or pay at the door. A few tickets for sale at Mr J. P. Walker's. 2t

WHO'S PRESIDENT HERE? Mr F. W. Thomas, author of "Clinton Bradshaw," from whose new volume of Reminiscences, &c., we recently copied a letter of Mr Webster's on the subject of temperance, tells the following anecdote of Gen. Jackson and one of his subordinates, whose motto appears to have been that of the French King—"I am the State."

"A vacancy occurred during his Administration in the bureau of one of the auditors, and General Jackson wrote a very strong letter of recommendation to the auditor, in behalf of a young man from Tennessee, with whose fitness and character the General was well acquainted. With the letter in hand, the applicant called upon the auditor, who replied that he had the highest regard for the President's recommendation, but that Mr. Burns was so variously and strongly recommended, that he should be compelled to fill the vacancy with his name. The applicant quietly took up his letter and withdrew; and with Western frankness and somewhat chagrinned, repaired to the White House, and returned the General his letter. "What's the matter?" asked the old chief.

"He says he can't give it to me, General."

"Why not?" was the gentle inquiry.

"He says he has the highest respect for your recommendation, but Mr Burns is so strongly and variously recommended that he felt compelled to give it to him."

"Mr Burns is his relative, sir. Compelled to give it to him!" And so saying, he pulled the bell sharply. "To have the highest respect for my recommendation, is to follow it."

"Tell," he said to the messenger, "tell the auditor I wish to see him. Keep your seat, sir," to the Tennessean.

In a few minutes the auditor made his appearance. The General, whose placidity apparently had returned to him, asked the startled official why he had not given the situation to the young gentleman whom he recommended.

"Why, Mr President, Mr Burns is so strongly recommended."

"I know Mr Burns, sir; he is your relative, sir; and I also know this gentleman; and I should like to know whose recommendation is stronger than that of the President of the United States?"

The Tennessean got the office; and it is needless to say the auditor came near losing his."

RHODE ISLAND CONVENTION ELECTION. The locofoco pet district system does not seem to work to the satisfaction of its god-fathers anywhere. The Providence Journal, in reference to the Convention election in that city, on Tuesday, says:—

"In this city, which the democrats districted, and in which they boasted that they would carry four wards, they lost one carried one.—Every ward has elected conservative delegates. Even the Sixth has gone against them. The majority of the city against the Convention, against Dorrism in its modified and mitigated form, and in favor of Law and Order, is NOW HUNDRED AND THIRTY-FIVE. We have not expressed the State, and our returns are only from 12 of the 31 towns, with reports from three others, but they are from every county and embrace the larger part of the State, and are pretty uniform in their indications."

GENERAL SUMMARY.

APPOINTMENTS. Leonard J. Presson and William Fears have been appointed Weighers and Guagers in the Gloucester Custom House, in place of Benj. H. Corliss and Nathaniel Rogers, removed; and Robert Rowe, boatman, in place of Peter J. Hazel, resigned.

Ezra Stanly has been appointed Inspector at Manchester, in place of Amos Hill, removed; and Moses Haskins Inspector at Rockport, in place of John D. Haskins, removed.

FATAL ACCIDENT. On Wednesday evening, about half past 9 o'clock, a man named Sewall W. Brown was killed at the crossing of the Boston and Maine railroad in Causeway st., Boston. The gate had just been closed, when a light buggy wagon, containing three men, drove against it, bursting it open. The man in the after part of the wagon, Mr Brown, was thrown with great violence upon the track, breaking his neck and arms. The deceased was a native of Maine, and about 33 years of age. He has no family, but leaves a mother, who resides in West Acton, and two brothers and two sisters in Boston. The accident resulted from the horse becoming frightened and unmanageable.

☞ The Sarsfield Guards, (Capt. Egan's Irish Company,) of Boston, are not coming to Lowell on the 4th. They have never voted to come.

THE PEABODY INSTITUTE, DANVERS. We learn from the Salem Register that the Trustees of Mr Peabody's noble donation have definitely adopted plans and made contracts for the building of the Institute, and that operations will be commenced forthwith, on the Wallis lot, which was purchased some months ago.

The building will be a beautiful edifice in all respects, and admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended. It is to be of brick, two stories in height; with free stone trimmings throughout; rustic corners, vermiculated; with the inscription "PEABODY INSTITUTE," in raised freestone letters, on the front. The outside dimensions will be 50 by 82 feet.

FROM NEW MEXICO AND MEXICO. Santa Fe dates are to June 14th. No further steps have been taken in the Mesilla Valley affair. Gov. Lane's course was sustained by the citizens of New Mexico almost universally. A public meeting was held at Santa Fe the 10th, in which resolutions were passed asserting the right of the United States to the Valley. Gen. Woll had quelled the disturbance at Tampico. Caravajal and his companions, Norton and Roundtree, have given bonds for their appearance before the United States Court.

☞ At the Newton Theological Seminary, on Thursday, the anniversary was celebrated by exercises by the graduating class, and a banquet. Addresses were delivered by various gentlemen, among whom were Rev. Drs. Stowe and Parker, Hon. Isaac Davis, of Worcester, Rev. Mr Jackson, of Newport, R. I., Rev. Dr. Caswell, of Brown University, and Rev. Dr. Aucken, of Germany. The services were of an interesting and important character. The condition of the Institute was stated by Dr. Parker. The [illegible] was stated to be raised for the benefit of the institution, had all been pledged except $5000, provided the whole should be paid in by July. $2750 were then pledged upon the spot for the payment of this balance. Dr. Stowe made a feeling allusion to the late Dr. Sharp.

☞ An enthusiastic public meeting has been held in Calais, Me., for the purpose of promoting the construction of the European and North American Railway from Calais to Bangor.—The company is now organized for this road, the subscription of $100,000 of the stock having been effected.

SHIP-BUILDING IN THE "INTERIOR." The Portland Advertiser says that Mr F. Hannaford is now building a schooner of 125 tons burden, on his farm at Cape Elizabeth, more than a mile from the shore. She is set on shoes, and when finished, which will not be till next winter, is to be hauled by oxen to the shore. Mr H. has built two or three vessels in this way, but we doubt if any one but a Yankee would have conceived of such a project.

REV. ORVILLE DEWEY has resigned his temporary charge of the Unitarian Church in Washington, D. C., and will travel through the West, and deliver his Lowell Lectures in the western cities.

FIRE CRACKERS IN THE STREETS. A small boy was fined $3 in the Police Court, in Boston yesterday morning, for firing off india crackers in the streets.

GRAND JUNCTION RAILROAD. Arrangements have been made with the Worcester Railroad Company to occupy a portion of the depot grounds of the Grand Junction Company at East Boston, and the road of the latter company is to be extended from the Fitchburg track to the Worcester road. The work is to be commenced immediately.

A MACHINE has been projected in Europe for tunnelling the Alps—a work compared with which the Hoosac tunnel project sinks into utter insignificance. The modus operandi of this machine is explained at length in an article in one of our foreign exchanges.

CONNECTICUT. In the Senate a bill was passed repealing capital punishment. It was rejected in the House. A bill to call a Constitutional Convention has been rejected in the House.—Bills have passed authorizing the cities of Hartford, New Haven and Bridgeport, to contract loans for the introduction of water.

☞ Kossuth is understood to be a correspondent of the New York Times, and to write the letters dated Europe.

☞ A despatch from Washington says the steamer Princeton is to be fitted for sea immediately, to take Mr Walker to China. Mr W. will meet her at Ceylon.

THE BOSTON ATLAS entered this morning upon its twenty-second volume, and the occasion was taken by its enterprising publishers to dress it up in an entire new suit, from the old Boston Type Foundry. The typographical execution of this sterling Whig journal will now compare with the best printed sheets in the country. "Long may it wave."

ARRESTED. Patrick Gerry and Frank Smith, alias Bracknier, who are suspected of robbing a store in North Andover, a few nights since, of some $1500 worth of goods, were arrested in Boston yesterday. Both prisoners are graduates from the House of Correction and State Prison.

AMHERST COLLEGE. The anniversary exercises of Class-Day were celebrated on Tuesday, the 28th ult. Mr J. N. Marshall, of Draguit, delivered the oration.

IN GOOD TIME. Passengers leaving Montreal yesterday at 2 o'clock, A. M., arrived in this city at 1 1-2 o'clock, P. M., same day—distance about 310 miles.

TREMONT TEMPLE was lighted last evening with gas, for the first time.

OGDENSBURG RAILROAD. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Northern (New York) Railroad Corporation, held in Boston, yesterday, several vacancies occurred by resignation, and were immediately filled. The Board as now constituted, is composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs. W. Raymond Lee, Henry M. Holbrooke, J. C. Rogers, Isaac Livermore, Edward Crane and Charles J. Hendee, of Boston; Jno. A. Conant, of Vermont; J. H. Titus, J. L. Russell, H. Horton, Sidney Lawrence, George N. Seymour and Henry Van Rensselaer, of New York. W. Raymond Lee was elected President.

It is understood, says the Atlas, that this reconstruction of the Board was the result of entirely harmonious action on the part of all parties in interest, and that arrengements have been made to settle in a satisfactory manner, many questions which have heretofore been a cause of trouble and embarrassment in the affairs of this corporation.

☞ The bankers and merchants of New York propose to give Mr Belmont a public dinner before he departs for Holland.

☞ The City Liquor Agent's sales have averaged $15,20 a day for the last month.—Pains in the stomach still largely prevail, as shown by the City Agent's report.—[Worcester Spy.

The average daily sales by the Lowell City Agent, for the past month, as we learn from the records, amount to about double the Worcester figures—indicating, of course, according to the Spy's philosophy, an increased ratio of "pains in the stomach." But then, as our community have been the "best abused" people in the Commonwealth during the past two or three years, they can bear pain with great fortitude. There is nothing like "getting used to it."

FAMILY COMPLIMENTS. The New York Post (free trade loco,) compliments the Washington Union (Pierce's organ,) for its defence of the Administration, in the following ironical strain:

"We remember once to have heard a famous wag of this city say, during the closing year of Tyler's administration, that he felt that his country was safe—for, said he, 'a government that can stand such a President as John Tyler, can stand any thing.' We may say with equal propriety, that an administration that can stand the kind of support that President Pierce has been receiving of late from the Union, is equally beyond the reach of danger."

A little Political Game of Spelling. England I say, Russia, I'll bet you anything you can't spell Constantinople?

Russia—Can't I, just? Why, its easy enough.

England—Its not so easy to get through Constantinople, my boy, as you may imagine. Come, just you try.

Russia—Here goes at it, then! C-on—Con; s-t-a-n—stan, Constan; t-i—ti, Constanti; n-o—no England (stopping him)—No.

Russia (extremely puzzled)—No?

England (positively)—No, no.

France (ditto)—No, no, no.

Turkey (in consequence of the firmness of the other two, plucks up courage, and also says positively)—No, no, no, no.

All together (most positively)—No! no!! no!!! no!!!!

(Russia turns back, and tries very hard several times; but each time he tries it on he is pulled up suddenly by the Noes. He gets very angry; and at last, not seeing his way at all clearly through Constantinople, he retires in the greatest rage and disgust, England, France and Turkey still calling out after him, "No!

LATEST DATES.

From Liverpool.....June 8 | Havre .....June 5
From London.....June 6 | San Francisco....May 21

Mail Arrangements.

MAILS CLOSE

Boston at 6½, 11½ A. M. and 5 P. M. Northern at 7 A. M. Eastern and Lawrence at 6½ A. M. and 1½ P. M. New York at 11½ A. M. and 4 P. M.

Boston 8½ A. M., 1 and 6½ P. M. Northern 8½ P. M. Eastern 8½ A. M., 1½ and 6½ P. M. Lawrence 10½ A. M. and 6 P. M. New York 8½ A. M.

Office hours from 7 A. M., to 9 P. M.

T. P. GOODHUE, P. M.

Cars Leave Lowell!

For Boston 7, 8.00, 10 A. M., 12.05 M., 2, 5.00, 5.5 P. M. (By the new route, the cars leaving the Middlesex street Station,) 7.45, 9, 11.50 A. M., 1.55 and 4.15 P. M.

For Salem at 9, A. M., 4.15 P. M.

For Lawrence and Exeter 7.15, 10 A. M., 2.45, 6.30 P. M.

For Nashua, Concord and North, at 8.32 A. M., 12.40, 6.10 P. M.

Stony Brook at 7.15, 11.30 A. M., 4.45 P. M.

Pay Days on the Corporations.

Work after last Saturday in each month—Appleton, Bleachery, Machine Shop, Suffolk, Lowell and Tremont.

Work after first Saturday—Boott.

Work after second Saturday—Hamilton.

Work after the third Saturday—Massachusetts and Prescott.

Saturday before the 16th—Merrimack.

Second Friday in each month—Middlesex.

Second Saturday—Lawrence.

Discount Days of the several Banks.

APPLETON BANK—TUESDAY and FRIDAYS.
LOWELL BANK—MONDAYS and THURSDAYS.
PRESCOTT BANK—MONDAYS and THURSDAYS.
RAILROAD BANK—TUESDAYS and FRIDAYS.

WORMS! WORMS!

☞ A great many learned treatises have been written, explaining the origin of, and classifying the worms generated in the human system. Scarcely any topic of medical science has elicited more acute observation and profound research; and yet physicians are very much divided in opinion on the subject. It must be admitted, however, that, after all, a mode of expelling these worms, and purifying the body from their presence, is of more value than the wisest disquisitions as to the origin. The expelling agent has at length been found—Dr. McLane's Vermifuge is the most sought after specific, and has already superceded all other worm medicines, its efficacy being universally acknowledged by medical practitioners.

☞ Purchasers will please be careful to ask for Dr. McLane's Celebrated Vermifuge, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. McLane's genuine Vermifuge, also his Celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.

Agents for Lowell—S. Kidder, Jr., Carleton & Hovey, J. C. Ayer & Co., C. S. Eastman & Co., and by Druggists generally. jet27 †1w

HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE.

BALTIMORE, July 15th, 1851.

HOSTETTER & MCMURRAY,

Gentlemen:—A sense of gratitude and a desire that those suffering with diseased kidneys and liver, and nervous debility of long standing, as I have for two years suffered dyspepsia, affection of the bladder, and have found great relief from the use of Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture; to all those afflicted with the above diseases, I would recommend it as a valuable medicine.

Yours, H. C. HOYSTON,
No. 114 Baxter st.

Agents for Lowell: J. C. AYER & Co. S. KIDDER, Jr., E. A. STANIEL, CARLETON & HOVEY, C. S. EASTMAN & Co. jet26 3m 1w

A. W. LEONARD,

DEALER IN
CONFECTIONERY AND CAKE,
No. 130 Merrimack street,
(A. B. French's Old Stand.)

Is furnished at all hours of the day. Particular attention paid to the manufacture of Ice Creams, Jellies, Wedding and other Cakes. Parties supplied with Oysters—Scalloped, Stewed or Raw—on the most liberal terms. Orders promptly executed. jan26tf

A. B. FRENCH,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN
CONFECTIONERY AND CAKE,
37 Central, street,
LOWELL, MASS

☞ Particular attention given to the manufacture of ices in moulds with the newest improvement in Donatti machine. Rooms, Savings Bank Block.
Lowell, Feb. 9, 1852. 6m26 1y

CARD PRINTING.

Business Cards, Visiting Cards, Marriage Cards, Tickets, &c., Labels, &c. &c., printed at short notice, at the office of the Lowell Daily and Weekly Journal—or stamp on can be printed on the Rule. Cor. Central and Middle streets, adjoining the Post Office.

Wood Measurers' Cards.

Printed Tickets for Measurers of Wood, &c., for sale at the Journal and Courier Office.

STUART'S BROKEN CANDY for sale by E. BUSH, under Rev. Mr Brewster's Church. jel

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK,

Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1825.

Capital $150,000,

Paid and Securely Invested—Surplus from 40,000 to 60,000 Dollars.

DIRECTORS.

Seth Grotyngs, N. Y.,		Geo. Fisher,	Oswego,
Wm. H. Russel,	"	Lucius Wright,	"
Geo. W. Morton,	"	Alvin Bronson,	"
Ed. A. Langdon,	"	Henry Eagle,	"
J. V. L. Pruyn, Albany,		A. P. Grant,	"
D. P. Sherwood, Oswego,		James Lyon,	"
S. B. Ludlow,	"	GEO. FISHER, Pres't.
SAMUL HADLEY, Sec'y.

This long established Company are prepared to take every species of

Fire and Inland Navigation Risks,

at such rates as shall be adequate to the security of the insured and of the Company. If their long practice hitherto, is not sufficient guaranty to the public, all professions will be useless.

A. JAS. RICHMOND, Agent. Office No. 18 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell. feb1dly

FIRE INSURANCE.

OFFICE,—NO. 18 APPLETON BLOCK

Ætna Protection and Hartford Insurance Companies, HARTFORD, CONN.

AGGREGATE capital paid in and invested according to law, $ 750,000
Liberty to increase to 1,500,000
Ætna Capital, 300,000
Protection Capital, 300,000
Hartford Capital, 150,000

No assessment in any case.

Insure against loss or damage by fire in Lowell and adjacent towns, on all kinds of insurable property at as low rates as any good responsible offices, with a specific capital to an amount not exceeding $50,000 on any single risk in the three offices.

First class dwellings of brick and wood and their contents, insured at very low rates of premium. Policies issued from one month to seven years if desired. An allowance made on all Policies running more than one year.

Policies issued for either of the above offices, by A. J. RICHMOND, authorized agent. Office No. 18 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell.

Also, agent for the Ætna and Hartford Joint Stock Life Insurance Companies. Rates of premium about two-thirds those of Mutual Companies.

April 26, 1852. apr26tf

STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO.,

OF WORCESTER—Incorporated 1845.

Capital, $100,000.

JOHN DAVIS, Pres. | CLARENDON HARRIS, Sec.

This very successful Company, conducted upon the cash principle with close economy, having accumulated a surplus Cash Capital, have now greatly reduced their rates of Insurance. By law the amount insured is secured to the applicant's family free from all claims of his creditors.

Policies issued on lives for California and foreign countries at low rates. For further information apply to

WM. P. WEBSTER, Agent,
Office in Wyman's Exchange.
nov6dly

CHARLESTOWN MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

J. T. K. ADAMS, Agent, feb23m3m 49 Central st., Lowell.

☞ CALIFORNIA RISKS taken by the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, on the most favorable terms.

S. W. STICKNEY, Agent.
Jan. 21, 1853. jan21dtf

IMPORTED AND DOMENTIC CIGARS.

S. W. STEWARD, at No. 31 Central st., keeps the best Cigars, both foreign and domestic, that can be purchased in the city of Lowell. Those in want of Cigars or Tobacco will do well by calling upon him before purchasing elsewhere. He will sell as cheap as can be bought of the importers in Boston.

Among his stock are the following brands:

Eagle Extra,	Thos. Barrere Extra,
Imperial Regalia,	" United States,
Moreas,	Canditta,
Monte Cristo,	Buena Vista,
Henry Clay Pressed,	Martinez,
Londres,	Havana Principe,
Vara Principe,	Panatelas,
Havana filled Sizes,	Cuba and common Sizes,

of all kinds—and the CELEBRATED CLUB CIGAR.

All Cigars that do not prove as recommended, if returned, the money will be refunded.

dec7dtf 31 Central st., Lowell, Mass.

CIGARS.

Fowler's wholesale and retail Cigar Store, Coburn's Block, Central street, opposite Market, is the place where the best cigars are sold. dtf

sep25

Does not every Man, Woman and Child have an interest in having the health of themselves and friends restored and preserved? At this season of the year nothing like using a good and useful corrective and giving the system perfect tone to endure the heats of Summer, and changes of Autumn and Fall. No articles stand so high in confidence of the community, (being recommended and used by eminent Physicians and distinguished Citizens), as which have been tried and proved and found to be superior to all other preparations for the cure of all diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, Derangement of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver, or Nervous system, and remarkable for their strengthening, invigorating, restorative, and cheering properties. A single trial will prove their efficacy, (see recommendations in pamphlets.)

DR. STEPHEN JEWETT'S JUSTLY AND HIGHLY CELEBRATED BITTERS,

ALSO THE PULMONARY TONIC AND STRENGTHENING PLASTER.

For sale by appointed Agents in every town and village in New England, and by Dealers in Medicines generally. Sold in Lowell by WM. CHURCHILL, 141 Central street. jel4d3m

400 Washington Street.

The only manufacturers of Coleman's Patent Æolian Attachment for Manufacturers.

☞ A large assortment of T. Gilbert & Co.'s PIANO FORTES, with or without the Æolian Attachment, always on hand—for sale on the same terms and prices as at the manufactory in Boston, and warranted to give entire satisfaction, or the money will be refunded. They will be sent any distance within 25 miles free of charge.

GEO. HEDRICK, 36 Central st., Lowell,
Agent for T. Gilbert & Co., Boston.

N. B. T. GILBERT is, with a single exception, the oldest Piano Forte maker in Boston, having been in the business for nearly thirty years, and having every facility for doing the work in the best manner—and no better instruments for sweetness, richness of tone and durability of workmanship, can be found in this country, than are made by T. GILBERT & Co. jan1

☞ Second hand Church Organs for sale. apr1†

A CARD TO THE LADIES OF LOWELL AND VICINITY

MRS WINSLOW, an experienced Nurse and FEMALE PHYSICIAN, has a SOOTHING SYRUP, for CHILDREN TEETHING. It greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums—will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.—Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants; never was it failed of timely used—perfectly safe to be administered to very feeble infants. A fresh supply at the following Agencies. Price 25 cents a bottle.

N. B. Inquire for MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, and attend to it at once, if your child is suffering.

Sold at wholesale by WEEKS & POTTER, Washington st., and HENSHAW, EDMANDS & CO., India st., Boston.

Sold in Lowell by J. C. AYER & Co., wholesale and retail; E. A. STANIELS, EDWARD BURR, C. S. EASTMAN & Co., S. KIDDER, Jr., CARLETON & HOVEY, F. BADGER, HOSKEN & BLANCHARD, HORATIO SMITH, LOWNDES; J. E. NICHOLS, GEO. A. KIMBALL, E. T. PEACTICE, Hosmer hill. sep10†y

DR. LANGLEY'S ROOT AND HERB BITTERS. THE GREAT REMEDY.

Only 25 and 37 1-2 cents a Bottle

For the People's Compound—Dock Root, Wild Cherry Bark, Dandelion Root, Prickly Ash Bark, Sarsaparilla, Rhubarb and Thoroughwort. DR. LANGLEY'S ROOT AND HERB BITTERS are safe to be used by all ages and sexes, are pleasant to take,

BOSTON AND LOWELL RAILROAD.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR JULY 4th, 1853.

Passenger Trains will run as follows:

Leave Boston for Lowell and Way Stations, at 6, 7, 7.30, 8, 9 and 11 A. M., 12 M., 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 5.15, 6 and 7 P. M., and after the Fireworks.

Leave Lowell for Boston and Way Stations, at 5, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 A. M., 12 M., 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 10 P. M., after the Fireworks.

Those Trains with Upper Railroad Cars, will run only between Boston and Lowell.

The Train which leaves Boston at 4.45 P. M., is to accommodate those who wish to see the Exhibition at Lowell of the Soldiers and Horribly," which attracted so much notice last year.

WOBURN BRANCH.

Leave Woburn Centre at 6, 7, 8, 9 and 11 A. M., 1.15, 3, 4.40, 6.45, 7.45 and 9.15 P. M.

Leave Boston at 6.45, 7.45, 8.45 and 11.30 A. M., 1.30, 3.30, 5.30, 6.30, 7.30, and after the Fireworks.

W. H. OSGOOD,
Agent Pro Tem. B. & L. R. R.

je30d3t

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE,

Having ENLARGED and IMPROVED our Store, we have made large additions to our former stock, and are now prepared to offer to the public a complete assortment of fresh from the importers, warranted PURE and of the first quality.

DRUGS, CHEMICALS AND MEDICINES,

Our business arrangements are now such that one of the PROPRIETORS will be in constant ATTENDANCE to dispense or serve customers to whatever they may want, with accuracy, neatness and despatch.

PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS,

We have also a good assortment of which we will sell VERY CHEAP, in order to make room for a large invoice which we expect to receive in a few weeks.

FANCY GOODS, TOILET ARTICLES, and PERFUMERY,

We are agents for all the popular PATENT MEDICINES of the day.

C. S. BARTLETT & CO., Apothecaries,
WYMAN'S EXCHANGE, LOWELL.
corner Merrimack and Central sts.

je29

REMOVAL.

CARLETON & HOVEY, Apothecaries, have removed to their old stand in Ulty Hall, corner of Shattuck street.

je18

HAYING TOOLS.

INDEPENDENT HORSE RAKES;
Horse Rakes, Hovey's Improvement;
Spring Tooth Horse Rakes;
Kirby's Scythes, (Cast, German and Silver Steel;
Kimball & Son's Scythes;
Phillips, Messer & Colby's do., Cast and Silver Steel;
Bush Scythes;
Lamson's Patent Scythe Pusths;
Chellis & Keep's do. do. (remarkably cheap.)
Kimball & Son's do. do.
Bush do. do.
Partridge's celebrated Cast Steel Hay Forks;
Pope & Parsons' do. do. do.
Van Ornum & Co.'s do. do. do.
Mone's do. do. do.
Concrete Scythe Rifles, old style;
Scythe Stones of all kinds;
Robb's Rakes, (the best that can be found);
Bartlett's Rakes, (cheap).
Saw prized Rakes made by various manufacturers;
Grain Cradles complete, (very light);
Grass Hooks (cast steel);
Sickles of the best sorts;
Grindstones of superior grit, with frames or without.

☞ The above-enumerated Tools, together with others not specified in this advertisement, are now ready for sale at the lowest prices either by wholesale or retail, at the Lowell Agricultural Warehouse and Seed Store of GEO. P. ELLIOT & SON, No. 46 Central st., (nearly opposite the Post Office,) and 3 Prescott st.," where may be found every Agricultural Implement in use by Farmers."

Lowell, June 27, 1853. je27d1f

JEWELLER'S NOTICE.

ARRANGEMENTS in my business being such I wish to dispose of my extensive stock of WATCHES, JEWELRY, SILVER PLATED and BRITANNIA WARE, at about the FIRST COST.

SILVER SPOONS. My assortment is large, and warranted Pure Silver—engraved in the best style.

JEWELRY. Ear Rings, Sleeve Rings, Cuff Buttons, Collar Buttons, Lockets, &c.

WATCHES—Gold and Silver Cases, warranted good timekeepers.

Plated and Gold Vest Chains, Silver Pencils, Pencil Cases, Pens and Holders, Thimbles, Scissors, Steels, &c.

PLATED TEA SET—English and American Ware, new patterns—Britannia do. Plated Castors and Cake Baskets; POCKET CUTLERY, Razors, California Dirks, &c. &c.

☞ My large stock of Goods will be offered to the public for a short time at Remarkably Low Prices.

Call at 43 Central street, second door north of Market street.

[je28] JOSEPH RAYNES.

HAYING TOOLS,

CONSISTING of Tait & Potts', Phillip's, Messer's and Colby's Scythes; also the Patent Rely the Pusths in the Snath; Page & Wakefield's superior Hay Rakes two and three bow. Wire Tooth Horse Rakes, Partridge's Hay Forks, large size, Scythe Stones and Rifles, Grain Cradles, &c., &c., at STEPHEN MANSUR'S.

je29 110 Central st.

WILDER'S IMPROVED SALAMANDER SAFES of different sizes, on hand and for sale at the manufacturer's prices, by S. MANSUR.

may 19 110 Central st.

PREMIUM FLOUR.

THE best brands of Flour constantly on hand, fresh ground, in bbls, halves and quarters, selected for family use—for sale wholesale and retail by je15* SAML. N. WOOD, Market st.

FRESH GROUND WHEAT MEAL AND GROATS.

—Wheat Meal fresh ground from Suffolk County Mills. Wheaten Groats fresh ground, in small casks. For sale by je15* SAML. N. WOOD, Market st.

NO EXCUSE FOR BAD BREAD.

PRESTON'S NEW ERA'S Infallible Yeast Powder, a new article for making light and sweet bread.—For sale wholesale and retail by je15* SAML. N. WOOD, Market st.

NEAT AND CONVENIENT.

— Ladies' Pens extra fine—Best School Pens.—Put up in wire boxes, and for sale by je25* JAS. P. WALKER, 61 Merrimack st.

FAYAL HATS,

FOR MISSES, just received at WM. P. FRAZER'S, je28 47 Central st.

HAYING TOOLS!

PHILLIPS, MESSER & COLBY'S Cast Steel Scythes, Patent and common Scythe Snaths; Horse Rakes, two and three bow Hand Rakes, Partridge's Hay Forks all sizes, Rifles, Stones, &c., &c., in great variety. For sale by J. P. & J. ROGERS, je25 2 and 5 Savings Bank Block.

CHEESE PULVERIZING IRONS.—Another lot of Mrs Cook's celebrated pulverizing irons just received and for sale by J. P. & J. ROGERS, je25* Savings Bank Block.

AN ADMIRABLE NEW BOOK FOR BOYS.—Ed gar Clinton, or Right and Wrong; a story of School Life. By C. Adams. Illustrated. For sale by je24* JAS. P. WALKER, 61 Merrimack st.

FOURTH OF JULY.

FOR SALE, BROTHER JONATHAN for sale by the PICTORIAL WALKER, je28 corner of Merrimack and John sts.

FOR THE COMPLEXION.

HITE'S PERSIAN COSMETIC, for removing Freckles, Tan, Pimples and Eruptions of the skin and rendering it fair, soft and transparent. Only agent in Lowell, S. RIDDER, Jr., corner Merrimack and John sts. Price 25, 50 and 75 cts.

je28

TO LET,

The house in the Associates' Brick Block, on Central street, nearly opposite the new Court House, now occupied by Mr N. H. Wright. Possession given July 4th next. Inquire next door, of

P. ANDERSON.

Lowell, June 21, 1853. je16d3tyF

Pr. H. MAGUIRE,
SLATER,
Prescott street, Lowell.

☞ Roofs covered with Slate, Tin, Zinc, or Copper, in the best manner. 3tf

FOR SALE,

One new Boston built CARRYALL, a superior article. Also, a very fine FAMILY HORSE, six years old, weighs 1000 lbs. Can figure, can trot his mile in 2½ minutes, free from all tricks or fault.

For further particulars, inquire at my counting room, over Ayer & Co.'s Apothecary Store, corner of Central and Jackson sts.

JOHN CHAMBERLIN, Jr.

Lowell, June 18, 1853. je16tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

TO LOAN by the subscriber, in sums from $500 to 5000 Dollars, upon all kinds of Personal Property given as collateral security, at low rates of interest. Central Jackson sts., over Ayer & Co.'s Apothecary Store.

je16tf JOHN CHAMBERLIN, Jr.

A LARGE ASSORTMENT of Fancy Pitchers, consisting of Parian, Wedgewood, Fancy Stone, &c., of different sizes and patterns, at BROWN & MERRIAM'S, sign of the "Big Pitcher," Merrimack, near Hurd, je29 3 Merrimack and 6 John sts.

FOREIGN SILVER COIN WANTED.

YOU can work your foreign quarters and sixpences, either any amount, buy Watch, Jewelry, Fancy Articles, Paper Hangings, &c., at A. WHITNEY'S.

je27 Museum Building.

PERSIAN SUNSHADES.

— New patterns French Cloth received this day at 43 Central st., Wooden Building, four doors north of Market street.

je14* JOSEPH RAYNES.

VEST CHAINS.

— Fine Gold Vest Chains, new patterns, warranted Rim Work, for sale at 43 Central street, Wooden Building.

je16 JOSEPH RAYNES.

PAINTED TEA TRAYS, in oil, some splendid patterns; also common do. all sizes, for sale at may19* C. HANSON'S, 110 Central st.

GINGERBREAD of superior flavor, all spiced in addition to the usual spices; for sale at the Factory, 1 Prescott street, and Grocery, 110 Central st., under the Museum.

je22 110 Central st.

AMUSEMENTS.

LOWELL MUSEUM.

W. L. ADLING, } Lessees and Managers.
S. D. JOHNSON, }

BENEFIT OF MR F. MUNROE.

THIS EVENING, JULY 1,

The performances will commence with

THE GOLDEN FARMER!

To be followed by

THE YANKEE IN TIME!

To conclude with

THE FALL OF ALGIERS!

Admission 25 Cents. Curtain rises at 8 o'clock.

FOR A SHORT TIME ONLY!

NOW ON EXHIBITION

AT WELLES' HALL,

(For the first time in this city), DUBUFE'S celebrated and Original Painting of

Adam and Eve in Paradise,

Representing the Temptation and Expulsion. Painted for Charles X., of France.

These sublime Works of Art have been exhibited in Europe and the United States the past twenty years, to the universal admiration of over two millions of persons.

Open from 9 A. M. till 10 P. M. Brilliantly illuminated every evening.

☞ Admission the whole week, 25 cents. Schools admitted on liberal terms. A description given in the evening at 8½ o'clock.

June 16, 1853 je16tf

FIREWORKS,

BY H. D. ADAMS,

SOLE AGENT FOR

SANDERSON & LANERGAN,

PYROTECHNISTS TO LOWELL,

And the principal Towns and Cities in New England.

Displays, at all Prices,

Furnished as usual, in the highest style of the Art.

PAGCIFUL, LOCAL and PATRIOTIC DESIGNS, a short notice.

Having furnished the largest and most successful Exhibitions to the City Authorities of Boston, and other Cities and Towns in New England, to which they have liberty to refer, and to the RAILROAD JUBILEE, also for furnishing New, Beautiful, and Original Designs, for Boston and other Cities and Towns, for several years past, for which a Premium of a GOLD MEDAL has been awarded, and being the first to introduce successfully the manufacture of

FIRE WORKS,

And the only Practical Pyrotechnists Established in New England, giving them facilities for superior to any others in the business. Among their annual improvements will be found the

Pyloral Shell and Meteor Rocket, which are registered for PATENT, and which attain unequalled altitude and beauty of flight.

Committees of individuals who may attend to them their patronage, may repose perfect confidence in the excellence and brilliancy of their Works

BEING SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.

At Wholesale and Retail, of superior quality—Large and small Rockets, Roman Candles, Flower Pots, Triangles, Bengula Lights, Serpent Mines, Pigeons, Saxons, China Flyers, Bee Hives, Tourillions, Suns, Scroll Wheels, Wheels of Colored Fires, Port Fires, Blue Lights, Pin Wheels, Serpents, Gunstockers, &c., &c.

ALSO OF THE BEST QUALITY,

20,000 boxes No. 1 India Crackers, Gilt Labels, 500 " Double Headers, " "
100 " Small " "
200 " Cannon " "
100 " China Rockets, (4000 in a box.)
1 ton Cut or Slow Match,
1,000,000 Torpedoes,
1,000,000 Fulmers,
100 Boxes Assorted Chinese Fire Works, &c.,

Together with every variety of FANCY PIECES known in the Art, and warranted the very best that can be procured, manufactured at their extensive Laboratories, East Cambridge and South Reading, Mass.

H. D. ADAMS,
NOS. 17 AND 43 CENTRAL STREET, SOLE AGENT IN LOWELL FOR SANDERSON & LANERGAN'S
je17 FIRE WORKS dly4

LIGHTNING RODS.

PERSONS wishing to secure their buildings against damage by fire, are invited to call at my office, in No. 21 Appleton Block, and examine a model of Stuart's Patent Lightning Conductors.

These Rods will be put up at short notice by my assistant, Mr S. DEARON, who has had much experience in the business, and appears to understand it thoroughly.

FREDERICK PARKER,
Agent for Lowell and vicinity.

Lowell, June 17, 1853. je16tf

E. W. SCOTT,
DRAUGHTSMAN, PATTERN AND MODEL MAKER,
Middle st., opposite Post Office, Lowell.

DRAWINGS for all kinds of Machinery, Patterns for Castings of every description, and Models of Machines made in the most thorough manner.

The subscriber has the very best facilities for the transaction of business with the PATENT OFFICE, as I can furnish the Drawings, Specifications and Models complete for Patents of any description, at my establishment, thereby lessening the expense by being all executed under the direction of one man. Papers, Drawings, &c., for Caveats, additional improvements, disclaimers, re-issues, extensions, designs, assignments, and all other business with the Patent Office done confidentially and promptly. Models left with me will, if desired, be forwarded to Washington free.

I thank my customers and the public for their patronage, and by diligence and faithfulness shall hope to retain their confidence.

Lowell, June 29, 1852. E. W. SCOTT.

PIANO FORTE WAREROOM.

Wentworth's Building, 146 Merrimack st.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Lowell and vicinity that he has constantly on hand the largest assortment of Musical Instruments in the State. A large assortment of Piano Fortes to let, from different manufactories. Also, Seraphines for sale and to let. A good assortment of new Pianos at very low prices.

Those wishing to have music in their families, will do well to call and examine my extensive stock.

J. A. would also give notice that he will attend to tuning and repairing Pianos, Seraphines and Church Organs in the best manner. Orders left at 146 Merrimack street, will be promptly attended to.

je15dly

FRENCH SHIRT BOSOMS.

A FRENCH woven Plaited BOSOMS, ready for insertion into Shirts, a new article saving much labor in sewing—just received a large assortment at

BRAZER'S, 47 Central st

je1

CALIFORNIA NOTICE.

LADIES or Gentlemen having Californian Gold, can have the same made into Rings and Pins at SANBORN'S Silver Spoon Manufactory and Jewelry Store, Post Office Corner.

je10*

JULY 4TH. 1853.

FIRMIN of Temperance will find a refreshing beverage at E. BUSH'S Soda Fountain, with every variety of syrups.

☞ Tickets for One Dollar.

Corner Central and Merrimack streets, under Rev. Mr Brewster's Church.

je13

ADELAIDE CLOTH,

A NEW ARTICLE for Ladies' Travelling Dresses, used by E. HOSFORD & CO.,

may19 No. 66 Merrimack st

FLOWERS.—Dahlias, Hyacinths, Narcissus, Jonquils, Gladiolus and Tulip Bulbs for sale by A. F. GROSVENOR, cor. Bridge and River sts., apr27 Centralville, Lowell.

SUFFOLK PIGS.—Also Breeding Sows of the purest blood and finest appearance in this County. For sale by

GEORGE W. WILSON,
Hudson, Mass.

may12d3tnsw

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscribers has been duly appointed administrators to the estate of MIRAM NICHOLS, late of Lowell, in the county of Middlesex, deceased, and has taken upon her self that trust by giving bonds as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of the said deceased are required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to the said estate, are called upon to make payment to

ABIGAIL NICHOLS, Adm'x.

Lowell, June 7, 1853. je8d3tnsw3w

SPRING TRIMMINGS.

NEW STYLES of Dress Trimmings of all descriptions just received and for sale by je7dly1y1 E. W. SCOTT.

RAILWAYS READY RELIEF for sale by A. F. GROSVENOR, cor. Bridge and River sts.

je9 Centralville.

A FULL SUPPLY of TOOLS, suitable for Carpenters, Cabinet Makers, Coachmakers, Piano and Organ Makers, and general purposes. Also Carpenters' Planes and Spokeshaves. For sale by Je11 72mb Merrimack street, Hamblett's Block.

CORN, OATS, AND MOLE EXTERMINATOR.—Wanted to purchase for sale by E. HOSFORD & CO., Jackson and Central sts., under the Church.

may21

LOWELL ISLAND.

The Hotel is now open under the charge of Mr GILMAN.

The Steamer ARGO will perform regular trips,

Leaving Lowell Island for Phillips's Wharf at 6.15, 7.30, 9.45 A. M., 2, 3.15, 6.30 P. M.

Phillips' Wharf for Lowell Island at 7, 8.30, 10.15 A. M., 12.30, 2.30, 5.45, 7.30 P. M.

* Via Beverly on Wednesday, and via Marblehead on Saturday.

Through tickets from Lowell to Lowell Island and back (including Railroad and Steamboat fares) are sold at One Dollar each, at Ticket Office of Salem and Lowell Railroad Company.

Passengers for Lowell Island be particular to call for Island Tickets. Island Tickets are good only from Lowell to Island and back. Passengers returning on No. 9 Check will be charge 6 90 cents extra.

je16dlf

To the Honorable the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court next to be holden at Lowell within and for the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, on the second Tuesday of April, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and fifty-three.

RHODA A. PLANDERS, whose maiden name is Rhoda A. Alexander, of Lowell in the County of Middlesex a oresaid, respectfully libels and gives this Honorable Court to be informed that on the twenty seventh day of January, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and forty-nine, at Grafton, in the County of Grafton in the State of New Hampshire, she was lawfully married by Jesse Cass a Justice of the Peace for said County of Grafton, to Hiram B. Flanders of Lawrence in the County of Essex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts aforesaid,—that for more than four years now last past she has resided at Lowell in the County of Middlesex aforesaid,—that after said marriage she and the said Hiram B. Flanders lived together as husband and wife at Lowell aforesaid for a long time, when the said Hiram B. Flanders deserted her and left said Lowell,—that your libellant ever since her intermarriage has conducted herself towards the said Hiram B as a faithful and affectionate wife; but that the said Hiram B., neglecting his marriage vows and duty, since the said marriage and at divers times from December, A. D. 1849 to March, A. D. 1850, committed the crime of adultery with one Louisa Tuck, at Danbury in the County of Grafton and State of New Hampshire aforesaid. And your libellant avers that the said Hiram B., regardless of his marriage vows and duty, on divers other days and times since the first day of December, A. D. 1849, and before the filing of this libel, has committed the crimes of adultery with sundry lewd women to your libellant unknown. Wherefore your libellant prays that the bonds of matrimony may be dissolved between her and the said Hiram B. Flanders, and that she may be allowed to resume her maiden name.

RHODA A. FLANDERS.

BLAISDELL & ABBOTT, Attys for Libellant.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, MIDDLESEX ss. Supreme Judicial Court at Lowell, Apr 1 Term, 1853

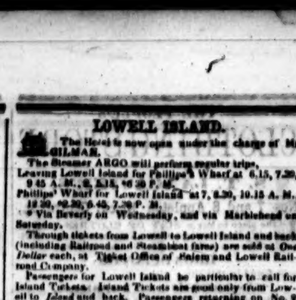
ON the foregoing Libel, Ordered, that the said Libellant notify the said Hiram B. Flanders to appear at the next term of said Court, to be holden at Cambridge within and for said County, on the third Tuesday of October next, by serving him with an attested copy of her said libel with this order thereon fourteen day s at least before the said third Tuesday of October next, or by publishing an attested copy of her said libel with this order thereon in the Lowell Daily Journal and Courier, a newspaper printed at Lowell aforesaid, three weeks successively, the last publication thereof to be thirty days at least before the said third Tuesday of October next, that he may then and there show cause (if any he have) why the prayer in said libel contained should not be granted.

SETH AMES, Clerk.

Copy of Libel and Order thereon.

je24dlaw3wFr SETH AMES, Clerk.

Fifty Tickets for One Dollar.



PURE PENTUCKET SODA WATER,
COOL AND SPARKLING,
Drawn at all seasons, by C. A. EASTMAN & CO.,
je16 Apothecaries, Wyman's Exchange.

STOVES! STOVES! STOVES!

DO YOU WANT A GOOD STOVE?

CALL at I. W. & D. BANGS', where you will find one of the largest and best assortments of COOKING STOVES ever offered for sale in Lowell, at BARSTOW & Co.'s BAY STATE and BANNER STOVES. These Stoves have a world-wide celebrity, and can be safely recommended, as there have been sold in the City of Lowell over 3,000 of them, a fact which speaks volumes in favor of these Stoves. Any good housewife who prides herself on having a well baked loaf of bread, can be better than to purchase of the above from the celebrated manufactory of A. C. Barstow & Co., Providence, R. I., and sold only by I. W. & D. BANGS.

I. W. & D. BANGS are also the only agents for the sale of those beautiful MANTEL PIECES, manufactured by the Pesabya Marble Co. These Mantels for durability and beauty surpass any thing in the market, and as they are furnished by order, are superior to the other Marbles. They have a room fitted with a beautiful samples of the above, where those who intend to build can examine them.

At their establishment also may be found the most desirable patterns of Hot Air Furnaces now in general use for the heating of Churches Stores and Dwellings. Those who wish to heat their buildings in a safe, neat and economical manner, are desired to call and see for them selves.

All kinds of Pump Work done to order.

☞ Agents for the sale of Cocoted Wooden Pumps.

I. W. & D. BANGS.
opposite Washington House, Central st.

Lowell, June 4, 1853. je6d1m

PURE ICE TO ORDER.

REGULATIONS FOR THE RETAIL TRADE 1853.

THE following quantities of ICE will be delivered at any part of the City at the prices named:

25 lbs. a week from May 1 to October 1, for		$1.00
100 " " "	"	3.00
225 " " "	"	5.00
300 " " "	"	6.00

100 lbs. for 50 cents, and any quantity above that at the same rate. If a ton is taken at a time a reasonable deduction will be made.

Families will be supplied the whole year at fair prices. Notice of change or residence if given to the driver, will always prevent disappointment.

Any customer leaving town for more than twenty days at a time, by giving notice to the driver will be entitled to a proper reduction. Without such notice no deduction will be made, but the ice will be left each day, the same as if such absence.

Complaints against the drivers for neglect, carelessness, or any other cause, must be made to the subscribers, and they will be promptly attended to.

☞ Orders left at Carleton & Hovey's, and at Ransom Reed's, WM. A. L. MacFARLAN, Near head of Pawtucket Falls.

apr30d3tm

Lowell, April 26, 1853

SOMETHING TO DRINK!!

A NEW, DELICIOUS
TEMPERANCE BEVERAGE,
AMBROSIAL MEAD!!

THIS excellent Compound is prepared from the best PURE SARSAPARILLA, without its dark, repulsive appearance, being entirely transparent, and entirely free from all impurities. Its qualities as a beverage for a single trial will give it a pre-eminence over all other preparations, by its freedom from noxious ingredients, agreeableness of flavor, and delightful sparkle, one bottle being sufficient to make thirty glasses of the beverage.

Caution!—The proprietors of the excellent preparation, having opened no agencies to bring it in competition, would caution purchasers to buy none but what has the fac simile of Wilson, Fairbank & Co., on every bottle.

WILSON, FAIRBANK & CO., 13 Hanover st., Boston.

For sale in Lowell by I. C. AYER & CO., S. RIDDER, Jr., and all the Druggists and Grocers throughout the country.

may17 2m

WATER CURE ESTABLISHMENT FOR SALE OR TO BE LEASED.

The grounds of the Old Water Establishment, situated on "Pleasant Heights" in Lowell, recently in New York, are beautifully laid out into walks, and are for the same on very favorable terms. The place is well and favorably known to the public as a flourishing Hydropathic Institution. It is within two minutes' walk of the centre of business in Lowell, but possesses all the advantages of an elevated and quiet residence. It will accommodate forty patients—and in its supply of pure water and bathing conveniences it presents superior advantages. It will be sold very low if early application is made. Possession given the first of June.

Address the subscribers, BLAKE & BROWN, New York City, or TAPPAN WENTWORTH, E. P. SHERMAN, Lowell.

May 28, 1853. may28d6t

A BEAUTIFUL COTTAGE RESIDENCE FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers his well-known place on Pawtucket street, for sale. It contains about 10,000 feet of land, upon which is erected a cottage of the most modern style, containing all the modern improvements. The house is of thorough build, in the modern arrangement, and in the most convenient form. The grounds, laid out and in a tasty and permanent manner, and there is every requisite, as to situation and the surroundings, for a delightful and pleasant residence.

The most easy terms would be given in the purchase of sale. Possession given about the first of July.

ABIEL ROLFE.

Lowell, 10th May, 1853.

NOTICE.

THE copartnership heretofore existing between Robert and Simeon Gardner, under the firm of R. & S. B. Gardner, is this day dissolved by the death of Robert Gardner. All persons therefore having demands against the said firm are hereby notified to present them for payment; and all persons indebted to the said firm are required to make immediate payment to Simeon Gardner, at his new manufactory, No. 45 Dutton st.

SIMEON GARDNER.

Lowell, April 26, 1853. may14d6m

FOR SALE.

A superior PIANO FORTE, just received from the manufactory, of Hallett Davis & Co., Boston, warranted for five years, to be sold at the lowest prices. Also, a few second hand Pianos, for sale or to let. Apply to W. P. ULMER, Wentworth's Building, (up stairs.)

March 5, 1853. mar5 6m

RUSH.

MRS. W. STEWART, formerly Miss Rush, is prepared to give instruction on the Piano Forte, in Lessons or Classes, on the corner of Appleton and Bridge sts., Lowell.

apr16d6f

SPECIAL NOTICE.

FRENCH PERIODICAL DROPS.

DR. C. A. HILL, corner Central and Jackson streets, Lowell, Mass., would say he has, at great expense, obtained from Dr. D. C. Harrington the original recipe for manufacturing, together with his plans for putting up the medicine known as the discovered by J. Harrington, M. D., while practising in the hospital in Paris, under the immediate observation of the renowned Biscord of Paris, and Acton of London.

FRENCH PERIODICAL DROPS,

The Drops are invariably certain to regulate the Female system, and can be taken without hazard. They are known by hundreds of females in this country to be the only preparation ever discovered that has proved invariably certain in all cases of Suppression, Irregularities, &c. One trial will convince the most skeptical, and never after will they be induced to try any other. Ladies who have often been deceived by purchasing Pills and Nostrums from Male and Female Impostors, under pretence of effecting cures, medicines which in nineteen cases out of twenty have an injurious effect upon the system, without effecting the desired result or any sign of it, should shun these hipocrites, and use none but the genuine French Periodical Drops, the efficacy of which has been tested in hundreds of cases and never failed to effect a speedy cure without any bad result. The Drops are the result of an extensive practice, and not discovered by accident. To enlighten their virtues would not add to their merits. We would only say, try them. They will be sent to any part of the country secure from observation, by addressing (post paid) Dr. C. A. HILL, Lowell, Mass.

Full directions accompanying each bottle. Price Five Dollars.

N. B. The usual discount to those that wish to sell again. je16dlf

DR. HILL,

The Celebrated Indian Doctor,

TAKES pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Lowell and other places, that his office is at the corner of Central and Jackson sts, over Ayer & Co.'s Apothecary Store,

A word to young men and others afflicted with Seminal Debility, whether originating from certain destructive habits, or from any other cause, with train of bodily and mental evils which follow when neglected, should make an early application, thereby avoiding much trouble and suffering, as well as expense. By his improved method of treatment, Dr. Hill can safely guarantee a safe and speedy cure in all cases of secret disease that may come under his care, no matter how long standing. Either sex are invited to his private rooms without fear of interruption by other patients, as hundreds are cured yearly by his practical experience and great remedies.

READ AND REFLECT. The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness, and in many cases their lives, in the hands of physicians ignorant of this class of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family are subject to.

YEARS OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the treatment and study of Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, effects of solitary habits, Ulcers upon the body, throat, nose or legs, Pain in the Head or Bones and all Mercurial Affections, and all impurities of the Blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, enables the Doctor to offer relief to all who may place themselves under his care.

TO FEMALES. All diseases peculiar to Females, as Suppressions, Irregularities, &c., speedily and effectually removed.

☞ The French Periodical Drops and Pills, for the above affections, have been well tested for the last ten years.

Dr. Hill's "Preventative," for married ladies, sent to any direction, secure from observation. Price $5. Persons at a distance may consult Dr. Hill by letter, (post paid) describing their case, can have medicine securely put up and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full and explicit directions for use. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that patients see none but the Doctor.

☞ Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Very respectfully,
Dr C. A. HILL,
Office cor. Central and Jackson sts.

Important to the Sick.

DR. C. A. HILL,

CORNER CENTRAL AND JACKSON STS, up stairs, INVITES the particular attention of invalids and the public to his new and successful method of treating diseases, by the use of Magnetic Electricity, and his new by discovered and unequalled principle of Magneto Electric Medicines. Years of careful study and scientific experiments in the preparation of remedial agents as a physician in a large and varied practice, have enabled Dr. H. to discover new methods of preparing, condensing and combining, so as to produce the most remarkable and happy results, and effect radical cures in all diseases of long standing, and in cases where the best medical skill in the use of common medicines have failed. Neuralgia, Spinal Disease, Consumption, Dyspepsia, Chronic Sore Throat, Chronic Rheumatism, Piles, Scrofula, Chills and Fever, Cutaneous Eruptions, Mind Diseases, Constitutional Debility, Nervous Affections, no matter from what cause they may arise, have all yielded to his new method of treatment, and those who, after suffering for years from these dis eases, have given up all hope of recovery, have by Dr. H. been safely conducted to the Temple of Health.

My medicines can be obtained of me in person or by letter, at this office, and of no other person or in any other place.

Lowell, June 18, 1853. je16tf

READ, AND BE BENEFITTED!

BALD HEADS SHALL BE NO LONGER BALD!!!

DR. Hall, has produced an article for bringing out hair on heads that have been bald for a number of years, and for preventing the hair from falling out of the head. It will also cure Scrofulous Heads and Nervous Headache. Perfect satisfaction or the money paid will be refunded. The following certificate, from among numerous others, must suffice for the present:

I hereby certify that, nine years ago, I lost my hair, by a fever. I tried in vain all the numerous compounds advertised for restoring the hair, without effect, and gave up all hopes of ever having a good head of hair. Three bottles of Dr. Hall's Hair Regenerator, I heard of W. H. Johnson's "Hair Restorative," and was induced to try it. I now have a good head of hair growing, which has been effected by the use of Johnson's Restorative. The truthfulness of the above may be ascertained by calling on me.

EMMA UNDERWOOD, No. 19 Paige street.

REMOVAL.

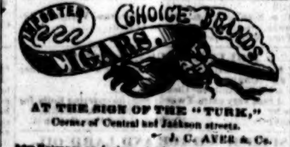
WM. B. JOHNSON has removed from No. 3 Bridge st to the shop lately occupied by Walker Lewis, in Emery's Building, Dutton st., where he will be happy to wait upon all those having bald heads or thin hair. Johnson's Hair Restorative for sale only by the inventor and manufacturer, Wm. B Johnson, Emery's Building, Dutton st.

Lowell, June 1, 1853. d1et

SPRING GOODS.

I have received, and am ready to exhibit at my store, No. 5 Canal Block, a well selected stock of CLOTHS, FANT GOODS and VESTINGS, of the various styles now in vogue, which I will make into Garments of approved style and workmanship, at very low prices. My friends and the public generally are invited to call, examine, and leave their orders.

DANIEL H. DEAN.



AT THE SIGN OF THE "TURK,"
Corner of Central and Jackson streets.

☞ Entrance on Jackson street. J. C. AYER & Co.

mar22

A BARGAIN

IN Brown Linen Table Covers, at HOSFORD'S, No. 66 Merrimack street.

je16 6 qs of the Big Stocking.

WOOLEN FACTORY FOR SALE OR TO LET,

SITUATED in Pelham, N. H., on the Shawsheen River, and known as the Peters' Factory. The Mill and Machinery are in first rate condition and in running order. Said Factory is suitable for the manufacture of Flannels or Fulled Cloth, and is an excellent stand for a Clothier.

For further particulars inquire of C. P. TALBOT & CO., City Market House, Lowell, Mass., or of JEREMIAH HILL, near the premises.

Lowell, June 14, 1853. je14tf

STORE TO LET.

The old and well known store now occupied by J. C. Ayer & Co. as an Apothecary Store. Possession given Jan. 1, 1854. Inquire of C. E. COBURN, 4 and 5 Mechanics' Building.

nov19dtf

LAND NEAR LOWELL FOR SALE.

THOSE desiring to obtain a lot of very superior Land for cultivation and eligibly situated for building, within a few minutes walk of the centre of Lowell will do well to apply, without delay, to

H. G. P. CARLISLE, 45 Dutton street.

Lowell, April 8, 1853. apr8tf

DRUG STORE FOR SALE.

THE complete stock of Drugs, Medicines, Fancy Goods, &c., of the best selection and quality, with the elegant Fixtures and Furniture of a well-known Apothecary's Stand in this city, with the lease of the same. Apply at this office.

Lowell, July 2, 1852. may5tf

TO LET.

Two commercial Tenements in Centralville. Apply to A. F. GROSVENOR.

may17

TWO HOUSES FOR SALE.

A genteel two story House on the south side of Tyler Street in Lowell, next east of the house now occupied by Rev. J. Tyrrel.

A double two story House on the west side of Gorham street, near Appleton street. The Durham street horse car runs by these two pieces of land.

A large part of the purchase money will be left on mortgage. For further particulars inquire of Hon. TAPPAN WENTWORTH, or

CHARLES N. SHORT.

Lowell, May 18, 1853. may19dtf

OFFICES TO LET.

Two pleasant and convenient Offices on the corner of Central and Jackson streets, will be rented cheap. Apply to I. C. AYER & CO.

may11 Apothecaries.

YOUNG BLACK HAWK.

This well known and beautiful Stud Horse will be kept at the Washington House Stables through the season. Those interested in improving the breed of horses are invited to call.

may14dtf

SUGAR CURED HAMS.

Just received, and for sale by retail, by WM. PEARSON & Co., Corner Merrimack and Prescott streets.

may14 Those wishing to purchase Sugar Cured Hams, will find it to their interest to call.

A REMEDIAL HEAD.

A strong, pleasant and healthy beverage for the temperance man, can be had at the bottle, glass or gross at the temperance depot of S. RIDDER, Jr., who is appointed the proprietor's agent.

may14

NEW GOODS.

—Two Looms from Penny's Cot. for sale, received at HERRILL & STRAW'S, je8 20 Central st.

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

DOGS! DOGS!! DOGS!!!

Owners and keepers of Dogs are hereby notified that on and after the first day of May next, the Ordinances relating to Dogs will be strictly enforced.

By order of the Mayor and Aldermen.

EDWIN L. SHED, City Marshal.

City of Lowell, April 11, 1853. ap11d3m

CITY CLAIMS.

In Committee on Accounts, Jan. 10, 1853.

ORDERED, That hereafter the Quarterly Salary Bills duly approved, be presented to the Auditor on or before the 25th of March, June, September and December, and that they be payable on the first day of the month next succeeding.

2d. That all Pauper bills be presented to the Auditor on or before the first day of each month.

3d. That all other Bills be made up to include the last day of each month, and that, duly approved, they be presented to the Auditor on or before the third day of each month, and be payable on the tenth.

All Bills not approved and presented as above, willlie over until the next month.

STEPHEN MANSUR,
ALPHA STEVENS,
CALEB G. WEAVER,
HENRY H. WILDER,
C. P. BLANCHARD,
Committee.

☞ The Auditor's Office is in City Hall. Office hours from 8 to 12, A. M., and from 2 to 5 o'clock, P. M.

jan14 TuFtf

WATCHES,

JEWELRY,

—AND—

SILVER WARE!

AMOS SANBORN,

Post Office Corner, No. 33 Central street,

HAS now on hand a LARGER assortment than all the other dealers in Lowell of

FINE SILVER AND GOLD WATCHES,

warranted time keepers.

RICH JEWELRY, in great variety of styles.

SILVER WARE, consisting of PITCHERS, WAITERS, KETTLES, TEA SETS, PORKS, SPOONS, and Fancy Silver for PRESENTS.

PLATED WARES—BASKETS, TEA SETS, WAITERS, CASTORS, &c., as handsome as Silver.

Fine Table Cutlery and Britannia Ware, English and American.

☞ All of the above will be sold cheap for cash. I can sell cheaper than any one sells in Lowell, and as cheap as can be bought in Boston or New York, as I am manufacturing many of my goods, and such as I do not manufacture I have direct from the manuf

FAMILIES.

AMERICAN AGENCY OFFICE,

Agency for Business and Dental Notes Patent Office Specimens.

NO. 32 STATE STREET, BOSTON.

HERSTMAN, PROPRIETOR.

The undersigned, from Agents of the U. S. Patent Office, and Solicitors of Patents, in the United States, and Europe, together with the Examiners of the Patent Office, and the Judges of the Supreme Court, will procure patents in those countries, and attend to the prosecution of claims before the Patent Office, and the Courts of the United States, and Europe, and will also procure Patents for Inventions, Designs, Trade Marks, Labels, Copyrights, and Assignments, and will

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Saturday, July 9, 1853.

The celebration in this city on Monday next, will be, in accordance with the request of the Committee of Arrangements, a quiet one. In its kind, that has been projected within the limits of

PATENTS.
AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for WARREN'S Third Rotal Power Cot-ton Gin.
WASHINGTON
No. 20 STATE STREET, BOSTON.
IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The undersigned, Solicitors of Patents for the United States, and for foreign countries, respectfully inform inventors, mechanics, manufacturers, and others, that they have prepared the pamphlet by Mr. THERY, containing the Patent Laws of the United States, and the manner in which to obtain them; it contains also the Patent Laws of England, France, Belgium, Prussia, and other countries, and directions how to proceed in obtaining patents in each; also, a synopsis of the decisions of the Commissioner of Patents, and other matters interesting to inventors. This pamphlet will be sent gratis to all who may apply for it by letter (post paid) addressed to MUNN & CO., Publishers of the Scientific American, New York.
The present facilities of this office for the transaction of business before the Patent Office at Washington, are unsurpassed by any establishment in the country. All the drawings and specifications, and other papers and drawings, for procuring patents in the United States, or in any foreign country, are prepared at this office.
Inventors who have made improvements, and who wish to ascertain if they are new, can learn how to proceed by addressing MUNN & CO.
Models of inventions should be sent to the office in New York, by the Adams Express, or other conveyance; they should be addressed to the care of MESSRS. MUNN & CO., Scientific American Office, 128 Fulton street, New York.
MUNN & CO. have also established an agency in Washington, D. C., for the purpose of procuring patents there, and all business entrusted to their care will be promptly attended to.
Reference may be had to the Hon. Commissioners of Patents, Washington, D. C.
H. B. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.
Washington, March 1, 1853. 3m

A. STTREDGE,
MIDDLE STREET,
3500 ROLLS PAPER HANGINGS—Just received, a large and handsome assortment of Paper Hangings, which will be sold low.
Also, a large and new assortment of Curtain Fixtures, Gilt Cornices, Window Shades, &c. Also, Paper Hangings for sale by applying as above. Lowell, March 29. 3m*

THE ABOLITIONAL MEDICINE.
THIS RENOWNED INVIGORATING and Healing Medicine, has been introduced into the United States, and is now offered to the public. For sale by the agent, where it can be had by the quart, pint or gallon, at the Drug Store of JOHN C. PARKER, Lowell, Mass. Also, by the following agents: Dr. Tarbell and Winslow Glue, for sale by druggists generally. may 10 3m

CHINA, CROCKERY, GLASS, CUTLERY,
AND
GROCERIES & COUNTRY PRODUCE.
JUST OPENING at the old Crockery Stand of Robinson & Hosmer, No. 2 Merrimack Square, and 1 Shattuck st., and No. 7 John st., a large assortment of English and French CHINA Tea and Dinner Sets.
Also, stock of CHINA VASES, Colognes, Cake and Card Baskets, Fancy Goods, &c. Also, a full assortment of Crockery, ware of all kinds, Glass, Cutlery, &c.
Our stock of Groceries will be well selected and very low for cash.
In our GROCERY Department we have a good assortment of Teas, Coffees, Sugars, Spices, Molasses, &c.
Also, a full assortment of Country Produce at store prices.
☞ We offer our goods low for cash, and shall be pleased to receive a call from our friends and customers.
ROBINSON & HOSMER.
Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

FRESH GOODS & BOKER,
NEW GROCERY STORE,
No. 1 MARKET SQUARE,
OPPOSITE THE DEPOT.
HAVE just received a large and well selected stock of Groceries, which they will sell at the lowest cash prices. Their stock consists in part of Teas, Coffees, Sugars, Spices, Molasses, Rice, Starch, Saleratus, Soda, Pepper Sauce, Tobacco, Cigars, Cream Soda and Sugar Crackers, Pickles, Preserves, Fruits, Nuts, Raisins, Figs, Candies, Pipes, Snuff, Matches, Brooms, Brushes, Buckets, Tubs, Washboards, Clothes Pins, Clothes Lines, Starch Polish, Blacking, Indigo, Copperas, Madder, Logwood, Fluting and Orange Paper, Wrapping Paper, Twine, Cotton Wick, Lamp Wick, Lamp Burners, Chimneys, Shades, &c.
Also, a large assortment of Yankee Notions, which they will sell low for cash.
Lowell, Feb. 1853. 3m

NEW TAILORING SALOON,
Over Bachelder's Jewelry Store,
No. 12 MERRIMACK SQUARE.

New Freight Arrangement
BETWEEN LOWELL AND NEW YORK.
COMMERCIAL STEAM TRANSPORTATION LINE.
Goods transported between Lowell and New York as cheap and with more dispatch than by any other line.
The boats of this Line is to Providence on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, at 5 P. M., and to Fall River on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 5 P. M., and will run regularly the season, and from there to Providence and Fall River.
Goods to be forwarded to Philadelphia and Baltimore at the most reasonable rates.
Steamboats and cars will be in readiness to receive and transport to fully inform themselves as to the advantages of this line, before shipping or making contracts.
For further information apply to WM. JOURDAN, of Lowell, Mass., or to A. P. GROSVENOR, Agent, Pier No. 1, North River, foot of Murray st., New York.
Lowell, Feb. 1853. 3m

SPRING STOCK AND STYLISH CLOTHS
FOR GENTS is constantly added to the old customers of the subscriber.
No. 4, William's Block, on Central Bridge.
Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

A. WILLIAMS,
Successor to Wm. Hall & Co.,
DEALER IN
PLAINED TABLE CASTORS,
HANGING LAMPS, Girandoles, Solar Lamps, Gilt Cornices, Window Shades, &c.
No. 3 Merrimack Square, Lowell.
Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

FRUIT TREES.
THE subscriber has for sale a large assortment of Fruit Trees, consisting of Apple, Pear, Peach, Plum, Cherry, Quince, Grape Vines, Currants, Gooseberries, Raspberries, Strawberries, Asparagus, Rhubarb, Horseradish, Flowering Shrubs, Roses, Dahlias, Evergreens, &c., &c.
Also, Seeds of all kinds, Fertilizers, Implements, &c., &c.
Catalogues may be had at the store of Messrs. Hovey & Co., Boston, or at the Garden.
SAMUEL WYMAN.
Charlestown, March 1, 1853. 3m

PROF. ALEC C. BARRY'S PRINCIPAL DEPOT, FOR THE SALE OF
HIS CELEBRATED PREPARATIONS,
THE efficacy of this justly celebrated combination for the cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and lungs, has been proved by such a universal test of experience, that it is now deemed unnecessary to offer any testimony of its virtues. Suffice it to say, that the sale of this article has increased to such an extent, that the proprietor is now enabled to refer to the testimony of thousands of persons who have been cured by the use of it, after all other remedies had failed to produce any beneficial effect. Let the afflicted read the following certificate, and be convinced that there is a remedy for their complaints:
Mr. Barry—Dear Sir: I was cured of a severe cough and pain in the breast, by the use of your Pectoral Balsam, after I had been confined to my bed for three months, and had given up all hopes of ever recovering my health. I have since recommended it to many persons, and in every instance it has proved a blessing to the afflicted. Yours, &c.,
MARY ANN MILLER.
Sold by the proprietor, 120 Canal st., New York, and by druggists generally throughout the United States and Canada.
Lowell, Jan. 1, 1853. 6m

NEW GOODS.
CHEAP FOR CASH.
THE SUBSCRIBER is now receiving a large and well selected stock of Staple and Fancy Goods, which he will sell at the lowest cash prices. Among his stock will be found a large assortment of Prints, Ginghams, Muslins, Cambrics, Lawns, Tickings, Sheetings, Shirtings, Flannels, Cassimeres, Satinets, Vestings, Cloths, Hosiery, Gloves, Shawls, Handkerchiefs, Ribbons, Laces, Edgings, Insertings, Collars, Sleeves, Bonnets, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Crockery, Glass, Cutlery, Groceries, &c., &c.
Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

WHITTIER & CO'S LAUNDRY,
No. 3 Merrimack Square, Lowell.
POLISHING! The subscribers would inform their friends and the public that they have taken the above rooms, and have fitted them up in the most complete manner for the purpose of doing all kinds of Laundry work, and are now prepared to receive and return work in the shortest notice. Gentlemen's linen done up in the best manner, and warranted not to injure the finest fabric. Ladies' dresses, Crapes, Collars, Sleeves, Laces, Muslins, Cambrics, Linens, &c., done up in the most approved style. Shirts done up in the most approved style, and warranted not to injure the finest fabric. Ladies' dresses, Crapes, Collars, Sleeves, Laces, Muslins, Cambrics, Linens, &c., done up in the most approved style. Shirts done up in the most approved style, and warranted not to injure the finest fabric.
Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

ROSEMARY SOAP.
THE ROSEMARY SOAP is a superior article for washing the hair, and is highly recommended by those who have used it. It is also a superior article for washing the face and person, and is highly recommended by those who have used it. It is also a superior article for washing the face and person, and is highly recommended by those who have used it.
Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

Lovet's Wahpene
WILL restore Gray Hair to its original color, and prevent it from falling off. It will cause new hair to grow on bald heads, and prevent baldness. It will keep the hair soft and glossy, and prevent it from falling off. It will cause new hair to grow on bald heads, and prevent baldness. It will keep the hair soft and glossy, and prevent it from falling off.
Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

JOSEPH BERRETT,
Dealer in Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods,
No. 3 Merrimack Square, Lowell.
Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

LOVET'S WAHPENE.
THE subscriber has for sale a large assortment of Lovet's Wahpene, which he will sell at the lowest cash prices.
Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

FOR SALE,
PATENT RIGHT for the Counties of Essex, Middlesex, Norfolk, Bristol, Plymouth, Barnstable, Dukes and Nantucket, in the State of Massachusetts, for the sale of a valuable invention for the manufacture of Boots and Shoes. For further information apply to the subscriber, at his residence, No. 10 Central street, Lowell.
Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

NAVAL STORES and SHIP CHANDLERY,
AT WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.
THE subscriber has for sale a large assortment of Naval Stores and Ship Chandlery, which he will sell at the lowest cash prices.
Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

PAPER WAREHOUSE.
Cyrus W. Field & Co.,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
No. 11 CHATHAM STREET,
NEW YORK,
Are Sole Agents in the United States for
MESSRS. JOHN DICKINSON & CO.'S
Manufactures of Writing Papers.
Consisting of Foolscap, Commercial, Bill, Note, Letter, Cap, Drawing, Blotting, Printing, Wrapping, Envelope, Tissue, Copying, Colored and Fancy Papers.
Also,

Daily Journal & Courier.
Lowell, Tuesday, July 4, 1865.

"The Battle is Fullen!"—Fourth of July has passed.

☞ Independence Day—to day in the year equal to the Fourth of July. Of vulgar days the calendar is full. But yesterday was an vulgar day. It was the anniversary of a mighty episode in the progress of the world. As we looked in the life of man, it has few rivals, and but one superior. Glancing from one point to episode in our own country, we can discern with how constant is that silent progress of the ends of which the nation is as powerful as it is invisible. From map in a state of nature to one in a state of artificiality—from man in the infancy of liberty—from man in the infancy of forces by which the Revolution was achieved. From the whole nation, we may derive new and numerous heroisms to imitate our ancestors—to their fidelity to God and to Liberty!

But an empty stomach turns from all this, and demands a dinner for the inner man. So we all make off speedily to the great Hall, to partake of a good Thirteian dinner. We have a grace before meat from our Chaplain, and we all vie with each other in the work of destruction. During one full hour, a thousand pairs of jaws live, in many pairs of quarts, chaw, cut up Thistle's viands in carnivorous mode. But we have a catalogue of toasts to come yet, and we must stop eating soon, or those will never be got off.—All feel this, and Mr Tenniswise Gardiner announces—the first regular toast."

The Day we Celebrate—Day to be had in remembrance—Day to be observed with appropriate ceremonies—Day to be kept holy and never to be heard of in vain.

The second regular toast:

The memory of our Fathers—Their example.

No response being made to this, we hear the third regular toast:

The Memory of David Webster, the great Defender of Constitutional Liberty—a Martyr to the Cause—whose words on the Bunker Hill monument will cause the action of the generations to come, as long as the granite shall endure.

Great departed, taken the floor, and addresses us on the consistency of Mr Webster's public life—"From long years of active service in the cause of Freedom, Progress and Humanity."

Mr Hedges, Secretary of the occasion, appreciative and characteristic response to the above. Several volunteers were offered, which we do not hear; music was discovered from the boat and from the juvenile class of Mr I. N. Metcalf's school, which the company dispersed in high spirits.

During the afternoon, the streets were thronged by thousands of visitors and by all conveyances; some are of the opinion that Lowell never saw so many strangers before. In the evening, a fine pyrotechnic display was made from the North Common. Many of the pieces were entirely new and beautiful in the highest degree. Not until near midnight did the display of rockets in many places of the city, cease. But the end of last night was not the end of all that pertains to this wonderful system that comes at once. At two o'clock, our people were all in bed. The 4th had passed and could no more be brought back, than the 4th of July 1776 could be brought back. As Napoleon said to the Guards at Waterloo, "It is all over."

Correspondence of the Journal and Courier.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, 30th June, 1865.

As the warm weather approaches, this celebrated watering place begins to fill with its many years the favorite resort of the affluent, who seek in nature's unbroken the relief which they can not find elsewhere, gradually gathered here in search of variety. The invalid is here, in search of health, and the pleasure seeker, allured by its pleasures and its beauties, while the sober man of business finds in its refreshing shades a happy retreat from the turmoil and bustle of the world. With truth may it be said that nature and art have combined to render it one of the loveliest spots in existence. Every thing here has an air of pleasantness and comfort. The main street, on which are situated all the principal hotels, is a mile in length, and a hundred and fifty feet in width, adorned on either side by lofty trees, which afford a cool retreat from the scorching rays of the sun; while in the outskirts of the village, picturesque and beautifully diversified scenery everywhere greets the eye. The place, too, is hallowed in the history of the struggle for American liberty and independence. A few miles from the centre of the town was the scene of the defeat and surrender of General Burgoyne, and all around repose the ashes of the many patriots who fell, manfully resisting the tyrannical oppression of the mother country.

Within the narrow circuit of a mile are enclosed nearly all the Springs, now more than twenty in number, to which in the early morning flock alike the healthy and the sick. From five to twelve numbers full usually constitute a dose, and though at first one would hardly be inclined to pronounce the water nectar-like in taste, yet soon all unpleasantness is done away and it is drunk with pleasure as a delicious beverage. The medicinal qualities in solution by the various fountains, are nearly the same in all, consisting chiefly of chloride of sodium, (salt) bicarbonate of magnesia, soda and carbonate of lime and iron, yet in such different proportions as these are combined, that two springs resemble each other, either in taste or in the effect which their waters produce on the system.

The most celebrated and by far the most frequented spring, is the "Congress," which was discovered in 1792 by ex-Governor Gilman of New Hampshire, while on a hunting excursion with his brother, and named in honor of the United States Congress, of which he was at that time a member. The surface of this well is covered with a box, in the centre of which a pump may be applied to the criticism on the word herbal, and to that on the word aber. Now, I do not believe in the use of the word Sumner, as our dance-reviver supposes, but I do not see why, by whom he was known and loved.

Accuracy is a virtue of the press. We have a man named Hildreth had one of his hands crushed by the bursting of a gun yesterday in Chelmsford.

☞ Hon. Geo. S. Hillard's Speech, before the Democratic Convention of Suffolk, on the great reconstruction question, is second only in point of ability to Governor Andrew's celebrated speech.

☞ Victor Hugo said in a discourse over the grave of a French soldier at the Isle of Jersey, that "England was covered with publicans and fools." He claimed that the French republicans had established "political falsehood."

☞ Excuse omissions to-day

LATEST DATES.
From Liverpool.....June 24
From London.....June 24

Mail Arrangements.

Boston at 6, 11 A. M., and 2, 7, 10 Northern at 7 A.M.
Nashua at 6, 11 A. M., and 2, 7, 10 P. M.
Lowell at 6, 11 A. M., and 2, 7, 10 P. M.
Sunday trains at 7, 11 A. M., and 7 P. M.
Other trains leave Lowell at 7 A. M., 12 M., 2, 5 P. M.

Boston at 8, 11 A. M., and 2, 5, 7 P. M. Lowell at 10 A. M., 12 M., 2, 5 P. M.
Other trains leave Boston at 7 A. M., 12 M., 2, 5 P. M.

Salem at 8, 11 A. M., and 2, 5, 7 P. M. Lowell at 10 A. M., 12 M., 2, 5 P. M.
Other trains leave Salem at 7 A. M., 12 M., 2, 5 P. M.

Boston at 8, 11 A. M., and 2, 5, 7 P. M. Lowell at 10 A. M., 12 M., 2, 5 P. M.
Other trains leave Boston

A. KITTREDGE,

MIDDLE STREET,

1500 DOLLS PAPER HANGINGS—Just received, 15 cases from Sheldon's celebrated paper manufactory, Hartford, Ct.

Also, a large assortment of Gilt Mouldings, Window Shades, Curtain Fixtures, &c., &c., all of which will be sold low for cash, or exchanged for rags, at the old stand of the subscriber, Middle street, Lowell.

N. B. Lowell, Nashua and Concord Railroad Corporation, Boston, Mass., and Nashua, N. H. Office, Clerk and Station Agent, &c., wanted.

Lowell, Dec. 1, 1852. dec1

NEW TAILORING SALOON.

Over Robinson's Grocery Store,

Just Call and Examine!

Where may be found a fresh supply of the latest FASHIONABLE CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS, SILKS, CRAVATS, HOSIERY, &c., &c., which will be made up in the best possible manner.

Try us once, and you will certainly call again.

D. B. COLBY, Jr.

Lowell, Feb., 1853. 3m6

New Freight Arrangement

BETWEEN LOWELL AND BOSTON.

COMMERCIAL LINE STEAM FREIGHT BOATS

ARE NOW RUNNING

DAILY BETWEEN THE ABOVE PORTS.

Goods consigned to the Agent at Lowell will be forwarded to Boston by the Steamers leaving Lowell every morning, Sundays excepted, at 10 o'clock, and arrive in Boston the same afternoon.

Goods taken by Steamers leaving Boston at 5 P. M. daily, Sundays excepted, will be forwarded to Lowell the following morning.

Goods taken for Philadelphia and Baltimore at the lowest rates.

Merchants and shippers of goods will find it to their interest to give this line a trial, as it is the intention of the proprietors to spare no pains to accommodate the public, and to forward goods with dispatch.

Further information apply to W. H. JOURDAN, of Lowell, Agent, at the Freight House, Central street, or to S. SUPPER, agent, foot of Battery March street, Boston.

BOAT CONDUCTORS.—Wm. H. Jourdan, Lowell; S. Supper, Boston; Jesse Tracy, Lowell; P. P. WILLIAMS, N. Roseberry, Lowell. 3m6

SPRING STOCK AND STYLES CLOTHS

JOHN GODDARD respectfully informs his old customers and the public that he has just returned from Boston with a large and well selected assortment of which he will make to order, for cash or approved credit, at No. 3, Merrimack Block, on Central Bridge, where may be found a superior stock of CLOTHS, which he will sell low for cash or to punctual customers.

Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings,

Lowell, March 1, 1853. mch1

COTTON DUCK, CORDAGE, TWINE.

RAVEL, STOVER and HALL CHANLERY,—and a variety of other articles suitable to the country and coast trade.

Orders received on consignment, or in boats at the wharf.

Liberal cash or approved credit given for shipping produce, and by transportation by Railroad, into Lowell, Nashua, Manchester, Concord, Portsmouth, Dover, Exeter, Newburyport, Haverhill, &c. All goods sold are delivered free of cost to the purchaser.

Boston, Feb. 1, 1853. 3m5

THE undersigned, having had many years experience in the sale of Boots and Shoes, and having purchased the entire stock of Messrs. Bancroft & Co., at a great bargain, is now prepared to offer to the trade and to purchasers generally, a stock of goods unsurpassed in this city for cheapness and quality.

Those wishing to purchase will find it to their interest to call at No. 3 Merrimack Block, on Central Bridge, where may be found a superior stock of CLOTHS, which he will sell low for cash or to punctual customers.

Lowell, March 1, 1853. mch1

Lovet's Wahpene

WILL restore Gray Hair to its original color, and PROMOTE BALDNESS, beyond a doubt. To satisfy the public of the truth of the above, the proprietor refers to Messrs. Thomas Frazer, Esq., Post Boston; Rev. Mr. Hall, Methodist Church, Lowell; Rev. Mr. Hall, Methodist Church, Nashua; Rev. Mr. Hall, Methodist Church, Manchester; Rev. Mr. Hall, Methodist Church, Concord; to Dr. Lovett's Wahpene, which restored SIXTY to their natural color. Also, to Messrs. Hall & Co., Boston, who have sold between 2 and 3000 bottles of the Wahpene, which have restored gray hair to its perfectly idle, and look at the wall, not then less than idleness, let me know it, and you may rest assured, Sir, ... When we are

... I will be led by feeling in the
... to the capitol, to watch their
... to the ... of their work etc.
... to the ... of their work etc.
... to the ... of their work etc.

A. KITTREDGE,
MIDDLE STREET.

1500 ...

PHILIP, GOODRUE & BOWKER,
RAILROAD FREIGHT STATION,
SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.

COAL, ...

Lovet's Wahpene

CHINA, CROCKERY, GLASS, CUTLERY,
GROCERIES & COUNTRY PRODUCE.

TRUE AMMONIAL BRAND!

HOW IS THE TIME TO USE IT.

PLATED TABLE CASTORS.

LOOK OUT FOR THE FIRE!

PROF. ALEX. C. BARRY'S TRICOPHERUS, OR MEDICATED COMPOUND.

NEW Freight Arrangement
BETWEEN LOWELL AND NEW YORK.
COMMERCIAL LINE STEAMERS.

SPRING STOCK AND STYLES CLOTH AND CLOTHING.

SPALDING'S GLUE,
FOR HOUSEHOLD, MECHANICAL & ARTISTIC USES.

1000 ...

500 ...

FACTORY TO YOUNG MEN.

JEWELRY, &c.

BRIGHT & CARTER,
BEEF, PORK, LARD, HAM, POULTRY, BUTTER,
VEGETABLES, &c.

CROCKERY, PLATED WARE, AND CUTLERY.

PLATED WARE OF THE FIRST QUALITY.

PINEAPPLE CHEESE, of superior flavor, ...

LADIES AND JOURNAL for 1853. ...

FOR JULY. ...

PATTERNS WANTED. ...

FOR SALE. ...

NEW BOOKS.—Just Rich's Wide Awake and Rachel Overton—or What Can Be Did at School. ...

Hudson Firestone—A Novel, by Catherine Stuckly. ...

LADIES AND JOURNAL for Sale.—Descriptive Catalogue of Valuable Books, Nos. 5, 6, 7, 8, ...

NEW BOOKS.—The Discovery of the Country, by Mrs. Sarah J. Hale; Lucy Hooper's Voyage to the Fairies, ...

FOR SALE. ...

BOOTS AND SHOES. ...

BOOTS AND SHOES. ...

BOOTS AND SHOES

...found, ...ment, ...ing, ...ment, ...ment, ...ment

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XVIII. FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 8, 1853. NO. 4119

WEST INDIA GOODS, GROCERIES, CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES, COUNTRY PRODUCE, PAINTS, DYESTUFFS

No. 82 CENTRAL, and 1 and 2 LOWELL BLOCK, Near the corner of Merrimack street, LOWELL.

Sugars, Teas, Coffees, Molasses, Syrups, Spices, Saleratus, Soda, Starch, Rice, Pepper, Cloves, Cassia, Ginger, Nutmegs, Mace, Cream Tartar, Saltpetre, Sal Soda, Copperas, Blue Vitriol, Alum, Fruits, Nuts, Pickles, Sauces, Pepper Sauce, Mustard, Ground and Unground Pepper, Mustard, Chocolate, Cocoa, Flour, Pearl Barley, Farina, Hominy, Oatmeal, Pearl Sago, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Macaroni, Pepper, Cheese, Candles, Soap, Matches, Brooms, Brushes, Starch, Blacking, and a general assortment of COUNTRY PRODUCE—Pork, Lard, Butter, Cheese, Beef, Hams, Tallow, Dried Apples, &c.

SALE PRICES, for Cash or Approved Credit, as low as the lowest. Orders from the country promptly attended to, and goods delivered at the depot in Lowell, free of charge.

Lowell, March 26, 1853. mch26 dtf

THE Subscriber and assignees of Josiah Bell Jr. will have to close up the business of the late firm of Josiah Bell Jr. & Co. Those indebted to said firm will please call and settle their accounts without delay. JOSIAH BELL JR.

Lowell, March 26, 1853. mch26

SPRING STOCK AND STYLES CLOTHS AND CLOTHING.

JOHN QUINN respectfully informs his old customers and the public generally, that he has received his Spring Stock of Goods, and is now prepared to cut and make to the best advantage.

No. 6 William's Block, on Central Bridge, where he has opened a store for the sale of CLOTH, which he is prepared to cut and make to the best advantage.

Lowell, March 26, 1853. mch26

THIS ROOM, Tailoring and Cloth Business, will be rented to a good tenant on reasonable terms. For sale by the piece, yard or cut to order, a large assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, &c. Also, a good assortment of Ready Made Clothing. Inquire of JOHN QUINN.

Lowell, March 26, 1853. mch26

IS THE TIME TO DYE IT.

U. WILKINS, No. 16 Merrimack street, Lowell, is the first establishment in the city where you can get all manner of the Scotch, Canadian, Belt, Domestic, and other Woolen Yarns, Stockings, Mittens, Comforters, &c., dyed to any desired color. Also, Carpets, Rugs, &c., are daily in output at the shortest notice. Also, Ladies' Dresses, Shawls, Scarfs, &c., dyed and finished in the best manner. Orders from the country promptly attended to. Goods taken and returned by express. Dyeing done by the pound. Yarns for sale. Only agent in Lowell, E. RIDGE, jr.

Lowell, March 26, 1853. mch26

CHINA, CROCKERY, GLASS, CUTLERY, GROCERIES & COUNTRY PRODUCE.

JUST OPENING at the corner of Merrimack and Middle streets, No. 2 John st., a large assortment of the above goods, which will be sold low for cash. Also, the stock of CHINA YARD, which will be sold at cost. Any one wishing to buy a good stand will find this a rare chance. Also, one of the best Milch Cows in Lowell for sale. Inquire as above.

Lowell, March 26, 1853. mch26

TABLE CUTLERY.

In our BASEMENT Department we have a good assortment of Table Cutlery, which we offer at low prices. We offer Ox-arm and Cumberland Table Knives and Forks, Ivory and Buck Handles, Carving Knives and Forks, Steels, Plated Table Castors, Britannia Ware, Tea Trays, Waiters, &c. Our stock of Groceries and Country Produce is well selected and very low for cash. Our Goods are all new and fresh. Call and see us at the Basement Store, No. 2 Merrimack street, Lowell. Entrance on Merrimack street, or through the Passage-way from Central street.

Lowell, March 26, 1853. mch26

PLATED TABLE CASTORS.

I HAVE on hand a variety of Plated Table Castors, at 4, 5 and 7 dollars, for sale very cheap.

Lowell, March 26, 1853. mch26 tf

SEED SOWER—Improved Patent Seed Sowers for sale at the Agricultural Warehouse of the Subscriber, 124 Central st. Lowell. JOHN CLARK. apr19

PARKS FOR SALE.

The subscriber is agent to sell several Farms, situated in Dracut, Tyngsboro', Chelmsford and Westford. H. G. P. CADWELL.

A HORSE and Wagon for sale cheap. Inquire of Capt. Chapel, at the Depot. mch26

MACHINE SHOP TO LET.

TO LET for the remainder term of a lease, the building on Jackson street, Lowell, now occupied by Messrs. Whittier & Co. as a Machine Shop. Also, the privilege of the steam power, with boiler and fixtures connected therewith. Inquire of the subscriber, or of Messrs. HARGRAVES & CO.

WHITTIER & CO.'S LAUNDRY STARCH POLISH! The Starch Polish used in the Laundries of the Agent, as mentioned in their circulars, is for sale at the Laundry, corner of Merrimack and Bridge streets, Lowell. mch26

BEAUTIFUL TEETH.

CARLTON & BOYES, Apothecaries, near City Hall, Lowell, have just received a fresh supply of Dr. Sheffield's Tooth Powder, which is highly recommended by the faculty as a preparation for the preservation of the teeth and gums. Also, Dr. Sheffield's Liquid Dentrifice, which is the best article in the market for cleansing the teeth. Also, Dr. Sheffield's Tooth Paste, for sale by CARLTON & BOYES, Apothecaries, near City Hall, Lowell. mch26

BUILDING HARDWARE.

CUT Lead Pumping Rubber, the best quality; Hemp Packing, Steam Gauges, Steam Whistles, Glass Globes, Lamp Burners and Lamp Trimmings, Files, &c., &c.—with a full assortment of Locks and Knobs, and all kinds of Hardware, for sale by JOHN C. HOWE & CO. 3 Merrimack street, and 2 Prescott Block. mch26

WRITING & AMERICAN STATIONERY.

THE Subscriber is constantly receiving a large assortment of Writing Paper, manufactured to order, expressly for his trade, which he offers to Dealers and Country Traders at prices below the usual rates. Also, a full assortment of Letter and Note Papers, Envelopes, Drawing Paper, Pocket Books, Wallets, Blank Books, Pens, Pencils, Inks, Sealing Wax, Wafers, Playing Cards, Tobacco, Cigars, &c. Also, Publisher of the Lowell Directory. All orders for Printing promptly executed. JAMES F. WALKER, Stationer and Bookseller, Merrimack Square.

"DON MOORE."

MOORE'S Patent Fluid Lamp, for burning Camphene, Burning Fluid, Oil, &c., &c., for sale by JAS. F. WALKER, Merrimack Square.

CAMPHENE, pure Yellow Corn, per cask or bottle, for sale by JAS. F. WALKER, Merrimack Square.

BOX PAPER.

FOR sale by the box, Royal Demy and Medium Wrapping Paper, at the lowest prices, by JAS. F. WALKER, Merrimack Square.

KENDALL'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

KENDALL'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY, for sale by JAS. F. WALKER, Merrimack Square.

VEGETINE.

VEGETINE, for sale by JAS. F. WALKER, Merrimack Square.

ASTHMA REMEDY.

ASTHMA REMEDY, for sale by JAS. F. WALKER, Merrimack Square.

TOOTH POWDER.

TOOTH POWDER, for sale by JAS. F. WALKER, Merrimack Square.

NEW YORK GOODS.

O. C. HOWE & CO. have just received a large assortment of Goods, which they will sell at low prices. Call and see them at No. 3 Prescott Block, Merrimack street. mch26

NEW GOODS.

O. C. HOWE & CO. have just received a large assortment of Goods, which they will sell at low prices. Call and see them at No. 3 Prescott Block, Merrimack street. mch26

NEW GOODS.

O. C. LITTLEFIELD has just received a large assortment of Goods, which he provisions of Mr Fitzroy's bill, creating a Superintendent for each stand, and requiring the driver to furnish his passenger with a printed card of name and number, are borrowed from the Parisian model. Of course no outside barbarian will ever attain the obliging urbanity of the Parisian cocher. But there is nothing else that may not be repeated with the utmost advantage. The Parisian fashions, in these respects are eminently worthy of imitation.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Friday, July 8, 1853.

The Law and the Doctors!

The attention of the reading public has of late been several times called to prosecutions against quite a number of medical practitioners for mal-practice, to the complaints of surgeons touching the odious severity and injustice of the existing law, and to the express determination of some eminent members of the profession never to undertake another difficult case without adequate pre-assurance that they shall be indemnified from prosecution in the event of ill success. The famous Kittredge case—in which some $3,000 were recovered of Dr. Kittredge of Andover, on the ground of mal-practice—is, of course, familiar to our readers, and need not be commented upon here. Nearly contemporaneous with the above case, was that in which $1500 were recovered of a young physician in Strafford county, N. H. Another case transpired not long since, in which Dr. Dixi Crosby, Professor of Surgery in Dartmouth College, was prosecuted in Vermont, for malpractice in the treatment of a fractured leg, and $800 recovered of him therefor, which case is also familiar, as are likewise numerous cases of a similar character.

We learn that Dr. Josiah Crosby, a brother to Dr. Dixi Crosby, mentioned above, recently refused, and was inflexible in the refusal, to commence the treatment of a fractured leg, (a case of an aggravated character,) and that Mr Agan, the unfortunate patient, actually did agree not to prosecute, whatever might be the result in his case.

We allude to these events, not for the purpose of justifying or condemning this line of conduct adopted by physicians and surgeons, as several other journals have done; but for the purpose of offering a single legal suggestion. It is not without unfeigned diffidence that we hazard a professional "opinion" on a question of such dubiousness and intricacy that lawyers who are infinitely better versed in the law touching the liabilities of physicians than we ever expect to be, are in doubt and division.—But we venture the opinion that every physician is bound to undertake the treatment of such cases, of whatever character, as are brought to him, or as he may be brought to, in the ordinary practice of his profession; and that, should he refuse, he would be liable, at the suit of the party damnified by his neglect a refusal, to an action of trespass on the case. We place a physician in the same position, as to this, with a common carrier, or a ferryman, or a blacksmith; and we include him in that class of public servants of whom Sir Edmund Saunders says, that from their situations they are "bound to do what is required of them in the course of their employments." [See Saunders' Reports, vol. 1, p. 312, n. 2.]

We deem a physician liable, again, because his neglect or refusal to practice does that which, in the language of Sir William Blackstone, "tends to the patient's destruction," and "breaks the trust which the party (patient) had placed in his physician." [See Blackstone's Commentaries, v. 3, p. 122.] A host of unquestionable authorities might be cited to like effect.

If a common carrier, having convenience for the carriage of goods, refuses to carry them, though satisfaction is tendered for the carriage thereof, there can be no doubt in the mind of any one who ever swept a lawyer's office, that an action on the case is sustainable against him. If an innkeeper refuse to admit a guest, for whom he has sufficient room, he is liable at the suit of such guest in case, for non-feasance in his duty. If a ferryman refuse to convey one over a ferry, he also is liable. So if a smith refuse to shoe the horse of a traveller, when he has materials for that purpose, he is liable in case at the suit of such traveller.

Now we put the physician on the same ground with the carrier, the ferryman, the innkeeper, and the smith. We believe that, when a physician sets himself up in his profession, holding himself out to the public as qualified to perform the ordinary duties of that calling, the law implies a contract between him and the public that he will undertake the treatment of such cases as he is ordinarily called to. Any other supposition in contrariety to this, would seem preposterous and untenable. Peculiar circumstances may intervene to alter or remove a physician's obligation in a given case; but in ordinary cases a physician, we think, would be legally bound.

Our readers will excuse us for having dwelt thus at length on a subject which, to many of them, may seem of but little importance. To some of our readers it is of paramount and every-day importance. For some of the thoughts suggested above, we are indebted to Chitty on Pleading, v. 1, p. 156.

Although we have already dwelt longer on this theme than we at first designed, we cannot refrain quoting a paragraph from a New Hampshire journal, to the sentiment of which we unhesitatingly subscribe:

"We hold to the doctrine that all professional men should be held responsible for a proper discharge of the duties pertaining to their office of trust. It is not quite fashionable, if a man breaks a limb and if it does not come from surgical hands as good as new, to prosecute the surgeon for mal-practice, and the chances are ten to one in favor of the prosecutor in such cases. He has the thing all his own way, all the witnesses of the transaction but one, and that one the defendant himself, who cannot lawfully give his testimony. It is like lending money to a man without taking a note, and without giving it to him in presence of witnesses. In that you must depend entirely upon his honesty. If he says he never had any money of you, how can you collect it? So a surgeon may treat a fractured arm, and if the party treated says it is badly treated, how can the surgeon prove the contrary? In many cases it is impossible to make a limb as perfect as it was before it was injured. But if a mal-practice suit was commenced in such cases, generally all the witnesses would be the family friends of the patient, and it would be next to an impossibility for the surgeon to show what was the condition of the patient when he was first called to him, or whether his directions had been followed or not, or how often the dressings had been changed, or whether or not the patient had been trying experiments on himself. Who does not see that a dishonest patient could make another pay for what his own folly had brought [illegible] or for what nobody was to blame? In addition to the want of proof of his innocence, the surgeon will have the sympathy of the jury against him, in spite of the impartial rulings of the Court. When the deformity is shown to them, pity is excited, and [illegible] however difficult it might have been to perfectly restore the injured parts, they, not being good judges of the cause of it, would naturally charge it to a want of skill and care in the surgeon. The late trials in various State Courts show that surgeons run a narrow chance of winning a suit, and the small fee obtained in the most important fractures and dislocations, would be no compensation for a public attack upon his reputation and purse. No surgeon then should be called cold-hearted, or charged with a want of sympathy, if he refuses to undertake the treatment of any surgical case until the patient and friends agree to release him from all liability, provided the case does not terminate as desired. We do not know that any law could be passed as a remedy for such results, but if public opinion was as it should be in this age of accidents, the law is well enough as it is."

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.—July 7. Petitions were presented and referred:—Of C. J. J. Ingersoll and others, of Greenfield, that such changes may be made in the Constitution as shall be necessary for the protection of certain classes in this Commonwealth.

Order adopted—On motion of Mr Cole, of Cheshire, for inquiring into the expediency of providing that a majority of the House of Representatives shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.

Some discussion ensued on, and some unimportant amendments were made to, the resolve touching the school fund,—which was finally adopted.

The special assignment was then taken up, being the resolves concerning the basis of the House of Representatives.

Mr Wood, of Middleboro, moved to amend the first resolve, so as to provide that a union of two small towns, for the purpose of representation, shall continue till the next following decennial census, excepting valuation year.—Adopted.

Mr Morton, of Taunton, opposed the resolves, and advocated the district system.

Mr Sumner, of Marshfield, made an elaborate speech of an hour and a half, in the course of which he sustained the district system, as correct and American in principle, but contended that the exigencies of the times would not admit of its adoption.

The origin and nature of the representative system was first touched upon. It was a modern invention. There were democracies and republics of old, but none like this; and in no such did the people delegate to a representative body the power to transact their affairs.—The centralization of the people into one meeting, as in Athens, became impossible in our scattered early settlements, and the supple and admirable representative system sprang into being. The only wonder was that it was discovered so late in the history of the world.—The English system was one founded on counties, cities and towns. The American system, setting aside corporate representation, is founded on an equality of individuals. To England belonged the glory of originating five of the great institutions of civil liberty—the trial by jury, the writ of habeas corpus, the representative system, the rules and orders of parliamentary debate, and the assertion in act that her air was too pure to be breathed by a slave. To Massachusetts was given the honor of engrafting on the representative system the great principle of equality.

He was not insensible to the difficulties of this question. It was that which the two great German political schools had divided upon—one holding that laws grew from history, from within, were the result of popular belief and custom—the other that the teachings of wisdom, resulting in law, and supported by reason, could mould and form the character and institutions of any race or people. Both were but in a measure right, and here to undertake suddenly to remould the entire State on the district system would fail to have a support, and in the present political lights he was not prepared to assert and carry out over and destroying present forms, any belief that the equal right of every man to vote was a principle like the God given right to life and liberty which was beyond compromise. He favored a House of about 300, but this was unattainable under the present resolves.

The two evils of inequality of representation, and a too large House, aroused the people of the colony in 1775, it was shown by historical documents of Essex; the attempt to form a constitution in 1777 failed in part because their inequalities were not removed; the opinions of the men of that day were that the representatives should be the whole body politic represented in miniature, reduced on an equal scale to the representation of an equal number, so that if ten men were represented by one man every other ten should be represented by one, and the citizens of Essex in consequence called for a districting of the colony, one or two towns in a district; and the limiting of the House to something like 200 men.

Mr Hallett—By whom was that resolve drawn up? Was it not by John Lowell, and was it not an acknowledged tory doctrine of that time.

Mr Sumner—Yes, and it received the almost unanimous approbation of the delegates of the people of old Essex in convention assembled.

With Messrs Dana and Griswold he recognized the towns as the schools of liberty and the conservators of civil rights, but he could not give them the complete character as centres of representation these gentlemen claimed.—The chief glory and recommendation of towns was that they were self-governing communities, having in themselves all the elements of government. The boroughs of England had exclusive representation, as was claimed for the towns here, but that did not preserve them from corruption. They had no internal self-government, and this was the point of difference.

Whatever might be said of the centralization of cities, he could not acknowledge the propriety of putting a stop to it by degrading the inhabitants of cities in the scale of representation, and preventing the progress of the great American principle. That principle, still extending, would preserve itself; its onward progress would be its safeguard.

He had no doubt that the principle would eventually triumph; it was inevitable.

To lay out an entirely new and perfect system of representation, would be like endeavoring to remodel the crooked streets of Boston in parallel lines. He would vote for the resolutions, not because they coincided with his views, but because they comprised the best adjustment of this difficult question, that under present circumstances could be obtained, and because they made some advance towards an equal system.

The afternoon was occupied in discussions of little immediate moment. The question on the final passage of the White-barn-Butler-adopted resolves, is to be taken to-day at ten o'clock.

THE WIND "KNOCKED OUT" OF A STATESMAN! There is a man in the Convention named Benjamin F. Butler, who has been sparing no pains, by piracy or plagiarism, calculated to give him the palaver of notoriety. The Boston Times, a paper of Ben's party, comes out this morning in such a door-stave of a blow as most effectually knocks all the wind out of the would-be statesman. It says that the plan "attributed to Mr Butler, we believe, originated with Mr White, a delegate from Quincy, an able and well read man, and one of the youngest members of the Convention." This is "the most unkindest cut of all."

ANOTHER KICK AT THE SAME DONKEY! In a personal debate in the Convention on Wednesday last, between Messrs Hillard, Keyes, Wilson, and others, some remarks having been thrown out touching the "rough behavior" of judges, arising probably from Judge Shaw's neat repulse of Butler, recently, Mr Hillard took occasion to cover his enemies under such an avalanche of odium, that we hope to hear no more of them. Mr Hillard said it was well known that the occupation of the judges was trying to the patience, and he was often irked unreasonably and pertinaciously by many courts by the ill-tempered zeal and bad morals of certain members of the bar, who became conspicuous by the exercise of faculties which would seem to justify the selection of the men of wit, who said that the three qualities for success at the bar were, impudence, impudence, impudence—men marked by coarse brutality and foul-mouthed ferocity; men who tear their victims with their claws, and bespatter them with their filth; men who import their morals from the State prison, their manners from the bear-garden, and their language from Billingsgate.—Mr Hillard hoped that so long as this spirit prevailed among any portion of the members of the bar, there might be a corresponding spirit on the bench. So long as we have jackalls and hyenas at the bar, he hoped that we should have a lion on the bench, who, with one stroke of his vigorous paw, can bring their scalps over their eyes. Mr Hillard's speech created quite a sensation.

CITY MATTERS.

NOTICE. Persons having demands against the Committee of Arrangements for the Celebration, are requested to leave them with the City Treasurer immediately.

LETTER FROM PROF. STRACK. We received this morning, per steamer from Bremen, a long and interesting letter from our friend, Prof. Louis Strack, now on a visit for the benefit of his health, to his home and friends in Germany. We shall commence the publication of the letter to-morrow.

FIREMEN'S CELEBRATION. We understand it is in contemplation by the firemen of Lowell to get up a grand Firemen's Celebration early in the fall—to which they will invite the firemen of sister towns and cities throughout the Commonwealth and elsewhere in New England. We hope this grand project will be carried out. If undertaken in earnest by our indefatigable firemen, in harmonious concurrence, we can have a jubilee that will totally eclipse the Fourth of July celebration. Our citizens will subscribe liberally to the expenses of such a demonstration. Set the ball in motion—the sooner the better.

☞ Vox Populi of this week, is decidedly a Jubilee paper, being "chuck full" of the "Glorious Fourth." The report of the multitudinous "doings" of that day, is creditable to the enterprise of the publisher and the industry of the reporter.

FESTIVAL OF BEAUTY, by Mr Willey's vocal class. See advertisement.

☞ Captain Paul R. George is in town.—There is a screw loose somewhere.

The Declaration of Independence.—We publish below two important extracts from the original Declaration of Independence, as prepared by Mr Jefferson. The document was considered in the Committee of the Whole.—The debates were on the 2d, 3d and 4th days of July, and on the evening of the last, were closed. Mr Jefferson says: "The clause reprobating the enslavement of the inhabitants of Africa, was struck out in complaisance to South Carolina and Georgia, who had never attempted to restrain the importation of slaves, and who on the contrary, still wished to continue it.—Our Northern brethren also, I believe, felt a little tender under those censures; for though their people had very few slaves themselves, yet they had been pretty considerable carriers of them to others."

The passage here referred to is as follows:

He [that is the King of Great Britain] has waged cruel war against human nature itself, violating its most sacred rights of life and liberty in the persons of a distant people who never offended him, captivating and carrying them into slavery in another hemisphere, or to incur miserable death in their transportation thither. This piratical warfare, the opprobrium of INFIDEL powers, is the warfare of the CHRISTIAN king of Great Britain. Determined to keep open a market where MEN should be bought and sold, he has prostituted his negative for suppressing every legislative attempt to prohibit or to restrain this execrable commerce. And that this assemblage of horrors might want no fact of distinguished dye, he is now exciting those very people to rise in arms among us, and to purchase that liberty of which he has deprived them, by murdering the people on whom he also obtruded them; thus paying off former crimes committed against the LIBERTIES of one people with crimes which he urges them to commit against the LIVES of another.

The following sentence was omitted by Congress:

Future ages will scarcely believe that the hardiness of one man adventured, within the short compass of twelve years only, to lay a foundation so broad and so undisguised for tyranny over a people fostered and fixed in principles of freedom.

Mr Jefferson made the parts of the Declaration which referred to the people of England, quite severe. Alluding to the charges made by Congress in this portion of the document, he says: "The pusillanimous idea that we had friends in England worth keeping terms with, still haunted the minds of many. For this reason, those passages which conveyed censures on the people of England were struck out, lest they should give them offence." We publish the two most important passages where changes were made. The parts omitted are included in brackets and italicised:

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend [a] jurisdiction over [these our States]. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here, [no one of which could warrant so strange a pretension; that these were effected at the expense of our own blood and treasure, unassisted by the wealth or the strength of Great Britain; that in constituting indeed our several forms of government, we had adopted one common king, thereby laying a foundation for perpetual league and amity with them; but that submission to their parliament was no part of our constitution, nor ever in idea, if history may be credited; and,] we [ ] appealed to their native justice and magnanimity [as well as to] the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations which [were likely to] interrupt our connection and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity, [and when occasions have been given them, by the regular course of their laws, of removing from their councils the disturbers of our harmony, they have, by their free election, re-established them in power. At this very time too, they are permitting their chief magistrate to send over not only soldiers of our common blood, but Scotch and foreign mercenaries to invade and destroy us. These facts have given the last stab to agonizing affection, and manly spirit bids us to renounce forever these unfeeling brethren. We must endeavor to forget our former love for them, and hold them as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace friends. We might have been a free and a great people together; but a communication of grandeur and of freedom, it seems, is below their dignity. Be it so, since they will have it. The road to happiness and to glory is open to us too. We will tread it apart from them, and] acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our [eternal] separation [ ]!—[Transcript.

The celebrated passage, "that all men are created equal, and endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights," &c., was written thus: "We hold these truths to be sacred and undeniable, that all men are created equal and independent; that from that equal creation they derive rights, some of which are inherent and inalienable, among which are life and liberty."

☞ Speaking of the recent oration at Amherst College, by Joshua N. Marshall of Dracut, a writer in the Springfield Republican says:—"His subject was 'The Elements of true Distinction.' He announced his subject with a manly modesty and eloquence, worthy the highest praise. He first spoke of the power of Purpose; secondly, of Preserving Application, and, lastly, of Moral Principle. It was an able production, deep, sound and practical,—not all flowers, or discoursed in a metaphysical garb—but open and direct. We were never more highly pleased or interested by any young man's production. His style was vigorous and energetic, and he sought rather to make a deep and permanent impression, than to gratify simple taste. It was delivered in an easy and graceful manner. His allusion to the death of Prof. Adams was touching and affecting.

☞ The Christian Inquirer styles Fany Fern Young America in petticoats.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

WASHINGTON ITEMS—Washington, July 7.—Senor Larrainzar, the retiring Mexican Minister, took official leave of the President to-day, and Gen. Almonte presented his credentials as his successor. Both made appropriate addresses.

It is understood the command of the fishing ground squadron has been assigned to Commander Shubrick.

Mr Soule has arrived here.

☞ President Pierce will reach New York on Wednesday next, intending to be present at the opening of the Crystal Palace.

NAVAL—Norfolk, July 7. The U. S. steamer Princeton left this port yesterday for the fishing grounds, by order of the Government.

RHODE ISLAND LABOR. By the present law in this State, minors under 12 are prohibited working in the mills, none under 15 are to work over 11 hours per day; labor is not to begin earlier than 5 A. M., nor continue after 7 1-2 P. M.

☞ Have we a Colonel among us? is now the question. It ought to be answered before "muster" day, for we must have a Colonel—a legal, live Colonel.

THE FOURTH AT CAMBRIDGE STREET JAIL.—By order of the Sheriff, the prisoners in Cambridge street Jail were treated on the Fourth to a dinner of roast pork, plum pudding, and mince pies.

☞ Arthur Howard and Alfred Bowen, twin children of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, died in Brooklyn, on the 4th instant.

☞ Mr E. W. Briggs, of New Orleans, was found dead in his bed at Capron Springs, on the 7th inst.

☞ The President has recognised Edward Philippe le Prohon as consular agent of France for the port of Portland, Me.

☞ Archbishop Hughes laid the corner stone of a new German Catholic Church in New York, on Wednesday. Touching the ceremony we find the following in the Times: "Immediately before Archbishop Hughes commenced his address, an outrage, worthy of notice, was committed by a man, well known to the Police Courts as Frank Swift, a street contractor, formerly a 'long shore' man in New York. The reporter of the Herald, who was in delicate health, and suffering from cold, kept his head covered, (the weather being threatening and chilly) while a wooden image of the Crucifixion was being carried round in procession. Swift leaped up behind him on the platform, and, striking at his head, sent his hat off some yards among the crowd.

☞ Kossuth, as a correspondent, is the greatest "member of the press" of the current century; he corresponds with the N. Y. Times.—After Louis Napoleon shall have been driven to the hulks, possibly he may be numbered among the journalists of his age.

☞ The Fourth was celebrated with great pomp in Tarrytown, where a monument had been recently erected to the captors of Andre.

A CONVENTION JOKE, carried too far. On Tuesday last, Mr Earle of Worcester, went into a defence of the Coalition, and repelled the charge that they traded in offices, and entered into a contract of bargain and sale!

NEW THEORY OF EARTHQUAKES. The popular theory, that earthquakes, like volcanoes, are the result of subterranean action by fire, has been abandoned by a few who, whatever may be their attainments, are certainly very wise in their own conceit. A correspondent of the London Mining Journal, named Drummond, writing from Comrie, in North Britain, presents a theory entirely different from that of igneous action; he attributes earthquakes to electrical influences, and we believe that Sir Charles Lyell has expressed a belief in the same agency. We make no pretensions to superior scientific knowledge; but we must suggest that electrical phenomena may be the result, and not the cause, of the events alluded to—that co-existence does not necessarily involve causation.

☞ The churches of Brooklyn—the city of churches—are classified as follows: Episcopal, 17; Methodist, 12; Congregational, 10; Roman Catholic, 7; Baptist, 7; Presbyterian, 8; Dutch Reformed, 6; African 3; Unitarian, 2; Universalist, Friend, Congregational Methodist, Primitive Methodist, Protestant Methodist, Second Advent, and Reformed Presbyterian, one each.

☞ Dr. Achilli arrived in New York on the 7th inst.

CONVICTION—Albany, July 7. The jury in the case of Hendrickson, who has been on trial for some time past, for the murder of his wife, brought in a verdict of guilty, this evening, and he has been sentenced to be hung on the 27th of August.

☞ The Slave trade in Cuba appears to be flourishing with unwonted vigor just now.—Since January 1853, no less than 9049 poor Africans have been landed in Cuba. And this activity in the infernal traffic seems to be increasing under the connivance of the government, which it is likely, is peculiarly benefitted by every cargo which is landed—for, since June came in, the number landed in different ports of the Island, is said to exceed 2700 miserable souls.

NEW YORK DAILY PAPERS. The circulation of the daily papers, in New York city, is now said to be as follows: Sun, 45,000; Herald, 25,000; Tribune, 20,000; Times, 20,000; National Democrat, 10,000; Journal of Commerce, 9,500; Courier & Enquirer, 9,000; Commercial Advertiser, 6,000; Express, 7,500; Post, 7,000; Day Book, 6,000; True Democrat, 4,000.

ASTOR LIBRARY. The carpenters concluded their work on the Astor Library in Lafayette Place three or four days ago, and the building is now complete. It has been erected at a cost of about $300,000; the cost of shelving having occasioned an excess of expenditure beyond the original limitation, which was $75,000.—The building is admirably adapted to the purpose for which it was designed, and is a very substantial as well as ornamental structure.—The interior is lofty and well lighted; and the literary treasures there deposited will be displayed with excellent effect. The building is thoroughly fire proof. A commencement has been made of arranging the volumes of the Library, which number nearly 100,000. The institution is expected to be open in September or October.

MACAULAY! Some months since, it was announced in the foreign exchanges that this most talented and eloquent historian had completed two more volumes of his history of England. We refer to the fact at this time for the purpose of calling the attention of publishers to an American edition of these volumes. We are impatient to see them, and shall send to London for them if they do not appear soon.

DEATH OF A LEARNED MAN. The venerable Dr. Chapman, Emeritus professor in the Pennsylvania University, and who has been connected with the institution since 1811, died in Philadelphia on Friday last, at the advanced age of 74.

☞ There were 405 deaths in New York city, last week.

A NOBLE MONUMENT. To honor the memory of the late Duke of Wellington, a magnificent school is to be established, at which children of army officers are to be admitted free of charge. The Queen heads the subscription with $5000; Prince Albert and the Duke of Cambridge (the Queen's Uncle) follow with $2500 each; and there are several subscriptions ranging from $500 to $1000. The entire subscription already amounts to $400,000, and will probably be increased to $500,000.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT. Yesterday afternoon, Robert Gray, a mason tender, fell from a staging in Harrison Avenue, Boston, to the ground, breaking his back, and otherwise injuring himself. He was conveyed to the Massachusetts General Hospital, and it is feared that his injuries will prove fatal.

☞ Mr Samuel Hart, the Naval Constructor at Kittery, Me., has been ordered to Washington, to take charge of the Naval Bureau of Construction and Repairs, in the place of Com. Shubrick, who is legislated out of that office. Congress, by a law of the last session, directed that a "skilful Naval Constructor," and not a Post Captain, should be placed at the head of the Bureau.

WHAT WILL BECOME OF MC CLELLAND? One of our exchanges relates that while President Pierce was engaged, recently, in conversation at the White House with a party of politicians, he suddenly raised his voice and finger, and with a flashing eye, said:—"I will mark every appointee who attempts to stand on two platforms." BALTIMORE AND BUFFALO ARE ANTIPODES!"

☞ In an altercation at Chicopee on the 4th, Francis Taylor stabbed Patrick Curtis with a pocket knife. Curtis died from his wounds, and Taylor having been arrested will be arraigned for manslaughter or murder.

☞ Rev. J. Banvard has declined an invitation to become pastor of the Worthen St. Baptist Church in Lowell.

FIRE IN CHARLESTOWN. The upper part of a house on Walker street, owned by Dr. Walker, and occupied by another person, was burnt on Tuesday evening.

☞ Archbishop Bedini, specially commissioned by His Holiness Pope Pius IX. to pay a visit to our Government at Washington, has arrived in New York.

☞ Ex-Marshal Tukey of Boston is coming home from California.

☞ Mrs Amelia Bloomer delivered a 4th of July oration in Cortland Co., N. Y. "Woman's sphere" is certainly enlarging.

☞ Mr Seth Bemis, of Watertown, has been appointed a Justice of the Peace for the county of Middlesex.

☞ Commencement at Williams' College takes place this year on the 17th of August.

☞ The Maine Liquor Law has triumphed in Michigan by about 20,000 majority.

☞ Hon. Geo. Bancroft has gone to Europe.

LATEST DATES.
From Liverpool......June 25 | Havre..........June 23
From London.........June 25 | San Francisco...May 31

Sales at Boston Stock and Exchange Board.
JULY 7, 1853

840	Vt. Central Railroad,	17 7-8 a 18 3-4
19	Boston and Worcester R R	[illegible]
60	Eastern Railroad,	[illegible]
2	do	[illegible]
6	Fitchburg Railroad,	[illegible]
75	Ogdensburg Railroad,	[illegible]
50	Rutland Railroad, 6 pr ct. pref.	[illegible]
68	Rutland Railroad,	[illegible]
3	Western Railroad,	[illegible]
8	Boston and Lowell Railroad,	[illegible]
3	Boston and Maine Railroad,	[illegible]
6	Northern Railroad,	[illegible]
10	Essex Company,	[illegible]
10	Bank of Commerce,	[illegible]
$1,000	Rutland R R Mort. 7s,	[illegible]
$10,000	Vt Central 2d Mort. Sevens,	77 3-4

Mail Arrangements.

MAILS CLOSE
Boston at 6½, 11½ A. M., and 5 P. M. Northern at 7 A.M.
Eastern and Lawrence at 6½ A. M., and 1½ P. M.
New York at 11½ A. M., and 5 P. M.

MAILS OPEN.
Boston 8½ A. M., 1 and 6½ P. M. Northern, 6½ P. M.
Eastern 8½ A. M., 1½ and 6½ P. M. Lawrence 10½ A. M., and 6 P. M.
New York 8½ A. M.
Office hours from 7 A. M., to 8 P. M.
T. P. GOODHUE, P. M.

Cars Leave Lowell.

For Boston 7, 8 [illegible] A. M., 12 [illegible] P. M.
(By the new route, the cars leaving the Middlesex street Station) 7.05, 9, 11.30 A. M., 1.45 and 4.15 P. M.
For Salem at 8 A. M., 4.15 P. M.
For Lawrence and East 7.15, 10 A. M., 2.45, 5 [illegible] P. M.
For Nashua, Concord and North, at 8.20 A. M., 12.30, 5 [illegible] P. M.
Stony Brook at 7.15, 11.30 A. M., 4.45 P. M.

Pay Days on the Corporations.

[illegible]

Discount Days of the several Banks.
APPLETON BANK—TUESDAYS and FRIDAYS.
LOWELL BANK—MONDAYS and THURSDAYS.
PRESCOTT BANK—MONDAYS and THURSDAYS.
RAILROAD BANK—TUESDAYS and FRIDAYS.

DISEASES OF THE LIVER.

When the celebrated Dr. Rush declared that drunkenness was a disease, he enunciated a truth which the experience and observation of medical men is every day confirming. [illegible] ... Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Liver Pills, and take none else. ... Agents for Lowell—S. Kidder, Jr., Carleton & Hovey, J. C. Ayer & Co., C. S. Eastman & Co., W. W. Webster, and by Druggists generally.

DYSPEPSIA CURED.

[illegible] ... JNO. PERVAID, At W. Bolton's, No. 2 Baltimore st. Agents for Lowell: J. C. AYER & CO., S. KIDDER, Jr., E. A. STANIELS, CARLETON & HOVEY, C. S. EASTMAN & Co.

S. L. WARD—Dentist,

Continues his attention to every branch of the profession in accordance with the latest improvements in Dentistry. Rooms, Merrimack Street. Lowell, Feb. 8, 1853

G. M. PHETTEPLACE & CO., general advertising agents, [illegible]

☞ JOB PRINTING of all kinds—[illegible] executed at THIS OFFICE.

Blank Books [illegible]

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1832.

Capital $150,000,

Paid and Securely Invested.—Surplus from 40,000 to 50,000 Dollars.

DIRECTORS.
Seth Grosvenor, N. Y., Geo. Fisher, Oswego; Wm. H. Russell, Luther Wright, Geo. W. Benton, Alvin Bronson, Ed. A. Lambert, Henry Fitch, J. V. L. Pruyn, Albany, A. P. Grant, D. P. Brewster, Oswego, James Lyon, S. B. Ludlow, GEO. FISHER, Pres't.
NAM'L HAWLEY, Sec'y.

This long established Company are prepared to take every species of

Fire and Inland Navigation Risks,

at such rates as shall be adequate to the security of the insured and of the Company. [illegible]

A. JAS. RICHMOND, Agent. Office No. 18 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell. feb16dly

FIRE INSURANCE.

OFFICE,—NO. 18 APPLETON BLOCK

Ætna Protection and Hartford Insurance Companies, HARTFORD, CONN.

AGGREGATE capital paid in and invested according to law, $1,000,000
[illegible]

Insure against loss or damage by fire in Lowell and adjacent towns, on all kinds of insurable property at as low rates as any good responsible offices, [illegible]

Policies issued for either of the above offices, by A. J. RICHMOND, authorized agent. Office No. 18 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell.

Also, agent for the Ætna and Hartford Joint Stock Life Insurance Companies. Rates of premium about two-thirds those of Mutual Companies.

April 26, 1853. aprl0dly

STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO., OF WORCESTER.—Incorporated 1844.

Capital, $100,000.

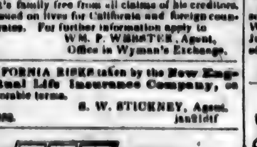
JOHN DAVIS, Pres. | CLARENDON HARRIS, Sec.

This very successful Company, conducted upon the cash principle with close economy, having accumulated a surplus Cash Capital, have now greatly reduced their rates of insurance. [illegible]

WM. F. WEBSTER, Agent, Office in Wyman's Exchange.

☞ CALIFORNIA RISKS taken by the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, on the most favorable terms.

S. W. STICKNEY, Agent.
Jan. 31, 1853. jan31dtf



400 Washington Street.

The only manufacturers of Coleman's Patent Æolian Attachment for Pianos.

☞ A large assortment of T. Gilbert & Co's PIANO FORTES, with or without the Æolian Attachment, always on hand—for sale on the same terms and prices as at the manufactory in Boston, and warranted to give entire satisfaction, or the money will be refunded. [illegible]

GEO. HEDRICK, 26 Central st., Lowell, Agent for T. Gilbert & Co.

N. B. T. GILBERT is, with a single exception, the oldest Piano Forte maker in Boston, [illegible]

☞ Second hand Church Organs for sale. aprl1*

A CARD TO THE LADIES OF LOWELL AND VICINITY

MRS WINSLOW, an experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers, her SOOTHING SYRUP, FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. [illegible]

N. B. Inquire for MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, and attend to it at once, if your child is suffering.

Sold at wholesale by WEEKS & POTTER, Washington st., and BENSHAW, EDMANDS & CO., India st., Boston.

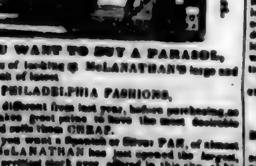
Sold in Lowell by J. C. Ayer & Co., [illegible]

DR. LANGLEY'S ROOT AND HERB BITTERS. THE GREAT REMEDY.

Only 25 and 37 1-2 cents a Bottle

For the People's Compound—Dock Root, Wild Cherry Bark, Dandelion Root, Prickly Ash Bark, Sarsaparilla, Rhubarb and Thoroughwort. DR. LANGLEY'S ROOT AND HERB BITTERS are sold to be used by all ages and sexes, [illegible] Sold in Lowell by SAMUEL KIDDER, Jr., [illegible]

Philadelphia Parasol Store,



IF YOU WANT TO BUY A PARASOL,

Don't miss of looking at McLANATHAN'S large and splendid stock of

PHILADELPHIA FASHIONS,

[illegible]

S. McLANATHAN.

Does not every Man, Woman and Child have an interest

[illegible] ... Also the PULMONARY BALSAM and STRENGTHENING PLASTER. For sale by appointed Agents in every town and village in New England, and by Dealers in Medicine generally. Sold in Lowell by WM. CHURCHILL, [illegible]

A. W. LEONARD,

DEALER IN

CONFECTIONERY AND CAKE,

No. 230 Merrimack street,

(A. S. French's Old Stand.)

[illegible]

A. S. FRENCH,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN

CONFECTIONERY AND CAKE,

37 Central street,

LOWELL, MASS.

[illegible]

IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC CIGARS.

G. W. STEWARD, [illegible]

LADIES' BOOTS AND SHOES, EMBROIDERY AND FANCY GOODS.

MRS YOUNG

Calls the attention of the Ladies of Lowell and vicinity to her well selected stock of Ladies' BOOTS and SHOES, EMBROIDERY and GENERAL FURNISHING GOODS, ever offered in this city. [illegible] No. 160 Merrimack st., opposite [illegible]

TORRENT NO. 12.

At a meeting of Torrent Engine Company, No. 12, held on Tuesday evening, July 5th, it was voted to take an Excursion to Lowell Island and thence out in the Bay to Bath, &c., on Wednesday, July 20th inst. Per order [illegible] FREEMAN, Clerk.

N. B. A special meeting of the Company will be held at the Engine House on TUESDAY EVENING next, at 8 o'clock. A punctual attendance is requested.
Lowell, July 6, 1853. jy6d3t&w1t

MARRIAGES.

In this city, July 6, by Rev. M. A. Howe, John M. Wilson to Mary A. Barley; 7th, Albert Merrill to Adeline Young.

DEATHS.

In Boston, July 2, Dea. Thomas Lennon, aged 76 years.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. MESSENGER'S NOTICE

Middlesex ss.—July 7, 1853.

NOTICE is hereby given that a warrant has been duly issued by Isaac F. Morse, Esquire, Commissioner of Insolvency in and for the county of Middlesex, against the estate of SUMNER SNOW, of Littleton in said county, yeoman, an insolvent debtor, and the payment of any debts and the delivery of any property belonging to said insolvent debtor, to him or for his use, and the transfer of any property by him, are forbidden by law.

A meeting of the creditors of said insolvent debtor will be held at a Court of Insolvency at the office of Merrit Caverly, No. 40 Central street, in Lowell in said county, on the eighteenth day of July instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, for the proof of debts and the choice of an Assignee or Assignees.

WM. C. GRAY, Dep. Sheriff, Messenger.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. MESSENGER'S NOTICE.

Middlesex ss. Cambridge, July 7th, 1853.

JOSIAH RUTTER, Esquire, Commissioner of Insolvency in and for the said County of Middlesex, has issued a warrant against the estate of SMITH W. NICHOLS, of South Reading in said County, an insolvent debtor, and the payment of any debts, and the delivery of any property, belonging to said insolvent debtor, to him or for his use, and the transfer of any property by him, are forbidden by law.

A meeting of his creditors will be held at a Court of Insolvency, at the office of Messrs Somerby & Butler, in Waltham in said County, on the twenty-second day of July instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, for the proof of debts, and the choice of an Assignee or Assignees.

LUTHER L. PARKER, Deputy Sheriff, Messenger.

BRONZES.

Just received, a new stock of Gold and Silver BRONZES, of all the various shades and colors. Painters, Chair Makers, and consumers of Bronzes generally, are respectfully invited to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

J. C. AYER & CO., Druggists and Apothecaries, corner Central and Jackson sts.

SELLING OFF, AT BROWN & MERRIAM'S,

TO make room for a large invoice of IRON STONE CHINA, C. C. Dept, and Pearl White TEA, DINNER AND TOILET WARE of various descriptions, imported by ourselves, directly from the MANUFACTURERS IN ENGLAND. [illegible]

ADVANTAGE OF EVERY BODY to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere.

BROWN & MERRIAM, NESMITH'S NEW BLOCK, 46 Merrimack and 5 John st.

JUST ARRIVED, IN THE SHIP ISAAC WRIGHT,

AT NEW YORK, a large lot of Common, and Fancy TEA TRAYS of all sizes and descriptions, [illegible]

BROWN & MERRIAM'S, Nesmith's New Block, 46 Merrimack and 5 John st.

WELLES BLOCK.

The Hall to let, as a place of worship, and for Concerts and occasional engagements. Also, an Office. Also, a tenement and store at No. 100, Gorham street. Inquire of A. A. TAYLOR, at the office of Dr. Jos. Welles, No. 2 Welles Block. WILLIAM SMITH. Lowell, July 7, 1853.

TO LET,

House No. 90 Hurd street, now occupied by Dr. Davis. Possession given immediately. Inquire of JAMES ADAMS, Lowell Corporation.

EMPLOYMENT WANTED.

The advertiser wishes for employment. Any one in want of a person who is willing to devote his time and attention to the interests of his employer, will please address "Simon," Lowell. Good references given. Lowell, July 6, 1853.

WHITE TEETH.—Winter's Tooth Soap is the best preparation for cleansing the teeth and purifying the breath. Sold by S. KIDDER, Jr., corner Merrimack and John sts.

BALM OF THOUSAND FLOWERS.—A beautiful article for the Toilet—for sale by S. KIDDER, Jr., cor. Merrimack and John sts.

KELLEY'S SARSAPARILLA.—For cleansing the blood. [illegible] KIDDER, Jr., corner of John st.

Great Fire in Rockland, Me.

OVER 90 BUILDINGS DESTROYED.

JOHN E. WILDER'S SAFES Still Triumphant!

AT the great Fire in Rockland, on the 9th of May, [illegible]

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.

[illegible] DRUGS, CHEMICALS AND MEDICINES, [illegible]

PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS, [illegible]

FANCY GOODS, TOILET ARTICLES, and PERFUMERY, [illegible]

C. S. EASTMAN & Co. Apothecaries, WYMAN'S EXCHANGE, LOWELL, corner Merrimack and Central sts.

BALM OF THOUSAND FLOWERS—[illegible]

LOWELL MARBLE WORKS,

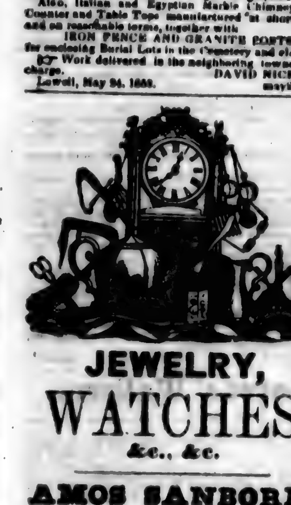
Dutton st., near the Merrimack House.

THE proprietor of the above named Marble Works would respectfully inform the public that he keeps constantly on hand a large and beautiful assortment of MONUMENTS AND GRAVE STONES of every variety of style and pattern manufactured of the best of foreign and domestic Marble and Slate Stone, which he offers for sale at the lowest possible prices—Grave Stones as low as $3.00, lettered and delivered. Monuments made to order from $10 to $3,000.

Also, Italian and Egyptian Marble Chimney Pieces, Counter and Table Tops manufactured at short notice, and on reasonable terms, together with IRON FENCE AND GRANITE POSTS, for enclosing Burial Lots in the Cemetery and elsewhere.

☞ Work delivered in the neighboring towns free of charge.

DAVID NICHOLS.
Lowell, May 24, 1853. may24dtf



JEWELRY, WATCHES,

&c., &c.

AMOS SANBORN,

POST OFFICE CORNER,

Has the Largest and Best Selected Stock of WATCHES,

JEWELRY

—AND—

SILVER WARE,

IN LOWELL.

AND people in town and strangers visiting Lowell, may depend on my Goods proving as good as they are recommended when sold.

WATCHES

I am importing, so as to save one or more profits, so that I can sell VERY CHEAP. They are of the

BEST QUALITY,

—AND—

Warranted Time-Keepers.

I have now completed arrangements for getting my Goods, such as I do not manufacture, at the manufacturers' prices, so that I can sell as cheap as can be bought in Boston or New York.

☞ One and all are invited to call and examine my Stock, before they purchase elsewhere, as they will find it for their interest.

AMOS SANBORN.
Lowell, July 2, 1853. jy2dtf

BEANS.

500 bushels of prime Western Beans just received and for sale at the lowest cash price.
BLANCHARD, WRIGHT & CO.

ABIJAH CUTTER,

DEALER IN

DOUBLE AND SINGLE SHOT GUNS AND PISTOLS. Also—Sporting Apparatus and Fishing Tackle of every description.

Powder, Shot, Percussion Caps, &c., &c.

FISHING RODS made to order.

KEYS of all kinds made to order and LOCKS repaired.

No. 15 MIDDLE STREET,

Third door west of the Post Office,

LOWELL, MASS.

SOAP POWDER.—Boston Chemical Washing Powder, for sale by the box or single. A. WHITNEY, Museum Building.

COTTON TWINE.—50 bales COTTON STORE TWINE, for sale by A. WHITNEY. Museum Building.

HOUSE TO LET.

A tenement on the Brick Block on Appleton st. Apply at the Hamilton Counting Room. June 18, 1853.

A BEAUTIFUL COTTAGE RESIDENCE FOR SALE.

The cottage and estate, well known place on Howard street, Lowell, for sale. It contains about 15,000 feet of land, upon which upwards of eighty of the most choice fruit bearing trees are now in full bearing. [illegible]

ASHEL ROLFE.
Lowell, 10th May, 1853.

DRUG STORE FOR SALE.

THE Stand, Fixtures and Lease of a Drug Store, situated in one of the most central locations in the city, [illegible] Apply to H. D. COLBY, 4 Canal Block, Central st.
Lowell, June 9, 1853.

P. H. MAGUIRE, SLATER,

Prescott street, Lowell.

☞ Roofs covered with Slate, Tin, Zinc, or Copper, in [illegible]

LIFE PRESERVERS.

JUST received, at 61 Merrimack st., a large assortment of CHEAP STRONG FANS at prices lower than ever before. Call and examine them.

JAS. P. WALKER.

MACHINISTS' TOOLS.—A complete assortment of Wrenches, Calipers, Vices, &c., &c., for sale at the Hardware Store of JACOB ROGERS, Savings Bank Building.

MEASURING TAPES.—Measuring Tapes of all lengths from 25 to 100 feet; also some very beautiful Pocket Tapes from 3 to 12 feet. For sale by JACOB ROGERS, Savings Bank Building.

FLOUR IN HALF BBLS.

50 half bbls. [illegible] For sale by S. N. WOOD, Market st.

NEW ORLEANS WHITE CORN.

200 Sacks New Orleans White Corn slightly damaged, for sale low by S. N. WOOD, Market st.

VERMONT OATS.

2000 Bush. Vermont Oats just received and for sale by S. N. WOOD, Market street.

FLOUR AND APPLE BARRELS.

1000 Flour and Apple Barrels, for sale in any quantity, by S. N. WOOD, Market st.

NO EXCUSE FOR BAD BREAD.

PRESTON & MERRILL'S Infallible Yeast Powder, [illegible] SAML. N. WOOD, Market st.

HAYING TOOLS!

PHILLIPS, MESSER & COLBY'S Cast and Rest Scythes, [illegible] J. F. & J. ROGERS.

TWO IMPORTANT PUBLICATIONS.

[illegible]

AMUSEMENTS.

LOWELL MUSEUM.

W. L. AYLING, Lessee and Manager.

LAST NIGHT OF THE SEASON.

BENEFIT OF MR W. L. AYLING.

THIS EVENING, JULY 8,

The performance will commence with

THE STEPS TO RUIN!

To conclude with

TOM AND JERRY.

Admission 25 Cents. Curtain rises at 8 o'clock.

WELLES' HALL.

WILL POSITIVELY CLOSE ON SATURDAY NIGHT, JULY 9th AT 9 O'CLOCK.

DUBUFE'S PAINTINGS OF ADAM AND EVE.

Admittance 12 1-2 cts. jy7d3

FESTIVAL OF BEAUTY!

GEO. F. WILLEY'S

JUVENILE SINGING SCHOOL,

(Numbering 300 members,)

Assisted by a number of Young Ladies, will give a

FLORAL CONCERT,

AT THE NEW CITY HALL,

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 12, at 8 o'clock.

The Music for the occasion will be an OPERETTA, entitled the

FLOWER QUEEN,

Or, CORONATION OF THE ROSE.

The Music is entirely new, never having been performed with the exception of six successive performances in New York City. The Poetry is also new—was written by a young lady, a graduate of the New York Institution for the Blind.

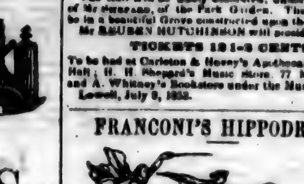
Although one connected whole, the Singing will consist of Solos, Duetts, Trios, Semi Choruses and Choruses.

The Hall will be finely decorated, under the direction of Mr [illegible], of the Park Garden. The Singing will be in a beautiful Grove constructed upon the Stage. Mr REUBEN HUTCHINSON will preside at the Piano.

TICKETS 12 1-2 CENTS,

To be had at Carleton & Hovey's Apothecary Store, City Hall; H. H. Sheppard's Music Store, 77 Merrimack st.; and A. Whitney's Bookstore under the Museum.
Lowell, July 8, 1853. jy8d4t

FRANCONI'S HIPPODROME.



RESTORATION OF THE

FESTIVALS, GAMES AND AMUSEMENTS OF THE ANCIENT GREEKS AND ROMANS.

First Exhibition in America of FRANCONI'S COLOSSAL HIPPODROME!

With all its Animated Splendors, its daring Chariot Races, Gorgeous Tournaments, Exhilarating Flat and Hurdle Races and other Exciting and Novel Exercises of the Olympian Arena and Hippodrome.

The CHASE, the COURSE, the ARENA, the CHASE, the TILTING GROUND, and PARADE, Under one immense Canopy, covering upwards of

TWO ACRES OF GROUND!

With ample accommodation for seating 6000 spectators.

Performances Afternoon and Evening.

Doors open at 1½ o'clock in the afternoon, and 7½ o'clock in the evening.

[illegible]

Eminent Hippodrome Riders in Europe, Will take part in the various Feats.

Two Hundred Horses and Ponies, Fifty Caparisons and Cars, Racing Ostriches, Hunting Camels, Trained Elephants, and Reindeer used for the Chase.

Will all be introduced in the course of the entertainment.

Sixty Male and Female Characters,

Female Chasers, Fox and Stag Hunters, Hurdle Jumpers, with a full Troupe of Riders and Gymnastic Artistes, the elite of both hemispheres, will appear in consecutive and animated scenes.

Admission 25 Cents—No Half Price.

WILL BE EXHIBITED AT LOWELL,

THURSDAY and FRIDAY, JULY, 21 & 22,

ON THE SOUTH COMMON.

The Procession of the HIPPODROME will enter Lowell ON THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1853, At 10 o'clock, A. M.

 For particulars, see bills posted at the Hotels.

WATCHES,

JEWELRY,

—AND—

SILVER WARE!

AMOS SANBORN,

Post Office Corner, No. 29 Central street,

HAS now on hand a LARGER assortment than all the other dealers in Lowell of

FINE SILVER AND GOLD WATCHES,

warranted time keepers.

RICH JEWELRY, in great variety of styles.

SILVER WARE, consisting of PITCHERS, WAITERS, KETTLES, TEA SETS, FORKS, SPOONS, and Fancy Silver for PRESENTS.

PLATED WARE—BASKETS, TEA SETS, WAITERS, CASTORS, &c., as handsome as Silver.

Fine Table Cutlery and Britannia Ware, English and American.

☞ All of the above will be sold cheap for cash. I can sell cheaper than any one in Lowell, and as cheap as can be bought in Boston or New York, as I am manufacturing my own goods, and what I do not manufacture I have direct from the manufacturers in New York and Philadelphia.

 Please give me a call before buying.

AMOS SANBORN,
POST OFFICE CORNER, LOWELL, MASS.
June 11, 1853. jn11*

DAVID HYDE,

No 22 Central street, Lowell,

AND

No. 46 State street, Boston,

—DEALER IN—

STOCKS, MONEY, AND REAL ESTATE.

MEMBER OF THE BROKERS' BOARD, BOSTON.

In Boston Every Day.

Money remitted to any State, Bills, &c., in Boston.—Dividends and Interest collected. [illegible] I leave Lowell for Boston at 9 o'clock, A. M., and return at 1½ P. M. may7*tf

WOOLEN FACTORY FOR SALE OR TO LET,

SITUATED in Pelham, N. H., on the Mammoth Road, and known as the Peters' Factory. The Mill and Machinery are in first rate condition and in running order. [illegible] For further particulars inquire of C. P. TALBOT & CO., City Market House, Lowell, Mass., or of ALBERT AREHILL, near the premises.
Lowell, June 16, 1853.

JEWELLER'S NOTICE.

ARRANGEMENTS in my business being such I wish to dispose of my extensive stock of WATCHES, JEWELRY, SILVER, PLATED and BRITANNIA WARE, at Greatly Reduced Prices. [illegible]

STORE TO LET.

The old well known stand now occupied by J. C. Ayer & Co. at 22 Appleton Block. [illegible]

LAND NEAR LOWELL FOR SALE.

[illegible]

To the Honorable the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court next to be holden at Lowell within and for the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, on the second Tuesday of April, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and fifty-three.

RHODA A. FLANDERS, formerly by name Rhoda A. Alexander, of Lowell in the County of Middlesex aforesaid, respectfully libels and gives this Honorable Court to be informed that on the twenty second day of January, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and forty nine, at Grafton, in the County of Grafton in the State of New Hampshire, she was lawfully married by Jesse Cass a Justice of the Peace for said County of Grafton, to Hiram B. Flanders of Lawrence in the County of Essex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts aforesaid,—that for more than four years last past she has resided at Lowell in the County of Middlesex aforesaid,—that after said marriage she and the said Hiram B. Flanders lived together as husband and wife at Lowell aforesaid for a long time, when the said Hiram B. Flanders deserted her and left said Lowell,—that your libellant ever since her intermarriage has conducted herself towards the said Hiram B. as a faithful and affectionate wife, but that the said Hiram B., neglecting his marriage vows and duty, since the said marriage and at divers times from December, A. D. 1849 to March, A. D. 1853, committed the crime of adultery with one Louisa Tucker, at Danbury in the County of Grafton and State of New Hampshire aforesaid. And your libellant avers that the said Hiram B., regardless of his marriage vows and duty, on divers other days and times since the first day of December, A. D. 1849 and before the filing of this libel, has committed the crime of adultery with sundry lewd women to your libellant unknown. Wherefore your libellant prays that the bonds of matrimony may be dissolved between her and the said Hiram B. Flanders, and that she may be allowed to resume her maiden name.

RHODA A. FLANDERS.

BLAISDELL & ABBOTT, Att'ys for Libellant.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

MIDDLESEX ss. Supreme Judicial Court at Lowell, April Term, 1853.

ON the foregoing Libel, Ordered, that the said Libellant notify the said Hiram B. Flanders to appear at the next term of said Court, to be holden at Cambridge within and for said County, on the third Tuesday of October next, by serving him with an attested copy of said libel with the order thereon fourteen days at least, before the said third Tuesday of October next, or by publishing an attested copy of said libel with this order thereon in the Lowell Daily Journal and Courier, a newspaper printed at Lowell aforesaid, three weeks successively, the last publication thereof to be thirty days at least before the said third Tuesday of October next, that he may then and there show cause (if any he have) why the prayer in said libel contained should not be granted.

Copy of Libel and Order thereon. SETH AMES, Clerk.

FOR SALE.

A superior PIANO FORTE, just received from the manufactory of Hallett & Allen. Apply between the hours of 12 and 1, to W. F. ULMAN, Wentworth's Building, (up stairs.)
March 7, 1853.

MUSIC.

MRS G. W. STEWARD, formerly Miss Remick, is prepared to give instruction on the Piano Forte, at her residence on the corner of Appleton and South sts.—Tuition, $6,00 for 24 lessons.

DRUG STORE FOR SALE.

THE complete stock of Drugs, Medicines, Fancy Goods, &c., of the best selection and quality, with the elegant Fixtures and Furniture of a well known Apothecary's Stand in the city, with the lease of the same. Apply at this office.
Lowell, May 5, 1853.

APOTHECARY STOCK FOR SALE,

AND STORE TO LET, at the corner of Merrimack and Bridge streets. For information inquire of STEPHEN CASTLES.

WATER CURE ESTABLISHMENT FOR SALE OR TO BE LEASED.

The owners of the Cold Water Establishment, situated on "Dracut Heights" in Lowell, residing in New York, are anxious to sell or lease the Estate, and offer the same on very favorable terms. The place is well and favorably known to the public as a flourishing Hydropathic Institution. It is within ten minutes' walk of the centre of business in Lowell, but possesses all the advantages of an elevated and rural residence. It will accommodate forty patients—and in its supply of pure water and bathing conveniences it presents superior advantages. It will be sold very low if early application is made. Possession given the first of June.

Address the owners, BLAKE & BROWN, New York City, or TAFFAN WENTWORTH, Lowell, E. F. SHERMAN,
May 26, 1853.

TWO HOUSES FOR SALE.

A neat two story House on the south side of Tyler street in Lowell, next east of the house now occupied by Rev. J. Towne.

A double two story House on the west side of Gorham street, near Appleton street. The Gorham street House now rents for more than $200 per annum.

A large part of the purchase money can remain on mortgage. For further particulars inquire of Hon. TAPPAN WENTWORTH, or CHARLES M. SHORT.
Lowell, May 18, 1853.

TO LET,

[illegible] Apply to A. P. GROSVENOR.

OFFICES TO LET.

Two pleasant and convenient Offices on the corner of Central and Jackson streets, will be rented cheap. Apply to JAS. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

FOR SALE,

One new Boston built CARRYALL, a superior article. Also, a very fine FAMILY HORSE, six years old, weighs 1000 lbs., fine figure, can trot his mile in 3½ minutes, free from all tricks or fault.

For further particulars inquire at my counting room, over Ayer & Co.'s Apothecary Store, corner of Central and Jackson sts. JOHN CHAMBERLIN, Jr.
Lowell, June 15, 1853.

MONEY TO LOAN.

TO LOAN by the subscriber, in sums from $50 to $5000 Dollars, upon all kinds of Personal Property given as collateral security, at the corner of Central and Jackson sts., over Ayer & Co.'s Apothecary Store.
JOHN CHAMBERLIN, Jr.

NOTICE.

THE copartnership heretofore existing between Robert and Emerson Gardiner, under the firm of R. & E. Gardiner, is this day dissolved by the death of Robert Gardiner. All persons therefore having demands against the said firm are hereby requested to present them for payment; and all persons indebted to the same are requested to make immediate payment to Emerson Gardiner, at their former place of business, No. 16 Bancroft's Block, Market st.
EMERSON GARDINER.
Lowell, April 18, 1853.

ECONOMY, CONVENIENCE & COMFORT ARE CONSULTED IN

NUTTING'S FAR-FAMED PATENT.

THIS long desired improvement for Windows is gaining universal approbation, for the reason that it not only removes the necessity of cords and weights or balances, with the many difficulties attendant upon them, but accommodates our severe climate by expanding or contracting. [illegible]  A window, with this improvement attached, may be seen at my shop, first door CANNEY PACTORAL BLOCK, Jackson st., to which I would cordially invite the attention of one and all.

H. H. PAYNE.
Lowell, May 26, 1853.

PLAIN SATIN BERAGES,

A BEAUTIFUL article for Ladies' Summer Dresses; LAMA CLOTHS, something very rich; PERSIAN CLOTHS in desirable shades; Plain all wool DELAINES; SUMMER SHAWLS in great variety; Also, all kinds of DRESS and DOMESTIC GOODS may be found at the Ladies' Furnishing Store,

106 Merrimack street, opposite Kirk.
C. S. MORSE.

FOREIGN SILVER COIN WANTED.

YOU can with your foreign quarters and half quarters, without any discount, buy Books, Stationery, Fancy Articles, Paper Hangings, &c., at A. WHITNEY'S, Museum Building.

YOUNG BLACK HAWK.

This well known and beautiful Stud Horse will be kept at the Washington House Stables, through the season. Those interested in improving the breed of horses are invited to call.
Lowell, May 14, 1853.

VOCAL MUSIC.

GEO. F. WILLEY,

Respectfully gives notice to his friends and the public, that he has resumed his private instruction in the principles of Music, and the cultivation of the Voice.

In order to accommodate those who may not wish to take private instruction, he will organize Classes for Ladies and Gentlemen, on moderate terms.

Music Room—the lecture room of Kirk-street Church. Orders or notes for Mr Willey may be addressed to him at H. H. Sheppard's Music Store, 77 Merrimack st., or at his residence, 34 Franklin Square.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

PIANO FORTES tuned, regulated and repaired in the best manner. All orders left at the Bookstore of Mr J. P. Walker, No. 61 Merrimack st., will be promptly attended to by HENRY BOYNTON, who will visit Lowell every month. He will also select Piano Fortes (for purchasers) from any of the best establishments in Boston, at the manufacturers' lowest prices, all warranted. Refers to L. Strack and W. F. Ulman, Profs. of Music. Rooms at the American House.
Lowell, Sept. 28, 1852.

SPRING GOODS.

I have received, and am ready to exhibit at my store, No. 8 Canal Block, a well selected stock of CLOTHS, PANT GOODS and VESTINGS, of the various styles, [illegible] Lowell.
DANIEL H. DEAN.

ADELAIDE CLOTH.

A NEW ARTICLE for Ladies' Travelling Dresses, a very desirable goods, and not expensive. Just opened by E. HOSFORD & CO.

ZINC PAINT.

FRENCH ZINC PAINT ground in Prepared Oil, by the keg of various sizes, constantly on hand and for sale by COBURN & MIXER, Mechanics' Building, Dutton st.

HAYING TOOLS.

INDEPENDENT HORSE RAKES;
Horse Rakes, Hervey's Improvement;
Spring Tooth Horse Rakes;
Ruby's Scythes, (Cast, German and Silver Steel;)
Kimball & Son's Scythes;
Phillips, Messer & Colby's do., Cast and Silver Steel;
Bush Scythes;
Lamson's Patent Scythe Snaths;
Challis & King's do. do. (remarkably cheap.)
Kimball & Son's do. do.
Bush do. do.
Partridge's celebrated Cast Steel Hay Forks;
Pope & Parsons' do. do. do.
Van Ornum & Co.'s do. do. do.
Morse's do. do. do.
Concrete Scythe Rifles, old style;
Scythe Stones of all kinds;
Robb's Rakes, (the best that can be found);
Bartlett's Rakes, (cheap;)
Low priced Rakes made by various manufacturers;
Grain Cradles complete, (very light);
Grass Hooks (cast steel);
Sickles of the best sorts;
Grindstones of superior grit, with frames or without.

☞ The abovementioned Tools, together with others not specified in the advertisement, are now ready for sale at the lowest prices either by wholesale or retail, at the Lowell Agricultural Warehouse and Seed Store of GEO. P. ELLIOT & SON, No. 46 Central st., (nearly opposite the Post Office,) and 3 Prescott st., where may be found every Agricultural Implement in use by Farmers.
Lowell, June 27, 1853. je27dtf

PIANO FORTE WAREROOM,

Wentworth's Building, 148 Merrimack st.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Lowell and vicinity that he has constantly on hand the largest assortment of Musical Instruments in the State. A large assortment of Piano Fortes to let, from different manufactories. Also, Seraphines for sale and to let. A good assortment of new Pianos at very low prices.

Those wishing to have music in their families, will do well to call and examine my extensive stock.

JAMES AMES.

J. A. would also give notice that he will attend to tuning and repairing Pianos, Seraphines and Church Organs in the best manner. Orders left at 148 Merrimack street, will be promptly attended to. je11dtf

Fifty Tickets for One Dollar.

PURE PENTUCKET SODA WATER,

COOL AND SPARKLING,

Drawn at all seasons, by C. S. EASTMAN & CO., Apothecaries, Wyman's Exchange.

SOMETHING TO DRINK!!

A NEW, DELICIOUS

TEMPERANCE BEVERAGE.

AMBROSIAL MEAD!!

THIS excellent Compound is prepared from the best Spanish Sarsaparilla, without its dark, repulsive appearance, being beautifully transparent and entirely free from all impurities. Its qualities as a beverage, a single trial will give it a pre-eminence over all other preparations, by its freedom from noxious ingredients, agreeableness of flavor, and its exceeding cheapness, one bottle being sufficient to make thirty glasses of the beverage.

Caution!—The proprietors of this excellent preparation, having spared no expense to bring it to perfection, would caution purchasers to be sure that we have the fac simile of Wilson, Fairbank & Co., on every bottle.

Wilson, Fairbank & Co., 13 and 15 Hanover st., Boston, sole manufacturers. Sold by all Druggists and Grocers throughout the country.

For sale in Lowell by J. C. AYER & CO., S. KIDDER, Jr., and all the Druggists and Grocers.

BROWN & MERRIAM

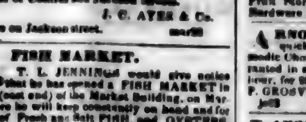
HAVE just received a very large lot of GLASS WARE, of new and approved styles and first quality, consisting in part as follows:

150 doz. common Tumblers; 75 doz. good Table do.; 30 do small do.; 50 do. large Soda do.; [illegible] Goblets; Wines, Cordials, Jellies and Champagnes; Fluted Tumbler on foot; Butter and Pickle Plates; Specie Jars; Ring Jars, glass covers; Sauce Plates; Egg Cups; Lamps; Lamp Chimnies; Butter Dishes, Britannia caps; Large Octagon Fat Dishes; Large Water Pitchers; Creamers; Sugars; Sauce Bowls on stands. Also, a large assortment of Syrup Bottles, Nappies, Handled and Unhandled Lemonades, Cut Tumblers, Cut Lamps, Cut Salts, Cut Decanters and Dishes, Candlesticks, Fish Globes, and large Dishes on stand.

Buyers are requested to examine, at No. 46 Merrimack and 5 John st., Nesmith's New Block. may11*tf

PARIAN AND BISQUE FIGURES.

AN invoice of these beautiful Figures has been received, comprising an assortment of choice and price, at BROWN & MERRIAM'S, sign of the "Big Pitcher," 46 Merrimack and 5 John sts.



AT THE SIGN OF THE "TURK,"

Corner of Central and Jackson streets.

J. C. AYER & Co.

☞ Entrance on Jackson street.

FISH MARKET.

T. L. JENNINGS would give notice that he has opened a FISH MARKET in the south side (east end) of the Market Building, on Market street, where he will keep constantly on hand and for sale, all kinds of Fresh and Salt FISH, and OYSTERS, CLAMS and LOBSTERS in their season. Former patrons and the public are invited to call and see him at his new place.

NEW BOOK.—Fern Leaves from Fanny's Portfolio, received at MERRILL & STRAW'S.

DRIED BEEF may be found at J. PEARSON'S, of the finest quality. Bank Building, Shattuck st.

FOR THE COMPLEXION.

WRITE'S PERSIAN COSMETIC, for removing Freckles, Tan, Pimples and Eruptions of the Skin, rendering it fair, soft and transparent. Only agent in Lowell, S. KIDDER, Jr., corner Merrimack and John sts. Price 25, 50 and 75 cts.

REMOVAL.

CARLETON & HOVEY, Apothecaries, have removed to their old stand in City Hall, corner of Shattuck street.

A BARGAIN

IN Brown Linen Table Covers, at HOSFORD'S, No. 92 Merrimack street, Sign of the Big Stocking.

NOTICE.

THIS is to give notice that I hereby relinquish all claim [illegible] his time, and I shall hereafter pay no bills of his contracting.
PAUL PERKINS.
Lowell, July 8, 1853.

CIGARS!

FOSTER & PATRICK, 60 Merrimack street, [illegible] manufacturers and dealers in Cigars, Tobacco, Snuff, Pipes, Tobacco and Snuff Boxes, Cigar Cases, Playing Cards, &c.

[illegible]

CUT GLASS DISHES.

JUST RECEIVED by BROWN & MERRIAM, a lot of very fine Cut Glass Dishes, [illegible] 46 Merrimack and 5 John sts.

CUT GOBLETS.—Several beautiful styles of Rich Cut Goblets at BROWN & MERRIAM'S, sign of the Big Pitcher.

FOURTH JULY PRESENTS.

RICH Vases and Bouquet Holders at BROWN & MERRIAM'S, 46 Merrimack and 5 John sts., Nesmith's New Block.

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

DOGS! DOGS!! DOGS!!!

Owners and keepers of Dogs are hereby notified that on and after the first day of May next, the Ordinance relating to Dogs will be strictly enforced.

By order of the Mayor and Aldermen.
EDWIN L. SHED, City Marshal.
City of Lowell, April 11, 1853. apr11d3m

CITY CLAIMS.

In Committee on Accounts, Jan. 18, 1853.

ORDERED, That hereafter the Quarterly Salary Bills duly approved, be presented to the Auditor on or before the 25th of March, June, September and December, and that they be payable on the first day of the month next succeeding.

2d. That all Pauper bills be presented to the Auditor on or before the first day of each month.

3d. That all other Bills be made up to include the last day of each month, and that, duly approved, they be presented to the Auditor on or before the third day of each month, and be payable on the tenth.

All Bills not approved and presented as above, will lie over until the next month.

STEPHEN MANSUR,
ALPHA STEVENS,
CALEB G. WEAVER,
HENRY H. WILDER,
C. F. BLANCHARD,
Committee.

☞ The Auditor's Office is in City Hall. Office hours from 8 to 12, A. M., and from 2 to 5 o'clock, P. M.

SEALER'S NOTICE.

THE subscriber having been appointed Sealer of Weights and Measures for the City of Lowell for the present municipal year, hereby gives notice that he will attend at his shop, No. 15 Middle street, to the sealing of all such Scales and Beams, Weights and Measures, as shall be brought to him for that purpose.
ABIJAH CUTTER.
Lowell, May 18, 1853. may18dtf

LOWELL ISLAND.

The Hotel is now open under the charge of Mr GILMAN.

The Steamer ARGO will perform regular trips, Leaving Lowell Island for Phillips's Wharf at 6.15, 7.20, 9.45 A. M., 2.15, *6.30 P. M.

Phillips' Wharf for Lowell Island at 7, 8.30, 10.15 A. M., 2.30, *6.30, 5.45, 7.30 P. M.

* Via Beverly on Wednesday, and via Marblehead on Saturday.

Through tickets from Lowell to Lowell Island and back (including Railroad and Steamboat fares) are sold at One Dollar each, at Ticket Office of Salem and Lowell Railroad Company.

Passengers for Lowell Island be particular to call for Island Tickets. Island Tickets are good only from Lowell to Island and back. Passengers returning on No. 6 Check will be charged 25 cents extra.

STOVES! STOVES! STOVES!

DO YOU WANT A GOOD STOVE?

CALL at I. W. & D. BANGS, where you will find the BEST and most ECONOMICAL COOK STOVES in the market. They are sole agents in Lowell for the sale of E. Reed & Co.'s BAY STATE and BANNER STOVES. [illegible]

All kinds of Pump Work done to order.

☞ Agents for the sale of Conant's Cast Wooden Pumps.

I. W. & D. BANGS, opposite Washington House, Central st.
Lowell, June 4, 1853.

LIGHTNING RODS.

PERSONS wishing to secure their buildings against damage by fire, are invited to call at my office, in No. 21 Appleton Block, and examine a model of Sprott's Patent Lightning Conductors.

These Rods will be put up at short notice by my assistant, Mr S. DESILON, who has had much experience in the business, and is prepared to understand it thoroughly.

FREDERICK PARKER, Agent for Lowell and vicinity.
Lowell, June 17, 1853. je18dtf

E. W. SCOTT,

DRAUGHTSMAN, PATTERN AND MODEL MAKER.

Middle st., opposite Post Office, Lowell.

DRAWINGS for all kinds of Machinery, Patterns for Castings of every description and Models of Machines made in the most thorough manner.

The subscriber has the very best facilities for the transaction of business with the PATENT OFFICE, as I can furnish the Drawings, Specifications and Models complete for Patents of any description, at my establishment, thereby lessening the expense by being all executed under the direction of one man. Papers, Drawings, &c., for caveats, additional improvements, disclaimers, re-issues, extensions, designs, assignments, and all other business with the Patent Office done confidentially and promptly.

Models left with me will, if desired, be forwarded to Washington free.

I thank my customers and the public for their patronage, and by diligence and faithfulness shall hope to retain their confidence.

E. W. SCOTT.
Lowell, June 20, 1853. je20dtf

ENGRAVING AND COPPER-PLATE PRINTING.

The subscriber respectfully informs her friends and the public generally that she has opened an office adjoining her house on Lee street, where all orders for ENGRAVING and PRINTING will be carefully attended to. Marriage and Visiting Cards executed at short notice. Also, Labels for all purposes neatly engraved and printed.

A large assortment of the best French and American CARDS constantly on hand. Mrs P. A. O'NEILL.
Lowell, May 14, 1853.

FLOUR! FLOUR!!

300 bbls. various brands, including Extras, Double Extras and Superfine qualities, for sale on favorable terms, at No. 30 Central st.

Also, a good assortment of GROCERIES, to which the attention of purchasers is respectfully invited.

J. D. PUTNAM, 30 Central st.
Lowell, May 9, 1853.

BELL HANGING.

THE subscriber continues to hang and repair House Bells of all kinds, with or without Secret Springs, in good style, at short notice.

E. BUSSEL, Middle street.
Lowell, May 14, 1853.

ALBERT ROWSE, Teacher of the Piano Forte, and English and Italian Vocal Music. Apply to GEO. HEDRICK, 26 Central st., opposite the Post Office.

BLACK LACE VEILS.

THE greatest variety in the city can be found at HOSFORD'S.

HOSE.

A FULL SUPPLY of India Rubber Conducting Hose, suitable for dwelling and garden purposes. Also Couplings, Pipes and Sprinklers for do., for sale by COBURN & MIXER, Mechanics' Building, Dutton st.

PINE APPLE CHEESE of superior quality, may be found at JOHN PEARSON'S Family Grocery and Fruit Store, Shattuck st., next door to Mason Rogers' Hardware Store.

ARNOLD'S BALSAM.—The only sure, safe and quick remedy for Cholera Morbus, Asiatic or Spasmodic Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, &c. A cure warranted in all cases in their first stages in less than one hour, for 25 cents. For sale wholesale and retail by A. F. GROSVENOR, corner Bridge and River sts., north side of the river.

LANGLEY'S BITTERS.—A fresh supply received and for sale by S. KIDDER, Jr., General Agent for Lowell, Merrimack, cor. John st.

WHITE DRESS GOODS.

INDIA LINENS, Dotted Swiss, and Jaconet Muslins of every quality, just opened by HOSFORD & CO., 92 Merrimack st.

EDWARD BUSH, APOTHECARY,

DEALER in Drugs, Medicines and Chemicals for Physicians and Family use. Also, Fancy Goods of every description, Perfumery, &c. [illegible] Corner Merrimack and Central streets, under Rev. Mr Bancroft's Church, Lowell.

SODA WATER.

WITH A VARIETY OF THE CHOICEST SYRUPS: RASPBERRY—STRAWBERRY—LEMON—SARSAPARILLA—GINGER—ORGEAT—PINE-APPLE—CHECKERBERRY, AND VANILLA.

50 TICKETS FOR ONE DOLLAR!

J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries, corner Central and Jackson sts.

A NEW DISCOVERY.

THE HYDRO-ELECTRIC VOLTAIC CHAIN.

THIS Chain produces all the effects of the Magnetic Machines, and is much more convenient. [illegible]

CARLETON & HOVEY, only agents for Lowell.

CORN, WART, AND MOLE EXTRACTOR.—Warranted to eradicate [illegible] for sale by E. BUSH, corner Merrimack and Central sts., under the Church.

AUCTION SALES.

BY E. B. PATCH,

Office, Nos. 5, 7, 8 and 9 Commercial Square, Lowell.

Assignee's Sale.

On FRIDAY, July 15, at 10 o'clock A. M., will be sold, [illegible] Lot No. 17 on plan of [illegible] situated at the corner of [illegible] containing 13,771 square feet.

C. F. BLANCHARD, Assignee.

Great Chance for an Investment.

On SATURDAY, July 23, at 7½ o'clock, P. M., the following property, situated on the northerly side of Middle street, formerly known as the Dickinson lot, divided as follows:

No. 1—At the westerly end of the lot, extends 55 feet in depth, and containing 1100 square feet, with a two story building upon the same which rents for $180 per annum.

No. 2—[illegible]

No. 3—[illegible]

No. 4—[illegible]

There is no locality in the city where property will pay more readily to good paying tenants. Title perfectly good. Terms at sale. The whole may be sold in one lot if desired.

AT PRIVATE SALE.

The house on Lawrence street, owned and occupied by Rev. Dr. Miles. It is pleasantly located, conveniently arranged, thoroughly built, finished with a furnace, furnished with a Range and gas fixtures, and a never failing well of pure water. The lot contains 10,000 square feet of land, and has upon it the choicest varieties of pears, cherry, plum, peach and quince trees in bearing condition, and 13 large and well selected trees of the native forest. The premises may be examined at any time. Terms very liberal. Inquire of Dr. Miles or E. B. Patch.

☞ Regular sales of Dry Goods every Wednesday and Thursday, at 2 o'clock, P. M., and of Furniture, Horses and Carriages, every Saturday, at 2 o'clock, A. M.

A Private Sale—New and second hand Furniture, Crockery and Glass Ware, Cutlery, Groceries, Clothing, Watches, Pictures and Fancy Goods.

The highest price paid for large or small lots of Furniture and other personal property. E. B. PATCH.

PERRY'S HUNGARIAN BALM.

For Restoring, Preserving and Embellishing

THE HAIR.

THIS preparation is an effectual Remedy for Baldness, or falling off of the Hair. It prevents and completely eradicates Scurf and Dandruff, strengthens the roots of the Hair, causing it to grow luxuriantly, gives it a Rich, Dark Soft and Glossy appearance, and prevents it from turning prematurely gray. The Hungarian Balm is a purely and being scientifically and chemically combined, is warranted to contain none of those deleterious ingredients which prove so injurious to the Hair. It acts directly upon the skin, cleansing and purifying it from all unhealthy secretions, thereby removing and preventing the accumulation of Scurf, Dandruff, and other impurities, which so frequently cause premature decay and loss of the Hair.

Vegetable Compound,

THE HUNGARIAN BALM

is especially adapted to Ladies' use, and those who have tried the various Hair Restorers, will at once discover the superiority and beneficial effects produced by the use of this pure and delicate preparation. [illegible] Numerous testimonials might be produced in favor of the HUNGARIAN BALM, [illegible]

THEREFORE,
If you are troubled with Dandruff,
If you suffer from Baldness,
If you have Salt Rheum, or any Disease of the Scalp,
If you have Hair Eaters at the roots of the Hair,
If you are troubled with Nervous Headache,
If you have Harsh, Dry and Wiry Hair, and if you wish to preserve Rich, Graceful and Luxuriant Tresses, to the latest period of life, use

Perry's Hungarian Balm.

Beware of counterfeits, and worthless imitations. Each bottle of the Genuine will have the words, "PERRY'S HUNGARIAN BALM FOR THE HAIR," blown in the glass. The label and outside wrapper will also have the signature of

J. A. PERRY, Sole Proprietor.
PRICE 25 CENTS.

Prepared and sold wholesale and retail by BURR & PERRY, at the New England Patent Medicine and Perfumery Store, No. 1 Cornhill, BOSTON. Sold by J. A. PERRY, Sr., corner of Manchester street, Manchester, N. H.

Agents for Lowell—S. Kidder, Jr., Carleton & Hovey, J. C. Ayer & Co., C. S. Eastman & Co., and by Druggists generally.

J. RUSSELL SPALDING'S

ROSE MARY

AND CASTOR OIL

ROSEMARY AND CASTOR OIL ARE NO NEW ARTICLES FOR THE HAIR.

They were formerly used in the form of a pomatum, and highly esteemed. [illegible] W. T. Brande, F. R. S., [illegible]

USE IT, IF YOU WISH,

1st. To beautify the hair.
2d. To curl the hair elegantly.
3d. To remove the scurf and dandruff.
4th. To make the hair soft and glossy.
5th. To give to whiskers a beautiful appearance.
6th. To prevent the hair from falling off.
7th. To cure all diseases of the skin.
8th. To prevent the hair turning gray.
9th. To cure the hair deeply.
10th. To kill hair-eaters.
11th. To dress children's hair elegantly.

READ THIS.

[illegible]

BENJAMIN SEAVEY, Brookfield Street.
May 30, 1853.

All genuine will have the signature of the Manufacturer and Proprietor,

J. RUSSELL SPALDING, DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY, 23 Tremont Row, Opposite Museum, Boston, Mass.

TRIAL BOTTLES, 25 CENTS ONLY. | VERY LARGE BOTTLES, 75 CENTS ONLY.

Sold by Agents everywhere. Also by all the wholesale Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers in Boston. [illegible] Sold in Lowell by S. KIDDER, Jr., CARLETON & HOVEY, J. C. AYER & CO., C. S. EASTMAN & CO., E. BUSH.
Jan. 4, 1853.

GRAIN FOR FOWLS.

300 Bushels damaged Rice on hand, the best article for fowls—for sale low. Also 100 bush. damaged Wheat. Also Buckwheat, Barley, Round Corn, &c., &c. For sale by SAM'L N. WOOD, Market st.

FRENCH SHIRT BOSOMS.

FRENCH woven Plaited BOSOMS, ready for inserting into shirts, a new article, saving much labor in sewing—just received and for sale by THAYER & CO., Central st.

CALIFORNIA NOTICE.

LADIES or Gentlemen having California Gold, can have the same made into Rings and Pins at SANBORN'S Silver Spoon Manufactory and Jewelry Store, Post Office Corner.

HAYING TOOLS.

CONSISTING of Tuft & Son's, Phillips's, Messer's and Colby's Scythes, [illegible] STEPHEN MANSUR.

WILDER'S IMPROVED SALAMANDER SAFES of different sizes, on hand and for sale at the manufacturer's prices, by S. MANSUR.

NEAT AND CONVENIENT.—Ladies' and Pocket Ladies' [illegible] JAS. P. WALKER, 61 Merrimack st.

AUCTION SALES.

BY S. C. SHAPLEIGH,

Office—3, 4 and 5 Commercial Square.

LINEN GOODS AT PRIVATE SALE.

[illegible]

COAL AND WOOD.

Best qualities of Red and White Ash Coal screened and delivered in any part of the city, at the lowest price. [illegible] Also—All kinds Hard and Soft Wood in large or small quantities. [illegible]

S. C. SHAPLEIGH.

SAVANNAH AND BOSTON PACKETS.

ALLEN & WELTCH'S LINE—From Rowe's Wharf, ON WEDNESDAY NEXT.

The New York packet brig PHILURA, A. R. Clamons, master, will sail as above.

For freight or passage, having fine accommodations, apply to C. E. ALLEN, or SAM'L WELTCH, 122 State st. [illegible]

CITY POINT AND RICHMOND.

ALLEN & WELTCH'S LINE—From Rowe's Wharf, TO-MORROW.

The regular packet schr. WESTOVER, Capt. [illegible] will sail as above. [illegible] apply to C. E. ALLEN or S. WELTCH, 122 State st., or at No. 13 Rowe's wharf.

NORFOLK AND PORTSMOUTH PACKETS.

ALLEN & WELTCH'S LINE—From Rowe's Wharf, TO-MORROW.

The regular packet schr. JOSEPH TURNER, [illegible] For freight or passage, apply to C. E. ALLEN, or SAMUEL WELTCH, 122 State st., [illegible] Rowe's wharf.

READ, AND BE CONVINCED!!!

SALT RHEUM SHALL BE NO LONGER BALD!!!

[illegible]

ROSE UNDERWOOD, No. 19 Paige street.

REMOVAL.

W. H. S. JOHNSON has removed from No. 2 Bridge st. [illegible]
Lowell, June 1, 1853.

DR. HILL,

The Celebrated Indian Doctor,

TAKES pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Lowell and other places, that his office is at the corner of Central and Jackson sts., over Ayer & Co.'s Apothecary store.

[illegible]

READ AND REFLECT.

[illegible]

YEARS OF PRACTICE.

[illegible]

TO FEMALES. All diseases peculiar to Females, are [illegible]

☞ The French Periodical Drops and Pills, for the [illegible]

☞ Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M.
Very respectfully, Dr. C. A. HILL, Office cor. Central and Jackson sts.

Important to the Sick.

DR. C. A. HILL,

CORNER CENTRAL AND JACKSON STS.,

INVITES the public to [illegible]

SPECIAL NOTICE.

FRENCH PERIODICAL DROPS.

DR. C. A. HILL, corner Central and Jackson streets, [illegible]

FAYAL HATS.

FOR SALE, just received at WM. P. [illegible]

PREMIUM FLOUR.

THE best brands of [illegible] SAML. N. WOOD, Market st.

FRESH GROUND WHEAT MEAL AND GROATS.—[illegible] SAML. N. WOOD, Market st.

GRINDSTONES.

GRINDSTONES of all sizes [illegible] STEPHEN MANSUR.

CHEMICAL POLISHING SPONGE.—[illegible]

AN ADMIRABLE NEW BOOK FOR BOYS.—[illegible] JAS. P. WALKER, 61 Merrimack st.

FOR FOURTH OF JULY.

THE PICTORIAL BROTHER JONATHAN, [illegible] JAS. P. WALKER.

PAINTED TEA TRAYS, [illegible] BROWN & MERRIAM.

A LARGE ASSORTMENT of Fancy Pictures, [illegible] BROWN & MERRIAM, [illegible]

HAVING [illegible] JAS. P. WALKER.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF, for sale by A. F. GROSVENOR.

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XVIII. SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 9, 1853. NO 4113

SAMUEL POTTER & CO.
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN FANCY GOODS, CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES, CUTLERY, TOYS, PRODUCE, KEROSENE STORES AND WOODEN WARE, &c. &c.
No. 28 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.
Also for sale the following articles, viz:
Fine Cut Chewing and Smoking Tobacco, Scotch Snuff, Pipes, Soap, Starch, Indigo, Blacking, Matches, Cigars, Pocket Books, Combs, Brushes, Perfumery, Fancy Soaps, Shaving Boxes, Razors, Razor Straps, Pocket Knives, Scissors, Thimbles, Needles, Pins, Tapes, Cotton Balls, Suspenders, Gloves, Hosiery, Fancy Goods, Jewelry, Spectacles, Lamps, Chimneys, Wicks, Oils, Tin Ware, Wooden Ware, Crockery, Glass, Cutlery, Toys, Nuts, Raisins, Figs, Prunes, Citron, Fine Raisins, Currants, Lemon, Fine Peaches, Pine Apples, &c.
COFFEE—Roast, Java, Porto Cabello, St. Domingo, Mocha, Rio, Laguira, Maracaibo and Costa Rica.
TEAS—Hyson, Young Hyson, Imperial, Gunpowder, Hyson Skin, Twankay, Souchong, Pekoe, Congou, Oolong, Assam, Canton, Java, Powder, Cassia, Cloves, Pure Pepper, Ginger, Cream tartar, Spices ground and unground, Cayenne Pepper, Mustard, &c.
MOLASSES—Porto Rico, Cuba Muscovado, Trinidad, Barbadoes, Havana White, Clayed, Sugar House Syrup, &c.
SUGARS—Loaf, Crushed, Powdered, Pulverized, Granulated, Coffee, Brown, Havana White, Clayed, Muscovado, Trinidad, Barbadoes, Havana White, Clayed, Sugar House Syrup, &c.
SUGAR-CURED HAMS—Boston Butts, Shoulders, Hams, Prime Mess Pork, Lard, Beef, Mackerel, Herring, Codfish, Pickled Fish, Pickles, Vinegar, Pickling Spices, Mustard, Saleratus, Sal Soda, Saltpetre what wild and visionary schemes. But in this they signally failed of success. Other triumphs have since been consecrated to their prosecution—triumphs of a character more glorious than any which they would have regarded with horror, if some prophet had unveiled the future to them. Other seas reaped the harvest than that which harvest who poured forth from their castle to the fight. Still, it cannot be doubted that the results of the Crusades were, on the whole, beneficial in the general interests of Europe, than they could have been if every ambitious baron had founded a powerful principality on the shores of the Mediterranean or the banks of the Jordan, and Palestine continued a Christian kingdom.

C. C. C.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Saturday, July 9, 1853.

[Foreign Correspondence.]

Hamburg, June 15, 1853.

Mr Varney—Dear Sir.—On leaving Lowell, I promised to write, whilst in Germany, a few letters, for your journal, and, in accordance with that promise, I commence now my first, hoping that it will not prove unbecoming to your taste and readers. But you must excuse me from any political discussion, as that is a matter in which, during my stay in Germany, I would rather not, pro tem, participate. You must also, however, I may make a passing remark even on that subject, and I beg of you to rest satisfied with such a remark. Nor do I wish to dwell on the commerce of this country, much less attempt to draw parallels between the manners of Germans and Americans, and I leave you and the readers of your paper to draw their own conclusions from what I may relate.

It was a drear and melancholy afternoon on which I left Lowell, and the sunshine of my health, and the parting with some of my dearest friends, together with the uncertainty and the result of my journey, had attuned my feelings into a perfect harmony with the state of the weather. Though with spirits thus depressed, I saw bright hopes nevertheless, in the distance, cheering my soul with the most flattering prospects of pleasure, and the hope that I should recover from my indisposition by degrees, into feeling of certainty; and when I left in the morning, after a refreshing sleep, I awoke, and on the journey to Worcester, I was not a little thrown over the landscape that greeted my eye, and which my friend in all the intricacies of daily spring-beauty, my soul grew calm with the repose of the scenes, and a contentment succeeded, prayed it instead of a pungent sorrow.—In this state of mind I arrived in New York at about nine o'clock on the morning of the 2d day of June. I had my baggage immediately carried from the 'Knickerbocker' to board the steamer 'Washington,' and then went and engaged my passage for Bremen. Afterwards I sought a friend of Reuben, with whom I dined, and at 3 o'clock precisely, the same day, our ship cleared the docks. It was a beautiful afternoon, and all nature was a smile. New York looked grand in its proud and gorgeous beauty along the North and East river, lined by thousands of masts of vessels, and the whole scene presented proudly fixed in the breeze—whilst on the right the States Island, with its rich verdure and beautiful villas, seemed to rise out of the water as if by magic, as we passed them. But by degrees we lost sight of the Battery, and of the Castle Garden, and of the city it-self; the sun hurried to his western chamber, and the shades of night fell. All other objects discernable in the distance; our ship plowed majestically, having the American flag at her main-top, and we still could discern a small speck of land now—nothing but the broad watery deep and the deep water below. We were on our way. I will not attempt to describe an element which has so often been described, but merely remember a paragraph from my journal, in which I endeavored to depict on a former occasion, my sensations when on the ocean then on my mind, and which, as yet, has not undergone a change—though it is nothing more than a repetition of what I have before mentioned, "endless wave undulus restless," or the same in German, "Endlose Welle Bewegt."

"Sometimes we see a sail, and then we strip a sea."

"Sometimes we see a storm, and then we strip a sea."

There is a sameness in the ocean, and yet a dissimilarity. But when a vessel is borne upon on the broad bosom of the ocean by night, and darkens the waves back from her sides, enveloped in the dark mantle covered with a white foam; spray, the sea presents one of the most beautiful spectacles ever viewed by any one, for the ship then seems to glide through a pathway of liquid fire, and lighted up by myriads of little lamps from below, which continues with the darkness of the waters around, and the night, presents a sight such as never is seen by any kind of which no description can be witnessed. The spectacle literally can have the most distant conception, made from this I cannot find any poetry in the vast realm, and the beautiful points from the grandeur of this tremendous element, but that it is the place in a better imagination, than there is reality. There is nothing, as I said before, to interest a landsman—monotony, except the occasional sight of a beautiful ship, or the passing by one to her destined port, or when at times "the ocean sleeps like an unwaved child," and presents as it were, an vast sheet of finely polished glass, or when, in the language of Milton, or when, like a ball of fire, he illumines the clouds in his passage home, and sinks into the water's resting place, or when purchases a storm should arise, and "awake the deep," and lash the waters into fury, to present the scene in all its sublimeness, grandeur and terror—or forming a spectacle which no one ever will or can forget, and I beg of you to rest satisfied and wish such a result. Nor do I wish to dwell on the commerce of this country, much less attempt to draw parallels between the manners of Germans and Americans, and I leave you and the readers of your paper to draw their own conclusions from what I may relate.

"The sea is hed, enwaved with clouds fire."

Prince to the sea is seen;"

It was a drear and melancholy afternoon on which I left Lowell, and the sunshine of my health, and the parting with some of my dearest friends, together with the uncertainty and the result of my journey, had attuned my feelings into a perfect harmony with the state of the weather. Though with spirits thus depressed, I saw bright hopes nevertheless, in the distance, cheering my soul with the most flattering prospects of pleasure, and the hope that I should recover from my indisposition by degrees

A. D. PUTNAM,
DEALER IN
WEST INDIA GOODS, GROCER FAMILY GROCERIES, COUNTRY PRODUCE, EASTERN STORE AND WOODEN WARE, &c. &c.,
No. 39 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL,
Opposite the Lowell Savings Bank.

FLOUR—The best and most approved brands; Byfield, Haverhill, Ohio, Genesee.
MEAL—Rye and Indian.
BUTTER AND CHEESE—New Dunstan Dairies, Vermont, Goshen, Orange County, Hampshire, Goodrich and Other Crushed, White and Brown Havana, Porto Rico, Trinidad and Muscovado Sugars.
TEAS—Young Hyson, Imperial, Gunpowder, Japan, Southong, Hyson, Oolong, and Orange Pekoe.
COFFEE—Java, Mocha, Rio, Laguayra.
SPICES—Pepper, Cinnamon, Cloves, Ginger, Nutmegs, Mace, Cassia, Pimento, Saleratus, Cream Tartar, &c.
PICKLES—Boston, New Haven, Pepper, Onion, Mixed, Walnut, Cucumber, Lemon Pepper, Nasturtion, &c.
CONFECTIONERY—Pure Loaf, Dome, Diced and Powdered Sugars, Rose, Sugar Candy, &c.
PASTRY—Citron, Dunham Walnuts, Almonds, Cocoanut, Filberts, Pecan Nuts, Raisins, &c.
SMOKING AND CHEWING TOBACCO—Spanish Twists, Negro Heads, Solace, Navy Plug, Cavendish, Pigtail, Solace, Navy Plug, Cavendish, Pigtail, Solace, Navy Plug, Cavendish, Pigtail

as distaste to trample under foot the privileges of other possessors? When I stepped into my car-riage, I left behind me the whole of the Atlantic Ocean, with its scarcely tenable fogs and rolling waves, and its breaks in it, but also its bracing and delightful breezes. Now, as I step out of mine, I was willing to bear with the dust, and the heat, and the bustle of the street. At present it would be agreeable to me, and even necessary, to have that window open; but you know I am not going to throw away your cigars. On this condition, and on none, will I submit to the closing of the window." By repeating this alternative as I was count ably sustained by the lady, who pointed out the comfort we had derived from the window-shade the mother was then otherwise at her, and that it was nearing the convenience of our fellow-travellers entirely at nought, if not against your rules of courtesy or gallantry, to remain in an matter a sojourn in the inside of a stage coach presented. The smokers, however, were unwilling to profit by the "precepts of this good lesson," and would rather bear the draught than deprive themselves of the luxury of smoking. They being silenced, therefore, I had only to contend with the lady. She insisted on the closing of the window, and I peremptorily told her that I should not submit to it. At length the victory was mine, and as everything drawn to a close, and as the three smokers after a while, almost simultaneously threw their cigars out of the window, the opposite shutter was at length raised, no doubt to the great satisfaction of the lady, and peace again restored.

Thus we travel on for more than two miles, when a heavy sleep spreads its wingsover the whole of our travelers — all around is silent," and nothing is heard save the rattling of the wheels and the tramping of our horse. Every one finally holds his head comfortably in his neighbor closest universal, and Morpheus seems to charge his heavy with "obnoxious drowsiness" for now and then he breaks out into a most pleasant "O Oh!" or a more loud exclamation "O God! O God!" or a most despairing "Oh dear I was dead!" I jilted my poor heart in spite of his lamentations, and in spite of the troubled conditions in which I found myself in. Though nothing could have been more beautiful to me than a few minutes' sleep, yet I relished neither's sweet restorer" disturbed in such a way, for I was over-fatigued. But our coach rattles over a pavement, presently it halts, the door opens, and our lady friend and leaves us. And as there is nothing of importance to relate which happened during the latter half of our trip from Hannover to Hanoche, I will at once bring you to the latter place, where I alight from the coach at half past 7 o'clock in the morning, without having closed my eyes, and, thank God, without having been robbed by the much dreaded highwayman — Here we are to take the steamer for Cuxhaven, and here is about three quarters of a mile from the place where our coach stopped—and before I have accomplished that distance my portmanteau and other effects are carried on board the steamer by a stout negro. At length my foot is placed on the deck of the steamer; I immediately walk into the cabin, and endeavor in some measure, to temper my exhaustion after my little rest. But the weather is cold, so fire is in the cabin; and though I can that alone which I so much require to visit me, still it fees me as if it disdained to form any alliance with me. I call for a cup of coffee, but my condition is not improved after having drank it, except that I feel a little warmed by it. I walk to the deck, to see if the sight of nature and its beauties, and the sea, which now stood in the heavens and the sea, which now stood in the heavens and the sea, would in some degree revive me after spilling every object with his splendour, would illumine a wilderness of pleasure was not. So I avoided not. Oh, had I been but as well as I was sick and worn-out, how much would I have enjoyed the gorgeous picturesqueness and the romantic and majestic splendour of the scene! For the scenery of the Weser, from Hameln to Cuxhaven, yields in nothing to the most delightful beauties of the Rhine, and in many instances more exalted, merely with this exception, that here we miss the many stately ruins, the beautiful towns, the lofty hills, and the legendary lore. Art has done more for the Rhine than for the Weser. But here we have the majesty and loveliness of the scene were this time lost to me, for I was really too sick to enjoy them, and my exhausted frame too plain-ly demonstrated my condition. I felt myself my nothing on my seat. I returned to the cabin, and threw myself on a bench, and now I re-solved to sleep, if possible, for I was soon in a state of sickness. Sleep, however, I could not get by using a long rest, for my coach was a bundle of nerves, and for 2 hours I had no occasion, whilst I had brought with me from Lowell, to disturb the walking to and from the cabin and the shutting of doors as ordered me. I might have slept on board, but I was so terrified out of my second debut in a steamer by a violent fit of sickness I had on one occasion, that I dared not sleep, but could sit, for I felt chilled through and through, and the whole of my frame was in a low great. Again I pace to and fro on the deck, and look again at the scene, and then sit down on the bench, then walk up and down the deck, and I am immense, unfeignedly, at the sitting-room is thrown open, and my ears fall on an empty apartment, so shall I not be disturbed by the passengers, so shall I not be disturbed by the passengers, so shall I not be disturbed by the passengers

THE COURIER

JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

Connected with Composing and Stereotype rooms, and supplied with the very newest and most approved

FAST PRESSES,

and a large assortment of type, from the numerous foundries of Boston and New York, enables us to execute JOB WORK of every description, from the finest to the largest size used, in the most

JOB TYPE,

PRINTING

manner as to enable him to confer all orders in the neatest manner of those who may favor him with their patronage.

The prices will be found as low as the quality and neat execution of the work will admit.

LOW PRICES

can be obtained by any one wishing

HANDBILLS AND RENDON POSTERS, SHOP BILLS, TRADE CARDS, CIRCULARS, CA ALOGUES, BILL HEADS, BLANKS, NAMES, BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS, CARDS, TICKETS, PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

of every size and kind, or Blanks of every shade, on short notice, and in the most

APPROVED STYLE.

We have on hand, a good stock of plain, pearl and colored paper, and will furnish CARDS, adapted to every description of work—in packs and in boxes—at the lowest rates.

THE MANUFACTURERS,

Jobbers, Traders, Mechanics, Lawyers, Physicians, and all others, will find it to their interest to call at the COURIER OFFICE, No. 3 Middle street, Lowell, before giving their orders elsewhere, as we are confident we can please them in the QUALITY OF WORK AND PRICES.

Orders by mail or otherwise promptly attended to.

JAS. T. WALKER.

FRANKLIN, Paints, Windowglass, and Boothbottom Boots, for sale by JOHN C. HOYT & CO., 17 Merrimack Square. Also, Agents for Hanson, Barbour, Fuller & Co.'s Patent Rubber Boots. [eod&w1mo]

NEW DRUG STORE.

THE subscribers would call the attention of the public to the fact that they have taken the store recently occupied by Dr. Wm. Nesmith, and have just received a large and well selected stock of DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS, OILS, DYE STUFFS, &c., which they will sell at the lowest prices for cash. Physicians' prescriptions will receive the strictest attention. Store No. 5 Merrimack Square.

RICHARD, WEBSTER & CO.

COLLEGE Pictures and Diplomas, Lowell, and Plan, Elevation and Detail Drawings of Buildings, Machinery, &c., executed by [eod&w3m] J. C. HOWARD.

Lowell Savings Bank, Nov. 1, 1857.

The Trustees have declared a dividend of FIVE PER CENT. on all deposits, payable on and after the first Monday of January next. Interest commences on the first day of January next. Deposits made on or before the first day of January next will draw interest from that day.

Dividends not drawn will be added to the principal and draw interest. Deposits may be made every day, except Sundays, from 9 o'clock A. M. to 1 o'clock P. M., and on Saturday evenings from 6 to 8 o'clock.

JOHN C. HOYT, Treasurer.

Lowell, Nov. 1, 1858. [eod3m]

NOTICE.

THE TRADERS' INSURANCE CO. have declared a dividend of FIVE PER CENT. on the capital stock, payable on demand. Also, a dividend of FIVE PER CENT. on the scrip certificates, payable on and after the 15th inst. Transfer books will be closed from the 10th to the 15th inst.

T. P. BEAL, Secretary.

Boston, Nov. 1, 1858. [eod&w3w]

NOTICE.

THE Proprietors of the "Merrimack Hall" Building are hereby notified that the annual meeting of the Proprietors will be held at the Counting Room of the Lowell Manufacturing Company, on Monday, the 15th day of November next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the choice of officers for the ensuing year, and the transaction of such other business as may be legally brought before them.

JOHN A. KNOWLTON, Clerk.

Lowell, Nov. 1, 1858. [eod&w3w]

NOTICE.

THE Proprietors of the Lowell Machine Shop are hereby notified that the annual meeting of the Proprietors will be held at the Counting Room of the Lowell Manufacturing Company, on Monday, the 15th day of November next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the choice of officers for the ensuing year, and the transaction of such other business as may be legally brought before them.

JOHN A. KNOWLTON, Clerk.

Lowell, Nov. 1, 1858. [eod&w3w]

NOTICE.

THE Proprietors of the Lowell Manufacturing Company are hereby notified that the annual meeting of the Proprietors will be held at the Counting Room of the Company, on Monday, the 15th day of November next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the choice of officers for the ensuing year, and the transaction of such other business as may be legally brought before them.

JOHN A. KNOWLTON, Clerk.

Lowell, Nov. 1, 1858. [eod&w3w]

NOTICE.

THE Proprietors of the Lowell Machine Shop are hereby notified that the annual meeting of the Proprietors will be held at the Counting Room of the Lowell Manufacturing Company, on Monday, the 15th day of November next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the choice of officers for the ensuing year, and the transaction of such other business as may be legally brought before them.

JOHN A. KNOWLTON, Clerk.

Lowell, Nov. 1, 1858. [eod&w3w]

THE PEOPLE'S CLOTHING STORE

S. T. LANCASTER'S,

Nos. 7 and 9 Appleton Block, Central st.

IS the place to buy a SUIT OF CLOTHING cheap for Cash. He keeps one of the largest and most complete assortments of Gentlemen's English and American to be found in this city, and

BROADCLOTHS

CASSIMERES AND DOESKINS,

in all the most desirable styles in the market, and

VESTINGS,

which he will make up at

GREATLY REDUCED PRICES,

AND WARRANT EVERY GARMENT TO FIT.

☞ In addition to the above, he will keep at constant on hand a large assortment of

READY MADE CLOTHING

AND

FURNISHING GOODS,

All which he will sell cheap for Cash. Give him a call. A DOLLAR SAVED IS AS GOOD AS ONE EARNED.

N.B.—Particular attention paid to Cutting for others to make. [eod&w3m]

DR. MORSE'S

INVIGORATING

CORDIAL

A PHRENOLOGIST IN MEDICINE.

PROFESSOR MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR OR CORDIAL,

The Eighth Wonder of the Botanic World.

The Invigorating Elixir and Cordial introduced into our country by Dr. M. Morse, has effected cures in the most desperate cases of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Rheumatism, Female Weakness, Piles, Fits, Neuralgia, Sick Headache, Dropsy, Erysipelas, Scrofula, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, Hoarseness, Influenza, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Canker, Mercurial Disease, Rheumatism, Gout, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Irregularities, Suppressions, Whites, Nervousness, Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Fits, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Piles

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Tuesday, July 12, 1859

The Future of Money and Trade.

There is no more melancholy maxim in the moral and policy of a good financier than that which asserts the necessity of money being controlled by the caprice of its supply and demand controlled by the caprice of its supply and demand controlled by the caprice of its supply and demand. The theory which at one time made money plentiful at another scarce, was not less idle nonsense. They have never been understood, and never can be clearly, from their fantastic impertinence, are entitled to be. In many times when forces have occurred in which both of these principles have been developed as the cause of the distress. And many are the causes, which passion or self-interest, or ignorance have ascribed to these causes assigned as the occasion of monetary embarrassment.

But we have had an illustration of the fallacies of both of these schools. All now agree that the law of money is regulated by the amount of its supply in the market. Now one man can be made of the fact, that within the past four years the world has received into circulation nearly four millions from the mines of California, Australia and Mexico. This increase, or addition, presents matter for thought enough for reflection. Will it affect commerce? If so, how? Will the influence extend? And will the influence be for good or for evil? And by what means and to what extent? Will the increase of the precious metals be a blessing or a curse to mankind? These are questions suggested by the present influx of gold from abroad.

The best effect of this influx will, of course, be to—that there will be a great surplus of gold in the market. Falling demand for this, the price or value of gold will suffer a diminution. Commodities

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XVIII. WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 18, 1858. NO. 4116.

THE COURIER.

JOB PRINTING OFFICE.

FAST PRESSES,

JOB TYPE,

PRINTING

LOW PRICES

CARDS,

LABELS,

STORE TO LET

TEMPERANCE BEVERAGE.

CLOTHING STORE

S. T. LANCASTER'S,

GREATLY REDUCED PRICES,

READY MADE CLOTHING

FURNISHING GOODS,

VESTINGS,

DR. MORSE'S

INVIGORATING

CORDIAL.

NEW TAILORING SALOON.

New Freight Arrangement

SPRING STOCK AND STYLES CLOTHS

JEWELRY, &c.

SPALDING'S CYTHEREAN

FANCY GOODS.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, FEATHERS

PIANO FORTES.

PIANO FORTES.

PIANO FORTES.

thought of. The earth is open. Let's leave the air to the princes of it. If we fly, it will be to confine with them. Let's leave the earth to the princes of it. Let's leave the earth to the princes of it. Let's leave the earth to the princes of it.

If we only just what a high exhilaration the motion of the railway train in the night produces! Let's leave the earth to the princes of it. Let's leave the earth to the princes of it. Let's leave the earth to the princes of it.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Wednesday, July 13, 1853

Elective Judges.

On a motion of Mr Hooper, of Fall River, the Convention has come to the conclusion to refer the question of the Judiciary, to the people, to be made elective! And in speaking of members of the Judiciary, we mean judges elected by the people in their primary meetings, and not judges elected by the people through the medium of their Governor.

That some reforms in our judiciary establishment might be made without hazard to the purity of its character, we have never entertained any doubt. We would even approbate a limitation of the term of office of judicial officers, to ten, or seven, or even five years. Various schemes have been proposed at different times relative to the choice of actors, the substitution of fourth for eleventh, &c., of which we should approve. We are not, then, opposed to reform for reformation's sake. But to the committing the election of judges immediately to the people, we shall ever protest as fatal; at least not until political character can be purged with more conformity to good morals than they are now to be. For many of the opponents of this proposed system stand in bold contrast then by the experience of men who has been pretty forcible strategus enough indeed to enable him to form a judicious and correct opinion on its merits and demerits.

Livingston's Portraits of Distinguished Americans, Judge Catron, of Tennessee, one of the U. S. Supreme Court, expressed himself as follows:

"I never was a candidate for any political office, nor held any office except my military commission, that of Assistant and Judge. For many years I have been free from any of the excitements of political life. With the Revolving masses I had no sympathy. They moved in a sphere entirely beyond my influence. They moved and thrilled and convulsed the public mind, and I looked on with astonishment at the power of the popular passions, and the fearful agitations they produced. I wished myself at home, and that I was free from the excitement. I wished myself at home, and that I was free from the excitement. I wished myself at home, and that I was free from the excitement.

Mr Barlow reported it as expedient to act on the petition of the woman's rights petitioners.

Mr Boutwell, for Berlin, announced the death of Mr Hoppin, and moved that a committee be appointed to consider what appropriate action this Convention shall take of this sad occurrence.

Mr Wilson of Natick followed, and made appropriate eulogiums of the character and public services of these gentlemen; were highly appreciated, and bestowed a spirit of affection and sympathy which we love to see exhibited by public men.

Further remarks bearing testimony to the high character of the deceased, were made by gentlemen of all classes of political opinion, including Messrs. Hallett, Bowditch, Rantoul, Griggs, Walker, Hobbs of Weston, Brown of Medway, Bird of Walpole, Durgin of Wilmington, Briggs of Lanesboro, and Hall of Stockbridge.

The motion of Mr Boutwell was then carried, and the following committees appointed:—Messrs. Boutwell of Berlin, Briggs of Pittsfield, Wilson of Natick, Schouler of Boston, Alley of Lynn, and Bliss of Longmeadow.

The committee reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:—Resolved, That the Convention do now adjourn until Thursday, at quarter before 12 o'clock, the Convention accordingly adjourned.

Saturday, That the Convention be found with regard to the time of meeting, and the Convention accordingly adjourned.

Resolved, That the Convention be found with regard to the time of meeting, and the Convention accordingly adjourned.

Resolved, That a select committee of one member for the Convention be appointed by the Chair, to prepare suitable resolutions in relation to the death of the Hon. Marcus Morton, late a member of this Convention, and a member of the Supreme Court of this Commonwealth, and that the Chair appoint the following gentlemen as such committee:—Messrs. Hallett, Bowditch, Rantoul, Griggs, Walker, Hobbs of Weston, Brown of Medway, Bird of Walpole, Durgin of Wilmington, Briggs of Lanesboro, and Hall of Stockbridge.

The motion of Mr Boutwell was then carried, and the following committees appointed:—Messrs. Boutwell of Berlin, Briggs of Pittsfield, Wilson of Natick, Schouler of Boston, Alley of Lynn, and Bliss of Longmeadow.

The committee reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:—Resolved, That the Convention do now adjourn until Thursday, at quarter before 12 o'clock, the Convention accordingly adjourned.

Saturday

THE Commercial

JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

Rooms of Central and Kirk streets,

Immediately in the rear of the

FAST PRESSES,

and well supplied with all the latest styles of

JOB TYPE,

the proprietors believe that its facilities for executing are such as to entitle this it most liberal attention to the inhabitants of those who may favor him with their patronage.

PRINTING

The proprietors will be constantly supplied with the

LOW PRICES

as may be asked by others.

HANDBILLS AND BILLHEAD POSTERS,

SHOP AND FANCY CARDS,

BY ALGEBRA,

BILL HEADS, BLANKS,

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

BUSINESS CARDS, TICKET CARDS, CIRCULARS,

PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in short, every kind of plain, printed matter and enamelled, white and colored CARDS, adapted for the convenience of traders, executed in handsome style and at reasonable rates.

orders!

FRESH ARRIVAL OF GOODS.

J. P. BLAISDELL,

No. 5 Merrimack Square,

Has just received a large and well selected assortment of which he will sell at the lowest prices.

DRY GOODS,

Lowell, April 1, 1858. apl

STOVES TO LET

By the season. Inquire of

A. WHITNEY,

No. 122 Merrimack Square.

THE PHILADELPHIA BOOT & SHOE STORE.

No. 3 Merrimack Square, Lowell.

The subscriber has just returned from Philadelphia with a large and well selected stock of which he will sell cheap for Cash. Give him a call. A DOLLAR SAVED IS AS GOOD AS ONE EARNED.

BOOTS AND SHOES,

S. J. VARNEY.

Lowell, Feb. 1, 1858. 1y

AT THE SIGN OF THE "EAGLE."

THE ROYAL TURKISH LIBBY TOBACCO.

THE ROYAL TURKISH LIBBY CIGAR.

THE HAVANA CIGAR. Also in various cut tobaccos.

For sale by C. A. STEVENS & CO.

No. 2 Merrimack Square.

Lowell, Feb. 20, 1858. 6m

C. A. STEVENS, No. 2 Merrimack Square, Lowell, Dealer in Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Confectionery, Nuts, Raisins, Figs, Dates, Citron, Lemon and Orange Peel, Pine Apples, Pine Apple Cheese, Guava Jelly, Preserved Ginger, Sardines, Pickles, Sauces, Cocoanuts, Pickled Oysters, Lobsters, Salmon, Mackerel, Shad, Herring, Cod Fish, Tongues, Sounds, Pickled Salmon, Mackerel, Shad, Herring, and within their committees and leaving no legal representation and no main charges of consequence. The Democratic party is, therefore, in the absence of the control power, or organized party force necessary to prepare for the coming session, which their convention, assembled in Charleston, has appointed for U. S. Senator. It is also under their duty to reclaim desertion, its discountenance of insubordination, to lend their aid to the local authorities for the preservation of peace wherever it is seriously treated. Besides these, there are other duties imperative upon them, not only by reason of their democratic origin and that of the nations. Mis laters represent the power resting there, and are under obligations to it. Democratic Senators are of a higher grade than those performed by members. The latter attend to the wants of commerce, the rights of individuals, &c., while the former take charge of the general interests of the nation which they represent. A Senator, however, by virtue of his extraordinary powers, might to evil, exercise authority more dreaded existing in the usual manner. This, however, is rarely done, except in cases of flagrant error, incapacity or neglect on the part of a committee.—[N. Y. Sun.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Thursday, July 14 1853

A Four Months Ride on the Hyppodrome of Democracy!

Few months have now elapsed since from the extreme of our sectional reptile we heard the harsh shriek of Democracy. Then, as now, we have had then a thorough proof-ride on the wild hyppogriff of American Democracy. We have now well pause to contrast the present with the past, to compare the Gen. Pierce of to-day with the Gen. Pierce of the 4th of March last. What are our prospects? What if you retrospects! How many hopes have been realized? How many buried in the abyss of disappointment? Have we had a reign of peace? Have we not had a reign of terror? Here is a scene:

"It has New Hampshire, the Goshen of patriotism, been the case of her affections was destined to be the imperial man for a term of four years, there was gladness among her citizens, and the inhabitant blessings fell among them in many parabolic curves. Anxious, who had just seen all her greatest stars rejoice one after another, in quick and painful succession, like lights in a theatre, congratulated herself that, though her elected head was not a great man, he was at least a true and reliable one,—a man like Jackson, "lean and indomitable." The storm-cloud it is true, was as yet not without many and marvellous omincitegical contents. To see the Jacksonite and the Calhounite, and the Dixiecrat, the Southern Gentile and the Jew, the Abolitionist and the novice of the Union, the Old Bullionist and the admirer of "Old Buck," the Georgia secessionist and the Mississippi filibuster, the Tyler man and the supporter of Judge of divers hues (to use all these babbling and limping about on the same National Platform, was a sight suggestive of many a melancholy joke. But passing this laughable feature, we turn to a different view of the scenic picture.

—On the 4th of March last our President swore an oath that made the "five haives" of the nation consolidate, and as unalienable as the laws of the Medo-Persians, and as binding as the decrees of Destiny. To that inflexible oath, he was to be sacrificed on the shrine of gladness and delirium. At the Jacobin rhetoric of that smooth-owl Inaugural, there was great effervescence of spirit, and men thought it more exquisite than the beauty of a cruel-eyed Circassian. Pierce imagined all the beauties of the political mesh-work exactly by their right ends; and if he had had the skill of a magician, he might have kept them fast to this day; enthusiasm was silent; abolitionism became southern and complete; and fanaticism in all regions had thoughts which brooked not utterance. A comprehensive service of terror and beauty bounds from the political church, and the spirit there was none. Nationalism ran with the supernatural gait, and was stronger than either King or Kaiser. Down went the sweeping sale of Uncle Tom's Cabin ninety per cent.; Pierce was looked up to as a type-Washington; his official carriage became the nucleus of a comet. Rags waved brilliantly, cannons roared, muskets flashed, organs growled, fifes whistled, bells jingled, chaise fiddle-sticks discoursed concordant sounds, and the rhythm of fantastic feet. Anons went up from all the hoarse tracked cities in the country, in tones that rent the air; and then, as if these merry auditory of worshipers were unconscious that all their endeavors were doomed to disappointment and defeat, they were told that the government was to be administered, not by the principles of the inaugural speech, but, rather by those of the New Boston harangue! It did not occur to them, that their common science was only adapting a political science; that instead of being a true man, he was the very Avatar of mere attorneyism, duplicity and rascality!

The blasphemy was unconscious, was unintentional, and the delusion as total as the orthodox depravity. A great sore of olde editors at once began to heave their sympathies as a tempestuous sea of good feeling and brotherhood. It is thought that the like had come when man would beat their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning hooks, when the lion would lie down with the lamb, and when a little child should bridle savage natures to a "sweet discourse of reason" by his sweet and pellet blandishments. Every good democrat heartily realized himself into a "committee of correspondence," to keep up utterance for speedy and glorious deeds, and dreams of sensitive sea dancing through his mind. Discord reigned no where; all was harmony to the conclusion of the chapter. From Nootka Sound to Cape Canaveral, nothing was heard save the hosanna of rhythmic praise, and national Pierce-Mary songs. The most heterogeneous circumstances were drawn in common harmony by the spiritual melting of Our Political God into the Council of mankind. His wash-hose, his fantaloons, his Hessian boots, his drinks, bottle, all were glorious and dogmas by the glorious, generous and sympathy of "Yankee patriotism."

—But what a change! From his inauguration had passed three trembling months, and no auspicious event—the coinquy of the Three and Bengue sent in a serio-divine confession of power. "Old Bullion "himself" decreed the Protest on the White House had been expunged. Surface Surface Sentinels of Old Bullion showed that the administration then in embryo had an administration of character—that the Democracy had passed from "the weak stage of a frame." And the system of the administration was to be tariff or free trade! Let them then brewing by their prime-ministerial Ability. Already men began to see in the Pierce Cabinet the elements of a Whig Cabinet. Some of the wind-mill powers, who could adapt himself to every wind of politics, by an unprincipled versatility. Like the old Jew Duke of Marlboro, the Friend of Men, Boston did not approve of the political schools, and was the friend of whichever's bank. So Pierce, "every man to his own from majesty itself."

But this is not all. We have not only been disappointed—we have been grossly imposed upon. We have been insulted, and that by our own party. We have been BETRAYED. But we give him a grade of factionists exalted in the Whig party and a couple of factionists in the step of the White House—in the Cabinet itself! We were told that the finality of this compromise was a vital point, but we have seen the land visited in a flood which would have not deluged old Noah, by abolitionism, secession, fanaticism, sectionalism, treasonism, delusion, conspiracy, filibusterism, compromise, from the even unto Seminole! Proclamation of his accession, secretary of war, and responsible for it.

The policy of this Pierce Merry ceteris has been the very climax of secession and sectionalism; begging the favor of the vile, the contemptible, the seditious, all whose hatred is preferable to their love. First, the appointment of an agitator only to the attorney-generalship; then, the hugging of the old Barnburners in the persons of their arch-captain, Marcy; then, the open association of Garrisonians to offices in the public gift, and in manifest which duty antithesis,—these events have shown in greatness succession the mad velocity of our hasty hyppogriff. Honesty was never so much believed by any of us: no man endured the hateful story until he saw, with his own eyes, the silent eyes abhorrence of wooden rolling together in the common cess-pool of the utterances, cringing and base subserviency to the views the "manifestations" of its gregarious propensity.

That the address of the inauguration has come to be regarded as nothing more than a blague. All the subsequent of nationality has gone; the very shadow of it is no more seen; the exacted nationality alive remains to tell the story of a foreseen President and an occupied nation.—Even the Jackson Musketeers, Capt. Procter, came out in full uniform yesterday afternoon, and the occasion was presenting Capt. H. A. Sargent, their late drill master, a valuable gold watch and chain, in token of gratitude for his many valuable services.

WATER-FALL. One of the Merrimack street watering carts, full freighted, came down with a heavy load of sprinkling water, and broke the axle-tree of the machine. Cause, the breaking of a wheel.

BY The "Cucumber Club" celebrated their anniversary over a "fish-fry"—rather a "small fry" for so big a crowd—yesterday, at Long Pond.

; In a PD. Mr Mark Adams, of Nashua, N. H., fell in an epileptic fit in the shoe store of Messrs. Gates, and died. His body was taken charge of by the Coroner, and his friends notified. He remained helpless and insensible for some time, but is now quite recovered.

Mr. Webb Hunter, of Georgia, A man named Arnold, said to have been in the employ of A. J. Richmond, was struck yesterday morning while crossing the track of the Lowell R. R. Corporation in the boat that he expired last evening at about 9 o'clock.

BY Pierce & Course' Bunsetan Manufactory is another prominent business enterprise at the west end of the city, worthy of notice—the fabrication of our remarks on the improvements in this locality yesterday. Our visit to the establishment, now in the "full tide of successful operation," gave us the more satisfaction from the recollection that this enterprising firm had been two years turned out within the last two years! From these reverses they have risen; and now, with a better establishment than ever before, and many important improvements, they are bound to go ahead. They are designing and soon building a building, 100 by 46 feet, three stories, and a fire proof (detached) building for steam engine and boiler—and they intend to build a large store-house. They employ about 40 men, and are turning out about 1000 pounds of every description of cakes of those beautiful and costly—at a most astonishing rate. It is something of a curiosity, by the by, to see the improved machinery with which they do, in the rapidity and beautiful perfection in the work—in its sudden reduction of a rough material to the most exquisitely flavored luxury, worthy to adorn a lady's bed-chamber.—Success to the enterprising!

Boston

The members of Engine Company No. 11, will return thanks to Merrimack Engine Co. No. 4, for refreshments furnished at the house of their foreman, at the late trial on Moody street.—Jesse P. Pearey, Clerk.

Lowell, July 13, 1853.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.—Wednesday, July 13. The following gentlemen were appointed a committee to attend the funeral of Mr. George—Messrs Boswell, Briggs, Wilson of Somerset, Schouler, Ball, Weston, Morton of Andover, Upham, Earle, Gilbert of Pittsfield, Mahony of Quincy, Berrian of Clinton, Wood of Longmeadow, Ward, Bird, Thompson, Hobbs, Ide, Phinney, Norton and Hender.

Mr. Briggs presented a communication from the President and Directors of the Fitchburg Railroad, tendering a free passage to the members of the committee and families of the Convention as wish to attend the funeral; and a vote of thanks for the courtesy was adopted.

The petition praying the Convention to strike out the word seats from the Constitution, was taken up by the usual consent, and rejected.

The question of electing Judges of the Supreme Court by the people, was under discussion at the hour of the closing of the session, but no question was taken.

FOREIGN ITEMS. The Russian Minister at Paris, M. Kisseleff, has removed the house of his ambassadorial residence for 22 years.—This is considered decisive of the Turkey question.

The health of Arago has become so delicate as to require his leaving Paris for the country.—The Nile is now 3 feet more than it has been for thirty years.

The funds and securities are 50 per cent. higher in London than they were last year.

It is a singular fact that both the last Danish Ministers at London died suddenly from disease.

Bastin Girardin, it is stated, has written a pamphlet in support of his journal, La Presse, for one thousand dollars. Rothfo's keeps story.

Alexander Humboldt has written a letter, in which he declares the construction of an oceanic canal, without locks, across the Isthmus of Panama, practicable and advises to points on the Gulf of San Miguel and Cupica.

Three days later from Europe.—By the Arabia. Important from Turkey.—Arabia at Halifax.

Nothing has transpired yet from the Porte's reply to the Czar's ultimatum.

Nothing is but one be done until about July 20, at which date it was thought the Ministers would cross the Danube.

Reports from the Allies of Austria in Parliament had taken place, and amelioration have been promised.

It was reported that Turkey had formally invited the armed intervention of the five powers, but the statement was not confirmed.

There is no end just now in the whole as probability as they did. The French and English fleets are in the Dardanelles.

From other parts of Europe we have no news.

Our Correspondence of the Associated Press furnishes the following:

LONDON, Tuesday Morning, July 12, 1853.

The speculations of the city of Rhine in Prussian Parliament

J. D. PUTNAM,
Successor to Wm. Gage,
WEST INDIA GOODS, CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES, COUNTRY PRODUCE, DARTMOUTH WARE, &c. &c.
NO. WINDSOR WARE, &c. &c.
No. 36 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.

BALDER.—The best and most approved brands; for sale by BALDER, Druggist and Chemist,
BALDER Corner, Eye, Ear and Nail Salve.
BALDER'S Concentrated Fluid Extracts Dandelion, Sarsaparilla, Stillingia, Yellow Dock, Wild Cherry, Prickly Ash, Queen's Delight, Colchicum, Worm and Bowel Syrups, Pond Lily Cologne, Rose Water, &c.
BALDER'S Pure Cod Liver Oil, Syrup, Hypophosphites, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, Pepsine, Bismuth, Quinine, Iron, Arsenic, Strychnine, Soda, Potash, Magnesia, Lithia, Phosphorus, Iodine, Bromine, Chlorodyne, Chloroform, Ether, Opium, Paregoric, Paper, Morphine, Quinine, Pills, Powders, Plasters, Leeches, Trusses, Shoulder Braces, Supporters, Syringes, Soaps, Perfumery, Fancy Goods, Toilet Articles, Brushes, Combs, Sponges, Chamois, Patent Medicines, &c. &c.
COUNTRY PRODUCE.—Port, Lisbon, Sherry, Madeira, Teneriffe, Malaga, Claret, Champagne, Cognac, Holland Gin, Jamaica, St. Croix, Old Tom, Scotch, Bourbon, Rye, Whiskies, Cordials, Wines, Cider, Vinegar, Pepper, Mustard, Spices, &c. &c.
COUNTRY PRODUCE.—Fruit, Game, Ducks, Pickles, Oysters, Fish, &c. &c.
GROCERIES.—Sugars, English Walnuts, Almonds, Currants, Citron, Figs, Raisins, Prunes, Dates, Pine Apples, Peaches, Pears, Plums, Tomatoes, Green Corn, Peas, Beans, Succotash, Mushrooms, Pickles, Sauces, Soups, Jellies, Preserves, Marmalade, Chocolate, Cocoa, Broma, Tapioca, Sago, Farina, Rice, Flour, Meal, Crackers, Biscuit, Pilot Bread, Sperm, Adamantine, Star, Tallow, Fancy and Family Candles, Soaps, Starch, Blacking, Matches, Brooms, Brushes, Mats, Baskets, Tubs, Pails, Churns, Measures, Wash Boards, Mop Sticks, Clothes Pins, Clothes Lines, Twine, Wicking, Lamps, Lamp Burners, Chimneys, Shades, Lamp Trimmings, Lard Oil, Kerosene, Liquid Camphene, Fancy Burning Fluids, Alcohol, Spirits Turpentine, Varnish, Glue, Paints, Oils, Dye Stuffs, Indigo, Logwood, Madder, Copperas, Alum, Saltpetre, Blue Stone, Potash, Soda, Cream Tartar, Tobacco, Snuff, Cigars, Pipes, Matches, Segars, Pocket Books, Wallets, Purses, Portmonnaies, Fancy Goods, Jewelry, Watches, Clocks, Looking Glasses, Pictures, Frames, Mouldings, Paper Hangings, Window Shades, Fixtures, Stationery, Blank Books, Printing Paper, Wrapping Paper, Twine, Envelopes, Pens, Pencils, Ink, Sand, Wafers, Sealing Wax, Wax, Tapes, Bindings, Needles, Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Thimbles, Scissors, Knives, Razors, Razor Straps, Shears, Combs, Suspenders, Gloves, Mittens, Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Cravats, Ties, Collars, Bosoms, Shirts, Drawers, Undershirts, Flannels, Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinets, Vestings, Linens, Cottons, Ticks, Denims, Checks, Stripes, Calicos, Ginghams, Delaines, Muslins, Shawls, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, Overshoes, Leather, Findings, Morocco, Kid, Calf, Sheep, Lining, Binding, Shoe Thread, Shoe Pegs, Awls, Shoe Knives, Hammers, Lasts, Boot Trees, Shoe Stones, Blacking, Brushes, Oil, Tallow, Grease, Axle Grease, Harness, Whips, Lashes, Trunks, Valises, Carpet Bags, Bonnet Boards, Bonnet Wire, Bonnet Frames, Bonnet Silks, Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers, Crapes, Veils, Head Dresses, Artificials, Hair Nets, Combs, Pins, Ornaments, Hair Oils, Pomades, Dyes, Curlers, Crimpers, Puffs, Braids, Curls, Switches, Frizettes, Bandeaux, Hair Pins, Hair Cloth, Crinoline, Skirts, Corsets, Corset Laces, Hoops, Bustles, Balmorals, Cloaks, Mantillas, Dress Goods, Trimmings, Buttons, Fringes, Gimps, Braids, Bindings, Laces, Edgings, Insertings, Embroideries, Collars, Sleeves, Capes, Cuffs, Handkerchiefs, Veils, Veilings, Gloves, Mittens, Hosiery

sylvania. Lafayette procured from the merchants of two thousand pounds, the sum to be paid in two years' time, which he has paid. By the 4th of July, he had brought all of the troops under his command to Virginia, and on the 22d of July, he joined Gen. Wayne at Richmond. Lafayette is a fine looking man, of middle stature, and rather corpulent. He is remarkably relating to the Revolution.

Mr Parker of Cambridge, spoke at length in support of the amendment.

Mr Choate of Boston, followed in an eloquent and characteristic speech of a little more than an hour, on the same subject.

Mr Choate said gentlemen have imagined that the system had been made elsewhere, and for other purposes than those which it was devised for. There was but one system of judging of the qualifications, and that was to take the rights of the past and its experience, and give good and judicious independence of party at times. A good Judge was described to be a very learned man in all the learning of a profession whose chief use its learning in common law, as well as statute law. The system was that which was best calculated to make and retain such a Judge. The sheer weight of mentioned expedients was with one system. It was true, changes were making in other States, in regard to the election of Judges, but the results of those experiments, their practical working, had not been known to us. The history of England, Scotland, and the experience of her colonies, bore testimony to the truth of the theory that Massachusetts had adopted in the days of her fathers.

This system was approved by the Convention of 1780. This system had worked well in every Commonwealth, and given us the best Judges since the brightest and purest period men of our republic. On his (Mr Choate's) return he believed the bar of Massachusetts bear the breath of Mansfield, the pure and able and learned Lord Chief Justice of England.

Could you not trust the people? pay the gentlemen gentlemen salary. Yes, and let friend they receive a liberal salary, and let them be secure in appointment for life. But there was another thought—that of keeping the Judges free, free from reproach, free from the propensities of any person clothed with the ermine, but how could any man pass through a political election, and not be subject to reproach, or perhaps think of party promise, and yet fail to uphold his office and character? The answer would be pronounced. The office was one which would not bear solicitation. The mere mentions would make Judges, not the people.

Limiting the term of Judges to ten, five, or seven years, was next spoken against by Mr Choate. This if not the best, the best for the time would grow into the Judge; he would lose his power as a lawyer by the act of time, and a habit of listening to both sides of every question, instead of the side of his client, or of the clients would be all gone. Again, it was shown that at the end of a term, the temptation to re-election would depend on political opinions rather than on a faithful discharge of duty. A few men of worth would accept the office for ten years only, and the rest would be such as such men on the bench would be insufficient.

Mr Choate was launched, upon the subject, into a wide discussion had been given, stating that a term for a certain number of years, was only willing to pass on the life of the office, which will center the whole of the people to a deep hostility to the whole system.

Lester Manufactory. It is Independence section of Portland. Prof. Hitchcock, assistant of the power of Steam in Lowell, says—The work of preparing the cotton for the spinning is simply made out, and which is the chief of the operation of the cotton. Through several stories of the mill, and we see the bales of cotton, which contain this fibre, are opened, and the cotton is then, and we see it thoroughly cleaned, and passed through fine rollers, which elongate it, and prepare it for the spinning frames. Here it is spun into yarn, and is then wound upon bobbins, and sent to the weaving room, where it is woven into cloth. Here we see the looms in motion, and the cloth is rolled up as it is finished. In the dressing room, the cloth is sized, and is then ready for the market. The whole process is very interesting, and we regret that we cannot give a more detailed account of it. All who have the means should go to see it. It will repay them for the time spent in the examination, and will be a source of pleasure to them for many years to come. We are glad to see that the Lowell Institute of Industry is about to give (free) a course of lectures (of undoubted ability,) on the interesting article on this subject, too long.

Census or Great Britain. The foreign census of the population of the New York Journal of Commerce—The population returns of Great Britain and Ireland, for 1851, are now complete. The population of the census of Great Britain down three bulky volumes, which are styled a general report. The first gives the Census and the Ten Commandments, and may be taught in the same manner, without the necessity of the grave, the difference of race, and the Creed and the Ten Commandments, and may be taught in the same manner, without the necessity of the grave, the difference of race, of revival, and decent character, hitherto accepted. The second volume gives the census of Ireland. It may be remembered, is a subject of special interest, and the census of Ireland, and the census of Ireland, and the census of Ireland

J. D. PUTNAM,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN BOOKS, STATIONERY, FANCY GOODS,
AND SCHOOL BOOKS,
No. 24 MERRIMACK STREET, LOWELL.

THE COURIER
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE,
Corner of Central and Middle streets,
(Entrance on Central street,)
Is now supplied with
FAST PRESSES,
Edited by many generations of men, from the earliest to the latest styles of the Northern Varieties of human
JOB TYPE,
the proprietor believes that his facilities for executing any description of
PRINTING
on such of my patrons as favor me with their orders will be found on the satisfactory of those who may favor him with their
LOW PRICES
as can be ordered any where.
SAMPLES AND REGULAR POSTBILL
SHOP BILLS, FACE JAMES,
CATALOGUES,
BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,
CARDS,
CIRCULARS,
LABELS,
&c., &c., &c.
Orders by mail, Lowell P. O., or otherwise, promptly attended to.
Lowell, Jan. 1, 1858.

BLANCHARD, WRIGHT & CO.,
Successors to Nathan Hale & Co.,
No. 73 and 75 Commercial Street, Boston,
Wholesale Dealers in Foreign and Domestic DRY GOODS,
Among which will be found a full assortment of Heavy Cloths, Ps. Lawrences, Meltons, Cassimeres, Satinets, Kentucky Jeans, Tweeds, Doeskins, Cassinets, Flannels, Linseys, Blankets, Shirting Flannels, Cotton Flannels, Ticks, Denims, Checks, Stripes, Plaids, Ginghams, Prints, Bleached and Brown Cottons, Sheetings, Shirtings, Drillings, Canton Flannels, Linen Goods, Hosiery, Gloves, Suspenders, Cravats, Scarfs, Ties, Handkerchiefs, Shawls, Balmoral Skirts, Hoop Skirts, Corsets, Bonnet Ribbons, Bonnet Silks, Velvets, Crapes, Crapes, Artificial Flowers, Feathers, Bonnet Frames, Bonnet Shapes, Bonnet Satins, Bonnet Velvets, Bonnet Crapes, Bonnet Trimmings, Bonnet Ornaments, Bonnet Wires, Bonnet Cords, Bonnet Tassels, Bonnet Fringes, Bonnet Gimps, Bonnet Edgings, Bonnet Blonds, Bonnet Laces, Bonnet Nets, Bonnet Veils, Bonnet Veilings, Bonnet Quillings, Bonnet Rouches, Bonnet Bands, Bonnet Bindings, Bonnet Braids, Bonnet Buckles, Bonnet Clasps, Bonnet Pins, Bonnet Combs, Bonnet Brushes, Bonnet Boxes, Bonnet Cases, Bonnet Caps, Bonnet Hats, Bonnet Hoods, Bonnet Capes, Bonnet Cloaks, Bonnet Mantles, Bonnet Dresses, Bonnet Suits lesting of any student on account of his religious tenets within its precincts."

How are gratuitous lectures on reporting and American subjects with pride. If we remember, but they form the basis of the educational system of Massachusetts. Both the Governor and the Secretary belong to Great Britain, but if the whole criminal code, we must confess, is the first time that the simultaneous resumption of their labors in an event of national interest.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Saturday, July 16, 1853.

Opening of the Crystal Palace!

Address of the President of the U. States.

THE SALE OF AMERICAN GOODS!

On Thursday last the National Industrial Exhibition of Amenes was inaugurated. The 14th of July is for the hereafter to be an epoch in American History! Future ages will look back upon a scene which prophets and kings desired to see, but died without the sight.

Now is another page—a page of real glory—added to the volume of history.

What thoughts dance through the mind as we contemplate with patriotic admiration this great event! Its grandeur! Its novelty! Its nobility! Its glory! Now and forever is Labor Nationalized! No more shall despotic avarice monopolize the fruit of patient toil; but all, all shall hereafter be participants of the true industrial glory. Therefore there shall be a community of profits, of honors, of interests, as there is a community of productive toil. John Adam's political creed is refused to practice, and here is glory by the Rule of Three.

No more shall the gaudy and disgustic pauach of the wasteful aristocracy be fully magnified beside the ill-paid hands of assiduous toil. All Labor shall therefore be respectable—in reality, as well as in imaginative practice, as well as in theory. Let us rejoice that we have beheld such a day.

But to the events. The President of the U. States entered under escort, at about 2 o'clock. Many distinguished personages were present. Right Rev. Bishop Wainwright, in full canonicals, offered a most sublime and devout prayer, when Hon. Theodore Sedgwick delivered the inauguration address, in which he eloquently referred to Mr. Webster. President Pierce made the following reply:

Sir, I return you, on behalf of those of my countrymen and fellow citizens who with me, and on my own account, my warm and cordial thanks for the reception you have been pleased to extend to me. I have come, sir, to testify the interest I feel in the work we have assembled into fix, this great industrial exhibition—designed and calculated as it promises all that belongs to the interest of our country. You, sir, and the gentlemen who have been and are associated with you, have imposed upon all of us a deep debt of gratitude for your energy and perseverance in this great enterprise. Whatever the shortcomings which you may suppose may be, I can only remark that they do not appear here, and so far as I have been able to perceive, they are lost in your complete and remarkable success. [Loud and continued applause.] Everything around us reminds that we live in a multiplicity of active science, instead of being looked up for the admiration of the world, is but tributary to the active manufactures, agriculture, and all that goes to promote our domestic welfare and our material prosperity. Sir, if you had achieved no other good but that which you have in bringing together in this metropolis citizens from all parts of the Union, you have fulfilled, perhaps, one of the most important of missions, that of cementing and perpetuating that blessed Union. [Great applause.] But you have done more than that. You have kindled a spirit. Your exhibition has been the means of bringing here, from all the civilized countries on the face of the globe, you most eminent in the several branches represented by the States, and which had largely developed its resources, that there is being in the midst of the State we mainly distrusted by interested influences, a spirit of emulation, and that the necessary if finally achieved, would peril the returns sought to be obtained by the Convention. The consideration was carried by a vote of 189 to 87. The ensiders was carried a second read. ing by a vote of 113 yeas to 104 nays.

The Democrats are in favor of the committee on the subject of remedies in the hope of preventing killed on railroads. Hallett of Wilbraham, Stevenson of Boston, Hoskins of Medford, Thompson of Lowell, and Fowler of Dedham.

By Committee of the Whole, Mr Morton of Taunton, in the Chair, the resolve on the subject of the Sabbath was taken up.

Mr. Bowditch, That the Constitution ought to be amended by adding to chapter 5, section 1, the following article:

The Legislature shall forever have full power and authority to any be judged needful for the preservation of the Sabbath from unnecessary labor, instead of being looked up for the admiration of the world, as

WEST INDIA GOODS, CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES, COUNTRY PRODUCE, &c. &c.
AND WOODEN WARE, &c. &c.
No. 28 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.
Lowell, Jan. 1, 1858. jan1

BRIGGS'S CELEBRATED CHEWING TOBACCO, SMOKING TOBACCO, SNUFF,
CIGARS,
AND WOODEN WARE, &c. &c.
No. 28 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.
Lowell, Jan. 1, 1858. jan1

CHEESE.—The best and most approved brands; Eye and Pine Apple, for sale by BILLS.—Wood, Rye, tin and leather.
BUTTER AND CHEESE.—For Premium Butter, apply to the subscriber, who has for sale the celebrated Cedar Grove Creamery, White and Brown Stockton, Hathaway, New Orleans, and Diamond.
TEAS.—Hyson, Young Hyson, Imperial, Gunpowder, Oolong, Souchong, Oolong, and Orange Pekoe.
SPICES.—Ginger, Pepper, Cassia, Cloves, Nutmegs, Mace, Allspice, Cayenne Pepper, Soda and Cream Tartar, ground and pounded.
DRIED FRUITS.—Muscatel loose and bag, Sultana, Zante Currants, Citron, Lemon and Orange Peel.
SPICES.—Nutmegs, Mace, Cloves, Pepper, Cassia, Ginger, Allspice, Cayenne, Ginger, Cayenne Pepper, Soda and Cream Tartar.
DRIED FRUITS.—Muscatel loose and bag, Sultana, Zante Currants, Citron, Lemon and Orange Peel.
COUNTRY PRODUCE.—Pork, Lard, Beans, Dried Apples, Potatoes, Onions, Eggs, Butter, &c.
TOBACCO.—Solace, Fine Cut, Dan de Lion, Solace, Navy Plug, Solace, Solace Twist, Solace, Solace Cavendish, Solace, Solace Pressed Plug, Solace, Solace Solace, Solace, Solace Solace, Solace, Solace Solace of your back. You are clogged, undoubtedly, but it seems as if you might break and fall to pieces, like a porcelain vase, if you were roughly shaken. Now, I have the remedy for you. My fancy quietly surveying the whole, will select for some other chance remembrance. My fancy will not offer counterparts. That will not say to the superb lady, she stands with her flowers, increase May. "When a beautiful lady, Miss Dorothea" That will not feel constrained to say something when it has nothing to say; nor will it be obliged to smother all the pleasant things that occur, because they would be too flattering to express. My fancy persistently assumes in Aurelia's case, "Those flowers would not be put in prominence, if you yourself were not there." That diamond necklace would be ready, if your eyes were not more brighter. That recently recovered would be awkward, if your soul were not dispersed.

You could not say such things to Aurelia, although, if you are wearied to-day as she is, you see the very things you are longing to say. What unutterable stuff you are talking about the weather, and the opera, and Albony's delicious music, and Newport, and Saratoga! They are all very pleasant subjects, but do you suppose I have taken Thomelian politics where he was admitted to dine with Juno?

I almost know why you, and to believe that a scarcity of white waistcoats is now in vogue. For now dinner is announced, and you, O rare Dorothea, walk down Aurelia! See you run the risk of tumbling her asparagus cut, and the little end of the gravy sauce chance clear, and wonder, en passant, what will wear it home, which is annoying. My fancy runs to such risk; is not all solicitous about its hat, and glides to the side of Aurelia, steady as she is. There! you stun him on the ear, and are vexed at your own awkwardness, and are sure you saw the ghost of a smile pinched and suicid upon his face at your side. My fancy doesn't tumble down stairs, and what kind of a fool it sees upon Aurelia's face are its own secret.

To be continued.

Daily Advocate & Courier.

Lowell, Monday, July 18 1853.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. — Saturday, July 16. On motion of Mr Knowlton of Worcester, a committee was appointed to consider at what time the Convention shall adjourn, consisting of the following gentlemen :— Messrs Knowlton, Robertson of Boston, Giles of Boston, Cushman of Bernardston, Wilkes of Natick, Burlingame of Northboro', and Eames of Washington.

The orders of the day were then taken up, the first subject being the resolve on the subject of granting the reporter accommodations, the question being upon the motion of Mr Davis of Worcester to substitute for the amended resolve the following :

Resolved, That it is expedient to incorporate into the Constitution a provision that reporters shall not be created by special act, when the object of the incorporation shall be attained by the under general laws.

After a protracted discussion, Mr Davis' substitute was adopted without a count, and the question recurring upon passing the resolve as thus amended, and nothing further in the matter having been ordered, and it was passed, as printed, by yeas 192, nays 52.

The next subject for resolve striking out the words "University of Cambridge" from the following passage in the 3d section of the 5th chapter of the Constitution :

"——It shall be the duty of Legislatures and Magistrates, in all future periods of this commonwealth, to cherish the interests of literature and all branches of science, especially the University at Cambridge, public schools, and permanent institutions."

Mr Rockwell of Berlin, opposed the resolve, and a brief discussion ensued, in which several gentlemen spoke. The resolve was rejected by a vote of 19 to 185.

The orders of the day being laid on the table, the committee of the whole was discharged from the consideration of the following resolve, for the purpose of considering it at the present time :

Resolved, That the Constitution be so amended that hereafter no town shall be incorporated with less than fifteen hundred inhabitants.

Mr Wilson of Natick, moved that the resolve be indefinitely postponed.

Mr Hooper of Fall River, moved to amend so that it shall provide that no town shall be incorporated, so as to form a town from which it is taken, less than fifteen hundred inhabitants.

On motion of those motions was any vote taken.

Mr Gardner of Boston, moved an adjournment on the ground that there was apparently no quorum present, and the vote standing 20 to 20, it appeared that a quorum had voted, and then, on motion of Mr Wilson of Natick, the Convention adjourned till to-day.

THE TURKISH QUESTION. Since the advices by the last steamer, the clouding over has been lowered. The cause of the then pending negotiations is dubious in the highest degree.— The Sultan has summoned a firm and decided attitude; rejecting the intrusion of Russia, unbending the pride of the Ottoman, of the Christians in his dominions, and calling God to witness the justice of his cause and the sanctioned armaments of his people. Every one to strengthen his hands, with the inflexible resolution, until a satisfactory visibility shall crown his efforts with her most auspicious panoply.

"And courage never to submit or yield,"

Sensitive to their danger, the Turks are preparing for war with wonderful activity. And since, to an earnest man, the event of an epoch is seldom doubtful, if it be very fingers proclaimed, we may indulge hope of his eventual success. Speaking of this phase of affairs, the New York Times says :

"The occupation of the Principalities will be regarded as a mere level. The move of the passage of the Pruth will be at once followed by an overthrow to the allied fleet, to pass through the Bosphorus and enter the Black Sea. Supported by such backers, the Turkish fleets will proceed to last effectual assistance to the Caucasians by throwing excitements and arms into their dependencies in the eastern end of the Euxine, and by attacking and destroying the marching the Russian navy along the upper shore of that sea. The occupation of the Ottoman fleet will hold the Russian navy in check while these operations are being carried on. Upon land, the Bulgarian division of the army, being the one of the strongest in the defence of the Danube, will be largely reinforced, so as to outnumber the Russian army of occupation, and will pass the river in order to expel the Czar from the Principality of Wallachia. No doubt is entertained that the combined powers will send a squadron of the Mediterranean fleet into the seas. That France will do so, in case of extremity, we have a first intimation in the fact of the Emperor superintending, in larger than ordinary degree, the affairs of the English and French standing armies of the land. That England will not permit the Russian fleet to pass the straits and augment Lords Clarendon and Derby's difficulties, is fairly inferable from the remarks of the Premier in suspense."

PRACTICAL SENSE IN RAMMAGE CRACK.— Edmund Burke says that the groans of severity and nobility of judgment are seldom combined in the same individual. Another great writer has said — Crime is apt to found an empire or raise a nation, the former, the strong, and the moderate, for when such good and noble acts are in the possession of more subject, such men appear in the presence of more subject and nations."

DEMOCRATIC HARMONY. Our readers are probably aware that a "split," and by the President himself prior to publication, has recently been culminated against the New York Sunday Post and the Buffalo Republic—the leading Barnburner organs of the administration, these favorite from the pale of the true (!) Democratic church. The last words of this famous "bull," are these :

We wash our hands of all further association or connection with these Journals, and we trust the standing so clearly written for the pale of the democratic party as the New York Tribune or the National Era.

On this point an Albany paper says :

—Nationality appears to get on very well words, and free soilism the solid patronage. The Post, the Republic, and the Union, are all of a kindred character, are repudiated, read out of the party, but their columns abound in the government jobs, while the national democratic organs, though patted occasionally, are left to are men of government patronage. This may be all very well—but Some troops serve for the honor of the thing, and some for the pay. Some go in for glory, and some for the spoils of war. Now if the administration chooses to adopt a policy that shall cater to the taste of both, we shall not question its wisdom. It assuredly is a peculiar one, and to the unskilled with approving articles in the Union, while free soilism claims the pay, and says it has why, its all very well. If both can be kept in good humor by such a course on the part of —administration, so be it. We can only say that it is a little out of the common run, and has not many examples in history.

If the Union is the organ of the administration, if it speaks by authority, we should like to see its homilies backed up by something like practical demonstrations, and its reading of the Baltimore platform by the appointment and withdrawal of patronage from its organs. That would give some of sincerity to its words at this time that is sadly lacking now. The Tribune thinks that this is a Quaker pea, intended for effect on the Tennessee and Kentucky elections, and so do we."—[Boston Post.

AN EXECUTIVE JUDGE. We copy the following article from the Cincinnati Gazette. It tells, in forcible language, the people of Massachusetts, what they have to expect, when the judicial change in the Constitution to elect judges by others is triumphantly effected by the "Independents" :

—Seldom a day passes without some senseless or brutal outrage upon the bench. Judge Pitman may fall short of eminence as a jurist, but beyond doubt he will become a terror to evil. A day or two since he entered an order to inquire on the responses for the jurors, as to the action of their admissions within the bar, an extra allowance of two dollars per diem was made to them. This assumption of power is a mockery, and the oath of no obligatory force. The Judge is ought to know, and we presume Judge Pitman does know. No reporter appears to have the impudence. The day before yesterday one reporter was ordered out of the bar, and only after permission to stand up and write on his hat-box. Yesterday the large assortment of the kind reported.

Yesterday, the Judge had a flare-up with the prosecuting attorney, and was boarded on his bench. The prosecuting attorney was assailed up. Judge Walker, for the defence, argued that the case be postponed until next week. The prosecuting attorney, Mr Preston, asked to consider the case until next week (about three weeks) and made a professional statement of the difficulty of finding the jurors on account of the absence of witnesses, and his inability, in the short time since the case was to be started, to prepare for trial. The Judge rudely said "you may say go to the grave-yard for witnesses, and have them returned not found, &c. Mr Preston indignantly replied that he placed no reliance on his honor, and an angry altercation ensued. The Judge presently apologized, the case to be proceeded in forthwith !

The Judge has evidently a much intense interest. A great wrong has been committed under the influence of liquor, especially the law is not all the witnesses. The public expect a fair and impartial trial. They will not submit to be insulted

J. D. PUTNAM,
DEALER IN
WEST INDIA GOODS, GROCER FAMILY GROCERIES, COUNTRY PRODUCE, EARTHENSTORE AND HOUSE WARE, &c., &c.,
No. 36 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.
Has for sale the following articles, viz:

MOLASSES—The best and other approved brands; Ry Whiskey, Pure Cider Brandy, Old Jamaica Rum, Port and Sherry Wines, Gin, Old and Young Hyson, Imperial, Gunpowder, Souchong, Oolong and Java Coffee, Loaf, Lump, Crushed, Powdered, Coffee and Brown Sugars, Pure Spices, Pepper, Cloves, Cassia, Ginger, Mustard and Nutmegs, Saleratus, Cream Tartar, Soda and Saleratus, Copperas, Blue Vitriol, Rice, Farina, Sago, Tapioca, Starch, Chocolate, Cocoa, Flat Irons, Sad Irons, Tea Kettles of this dinner. Or, in the same way, and with the same kind of mental result, you can easily imagine the reader (the simile though a suspicion of mockery when in the success) too much pompous, and his locks sadly (or there might be the graver discourtesy of slaves not properly attempered, or a choice Havana not lighted with the proper skill, or the spilling of some of that cool Arabian Mocha, marvellous for its inexpressible combination of the subtle and the lasting, or for any or the numerous ingredients of the dinner—these things are too up to the high level of the dinner; for wherever Aurelius finds any of these things are not up to their kind, or she, the principal, is in love.

That, common sense of a genial conversation is more than all. Suppose that soup had trickled down the unsuspecting bosom of Aurelia's dress (since it might have done so), instead of wasting itself upon your incensed. Could even the irrepressible vengeance of your manners have contemplated, smeared, a greasy spot upon your remembrance of the previous Aurelia? You smile, of course, and remind yourself that that lady's manners are so perfect that, if she drank poison, she would wipe her mouth after it as gracefully as ever. How much more, then, you say, in the case of such a slight contretemps as spotting her dress. Would she appear totally unscurred. So she would, undoubtedly. She would be, and look, as pure as ever; but, my young friend, her dress would be ruined. Here I dropped a pitched oyster in the lap of my Peer, who were on the ladies and magnificent evening dress. I did not mean to do it; no one; but there certainly was a very embarrassed spot upon the dress. And although I begged my Peer to be spotless yet whenever I recall that day, I see her in a spotted gown; and I would prefer never to have been obliged to think of her in such a dress. Can you, in a like case, appreciate the view, the very likely) to happen, of some distinguished of that capitalist Aurelia? Is it going down stairs, for instance, why should not Mr Carbuncle, who is dancing close behind with Mrs Pe-ery, both very eager for their turn? For my own part, I have a very enthusiastic spot upon dress. And although I have not yet found the spotter

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XVIII. WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 20, 1858. NO. 4122.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.
Payable one-half in advance and the remainder at the end of six months.

OFFICE—No. 27 CENTRAL STREET,
(According to Post Office.)

Daily and Weekly Journals of all the principal cities and towns in the country are kept constantly on file at the office, and subscriptions for the same will be received.

Advertisements not exceeding 12 lines will be inserted in the Daily Journal and Courier for 75 cents the first insertion, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion. Those exceeding 12 lines will be charged for according to the space they occupy.

Notices in reading columns will be charged 10 cents a line for each insertion.

Special notices and business cards in the Weekly Journal and Courier will be inserted at the rate of $1 per square for three insertions, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Job Printing executed with neatness and despatch, and at reasonable prices.

All communications intended to attract attention must be paid for in advance, or they will not be inserted.

The Lowell Daily Journal, a copy of the paper may be obtained at the counter of the publisher.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing
IN EVERY DESCRIPTION
NEATLY & PROMPTLY EXECUTED
AT THE
Daily Journal and Courier Office.

WM. G. GRAY,
DEPUTY SHERIFF,
Office—Central Block, Central street,
Residence, No. 4 Concord street.
LOWELL, MASS.
Orders received by Mail or Express will be promptly attended to.

WILLIAM S. GARDNER,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
Office—Middle Street, opposite Post Office,
LOWELL, MASS. tf

ABEL WHITNEY,
(successor to ABEL KITCHEL,)
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND STATIONER,
Merrimack Square,
LOWELL, MASS.
ACCOUNT BOOKS MADE TO ORDER.
Agent for the Boston Weekly Mail, Boston Weekly Journal, Boston Weekly Courier, Boston Weekly Transcript, Boston Weekly Post, and Boston Weekly Bee.
Local Editor of the Lowell Daily and Weekly Journal and Courier.
Office and Residence, 109 Merrimack street, Lowell. 1m

DR. N. H. SWAIN,
DENTIST,
Office and Residence, 109 Merrimack street, Lowell.
1m

CORDIS & NIXON,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS
FOR THE SALE OF
SPERM, WHALE, LARD AND LINSEED OILS, POTTO OIL, &c.
Factory Landing, Bridge, Boston, Rogers Corte, Tenth, Charles Street, Boston.
BUTTER, CHEESE, PORK, LARD AND SALT,
Union street,
Rear N. Parker.

SAMUEL KIDDER, JR.,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY
Corner of Central and Church streets,
Opposite Universalist Church.
N. B. Prescriptions carefully compounded at all hours by Physicians' Prescriptions. Medicines delivered in any part of the city.
1m

JOHN PEARSON,
MANUFACTURER OF WOOL & COTTON MACHINERY,
AND DEALER IN
W. I. GOODS, GROCERIES, FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS,
No. 2 Savings Bank Building,
(In the door from Merrimack Square.)
LOWELL, MASS.

A. P. GROSVENOR,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Corner of Central and Church sts., Centralville,
LOWELL, MASS.

WEAVER & BROTHERS,
No. 7 Central, and 6 Merrimack streets,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
ALL KINDS OF MARGARET AND FINE FURNITURE,
Carpets, Feathers, Cloths, Rugs and Palm Leaf Mattresses, and Feather Beds of all kinds,
Looking Glass Plates, &c., &c.,
LOWELL, MASS.

JAMES WEAVER, WM. WEAVER.

J. COBURN,
DEALER IN
FLOUR, MEAL, GRAIN, &c.,
No. 14 Merrimack street, opposite Lowell House,
LOWELL, MASS.
Flour delivered to any part of the city.

DEAN & DINSMOOR,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Office—Merrimack street, BOSTON.
LOWELL, MASS.

GEORGE B. APPLETON,
(SUCCESSOR TO THOMAS & APPLETON,)
IMPORTER OF
GOLD AND SILVER WATCHES,
AND DEALER IN
Jewelry, Watch Trimmings, Mercantile Ware, and Fancy Goods,
No. 12 Central, 2 doors above Merrimack, LOWELL.
Fine Watches and Clocks carefully repaired and warranted.
Jewelry neatly repaired. 1y

JOHN HAYWARD,
DAGUERREOTYPIST AND PHOTOGRAPHER,
No. [illegible] Merrimack street, LOWELL,
Over Hildreth's Daguerreian Gallery.
Pleasant and comfortable rooms, and Melodeon daily, and all hours of the day or night. apr15,1y

WILLIAM WORTHEN,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN
STOVES, HOLLOW WARE, &c., &c.
Sanborn Store of Stoves, Hollow Ware, &c.,
Merrimack street,
Rear of CROSBY'S. OPPOSITE MASON BLOCK.

JOHN TEWKSBURY,
CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR,
Agent for Hydraulic Machinery, and Machinist Draughting,
No. 3 Savings Bank Building,
(Lowell Machine Shop.)
Residence, 1 S. Pleasant, Ave. apr30,1y

C. S. NAYMAN & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
Proprietors of the Famous Spring Soda and Mineral Water Establishment, Soda Fountain Recreation, LOWELL.

DAVID HAM,
OPPOSITE St. CHARLES FOUNDERY,
And Tin-Plate Worker,
Jobbers and Repairers promptly attended to.
All orders promptly executed. Shop Main street.
1f41

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INS. COMPANY,
OF NEWARK, N. J.
JOSHUA MERRILL, Agent,
Office—No. 33 Central street, LOWELL.

HUGH McEVOY,
DRAPER AND TAILOR
No. 3 Merrimack Square, LOWELL.

J. M. GRAVES,
CIVIL ENGINEER,
No. 2 Wyman's Block, Central street,
Rear of Merchants and Elliot banks,
LOWELL.

E. A. & M. CROSBY,
DEALERS IN
STOVES, WHALE, CAMP AND LUBRICATING OILS, FURNACES AND JAPAN, PAINTS, GLASS, AND PUTTY, Boarder's Block, Railroad street.

BUSINESS CARDS.

REEDS AND HARNESSES,
MADE TO ORDER AND WARRANTED, BY
D. C. BRIGGS,
Middle Street, (near the Post Office,) LOWELL.
Factory, Stubbins [illegible] Harness Factory, Harvard st.
may24

NOTICE.

This is to notify that GEORGE HERSEY has been employed by me to collect all bills due me, and to receive the same of me Paper Dollars, and all persons are hereby forbidden to trust him on my account, as I shall not pay any bills of his contracting after this date.
GEORGE HERSEY.
Lowell, June 21, 1858.

A. & E. STEVENS,
POWER LOOM HARNESSES AND REEDS,
No. 3 Middle street, LOWELL, MASS.
MACHINE BELTS AND STRAPS,
Manufactured of the best Oak Tanned Leather.
ALSO, PATENT LEATHER BELTING.
Factory at Tyngsboro'.
Belts and Straps, of superior quality, for all kinds of Machinery, furnished at short notice, and on reasonable terms.
Belts of all numbers kept constantly on hand.
Lapping Leather for Belts and Straps, Lace Leather, and Calfskins, and a superior article of Cement for fastening Leather Belts, constantly for sale by the manufacturers.
1y

Lovet's Wahpene
WILL restore Gray Hair to its original color, and prevent it from falling off. It will cure Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Tetter, Sore Eyes, &c. It will remove Dandruff, Humors, Pimples, &c., from the face, and render the skin soft and healthy. It will cure Sick Headache in from 5 to 10 minutes. It will cure Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Piles, &c. It will cure Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Typhus Fever, &c. It will cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, Lumbago, &c. It will cure Female Complaints, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, &c. It will cure Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c. It will cure Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Jaundice, &c. It will cure Kidney Complaints, Weakness, &c. It will cure Worms of all kinds. It will cure Fits, Epilepsy, St. Vitus' Dance, &c. It will cure Nervous Affections of all kinds. It will cure Piles, Fistula, Ulcers, &c. It will cure Diseases of the Urinary Organs. It will cure Diseases of the Kidneys. It will cure Diseases of the Bladder. It will cure Diseases of the Womb. It will cure Diseases of the Stomach. It will cure Diseases of the Bowels. It will cure Diseases of the Liver. It will cure Diseases of the Blood. It will cure Diseases of the Skin. It will cure Diseases of the Nerves. It will cure Diseases of the Heart. It will cure Diseases of the Head. It will cure Diseases of the Throat. It will cure Diseases of the Lungs. It will cure Diseases of the Chest. It will cure Diseases of the Back. It will cure Diseases of the Limbs. It will cure Diseases of the Joints. It will cure Diseases of the Feet. It will cure Diseases of the Hands. It will cure Diseases of the Arms. It will cure Diseases of the Legs. It will cure Diseases of the Eyes. It will cure Diseases of the Ears. It will cure Diseases of the Nose. It will cure Diseases of the Mouth. It will cure Diseases of the Teeth. It will cure Diseases of the Gums. It will cure Diseases of the Tongue. It will cure Diseases of the Throat. It will cure Diseases of the Lungs. It will cure Diseases of the Chest. It will cure Diseases of the Back. It will cure Diseases of the Limbs. It will cure Diseases of the Joints. It will cure Diseases of the Feet. It will cure Diseases of the Hands. It will cure Diseases of the Arms. It will cure Diseases of the Legs. It will cure Diseases of the Eyes. It will cure Diseases of the Ears. It will cure Diseases of the Nose. It will cure Diseases of the Mouth. It will cure Diseases of the Teeth. It will cure Diseases of the Gums. It will cure Diseases of the Tongue.
Prepared only by WILLIAM WAHPENE, Chemist, Lowell, Mass.
Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicines.
1y

INSURANCE OFFICES.

LOWELL TRADERS' AND MECHANICS' MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
OFFICE—CORNER BUILDING, CENTRE ST.
INCORPORATED BY CHARTER—$200,000.
ABSOLUTE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS, $285,000.
NEWELL D. HUNT, President.
Thomas Hemphill, Secretary.
Thomas Hastings, Treasurer.
JAMES DUNCKLEE, Surveyor.
Lowell, June 22, 1858.

HOWARD FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
OFFICE—No. 27 Central street, Central block,
LOWELL, MASS.
This Company continues to insure against loss or damage by fire, on favorable terms on other sound Companies, on Dwelling Houses, Stores, Furniture, Merchandise, &c. Capital of the Company $100,000.
JAMES DUNCKLEE, Surveyor.
Lowell, June 22, 1858.

Agriculture Insurance may be made in the Secretary's office, at 27 Central street.
Lowell, Nov. 11, 1856.

Fire Insurance.

OFFICE, No. 36 APPLETON BLOCK
AMERICAN INSURANCE COMPANY OF BOSTON.
CAPITAL $150,000.
W. HUNNEWELL, Jr., President, JOHN PARK, Jr., Secretary.
ATLANTIC FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY OF BOSTON.
CAPITAL $100,000.
E. STEVENS, President, J. MORAN, Jr., Secretary.
SPRINGFIELD FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY.
OF SPRINGFIELD, MASS.
CAPITAL $200,000.
DAVID DEXTER, President, EDWARD PRESCOTT, Secretary.
WESTERN MASSACHUSETTS FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF SPRINGFIELD.
CAPITAL $200,000.
WILLIAM CORNING, President, EDWARD PRESCOTT, Secretary.
MERCHANTS' FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD.
CAPITAL $200,000.
C. L. PUTNAM, Jr., President, ISAAC DAVIS, Secretary.
The above named Companies are all well established Companies, and their policies are considered as good as any issued by any Company in the country. Losses promptly adjusted and paid at this office.
FREDERICK PARKER, Agent.
Lowell, Oct. 29, 1856.

RELIABLE LIFE INSURANCE, ON A CASH BASIS.
$2,500,000.
SURPLUS $225,264.
THE NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF BOSTON.
Have adopted the Cash System of Life Insurance, and are now issuing policies on that plan, which is the most simple, economical and satisfactory system ever presented to the public.
Under this system the Insured pays the Premium in Cash, and receives a Policy, which is a Non-Forfeiting Policy, and which is Paid in Cash, at the end of the term for which it is issued, or at the death of the Insured, if he dies before the end of the term knees and carefully brushed elbows — my white cravat crumpled and yet scrupulously tidy, my hat pushed back from my quiet, calm brow, my hands in my pockets, and, I hope, the time to fill into the circle—indeed realized here in her native Provence, with purity, and love, and peace, and rest, and poverty, all—how perfectly the good old fashioned life of the meeting is not wholly mine.

For, O, beautiful Amelia, two of those things—peace and poverty—are mine to-day. But it will be a time when you will no longer go out to dinner, and sit gravely, in the family. I shall be gone then; but other old bookkeepers are in this world, will inherit my leaves, and assume my summer afternoons to see what I loved to see. They will not paint, I fear, in buying apples, to look at the old lady in her wormholes (as a rolling by in the carriage. They will not worship another Ameli-a. You will not see Amelia—not quite my mom, only one poor open your blue-veined finger—your magnificent ring. Grave cherubs and antiquated bears will hand you down the steps, and the group of polished mahogany together around the yet unborn Angelina of their day, will look at you, sitting quietly upon the sofa, and say: "She must have been very handsome in her time."

All this time you—for remember how few years since it was your grandmother whom we two beheld, by whose side the handsome young man longed to sit and pass an evening—you have changed not the Ancien of a half century ago, although you cannot favor its dying. She is inextricably associated in your mind with cape and cast dresses. You can believe Mary Howitt, of Scott, or Nell Gwyn, or Cleopatra, to have been young and blooming, although belonging to old and dead times, but not your grandmother. Think of those who shall believe the same of you—you who to-day are the very flower of youth. Might I plead with you, Amelia—I, who would do for you anything—one of those gruesomely beaming boys that I see you to-night upon your knee in passing—I would ask you to bear that thought with you, always, not to endure anything unmeet, but to give to the whole subject an able handling; but we have no time—none for sex, for modifying our views in the most microscopic particular. At Pilate said on a different occasion, "What we have written, we have written."

Now in the Tribune of the 11th inst. we find our views taken up and reviewed at some length, for so subtle, I take it, and directly aimed at this paper, was evidently meant for men of our opinion. The writer of the Tribune article professes to see in our views great man's prophecies, and pronounces those opinions "perhaps sensible enough." He further says:—"But the simplicity of political truth is shut out from their (great men's) eyes, by virtue of their science." It is very generally known society, and among men of the ancient time regardless with real men, poetic creations and mythic personages of the past are preferred to those with whom one mingles. The style in which this writer places Queen Victoria, as a mere personage of mythological fiction, is enough to excite the indignation and loyalty of every Englishman, and the same possibility of North America. It seems probable that he has or some time pursued the Ancient History of Charles Knight, for go historian, except Knight, has had the credulity to believe the story of the half-fabulous Semiramis—the mythic Queen whose name, in the captains of the fabled Egyptian wars as real and as well known as Napoleon or those with which the name of Napoleon is associated. We should, in any of our answers what Macaulay says and of Sir William Temple.—" Indeed, the subject on which he writes the immortal and the fabulous reminds us of those classical illustrations of Addison, in which Cato, Socrates, Alexander, the hero of himself, and the dead men of Cheshire—Fellas the son of Jupiter and Leda—are ranged under the same heading, and the whole is presented equally real." We have no doubt, in all sincerity, that the fiction of Orpheus is as much a reality as the Olympic games; and that the legends in Lempriere's Classical Dictionary are as authentic as the Penny Gazette.

But passing the classic features of the article alluded to, we come to the historic citations.—Those, it is evident from the latter part of the article, are regarded even, by the writer as fables, or, for after circumnavigating the whole world of history, he gives the clean up by deploring "the deficiency of all analogies between the past and the future"—evidently forgetting that the theme of the present discussion is with the present alone. And this solitude between the former and latter portion of his article, we are quite unable to explain.

Now, if the citations from history mean anything—if in the argument itself they have any force at all—it is this: that no European power will attempt to erect a universal monarchy throughout the continent—and that the present crisis have ever crumbled to ruins. The septuagint of such a train of reasoning, is too transparent to admit of comment. Its strongest confutation is in its clearest statement. But we will merely remark that men are not commonly deterred from desired objects by the thought that those objects will prove futile. The most energetic accomplishers of the world are not at times found bewailing with Solomon, that all is vanity.

As to the dread of a universal monarchy, of which this writer speaks, we do not believe that there are a dozen men of intelligence in society who have ne fear; any such a dread. It is not the perpetuity of a universal monarchy that is feared—it is the mere existence of one which would inevitably cause wars any formidable attempts made in the part of the present European powers to establish such an odious thing.

The proposition of this reviewer, that the genius of liberty and of modern civilization is adverse to universal monarchy, is a self-evident and transparent truism; and we wonder that any man should be found who is capable of attempting to prove such a proposition. We should as soon think of attempting to prove, in Lowell, Should the weather be fine, the crowds who will press forward to the grand review by native inhabitants, we look, and are to be proved by logical deduction; and we think the antagonism of liberty and despotism, even in its mildest form, is as evident to the mind of he who runs may read, and the wayfaring man, though a fool, need not err therein.

To conclude, then, we think tast nothing in the article alluded to, contains aught that disproves, to the slightest degree, the general tendency of our views in the present crisis of affairs, regard Europe as being the theatre of a great struggle—as commencing a new epoch—as hence to continue—in which absolutism as a name and as the friends of progress are ranged the other. Our earnest hope is, that the latter may prevail.

Prof. Dods Lately from Europe.—The Prof. The Franklin steamship arrived at New York early yesterday morning, with advices to July 7th.

England.—A despatch to the London Times says that the Russians had crossed the Pruth at two points, for the occupation of Wallachia and Moldavia.

After a protracted Cabinet Council in London, on the 5d, it was reported that both English and French fleets were to enter the Dardanelles, as a countermeasure to the occupation of the Provinces by the Russians.

A bill to render illegal, flags and music at Parliamentary elections, had been discussed in the Commons. The debate on the bill assuming the law against Simony, was adjourned.

Spain had been a scene of disturbance in the Cabinet, but the difficulties had been healed for the present.

The report that the Russian entered Jassy, caused a panic in the stock exchange.

The Queen would visit Dublin on the 11th, towards until the 19th.

Mrs Stowe had gone to Greece.

The latest telegraphic intelligence, holds out better hopes of peace in Europe, intimating that through the intervention of the Queen of France and Austria, the Russian demands upon the Porte may be modified in terms that may not in form.

France.—Several arrests took place at the door of the Opera Comique, Paris, on the night of the 5th, of persons who were found to have weapons concealed.

The Paris Bourse revived on the strength of the Russian manifesto. Rentes closed on Tuesday at 1-5 per cent. advance.

A despatch from Paris on the 6th, states that there was a considerable rise in the funds in consequence of a rumor that England would not bid her fleet enter the Dardanelles.

Italy.—The following sentences have been recorded at Florence:—Guerazzi, 15 years hard labor; Montanelli, journalist, 10 years; Mazzoni, Mayor; Mercantini, Franchina and Medici, ex-Ministers of Tuscany, hard labor for life; Romanelli, ex-Minister of Justice, acquitted. Three women received similar sentences.

Cardinal Brighenti has died suddenly. He was succeeded by a Socialist, Signor Ruffini.

The Neapolitan papers assert that war in the East will awaken new revolutionary in Italy.

Germany.—The delegates had met at Berlin, consequently the Zollverein conference had not opened.

Turkey.—From Constantinople June 23, it is reported that Mouschir Achmet had left for Russia to Constantinople to re open negotiations, or, as some say, to signify to the Porte that unless the ultimatum be now accepted the Russians will cross the Danube at Galatz and crossed the Pruth. The names of the Turks are quite outdone for war, and, should the negotiations are incessant, under direction of French and English officers.

Russia.—St. Petersburg letters of June 20th, state that carriage and stocks were burned. Nothing had transpired to the public respecting politics. The general impression was that peace would be preserved, but this belief was chiefly founded on the expectation that Turkey would sign the note required by Russia.

On the 20th of June, the Emperor issued a manifesto on the Turkish difficulties, declaring his pacific intentions in the contest, but firm and decided in its tone.

Constitutional Convention.—July 19th.—Mr Gravesid of Berlin, from the Committee on the House of Representatives, reported that it is inexpedient to act upon the order that towns and districts may be represented by any citizen of the Commonwealth.

The orders of the day having been taken up, Mr Upton of Boston, moved the second for the resolution, by providing that in case a majority of the votes cast be not given for any one of the officers therein named, then the persons having the highest number of ballots shall be declared to be elected. Rejected.

Mr Dimple made a speech for the majority principle.

The next question was upon Mr Schuyler's proposition to provide for the election Governor, Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State and Treasurer and Attorney General, by a plurality of votes. Upon this the roll was called, and the vote stood—yeas 108, nay 156.

The President said that it was his belief that it was inexpedient to send to the people a proposition emanating or reported by a body of a mere caucus vote, and he therefore voted in the negative, and he manifested very great joint.

Thomas Benton members were absent, and that, through the culpable short-coming of Boston, was this proposition defeated.

Mr Sumner of Ohio, moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the resolve relative to Mr Hallett of Worcester was passed by the unanimous vote of the House.

Mr Sumner of Fall River, moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the resolve relative to the compensation of members of the Legislature was passed.

The question recurring on the motion to reconsider the vote by which the resolve in relation to the compensation of the Governor was passed, it was decided in the affirmative—yeas 120 against 110.

The question then adjourned.

CITY MATTERS.

Unpunished Assault.—An Irishman, named Michael Donovan, made an unprovoked assault on Dr. J. F. Jones, yesterday, in a house in Tenwich street. The Dr. was knocked down twice, and afterwards stoned till he made good his escape. Donovan was arrested and held to bail, his person bruised. This morning, in the Police Court, the offender was sent to the House of Correction for 3 months. He asked for less, but His Honor told him that he would give him time enough to think of it.

The Hippodrome.—Franconi's famous troupe will come into town to-morrow, with, if all is true that is named in the bills, all the people, and circumstance of a triumphal entry. They are to give two exhibitions, one afternoon and one evening, and both days of their exhibition in Lowell. Should the weather be fine, the crowds who will press forward to the grand review by native inhabitants, we look, and are to be proved by logical deduction; and we think the antagonism of liberty and despotism, even in its mildest form, is as evident to the mind of he who runs may read, and the wayfaring man, though a fool, need not err therein.

To conclude, then, we think tast nothing in the article alluded to, contains aught that disproves, to the slightest degree, the general tendency of our views in the present crisis of affairs, regard Europe as being the theatre of a great struggle—as commencing a new epoch—as hence to continue—in which absolutism as a name and as the friends of progress are ranged the other. Our earnest hope is, that the latter may prevail.

Prof. Dods Lately from Europe.—The Prof. The Franklin steamship arrived at New York early yesterday morning, with advices to July 7th.

England.—A despatch to the London Times says that the Russians had crossed the Pruth at two points, for the occupation of Wallachia and Moldavia.

After a protracted Cabinet Council in London, on the 5d, it was reported that both English and French fleets were to enter the Dardanelles, as a countermeasure to the occupation of the Provinces by the Russians.

A bill to render illegal, flags and music at Parliamentary elections, had been discussed in the Commons. The debate on the bill assuming the law against Simony, was adjourned.

Spain had been a scene of disturbance in the Cabinet, but the difficulties had been healed for the present.

The report that the Russian entered Jassy, caused a panic in the stock exchange.

The Queen would visit Dublin on the 11th, towards until the 19th.

Mrs Stowe had gone to Greece.

The latest telegraphic intelligence, holds out better hopes of peace in Europe, intimating that through the intervention of the Queen of France and Austria, the Russian demands upon the Porte may be modified in terms that may not in form.

France.—Several arrests took place at the door of the Opera Comique, Paris, on the night of the 5th, of persons who were found to have weapons concealed.

The Paris Bourse revived on the strength of the Russian manifesto. Rentes closed on Tuesday at 1-5 per cent. advance.

A despatch from Paris on the 6th, states that there was a considerable rise in the funds in consequence of a rumor that England would not bid her fleet enter the Dardanelles.

Italy.—The following sentences have been recorded at Florence:—Guerazzi, 15 years hard labor; Montanelli, journalist, 10 years; Mazzoni, Mayor; Mercantini, Franchina and Medici, ex-Ministers of Tuscany, hard labor for life; Romanelli, ex-Minister of Justice, acquitted. Three women received similar sentences.

Cardinal Brighenti has died suddenly. He was succeeded by a Socialist, Signor Ruffini.

The Neapolitan papers assert that war in the East will awaken new revolutionary in Italy.

Germany.—The delegates had met at Berlin, consequently the Zollverein conference had not opened.

Turkey.—From Constantinople June 23, it is reported that Mouschir Achmet had left for Russia to Constantinople to re open negotiations, or, as some say, to signify to the Porte that unless the ultimatum be now accepted the Russians will cross the Danube at Galatz and crossed the Pruth. The names of the Turks are quite outdone for war, and, should the negotiations are incessant, under direction of French and English officers.

Russia.—St. Petersburg letters of June 20th, state that carriage and stocks were burned. Nothing had transpired to the public respecting politics. The general impression was that peace would be preserved, but this belief was chiefly founded on the expectation that Turkey would sign the note required by Russia.

On the 20th of June, the Emperor issued a manifesto on the Turkish difficulties, declaring his pacific intentions in the contest, but firm and decided in its tone.

Constitutional Convention.—July 19th.—Mr Gravesid of Berlin, from the Committee on the House of Representatives, reported that it is inexpedient to act upon the order that towns and districts may be represented by any citizen of the Commonwealth.

The orders of the day having been taken up, Mr Upton of Boston, moved the second for the resolution, by providing that in case a majority of the votes cast be not given for any one of the officers therein named, then the persons having the highest number of ballots shall be declared to be elected. Rejected.

Mr Dimple made a speech for the majority principle.

The next question was upon Mr Schuyler's proposition to provide for the election Governor, Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State and Treasurer and Attorney General, by a plurality of votes. Upon this the roll was called, and the vote stood—yeas 108, nay 156.

The President said that it was his belief that it was inexpedient to send to the people a proposition emanating or reported by a body of a mere caucus vote, and he therefore voted in the negative, and he manifested very great joint.

Thomas Benton members were absent, and that, through the culpable short-coming of Boston, was this proposition defeated.

Mr Sumner of Ohio, moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the resolve relative to Mr Hallett of Worcester was passed by the unanimous vote of the House.

Mr Sumner of Fall River, moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the resolve relative to the compensation of members of the Legislature was passed.

The question recurring on the motion to reconsider the vote by which the resolve in relation to the compensation of the Governor was passed, it was decided in the affirmative—yeas 120 against 110.

The question then adjourned.

CITY MATTERS.

Unpunished Assault.—An Irishman, named Michael Donovan, made an unprovoked assault on Dr. J. F. Jones, yesterday, in a house in Tenwich street. The Dr. was knocked down twice, and afterwards stoned till he made good his escape. Donovan was arrested and held to bail, his person bruised. This morning, in the Police Court, the offender was sent to the House of Correction for 3 months. He asked for less, but His Honor told him that he would give him time enough to think of it.

The Hippodrome.—Franconi's famous troupe will come into town to-morrow, with, if all is true that is named in the bills, all the people, and circumstance of a triumphal entry. They are to give two exhibitions, one afternoon and one evening, and both days of their exhibition in Lowell. Should the weather be fine, the crowds who will press forward to the grand review by native inhabitants, we look, and are to be proved by logical deduction; and we think the antagonism of liberty and despotism, even in its mildest form, is as evident to the mind of he who runs may read, and the wayfaring man, though a fool, need not err therein.

To conclude, then, we think tast nothing in the article alluded to, contains aught that disproves, to the slightest degree, the general tendency of our views in the present crisis of affairs, regard Europe as being the theatre of a great struggle—as commencing a new epoch—as hence to continue—in which absolutism as a name and as the friends of progress are ranged the other. Our earnest hope is, that the latter may prevail.

Prof. Dods Lately from Europe.—The Prof. The Franklin steamship arrived at New York early yesterday morning, with advices to July 7th.

England.—A despatch to the London Times says that the Russians had crossed the Pruth at two points, for the occupation of Wallachia and Moldavia.

After a protracted Cabinet Council in London, on the 5d, it was reported that both English and French fleets were to enter the Dardanelles, as a countermeasure to the occupation of the Provinces by the Russians.

A bill to render illegal, flags and music at Parliamentary elections, had been discussed in the Commons. The debate on the bill assuming the law against Simony, was adjourned.

Spain had been a scene of disturbance in the Cabinet, but the difficulties had been healed for the present.

The report that the Russian entered Jassy, caused a panic in the stock exchange.

The Queen would visit Dublin on the 11th, towards until the 19th.

Mrs Stowe had gone to Greece.

The latest telegraphic intelligence, holds out better hopes of peace in Europe, intimating that through the intervention of the Queen of France and Austria, the Russian demands upon the Porte may be modified in terms that may not in form.

France.—Several arrests took place at the door of the Opera Comique, Paris, on the night of the 5th, of persons who were found to have weapons concealed.

The Paris Bourse revived on the strength of the Russian manifesto. Rentes closed on Tuesday at 1-5 per cent. advance.

A despatch from Paris on the 6th, states that there was a considerable rise in the funds in consequence of a rumor that England would not bid her fleet enter the Dardanelles.

Italy.—The following sentences have been recorded at Florence:—Guerazzi, 15 years hard labor; Montanelli, journalist, 10 years; Mazzoni, Mayor; Mercantini, Franchina and Medici, ex-Ministers of Tuscany, hard labor for life; Romanelli, ex-Minister of Justice, acquitted. Three women received similar sentences.

Cardinal Brighenti has died suddenly. He was succeeded by a Socialist, Signor Ruffini.

The Neapolitan papers assert that war in the East will awaken new revolutionary in Italy.

Germany.—The delegates had met at Berlin, consequently the Zollverein conference had not opened.

Turkey.—From Constantinople June 23, it is reported that Mouschir Achmet had left for Russia to Constantinople to re open negotiations, or, as some say, to signify to the Porte that unless the ultimatum be now accepted the Russians will cross the Danube at Galatz and crossed the Pruth. The names of the Turks are quite outdone for war, and, should the negotiations are incessant, under direction of French and English officers.

Russia.—St. Petersburg letters of June 20th, state that carriage and stocks were burned. Nothing had transpired to the public respecting politics. The general impression was that peace would be preserved, but this belief was chiefly founded on the expectation that Turkey would sign the note required by Russia.

On the 20th of June, the Emperor issued a manifesto on the Turkish difficulties, declaring his pacific intentions in the contest, but firm and decided in its tone.

Constitutional Convention.—July 19th.—Mr Gravesid of Berlin, from the Committee on the House of Representatives, reported that it is inexpedient to act upon the order that towns and districts may be represented by any citizen of the Commonwealth.

The orders of the day having been taken up, Mr Upton of Boston, moved the second for the resolution, by providing that in case a majority of the votes cast be not given for any one of the officers therein named, then the persons having the highest number of ballots shall be declared to be elected. Rejected.

Mr Dimple made a speech for the majority principle.

The next question was upon Mr Schuyler's proposition to provide for the election Governor, Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State and Treasurer and Attorney General, by a plurality of votes. Upon this the roll was called, and the vote stood—yeas 108, nay 156.

The President said that it was his belief that it was inexpedient to send to the people a proposition emanating or reported by a body of a mere caucus vote, and he therefore voted in the negative, and he manifested very great joint.

Thomas Benton members were absent, and that, through the culpable short-coming of Boston, was this proposition defeated.

Mr Sumner of Ohio, moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the resolve relative to Mr Hallett of Worcester was passed by the unanimous vote of the House.

Mr Sumner of Fall River, moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the resolve relative to the compensation of members of the Legislature was passed.

The question recurring on the motion to reconsider the vote by which the resolve in relation to the compensation of the Governor was passed, it was decided in the affirmative—yeas 120 against 110.

The question then adjourned.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Wednesday, July 20, 1853.

A View of the Affairs of Europe.—The New York Tribune.

Some ten days since, we took occasion to offer some comments on the present crisis in the affairs of the European world. On that occasion we quoted the luscious epithets of Nebuchadnezzar and Pompey, and even have been, at hand-grips with each other in a contest, which can only end in the extermination of one of those illustrious statesmen. We thought that despotism and liberty would not re-exist.

These sentiments of Sir-ery Sir—from being novel to us. We have always entertained them. They were the sentiments of our boyhood, and we still do the sentiments of our new manhood. At about the time of the late famous coup d'etat of the present French Emperor, it happened to the writer of these lines to preach on a public occasion on a kindred topic. And we may, then did not hesitate to propound the opinion that there is a combination, more or less entire among the parasites of despotism in Europe, to exterminate liberty wherever possible. The same opinion was expressed of the friends of liberty in the same quarter. We advanced these sentiments while speaking in another capacity; but do not scruple to maintain them to-day.

Nor were we a little gratified when, in the course of the then ensuing summer, we heard the distinguished Kossuth in a speech, in Faneuil Hall assume and defend the same identical position. Then speech produced immense sensation all through Europe; and was read with admiration by the patriot on the banks of the Arno at Florence, by the "agitator" on the shores of the great Mississippi. On this point then, we come into with the views of the noted Hungarian Governor.

In support of our position we adduced the remarkable attitude of European nations—the bellicose position of Russia, the jealousy of Great Britain, the nervous uneasiness of France, the cold aversion of Prussia, the inertness of Germany, the indifference of Italy, and the pusillanimity of Greece. These were the grounds whereupon we based our prophecy of the future destiny of Europe. Our views have been, diffused to by some, and dissented to by others, gentlemen of all political creeds have given their whole support on side handling; but we have no manner of use, for modifying our views in the most microscopic particular. At Pilate said on a different occasion, "What we have written, we have written."

Now in the Tribune of the 11th inst. we find our views taken up and reviewed at some length, for so subtle, I take it, and directly aimed at this paper, was evidently meant for men of our opinion. The writer of the Tribune article professes to see in our views great man's prophecies, and pronounces those opinions "perhaps sensible enough." He further says:—"But the simplicity of political truth is shut out from their (great men's) eyes, by virtue of their science." It is very generally known society, and among men of the ancient time regardless with real men, poetic creations and mythic personages of the past are preferred to those with whom one mingles. The style in which this writer places Queen Victoria, as a mere personage of mythological fiction, is enough to excite the indignation and loyalty of every Englishman, and the same possibility of North America. It seems probable that he has or some time pursued the Ancient History of Charles Knight, for go historian, except Knight, has had the credulity to believe the story of the half-fabulous Semiramis—the mythic Queen whose name, in the captains of the fabled Egyptian wars as real and as well known as Napoleon or those with which the name of Napoleon is associated. We should, in any of our answers what Macaulay says and of Sir William Temple.—" Indeed, the subject on which he writes the immortal and the fabulous reminds us of those classical illustrations of Addison, in which Cato, Socrates, Alexander, the hero of himself, and the dead men of Cheshire—Fellas the son of Jupiter and Leda—are ranged under the same heading, and the whole is presented equally real." We have no doubt, in all sincerity, that the fiction of Orpheus is as much a reality as the Olympic games; and that the legends in Lempriere's Classical Dictionary are as authentic as the Penny Gazette.

But passing the classic features of the article alluded to, we come to the historic citations.—Those, it is evident from the latter part of the article, are regarded even, by the writer as fables, or, for after circumnavigating the whole world of history, he gives the clean up by deploring "the deficiency of all analogies between the past and the future"—evidently forgetting that the theme of the present discussion is with the present alone. And this solitude between the former and latter portion of his article, we are quite unable to explain.

Now, if the citations from history mean anything—if in the argument itself they have any force at all—it is this: that no European power will attempt to erect a universal monarchy throughout the continent—and that the present crisis have ever crumbled to ruins. The septuagint of such a train of reasoning, is too transparent to admit of comment. Its strongest confutation is in its clearest statement. But we will merely remark that men are not commonly deterred from desired objects by the thought that those objects will prove futile. The most energetic accomplishers of the world are not at times found bewailing with Solomon, that all is vanity.

As to the dread of a universal monarchy, of which this writer speaks, we do not believe that there are a dozen men of intelligence in society who have ne fear; any such a dread. It is not the perpetuity of a universal monarchy that is feared—it is the mere existence of one which would inevitably cause wars any formidable attempts made in the part of the present European powers to establish such an odious thing.

The proposition of this reviewer, that the genius of liberty and of modern civilization is adverse to universal monarchy, is a self-evident and transparent truism; and we wonder that any man should be found who is capable of attempting to prove such a proposition. We should as soon think of attempting to prove, in Lowell, Should the weather be fine, the crowds who will press forward to the grand review by native inhabitants, we look, and are to be proved by logical deduction; and we think the antagonism of liberty and despotism, even in its mildest form, is as evident to the mind of he who runs may read, and the wayfaring man, though a fool, need not err therein.

To conclude, then, we think tast nothing in the article alluded to, contains aught that disproves, to the slightest degree, the general tendency of our views in the present crisis of affairs, regard Europe as being the theatre of a great struggle—as commencing a new epoch—as hence to continue—in which absolutism as a name and as the friends of progress are ranged the other. Our earnest hope is, that the latter may prevail.

R. A. MILLER, DAG'RREAN ARTIST, NO. 18 CENTRAL STREET. (Over store to "Ye Paper" Office.)

R.A. Miller has received from Grand Rivet a number of Premiums for the best Pictures taken by him, and is always superior to any in the city. Persons wishing for Pictures will find it to their advantage to call at his Rooms. Lowell, June 1, 1853. 1y1m

DAGUERREOTYPES TAKEN IN ALL THE VARIOUS STYLES: Crayons, Illuminated, MAGIC BACKGROUNDS, &c. DAGUERREOTYPES Copied and Magnified TO ANY SIZE DESIRED. Old letters, cloth and faded pictures, taken as clear as new. Rooms open from 6 A. M. to 9 P. M. Entrance on Merrimack street. LARGEST AND BEST DAGUERREOTYPES IN THE CITY. Lowell, June 1, 1853. 1y1m

CHENERIES! CHENERIES!! 19 CENTRAL STREET. Lowell, June 1, 1853. 1y1m

LOWELL MARBLE WORKS.

Union st., near the Depot. The subscriber would inform the citizens of Lowell and vicinity, that he has taken the above shop, and is now prepared to furnish MONUMENTS and GRAVE STONES of every description, at short notice, and on reasonable terms. Also, Marble Mantels, Table Tops, &c. Lettering done in the best manner. Persons wishing to order will please call and examine for themselves. Lowell, May 16, 1853. 3m

Philadelphia Parasol Store.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY A PARASOL, Don't arrive at lodging in GLADSTAKER'S traps and be disappointed. PHILADELPHIA PARASOL FASHIONS, being made at Philadelphia, and purchased by the proprietor, are always in their great point of fashion. GLADSTAKER'S PHILADELPHIA PARASOL FACTORY, 400 Washington street, Boston, is the only place in the city where the Philadelphia Parasol, Sunshade and Fan Depot, can be found. Boston, June 1, 1853. 1y1m

R. A. GLADSTAKER, Proprietor.

A CARD TO THE LADIES OF LOWELL AND VICINITY

MRS WINSLOW, an experienced Female Physician, respectfully informs the Ladies of Lowell and vicinity, that she has taken rooms at No. 5 Prescott Block, Merrimack street, where she intends to remain for a few weeks, and where she will be happy to wait upon all those who may favor her with a call. Mrs. W. is a regular graduate of the Female Medical College of Philadelphia, and has had many years experience in the practice of her profession. Lowell, June 1, 1853. 1y1m

Dr. Lawrence's Sovereign Remedy for the Great Secret.

Only $1 and $2 per Bottle.

Sold by Druggists and Traders generally throughout the United States and Canada. Principal Depot, 21 Tremont Row, Boston. Dr. LAWRENCE'S WORK ON THE GREAT SECRET, containing a full description of his remedy, with a specific mode of treatment, and numerous certificates of cures, sent free of postage to any part of the country. Dr. LAWRENCE'S SECRET REMEDY is sold by the following agents in Lowell:—Dr. Wm. Graves, Central street, Lowell. Lowell, June 1, 1853. 1y1m

Does not every Man, Woman and Child have an interest in having the health of themselves and friends secured and preserved? All who observe of the vast importance of keeping the blood pure, and the system free from disease, will find in Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla a safe, certain and effectual remedy. Pure blood is the foundation of health, and this Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and thereby cures all diseases which arise from impurities in the blood. Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the most powerful antidote for Scrofula, Erysipelas, Ulcers, Boils, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Scald Head, Ringworm, Rheumatism, Mercurial Diseases, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Female Weakness, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists everywhere. Lowell, June 1, 1853. 1y1m

Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

is the best remedy for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists everywhere. Lowell, June 1, 1853. 1y1m is the best remedy for Worms that has ever been discovered. Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists everywhere. Lowell, June 1, 1853. 1y1m

Dr. Ayer's Vermifuge

Dr. Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the best Purgative Medicine that can be used in Families, Hospitals, Physicians and Travellers. Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists everywhere. Lowell, June 1, 1853. 1y1m

Dr. Ayer's Liniment is the best remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Frost Bites, Chilblains, Sore Throat, Sore Eyes, Sore Nipples, Sore Breasts, Sore Heels, Sore Legs, Sore Feet, Sore Hands, Sore Lips, Sore Mouth, Sore Ears, Sore Nose, Sore Head, Sore Back, Sore Chest

J. B. PUTNAM.

WHIP LINE WORK, GROOD PANSCHROOM, COURTNEY STREET, LOWELL.

Keeps on hand a large assortment of Whips, Lashes and Whip Trimmings, which he will sell at the lowest prices.

Repairing done in the best manner, and at short notice.

Lowell, April 21, 1858. apr21

FOR SALE,

A HORSE, suitable for a Grocery Team, Express Team, or Chaise. Inquire of JOHN C. HOWE, Jr., Tyler street.

Lowell, April 21, 1858. apr21

MACHINE SHOP TO LET.

THE Machine Shop, recently occupied by Messrs. Hall & Whitney, is to let. Apply to the subscriber, on the premises, Dutton street, between the Merrimack and Western Canal.

MARVEL, SARGENT & CO.

Lowell, April 21, 1858. apr21

WHITTIER,

FUR & HAT STORE,

NEY STREET,

OPPOSITE

Agent & Manager for the sale of the celebrated Fur Hats, manufactured by Messrs. Knox, of New York.

Lowell, April 21, 1858. apr21

STORE TO LET.

In the new block recently erected in Lowell, No. 36 Merrimack st., Masonic Building, A. WHITNEY.

Lowell, April 21, 1858. apr21

TEMPERANCE HOUSE.

THE subscriber would inform his friends and the public that he has taken the house recently occupied by Mr. Wm. Bowers, No. 4 Merrimack st., and has fitted up the same in a neat and convenient manner, and is now prepared to accommodate boarders and transient customers. Terms reasonable.

JOSEPH BOWERS.

Lowell, April 21, 1858. apr21

BRUSHES! BRUSHES!

BRUSHES SHAVES, cheese cloth, Feather Dusters, Paper Hangers' Brushes, Varnish Brushes, Sash Tools, Whitewash Brushes, Shoe Brushes, Horse Brushes, Curry Combs, Sponges, Hair Brushes, Combs, Fancy Goods, Perfumery, &c., &c., at wholesale and retail, by J. F. & P. BARRETT.

Lowell, April 21, 1858. apr21

Lowell & Saratoga Book Store.

THIS SOCIAL EVENING PARTY, by T. S. Arthur, a superior edition for the hardest times, or to be read in the social circle. For sale by B. B. MUSSEY & CO.

Lowell, April 21, 1858. apr21

A SPLENDID ASSORTMENT of Gold Pens, Pencils, Pen Holders, Gold Bands, Rings, Pins, Ear Drops, Sleeve Buttons, Studs, Watch Keys, Thimbles, Spectacles, Gold Chains, Lockets, Silver Spoons, Forks, Pencils, Pen Holders, Thimbles, Spectacles, Silver Chains, Lockets, Bracelets, Pins, Ear Drops, Sleeve Buttons, Studs, Watch Keys, Gold Pens not I, who for ten years have been a master goldsmith, and am now a citizen of Paris, a richer, I might say, than the best of the Jews, taken by in so no?"

"I suppose so," said the Goldsmith, with a regretful canine like desire in his soul, but he repressed his hope, and speedily relieved the aching void, when he heard a jingling as of a string, and evidently caressing, a delicate white cow, which was busily stepping the herbage that grew by the wayside.

"I see, madam," said the Goldsmith, with some hesitation, "that the necessity which compels you to practice the day of rest, does not indeed be urged. Have you no fear of punishment?"

"I know nothing to fear," she replied; "for I belong to the Abbey, and the Lord Abbot has given me a cottage and cattle here after the hour of vespers."

"It appears to me," said the Goldsmith, musing, "that you save more for your charge than for the safety of your soul; how is this?"

"Ah, sir," said the girl, with a sigh, "this animal provides me with at least half our scanty subsistence."

"I cannot teach," rejoined the Treasurgeand, in one you, time poor and tattered, traversing the fields barefoot on this holy day, when you carry in your face more beauty than could be obscured found within the whole domain of the Abbey. I cannot doubt that you are poor, and, treasured, with profiles of love from half the gold and jewels of the city; tell me, truly, is it not so?"

"I AM," she said, "she replied; 'for I am a serf of the Abbey!" And she drew his attention, by a slight motion of her finger, to the collar which she attached to her left arm, and which, with the exception of the bell, was exactly like those borne by the tenants of the fee. This convenient was composed of a lock of such ingenious construction as to excite the deepest commiseration in the mind of her companion; no true is it, that the arts are the most faithful to the interests of the really powerful emotions of the mind. "I see," she continued, "the daughter of a bondman, and observer united her lot to mine would share with me all my poverty, and be even a citizen of Paris, would belong, body and possession, to the Abbey! Even my offspring would inherit my misfortune! In consequence of this law I am neglected and avoided by all the greatest grief however, is that in due time I shall be consigned, at the pleasure of the Lord Abbot, with a bondman for I must have many more children, before all free men cease to shine on like the planets." Having thus spoken, she gently drew closer the string of her charge, as a signal to the animal that their wanderings were to be resumed.

"How old are you, child?" inquired the Goldsmith, to prolong the conference a little.

"I do not know, indeed," replied the maiden "but the Lord Abbot has it written in his book."

The wretched lot of the young girl affected the kind-hearted Treasurgeand, as I have hinted already, most deeply. He conformed his steps to hers, and thus proceeded in silence towards the river. He had this ample opportunity of observing the beautiful form, grace, to form, and fine countenance of the girl, which also appeared to him the very picture of the Genevieve (the holy patroness of Paris, and especially of young girls who work in the fields,) and his pity for the destitute appearance which restrained them, the more eager became his desire, and firm his resolution, to overcome them.

"Your favorite is a fine creature," he remarked softly, "and appears docile as yourself"

"Will you bar then drink a little milk?" she replied; "these first fine days of May are very hot, and you have still Paris at her feet."

It was to rob a burning, thoughtless day; the air seemed laden with vapor; often the grass and foliage were already green, and all wore the appearance of spring and joy.

This friendly offer, for which she could have expected no return combined with the grace and modesty of her manner in making it, completed the conquest of the Goldsmith's heart; and he seemed to like at their moment if he were placed the poor serf on the throne of all Gaul, and not at Paris at her feet.

"No, pretty one," he replied; "I will not refuse you the power of relieving you from your servile bondage.

"As that can never be," said she; "I shall die a slave of the Abbey. We have lived in free, father to son, from mother to daughter, for generations, and like my poor mother at time, I and my descendants must pass our lives on these lands, on which we were born."

To be continued.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Saturday, July 31, 1852.

The Campaign Opening.

The campaign between Whiggism and Democracy—so often fought with success and sometimes with reverses—is about to be refought with more frequent successes, and fewer reverses in the future—has already attained the equipments and the pitch the good Whig stronghold of Tennessee. Andrew Johnson is the aspirant on the Democratic side; a man with a wonderful experience in the battle of politics; a shrewd and astute party leader, and a man who is true and trustful, but true of the interest of his native State and native country at heart, than the major part of the patent Democrats of the day.

Whiggism has a noble advocate—a brave opponent, in the person of Gustavus A. Henry. Mr Henry has the respect of all Tennessee, and will have the suffrage of many whose political antecedents are adverse to his claims. He is an eloquent stump-orator, and stands so high in the temple of fame, that thousands of more unpretending pain before him.—He is a firm advocate of the free-land principle; though Mr Johnson, the Democratic nominee, has also espoused the advocacy of the same principle. Mr Henry, in the true spirit of an enthusiastic advocate of internal improvements, proposes to give to every man, head of a family or not head of a family, married or unmarried, husband or bachelor, the full complement of one hundred and sixty acres of the public land of the State; and, since his opponent has come out and come up to Mr Henry's views, we have little doubt of the latter's success. In a speech at Nashville, in reply to the remarks of Mr Johnson, Mr Henry said:

"I give my competitor much credit for the liberal advocacy of his proposition, to give to every head of a family, not a land-owner, and who may wish to receive it as such, 160 acres of the Public Lands for a Homestead. But my competitor has not stopped there. He will not forever not only heads of families, but bachelors and young unmarried men. Give to every head of a family all the inventives to good and honorable devotion, which are connected with a personal interest in the soil on which he lives. But why exclude bachelors and young unmarried men? When the tocsin of war sounds, who are the men that fill up the ranks of our armies, and so forth readily to the call of patriotism and of glory, to the country's honor blazoning in the tenth—all to be had by love, the attendant of the soldier? Why this story of our battle fields every day? Not a very large proportion of them are husbands and fathers, but young men. Who, then, patriotic Sirs, or either of them? Let the young men not fall into the new system, settle on the Homestead and subdue the wilderness? Why not shall by young men become his fields and his gardens. He might by love to see around him the happy faces of those prepared to protect himself of that dearest object of his heart, and like my poor mother at time, I and my descendants must pass our lives on these lands, on which we were born."

To be continued.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Saturday, July 31, 1852.

The Campaign Opening.

The campaign between Whiggism and Democracy—so often fought with success and sometimes with reverses—is about to be refought with more frequent successes, and fewer reverses in the future—has already attained the equipments and the pitch the good Whig stronghold of Tennessee. Andrew Johnson is the aspirant on the Democratic side; a man with a wonderful experience in the battle of politics; a shrewd and astute party leader, and a man who is true and trustful, but true of the interest of his native State and native country at heart, than the major part of the patent Democrats of the day.

Whiggism has a noble advocate—a brave opponent, in the person of Gustavus A. Henry. Mr Henry has the respect of all Tennessee, and will have the suffrage of many whose political antecedents are adverse to his claims. He is an eloquent stump-orator, and stands so high in the temple of fame, that thousands of more unpretending pain before him.—He is a firm advocate of the free-land principle; though Mr Johnson, the Democratic nominee, has also espoused the advocacy of the same principle. Mr Henry, in the true spirit of an enthusiastic advocate of internal improvements, proposes to give to every man, head of a family or not head of a family, married or unmarried, husband or bachelor, the full complement of one hundred and sixty acres of the public land of the State; and, since his opponent has come out and come up to Mr Henry's views, we have little doubt of the latter's success. In a speech at Nashville, in reply to the remarks of Mr Johnson, Mr Henry said:

"I give my competitor much credit for the liberal advocacy of his proposition, to give to every head of a family, not a land-owner, and who may wish to receive it as such, 160 acres of the Public Lands for a Homestead. But my competitor has not stopped there. He will not forever not only heads of families, but bachelors and young unmarried men. Give to every head of a family all the inventives to good and honorable devotion, which are connected with a personal interest in the soil on which he lives. But why exclude bachelors and young unmarried men? When the tocsin of war sounds, who are the men that fill up the ranks of our armies, and so forth readily to the call of patriotism and of glory, to the country's honor blazoning in the tenth —all to be had by love, the attendant of the soldier? Why this story of our battle fields every day? Not a very large proportion of them are husbands and fathers, but young men. Who, then, patriotic Sirs, or either of them? Let the young men not fall into the new system, settle on the Homestead and subdue the wilderness? Why not shall by young men become his fields and his gardens. He might by love to see around him the happy faces of those prepared to protect himself of that dearest object of his heart, and like my poor mother at time, I and my descendants must pass our lives on these lands, on which we were born."

To be continued.

☞ Corduroy. We have on exhibition at this office, under supervision of our clerk, a fine fashion, made up from cloth, from the shade of grass to the color of

☞ New York and New Hampshire have united. Edmund Burke says that he cannot precisely relate Mr Cooley does!

For the Journal and Courier.

The Highest Wrongs of the Hardest Hearts.

MR YANKEE—Dear Sir: I saw in your journal a few days ago, an "editorial" upon the Law in regard to Physicians refusing examinations upon patients in certain cases. I am no lawyer, and may not meet the writer's arguments upon that ground, though it seems to me the matter of it is neither ambiguous or conclusive. It may lead, however, to more misunderstandings among the people in regard to our profession, (and there is ignorance enough already,) and, therefore, I shall beg the use of your columns in reply. I suppose a country or city physician to be called to a case of fracture. He declines attendance. We may suppose his reasons briefly thus: The patient and his friends are unacquainted with the natural results of such an accident under the most favorable circumstances—and especially are they ignorant of the peculiar results witnessed by surgeons in certain constitutions or stage of the constitution; their attention is particularly confined to the mere circumstance of the fractured limb, without being alive to the dangers of less superficial but still severe injuries of neighboring parts, which may be of great importance in the sequel. Instinctly ignorant of these things, or wilfully forgetting them if explained, and animated by the hope of gratuity, they accuse the man who declines a jury equally ignorant. What is the result? The jury, instead of forming their decision upon the evidence of competent and experienced men, repudiate their evidence altogether. They cause to take it in preference to the Professors (standing upon slippery places,) are bound to swear to each other's benefit;—and that they are a favored portion of the community—a privileged class getting their money easy—and consequently must be exalted heavily whenever anything can be got out of them; and though he were a Professor of Paris, would belong, body and possession, to the Abbey! Even my offspring would inherit my misfortune! In consequence of this law I am neglected and avoided by all the greatest grief however, is that in due time I shall be consigned, at the pleasure of the Lord Abbot, with a bondman for I must have many more children, before all free men cease to shine on like the planets." Having thus spoken, she gently drew closer the string of her charge, as a signal to the animal that their wanderings were to be resumed.

"How old are you, child?" inquired the Goldsmith, to prolong the conference a little.

"I do not know, indeed," replied the maiden "but the Lord Abbot has it written in his book."

The wretched lot of the young girl affected the kind-hearted Treasurgeand, as I have hinted already, most deeply. He conformed his steps to hers, and thus proceeded in silence towards the river. He had this ample opportunity of observing the beautiful form, grace, to form, and fine countenance of the girl, which also appeared to him the very picture of the Genevieve (the holy patroness of Paris, and especially of young girls who work in the fields,) and his pity for the destitute appearance which restrained them, the more eager became his desire, and firm his resolution, to overcome them.

"Your favorite is a fine creature," he remarked softly, "and appears docile as yourself"

"Will you bar then drink a little milk?" she replied; "these first fine days of May are very hot, and you have still Paris at her feet."

It was to rob a burning, thoughtless day; the air seemed laden with vapor; often the grass and foliage were already green, and all wore the appearance of spring and joy.

This friendly offer, for which she could have expected no return combined with the grace and modesty of her manner in making it, completed the conquest of the Goldsmith's heart; and he seemed to like at their moment if he were placed the poor serf on the throne of all Gaul, and not at Paris at her feet.

"No, pretty one," he replied; "I will not refuse you the power of relieving you from your servile bondage.

"As that can never be," said she; "I shall die a slave of the Abbey. We have lived in free, father to son, from mother to daughter, for generations, and like my poor mother at time, I and my descendants must pass our lives on these lands, on which we were born."

To be continued.

CITY MATTERS.

THE HYPOCRONON will be opened to the public this evening, with this evening. It will be a splendid entertainment—with which a Circus bears no comparison.

☞ E. G. Sampson, Esq., we are grateful to learn, had an arm broken yesterday, just above the elbow.

☞ "Captain Sam," who presides over the County Institution at the West end of the city, is one of the best practical gardeners, and has one of the most productive gardens in this county.

INFORMATION IS WANTED of Wm. P. Smithow, who is supposed to be in this city. He can receive a letter from his father by calling at this office.

☞ We have heard, up to this date, of five of the excitement 90 bills on the Cazo Bank, passed by Nichols in this city the day he was caught. One man on Merrimack street took two of them.

THE PICTORIALS are uncommonly brilliant this week. Barnum and Gleason are both doing their best—to the great joy of all their partizans. Barnum this week issues (for subscribers only,) a splendid "Crystal Palace Supplement," containing a large and very fine "bird's eye view" of the Palace, and other pictorial attractions. Gleason has also a handsome view of the Palace, and other attractive embellishments. Davis, 67 Merrimack street, has these for sale.

TRAVELLING DRESS GOODS. Joseph S. Brown, No. 54 Merrimack street, has just received a large assortment of travelling Dress Goods.—All those in want of such goods are invited to call and examine.

WHIG CONVENTION. Thursday, July 31. GEO. W. JORDON, for an assault on watchman Goodwin, was fined $1 and costs.

JOHN MCNEIL, for larceny of a pistol, was ordered to recognize in $200 to C. C. P.

JOHN MCNEIL, for passing counterfeit money, was ordered to recognize in $6000 to C. C. P.—committed.

Samuel O. Chase and Joseph Wescott, for insulting women on the street, were each fined $3 and costs.

Mary Sheerns, for drunkenness, was fined $3 and costs.

Dupont David, for threatening to take the life of officer Fuller, while coming to the police office, with a loaded pistol, which was taken from him at the time by the City Marshal and officer Fuller, was ordered to give surety to keep the peace for 3 months in the sum of $500.

LORD JOHN ABBOTT AMAIN. We are happy to learn that the proprietor of the News has secured the services of the talented and lovely young man. Within a few days the News'ber much improved in appearance. It was never ably edited before. John has come last—if not a little sooner.

LOWELL BOYS AT HARVARD COLLEGE. At Harvard University this year, Horatio Wood and James O. Brait entered the Freshman class—William Wright graduated, and Geo. F. Robinson took the first prize in the Law school.

CANADA TRAVEL. Tickets for Montreal, via the Vermont Central, at a much distance by railroad, can be obtained at the office of the Lowell & Lawrence Railroad, in this city, for $7.

☞ The Mount Washburn, of Worcester, have just purchased of Messrs. Crompton & Knowles, looms, valued at $20,000, for the purpose of erecting a new manufacturing establishment, which will furnish employment to about 150 men.

☞ There is said to be an old lady down on Long Island so fond of her husband that she has a shadow for griddle-greasing. To keep her from slipping out of bed her husband rolls her in the batter. She is a perfect "flat-terer."

☞ Charles Andrews is the name of the fiend who was detected in the act of burning the Methodist church at Lynn, Mass. Having failed, on a former occasion, to fire the building, he procured a quantity of tow and turpentine, and succeeded in setting it on fire. He is confined in jail.

FARMS RAILROAD. Speaking of this project the New York Herald has the following remark: "Now, therefore, we are highly grateful to state to the patriotic people, and to the "rest of mankind," that we have good reason to believe that the Pacific railroad is the first annual message of Gen. Pierce to Congress, on the opening of the session in December next."

And in the same edition, speaking of the oratory of President Pierce, the Herald observes: "It may be said by some critics that the President's style and manner is too theatrical for that of a crown building in dignified station, and that his speeches are wanting in originality and eulogy; but all admit that he has perfect self-possession as a speaker, good taste in his selection of language adapted to his subject and his audience, with the advantages of a good personal appearance, and a graceful and forcible manner of delivery—qualities which cannot fail to command popular favor."

DESCRIPTIVE TYPOGRAPHY. The Scientific American observes that "Since hundred years ago a committee of the Professors of the Edinburgh University attempted to publish a work on typography, with specimens of ancient and graphical accuracy. Every presumption was taken to secure the desired result. Six experienced printers were employed to set up the matter, and to print the work, page by page, and after it was thought by all parties, it was passed on to the hands of the Professors. It was passed on to the hands of the Professors. It was passed on to the hands of the University, with a notification that £50 would be paid to any person who should discover a single error. The work was suffered to remain two weeks in the place where it had been passed, and the Professors and printers that they had attained the object for which they had been striving. When the work was issued, it was discovered that several errors had been committed, and that the work was in the first line on the first page."

☞ There has been for the editions of the Boston "Herald" and "World" sold in London, over 200,000 copies.

CHARGES. Three ladies and gentlemen were drowned in Philadelphia on the 19th inst., being in a pleasure boat which was run into by a steamboat.

President Pierce's Appointments in Georgia.—The reader cannot have failed to be struck with the fact that the appointments made in this State, by President Pierce, to wit: that he has given the offices to the men who have been the fearless Rights party. With one or two exceptions, all the appointments have been made of men who have fought an appointment, notwithstanding the Union Democracy, and have, unflinchingly and post office, in this city, were made of men who have been the work of the Union party in Augusta was given to a Southern Rights man. The appointment of Mr Cumming, as one of the post offices in Columbus. In Macon, Southern Rights Democrat, and the Union party last fall in the support of Gen. Pierce, his appointment to the office of Collector of Customs in Brunswick, which goes far to show that the President is determined to carry out in good faith the principles upon which he was elected.—[Atlas.

☞ The people of Hanover are suffering from chills.

☞ Two men, who were asleep in a boat, were carried over Niagara Falls on the night of Monday last. Another, who was in the boat, saved himself for some hours by clinging to a stump in the rapids; but was at last carried over and drowned.

ORDER OF FOOL'S CAP PAPER. When Cromwell, after dissolving the Long Parliament, had Charles I, he caused the stamp of the one up of liberty to be placed on the paper used by the Government, in order to prevent its publication. On hearing of this stamp, he imposed the meaning. On being told, he said—"Then it is empty, I'll have nothing to do with the thing."

☞ Seth Thomas of New Bedford, has left works in the factory of Seth Thomas & Co., on the following Sunday.

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY, Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1836. Capital, $100,000.

OFFICE—No. 52 WALL STREET, NEW YORK.

DIRECTORS:
Jno. Crawford, M. D., Wm. Bayard, Jr.,
Jno. Wm. Mitchell, Jno. Wm. Mitchell,
Jno. Wm. Mitchell, Jno. Wm. Mitchell,
Jno. Wm. Mitchell, Jno. Wm. Mitchell

THE COURIER
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE,
Number of Central and Middle streets,
(Lawrence's Granite Block, over Grocery.)

FAST PRESSES,

Adapted to every description of work, from the smallest Poster down to the largest Packing Card—together with an unusually variety of well-chosen varieties of BORDERS and PLAIN TYPE.

JOB TYPE,

the proprietor believes that his facilities for executing every description of

PRINTING

in a workmanlike manner, are unsurpassed by any establishment in Lowell or the vicinity.

The proprietor is prepared to execute promptly and also

LOW PRICES

in such kinds of work as

BILL HEADS AND MEDIUM POSTERS, LARGE BILLS, DEMI CARDS,
CATALOGUES,
BILL HEADS, BLANKS,
BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,
BOOKBINDING CARDS, TICKET
PLAIN AND FANCY
LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, or flowers of every shade, as may be desired.

Any thing not in print, or found in this list, may be had by calling at the office and examining specimens of work.

Orders by mail, a good stock of plain, pearl material and assortment, write plainly and direct as follows:

COURIER OFFICE,
Lowell, Mass.

NEW DRUG STORE.

EDWARD KENT would respectfully announce to the citizens of Lowell and vicinity, that he has just opened and now offers for sale, at the old stand, No. 3 Prescott Block, corner of Central and Merrimack streets, under the Church Green, a large and well selected assortment of which

DRUGS AND MEDICINES,

nor by whatever council in time be assembled; for many years to come, will well deserve to be associated with their names to become the founders of a noble line.

"I know, my soul," replied Annese, "that you love me, but I cannot consent to your sacrifice."

"Endeavor then," said his friend, "to purchase the freedom of this girl. I know that she loves you."

Holy father," said Annese, advancing towards the Abbot, "do you in conscience think the duty of protecting her below the immediate goodness of God, whose clemency was so often manifested in her behalf, by the only means now known to be acknowledged. If you will grant me this god favor, I will swear, nevertheless all claim on the offspring of our marriage, I will not fail to present you to the holy prayers, morning and night, for the rest of my days; nor will I for one moment forget that I owe you more than life. Furthermore, I will bestow on you a box to contain the Holy Eucharist, so elaborately adorned with gold, jewels, and figures of angels, as to be unique throughout all Christendom, and greatly to awaken your eyes; so great shall be its magnificence, that strangers as well as the inhabitants of the city shall hasten to behold it, and it will be the pride and glory of your altar."

"My son," rejoined the Abbot, "have you serious thoughts in this? If you are resolved to leave the nobles for your lawful wife, you believe will you not be more pertinently be confined to the chapter of the Abbey."

"My father," said Annese, "I do love this poor girl deeply and devotedly; yet am I even more touched by her piety and misery than by her charms; I do indeed, the tears start to my eyes, I am above all astonished at the hard-heartedness of the laws, and I do not hesitate to say so, although I know my fate to be in your hands. Yes, my lord, I know this edict sanctioned too well; but if my possessions must be added to your treasury, I must surrender my liberty and my happiness, I will at least keep the support, conferred by my labor and perseverance, which is placed here; let another, who knows how, come here in my room to be master of it save God and myself. The fruits of the creation of my brain are worth more than all my present riches, and although you may have my body, my worldly chattels, several of which are to you very valuable, not even the most cruel torturer, for I see amongst you one in kind, and more certain than grief is great," Having thus spoken, the Genoese, as though enraged at the calmness of the Abbot, struck with his fist upon an oak chair, which he overturned and pictured in pieces, as it might have done beneath the blow of a hero's mace. "Father, my lord," he continued, "the slave you will have; of an artificer of things divine you will soon but a beast of burthen."

"My son," answered the Abbot, "you have wrongfully broken my chair, and rightly judged of my soul. This dwelling is the property of the Abbey, not mine; I am but the guardian of the rights and usages of the glorious monastery; and although I could grant love to you alone, I must present for it to God and the Abbey. Now, there is other way to obtain what I seek than by applying to the Abbey, that is by a ransom, and this I will accept. Let Mr. Rantoni, of Fall River, assist you by adding the words, "provided that no Judge hereinafter appointed shall continue in the Abbey before he shall have arrived at the age of 70 years, nor be deposed by a vote of less than 150."

Mr Hallett, of Wilbraham, moved to amend by providing that nominations shall be publicly announced. Adopted.

On motion of Mr Allen, of Worcester, the vote limiting the age of Judges to 70 years was reconsidered (146 to 144) and the amendment was rejected, 160 to 126.

The age of a Judge is therefore left unrestricted. The amendment of Mr Knowlton was then adopted, 166 ayes, 106 nays.

The resolve relative to the incorporation of the Boston Water Power Company was taken up.

Convention and acted upon without leaving the Committee any further authorized than to report.

Mr Wilson had much to say relative to Fred. Douglass, but was called to order. He said he took his remarks touching the whole case of the Colored People.

After much debate, the following resolve relative to Martin Culbreath was adopted:

Resolved, That the Constitution ought to be amended by adding to Article 2, section 1, the following article, to wit:—

The Legislature shall not be judge sonsible for the advancement of learning, in great measure, their progress in, or make provision for the diffusion among the persons now residing in the Province and Fellows of Harvard College: Provided, the obligation of contracts shall not be impaired, and shall have the like right and authority over all corporate franchises hereafter granted for the purposes of education in this Commonwealth.

TREASURY. This distinguished humorist, whose volume of lectures are now before the public, is intending soon to return—his country to deliver four lectures on the Georgia. In a recent number of Putnam's Monthly, we find an article on Thackeray, in which the felicitous and brilliant pen of one of our most gifted young authors is viable beneath the "anonymous," which Mr Putnam so kindly permits us the benefit.

Those who have his books have probably met in the lecturer. Those who did not know the author were charmed in the lecturer. He is as charming in the author, the unaffected humanity, the tenderness, the sympathy, the playfulness of fancy, and the soul touch of truth, with which he paints men, women, childhood, youth, life, illumes, while it withers. The lectures are even more delightful than the books, for we see the tones of the voice, and the appearance of the man, the personal presence of which are exhibited and silvivized so much that we could almost have sworn we had heard it before. For those who had long felt in the writings of Thackeray a reality quite incongruous, it was a severe delight in finding it justified by his lectures, for he reveals himself in them directly, without any cant of oratory, conscious that what he says by its intrinsic value, the sympathetic and humane way in which it was spoken. Thackeray is the kind of "public orator" that would have pleased Carlyle, for he never thinks about himself, but his thought. If his conception of the time and the intricate of the men differ from your own, you have at least no doubt what his view is, you see the elements of conception, and in Thackeray considers fwith a misanthrope. He loves Goldsmith like Steele, and Hogarth like Fielding would have done if he had been historian for Addison. How could it be otherwise? How could Thackeray see thick Swift and not feel his power? Thackeray is kind of a misanthrope, and a man of instinct, not a thoughts. He could not have written "Gulliver," rather than dine with the Dean of St. Patrick's, but he could have written the Battle of Hastings rather than a glass of Burgundy with Duke William, and he could have done what he is Thackeray. He would have done it in Fielding would have done it in Fielding would have done it in Fielding

PRIZE MEDALS

TERRY & COLBURN,

JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

(ADJOINING THE POST OFFICE)

FAST PRESSES,

Of the most approved kind, Machine Composition, Stereotyping, and a large and varied assortment of

JOB TYPE,

have induced them to contract for executing in the neatest manner and on the most reasonable terms, of every description, whether Plain or Ornamental, and solicit a share of public patronage.

PRINTING

Orders by mail will receive prompt attention, and be executed at the shortest notice.

LOW PRICES

will be offered to all.

HANDBILLS and BILLHEADS PRINTED, CARDS, CIRCULARS, CATALOGUES, BLANKS, BLANKS, BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS.

CARDS, TICKET OR VISITING, CHECK

PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

of every size, kind or description, and in any style desired.

All Orders, no matter how small or plain, must receive prompt and careful attention, when sent to the Office.

Jobbers and Printers will find it to their interest to call.

NEW DRUG STORE.

EDWARD BUSH would call the attention of the citizens of Lowell and vicinity to his new and well selected stock of which he will sell at the lowest prices for cash. Store on the south side of Merrimack Street, a few doors west of Middle street.

DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS, OILS, DYE STUFFS, GLASS, PERFUMERY, FANCY ARTICLES, &c.

Lowell, Jan. 1, 1853. 1y

BLANCHARD, WRIGHT & CO.,

CARPET WAREHOUSE,

(Under Merrimack House, Market Square,)

LOWELL.

Have for Trade, Wholesale and Retail, a large and fashionable assortment of CARPETING, OIL CLOTHS, MATTINGS, &c.

Lowell, Jan. 1, 1853. 1y

NEW GOODS.

D. C. STEVENSON

Would inform his friends and customers that he has just returned from the city with a large and fashionable assortment of consisting of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, Linens and Cottonades, which he will make to order in the latest and most fashionable style, and warrant to fit.

DRY GOODS,

Also, a full assortment of Ready Made Clothing, which he will sell at the lowest prices for cash.

Lowell, Jan. 1, 1853.

STORE TO LET.

The Store on Merrimack street, now occupied by Lowell, No. 30 Aug. 6, 1853. WHITNEY.

INSURANCE AGENCY.

THE undersigned would inform the public that he has established himself in this city as an INSURANCE AGENT, and solicits a share of public patronage. Office in the Hamilton Block, Merrimack Square.

Lowell, Aug. 6, 1853. 3m

DRESSING COMBS, different sizes, Pocket Combs, Shell Combs, Ivory Combs, for sale at the Hardware store of J. W. & G. BAILEY, Merrimack Square.

THE ROYAL TORNADO LIFE PREVENTIVE. The most complete article for the bathing room, or to wash the face and hands, ever offered to the public. For sale at the SIGN OF THE "PUFF."

Also, Puff Boxes, Powder Puffs, Hair Brushes, &c.

Lowell, Aug. 6, 1853. 1y

CHARLES PAT.

CHARLES A. SAFFORD, Agent for Lowell, Merrimack Square.

Lowell, Aug. 6, 1853. 1y

CARPETINGS.—The subscriber would call the attention of purchasers to his stock of Carpetings, which he is now selling at the lowest prices for cash. Also, Oil Cloths, Mattings, &c. Store on Merrimack street, a few doors west of Middle street.

Lowell, Aug. 6, 1853. EDWARD BUSH.

DR. BENJAMIN'S PREPARED CHYCK — for sale by the subscriber. Also, Hamburg Tea, Hamburg Snuff, Hamburg Cigars, Hamburg Pipes, Hamburg Tobacco, Hamburg Pocket Books, Hamburg Wallets, Hamburg Purses, Hamburg Segar Cases, Hamburg Tobacco Boxes, Hamburg Pocket Knives, Hamburg Razors, Hamburg Razor Strops, Hamburg Shaving Boxes, Hamburg Shaving Brushes, Hamburg Hair Brushes, Hamburg Tooth Brushes, Hamburg Flesh Brushes, Hamburg Clothes Brushes, Hamburg Hair Oil, Hamburg Cologne, Hamburg Lavender Water, Hamburg Extracts, Hamburg Soaps, Hamburg Pomatum, Hamburg Fancy Articles, Hamburg Perfumery hee to me been as pitiless. Deign, then, to accept this offering at my hands: it is but an unworthy token of gratitude for the bliss which through your intercession I have enjoyed in the sight of her whose brightness places it worth the world to me. I know not what my figure for my joy; but should my children ask for food, I reasure to comfort in your generosity, as a woman and a Queen, to befriend them as you have so graciously done to me."

"Well said, friend," interposed the King—"The Prince will attend to your duty ere long, and I will then remember your condition and your gratitude."

The luminous concourse of people was assembled on the appointed day, to witness the marriage of Ethelbert to the Tearnagenad.—To the former she [illegible] had given her bridal [illegible]; and the King, as an especial favor from himself, granted permission to her to wear that of gold in her hair for the rest of her life. As the gold couple from the Abbey to the house of Annan, near the Lea, the windows were illuminated in their honor, and the streets were lined with dense crowds, as at a royal pomp. The poor husband were on his part a silver ring of his own forging, in token of relationship, but notwithstanding this, the people insisted him as they would a newly crowned king; with cries of Noel, Noel, which compliment was gratefully received by our hero. He declared he was now accorded lovers usually do, and especially prone, if the homage rendered by all to the grace and modesty of his bride. On arriving at his own abode, the Tearnagenad found it ornamented with flowers and branches, and was received by the principal men of his ward, who feasted him with the words, "You will always be a noble man, comrade, spite of the King and the Abbey." And that crowned the Provincial of his espousal.

It is unnecessary to dilate on the happiness of the wedded pair; suffice it to say that their ardent anticipations of happiness were realized. Tearnagenad was charmed with her new abode, and though she had consented to wait the tribute of the Goldsmith were equally charmed with her bounty. The name of flowers had barely expired, when the good old Abbot Hugo visited them under the same pomp and splendor. He secured the house with much solemnity, and their address thus:

"My children, you are henceforth free! You are released from all dependence on the Abbey; was from the first deeply touched by the strength of the love that united you, but I could not abandon the right of the church over those once recognized. I resolved to complete your happiness, by leaving your liberty as a free gift. Having thus spoken, he gave each a slight blow on the cheek with his hand, as his last perceptive, and then fell at his feet weeping with joy. As the intimation of the neighborhood had, in anticipation of some unusual occurrence, assembled in the street, the Tearnagenad apprised them from the casement of the proceedings of the Abbot, whose blessing he was commanding on the head of the pair.

When the holy father departed on his homeward journey, Annan led Ethelbert by the bridle as far as the gate of Bossy. Nor must I forget to mention, before setting out, that he provided himself with a bag of silver pence, which he threw in the poor and suffering, crying "Largesse, Largesse, in the name of God, heaven prosper and keep the Abbot, and bless our good Lord Hugo for ever and ever!"

On his return home he gathered his friends, and instituted nuptial festivities for the second time, which on this occasion lasted for a week. But alas!—it is on this world impossible to please everybody; and the Abbot was greatly displeased with the conduct of Annan which he had acted in the affair. The monks had looked forward with greedy eyes to dividing so fine a prey; and when the good Abbot was slain on a bed of sickness, they remarked, he was assured by his Prior that it was a visitation of his own, sent as a punishment for his surrender of the rights of God and the church.

"If I have not greatly misjudged that man," remarked the Abbot, "he will not be unmindful of the debt he owes us."

On the first anniversary of the marriage, a grandson of the old man, he resolved to view "his shrine of the material" in his own, sent as a pensioner:

THE COURIER
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE,
Corner of Merrimack and Middle streets,
(Lowell Machine Co. Block, entrance.)
This Office being furnished with all the desirable mod-
FAST PRESSES,
and employing a large number of experienced hands, is adapted to every description of work, from the smallest Please Some to the largest. Card—Circular—Bill-
Heads—and a full supply of well-chosen varieties of Job-
Print and Card
JOB TYPE,
the proprietors believe that its facilities for executing or-
PRINTING
in such a manner as to enable him to answer all orders in the astonishment of those who may favor him with their
LOW PRICES
are to be offered any where.
HANDBILLS 3×5 BENCH POSTERS,
SHOP BILLS, PROG AMMES,
CATALOGUES!
CARD HEADS, BLANKS,
BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,
BUSINESS CARDS, TICKET AND VISITING CARDS, ORDER
PLAIN AND FANCY
LABELS,
In black, white or colors, of every style, size, or quality, and CARDS, adapted to every description of work—in public and in business be set to order.
NEW DRUG STORE.
EDWARD DOW would call the attention of his
DRUGS, MEDICINES and FANCY ARTICLES, Middle street, opposite the Lowell Bank, where he will be pleased to see his friends and the public generally.
Merrimack Square, under the Church.
Lowell, March 1, 1858. mar1 3m
BLANCHARD, WHITNEY & CO.,
CHEMISTS AND DRUGGISTS, and Dealers in Lowell, and Nos. 3 and 4 Merrimack Square, Lowell, attention of the following named brands of FLOUR, viz:
Genesee, Ohio,
Mich. Extra, Indiana,
Mich. Ex. Fam. Ohio,
Mich. Ex. Fam. Indiana,
Mich. Ex. Fam. Illinois,
Mich. Ex. Fam. Wisconsin,
Mich. Ex. Fam. Iowa,
Mich. Ex. Fam. Missouri,
Mich. Ex. Fam. Kentucky,
Mich. Ex. Fam. Tennessee,
Mich. Ex. Fam. Virginia,
Mich. Ex. Fam. Pennsylvania,
Mich. Ex. Fam. New York,
Mich. Ex. Fam. Canada,
Mich. Ex. Fam. Michigan

ed his housekeeper to work in cashmere his spouse; but as it had by the time got into possession of a gaol and prober, Sally found it no use.

"Oh!" says he, "if any ill-natured fellow accuses Sally, I'm known's what I is—I'll set fire to it, or spill to the death of me—let me see the end of a candle!"

Sally having the full dignity of the spouse before her eyes, slipped it off as the butcher cut the dog's tail off—close to his rump.

Zooks! Sally, I'll be revenged, as true as my name is Hookum—I'll teach that old rascal, angried Straddlebag to mind her P's and Q's!

Whether it did or not, the sequel what kind of punishment he intended for his haggage, we are wholly unable to say. All we can tell is what we know. He sported to his chamber, and taking the cashmere queue and its appendages along with him, he discovered for the first time that Mrs Jemima Straddlebag had tied him to the chair with an article which she could not have intended to use. For it cannot be supposed that she stirred a thing could be put to so unholy a purpose. It was no less than that indispensable part of female dress which has given a name to an order of English nobility since the times of the fair countess of Salisbury, when she left it with king Edward, in a fit, and which the king immediately wound about his arm, and with the exclamation, "Evil to him or her who evil thinks."—Her Jemimalina Hookum was able to identify Jemima Straddlebag's limb-accompanier on the present occasion, more than one hour, or more, if we did know, than we should care to be garnished in anything. It probably slipped from its appropriate resting place while Jemima Straddlebag was feigning about the room to counsure the scaring Hookum, and she, in her hurry and confusion, without knowing it, transferred it to Jonathan's head!

We assume consent the fact that our lover was a good deal startled at the result of what he intended should be a masonry move on Sarah's close hard. He was not acquainted with the reflection that the head of a man had been bound up and that when the same thing, he already belonged to the other extremity of woman—But yet he was nevertheless pleased that he had something he could hang up as evidence of an honorable intention on his part—Jemima—Before going to bed, he wrote the following billet, to be despatched at daylight the next morning:—

MRS JEMIMA STRADDLEBAG:—MADAM:—I never for your own you will be silent upon what took place last evening. I shall wait on no man, and if the matter does not transpire at the end of that time, I shall make a second attempt to take you by storm. But if it leaks out through such an undesired scene as I know you to be, I shall take it as such, at present eight o'clock in the evening, either blow my nerve out, or hang myself with one of your indispensables, as I shall in the meantime determine—and I cannot survive the disgrace of the business. I am your, Mrs Jemima Straddlebag, to put the reasoning one to the more use you've learned, if in case you should see be disposed to do this, I have provided for you in my will—as extracted from which I have the honor to remain,

Jonathan Hookum.

Mrs. I bequeath to Mrs Jemima Straddlebag my old velvet breeches bewearing her, or those she now wears are tired here, to put them on henceforth—and make the most of them while they last.

N. B. I have made arrangements to have this will made public in the evening newspaper.

Yours till death,

Jonathan Hookum.

The death of the Hon. Thomas Corwin, late minister to Mexico, is announced.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Monday, July 28, 1862.

The Administration.

Where are its supporters? This question seems to us rather forcibly upon a perusal of the different democratic journals (so called) of the country, and a comparison of their present tone with that just succeeding the election of the President. Then there was a universal shaking hands by which the President was elected, this wide party was unanimous to be but a miserable faction, annihilated utterly—dead and buried. Every journal of the dominant party, throughout the length and breadth of the land, was filled with prolonged eulogies over the vanquished, and fulsome laudation of the individual whom they had dragged from his utter obscurity, as leader of a small clique in one of the smallest States in the Union, and in a day made famous. The President elect, acknowledged by his neighbors to be a sensible man, full of the spirit of which one who knew him well in his little manoeuvre at home, remarked, "If you didn't see his footmarks, it is because he knows how to leave them." "—seemed by his prudent silence and reserve to justify to some extent, at least, the high opinion which the public journals had, or pretended to have, of the success of his administration, and of his ability to conduct the affairs of the general government successfully, standing his former insignificance. Still, some of the "old hunkers" were occasionally sulky, and doubts cautiously expressed whether success as the leader of a sectional faction, small in numbers and minor, in a small State distinguished by a peculiar political complexion, was sufficient evidence of the same success in the conduct of the highest affairs of a nation of the first rank.

Already have these doubts assumed the character of prophecies. The democratic journals which have vociferated, without an exception, allowed to the utter obliteration, whether right or wrong, and continued to the last moment to worship the idols they had set up, are now, only four months after the inauguration, filled not with doubts alone as to the success of his administration, but direct denunciations of his course. The same unanimity of hand-shaking which caused Frank Pierce to be the worshipped of the Union, has been succeeded by him at Washington with by no means the same unanimity. At home, where under the already daily deposeting of a score of the mugs every his pleasing manners and fascinating address had made full influence, friends forgot or forgave the faults of the trick, and did not look below the surface of things to see the solid and substantial qualities of the heart that beat only for political preferment. But now they have him on an eminence, where every act is scanned, and he learns that he can no longer command or be commanded, and the result is "noise and confusion" in the democratic ranks throughout the country. Where he can, democratic editors rub each other's backs, and where they can't they growl and snarl at each other

Celebrated Curative Instrument

THIS GREAT INFALLIBLE CURE for the cessation of PAIN, Inflammation, Hysterics, Nervousness, Fractured Limbs, or lightening fast discoveries, and pronounced by each individual who has experienced it, as the most wonderful, efficacious, and instantaneous remedy ever discovered.

This Liniment, or Magic Oil, is composed entirely of Vegetable Gums, and can be used without the slightest injury to the most delicate female, as it is perfectly harmless, and may be administered by each individual in whatever, or to whatever extent he may think proper, not possessing any one item according to its composition, that can possibly injure the system, or in the least affect the organs, in a short time, to such an extent, as to cause the slightest pain, or even a depression, but on the contrary, by each dose it administers, and the cause of the disease, it gives new life and vigor to the whole system, and restores Pain to the Head, and Diseases of Viscera, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, and Joints, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Numbness of the Face, Sore Throat, Influenza, Whitlow, Weakness of Memory and Paralysis, Deafness, Tooth-ache, Ear-ache, Sprains, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Chilblains, Corns, Frost Bites, Contraction of Muscles, &c. &c. &c. All these complaints, and many others, are instantaneously relieved by the use of this Liniment.

It has been recommended, that these sometimes are laid aside, and the Liniment used, but we do not advise this course, for although it relieves in many cases, and for months, and for years, it has not been known to cure in one case, and for positive cure, which, if allowed to continue undisturbed, will produce a permanent cure in the most inveterate cases.

The Liniment, from the above constituents can be had of any druggist in the United States, Canada, &c., and by sending a remittance to any agent, or to the proprietor, it will be forwarded to any part of the country, free of expense, and carefully packed, and will be sent by early steamer, Canada, &c., according to order, accompanied by a pamphlet, containing directions for the removal safely of any of the diseases before mentioned.

Sold by the proprietor, and must be diarected, put up, and, if by D. T. Barnum, 21 Ann street, N. York.

☞ The undersigned certify, with great pleasure, that the above celebrated Instrument is not only manufactured by us, but that we have used it in our families for years, and can recommend it to the public as a safe and valuable remedy.

The Liniment is for sale by the undersigned, NO. 7 CITY HALL SQUARE, NEW YORK.

Sold by Dr. Barnum, 21 Ann street, N. York.

Sold by Dr. Barnum, 21 Ann street, N. York.

Sold by Dr. Barnum, 21 Ann street, N. York

tance, and apparently sunk into a slumber with an expression of great satisfaction on his countenance. This was the conclusion of the evening's fun.

I believe the last words the great poet spoke on earth were "Good night, darlings."

How full of meaning those words were. Oh, he had indeed gone down to his grave like a shock of corn fully ripe! Not a hand or foot was seen to stir; although that heart which had been the throne of such mighty feelings was now but a boat on the Styx. Yet it was evident to all around him that he enjoyed the angel of death and all the dark bridge over Byron's pillow.

On the morning of the 19th of April, he passed his last hour for the last time, and closed, in a peculiarly solemn way, the scene of his poetic. "O my God," exclaimed the kind Fletcher, "I feel my master is gone." The doctors then felt his pulse, and said:—"You are right, he is gone."

It is impossible to describe the sensation occasioned at Edinburgh by the death of Lord Byron. And from London, too, was published a very similar demonstration of respect and sorrow was paid to his memory, by firing minute guns, closing all public offices and shops, and suspending the usual theatrical entertainments, by a general mourning, and funeral prayers in all the churches. His body was embalmed by physicians, and preparations were made for carrying him to England.

A few days after his death he honored remains were deposited in the church where the body of Sheridan Bonner was buried. The coffin was a rude chest of wood; a black mantle was his only shroud over it were placed a helmet, a sword, and a crown of laurel.

Here the next two days, and around gathered a thousand noble hearts who had loved the illustrious dead. I stood by that vault for a long time, and more tears were shed over it than I ever saw fall upon the dust of a great man. But the simple hearted, grateful people, who could not see the rude form of the departed

DR. DE LEON'S
Celebrated Quaker Compound!
THE GREAT INVALUABLE CURE for the diseased and debilitated.

THIS wonderful remedy, manufactured from the original recipe of the late Dr. De Leon, of Philadelphia, is now offered to the public at a reduced price. It is a safe, speedy and certain cure for all diseases arising from the secret habits of youth, the indiscretions or excesses of maturer years, or the effects of mercury, or any other cause. It effects the cure in a few days, without the least exposure or change of diet. Its wonderful powers are derived from the Sarsaparilla, Stillingia, Yellow Dock, Iodide of Potash, Mezereon, Guaiacum, Cubebs, Colchicum, Saltpetre, &c., &c., which are combined in the Quaker Compound in such a manner as to render it the most powerful and effectual remedy ever discovered for the cure of the above diseases.

Pamphlets containing certificates of cures, and other information, may be had gratis of the Agents.

Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.

Sold by Druggists generally throughout the United States and Canada.

WILLIAM GALPIN,
Sole Proprietor, 60 Cedar st., New York.

Agents—Lowell, C. H. Leighton & Co.; Boston, Redding & Co., 8 State st.; Cambridge, Dana & Co.; Salem, Foster & Co.; Lawrence, Wood & Co.; Haverhill, Dodge & Co.; Newburyport, Dodge & Co.; Portsmouth, Foster & Co.; Dover, Foster & Co.; Exeter, Foster & Co.; Manchester, Foster & Co.; Nashua, Foster & Co.; Concord, Foster & Co.; Portland, Foster & Co.; Bangor, Foster & Co.; Augusta, Foster & Co.; Hallowell, Foster & Co.; Gardiner, Foster & Co.; Rockland, Foster & Co.; Thomaston, Foster & Co.; Bath, Foster & Co.; Brunswick, Foster & Co.; Saco, Foster & Co.; Biddeford, Foster & Co.; Kennebunk, Foster & Co.; Kennebunkport, Foster & Co.; Wells, Foster & Co.; Sanford, Foster & Co.; Springvale, Foster & Co.; Alfred, Foster & Co.; Lebanon, Foster & Co.; Rochester, Foster & Co.; Dover, Foster & Co.; Great Falls, Foster & Co.; Somersworth, Foster & Co.; Newmarket, Foster & Co.; Exeter, Foster & Co.; Hampton, Foster & Co.; Amesbury, Foster & Co.; Newburyport, Foster & Co.; Salisbury, Foster & Co.; Haverhill, Foster & Co.; Andover, Foster & Co.; Lawrence, Foster & Co.; Methuen, Foster & Co.; Lowell, Foster & Co.; Nashua, Foster & Co.; Manchester

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Wednesday, July 6, 1853.

Democratic Convention.

We have delayed to the last moment to see if some responsible people of this Commonwealth, and deserving of their careful consideration, the fact that the extraordinary spirit of party division is required by the end of a two years' coalition rule, to supply the customary State of the State, indicates that there has been great waste, profligacy and extravagance in the management of our financial affairs during that time. For six years previous to then, during which the whigs were in power, the Treasury was kept full to overflowing from ordinary resources, and every demand on the State was paid promptly on presentation, and even unexhausted one dollar towards the sum for direct taxes. What has produced this change? Can any voter tell us from what sources? When the loudness and frenzy of the assailant at the State House two years ago was in its zenith, such a decidedly small minority, but together a working majority, and agreed to take the State government in copartnership and share the profits, and when they then and there divided off all the offices, giving the Presidency of the Senate to a freesoiler and the Speakership of the House to a locofoco, and so on through the catalogue, every honest man in this State was trafficing in the Temple unworthily of the name of honest men and of freemen, and many were they who prophesied that this coalition would be a curse to the State. Results have come in a manner which all will feel and deplore—in the form of direct taxation, when the State was full, and falling day by day into a regular and settled system. The volumes (Life of Margaret Fuller, by Ralph Waldo Emerson,) there used to go, at last, as an earnest, warning and a warning. We see how Aurelius (Life of Cicero,) and by his letter aspirations, and Seth, in his other inspired writings, strikes at a certain Peter Lombard, and practises a certain stoic philosophy, which is perhaps, the soonest approach to Christianity—yet, among the thousands who have rejected its authoritative significance—few. How small will the number of those be who have rejected its authoritative significance—few. How small will the number of those be who have rejected its authoritative significance—few. How small will the number of those be Celebrated Curative Electricians!

TO THE PATENT.

IT IS OUR LOT to be frequently consulted by persons who have been deceived by boasting and humbugging, and disappointed in the means employed, and the results obtained in the treatment of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Deafness, Blindness, Consumption, and many other diseases.

We, the undersigned, in Boston, Lowell, Lawrence, and many towns, and can be found without the asylum, 14 Hanover street, Boston, and 14 Merrimack street, Lowell, where we have been established for the last 15 years, and have cured many thousands of cases, and can refer to them in this city, and in all parts of the country. We have no secrets in our practice, and the means of the Almighty are at our command, and we use them freely. Consultation Free in the Rooms, or by letter, or address, and medicines sent to any part of the country. Where it is impossible for us to see a patient, we will prescribe for them by letter, and in many cases cure them without seeing them.

and waste away, then it will be time to look for a like change in newspaper quarts, and not till then.

In Saturday, January, 1857, the Legislature of California as well as the Great Salt Lake Basin. I have seen large fields of cotton on the east side of the Sierra Nevada bearing the youngest and largest on those forests on the shores of the Great Salt Lake

FOR BUSINESS MEN!

JOB PRINTING OFFICE

Situated on Prescott's main Worsted Mill premises, Jackson street, one minute's walk from the Railroad Depot.

FAST PRESSES,

Driven by steam power, and fully supplied with new and beautiful Job Type, Cards, Borders, Ornaments, Inks, &c., &c.

JOB TYPE,

PRINTING

Executed in the best manner and with all the taste and intelligence of those who may favor him with their patronage.

LOW PRICES

Will be found to prevail, as he is determined to do his work promptly and satisfactorily.

BUSINESS MEN'S MEDIUM POSTERS,

SHOP BILLS, Plain and Fancy,

CATALOGUES,

Neatly printed, with Paper and Binding to suit purchasers,

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

CARDS, TICKETS, CHECKS,

PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

Of every size or sort, a good stock of paper, good Printing Ink, and other articles for the Printing Business, will enable the subscriber to execute orders of work—in parties and in haste—in a manner to satisfy customers.

TRICOLOR HAIR TONIC!

A genuine VEGETABLE Preparation for the Restoration and Beautifying of the HAIR.

THE HAIR, in its healthy condition, is the most beautiful appendage of our organization. It is the crowning glory of man and woman. It is the ornament of youth, and the attribute of age. It is the distinguishing mark of the sex, whether it be plain, plaited and glossy and in its natural color, or whether it be curled, crimped, frizzled, braided, or powdered. It is the richest gift of nature to the human race, and the most beautiful. Then why should we not preserve it? Why should we not restore it when it is lost? Why should we not change its color when it is gray? Why should we not remove dandruff and humors from the scalp? Why should we not prevent baldness? Why should we not cure baldness? Why should we not have whiskers, mustaches, and eyebrows? Why should we not have a beautiful head of hair? Why should we not have a beautiful head of hair? Why should we not have a beautiful head of hair

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Friday, July 25, 1856.

EDITORIAL.

The Presidency.

Let us now consider this matter for a moment. There are two, and two only, claims of candidates to the suffrages of the people—Democratic and Republican. In communities of the first description, of course, no portion exist for any considerable time, and no millionaire need be feared for purposes good or bad. Coalitions of political parties themselves only incident to popular and liberal governments.

How so good can be accomplished in any country without a party, without consent, or the union of many to one end. There can be no action without concert. Parties, whether composed of one or of the unity of men in the community, must act together without a motto. Anything, no what we may be termed the order of sentiment, for we can think exactly alike. A man—however able will never compromise his position and cause; but he is more fitted to be a leader than a statesman. He may be every way respected for private business; but politics is the lever to be his sphere. An aggregated party that will not compromise, is worse than an individual party that will not compromise; because no such party can exist without a compromise of individual opinion, agreeably with the eleventh sharp.

Coalitions are in practice what parties are in theory. In the former case there is a concession of some opinions—a concession of decay; in the latter case, a concession of the opinions and peculiarities of men; other than this, no difference. Coalitions, therefore, that have been sustained against a coalition of different parties have been those in which both agree, may be said with equal force to be urged for a time. But it is clear that this reasoning can be worked of nonsense; it can only apply when the end for which the coalition is formed is speedily reached by both the contracting parties, and when it is clear that the end, or great principle is repudiated or ignored by the one party, which is regarded as vital by the other.

Let us apply this logic to the case now unfortunately in hand—to the frowzel democratic coalition. Those fossils have hovered during three fall years like ghosts of words on the face of their coast of Mauritia. The two parties to this unprincipled coalition did not ever have produced, to differ one mote on all questions strictly national. Between the Canadian of the Delaware Patriot and the high-school of the Pituitary Convention, there never was any sympathy. War to the hoofs—war to the very hilt of the knife—was the motto of the watch-cry of Jacobinism against democracy. Five millers have been in a state of chronic civil war about, with all their detail, with all their zeal and with all their strength; and in the language of the Declaration of Independence, "a decent respect of mankind" would constrain us to resist to the bitter end.

For what then was the coalition formed between the Democracy and Know Nothing? Was it to oust, and that to proclaim it now would be merely to mortify the dead—that the Native Know Nothing party, both against as to the propriety of the Democratic nomination, and the Democracy have, they would unite; still maintain that the Native individualism as regarded the justice of the act. Now it is fair to assume that, of those who became parties to the Democratic ticket, a majority were in the majority of opposing such a coalition possible. The free soil party comprises two sorts of individuals. The one sincere of the honest men and the dupes; the other, the blackleg and street-loafer. It is hardly necessary to observe that the latter class will be of no use for the noon as a contest. Of those who contemplate this question honestly, none can entertain a doubt that, from the very first, the history of a coalition for merely local ends, was felt and appreciated by nearly all the better description. But the morality and the history getting the way of the party and inviting it over the responsibility of the stake. Let us now come along from election to election, until an ideal, though, an incendiary and a discussion (in a library) has been made to the people of the nation, and the absurdity of continuing opposition no longer apparent even to the blockhead.

When Charles Sumner had been elected to the Senate by a coalition of Democrats and Free soil had been made Governor by coalition and Pugsley whom the patronage of the national administration, had been cut influential, vastly to the faithful and the infidel—to the National and the Democratic—who, then, let out the difficulty and the opposite agreement by they had been defeated and deserved.

Let the people of Gloucester with free called out by justified party to the party which principled in the former part of this article, in defiance of the Democratic and abolitionist of our government. Look to the constitution of the United States Senate. How is a former chosen? Is it not by the Legislature of the State? Suppose, then, the Legislature to be composed of constituents; how shall they vote? Democratically, they are at each pole to each other. How can the democrat support the nullifier? And how can the free soiler support the democrat, when both the parties compound? Is there any merely State question that can be settled with statesmanship in the interests of the nation—of the Union? What is the secret ballot law in comparison of the Missouri Compromise? What is the Legislative ballot to set off against instances of the sacrifice of three million slaves and the intensity of free democratic principles? But to argue the subject is but attempting to clearly demonstrate a truism; and we shall say it in other than though the doctrine of coalition is irreligious, I never should be applied to a question like the one in question.

The Free Press—A British Protestant newspaper, published in Montreal, and edited by a few Scotsmen, who style themselves "Presbyterians of American extract, have not been the happiest of expressions which have come to the British colonies, for the preservation of the Union. Their last number contains a most powerful article upon the great body of the poor of the Canadian Roman Catholic subjects of Queen Victoria. How it is that we do not hear of the existence of the province from an intelligent source of their principal resources of wealth.

There is a large and increasing class of people in the United States who are in the habit of supposing such a cond

THE COURIER

JOB PRINTING

OFFICE,

Corner of Central and Middle streets,

(ADJOINING THE POST OFFICE.)

FAST PRESSES,

Of the most approved description, with fluid the newest Faces among the Job Printing Establishments with an ample supply of well-chosen varieties of handsome Type.

JOB TYPE,

the proprietors believe that his facilities for executing every description of

PRINTING

will enable him to furnish them to patrons at as low rates as those who may favor him with their orders.

Particular attention to prompt execution and neatness.

LOW PRICES

Are further indicated on the following articles, viz:

HANDBILLS AND MEDIUM POSTERS,

CARDS, FOOT GAMES,

CATALOGUES,

BILL HEADS, BLANKS,

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

CARDS, TICKET PRINTING, CIRCS

PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in black, blue, red or bill, or flowers of every choice, on white colored tinted paper.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of plain and fancy Cards, suitable for visiting, business, or ball purposes, which will be printed to order at short notice. A specimen of every description of work—in packs and in books to be seen at the office.

EXCELSIOR HAIR TONIC!

A Speedy Vegetable Preparation for promoting the growth, restoring the color, and beauty of the HAIR.

THE subscriber has purchased, and the world is invited to contribute the Double Extract Medicine, entitled as above, which is offered to the public as a speedy and effectual remedy for the restoration of the hair, whether it be lost by sickness, accident, or the ravages of time. It is a vegetable preparation, and contains no mineral poison, nor any thing that will injure the most delicate skin. It is perfectly safe, and can be used by the most delicate lady or gentleman.

TESTIMONIALS!!

Read the following certificate from Mr. Ezekiel Hale, one of the most respectable citizens of Westford, Mass.

FALLING OR LOOSENING OF THE HAIR.

This is to certify that I had been troubled for a long time with the falling of my hair, and was induced to try the Excelsior Hair Tonic. I have used but one bottle, and my hair has entirely ceased falling out, and is growing finely. I recommend it to all who are troubled with the falling of the hair.

EZEKIEL HALE.

DANDRUFF AND SCURF.

This is to certify that I had been troubled with a very bad humor, and scurf on my head, and was induced to try the Excelsior Hair Tonic. I have used but one bottle, and my head is entirely free from humor and scurf.

MRS. ELIZA HALE.

HEADACHE! HEADACHE!!

If you are troubled with the headache, you can be speedily relieved and effectually cured by using the Excelsior Hair Tonic. It is a sovereign remedy for the headache, and has been used in numerous cases with the most perfect success. Try the Excelsior Hair Tonic.

CAUTION! CAUTION!! CAUTION!!!

Be sure and call for the Excelsior Hair Tonic. Sold by all the principal druggists in the country.

☞ Certificates of the most wonderful character can be seen at the office of the proprietor.

PREPARED AND SOLD by LEONARD & CUSHMAN, Druggists and Chemists, Lowell, Mass.

☞ For sale by Druggists and Fancy Dealers, Post Paid, to any part of the country, on receipt of $1 00.

J. D. PUTNAM,

Agent for Lowell.

WOOD AGENCY.

THE undersigned, Agent for the Proprietors of the following Wood Yards, is prepared to furnish Families and Dealers with the best of Wood, at the lowest prices, and in any quantity desired, viz:

Hard Wood, Pine Wood, Chunk Wood, Family Stock, Kindling Wood, Pine Stumps, Hard Wood Stumps, Edgings, Shavings, &c.

Orders left at the Office of the Proprietors, Central street, Lowell, or at the Yards, will be promptly attended to.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. C. GALLUP & GOVE.

WOOD! WOOD!! WOOD!!!

THE subscriber would inform the public that he has purchased the Wood Yard formerly occupied by Mr. Jonathan Tyler, and is now prepared to furnish Families and Dealers with the best of Wood, at the lowest prices, and in any quantity desired, viz:

Hard Wood, Pine Wood, Chunk Wood, Family Stock, Kindling Wood, Pine Stumps, Hard Wood Stumps, Edgings, Shavings, &c.

Orders left at the Office of the Proprietors, Central street, Lowell, or at the Yards, will be promptly attended to.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. C. GALLUP & GOVE.

J. D. PUTNAM,

Agent for Lowell

me, to make a man both useful and respected in society. In religion, he would by many be reckoned a latitudinarian; yet it is certain that his mind was imbued with a deep sense of the Divine perfections, a constant impression of our accountableness to them, and a lively hope of future enjoyment. According to his standard, the test of both faith and works was easy and placid, resigned and decorous, and indicated at once an unflinching remembrance of the past and a comfortable assurance of the future.

If we turn from the truly great man whom we have been thus contemplating, to his celebrated contemporary in the Old World, (Frederick II.) we may affirmed the philosophy that Franklin possessed, and employed his talents for civil and military affairs, in extinguishing that independence which Frederick's life was consecrated to establish, the contrast is marvellous indeed, between the Monarch and the Printer.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Saturday, July 30, 1853.

The Lowell Institution for Savings.

There are many things in the management of this Institution of which the public generally are better informed, and which should be brought to the attention of the Trustees and of the Bank Commissioners.

We propose at this time to notice some of the most objectionable features in the present management, such as prove actual hardships to depositors, often causing them great delay, inconvenience and loss. We do this with a will feeling to that Institution, nor to any of its officers, whom we believe to be strictly honest and honorable men, but for the purpose of calling upon the Trustees to remedy the evils which now exist and do lasting to those who entrust their small but hard earned sums of money to their management.

1st. There is a by-law of the Institution which requires a depositor to give a week's notice before he can withdraw his deposit or any part thereof; and there is no law misconstrued by the Treasurer, that if the depositor who has given his notice, goes for his money after the said days have passed, as the said day from the time of giving notice, he cannot have it without giving a new notice, and waiting another week. This requiring might easily be set right, perhaps, by bringing a suit against the Institution, but, most assuredly, very naturally prefer the delay, inconvenience and loss of giving a new notice and waiting another week, rather than to go to law for their rights.

This misconstruction has put a host of persons to great trouble, and sent many girls weeping to their friends for advice and assistance in their disappointment.

A person now living Lowell, not to return, gives his notice, and waits a few days more than a week before going for his money, that he may not leave it there till just before starting, and when he applies for it, to his surprise and disappointment, he is told that the week was not second week he should have come sooner, and that he must now give a new notice and wait another week. Extensive by accommodation causes, the rule with its wrong construction is so fixed as the laws of Harden, and cannot be altered within the bond, is not more immovable than the Trustees with the Rules. Accommodation! "Is it so understood as to provide, Rule?" "I cannot find it; 'tis not in the Rule." Imagine the disappointment of a person in this difficulty, all pushed to go to Western State, and ready to start the next morning with friends and companions which have agreed upon that time to take their journey together, or of a young lady about to be married and to leave the city forever.

Some have given notice, and then come here from a great distance for this money, but arriving not on the exact second day from the time of giving notice, but a few days after, have been sent back and put to the expense of another journey, which must be on that one particular seventh day at whatever inconvenience and loss to the depositor.

Some, too, having actually been prevented by the crowd from reaching the Treasurer within the Institution hours on the second day after giving notice, have been obliged to wait two days more before they could give a new notice and nine before they could receive their money.

In many cases, persons in such difficulty and trouble, have gone to brokers and money-lenders, and had their books shaved at large discounts, rather than wait another week, and it has become quite a profitable business with the brokers.

Such cases as the foregoing have actually happened over and over again, and the unfortunate victims have submitted because they knew no other remedy.

2d. The Institution divides only four per cent. ordinary dividend, and then once in five years takes a large extra dividend in times when he happens to be depositors at that time;—thus taking from the poorest and most needy depositors, and from those who do not understand the secret, and giving it to the more able and the more knowing. In the Report of the Bank Commissioners in their last annual report speak thus:

"The expediency of retaining a large surplus of profits for an extra dividend is very questionable; for while it may induce some to allow their deposits to remain untouched, others are deprived of an equitable share of the surplus, which are essential to the relief of their unfortunate necessities.

But although this inequality of paying four per cent. to the depositors who are two years or ten ignorant on the subject to let their deposits remain till the time of declaring the extra dividend, and seven per cent. and over to those who are able and knowing, is highly objectionable in itself, and is very much modified and improved in other similar Institutions, it is not the worst feature of the evil as it actually exists in this Institution.

If depositors all knew the rule by which the extra dividend is paid; if they understood that, having been depositors at least one year, by leaving a small part of their deposit until the time of paying the extra dividend, they would receive a small proportion of the surplus according to the amount and time of their whole deposit during the previous five years, less have would be done by the system. But they do not understand it; they are deceived, and no pains are taken to acquaint the matter to them and to caution them against drawing the whole of their deposits and closing their accounts. On the contrary, there have been cases where depositors, who, having been informed by their friends of the matter, have notified that they should draw all their deposit except a small sum, and upon doing so have been advised and urged by the Treasurer to draw the whole and close the account, as there was no advantage they would finish many dollars on each hundred.

Instead of advising and urging vacating depositors to small part of their whole deposit and closing their accounts, they should be carefully instructed that, by losing a small part remain, they would find in a short time receive a large sum dividend on the whole. To advise them differently, or to permit them the opportunity to do otherwise, is not giving to the Institution the objects for which Savings Institutions are chartered, and works great hardship to the honest, inexperienced and needy depositors.

These things are known and felt among our business men, and if our business men only, the depositors there would soon be trouble enough;—but the poor and helpless depositors must endure the heat they can and go away silently.

For proof that Savings Institutions can be managed differently, and yet be not only safe but fourishing, we have only to look to others, but particularly to the City Institution for Savings in this city. Under the Treasurership of that courteous, agreeable and accommodating man, as well as superior financier, John A. Buttrick, Esq., this Institution pays six per cent. ordinary dividend instead of four, and has a surplus to divide for extra dividend besides.—And yet no depositor, who desired his money, has in one single instance since the first establishment of the Institution been required to give a week's notice. Depositors have always received their money at the time of giving notice, or as soon after as they wished, whether two days or two weeks. And every person who is intending to withdraw his whole deposit and close his account, is always carefully instructed by the Treasurer as to the loss he will incur thereby, and advised to let a small part, at least, remain until the time of declaring the extra dividend. The Treasurer is not afraid to devote a little time occasionally for the benefit of others, and will not permit depositors to forfeit their right through misapprehension which he can remove. This is certainly an honorable course and worthy of imitation.

Savings Institutions are rapidly increasing, and enlarging throughout the Commonwealth, and the officers of the old ones must look to it that they keep up with the spirit and improvement of the age. The time has passed when they can be managed, with satisfaction to the public, in a stiff, unaccommodating and sovereign system. Changes will be demanded, and changes will sooner or later in one manner or another be accomplished.

Constitutional Convention.—July 29th.—Ordered, that the jury of members for attendance and travel be made up by the Courage yield on the Pay Roll, including Monday, the first day of August next. Amended by adding, "and no member shall be entitled to pay beyond that time," and adopted.

The resolve for submitting to the people in separate questions, whether the House of Representative shall be based upon towns or districts, was debated at some length, but laid on the table before a vote on the question was taken. The special assignment for ten o'clock was then taken up, being the unfinished order of the subject of plurality in election—question on final passage. The yeas and nays were ordered on the final passage of the resolve, resulting in their adoption, as published in yesterday's paper. Yeas 185, nays 138.

District Representation being under consideration, Mr. Wilson of Natick, gave notice of an an endment providing that the Legislature of 1855 shall prepare and define a districts apportionment of representation, to be submitted to the people, which, if adopted, shall form a part of the Constitution.

The resolves bearing on this subject were finally passed as follows, by a vote of 189 to 82:

Resolved, That it is expedient so to amend the Constitution as to provide, that "Representatives shall be chosen at the general election in the year 1855, and by the inhabitants of the State into forty single districts, for the choice of Senators, each district, as nearly as may be, contiguous territory, and co equal in the number of qualified voters contained in each district, and also to divide the State into single or double districts for the choice of not less than 240 nor more than 320 representatives, such districts to be of contiguous territory, and as equal in the number of qualified voters contained in each district as may be, proper regard being had to the re-districting of the State as aforesaid, in the year 1856 and every tenth year thereafter; and with all other provisions necessary for carrying such system of districts into operation, and to submit the same to the people in the manner provided in the 10th article of the Constitution, in the place of the provisions herein contained, which relate to the apportioning of Senators and Representatives.

Much confusion seems to have prevailed in the afternoon, concerning rulings of the Chair. An order, reported by Mr. Bird, of Walpole, for printing a Journal and Index of proceedings, in committee of the whole, with the Journal of the Convention, was finally passed.

Some discussion took place, in regard to the resolve abolishing imprisonment for debt, which has been finally acted upon, and passed in the hands of the committee on revision, without the reference to the committee of the whole required by the rule.

Arrival of the California Mails.—Letter from Central and South America. The steamship Georgia, from Aspinwall 21st inst., arrived at New York at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with the California mails of July 1st, about 300 passengers, and $1,407,000 in specie, including $200,000 in the hands of passengers. The principal consignees are Adams & Co. $250,000, Almonte Eagle Bank $500,000, Burgoyne & Pfaune $800,000, Wells, Fargo & Co. $6,0000.

Late advices at Panama state that political affairs in Venezuela were still unsettled. General Herrera was to leave for Panama soon.—Attempts have been made to harass the city of Aspinwall. Most of the town of Cruces was destroyed by fire on the 20th July; 50 to 60 houses were burned. Losses Jay's loss $15,000 to $20,000; no doubt the act of an incendiary.

The steamer Bogota arrived at Panama July 9d, with Valparaiso dates to June 18th. The Chilian Congress met on the 1st June.

Dates from Bolivia are to June 5. The President, Belzu, is raising troops in all quarters. Cliaji was mined on the 14th of June by the Asenical of the Peruvian fleet, who issued a proclamation declaring the town occupied, and putting trade under the most fleeting as under the Bolivian Government.

Austria. The English and French governments having demanded an explanation from the Austrian Government regarding the intervention of an army in the neighborhood of Peterhoff, they have been informed that it was of an entirely defensive character. The encampment will consist of about 10,000 men.

Turkey. The position of Turkish affairs is in reality, unchanged.

A despatch from Constantinople, June 30th, states that the Porte had advanced a loan of 44,000,000 piastres (about two millions dollars) from the Oriental Bank, and that another of 45,000,000 is in progress of negotiation with foreign capitalists. The Sultan has sent to the Mint all the silver he could draw from his number, and valued at 45,000,000 piastres.

Why is it? In an able article on the Administration, the Lynn News remarks:—"In view of the slippery manner of President Pierce, the Lowell Courier, a week or two since, declared his administration a sad, and a fit, and proved it! and some of the prominent party organs have dared attempt to answer it!"

CITY MATTERS.

☞ The Rev. A. A. Miner, of Boston, will preach in the First Universalist Church, this morning.

Concert. There will be a Sabbath School Concert at the Pleasant St. Church, next Monday evening, at 7 1-2 o'clock. Tickets 12 1-2 cts., to be had at Bentall & Hilton's, 42, and at the door. The singing will be under the direction of S. B. Chenery, Jr. Merrimack street and at the door.

☞ A capital entertainment is announced to open at Jackson Hall on Monday night—the great Original Exhibition of the Burning of Moscow, in Panoramic Paintings, Vaucluse, &c. See advertisement.

☞ See advertisement under auction sales of Mr. Dickerman's Farm at Billerica Corner, to be sold on Monday next.

☞ The Watson Light Guard, Capt. Hyde, were out on drill parade last night, accompanied by the Lowell Brass Band. The boys will give a good account of themselves on the muster field.

The Pictorials. Davis, 67 Merrimack st., has the Illustrated News and Gleason's Pictorial for the current week. Davis requests those who have left volumes of the Pictorial with him to be bound, to call this evening and get them.

The Lowell City Guards, Capt. B. C. Hazelton, will parade on Tuesday afternoon, for Ranger. Proceeding by railroad to Portland, and thence by steamer Governor, the company reached Bangor at 12 M. Wednesday. They were received by a volunteer company of citizens and the Bell City Greys, (a fine corps from Bath, then on a visit to their sister city,) and the three companies, with their band, marched to Bangh, making a rousing military show as they marched through the city. The City Guards had their quarters at the Bangor House. They left at 11 o'clock Thursday, A. M., in the steamer "Boston" for Boston. They arrived home in "good order and well conditioned" Friday noon, where they were received in handsome style by the Lowell Light Guards, Capt. Farmer. After marching through the principal streets, the Phalanx took their guests (the Guards) to the Auert House and entertained them with a collation—a very pleasant termination of a four days tour.

Books, Magazines, &c.

Dickens' Household Words—American edition—August No. The August number of this popular magazine has come to hand, from Messrs. McElrath & Barker, 17 Spruce st. New York, who are the American publishers of the "Household Words." The genius of Charles Dickens has often been compared to that of the great Shakspeare. The late Daniel Webster seemed to appreciate this comparison. The number of this journal are such that no commendation of ours is necessary from us.

Mark Hurdlestone, by Mrs Moodie, author of "Roughing in the Bush." This book, kindly furnished to us by the publishers, Messrs. Dewitt & Davenport, 160 Nassau st., New York, promises to have even a greater run than the first work of the same elegant author. Our age is becoming more and more famous for the production of female authors.

Hints for the Housekeeper; by Rev. William M. Thayer. This book is decidedly original—it is the only department of literature, there is no similar work on household morality and economy. It is for sale at the bookstore of Joseph Sargent, Merrimack street.

Happy Hours; by Harriet Farley. The author of this work is the former editoress of the "Lowell Offering," has been long and favorably known to the reading public of Lowell. The present work will be happy and it abounds in thought of great felicity. It can be purchased at Dayton & Wilkins' bookstores, Merrimack and.

The Peculiar Educator, for August of this year, by the author of "Frederick Parker's, Esq., 21 Appleton Block. It contains the usual quantity of matter in the usual agreeable variety.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

Awful Railroad Accident. Upon Monday, August 1st, Bonds elections will be held in Kentucky, Missouri, Texas, Alabama and Arkansas. On the following Tuesday an election will also be held in the State of Tennessee, and in North Carolina on the following Thursday, 11th ult.

In Missouri, the papers in Mr Benton's interest urge their partisans to vote for Whigs, wherever it may be necessary to prevent the election of such Benton members of the Legislature.

☞ Gov. Crosby, of Maine, has appointed Hiram Bowdoin Commissioner for the State of Maine to the National Exhibition at New York. Mr Bowdoin is a native of York County, Maine, but now with the importing house of Ward & Parker, 182 Broadway, New York.

Swindled. Mr Tiffany, Jeweller, at the corner of Broadway and Chambers street, New York, has lost diamonds to the amount of 30,000 francs, by somebody on the "other side" of the Atlantic, which is free of duty,—duty. Uncle Sam "pockets the loss."

Monster to Prussia. A Washington despatch states that Mr Soulé has appointed Walter Fearn, of Mobile, Minister to the Court of Prussia.

☞ John Fletcher has been appointed Postmaster for Acton, in place of E. O. Nichols, resigned.

☞ Norton's Literary Gazette says that never before, probably, were so many American Booksellers and Publishers abroad, at one time, as at present.

☞ The royal mail steamship Arabia sailed for Liverpool from New York yesterday, taking out 191 passengers, among whom was Sir Charles Lyell; and $670,482 in specie.

☞ The crops in Ohio are below the average.

☞ The wheat crop in New York is all cut and garnered; it is said to be unusually good.

☞ The hay crop in Maine has suffered materially from drought.

☞ The wheat crop in Pennsylvania is garnered, and the harvesting of the Oregon yield.

☞ Patrick Lacy, a boy about 11 or 12 years of age, was drowned on Thursday last in South Boston.

☞ 285 carriages, with 900 masons, firemen and police, attended the funeral of the late John Peter Wilhelm, Esq., of Philadelphia.

☞ The other day the Boston Transcript made some complaint because there was no Fourth of July poem to be found in any of the papers in Boston. For years a majority of the Judges upon the Supreme Bench have been engaged in the manufacture of Fourth of July poems, and there are 60,000 who thought that each of the same elegant author. Our age is becoming more and more famous for the production of female authors.

Death of a Boston Actress. The Boston papers announce the sudden death of one of their favorites, Mrs Wm. Wallace Fisher, (formerly Miss Louisa M. A. Gann.) The event occurred yesterday morning, after a brief illness, at her residence in Dorchester. Mrs. F. was born in the 28th year of her age, and was much respected for her estimable character as a wife, mother and friend.

Another Reported Duplication. Washington, July 29. W. C. Zantzinger, recently a clerk in the State Department, is said to be a defaulter to the amount of $10,000. Mr Z. is the disbursing clerk of the Pottawatomie fund.

Fire. The new Bible House in New York, was destroyed by fire on Thursday night.

Disasters. Washington, July 29. The jury in the Schaumburg case not being able to agree have been discharged. It is understood there were seven for conviction.

☞ The latest question is to be the next topic at the next Maryland Agricultural Fair. The Catholics and Protestant are making out separate nominations for Governor and members of the Legislature.

Suicide by Drowning. A man named John Marsh, belonging to Troy, N. H., committed suicide recently, by drowning himself in the Little River, bank of the College. He was missed, and could be found to be invisible to no one had boarded for a week or two at the Washington House, North Main street. He had been remarkably merry at his meals, and his cheerfulness growing out of this connection is supposed to have occasioned the act.

Death of Mrs. Beecher Perkins. The Boston Transcript sixly insinuates that there is insanity somewhere here by this remark:—" For the benefit of our New York friends, we state that the 'Independent National Union Party Organization,' in Massachusetts, consists of which they have so much to say, with one half a dozen men in Newburyport the present year. A set of resolutions for the members of the party will soon be completed in Taunton, as the 'Ash' at Somerville and Worcester have more than half a dozen members, and the party must have every word right; it frankly makes the following concessions:

Death by Poison. At Claremont, N. H., a Scotchman by the name of William Woods, died by the effect of taking poison on Sunday last. He was an intemperate man, and took bed-bug poison supposing it to be rum.

Death of Rear Admiral Reynolds. A telegraphic despatch announces the death at the Virginia Springs, of the Rev. Dr. Justin Edwards, of Andover, Mass., aged about 60.

☞ As Hon Alexander was performing his magic plate trick, at Clinton, Ill., a few days since, the plate opened in the wrong direction, which were lodged in the side of a young man named George Smith, inflicting a wound which will probably cause his death.

☞ Dr. Porbes, who has written a book on Ireland lately, says a very large proportion of Father Mathew's reformations in that country have gone back to whiskey.

Concussion. A London paper brings to mind the following account of the battle of the 18th of June, 1815, the English and French were engaged in desperate conflict at at Waterloo:—on the same field of the same month, by the same people, the same battle was fought, the spirit, and the personal prejudice engendered by which would yield. The year was changed to 1849, and up to '48, should again be no laborers for the vineyard, no plowmen for the fields, and there be a re-union of old friends and associates, who, regardless of the past, have shared in the struggles of many a hard fought victory, and now together have rejoiced in glorious victories.

"The anti-climax position of the whig party has placed it where it is. It has fallen a victim to the relentless spirit of slavery. That spirit caused the great rupture of 1848—that spirit caused the great defeat of 1852. Compromise, conciliation, concession, kind and forbearing. In this country, in this district, in this election, in the whole country, we found we just wanted for perpetuating the Union. Let us seize the thing, for its consequences sake, and we shall be found to be the true friends of the Union—otherwise we should cry out for office in either!"

☞ "Stop, Jehu," exclaimed a chaste matron to her driver, "stop!" "what's you skeered at now?" "Why, I've dropped my pocket book with a man and there all count with him!" "Whew! was a gold, I reckon!" "No, worse, far worse, you brute!" "No, worse, I am sure," answered Jehu; "for I only thinks him to consist of the notes, he am of he hadn't been drinking."

North Western Insurance Company, Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1825. Office 160 Pearl st., New York.

Fire and Marine Risks.

Capital, $300,000
Assets, Jan. 1, 1853, $1,000,000

Trustees.

Gen. Francis Granger, Oswego.
Gen. Peter Gansevoort, Albany.
Gen. Solomon Van Rensselaer, Albany.
Hon. Samuel Beardsley, Utica.
Hon. Samuel Nelson, Cooperstown.
Hon. Greene C. Bronson, New York.
Hon. Ogden Hoffman, New York.
Hon. Nathaniel P. Tallmadge, New York.
Hon. Ambrose L. Jordan, New York.
Hon. Charles Cambreleng, New York.
Hon. Gulian C. Verplanck, New York.
Hon. Jonathan Thompson, New York.
Hon. Daniel Lord, New York.
Hon. Samuel Jones, New York.
Hon. Peter A. Jay, New York.
Hon. Charles Butler, New York.
Hon. Frederick Sheldon, New York.
Hon. Samuel Ward, New York.
Hon. Thomas J. Oakley, New York.
Hon. Samuel Jones, Pottsville, Penn.

This long established Company are prepared to take risks on favorable terms.

Fire and Inland Navigation Risks, at rates as low as are charged by any other responsible and well established Company. If their premium bell not as low as the lowest, their security and promptness will be satisfactory.

A. JAS. RICHMOND, Agent. Office No. 16 Appleton Block, Merrimack st.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

Fire Insurance.

Office,—No. 16 Appleton Block

Mass Fire and Marine Insurance Companies, HARTFORD, CONN.

AGGREGATE capital paid in and invested as follows:

Aetna Fire Company,	$ 300,000
Hartford Fire Company,	300,000
Protection Company,	200,000
Charter Oak Company,	200,000
Total,	$1,000,000

Risks on every description of property taken on favorable terms.

Losses promptly adjusted and paid at the office of the Company in Hartford.

Application may be made to the Agent in Lowell, at the office of the Company, where a specific rate will be made, and a policy issued on the spot, or by mail to the Home Office.

Fire insurance buildings of brick and wood and their contents, for one year, or for a term of years, at rates as low as are charged by safe and responsible offices.

Marine Insurance on Goods by Canal or River to all parts of the country, at rates as low as are charged by safe and responsible offices.

Inland Transportation Risks on Goods by Railroad, at rates as low as are charged by safe and responsible offices.

Risks on Ocean Navigation, at rates as low as are charged by safe and responsible offices.

Applications may be made to the Agent in Lowell, at the office of the Company, where a specific rate will be made, and a policy issued on the spot, or by mail to the Home Office.

JOHN DAVIS, Pres.
CHARLES ROBINSON, Secretary.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire in Lowell and adjoining towns, on all kinds of insurable property at as low rates as are charged by any other responsible office, with a specific contract, and a prompt adjustment and payment of loss as soon as ascertained.

First class buildings of brick and wood and their contents, for one year, or for a term of years, at rates as low as are charged by safe and responsible offices.

Marine Insurance on Goods by Canal or River to all parts of the country, at rates as low as are charged by safe and responsible offices.

Inland Transportation Risks on Goods by Railroad, at rates as low as are charged by safe and responsible offices.

Risks on Ocean Navigation, at rates as low as are charged by safe and responsible offices.

Applications may be made to the Agent in Lowell, at the office of the Company, where a specific rate will be made, and a policy issued on the spot, or by mail to the Home Office.

JOHN DAVIS, Pres.
CHARLES ROBINSON, Secretary.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

State Mutual Life Assurance Co., of Worcester.—Incorporated 1846.

Capital, $100,000.

JOHN DAVIS, Pres. } CLARENDON HARRIS, Sec.

Insures lives for short periods or for the whole term of life, on the most favorable terms. Also grants annuities, with a specific sum payable at the death of the person on whose life the annuity is granted. Annuities may be granted to commence immediately, or at the end of a term of years.

Applications may be made to the Agent in Lowell, at the office of the Company, where a specific rate will be made, and a policy issued on the spot, or by mail to the Home Office.

JOHN DAVIS, Pres.
CHARLES ROBINSON, Secretary.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

At Jackson Hall, Lowell,

For Five Nights—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday Evenings, July 25th, 1853, the magnificent and Original Diorama of the Burning of Moscow!

Beautiful, Dioptric Paintings, of the Grandest, most Magnificent and Sublime Scenes ever witnessed.

☞ This is one Historic Diorama that can be seen and enjoyed—no-body's a-going to say it's a humbug, that was all got up to humbug the people. The Burning of Moscow is a splendid work of art, and highly recommended to all the principal cities in the country.

Tickets 75 cents—Reserved Seats 25 cents, to be had at the door.

Doors open at 7, to commence at 8 o'clock.

T. ANDERSON.

A. H. FLANDERS, M. D.,

Homœopathic and Eclectic

Rooms, 29 Hurd Street.

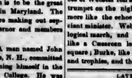
Entrance on D. Hurd, M. D. 3m29

Dr. Lansdell's Good and Herb Bitters.

Only 25 cts! 37 1-2 cts. Bottle

For the Cure of Dyspepsia—Bad Blood, Dirty Liver and Bilious Complaints. Dr. Lansdell's Good and Herb Bitters are safe to be used by all ages and sexes, and will be found to be a good tonic and blood purifier. Dyspepsia is the cause of more than half the diseases that afflict mankind, and these Bitters are the only remedy that will cure it. Try them and be convinced. Sold by Druggists and Storekeepers everywhere. Price only 25 cents per bottle.

Sold in Lowell by Samuel Kidder, Jr., Merrimack st., and by Druggists and Storekeepers in Nashua, N. H., and vicinity. General Depot, 27 Dutton st., Boston. 3m29



409 Washington Street.

The large assortment of T. Gilbert & Co.'s Piano Fortes, at the Warerooms of the Agent, Mr. Hall, will be sold at the Manufacturer's prices. Purchasers will be sure to find a good instrument, and at the lowest price. Call and examine before you purchase elsewhere.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

Dr. R. V. Gilbert is now a regular practitioner in the city of Lowell, and has taken rooms at No. 3 Merrimack Square, where he may be found during the usual hours of business. Dr. G. has had a long and extensive practice in the city of New York, and has the testimonials of many of the most distinguished citizens of that city, as to his skill in the treatment of certain diseases, which he will exhibit to those who may call upon him. Dr. G. is a graduate of the Medical College of the City of New York, and has a diploma from that institution, which he will exhibit to those who may call upon him. Dr. G. is a member of the Medical Society of the City of New York, and has a diploma from that institution, which he will exhibit to those who may call upon him.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

Watches! Watches!

Only $2 and $2 1-2 each.

Just received, a large assortment of Gold and Silver Watches, which we will sell for the above prices. Call and see them, at No. 3 Merrimack Square.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

For the Toilet.

We have just received a large supply for the sale of Simmon's Toilet Vinegar. We would call the attention of the ladies to this article, as it is one of the best articles for the toilet ever offered to the public. It is a delightful perfume, and is highly recommended by all who have used it. It is for sale at the store of Simmon's Toilet Vinegar, No. 3 Merrimack Square.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

Lowell Marble Works,

Opposite No. 8, near the Merrimack Bridge. The proprietor would inform the public that he has on hand a large assortment of Italian and American Marble, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Monuments, Grave Stones, Tablets, Mantels, &c., furnished to order, and warranted to be of the best workmanship. Persons wishing to purchase will find it for their interest to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

Lowell Board.

The subscriber will be happy to receive boarders at his residence on Gorham street, near the Methodist Church. Terms moderate.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

Selling Off.

At Brown & Merrian's,

Who make room for a large invoice of Iron Stone China, C. C. Ware, and Pearl White

Tea, Dinner and Toilet Ware

Which will be sold at the lowest figure.

Advantage of every body to give us a call.

Brown & Merrian,
Merrimack Square.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

Hancock Academy.

There spring Fall Term will commence August 1st, under the care of

Mr. George F. Hancock, Principal
Miss Mary P. Hancock, Assistant Teacher,
Miss Sarah Hancock, Assistant Teacher,
Miss Rosanna Hancock, Assistant Teacher.

Scholars received at any time, and charged from the time of entrance to the end of the term.

Tuition,

Higher,	$1.00
Middle,	2.50
Primary,	1.50
Latin and Greek,	1.00 extra
French,	1.00 extra
Drawing,	1.00 extra

Board, ten shillings per week.

The Principal will instruct an evening class during the term, of which every scholar is expected to be a member. Terms for the evening class, $1.00.

☞ No deduction in Tuition will be made for absence during the term, except in case of sickness.

Hancock, N. H. July 19, 1853. 3m29

Dr. Bacon's Shoulder Brace.

A supporting article for those who require it, and have been afflicted in vain. For sale at the Agency, No. 3 Merrimack Square.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

At Jackson Hall, Lowell,

For Five Nights—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday Evenings, July 25th, 1853, the magnificent and Original Diorama of the Burning of Moscow!

Beautiful, Dioptric Paintings, of the Grandest, most Magnificent and Sublime Scenes ever witnessed.

☞ This is one Historic Diorama that can be seen and enjoyed—no-body's a-going to say it's a humbug, that was all got up to humbug the people. The Burning of Moscow is a splendid work of art, and highly recommended to all the principal cities in the country.

Tickets 75 cents—Reserved Seats 25 cents, to be had at the door.

Doors open at 7, to commence at 8 o'clock.

T. ANDERSON.

A. H. FLANDERS, M. D.,

Homœopathic and Eclectic

Rooms, 29 Hurd Street.

Entrance on D. Hurd, M. D. 3m29

Dr. Lansdell's Good and Herb Bitters.

Only $2 and $2 1-2 each.

For the Cure of Dyspepsia—Bad Blood, Dirty Liver and Bilious Complaints. Dr. Lansdell's Good and Herb Bitters are safe to be used by all ages and sexes, and will be found to be a good tonic and blood purifier. Dyspepsia is the cause of more than half the diseases that afflict mankind, and these Bitters are the only remedy that will cure it. Try them and be convinced. Sold by Druggists and Storekeepers everywhere. Price only 25 cents per bottle.

Sold in Lowell by Samuel Kidder, Jr., Merrimack st., and by Druggists and Storekeepers in Nashua, N. H., and vicinity. General Depot, 27 Dutton st., Boston. 3m29

409 Washington Street.

The large assortment of T. Gilbert & Co.'s Piano Fortes, at the Warerooms of the Agent, Mr. Hall, will be sold at the Manufacturer's prices. Purchasers will be sure to find a good instrument, and at the lowest price. Call and examine before you purchase elsewhere.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

Dr. R. V. Gilbert is now a regular practitioner in the city of Lowell, and has taken rooms at No. 3 Merrimack Square, where he may be found during the usual hours of business. Dr. G. has had a long and extensive practice in the city of New York, and has the testimonials of many of the most distinguished citizens of that city, as to his skill in the treatment of certain diseases, which he will exhibit to those who may call upon him. Dr. G. is a graduate of the Medical College of the City of New York, and has a diploma from that institution, which he will exhibit to those who may call upon him. Dr. G. is a member of the Medical Society of the City of New York, and has a diploma from that institution, which he will exhibit to those who may call upon him.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

Watches! Watches!

Only $2 and $2 1-2 each.

Just received, a large assortment of Gold and Silver Watches, which we will sell for the above prices. Call and see them, at No. 3 Merrimack Square.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

For the Toilet.

We have just received a large supply for the sale of Simmon's Toilet Vinegar. We would call the attention of the ladies to this article, as it is one of the best articles for the toilet ever offered to the public. It is a delightful perfume, and is highly recommended by all who have used it. It is for sale at the store of Simmon's Toilet Vinegar, No. 3 Merrimack Square.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

Lowell Marble Works,

Opposite No. 8, near the Merrimack Bridge. The proprietor would inform the public that he has on hand a large assortment of Italian and American Marble, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Monuments, Grave Stones, Tablets, Mantels, &c., furnished to order, and warranted to be of the best workmanship. Persons wishing to purchase will find it for their interest to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

Lowell, July 16, 1853. 3m29

Boston and Lowell Railroad.

Fall Arrangement.

On and after Monday, August 1, 1853, Passenger Trains will leave Lowell as follows:

For Boston at 5.30, 6.45, 8.00, 9.15, 10.30 A. M., 12.00 M., 1.15, 2.30, 3.45, 5.00, 6.15, 7.30 and 9.00 P. M.

Sundays at 8.00 A. M., 12.00 M., 4.30 and 9.00 P. M.

Accommodation Trains

Leave Lowell at 6.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Boston at 8.30 A. M., 2.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Sundays at 4.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Nashua at 6.30, 8.30 A. M., 12.30, 3.30, 5.30, 7.30 P. M.

Leave Nashua for Lowell at 7.30, 9.30 A. M., 1.30, 4.30, 6.30, 8.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Wilmington at 11.30 A. M., and Wilmington at 12.30 P. M. for Lowell.

Leave Lowell for Andover at 8.30 A. M., 12.30, 5.30 P. M.

Leave Andover at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Concord, N. H., at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Concord at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Manchester at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Manchester at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Great Falls at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Great Falls at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Dover at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Dover at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Portsmouth at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Portsmouth at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Exeter at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Exeter at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Haverhill at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Haverhill at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Newburyport at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Newburyport at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Salem at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Salem at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Gloucester at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Gloucester at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Rockport at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Rockport at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Ipswich at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Ipswich at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Amesbury at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Amesbury at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Newburyport at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Newburyport at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Salem at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Salem at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Gloucester at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Gloucester at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Rockport at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Rockport at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Ipswich at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Ipswich at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Amesbury at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Amesbury at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Newburyport at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Newburyport at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Salem at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Salem at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Gloucester at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Gloucester at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Rockport at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Rockport at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6.30 P. M.

Leave Lowell for Ipswich at 8.30 A. M., 12.30 and 5.30 P. M.

Leave Ipswich at 7.30 A. M., 12.30 and 6

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. MONDAY EVENING, AUGUST 1, 1858. NO. 4182.

S. J. VARNEY, PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

Published every afternoon (except Sundays), at No. 57 CENTRAL STREET, (Advertising Post Office).

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at $1 per square for three weeks, and 25 cents per square for each subsequent insertion. Liberal contracts made with those who advertise by the quarter or year. Notices in reading matter, 10 cents a line.

Yearly advertisers are restricted to their regular business, and to the room and space occupied.

The Publisher of the Journal and Courier will not be responsible for any debts of persons that may contract, beyond the price of the paper, without his written order.

Job Printing, of every description, executed at short notice, and in order to confirm to their discontinuance, and when payment is not made, a price of a whole year will be charged.

Advertisements inserted in the Lowell Weekly Journal, at $1 per square for three weeks, and 25 cents per square for each subsequent insertion.

The Lowell Weekly Journal, a paper of the largest class, is published every SATURDAY MORNING, at $2 per annum, if paid within three months from the time they are due.

$2 50 if paid within six months, and $3 if not paid within the year.

No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

THE COURIER.

JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

Chronicle of Cumberland and Middle counties, (adjoining that post office.)

FAST PRESSES,

Unusual variety description of work, from the smallest Paper Dealer to the general Printing Card—together with all kinds supply of well-chosen variation of business Blanks and Stock.

JOB TYPE,

the confident belief that for facilities for executing in the will merit us to enable him to answer all orders to the satisfaction of those who may favor him with their patronage.

PRINTING

The proprietor is prepared to execute promptly and in style for the following kinds of work, viz:

LOW PRICES

HANDBOOK AND BEDIUM POSTERS,
SHOP BILLS, PRICE LISTS, LABELS,
CATALOGUES,
BILL HEADS, BLANKS,
BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,
CARDS, &c.

PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, or Bronze of every shade, on white or fancy colored paper.

Any Abstract on hand, a good stock of plain and fancy and assorted, wires and colored CARDS, adapted to every description of work—in quality and in handsome style.

Orders by mail or express will receive prompt attention.

FRICTION HAIR TONIC!

A purely Vegetable Preparation for promoting the Growth, Preservation and Beauty of the Hair.

THIS article has been thoroughly tested, and the proprietor is confident that it is the best article ever offered to the public. It is entirely free from all mineral poisons—is not to dearly to any person—and the fragrance of the hair—contains no coloring, rendering the unfortunate use of dye entirely unnecessary. It will prevent the hair from falling off. The Friction Hair Tonic is the most delightful preparation in the thing for the hair.

BALDNESS! BALDNESS!!

Those who are afflicted with baldness, or falling hair, will find the Friction Hair Tonic the best article in the world. It will prevent the hair from falling off, and will cause a new growth to spring up on the bald head.

HAIR DYE AND SCRUB.

The Friction Hair Dye can be had of agents as a dye for the hair, and will change it to any color desired, and will not injure the hair as a dye, but will improve it.

HEADACHE! HEADACHE!!

The Friction Hair Tonic is a sure cure for headache, and will relieve the most violent attack in a few minutes. Those who are afflicted with headache, arising from a bad liver and stomach, will find the Friction Hair Tonic a sure cure.

Sold by J. D. PUTNAM, Lowell, and by agents throughout the country.

J. D. PUTNAM,

WEST INDIA GOODS, CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES, COUNTRY PRODUCE, EARTHENWARE AND WOODEN WARE, &c., &c.

No. 39 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.

Has for sale the following articles, viz:

1000 BARRELS (II. & SAINTS, &c. Pure Refined Lard; 1000 " Pure Leaf Lard;
1000 " Pure Lard Oil;
1000 " Pure Sperm Oil;
1000 " Pure Whale Oil;
1000 " Pure Linseed Oil;
1000 " Pure Neatsfoot Oil;
1000 " Pure Boiled Linseed Oil;
1000 " Pure Raw Linseed

by heart nearly all the verses he had ever read, together with occasional upon them. A little before his death he stated that his memory was dying; and by way of proof he proceeded to repeat a number of Latin verses, with the English translations of them, which he had long since called to memory since having ceased to be accustomed to repeating the whole, with the exception of one word, the last of one of the hexameters.

Gesticulation was very extraordinary. He retained the names of all plants, animals, fishes, birds, and reptiles; classified under all the systems of natural science of all ages; lost no size remembered in all their details, the most trifling matters written about them in books, to all times. His memory was a vast garner of human knowledge, extracting at once the greatest and minutest, the sublimest and pettiest, facts connected with all subjects in ancient science. These he could recall at any time, without any effort; and however carefully he had perused any book on the subject, he always carried away all the bad facts and retained in his memory. His minute knowledge on all other subjects was immense. For instance, once in the course of a conversation, he gave a long genealogy of the minute branches of one of the most obscure princes of Germany, whose name had been mentioned, and given rise to the conversation; and he went on to mention all the appurtenances, cantons, towns and villages, in France, which bore the same name. In his diary he wrote, when dying—"I have important works to publish; the materials all ready, prepared in my head; I only remains to note down." Carefully he did so; and perhaps the most wonderful memory of his age.

As we have before said, the kinds of memory are various. In different persons. One has a memory for dates, figures and times; another of proper names; another of words, independent of ideas; while another remembers the ideas, but not the words in which they are clothed. There is a memory for concealments, pains, and pain mute; and a memory of superstitions, opinions and lectures. Very different from these is the special memory for sounds in music; for color in painting; and in art; for forms of sculpture or landscape. There is a memory of the heart, of the soul, of the reason, of the sense. Some remember systems; others, tongues and (rare) glimmerations and problems; in short, the kinds of memory are many, and the varieties as various as the countenances of men—and what is curious is, that exercises in more than one of these do not assist in the same person.

All men, however, have stores of memories of some kind or other, and it is worthy of remark, that these memories are always in harmony with the fleeting moments of the person.—Thus, when we speak of the memory of a man, we say, "He knows it by heart!" Meaningless as this knowledge is nothing but sentiment.

Hence, then, is this wonderful gift of memory, which, if not the greatest of the human faculties, is at least one of all of them. If it gives, like other gifts, as a field for men to cultivate to excel in such specific ideas, facts and sentiments, for future ones. For the human mind can receive nothing; it only receives what experience and sensation have brought to it, and is merely a passive source of thinking. A man writes a book. What does it consist of but of his recollections and experiences? If he writes what is original, he cannot help it—you will find that he has drawn it from the storehouse of his own experience; for no writer has but penned his own heart in it. In fact, the whole art of genius is a compilation of recollections. The ancients called Memory the mother of the Nine Muses; and perhaps this is the finest eulogium that could be pronounced upon the astonishing gift.—[Elias Cook's Journal.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Monday, August 1, 1853.

The Boy, Bootblacking.

We apply the expletive, "boy," to this pedantic young politician, not because it is edifying to be juvenile, or because it is an "expressive crime" to be a young man"; but because some remarks of this aspiring youth indicate a mind of superficial and sophisticated cultivation, and may tend to prejudice the good sense of our understanding youth at large.

In a speech, the other day, he attempted to debate the question, Whether juries should be judges of law as well as of fact. We mean to be merciful mercy for his opinions; so we urge nothing but Burlingame on that account. But we do protest against him as his opinions of eminent legal authorities; and shall take the liberty to show his ignorance by ignorance in the affairs of his own legal profession.

Mr Burlingame asserts that JUDGE STORY and LORD MANSFIELD are the only eminent authorities adverse to the new-school doctrey of making an illiterate set of jurors judges of the law, in room of the court. This is a pure fiction of his own invention. Lord CHIEF JUSTICE DEAN, one of the brightest ornaments of the bench, and one of the most gifted spirits that have ever illuminated the annals of the unwilled armies, always entertained that opinion, and defended it with great zeal in the way to the Star Chamber of LAUD v. MYLES, 4 Hing. 105. The learned JUDGE BULLER was of the same opinion, as were also the distinguished Justices, ASHURST and WILLES. In fact, there is a host of good authorities in the same identical opinion, whenever may have been the opinions of DEANE or of Blackstone.

But recurs our errant, which proves beyond question, that the Chiefs Justice Burke, Fox and Wedderburn, Townsend and Windham, Mansfield and Camden, Gibbs and Dunning, Dundas and Bacon, and a legion of others, advocated the anti-Burlingame doctrine.

We will now give JUDGE BULLER's opinion in his own language. In Carpenter v. Hayward, reported in Douglass' Reports, v. 1, p. 374-5, Judge Buller is reported to have said—

"Whether there be any evidence, is a question for the judge. Whether there be sufficient evidence, is a question for the jury," &c.

These of our readers who are not conversant with the writings and opinions of JUDGE STORY, will be gratified with the following remarks made by him in the case of the United States v. Battiste, reported in 2 Sumn., 243. The counsel of the prisoner having suggested "that in criminal cases the most especially in Capital cases, the jury are the judges of the law, as well as of the fact," the Court rose and said:

"My opinion is that the jury are no more judges of the law in a capital or other criminal case, upon the issue of guilty, than they are in every civil case, tried upon the general issue. It is a doctrine, that, under color, is supported, is monstrously compounded of law and fact; and that jurors have a right to form and authoritatively determine the law, as well as the fact. In such cases, they have the physical power to disregard the law, as laid down to them by the Court. But this power in any case, civil or criminal, they have the moral right to decide the law according to their own notions, or pleasure. On the contrary, I hold it the most sacred duty of a citizen, that the jury should respect and follow the law as laid down to them by the Court. It is the province of the Court to instruct the jury as to the law; and it is the duty of the jury to receive the law as it is laid down by the court. This is the right course, and every man is bound by it. The power of the jury over a liberty to break the law for the time being, is a power which no one would be willing to entrust to himself; and much more to others. Some differences of fact, but in cases of error, there would be no security or safety to property; for the court will not have any right to control the finding of a verdict rendered by the jury. Indeed, it would be almost impossible to ascertain, what the law, as settled by the jury, actually was. On the contrary, if the court should err, in laying down the law to the jury, there is an adequate remedy for the injured party, by a motion for a new trial, or a writ of error, as the nature of the proceedings in the particular case may require. Every person accused as a criminal has a right to be tried according to the law of the land, the fixed law of the land; and not by the caprice of a jury may particular case, or from wantonness, or ignorance, or accidental mistake, to interpret it. If I thought, gentlemen of the jury were the proper judges of the law in criminal cases, I should hold it my duty to shrink from the responsibility of stating the law to them upon any such case. But believing, as I do, that every citizen has a right to be tried by the law, and according to the law; that it is his privilege and truest shield against oppression and wrong; I feel it my duty to state my views fully and openly on the present occasion."

SOUTH AMERICAN NEWS. The fire at Cruces destroyed forty seven buildings. Several natives have been arrested on suspicion of having set the fire. During the fire a box containing $2000 in sovereigns was stolen from the agency of Messrs Henziado & Co.

The accounts from Bogota show a bad state of affairs. The mob are in the ascendant.—Among the atrocities committed, was the assassination of Antonio Paris, in his house at midnight on the 16th ult. On the night before there was another serious riot. Dr. Florentino Gonzalez, and several others, were dangerously injured by the mob. Gen. Herran refused to call out the troops, but Gen. Mala inspired their movements. Fourteen of the rioters were shot just before the riot, and Vice President Obaldia followed suit. Gen. Lopez filled the Executive chair. Jose Maria Plata is spoken of as Governor of Bogota.

All accounts agree that the country is in very unsettled state. The Constitutional Convention was Mr William B. Tarleton, and the name of his Christian name was Charles Kelley. His accomplice, Wm. McLaughlin, also made a similar bold attempt on the lives of watchmen Frederick F. Moore and ——— Sargent, but was unsuccessful in injuring them or in effecting his escape.

It appeared that both prisoners were armed with two loaded revolvers each, and in their possession were found a number of pistol balls and a quantity of bank bills, identified as recently stolen from vessels. An accomplice of the above gang, named John Ryan, has also been arrested this morning, with further plunder in his possession. The trio were brought before for trial, for both larceny and attempt to murder.

CHINESE REBELLION. Little, comparatively, is known of the internal policy of China. The HONG, the origin and progress of that despotic race of Gothic lawgivers who are now expending terror from the East Cape to the Bay of Bisnay, are involved in the greatest obscurity. The rebellion has been going on for more than three years in the north of China. It had its origin in bands of men going through the country breaking idols and driving away their priests. Some have said these men are Roman Catholics; but there are no Roman Catholics in that part of the country. The rebels were are inscribed the name of God—the Supreme, the Universal. Their progress has been rapid, irresistible. They have spread from city to city and from province to province, and have already got to the north of Nankin, in the centre. The present dynasty is a foreign dynasty imposed by the Manchous after their conquest of China; and it is odious to the people, from their shaved heads in a badge of subjection imposed by the haughty Tartars. The present dynasty has now subsisted for nearly two hundred years, the usual period of the dynasties of Chinese dynasties, and the Chinese confidently believe that these are its last days. But it is a religious movement that the rebellion presents itself in the heart of the Chinese, the Philanthropic, the Humanous and the general observer; and the result may be hoped to be the opening of all China to the commerce of the Christian nations, and the conversion of the Chinese to the religion of the Son of Man.

CITY MATTERS.

☞ See notice of changes in running time on the Lowell and Nashua Railroad. Advertisement on second page.

☞ The Sabbath School Concert at the Prescott street Church this evening, at half past seven, promises to be a very pleasant and entertaining occasion. A recently organized Band have gratuitously offered their assistance, which will be accepted. Those who are to appear at the Freewill Baptist Meeting-House, Tickets at 42 and 76 Merrimack street, and at the door. Handsome donations having already been made to this object, there can be no doubt that it will be liberally encouraged. Be sure to be on hand.

OFFICERS BATTALION DRILL this afternoon, on the old Master ground, south of the railroad crossing on the old Boston road.

☞ ROBERT HARRIS. One of the most ridiculous—but the most complete—humbugs that we have ever seen, was made last week by Mr G. S. Hatch, Middle street, for Mr H. D. Adams, who drives one of the finest horses in the State. The entire harness weighs 13 1-2 lbs., and is a specimen of workmanship it hasn't been President Pierce gift harnesses since the IRON ROW. A row occured on Gorham street, near the Appleton House, about seven o'clock, among a lot of drunken Irishmen.—The Police were very active, and on the ground in season, which undoubtedly prevented quite serious row. The City Marshal used his cartridges on the occasion for carrying it done or rested to the watch-house. Some seven or eight were arrested. For a while the whole street was thronged with at least a thousand people. The getters-up of the row, together with others of whom we have not been able to learn, were brought up before the Police Court this forenoon. Patrick Kilfoil and James McQuade were each fined $5 and costs. Patrick Tierney, Francis Rourk and Thomas Kelley, $3 and costs each. McQuade was then arrested on another warrant. Much credit is due the Police for their active, prompt and successful efforts in quelling the mob.

NEW AND IMPORTANT BUSINESS ENTERPRISE. Several of our most enterprising mechanics are about to start a new business enterprise of considerable magnitude, which will add materially to the mechanical industry of the city. A company has been formed (under the general corporation law,) and arrangements already made for the immediate erection of a large and substantial new building for Mechanics' Shops. The building is to be 224 by 50 feet, three stories high, and divided into five shops with five-proof division walls—with a separate fire-proof building for a fifty-horse steam engine to drive the machinery. This establishment is to be located on Dutton street, west of the railroad, near the Machine Shop of the Nashua and Lowell Railroad Company. The company is composed of Isaac Pierce, Fifield & Peabody, and Farer & Hatch, each, door and blind manufacturers and builders, and Geo. W. Fiske, bobbin maker. Each of these parties and firms will occupy and own one shop. The shafting shop and the motive power will be the property of the corporation. For the accomplishment of this establishment, a purchase of 60,000 feet of land has been made, and the building is to be erected forthwith.

GRAND FIREMEN'S CELEBRATION. We are glad to be able to announce that our gallant firemen have set "the ball in motion" for a grand Firemen's Jubilee in this city early in the month of September. At a meeting of the Board of Engineers and the Officers of the several Engine Companies, held on Saturday evening last, it was resolved with enthusiastic unanimity to proceed at once to the necessary arrangements for getting up and carrying through a celebration that shall be creditable alike to themselves and to the city. To this end they propose to call on our public spirited citizens to aid them in raising the "available means" adequate to the expenses to be incurred. We have no doubt this call will be cheerfully and munificently responded to. A Committee, consisting of the Engineers and the Foremen of the several Companies, was appointed to solicit contributions.

A large number of Companies from abroad—from our own and neighboring States—are to be invited, and a large attendance may be confidently anticipated. A public dinner will be provided, and also a levee in our spacious new City Hall to the ladies and gentlemen. There will probably take place on Friday, Sept. 9.—The arrangements are in good hands. Our indefatigable Chief Engineer and his efficient Associates will do their duty. Let the citizens do theirs.

POLICE COURT.—Monday, August 1. Michael Regan, for assault and battery, was fined $3 and costs.

William Mulligan, for an assault on Susan McGrath, was ordered to recognize in $100 till next term.

Mary Keane, for drunkenness, was fined $3 and costs. Committed.

Thomas Leonard, for drunkenness, fined $3 and costs.

Richard F. Thayre, for drunkenness, was fined $3 and costs.

Hugh Teague, for an assault on watchman Darby, was fined $3 and costs.

For the Journal and Courier.

LOWELL, July 29.

MR EDITOR: Will you allow me through the medium of your paper, to say a single word about Lovell Island? If so, your humble servant would just say, that, yesterday, he found himself in company with all the members of the First Congregational Choir, in this city, (some seventeen in number,) and with the kind direction of their leader, (F. M. Colby's) invited, by other circumstances would not have occurred, some others of the good people of this vicinity; the whole forming a merry party of about 35—all bound for Lowell Island.

Leaving the Northern depot at 9 o'clock A. M., we found ourselves after a pleasant ride of about an hour's "ride on the ocean wave" landed us at the place of our destination. A large dining room was erected for the use of the boatmen, and we took up our head-quarters as visitors—and after a few minutes' repose, the waiter that no one experiment any of that up-and-down, every-way sensation, called us to dinner; and after a few minutes' repose, the whole party commenced a leisure survey of the premises and surrounding attractions. The island itself presents many remarkable features of interest, excepting in most unquestionably "rock and pebble" of any kind; but bidding all the scenery known to exceed $16,000, in the following conspicuous: Saratoga, $1,000; Stanford Presentation, $5,000; Niagara Falls, $1,000; Franklin, Saratoga, $6,000; North Western, Oswego, $6,000.

☞ A monument to the late Dr. Sharpe is about to be erected in Boston.

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1853.

Paid and Secured Capital, $150,000.

Cash Assets, Jan. 1st, 1853, over $200,000

DIRECTORS.

Wm. C. Rives, Lewis Morris, Duncan Shaw,
Wm. E. Dodge, Lorenzo Westervelt, Wm. Bard,
Wm. Curtis Noyes, Wm. Kent, Jr., Wm. Kemble,
Wm. Cullen Bryant, Jr., Geo. Griswold, A. J. Johnson,
Jas. Boorman, Geo. Curtis, Jr., Thos. Messenger,
Jas. Lenox, Geo. Hyde, Jr., Jas. Fisher, Jr.

WM. C. RIVES, President.
DUNCAN SHAW, Secretary.

The long established Company we proposed to take risks on

Fire and Inland Navigation Risks,

at such rates as shall be adequate to the security of the assured and to the interests of the Company, and which will not be sufficient guaranty to the public, all property insured.

A. J. AP. RICHMOND, Agent. Office No. 12 Appleton Block, Merrimack street.

Boston, July 27, 1853. jy28

FIRE INSURANCE.

Mina Protection and Hartford Insurance Companies, HARTFORD, CONN.

AGGREGATE capital paid in and secured according to law,
Quarterly Assessments, $200,000
Mina Capital, 200,000
Protection Capital, 100,000
Hartford Capital, 100,000
Total Capital and Assets, $600,000

Insures against loss or damage by fire to Lowell and adjacent towns, on all kinds of insurable property on as low terms as good companies can afford, and will be glad to call on citizens or corporations wishing to effect insurance.

Office in Appleton Block, Merrimack street, Lowell.

JOHN DAVIS, Agent.

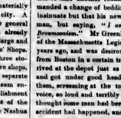
The very successful Company,established upon the cash principle with the largest cash capital of any company in the Cash Capital, have now greatly increased their business in Lowell, and are now prepared to insure on the most favorable terms.

Policies issued on terms for California and foreign voyages, and on inland risks to all parts of the country.

Office in Wyman's Exchange.

BY CALIFORNIA RIDE!—Leave by the New England Express Train, at 9 A. M., and arrive in San Francisco in 21 days. jy27 eod1m

Philadelphia Parasol Store,



IF YOU WANT TO BUY A PARASOL,
Or Sunshade, Umbrella, or CANE,
YOU MUST GO TO PHILADELPHIA,
Where the largest and most splendid assortment of these articles is to be found, and where they are being much cheaper than you, before purchasing at other places, call and examine our stock, which is

PHILLIPS, GODDARD & BOWKER, MAITLAND FREIGHT STATION,
SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.

WAYS FOR SALE.

COAL—Schuylkill (white and red ash), Cumberland and Lehigh, delivered by the cargo, or in lots to suit purchasers.

WOOD—Eastern, Southern, Country — Process for burning Wood by Steam, Patented by Phillips, Goddard & Bowker. Purchasers, Dealers or Shippers by the cargo from the Wharf, or delivered in the City.

FLOUR AND GRAIN—A constant supply of all qualities.

HAY, STRAW, LIME, HAIR—Best Western brands.

SALT—Coarse and fine, by cargo direct from Liverpool.

SUGAR, COFFEE, TEAS, MOLASSES, RICE, and other Groceries.

PAINTS—Lead, Linseed, Putty, Whiting.

WHITE LEAD—Pure Dutch Process Brand, and other Pipes.

COTTON HOSE, CORDAGE, TWINE.

TAR, PITCH, ROSIN and SHIP CHANDLERY,—and a variety of other articles suitable to the country and coast trade.

Factory Produce received on consignment, or in barter for Wood.

Vessels for repairs, or to load, dispatch or remain in port.

Lighters for business of the Bay afford extensive facilities for the transfer of Freight, Coal, Wood, &c., either by or unaccompanied by Railroad; and, being laid-up when not employed, are always ready, without charge for detention, to meet vessels and tows.

The business of the firm has such ties that very willingly will it transact all their business with the utmost promptness and dispatch.

PATENTS.
AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for Inventors and United States Patent Office Publications.

NO. 66 STATE STREET, BOSTON.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, and for the last seven years Principal Assistant Examiner) is now prepared to attend to cases of all kinds connected with Patents, the model arrangements whereof are kept entirely separate from those of the Patent Office. The Chief Clerkship (because of many as yet in force by others) will be found to be a very important one to those who may favor the office with their business, as the whole of the Patent Office records are at all times open to inspection. Specification, Assignments and all other papers, drawings, &c., carefully and correctly executed. Models and Patent Agencies promptly, and never rendered unnecessarily expensive. Information cheerfully given gratuitously.

Inventors may not only have models their specifications and drawings prepared, and their cases prosecuted to the granting of Patents, at the shortest possible notice, by means of legal and mechanical words, and correct assistance, but they may also have the benefit of the most thorough search (a thing never known previously in Washington, the most important of all, as it is the only way to ascertain the novelty of an invention), and the value of the same, before the Patent Office fees are paid. Reference is kindly permitted to Hon. Edmund Burke, Commissioner of Patents.

D. P. LEE, Late Examiner, Mass.
Copies of the claims of any patent issued since 1836, may be procured by remitting $1, and stating the name of the patentee, the title of the invention, and the date of the patent.
Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, March 12, 1853. 1y

BEAUTIFUL PENMANSHIP.

CARLTON'S NEW SYSTEM OF PENMANSHIP, now 12th edition, just published, and for sale at 61 Merrimack st. Lowell.

This Treatise is perfectly new and very agreeable, and by many is considered the best work of the kind ever offered to the penmanship public. If the pupil can acquire any thing from a book, he can learn to write a fine hand, and to write a rapid hand, by the use of this Treatise; as every movement and principle is fully explained.

Copies for examination will be sent to the trade at the usual discount.

Orders for the Treatise may be left at the Bookstore of Messrs. Stimpson & Clapp, 61 Merrimack st. Lowell, or sent to the author, Boston.

JOSEPH BAYNES.

BUILDERS' HARDWARE.

CUT NAILS—Clinch, Finishing, Brads, Sprigs, Steel Cast; Cast Pipe; Tiles; Copper and Iron Pumps; Lead Pipe; Sheet Lead; Zinc; Copper Bolts and Nails; Copper and Iron Rivets; Iron Bolts and Nails; Files and Rasps; Bushing Stocks and Dies; Screw Plates; Taps; Reamers; Hinges; Screws; Locks; Latches; Bolts; Knobs; Escutcheons; Sash Fastenings; Sash Weights; Sash Cord; Sash Tools; Window Glass; Paints and Oils; Glue; Sand and Emery Paper; Brushes; Whitewash Brushes; Shoe Brushes; Scrubbing Brushes; Horse Brushes; Curry Combs; Horse Cards; Horse Clippers; Shovels; Spades; Scythes; Snaths; Rakes; Forks; Hoes; Axes; Hatchets; Adzes; Mattocks; Picks; Crowbars; Sledges; Anvils; Vises; Bellows; Blacksmiths' Tools; Iron; Steel; Spring Steel; Tire Steel; Horseshoes; Horseshoe Nails; Iron Wire; Steel Wire; Copper Wire; Brass Wire; Iron Chain; Trace Chain; Halter Chain; Log Chain; Cable Chain; Anchors; Pulley Blocks; Cotton Rope; Manilla Rope; Hemp Rope; Tarred Rope; Spun Yarn; Oakum; Tarred Canvas; Sail Twine; Sail Needles; Sail Palms; Sail Thimbles; Sail Hooks; Sail Eyelets; Sail Lacing; Sail Duck; Awning Stripes; Awning Fringe; Awning Tassels; Awning Ring; Awning Hooks; Awning Eyelets; Awning Lacing; Awning Duck; Tarpaulin Duck; Tarpaulin Lacing; Tarpaulin Eyelets; Tarpaulin Hooks; Tarpaulin Rings; Tarpaulin Tassels; Tarpaulin Fringe; Tarpaulin Cord; Tarpaulin Tape

...ve the best right to conjecture on the subject.—Jehovah himself hath composed that voice and nature shall not be done away from our mouth, and that it shall be done away by human effort and, standing on Calvary the groan of the Son of Man and Jehovah both fell in the universe like all sufficient utterance, that the great question not be fully and eternally settled.—Hawthorne's Recorder.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Tuesday, August 2, 1853

The Lowell Advertiser on Coalitions.

The youthful editor of the Lowell Courier has written an article on "True and False Ideas of Coalitions," which has been sandal out for reasons only to any mere editor, than may we have ever yet been favored by one of his elder editorial whiskered brethren.

Our neighbor has our thanks for his compliments; but we can perceive no propriety in the application of the word youthful. If it is now, in the days of Johnson, Pitt and Walpole, an "atrocious crime" for a young man, so destitute to be termed an "old," as "the youthful editor," not as "the aged editor," but simply as "editor?" If they answer some wits purpose of Constitutional Conservatism, it should be done always in the same paper, that "in the decline of life" shall be found in the beginning of life; and not be done away from our mouth, and that, if

RAILROAD FURNISH STABLE.
SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.

COAL.—Lehigh, Lykens Valley, Locust Mountain, Lorberry, Lower Lehigh, Lump, Franklin, Shamokin, Broken, Egg, Stove, Nut and Grate, for sale by the cargo, at tide water prices.
PLOUR AND GRAIN.—A constant supply of all sizes.
HAY, STRAW, LIME, HAIR.—Near Western brands.
CEMENT, PLASTER, CALCINED PLASTER, Rosendale and other
COTTON DUCK, CORDAGE, TWINE.
BLACK, STRAW AND MANILLA PAPER.
COAL AND GRAIN WAREHOUSE.—Lowell & Andover Railroad, adjoining the Passenger Depot.
Prompt personal attention to consignments, at all times by JOSEPH BURNETT, Jr.
Treasurer Essex Company.

The sale of business of the firm affords extraordinary facilities to purchasers of Sewing Machines, as the whole, and by necessity to Railroad, and large Manufacturing Companies, who will find it to their interest to call and examine the Machines, and the terms of sale, before purchasing elsewhere. Circulars containing full particulars sent free, if not on hand for sale.
Machines to let, and Machines taken in part for the Wheeler & Wilson Machine, or any to suit purchasers.
Machines repaired, and all kinds of Sewing Machine Trimmings constantly on hand.
The arrangements of the firm are such that they will be able to fill all orders for Machines, and Trimmings, promptly and satisfactorily.
ly16 eod3m

PATENTS.
AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for Patents with United States Patent Office.
EDWARD MANSFIELD,
NO. 32 STATE STREET, BOSTON.
INFORMATION FURNISHED TO INVENTORS.
Mr. Mansfield, Agent at the U. S. Patent Office, under the 15th section of the Patent Law, will attend to the procuring of Patents in the United States, and to the sale or introduction, wherever required, of Patents in Europe. Mr. Mansfield has had for many years the charge of the Patent Office Agency, and is therefore in a position to afford to inventors the most reliable information respecting the progress of their applications. Circulars, containing rules, forms, &c., and all necessary information, will be sent gratuitously to any address. Models and drawings should be forwarded by express, and will be returned to the inventor, or sold, as he may direct. Charges moderate, and no fee required until the Patent is secured.
Mr. Mansfield will supply patents for inventions in any of the most commonly used, but not trivial improvements in Machinery, Implements, Manufactures, &c., which have been introduced into practical operation, and cannot be readily copied, for the following charges, viz.: $25 for any Patent; or $15 if only one specification is required. Assignments of Patents recorded.
E. M. EDDY,
Counsellor at Law.
Refers to Hon. Isaac Davis, Worcester, Mass.
Hon. Marcus Morton, Judge of Supreme Court of Massachusetts.
Hon. Edward Everett, Boston, Mass.
Hon. Abbott Lawrence, Boston, Mass.
Commissioners of Patents.
Boston, March 15, 1853. my16

BEAUTIFUL TEETH!
CARLOS FRENCH, Surgeon Dentist, over the Old Post Office, Washington street, Boston, has had a large experience of Dental Practice in this city, and continues to perform all operations upon the teeth in the most skilful manner. Particular attention is paid to the treatment of children, so that they receive no pain in having their teeth filled.
This Dentifrice is perfectly safe and very agreeable, and is recommended to the public as the best article ever offered for the teeth. It is entirely free from acid, and will not injure the most delicate enamel. It removes tartar, whitens the teeth, hardens the gums, and leaves the mouth perfectly sweet and healthy. Numerous testimonials can be seen at the office. Price 25 cents per box.
Boston, March 15, 1853. my16

BUILDERS' HARDWARE.
CHARLES PARKER, No. 3 Merrimack Square, Lowell, has just received a large assortment of Builders' Hardware, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Also, Carpenters' Tools, Planes, Bits, Augers, Chisels, Files, Rasps, Saws, Hammers, Hatchets, Screws, Nails, Spikes, Brads, Tacks, Sash Weights, Cord, Locks, Latches, Hinges, Screw Eyes, Hooks, Sash Fasteners, Sash Locks, Sash Pulleys, Sash Balances, Sash Cord, Sash Tassels, Sash Trimmings, Sash Tools, Sash Knobs, Sash Pins, Sash Keys, Sash Lifts, Sash Springs, Sash Stops, Sash Bolts, Sash

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Wednesday, August 6, 1862.

Europe is in a ferment. Of every European nation the greatest, once, by a not unapt legal metaphor, he said to be "in hotch-potch." Since the arrival of the Arabia and the Asia, facts have been developed which will require a period of further consideration of the general state of affairs.

When we last considered this subject, the impression was gaining ground that Austria would meddle no more with the Papal States and the Czar. That impression is now dissipated. So far from assuming a mediatorial attitude, the blind powers of Austria have become, by a most unnatural inflatulation, the active co-adjutors of the great Colossus of the North. Austrian troops have advanced against Servia, and M. de Bruck has removed, on behalf of his government, the demands formally refused by the Porte to Count Leiningen.

The moment she beheld Turkey embarrassed by the extraordinary archangel-dominion of Russian diplomacy, that moment Austria stepped forward, like a rapacious mortgagee to foreclose his mortgage and demolish at once the pitiful remnant of the Ottoman Empire. Indeed, has the idiosyncrasy of Metternich overlooked us then. The pet of the Austrian Court had lord John Russell himself, he never filled the small of pamphleteer. Lord Palmerston is notoriously a political "Quaker," having passed into the cool of honor. He is "going" that we may have a speedy verification. Admissions that Lord Aberdeen is to be succeeded by Mr Gladstone. Yet Gladstone is not a man after our heart. But while Russia and Austria menace England in the East of the whole world, the present Cabinet possesses considerable claims on the Peace-Party here at home.

We behold the Czar measuring Europe now for he measured it at the time when he was behalved by the energetic and indomitable Napoleon—he measured it at the time when he was bewildered by the wily Beaufort—and yet we kept in vain for the will and the determination which is capable to arrest his one million Cossack power public; and for the only right arm in what is left the fierce, turbulent and enslaved democracy of Europe.

And let us complete this question in its general bearings. On this phase of the matter, there is a great variety of sentiment among those who have studied the whole subject in its multifarious bearings and relations. Many persons grant advantages to American trade from a Russian war. The New York Times does not entertain this view. But we dissent from the Editorial Times. We look to the supreme issues of the past. We have often pointed out the fatal error of the Northern people in politically dubbing their enemy "the Secessionists." We still more vigorously protest against the custom of the same Journal in the habit of terming the war "the war of Napoleon in Europe." The facts are before us—we have historical data—we are learned in the past—we feel distressed when the project of crushing England at the supreme moment of her necessity is called "a mistake."

All the neighboring nations was a fatal and deadly error. So will it be with our contemporary. So with England, so with America.

Now if Turkey were to be crushed, as she is from the Republic of nations, it is difficult to conceive how, after that day of calamity, it is to be materially blessed. The participation of Russia need cause affected our commerce; neither would the absorption of Turkey. But we are a mighty commercial nation; we are the purveyor of the old world; the greatest granary of the staples of life; the greatest customers—and European market; and as such would our interests be affected by the Czar. Much as we regret—and dread—a participation of sovereignty, but by a war of force. Even a belligerent would scarcely be affected more.

How is it among men? If one firm fails, all firms connected with it suffer. As with firms, so with nations. France and England would again nothing by a war. But with us the case is different. The trade in bread-stuffs would be greatly benefitted. On the other hand, the cotton trade would be decidedly injured. Our Mediterranean trade would be well nigh ruined. The panic on the London Change and Paris Bourse would react here. Money would rise and financial operations be strained.

Look to the last French Revolution, and to its results. The transaction of business there is too well known for comment. That there would be as great a deficit created in the event of another war, Napoleon Adolphi discovered by the military passage of the Prush by the house of one money, she embraced the unfortunate opportunity to marshal a strong body of her forces on the borders of the Saxon. Such is her cruel system of tactics. It is most obvious that her intention in the event of a participation of Turkey, is, to be half-and-half with Russia, and so secure her claims. And as State ever pursued a more short-sighted and suicidal policy; for if Turkey is dismembered now, Austria stands a chance to be so by and by.

This new position of Austria imparts an air of novelty to the whole question. It no longer remains with France and England to decide whether there shall be peace or war. Russia no longer occupies alone the answer of a dubious claim. Then an close league with Austria, the opposite the members of a claim not to go together of these belligerents. Before the Czar will recede a step, the forces of France and England must be withdrawn from Bomba Bay; and the fleet and the Lords Aggerent and the majesty of Alexandrian Victoria must be humbled in the dust! This is the inevitable status of the case. And not only will no indemnity be effected for the past, but the Czar will proceed to further dismember the ancient and venerable dominions of Europe.

Now the attitude of Austria renders one of two events morally certain; either the neighboring nations will be compelled to submit to be consulted, and Metternich will become a resultants sovereign with the Sultan; or by a system of piece-meal internal larceny, Abdul Medjid will lose, and the Czar will thereby attain such a secure dominion over the Middle-Wallachian Principalities. Perhaps one is more certain than that one of these objects has been methodically pursued by Austria's old Minister, and that one of them will ultimately be attained.

Meantime, she conscientiously assumes the attitude of Europe's friend; she has no designs on the integrity of the Turkish Empire, and that the Czar only covets certain territories. Discuss her Turkey! O No! She shall remain as in bait on the war in the paltriest days of the dynasty of the Moslems! Nevertheless, it is a fact that Turkey is to be made a second Poland.

But the present attitude of France and England is a proper subject of analytical regret. France, it is true, manifests little desire to recede; on the other hand she would apparently go even fight as not; but England, too fearful of a loss in her commercial prosperity, is disposed to preserve peace if possible. Were Wellington now in life, a different policy would be adopted, if not events. But the quarter of a century ago, that master of prevision saw and declared that as soon as the Czar made another crude movement Constantinople, Great Britain would be compelled to use martial force to secure the supremacy in her own Indian empire. But that system of policy has been pretermitted by the ruling power of commerce. The alternative inference is that the commercial world has expressed the supremacy of the old regime. In the language of another:—"Commerce is being new." And when Commerce ascended the throne, the Iron Trade spirit came in, and down went the martial system of the old Iron Duke. While we believe that Russia's true opinion, and spears into miners' picks;—while Russia's bullets are changing to'pieces'keys, pins, and reasons to turbine-wheels, the idea of war cannot be entertained, though Cossacks are the real of civilization's merchandize pennis as the steam-horses of Tedesco.

Meantime, there is no solution among the "Reporters," to this tempter problem. The great statesmen has already earned for himself the unfortunate sobriquet of Don Pacifico. Palmerston, indeed, has the idiosyncrasy of Gladstone, entertained as him. The pet of the British Whigs and lord John Russell himself, he never filled the small of pamphleteer. Lord Aberdeen is notoriously a political "Quaker," having passed into the cool of honor. He is "going" that we may have a speedy verification. Admissions that Lord Aberdeen is to be succeeded by Mr Gladstone. Yet Gladstone is not a man after our heart. But while Russia and Austria menace England in the East of the whole world, the present Cabinet possesses considerable claims on the Peace-Party here at home.

CITY MATTERS.

SURGICAL OPERATION.—On Monday last an ovarian tumor weighing over twenty pounds was removed by Dr. Kimball from the abdomen of a lady in this city. She is now doing well, and there is every prospect of an entire recovery.

POLICE COURT.—Our acknowledgments are due Mr Sylvester Crosby for a lot of fine pears, raised on his farm in this city. They are decidedly the best flavored pears we have tasted this season.

☞ The Illustrated Magazine of Art for August, 1862, is an excellent number. The publisher, Frederick Parker, Esq., at whose place at 21 Appleton Block, this valuable periodical is for sale, has selection several of the finest specimens of the artistic powers of Gilbert, the brothers Hunt, Lewis, Albert Durer, Rubens, Cotsale, Greaves, and others.

POLICE COURT—Wednesday, Aug. 5. Jeremiah Driscoll, for drunkenness, was fined $3 and cost. Committed.

Daniel Leary, for drunkenness, fined $3 and cost. Committed to House of Correction.

John Crossy, otherwise called by a name unknown, was arrested yesterday for having counterfeit money in his possession, with intent to pass. The Court ordered him to recognize in $500 with surety till Aug. 4, at 10 o'clock a. m.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

☞ In the leader yesterday a mistake may be corrected by reading e. g. for Ex Gratia—Gratuitous being exempt grants. (He exempt.)

LOUIS THIAS. A modest account of the whole proceedings; a letter to thine cause, will be found in our correspondence in another column.—Of course it is not for us to say how the proceedings of Messrs. Pearson under the new league law were right, or how far they were ridiculous and wrong. The facts are given by another; and, as the other doctor observed when a fellow-dancer stepped out with his wife,—"Common is unnecessary."

MASSEN FESTIVAL. A Grand Festival in honor of Thomas Francis Meagher's birth-day is to be given in Faneuil Hall this evening. A large delegation and several military companies from New York are expected to participate in it. Thomas Meagher, M. P. for the city of Waterford, and Mr. T. F. Meagher, the father and wife of the distinguished orator, arrived in New York on Saturday, each, by the Arctic. They will accompany him to the banquet.

☞ The pay roll alone of the Constitutional Convention amounts to a little over $100,000. The cost of printing and other incidental expenses cannot possibly be less than $25,000, and may be more. The whole cost of the Convention will therefore be very near $200,000.

MARRIAGE OF MISS CLARISSE MITCHELL. We learn that Judge Nahum Mitchell, of East Bridgewater, one of the Justices of the Court of Common Pleas for Plymouth county, and resigned in the street in Plymouth, yesterday, while attending the celebration.

FATAL ACCIDENT. At 11 o'clock on Monday morning, a man named Moses Isle was killed on the railroad in Ware, Hampden in Massachusetts Railroad, and was instantly killed. He was about 25 years of age.

☞ We understand that several people in this vicinity are quite anxious to have a little Connecticut physic given to the members of the House of Convention at East Cambridge.

☞ A new military company, called the "Hale Guards," has been organized in the town of Haverhill, and William Taggart, Esq., elected captain. It is attached to the Fifth Regiment of Infantry, and is to be uniformed and fully styled Company F. The officers of the new company were here at the battalion drill on Monday.

☞ The New York Times treats the Democratic party of that State as if the Democratic party was dead. It says: "If the Democratic Kearsal, considering the conduct of the late session of the Legislature."

☞ As luck.—A poor man found a fine, trial in Lawrence Court, a young lad who was called as a witness, was asked if he knew what was the nature of an oath, and where he would go if he told a lie. He said he supposed "he would go where all the lawyers went."

☞ The British ship Dromedary from New Orleans for Liverpool with cotton, was ashore on Monday week, on Kinsale Head. She was got off with two feet water in the ware's ships. The chief mate and steward of the ship have been arrested.

☞ The Newburyport Daily Company have declared their first semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent.

LOUISVILLE, KY., August 1. From the returns so far received it seems probable that Linn Boyd will, R. H. Stanton, Guthrie, and Presley M. Bring, who is elected to Congress from this State.

☞ Preparations are made for a great gathering of the friends of education at Oshkosh, on Lake Winnebagosgon, on the 6th and 10th instants, Tuesday and Wednesday next.

☞ A destructive fire occurred in Cincinnati last Thursday. A whole square, bounded by Pearl, Broadway, English streets and the canal, was destroyed.

☞ The chicken broke out in Williamsport, Md., a few days since, and raged with great severity. All business was suspended in consequence.

☞ At this time there are 916 banks in the United States, with an aggregate capital of $319,882,050.

☞ There are five hundred and thirty seven grog-shops in San Francisco.

☞ James M. Cooper, Esq., has received the appointment of Postmaster of Newburyport.

☞ Mr Parsons has been appointed Postmaster at Gloucester, Mass.

DANIEL WEBSTER ON ORTHEN PALLSBURY.—A Democratic meeting of the Springfield Republican relates the following incident of the late Daniel Webster.

A friend called on him in New York one Sunday evening, and remarking that he saw him in church that day, proceeded to inquire after the health of Mrs. Webster. He said that she possessed he should have liked it, but as he possessed his Parish Book, and he eye fell on that beautiful hymn of Watts', "Welcome sweet day of rest"—uttered as follows:—

"By willing and would stay
Till I am called away
To dwell in heaven."

It so vexed him that he say once should have had the audacity to impose upon Dr Watts, so especially to destroy that exquisite allusion to a dying swan, that he could not enjoy any of the services. He then proceeded to repeat, as near as he could, the whole of the hymn, as it was originally written:

"By willing and would stay
Till I am called away
To dwell in heaven."

☞ The late duel between Messrs. Owin and McMahon, Kentucky, resulted in the death of both of these gentlemen. If the following paragraph is correct, though they received their mortal wounds from each other, they died almost immediately after.

"The duel between Messrs. Owin and McMahon, Kentucky, resulted in the death of both of these gentlemen. If the following paragraph is correct, though they received their mortal wounds from each other, they died almost immediately after.

☞ CALIFORNIA SILKS taken by the New Bedford whaling fleet, have arrived at that port. The Mercury says:

"The cocoons are of a beautiful golden color, and the silk is of the finest texture."

Philadelphia Parasol Store,

IF YOU WANT TO BUY A PARASOL,
Don't miss of looking at McLANATHAN'S large and elegant assortment
PHILADELPHIA PARASOLS,
Which are unsurpassed in quality, style and cheapness, and will be sold at the lowest prices.
Remember, 1112 Chestnut and 9 Minor Street PAR, of almost every description, and of the most elegant styles, for sale at the lowest prices.
S. McLANATHAN.

---

400 Washington Street.
The only manufacturers of Coleman's Patent Rotary Sewing Machines.
Attachment No Necessaries.
☞ A large assortment of T. Gilbert & Co's PIANO FORTES, for sale at the lowest prices, at the Warerooms of the subscriber, 400 Washington street, Boston.
Agents wanted in every town in the country.
Also, a large assortment of Sewing Machines of other makers, at reduced prices.
Boston, Aug. 5, 1862. 3m

HARTFORD LIFE INSURANCE CO.,
HARTFORD, CONN.
Incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Connecticut, 1850.
Paid and Property Invested—Dec. 31, 1861 $1,000,000
DIRECTORS.
SAM'L GREGORY, N. Y. | GEO. TYLER, Cottage.
HON. W. W. ELLSWORTH, Conn. | WM. H. BARNUM, Conn.
GEO. M. BOARDMAN, " | ALVAN BURDICK, "
HON. T. H. SEYMOUR, " | JAMES GOODWIN, "
D. F. ROBINSON, Hartford. | JAMES LEES, "
HON. THOS. O. ENDERS, Hartford. | CHAS. M. BEACH, Port'l.
SAML. DARLEY, " |
This long established Company are prepared to issue Policies on all approved risks.
Fire and Inland Navigation Risks,
at such rates as shall be adequate to the security of the insured and of the Company. If their low premiums and prompt adjustments of losses continue to receive the liberal patronage given to the public, all profits will be returned to the insured.
A. J. RICHMOND, Agent. Office No. 18 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell. 1m 31

FIRE INSURANCE.
OFFICE.—NO. 18 APPLETON BLOCK
Home Protection Insurance Company,
HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT.
Capital all paid in and invested as follows, viz:
Loans on Bond and Mortgage, first liens on Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, $1,500,000
Loans on Collaterals, 500,000
Premium Notes, 1,000,000
Cash in Bank, 500,000
Total Assets, $3,500,000
Liberty to increase to $5,000,000
Losses paid since organization of Company in 1851 and 1852, $1,200,000
Losses paid in 1853, 1,000,000
Losses paid in 1854, 1,000,000
Losses paid in 1855, 1,000,000
Losses paid in 1856, 1,000,000
Losses paid in 1857, 1,000,000
Losses paid in 1858, 1,000,000
Losses paid in 1859, 1,000,000
Losses paid in 1860, 1,000,000
Losses paid in 1861, 1,000,000
Losses paid in 1862, 1,000,000
Total Losses paid, $12,000,000
Insures against loss or damage by fire to Lowell and adjacent towns, on favorable terms, and will adjust and pay all losses promptly at this office, without reference to any agency, and without the delay usually attending settlements by Boards of Directors residing abroad.
Dr. Morrill would respectfully announce that he has resumed the practice of his profession, and may be found at his office, No. 18 Appleton Block, where he will be happy to wait upon his former patrons and friends, and all others who may favor him with their calls. He will be especially able to prescribe for all who require the use of Artificial Teeth.
Dr. Morrill has had a practice of over twenty years, and is fully prepared to perform all Surgical Operations, and guarantees a perfect fit in all cases. 1y 31

Does not every Man, Woman and Child have an interest

In knowing the locality of manufactured and imported goods? Of course they have, and we will therefore state that we have just received a large and well selected stock of Fancy Goods, which we intend to sell at such prices as will surprise the purchaser. Spring dress goods will be found in great variety, and at prices to suit the times. Remember the place, 18 Appleton Block, Central street.
Lowell, April 1, 1862. 3m 14 DAVIS & PERRY.

DR. LABELLE'S ROOT 3rd BEER.
Only 25 and 37½ cents a Bottle
For the Prompt, Complete and Speedy Cure, Wild Cherry Bark, Dandelion, Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry Bark, Dandelion, Sarsaparilla, Wild Cherry Bark, Dandelion, Sarsaparilla

PHILLIPS, GODDARD & BOWERS, RAILROAD CONTRACTORS.

Lowell, March 19, 1853.

PATENTS.
ADVICE AND PROCURE OFFICE.

Agency for Business with United States Patent Office.

No. 193 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.

THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING ESTABLISHED AN AGENCY IN NEW YORK, for the purpose of procuring Patents for Inventions in the United States and Foreign Countries, would inform Inventors that they will be prepared to transact all business entrusted to them with fidelity and despatch, on the most reasonable terms. Having had many years' experience in the business, and the principal part of the time as Principal Examiner in the Patent Office, they feel confident that they can render valuable assistance to those who may favor them with their patronage.

Models of the last are sent that they may be sent to the Patent Office in the safest and most expeditious manner.

Drawings and Specifications prepared on the shortest notice, and the utmost care taken to secure to Inventors their just rights.

Communications may be made in the German or French languages.

Reference is made to Hon. Thomas Ewing, Washington, D. C.; Hon. Edward Everett, Boston, Mass.; Hon. Millard Fillmore, Buffalo, N. Y.; Hon. Daniel Webster, Marshfield, Mass.; Hon. Abbott Lawrence, Boston, Mass.; Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, Boston, Mass.; Hon. Nathaniel P. Banks, Jr., Boston, Mass.; Hon. Caleb Cushing, Newburyport, Mass.; Hon. Isaac Davis, Worcester, Mass.; Hon. Marcus Morton, New Bedford, Mass.; Hon. Julius Rockwell, Pittsfield, Mass.; Hon. Charles Allen, Worcester, Mass.; Hon. Emory Washburn, Cambridge, Mass.; Hon. Charles Sumner, Boston, Mass.; Hon. Henry Wilson, Natick, Mass.; Hon. Anson Burlingame, Boston

God. Which of you has not bartered away your [illegible] for [illegible] that the time [illegible] to the [illegible] of [illegible] and [illegible] to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

THE LOWELL

JOB PRINTING

OFFICE,

Corner of Central and Middle streets,

(Journal and Courier Building)

Has the following Standard and all the desirable kinds are improved

FAST PRESSES,

Of the latest improved pattern, from the manufactory of Messrs. Adams & Bro., of Boston, and Phillips, Sampson & Co., of Lowell, together with the largest supply of well-chosen varieties of materials for

JOB TYPE,

Any gentleman desirous of having Printing done in a neat and tasteful manner, at reasonable prices, is respectfully invited to call at this Office.

PRINTING

can be executed in this establishment with as much neatness and despatch as in any other city or town in the country.

LOW PRICES

Will be charged for every description of work, and the terms of payment will be as favorable as can be afforded.

HANDBILLS AND REDUCE POSTERS,

SHOP BILLS, PROGRAMMES,

CATALOGUES,

BILL HEADS, BLANKS,

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

CARDS, TICKET

STRIPS AND FANCY

LABELS,

Of every kind, of good stock of plain, neat and tasteful appearance, executed with dispatch, and at prices to suit the times.

Orders by mail, or otherwise, will receive prompt attention.

J. D. PUTNAM,

Agent.

WEST INDIA GOODS, GROCERIES, FAMILY GROCERIES, COUNTRY PRODUCE, SAIRWAY STORE AND WOODEN WARE, &c., &c.

No. 56 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.

The following articles are offered at the lowest cash prices:

MOLASSES.—The best and most approved brands; Eye and Muscovado Sugars.

TEAS.—Hyson, Syr. Hyson and Imperial.

COFFEE.—Java, Mocha, Rio and Laguayra.

SPICES.—Cassia, Cloves, Pepper, Ginger, Allspice, Cinnamon, Nutmegs, Mace, Saleratus, Pearlash, Cream Tartar, Sal Soda, Starch, Blacking, Indigo, Madder, Copperas, Logwood, Fluid and Dry Chemicals, Extracts, Soaps, Candles, Matches, Brushes, Twine, Wicking, Tobacco, Snuff, Cigars, Pipes, Powder, Shot, Lead, Fishing Tackle, Oysters, Fish, Pickles, Sauces, Preserves, Jellies, Fruits, Nuts, Raisins, Figs, Citron, Currants, Spices, Sugar Cured Hams, Smoked Beef, Lard, Butter and Cheese.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.—Pork, Lard, Beans, Dried Apples, Potatoes, Onions, Corn, Meal, Flour, Feed, Rye, Oats, Barley, Shorts, Middlings, Fine Feed, Cracked Corn, Corn and Oats, Hay, Straw, Wood, Kindling Wood, Charcoal, Coal, Salt, Lime, Cement, Hair, Plaster, Stone Ware, Tubs, Pails, Churns, Brooms, Baskets, Wash Boards, Iron Bound Buckets, Rope, Twine, Clothes Lines, Mats, Oil Cloths, Carpets, Rugs, Mats, Matting, Floor Oil Cloth, Table Oil Cloth, Stair Oil Cloth, Hearth Rugs, Tow Rugs, Hassocks, Bags, Carpet Bags, Valises, Trunks, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, Leather, Shoe Findings, Shoe Pegs, Boot Trees, Lasts, Shoe Thread, Shoe Nails, Shoe Tacks, Shoe Brushes, Blacking, Shoe Knives, Awls, Pincers, Hammers, Lasting Tacks, Boot Jacks, Boot Hooks, Shoe Hooks, Shoe Horns, Shoe Strings, Shoe Ties, Shoe Pegs, Shoe Nails, Shoe Tacks, Shoe Brushes, Blacking, Shoe Knives, Awls, Pincers, Hammers, Lasting Tacks, Boot Jacks, Boot Hooks, Shoe Hooks, Shoe Horns, Shoe Strings, Shoe Ties.

Also, a large assortment of Fancy Goods, Perfumery, Soaps, Combs, Brushes, Pocket Books, Wallets, Purses, Pocket Knives, Scissors, Razors, Razor Straps, Shaving Boxes, Shaving Soap, Shaving Brushes, Shaving Cream, Shaving Paper, Shaving Powder, Shaving Soap, Shaving Brushes, Shaving Cream, Shaving Paper, Shaving Powder.

Also, a large assortment of Fancy Goods, Perfumery, Soaps, Combs, Brushes, Pocket Books, Wallets, Purses, Pocket Knives, Scissors, Razors, Razor Straps, Shaving Boxes the sphere of the social and domestic affections. While [illegible] in the admiration of all his friends, he will be [illegible] by the blind [illegible] of his enemies.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Friday, August 5, 1853.

The Late Convention.

At two o'clock on the morning of Monday last, the Convention of 1853 forever adjourned. The adjournment—the subsequent dispersion—[illegible]—the sanitary influence of the recent copious rains—the finding that the people are all peaceable and happy, every man going forth to his work and to his labor until the evening—these facts have probably restored the great herd of Constitution-[illegible] to their natural senses. And we may well pause to contemplate the diseased infatuation with which they have of late been visited in affliction, and by which they have been controlled.

Blinded; duped; mistaken in their calling; mistaken as to the state of the Commonwealth; mistaken as to the genius and temper of the people; unacquainted with the mission to which they were called; and destitute of the skill, the reason, the judgment to meet their times' chief exigencies—these aspiring politicians blindly thought that, like the Convention-Parliament of England, in 1688, like the States-General of France in 1789, and like the Philadelphia Convention which constructed the Constitution of the American Federation, they were called to correct great abuses, to purge organic corruptions, to preserve from decay nations, and to inspire with new life the body of an expiring Commonwealth!

If this is doubted, let facts be cited to "a candid world." Let the Boston Times verify. That paper has said that if the new Constitution is not accepted by the people, "five years will not have elapsed without seeing a radical Convention in session, one which will not be led into the morasses of political cowardice by the very men who ought to have led differently." The remark is based on the principle (misapplied in the present case) so often reiterated in the speeches of Macaulay—that if good and moderate men will not conduct a preserving reform, bad men will conduct a destroying one. Thus it appears that there is a deep-seated belief that great abuses and corruptions are believed to exist in Massachusetts.

Now it may be that such is the case; but we have never been able to perceive it. One might indeed suppose that in a State like Massachusetts—a State blessed with so much light and liberty, enjoying so full a degree of unbought and unbribed and unintimidated popular representation—where every man is free, fearing God, but fearing nothing else save God, represented in Congress and in the local Legislature, in the fullest and fairest manner; it might be supposed, we say, that in such a State no great grievances could exist for a moment exist. And as a corollary to this we have that other fact, that they (sharp-sighted souls) who now see all these alleged grievances so clearly, had no conception of their existence, but rather denied, with stout vociferation and great power of wind, that they had any existence, until the dazzling scheme of a reform Convention promised plunder to venal and avaricious eyes.

Was it not but as yesterday that the mob-captains and mob-subalterns who now clamor for reform, were as loud as any in asserting that Massachusetts was safe, and that no reforms were needed? How long, since mob-captain Wilson and mob-subaltern Robinson, with nine-tenths of their fellow-quacks, were arrayed with other better men on the side of whiggism and anti-reform? Truly, theirs was a late conversion—a death-bed repentance!

Shall we say, then, that the Convention, though it did father some tolerable measures, and did adopt a minimum of feasible plans, was on the whole based upon delusion, dupery and venality, and was on the whole worse than a [illegible]?

Later from Europe.

The steamer Washington, from Bremen, arrived yesterday morning at New York, with 141 passengers and dates to the 20th ult.

The steamer Niagara also arrived yesterday at Halifax, with dates to the 23d ult.

Great Britain. It was generally reported that Lord Palmerston would again succeed to the Secretaryship of Foreign Affairs, Earl Clarendon exchanging to the Home Department.

Lord John Russell replied to Lord Dudley Stuart, that he doubted if owners of British ships aground in the Danube had any claims upon Russia to keep the navigation open. Mr Layard attempted to bring on a discussion on the subject, but was prevented.

The Earl of Portsmouth is dead.

The Queen and family are sick with the measles.

Since the sailing of the Washington, Parliamentary proceedings have been chiefly of local interest.

Russia and Turkey. The Russian headquarters were at Bucharest.

No doubt is felt that the reception given by the Cabinet of St. Petersburg to the first propositions from the powers, was so favorable as to warrant the expectation that the question in dispute will be settled without further delay.

[illegible]

The Hungarian refugee Costa, had been given up to the French Consul at Smyrna, to await the result of negotiations. The account states that the Austrian and American corvettes had cleared decks for action, when the French and English Consuls interfered and prevented a conflict.

It is said, though scarcely believed by the public, that the Czar had actually accepted the proposal offered by France and England. This news was reported to have considerably improved the funds.

A conspiracy had been discovered among the Imams, to assassinate the Sultan and to proclaim his brother, Abdel Aziz—fifteen were bow-strung. The war party are much incensed against the pacific policy of the ministry.

The statement is confirmed, that the Grand Vizier and Reschid Pasha were dismissed from office on the 9th, on account of personal dissension; but the Sultan, reflecting on the critical condition of affairs, in the face of a change of ministry, reinstated both one night.

[illegible]

General news is scarce.

The steamship Great Britain undertakes to reach Melbourne in 65 days from Liverpool, or forfeit forty shillings per ton, on freight.

France. A rumor is circulated that private intelligence reported that the American Minister at Constantinople had addressed a note to the Porte, announcing that the United States would associate with other forces to support Turkish integrity, and would henceforth claim a voice in the affairs of Europe. But this, we cannot believe. It is stated that the condition of the Empress required the postponement of the contemplated visit to the Pyrenees.

The French press mostly viewed the Eastern difficulties as about over. The Porte had paid the cash to the French treasury for 40,000 Vincennes rifles, and took the opportunity to contradict the report that the Turkish finances were exhausted.

The Moniteur publishes a decree that the prohibition proposed by the ordinance of February 3, 1826, will cease provisionally as to corn and flour, imported from the British possessions in Europe.

There have been 200 arrests through the attempted assassination of the Emperor.

M. Arago is ill; his life is despaired of.

Italy. The exportation of breadstuffs from the Neapolitan dominions, is prohibited.

Guerrazzi's sentence is commuted into perpetual banishment.

A despatch from Milan, dated July 17, states that the Austrian police are on the trail of a projected insurrection in Central Italy.

Austria. A domiciliary visit was made at the house of the London Times correspondent in Vienna, and some arrests of Italians followed the discoveries made there.

Recently a band of Hungarian prisoners, filling seventeen carts, were taken into Pesth. Their crime is unknown.

Spain. Three hundred million reals have been emitted with lower interest, to replace the floating debt.

Germany. The Bavarian government announces that a world's industrial exhibition will be held at Munich next year.

Prussia. The King has issued a proclamation, intended as a protest against recent Papal encroachments.

Northern Africa. In consequence of an apprehended deficiency in the crops throughout the Barbary States, the Bey of Tunis, has forbidden exports of breadstuffs for three months.

India. The mails have arrived in England, but there is nothing more from India than has been already telegraphed.

China. Advices from China of the 18th of May, state that the rebels still hold Nankin, and were awaiting reinforcements to march on Pekin. The rebels had raised the banner of Christianity, translated the Bible and adopted the Protestant form of faith, acknowledged Jesus Christ as their Saviour, the Trinity and Ten Commandments, &c.

Australia. Sydney dates are to the 21st of April. Money affairs were generally prosperous. Imports were wanted and prices ruled high. Gold at Melbourne was cheaper, being quoted at £3 14s. At Victoria and New South Wales it was at £3 17s. 3d. to £3 17s. 6d.

Diversity. The American of yesterday has the bare-faced insolence to style this paper the "rum organ." The News, which is the avowed organ of the temperance men, referring to the article of our correspondent on the liquor trials, says:

"We begin to doubt the entire policy of the whole arrangements entered into by the temperance people of Lowell. They created litigation and excitement only to see themselves defeated and the cause injured—as we candidly believe."

* * * * * *

"Our neighbor of the American, yesterday, commented on the remarks of the correspondent of the Courier, where he said that the opinion of the members of the bar generally was that Pearson's jurisdiction would not be sustained, and that the respect which Judge Wells had for the opinion of Judge Merrick prevented him from at once dismissing all the cases. Now from the general appearance of the matter we don't see but that is a fair view of the case."

Here then is a full and candid avowal on the part of the temperance organ in this city, first, that the version of the proceedings before Judge Wells given by our correspondent, was the true one; and secondly, that the late prosecutions before the self-constituted magistrate, Pearson, were nothing more than a sham and a failure. On reviewing the whole subject, we cannot but deplore that no efficient plan for the complete suppression of intemperance in Lowell, has yet been devised by the friends of that cause.

Washington Items. No appointments has yet been made to Belgium.

Don Calderon de la Barca, the Minister from Spain, left for New York to-day.

Secretary Marcy returns to Washington on Saturday. Secretary McClelland's visit to N. York, it is rumored, is touching an astounding scheme of gigantic frauds, just discovered, and kept a profound secret by the government. He cannot well return before Saturday night.

The Whig Convention at Bladensburgh to-day, nominated Augustus R. Soltera, of Calvert county, for Congress.

Attorney General Cushing has returned.

Senator Mason, of Virginia, who is here, is decided in his expression of opposition to the Pacific Railroad project advanced by the administration, and supported by the Union.—He declares he will never yield his approval.—His colleague, Mr Hunter, takes the same view. This opens an important division in the Democratic party on the question, and already hosts are marshalling.

Mr Burr, of the New York National Democrat, will probably be Consul at Tangiers.

A. O. Seaman, of Connecticut, now Treasury Clerk, will be appointed Superintendent of public printing, vice Towers.

Senator Sumner. Among the speeches made at the recent Plymouth celebration, was an exquisite tribute to the memory of the English Puritans, by Hon. Charles Sumner, which was most enthusiastically applauded. The following is the close:—

Sir, if the honors of this day are not a mockery; if they do not expend themselves in mere selfish gratulation; if they are a sincere homage to the character of the Pilgrims—and I cannot suppose otherwise—then is it well for us to be here. Standing on Plymouth Rock, at their great Anniversary, we cannot fail to be inspired by their example. We see clearly what it has done for the world and what it has done for their fame. No man here to-day will think their self-sacrifice, their deviation from received opinions, their unquenchable thirst for liberty, an error or illusion. Conformity might, perhaps, have purchased for them a profitable peace, but no peace of mind; it might have secured place and power, but not repose; it might have opened a present shelter, but not a home in history and in men's hearts till time shall be no more. All will confess the true grandeur of their example, while, in vindication of a cherished principle, they stood alone, against the madness of men, against the law of the land, against their king. Better to be the despised Pilgrim, a fugitive for Freedom, than the halting politician, forgetful of principle "with a Senate at his heels." [Enthusiastic applause.]

Such, sir, is the voice from Plymouth Rock, as it salutes my ears. Others may not hear it. But to me it comes in tones which I cannot mistake. I catch its words of noble cheer:—

[illegible]

A Beautiful Sentiment. In the letter of Hon. Robert C. Winthrop to the Committee of Arrangements for the Pilgrim Celebration at Plymouth, we find the following [illegible]

"Rarely, indeed, has there been a moment in our history, when it was more important than at this moment, that the American people should remember not merely the rock on which the Pilgrims landed, but the Book in which they trusted, and should cherish and hold fast to the principles which fitted them to become the Fathers and Founders of a great country.—We are rushing along in the path of national development and extension with a velocity, of which the rapids at this moment in my view, hardly furnish an exaggerated emblem; and there is too much cause for apprehension that the roar of the current, and its sparkling spray, and its many-colored mist, may deafen, and dazzle, and blind us to the dangers which always beset an impulsive and precipitate career. It will be well if we do not forget that the only safe and sure progress is The Pilgrim's Progress, a progress begun, continued and ended in the fear of God, in respect for government, in the love of freedom, and in justice to all mankind."

CITY MATTERS.

☞ The Wamesit Engine Company, No. 8, left this morning at five o'clock, by a special train, for Providence. They were accompanied by the Lowell Brass Band, and made a fine appearance.

Election. At a meeting of the Watson Light Guard, on Wednesday evening, Colonel Butler presiding, A. H. Pulcifer was elected 2nd Lieutenant, vice B. W. Frost, resigned, and A. L. Blood, 3d Lieutenant, vice Pulcifer, promoted.

☞ The commissioned officers of the Fifth Regiment, meet at the American House in this city, on Thursday, the 11th inst., to elect a Major. We trust they will not find it so difficult to make a choice, as they did at the last election of a Colonel. In the afternoon of the same day, there will be a battalion drill.

Military. The Fitchburg Fusileers will visit this city on Friday next, Aug. 12, accompanied by the Fitchburg Cornet Band, and will be received here by the Mechanic Phalanx. A Levee will be given them on Friday evening.

☞ Yesterday afternoon a couple of the canine species fought so noisily in the street opposite this office, that our senior devil expressed his conviction that an adjourned meeting of the late Constitutional Convention was being held there.

☞ There are no exhibitions in magic at the Diorama in Jackson Hall, as stated yesterday. The diorama, ventriloquism and dioptric experiments, supply an amount of entertainment rarely to be had. The success of this Diorama has been so great that it is contemplated to continue it on exhibition some days longer.

☞ Merrill & Straw have received Harpers' Magazine for August, which contains Bleak House, Abbott's sketches of Napoleon, and a large amount of interesting matter.

Appleton's Mechanics' Magazine. The August number of this valuable magazine, is for sale by J. P. Walker. Every mechanic should subscribe for this work.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

Railroad Accident. Another accident occurred on the Boston & Lowell road last night, which fortunately escaped being a very serious one. As the express train, which leaves this city about 6 o'clock P. M., was near the Wilmington station, it somehow ran off the track, doing much injury to the train. The engine run about thirty rods on the sleepers, doing smashing work both to the stone sleepers and the engine, the running part of which was almost entirely destroyed. The first baggage car was nearly a total wreck, and the running part of the first passenger car which left the track, was completely broken up and the car turned up on one side; fortunately no one was seriously injured, although danger was imminent.—The train due here at 7 1-2 o'clock was detained in consequence till near 10.

Stabbed in the Street. Last evening, says the Boston Transcript of yesterday, a fellow named Cornelius Shines assaulted Dennis Cary in Summer street, near Winthrop place, and on Mr Cary's defending himself, drew a knife and stabbed him twice in the left side. Mr Cary was considerably hurt, the blood running freely and hardly able to walk. He was carried to several doctors, who declined having anything to do with him, says the Atlas, and finally, nearly exhausted, was left with Dr. Whitney, corner of High and Federal streets, who dressed his wounds. He is about 35 years of age, and resides at No. 3 South st. place. Shines was arrested by officer Dodge, and committed for examination on Tuesday next.

Melancholy Casualty. As the passenger train on the Manchester & Lawrence road, was entering the depot at Manchester, Wednesday evening, a young man named Cutting, of Concord, N. H., was so much injured by falling from a car that he died in about half an hour. This accident occurred by the unfortunate victim's jumping on one of the cars while in motion, and being knocked off by a stone post.

Accident on the Rutland and Burlington Railroad. A few miles out of Rutland, the rear part of a wagon in which were seated two persons, stood upon the track at a crossing, as the train came along. An effort was made to urge the horse to go along, but in vain. The locomotive struck the wagon not far from the centre, literally cutting it in two, and doing no other damage whatever! It was a narrow and most fortunate escape for the persons in the wagon.

☞ Twenty eight packages of liquor, mostly full barrels, arrived at the railroad depot at Cheshire last week, and two liquor dealers in the town have since been arrested, and fined, and their liquor destroyed. Molly Burns, another dealer in the article, has also been arrested, and five barrels of the ardent, which she had stowed away in a swamp, have been found, and probably destroyed.

Railroad Accident. The Lockport, N. Y. Courier says that the express train which left that depot on the morning of the 1st inst. ran over a cow near Pekin, which threw off the track the engine, two baggage cars, smashing in one end of a passenger car, and seriously but not fatally injuring two firemen, and bruising several of the passengers.

The cow was feeding along side of the track, and just before the train reached her she jumped before it in such a manner as to partially avoid the "cow-catcher," and was drawn under the cars.

☞ Hon. Wm. H. Seward of New York, has been selected as the orator before the Phi Beta Kappa Society of Yale College, for 1854, and James Lowell, poet.

☞ The American speaks as though somebody had "abused Justice Pearson." Hereafter the cry will be, not, Who struck Billy Patterson, as heretofore, but, Who "abused Justice Pearson."

☞ The brig Isaac Carver, from Cardenas for Boston, was struck by lightning at sea, [illegible] killed.

☞ Elijah Porter, aged 75 years, [illegible] supposed from a disease of the heart, at Springfield, on Monday evening.

"We have received a copy of the new or amended Constitution, as completed by the Constitutional Convention which has just adjourned."

The above is from a neighbor. We have received no copy of the new Constitution, nor indeed anything else from the illiberal "Reform" Convention which has just ended so ignominiously.

"We know if the fellow had any knowledge of authors he certainly must be acquainted with the New Testament and Shakspeare, and would take us up."

It is clear from the above that the class of windbags who tell all they know and more than they know, is not quite extinct. For ourselves, we have always indulged in the belief that there are many things of a character supremely ridiculous, which one may only laugh at in his sleeve.

☞ The Advertiser of to-day retracts its mis-statement of yesterday, that the Court has sustained the course of the late spiritual magistrate, Pearson, or Pearsons, or Peterson.

Poisoned. A boy, eight or nine years of age, by the name of Hawthorne, whose parents live in Pleasant street, was badly poisoned at Haggett's Pond, on Wednesday, from eating berries of the dog-wood shrub. He was with the pic-nic excursion, and when discovered was lying, nearly insensible, in the road. Prompt application of remedies saved his life.

Who on earth could they be? The News says:—"Two rather suspicious, 'long, low black schooner' looking politicians, paraded Central and Merrimack streets yesterday.—What's in the wind nobody knows. They would make people believe that something was brewing." Surmises are entertained by our junior devil that the out-scouts in question were Fisher A. Hildreth and Paul R. George. Confirmation of this surmise is anxiously anticipated by the next European steamer. Don't be impatient.

☞ The Governor of Arkansas has appointed Robert W. Johnson as United States Senator, in place of Hon. Solon Borland, who was appointed by the President Minister to Central America. Mr Johnson was a member of the present House of Representatives, and is a State Rights Democrat.

Chinese. We should scarcely have believed six years ago, what is now known to be true, that legislative enactments in our language would be rendered into Chinese. But we learn that the ninth section of an act passed by the California legislature for the collection of the foreign miners' tax, has been printed in the Chinese language, for the information of more than thirty thousand Chinese in the new State. Tong'k Achich, a Chinaman, certifies that the translation is "faithful and good."

Atlantic and St. Lawrence Railroad.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of this road was held at Portland yesterday. The construction account of the road to June 30th last, was $6,150,277 72, against which the assets of the company were $6,354,899 52, thus leaving a balance of $205,621 80, which is duly accounted for. The net income to July 1, 1853, including a surplus of $298,697 67 on hand at the date of the last annual report, was $407,218 06.

☞ Two negroes of Powhatan, near Richmond, recently undertook to drown a dog; in doing which they themselves were drowned, while the brute safely reached home—the sole survivor of the trio.

The Whig Ticket for the Presidency.—The Whigs, says the N. O. Delta, have hit upon a good ticket for the next Presidency—almost too good to be elected. It embraces almost the only two men, of commanding talents, who still linger upon the political arena. They are Edward Everett and William. C. Rives.—Neither party can present two gentlemen of equal learning, accomplishments and ability, with those two eminent politicians.

True Glory. The late Dr. Sharp of Boston, once said he would rather have the fame of being the helper of the needy and the friend of the widow, than to have erected over it the most beautiful sculptured monument of Parian or Italian marble. The heart's broken utterances of reflections of past kindness, and the tears of grateful memory shed upon the grave, were more valuable, in his estimation, than the most costly cenotaph ever reared.

New and Important Railroad. The Cleveland and St. Louis air-line Railroad Company has been organized. The road is intended to be as near straight as possible. Seventy miles of it, on one stretch, will be perfectly straight, and the whole distance will be only 375 miles. The company is to have a capital of ten millions of dollars. Already eight millions have been raised in New England, and the road, if such is the case, is sure to be a fixed fact within a short time. It is intended to make this the important eastern extension of the great road from St. Louis to the Pacific.

Model School. We have laid on our table a neat pamphlet of eleven pages, being the Circular of the "Genesee Model School for Boys."—This Institution, so far as we can judge, is one well worthy of patronage, being designed for the development of the physical, intellectual and moral faculties. It has a large number of instructors, who are represented as every way competent for such an enterprise.

In the department of physical education, we notice the name of Dr. A. B. Snow, late of Boston, now Professor of Anatomy and Physiology in Genesee College. It is located in Lima, N. Y. Among the list for reference in various parts of the country, we notice the name of Dr. Holt of this city.

☞ The Washington Republic announces that Mr Buchanan positively sails for Liverpool on Saturday next, and Mr Sickles hopes to get off with him, although it is not certain he will do so.

☞ A girl of some ten years, residing in Norfolk, Va., was recently taken sick, and apparently died. The body was afterwards enclosed in a shroud, and preparations for the funeral were making, when she revived on the morning of the day on which she was to have been buried, and alarmed the household with her cries. She is now doing well.

☞ Two Chinese merchants in San Francisco lately purchased the ship Hamilton, for the purpose of freighting her with rice for Japan.

☞ By a freshet in Orange County, N. Y., much damage has lately been done to the crops and buildings.

Brutal Conduct.—Last night, two men drove furiously along Water street, in a carriage, and ran over the daughter of Mr John Spoirs, seriously injuring her. [illegible] [Worcester Spy, 4th.

A Mathematician [illegible] stely."

Frauds in Trade. On this grievance the Newburyport Herald thus discourses:—"The extent to which articles of food and medicinal substances are adulterated would equally alarm and astonish the consumers, could the truth be suddenly and convincingly revealed to them.—Should the genuine portions only, of many articles for which people pay, and really suppose they are buying, leave the measure or scale, and the foreign substances, instinct for once with intelligence and honesty, cling to the guage of the trader, how many parcels would be curiously diminished, pounds shrink to ounces, and quarts to gills. But the diminution in bulk, would not be the most important consideration in the change; in almost every instance this would be a decided advantage; but the great difference would be the alteration in the nature of the article.

The inspector of drugs in New York, a few weeks since condemned an immense quantity of damaged Peruvian bark, which it was attempted to pass through the Custom House, and which would, if not thus detected, have been used in practice. It cannot be doubted that many cases of disease which have baffled physicians, and proved fatal to the patients, might be attributed to the admixture of foreign articles in the medicines used, which the physician never dreamed of ordering when he wrote his prescription. And to this cause too, may be traced the fact, that articles of the materia medica, which were once esteemed powerful theraputic agents, and really had the efficacy ascribed to them, have fallen into disuse, or fail of their wonted effect. For first experiments, either with medicinal agents or food, are always made with the pure article, and it is not till they become of importance in commerce, that adulterations are effected, which frequently changes their character, and consequently their effect upon the human system.

But the use of drugs is mainly incidental, and though an immense amount of injury must be calculated on from their systematic adulteration the subject is still more important when considered in connection with articles of daily use. We find that recent investigations of cream of tartar, an article which enter more or less, as an ingredient in food prepared for almost every meal, on examination, showed from forty-three to sixty-two per cent. of foreign matter, in each of the six specimens analyzed; and we have every reason to suppose that this substance is not more subject to adulteration than many others as universally employed. We have detected white turnip in bottled horse radish, and if nothing worse than peas or beans are substituted for the coffee berry, the consumer may console himself with the reflection, that his morning beverage is not particularly injurious, though unnecessarily expensive.

The proof is strong, that when once an originally expensive article comes into common use, the greatest variety of means are used, to increase the profits of its sale, by mixing it with some similar but cheaper product. Tea has been constantly subject to this process; and worse still, to chemical appliances, for the purpose of coloring, which are absolutely poisonous; which is sufficient to account for the nervous irritation which many persons find from its use; while our immediate ancestors could drink it three times a day, without ever being made aware that they had nerves. Probably very little of the odium attaching to this systematic adulteration of food, should be placed to the account of retail dealers; it is generally effected on a large scale, and in first hands; but retailers cannot be ignorant of the degree of impurity which exists.

We should like to see the experiment tried of selling only pure articles—absolutely pure.—We are aware the apparent cost to the purchaser must be considerably increased, but for all edible substances, or those used in the preparation of food, we think there are many people in this city, who value health and honesty enough to pay for it. Only let people be certain that they can procure unmixed and in the best possible condition, articles on which health and sometimes life depends, by paying a good price for it, and none but the falsely economical, would purchase elsewhere. Who will try the experiment? Let the fact be once established, that there is a store where pure articles, and only pure, can be procured and we believe such a dealer might soon have the best run of trade known.

LATEST DATES.

From Liverpool.......July 23 | Havre............July 17
From London..........July 23 | San Francisco....June 30

Sales at Boston Stock and Exchange Board. Aug. 4, 1853.

[illegible]

Mail Arrangements. [illegible]

T. P. GOODHUE, P. M.

Cars Leave Lowell. [illegible]

Pay Days on the Corporations. [illegible]

No Family should be without them. We speak of McLane's Liver Pills, which have become an indispensable Family Medicine. [illegible]

A. W. PERKINS, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Confectionery and Cake, 37 Central street, Lowell, Mass. [illegible]

A. W. LEONARD, Dealer in Confectionery and Cake, No. 130 Merrimack street. (A. S. French's Old Stand.) [illegible]

HARTFORD LIFE INSURANCE CO., HARTFORD, CONN.

Persons wishing to effect insurance on their lives would do well to examine the low rates offered by the Hartford Life Insurance Company, a sound and reliable institution, before insuring elsewhere. [illegible] A. JAS. RICHMOND, Agent. JOHN SPALDING, Medical Examiner. SAM'L HAWLEY, Sec'y.

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK. Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1852. Capital $150,000. [illegible] Directors. [illegible] GEO. FISHER, Pres't.

This long established Company are prepared to take every species of Fire and Inland Navigation Risks, at such rates as shall be adequate to the security of the insured and of the Company. [illegible] A. JAS. RICHMOND, Agent. Office No. 18 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell.

FIRE INSURANCE. OFFICE,—NO. 18 APPLETON BLOCK. Ætna Protection and Hartford Insurance Companies, HARTFORD, CONN.

AGGREGATE capital paid in and invested according to law $750,000. Liberty to increase to 1,500,000. Ætna Capital, 300,000. Protection Capital, 300,000. Hartford Capital, 150,000.

No assessment in any case. Insure against loss or damage by fire in Lowell and adjacent towns, on all kinds of insurable property at as low rates as any good responsible offices, with a specific capital to an amount not exceeding $20,000 on any one risk in the three offices. [illegible] A. JAS. RICHMOND, Agent. Office No. 18 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell. April 26, 1850.

STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO., OF WORCESTER—Incorporated 1845. Capital, $100,000. JOHN DAVIS, Pres. | CLARENDON HARRIS, Sec. [illegible] WM. P. WEBSTER, Agent, Office in Wyman's Exchange.

☞ CALIFORNIA RISKS taken by the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, on the most favorable terms. S. W. STICKNEY, Agent. Jan. 21, 1853.

400 Washington Street. The only manufacturers of Coleman's Patent Æolian Attachment for Massachusetts.

☞ A large assortment of T. Gilbert & Co.'s PIANO FORTES, with or without the Æolian Attachment, always on hand—for sale on the same terms and prices as at the manufactory in Boston, and warranted to give entire satisfaction, or the money will be refunded. [illegible] GEO. HEDRICK, 30 Central st., Lowell, Agent for T. Gilbert & Co., Boston.

N. B. T. GILBERT is, with a single exception, the oldest Piano Forte maker in Boston, having been in the business for nearly thirty years, and having every facility for doing the work in the best manner—and no better instruments for sweetness, richness of tone and durability of any pattern, can be found in this country, than are made by T. Gilbert & Co. ☞ Second hand Church Organs for sale.

Philadelphia Parasol Store,

IF YOU WANT TO BUY A PARASOL, Don't miss of looking at McLANATHAN'S large and splendid stock of latest PHILADELPHIA FASHIONS, [illegible] S. McLANATHAN.

A CARD TO THE LADIES OF LOWELL AND VICINITY. MRS WINSLOW, an experienced Nurse and FEMALE PHYSICIAN, has a Soothing Syrup, for CHILDREN TEETHING. [illegible]

DR. LANGLEY'S ROOT AND HERB BITTERS. THE GREAT REMEDY. Only 25 and 37 1-2 cents a Bottle. [illegible]

Does not every Man, Woman and Child have an interest [illegible]

IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC CIGARS. G. W. STEWARD, at No. 31 Central st., [illegible]

CIGARS. [illegible]

STILL ANOTHER LETTER from the Rev. Vernon Eskridge, U. S. N. [illegible] VERNON ESKRIDGE, Chaplain U. S. Navy. Agents for Lowell: J. C. AYER & CO., S. KIDDER, Jr., E. A. STANIEL, CARLETON & HOVEY, C. S. EASTMAN & Co.

MRS POSTER'S CORDIAL is a Cholera preventive and effectual cure for all Bowel Complaints, consequently removes pain at once. For sale in Lowell by J. C. AYER & CO. and CARLETON & HOVEY. Agents for Boston, REDDING & CO., 8 State street.

LADIES, TRY IT! If you wish to find an article peculiarly adapted for dressing the Hair, removing Dandruff, &c., use the EXCELSIOR HAIR TONIC. Prepared by LOMBARD & CONDALL, and sold by Druggists and Fancy Dealers generally in the United States and Canadas.

MARRIAGES.

In this city, Aug. 4, by Rev. Mr Eddy, Enoch F. Knox to Lydia M. Knox, both of Lawrence.

In Centralville in this city, Aug. 3, by Rev. Moses Howe of New Bedford, Moses G. Howe, Esq., of this city, of the firm of Beard & Howe, Counsellors and Attorneys at Law, to Miss Lydia W. Varnum, daughter of the late Hon. Benjamin F. Varnum.

"NEWELL'S" AROMATIC BURNING FLUID.

THE Inventors, after much experience, have now perfected their invention of a New Burning Fluid, which, under the name of AROMATIC FLUID, they are prepared to supply in any quantity. [illegible] FAR LESS INFLAMMABLE THAN ANY OTHER KNOWN BURNING FLUID! [illegible] 55 Cents per Gallon at Retail! BROWN & MERRIAM have the exclusive agency for "Newell's Aromatic Burning Fluid" for Lowell, and invite every body to give it a trial. Also, Newell's SAFETY LAMPS and CANS, at 45 Merrimack and 8 John st.

LAND FOR SALE. LOTS 3, 4, 5, 27, 37, 40, 41, according to the Plan exhibited at the sale of Samuel Lawrence's Land, May, 1846. [illegible] AMOS A. LAWRENCE, 17 Milk st., Boston.

FARM FOR SALE. The Farm in North Tewksbury, containing 35 acres, formerly occupied by Jefferson Farmer. [illegible] Aug. 5, 1853.

A VERY NORTHERN TOURIST should secure a copy of the New Guide to White Mountains, Montreal, &c. Just published, and for sale by JAS. P. WALKER, 61 Merrimack st.

DR. BLAKE'S AROMATIC BITTERS is the only effectual remedy for curing Dyspepsia, diseases of the Liver, Fever and Ague, and all bilious complaints. [illegible] C. S. EASTMAN & CO., Apothecaries, Wyman's Exchange.

SUPERIOR SHOULDER BRACES. LADIES and Gentlemen wishing to obtain Shoulder Braces are respectfully invited to call and examine the ELASTIC SHOULDER BRACE, manufactured by Marsh & Co., New York. [illegible] EASTMAN & CO., Druggists, Wyman's Exchange, Lowell, Mass.

HOLDEN'S DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA CORDIAL is the safest and surest remedy for all Summer Complaints, seldom failing to effect a cure within a few hours. Sole agents for Lowell, C. S. EASTMAN & CO., Apothecaries, Wyman's Exchange.

DR. MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING BECOME AGENT FOR THIS INVALUABLE MEDICINE, [illegible] FEMALES. [illegible] Female Complaints, [illegible] J. B. MARCHISI & CO., Proprietors, CENTRAL DEPOT, 304 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

PREMIUM FLOUR FROM NEW WHEAT. 50 [illegible] SAML. N. WOOD.

OIL AND RICE MEAL. 10 [illegible] SAML. N. WOOD, Market st.

A DIRECT FROM THE SHAKERS. [illegible] J. C. AYER & CO.

PUTNAM'S & HARPER'S MAGAZINES, for August. J. P. WALKER, 61 Merrimack st.

TO BUILDERS. [illegible]

THE [illegible]

R. A. MILLER, DAGUERREAN ARTIST, NO. 19 CENTRAL STREET, (Next door to "Vox Populi" Office.)

R. A. MILLER has removed from Canal Block to a suite of Rooms at 19 Central street, where he has fitted up a saloon superior to any in the city. He has also added an improved skylight to better facilitate the mode of obtaining a natural Picture, which every Artist cannot do.

DAGUERREOTYPES TAKEN IN ALL THE VARIOUS STYLES; Crayons, Illuminated, MAGIC BACKGROUNDS, &c.

DAGUERREOTYPES Copied and Magnified TO ANY SIZE DESIRED.

Old infirm, sick and deceased persons, taken at their residences.

☞ The public are invited to call and examine specimens, as I have some of the LARGEST AND BEST DAGUERREOTYPES IN THE CITY.

REMEMBER! MILLER has not the least connection whatever with the rooms at Canal Block, as he has removed to (next door to "Vox" Office,) 19 CENTRAL STREET. Lowell, July, 1853.

PERRY'S HUNGARIAN BALM. FOR PRESERVING AND BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR. FOR giving to the Hair a soft and glossy appearance, removing Scurf and Dandruff, destroying Hair Eaters, curing Headache, and all diseases of the Scalp, this preparation is unequalled by any other in the world. PRICE 25 CENTS. None genuine without the signature of J. A. PERRY, sole proprietor. [illegible]

JUST RECEIVED, DIRECTLY from the manufacturers in Liverpool, several packages of ROCKINGHAM WARE, [illegible] Largest and Best Assorted [illegible] Toughest and most Durable [illegible] BROWN & MERRIAM'S, Needham's New Block, 45 Merrimack and 8 John st.

SELLING OFF, AT BROWN & MERRIAM'S, TO make room for a large invoice of IRON STONE CHINA, C. C. Deep, and Pearl White TEA, DINNER AND TOILET WARE of various descriptions, imported by ourselves, directly from the MANUFACTURERS IN ENGLAND.  These goods will arrive in a few weeks. Meanwhile we will sell from our PRESENT LARGE STOCK, so low, as to make it to the ADVANTAGE OF EVERY BODY to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. BROWN & MERRIAM, NESMITH'S NEW BLOCK, 45 Merrimack and 8 John st.

A. H. FLANDERS, M. D., HOMŒOPATHIST AND SURGEON, ROOMS, 23 HURD STREET. Successor to D. Holt, M. D.

TRUSSES.—We have just received another lot of BRASS SPRING TRUSSES, which are especially recommended to laboring men, as they will not rust by perspiration and [illegible] CARLETON & HOVEY.

BACON'S SHOULDER BRACE. A SUPERIOR article for those who have a narrow or contracted chests, and are inclined to stoop. For sale by EDWARD BUSH, corner Central and Merrimack streets, under the church.

LIFE AND FIRE INSURANCE. CHARTER OAK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN. $300,000 CAPITAL. [illegible] S. McINTIRE, Secty and Agent. July 26, 1853.

FOR THE TOILET. WE have received a new article for the toilet—RIMMEL'S TOILET VINEGAR, [illegible] CARLETON & HOVEY, Apothecaries, City Hall.

[illegible]

AMUSEMENTS.

AT JACKSON HALL, Lowell. For FIVE NIGHTS—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Aug. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5th, 1853, the magnificent and Original Diorama of the BURNING OF MOSCOW! BEAUTIFUL DIOPTRIC PAINTINGS, and amusing scenes in VENTRILOQUISM, by Mr GALLAGHER.

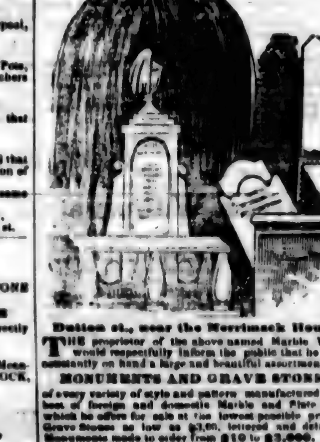
N. B. This is not Maclnel's Diorama—for that was destroyed 15 years ago—nor is it the MONSTER that was exhibited here a short time since, but it is the LARGEST, OLDEST and MOST PERFECT Diorama, and has been exhibited and highly commended in all the principal cities in the Union.

Tickets 12½ cents—Doors open at 7, to commence at 8 o'clock.

LOWELL ISLAND. The Hotel is now open under the charge of Mr GILMAN. The Steamer ARGO will perform regular trips, Leaving Lowell Island for Phillips's Wharf at 6.15, 7.30, 9.45 A. M., 2, 5.15, *6.30 P. M. Phillips' Wharf for Lowell Island at 7, 8.30, 10.15 A. M., 12.30, *3.30, 5.45, 7.30 P. M. * Via Beverly on Wednesday, and via Marblehead on Saturday. Through tickets from Lowell to Lowell Island and back (including Railroad and Steamboat fares) are sold at One Dollar each, at Ticket Office of Salem and Lowell Railroad Company. [illegible]

Massapoag Forest House, DUNSTABLE MINERAL SPRINGS. The above House having been refitted and furnished, is now open for the reception of visitors. The house is pleasantly located, and arrangements are made to provide boarders and visitors with every needed convenience and facility for availing themselves of the beneficial effects of the Spring Water. The Bathing House, Bowling Alleys, &c., are in good order, and a large and safe Boat is always in readiness for excursions on the Pond. [illegible] J. BROWN. Dunstable, Mass., June, 1853.

LOWELL MARBLE WORKS,

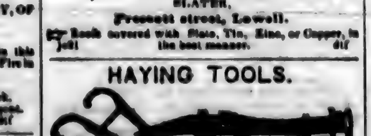


Dutton st., near the Merrimack House. THE proprietor of the above named Marble Works would respectfully inform the public that he keeps constantly on hand a large and beautiful assortment of MONUMENTS AND GRAVE STONES of every variety of style and pattern manufactured of the best of foreign and domestic Marble and Slate Stone, which he offers for sale at the lowest possible prices—Grave Stones as low as $1.00; Monuments delivered. Monuments made to order from $10 to $3,000. Also, Italian and Egyptian Marble Chimney Pieces, Counter and Table Tops manufactured at short notice, and on reasonable terms, together with IRON FENCE AND GRANITE POSTS, for enclosing Burial Lots in the Cemetery and elsewhere. [illegible] DAVID NICHOLS. Lowell, May 26, 1853.

ABIJAH CUTTER, DEALER IN DOUBLE AND SINGLE SHOT GUNS AND PISTOLS. Also—Sporting Apparatus and Fishing Tackle of every description. Powder, Shot, Percussion Caps, &c., &c. FISHING RODS made to order. KEYS of all kinds made to order and LOCKS repaired. No. 22 MIDDLE STREET, Third door west of the Post Office, LOWELL, MASS.

F. M. MAGUIRE, SLATER, Prescott street, Lowell. [illegible]

HAYING TOOLS.



INDEPENDENT HORSE RAKES, [illegible]

LIGHTNING RODS. [illegible] FREDERICK PARKER, Agent for Lowell and vicinity. Lowell, June 17, 1853.

E. W. SCOTT, DRAUGHTSMAN, PATTERN AND MODEL MAKER. Middle st., opposite Post Office, Lowell. [illegible]

[illegible]

THE SEVENTH EXHIBITION FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF AMERICAN MANUFACTURES AND THE MECHANIC ARTS, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE MASS. CHARITABLE MECHANIC ASSOCIATION, WILL BE OPENED AT FANEUIL AND QUINCY HALLS, IN THE CITY OF BOSTON, ON WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, AND CLOSED ON SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 1, 1853.

The Managers respectfully invite and solicit the Mechanics, Manufacturers, Artists, and Inventors of our country to offer for Exhibition and Premium all Works of Art calculated to promote the interests of mankind.

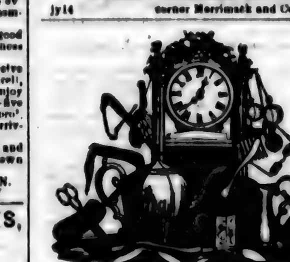
MEDALS (of Gold, Silver and Bronze,) and Honorary Diplomas, will be awarded as premiums, and the Managers pledge themselves that the strictest impartiality shall be observed in their distribution.

Articles for Premium should be sent in season to be registered by the Receiving Clerks, at the Halls, on or before September 11, 1853.

Persons wishing for more particular information previous to the 11th September, or for copies of the Circular containing the precise Rules and Regulations of the Exhibition, will please address the Secretary of the Association, (post paid,) at Boston.

By order of the Managers. FRED. H. STIMPSON, Secretary. Boston, June 4, 1853.

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE. Having enlarged and improved our Store, we have made large additions to our former stock, and are now prepared to offer to the public a complete assortment of DRUGS, CHEMICALS AND MEDICINES, fresh from the importers, warranted PURE and of the first quality. Our business arrangements are now such that one of the Proprietors will be in constant attendance to dispense PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS, or serve customers to whatever they may want, with accuracy, neatness and despatch. We have also a good assortment of FANCY GOODS, TOILET ARTICLES, and PERFUMERY, which we will sell very cheap, in order to make room for a large invoice which we expect to receive in a few weeks. We are agents for all the popular PATENT MEDICINES of the day. C. S. EASTMAN & CO., Apothecaries, WYMAN'S EXCHANGE, LOWELL, corner Merrimack and Central sts.



JEWELRY, WATCHES, &c., &c.

AMOS SANBORN, POST OFFICE CORNER, Has the Largest and Best Selected Stock of WATCHES, JEWELRY —AND— SILVER WARE, IN LOWELL.

AND people in town and strangers visiting Lowell, may depend on my Goods proving as good as they are recommended when sold.

WATCHES. I am importing, so as to save one or more profits, so that I can sell VERY CHEAP. They are of the BEST QUALITY, —AND— Warranted Time-Keepers.

I have now completed arrangements for getting my Goods, such as I do not manufacture, at the manufacturers' prices, so that I can sell as cheap as can be bought in Boston or New York.

☞ One and all are invited to call and examine my Stock, before they purchase elsewhere, as they will find it for their interest. AMOS SANBORN. Lowell, July 9, 1853.

FOR SALE, One new Boston built CARRYALL, a superior article. Also, a very fine FAMILY HORSE, [illegible] JOHN CHAMBERLIN, Jr. Lowell, June 15, 1853.

MONEY TO LOAN. TO LOAN by the subscriber, in sums from $00 to [illegible] Dollars, upon all kinds of Personal Property or good collateral security, at the corner of Central and Jackson sts., over Ayer & Co.'s Apothecary Store. JOHN CHAMBERLIN, Jr.

A BEAUTIFUL COTTAGE RESIDENCE FOR SALE. [illegible] ABIEL ROLFE. Lowell, 10th May, 1853.

UNDER GARMENTS. [illegible] WM. P. BRAZER'S, 47 Central, corner of Market st.

IMPROVED ABDOMINAL SUPPORTERS. A NEW ARTICLE, [illegible] J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries, corner Central and Jackson sts.

FLOUR! FLOUR!! [illegible] J. D. PUTNAM, 30 Central st. Lowell, May 9, 1853.

CALIFORNIA NOTICE. LADIES or Gentlemen having California Gold, can have the same made into Rings and Pins at SANBORN'S Spoon Manufactory and Jewelry Store, Post Office Corner.

FOREIGN SILVER COIN WANTED. YOU can with your foreign quarters and sixpences, [illegible] A. WHITNEY, Museum Building.

YOUNG BLACK HAWK. This well known and beautiful Stud Horse will be kept at the Washington House Stables through the season. [illegible] Lowell, May 11, 1853.

BRAITHWAITE'S RETROSPECT of Practical Medicine and Surgery, Part 27, just received and for sale by WATSON & SARGEANT, 103 Merrimack st.

WHITE'S PERSIAN COSMETIC, for the Complexion, removing Freckles, Tan, Pimples, [illegible] KIDDER, Jr., only agent for Lowell, corner Merrimack and John sts.

RYE AND MAIZE FLOUR. [illegible] J. PEARSON'S, next door to J. Rogers' Bakery, [illegible]

AMBROSIAL MEAD—A cheap, pleasant and healthy beverage [illegible] A. WHITNEY, Museum Building.

Great Fire in Rockland, Me. OVER 20 BUILDINGS DESTROYED. JOHN E. WILDER'S SAFES Still Triumphant!

AT the great Fire in Rockland, on the 23d of May, 1853, when more than thirty buildings were destroyed, seven of my Safes were subjected to an intense heat for many hours, and all, without one exception, preserved their contents, as may be seen by the following letters:

ROCKLAND, May 26, 1853.

Mr John E. Wilder: Dear Sir—It affords me much pleasure to inform you that my books, valuable papers, and several hundred dollars in bank bills, also valuable papers and packages belonging to Carr's Bangor Express, were deposited in two of your Improved Safes, which were exposed to a great degree of heat for more than five hours, in my store, at the late fire in this town, on the morning of the 23d inst, and when opened, were found in a perfect state of preservation. The Safes are still as good as new, and I would not exchange them for any other Safes in existence. Respectfully yours, J. F. WISE.

ROCKLAND, May 26, 1853.

Mr John E. Wilder: Dear Sir—The Safe we had, of your make, was exposed to a great heat during the late fire in this village, May 23d, 1853. The books, papers, &c., it contained, were, with the exception of the book covers, in a perfect state of preservation, though the Safe was exposed to the fire several hours. The damage to the Safe is by us considered trifling. Yours truly, STARR & BLOOD.

To J. E. Wilder, Esq., Boston. ROCKLAND, June 1, 1853.

John E. Wilder: Dear Sir—With pleasure we are able to inform you, that in the recent fire at this place, the Safe purchased of you, containing our books and papers, was found on opening to be in a perfect state of preservation, although exposed to a great degree of heat. Respectfully yours, E. W. SAWYER & CO.

ROCKLAND, June 8, 1853.

Mr John E. Wilder: Dear Sir—The Improved Safe I purchased of you about a year since, has been tested by exposure to intense heat in the (late) fire of 23d ult. On opening I found my books and valuable papers uninjured, and it has answered my expectations. Yours truly, E. W. LOTHROP.

ROCKLAND, June 9, 1853.

John E. Wilder, Esq.: Dear Sir—The Safe I purchased of your manufacturer, was exposed to a great degree of heat for several hours, at the great fire on the 23d of May. The books and papers were uninjured and the Safe was but very little damaged. Respectfully, M. E. THURLOW.

ROCKLAND, June 8, 1853.

John E. Wilder, Esq.: Dear Sir—The Safe I had of you in June, 1851, was exposed to a great degree of heat, I think, than any other Safe at the late fire in this town, and I am happy to say, preserved its contents. The Safe I have sent to you, for repairs of the lock, &c. You will please return it as soon as possible. Very respectfully yours, &c., SAMUEL PILLSBURY.

STEPHEN MANSUR, 119 Central st., Agent for the above Safes in Lowell.

PIANO FORTE WAREROOM.

Wentworth's Building, 146 Merrimack st.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Lowell and vicinity that he has constantly on hand the largest assortment of Musical Instruments in the State. A large assortment of Piano Fortes to let, from different manufactories. Also, Seraphines for sale and to let. A good assortment of new Pianos at very low prices. Those wishing to have music in their families, will do well to call and examine my extensive stock. JAMES AMES.

J. A. would also give notice that he will attend to tuning and repairing Pianos, Seraphines and Church Organs in the best manner. Orders left at 146 Merrimack street, will be promptly attended to.

ECONOMY, CONVENIENCE & COMFORT ARE COMBINED IN NUTTING'S FAR-FAMED PATENT. THIS long desired improvement for Windows is gaining universal approbation, for the reason that it not only removes the necessity of cords and weights or latch es, with the many difficulties attendant upon these, but accommodates our desires as to opening or closing [illegible] H. M. PAYNE. Lowell, May 26, 1853.

READ, AND BE BENEFITTED! BALD HEADS SHALL BE NO LONGER BALD!!! THE subscriber, after three years of practical experience, has produced an article for bringing out hair on heads that have been bald for a number of years, and for preventing the hair from falling out of the head. [illegible] EMMA UNDERWOOD, No. 19 Paige street.

REMOVAL. WM. H. JOHNSON has removed from No. 2 Bridge st. to the shop lately occupied by Walker Lewis, in Emery's Building, Dutton st., [illegible]

RETURNED FROM GREAT SALT LAKE VALLEY. WALKER LEWIS feels thankful for the patronage and support which he has formerly received, and would respectfully inform the citizens of Lowell and vicinity, that he has returned from Great Salt Lake Valley, and has re-opened the BARBER'S SHOP, No. 1 Hildreth Building, Dutton st., [illegible] Lowell, Nov. 16, 1852.

PARTNERSHIP NOTICE. THE copartnership heretofore existing between the subscribers under the firm of Farr & Whitney, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. [illegible] ASA FARR. ISAAC WHITNEY. Lowell, July 18, 1853.

ENGRAVING AND COPPER-PLATE PRINTING. [illegible] Mrs F. A. O'NEILL. Lowell, May 14, 1853.

SUGAR CURED HAMS. IF you wish to get a prime HAM, call at JOHN PEARSON'S store and get one of his Sugar Cured, [illegible]

BELL HANGING. [illegible] E. RUSSELL, Middle street. Lowell, May 14, 1853.

FISH MARKET. T. L. JENNINGS [illegible]

SOMETHING TO DRINK!! A NEW, DELICIOUS TEMPERANCE BEVERAGE. AMBROSIAL MEAD!! [illegible]

CIGARS! FOSTER & PATRICK, 68 Merrimack st., [illegible]

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

LAWS AND RESOLVES, 1853. THE General Laws and Resolves passed at the last session of the Legislature, and also the Constitutional Amendments, prepared for distribution, [illegible] are now ready for delivery at the City Clerk's office, and also at the offices of the Mayor, Treasurer, and Auditor. THOMAS ORDWAY, City Clerk. July 21, 1853.

CITY CLAIMS. In Committee on Accounts, Jan. 10, 1853. ORDERED, That hereafter the Quarterly Salary Bills duly approved, be presented to the Auditor on or before the 5th of March, June, September and December, and that they be payable on the first day of the month next succeeding. 2d. That all Pauper bills be presented to the Auditor on or before the first day of each month. 3d. That all other Bills be made up to include the last day of each month, and that, duly approved, they be presented to the Auditor on or before the third day of each month, and be payable on the tenth. All Bills not approved and presented as above, will lie over until the next month. STEPHEN MANSUR, ALPHA STEVENS, CALEB G. WEAVER, HENRY H. WILDER, C. F. BLANCHARD, Committee. ☞ The Auditor's Office is in City Hall. Office hours from 8 to 12, A. M., and from 2 to 5 o'clock, P. M.

DAVID HYDE, No. 28 Central street, Lowell, AND No. 46 State street, Boston, DEALER IN STOCKS, MONEY, AND REAL ESTATE. MEMBER OF THE BROKERS' BOARD, BOSTON, In Boston Every Day. Money received to pay Notes, Bills, &c., in Boston.—Dividends and Interest collected. 10 per cent paid for Money, and Stocks given as collateral security. I leave Lowell for Boston at 8 o'clock, A. M., and return at 2½ P. M.

VOCAL MUSIC. GEO. F. WILLEY. Respectfully gives notice to his friends and the public, that he has resumed his private instruction in the principles of Music, and the cultivation of the Voice. In order to accommodate those who may not wish to take private instruction, he will open Classes for Ladies and Gentlemen, on moderate terms. Music Room—the lecture room of Worthen Church. Orders or notes for Mr Willey may be addressed to him at B. H. Shepard's Music Store, 77 Merrimack st., or at his residence, 24 Franklin Square.

PARTICULAR NOTICE. PIANO FORTES TUNED, regulated and repaired in the best manner. All orders left at the Bookstore of Mr O. Brick, No. 46 Central st., or at the Bookstore of Mr J. P. Walker, No. 61 Merrimack st., will be promptly attended to by HENRY BOOTH, who will visit Lowell every month. He will also instruct in Tuning. H. B. would also offer his services to select Piano Fortes (for purchasers) from any of the best establishments in Boston, at the manufacturers' lowest price, and warranted. Refers to L. Mason and W. F. Ulman, Prof. of Music. Rooms at the American House. Lowell, Sept. 26, 1852.

MUSIC. MRS G. W. STEWARD, formerly Miss Remick, is prepared to give instruction on the Piano Forte, at her residence on the corner of Appleton and South sts.—Tuition, $6.00 for 24 lessons.

WATER CURE ESTABLISHMENT FOR SALE OR TO BE LEASED. The owners of the Cold Water Establishment, situated on "Drury Hill," in Lowell, residing in New York, are anxious to sell or lease the House, and offer the same on very favorable terms. [illegible] BLAKE & BROWN, New York City, or TAPPAN WENTWORTH, Lowell. E. F. SHERMAN. May 26, 1853.

TWO HOUSES FOR SALE. A genteel two story House on the south side of Tyler street in Lowell, next east of the house now occupied by Rev. J. Towne. A double two story House on the west side of Gorham street, near Appleton street. [illegible] CHARLES H. SHORT. Lowell, May 18, 1853.

DRUG STORE FOR SALE. THE Stock, Fixtures and Lease of a Drug Store, situated in one of the most central locations in the city, doing a good paying business, the owner wishing to sell on account of ill health. Apply to M. D. COLBY, 4 Canal Block, Central st. Lowell, June 9, 1853.

OFFICES TO LET. Two pleasant and convenient Offices on the corner of Central and Jackson streets, will be rented cheap. Apply to JAS. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

TO LET. [illegible] Apply to A. P. GROSVENOR.

STORE TO LET. The old and well known stand now occupied by J. C. Ayer & Co. as an Apothecary Store. Possession given Jan. 1, 1853. Inquire of C. B. COBURN, [illegible]

WELLES BLOCK. The Hall to let, as a place of worship, and for Concerts and occasional engagements. Also, an Office. Also, a tenement and store at No. 193, opposite Kirk street. Inquire of A. A. TAYLOR, or the subscriber, office No. 8 Welles Block. WILLIAM SMITH. Lowell, July 7, 1853.

HOUSE TO LET. A tenement on the Brick Block on Appleton st. Apply at the Hamilton Counting Room. June 13, 1853.

LAND NEAR LOWELL FOR SALE. THOSE desiring to obtain a lot of very superior Land [illegible] H. G. F. CORLISS, 48 Central street. Lowell, April 6, 1853.

DRUG STORE FOR SALE. THE complete stock of Drugs, Medicines, Fancy Goods, &c., of the best selected stock in the city, [illegible] Lowell, May 5, 1853.

DEODORISING POWDERS, for purifying bad chambers, cesspools, sinks, vaults, cellars, &c. It is the most effectual and economical article in use. Sole agent for Lowell, EDWARD BUSH, Apothecary, corner of Merrimack and Central sts., under Rev. Mr Streeter's Church.

CUTTER WANTED. A FIRST RATE CUTTER, one every way qualified to take charge of a first class Tailoring establishment, will hear of a good situation by calling on HUGH McEVOY, 46 Central st. Lowell, July 23, 1853.

1000 FLOUR AND APPLE BARRELS. Flour and Apple Barrels on hand, for sale in any quantity, by S. N. WOOD, Market street.

ZINC PAINT. FRENCH ZINC PAINT ground in Prepared Oil, in kegs of various sizes, constantly on hand and for sale by GOBURN & BIXBY, [illegible]

REMOVAL. CARLETON & HOVEY, Apothecaries, have removed to their old stand in City Hall.

KELLEY'S SARSAPARILLA.—For cleansing the blood. It is one of the best articles in the market for eradicating humors from the system. Sold by S. KIDDER, Jr., corner of John st.

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY.—[illegible]

LUBIN'S EXTRACTS. A LARGE INVOICE just received by J. C. AYER & CO., comprising a list of the CHOICEST AND MOST FAVORITE PERFUMES in the market. [illegible] Corner of Central and Jackson streets.

BALM OF THOUSAND FLOWERS.—For sale by BUSH, corner Merrimack and Central sts., under the Church.

MEASURING TAPES.—[illegible]

THE CRYSTAL PALACE, and its Contents; [illegible] JAS. P. WALKER.

HANNAH CORCORAN; [illegible] JAS. P. WALKER.

NEAT AND CONVENIENT.—Ladies' [illegible] JAS. P. WALKER, 61 Merrimack st.

500 [illegible] BLANCHARD, WRIGHT & CO.

BALM OF THOUSAND FLOWERS.—[illegible]

MRS KIDDER'S CORDIAL [illegible] S. KIDDER, Jr.

AUCTION SALES.

BY E. B. PATCH, Office, Nos. 5, 7, 8 and 9 Commercial Building, Lowell.

Assignee's Sale. On SATURDAY, Aug. 6, at 3 o'clock, P. M., on the premises—A valuable thoroughly built two story House and Lot situated on the south side of Middlesex street, near the stone yard. The situation is central and desirable as an investment.

Also, at the same time and place, by plan—Two lots of land in Ayer's New City. The sale will be without reserve and without regard to weather. By order of STEPHEN MANSUR, J. G. PEABODY, Assignees.

Real Estate at Haggett's Pond. On MONDAY, Aug. 15, at 2 o'clock, on the premises—A building occupied as a dwelling house and store, with about half an acre of land, on the margin of Haggett's Pond in Andover, within about 40 or 50 rods of the Depot on Lowell and Lawrence Railroad, and about equally distant from Lowell and Lawrence, and no stores nearer than those places. It is an excellent location for a store, [illegible] Sale positive. Should the day be rainy, the sale will take place the first fair day.

Land on Gorham and Elm streets. On WEDNESDAY, Aug. 17, at 11 o'clock, on the premises,—A lot of Land containing about 11,000 square ft., situated at the corner of Gorham and Elm streets, directly opposite the Court House grounds. There is also a street laid out on the south side of the above, making it in point of location one of the best lots in the city. Sale positive.

Valuable Real Estate, by order of Mortgagee. On MONDAY, Aug. 29th, at 2 o'clock, P. M.,—About two acres of land situated in Chelmsford, near Middlesex Village, at the junction of Middlesex and Pawtucket sts, bounded on the north by Nashua and Lowell Railroad, and but a few rods from the site of the Steam Mill. The location is valuable for a steam saw mill or other lumber business, and various other purposes. The sale will be without reserve.

Valuable Houses at Auction. On SATURDAY, Sept. 10, at 3 o'clock, P. M., the Middlesex Company will sell the following houses, (a more particular description of which will be given in bills.) Three Houses and Land on Fish's Court, bordering on Concord River. Three Houses and Land on Warren street, bordering on Concord River. Two Houses and Lot on the southerly side of Church street, east of the Baptist Church. One House and Lot on the corner of Hurd and George streets. Two House and Lot at the corner of George and Warren streets. Also—A Brick Block of four tenements at the corner of Church and George streets, opposite the Baptist Church. These estates being very centrally situated are entitled to the consideration of capitalists, as well as those desiring eligible residences. Terms—ten per cent. cash, the balance in nine annual instalments, with interest semi-annually. Plans may be seen at the Middlesex Counting Room, or at the office of E. B. PATCH, Auct'r.

AT PRIVATE SALE—AT A BARGAIN. That beautiful Estate situated in Centralville on the bank of Merrimack River, a few rods east of the Bridge, known as the Bates place. It consists of a large, genteel thorough built house and about 16,000 square feet of land. Inquire of E. B. PATCH.

☞ Regular sales of Dry Goods every Wednesday and Thursday, at 9 o'clock, P. M.—of Furniture, Horses and Carriages, every Saturday, at 3 o'clock, A. M.

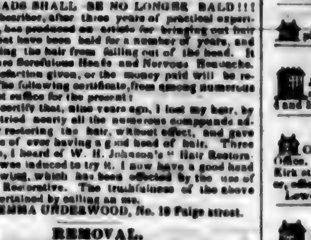
At Private Sale—New and second hand Furniture, Crockery and Glass Ware, Cutlery, Broadcloths, Cassimeres, Satinets and Linen Goods.

The highest price paid for large or small lots of Furniture and other personal property. E. B. PATCH.

TO THE AFFLICTED. RETURNED TO LOWELL. DR. MORRILL, so universally and successfully known in this city as a popular practitioner, feels a degree of satisfaction unsurpassably soothing, from the personal and written congratulations he is daily receiving from his patients in all parts of the country. [illegible]

Dr. Morrill would respectfully announce that he can be consulted at his office, Middlesex st., No. 119, from 7 o'clock until 10 in the evening, every day, for all diseases of the following character: Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Catarrhous, Asthma, Bronchitis and Asthmatical Affections, Spinal Complaints in connection with dyspepsia, Mercurial and Venereal diseases. [illegible]

Office No. 119 MIDDLESEX STREET, near the Depot. F. MORRILL. Lowell, August 2, 1853.



HOWARD'S VEGETABLE CANCER AND CANKER SYRUP.

SIXTEEN YEARS' experience has fully established the efficacy of this invaluable Compound, and it is now offered with entire confidence as a cure for all diseases arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. TO CANCERS IN PARTICULAR WE WOULD INVITE ATTENTION, BECAUSE THEY ARE DEEMED INCURABLE. [illegible] THE CANCER CURE. [illegible] CANCER OR FEVER SORE, CANKER, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, SCROFULA, KING'S EVIL, SCURVY, SCALD HEAD, TUMORS AND ULCERS. [illegible] NEURALGIA, PILES, JAUNDICE, [illegible]

WOOLEN FACTORY FOR SALE OR TO LET. SITUATED in Pelham, N. H., on the Mammoth Road, and known as the Pelham Factory. [illegible] JEREMIAH HILL, [illegible] Lowell, June 14, 1853.

WATERS' BLACK INK. [illegible] C. G. DAVIS.

INDELIBLE INK.—[illegible] J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries, [illegible]

NEW ORLEANS WHITE CORN. 200 Sacks New Orleans White Corn, [illegible] S. N. WOOD, Market st.

APOTHECARY STOCK FOR SALE, AND STORE TO LET, at the corner of Merrimack and Bridge streets. [illegible] STEPHEN CASTLES.

BRONZES. [illegible] J. C. AYER & CO. [illegible]

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY. [illegible]

AUCTION SALES.

BY S. C. SHAPLEIGH, Office—8 and 9 Commercial Square.

Wagons. On SATURDAY, Aug. 6, at 10 o'clock, in front of office, one two seat Carryall Wagon, cash hand, nearly new; 1 light top New York Wagon, with patent axles, nearly new—1 light top Wagon. Parker build. The above may be seen previous to the sale at the stable of Parker & Hoar, Church st. To be sold without reserve to pay advances.

Administrator's Sale of Real Estate. On THURSDAY, Aug. 18th, at 3 o'clock, P. M., on the premises,—The estate of the late J. L. Allen, deceased, situated on Middlesex street, adjoining the estate of Samuel Parson, known as the Kelley Estate, consisting of 5000 feet of land (as inserve of sidewalk), in the immediate neighborhood of the Machine Shop and the Round Building, with a block of Dwelling Houses thereon, conveniently arranged for five families, in thorough repair, and now rents at the rate of about good per annum. This estate affords a rare opportunity for investment, as but a small portion of the land is improved by the present building, and in a location whose rent estate is rapidly increasing in value, and tenements must always be in demand. Sale positive. Terms at sale. JACOB A. ALLEN, Administrator with Will annexed.

LINEN GOODS AT PRIVATE SALE. The subscriber continues to be supplied with a general assortment of LINEN GOODS direct from the Manufactories in IRELAND and SCOTLAND, which he sells in large or small quantities at a very small commission over the first cost, consisting of Extra fine 4-4 Undressed Linen for Bosoms and Collars, full width Sheetings and Pillow Case Linen; all sizes and qualities of white and brown Table Cloths; a great variety of Huckaback Diaper and Dice Towelling; super and common Chamber and Table Napkins; white and brown Doylies; Ladies' and Gents' [illegible]

COAL AND WOOD. Best qualities of Red and White Ash Coal screened and delivered to order in best condition, at the lowest possible price. Also—All kinds Hard and Soft Wood in large or small quantities.  Cash paid for all kinds of second hand Furniture and Housekeeping Goods, Stoves, &c., to those who prefer to sell by private sale. S. C. SHAPLEIGH.

NORFOLK AND PORTSMOUTH PACKETS. ALLEN & WELTCH'S LINE—From Rowe's Wharf. ON SATURDAY. The Schr [illegible], Captain Lowe, will sail as above. For freight or passage, apply to E. E. ALLEN, or SAMUEL WELTCH, No. 122 State, corner of India st. or at No. 12 Rowe's wharf.

CITY POINT AND RICHMOND. ALLEN & WELTCH'S LINE—From Rowe's Wh'f. ON WEDNESDAY. The regular packet schr. JULIETTE, Captain BAKER, will sail as above. For freight or passage, having good accommodations, apply to E. E. ALLEN or WELTCH, 122 State street, corner of India street.

DR. HILL, The Celebrated Indian Doctor, TAKES pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Lowell and other places, that his office is at the corner of Central and Jackson sts., over Ayer & Co.'s Apothecary Store. [illegible] READ AND REFLECT. [illegible] YEARS OF PRACTICE, [illegible] TO FEMALES. All diseases peculiar to Females, as Suppression, Irregularities, &c., speedily and effectually removed. ☞ The French Periodical Drops and Pills, for the above affections, have been well tested for the last ten years. [illegible] ☞ Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. Very respectfully, Dr. C. A. HILL, Office cor. Central and Jackson sts.

SPECIAL NOTICE. FRENCH PERIODICAL DROPS. DR. C. A. HILL, corner Central and Jackson streets, Lowell, Mass., would say to his friends, that he has obtained from Dr. D. C. Harrington the original recipe for manufacturing, together with his plan for putting up the medicine known as the FRENCH PERIODICAL DROPS. Discovered by J. Harrington, M. D., while practising in the hospital in Paris, [illegible]

Important to the Sick. DR. C. A. HILL, CORNER CENTRAL AND JACKSON STS., [illegible]

EDWARD BUSH, APOTHECARY, DEALER in Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, [illegible] Corner Merrimack and Central streets, under Rev. Mr Streeter's Church, Lowell.

FOR THE VERY BEST ARTICLE [illegible] JAS. P. WALKER, [illegible]

ELEGANT LARGE ENGRAVINGS. [illegible]

HAYING TOOLS. CONSISTING of [illegible] STEPHEN MANSUR, 119 Central st.

TRAVELLERS [illegible] JAS. P. WALKER.

CORN, WART, AND MOLE EXTRACTOR. [illegible]

TRAVELLING COMPANIONS & WHAT'S [illegible]

BALM OF THOUSAND FLOWERS, [illegible]

FAYAL [illegible]

THE COURIER

JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

Formerly of Courtland and Middle streets, (ADJOINING THE POST OFFICE.)

This Office being furnished with all the desirable stock, and improved together with a large number of work, from the smallest Fancy Cards to the largest Posting Circular, together with an ample supply of well-chosen varieties of handsome the proprietor believes that his facilities for executing on any description of

FAST PRESSES,

JOB TYPE,

PRINTING

can stand as to enable him to answer all orders in the on reasonable terms than they have been with their patronage.

The proprietor is prepared to execute promptly and neat as can be offered any where. Persons in want of

LOW PRICES

BILL HEADS, BLANKS, BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS, CARDS, TICKET AND CHECK, PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

will find it to their interest to call at this office.

N. B. Wood, late of 191 Ink, or Reserve of every shade, on hand, white or fancy colored, always on.

ALSO—

A large and handsome assortment of Ornamental Type, Rules, Borders, Brass Rules, Cuts, &c., &c., which will be sold low for cash.

J. D. PUTNAM,

WEST INDIA GOODS, GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, COUNTRY PRODUCE, EARTHEN, STONE AND GLASS WARE, &c.,

No. 26 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.

LIQUORS.—The best and most approved brands; Rye Whiskey, Brandy, Gin, Old and Mellow.

GROCERIES.—Sugars, Teas, Coffee, Spices, Molasses, Syrups, Rice, Saleratus, Starch, Soda, Pepper, Ginger, Cloves, Cassia, Nutmegs, Mace, Pickles, Pepper Sauce, Mustard, Chocolate, Cocoa, Candies, Figs, Raisins, Prunes, Currants, Citron, Lemon and Orange Peel, Sperm, Adamantine and Tallow Candles, Starch, Soap, Saleratus, Indigo, Copperas, Madder, Logwood, Fustic, Blue Vitriol, Alum, Rosin, Glue, Sal Soda, Potash, Saltpetre, Cream Tartar, Soda Ash, Sal Soda and Indigo, Tobacco, Snuff, Cigars, Pipes, Matches, Wrapping Paper, Twine, Wicking, Steel and Cut Tacks, Nails, Brushes, Blacking, Shoe Thread, Shoe Pegs, Shoe Nails, Shoe Brushes, Shoe Knives, Scythe Stones, Rifle and Blasting Powder, Fuse, Lead, Shot, Percussion Caps, Gun Flints, Gun Worms, Gun Wipers, Powder Flasks, Shot Belts, Shot Pouches, Gun Covers, Gun Locks, Gun Barrels, Gun Stocks, Gun Trimmings, Gun Screws, Gun Springs, Gun Tools, Gun Implements, Gun Materials, Gun Repairing, Gun Boring, Gun Rifling, Gun Polishing, Gun Finishing, Gun Mounting, Gun Painting, Gun Varnishing, Gun Packing, Gun Shipping, Gun Selling, Gun Buying, Gun Trading, Gun Exchanging, Gun Lending, Gun Borrowing, Gun Returning, Gun Receiving, Gun Delivering, Gun Collecting, Gun Paying id Europeans, and seated with old Canterbury ease: but what, now, honey, does he know about the law of Wisconsin?"

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Saturday, August 6, 1853.

THE GREEK CHURCH.—In his last letter to the M. C. Thomas Kennedy, or another, thus speaks of the Russian Greek Church :—"Of the Greek Church we have no control. Of course the spiritual head of this is the Patriarch of Constantinople; also one of the worst in Greece." Question of Russia: "is not a little tinged with the northern "constitutionism" to blind the world, and to speculate upon the ignorance of the Greek ? but even so to the Russian Church, it is a mistake to believe the Czar to be its spiritual head.

Such is the fact : Russia being composed of hundreds of different nations and tribes, those who have devised the vast plan of Russia's all aggrandizing power, looked for a connecting link, to unite these diversified elements in one national unity ; and found it in a false religion. The task was how to convert it into a plant, obedient-tool to the ambitious designs of their vast aristocracy. It was done thus : A Patriarch having been the head of the ecclesiastical hierarchy in Russia, was by the indomitable Czar Peter, commenced his schemes by hooping meant the Patriarchal chair.—Twenty years later, it was entirely suppressed, and its place supplied by an ecclesiastical synod, bearing the epithet of "war holy." All the kind of this is a lay officer, commonly an aide-de-camp of the Czar, with the title of "procurator," having the exclusive right of submitting propositions to the deliberation of the said holy synod, the numerous administration of which is exclusively composed of laymen, amongst whom a good number are drunken military officers. That is the head of the Russian church, and that is the one engine by which the Czar contrived to confiscate all the privileges of the Church, and to degrade religion to a blind instrument of his policy.

By this you may see what that non-political but only religious and philo-Christian which the Czar so much covers in the dust; and why the Greek priests of Turkey don't relish the idea."

A THOMAS PARNON MALORY'S OPINION ON "THE SCHOOL QUESTION."—It is well known that this distinguished Irishman is a firm friend to our common school system as it is ; and in his speech at the Maugher Festival in Boston recently he observed :

"Mr President and gentlemen, I know not whether there exists a conspiracy of silence with respect to the school question, or whether the public voice were taken, I should appear in a minority of one. Therefore as I am not a man of innovation, to ascertain what the fact is.

I do not believe, then, whether you concur with everything or anything in the system, that we have or should change it. On the contrary, I assume that you dissent from one or another of its parts ; but I say, that for this very difference of opinion, I set no higher value on the liberty and freedom you have paid for. And why ? Why for this very difference which we regard between us, and it the more precisely regard the trust and friendship which we have put the children of each, for the purpose of having you, you have pledged me in this old hall this evening.

For this reason—as I have said—we must never believe that what I denounce is the prevalence amongst you of that just, that tolerant, that liberal spirit, which, under God, brings to the great opinions maintained in contradistinction to the bigotry and the fanaticism of the times in the lists where the silver spear is not the ground, seldom the bayonet, which clears the ground, seldom the bayonet, although we have, unfortunately, seen it in other times, poor as we are, maintain the public rights and the state of healthful and brilliant, and courageous activity, when I should observe you, either in a state of stagnate—a spirit which is the foundation of timidity, or of cowardice, and of cruel and unjust feelings amongst men—a spirit which brings disaster upon the workers in liberty, misery and shame to those who gamble with the credulity of a people—which is a curse to the man, the light and intelligence, as unfit to the conscientious, and the man-power, to the degradation of the human race."

NEW SOUTH WALES.—The miserable half-Spaniards of America, of whom every soul deserves the highest gallows, are never at rest from their outrages in the Pacific sentiments, not to say rights, of Humanity. Within a few months, the Cuban slave-traders, defiant of the civilized world, have begun the introduction of Yucatan Indians into the island of Cuba. The Havana correspondent of the New York Herald gives full particulars of the manner of their capture and introduction, stating that one hundred and seventy of these Indians have been kidnapped and carried to Havana. Extensive preparations had been made to transfer the Indians to Cuba, when the matter was discovered by the British authorities at Honduras, who caused the arrest of the Spanish agent at that place. On the papers found in his possession, the terms of agreement with the Havana dealers—showing that $20 was to be paid for every male adult Indian, and two or six children in proportion.

South Africa had made a peremptory demand upon Gen. Canabe for the immediate liberation and restoration of the kidnapped Indians. The Havana dealer is having preparations and contracts, purporting to have engaged the Indians to work for him.

—Disease—which certainly exists in certain quarters, to learn the meaning of this terrible fancy phrase, "the sanctuary is entered" has found among the rubbish, somewhere . . . . Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, which is highly praised for an edition of Webster improved by Cowley, which is out, at 221 all those vexed questions.—Advertiser.

Here, now, are three enormous blockheads in one sack. The writer of the above is a blockhead for not, previously to praising this quack-bugged thing at sixpence, informing himself, from Webster and Bailey, that diastole means " a continued discourse or disquisition."

The editor is also a blockhead in having allowed such a disquisition to pass unrebuked :—not that editors should rebuke every thing bad—that would be impossible, considering the flimsy, slipshod inspection of our papers,—but because this is manifest blunder" occurs in his own columns. Thirdly, the publisher is chargeable to the same charge, (of being a blockhead) in having permitted a thing so base to have daily spread his otherwise honest sheet. We have no more single or appropriate word in the whole language for one who tells whether discarping on the word "diastole," or the commonplace nonsense of Webster to that effect" by he, is the greatest unthinking dolthy between fools and asses.

☞ The Gardner Patriotic says the Square Pond is flourishing in Augusta. Wheat's the paler and the Boston Post pounding.

THE GUARDS.—A writer in the Boston Herald, signed "Fisher," speaks with some severity of the manner in which this company were treated by the Bangorians, in taking charged for their entertainment, and in not being received by any other company save the Bath City Greys, which happened then to be there. He says that while Lowell company would have found little to interest them if it had not been for the Greys," and that they "(the Greys)" did themselves much honor by the gentlemanly manner in which they conducted themselves during their stay, and if the Bangor people can do better in the future—may not. I can assure you, Mr Editor, that, for my part, I looked upon the whole affair as a shameful breach of hospitality on the part of the Bangorons. Shame to them, say I. They should learn how to be liberal in pocket as well as speech, or, in other words, they should do what they profess a willingness to do."

We shall only observe, that it is not a universal practice for guests to pay their "hosts" themselves—and so. This is considered the best and cheapest in the end, of any paying we can lay.

CONGRESSMEN. In Jersey City quite an acrimonious controversy has been raging for some time back, among the Church folks on the Hill, in relation to the cross erected on the top of the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, near the Five Corners ; a portion of the wardens, vestrymen and members were opposed to the erection of another portion were as fully determined that it should not come down. The two parties were also known as the Cross Party," and the "Anti-Cross Party," and the cross remained there until last evening, when some of the Anti-Cross Party, or some others, in the night, promising the matter, climbed to the top of the steeple, and sawed off one side or one half of the cross-beam.

CITY MATTERS.

☞ Rev. H. R. Nye, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will preach in the First Universalist Church to-morrow.

☞ Rev. Augustus Woodbury, late of Concord, N. H., will preach in the Low st. Church to-morrow. His installation will take place in September.

RAIN-BREAKING. On Thursday night, the apothecary shop of C. S. Estman & Co., was entered through the window over the door. The burglars carried off both money-drawers and about $3 in change. If the rogues will return the money, no questions will be asked. On the same night, the shop of David Dana, on Jackson street, was broken open, and the thieves carried off all the change they could find.

☞ No Police Court this forenoon, his Honor being out of town.

COST OF PAPER. The cost of laying the Lord's Prayer written within one-third of the area of a "Sequence," by Dr. Samuel Kidder, of Medford, who is 72 years of age, and wrote without glasses. The Journal says the letters are written in the world perfectly distinct. The venerable doctor, unlike Mr Scaggby, must have put "no fine point upon it."

FIRE IN SOUTH MARSH. The unoccupied dressing factory of Charles Dean, High street, South Marsh, was discovered to be on fire this morning, at about 12 o'clock last night. Loss about $1000—no insurance.

HOT AIR.—A duel occurred on Sunday at Lawrenceburg, between two parties of laborers on the Ohio Railroad, in which three were killed and two wounded.

☞ Advices from Porto Cabello of the 23d July states that the rebellion was spreading.—A fleet of steamers was about to leave Porto Cabello for the purpose of routing the insurgents.

☞ An earthquake occred at Cumana on the 15th July, overthrowing many buildings, and burying 300 persons in the ruins.

☞ Fugitive Slaves in California assume the condescendship of the orchestra of the Boston Museum.

MILITANT. At a meeting of the signers for a new military corps in Somerville, held one or two evenings since, Col. J. Darrell Greene presiding, the following toast was drunk :

"Gen. Pierce, the great ex-Minister, seven years before the revolution of 1830, in France, was a poor pioneer boy, in the office of the Concordian. He afterwards graduated at Bowdoin College of Hanover, (of which is a graduate) in the following language: "He academic family has almost immemorially made up of country clergymen, possessing, to be sure, a little more learning than is usually possessed by their parishioners, but not much else, but not much. Men of this stamp cannot of course give any particular currency to the sentiments with which they preside."

☞ Detachments from six companies of the 7th regiment M. V. M., under command of Col. Collins, drilled yesterday at Lawrence.

☞ Mesers. Greenwood and Warren, Democrats, are undoubtedly elected to Congress from Arkansas.

☞ John P. Jewett & Co., of Boston, have just issued a work from the elite pen of Hon. Charles Sumner, entitled, White Slavery in the Barbary States. The subject matter and facts are highly spoken of by the N. Y. Tribune. We have received an copy as yet ; but doubt not that it will be found of great value to the historic student, as no work, so far as our knowledge extends, has ever appeared on this subject.

POSTMASTER AT NEWBURYPORT. The Newburyport Union of Monday says, "Mr John M. Hooper has been officially appointed postmaster at Newburyport. That is a fact. The salary office in town that will pay more than a gentleman's support.

A PUZZLE. The Albany Argus, long the organ of the New York democracy, and the leading Union, and Administration paper, is one of the most corrupt and disreputable coalition — that of the double-winged democracy of New York, or that of the "soft-head" denunciatory democracy of Massachusetts ? The settlement of such a question as that would form a puzzle indeed.

FREE SOILISM IN SOUTH-MARSH. The unoccupied dressing factory of Charles Dean, High street, South Marsh, was discovered to be on fire this morning, about 12 o'clock last night. Loss about $1000—no insurance.

HOT AIR.—A duel occurred on Sunday at Lawrenceburg, between two parties of laborers on the Ohio Railroad, in which three were killed and two wounded.

☞ Advices from Porto Cabello of the 23d July states that the rebellion was spreading.—A fleet of steamers was about to leave Porto Cabello for the purpose of routing the insurgents.

☞ An earthquake occred at Cumana on the 15th July, overthrowing many buildings, and burying 300 persons in the ruins.

☞ Fugitive Slaves in California assume the condescendship of the orchestra of the Boston Museum.

MILITANT. At a meeting of the signers for a new military corps in Somerville, held one or two evenings since, Col. J. Darrell Greene presiding, the following toast was drunk :

"Gen. Pierce, the great ex-Minister, seven years before the revolution of 1830, in France, was a poor pioneer boy, in the office of the Concordian. He afterwards graduated at Bowdoin College of Hanover, (of which is a graduate) in the following language: "He academic family has almost immemorially made up of country clergymen, possessing, to be sure, a little more learning than is usually possessed by their parishioners, but not much else, but not much. Men of this stamp cannot of course give any particular currency to the sentiments with which they preside."

☞ Detachments from six companies of the 7th regiment M. V. M., under command of Col. Collins, drilled yesterday at Lawrence.

☞ Mesers. Greenwood and Warren, Democrats, are undoubtedly elected to Congress from Arkansas.

☞ John P. Jewett & Co., of Boston, have just issued a work from the elite pen of Hon. Charles Sumner, entitled, White Slavery in the Barbary States. The subject matter and facts are highly spoken of by the N. Y. Tribune. We have received an copy as yet ; but doubt not that it will be found of great value to the historic student, as no work, so far as our knowledge extends, has ever appeared on this subject.

POSTMASTER AT NEWBURYPORT. The Newburyport Union of Monday says, "Mr John M. Hooper has been officially appointed postmaster at Newburyport. That is a fact. The salary office in town that will pay more than a gentleman's support.

A PUZZLE. The Albany Argus, long the organ of the New York democracy, and the leading Union, and Administration paper, is one of the most corrupt and disreputable coalition — that of the double-winged democracy of New York, or that of the "soft-head" denunciatory democracy of Massachusetts ? The settlement of such a question as that would form a puzzle indeed.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

CALIFORNIA ITEM. We notice in the Alta California, of July 1st, the marriages of Joseph P. Fogg to Mrs Hannah Loffkin, both of San Francisco. Mrs Loffkin formerly kept a boarding house on the Massachusetts corporation, in this city. Mr Fogg is a California some two years since. She was well known for her go-ahead-ativeness and enterprise, and it will be gratifying to her many friends to know that she is well married.

WASHINGTON, August 5. Hon. Pierre Soule, Senator in Congress from Louisiana, Hon. Buchanan, U. S. Minister to the Court of St. James, Col. J. J. Slidell, U. S. Charge d'Affairs to Belgium, and Hon. Jno. Y. Mason, U. S. Consul to Rotterdam, have announced their determination to leave the country on the respective stations to-morrow in the steamer Atlantic.

BAD TREATMENT OF A POOR OUTRAN DOG.—A few days since, the Directors of the House of Industry, in Boston, elected to Congress for Arkansas. Jackson, democrat, is elected to the 3d district, Missouri, by a small majority.

☞ Tenors, the great ex-Minister, seven years before the revolution of 1830, in France, was a poor pioneer boy, in the office of the Concordian. He afterwards graduated at Bowdoin College of Hanover, (of which is a graduate) in the following language: "He academic family has almost immemorially made up of country clergymen, possessing, to be sure, a little more learning than is usually possessed by their parishioners, but not much else, but not much. Men of this stamp cannot of course give any particular currency to the sentiments with which they preside."

☞ Detachments from six companies of the 7th regiment M. V. M., under command of Col. Collins, drilled yesterday at Lawrence.

☞ Mesers. Greenwood and Warren, Democrats, are undoubtedly elected to Congress from Arkansas.

☞ John P. Jewett & Co., of Boston, have just issued a work from the elite pen of Hon. Charles Sumner, entitled, White Slavery in the Barbary States. The subject matter and facts are highly spoken of by the N. Y. Tribune. We have received an copy as yet ; but doubt not that it will be found of great value to the historic student, as no work, so far as our knowledge extends, has ever appeared on this subject.

POSTMASTER AT NEWBURYPORT. The Newburyport Union of Monday says, "Mr John M. Hooper has been officially appointed postmaster at Newburyport. That is a fact. The salary office in town that will pay more than a gentleman's support.

A PUZZLE. The Albany Argus, long the organ of the New York democracy, and the leading Union, and Administration paper, is one of the most corrupt and disreputable coalition — that of the double-winged democracy of New York, or that of the "soft-head" denunciatory democracy of Massachusetts ? The settlement of such a question as that would form a puzzle indeed.

HORSE MACKEREL. Mr William Alexander, says the Portland Argus, while fishing yesterday near Rock Ord Ledge, about 11 miles from Portland, caught a horse mackerel, weighing 800 lbs., 16 feet long and 7 in circumference.—He took him with a gaff hook and nearly dragged him out, finally secured him. There being no one with him in the boat but his little boy, he had to tow him to a schooner, near, before he could take him in. It is a splendid fish, resembling in all its parts a mackerel, but on a giant scale.

LONDON ITEM. Baring, Bros. report more disposition for business from growing improvement in the trade and Turkish question would have a pacific solution. Breadstuffs were firm and buoyant. Flour 39s. 6d. a 40s. 6d. Indian Corn 30s. 6d. a 31s. 6d. Wheat 6s. 6d. a 6s. 8d. Prime dull—Iron trade generally firmer. Hails, early delivery, £9 ; bars firmer, £7 10s. a £8.

☞ The Boston Journal says that it has seen the Lord's Prayer written within one-third of the area of a "Sequence," by Dr. Samuel Kidder, of Medford, who is 72 years of age, and wrote without glasses. The Journal says the letters are written in the world perfectly distinct. The venerable doctor, unlike Mr Scaggby, must have put "no fine point upon it."

FIRE IN SOUTH-MARSH. The unoccupied dressing factory of Charles Dean, High street, South Marsh, was discovered to be on fire this morning, about 12 o'clock last night. Loss about $1000—no insurance.

HOT AIR.—A duel occurred on Sunday at Lawrenceburg, between two parties of laborers on the Ohio Railroad, in which three were killed and two wounded.

☞ Advices from Porto Cabello of the 23d July states that the rebellion was spreading.—A fleet of steamers was about to leave Porto Cabello for the purpose of routing the insurgents.

☞ An earthquake occred at Cumana on the 15th July, overthrowing many buildings, and burying 300 persons in the ruins.

☞ Fugitive Slaves in California assume the condescendship of the orchestra of the Boston Museum.

MILITANT. At a meeting of the signers for a new military corps in Somerville, held one or two evenings since, Col. J. Darrell Greene presiding, the following toast was drunk :

"Gen. Pierce, the great ex-Minister, seven years before the revolution of 1830, in France, was a poor pioneer boy, in the office of the Concordian. He afterwards graduated at Bowdoin College of Hanover, (of which is a graduate) in the following language: "He academic family has almost immemorially made up of country clergymen, possessing, to be sure, a little more learning than is usually possessed by their parishioners, but not much else, but not much. Men of this stamp cannot of course give any particular currency to the sentiments with which they preside."

☞ Detachments from six companies of the 7th regiment M. V. M., under command of Col. Collins, drilled yesterday at Lawrence.

☞ Mesers. Greenwood and Warren, Democrats, are undoubtedly elected to Congress from Arkansas.

☞ John P. Jewett & Co., of Boston, have just issued a work from the elite pen of Hon. Charles Sumner, entitled, White Slavery in the Barbary States. The subject matter and facts are highly spoken of by the N. Y. Tribune. We have received an copy as yet ; but doubt not that it will be found of great value to the historic student, as no work, so far as our knowledge extends, has ever appeared on this subject.

POSTMASTER AT NEWBURYPORT. The Newburyport Union of Monday says, "Mr John M. Hooper has been officially appointed postmaster at Newburyport. That is a fact. The salary office in town that will pay more than a gentleman's support.

A PUZZLE. The Albany Argus, long the organ of the New York democracy, and the leading Union, and Administration paper, is one of the most corrupt and disreputable coalition — that of the double-winged democracy of New York, or that of the "soft-head" denunciatory democracy of Massachusetts ? The settlement of such a question as that would form a puzzle indeed.

"SUSTAINING THE COMPROMISES." The Springfield Republican says that "The Washington Union, as the organ, and in the name of the administration, denounces the Buffalo Republic so as abolition paper, and as consequently, if from the democratic fold. Directly after the administration sends the Republic a thousand dollar advertisement. The Republic would doubtless be willing to have the done doubled all round."

NORTH CAROLINA. The election in Wake county, the residence of Governor Reid, resulted as follows : Rogers, whig, 1249 ; Venable, democrat, 643 ; Lewis, dem., 643 ; Leak, democrat, 1661 ; Kerr, whig, 1162. Whig clerks elected.

KENTUCKY ELECTION. A private despatch from Louisville of the 4th of August, to the N. Y. Tribune, says it is claimed that the whigs of Kentucky have elected eight Congressmen, leaving the Democrats only Boyd and Breckinridge. Also that the Whigs have carried both branches of the Legislature by increased majorities.

This is a Whig gain of three—the last delegation stood 5 to 5, now 8 Whigs to 2 Locos.

SUICIDE. Mr Alphonso Leach, of Hartford, Vt., hung himself on Thursday last in his barn; he has been considered insane at times, for several years, and was about 50.

SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

MISS C. F. BROWN'S previous opening, School Street, Lowell, will be resumed on the 1st of September next. Miss B. would also inform her friends that she has taken rooms at the Mansion House, where she will be happy to receive pupils for instruction in Music, Drawing, Painting, Embroidery, Dancing, &c. Miss B. refers to Rev. Mr Bellows, Rev. Mr Hall, Rev. Mr Hosmer, Rev. Mr Clarke, Rev. Mr Gannett, Rev. Mr Putnam, Rev. Mr Ware, Rev. Mr Peabody, Rev. Mr Dewey, Rev. Mr Parkman, Rev. Mr Frothingham, Rev. Mr Stetson, Rev. Mr Hedge, Rev. Mr Bartol, Rev. Mr Huntington, Rev. Mr Whitney, Rev. Mr Lothrop, Rev. Mr Blagden, Rev. Mr Stone, Rev. Mr Thayer

THE COURIER
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE,
Corner of Central and Middle streets,
(OVER THE POST OFFICE.)

This Office being furnished with all the desirable modern improvements

FAST PRESSES,

adapted to every description of work, from the smallest Dodge Notes to the largest Posting Cards—together with an ample supply of well chosen varieties of handsome plain and fancy

JOB TYPE,

the proprietors believe that the facilities for executing any description of

PRINTING

can seek us to enable him to answer all orders to the entire satisfaction of those who may favor him with their patronage.

The proprietors is prepared to execute promptly, and at the

LOW PRICES

to be seen in offered any Printing Establishment in this city,

HANDBILLS, CARDS, BILL HEADS, BLANKS, BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

BOBBING, TICKET AND VISITING CARDS, PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, or Bronze of every shade, on white or fancy colored papers.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of gilt, plain, steel and fancy Cards, Bronzed and colored CARDS, adapted to every description of work—in packs and in boxes to be sent by mail.

J. D. PUTNAM,
MERCHANT TAILOR,
WEST INDIA GOODS, CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES, CONFECTIONERY PRODUCE, EARTHENWARE AND WOODEN WARE, &c., &c.,
No. 20 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL,
Has for sale the following articles, viz:

Sugars—Loaf, Crushed, Powdered, Granulated and Coffee Loaf; White and Brown Crushed; Prime, New Orleans and Muscovado.
Teas—Hyson, Young Hyson, Imperial, Gunpowder, Souchong, Hyson Skin, Oolong and Pekoe.
Coffees—Rio, Laguayra, Java, Mocha, St. Domingo, Maracaibo and Cuba.
Spices—Pepper, Cassia, Cloves, Mace, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Ginger, Allspice, &c.
DRIED FRUITS—Raisins, loose and bag, sultanas do., Currants, Citron, Prunes, Figs, Dates, Pepper, Almonds, Cloves, Cassia whole and ground, Cayenne Pepper, Mustard, &c.
COUNTRY PRODUCE—Pork, Lard, Beans, Dried Apples, Potatoes, Onions, Cheese, Eggs, &c.
BUTTER, Fresh Dairies, Western, Vermont, Orange County and Goshen.
CRACKERS—Soda Butter, Soda, Sugar, Pilot, Boston Pilot, Water and Sea Bread.
PICKLES, Sauces, Pepper, Mustard, Catsup, Cocoa and Pearl Sago.
CANNED FRUITS—Pine Apple, Peaches, Quinces, Damsons, Plums, Pine Apple, Quince, Peach, Damson, Plum, Gooseberry, Strawberry, Raspberry, Blackberry, Currant and Cranberry Jams.
EARTHEN WARE—Rose, Lapt, Flower and Stone Pots.
WOODEN WARE—Pails, Tubs, Churns, Butter and Sugar Bowls, Spittoons, &c.
CHEMICAL TOOLS—Various approved kinds of Pumps and Augers.
CANDLES—Adamantine, Sperm, Sperm, Tallow, Composition and Mould.
SOAPS—Castile, Palm, Brown, Yellow, Soft, Shaving, Cream and Toilet.
Tobacco, Vermont, Virginia, Natural Leaf and Cavendish.
Cigars, Principe, Regalia, Cabinet, Half Spanish, Long Nine, Short Nine, Long Six, Short Six, Long Four, Short Four, Cheroots, Segars, Spanish Rolls, Paragons, Six Sous, Cigaritos, Fine Cut Chewing, Pig Tail, Twist, Plug, Fig, Lump, Cavendish, Smoking, Scotch and Rappee Snuffs.
Together with many other articles not enumerated which will be sold at the lowest prices for cash.
Having had many years experience in the business, the undersigned will be enabled to recommend to give entire satisfaction to all who may favor him with their custom.
☞ By keeping constantly on hand a large assortment of the above articles, which will generally run out in the course of a month, he will be enabled to keep them fresh, and to purchase them at the lowest prices, and to sell them at the smallest advance.
☞ Dealers in the above articles, are invited to call and examine for themselves, as he is confident that he can offer them inducements, at reduced and cash prices, which will be found to be for their interest.
☞ Orders from the country will receive prompt attention, and the articles will be carefully packed and delivered to the transportation agents, without charge.
Lowell, Sept. 25, 1852. sep27

BEAUTIFUL TEETH!
CARLTON & DOVEY, Operative and Mechanical Dentists, have just received the most beautiful assortment of Enamel Tooth Powder, which, for whiteness and beauty of finish, are not excelled. C. & D. would also call attention to their new and improved method of inserting Artificial Teeth.
OFFICE 127 PEARL.
This Institution is entirely new and very agreeable and may be used by every setting the teeth and applying the Powder. Those who have used it say that it is the most convenient. The Powder is a perfect antiseptic and will keep the mouth free from decay if used three times a week. Directions will be given how to use the Powder to a perfect state of cleanliness.
CHEMICAL COMPOUNDS.
Chemical Soap for the Teeth, which is delightful for perfuming, and when brush-teeth entirely removes with proper care is considered by dentists and physicians to be the best article for the purpose. Chemical Soap for the hands in which is now offered for sale, is a most delightful article for washing the hands, and will remove all stains from the hands in a few minutes. The perfume of this article is delightful, and will not only allow of its use to any of the most delicate, but will remove all disagreeable odors from the hands, and will leave the skin soft and white. Chemical Soap for the shaving, which is now offered for sale, is a most delightful article for washing the hands, and will remove all stains from the hands in a few minutes. The perfume of this article is delightful, and will not only allow of its use to any of the most delicate, but will remove all disagreeable odors from the hands, and will leave the skin soft and white. Chemical Soap for the shaving, which is now offered for sale, is a most delightful article for washing the hands, and will remove all stains from the hands in a few minutes. The perfume of this article is delightful, and will not only allow of its use to any of the most delicate, but will remove all disagreeable odors from the hands, and will leave the skin soft and white.

THE COURIER

JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

Overman and Combined and Middle streets,

(ENTRANCE ON OVERMAN STREET.)

This Office being furnished with all the desirable modern improvements

FAST PRESSES,

is enabled to every description of work, from the moment Poster Card—Superfine Printing Paper—inclusive to an ample supply of well-chosen varieties of handsome plain and fancy

JOB TYPE,

the proprietor believes that his facilities for executing any description of

PRINTING

will work as to render him to answer all orders to the re- satisfaction of those who may favor him with their patronage.

The proprietor is prepared to execute promptly and at the

LOW PRICES

Which he shall name, the following articles:

BILL HEADS, BLANKS, BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS, BUSINESS CARDS, TICKET WRITING CARDS, CHECKS PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in black, bronze or red ink, or Bronze of every shade. on white or fancy colored paper.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of plain, neat ruled and bordered, white and colored Letter and Note Paper, adapted to every description of work—in packs and in bunds—at the lowest rates.

J. D. PUTNAM,

Corner of Merrimack and Middle streets.

WEST INDIA GOODS, CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES, COUNTRY PRODUCE, EARTHENWARE, &c.

No. 28 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.

☞ Please call and see the following articles, viz:—

PORTO RICO—The best and most approved brands; Eye Brand, Bunch and Star.

SUGAR—Brown, Syp. Cla. and Prime Porto Rico.

MOLASSES—Cuba Clayed, Cuba Muscovado, Porto Rico Clayed and Muscovado, Trinidad, Antigua, Barbadoes and Demerara.

COFFEE—Java, Young Hyson, Imperial and Gunpowder TEAS—Souchong, Oolong, Pekoe, Young Hyson, Imperial and Gunpowder.

SPICES—Cassia, Cloves, Ginger, Pepper, Nutmegs, Mace and Cinnamon, &c. (pure ground and ground).

SALERATUS—Dwight's Cow Brand, Church & Co.'s Arm and Hammer, Taylor's Pearl, Hecker's Pearl, Wilson's Pearl, Wilson's Sal Soda, Taylor's Sal Soda, Hecker's Sal Soda, Wilson's Cream Tartar, Taylor's Cream Tartar, Hecker's Cream Tartar, &c.

COUNTRY PRODUCE—Pork, Lard, Beans, Dried Apples, Potatoes, Onions, Cheese, Eggs, Butter, &c.

EARTHENWARE—Stone Butter, Soda, Pickle, Oyster, Preserve and Cooking Jars.

BOTTLES—Pickle, English Walnut, Almonds, Castors, Cruet, Vial and Ink.

WOODEN WARE—Painted Pails, Tubs, Churns, Measures, Brushes, Clothes Pins, Clothes Lines, Mats, Baskets, Market Baskets, Wash Boards, Brooms, Shovels, Tongs, Scrubbing Brushes, Shaker Brooms, Dusters, Corn Brooms, Scrubbers, &c.

CARPETINGS—Ingrain, Venetian, Hemp, Cottage, Rag and Straw Carpeting.

OILCLOTHS—Sept. Printed, Stencil, Border and Floor Oilcloths.

CIGARS AND TOBACCO—Various approved brands of Cigars and Tobacco, Scotch Snuff, &c.

SUNDRIES—Starch, Indigo, Blacking, Matches, Chocolate, Cocoa, Cocoa Paste, Cocoa Shells, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Cocoa Shells, Chocolate, Cocoa Paste, Cocoa Shells, Chocolate

One paragraph some time after the above conversation, Frank entered the parlor, his countenance beaming with mischief, saying: "Why, Lina, I have a secret to tell you, but if you say one word to anybody, I'll never forgive you." "I know Every Lawyer, when I engage in your case, will be allowed to bring with him the Comte Adolph D'Any-ho-ne, a distinguished Frenchman whom he met when in Europe, and who has come to this most progressive country to seek in America a more congenial climate." You know, Madelon, my unspeakable aversion to anything in the shape of a foreigner; but I can't see that anything would be wanting of exciting one of the curiosities to grace your party; and I thought as you are the bride, I would not be denied her first request. I promised once more to his cousin. With the exception of Frank, all seemed to have no palliation of sympathy. But we conjecturize our proposition, Adam, that all his posterity, like Frank, in a few generations, are not so "far gone from original righteousness," but that some of them still retain a sufficient degree of the moral sense to appreciate the beauties of pure justice and abhor the deformities of place-hunters whose infamy defies history for a parallel. Then hypocrisy is deemed a virtue and duplicity a necessary grace, soon do well to hold.

The Southern Country of Middlesex (to say nothing of their colleagues in other counties), comprise a large minority of the wealthiest solid men, of the oldest public men, and of the most gifted young men in the county. If they do not nominate supreme candidates, and battle for a distinction, it will not be because they look "contented old" to support such a convict, or the minority so insolent it to a not dishonorable issue. But in this battle it will not be because the Whigs, of course no other party, however affluent in numbers or talent, could in any event succeed. We trust, however, that for the sake of their own honor, for the sake of consistency, they believe from the last State Convention will never succumb to the clique over whose servile shoulders Henry Wilson aspires to ride into the chief-executive magistracy.

Three Days Later from Europe.

The steamship Baltic, from Liverpool, 2 P. M., 27th July, with 167 passengers, arrived at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at New York. The Arctic had arrived out on the 24th ult.

Among the Baltic's passengers are Bishop McIlvaine, J. Bayard Henry, Reed, Hall, Gen. Cooper, and Mons. Fillion and family.

The ship S. L., from New York to Liverpool, had not been seen, July 7th, in lat. 49, long. 23, spontaneous combustion—all hands saved.

The Turkish difficulty is considered settled. The escort of the Czar to the last reported is not yet received, but daily expected.

The state of things in Great Britain is on the whole considered to be good. There are no indications of the potato rot.

Of France we have no more of the crops premium well everywhere. The funds are steady.

It is said that the opening of the French ports for breadstuffs is more by quiet anxiety than from any fear of scarcity.

Christina of Spain is in Paris, intriguing, they say, to marry her daughter to prince De Joinville, and so set up the young couple as king and queen of Mexico, or any other South American State that will accept them.

The grape disease is feared at Portugal.

It is reported that England is negotiating with Denmark to obtain the command of the Sound of the Baltic.

If we are to credit the Russia, it is denied that Kossuth will be short in Italy this year.

It is rumored at Constantinople that the United States are negotiating to purchase the port of Marmorica.

The Russians are quiet in the Principalities. The Black Sea remains unchanged. The St. Louis had left Smyrna. Two Austrian frigates had arrived.

News from the Cape of Good Hope is to June 11. All quiet.

The cholera [illegible] Wednesday, 27th, brings nothing particularly noticeable.

The Indian mail has arrived at Trieste with dates to Hong Kong to June 7, Calcutta 14, Bombay 20.

The Empire of China is divided, and Kwahin is independent of the Imperial power. Great anarchy prevailed at Canton, and there were encroachments of a thing.

Death in Derby in Gaf. Exchange at Calcutta on London 2 1-2.

From the last the intelligence is that an advance had been made on Ava.

The most elementary formation was lost on the passage from Hong Kong to Yokohama, but was subsequently found.

A dispatch states that an Austrian Cabinet courier left Vienna on St. Petersburg with an important despatch addressed by the Austrian Government; that they were to the effect that Turkey would yield on the principality of the Danube Provinces, but that their form should be changed, &c.

Vienna, July 12. The misunderstanding between the Austrian government and that of the United States is likely to be a serious one. On both the Italian refugees in Constantinople, see Mr Marsh's demands, and the American diplomatist closes not on his baloney-and-gravy fare for the freedom of the United States, Italy and Hungary.

On the 12th, as soon as the two Austrian frigates, Bellona and Novarra, sailed into Smyrna harbor, the United States sloop weighed anchor and left.

The Austrian press asserts that the assassin of the young cadet, a certain Dassin, an Hungarian, was in the service of Mr Lewis, the English clergyman, and it is hinted that the revered and gentleman connived at the murderer's escape.

Omer Pasha is constructing a fortified camp near Shumla.

A conspiracy has just been discovered; forty seven persons have been arrested, some of them being students.

The difference between Austria and Switzerland are nearly settled. The vanguard of the Russian armies had entered on the 24th ult.

"If I can be re-elected, I can make a great deal of money," wrote Mr Stanton, of Kentucky. The New Bedford Mercury hopes that every free person who have not had business before Congress, understand the enormous corruption of the capital. Private claims are notoriously bought through both Houses, and many a member has made "a great deal of money" by sharing in the plunder which he robbed from the treasury. Indeed it has been reduced to a regular system, and there is so much competition in it, that sometimes the price of passing a claim through the House has been as low as ten per cent. A distinguished Pennsylvanian, who is not a member of the House, of his own party, who had made a fortune by private claims. There are circumstances connected with one measure of appropriation which was carried through the last Congress, that would astonish the country, assessment as it is to the corruption of Congress.

The root of this great evil is in the system introduced by Gen. Jackson and followed by every succeeding administration, of making the offices of the government the rewards of partisan services, regarding them, as one of the leaders of the Democracy declared, as the spoils of the vanquished. This makes a trade of politics, and any party into it they would go into any other speculation, to make the most out of it. From this comes the bribery at elections, which threatens to destroy life, if not fatal, consequences to our institutions."

Absolute Alliance. La Republicana of the 31st inst. characterizes the "Democracy of Seward" here, since 1853, formed a secret "holy alliance." The Jesuits gave the idea, at once put in practice by the adherents of Mr Seward. Then the league embraces France, Russia, Austria, Rome, Belgium and Spain. It is to work in all the Spanish countries of America, and to operate in the interior of each State, against liberal institutions—a war fomented against the nations who are not in the pay. The partisans of the Pope, the company of Jesus, have furnished the directing committee; M. Carlier, an ex-prefect of M. Bonaparte, is charged with discharging no determinate functions, is the traveling agent. This political league is not a chimera, it is a secret, existing the threats of the conspiracy—the object of whose mysterious operations is to annihilate Socialism, Democracy, Liberalism and Protestantism. In these societies consists is manifested and planned the ruin and subjection of those nations whose liberties may not be stifled under the extinguisher of Catholicism. The dark conspirators have marked England and the United States as the worst of the world, with a red cross, which designates those countries for prescription, should they prove difficult to subdue."

Afternoon Incident. A most heart-rending story is related of the death by fire of two little boys, sons of a Mr King in Auburn, Onondaga County, Ohio. Mr King was absent. During the night of the event, Mrs King was twice aroused by a smell as of fire, which, however she was unable to detect. About three in the morning she was aroused by the falling in of the roof of the woodshed. On the neighbors raised the alarm, and the children sleeping below were soon aware that the house was on fire. As is understood from the fact that the boys were sleeping up stairs. Being awakened by the cry of fire, the older brothers, passing through another room and awakening the two younger brothers, (about ten or twelve years of age) who they supposed would follow them into the street. Being in his possession at the brothers thus aroused ran to the head of the stairs to descend, but, being met by sheet of flame, turned and made good his escape at the window, (leaping with all possible speed to the rescue of his neighbors, he entered the house against the alarm by saying he had "got out safe, having burned his hands a little." The boy went to bed, and on the next of the family rushed to the scene of conflagration to give aid to the sufferers. Information was given of the arrival of the boy, and supposing the other had followed him, the wretched family felt somewhat relieved. Whilst the spectators were looking into the flames for any further signs of life, and so set up the young couple as king and queen of Mexico, or any other South American State that will accept them.

The grape disease is feared at Portugal.

It is reported that England is negotiating with Denmark to obtain the command of the Sound of the Baltic.

If we are to credit the Russia, it is denied that Kossuth will be short in Italy this year.

It is rumored at Constantinople that the United States are negotiating to purchase the port of Marmorica.

The Russians are quiet in the Principalities. The Black Sea remains unchanged. The St. Louis had left Smyrna. Two Austrian frigates had arrived.

News from the Cape of Good Hope is to June 11. All quiet.

The cholera [illegible] Wednesday, 27th, brings nothing particularly noticeable.

The Indian mail has arrived at Trieste with dates to Hong Kong to June 7, Calcutta 14, Bombay 20.

The Empire of China is divided, and Kwahin is independent of the Imperial power. Great anarchy prevailed at Canton, and there were encroachments of a thing.

Death in Derby in Gaf. Exchange at Calcutta on London 2 1-2.

From the last the intelligence is that an advance had been made on Ava.

The most elementary formation was lost on the passage from Hong Kong to Yokohama, but was subsequently found.

The Russian Frederick Prince Imperial, who, by dating with this count, and I will let him see that I am not to be slighted in my dignity." And for the rest of the evening a pout was about as much as the spirit of Fred's cheering instincts.

Chevalier Bunsomer.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Monday, August 8, 1853.

The Bunker Scandals.

We are not surprised to learn that the Provisional Executive Committee of the bolting Democrats of the last year's Massachusetts Democratic State Convention, propose to call a separate Convention of their own. It would have been surprising if, after the unprincipled and meretricious conduct of the majority party in the late Convention, and the unprincipled means by which the old-line democracy did not halt, reconsider themselves, and revolt, before they jaued hands with that old enemy of freedom. Indeed, when we consider the conduct of the Executive in selling off the patronage administration fritter, no automatic a political weathercock, or base a sycophant as Caleb Cushing—in neglecting to patronize those whose well-tried democracy had stood the brunt of many a bitter fray,—in dealing out the loaves and fishes of emolument to renegades hauled in the nets of Bedlamism,—and in admitting to the public crib the followers of William Lloyd Garrisonism—it might well appear that, if virtue had not quite died out and consistency was still somewhat degree of the moral sense, there would be soon such a split in the ranks of the Administration as would bring the recreant President once more to his senses.

With the above premises, we should not have no palliation of sympathy. But we conjecturize our proposition, Adam, that all his posterity, like Frank, in a few generations, are not so "far gone from original righteousness," but that some of them still retain a sufficient degree of the moral sense to appreciate the beauties of pure justice and abhor the deformities of place-hunters whose infamy defies history for a parallel. Then hypocrisy is deemed a virtue and duplicity a necessary grace, soon do well to hold.

The Southern Country of Middlesex (to say nothing of their colleagues in other counties), comprise a large minority of the wealthiest solid men, of the oldest public men, and of the most gifted young men in the county. If they do not nominate supreme candidates, and battle for a distinction, it will not be because they look "contented old" to support such a convict, or the minority so insolent it to a not dishonorable issue. But in this battle it will not be because the Whigs, of course no other party, however affluent in numbers or talent, could in any event succeed. We trust, however, that for the sake of their own honor, for the sake of consistency, they believe from the last State Convention will never succumb to the clique over whose servile shoulders Henry Wilson aspires to ride into the chief-executive magistracy.

Three Days Later from Europe.

The steamship Baltic, from Liverpool, 2 P. M., 27th July, with 167 passengers, arrived at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at New York. The Arctic had arrived out on the 24th ult.

Among the Baltic's passengers are Bishop McIlvaine, J. Bayard Henry, Reed, Hall, Gen. Cooper, and Mons. Fillion and family.

The ship S. L., from New York to Liverpool, had not been seen, July 7th, in lat. 49, long. 23, spontaneous combustion—all hands saved.

The Turkish difficulty is considered settled. The escort of the Czar to the last reported is not yet received, but daily expected.

The state of things in Great Britain is on the whole considered to be good. There are no indications of the potato rot.

Of France we have no more of the crops premium well everywhere. The funds are steady.

It is said that the opening of the French ports for breadstuffs is more by quiet anxiety than from any fear of scarcity.

Christina of Spain is in Paris, intriguing, they say, to marry her daughter to prince De Joinville, and so set up the young couple as king and queen of Mexico, or any other South American State that will accept them.

The grape disease is feared at Portugal.

It is reported that England is negotiating with Denmark to obtain the command of the Sound of the Baltic.

If we are to credit the Russia, it is denied that Kossuth will be short in Italy this year.

It is rumored at Constantinople that the United States are negotiating to purchase the port of Marmorica.

The Russians are quiet in the Principalities. The Black Sea remains unchanged. The St. Louis had left Smyrna. Two Austrian frigates had arrived.

News from the Cape of Good Hope is to June 11. All quiet.

The cholera [illegible] Wednesday, 27th, brings nothing particularly noticeable.

The Indian mail has arrived at Trieste with dates to Hong Kong to June 7, Calcutta 14, Bombay 20.

The Empire of China is divided, and Kwahin is independent of the Imperial power. Great anarchy prevailed at Canton, and there were encroachments of a thing.

Death in Derby in Gaf. Exchange at Calcutta on London 2 1-2.

From the last the intelligence is that an advance had been made on Ava.

The most elementary formation was lost on the passage from Hong Kong to Yokohama, but was subsequently found.

The Russian Frederick Prince Imperial, who, by dating with this count, and I will let him see that I am not to be slighted in my dignity." And for the rest of the evening a pout was about as much as the spirit of Fred's cheering instincts.

Chevalier Bunsomer.

CITY MATTERS.

Freeman's Counsellor. The Board of Re-gloners have fixed on Thursday, Sept. 15th, as the day for the Firemen's Jubilee in this city. Great unanimity exists among the firemen in regard to this movement, and appearances warrant us to state that it will be a grand affair—for then, the elements of which are now engaged in it, fixes it beyond the possibility of doubt. A subscription paper has been circulated to a limited extent among our citizens, outside the department, and as this notice has not been circulated, but one hundred dollars have already been subscribed, one firm (Brooks & Tyler) giving $100; others have subscribed liberally. It will be necessary, in order to carry the affair out in a proper manner, to raise about $2000, and we trust the call upon our citizens by the fire department, will be generously responded to. It is now decided that the celebration will take place, and we hope our firemen will be enabled to do it in a manner alike creditable to the department and our city.

☞ The Wamesit Engine Company No. 3, of this city, have challenged the Merrimack Engine Co. No. 4, of Merrimack, (Nashua) to a contest on Saturday night, and were received at the depot by No. 4, (Merrimack) escorted to French's Hotel, where a collation was in readiness. The Wamesit boys were highly pleased with their visit.

Gaffers Excited. Several days since the stock of Mr. Ward, a dry goods dealer in this city, was attached by a sheriff, and a keeper put in the store; the store has remained closed the several days, with a keeper inside. This forenoon Mr. Ward went to the store for the purpose of being in his possession, and whereupon he, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Page, made an assault on the door with a single [illegible] broke in its pieces, seized the keeper and took the books, creating no little excitement in the vicinity of the store.

American Citizenship Asserted. Constable Fuller arrested in this city, on Saturday last, a man by the name of Joseph Shrier, of Canada, who has for the past two months been a counterfeit money, of the following kinds and denominations:—Two 10's on the Franklin Bank of Salina, N. Y., and fourteen 5's on the Troy, N. Y., Bank. He has been identified as the man who passed a counterfeit 10 at the State Bank, Providence, R. I., in this city. This morning he was before the Police Court, and committed in default of $1000 for his appearance on the 17th inst.

A large amount of counterfeit money has been passed in this city recently, and our police have shown themselves very active and successful, in arresting the offenders. All who have knowledge concerning it, should at once report to City Marshal Read, who is an authorized agent for the Bank Association for the detection of counterfeiters.

☞ We are indebted to Jas. P. Walker for a neat copy of Sterling's excellent history of the Church of Christ at Pilgrim Pilch. As a record of that distinguished monarch's mind during his last and retired years, this book is invaluable. The typographical appearance is excellent. It is for sale at Mr Walker's store, Merrimack st.

Rum-acity so. Every body knows Tommy Kelly, and has probably seen him in a variety of chronic moanness as the city affords. Well, Tommy is a chicken-raiser, and the other day borrowed four eggs of a neighbor, to complete a set. He marked them, Tommy did—and as only chickens, returned to return to their nest. The neighbor, curious to see how for Tommy's disposition would carry him, sent them back, and found that four was the number borrowed. Whereupon, Tommy gives vent to his indignation in babbling grumpsy, ensemble chirpy, and in a seemingly dirty paper. (Neighbor R. says that it was wrapping-paper, which he had saved from some of his store purchases.)—Still the eggs are returned, with a persistence in demanding four. Tommy went give four. Now, gentlemen, attorneys all, can he be made to pay that other egg?

Not bad. One of our enterprising brethren has just had a bad attack of the chalera morbus the other night, accompanied, of course, with the usual quota of vomiting. A friend of his, who was not entirely broad in his views, undertook better care of him, replied, "O, I knew he was going off with the engine company the next morning, and thought he was only relieving his big quoit."

Police Court—Saturday, Aug. 6. Thos McDermott, for drunkenness, fined $1.00 and costs.

John McMahon, for drunkenness, fined $1.00 and costs.

John and Catharine Barry, for fighting and disturbing the peace, fined $2.00 and half the costs.

William Bamforno, for larceny of a watch, case postponed till Tuesday.

Dudley Hay, for drunkenness, fined $2 and costs.

Joseph Brown, for drunkenness, fined $5.00 and costs.

John Lynch, for drunkenness, fined $1 and costs.

Rev. F. Butler. The News is responsible for the following:

"On Dit—That Rev. Butler is to be one of the coalition candidates for Senator of Middlesex South."

We sincerely hope this rumor is true, though we fear are to be disappointed. Mr Butler never could command the whole strength even of his own party. His friends would not dare to run him on any ticket where he must run alone, and when he really desires to be elected. No man could more easily be defeated by the whigs. In this way, we hope the rumor is true.—But—"the wish is father to the thought;" and we hope the wish will in this case be realized.

Abstracts. Some fellow pre-eminent in knavery, has just learned to clothe "the daughter of a bell-man in the style of a prodigal," by undertaking to revive the late unhealthy agitation on the fathers, who arrived with all possible haste, and saved over his dying boy until the next day, when he expired.

List of Patents issued from the United States Patent Office for the week ending Aug. 2d, 1853, to residents of the New England States:

James A. Bailie, of Canton, Mass.—For improvement in coal-mining machines. Dated August 2, 1853.

Jos. A. Schofield, of Westerly, R. I.—For improvement in the breech-loading cannon. Dated August 2, 1853.

Ethiel B. Stevens, of Fitchburg, Mass.—For improvement in atmospheric telegraph and railway. Dated August 2, 1853. Ratcheted Feb. 2, 1845.

Samuel Day, 2d, Rogglee, of Boston, Mass.—For improvement in cooking stoves. Dated August 2, 1853. Antedated Feb. 2, 1845.

☞ The Providence Journal mentions the death of one of the guests rat in some parts of Rhode Island.

Ship Sovereign of the Seas. This famed American built clipper, built at East Boston, is advertised at Liverpool for Melbourne. A note. The advertisement says:

"Freight £7 per ton to the wharf, and returning, £6 per ton if she does not load. Either party may consider on the berth, &c. or in London. Freight without warranty, according to agreement."

Remarkably Great Britain is also advertised to make the passage in 64 days.

☞ Col. J. S. Darling, of Leominster, has been appointed Inspector in the Boston Custom House.

☞ Bishop Kemper has called a Convention of the Representatives of the Churches of Iowa to meet at Muscatine on the 17th of August, to take measures for constituting that State an Episcopal Diocese.

☞ The Lynn News nominates the Hon. Alexander H. Bullock, of Worcester, for the next Governor of Massachusetts.

☞ The epidemic fever is committing great ravages at New Orleans.

☞ There are 22 persons in the jails of this country under sentence of death.

Obs. Scott's Vote. Those windy ignoramuses, who are eternally blustering about the hopeless condition of whigism, will do well to study the following extract from a letter of the U. S. Senate, by Mr Underwood:

Mr President—I am a "matter-of-fact man." I desire to see a fair vote and a fair count, for what has been sold by the Senator from Arkansas, Douglas to Tombigbee, by the Senator from Kentucky, Mr Underwood, from the Chesapeake to the Mississippi, and from the Ohio to the Gulf, and by the Senator from Massachusetts, Mr Everett, from Plymouth Rock to Bunker Hill, and by every Senator. Sell to Lowell by C. S. Eastman & Co., Merrimack street, Lowell.

Latest Dates.

From Liverpool.....July 12
From Havre.....July 13
From Bremen.....July 16

Sales at Sheriffs Stock and Exchange Board.
Aug. 6, 1853.

$23 W. Central Railroad.....17 1-2
A large number of shares of new road and at Boston and Maine Railroad.....208 1-2
" Boston and Maine Railroad.....208 1-2
" Boston and Lowell Railroad.....97
" Nashua and Lowell Railroad.....97
" Charlestown Railroad (preferred).....108 a 107
" Eastern Railroad.....97
" Boston and Worcester Railroad.....97
" Boston, Concord & Montreal R.R.....97 1-2
" Fitchburg Railroad.....97 1-2
" Vermont & Mass. R.R.....97 1-2
" Boston & Providence R.R.....97 1-2
" Boston & Maine R.R.....97 1-2
" Boston & Lowell R.R.....97 1-2
" Boston & Worcester

THE COURIER.

JOB PRINTING
OFFICE,

Connected therewith are Book and Job presses, &c., [Lowell] where the very finest work can be executed.

FAST PRESSES,

of every description of work, from the smallest Visiting Card to the largest Posting Card—together with an ample supply of well-chosen varieties of handsome plain and fancy

JOB TYPE,

the proprietors believe that its facilities for executing every variety of

PRINTING

are such as to enable him to answer all orders to the entire satisfaction of those who may favor him with their patronage.

The proprietors is prepared to execute promptly and also at

LOW PRICES

as can be offered any where.

BILL HEADS AND MEDIUM POSTERS,
SHOP BILLS, TRADE CARDS,
CATALOGUES,
CIRCULARS, BLANKS,
BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,
BUSINESS AND VISITING CARDS, TICKETS and CHECKS,
PLAIN AND FANCY
LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, in Bronze of every shade, on white or fancy colored paper.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of plain, pearl and fancy cut commercial, white and colored CARDS, adapted to every description of work—in packages and in quantities to suit purchasers.

☞ Orders by mail promptly attended to.

J. D. PUTNAM,
Agent.

WEST INDIA GOODS, CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES, COUNTRY PRODUCE, FARMERS' STORE AND WOODEN WARE, &c., &c.,
No. 88 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.

Has for sale the following articles, viz:

1000 BBLS. Genesee superfine and extra superfine brands; Rye and Indian Flour.
BAGS—Rye, Corn and Indian.
BUTTER AND CHEESE—Vermont Dairies.
LARD—Leaf, Kettle Rendered and Common.
PROVISIONS—Hams, Tongues, Shoulders, Pork, Beef, Mess and Prime.
TEAS—Hyson, Young Hyson, Imperial, Gunpowder, Southong, Oolong, Souchong and Pekoe.
COFFEE—Mocha, Java, Porto Cabello, St. Domingo, Laguayra, Rio and Maracaibo, Roasted and Ground.
DRIED FRUIT—Apples, Peaches and Blackberries.
Canned Goods, Pipe, Prunes, &c.
SPICES—Cassia, Cloves, Pepper, Ginger, Cinnamon, Cream tartar and ground, Cayenne Pepper, Mustard, &c.
SOAP—Family, Castile and Fancy.
CANDLES—Sperm, Adamantine, Patent Sperm, Pale and Common.
PAINTS—Lead, Zinc, Varnishes Window Glass, Linseed Oil, Turpentine, &c.
HARDWARE—Patent Pails, Tubs, Trays, Bowls, Brushes, Brooms, Shovels, Spades, Forks, Hoes, Rakes, Axes, Hatchets, Hammers, Nails, Spikes, Screws, Locks, Latches, Hinges, Screw Eyes, Hooks, Bolts, Chains, Rivets, Burs, Iron and Steel, Files, Rasps, Vises, Anvils, Bellows, Sleigh Shoes, Sleigh Bells, Spring Steel, Carriage Springs, Axletree Boxes, Horse Shoes, Horse Nails, Iron Rods, Sheet Iron, Tinned Iron, Copper Bottoms, Tinned Sheet Iron, Tinned Wire, Iron Wire, Brass Wire, Copper Wire, Zinc, Solder, Block Tin, Pipe, Sheet Lead, Shot, Powder, Fuse, Percussion Caps, Gunpowder, Rifle Powder, Sporting Powder, Blasting Powder, Saltpetre, Sulphur, Rifles, Shot Guns, Pistols, Gun Materials, Powder Flasks, Shot Belts, Game Bags, Percussion Caps, Wads, Gun Implements, Fishing Tackle, Fishing Lines, Hooks, Sinkers, Reels, Rods, Floats, Baskets, Fishing Boots, Fishing Coats, Fishing Hats, Fishing Caps, Fishing Pants, Fishing Vests, Fishing Shoes, Fishing Stockings, Fishing Gloves, Fishing Suspenders, Fishing Belts, Fishing Knives, Fishing Pouches, Fishing Lines, Fishing Hooks, Fishing Sinkers, Fishing Reels, Fishing Rods, Fishing Floats, Fishing

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Tuesday, August 2, 1859.

The Gatherings of the Prince Fenboy.

There are many reasons for the opinion, that the present seasonal administration is a decided improvement upon those that preceded it. Its members, in the estimation of the people, are more than the compeers of nobodies. In the estimation of the friend of Order, they are the representatives of the spirit of the unbeclouded orgasm of the Presidency and Cabinet—and we are aware how many a sagacious man has been deceived in the same way by the loud damage to progression super-abounding in the first months of a new administration. A fair article, we contend to have been read and endorsed by the Presidential print in the quadrangle of Washington, in the name of the Washington Union, declaring that the government of the United States was constituted by three of terms to prevent the concentration of power in the hands of a single individual. A fair article, we contend, declaring that the Southern Bread, the Southern Meat, the Southern Cotton, the Southern Sugar, and the Southern Rice must always be the main stay of the Union, and that the Northern Manufactures are bound to obey their behests. If they are unreasonable in their demands—if they are unjust—if they are for bidding us to eat our own Pinions. For your own Bill of Fare you must submit. Your father may be angry at first, but he will soon relent when he finds that you are still capable of fighting his battles. Did you do not answer, Madeline; you do not think your father hard?

Madeline was still silent; for, though she knew that the old gentleman's anger would be suppressed when he found that she was not naturally blended in favor of the cousin that she did not attempt to contradict him.

"You do not love me, Madeline, or you would not blush and hesitate to decide. Choose, d'Augustine leaves you forever." And so saying, he rose from his seat to depart.

Madeline, for the first time, raised her eyes to meet those of her lover. Her cheek was pale, her eyes red—proof that Warren, in his love and affection, much decline, and that his reproaches, sighs and plumes lying on a chair by his side, were not the effects of a moment's caprice. Madeline, I think I must accede unto to my opponent; and though, as he does not deserve it, I will give you to him."

All that followed the parlor door burst open, and Madeline's father and mother entered, followed by Fred, who laughed heartily at the success of their plot, which entirely solved Madeline whether she had broken her father's commandments in the power of her lover. Mr. Hamilton, noticing her fixed in the father's shoulder, declared that "she was completely cured of her prejudices against sailors since it was a cousin" and "he pretended her to thanks as kind a parent. And," said she, "I hope he will not be angry with me for the part I have acted, having betrayed him through Harry Lawton and he had related another several times; and they separated for the night.

"Well, Master Madeline," said Fred, "don't quibble; I beg of you, for you know you were conquered, and did not, for you know, compact the event to be sportive."

Mr. Hamilton and acquaintance of Mr. Hamilton and acquaintance of Mr. Hamilton and acquaintance of

THE COURIER
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE,
Corner of Central and Middle streets,
(Entrance Old Market)

FAST PRESSES,

JOB TYPE,

PRINTING

LOW PRICES

HANDBILLS, POSTERS,
CARDS, BILL HEADS, BLANKS,
BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,
CARDS,
PLAIN AND FANCY
LABELS,

J. D. PUTNAM,
PROPRIETOR.
WEST INDIA GOODS, CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES, COUNTRY PRODUCE, SAUSAGES, STONE WARE, &c., &c.
No. 26 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.

LINSEED OIL, PAINTS, &c.
1000 Gals. Boiled Linseed Oil
1000 " Raw "
1000 lbs. Chrome Yellow
1000 " Prussian Blue
1000 " Ochre
1000 " Venetian Red
1000 " Spanish Brown
1000 " Lampblack
1000 " Whiting
1000 " Litharge
1000 " Red Lead
1000 " French Yellow
10 bbls. Patent Yellow
10 " Vermilion Red
10 " Rose Pink
10 " Verditer Blue
10 " Chrome Yellow, No. 1
10 " Chrome Green

Wally Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Wednesday, August 10, 1853

The Veto of the Democratic Press.

The voice of the democratic press of the country is unanimous of good to the national whig party. Of the principal journals which constituted the claims of Gen. Pierce in the late contest, many, North and South, now denounced his unmanly workings of the abolitionists and southern Sectionalists. The Jeffersonian, a paper of the old-line democratic school, published at Mt. Vernon, in Illinois, now one most marked and indignant language in reference to the course of the New York Barnburners. And the Illinois Bibliotion denounces Pierce and Douglas, speaking of the latter as follows:

"Stephen A. Douglas, professing to be a democrat, and receiving the democratic confidence, deposed his party when his interests was promoted in opposition. By the unprincipled appointment of Thos. Hayes, and other abolitionists, to office in this State, he has set opposition to the wishes of the people. As to the northern abolitionists, they are universally and justly classified by the world.

Senator Douglas has said to the two democracy:—Constitutional Democrats—You have proved by me to be knave or profligate, or both; you watched over and tended my interests, and I have repaid you by treachery and mortal my manhood; you have done your duty, and your sentiments amply repay you for your toil; you have defended the cause of my unholy greatness. In the amalgamation in the cold mixture of the two democracies, you and Bid me imbibe the worst poisons of your veins. Think not that I will ever forget them are unworthy to bear them. Between them I shed your noble blood, and I will be no more between you and you."

There have been many things in the political conduct of Judge Douglas to excite suspicion in the minds of honest men; but we were not prepared for sentiments like those contained in the extract we have given, and we cannot believe that the great mass of the democracy will endorse them. Such sentiments exist in this Commonwealth, we know, but we cannot believe that they represent even in this Commonwealth a majority of the democratic party. We have been told that the intention of the writer of the above was, to say that it appears that there is a conspiracy on foot to overthrow our free institutions exist in this Commonwealth;—a sentiment which we have heard from time to time, but which we have never believed. That there are a great many democrats who are opposed to the leaning policy applied by Kennedy to the policy of the postmaster, we think the election of the Democratic candidate for Governor, is also such a mistake as the greatest admirer might make when in haste, and in the voice of a majority would not be willing to call the election over this previous discovery with all the confidence of a prophecy. Bitty may be disappointed.

Washington, Aug. 5. The intelligence received this morning from Indiana gives a more favorable account of the crops than has been received from that State. Many, Democrats, H.H., and Know-Nothings, are determined to fight if interrupted. Many speculators have sold up their contracts on the observed that the appointments in unanounced terms, or even refused to be made until satisfactorily adjusted to political quarrelers, and everywhere we hear the expression that the Democratic party must be speedily reorganized. Since obscurity has become a crime to be punished by the severest penalties, the country surrounded by public sentiment and plundering intellect, ready to peddle their souls for a bauble, and to sell their country for a mess of pottage to the White House in the Cabinet or lodgings in the White House.

"In democracy are everywhere broken, discord reigns supreme, and the noble structure reared in 1787 now lies in ruins, and before the convict of '76 it will, we predict, be overgrown with weeds of abolition growth.

The U. S. Gazette, Jeffersonian speaks in a style which is unmistakable. It takes high ground against the encroachments of the abolitionists, by the enemies of the democratic party of this State, and we hope has the fortitude to speak out the truth, and to speak what he thinks. Senator Douglas may take a pack of scuff, but the Mt. Vernon Jeffersonian is not to be put down.

How humiliating to see our public journals stalking like pickpockets, down some dirty alley! Why not come out, gentlemen, and show your countenance? If you endorse Judge Douglas' course why not be his apologists? If you cannot do so, why not cease your hypocritical professions? Why possess silence any longer? It was upon this unworthy alliance the democracy of this State relied to sustain them in the political contest of last fall.

A democratic member of Congress from the first district of New York, Hon. James Maurice, also denounces the administration, saying, "If I had, it possible that in the first appointment of the last Baltimore Democratic Convention would have honored to the furtherance of a free-soil democracy, I would not have been returned for your suffrages. And if the good body of the Democratic people had not been deceived into his support, as I believe they were, and Pierce would still be practicing law at Concord, and Douglas would be in the quiet pursuits and the jurisprudence of New Hampshire."

Complaints like these are extremely fertile of reflection.

The proposed number of the Knickerbocker has become quickened and strengthened by Addresses on the State's page, quotes an extension saying "It appears that there is a deep-seated hatred that grows out and carry-Democracy entertained to exist in this Commonwealth. We have heard of it in private circles, and in this connection with "—a sentiment which we have heard from time to time—but we have never believed. That there are a great many democrats who are opposed to the leaning policy applied by Kennedy to the policy of the postmaster, we think the election of the Democratic candidate for Governor, is also such a mistake as the greatest admirer might make when in haste, and in the voice of a majority would not be willing to call the election over this previous discovery with all the confidence of a prophecy." Bitty may be disappointed.

Washington, Aug. 5. The intelligence received this morning from Indiana gives a more favorable account of the crops than has been received from that State. Many Democrats, H.H., and Know-Nothings, are determined to fight if interrupted. Many speculators have sold up their contracts on the observed that the appointments in unanounced terms, or even refused to be made until satisfactorily adjusted to political quarrelers, and everywhere we hear the expression that the Democratic party must be speedily reorganized. Since obscurity has become a crime to be punished by the severest penalties, the country surrounded by public sentiment and plundering intellect, ready to peddle their souls for a bauble, and to sell their country for a mess of pottage to the White House in the Cabinet or lodgings in the White House.

"In democracy are everywhere broken, discord reigns supreme, and the noble structure reared in 1787 now lies in ruins, and before the convict of '76 it will, we predict, be overgrown with weeds of abolition growth.

The U. S. Gazette, Jeffersonian speaks in a style which is unmistakable. It takes high ground against the encroachments of the abolitionists, by the enemies of the democratic party of this State, and we hope has the fortitude to speak out the truth, and to speak what he thinks. Senator Douglas may take a pack of scuff, but the Mt. Vernon Jeffersonian is not to be put down.

How humiliating to see our public journals stalking, like pickpockets, down some dirty alley! Why not come out, gentlemen, and show your countenance? If you endorse Judge Douglas' course why not be his apologists? If you cannot do so, why not cease your hypocritical professions? Why possess silence any longer? It was upon this unworthy alliance the democracy of this State relied to sustain them in the political contest of last fall.

A democratic member of Congress from the first district of New York, Hon. James Maurice, also denounces the administration, saying, "If I had, it possible that in the first appointment of the last Baltimore Democratic Convention would have honored to the furtherance of a free-soil democracy, I would not have been returned for your suffrages. And if the good body of the Democratic people had not been deceived into his support, as I believe they were, and Pierce would still be practicing law at Concord, and Douglas would be in the quiet pursuits and the jurisprudence of New Hampshire."

Complaints like these are extremely fertile of reflection.

The proposed number of the Knickerbocker has become quickened and strengthened by Addresses on the State's page, quotes an extension saying "It appears that there is a deep-seated hatred that grows out and carry-Democracy entertained to exist in this Commonwealth. We have heard of it in private circles, and in this connection with "—a sentiment which we have heard from time to time—but we have never believed. That there are a great many democrats who are opposed to the leaning policy applied by Kennedy to the policy of the postmaster, we think the election of the Democratic candidate for Governor, is also such a mistake as the greatest admirer might make when in haste, and in the voice of a majority would not be willing to call the election over this previous discovery with all the confidence of a prophecy." Bitty may be disappointed.

CITY MATTERS.

Temperance Lecture. Mr Pease will deliver a Temperance Lecture at Jackson Hall, this evening.

☞ To-morrow we shall publish the annual list of those who pay $50 and upwards taxes, on property in this city, together with the amount of appropriations for the current year, and such statistical matter of interest to other cities.

Lowell. The Criminal Court at Concord has adjourned; all the search warrants issued in Pomeroy's case were given up to the Supreme Court, except the one in the case of Hutchins, which was not-proved. Apropos of liquor, it seems that drunkenness have been made by the News, of circumstances not very creditable to the honor and veracity of a certain notorious spiritual magnetizer. The details are kept secret to "save character."

Harper's New Monthly Magazine. We have received from Patridge & Co., through James P. Walker, the August number of this excellent monthly, a journal which should be found in every family in the land. It is for sale at Mr Walker's, 61 Merrimack street. We intended to have acknowledged the receipt of this number before.

☞ We are indebted to Frederick Parker for No. 3 of the Illustrated History of Hungary—a work which will rank as a book of morals, and of great value in itself, considering the present sparseness of Hungarian literature.

Fire in Lowell. Sunday, Aug. 10. James Lastby, for an assault and battery on Herman Tilton, a boy 7 years old, was fined $3 and costs.

Robert Bailey, a minor, for larceny, was fined $5 and costs.

Texas Items.—The Telegraph says Major Neighbors has entered upon his duties as Indian Agent for the Government, and intends visiting the Comanches and Camanches this summer.

Buffalo are very numerous in the mountains and valleys; large quantities of grain are in demand.

The wheat was also suffering from the rust.

Judge Mosten was married in Mr Hall, recently, at San Francisco.

Agriculture generally is thriving.

The mining news is still favorable.

The Steamer Jonathan took to Nicaragua $900,000.

The clipper ship Staghound got under way early on morning of the 18th, for Chiba, but in consequence of a number of the crew being afraid to work, she was compelled to anchor off the Farallones. She would probably proceed to sea early next morning.

The lumber ship Harriet Pigeon has been sold on she lies, with a portion of the injured cargo on board, for $1400. The steamer Sea Bird is expected to be got off.

The smaller Japanese flag was taken to Chiba.

The mails from the Great Salt Lake, arrived at Sacramento on the 19th of June.

The Second Justice Road arrived at Great Salt Lake city June 4th, and took the oath of office administered by Brigham Young. Preparations for explosive while addressing the Senate; his declaration that Pierce was not elected to his position—and last, but not least, his recently expression of New York and about the time of the passage of the Nebraska bill.

When his statement that Capt. Vaughan the ranger, and policy proceeded upon a single basis, to put himself upon the track of the Hell, and, with compassion, death and destruction threaten all sides, until full victory crowned their arms for the Union ranks—then, hastily girding on his arms, he, taking with him the sacrifice. When the clouds of smoke rolled off from the field, and the sun was set upon the scene, twin daughter of Mr. Leland.

Boston, Saturday, July 16.—Noon. Flour opened languid this morning. The arrivals by the Niagara and Arabor are 4500 bbls., some of which has been disposed of. Sales this morning of Herald at $5 a 5 12 50; common to fair per Conner, on speculation, about $11.—Genesee—Other Pure Grit $31; some 32 bbls. bags 10c; land 14c; choice butter 20c; cheese in line 20c.

The Fisheries. The Troy Whig, referring to the de-nature of Mr. Buchanan on fisheries last, says: "It is understood that the event has the appointments in unannounced terms, or even refused to be made until satisfactorily adjusted to political quarrelers, and everywhere we hear the expression that the Democratic party must be speedily reorganized. Since obscurity has become a crime to be punished by the severest penalties, the country surrounded by public sentiment and plundering intellect, ready to peddle their souls for a bauble, and to sell their country for a mess of pottage to the White House in the Cabinet or lodgings in the White House.

"In democracy are everywhere broken, discord reigns supreme, and the noble structure reared in 1787 now lies in ruins, and before the convict of '76 it will, we predict, be overgrown with weeds of abolition growth.

The U. S. Gazette, Jeffersonian speaks in a style which is unmistakable. It takes high ground against the encroachments of the abolitionists, by the enemies of the democratic party of this State, and we hope has the fortitude to speak out the truth, and to speak what he thinks. Senator Douglas may take a pack of scuff, but the Mt. Vernon Jeffersonian is not to be put down.

How humiliating to see our public journals stalking, like pickpockets, down some dirty alley! Why not come out, gentlemen, and show your countenance? If you endorse Judge Douglas' course why not be his apologists? If you cannot do so, why not cease your hypocritical professions? Why possess silence any longer? It was upon this unworthy alliance the democracy of this State relied to sustain them in the political contest of last fall.

A democratic member of Congress from the first district of New York, Hon. James Maurice, also denounces the administration, saying, "If I had, it possible that in the first appointment of the last Baltimore Democratic Convention would have honored to the furtherance of a free-soil democracy, I would not have been returned for your suffrages. And if the good body of the Democratic people had not been deceived into his support, as I believe they were, and Pierce would still be practicing law at Concord, and Douglas would be in the quiet pursuits and the jurisprudence of New Hampshire."

Complaints like these are extremely fertile of reflection.

The proposed number of the Knickerbocker has become quickened and strengthened by Addresses on the State's page, quotes an extension saying "It appears that there is a deep-seated hatred that grows out and carry-Democracy entertained to exist in this Commonwealth. We have heard of it in private circles, and in this connection with "—a sentiment which we have heard from time to time—but we have never believed. That there are a great many democrats who are opposed to the leaning policy applied by Kennedy to the policy of the postmaster, we think the election of the Democratic candidate for Governor, is also such a mistake as the greatest admirer might make when in haste, and in the voice of a majority would not be willing to call the election over this previous discovery with all the confidence of a prophecy." Bitty may be disappointed.

The steamer Uncle Sam had been lost on the Columbia river.

A fire had occurred at San Francisco on Winter, Clay, and Kearney streets. Loss about $15,000.

The mail steamer John L. Stephens left San Francisco on the morning of the 18th, for Panama, with about $1,500,000 of gold on freight.

The following are the consignments per Uncle Sam: American Exchange Bank, $200,000; Duncan, Sherman & Co., $800,000; Drexel & Co., $70,000; Burgoyne & Flume, $50,000; Nelson Robinson, $21,000.

A trader named Ivory Ellis, from Massachusetts, was killed by the Indians near Cold creek.

News from Tahiti is to April 24th.

The French Empire was proclaimed on the 19th.

In San Francisco the sheriff had issued a summons to the principal merchants to appear at his office on general arrest, consequent upon their refusal to pay the commissions and The merchants had employed counsel to defend them.

Mr Waldo had been nominated for Governor by the whig convention.

The town of French Coral was destroyed by fire on the 6th of July. Loss $80,000.

The town of Ophir was also burned. Loss $100,000.

The summer fires were doing much damage in the mountains and valleys; large quantities of grain were destroyed.

The whole of the Sandwich Islands are now connected by lines of telegraph.

The Legislature is sitting.

Agriculture generally is thriving.

The mining news is still favorable.

The Steamer Jonathan took to Nicaragua $900,000.

The clipper ship Staghound got under way early on morning of the 18th, for Chiba, but in consequence of a number of the crew being afraid to work, she was compelled to anchor off the Farallones. She would probably proceed to sea early next morning.

The lumber ship Harriet Pigeon has been sold on she lies, with a portion of the injured cargo on board, for $1400. The steamer Sea Bird is expected to be got off.

The smaller Japanese flag was taken to Chiba.

The mails from the Great Salt Lake, arrived at Sacramento on the 19th of June.

The Second Justice Road arrived at Great Salt Lake city June 4th, and took the oath of office administered by Brigham Young. Preparations for explosive while addressing the Senate; his declaration that Pierce was not elected to his position—and last, but not least, his recently expression of New York and about the time of the passage of the Nebraska bill.

When his statement that Capt. Vaughan the ranger, and policy proceeded upon a single basis, to put himself upon the track of the Hell, and, with compassion, death and destruction threaten all sides, until full victory crowned their arms for the Union ranks—then, hastily girding on his arms, he, taking with him the sacrifice. When the clouds of smoke rolled off from the field, and the sun was set upon the scene, twin daughter of Mr. Leland.

Boston, Saturday, July 16.—Noon. Flour opened languid this morning. The arrivals by the Niagara and Arabor are 4500 bbls., some of which has been disposed of. Sales this morning of Herald at $5 a 5 12 50; common to fair per Conner, on speculation, about $11.—Genesee—Other Pure Grit $31; some 32 bbls. bags 10c; land 14c; choice butter 20c; cheese in line 20c.

The Fisheries. The Troy Whig, referring to the de-nature of Mr. Buchanan on fisheries last, says: "It is understood that the event has the appointments in unannounced terms, or even refused to be made until satisfactorily adjusted to political quarrelers, and everywhere we hear the expression that the Democratic party must be speedily reorganized. Since obscurity has become a crime to be punished by the severest penalties, the country surrounded by public sentiment and plundering intellect, ready to peddle their souls for a bauble, and to sell their country for a mess of pottage to the White House in the Cabinet or lodgings in the White House.

"In democracy are everywhere broken, discord reigns supreme, and the noble structure reared in 1787 now lies in ruins, and before the convict of '76 it will, we predict, be overgrown with weeds of abolition growth.

The U. S. Gazette, Jeffersonian speaks in a style which is unmistakable. It takes high ground against the encroachments of the abolitionists, by the enemies of the democratic party of this State, and we hope has the fortitude to speak out the truth, and to speak what he thinks. Senator Douglas may take a pack of scuff, but the Mt. Vernon Jeffersonian is not to be put down.

How humiliating to see our public journals stalking, like pickpockets, down some dirty alley! Why not come out, gentlemen, and show your countenance? If you endorse Judge Douglas' course why not be his apologists? If you cannot do so, why not cease your hypocritical professions? Why possess silence any longer? It was upon this unworthy alliance the democracy of this State relied to sustain them in the political contest of last fall.

A democratic member of Congress from the first district of New York, Hon. James Maurice, also denounces the administration, saying, "If I had, it possible that in the first appointment of the last Baltimore Democratic Convention would have honored to the furtherance of a free-soil democracy, I would not have been returned for your suffrages. And if the good body of the Democratic people had not been deceived into his support, as I believe they were, and Pierce would still be practicing law at Concord, and Douglas would be in the quiet pursuits and the jurisprudence of New Hampshire."

Complaints like these are extremely fertile of reflection.

The proposed number of the Knickerbocker has become quickened and strengthened by Addresses on the State's page, quotes an extension saying "It appears that there is a deep-seated hatred that grows out and carry-Democracy entertained to exist in this Commonwealth. We have heard of it in private circles, and in this connection with "—a sentiment which we have heard from time to time—but we have never believed. That there are a great many democrats who are opposed to the leaning policy applied by Kennedy to the policy of the postmaster, we think the election of the Democratic candidate for Governor, is also such a mistake as the greatest admirer might make when in haste, and in the voice of a majority would not be willing to call the election over this previous discovery with all the confidence of a prophecy." Bitty may be disappointed.

Oct. Bliss. Oct. Bliss, the sea-lawyer, and formerly Secretary of Colonel Taylor, has fallen a victim of the yellow fever at the South. Mr Bliss was a native of Vermont, and has left relatives and wife here. His disposition from the Atlantic army during the Mexican war, thrilled this country by their sensational style, and they will ever be regarded as model compositions of the time.

Horace Tragedy. A most awful tragedy was acted in the city of Bologna on the 16th ult. The circumstances occurred in the following manner: Several large drops of blood under the window of a well known gentleman named Dr. Asenati attracted attention. Cries, groans and lamentations being also heard in the house from the same house, the police were called, who had as force open the outer and some inner doors, when they found the lady and servant were found lying dead in one room, both evidently murdered; while in the next lay Dr. Giuseppe Salvi, Dr. Asenati's nephew, who, from a sharp surgical instrument in his hand, was conjectured to have been the murderer of the other two, and to have afterwards committed suicide. This melancholy event is attributed to family dissensions.

☞ Gov. Clifford will be present at the commencement of Amherst College; and a brother of Dr. Cleveland delivers an address on Wednesday.

Baltimore, Aug. 9. The Democratic State Convention assembles here to-morrow. There will be a great struggle for the gubernatorial nomination.

Nashville, Aug. 9. The election of Johnson and Trousdale is conceded by the whigs. In the Legislature there is a whig majority on joint ballot.

Louisville, Aug. 9. A party just arrived from Fort M'Kay, at Independence, report large numbers of Indians were awaiting the payment of Major Fitzpatrick, who is to distribute $14,000 to distribute among them. The amount we are persuaded, must be greatly increased, as the annuities given to the tribes are nearly in a state of starvation, owing to the great scarcity of game.

Mr A. A. Brisbane and Mon. Victor Considerant, of France, have recently been examining the Upper Trinity and Austin, for the purpose of having been designated by Brigham young with a view to the settlement of a French Colony in that portion of the United States. We understand they are much pleased with the country.

Col. Blanton has withdrawn in favor of Judge Clopton. The whigs have agreed on Judge Allen, upon a charge of conspiring to kidnap Adam Gilmer.

Terrible Mortality. Speaking of the awful mortality among the Panama laborers, the N. Y. Freeman's Journal says: "We are credibly informed that the actual end of grave accounts the average mortality is fifty per cent. and that at the close of the fourth month the deaths will amount to one hundred out of every hundred!"

Fireman's Visit. Yesterday afternoon the Hydraulion Engine Co., No. 2, of Providence, accompanied by the Providence Veteran Band, passed through Boston on their way to Bangor.

☞ It is stated that the receipts for admission to the Crystal Palace, London, from first to last, amount to the average daily receipts of the Palace at the Jubilee in 1809, by August 6th, inclusive, were only $50,451 12.

☞ The prisoners of Boston have made up a purse of about $100, and sent it to the widow of the Kingdom Patriot, who was injured on the 5th of July by the discharge of a cannon.

☞ Henry Ward Beecher says, "there is a new race coming up—the Americans. They are a race of giants, and they will be giants."

☞ Col. Bissell's contract among the Mormons is said to have cost him ten thousand dollars.

From at New Orleans. The N. O. Picayune says: "The receipts of the prevailing fever continue to be great. There is a slight abatement in the number of deaths from day to day, but not enough to afford any hope that the disease is abating. Our favorable aspect reported by the physicians is, that the disease is more manageable than at first. There are more cases of recovery in proportion to the numbers attacked, and the medical treatment is more successful."

☞ The Home Journal's foreign correspondent heard while in Dresden, rumors of a divorce between Jenny Lind and her spouse.

Anniversary. The New York Home Journal has the following remarks, in reference to an article in the New Orleans Delta:

A fact it indubitably is, that New York is the least "aristocratic" place in this Union, excepting perhaps San Francisco. The reason is, that there are no separate orders of nobility, nothing here—notable for wealth or birth, or talent, or official distinction, or as an individual, though a very distinguished individual, cannot make himself stand out from the crowd and claim service or "aristocratic" consideration. A man is kept in a wholesome state of humility by the knowledge that there are a great many people here whose origins upon public record are equal, possibly superior to his own. Yes, indeed, Dr. Dix, from which to taste and smell, and Gov. Seymour, from which to hear and see, and Gov. Morgan, from which to feel, are all to be found in the three offices.

Mr. Bennett, the editor of the Herald, is a native of Scotland, and Mr. Greeley, of the Tribune, of Vermont. Mr. Raymond, of the Times, is a native of Lansingburgh, and Mr. Webb, of the Courier and Enquirer, of Sandy Hill. Mr. Brooks, of the Express, is a native of Connecticut, and Mr. Wilkes, of the Spirit of the Times, of Scotland. Mr. Hone, the auctioneer, is a native of Ireland, and Mr. Leonard Kip, the banker, of Germantown, Pa. Mr. Astor is a native of Germany, and Mr. Stuyvesant, of Curaçoa. Mr. Grinnell, the merchant, is a native of Greenland, and Mr. Minturn, of Nantucket. Mr. Cornell, the shipowner, is a native of Long Island, and Mr. Lenox, of Canada. Mr. Aspinwall, the merchant, is a native of Connecticut, and Mr. Wetmore, of Rhode Island. Mr. Schell, the banker, is a native of Germany, and Mr. Belmont, of Prussia. Mr. Wilson, the banker, is a native of Ireland, and Mr. Hoyt, of Connecticut. Mr. Hall, the Bishop, is a native of Ireland, and Mr. Potter, of Pennsylvania. Mr. Bellows, the clergyman, is a native of Boston, and Mr. Chapin, of Massachusetts. Mr. Osborne, the merchant, is a native of Connecticut, and Mr. Low, of Massachusetts. Mr. Ward, the banker, is a native of Connecticut, and Mr. Grinnell, of Massachusetts. Mr. Ward, the banker, is a native of Connecticut, and Mr. Grinnell, of Massachusetts.

HARTFORD LIFE INSURANCE CO., HARTFORD, CONN.

Incorporated by the Legislature of Connecticut, in 1850.

DIRECTORS:

Thos. Smith, Hartford, Conn. | Geo. Gross, Hartford, Conn.
Wm. W. Ellsworth, " | Alvin Bulkley, " | Wm. Hungerford, " | Jas. Goodwin, " | Jno. Olmsted, " | Jno. Warburton, " | Jno. Keney, " | Jno. Warburton, " | Jno. Keney, " | Jno. Warburton, " | Jno. Keney

De merged your my business not good, as I only get five dollars per year, as church periodical. — Maine Dickens. Dan must have you a bill.

No, it is not worth it.

WELL, sir, do tired you? I feel berry poor—nebbeless, my family need I didn't gib my fee for you long. Well, then, arter dat very call me no more. Dickens, as I tell'em."

We see it. Mr Dickens touched his customer's ban, and the gentleman departed, well satisfied with the reason why Mr Dickens left his chamber.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Wednesday, August 10, 1853

The Votes of the Democratic Press.

The votes of the democratic press of this country is unanimous of good to the national whig party. Of the principal journals which evinced a desire of favor Pierce in the late canvass, many, North and South, now denounce him not their wantings of the abolitionists and another like disloyal fortune. The Jeffersonian, a paper of the old-line democratic school, published at Mount Vernon, in Illinois, uses the most ardent and indignant language in reference to the patronage of the New York Barnburners. And the Illinois Democrats denounce Pierce and Douglas, speaking of the latter as follows:

"In short, A. Douglas, professing to be a democrat, and representing a democratic constituency, deserted his duty and his party when he was strongly in question. He secured the appointment of Gen. Hayden, and other abolitionists, to office in our State, by direct opposition to the wishes of the people. As to the motive which actuated the Senator—they are manifest to the world.

Sen tor Douglas has said to the true democracy—Constitutional Democrats—You have used my use in the hour of peril; you gave me birth you nourished and reared me; therefore they you protected my youth, as I have supported my manhood; you have done your duty, and your conscience amply repay you for your self-sacrifices; in the shadow of my political greatness. To the amalgamationists he has said—Angels of light that you are, receive and let me imbibe the sweet incense of your voice. Take me to your bosom, those who gained them are unworthy to bear them. Entwine them about your noble brows, and let there be peace between you and me."

There have been many things in the political conduct of Judge Douglas to excite suspicions of his political integrity. He has given the public cause for applause while addressing the Senate; his language has been to be in danger, and safely grounded upon a single blow, he has himself upon the sick bed, and, with concourse, death and destruction threaten all sides, until victory arose from the ruin. This a ruse—then, hastily girding on his armor, he rushed into the conflict. When the smoke of smoke rolled off from the field, and the sun shone the dismantled—behold! there was also the form of Young America in his pomp, covered with dust and blood, and wearing his sword like another Ajax.

Douglas and Archer are also identified himself with the abolition party—let him rely upon their party for support.

The distinction prevails every where at the unconstitutional exercise of executive clemency. It is not confined to any particular district, but is general. The Prize is a prize which every man may receive when touched by official spurs, and is extraordinary when it is denied to move up the tide of popular indignation. The pardoning power of New York, and Kentucky—one on the appointments in unmeasured terms. Gen. Jackson and Mr. Polk on the same have been given to political gamblers, and everywhere we see in the same way and on the same honest ...Francisco Dispatches from California!

The steamer Star of the West, with San Francisco papers of July 16th, arrived at N. Y. M., yesterday, at New York, with about 400 passengers, and $257,000 in specie, on freight, and about $200,000 in the hands of passengers.

The steamer Uncle Sam had been lost on the Colorado river.

A fire had occurred at San Francisco on Wintersday, City, and Kearney streets. Loss about $10,000.

The mail steamer John L. Stephens left San Francisco on the morning of the 16th, for Panama, with about $1,500,000 of gold on freight. The following are the consignees per Star of the West: American Exchange Bank, $200,000; Duncan, Sherman & Co., $500,000; Iversen & Co., $70,000; Bangeyer & Flume, $20,000; Nelson Robinson, $21,000.

A trader named Jerry Ellis, from Massachusetts, was killed by the Indians near Coldspring.

News from Tahiti is to April 24th.

The French Empire was proclaimed on the 19th.

In San Francisco the sheriff had issued a summons to the principal merchants to appear at his office on a general arrest, consequence upon their refusal to pay the commission tax. The merchants had employed counsel to defend them.

Mr Waldo had been nominated for Governor by the whig convention.

The town of French Corral was destroyed by fire on the 5th of July. Loss $50,000.

The town of Ophir was also burned. Loss $100,000.

The summer fires were doing much damage to the mountains and valleys; large quantities of grain were destroyed.

The wheat was also suffering from the rust.

Lola Montez was married to Mr Hall, recently, at San Francisco.

Agriculture generally is thriving.

The mining news is still favorable.

The Nicaragua steamer took 60 Nicaragua $500,000.

The clipper ship Staghound got under way early on morning of the 15th, for Chido, but in consequence of a number of the crew being unfit for work, she was compelled to anchor off the Heads. She would probably get to sea on an early next morning.

The clipper ship Charter Pigeon has been sold as she lies, with a portion of the injured cargo on board, for $14,000. The amount insured on her and the cargo is not known.

The gallant ship Flying Scud arrived in Monterey on the 12th inst.

The mails from the Great Salt Lake, arrived at Sacramento on the 19th of June.

Hon. Thomas L. Kane had arrived at Great Salt Lake city June 5th, and took the oath of office administered by Brigham Young. The Mormon settlement was prospering, and the agricultural affairs of the country looked promising.

San Francisco, July 16.—Intelligence has just reached that Capt. Love of the Rangers, has captured a brother of the Governor of Sonora, and has threatened to conduct his captors to the hiding place of the Governor unless a number of soldiers were reported to be concealed in the mountains, back of San Juan, and near the Indian village.

Died at San Francisco, on the 14th inst., Ann Elizabeth, twin daughter of Geo. H. Leland.

San Francisco, July 16.—Noon. Flour opened languid this morning.

Sales of wheat are 4500 bbls., none of which has been disposed of. Sales of Rye 2 @ $15 a 15.50; 4000 bbls Gallego per Courser, on speculation, at about $11—per Providence—New York $22; more $28 a 29—bance 19c; hard 14c; choice butter 26c; cheese 16 to 20c.

THE FORRESTS. The Troy Whig, referring to the departure of Mr. Buchanan on Saturday last, says: "It is understood that in the event of a failure to finally and satisfactorily adjust the Fishery dispute, by the eminent negotiators in this country, Mr. Buchanan will proceed to transfer the subject to England, where the discussion which has been going on in this country for a year past between the British Government and Secretaries Webster, Everett, and Marcy, will be repeated. The entire question in all its bearings, the matter of vertal construction of certain treaties made between the two countries many years ago, and at a time when the present great value of the Fisheries in question, were of little importance compared with what they now are. That the dispute will be amicably adjusted to the satisfaction of both countries there is every reason to believe. It is to be hoped that Secretary Marcy's health will attend the negotiations in respect to the Fisheries as secured the settlement of the North-eastern boundary and the...ment of the North-eastern boundary and the...gon questions. War would be a calamity to both countries and the world. Which country in the end would be the loser; it is impossible to foretell. The war which England forced upon us in 1812, cost that country more than five hundred millions of money, and thousands of her acquisitions. In 1813 she maintained 160,000 sailors and marines, 287,000 regulars, 371,000 militia, 612,000 men constantly guarding the Indians and colonial armies. She had more than a million of men under arms. She had 1,200 vessels of war, of which 644 were in commission, 99 were ships of the line. The army cost £53,000,000. The navy estimates were £15,000,000. A war with the United States at the present time would add an item to her expenses of £20,000,000 on account of the loss of trade, and that is the loss of the Canadas in less than one month after war was declared. This would be certain and inevitable."

THE COST OF CONVENTION A Jew. An English paper states that "after the sessions of a church convention in Mercer Zion as an enormous cost—after the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of pounds —the "Church Society for Promoting Christianity among the Jews"—a mission presided over by a Bishop and endowed by the joint efforts of the kingdoms of England and Ireland!—

The report of a great battle near Fort Kearney, on the route to Great Salt Lake, between the Sioux and Cheyenne Indians, is contradicted according to their account, the Cheyenne and Sioux tribes are almost annihilated.

☞ One-half the population of all the wine-growing grapes and potatoes of Naples having been destroyed, a royal edict has just been issued, prohibiting the exportation of provisions, corn, wheat, barley and oats. The prices of oil, bread and wine, have all risen, and much popular discontent and suffering exists in consequence.

☞ Complaints are made that recruiting officers are continually offering bounties in procuring young men to enlist for the army of the United States—a fact visually attributable to the general prosperity of the country, and the want of laboring men in the way of plenty for everybody who will work, and at excellent prices too.

A TRUE SAINT.—In Memphis, a few days ago, while a barrel of flour was being lowered from the upper story of a warehouse, when it was at a considerable elevation, it slipped and fell upon a negro, striking him full on the head and forcing out on eye. The skull was not even fractured, however, and the negro was doing well.

☞ Jealousy attacked Michael Welch, and Michael, in turn, attacked Napoleon Bonaparte Hazzaboro, with a hatchet, and cut his head badly in East Bridgeport, Ct., a day or two since, but we are pleased to be able to announce that Napoleon Bonaparte "still lives."

☞ An autograph collector writes the Springfield Republican from Boston, that the appointment of Madame Alboni was a married woman when in this country; he says she married her now very fashionable husband, Count Pepoli, on the 17th of November last.

☞ Mrs Pierce, the President's wife, has received a present from Dublin, a magnificent embroidered pocket handkerchief, the embroidery is said to be equal to anything of the kind done in France.

A NEW ISLE BARGE OVER THE SEAS. The heavy cast iron arches of a new bridge opposite Blackwall are now being adjusted, and this despicable avenue will soon be opened to the people of Paris.

BANKERS. Isaac Brewer, Esq., who for the last 36 years has been cashier of the Suffolk Bank, has tendered his resignation.

☞ At Clarksfield, Ohio, a young man by the name of Bevington, was recently killed by being thrown down and trod upon by an infuriated ox. Another young man named Simmons was killed by a wound from a shingle knife which he was grinding, and a third, named Swarts, had his brains blown out by the accidental discharge of a gun—all within a few days of each other.

☞ The democratic party in Albany have split, in the election of a delegate to the Syracuse convention. The Argus says a Hunkers assembly, with instruct to kill, another of highway robbery; and Taylor of a felonious assault with intent to kill. The names of Hunkers and Taylor have been identified as the persons who robbed the house of Mr Carter, in Cherltonwn, five or six weeks ago.

GEORGE Taylor, another of the gang, was committed for trial, charged with stealing, on the 16th of May last, from the brig California, lying at Bartlett's wharf, a gold watch and chain, and other articles, the property of Capt. Silas Hitchborn. The stolen watch and chain were found upon Taylor at the time of his arrest.

A correspondent of the London News says that "the Sultan has now 200,000 men under arms, a number sufficient to defeat the troops of the Czar, which are being decimated by typhus fever, and privations of all sorts."

☞ The Count de Alberti, of kidnapping fame, has been again arrested in Philadelphia, upon a charge of conspiring to kidnap Adam Gilbert.

TERRIBLE MORTALITY. Speaking of the awful mortality among the Panama laborers, the N. Y. Freeman's Journal says: "We are credibly informed that at the end of three months, the average mortality is fifty per cent, and that at the close of the fourth month the deaths range as high as eighty out of every hundred."

FISHERMAN'S VAST. Yesterday afternoon the steamer Worcester Welch College at Haines' wharf, near Brunswick, a leaden coffin, with the lid of glass of great thickness, was discovered containing the body of a young girl, which still preserved every appearance of youth and freshness, although the coffin been the deposit of 1611.

There was no sign of decay in the person or dress, "and even a bunch of lilies, in the hand of the corpse, still looked as fresh and moist, as though the dew still hung upon it." Unfortunately a functionary broke the glass, when a thin cloud of vapor rose up, and in a moment of nothing remained, "all had vanished but a heap of discolored dust, a few rags or tinsel, and one or two dry bones." The coffin had been made air-tight—the air all extracted, and the purification sealed. The American coffin exhibited at the London World's Fair, for preserving corpses from decay by pumping out the air, was supposed to be an entirely new method.

☞ An Irishman about 10 years of age, was drowned at Portsmouth, on Monday evening, while bathing.

CITY MATTERS.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE. Mr PIKE will deliver a Temperance Lecture at Jackson Hall, this evening.

☞ To-morrow we shall publish the annual list of those who pay $50 and upwards taxes, on property in this city, together with the amount of appropriation for the current year, and statistical matter in reference to other cities.

LOCUST. The Criminal Court at Concord has adjourned; all the search warrants issued by Pearson have gone up to the Supreme Court, except the one in the case of Hutchins, which was not-proved. Apropos of liquor, it seems that disclosures have been made by the lawyers, of circumstances not very creditable to the honor and veracity of a certain notorious spiritual magnetizer. The details are kept secret to "save character."

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE. We have received from Partridge & Co., through James P. Walker, the August number of this excellent, monthly, a journal which should be found in every family in the land. It is for sale at Mr Walker's, 61 Merrimack street. We intended to have acknowledged the receipt of these yesterday.

☞ Gov. Clifford will be present at the commencement of Amherst College, and a levee of Dr. Cleveland delivers an address on Wednesday.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 8. The Democratic State Convention meets here to-morrow. There will be a great struggle for the gubernatorial nomination.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 9. The election of Johnson Dun as Governor is conceded by the whigs. In the Legislature there is a whig majority in joint ballot.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 9. A party just arrived from Fort Al'kay, at Independence, reports the numbers of Indians were awaiting the movements of Major Fitzpatrick, who is to distribute the goods and presents among them to day after the party left.

The report of a great battle near Fort Kearney, on the route to Great Salt Lake, between the Sioux and Cheyenne Indians, is contradicted according to their account, the Cheyenne and Sioux tribes are almost annihilated.

☞ One-half the population of all the wine-growing grapes and potatoes of Naples having been destroyed, a royal edict has just been issued, prohibiting the exportation of provisions, corn, wheat, barley and oats. The prices of oil, bread and wine, have all risen, and much popular discontent and suffering exists in consequence.

☞ Complaints are made that recruiting officers are continually offering bounties in procuring young men to enlist for the army of the United States—a fact visually attributable to the general prosperity of the country, and the want of laboring men in the way of plenty for everybody who will work, and at excellent prices too.

A TRUE SAINT. In Memphis, a few days ago, while a barrel of flour was being lowered from the upper story of a warehouse, when it was at a considerable elevation, it slipped and fell upon a negro, striking him full on the head and forcing out on eye. The skull was not even fractured, however, and the negro was doing well.

☞ Jealousy attacked Michael Welch, and Michael, in turn, attacked Napoleon Bonaparte Hazzaboro, with a hatchet, and cut his head badly in East Bridgeport, Ct., a day or two since, but we are pleased to be able to announce that Napoleon Bonaparte "still lives."

☞ An autograph collector writes the Springfield Republican from Boston, that the appointment of Madame Alboni was a married woman when in this country; he says she married her now very fashionable husband, Count Pepoli, on the 17th of November last.

☞ Mrs Pierce, the President's wife, has received a present from Dublin, a magnificent embroidered pocket handkerchief, the embroidery is said to be equal to anything of the kind done in France.

A NEW ISLE BARGE OVER THE SEAS. The heavy cast iron arches of a new bridge opposite Blackwall are now being adjusted, and this despicable avenue will soon be opened to the people of Paris.

BANKERS. Isaac Brewer, Esq., who for the last 36 years has been cashier of the Suffolk Bank, has tendered his resignation.

☞ At Clarksfield, Ohio, a young man by the name of Bevington, was recently killed by being thrown down and trod upon by an infuriated ox. Another young man named Simmons was killed by a wound from a shingle knife which he was grinding, and a third, named Swarts, had his brains blown out by the accidental discharge of a gun—all within a few days of each other.

☞ The democratic party in Albany have split, in the election of a delegate to the Syracuse convention. The Argus says a Hunkers assembly, with instruct to kill, another of highway robbery; and Taylor of a felonious assault with intent to kill. The names of Hunkers and Taylor have been identified as the persons who robbed the house of Mr Carter, in Cherltonwn, five or six weeks ago.

GEORGE Taylor, another of the gang, was committed for trial, charged with stealing, on the 16th of May last, from the brig California, lying at Bartlett's wharf, a gold watch and chain, and other articles, the property of Capt. Silas Hitchborn. The stolen watch and chain were found upon Taylor at the time of his arrest.

A correspondent of the London News says that "the Sultan has now 200,000 men under arms, a number sufficient to defeat the troops of the Czar, which are being decimated by typhus fever, and privations of all sorts."

☞ The Count de Alberti, of kidnapping fame, has been again arrested in Philadelphia, upon a charge of conspiring to kidnap Adam Gilbert.

TERRIBLE MORTALITY. Speaking of the awful mortality among the Panama laborers, the N. Y. Freeman's Journal says: "We are credibly informed that at the end of three months, the average mortality is fifty per cent, and that at the close of the fourth month the deaths range as high as eighty out of every hundred."

FISHERMAN'S VAST. Yesterday afternoon the steamer Worcester Welch College at Haines' wharf, near Brunswick, a leaden coffin, with the lid of glass of great thickness, was discovered containing the body of a young girl, which still preserved every appearance of youth and freshness, although the coffin been the deposit of 1611.

There was no sign of decay in the person or dress, "and even a bunch of lilies, in the hand of the corpse, still looked as fresh and moist, as though the dew still hung upon it." Unfortunately a functionary broke the glass, when a thin cloud of vapor rose up, and in a moment of nothing remained, "all had vanished but a heap of discolored dust, a few rags or tinsel, and one or two dry bones." The coffin had been made air-tight—the air all extracted, and the purification sealed. The American coffin exhibited at the London World's Fair, for preserving corpses from decay by pumping out the air, was supposed to be an entirely new method.

☞ An Irishman about 10 years of age, was drowned at Portsmouth, on Monday evening, while bathing.

Col. Benton, Col. Biles, the son-in-law, and formerly Secretary of Gen'l Taylor, has fallen a victim to the yellow fever at the South. Mr Biles has always been represented as a very fine young man, of fine address, and talented style, and they will ever be regarded as model compositions of their class.

☞ Among the casualties of the week is the death of Mr Hall, a young man, who was drowned while bathing on Monday evening, at Portsmouth.

FEVER AT NEW ORLEANS. The N. O. Picayune says: "The ravages of the generally fatal disease continue to be great. There is a slight falling off in the aggregate of deaths, as reported yesterday, from those of the day before, but not enough to afford any hope of a diminution of the pestilence. One favorable sign reported by the physicians is, that the disease is more manageable than at first. There are more cases of recovery in proportion to the numbers attacked, and the medical treatment is more successful."

☞ The Home Journal's foreign correspondent heard while in Dresden, rumors of a divorce between Jenny Lind and her spouse.

AUCTIONEER. The New York Home Journal has the following remarks, in reference to an article in the New Orleans Delta:

"The Delta is probably in that New York is the least "aristocratic" place in the Union, excepting perhaps San Francisco. The reason is that there are so many notable personages residing here—especially those of high birth, or social position—that an individual, though a very distinguished individual, cannot make himself stand out from the crowd with offensive "aristocratic" consequence. Auction is kept in a wholesome state of humility by the privileges that there are a great many people here whose claims upon public regard are quite equally, possibly superior to his own. The Journal Indite, if you wish to taste samples of exquisite auctioneering, attend a third, second, fourth, and he brains blown out by the accidental discharge of a gun—all within a few days of each other.

☞ The democratic party in Albany have split, in the election of a delegate to the Syracuse convention. The Argus says a Hunkers assembly, with instruct to kill, another of highway robbery; and Taylor of a felonious assault with intent to kill. The names of Hunkers and Taylor have been identified as the persons who robbed the house of Mr Carter, in Cherltonwn, five or six weeks ago.

GEORGE Taylor, another of the gang, was committed for trial, charged with stealing, on the 16th of May last, from the brig California, lying at Bartlett's wharf, a gold watch and chain, and other articles, the property of Capt. Silas Hitchborn. The stolen watch and chain were found upon Taylor at the time of his arrest.

A correspondent of the London News says that "the Sultan has now 200,000 men under arms, a number sufficient to defeat the troops of the Czar, which are being decimated by typhus fever, and privations of all sorts."

☞ The Count de Alberti, of kidnapping fame, has been again arrested in Philadelphia, upon a charge of conspiring to kidnap Adam Gilbert.

TERRIBLE MORTALITY. Speaking of the awful mortality among the Panama laborers, the N. Y. Freeman's Journal says: "We are credibly informed that at the end of three months, the average mortality is fifty per cent, and that at the close of the fourth month the deaths range as high as eighty out of every hundred."

FISHERMAN'S VAST. Yesterday afternoon the steamer Worcester Welch College at Haines' wharf, near Brunswick, a leaden coffin, with the lid of glass of great thickness, was discovered containing the body of a young girl, which still preserved every appearance of youth and freshness, although the coffin been the deposit of 1611.

There was no sign of decay in the person or dress, "and even a bunch of lilies, in the hand of the corpse, still looked as fresh and moist, as though the dew still hung upon it." Unfortunately a functionary broke the glass, when a thin cloud of vapor rose up, and in a moment of nothing remained, "all had vanished but a heap of discolored dust, a few rags or tinsel, and one or two dry bones." The coffin had been made air-tight—the air all extracted, and the purification sealed. The American coffin exhibited at the London World's Fair, for preserving corpses from decay by pumping out the air, was supposed to be an entirely new method.

☞ An Irishman about 10 years of age, was drowned at Portsmouth, on Monday evening, while bathing.

HARTFORD LIFE INSURANCE CO., HARTFORD, CONN.

Policies issued on favorable terms on the usual mutual plan. Dividends declared annually. Premiums may be paid in cash or by notes. Life Insurance Companies, if desired, will be issued on the plan of Mutual Insurance. Applications may be made at the office, No. 16 Asylum street, Hartford, Conn.

A. J. R. RICHMOND, Agent.

Applications may be made to Messrs. Hazeltine & Bro., Lowell.

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE CO'Y, EAST, NEW YORK.

Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, 1853.

Capital $150,000.

Paid and Secured by Deposit with the Comptroller from 40,000 to 50,000.

DIRECTORS.

Wm. H. Rogers, Lorenzo Woodhouse,
Wm. Wood, Jr., Wm. Wood, Sr.,
Jas. A. Lawrence, Geo. Gibbons,
Wm. Bard, Wm. Pierce, Port.
Jas. Bleecker, Jr.,
Wm. H. Crawley, Surg.

The long established Company are prepared to take every description of

Fire and Inland Navigation Risks,

on favorable terms, with undoubted security to the assured. Applications may be made to the Agent at the office, No. 11 Asylum street, Hartford, Conn., or to the Agents in the principal towns in the United States.

A. J. R. RICHMOND, Agent. Office No. 11 Asylum street, Hartford, Conn.

FIRE INSURANCE.

OFFICE, 16 ASYLUM STREET.

Mtna Protection and Hartford Insurance Companies, Hartford.

AGGREGATE capital paid in and secured according to law, $1,000,000

Assets, Jan. 1, 1853, $1,000,000

Liabilities, 100,000

Surplus, $900,000

Insure against loss by fire on favorable terms on all kinds of insurable property at as low rates as other responsible offices. Have paid losses promptly during the past year, amounting to $60,000 on only $40,000 premiums.

Dividends declared annually, which may be left in the hands of the Company to accumulate at interest, or be withdrawn at the option of the insured.

Policies issued by the Agent in Lowell and vicinity, and losses adjusted and paid at the office of the Company in Hartford.

Applications may be made to the Agent at the office, No. 16 Asylum street, Hartford, Conn., or to the Agents in the principal towns in the United States.

A. J. R. RICHMOND, Agent.

Applications may be made to Messrs. Hazeltine & Bro., Lowell.

STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO., WORCESTER, MASS.

Capital, $150,000.

JOHN DAVIS, Pres't. CHARLES HARRIS, Sec'y.

This very successful Company, conducted upon the mutual principle, continues to effect insurances on the most favorable terms. Persons wishing to secure a Policy in a reliable Company, are invited to call at the office, No. 16 Asylum street, Hartford, Conn., or to the Agents in the principal towns in the United States.

Applications may be made to the Agent at the office, No. 16 Asylum street, Hartford, Conn., or to the Agents in the principal towns in the United States.

A. J. R. RICHMOND, Agent.

Applications may be made to Messrs. Hazeltine & Bro., Lowell.

☞ CALIFORNIA DIXIE SIXES to the New Dispensation, for sale by R. W. STICKNEY, Agent.

Jan. 27, 1853. 1y

R. W. STICKNEY, Agent.

400 Washington Street.

The only manufacturers of Johnson's Patent Rifled Cutters in Lowell.

☞ The subscribers have purchased of T. Gilbert & Co.'s Patent Rifled Cutters, and are prepared to furnish them on hand—for sale on the most favorable terms. Also, Cutters of other patterns, which we will warrant to be equal to any in the market. Also, all other kinds of Agricultural Implements, Seeds, &c., at the old stand, 400 Washington street.

Lowell, May 6, 1853. 1y

Philadelphia Parasol Store,

IF YOU WANT TO BUY A PARASOL, Don't waste of looking at BALLARATHAS of large and splendid stock of them!

PHILADELPHIA FASHIONS, being much cheaper than last year, before purchasing at the old stand, 400 Washington street.

Also, Agent for Johnson's Patent Rifled Cutters, which are warranted to be equal to any in the market. Also, all other kinds of Agricultural Implements, Seeds, &c., at the old stand, 400 Washington street.

Lowell, May 6, 1853. 1y

☞ REMEMBER! HILLS and HILLS, the Hat and Cap Men, have removed to

19 CENTRAL STREET.

Lowell, July, 1853. 1y1247

PERRY'S HUNGARIAN BALM.

FOR PRESERVING AND BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR.

FOR sale by all Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers throughout the United States and Canada.

None genuine without the signature of J. A. PERRY, Proprietor.

PRICE 25 CENTS.

For sale by R. HAZELTINE, Lowell, and by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers throughout the United States and Canada.

Lowell, May 24, 1853. 1y

R. A. MILLER,

DAGUERREAN ARTIST,

NO. 19 CENTRAL STREET.

(Next door to "Van Pupers" Office.)

R. A. MILLER has removed from Central Block to the above rooms, where he will be happy to see his friends and the public generally. He has spared no pains or expense in fitting up his rooms in a manner to suit the taste of the most fastidious, and will warrant satisfaction to all who may favor him with a call.

DAGUERREOTYPES

TAKEN IN ALL THE VARIOUS STYLES, Crayons, Illuminated, MAGIC BACKGROUNDS, &c.

DAGUERREOTYPES Copied and Magnified TO ANY SIZE DESIRED.

Old ladies, sick and deceased persons taken at their residences.

☞ Ladies are invited to call and examine specimens.

LARGEST AND BEST DAGUERREOTYPES IN THE CITY.

Lowell, July, 1853. 1y1247

AMUSEMENTS.

LOWELL MUSEUM.

PERILOUS ATTRACTION!

Removed from JACKSON HALL to MUSEUM

On and after MONDAY, Aug. 8th, and continuing during the week.

BURNING OF MOSCOW!

BEAUTIFUL SCENIC PAINTINGS, and accompanying scenes in MOVING MACHINERY, by the Great

LOWELL MARBLE WORKS,

Station 14, near the Merrimack House.

THE subscriber would inform the public that he has purchased the entire interest of the late firm, and will continue the business at the old stand, where he will be happy to see his friends and the public generally. He has spared no pains or expense in fitting up his rooms in a manner to suit the taste of the most fastidious, and will warrant satisfaction to all who may favor him with a call.

DAGUERREOTYPES

TAKEN IN ALL THE VARIOUS STYLES, Crayons, Illuminated, MAGIC BACKGROUNDS, &c.

DAGUERREOTYPES Copied and Magnified TO ANY SIZE DESIRED.

Old ladies, sick and deceased persons taken at their residences.

☞ Ladies are invited to call and examine specimens.

LARGEST AND BEST DAGUERREOTYPES IN THE CITY.

REMEMBER! HILLS and HILLS, the Hat and Cap Men, have removed to

19 CENTRAL STREET.

Lowell, July, 1853. 1y1247

PERRY'S HUNGARIAN BALM.

FOR PRESERVING AND BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR.

FOR sale by all Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers throughout the United States and Canada.

None genuine without the signature of J. A. PERRY, Proprietor.

PRICE 25 CENTS.

For sale by R. HAZELTINE, Lowell, and by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers throughout the United States and Canada.

Lowell, May 24, 1853. 1y

R. A. MILLER,

DAGUERREAN ARTIST,

NO. 19 CENTRAL STREET.

(Next door to "Van Pupers" Office.)

R. A. MILLER has removed from Central Block to the above rooms

THE COURIER
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE,
Corner of Central and Middle streets,
(ENTRANCE THE POST OFFICE.)

This Office being furnished with all the desirable modern improvements

FAST PRESSES,

and employing a large force of experienced workmen, is prepared to every description of work, from the smallest Poster down to the largest Placard, and to guarantee satisfaction to all who favor us with their patronage.

The proprietor believes that his facilities for executing every description of

JOB TYPE,

are such as to enable him to answer all orders to the entire satisfaction of those who may favor him with their patronage.

The proprietor is also prepared to execute promptly and at

LOW PRICES

as can be offered any where in the country,

MAMMOTH AND MEDIUM POSTERS, SHOP BILLS, FANCY CARDS,
CATALOGUES,
BILL HEADS, BLANKS,
BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS, TICKETS
and
CARDS, CHECKS,
PLAIN AND FANCY
LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, or Bronze of every shade, or in colors at fancy colored paper.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of plain, pearl mottled and enamelled, white and colored CARDS, adapted to every description of work—if paste or gilt edge, can be put on to order.

J. D. PUTNAM,
WEST INDIA GOODS, CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES, CUTLERY, CLOTHES, BASKETS, BRUSHES AND WOODEN WARE, &c., &c.,
No. 36 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.

Has for sale the following articles, viz:

FLOUR—The best and most approved brands.
SUGAR—Standard Crushed, Powdered, Granulated and Brown.
MOLASSES—Muscovado, Porto Rico, Cienfuegos, Trinidad, Cuba Clayed, Sugar House, Imperial, Gunpowder, Hyson, Young Hyson, Twankay and Souchong.
COFFEE—Mocha, Java, Porto Cabello, St. Domingo, Laguayra, Rio and Prime Rio, roasted and ground.
DRIED FRUITS—Peaches, Apples, Prunes, Citron, Currants, Lemon Peel, Prunes, &c.
SPICES—Cassia, Cloves, Pepper, Nutmegs, Ginger, Cream tartar and Saleratus.
PICKLES—Mixed Pickles, Onions, Beans, Dried Apples, Tomatoes and Sweet Potatoes.
SALT—Liverpool Ground, Table, Dairy, Butter, Sea, Rock, Turks Island and Common Salt.
SOAPS—Castile, Palm, Brown Windsor, Yellow Soaps, Starch, Blue, Saleratus, Sal Soda, Pearlash, Soda, Crackers, Oyster, Pilot, Wine, and Gelatine.
CANDLES—Sperm, Tallow, Adamantine, Almonds, Cinnamon, Pepper and Mould.
WOODEN WARE—Painted Pails, Tubs, Trays, Measures, Brushes, Clothes Pins, Clothes Lines, Clothes Horses, Painted Pails, Tubs, Brushes, Measures, Clothes Pins, Clothes Lines, Clothes Horses, Stockings, Shoulder Braces, Suspenders, Shoe Brushes, Shoe Blacking, Shoe Pegs, &c.
KINDLING WOOD—Sugar Pine, Hemlock, Spruce, Cedar, Pine, &c.
KINDLING WOOD—Sugar Pine, Hemlock, Spruce, Cedar, Pine, &c.
CARPETING—Tow, Hemp, Cotton, Rag, Straw, Rush, Rattan, Floor Oil Cloth, Stair Oil Cloth, Table Oil Cloth, Floor Mats, Door Mats, Stair Rods, Carpet Binding, Carpet Lining, Carpet Tacks, Hammers, Carpet Stretchers, &c.
CUTLERY—Table, Pocket, Butcher, Shoe, Carving, Bread, Cake, Fruit and Butter Knives, Forks, Steels, Scissors, Razors, Razor Strops, Shaving Boxes, Shaving Brushes, Shaving Soap, Combs, Hair, Tooth, Nail and Flesh Brushes, Pocket Books, Wallets, Purses, Pocket Knives, Pocket Combs, Pocket Rules, Pocket Mirrors, Pocket Scissors, Pocket Compasses, Pocket Pencils, Pocket Cases, Pocket Flasks, Pocket Inkstands, Pocket Memorandums, Pocket Diaries, Pocket Almanacs, Pocket Books stood with handkerchiefs tied round their heads, all cries for quarter were unheeded. Well boys, are you ready? All ready, your honor," was the unanimous response. "Then we are very sorry to tell you that you must have been those fellows, to be asked twice for quarter."

The word was to fight that it took an hour to finish their affair with the Spaniards had been made to reach the ship's companion. This long interval of idleness and suspense was hailed with some satisfaction. Every man stood silently watching the enemy's vessel, or in low and earnest conversation with each other, leaving requests and messages to friends in case they fell.

Some gave the last directions in the event of his death, to Hawkins—to others to settle his public papers, in order to have them ready to pass examination; one or two stood to be described—read over his wife's letters for the last time, and then gave them to the master, the enemy might not see those records of the heart, and turned away, remarking, This is the most important day of my life. The same excitement and silence that had fallen on the ship, was broken by the blast of a bugle that came ringing over the water from the Dutton, followed by cheers from the whole British squadron.—A single gun, whose shot went skipping past the Lawrence, gave the signal to engage, and in a few minutes all the long guns of the fleet began to play on the American fleet.

Being a mile and a half distant, Perry could not use his carronades, and was exposed to the fire for half an hour before he could get within range. Steering straight for the Queen Charlotte, he let his own ice gave orders to the schooners that lagged behind to engage as within cable length.

Those orders, the last he gave during the battle, were passed by trumpet from vessel to vessel.

The light wind having nearly died away, the Lawrence suffered severely before she could get into action. In quarter, 10 guns, with 500 men, and she had scarcely taken her position before the fire of three vessels was directed upon her. Enveloped in flame and smoke, Perry stood desperately to maintain his ground till her rest of the fleet should come, and for two hours sustained without flinching the unequal contest.

Concluded to-morrow.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Thursday, August 11, 1853.

A Plea for the Reduction of the Tariff.

The immense and unprecedented surplus of money which the frugality and discreet management of President Fillmore and his cabinet has accumulated in the Treasury at Washington, has again forced upon the public mind the subject of the Tariff. We are therefore compelled, however unwillingly, to consider two questions: first, Should the present tariff be altered? and secondly, in what way should it be altered? These two items, we repeat, are now again before the public, and on these we design to offer a few brief remarks.

That the existence of this large money surplus is to itself as well, none perhaps will have the hardihood to deny. Certainly none will deny it, who have paid even the most cursory attention to the philosophy of government as expounded by Montesquieu, De Tocqueville, or even Richard Hildreth. The temptation to corruption, bribery and venality, is enough of itself to render such a state of things dangerous. Having admitted this, it is the conclusion that one alteration in our present tariff of duties is desirable, in order that a sustained condition of our finances may be established. Come to the second inquiry, How shall the Tariff be changed?

To this query, each man will of course reply according to his sentiments as regards Protection and Free Trade. The Protectionist and the home national free trader will advocate the collection of those duties which are adverse to American interests; namely, the duties on South American wools, dye stuffs, and all imports not produced or capable to be produced in our own soil. Such is our view of the case. We know no such objections to it. On the contrary, every consideration which attaches us to ourselves, to our own interests, and to our country, causes us to feel its correctness and propriety.

Free Traders embrace this opportunity to excuse their spurious idiosyncrasies, and to bury for the moment their adoption of the tariff system.

The Boston Times, as might have been expected from its known tendencies of that journal, speaks loudly on the free trade side. It thinks that it would be an unwise measure at the next two or three years there should be a deficit of five or six or seven millions in the national income, it would prove a real blessing to the country. This, however, cannot be apprehended under the existing tariff, and therefore we must go to the root of the matter, and destroy the tariff itself, which is the Parthian shot brings with it too much gold. Now is the time for our statesmen to place the currency debates by on the free trade track. Things have been tending that way these eight years, but slowly and cautiously, and of deference to the interests of bankers and the fears of fools, two numerous and powerful classes, who are ever much more ascendant in government matters than the disinterested and the wise.

The valuation of the real and personal property in this city, for the present year, according to the assessors' return, is as follows:

Valuation of merchants' real and personal estate,	$7,284,400
Valuation of manufacturing corporations,	12,000,000
Valuation of non-residents, &c.	1,250,000
Total valuation last year,	$20,377,700
	19,862,100
Whole number of ratable polls, 7,630
Number of persons taxed only in ratings, one cent each,	1,000
Number of persons taxed,	6,630

The appropriations for the year 1853, are:

For City Purposes,	$120,000 00
State Tax,	41,691 00
	8,904 00
	$170,595 00

Taxation in Portland, Me. According to the Assessors' list for 1853, there are in the city of Portland 270 persons and companies who pay over $100 each, and 11 who pay over a $1000. The largest individual payer is John B. Brown, who is assessed $273.75. The percentage is 70 to $100, amounting as follows:

On Real Estate,	$68,482 50
On Personal Estate,	53,000 00
3034 Polls at $1.50,	5,048 50
	$126,827 01

The whole valuation of property and polls is as follows:

Real Estate,	$9,765,250
Personal Estate,	7,375,651

The increase of valuation since last year is $1,287,209.

Taxation in Portsmouth, N. H. There are only 58 individuals and companies in this city, each of whom are assessed each upwards of $100. The highest is William Jones, $781 20—and the lowest is John Jones & Son, $101 87. The number of ratable polls is 1474. The whole valuation of taxable property is $4,036,704. The rate of taxation is 7 1-2 cents on the $100, and the taxes amount to $13,541 01.

Property in Newburyport. The Assessors' valuation of property in the city of Newburyport, is $6,555,000; namely, real estate, $5,780,000; personal property, $3,875,000. The rate of taxation is $7.50 on $1000, the amount to be raised $46,911.75; viz: State tax, $2,787; county tax, $6,937.75; city tax, $36,000.

New York. The sales of the real and personal estate in New York, for the present year according to the Assessors' returns is as follows: real estate, $204,280,700; personal estate, $118,-294,187; total, $322,625,887 94. This is an increase of $41,482,311 40 on real, and $20,518,-987 44 on personal estate over the valuation of 1852. The amount to be raised by tax is $5,-426,650, which is nearly two millions of dollars more than last year. The rate of tax is $1,21 1-2 on each $100 of valuation, which is higher than ever before.

CITY MATTERS.

Drowned. This morning, James Rickey, a boy 16 years old, son of John Rickey on Union street, fell into the Middlesex canal from the road wharf in the rear of the Market House, and was drowned. His body has not yet been recovered.

Female Thief Arrested. This morning officer Fuller arrested Emma J. Burns, for larceny of a complete suit of Sunday morning apparel from the boarding house No. 34 on the Hamilton corporation, and recovered the property. He also found in her possession a silk shawl which was stolen from No. 141 on the Merrimack corporation, (her former boarding house) and restored it to the owner.

Museum. The celebrated Diorama of the Burning of Moscow, with a large collection of curiosities from Europe, and the capital Ventriloquism of Mr Gallagher, present an entertainment of rare excellence at this place of amusement.

Military Visitors. The Fitchburg Pointers, Capt. Wood, will arrive in this city at one o'clock this morning, on a military visit. They will be received at the Middlesex street station, by the Pulaski, whose guests they will be while here. The Pointers are spoken of as an efficient and highly drilled military corps. In the evening there will be a Levee at Faneuil Hall.

☞ The largest individual tax payer in this city is O. M. Whipple, who pays a fraction over $1300.

Caught Again. Our neighbors complain of the noise made by the passengers of the cars, as they pass

ROSE HARVEY Toilet Soaps, Extracts, Colognes, &c.

Ask for ROSE HARVEY'S Soaps and Perfumery and take no other. Their superiority is acknowledged by all. The Proprietors have received the highest premiums at the Fairs of the American Institute, N. Y., for the last three years, which is a sufficient guarantee that they are the best manufactured.

Ask for Rose Harvey's Soaps and Perfumery and take no other. They are of the highest purity and delicacy, and contain no acid or alkali.

Ask for Rose Harvey's Soaps and Perfumery and take no other. They are not highly perfumed, but have a rich and delicate fragrance, which is very agreeable to the refined taste.

Ask for Rose Harvey's Soaps and Perfumery and take no other. They are not highly colored, but are of a delicate and beautiful appearance.

Ask for Rose Harvey's Soaps and Perfumery and take no other. They are not highly medicated, but are of a mild and healthful character, and are recommended by the most eminent physicians as the best for the skin.

Ask for Rose Harvey's Soaps and Perfumery and take no other. They are not highly scented, but have a delicate and refined perfume ings of exultation might well swell his bosom. Such confusion composure—such gallant bearing—strict mechanism and obedience and tenacity of purpose in a young man of twenty seven, in his first battle, exhibited a marvelous strength of character, and one wonders more at his time he succeed.

It was a great victory; and as the news spread, bonfires, illuminations, the firing of cannons, and shouts of excited multitudes announced the joy and exultation of the people. The gallant bearing of Perry—his daring purpose in an open boat through the enemy's fire to his flag-ship—his hoisting his own flag—the manner in which he carried his vessel alone through the enemy's line, and then closed on his half pistol shot, his instant account of the victory in a letter to the Secretary of the Navy,

"WE HAVE MET THE ENEMY, AND THEY ARE OURS"—formed endless themes for discussion and eulogy, and he suddenly found himself in the front rank of heroes.

The day after the battle the funeral of the officers of the fleets took place. A little open ground on the margin of the bay, a wild and solitary spot, was selected as the place of interment. It was a beautiful, calm day, not a breath of air ruffled the surface of the lake, or moved the stiff crape that fringed the lake's clearing. The sun arose brightly down on the new-made graves, and not a sound disturbed the Bathbeth stillness that reigned on forest and lake. The fleets of the victors each in appropriate uniform, were laid on platforms made to receive them, and placed, with their hands across their breasts, in the barges. As these barges were ready to move, the whole band fell behind in a long procession, and the whole, behind in a long procession, and the whole, swept slowly and sadly towards the place of burial. The flags descended mournfully in the still air, the dirge to which the oars kept time, rose and fell in solemn strains over the water, while minute-guns from the various vessels blended their deep-toned harmony of the scene. The day before had been one of strife and carnage; but those who had closed in mortal hate, now mourned like a band of brothers for their fallen enemies as well as friends, gathered around the place of burial, graved a last farewell, and flung one softer tear into the nameless graves. Buried side by side, they slept the sleep of the brave, they had fought gallantly, and it mattered not to the victors or the vanquished, that they had gone to that still land where human strifes are forgotten, and the clangor of battle never come.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Friday, August 12, 1853.

The Duties and Prospects of the Massachusetts Whigs.

The united whig party of our State are about to enter once more upon a life-and-death struggle with the shattered relics of a coalition, more buoyant in their hopes of success, nerved to be reenactment till the heavens be no more;—a canvass more important to ourselves, more heavily laden with consequences to the whole country, than any canvass or struggle that has for many years transpired, or that shall again for many years recur. The State Convention we will soon assemble; our platform soon be erected, and our candidates for office—let us hope, triumphant!—mounted thereon. In view of these facts, let us for a moment consider our present position—first, as regards the late Constitutional Convention.

The opposition of the whigs to the convening of the late Convention, was based upon no mere-fers of a strictly anti-reform character, but upon earnest and conscientious doubts as to its constitutionality. Speaking for the sentiments of the whig party generally, an authorized expression of the principles alluded to in the measure as one of "doubtful constitutionality." But no whig ever stood in the attitude of an indexible and unreasonable opposition. Even from the first, as there still are, certain measures upon which (following a liberal latitude on minor points) the great body of the whigs were united. Indeed, there never was a time when union, harmony and the most conscious purpose to united, vigorous, organized action, prevailed among the whigs of this or any State, more thoroughly than at the present time.

That the new Constitution, as finally adopted by the Convention, embodies some good and feasible measures of reform, none are more free to admit than ourselves. As to these, however, there is some diversity, perhaps, even some conflict, of opinion; some favoring one measure; others another differing from the former; and still others another entirely different from the former two. If every separate proposition could be voted upon independently of all the rest, there can be little doubt that many would be sustained by the whigs and adopted by the people. But, as it is, the whole batch of propositions, good and bad, acceptable and unacceptable, must be acted upon in gross, but one vote remains to the whigs; namely, to oppose the whole as a whole, to make such amendments to the existing Constitution as seem necessary by the action of the Legislature, or should that course be found impracticable, by means of a supplemental Convention.

We choose not right to dictate to the whigs, or to be the authoritative exponent of their principles; but we have no hesitancy in saying that the line of action suggested above is the most practicable one that can possibly be adopted by our party; nor have we any doubt that such will be the policy adopted by our next State Convention.

The whigs, then, may be expected to wage indefatible and uncompromising opposition to the new Constitution as an amorphous code spread in which the good is inseparable from the bad. As regards the reforms which our party may be expected to favor, they will consistent that the present Constitution shall be so amended as —That the Plurality principle shall be adopted in all popular elections.

—That Senators shall be chosen in equal and single districts.

—That the House of Representatives shall be reduced —That Representatives shall be elected by constituencies single and equal, as in the case of Senators.

—That such additional reforms as the people demand, may be consummated with ease, speed and economy.

Such substantially, we prognosticate, will be the next action of the whig party. Such are platform we are ready to mount; and on such a platform, with Choate at our head, we can overwhelm, as has leaded a long and terrific, irreparable, Waterloo defeat! And if the whigs of this Commonwealth will begin early and maintain to the latter end a vigorous, resolute and united canvass on such a platform — if they will arouse from that unmanly apathetic slogan in which their late misfortunes have left the unemerged them—if they will adopt an aggressive warfare and, carry a "Lapland of a war" into the heart of the coalition Africa, their efforts cannot fail to be crowned with a complete, glorious and lasting success.

In view hereof, let the whole State be speedily reticulated with a complete and efficient system of school-within-school organization—as Constitution-Clubs be organized in every city, town and hamlet; let every whig that has a "tongue of iron and lungs of brass" see to it that his is not monopolized; so that we can "take time by the forelock," and execute a grand and decisive victory.

Colonel Schouler's Speech.

Our attention has been again called to the speech of Colonel Schouler on the basis of representation, in the House. What Mr Schouler's peculiar views as to the true ideal basis of representation are, we do not pretend to say; but there is every reason to believe that, like most other intelligent whigs, maintains that that government should be founded on population; and indeed the entire plan of the speech which we are about to quote, indicates as much, and is meaningless on any other hypothesis. His expression, "that taxation and representation should go together," is by no means to be understood as though he believed that governments should be founded on property, but in the most evidently a taunt on the Griswold, the gentleman for Erving. Any other construction of the Colonel's language is at utter variance with common sense and with the context. We quote his words —

"The gentleman for Erving, after going through with the Colonial history of the government, came down to Revolutionary history. He told us that one of the great principles of the Revolution—which is true—was that taxation and representation should go together.' He said, which I think is not true, that no man who could have found one representative into the Constitutional Convention, or might not have taken place at that time, but could not possibly differ with the gentleman, but I will not stop to argue the question. I admit for the present that taxation and representation should go together. I want to know where the gentleman where his bill stands, if that is the great principle of the Revolution? He says we don't. We have a tax to be laid this year of $850,000, and I want to know where he is to pay it. The county of Franklin, which is to have about as many representatives as the county of Suffolk, pays $6,157 of this tax, while the county of Suffolk pays $100,000 of it. The county of Suffolk pays over one-third of the tax, and yet the gentleman tells us that the principle of representation should go together, and the Republican party will never be satisfied with any measures that principle in every particular more than something that was ever presented to the consideration of an intelligent community."

This is a fair view of the evident position of the speaker, in spite of a thousand plain indications to the contrary, Mr Fisher A. Hildreth appears to have become the champion of the present and previously charges the Colonel with the old monstrosity, fossilized and petrified relation, that property should be founded on property—to charge as groundless and weak as it is absurd and ridiculous. The following are Mr Schouler's words—(they are rather legibly, but we give them at his own request) :—

"It shows the wide idea of the connection between taxation and representation. Gentlemen on the other side of the House [Democrats] will not agree to that taxation and representation should go together. But what does Mr Griswold say? He says he does Mr Schouler mean by their respective representation of the truth that taxation and representation should go together.' Mr Griswold says, as did once before, that in a country where a people are taxed they should be represented. But Mr Schouler desires to put to rest the old fashioned doctrine that property should be the basis of representation. Now the County of Suffolk should have as much more representation than the county of Franklin as their property is greater, and the same principle should govern the whole State. Property is the basis of representation, and not population. Mr Griswold says that he cannot understand the position of Mr Schouler unless he can show their respective rights. But Mr Schouler refers to and quotes the well established doctrine that property should be the basis of representation, and that the county

EPAULDINGS CUTTING.
ALLEN DAIR OIL or W A S H E.
Manufactured and for sale by
ALLEN, HARRIMAN and CO.
Sole Oil, for improving, Restoring and Preserving the Hair. Also, Manufacturers of Robinson's and Cannon's Oil, which have received a diploma at the Fair of 1851.

ROBINSON'S HAIR DYE.

This Dye is in perfect safe and very agreeable, and may be used by simply moistening the brush and applying to the usual way. If the gray hair are coarse and harsh, after a temporarily of the Powder in a gill of cold water (rain water preferred) will soften them, when used.

CHARCOAL COMPLEXION.

Diseased blood is soon enhanced to be the cause of pimples, and when made from sensible and objectionable matter, which is the cause of pimples, and objectionable matter, which is the cause of pimples, and objectionable form, in which it is now offered for the advantage of those who have been afflicted with this evil. It is a most powerful, a most healing, a most purifying, a most beautifying agent in the world. It is the only article before the public which takes away the cause of pimples, and leaves the skin in a healthy state. It is the only article which will remove pimples in a single month. It is the only article which will remove pimples in a single month. It is the only article which will remove pimples in a single month. It is the only article which will remove pimples in a single month.

BEAUTIFUL TEETH!

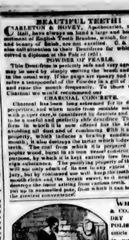
CHARLTON & HOVEY, Apothecaries, near City Hall, have purchased the right to manufacture and sell the celebrated Compound Chemical Preparation for the Teeth, for which the Proprietors, G.A.B. Smith and Co., received a diploma at the Fair of 1851.

SOZODONT.

This Powder is perfectly safe and very agreeable, and may be used by simply moistening the brush and applying to the usual way. If the gray hair are coarse and harsh, after a temporarily of the Powder in a gill of cold water (rain water preferred) will soften them, when used.

CHARCOAL COMPLEXION.

Diseased blood is soon enhanced to be the cause of pimples, and when made from sensible and objectionable matter, which is the cause of pimples, and objectionable form, in which it is now offered for the advantage of those who have been afflicted with this evil. It is a most powerful, a most healing, a most purifying, a most beautifying agent in the world. It is the only article before the public which takes away the cause of pimples, and leaves the skin in a healthy state. It is the only article which will remove pimples in a single month. It is the only article which will remove pimples in a single month. It is the only article which will remove pimples in a single month. It is the only article which will remove pimples in a single month.

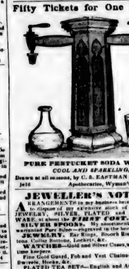


A NEW DISCOVERY.

THE HYDRO ELECTRIC VOLTAIC CHAIN.

The Hydro Electric Voltaic Chain, or the Wonderful Machine, and much more invigorating than any other. The beneficial effects are experienced after the first application. It is a perfect safeguard against the ravages of disease. It is a perfect safeguard against the ravages of disease. It is a perfect safeguard against the ravages of disease. It is a perfect safeguard against the ravages of disease.

Fifty Tickets for One Dollar.



PURE PERTUCKEY SODA WATER,

MANUFACTURED BY

CHARLES E. EASTMAN & CO.,

Drawn at all seasons, by C. E. EASTMAN & CO., Apothecaries, Wymans's Exchange, Merrimack Square.

JEWELLER'S NOTICE.

A ARRANGEMENTS on my establishment of WATCHES, JEWELRY, Fine Rings, Breast Rings, Cuff Pins, Lockets, Chains, Bracelets, Gold Pens, Pencils, Silver Spoons, Forks, Thimbles, Spectacles, Gold Beads, Gold Chains, Gold Pins, Gold Rings, Gold Pens, Gold Pencils, Gold Spectacles, Gold Thimb

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Saturday, August 13, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with a vote of the Whig State Committee, a State Convention of the Whig party of Massachusetts will be held in Fanueil Hall, in Boston, on WEDNESDAY, the 28th day of September, at 11 o'clock, A. M. for the purpose of making nominations of State officers.

The several Towns and Cities in the Commonwealth are entitled to representation in the Convention, equal to one Delegate for each 500 votes, and one for a fraction of 250 votes, cast for Governor in the year 1852.

By order of the State Committee.

JOSIAH QUINCY, Chairman.

August 10, 1853. aug13&20

Arrival of the Pacific Steamer.

The election of Franklin Pierce to the United States Presidency was one among a thousand evidences that the fagle dynasty in America has fallen—and, fallen forever. We have no tears to shed over the event. Such is the decree of Destiny; and we bow, not as scorde, we submit. Fogyism has indeed ruled quite too long. It sat like an incubus of death on the old Federal party; it kept its wings on the Titanic shoulders of that party until the election of John Q. Adams, when Federalism rank to rise no more this side immortality. Having landed Federalism at Chaos, it mounted at once the shoulders of a Whiggery, it barrode the new Whig party like a colossus; until at length, when Scott was defeated and Pierce elected, it fell—and was buried in full of it.

The time has now come for another regime. Democracy has taught Whiggism a lesson, which will not soon be forgotten. While Whiggism has been acting upon the principle that no man has any claim to consideration until he has arrived at the age of forty, Democracy has attracted to her fold all the young men of spirit, of ambition, of talent;—and these young men have carried the day, have taken the White House as by storm, and have enthroned therein a man whom the Whigs would have considered too young to be big-enough!

All hail, then, to Young America! all hail to the Inflexible will—to the indomitable spirit—to the trump-tongue asserted, and mounted the very apex of the ladder of ascension to wield at will the destinies of Democracy of our fire-blooded Republic!

America has cast off fogyism. Hereafter no man can rule us unless he rules the town-pump—because his head is silvered with age, and his legs warped with the fussy-wooley breeches, of which Secretary Marcy is the patron. Hereafter it will be the young men who will fill our offices—whose grizzly will bloom at the bar, at the hustings and in the caucus-hall—whose talents will illustrate our laws and impart new dignity to the ever venerable bench;—by whose zeal legislation shall be stayed—before whose energies disaster shall quail, and error shall hide her shame—beneath whose arms the pride of the arrogant, and the rod of the oppressor, and the spear of the armed tyrant, shall be humbled in the dust.

The matter has sleep long enough. The fogies have had their day—their march. It is judgeship has at any time fallen vacant, by whom has it been filled? By men of all conditions; or by the fogies alone? Over how many good lawyers of moderate age, have gray-headed medicasters climbed to power? And when, by chance, rewards have been dealt out to merit, irrespective of age, with how many Rachel-wailings has the cruel boon been accompanied? A word, what has governed—age or talent? Most notoriously, the former.

In conclusion, let us hope that hereafter another spirit will prevail, that no misconceived, and unjust economic capacity will again deter aspiring men to the ranks of the Democracy, but that all may feel that office and honors and emoluments are rewards of merit, and not the remuneration due to men of mere age.

Further Particulars of the Terrible Disaster on the Providence and Worcester Railroad.

We learn that the accident is attributable to gross carelessness and neglect on the part of the conductor of the Uxbridge Express Train.

It appears that the Uxbridge excursion train was behind time, and the conductor was informed at Pawtucket, slightly bruised; Daniel Conroy of Pawtucket, slightly hurt about the leg; Isaac H. Smolwick, Superintendent, slightly—the received his horse from flying splinters. Mr. Goldthwait of Uxbridge, Mass., was torn off and otherwise badly injured. His arm has been amputated at the shoulder joint—his recovery is regarded as almost hopeless. John Crane of Whitinsville, not Rector of Christ Church, as before reported. Mr. George Rice of Whitinsville, severely. Dennis Kelly, not fatally. Francis Gray, two ribs broken and otherwise hurt. A boy, name unknown, about 5 years old, arm torn off.

Asahel Sherman of Uxbridge, slightly; Mrs Sherman and daughter do., Mr Green, engineer, lives on Smith's Hill, Providence, was very badly burnt, it is feared they will die. remained on the engine sticking to the throttle valve until the moment of the collision. George Griffin, the news-boy, who was reported killed, was but little hurt, and was about this afternoon. Mrs Mallroy was carried to her home at Central Falls, where she died at noon. The Rev. Mr Dorsey was taken up dead, but showed no marks of bruises about his person—he must have died instantly from the effect of the shock. The wounded, with the exception of two or three, who were conveyed home, were taken to Pawtucket, about two miles from the place of the accident.

Death by a Clergyman. The New York Tribune publishes the following resulting disclosures relative to a very aggravated case of quackery in that city: "A. Gurnsay of the name of Hoerner, professing to be a regularly educated physician, was indicted for the manslaughter in the fourth degree. It appeared from the evidence elicited during the trial that he was aided by a midwife in attending women in labor, and that after trying to deliver the poor woman with the assistance of a fire-poker, the midwife cried in her agony, 'You will tear my beast out,' he had determined take off the arms of the child. It was clear that this was done by aid of what appeared to us to be a piece of lasting, be tore off the two arms of the child below the elbow, though in the case of one arm in the defence that the child was dead at the time.

The self-styled physician then left the house, having been for upwards of two hours engaged in torturing the patient. Another physician was now called in, and he, in the presence of the prisoner, who had returned, delivered the woman in a short time. Shortly, the child was of course, dead, and two days afterwards the mother died. And from the evidence produced, there is no reason to doubt but the death resulted from the unskilful treatment of the man Hoerner. It was stated by the coroner's men examined, he have been originally an ordinary case of cross-birth; and it further appeared that it would have been overcome by ordinary difficulties to a regularly educated man, the woman being perfectly healthy, and death being caused by uterine hemorrhage.

We think our readers will agree with us in considering that our system of medical jurisprudence is very imperfective, when we have the able District Attorney could not have obtained a conviction under any statute now on the law which applies to manslaughter in the fourth degree. It was stated more than once during the trial that the child was dead, and that consequently lived some time after being born. And it appears every way probable that, if any other medical man had been present at the birth of child and its mother might now have been in perfect health.

If the Whips of Massachusetts want the best Henry Wilson this Fall, we advise them not to put up a candidate against him who is hostile to the Maine Law. "A word to the wise." Wilson has Lt. Gov. Reed's record, that he should not be named among the possible Whig candidates for Governor.

The above is from the New York Tribune.—The query is a pertinent one, and we endorse the Tribune that among all the candidates which have been named in reference to the succession, there is not one who would command five than an assembly of males, for men speak only to the ear, but women speak also, and deal more eloquently, to the eye. (Applause.) There were assembled on the platform, Senators of the United States—one noble man, who had vessel to be a Senator of New Hampshire, but who was soon the less a Senator of mankind.—(Cheers.)

CITY MATTERS.

Hot Weather. The last three days will hereafter be denominated the three hot days of the season—the thermometer ranging all the time from 90 to 98, in the shade! Last night was the most uncomfortable of the season.

Health of the City. The weekly bills of mortality indicate a very healthy condition of our city. We subjoin a comparison of the reports for six successive consecutive weeks in 1852 and 1853. The population is now probably about 38,000, and the average weekly deaths is only 18—varying but little from last year.

1852.		1853.
For the week ending		For the week ending
July 30,	12	July 30,	16
Aug. 6,	15	Aug. 6,	10
" 13,	18	" 13,	17
" 20,	19	" 20,	16
" 27,	12	" 27,	20
Aug. 3,	14	Aug. 3,	12
Total,	85	Total,	91

Of the whole number for the current year, 45—within a fraction of one-half—were buried in the Catholic burial-ground.

The Thirteenth Fusileers, Capt. Woods, made a very creditable appearance here yesterday. No better drilled nor better appearing company has ever visited this city from abroad. They were received and entertained in the handsomest manner, by the Lowell Machanic Phalanx, Capt. Farmer. The two companies marched together (the Fusileers as the guests of the Phalanx,) at the American House. The dinner was got up by a number of ladies, in a style worthy the reputation of a first class hotel. His Honor, Mayor Marx, and several gentlemen of the Press were present as invited guests; and after the removal of the cloth, there was a lively interchange of sentiments, and pleasantries.

In the evening the Phalanx entertained their guests with a Levee[at Franklin's] but the rain and almost unendurable heat of the weather prevented a large attendance. This morning the Phalanx accompanied their guests to Boston.

Up The City Guards, accompanied by Mechanic Phalanx, will do full duty last night—preparing for Muster. Our Lowell companies are going in for the honors in right good earnest this year.

Tic-Nic. The Mathew Institute, of this city, will make another pic-nic excursion to Rocky Nook on Thursday next. Tickets, down and back, 50 cents.

Police Court, Saturday, Aug. 13. Ellen Conley, for keeping a house of ill-fame, was fined in $200 till Saturday next. James Cuddy, for larceny, was sentenced 6 months House of Correction. Patrick Sullivan, for drunkenness; previous conviction, was sent to the Lowell Work House for 6 months; appealed and went to jail.

Correspondence of the Lowell Courier.

Billerica, August 11, 1853.

The annual examination of the Howe School took place on Thursday, Aug. 4. The exercises were attended by a large company. Nine scholars were presented by the Trustees with Medals. They were awarded to Masters Butterfield of Andover, N. H., and Eaton of Reading, Mass. The valedictory address was also made by the Committee, of George T. Gorham of Billerica, in behalf of the graduating class. Previous to the day before, he said he was chastised there were women there, almost as numerous as the sons of Adam, and he was afraid he should be sensitive than an assembly of males, for men speak only to the ear, but women speak also, and deal more eloquently, to the eye. (Applause.) There were assembled on the platform, Senators of the United States—one noble man, who had vessel to be a Senator of New Hampshire, but who was soon the less a Senator of mankind.—(Cheers.)

Elections. The Missouri delegation in the next Congress will stand four Whigs to three Democrats, including Col. Benton.

A despatch from Nashville states that Johnson is elected Governor of Tennessee by a majority of 3000. Six Democrats are elected to Congress. Stanton is elected by seven votes. Legislature is Whig.

Alabama. Lockwood, Abercrombie and Hale, Whigs, and Phillips, Cobb, and Hopkins, Democrats, are put down as elected to Congress.—Winston, Dem., is elected Governor.

Kentucky. Letcher is believed an overall-fashioned victory in Kentucky. In the Legislature they have made encouraging gains. The Whig majority in the Senate will be eight; it was only two in the last. In the House, the Whigs will have some 24 majority; they had but 10 in the last.

North Carolina. 1st District, H. M. Shaw, dem.; 2d, Thomas Ruffin, dem.; 3d, W. S. Ashe, dem.; 4th, Sion H. Rogers, whig; 5th, John Kerr, whig; 6th, H. C. Puryer, whig; 7th, James W. Osborne, whig; 8th, Thomas L. Clingman, whig. Full returns have not been received from the two last named districts, but Messrs. Osborne and Clingman are already so far ahead of their opponents as to leave scarcely any doubts of their election.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

Opening Death of a Lowell Man. The Alta California of July 16th, states that Wm. H. Clark, formerly of this city, was killed in a street fight on shooting affray in San Francisco on Thursday. He was engaged in working his claim on Red Bar, when his foot accidentally struck a rock, which sent the pick off three feet, striking a long handled shovel, which literally impaled him. He lingered in great agony until twelve o'clock at night, when he relieved his sufferings. He leaves a wife and family at home.

Unpunished Rumor. The Boston Commercial of Friday, following the statements of many other papers—ourselves among the rest—says that the Judge Wells sent up all the Passaic rioters, and that the Judge refused to let them out on bail. This is untrue in every particular. Judge Wells has yet to try five more cases, and the punishment of all has been comparatively a few months in the House of Correction. Mr. Kelley, whose object had been fully obtained in preventing a duel. There was no excitement whatever in the case. Before leaving Court, Tremor and O'Donahoe were brought up in the Boston Police Court yesterday morning, and discharged from custody.

Yellow Fever on our own Shores. An English vessel, bound from New Orleans to Liverpool, put into Kingston, on the Cape, a day or two since, having on board the yellow fever. All but three of the crew had died from the disease.

Suspension Bridge. Mr Ansel White has contracted to build the Suspension bridge from Clifton to Goat Island, for the coming exhibition of the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanic Association.

A woman named Catharine Lown, was found dead in bed on Thursday morning at Bonn Square. She had been ill for some days, and received a severe beating, and by order of the Coroner, Dr. Bodman made a post mortem examination to ascertain the cause of her death.

James W. Reed has been appointed District Attorney for New Mexico.

The Accident on the New Haven Railroad. The accident to the Boston Express train at Fort Chester, on Tuesday night, was caused by a large rock sliding from the bank on to the track. The engineer, Mr. Theodore Humphrey, was instantly killed, and the fireman, Burr Hallett, and Peter Dennis, conductor, were injured. The engine was thrown off the track, and considerably smashed up. The baggage car was overturned, but the inmates and the passengers escaped unhurt.

Wells Beach, Me., has had its full share of visitors this season. The Atlantic House—a first class hotel, kept by our old friend Titcomb—is full. We enjoyed a brief visit there this week, and had the pleasure of meeting several of our old friends, J. B. Francis, Esq., and family, of this city, are spending the warm season at the Atlantic House.

One of the finest sights we ever saw was from the front of the Atlantic. About two miles out at sea, was a large fleet of mackerel vessels, whose snowy white sails, extending in one compact line nearly a mile, presented to the eye as beautiful an illustration of a small distinctly count upwards of one hundred sail.

There is always rapid business in this neighborhood. This season the mackerel fishers have had great luck here.

Cutting Irons. After a severe conflict, Amboy has fallen to the insurgents. Canton is quiet; and trade is steady. The victors are most friendly to strangers, and protection of persons and property. Chaos and the British Consulate. They promise a desire to trade in all articles except opium.

Dartmouth College Examiners. By the request of the Trustees of Dartmouth College, the Hon. Edward Everett has also been appointed one of the Examiners of many and other papers—ourselves among the rest—says that Judge Wells sent up all the Passaic rioters, and that the Judge refused to let them out on bail. This is untrue in every particular. Mr. Kelley, whose object had been fully obtained in preventing a duel. There was no excitement whatever in the case. Before leaving Court, Tremor and O'Donahoe were brought up in the Boston Police Court yesterday morning, and discharged from custody.

Yellow Fever on our own Shores. An English vessel, bound from New Orleans to Liverpool, put into Kingston, on the Cape, a day or two since, having on board the yellow fever. All but three of the crew had died from the disease.

Suspension Bridge. Mr Ansel White has contracted to build the Suspension bridge from Clifton to Goat Island, for the coming exhibition of the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanic Association.

Phillips, democrat, is elected to Congress in the 1st District.

The Maryland Convention this afternoon nominated Samuel Roberts, of Queen Ann's county, for Canal Commissioner.

Mr Pinckney White, of Baltimore, was nominated Comptroller of the Treasury.

The Conventions passed no resolutions endorsing the Administration. Adjourned sine die.

Capt. Jonas P. Levy, with the engineers, was to proceed immediately to open a route across Mexico through Alvarado river to the Pacific.

Railroad Manners. The surviving passengers in the late Amboy train by whose collision four were killed and many others wounded, have adopted resolutions to the effect that the use of a single track between Philadelphia and New York, on an lucrative a route, is disgraceful to the company, and that one cheerful have no long tolerated it; that laws should be passed compelling every railroad company to establish a telegraph line with magnets at every station, by which timely warning could be given of the approach of trains when out of time, rendering accidents impossible, unless attributable to the most wanton recklessness; and that the awful sacrifice of life, and suffering which has occurred on the road, is attributable to the bad management of the road, and the exceeding carelessness of those in the employ of the company.

We trust this subject will be thoroughly investigated, and that its agitation will never be stayed until a complete reform in the use of signals is effected.

Garrisonians. The Garrisonians held a meeting in Framingham on the 2d inst., to celebrate "West India Emancipation." They exhausted themselves in abusing churches and the American Government, and then turned upon one another. Wendell Phillips gave Frederick Douglass a most unmerciful castigation in a long speech, for something which has recently appeared in Douglass' paper, "The North Star." Most of the audience were displeased at this, and the meeting broke up not harmoniously.—The same party held a meeting near New York on Thursday of last week.

Washington, August 11th. Caleb Jones of Richmond, is appointed Consul to Fowchow, China. Alpah W. Chapin, postmaster at Springfield, Mass.

The Puttawattomies, now here, have laid before the President a memorial against the encroachments of Indian affairs, against their alienation, W. O. and G. W. Irving and Wallace, which charges the commissioners with gross improvidence. The President promised a delegation of their tribe, sent to visit him, that the whole matter should be promptly seen to.

A Correspondent of the New York Tribune gives the population of Lowell at 45,000. This is about 7000 too high.

Patriotic Move. Mr Isaac P. Shepard of Boston, has suggested a plan for the purchase and preservation as a national tribute to departed worth, of Gen. Washington's seat at Mount Vernon. He says that the property is offered for $200,000. Probably $50,000 more should be expended for immediate repairs and improvements. A resident superintendent of the domain, should have a liberal salary, and a good appropriation should be made for labor —for both say $4000. To this should be added another $1000 for annual repairs, insurance, &c. A six per cent. fund of $100,000 would be sufficient for these purposes, and this added to the expenditures already named would require a cash capital of $350,000. I would have this raised by a voluntary contribution from the people of the whole country, in which the small that every man, woman and child, in the length and breadth of the land could meet it—or every one.

Five Boys. Daniel Webster, Lewis Cass, John P. Hale, John A. Dix and Alpheus Felch, are five boys—perpetual students of Dartmouth College. The first is the oldest, the second the next oldest, the third the next oldest, the fourth the next oldest, and the fifth the youngest. Mr. Webster is the oldest, Mr. Cass the next oldest, Mr. Hale the next oldest, Mr. Dix the next oldest, and Mr. Felch the youngest.

Chloroform was administered to a young woman in West Boylston, one day last week, at a dental office in Worcester, for a tooth-ache. After the tooth was taken out, she was attacked with a violent pain in the head, and became insensible, and remained in that state when she was dead. While preparations were being made for the funeral ceremonies, she recovered, and remained in the same state as before, and when she first became insensible, she relapsed into death.

A New Yacht for the Emperor of France. With the recent French news we have the important fact that the Emperor has ordered a yacht to be built for the new Empress, had passed down the Seine on its way to St. Cloud. Of course the yacht was not to be a steamer. Not so. The Emperor is getting to the gallant and loyal Parisians.

$7 Ship Melbourne, built in Canada, and owned in Liverpool, has been wrecked in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Cost about $60,000, and partly insured in New York.

Rev. Mr. Lyon, of Kingsting to the proprietors of the Roxbury line of omnibuses, died on Thursday from being overheated.

$7 Ex-Chief Justice Jones of New York is dead.

$7 Preparations are being made in Providence for a reception of the Lowell Light Infantry.

The Oldest Member.—The oldest member of the late Constitutional Convention, was Alfred L. Strong, Esq., of Southampton, at if he was present on the day of organization, he certainly was the oldest member in the Convention.—[Atlas.

L. L. Strong.—This gentlemen, through the medium of the Springfield Post, owns up to the soft impeachment, and says he shall be 80 from his father "or words to that effect." This certainly places the oldest member of the Convention, Deacon Josiah Bartlett, of Salisbury, 92 years of age.

HARTFORD LIFE INSURANCE CO.,

HARTFORD, CONN.

Persons wishing to effect insurance on their lives would do well to examine the new rates offered by the Hartford Life Insurance Company. The Company is now receiving cash, before January premiums, and will issue policies from the date of application without any more delay than is necessary to examine the risk. Blanks and all necessary information may be had at the office of the Company, or of any of its agents.

Applications received by

E. JAY DIMOCK, Agent.

Lowell, August 13, 1853. aug13

SOUTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1853.

Capital, $1,000,000.

Paid and Permanently Invested—Surplus from 40,000 to 60,000.

DIRECTORS.

Wm. Tucker,	Thomas Cooper,
Geo. W. Blunt,	Wm. Wood,
Geo. H. Warren,	Alfred Bishop,
Wm. H. Aspinwall,	Jas. Boorman,
Wm. Bayard,	Jas. Lee,
Thomas Tileston,	James Lenox,
Wm. Whitlock,	Geo. Furniss, Jr.,
Samuel Hamilton,	Peter L. Voorhies,
Samuel Hamley, Jr.

The undersigned Company are prepared to take every species of Inland and Coastal Navigation Risks, at such rates as will be found consistent with the security of the assured, and the Company. If their long practice hitherto, be not sufficient guarantee for the faithful performance of their engagements, they refer to the Boards of Directors of the Mutual Companies.

E. JAY DIMOCK, Agent.

Office No. 10 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell.

aug13

FIRE INSURANCE.

OFFICE—No. 10 APPLETON BLOCK

The Commercial Mutual Marine Insurance Company, HARTFORD, CONN.

Capital, $1,000,000

Assets, Jan. 1st, 1853,	$1,000,000
Premium Income to	1,500,000
Premium Notes,	1,500,000
Losses Paid,	1,000,000
Dividends Paid,	500,000

E. JAY DIMOCK, Agent.

aug13

DR. LANGLEY'S ROOT AND HERB BITTERS. THE GREAT REMEDY.

Only 25 and 37½ cents a Bottle

Will cure Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Rheumatism, Boils, Blotches, Humors, Scrofula, Jaundice, Canker, Erysipelas, Female Complaints, Salt Rheum, Fever and Ague, Neuralgia, Headache, Piles, Dropsy, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Sick Stomach, Loss of Appetite, Costiveness, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Female Weakness, Impurities of the Blood, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach or Blood.

Prepared from Roots, Herbs and Barks, by DR. SAMUEL A. LANGLEY, Boston, Mass.

Sold by Agents in every town and village in the United States, Canada and the British Provinces.

Does not every Man, Woman and Child have an interest in knowing the best means of preserving their health? Almost every person is troubled with some disease, and many a one suffers for years with pain, when a few dollars would restore them to health. Dr. Langley's Root and Herb Bitters are the best remedy for the cure of the above diseases, being composed entirely of roots and herbs, and are warranted to cure or the money will be refunded. Read the following certificate from a well known citizen of Boston, and then go and get a bottle of the Bitters, and be convinced for yourself that they are what they are recommended to be.

Boston, Aug. 17, 1853.

This is to certify that I have been afflicted with the Piles for upwards of twenty years, and have tried almost every thing that I could hear of, but found no relief until I commenced taking Dr. Langley's Root and Herb Bitters. I have taken but two bottles, and I am entirely cured. I am now sixty-two years of age, and can recommend them to all afflicted with the Piles, as the best medicine I ever took.

JOSEPH WARREN, 3 Pemberton Square.

Sold by Agents in every town and village in the United States, Canada and the British Provinces.

Principal Office, 120 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

SAMUEL A. LANGLEY, Proprietor.

aug13&20

SODA WATER.

WITH A VARIETY OF THE CHOICEST SYRUPS.

RASPBERRY—STRAWBERRY—LEMON—SARSAPARILLA—HONEY—ORGEAT—PINEAPPLE—NECTARINE—and VANILLA.

50 TICKETS FOR ONE DOLLAR!

J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries, aug13 No. 33 Merrimack street.

A. B. FRENCH,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN CONFECTIONERY AND CAKES,

No. 5 Prescott Block,

LOWELL, MASS

☞ Particular attention given to the manufacture of CREAMS, JELLIES, WARRENS and other CAKES for PARTIES, SOIREES, &c. Also, Ice Cream, Ices, &c., on the most liberal terms. nov13tf

A. W. LEONARD,

CONFECTIONERY AND CAKES,

No. 130 Merrimack street,

(A. B. French's Old Stand.)

☞ Particular attention given to the manufacture of CREAMS, JELLIES, WARRENS and other CAKES for PARTIES, SOIREES, &c. Also, Ice Cream, Ices, &c., on the most liberal terms.

aug13

Philadelphia Parasol Store.

Dan's note of holding at NO.ALSTHAW'S large and fashionable which are offered to customers and purchasers as he always keeps great quantities on hand. Ladies are invited to call and examine the stock, which is the largest in the city.

PHILADELPHIA PARASOLS,

NO. ALSTHAW,

No. 23 North Second street, Philadelphia.

aug13

SCHLATTER'S

400 Washington Street.

The only manufactory of Schlatter's Patent Safes in Boston.

☞ A large assortment of Thomas' Patent Fire and Burglar proof Safes on hand—for sale on the most terms and persons wishing to purchase will find it to their advantage to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere. Safes repaired and warranted. Also, Keys fitted to Safes of other manufacture.

Agents for Thomas' Patent Safes.

S. T. GILBERT & CO.

☞ A large assortment of Thomas' Patent Fire and Burglar proof Safes on hand—for sale on the most terms and persons wishing to purchase will find it to their advantage to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere. Safes repaired and warranted. Also, Keys fitted to Safes of other manufacture.

Agents for T. GILBERT & CO.

S. T. GILBERT is, with a single exception, the only person in Boston who has ever made a Safe that has become famous for resisting the action of fire. Those who have purchased Safes of him, and have had occasion to test their value, have found them to be all that was claimed for them. Those who are in want of a Safe, will find it for their interest to call on him before purchasing elsewhere, as he can furnish them with a Safe of any size, and on as reasonable terms as any other manufacturer.

Safes repaired and warranted. Also, Keys fitted to Safes of other manufacture.

Agents for S. T. GILBERT & CO.

Boston, Aug. 1, 1853. aug13

A CARD TO THE LADIES OF LOWELL AND VICINITY

MRS. WINSLOW, an experienced Nurse and FEMALE PHYSICIAN, has a Soothing Syrup for CHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation, will relieve the child at once. It is perfectly safe in all cases, and pleasant to taste. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants—now don't forget it. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by druggists throughout the world. Price only 25 cents a bottle.

Principal Depot of the several Doubleday Express, and Merchants' Despatch Lines, Railroad Agents—Messrs. Hussey, Burgess & Co., Boston

ROSE MARY

SPALDINGS' UTHERIAN HAIR OIL or W. A. & G. SPALDING, Summerhill Pier, Glasgow, has, for Supporting Beauty and Preserving Health, been Awarded the Highest Testimony of Success and Universal Approbation ever bestowed on any article. It is invaluable to every lady who wishes to preserve the beautiful.

1st.—To promote the growth of the hair.
2d.—To restore the hair to bald heads.
3d.—To prevent the hair falling off in any way.
4th.—To prevent the hair from being oily or greasy.
5th.—To give to whiskers a beautiful appearance.
6th.—To have an ingredient effective on the hair.
7th.—To prevent the hair from falling off.
8th.—To cure all diseases of the hair.

So much confidence is reposed in it, that it is offered for trial before any Money is asked. Also in very large bottles, at 3s. 6d., 6s., and 11s. each. Sold by all Perfumers, and by the Proprietors, whose names are on each bottle, and without which none are genuine.

Sold by A. F. GROVENOR, corner Bridge and Merrimac sts., Centralville, Lowell.

FISHE, AZEL S., BARRY'S TRICOPHEROUS, OR MEDICATED COMPOUND.

The efficacy of this justly celebrated restorative for invigorating, beautifying, and improving a gloss and curl to the hair, is now so well known to the public, that it is only necessary to say that the genuine article which is not for a day but for all time. It is the greatest and most valuable discovery ever made for the hair, and is offered confidently to the public as the best article ever known to nourish and tight hair, with the combined energy of other ingredients which are known to the luxury victims be touched with bald heads and gray hair. It will in a few days restore the hair to its natural color, and the head is subjected. It is not to be compared with Mr. Fisher's Tricopherous for its invaluable remedy, and among the many thousands who have used it, not one has ever made a complaint on this preparation of Barry's Tricopherous,

Brother Butcher at Lobos," he said: "I do not like very old?' 'Seventy-five years,' I replied. 'but not at sixty-seven to imprison himself on horseback for three days in the day, when circumstances reduced him to it." He did not complain, however, but answered my observations. He remarked: 'The Indian is not a man of progress, and he will not improve; what he is now he will be 100 years hence.' I replied that I was not willing to write to your government and acquaint it. I should suppose that it was a good account of us in England, and in no other power. It is an act of the British Parliament since which can warrant the proceedings against you." I misunderstood the character of the Yorkish people. I should have surrendered myself to the Emperor of Russia, who was my friend, or to the Emperor of Austria, who was related to me. There is no getting by putting a man in prison, but it is an act of cowardice to let him languish, and to poison him so as to unnerve an island and in so detestable a climate.' I said the Island of St. Helena had never been regarded in that light; that, except so far as related to the precautions necessary for his personal safety, it had been the desire of the British Government to render his situation as comfortable as possible; that the house, furniture and offices of every kind abound out for his use, certainly moderated according not for his use, certainly moderated according not for his use, certainly moderated according not

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 16, 1853. NO. 4145.

PATENTS.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for Inventors. Patents procured by Munn, Brown & Co., Solicitors of American and Foreign Patents, Office, No. 28 STATE STREET, BOSTON.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The undersigned, late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, D. C., continues to prosecute Inventors' claims at the Patent Office, and will attend to the procurement of Patents in the United States, Canada, and other foreign countries. Models and drawings should be forwarded by express, addressed to the undersigned, at Boston. Charges for procuring Patents in the United States will be moderate, and no fee required from those not successful. Opinions, free of charge, as to the novelty, utility, and patentable character of inventions submitted to me by letter or otherwise. Assignments and other papers relating to Patents carefully executed. Information can only be had by applying personally or by letter (post paid) to the undersigned. Reference is permitted to the Hon. Commissioner of Patents, Washington, D. C.

EDMUND BURKE.

Boston, March 15, 1853. 3m

Having the time I occupied the Office of Commissioner of Patents, E. F. Bailey, Esq., of Boston, and Solicitor of the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There is no one who has had more experience in the business, and I have no doubt he will attend to it with fidelity and promptness. Mr. Bailey will be in Washington for a few days every month, and will receive letters addressed to him. I regard his ability and integrity as unquestionable, and most cheerfully recommend him to the favorable notice of all persons who may have business to transact at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE.

Late Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, March 15, 1853. 3m

Lovet's Wahpene

WHITE, comes clear blue to an original color, and CURE BALDNESS, causing a GROWTH. To remedy the above, and to prevent the hair from falling off, use Lovet's Wahpene. Sold by Dr. Lovet, 21 Bond street, New York; Keller, office No. 21 Chamber street, New York, sole agent for the United States, Canada, and Mexico; Dr. Lovet, 21 Bond street, New York, sole agent for Europe, and by several local and foreign druggists. Mr. Vanderpool, of the Metropolitan Hotel, New York, says that after using a few bottles of this mixture, Dyer, Vail, Gray and Co., of this city, and others, New York, they used their bottles and the hair commenced growing, and in a few days it was as full as it ever was. Mr. Vanderpool says that the hair, that had not a hold upon from infancy up, and after using Lovet's Wahpene a few days, it commenced growing, and in a few days it became as perfect as ever any part of his head, and to-day he has as full a head of hair as any man in the city. Capt. Vanderpool is now 60 years of age, and has been bald for 27 years, unmarried during that time, and has used a great many articles for the hair, but never found any that would start the hair to growing but this one mixture. Call and see him before you buy and try it worth. Beware of counterfeits. Lovet's Wahpene is the only article that will restore the hair to its original color. Sold in this city by Dr. Keller, and by druggists generally throughout the country. Price 50 cents and $1 per bottle.

JOSEPH BAYNES.

A CARD.

THE undersigned, Agent for the sale of the celebrated Lovet's Wahpene, for the United States, Canada, and Mexico, would say to the public that he has received a large supply of the above article, and is now prepared to fill orders to any extent. Those wishing to purchase will please call at the office of the Agent, No. 21 Chamber street, New York, where they will be supplied with the article, and receive a pamphlet containing certificates of its wonderful effects in restoring the hair, and the directions for using it. Those who have used it will please call and get a fresh supply, as the old bottles will not answer for the new mixture. Price 50 cents and $1 per bottle.

JOSEPH KELLER, Agent.

NEW ARRIVAL.

ENGLISH and American Tooth Brushes, Hair Brushes, Combs, Shaving Cream, Soaps, Perfumery, Fancy Articles, &c., at the Apothecary Store of SAMUEL HINDS, M. D.

Merrimack and John sts.

OPENING OF DUTTON HOSIERY.

A NEW lot of Dutton's very celebrated Hosiery for Ladies', Misses' and Children's Hosiery. Call at the Hosiery Store of

J. C. DUTTON, No. 5 Merrimack st.

GOLD PENS.

J. C. DUTTON, No. 5 Merrimack st., has received a new lot of Gold Pens, of the celebrated manufacture of Perry & Co., London, which he has purchased for the variety, at 25 cents each. Call and see them.

LADDLETTE BUTTER. A fresh supply on hand and for sale by the subscriber.

GOLD PENS.

THE subscriber has received a new lot of Gold Pens, of the celebrated manufacture of Perry & Co., London. They are warranted to suit every description of penmanship, and will be sold at 25 cents each.

JAMES F. WALKER,
Druggist and Apothecary.

I INVITED TEA TRADE to my store, and they have responded liberally. Call and see for yourself.

JAMES F. WALKER.

PLATED WARE OF THE FIRST QUALITY.

ENGLISH and American Plated Ware, viz.: Dinner & Tea Sets, Waiters, Castors, Cake Baskets, Cups, Spoons, Forks, Ladles, Butter Knives, Pickle Forks, Soup Ladles, Pastry Forks, Tea Trays, Tea Kettles, Lamps, Candlesticks, Bronzed Tea Sets, Table Cutlery, Pepper Boxes, Cups, Tea Caddies, Tea Urns, Tea Spoons, Dessert Spoons, Table Spoons, Tea Knives, Dessert Knives, Table Knives, Tea Trays and Tea Kettles. Dining and Tea Forks. For sale at the lowest prices by JOSEPH BAYNES.

A SPECIAL NOTICE.—A yearly invoice for the wear and tear—for sale by S. KINDER, Jr., sole agent for Lowell and vicinity.

HARRIS'S PREPARED COCOA, for invalid & Physicians as very nutritious and easy of digestion. For sale by the sole agent for Lowell and vicinity, S. KINDER, Jr.

HARCHARD, WRIGHT & CO.,

COMMISSION Merchants and Dealers in Lard, Pure C and C Commercial st., Boston, are Agents for the sale of the following celebrated brands of Lard:

STEAM REFINED.
A. Bonnaffon,	Boston
Thomas Motley & Co.,	Boston
Thomas Motley & Co.,	Chicago	Ill.
J. H. Wilson,	Buffalo	N. Y.
Wm. Hamilton,	Buffalo	N. Y.
Wm. Hamilton,	Cleveland	O.

We are constantly receiving a supply direct from the Factories.

NEW GOODS.—The Attorney or the Grocer will find a large assortment of Goods, from the smallest article to the largest, at the Store of

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, Jr.,
Merrimack Building, Dutton st.

SPERM, WHALE AND LARD OIL.

2000 Sperm Oil, Winter Strained.
1000 Whale " "
" Lard Oil, Factory.
" Lard Oil, Family.

For sale by CURTIS & PEIRCE,
No. 2 Lord & Nichols's Block, Merrimack st.

SPRING STOCK AND STYLES CLOTHS AND CLOTHING.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, Jr., respectfully informs his old customers and the public generally, that he has removed his store to Merrimack Building, Dutton st.

OPENING OF DUTTON HOSIERY.

A NEW lot of Dutton's very celebrated Hosiery for Ladies', Misses' and Children's Hosiery. Call at the Hosiery Store of

J. C. DUTTON, No. 5 Merrimack st.

GOLD PENS.

J. C. DUTTON, No. 5 Merrimack st., has received a new lot of Gold Pens, of the celebrated manufacture of Perry & Co., London, which he has purchased for the variety, at 25 cents each. Call and see them.

LADDLETTE BUTTER. A fresh supply on hand and for sale by the subscriber.

GOLD PENS.

THE subscriber has received a new lot of Gold Pens, of the celebrated manufacture of Perry & Co., London. They are warranted to suit every description of penmanship, and will be sold at 25 cents each.

JAMES F. WALKER,
Druggist and Apothecary.

I INVITED TEA TRADE to my store, and they have responded liberally. Call and see for yourself.

JAMES F. WALKER.

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & SOWER,
RAILROAD FREIGHT STATION,
SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.

COAL—Anthracite (white and red ash), Cumberland (Coxe, Hazleton, Lehigh), by cargo, or from depot of the Company.

LUMBER—Eastern, Southern, Canadian Frames for buildings, shipping—wood, etc., in promptly furnished.

GRAIN—Corn, Oats, Rye, Barley, Meal, Bran, Ship stuffs, etc., in store and for sale by the cargo.

SEED—FURS, LARD, HAY—Most Western brands. SALT—coarse and fine, by cargo, other, or from store. CLOVER, TIMOTHY, FLAX, HUNGARIAN GRASS SEED.

GROCERIES—Sugar, Teas, Linseed, Palm.

OILS—Whale, Sperm, Lard, Linseed, Palm.

WHITE LEAD—(Dean Pascal River Mills), and other articles.

Produce received on consignment or in barter for goods.

Orders, by telegraph, given to receive or transfer cars.

The place of business and shipping point of the Company is at the depot of the Lowell and Salem Railroad, and by means of the Eastern Railroad, with its extended unloaded dispatch vessels and stores, without the necessity of cartage, they are able to offer to the public the advantage of the first car load of coal that arrives in Boston each day, and to dispose sometime in any part in the city, or to ship coastwise, or to any station on the Eastern, Boston or Western Railroads. Rates of freight guaranteed as low as by any other route.

The proprietors of the firm are sure that they will be able to furnish goods at the lowest wholesale prices and solicit a share of the public patronage, which they will endeavor to merit by strict attention to business.

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & SOWER.

Salem, March 1, 1853. 6m

DR. MORSE'S

INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

A PHENOMENON IN MEDICINE.

PUBLIC attention is respectfully called to the Eighth Wonder of the Natural World.

The Invigorating Elixir and Cordial introduced into use by Dr. Morse, of Boston, has become so celebrated in the short space of time it has been before the public, that it has called forth the many encomiums of Actors, Poets, by their eminent talents, have rendered themselves famous, and have received the plaudits of the great citizens of Europe as the best preparations for the

CURE OF NERVOUS DISEASES.

No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost magical effects of this Elixir upon the debilitated, distressed and shattered nervous system.—Wherever it is introduced, it is hailed as a blessing to mankind. It is a stimulant, giving new and vital energy to the whole system, as well as, and not merely, the mental and physical powers. The mental and physical powers are the two great divisions of the human system, and the two great divisions of disease are those which are mental and those which are physical, or bodily. Both of these are intimately connected, and the cause of the former is often the effect of the latter, and vice versa. Dr. Morse's Invigorating Cordial and Elixir is a remedy for both of these classes of diseases

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Tuesday, August 16, 1853

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with a vote of the Whig State Central Committee, the Whig State Convention will be held at Worcester, on WEDNESDAY, the 28th day of September, at 11 o'clock, A. M. for the purpose of nominating a State ticket.

The several Towns and Cities in the Commonwealth are requested to choose their delegates to said Convention, and those from the several Congressional Districts will be entitled to the following number of Delegates, viz:

1st District,	15
2d "	15
3d "	15
4th "	15
5th "	15
6th "	15
7th "	15
8th "	15
9th "	15
10th "	15

August 16, 1853. aug16&wtd

The Progress of Free Trade, and its Deleterious Results on the Country.

Nothing but mathematical demonstrations can sufficiently expose the disastrous results which, during a few years, have attended the prosecution of the execrable system which has been invoked with the name of liberality in trade! We publish, therefore, a full and complete exposé of the operation of this system, as compiled by a correspondent in a neighboring city:

"During the four years of the Tariff of 1842, the value of foreign importations into this country, amounted to $360,050,485; value of exportations to foreign countries for the same time, $304,455,637—an excess of exportations over importations of $43,594,848, or about nine millions of dollars annually. For the same time the amount of specie exported was $5,305,774; amount imported, $21,765,983; thus leaving a balance of specie in the country, of $16,485,507.

Since that time the Tariff of 1846 has been in operation, and, in the meantime, the importations into this country have amounted in the aggregate to $1,431,076,334, and the exportations to $1,345,158,704, thus creating a debt, to foreign countries, of $178,944,630. It should be remembered that the financial years of 1847, '48 and '49, intervened, when the exportations of breadstuffs averaged $40,000,000 annually, being $67,800,367 per year more than the annual average for the past 21 years, or $85,872,721 for the three years. As this was exported under an extraordinary emergency, it is plain that it ought to enter into the basis of calculations, when estimating the ordinary importations of the country under the present Tariff. By subtracting this sum, therefore, from the whole amount of importations since the Tariff of 1846 went into effect, we have an indebtedness incurred of $266,317,351—an annual deficiency of more than $50,000,000. The amount of specie imported for that time was $16,485,507, all of which must be brought in during the famine years; the exportation of specie was $115,555,189. The excess of specie carried out of the country was $99,105,257, or about $19,000,000 annually, thus leaving an annual deficiency of 70 millions of dollars.

The above statistics exhibit the relative operation of the two Tariffs. Under the first, we not only maintained an excess of exports, but were yearly augmenting the amount—we were rapidly becoming independent of all other nations, and increasing our national wealth.— Under the present one, our exports are not constantly a retrograde one. Beginning in 1846 with an importation of $121,691,797 in value, and an exportation of $109,983,248, with a deficiency of $11,708,549, we have gone on until the importations of 1852 amounted to $212,413,383 in value, and our exportations, for the same year, to $160,908,196, with a deficiency of upwards of $51,500,000.

By comparing the results of the two systems, we have reason to infer, that, if the Tariff of 1842 had continued to the present time, instead of causing millions of specie to go out, as we have since the enactment of the Tariff of '46, and still having a large balance against us, we should have had no foreign debt; the $15,000,000 of specie drained from our own resources in the country, and from one to five millions, yearly, have been retained in our own countries. What an enormous addition this would have been to the wealth of the country! With the amount thus thrown away, the Italian road might have been built, and thus the numerous trade of western Asia been secured.

The portion of specie which has gone into this disparity to exist; how long is the country to be drained of its specie to be sent to pay the foreign debt; and when is the day of settlement to come? In order to prevent national bankruptcy, we see this moment dependent upon Californian supplies. Should they fail, this would be precipitated upon us at once. This ought not so to be. The subject demands the serious and calm consideration of the American people. It is time that the fallacy and the absurdity of free trade doctrines were fully exposed. It hangs like an incubus over the prosperity of this country, and, unless some remedy is timely applied, more disastrous results will follow."

Four Days Later from Europe.

The steamer Humboldt arrived at New York yesterday, at 3 o'clock, P. M., with 106 passengers and dates from London to the 3d inst., and Havre and Liverpool to the 2d.

Among the passengers by the Humboldt are R. D. Wainwright, and S. D. Goodrich.

The Asmerica arrived out on the 21st ult.—The Niagara arrived at Queenstown on the 28th.

The reports of the crops are highly favorable. There are rumors of the potato rot.

At Manchester business was satisfactory.

At Birmingham there was much firmness in the iron trade, and copper was well maintained.

Large purchases of lace and hosiery had been made at Nottingham.

The demand for Australia was very great.

The Irish linen market was very brisk at estimated prices.

A Frenchman named Edward Bayman has been arrested at Southampton on a charge of having conspired with others to murder the French Emperor; he was taken to London for examination.

Gold to the amount of £800,000 had arrived from Australia. Money was in increased demand, the rate of discount being 3 1-4 per cent. The discount houses had given notice of their intention to raise the allowance for money on call from 2½ to 3 3-4 per cent, and this, coupled with the rumor that the Bank of England was likely to make a further advance of charge, had caused a gloom over the market. A report was current the past week that the bank rate would be raised to 4 per cent, but it was believed to be untrue.

At Mark Lane prices, on the 1st, wheat was unaltered to the full extent of the quotations declared in advance; foreign wheat was hardly maintained. Flour was nominal, but firm. Corn in demand. The Army.

Money generally unchanged. Securities had a downward tendency. Consols were 97 3-4.

Boston and Parkes.—It is said that Parkes, the Australian gold refiner, who refuses to withdraw his views from the principalities, so stigmatized for it in the speculations of the late panic, is now in the English and French fronts would in fact be found to extend to parts of Switzerland and Piedmont, his settlement be greatly jeopardized. The telegraph should be of the first stamp, and the Porte and the representatives of the great powers have accepted the proposition of the Austrian Internuncio, which arranged that the English and French fleets now should withdraw from Besika Bay, whilst the Russians evacuated the Danubian provinces. Turkey would then send an ambassador to open negotiations at St. Petersburg. Queen Victoria was to be present at the Vienna by consent of Russia.

Despatches have been sent to the hospodars of Moldavia and Wallachia, commanding them to quit the principalities, and retire to the right bank of the Danube.

The Russians fleet with 12,000 men, arrived at Constantinople on the 19th.

Russia declares that Persia the cession of the provinces of Taurus in lieu of the eighty millions of roubles due her.

ARE TEXAS THIEVES SO? In the Liberator's report of Parker Pillsbury's speech at the Colchesterian in honor of West Indies Emancipation, it is said that he alluded to "the influence which the labors of the missionaries sent out by the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions had exerted upon the Cherokee and Choctaw Indians. He quoted from the last Report of the Board, wherein it is stated that about one seventh of those Indians are members of the visible Church; that attendance is highly prized among them; that they have a good government; that they have a written Constitution, with a Declaration of Rights, which embodies the liberty of the press, the trial by jury, security to the rights of conscience, and almost every great principle of civil and religious freedom. As a commentary on these statements of the Report, Pillsbury read from a statute passed by the Cherokee Nation in 1848, declaring that it should not be lawful for any person to teach a free negro, or slave belonging to any citizen of the nation, to read or write; that no negro or mulatto should hold land or own any horses or cattle or firearms; that the patrol may arrest any negro found strolling away from the premises of his master, and bring him up for punishment;—that no slave should be emancipated, except by petition of the master to the National Council, and then only upon extremely onerous conditions—with many other stringent provisions. He also proved, by the testimony of the missionaries themselves, that it was the custom of the employers of the Board to hold Slaves as person funds evidence of the soundness of their faith in regard to the "peculiar institution."— Those facts Mr. P. narrated, he said, because he felt that the course of the Board only needed to be mentioned, to cause its withdrawal from all the regard and support of every honest man and woman in the land."

ANOTHER WHIG GEM. There is, in the office of the Lowell Advertiser, a large, fat, slab-sided, nervous and hypocondriac volatile-nation, who is continually inventing what he calls "Whig tricks." To-day he indicted one as a specimen:

The whigs were conversing together, a few days ago, when they concluded that their chance for carrying the State the coming contest was so small, they desperate at best, and that their only possible chance was to withdraw their ticket, keep the whigs together wherever they could command a majority, and when they could not, to run incompetents and turn tickets to defeat the coalitionists."

If there is in the whig ranks a single soft pate capable of being imposed upon by such diversion, Sidebotham, we trust he will let the time in going over to the trick-inventing democracy. These reports of discoveries of "whig tricks" are deserving of contempt, but not of a serious refutation.

ADVERTISER. The editor of the Advertiser, in his paper of this morning, indulges in some criticisms of a bella Astrea character, which excited the mind of an old, musty, octogenarian fogy and the shade of a dwindling and anti-Union pander. Of course, these carpings of the Advertiser were imitated by others. But for ourselves we disclaim to be upon the ground of prelatic and unmanly trifling. Nor shall we make more than a single remark on the present occasion. We should be sorry to see the columns were only intended as jokes; but their continuance disgusts us with the whole concern. Perhaps the Advertiser man thinks that he has a perfect model of a style. Infatuation will sometimes make one believe as great absurdity as even that. A single specimen of the Advertiser's composition may be found in to-day's leader, where he says: "For many years before the election of 1824, the federalists claimed to be 'an American idea.'" Such a sentence, without an instance of a man claiming to be an absolute idea, they will be able to appreciate the ignorance and folly of the writer's assertion of the Lowell Advertiser.

Our octogenarian neighbor animadverts with severity upon what he calls cant—that the federal party became extinct when Mr J. Q. Adams succeeded James Monroe. But we think that its cessation to exist during the era of good feeling in Mr Monroe's administration "—or eight years from the election of J. Q. Adams—but in a subsequent part of his article he forgets and contradicts himself, tacitly admits the correctness and only corrected till his retirement, he was ordered to recognize in $100, with two sureties, in the sum of $1000 each, to appear before the Supreme Judicial Court, at its next session in Lowell, to answer to said complaint, and to show cause, if any he can, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

And it is further ordered, that notice of the pendency of said petition, and of the order of Court thereon, be given to said Ann Eliza Bigelow, by causing an attested copy of said petition and this order thereon to be served on said Ann Eliza Bigelow, at least fourteen days before said Court, and by causing the same to be published in the Lowell Daily Journal & Courier, a newspaper printed in said Lowell, three weeks successively, the last publication to be at least fourteen days before said Court.

Attest: JOHN H. CLIFFORD, Clerk.

A true copy of the petition and order of Court thereon.

Attest: JOHN H. CLIFFORD, Clerk.

Lowell, Aug. 13, 1853. aug15&3w

CITY MATTERS.

THE PRESIDENT EXCURSION. The Printers of this city, with their families and sweethearts, en masse, accompanied by the City Government, will make an excursion to Lowell labor next Friday. The train will leave Lowell at 7 o'clock, A. M. We shall issue no paper on that day.

ST H. G. Blaisdell, Esq., whose injury by the accidental discharge of a rocket, on the 4th of July, we noticed at the time and subsequently, we are happy to announce, is now able to walk about. Mr. Blaisdell was confined for six weeks to his house, he ventured out for the first time to-day. He has had a narrow escape from the entire loss of his right eye; and it must be months before he fully recovers from the injury.

LOST CH. Mr Joseph Loomis, late conductor on the Boston and Lowell Railroad—where by his faithful devotion to duty and his gentlemanly address, he was troops of friends—left us to-day for the far west, where he has several advantageous offers. Just before leaving, some of Mr Loomis' personal friends presented him, for a keepsake, an elegant gold fob chain and key, worth about $40. Success to the deserving.

A SELDOM SEEN CARRIAGE. Mr Carlos Hills, who is the past two years has had the care in hackney coach accommodations in this city, yesterday brought out an elegant new carriage, from the celebrated manufactory of our enterprising citizen, Sam'l Conyers. This is the first carriage of the kind made in this city, and we presume the most elegant and convenient one ever made. Their whole proceedings were marked by great coolness and deliberation. Each of them left letters to their friends, announcing their purpose, and giving directions in regard to the settlement of their affairs. They also had left letters to their wives. Having arranged all things for the event, they left their boarding house on Sunday evening about 10 o'clock, arm-in-hand, and with great apparent cheerfulness, to the bridge crossing the upper canal, and proceeding to the Manchester Mills, stepped together upon the stone wall of the canal just above the bridges, and together leaped into the water. The act was seen by two of three persons near, and the alarm was instantly given, but ten minutes escaped before either of the bodies rose. At that time, the body of Miss Cochran was recovered—that of Miss Cochran having floated down the canal was not recovered for some time. All efforts to resuscitate them failed.

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE RAILROAD DISASTER. We glean the following further particulars of the late awful calamity at Valley Falls: Stewart Winslow and Martin V. Jefferson are the names of the two killed and dangerously injured. John Brown and John Cuzon, recovering slowly; Francis Gray, doing well; Geo. Plant of Whittinsville, whose wife was also severely wounded, is doing well—will probably recover; Daniel Canty of Pawtucket, reported dangerously ill, was only slightly injured. George Bolton of Whittinsville, and John Marshall, of Northbridge, are sinking. Goldthwaite, of Whittinsville, who were reported dead, are still living, and though suffering severely, appear to be recovering.

Mrs Sherman, wife of Abel Sherman of East Douglas, ribs fractured and one shoulder dislocated; will recover.

Miss Sherman, 12 years of age, daughter of the above, slightly injured.

Otis Smith, Whittinsville, injured on the knee, considerably injured, but will recover.

PASTRIES. William Wormser, of Milford, Otsego Co., New York, shot his brother on the 4th inst., with fatal effect. The deceased is described as a quiet, peaceable man, and had left Milford, where the former left, and went to procure a gun, which he did from his neighbor's house, on the instant. They were in the hunting the report of the gun, ran out, when he found his uncle mortally wounded. The latter was then safe; but was pursued and caught next day. No cause was assigned for the deed. It is rarely the province of the press to record the tale of so horrible a case of fratricide.

ST There were 309 deaths in New Orleans in Friday last. The mortality there is awful.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

CORRECTION. The name of the young man whose death, in California, we announced on Saturday, was FRANK W. Bigelow, and not Chas. F. Bigelow, as we had it. He was a gentleman of fine talents, and a brother of Judge Bigelow.

ST Hon. James H. Duncan has our thanks for valuable public documents.

CUPS DE SOLEIL. Eight deaths from coup de soleil were reported at the Boston Registrar's office, on Saturday.

FIRE. A wheelwright's shop in Somerville, owned by Robert Vinal, was destroyed by fire on Sunday last. Insured.

SUDDEN DEATH IN BOSTON. J. N. Lolliver died suddenly on Sunday, as supposed from cramp in the stomach.

Margaret Dulan, No. 11 Hamilton street, fell dead on Sunday evening, probably in a fit—she was 62 years of age.

Daniel Looney, a seattle man, No. 43 Kneeland street, died suddenly on Sunday night.

ACCIDENT BY THE RIR. Mr. S. F. Hadley, formerly of this city, has just completed his preparatory studies as a lawyer, and has been admitted to practice law in all the Courts of New York.

ST The President of the Board of Trade in Montreal has requested the Mayor of New Orleans to draw on him for $5000 for the relief of the sufferers.

ST The weather has been unusually warm in New York and New Haven mirrored on Saturday last. This was the result of carelessness on the part of a laborer in neglecting to put off the track when they knew the train was due.

ST An unknown man, probably a mariner, fell from the wharf foot of Lincoln street, South Boston, Sunday afternoon, and was drowned. The body was recovered by the police.

ST A man about 30 years of age, named Thomas Vinton, was drowned at Dorchester on Friday.

ST Theodore Parker has stopped preaching till hot weather holds up.

ST Horace Mann has been appointed naval storekeeper at Washington.

ST There is said to be a great pressure in the money market at Montreal.

BOSTON MARKET. The Cotton Trade remains pretty much as it has been during the past fortnight. The Western trade continues good, and the sales are large. Woolens. Our manufacturers are doing a steady business. The orders for export and consumption are fully equal to the supply, and the sales are large. Our manufacturers of the Merrimack Valley in the United States, are doing a large business, and are selling their goods at fair prices. Leather. The Boston and Philadelphia markets for leather are in a healthy condition of the effected on Saturday last. Hides. Prices are steady. Sales of the week 2,000 at 10 cents. Wool. Prices remain firm. Sales of the week 1,000 bales.

MELANCHOLY DEATH. An English clergyman died recently, "after months of agony, the loss of an eye, and two years of hopeless decline, caused by the cork which he was loosening from a soda water bottle flying against his face, at a moment when he was in full health and surrounded by all the comforts of a happy fireside."

DIABOLICAL. In Brooklyn, N. Y., last week, three female, pretending to be performers from a young girl, 17 years of age, from her home under the pretence of having a warrant for her arrest. They took her to a hyp place, locked her down and violated her person, repeating the outrage several times, after which they carried her home. Ringing would be too good for such inhuman brutes.

SAD EVENT. A child of Mr Freligh of Milford, recently patteok of some milk which had been standing near a chloroform-sponge which had been procured for its father, and in two hours it was dead. It is supposed the child had nearly absorbed the evaporation of the chloroform.

ST The Dublin Nation says:—"There can be no doubt that the potato rot is a manifestly supernatural visitation sent with immense success in Connaught and Kerry. It is true that the almost of the Catholic church have been deserted by thousands, born and baptized in the ancient faith of Ireland. The want of Ireland is desert-ing the ancient faith."

"OVER TEN." The following toast was given at a national dinner in Buffalo recently:

Editors—Ladders on which politicians climb to power—pioneers in all great enterprises—the only class who labor is its own reward—the hardest worked, the poorest paid, most self-sacrificing and best abused of all the professions.

ST The Voice of the Fugitive announces the arrival in Canada of fourteen slaves, by the underground railroad. Ten of them belonged to the citizens of Newport, Kentucky.

ST A man about 30 years of age, named Thomas Vinton, was drowned at Dorchester on Friday.

ST Theodore Parker has stopped preaching till hot weather holds up.

ST Horace Mann has been appointed naval storekeeper at Washington.

ST There is said to be a great pressure in the money market at Montreal.

BOSTON MARKET. The Cotton Trade remains pretty much as it has been during the past fortnight. The Western trade continues good, and the sales are large. Woolens. Our manufacturers are doing a steady business. The orders for export and consumption are fully equal to the supply, and the sales are large. Our manufacturers of the Merrimack Valley in the United States, are doing a large business, and are selling their goods at fair prices. Leather. The Boston and Philadelphia markets for leather are in a healthy condition of the effected on Saturday last. Hides. Prices are steady. Sales of the week 2,000 at 10 cents. Wool. Prices remain firm. Sales of the week 1,000 bales.

HARTFORD LIFE INSURANCE CO.
HARTFORD, CONN.

Persons wishing to effect insurance on their lives would find it to their interest to call at the office of the Company, in Lowell, where they will be promptly waited upon by the Agent, at a room directly opposite the Lowell Hotel.

Policies are issued for this Company at either No. 76 Washington street, Boston, or Hartford, Conn.

Insurance can be effected for a term of years, or for life.

Policies are issued for this Company at either No. 76 Washington street, Boston, or Hartford, Conn.

JOHN PARKER, Medical Examiner.
JOHN S. KIDDER, Agent.
Lowell, Aug. 15, 1853. aug15&3m

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY.
Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1836.
Capital, $300,000.
Paid and Securely Invested,—Surplus from 40,000 to 60,000.

DIRECTORS:
Gen. Winfield Scott, New York. Cornelius Conway, Albany.
Wm. H. Maynard, " Alvin Bronson, "
Gen. W. Hunter, " Alvin Bronson, "
Wm. Kemble, " Wm. Kemble, "
J. V. L. Pruyn, Albany. Wm. Kemble, "
Thos. Olcott, " Wm. Kemble, "
Wm. Kemble, " Wm. Kemble, "
Wm. Kemble, " Wm. Kemble, "
Wm. Kemble

PATENTS.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENT OFFICE.

Agency for Business with United States Patent Office, WASHINGTON.

NO. 80 STATE STREET, BOSTON.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The undersigned, having had for many years the management of the law business of ——— solicitor in patent cases, and also in applying for renewal, reissue or those cases rejected by the Patent Office, is now prepared to attend to all cases entrusted or submitted to him. THIRTY DOLLARS is the usual fee for preparing and prosecuting an application for a patent, and no charge is made unless the patent is granted. Models are not required, and in most cases the invention can be sufficiently described for examination by sending a pencil sketch and description. Circulars containing full information as to the manner of conducting business, and the terms on which patents are procured, will be sent to any person writing for them. Address, (post paid)

H. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Having for nine years been employed in the examination of the records of the Patent Office, and for the last three years in the preparation of applications for patents, I am prepared to attend to the business of procuring patents for inventions, with the utmost confidence that I can give entire satisfaction to those who may favor me with their business.

Reference is permitted to Hon. Edmund Burke, late Commissioner of Patents, E. G. Reed, Esq., of Boston, Ex-Examiner in the Patent Office who has had charge for upwards of four years, and many others in that capacity, who have known my qualifications for the business, and who can give more satisfactory information than I can myself, both as to ability and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best mechanical and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more faithful, capable and reliable person, who will better attend to their interests, or who will obtain better patents for them on fairly and favorable conditions. Yours truly, EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"E. H. Eddy, Esq., Dear Sir:—Your business for the prosecution of my business connection with the Office was entered at my request and to my entire satisfaction. I can very respectfully refer you to me. Yours, &c., THOMAS P. JONES, Boston, March 19,1853. Late Examiner.

Lovet's Wahpene

WILL restore Gray Hair to its original color, and CURE BALDNESS, and prevent it falling. To secure the public, reference is given, and any one has the liberty to call on the gentlemen whose names are given. If the Hair is not restored to its natural color in from 2 to 4 weeks, it will costly that we want but pay our partially well, until we send CERTIFICATES of its having restored the hair to its natural color and thickness. Mr VANDERZEE, of the firm of Vanderzee & Co., Printers, No. 2 Ann street, New York, says, after using about half a bottle, that the hair is perfectly restored, after having been half gray. Mr. Richard Ellis, Attorney, office No. 20 Wall street, New York, had a bald spot from infancy up, and after using Lovet's Wahpene, a short time, a fine growth of hair was the result. Mr. Johnson, of the firm of Johnson & Co., Hatters, Fulton street, was beside half gray, which is perfectly restored. Mrs. Jameson, 135 Grand street, New York, says that her hair was falling out, and bald spots had begun to appear, but after using Lovet's Wahpene a short time, a fine growth of hair was the result. Any one desiring further information can call on the proprietor at 135 Grand street, New York, where they will be waited upon by one who can speak with confidence of its superior merits. Sold by all druggists. Price 50 cents per bottle.

LOVET'S WAHPENE.

FOR restoring Gray Hair to its original color, and preventing it falling off. Sold by all druggists, and at the Agency, No. 135 Grand street, New York. Also, by Apothecaries, Weeden's Exchange, corner of Merchant's and Central streets, Lowell.

MEDICAL NOTICE.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.

I would call the attention of Farmers and Gardeners to my CHEMICAL MANURE, which I have for sale at my Flour store in the market. It is much superior to any manure now in use, and is entirely free from the noxious effects of Poudrette, and other manures of animal origin. It is a powder, and can be sown with the seed. Agent for Lowell, Mr. HOWARD.

ALEX. H. STEVENS.

Lowell, Feb. 1, 1853. 1y

LOVE FEAST.

THE attention has been called to the Secret Love Feast Soap, which is offered for sale, with or without the picture, by Peddlers, and others, who say it is made by me. I have no connection with any person who sells this article, and do not make it, nor authorize any one to make it for me. I have a Soap which I call Love Feast Soap, but it is not the Secret Love Feast Soap, and I do not sell it to Peddlers. I sell it only at my Soap Factory, Middle street, Lowell, and at my Store in the Market. I have also known to have Lead disease. This fact begins and encourages skepticism in the community in relation to the danger of poisoning usually in reference to the use of Sugar of Lead contaminated water. The objection to the use of Lead seems forgotten, and the positive fact cannot be outweighed by a hundred negative facts.

This comparative immunity from the effects of water more charged with Lead, becomes not only the insidiousness of the poison, but since the economical and deadly nature of the disease. It is often asked by the skeptic, where is the lead going that so long months or years of health? And why does its mysterious morbid influence occasionally manifest itself suddenly after remaining silent for a long time? It is undoubtedly true that individuals are endowed with different degrees of susceptibility to Lead poison—or in other words possess different degrees of the power of resistance. This difference is due no doubt to different degrees of constitutional vigor; and it is possible that this vital resistance may in some cases be so great as to render the individual comparatively invulnerable to the action of that poison. On this point I quote from a report by Dr. Dana of Lowell, as published in the transactions of the American Medical Association, for 1852, p. p. 979:

Dr. Dana says—"The constitution is only a greater or less degree of vital force. Life is vital force, manifested under the control of a higher influence; and the more influence it may be, the more spiritual for the cognizance of our senses. The vital force is a power as is electricity, magnetism, light and heat.

All agree, and everybody sees the issues of the living animal body, so they would upon dead matter. Their agency is controlled and limited by the vital force. If that is strong, so much less is their action. One man differs from another, as a horse, for instance, differs from a man. A horse may take daily, for weeks, ounces of arsenic, without any other effect than a rather and more silky skin. In this connection there is a difference in degree only to that agent called vital force, it is found by experience that the young, the delicate, sconcer succumb under the effects of lead drunk in their daily drink, and like the dews of heaven, descending on all, the gentlest and fairest feel the chill which soon closes in death."

Concluded to-morrow.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Wednesday, August 17, 1853

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with a vote of the Whig State Central Committee, a Convention of the Whig party of the State will be held at the City of WORCESTER, on TENTH DAY, the 28th day of September, at 11 o'clock, A. M. for the purpose of nominating a State Ticket.

The several Towns and Cities in the Commonwealth are entitled to the same number of Delegates in the Convention that they are entitled to in the Governor Council, to attend said Convention.

By order of the STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

August 10, 1853. augl0&w

Gen. Wilson's Double Game.

The redoubted politician of Natick is beyond all question a sound tactician in his way. As he is the leader of his party by which the coalition party hope to make the country swallow the new Constitution by the "naive" of the communion-table—a mouthful of bitter to the bodies, and to make the city endorse it by the other "naive" of the district system which it also embraces—the fate of both city and country to procure the adoption of the entire instrument and secure the election as Governor of the redoubted Natick man, we propose to give some extracts from his speech in which this policy is promulgated. The beauties of the operation of his double and manni system are portrayed as follows in his speech of the 30th of July:

"The Convention, by a decisive majority, has adopted the principle of town representation, modified by population. That system, if sanctioned by the people, will go into operation in 1854. The Legislature chosen under that system will, in 1855, districts the State, according to the number of Senatorial representatives, and legal voters. The friends of town representation, say, vote for the Constitution with the hope of victory in it. By so doing they secure the adoption of the system they consider the best for the people. The friends of the district system say vote for the Constitution with the hope of victory in it. By so doing they secure the adoption of the system they consider the best for the people. The friends of the district system say vote for the Constitution with the hope of victory in it. By so doing they secure, three years hence, the privilege, to vote for a district system, which they desire, and which they believe the people of Massachusetts also desire.

You, sir, the friends of both systems, if they have confidence in their systems and confidence in the people, can vote for the Constitution with the best hope and belief that the General will be sustained by the people. The beauties of the operation of his double and manni system are portrayed as follows in his speech of the 30th of July:

"The Convention, by a decisive majority, has adopted the principle of town representation, modified by population. That system, if sanctioned by the people, will go into operation in 1854. The Legislature chosen under that system will, in 1855, district the State, according to the number of Senatorial representatives, and legal voters. The friends of town representation, say,

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 18, 1853. NO 4147

PATENTS.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for Boston and United States Patent Office,

WASHINGTON.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The undersigned, Chief Agent of the U.S. Patent Office, under the direction of the Commissioner of Patents, continues to be employed to procure, superior to those of any foreign agency, Patents for new inventions, and to attend to the necessary examinations preliminary thereto, and to all business connected with the Patent Office. SECRET DISCLOSURE of the nature of any invention will be considered by me as strictly confidential, and no charge will be made for my opinion as to the probability of obtaining a Patent. Models and drawings are not necessary to make an application for a Patent in this country, but in all cases a model is required before a Patent is granted in England. Inventors who may desire to secure Patents in England, should not make their inventions public in this country, as publication here will prevent the obtaining of a Patent in England. Circulars containing full information as to the manner of obtaining Patents in the United States and England, sent free of charge. Letters must be addressed to me, post paid, and the model or drawing, with a description of the invention, forwarded by express, addressed to the care of Messrs. Adams, Gaff & Co., Boston, Mass. Reference is kindly permitted to Hon. Edward Everett, Boston; Hon. Abbott Lawrence, Boston; Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, Boston; Hon. Nathan Appleton, Boston; Hon. Marcus Morton, Boston; Hon. Isaac Davis, Worcester; Hon. Julius Rockwell, Pittsfield; Hon. Linus Child, Springfield; Hon. Wm. Appleton, Boston; Hon. Wm. Jackson, Newton; Hon. Wm. Schouler, Boston; Hon. Wm. Parmenter, Boston; Hon. Wm. Gaston, Boston; Hon. Alexander H. Everett, Boston; Hon. Edward Kent, Bangor, Me.; Hon. Levi Woodbury, Portsmouth, N. H.; Hon. Isaac Hill, Concord, N. H.; Hon. Samuel Dinsmoor, Lancaster, N. H.; Hon. Jacob Collamer, Woodstock, Vt.; Hon. Horace Eaton, Burlington, Vt.; Hon. Samuel Prentiss, Montpelier, Vt.; Hon. Truman Smith, New Haven, Ct.; Hon. Thomas Day, New Haven, Ct.; Hon. Samuel Ingham, Trenton, N. J.; Hon. Henry Wilson, Natick, Mass.; Hon. Charles Sumner, Boston, Mass.; Hon. Caleb Cushing, Newburyport, Mass.; Hon. Robert Rantoul, Jr., Beverly, Mass.; Hon. Wm. Appleton, Boston, Mass.; Hon. Wm. Jackson, Newton, Mass.; Hon. Wm. Schouler, Boston, Mass.; Hon. Wm. Parmenter, Boston, Mass.; Hon. Wm. Gaston, Boston, Mass.; Hon. Alexander H. Everett, Boston, Mass.; Hon. Edward Kent, Bangor, Me.; Hon. Levi Woodbury, Portsmouth, N. H.; Hon. Isaac Hill, Concord, N. H.; Hon. Samuel Dinsmoor, Lancaster, N. H.; Hon. Jacob Collamer, Woodstock, Vt.; Hon. Horace Eaton, Burlington, Vt.; Hon. Samuel Prentiss, Montpelier, Vt.; Hon. Truman Smith, New Haven, Ct.; Hon. Thomas Day, New Haven, Ct.; Hon. Samuel Ingham, Trenton, N. J.; Hon. Henry Wilson, Natick, Mass.; Hon. Charles Sumner, Boston, Mass.; Hon. Caleb Cushing, Newburyport, Mass.; Hon. Robert Rantoul, Jr., Beverly, Mass.

JAS. P. WALKER.

PLATED WARE OF THE FIRST QUALITY.

ENGLISH and American Plated Ware, viz.: Dinner & Tea Sets, Dishes, Tea Urns, Cake Baskets, Castors, Cups, Goblets, Spoons, Forks, Ladles, Butter Knives, Pickle Forks, Tea Trays, Soup Ladles, Enamel, Pall, Fish and Pickle Knives, Soup Tureens, Bread Trays, &c., &c., for sale cheap for cash at 61 Central street.

JOSEPH SAYERS.

A SERGEANT HEAD.—1 Clamp, pincer, Pad and Cutter, for sale by the subscriber, who will also attend to the setting of Sergeants' points by S. KIDDER, Jr., who is agent for the proprietor. 3t

BARNES'S PREPARED COCOA.—Knows by the name of Cocoa Paste, is now ready for sale at the Grocery store of CHARLES BARNES, No. 3 Merrimack street, Lowell. This article may be found at PEABODY'S Variety store, Main Street, Tewksbury. East Main, Bancroft st.

BLANCHARD, WHITE & CO.

CARDS Printed and Gotten on, Lowell, and Top 10 and 12 Bonnet Boards, by the Agents for the sale of the following named brands of PLACE, viz:

A. B. Smith,	Adams	&	Co.
A. B. Smith,	Adams	&	Co.
Thomas Dolby & Co.,	Thompson Mills,
J. Parker,	Thompson Mills,
A. B. Smith,	Bates	&	Co.
A. B. Smith,	Bates	&	Co.
J. D. Bell,	Globe
C. E. Bell,	Globe
A. B. Smith,	Globe

Warranted perfectly resistant to steam—Send for the cards to settle for them on receipt of bill. 1m

NEW BOOKS.—The Attorney; or the Court Practice of John Good. New and revised edition, price 75 cents.

The Lawyer's Companion and Magistrate's Assistant, by W. N. Carpenter.

The Lawyer's Companion for Jews. For sale by WATSON & SARGEANT, Merrimack square. jy1

NOTICE.—I am receiving new Jewelry, Watches, Pens of Various Sizes, Cake Baskets, &c., &c., which I am selling at reduced prices for cash. Also, Gold Pens, an entire new and small article in my stock. Call and see, as cards are small and easily put away. Lidding Pencils, Gold Pencil Cases, Thimbles, &c. The evening I have reserved for those who cannot call during the day. Remember the place, 61 Central street. JOSEPH SAYERS.

RED BIRD! COCHINGAROOS!!! A 3 Jewel Elgin Watch, at Bed Fox and Crotchet prices, only $3 on to large basket, for sale by PARCELL HIBBARD, &c.

corner of Merrimack and John sts.

OPENING OF GOODS JUST RECEIVED.

WE have this day received our complete supply of Fall and Winter Goods, consisting in part of Cloths, Cassimeres in new style, Vestings, Hosiery, Gloves, &c. Also, a full assortment of Ready Made Clothing.

JULY MAGAZINES, &c.—Putnam, Godey's, Arthur's, Graham's, Sartain's, Ballou's, Gleason's, Atlantic Monthly, Blackwood, Eclectic, Littell's, Living Age, Democratic Review, Knickerbocker, Harper's, Dollar Newspaper, Scientific American, Mechanic, Journal of Commerce, &c., &c., for sale by A. WHITNEY, Merrimack square.

TO THE LADIES.

JEWELRY for sale at Uniform Cost. Gold Pens, Pencils, Thimbles, Gold Pens and rubber case pencils, &c., &c.

THE TRUE LIBERTY.—Some few Gold Seals, Keys, Chains, &c., stolen from the New York market by a gang of thieves, have been recovered and are now for sale at the LIBERTY Jewelry Store, 61 Central st., by some more of the same gang.

LADIES'S WATCHES.—A large assortment of Ladies's Watches, Gold Pens, Pencils, Thimbles, &c., for sale at Uniform Cost, by JOSEPH SAYERS.

GOLD PENS.—The subscriber has just received an assortment of Gold Pens, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Also, a large assortment of Pencil Cases, Thimbles, Pocket Knives, Scissors, Razors, Razor Straps, Pocket Books, Wallets, Purses, Port Monnaies, Combs, Brushes, Perfumery, Soaps, Fancy Goods, &c., &c., at the Variety Store of JOSEPH SAYERS, 61 Central st.

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWKER.

RAILROAD PRESENT STATION, SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.

MAIN PRESIDENT.

COAL—Anthracite, Cumberland and red ash), Cumberland Pictou, Sydneyport, for range, or lehigher or sampler coal.

LUMBER—Hemlock Boards, Counter — Pioneer for Counter Boards, Counter Plank, Counter Boards, Counter Lasts. Flooring and Clear Pine Boards, Spruce Timber for sale, or to manufacture quickly from stock.

CEMENT—Rosendale Cement, Rosendale.

LIMES AND GRAIN—Always on hand a large supply of all kind.

BEEF, PORK, LARD, HAMS—best Western brands.

FISH—Mackerel, Shore, No. 1, Large, Medium and Small; Codfish and Haddock.

SALT—Liverpool, Turks Island, Bay, Coarse, Ground, Dairy, Fine, Ground, Blown, Butchers' Salt.

SUNDRIES—Hay, Potatoes, Onions, Apples, Cheese, Lard, Butter, Eggs, Flour, Meal, Corn, Oats, Rye, Barley, Shorts, Middlings, Bran, Feed, Corn and Cob Meal, Oil Meal, Cotton Seed, Linseed, Cotton Seed and prepared, Cotton Twine, Cotton Rope, Manilla Rope, Tarred Rope, Spun Yarns, Oakum, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Varnish, Glue, Sperm, Lard and Whale Oils, Pickles, Pipe, Smoking, Rye, ground and whole, Chewing and Cavendish Tobacco, Snuff, Cigars, Cotton Yarn, Cotton Batting, Wicking, Wadding, Sail Duck, Tent, Awning, Ticking, Canvas, Hose, Packing, Belting, Sheathing, Roofing, Felt, Ice and coarse, Epsom Salts, Saltpetre, Sal Soda, Copperas, Alum, Blue Stone, Whiting, Paris White, Lead, Putty, Glass, Nails, Spikes, Horse Shoes, Horse Shoe Nails, Iron, Steel, Anvils, Vises, Sledges, Hammers, Files, Rasps, Screwing Tool, Lamps, Reflectors, Kerosene Oil, Burning Fluid, Lamplight, Railway Chairs, Railway Spikes, Railway Bolts, Railway Nuts, Railway Boxes, Railway Wedges, Railway Keys, Railway Axles, Railway Wheels, Railway Springs, Railway Castings, Railway Iron, Railway Steel, Railway Tools, Railway Implements, Railway Machinery, Railway Supplies, Railway Stock, Railway Goods, Railway Materials, Railway Equipments, Railway Fixtures, Railway Appliances, Railway Accessories, Railway Conveniences, Railway Necessaries, Railway Luxuries, Railway Comforts, Railway Blessings, Railway Curses, Railway Evils, Railway Goods, Railway Materials, Railway Equipments, Railway Fixtures, Railway Appliances, Railway Accessories, Railway Conveniences, Railway Necessaries, Railway Luxuries, Railway Comforts, Railway Blessings, Railway Curses, Railway Evils.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEBILITY.

All who are suffering from the effects of early indiscretion, which has entailed upon them nervous debility, with its train of evils, such as loss of vital power, lassitude, indisposition to exertion, loss of memory, confusion of ideas, pain in the back, dimness of vision, premature old age, and many other symptoms, should immediately consult DR. BRODIE, No. 2 Bulfinch street, Boston, one of the oldest physicians in the city, who has had many years' experience in the treatment of these complaints. Dr. B. has published a work on these diseases, which he will send to any one on receipt of two stamps. It should be read by every young man. Young men, who from the combined influence of bad company and improper publications have become victims to the vice of self-pollution, and have imbibed the seeds of disease, before they destroy themselves for life, should apply immediately. Dr. B. has discovered a remedy for this distressing habit, which has never been known to fail. Persons who have injured themselves by improper indulgence, and who may have become alarmed at the symptoms of nervous debility, which are the sure forerunners of consumption ating it. The blood nourishes the stimulating chemical principle, and circulates it through the whole system; it produces, in consequence, febrile action in those of delicate habits. When there is any tendency to phthisic and tubercled deposit in the lungs, debility of those organs, consequent on the use of tobacco in this way, must favor the deposit of tuberculous matter, and thus sow the seeds of consumption. The practice impairs the nervous and vital materials for food, insures the appetite, and wears down the power of the stomach. As to the loss of power of the stomach, it is well-known and acknowledged by all. I believe, as well-known fact that a person smoking in the dark is very often unable to determine whether his cigar is lighted or not.—[Dr. J. C. Warren.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Thursday, August 18, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with a vote of the Whig State Central Committee, a WHIG STATE CONVENTION will be held at the Town Hall in Fitchburg, on WEDNESDAY, the 31st day of August instant, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the nomination of State officers.

The several Towns and Cities in this Commonwealth are requested to choose Delegates to said Convention, three times the number of Representatives to which they are entitled in the General Court, and to notify the names of the Delegates chosen to

JOHN C. PALFREY, Chairman.
GEORGE HOOKER, Secretary.

August 10, 1853. 4wd&w

The War Question in Europe.

The news by the Atlantic settle nothing definitely. The foreign press teems with aspirations and expectations of peace, but the ground on which those hopes are based does not appear. The domestic press is divided in its tone; some, as the New York Times, anticipating war; others, as the Tribune, indulging in gratuitous of peace. It is evident, however, that no reliable fails, either in war or in peace, can be ascertained by those who do not look below the daily news for the facts of their philosophy.

As the tone of the press is divided, so also are the sympathies of the people in some degree divided. While some see it a struggle of Christian Europe against Mahometan Turkey, others, on the contrary, view it as the struggle of an enquiring nation against the villains who would enslave her. We confess that our sympathies are of the latter description. Our objection are the struggle Turks—for a nation dying to be free—not for the Nicholases and the Mamelukes and their bands of half-hearted followers. But we are not of those who believe that the question can be settled by treaty. It may be considered by treaty, but settled it never can be, until Russia has extended her boundaries beyond Constantinople—until Europe has become "either Republican or Cossack."

FRAUDS IN THE KENTUCKY ELECTIONS. The Frankfort Commonwealth states that in one county it can be shown that the votes given are by several hundred the number of free voters made over 21 years of age in the county! Gov. Letcher, receiving the full vote of the party, had several hundred more votes than were cast for Gen. Scott last fall, who had a majority of 180 in the district, and yet he is beaten five hundred votes! The Commonwealth is sure that if the polls could be purged it would be found that Gov. Letcher was actually chosen.

* * * A gentleman of this village but a few months, a very large number of vagabonds, such as generally can be bought for three times three dollars put head, were taken up from this city upon the railroad to the Ashland district. The fact could be proved, if necessary, by the testimony of the officers of the road, and by numerous respectable passengers upon the cars. It was perfectly understood by every person in the cars, where the loafers were going and for what purpose and we have exact information who—they are, where they have been and a statement as to what some of them were paid, and the probability is that the pay of all was the same.

DIDACTYLUS AMATUT. A Ballston (N. Y.,) editor recently made an assault on a man in bed, by which the victim was severely bitten—the editor was severely kicked—by a mule. The Saratoga Journal gives the particulars.—"It appears that the nominal editor of the Democratic Mirror, a brother organ printed in this village, and who is noted for his charity! morality! and virtue! while flashing special visits to one of his "soul-hearts" was disturbed in his reveries a night or two previous to this occurrence, by a young Frenchman, who has been a resident of this village but a few months, a jeweler by profession, who secreted himself under the sofa occupied by said editor and his lady love, on being cognizant of nearly all that passed. The lady having some occasion to change her position, and there being no light in the room, accidentally stepped on the Frenchman's hand, which led to this discovery. The dignity of the editor was shocked by this astounding development, and he was resolved to have revenge. So on Thursday night, after the Frenchman had retired to his lodgings, at the Eagle Hotel, he was visited by the editor and his assistants, who obtained admission to his room by him pretences to the landlord, when they commenced a most brutal attack upon him while in bed, dragging him out upon the floor and bruising him in a shameful manner. The landlord, hearing the disturbance, went immediately to the Frenchman's room, and ordered the assailants out of his house." After some further exhibitions of nerviness, the police interfered and settled the affray. Legal proceedings have of course been commenced. The editor labors in the employ of the State's enemies, in a place of stout mason-work.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION REVISED! The Salem Register has the following

Setting aside the subtlety of the inconsistencies, contradictions and cavillies of action, there is another branch of the same subject, which may be referred to here—going to show the same old-school and slovenly botching which apparently attends the performance of any work by wholly incompetent workmen—and that subject is the CONSTITUTION ITSELF, as finished. WHERE IS IT? WHAT IS IT? Did the Convention dissolve? Is it dissolved? Where is it? Does any body know? Is it in the hands of any officer of the government? Is it in the hands of any officer of the government? Is it in the hands of any officer of the government?

ROSE'S DAILY ALMANAC.

SPALDING'S GYMN. ROOMS, 317 Washington st., Boston, Mass. Instruction in Gymnastics, Rowing and Sparring. Open from 9 A.M. to 9 P.M. Prof. SPALDING, Instructor of Gymnastics and Useful Exercises. Private lessons given at the rooms or at residences. Hours to suit pupils. 3m sept18

My remedies
1—To cure all the ills humanity is heir to.
2—To remove constant debility.
3—To restore the lady's complexion.
4—To give all light and a rich color.
5—To give the weak and nervous strength.
6—To make the blood a healthy appearance.
7—To have no injurious effects on the hair.
8—To cure the worst cases of piles.
9—To remove the worst cases of dyspepsia.
10—To cure the worst headache.
11—To be used in the Hands of Children with perfect safety and the happiest results.
12—To be used by Females Only! It is the best article extant.

No stock medicines is reported in it, that it is offered in the place of it. Every article is of the purest kind that can be had, and in every bottle of my medicine will be found the exact proportion of each article as directed. Price $1 per bottle.

Sold by A. F. DROUVEROE, corner Bridge and Merrimack streets, Lowell. 1m

PROF. ALEX. C. BARRY'S TRICOPHEROS, OR MEDICATED COMPOUND

TRUE history of the justly celebrated combination by which the hair is restored to its natural color, and the scalp to healthy action, is now so widely known as to be acknowledged that it has proved by its result a reputation which is not to be shaken by the false claims of pretenders. It is not a dye, but in the process of restoring the hair to its natural color, it has brought it in turn, for no other color than the natural one will remain. The medicinal agency of other influences, calm, and thousands of unsolicited testimonials from all parts of the country, bear witness to the fact that it is the only preparation for the hair that is entitled to confidence. It has to relieve those evils that destroy the beauty of the hair, and to restore it to the original color and use who have been its competitors. In the restoration of gray hair to its natural color, the Prof. Barry's Tricopherous has proved to the world the universal patronage of a discerning and intelligent public, and the unsolicited testimonials in its favor have increased to such an extent as to render it necessary to manufacture it by the hogshead, instead of by the dozen bottles, as was the case a few years ago. Its operation is healthful, and it is the only preparation for the hair that will not soil the skin, pinkle, excoriate, stain or bronze, the Tricopherous. Only agent in Lowell.

Fair trouble mark's imperial rose cosmetic.
And beauty dresses in a white rose cosmetic.

Prof. Barry's Tricopherous is essential to the toilet of every lady who desires to preserve her hair in its natural beauty, to restore it when it has changed to gray, or to remove dandruff, itching, and all impurities of the scalp. Sold by druggists, price 50 cents, at the principal depot, 1 Dey street, New York, and by druggists and fancy goods dealers everywhere.

GERTH' COTTON HOSIERY.

BLEACHED hosiery, mixed hosiery, balbriggan hosiery, and half hose, for sale by

GERTH' & CARTER,
Middle st., Lowell.

HOWARD'S CELEBRATED SPECTACLES.

HOWARD'S CELEBRATED SPECTACLES, manufactured by JAMES W. QUEEN & CO., Philadelphia, and for sale by the Wholesale and Retail Agents, CARLTON & HOVEY, over City Hall.

NEW BOOKS.—Sam Slick's Wise Saws and Modern Instances, Lamplighter, Lady Alice, Lost Heir, Rollo Travels.

Reuben Fitzotter: a Novel, by Catherine Stanton, for sale by CARLTON & HOVEY. Also, Cruise of the Midge, for sale by the Agents. By Chas. Nordhoff.

CARLTON & HOVEY, Agents.

CIGARS.
200,000 VUELTA ABAJO CIGARS

Of the choicest brands, viz:

Principes,
Prensas,
Londres,
La Prefectos,
Conchas, &c. &c.

For sale by B. BILLS & CO., No. 4 Hadley building, Boston.

TWO IMPORTANT PUBLICATIONS.

THE Universalist Quarterly and General Review, for July, and Sargent's and Eachelor's Dancing Companion, for sale by CARLTON & HOVEY, Agents.

Sargent's Companion is the best work of the kind ever issued. Terms reasonable. Call or send for a copy.

Flity Tickets for a Dollar.

FURS PRETTICKET SODA WATER,
COOL AS ICE.

Drawn at all seasons, by C. S. EASTMAN & CO.,
Druggists and Apothecaries, Merrimack st.

JEWELLER'S NOTICE.

ARRANGEMENTS in my business being such I wish to dispose of my extensive stock of WATCHES, JEWELRY, PLATED WARE, FANCY GOODS and SILVER SPOONS. By newspaper at large, and by the piece. Purchasers will find it to their advantage to call with to prove it.

JAMES KITTREDGE.
No. 2 Merrimack st., Over the Post Office, Middle st.

BRIGHT'S CASTILE.

ITALIAN 10
BEEF, PORK, LARD, HAM, POULTRY, BUTTER, VEGETABLE OIL, &c.

THIS wholesome, fleshy grateful for the preparation of food, and for the toilet, is now manufactured in such that their Market will at all times be supplied with the cleanest and richest materials that our city affords, and that their manufacture will be conducted with the most perfect regularity and system.

CHAS. S. CARTER,
Dealer in Provisions and Groceries.

Lowell, April 10, 1853. ly

O'THE LATEST STYLES AND PATTERNS, see Tailoring Establishment of

A. GILBERT, 2d.

MACHINE SHOP TO LET.

TO let for the unexpired term of 4 years, the building on Market street, recently occupied by Messrs. Parker & Hastings, and well adapted for a machine shop, with steam power. Apply to the subscriber, or to Messrs. Parker & Hastings, on the premises.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. 1m

ENGLISH & AMERICAN STATIONERY.

THE undersigned is happy to announce to the citizens of Lowell and vicinity that he has recently made large additions to his stock of Stationery, and is now prepared to offer to the trade and to consumers, inducements in quality and price, which will be found worthy of their attention.

JOHN P. WALKER,
Bookseller and Stationer, Merrimack st.

BUG POISON!

FOR the immediate destruction of Bed Bugs and Cockroaches, warranted perfect for twelve months—my own manufacture. Price 25 cents per bottle.

Sold by all druggists and fancy goods dealers. 1y may14

WERREN'S WATER.—A new and delightful perfume for the Handkerchief, just received and for sale by WARREN & SARGENT.

BRIGHT'S CASTILE.

ITALIAN 10
BEEF, PORK, LARD, HAM, POULTRY, BUTTER, VEGETABLE OIL, &c.

THIS wholesome, fleshy grateful for the preparation of food, and for the toilet, is now manufactured in such that their Market will at all times be supplied with the cleanest and richest materials that our city affords, and that their manufacture will be conducted with the most perfect regularity and system.

CHAS. S. CARTER,
Dealer in Provisions and Groceries.

Lowell, April 10, 1853. ly

NEW SPRING GOODS.

RECEIVED and ready for sale at R. Bodge & Co.'s HATS, New York and Boston styles. Also, a full assortment of GLOVES, &c.

R. BODGE & CO.,
No. 1 Canal Block, Merrimack st.

TOOTHACHE! TOOTHACHE!!

DR. SWAYNE'S Tincture of Prickly Ash, Tobacco and Capsicum, for the immediate relief of the Toothache, and perfect safety to the teeth and gums. Only agent in Lowell.

DR. BURNHAM, 24 Merrimack st.

ROSSIS SALVE.

ROSSIS SALVE, for burns, bruises, &c., for sale by CARLTON & HOVEY, Agents.

JEWELRY, &c.

BEAUTIFUL patterns for the fall trade, just received and for sale by JOHN FRANCIS.

TOOTH POWDER.

WHERE'S your Tooth Powder? Why, the ALCHYMISTIC TOOTH POWDER, to be sure! Of all other preparations for cleaning the teeth, it is the most effectual. It is free from acid, and will not injure the enamel, but will preserve it from decay. Sold by CARLTON & HOVEY, Agents, and by druggists generally.

SOAP POWDER.—Washing Powder sold at wholesale and retail by A. WHITNEY, Merrimack Building.

NEW SMOKED SALMON.—The day received and for sale by JOHN FRANCIS.

SPICES.—Whitened Pure Fiber Tea, Table, Dessert and Cream Spices, for sale by JOHN FRANCIS, No. 1 Canal Block, Merrimack st. Also, Cloves and Cassia ground and repacked in the best style, for sale by JOSEPH BAYNES.

PORTS HORSHOE.—Just received, this day, at Corset Skirt, at Corset Skirt, at Corset Skirt

...ter night. When he came to this lady, he drew from her pocket what she supposed to be the ticket, and without looking at it, offered it to the conductor, and continued talking; but what was his surprise to find, soon, that he was talking to the locked up, and discovered that she was sharing the confidence a fool found.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lynn, Saturday, August 10, 1852.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

The Whig State Committee of the Wide State Committee, a Whig STATE CONVENTION will be held at Worcester, on Wednesday, the 22d day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and all other officers to be elected by the people at the next annual election; and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said Convention.

The several Senatorial and Representative districts are requested to elect a number of Delegates equal to the number of Senators and Representatives to which they are severally entitled in said Convention.

JOHN FARGEY, Secretary.

August 10, 1852. 2w2d1w

The Omnibus Constitution.

Of late thousand-and-one hideous features of that remarkable instrument, which is designed by the coalition anthems to become the supreme, the permanent and organic law of this Commonwealth, perhaps none is more revulsive to the feelings and more repugnant to the judgment of a public spirited observer, than its gross and palpable partisan character. The most cursory perusal of the new document cannot fail to enumerate any man like the one, the great, the sole purpose designed to be furthered by that Whimsical performance, was the permanent ascendancy of the coalition. On what other hypothesis can we account for the continuance of the Governor's council in the new instrument?

Was the coalitionists convinced of its utility? Did they not entertain those declarations that it was useless? Did they not scout it to a man? Why then was the council retained? The reply is evident. They retained the council because by it they hoped to succour and sustain eight hungry demagogues, by whose services they were then electrified, and who relied on for their loaf and coal. Therefore they retained the council, and for nothing else.

Were evidence wanting to prove the strictly partisan character of this instrument, we might refer to almost every part of it indefinite. We might refer to the very remarkable distinction which has been drawn between those officers who are to be elected directly by the people, and those who are to be appointed by the Governor and Council. We might refer to the singular mode in which nominees of a nature entirely different from each other, are coerced into a connection, and compelled to be voted on together. We might refer particularly to the artful dodge which has been contrived, by which certain districts, flattering themselves that parasites of the Corporation franchise are entitled to support a measure that is antisocietary to neither of them, but which is strictly partisan in character is not even denied. Boasts are made in the air-street through the Hunker Democrats and Democrats, and in the papers through the throats of the Coalition press, that the new Constitution will be the last supper of Whigism. It was framed by partizans, it was framed for partizan purposes, it is adapted for none but party ends. As a party measure it will be sustained by the Coalition; as a party measure it will be opposed by the great body of the Whig and National Democrats, and by the far greater body of liberal Whigs; and as a party measure it will be rejected, repudiated, and cast off by the irresistible justice, and by the indignant vengeance of a just and discriminating people!

Another feature of this document, equally vital, if not equally baneful, is its utter want of any grand and fundamental principle. It has almost basis. It stands on no great principle. Were Bunker Hill Monument inverted, and made to stand on its apex, while its massive base teetered in the vacuum of heaven, it would not be more dangerous, or less secure, than the instrument now under consideration.

The instrument neither recognizes the principle of majority rule, nor the principle of plurality rule. For it would have some efforts and some of the former, and others under the latter. Had the Convention adopted the plurality principle, we might then have met it on debatable land. Or had it adopted the majority-rule principle as the basis of its action, its proposed law would have been equally debatable. As it is, it has adopted neither; it has ignored neither; yet its system is an amorphous compound of both, though based really only neither upon the one nor upon the other.

The same observation will apply to the judiciary question. The new Constitution fails to recognize in the people the capacity to elect their own Judges.

It has equally failed to provide for the appointment of Judges in some departments, independently of all authority popular influence. But it has provided that some of the officers connected with the administration of justice shall be elected directly by the people, while others are to be named to office in another and different way.

Democrats have a right that they "have faith in the people." Whigs have the "faith" without the "case." And how much more than the case is possessed, as the Abolitionized Democrats, may be learned from the fact that which they can trust the people to elect by "a majority," District Attorneys and Clerks of Police Courts, they dare not trust them to elect a Judge to the Supreme Bench, or even to the Bench of the Common Pleas! So little real confidence have Democrats in the wisdom and virtue of the masses.

In conclusion we cannot refrain to notice one other feature of this matter—a feature of vast consistency—the Irish population. Democrats love none less than "Paddy" under its protecting arm. All our opponents claim I pose for affinity; we, in Dalmon—a peculiar love for that dear brogue." It was known in the Convention that the desire of a division of the School-fund. Irishmen had hoped for it—prayed for it—wept for it. Yet, no sooner was the hour of action sought than the system of which the Irish complained, as oppressive, was incorporated into the organic law of the State, and even those were unconscionable thus over! Will candid Irishmen think of this!

THE TRUE TREASURE TO RUSSIA.—The highly distinguished engineer, Mr. Robert Stephenson, reports that an important discovery in telegraphing has been recently made, which may work as great a revolution in the world of it—we end of commerce, as has been already effected by the original application of electricity to the purpose of telegraphic communication. Among the first fruits of this new application of telegraph was the principle of the unsinkable vessel, so called. But the more subsequent discovery of the fact, that one line of wire, inserted into the earth, made a complete circuit by this means alone, caused the original method to be laid aside, and finally abandoned.

And certain it is, that since this abandonment of the original unsinkable vessel, by far the greater number of experiments in electric magnetism, have supposed that there was a limit to the force of the magnetic current upon any given circuit; and that however perfect might be the insulation of the rail-marine wire, the...

...flow or shock could never be sent across the Atlantic ocean.

The unsinkable vessel is produced in the following manner: By forming a complete wire-circuit—that is, by two connected wires, extending so as to return to the same point of departure, forming a complete metallic circuit instead of using one wire connected with the ground, the galvanic current may be sent to any conceivable distance without loss or diminution of power. It is supposed even that the current is to be attributed to its interruption by cross currents; which cross currents are overcome, or avoided by the continuance of wire circuit.

By this way, by doubling the expense of the submarine cable, making with it a complete metallic circuit, or a unsinkable vessel, by a return line, the galvanic current may be sent without the feasible loss of power, from London to Portland or New York; or at any rate from Dublin way to Cape Race.

Confident in the soundness of their principles, several shrifted and monied gentlemen have formed a project for the purpose of constructing a sub-marine telegraph between Great Britain and the United States, by a circuit of wire across the various straits or channels lying between the immediate islands of the Northern Atlantic Ocean. It is expected to commence this line at the northern part of Scotland; thence to the Orkneys; thence to the Shetland and Faroe Islands; thence to Iceland, a distance of some three hundred miles thence to the shore of Greenland; thence across land on Davis's Straits; thence across land to Labrador shore; thence by land to Quebec. Such then is the scheme; and we shall say that it is not destined to succeed! Who shall assert that an Oceanic Telegraph will not yet be realized; and that a line of wire will yet encircle the whole earth, bringing all parts of it into instaneous communication with each other? We cannot estimate or calculate even, the result of such communication; and we trust that the Government of the United States and Great Britain will take up the matter. We are of an Ocean Line, on a scale commensurate, perhaps, even with the present number of distinct wires, enclosed in one cable, as will supply the necessities of commerce and intercourse between Europe and America.

For several of the above suggestions, we acknowledge our indebtedness to Mr. Robert Stephenson, the distinguished engineer, to whom allusion is made, whose published thoughts on this subject are of inestimable value to the electromagnetic science, and to the public at large.

THE PAINTERS' EXCURSION to Lowell lisland, came off yesterday, according to arrangement, which said excursion, during the progress of the peraties of the Corporation franchise are entitled to support a measure that is antisocietary to neither of them. The Printers' Union is a character is not even denied. Boasts are made in the air-street through the Hunker Democrats and Democrats, and in the papers through the throats of the Coalition press, that the new Constitution will be the last supper of Whigism. It was framed by partizans, it was framed for partizan purposes, it is adapted for none but party ends. As a party measure it will be sustained by the Coalition; as a party measure it will be opposed by the great body of the Whig and National Democrats, and by the far greater body of liberal Whigs; and as a party measure it will be rejected, repudiated, and cast off by the irresistible justice, and by the indignant vengeance of a just and discriminating people!

Another feature of this document, equally vital, if not equally baneful, is its utter want of any grand and fundamental principle. It has almost basis. It stands on no great principle. Were Bunker Hill Monument inverted, and made to stand on its apex, while its massive base teetered in the vacuum of heaven, it would not be more dangerous, or less secure, than the instrument now under consideration.

The instrument neither recognizes the principle of majority rule, nor the principle of plurality rule. For it would have some efforts and some of the former, and others under the latter. Had the Convention adopted the plurality principle, we might then have met it on debatable land. Or had it adopted the majority-rule principle as the basis of its action, its proposed law would have been equally debatable. As it is, it has adopted neither; it has ignored neither; yet its system is an amorphous compound of both, though based really only neither upon the one nor upon the other.

The same observation will apply to the judiciary question. The new Constitution fails to recognize in the people the capacity to elect their own Judges.

It has equally failed to provide for the appointment of Judges in some departments, independently of all authority popular influence. But it has provided that some of the officers connected with the administration of justice shall be elected directly by the people, while others are to be named to office in another and different way.

Democrats have a right that they "have faith in the people." Whigs have the "faith" without the "case." And how much more than the case is possessed, as the Abolitionized Democrats, may be learned from the fact that which they can trust the people to elect by "a majority," District Attorneys and Clerks of Police Courts, they dare not trust them to elect a Judge to the Supreme Bench, or even to the Bench of the Common Pleas! So little real confidence have Democrats in the wisdom and virtue of the masses.

In conclusion we cannot refrain to notice one other feature of this matter—a feature of vast consistency—the Irish population. Democrats love none less than "Paddy" under its protecting arm. All our opponents claim I pose for affinity; we, in Dalmon—a peculiar love for that dear brogue." It was known in the Convention that the desire of a division of the School-fund. Irishmen had hoped for it—prayed for it—wept for it. Yet, no sooner was the hour of action sought than the system of which the Irish complained, as oppressive, was incorporated into the organic law of the State, and even those were unconscionable thus over! Will candid Irishmen think of this!

THE TRUE TREASURE TO RUSSIA.—The highly distinguished engineer, Mr. Robert Stephenson, reports that an important discovery in telegraphing has been recently made, which may work as great a revolution in the world of it—we end of commerce, as has been already effected by the original application of electricity to the purpose of telegraphic communication. Among the first fruits of this new application of telegraph was the principle of the unsinkable vessel, so called. But the more subsequent discovery of the fact, that one line of wire, inserted into the earth, made a complete circuit by this means alone, caused the original method to be laid aside, and finally abandoned.

And certain it is, that since this abandonment of the original unsinkable vessel, by far the greater number of experiments in electric magnetism, have supposed that there was a limit to the force of the magnetic current upon any given circuit; and that however perfect might be the insulation of the sub-marine wire, the

GENERAL SUMMARY.

☞ The steamer Cherokee, from Havanna, 14th inst, arrived at New York yesterday morning, with 100 passengers from Havana and New Orleans.

CUSTOM HOUSE MOVEMENTS.—We learn that Collector Ressley has appointed Charles Merchant, formerly, vice Hosea Ilsley, removed, and that Jby. Lemuel M. Barker, and C. K. Bingham, weighers and gaugers have tendered their resignations.

COUNSEL TO LONDON. George Saunders received his commission at Washington on Wednesday as Consul to London.

☞ Two new and neat pamphlets—one a Letter to the Edwards' Congregational Church, Boston, by A. E. and S. J. Newton, two members of said church; the other, a Review of the Criticisms of the Congregationalist on the above Letter—are just issued from the press, and for sale at the bookstores. They will be read with interest by all who are concerned in the so-called "spiritual rappings." See advertisement.

☞ Lyman Robinson and Mrs. Ellen Gowell, were drowned in the Connecticut river, near Middletown, on Sunday last.

☞ Timothy Bigelow, Esq., has been appointed Justice of the Peace for Suffolk county; H. D. F. Bibaiow Postmaster at Grafton, Jos Batchelder at Stratton, and Amos Maore at Fitchburg.

☞ All the members of the Unitarian Society in St. Louis, who were shareholders, have surrendered their shares unconditionally. The Society referred to is one of the largest in St. Louis.

☞ The sanctum of the Boston Post was entered on Tuesday night by some worthless fellow, the drawers of the editorial table broken open, and gold and eighteen silver watches, most of them valuable, left behind by the rogue. The most valuable watch of the lot, belonged to Hon. I. W. Beard of this city, with chain, worth $100, and was probably stolen about at the rear of the shop, by forcing two doors.

☞ The Rev. Mr. Hall, a colonist ever committed in this city, and particularly unfortunate in its attendant circumstances. The police are on the track of the suspected burglars.

THE RESCUER. Sanborn, Post Office corner, has just put up in his store a superior Time Lock Safe, by Hall's manufactory, Bridgeport, Connecticut and beautiful duplex casement—cost of about $350. This is a combination of the best safety and ornamental worthy of Sanborn's splendid store.

☞ We understand that Marble's Cornet Band, of this city, has received a full set of silver (bill top) instruments, at a cost of about $1200.

PERSON COURT, Aug. 19. Morgan Riley and Morris Keppin, for disturbing the peace, were each fined $3 and costs. John Griffin, for an assault on Patrick Cunningham, was fined $3 and costs.

Aug. 20. Arad Worcester of Tewksbury, was brought in for sentence, and was sent to the workhouse in Tewksbury for six months.

Patrick McCatlich, for violation of the « Maine Law," was arraigned, there being no evidence that he sold liquor. Harris G. McIntire, charged with larceny of 20 lbs. of butter, was ordered to recognize in the sum of $100, till Thursday. Ellen Hickey, for larceny of $1, was sent to the House of Correction in Cambridge for six months. Henry Gerrett, for drunkenness, plead guilty and was fined $3 and costs.

☞ The Illustrated News for this week, is received. The News is enlarged to its former size of sixteen pages; its appearance is improved, and its contents are of a character to command much delightful reading.

☞ The second part of the first volume of the United States Illustrated, (the West) which we have just opened, contains four splendid engravings, New Orleans, Athenæ River Prairie, Rolling, and Brown's Falls. The United States Illustrated promises to be a valuable work.

The United States Illustrated (the East) has also been received. The present number (part 2) has engravings of the Capitol, Washington, Cascade Bridge, the Tombs at New York and Hudson City.

☞ Parts II. and III. of Meyer's Universum have come to hand. The engravings are splendid; the epigrams are interesting, not only to the text, but also to the general reader. We understand that these works are for sale at the bookstores.

☞ We have received the fourth part of Rev. Charles Williams's excellent work on the Alps, Switzerland, Savoy, and Lombardy, published by Ticknor & Co. It is entitled Summer Months among the Alps.

LIVER COMPLAINT.

The only remedy ever discovered for this dark fever fated in cure, when directions are followed, is the celebrated Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and has been introduced in all sections of the United States, and in every clime, and under every variety of circumstances, and has certainly driven out of existence the Liver Complaint, and every other species of Bowels, and has been found equally efficacious in ☞ Pectorators will be careful to ask for Dr. Hostetter's Celebrated Liver Pills, and see that they have the name of Jacob Hostetter, Jr., Proprietor, Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa., pasted on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists generally. 1y

THE World cannot produce better evidence for its truth than the following from the Rev. VERNON HERBINE, Va., Aug. 16, 1851.

MR. J. S. SMITH—Dear Sir: While I am in general good health, I have been afflicted at the rear of the shop, by forcing two doors.

☞ The Old Hunkers at the North call loud and long for Pierce and King, and it is said that there are barely enough to satisfy the Barnburners. Hunkers, like Apollo in pitched a prospectus of a new paper, in which he is to set forth the glories of Pierce. The dent Pierce's administration would be exposed, and that Pierce would be forced to call for the other council. The result was a telegraphic dispatch to Pierce, who declined

ROSE LADY

RED RUBY

RED RUBY!! ROCK ROSE!!!

PROF. ALEX. C. BARRY'S WHISPERLESS GOLD, OR MEDIATED COMPOUND.

BRIGHT & CARTER,

"TOM ROOKE."

SUG POISON!

VERBENA WATER.

RUSSIA SALVE.

GENTS' COTTON HOSIERY.

HOWARD'S CLEANSING POWDERS,

JEWELRY, &c.

TOOTH POWDER.

VERMONT OATS.

A. KITTREDGE,

1500

PURE PENNYROYAL SODA WATER,

JEWELLER'S NOTICE.

FARES FOR BALE.

MACHINE SHOP TO LET.

LUCIA BALD OIL.

Fifty Tickets for One Dollar.

A. KITTREDGE,

1500

A NEW DISCOVERY.

NEW BOOKS.

CIGARS.

200,000 HAVANA CIGARS

PATENTS.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.

LOW PRICES

JOB TYPE,

PRINTING

JOB PRINTING

DR. DE LANEY'S

Celebrated Curative Instrument

DR MORSE'S

INVIGORATING

CORDIAL.

1000

A PHENOMENON IN MEDICINE.

The Great Wonder of the Botanic World.

NEW GOODS.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS, AFTER 40 YEARS' SUFFERING.

LOVELL'S WAHPENE

MILK REGISTER OR THE PROPER.

500

90,000 CIGARS

A New Temperance Beverage.

TURKISH BATHS.

SOLICITOR'S NOTICE.

SOLE AGENCY OF THE DEVIL.

New Freight Arrangement

BETWEEN LOWELL AND NEW YORK.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. MONDAY EVENING, AUGUST 22 1853. NO 4749

S. J. VARNEY, PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

Office—No. 37 CENTRAL STREET, (Adjoining the Post Office.)

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at 75 per square for three insertions, and 25 cts. per square for each subsequent insertion. Liberal deductions will be made to those who advertise by the year. All communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the name of the writer, not necessarily for publication, but simply as a guarantee of good faith.

Orders and unobjectionable advertisements inserted at prices according to the time and space occupied.

The Proprietors of this paper will not hold themselves responsible for any verbal or incidental contract, unless the same be reduced to writing, and signed by the party making the contract, or by a person duly authorized by him.

Letters on business connected with this paper should be addressed to the Proprietors, and when remittances are made by mail, the name of the person, town and State should be plainly written.

Subscribers will be furnished with the Daily Journal and Courier, by the carrier, at the rate of twelve and a half cents per week, payable to the carriers.

Single copies of the paper may be had at the counter of the publication office, and of the carriers and newsmen.

Terms of the Weekly Journal, payment of the subscription, for the country, is published on FRIDAY MORNING, at $2 00 a year, if paid within six months from the time of subscribing; if not paid within that time, $2 50 will be charged.

No paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publishers.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION EXECUTED NEATLY & PROMPTLY

AT THE "OFFICE OF THE Lowell Daily Journal & Courier, By S. J. Varney.

JAMES PUNCHARD,

SURVEYOR OF LUMBER,

Measures Logs by Wood, At Wm. Livingston's Office, Thorndike St., and Lowell and Nashua R. R. Yard.

F. H. MAGUIRE,

Prescott street, Lowell.

ABEL WHITNEY,

BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND STATIONER,

WEAVER & BROTHER,

J. CORNER,

C. F. TALBOT & CO.,

DYE-WOODS AND CHEMICALS.

WM. C. GRAY,

DEPUTY SHERIFF,

Offices—Court House, Central street, Lowell.

M. D. COLBY,

DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,

No. 5 Canal Block, Central street, (Opposite Appleton House,)

LOWELL.

PAPER WAREHOUSE.

Cyrus W. Field & Co.,

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

No. 11 Old Slip Street,

NEW YORK,

Are Agents in the United States

for MOFFATTS superior Bleaching Powder.

CHARLES TENNANT & CO.'S

Second White superior

Second Yellow

Brown

Pure quality Pearl Ash

Pure quality Pearl Soda

CHARLES TENNANT & CO.'S superior Bleaching Powder Manufactured from the best quality of Lancashire Bleaching Powder and Chloride of Lime.

PAPERS and Paper Manufacturers' Stock constantly on hand and for sale at the lowest market prices.

CASH ADVANCES made on consignments.

SPRING STYLE HATS.

1853.

1853.

GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS.

CRAVATS, SCARFS, &c.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT

Residence that, he was invited to dinner each time. He never had any more the misfortune of being invited to spend a Sunday. The Post (a Democratic paper) thinks that if it be a joke, it is far from a refined one, and that Fillmore challenge it, perhaps too much in the way of it. My judgment is that two shillings and sixpence is not much for a sick joke like this.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Low-ell, Monday, August 22, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

The Whig State Committee have issued the following Call:

A WHIG STATE CONVENTION will be held at WORCESTER, on WEDNESDAY, the 21st day of September, at 11 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary, Treasurer, Auditor and Attorney General, and for the transaction of such other business as may be deemed necessary by the Convention.

JOHN BARDETT, Chairman.
ALEX. H. BULLOCK, Secretary.
August 10, 1853.

☞ FOR THE LATEST NEWS, SEE THE REGULATED HEAD, IN ANOTHER COLUMN.

Railway Accidents.

The press, certainly, has not been remiss in its condemnation of the wholesale slaughtering, which has of late obtained on many of our railroads. All are free to condemn, and all suggest alterations in railway management, but few seem to hit the nail upon the head. Undoubtedly the inattention of many of our railways are culpable in many matters, which tend directly to the safety of travellers; but the real difficulty, after all, lies in the want, and by others, lack of this.

Things are far different in these days of competition, when every village can take its choice of two or three distinct routes to almost any point, from what they were when our railways were in their infancy. While this mode of travelling was looked upon as utterly impracticable, the rate of speed which could be attained, was not the great consideration, but any speed at all. But that which was accepted and laughed at in theory, was soon palpably reduced to practice. Then, men who, a few years ago would have been content to subject, for a lunatic inquiry, who should venture to dream of the possibility of steam carriages by land, were not content to be taught, but demanded speed. "Now that the thing is demonstrated, (they said) that you can go thus, what's to hinder going as fast as you will?" Sure enough, what is to hinder, but those awkward little affairs, which are now every day happening, whose hundreds of fatalities are made to mourn the loss of their support and consolation?

The truth is—and those persons have had the manliness to assert it—the main fault is with ourselves, with the traveling community—and in these days, no one can claim exemption from responsibility, as a member of that class! There is scarcely an individual in any community, who has managed to scrape together a hundred dollars or so, who is not personally interested in one or more railroad companies—railway stocks is a mania—how that have not been infected by the contagion. This has been aided as evidence of the prosperity of our country, and it would be all well enough and laudable, were it not for the consequences.

As it now stands, there are but three lines of communication to any point, which is patronized to the greatest extent, and these at high speed! Is it safety or speed? What trains are generally selected, accommodation or lightning express? How large a proportion of travellers that omit to grumble on account of the amount of time consumed in stops at way stations?

Oh, it is a vastly pleasant thing to have it stated in annual reports, that the accidents have occasioned the loss of one hand during any particular year—vastly pleasant—but then, annual reports are made but once a year, whereas men are forced to travel almost every day; and when you're travelling, who wants to be bored by stops, or fatigued by slow movement? So, "speed or steam—a mile a minute—dam it!" And so we go—slow, let Norwalk, Valley Falls and Albany, and a thousand other Gothamites assume.

The country is now busily engaged in solving the problem, "Given wood and water enough, what is the shortest possible time in which any particular point can be reached?"—finally engaged, we say—killing time in its execution, and themselves. But who cares—Hans Mik has been arrested on the charge of the Judges of the Supreme Court." No, Mr Advertiser, they are not. They would have Judges appointed by the Executive; and because the people lack capacity to choose their Judges, but because the experience of ourselves, of the English, of the Romans, and of nearly all other nations, is most favorable to this practice.—But when Democrats pension electors, and do not redeem their promises, the Whigs are justified in accusing them of their short-comings. If wars promised (as we were told) to cost a State shall be districted for the election of Representatives, and the promise is left unredeemed, we shall not be unlikely to remind you of your unredeemed pledge.

THE FEMALE IMPRISONED FOR DEBT. Mr J. Wesley Jones gave an exhibition of his "Panorama of California," at Faneuil Hall, on Wednesday evening for the benefit of Mrs Patterson, who was confined for debt in that city for some sum pretending to be a Bostonian. A large and highly respectable audience was in attendance, who appreciated their sympathy for the lonely in a more substantial manner than by mere words. The "State of Maine" gives notice of the presentation of a similar petition, in addition.

AID FOR THE NEW CALEDONIA SUFFERERS. The Howard Association have already expended $40,000 in nursing 6000 persons, and should the epidemic last a month longer, they will have $120,000 more to disburse.

☞ The mail between Atalanta and Montgomery, Alabama, has been robbed of letters by Malvin and New Orleans. From $20,000 to $30,000 are said to have been abstracted.

☞ Western Texas gives large majorities for the Democratic ticket. Why candidates for Governor, and there is a probability that he is elected.

LOSS OF DISPATCHES. We learn that Dr. Hamilton, Secretary of the United States Legation, was a passenger in the steamer Leviathan, which was lost on the N. E. end of the Island of Bermuda. We learn that Dr. Parker had in charge the official dispatches for the American government, which were all lost. His private secretary, a person of great learning and research, was drowned in attempting to land, and thirty-two of the crew were also lost.

☞ Judge Young has been appointed assistant of Governor Gorman in investigating the alleged fraud in Minnesota relative to the Indian Agency, &c.

☞ Several New York merchants advise that the present pressure in the money market is relieved by loans from the Government.

☞ The interments in New York, last week, amounted 708.

☞ The London Times criticises President Pierce's Crystal Palace speech rather severely. It says that the author of Uncle Tom's Cabin and Adams in which the President and his Cabinet are described, "Can it be true that the Union should like to know."

☞ The number of shipments of specie from New York last week—

HEAL DISEASE CURING HEALTH
AND BEAUTY
Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator
Is the Great Remedy for Diseases of the Liver, Stomach, Blood, Kidneys, Lungs, Nervous System, Skin, Bowels, Piles, Female Complaints, Headache, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Biliousness, Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Erysipelas, Scrofula, Consumption, Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Asthma, Hoarseness, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Pain in the Side, Back and Limbs, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Nervous Debility, Hysterics, Fits, St. Vitus' Dance, Impure Blood, Boils, Blotches, Ringworm, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcers, Sores, Tumors, Worms, Dropsy, Gravel, Diabetes, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Sick Headache, Female Weakness, Irregularities, Suppressions, Whites, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, Uterine Diseases, Change of Life, Kidney Complaints, Urinary Diseases, Dropsy, Inflammation, Catarrh, Deafness, Blindness, Weak Eyes, Sore Eyes, Diseases of Children, Mumps, Measles, Scarlet Fever, Nursing Sore Mouth

...ocrats wishing [illegible]—[illegible]—shocrats of slaughter.]—Besides that, he was invited to dinner each time. He never had any speech, save the ceremony of introducing the peaceful to his friends. The Judge (in charge) said: I think that if he is a joke, it ought to be followed out.—[laughter.] Fifteen shillings is, perhaps, too much to pay for it. My judgment is for ten shillings and that is not too much for a rich joke like this. [English Paper.

[The following is the conclusion of the article to the contents of yesterday's Courier.]

We lived him well enough to do almost anything for him; but she did not cultivate a brute's passion with him. What if he did strike her down his play-bone? It was only a play-bone, a mere trifle, to be angry about, and he did not deserve such words for not getting angry about such a trifle.

Now this reasoning was wrong, all wrong. If this mother had placed herself back to the days of her own early childhood, and candidly asked herself how she would then have felt about the very same thing, she would have felt that it was not a trifle to Robert, and she would have learned an invaluable lesson of sympathy for her child in his childish struggles, conflicts and victories.

The exhibition of such sympathy was just what Robert needed to encourage him in the efforts which he really did then make to overcome his faults. But he asked was that these efforts should be appreciated. A scale of appreciation, in the mind of one such encouraging fat effort as Robert had made that day, would have done much to help to overcome his violent temper than all the reproofs he had ever received.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Tuesday, August 23, 1853

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with a vote of the State Central Committee, a WHIG STATE CONVENTION will be held at the City of Worcester, on WEDNESDAY, the 14th day of September next, at 11 o'clock A. M. for the purpose of nomination of State Officers.

The several Town and Ward Committees are not supposed to elect a number of Delegates, equal to the number of Representatives to which they are entitled in the Legislature.

JOHN SARGENT, Secretary.

August 10, 1853.

A Contemptible Coalition Trick!!

The coalition clique have often charged the whigs with trick & management. The unscrupulous persons are always themselves guilty, is a truth so plain that it has become proverbial. It is therefore unnecessary for us to say, that the heads of Fisher A. Hildreth and Ben. F. Butler, are two unscrupulous many's sons, in which more stratagems are planned, and more tricks hatched, than were ever conceived of by the Jesuits in the palmiest days of ignorance, by the wire-pullers of the Long Parliament.

The last trick of these self-constituted tacticians is designed as a blow at the Know Nothing Catholic Irish, by a feigned wish to promote fair ideas in the INTERSECTION of the STATE SCHOOL FUND.

Ingenious dogs! The stratagem, however, does not appear to take. The Irishmen have proved to be more discriminating than the Butler-Hildreth clique had supposed; they have seen through the game; they have exposed the villainy; they see deaths and snares in authors! Butler and Hildreth are too found out and spotted! They will now trouble us no more!

The glory of exposing this deep-laid game is due to a correspondent of The American Celt, of Aug. 13. This correspondent in very dignified, well-bred, but clear terms, exposed Gould's traitors relative to State school fund, and protestations of his application to sectarian purposes. His denouncement is as follows: "etc." His complaints bitterly of its tendency to make the new Constitution wholly unacceptable to the Catholic portion of the citizens." He denounces the ensemble "determination of the majority (the constituencies are one-fifth the Catholics) to force the minority (the Catholics) to pay school fund!" And he declares that "the resolve respecting sectarian schools was intended especially for us, (the Catholics.)

Further than this, the same writer attacks the resolve in question on the ground of its "compulsion" of Catholic law-writers, that a man's support of schools," he declares this to be an act of manifest and "gross injustice." And he denounces in no measured terms the "bigot enemy (he (so called) reformers" for their "reasoning."

Here, then, the mare's nest is discovered in time; and press has been let out the bag, much to the mortification of the Butler-Hildreth clique! The Irish Catholics are leaving the coalition party by hundreds; and they will no longer be gulled by the sneaky-leaders of the hybrid organization.

Now, Mr Advertiser, how do you stand on the school question? Do you go for a distribution of the State school-fund or not? Tell us, will you?

YOUNG AMERICA. The Presbyterian Quarterly Review has an able article on this topic, from which we take a few extracts:

"There is in this country a consuming passion for gain. The nation is mad. It rushes with inconsiderate ardor after speculations, or works sixteen hours a day that it may have the means of a common provision and a glittering finery. Never was there a less avaricious people.

* * * *

"The increase of luxury in this country is another frightful indication of the mad extravagance of the people. No one can wonder indeed that in a single new State they have built or are building three hundred saw-mills. The whole land will be a lunatic asylum if from some quarter, from experience or observation, from statesmanship or scholarship, from the pulpit or the Bible, we cannot learn some degree of moderation.

* * * *

"The effervescence of 'Young America' manifests itself, as we all know, in its views of our 'manifest destiny,' to take possession of the Western continent, and the melancholy Cuba expedition is but one of its outbreaks.

* * * *

"Foreign tyrannies over men as well as women, and conventionalities that no one really likes break up the life-blood of the nation. The result is shallow, heartless, artificial society, paralyzes the life of our people. They alternate with dissipation in the usual round. They fill the streets and public vehicles; they crowd churches, concerts, theatres; they go to each other on 'change, in business places, and along fashionable walks; they whirl around in the intoxication of the dance, or exchange those compliments with hundreds of people of a half an party.

* * * *

"Is there not a more excellent way? Is there no such thing as moderation? Is the common sense which we claim in our character to have no influence in moulding the manners of people? Must men live in the most sordid way until three out of four fail in business, and then hide their heads in some obscure place to die, though still honest men, they had done every rightful duty?"

If it be said that President Pierce does not favor the policy of constructing the Atlantic Cuba as the project of a Pacific Railroad. The question of Cooking and Davis look for other help.

CITY MATTERS.

THE FARMER'S CELEBRATION. Arrangements are progressing for the Firemen's Grand Jubilee in this city on the 15th of September. One engine Firemen will do every thing that could be reasonably expected to insure a successful and satisfactory occasion of the representatives of the Departments in all our principal cities and towns in New England. Invitations have been extended to Fire Companies in Boston, Lynn, Salem, Newburyport, Lawrence, Roxbury, Cambridge, Charlestown, Fitchburg, Springfield, Worcester, Concord, Reading, Haverhill and Methuen, Mass.; Concord, Manchester, Nashua, Nashville, Portsmouth and Dover, N. H., and Portland, Me.

The Engines present are to be divided into three classes, for trial, as follows:

First class to play through 400 feet of hose.

Second class to play through 350 feet hose.

Third class to play through 300 feet hose.

The trial to take place at the Liberty Pole in front of the Merrimack House.

The Lowell Firemen will give their brethren from abroad a dinner in Huntington Hall, and in the evening a splendid Firemen's Levee will be one of in the same place. This will be a grand gala day for Lowell.

£7 The Police Court this morning. Hugh Riley, for disturbing the peace, was fined $2 and costs; not having the money to pay, he was committed to jail.

THE SEPTEMBER MAGAZINES have been received by Davis, 67 Merrimack street—where may be found all the popular newspapers and periodicals of the day, as soon as they are issued from the press.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

£7 The Second Division Muster will take place in Tyngsboro' instead of Dracut, on Thursday and Friday of this week. Our Lowell companies will leave early to-morrow morning by the Lowell and Salem Railroad.

FIRE IN NEWTON. On Friday night, a certain house in Newtonville, which had just been finished, was totally destroyed by fire. It was owned by Mr Bowers, and was insured for $1000, which will not probably cover the loss. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

THE TRIAL. We learn that as Mr Isaac Bennett, Jr., of Pepperell, was assisting in raising a mill, on the Nashua River, on Wednesday, a stick was struck by a falling timber, and fell a distance of twenty-five feet, striking on a lodge of rocks. He was taken up and carried home, where he has skilful treatment of Drs. Cutter, Howe, and P., he is doing well, and will recover. The wonder is that he was not killed instantly.

A THIEF PAYING DEARLY. Somebody stole a watch from a pocket in Pitchburg, the other night, and left a pocket-book on the ground containing $300. The proprietor of the watch advertises that he has a few more notices left!

£7 The execution of Daniel Woodward, for the murder of his wife, is to take place at Washington on Friday next. A petition has been signed by nearly a thousand citizens of Nankin and Georgetown, asking the President to commute his sentence to imprisonment for life.

£7 The Secretary of War is absent from Washington. The Secretary of the NAVY is attending to the duties of the War Department, during his absence.

£7 A petrified monkey has recently been found in a cave recently discovered over in Muhlenburg county, Kentucky; he has been sent to the Crystal Palace.

£7 Secretary Marcy is deeply affected by the death of his son Abraham, aged about twenty-three years. He died on board the sloop of war Preble, on her way to Fayal, Azores.

£7 Miss Abby Fitzgerald, aged 21, committed suicide at Saratoga Falls on Saturday, 10th, by taking an ounce on the oil of cedar.

£7 Boston is said to be remarkably healthy for the season. There were but 120 deaths last week. The Cemetery sites there has not been a single case of cholera since 1850, or a single death from smallpox for 18 months. The doctors, here, some of them goes.

DEATH OF AN EX-CONGRESSMAN. John Taliaferro, aged about 85 years, and for upwards of twenty years a member of Congress, from Virginia, and for the last three years the liberalness of the Treasury Department, died on Thursday, at his residence in Virginia.

THE MISSION TO FRANCE. A committee of New Yorkers have been urging upon the President, the appointment of Hon. George Bancroft. General Dix has hopes yet. General Cass has been named. Probably Robert M. McLane will yet be the happy man.

MONSIEUR YRIO TO THE FIELD. One of the coalition papers advocates the renomination of Gov. Boutwell for the Governorship. A capital joke!

PAPERS OF CONGRESS. The Journal of Commerce gives the position of parties in the next Congress, as follows: Whigs 66, democrats 142, abolition 3. In the old Congress they stood 70 whigs, 139 democrats, and 2 abolition. Marylaud, Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana, voting in all 39 representatives, are yet to elect.

£7 James Collier, ex-Collector of San Francisco, was arrested at Steubenville, Ohio, on Tuesday, on charge of being a defaulter to the government.

£7 The Washington Union says that the States of the German Confederation will probably cause into the postal arrangements recently concluded between the United States and Bremen. The Russian Minister has instructed his Government to do the same—as Denmark, Norway and Sweden will follow suit.

£7 A "creature," the body of which resembles that of a calf, with the head of a child, the mouth of a lion, with fore paws like those of a dog, garnished with nails like a pig's and without any ears, horns or sign, has recently been exhibited at the Academy of Medicine in Paris.

£7 Several pieces of gold have been washed out from the earth thrown up by some workmen in Lawrence.

TORPEDO AND JUDICIOUS MOVE. A National Convention to nominate a man is to be held in Boston this week, the purpose of which is to "encourage young men more thoroughly to qualify themselves for the duties of their business."

£7 John Moss, of North Amherst, has invented a machine for knitting ribbed work, which will knit some six dozen drawers or shirts a day.

£7 Bayard Taylor, travelling editor of the N. Y. Tribune, has received an appointment in the Japan expedition, in the surgical artists, with the rank of master's mate.

£7 "Whom the tariff of 1842 will injure in the forthcoming organs reminded that it applied by far the greater portion of the revenue of the country will be raised from tariff duties, and that the present tariff is strictly a revenue tariff."

The democratic organs have found that their tariff of 1842 yields more revenue than the tariff of 1846 or any other tariff. Hence it is desirable to keep the present tariff a greater abomination because it yields more revenue.—Boston Journal.

Escape from State Prison.—A man named James Dunn, twenty years of age, made his escape from the State Prison at Jeffersonville, on his ingenious and skilful manner. He procured from the prison shop a piece of iron, and manufactured strips of India rubber cloth, by which he constructed a water-tight tube six feet and he affixed what might pass for a head to it. Then he entered the tube, and, closing himself up in it, jumped into the river. He supplied himself with air through the tube, being safely concealed some six feet under water. In this manner he passed the prison guards and sentries, and the men employed along the prison wall, and swam about half a mile. Then his pipe gave way, and he was obliged to rise to the surface and make for the shore. He was informed the astonished crowd that he had escaped from prison, by stripping that article and stains his clothing, made for the interior of the state.

Paranoia.—The Hon. John F. Hale is passing a few weeks at the Pavilion in Holderness, N. H., amusing himself with fishing, ten-pins, and other sports, and going to the village to see the "target" exercise. The Hon. N. P. Banks is also at the Pavilion, and is said to be in good health and "political instructions," for the fall campaign. He can "do" Hale up at "long bow," and knows more about the Massachusetts Democracy than Hale can sum up on fishing for mackerel, cod, haddock and tomcods. Hale will be back in time to see the "fun of election" thrown out by coalition trades. He will be "in" at the death, however, if he keeps fishing, fishing, ten-pins, billiards and "Public Bills."—[Worcester Transcript.

Home Again. Yankee Locke arrived in town yesterday, from a successful tour in the southern States. He was accompanied by a number of old friends, and spreads himself so blooming as a full blown rose. He is in excellent health and spirits, is speaking of him, says: "Yankee Locke and his party arrived in this city yesterday morning, on a freight boat from Detroit. Mr. Locke looks well, and is in good spirits, and is state-room with a yoke of corn." We learn he will visit Lowell, and lecture in one of the theatres in this city.—[Boston Times, 20th.

Listeners seldom hear good of themselves.—Rufus Choate, Esq., was recently in attendance on the Supreme Judicial Court in session in the city, a temporary sojourner in Boston, and was put up at the Tremont House. In the hall where the Massachusetts Constitutional Convention was in session, Mr. Choate was engaged in close conversation with some gentlemen, on the city of Boston, when a messenger came to him with a card, which he read, and then handed to Judge Wilde, who was sitting behind a pair of folding doors, which were open. Mr. Choate, supposing the card to be that of some individual lawyers from the West, that he had been waiting to see, directed him to be admitted, and the choice by the people had been made. Mr. Choate, on the card, was that of the most corrupt of judges, had been elevated to the bench, the office of which he was then filling. Mr. Choate, when he again addressed Judge Wilde, was off in a few moments, rendered a pair of folding doors unnecessary.—[Boston Herald.

BLACK SEEDS

Grown in the vicinity of Damascus, are the best in the world. Their superiority is owing to the soil and climate. Orders supplied.

aug20 A. J. WRIGHT.

400 Washington Street.

The only Manufactory of Hall's Patent Rotary Sewing Machines.

Attachment for Stitching and Hemming.

THE subscribers have taken the above Manufactory, and are now prepared to supply the trade with the above Machines, which will be sold at the manufacturer's prices. Every machine warranted to be as represented, or no sale. Machines repaired and exchanged. Agents wanted in every town in the country. Apply to

W. F. WEBSTER, Agent,
400 Washington Street.

Jan. 21, 1853. jan21tf

CALIFORNIA.

£7 CALIFORNIA RIFLES taken by the NEW ENGLAND RIFLE COMPANY, for sale at the lowest prices, and the most favorable terms.

C. W. STURGEON, Agent.

jan21tf

HARTFORD LIFE INSURANCE CO.,

HARTFORD, CONN.

Persons wishing to effect Insurance on their lives would find it to their advantage to call at the office of the Hartford Life Insurance Company, a sound and reliable institution, which offers as favorable terms as any other company in the country, without any more being given than is necessary to secure the safety of the investment. Policies issued on the Mutual Plan, and the profits annually divided among the assured. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

A. J. RICHMOND, Agent.

JOEL STARKEY, Medical Examiner.

Office in Lowell, No. 12 Appleton Block, Merrimack Square.

jan21 eodtf

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1853.

Capital $150,000,

Paid and Secured Investments, more than 60,000

DIRECTORS.

Nathaniel Prime, Jr., Cashier Bank of the State of New York.
Wm. E. Dodge, Merchant, New York.
Wm. E. Dodge, Jr., Merchant, New York.
Wm. A. Lamont, Merchant, New York.
Peter Remsen, Jr., Merchant, New York.
Lowell Holbrook, Merchant, New York.
Geo. Griswold, Merchant, New York.
Lewis Weeks, Merchant, New York.
Lewis Roberts, Merchant, New York.
Geo. Pirrie, Merchant, New York.

The long established Company are prepared to take risks on favorable terms.

Fire and Inland Navigation Risks,

Taken on Buildings, Merchandize, Vessels, &c., by the Agency of the Company. Offices long established in Boston, Salem, Lowell, Lawrence, Lynn, and Portland, Me.

A. J. RICHMOND, Agent. Office No. 12 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell.

jan21 eodtf

FIRE INSURANCE.

OFFICE—NO. 12 APPLETON BLOCK

Home Insurance Company of New York.

AGGREGATE Capital and Assets secured to Policy Holders, Jan. 1, 1853.

Liability on insurance to 1,200,000
Premium Notes, 1,000,000
Hartford Capital, 150,000
Net Surplus in this office, 150,000

Total, $2,300,000

Insures against loss or damage by fire on Buildings, Merchandize, Furniture, Vessels in port, and their Cargoes, on the most favorable terms. Also, against loss or damage by Inland Navigation and Transportation. Rates of premium always as low as the lowest.

A. J. RICHMOND, Agent.

jan21 eodtf

STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO. OF WORCESTER—Incorporated 1845.

DIRECTORS.

JOHN DAVIS, Pres. | CLARENDON HARRIS, Sec.

This well established Company continues to effect insurances with their customers, having accumulated a sufficient Capital to secure the payment of all their present liabilities, and to meet all future claims. Their Capital is invested in the most productive securities, and the assured are protected by the Massachusetts Charter from all claims of the creditors. Their Capital is invested in the most productive securities, and the assured are protected by the Massachusetts Charter from all claims of the creditors.

W. S. B. HOPKINS, Agent,
No. 2 Appleton Block, Merrimack Square.

jan21 eodtf

REMOVAL.

CHARLES W. HACKETT

WOULD announce to his customers and the public, that he has removed his Boot and Shoe Store to the new block of buildings on Merrimack street, where he now proposes to offer a FIRST RATE assortment of Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, &c., at the lowest prices.

jan21 eodtf

REMOVAL.

CHARLES W. HACKETT

WOULD announce to his customers and the public, that he has removed his Boot and Shoe Store to the new block of buildings on Merrimack street, where he now proposes to offer a FIRST RATE assortment of Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, &c., at the lowest prices.

jan21 eodtf

MRS FOSTER'S CORDIAL

Is a Cordial for Children, and is a sure remedy for Sour Stomach, Worms, Colic, Cholera Infantum, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, and all Summer Complaints. Prepared and sold by MRS. FOSTER, No. 3 Union street, Boston.

For sale in Lowell by J. C. AYER & CO. and CABLE TON & BOYDEN. Agents for Boston, KENDRICK & COX.

jan21eodtf

£7 What is the cramming profession of the human face? Ans. A beautiful head of hair. How is this described? Ans. As to be cultivated and preserved? By using Lemuel A. Crosby's EXCELSIOR HAIR TONIC. Sold by druggists and fancy goods dealers everywhere. jan21eodtf

DEATHS

In Charlotte, Aug. 20, Charlie Adams, only daughter of Mr. Charles and Mrs. Mary Ann Adams, aged 2 years.

ALLEN ON THE OPIUM TRADE.

JUST published, price 25 cents, a forcefully stirring work, entitled "The Opium Trade," by Rev. Wm. Allen, D. D., late President of Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., containing a succinct expose of the iniquity of the British Government in forcing the Opium Trade upon China, with a brief history of the rise, progress and present magnitude of the traffic, and a discussion of the question of its legalization. Also, a Review of the Opium Trade, by Rev. Dr. Bethune, of Boston, and a Review of the Opium Trade, by Rev. Dr. Cox, of New York. The volumes are published in pamphlet form, and will be sent by mail, post paid, to any address in the United States, on receipt of 25 cents. Address, DAVIS, FELTON, MUNROE & CO., Boston.

aug20 eodtf

PORTRAITS OF EMINENT AMERICANS,

Executed in the highest style of the art, by John Sartain, Philadelphia, and for sale by all booksellers throughout the country. Among the subjects are Washington, Jefferson, Franklin, Hancock, Adams, Clay, Webster, Calhoun, Benton, Marshall, Story, Kent, Taney, Irving, Cooper, Bryant, Prescott, Everett, Sparks, Ticknor, Hallam, Bancroft, Motley, Silliman, Agassiz, Dana, Audubon, Wilson, Bartram, Morse, Vethake, Wayland, Hawks, Griffin, Channing, Beecher, Barnes, Tyng, Hawks, Bethune, Hitchcock, Hedge, Ripley, Parker, Furness, Hosmer, Thayer, Dewey, Whittier, Longfellow, Lowell, Holmes, Sprague, Halleck, Bryant, Dana, Willis, Mrs. Sigourney, Mrs. Child, Miss Sedgwick, Miss Leslie, Miss Beecher, Miss Prescott, Miss Warner, Miss Cummins, Miss Fuller, Miss Bremer, Miss Lewis, Miss Gould, Miss Hewitt, Miss Ellet, Miss Lynch, Miss Hale, Miss Ware, Miss Dix, Miss Barrett, Miss Gilman, Miss Ann S. Stephens, Miss Fern ROSE MARY! THAT HAIR DYE WARD, NEAR HANOVER ST., BOSTON.

Wholesale Agents for Lowell, Messrs. Hall, Richardson & Co., Importing Druggists and Confectioners, Merrimack Square.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1858. sep2 eod3m

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWER, RAILROAD FREIGHT STATION, SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.

WANTS FOR SALE.

COAL—Anthracite (white and red ash); Cumberland Coal, Pittston, Schuylkill, by the cargo, or in large or small lots.

WOOD—Hard, Pine, Lumber, Bricks, Lime, Hair, Cement, Plaster, Fish and Guano—Live, Dead.

FLOUR AND GRAIN—A constant supply of all grades.

SALT—Fine, Coarse, Liverpool, Lisbon, Cadiz, Western and Eastern.

WHITE LEAD—Dry, Ground, Linseed Oil, Boiled and Raw, Spirits Turpentine, Varnish, Paints, Window Glass, &c.

COTTON DUCK, COURAGE TWINE.

Also, Agents for the sale of Dr. HOWARD'S CELEBRATED Remedy of all articles suitable to be sold by druggists and the trade.

Country Produce received on consignment, or to be bought to order.

N. B.—Consignments, cargo or cash orders, will receive prompt attention. sep2 eod3m

PATENTS.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

WASHINGTON,

NO. 28 STATE STREET, BOSTON.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.

The subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office) continues to prepare Specifications, Drawings, and to attend to applying for patents, caveats, or those abroad (and to obtain, also, home assignments), whereby to avoid the delay and expense of visiting Washington. He has all the models of inventions (now numbering about 20,000) which have been patented in the United States, and can thus, in many cases, decide at once and without charge whether the invention sought to be patented is new or not. Inventors who may desire to procure patents are thus saved the necessity of visiting Washington, and may rely upon the most careful and prompt attention to their business at the Patent Office, by addressing (post paid) or calling upon

EDWARD TRENTON,

Solicitor of Patents.

Boston, March 19, 1853. mh20 eod1y

J. D. PUTNAM,

DEALER IN

WEST INDIA GOODS, COMMON FAMILY GROCERIES, COUNTRY PRODUCE, DAIRY PROVISIONS AND KEROSENE OILS, &c.

No. 28 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.

Lowell, Dec. 1, 1858. dec1 eod1y

KILGOR.—To the trade and most approved brands; Rye Whiskies, Brandies, Gins, Wines, &c., &c., for sale by the case or gallon, at the Old Stand, No. 2 Central Block, Central st.

A NEW DISCOVERY.

THE DIVINE BALSAMIC COUGH CURE.

THIS Cure produces at the efforts of the Stigerty Cough, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Consumption, and all Diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Chest.

The Cure is constructed in he were under the personal supervision of the discoverer, who has been for years a sufferer of the skin, a professor on certain, never-failing remedy for Consumption, which he will do, and has since cheerfully given for any sufferer who may call for it at his residence. The curative property of the Concrete Balsamic Cough Cure is so well known in the city of Boston, that it is unnecessary to say more than that the cure has stood the brunt, and the bench sweet, as it continues and will continue to do, and that the Cough Cure may be had at any time, from which it can be used with safety and success.

Price 25 cents per bottle.

For sale by D. BILLS & CO., No. 6 Hawley st.

Boston. sep2

CIGARS.

200,000 HAVANA CIGARS

Of the celebrated brands, viz:

Regalia Reinas,
Regalia Primas,
Regalias,
La Preciosa,
La Perfecta,
Regalia de Londres,

For sale by D. BILLS & CO., No. 6 Hawley st.

Boston. sep2

TWO IMPORTANT PUBLICATIONS,

JUST issued from the press of the Subscriber, a copy of the Engineer's and Enclosure's Drawing Pen, with improvements, and a treatise containing its History, Description and Mathematical Drawing. To be competed in Two Parts, Part I. now ready.

The Drawing Pen is the invention of Thomas Jones, of this County. With descriptive and instructive notes and diagrams, by the Author.

Part II. will contain the Mathematical Drawing Pen, with improvements, by the Author.

Price of Part I., 50 cents. Part II. will be issued in a few days.

Published and for sale by HENRY W. BUGBEE, Middlesex Village.

Middlesex Village, Aug. 21, 1858. 2m

RED DEVIL COCKROACH EXTERMINATOR

THE RED DEVIL EXTERMINATOR is acknowledged to be the cheapest and most efficient Exterminator of Red and Black Cockroaches, Ants, Bed Bugs, Flies, &c., ever offered to the public. Sold in large boxes for 25 and 50 cents. Prepared only and sold by E. RICHARDS, Apothecary, Lowell.

FROM THE MANUFACTORIES.

THE subscriber has just received from Dexter and Boston, 1000 Boxes Tin and CAP PAPER, white and blue, ruled and plain, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Also, Tin Foil, Envelope Paper, Cap and Letter Paper, for sale by the Manufacturer's Agent, 122 Market st., Lowell. Also, constantly on hand, 50 reams of the best Printing Paper, for sale at the lowest prices. Also, Printing, Tissue, Tracing, Tinting, Copy, Lap, Oil, Drawing and Wrapping Paper, for sale by the manufacturer's agent, 122 Market st., Lowell.

JAMES H. WALKER.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1858. sep2 eod3m

ONE ——— and good Letter PRESS, for sale by PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWER. sep2

BUG POISON!

FOR the immediate destruction of Bed Bugs and Roaches, use Dr. MORSE'S Bug Poison. For sale by the trade by C. CATE & CO., Apothecaries, Boston, and by druggists generally.

Sept. 1. sep2 eod3m

VERBENA WATER.—A new and delightful perfume for the handkerchief, prepared and for sale by C. CATE & CO., Apothecaries, Boston, and by druggists and Jobbers generally.

sep2 eod3m

GEATS' COTTON HOSIERY.

BEATERS, Boys, and Girls, will find it to their advantage to buy their Hosiery at the cheap store of sep2 STEVENS'S Building.

HOSTER'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS, for Debility, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, Liver Complaint, &c. For sale by all druggists and dealers in medicines.

sep2 eod3m

NEW SPRING GOODS.

RECEIVED and ready for sale at No. 2, Beehive Block, Central st., a full assortment of Ladies' Dress Goods, Shawls, Hosiery, Gloves, &c.

No. 2 Central Block, Central st.

sep2

TOOTHACHE.—Dr. SPOONER'S CELEBRATED ASBESTUS VETO ON TOOTHACHE is safe to use, and arrests the pain in a few minutes. It is purely vegetable, and harmless to the taste, and can be used by the most delicate female or child. Price 25 cents per bottle. For sale by druggists generally, and by the proprietor, No. 3 Tremont Row, Boston.

sep2 eod3m

TOOTH POWDER.

WE have just received a fresh supply of the CELEBRATED LOZENGES, and Dentifrice, which we have used at the head of all other preparations for the Teeth. Whitening and Preserving the Teeth. For Ladies' use they are unrivalled. For sale by sep2 HARRIS & CO., Druggists, Merrimack Square.

NEW SMOKED SALMON.—This day received and for sale by sep2 DAVIS & PARKER, Fish Building, Shattuck st.

SPOONS.—Wanzer's Pure Silver Tea, Table, Dessert and Soup Spoons, Forks, Ladles, Butter Knives, &c., for sale by JOSEPH BAYDEN.

sep2

POINTS HOSIERIES.—Ladies' and Gents' Hosiery, Gloves, Suspenders, &c., at Central st.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

WANTED.—Ladies and Gents to call at 2 Central st. for Hosiery, Gloves, Suspenders, &c.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

LACE SHAWLS.—Ladies' Lace Shawls, Scarfs, Mantillas, Veils, &c., at Central st.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

FANCY GOODS.—Ladies' Fancy Goods, Combs, Brushes, Perfumery, &c., at Central st.

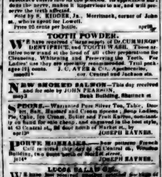
sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

GENTS' SPRING GLOVES.

WE have just received from the direct importation, a large and complete assortment of Gloves suitable for Gents' wear, which we offer at the lowest prices. Call and examine.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

Fifty Tickets for One Dollar.



PURE PERTUCHEY SODA WATER,

COOL AND SPARKLING,

Drawn at all seasons, by C. E. EASTMAN & CO.,

sep10 Apothecaries, Wyman's Exchange.

JEWELLER'S NOTICE.

THE undersigned would respectfully inform his friends and customers that he has ARRANGED HIS STORE in my business temporarily with the stock of WATCHES, JEWELRY, SILVER, PLATED and BRITANNIA WARE, at the

FIRST DOOR NORTH OF MARKET

SILVER SPOONS. By manufacture it may, and warrants it fine—engraved in any style.

JEWELRY. By Rings, Breast Pins, Cuff Buttons, Studs, Sleeve Buttons, Lockets, &c.

PLATED TEA SETS—English and American Ware, in the latest patterns. Also, Tea Trays, Cake Baskets, Pickle Castors, Pocket Cutlery, Razors, Cutlerware Boxes, &c.

By the large stock of Goods will be offered at the LOWEST CASH OR CREDIT PRICES.

Remember the place, 1 doors North of Market street. RICHARD HAYNES.

Lowell, Sept. 10, 1858. sep10

COATS, PANTS, VESTS, AND CRESS'

O'THE LATEST STYLES AND PATTERNS, now ready for sale at WOOD'S.

No. 1 Grand Block,

sep10 Corner of Merrimack and Central sts.

CARPETINGS NOW OPENING.

MESSRS. JOHN CROSLEY & SON, of Thames Mills, Connecticut, have sent to the Subscriber, for sale, a large assortment of their well known Carpetings, which will be opened and offered for sale at their usual low prices. For sale by JAS F. WALKER.

sep10

ONE ——— and good Letter ENVELOPE, or Note Paper Press, for sale by PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWER. sep10

ENGLISH & AMERICAN STATIONERY.

WE have just received a large and complete assortment of English, French and American Stationery, comprising every variety of Note and Letter Paper, Envelopes, &c., together with a large assortment of Pocket Books, Portfolios, Writing Desks and Portable Writing Cases, which we offer at the lowest prices. Call and examine our stock.

sep10 HARRIS & CO., Druggists, Merrimack Square.

BEAUTIFUL TEETH!

CARLTON'S ARTIFICIAL TEETH are the best. Now there are at least a dozen sets of Artificial Teeth in use, which have been inserted by Dentists who are not even members of the profession, with Ivorine and Enamel on a plate, and they have also put on Whalebone Gums. Now, as Dr. CARLTON is the inventor of Whalebone Gums, and the only Dentist who uses them, and as he has a Patent Right for the United States, he would caution the public against buying Teeth with Whalebone Gums, unless they are made by Dr. CARLTON, or by those who have purchased a right of him. Dr. CARLTON has also a Patent Right for the Continuous Gum Teeth, which are the most beautiful and durable Teeth ever made. Dr. CARLTON has also a Patent Right for the Continuous Gum Teeth, which are the most beautiful and durable Teeth ever made. Dr. CARLTON has also a Patent Right for the Continuous Gum Teeth, which are the most beautiful and durable Teeth ever made.

Dr. CARLTON, No. 2 Tremont Row, Boston.

sep10 eod3m

DR. BENJ. A'GRANE is in Pennsylvania. He is the best worker of "Prince Pneumatic Tooth Plates," and the best Dentist in the world. Those who want a good set of teeth will do well to call on him.

sep10 NATSON & BASGRANT.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.

THIS valuable preparation for the cure of Diseases of the Urinary Organs, is daily recommended by the most eminent members of the medical profession, and is unanimously recommended by the ladies to preference to any other remedy for the cure of Female Complaints, in which it is unequalled. Prepared and sold by H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist and Practical Chemist, 594 Broadway, and 104 South 10th st., Philadelphia. Depot, 104 South 10th st., Philadelphia. Depot, 594 Broadway, New York. Sold also by druggists everywhere. Price $1 per bottle.

sep10 eod3m

A NEW DISCOVERY.

THE DIVINE BALSAMIC COUGH CURE.

THIS Cure produces at the efforts of the Stigerty Cough, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Consumption, and all Diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Chest.

The Cure is constructed in he were under the personal supervision of the discoverer, who has been for years a sufferer of the skin, a professor on certain, never-failing remedy for Consumption, which he will do, and has since cheerfully given for any sufferer who may call for it at his residence. The curative property of the Concrete Balsamic Cough Cure is so well known in the city of Boston, that it is unnecessary to say more than that the cure has stood the brunt, and the bench sweet, as it continues and will continue to do, and that the Cough Cure may be had at any time, from which it can be used with safety and success.

Price 25 cents per bottle.

For sale by D. BILLS & CO., No. 6 Hawley st.

Boston. sep2

CIGARS.

200,000 HAVANA CIGARS

Of the celebrated brands, viz:

Regalia Reinas,
Regalia Primas,
Regalias,
La Preciosa,
La Perfecta,
Regalia de Londres,

For sale by D. BILLS & CO., No. 6 Hawley st.

Boston. sep2

TWO IMPORTANT PUBLICATIONS,

JUST issued from the press of the Subscriber, a copy of the Engineer's and Enclosure's Drawing Pen, with improvements, and a treatise containing its History, Description and Mathematical Drawing. To be competed in Two Parts, Part I. now ready.

The Drawing Pen is the invention of Thomas Jones, of this County. With descriptive and instructive notes and diagrams, by the Author.

Part II. will contain the Mathematical Drawing Pen, with improvements, by the Author.

Price of Part I., 50 cents. Part II. will be issued in a few days.

Published and for sale by HENRY W. BUGBEE, Middlesex Village.

Middlesex Village, Aug. 21, 1858. 2m

RED DEVIL COCKROACH EXTERMINATOR

THE RED DEVIL EXTERMINATOR is acknowledged to be the cheapest and most efficient Exterminator of Red and Black Cockroaches, Ants, Bed Bugs, Flies, &c., ever offered to the public. Sold in large boxes for 25 and 50 cents. Prepared only and sold by E. RICHARDS, Apothecary, Lowell.

FROM THE MANUFACTORIES.

THE subscriber has just received from Dexter and Boston, 1000 Boxes Tin and CAP PAPER, white and blue, ruled and plain, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Also, Tin Foil, Envelope Paper, Cap and Letter Paper, for sale by the Manufacturer's Agent, 122 Market st., Lowell. Also, constantly on hand, 50 reams of the best Printing Paper, for sale at the lowest prices. Also, Printing, Tissue, Tracing, Tinting, Copy, Lap, Oil, Drawing and Wrapping Paper, for sale by the manufacturer's agent, 122 Market st., Lowell.

JAMES H. WALKER.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1858. sep2 eod3m

ONE ——— and good Letter PRESS, for sale by PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWER. sep2

BUG POISON!

FOR the immediate destruction of Bed Bugs and Roaches, use Dr. MORSE'S Bug Poison. For sale by the trade by C. CATE & CO., Apothecaries, Boston, and by druggists generally.

Sept. 1. sep2 eod3m

VERBENA WATER.—A new and delightful perfume for the handkerchief, prepared and for sale by C. CATE & CO., Apothecaries, Boston, and by druggists and Jobbers generally.

sep2 eod3m

GEATS' COTTON HOSIERY.

BEATERS, Boys, and Girls, will find it to their advantage to buy their Hosiery at the cheap store of

sep2 STEVENS'S Building.

HOSTER'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS, for Debility, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, Liver Complaint, &c. For sale by all druggists and dealers in medicines.

sep2 eod3m

NEW SPRING GOODS.

RECEIVED and ready for sale at No. 2, Beehive Block, Central st., a full assortment of Ladies' Dress Goods, Shawls, Hosiery, Gloves, &c.

No. 2 Central Block, Central st.

sep2

TOOTHACHE.—Dr. SPOONER'S CELEBRATED ASBESTUS VETO ON TOOTHACHE is safe to use, and arrests the pain in a few minutes. It is purely vegetable, and harmless to the taste, and can be used by the most delicate female or child. Price 25 cents per bottle. For sale by druggists generally, and by the proprietor, No. 3 Tremont Row, Boston.

sep2 eod3m

TOOTH POWDER.

WE have just received a fresh supply of the CELEBRATED LOZENGES, and Dentifrice, which we have used at the head of all other preparations for the Teeth. Whitening and Preserving the Teeth. For Ladies' use they are unrivalled. For sale by sep2 HARRIS & CO., Druggists, Merrimack Square.

NEW SMOKED SALMON.—This day received and for sale by

sep2 DAVIS & PARKER, Fish Building, Shattuck st.

SPOONS.—Wanzer's Pure Silver Tea, Table, Dessert and Soup Spoons, Forks, Ladles, Butter Knives, &c., for sale by JOSEPH BAYDEN.

sep2

POINTS HOSIERIES.—Ladies' and Gents' Hosiery, Gloves, Suspenders, &c., at Central st.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

WANTED.—Ladies and Gents to call at 2 Central st. for Hosiery, Gloves, Suspenders, &c.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

LACE SHAWLS.—Ladies' Lace Shawls, Scarfs, Mantillas, Veils, &c., at Central st.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

FANCY GOODS.—Ladies' Fancy Goods, Combs, Brushes, Perfumery, &c., at Central st.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

GENTS' SPRING GLOVES.

WE have just received from the direct importation, a large and complete assortment of Gloves suitable for Gents' wear, which we offer at the lowest prices. Call and examine.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, FEATHERS

UPHOLSTERY GOODS, FEATHERS, &c.

THE subscribers having purchased the stock in trade of Messrs. Fuller & Co., at the old stand, No. 19 Merrimack street, Lowell, would respectfully announce the commencement of business at the above stand, and would solicit a share of the public patronage. They will keep constantly on hand a full assortment of Furniture, Carpets, Feathers, Mattresses, Spring Beds, Looking Glasses, Window Shades, Curtain Goods, Upholstery Goods, &c., &c., which they will sell at the lowest prices for cash. Having had many years' experience in the business, they feel confident that they can give satisfaction to all who may favor them with their patronage. They will also attend to the manufacturing of all kinds of Mattresses, Spring Beds, Feather Beds, &c., at short notice, and in the best manner. Orders left at the store will receive prompt attention.

Lowell, Oct. 19, 1858. oct19 eod3m

NOTICE TO FARMERS.

I would call the attention of Farmers to my Improved FURROW PLOWS, as being the most perfect and durable Plows in use. They are constructed of the most wrought soil and durability, and for the quality of work, are not to be excelled by any Plow in the market. I have on hand also a few Cultivators, Horse Rakes, Corn Shellers, &c., which I will sell low for cash. Those wishing to purchase Plows will find it to their advantage to call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere, as I am determined to sell low for cash. Don't forget Lucky Penny Hay Cutters. Repairing done at short notice. The Subscriber is the Sole Agent for the Patent Furrow in the United States, and has the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the same. Also, the Patent Furrow in the United States, and has the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the same. Also, the Patent Furrow in the United States, and has the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the same.

STEPHEN HARDY,

Patent Owner.

Tyngsboro', March 19, 1853. mh20

J. D. PUTNAM,

DEALER IN

WEST INDIA GOODS, COMMON FAMILY GROCERIES, COUNTRY PRODUCE, DAIRY PROVISIONS AND KEROSENE OILS, &c.

No. 28 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.

Lowell, Dec. 1, 1858. dec1 eod1y

KILGOR.—To the trade and most approved brands; Rye Whiskies, Brandies, Gins, Wines, &c., &c., for sale by the case or gallon, at the Old Stand, No. 2 Central Block, Central st.

A NEW DISCOVERY.

THE DIVINE BALSAMIC COUGH CURE.

THIS Cure produces at the efforts of the Stigerty Cough, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Consumption, and all Diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Chest.

The Cure is constructed in he were under the personal supervision of the discoverer, who has been for years a sufferer of the skin, a professor on certain, never-failing remedy for Consumption, which he will do, and has since cheerfully given for any sufferer who may call for it at his residence. The curative property of the Concrete Balsamic Cough Cure is so well known in the city of Boston, that it is unnecessary to say more than that the cure has stood the brunt, and the bench sweet, as it continues and will continue to do, and that the Cough Cure may be had at any time, from which it can be used with safety and success.

Price 25 cents per bottle.

For sale by D. BILLS & CO., No. 6 Hawley st.

Boston. sep2

CIGARS.

200,000 HAVANA CIGARS

Of the celebrated brands, viz:

Regalia Reinas,
Regalia Primas,
Regalias,
La Preciosa,
La Perfecta,
Regalia de Londres,

For sale by D. BILLS & CO., No. 6 Hawley st.

Boston. sep2

TWO IMPORTANT PUBLICATIONS,

JUST issued from the press of the Subscriber, a copy of the Engineer's and Enclosure's Drawing Pen, with improvements, and a treatise containing its History, Description and Mathematical Drawing. To be competed in Two Parts, Part I. now ready.

The Drawing Pen is the invention of Thomas Jones, of this County. With descriptive and instructive notes and diagrams, by the Author.

Part II. will contain the Mathematical Drawing Pen, with improvements, by the Author.

Price of Part I., 50 cents. Part II. will be issued in a few days.

Published and for sale by HENRY W. BUGBEE, Middlesex Village.

Middlesex Village, Aug. 21, 1858. 2m

RED DEVIL COCKROACH EXTERMINATOR

THE RED DEVIL EXTERMINATOR is acknowledged to be the cheapest and most efficient Exterminator of Red and Black Cockroaches, Ants, Bed Bugs, Flies, &c., ever offered to the public. Sold in large boxes for 25 and 50 cents. Prepared only and sold by E. RICHARDS, Apothecary, Lowell.

FROM THE MANUFACTORIES.

THE subscriber has just received from Dexter and Boston, 1000 Boxes Tin and CAP PAPER, white and blue, ruled and plain, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Also, Tin Foil, Envelope Paper, Cap and Letter Paper, for sale by the Manufacturer's Agent, 122 Market st., Lowell. Also, constantly on hand, 50 reams of the best Printing Paper, for sale at the lowest prices. Also, Printing, Tissue, Tracing, Tinting, Copy, Lap, Oil, Drawing and Wrapping Paper, for sale by the manufacturer's agent, 122 Market st., Lowell.

JAMES H. WALKER.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1858. sep2 eod3m

ONE ——— and good Letter PRESS, for sale by PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWER. sep2

BUG POISON!

FOR the immediate destruction of Bed Bugs and Roaches, use Dr. MORSE'S Bug Poison. For sale by the trade by C. CATE & CO., Apothecaries, Boston, and by druggists generally.

Sept. 1. sep2 eod3m

VERBENA WATER.—A new and delightful perfume for the handkerchief, prepared and for sale by C. CATE & CO., Apothecaries, Boston, and by druggists and Jobbers generally.

sep2 eod3m

GEATS' COTTON HOSIERY.

BEATERS, Boys, and Girls, will find it to their advantage to buy their Hosiery at the cheap store of

sep2 STEVENS'S Building.

HOSTER'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS, for Debility, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, Liver Complaint, &c. For sale by all druggists and dealers in medicines.

sep2 eod3m

NEW SPRING GOODS.

RECEIVED and ready for sale at No. 2, Beehive Block, Central st., a full assortment of Ladies' Dress Goods, Shawls, Hosiery, Gloves, &c.

No. 2 Central Block, Central st.

sep2

TOOTHACHE.—Dr. SPOONER'S CELEBRATED ASBESTUS VETO ON TOOTHACHE is safe to use, and arrests the pain in a few minutes. It is purely vegetable, and harmless to the taste, and can be used by the most delicate female or child. Price 25 cents per bottle. For sale by druggists generally, and by the proprietor, No. 3 Tremont Row, Boston.

sep2 eod3m

TOOTH POWDER.

WE have just received a fresh supply of the CELEBRATED LOZENGES, and Dentifrice, which we have used at the head of all other preparations for the Teeth. Whitening and Preserving the Teeth. For Ladies' use they are unrivalled. For sale by sep2 HARRIS & CO., Druggists, Merrimack Square.

NEW SMOKED SALMON.—This day received and for sale by

sep2 DAVIS & PARKER, Fish Building, Shattuck st.

SPOONS.—Wanzer's Pure Silver Tea, Table, Dessert and Soup Spoons, Forks, Ladles, Butter Knives, &c., for sale by JOSEPH BAYDEN.

sep2

POINTS HOSIERIES.—Ladies' and Gents' Hosiery, Gloves, Suspenders, &c., at Central st.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

WANTED.—Ladies and Gents to call at 2 Central st. for Hosiery, Gloves, Suspenders, &c.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

LACE SHAWLS.—Ladies' Lace Shawls, Scarfs, Mantillas, Veils, &c., at Central st.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

FANCY GOODS.—Ladies' Fancy Goods, Combs, Brushes, Perfumery, &c., at Central st.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

GENTS' SPRING GLOVES.

WE have just received from the direct importation, a large and complete assortment of Gloves suitable for Gents' wear, which we offer at the lowest prices. Call and examine.

sep2 JOSEPH BAYDEN.

THE CAUSEWAY JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

Corner of Central and Middle Streets,

Lowell.

This Office being furnished with stable and reliable machinery, with

FAST PRESSES,

adapted to every description of work, from the smallest Poster down to the general Posting Card—together with a large supply of well-chosen and fashionable plain and fancy

JOB TYPE,

the proprietor believes that his facilities for executing every description of

PRINTING

are such as to enable him to answer all orders to the satisfaction of those who may favor him with their patronage.

The proprietor is prepared to execute promptly and in a workmanlike manner,

LOW PRICES

as can be offered any where.

HANDBILLS AND MEDIUM POSTERS,

SHOP BILLS, PROG'AMMES,

CAT LOGUES,

BILL HEADS, BLANKS,

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

BUSINESS VISITING CARDS, CHECKS

PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, or Bronze of every shade, on white or fancy colored papers.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of plain, post-marker and colored, white and colored CARDS, shaped in every description of work—in packs and in boxes to suit to order. oct25tf

Dr. MORSE'S

INVIGORATING

CORDIAL.

A PHENOMENON IN MEDICINE.

PROFESSOR MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR, OR

The Eighth Wonder of the Botanic World.

THIS remarkable discovery is the result of many years' study and experiment by the most eminent Physician and Scientific Botanist of the age, and is the only true and reliable remedy for the cure of Nervous Diseases, and all diseases arising from a disordered state of the Nervous System. It is the only remedy ever discovered that will cure the Nervous Headache in from 5 to 20 minutes. It is the only remedy that will cure Nervous Debility, Nervous Prostration, Nervous Weakness, Nervous Irritability, Nervous Trembling, Nervous Sleeplessness, Nervous Dyspepsia, Nervous Consumption, Nervous Fits, Nervous Neuralgia, Nervous Rheumatism, Nervous Diseases of the Kidneys, Nervous Diseases of the Bladder, Nervous Diseases of the Heart, Nervous Diseases of the Liver, Nervous Diseases of the Stomach, Nervous Diseases of the Bowels, Nervous Diseases of the Skin, Nervous Diseases of the Blood, Nervous Diseases of the Lungs, Nervous Diseases of the Throat, Nervous Diseases of the Head, Nervous Diseases of the Face, Nervous Diseases of the Eyes, Nervous Diseases of the Ears, Nervous Diseases of the Nose, Nervous Diseases of the Mouth, Nervous Diseases of the Teeth, Nervous Diseases of the Gums, Nervous Diseases of the Tongue, Nervous Diseases of the Throat, Nervous Diseases of the Lungs, Nervous Diseases of the Heart, Nervous Diseases of the Liver, Nervous Diseases of the Stomach, Nervous Diseases of the Bowels, Nervous Diseases of the Skin, Nervous Diseases of the Blood, Nervous Diseases of the Kidneys, Nervous Diseases of the Bladder of reformation in my shoulder, which lasted me a week. Swearing down to close bonds and reckless runs are a vertigo, so that I was obliged to content myself with a general acquaintance of the garden; but it is no sly, changed my flagellation to one of my freshmen did not hurt property, and then got on to my horse and rode to the city. But about one pair of the second year say I was no reason —and that is in the purchase of seed and garden implements. Not a day passed that I did not spend hours with my parents stuffed with choice seeds, roots, &c., and the variety of my garden utensils was unequaled. There was not a pruning hook of any pattern, not a hoe, rake, or spade, great or small, that I did not have after I had left Dover seeds and bulbs were also forthcoming in liberal proportions. In fact, I had opened an account at a thriving seed store, and as soon as directions came down on a large scale, it is not always convenient to hand out the change for every little matter, and buying things on account is so neat and expensive a mode of acquisition as paying bills with one's nose.

"You know we must have a cow," said my wife, the morning of our second week. Our friend the gardener, who had worked with us at the rate of two dollars a day for two weeks, was at hand in a moment in our emergency.

We wanted to buy a cow and he had one to sell—a wonderful cow of a red English breed He would not sell her for any money, except to oblige particular friends; but as we had become particular friends, we should have her forty dollars. How much we were obliged to him! The forty dollars were speedily forthcoming, and on was the cow.

"What makes her shake her head in that way?" said my wife, apprehensively, as she observed the interesting beast make sundry demonstrations with her horns. "I hope she's gentle."

The gardener fiercely demonstrated that the animal was a pattern of all the sober graces, and that this head-shaking was merely a little nervous affection, or malady, caused by bereavement of a new position. We had forth to believe almost anything at this time, and therefore we led the beast yard to the house in as much satisfied with our purchase as Job with his three thousand camels and five hundred yoke of oxen. Her goodness seems indeed to be as great as her energy, out of a delicate regard to her feelings as a stranger, and as we knew not as yet the forty dollars' worth of excellence in the very quality of the milk.

But alas! the next morning our Irish girl came in with a most calm face. "And is it nothing that baste you'd have me be after?" she said; "sure, and she won't let me come near her."

"I, Nonsense, Biddy!" said I, "you frightened her perhaps; she's not used to you yet. Just wait the pail on my arm, I called forth. The cow not undone me at once, and the cow quietly was given me with a very expressive flourish of her horns.

"That won't do," said I, and I stepped—The last violently was evident—in the act of resuming my personal sprouchers. I put a cringe, and putting on a bold face marched towards her, while Biddy followed me with considerable dread. But the cow showed now the necessity of trespassing, for she raised a decisive expression, and Biddy sat down in milk. "Where?" said I, with the short hair head, I should say sick, and the milking operation proceeded with interest, and certainty and success.

"Where?" said I, with dignity, when the pitching pail was full to the brim. "Tim will do, Biddy," and I plunged my face into the cow nation's heel on the side of the pail, and a few like rocket into the air, while the milky food show-ered plentifully over me, it new breakfast was ready for me, and a bath for the first time that morning. "Where?" said I, as soon as I could get my breath from the extraordinary shower bath, "Where is the?" By wide cause running towards the sea—yard, at which the milk streamed forth from my hair, filling my eyes, and dropping from the tip of my nose; and Biddy performed a recitative lamentation over me in Gaelonic measure, like the chorus in a Greek tragedy. Such was our first morning experience; but we had announced our intention with some considerable flourish of trumpets among our neighbors, and we could not be expected to bush the matter up as much as possible.

"There very superior cows are not to be cross," said I; "we must bear with it as we do with the coloroscope of genius; besides, when she gets accustomed to us, it will be better.

Medem was therefore installed into her present house, and my wife commenced with previous the unchanged effects of her appearance, reclining on the green slope of the pasture, or standing quite close by me, and gazing fondly, or ruminating under the deep shadows of the willow. This is in fact, a handsome cow, which may account, in part, for some of her vices; and this consideration inspired me with some degree of indulgence towards her foibles.

PARTIES IN MEXICO. The Mexican correspondent of the New York Herald portrays the state of the political parties of our sister republic as follows; of course we cannot vouch for his statements are colored by his imagination:

There are several parties at this moment, each struggling to the Seventh heaven. First comes the Santa Anna party, consisting of that individual and a few others, who are decidedly for their own interest, without caring a sober what form or shape. Next comes the moderate, who hold to the old—no of Spain, and with a foreign prince to some one, no one cares, to make them happy and noble. Next comes the party of the Spanish party, consisting of those who form the democrats and tatterdemalions of the North, especially those in the vicinity of the last of all, the annexationists, who want General Pierce to take them into his lofty keeping, and to distribute a few American dollars among them.—Tell this to the marines although very numerous, do not prevaleen their principles from the brave type, for a crew of devils has gone forth, by military law, against him who advocates this pernicious political heresy. To avoid the current, the question has been changed, and now the discussions of the annexation scheme is the topic of the party. Those unfortunate individuals are in a state of the wrath and hard words of all the other sects of politicians, for many is shown to them, so pity bestowed upon them, in the hasty columns of the government papers. From the sight of American coin is fortified them by a decree banishing it from circulation, but it might remind them of there being so many more of the same sort where it came from, to be had for the asking.

While Santa Anna retains his malevolence against the Americans, and while the power shown that humble and unobtrusive action of the North, there is no chance to be concluded that very soon some American constable will bang his head in the capital, and cause New York Alderman will be proposing a contract to the City Council to be paid by the Mexican government on the grand plans.

On the whole, the opinion of the mass of the people cannot be mistaken. They are republican; they are democratic; they hate kings and monarchies, and especially Spaniards. They would like to have their own laws and institutions, and would be willing to see them introduced at once. But the wealthy persons of Spanish descent have the government and the power in their control, and strive to have it believed that Americans are enemies of Mexico, and wish to annex it.

BALSAM. The sum of $9000 has been contributed in Cincinnati for the relief of the sufferers at New Orleans, and the subscription is expected to reach $10,000.

Louisville, Aug. 22. The Relief Committee here have sent on, so far, $2000 to the Howard Association at New Orleans, by which means the yellow fever will be able to raise from $2000 to $5000 more.

Reform and Progress.—By the new reformed Constitution of Louisiana, the people of Massachusetts for their approval in November, 1852, a bill of rights, the amendments of the State will choose one half of the representatives and the whole of the Senate every year.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Wednesday, August 24, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Whig State Committee, a WHIG STATE CONVENTION will be held at FANEUIL HALL, in BOSTON DAY-TIME next Sept. 7th, for the purpose of nomination of State Officers.

The Whigs of the several Congressional districts are recommended to choose their delegates to attend the Convention in such a way as they may think best to secure a full representation of the Whig party.

JOSIAH HAGERTY, Secretary.

August 16, 1853.

The True and False Progress Policy.

There is a true Conservatism, and there is a false Conservatism. There is a true Progress, and there is a false Progress. It is of the utmost importance to our national well-being that these distinctions be thoroughly understood; and we design, therefore, to make them the theme of a brief minimum of remark.

Some time since, we had occasion to discourse on a somewhat Conservative tone, and to refer with gratulation to the elements of Conservative power which are so plentiful among us—namely, Education, Wealth, Law, Religion, the spirit of National Neutrality, &c. More recently, we had occasion to defend the spirit of Progress, to spatchpiake "Young America," to advocate the appointment of competent young men to offices in the place of old mediocre, wherever the latter have long enough held the patronage of the State then the former.

It so happened that a neighboring editor, with his usual imbecility of intellect, either ignorantly misunderstood, or else willfully misconstrued, our sentiments, and hastened to charge us with tergiversation, prerogistation and inconsistency, as it frequently the case when self-conceit, ignorance, or malice, undertakes the perceptive faculties obtuse. The charge of inconsistency we can well bear; nor are we at all disturbed by the tri-weekly paper-shots from the pop-gun battery of the Robinsonic Arsenal. But to prevent misconception, we propose to discuss, at brief and feeble length, the general subject of Conservatism and Progress.

Here is, we have said, a true Conservatism. But this is not that which clings to dogmas, to institutions, to corruptions, or even to errors, it may be, because they are old. It is not that which would check the necessary and legitimate progress and expansion of the country, or dam back the gushing energies of a full-blooded people just sprung into life and developing their destiny. But that is the true Conservatism which would adhere with tenacity to existing things until better things can be devised and effected for adoption—which looks not to the city for its own sake, and seeks nothing new because it is new—which is the conservatism, in a regular regiment? Where else is it necessary for an American to be yea-saying to all the times, and touching his hat like cotton? Where else has he to look up all the time to superiors who will neither eat with him, walk with him, talk with him, nor be of same flesh, blood, bone, and spirit with him? Where else is he made sensible that possession is out of the question, and that do as he may he cannot rise from the ranks? Where else can he find such a true republican protection against the tyranny of those things which support equality, without which liberty is not real and democracy a sham?

THE SPRINGFIELD REPUBLICAN. "Anglican, of the New York Herald, having invented, and the Lowell American and other papers eloped, a story, that the Springfield Republican and the Pittsfield Sun dismissed from the opinions of their editors who were pro-slavery, and the flag of the Whig Editors in Boston, the former paper sanctions the lie at once, and says, that there was no dismissal, no change, no editor was in private communication, to the gubernatorial question. The Pittsfield Sun was not so, pronounced there, and therefore could not have dismissed. And the only gentleman present authorized to speak for the Springfield Republican, wrote and supported the only declaration which the meeting adopted—and this is all unanimously—with reference to the issues of the approaching election, including that of the new constitution."

If our humble testimony can strengthen the above declaration of our gallant neighbor of Springfield, having ourselves attended the meeting in question, we will say, that it is perfectly correct in the minutest particular. 'Anglicus,' of the Herald, like Fits Robinson of the American, the same' ones, but cannot always depend upon them.

CITY MATTERS.

YOUNG LADIES' SCHOOL

The first term of Miss RUTHEY School in Nesmith's Building, corner of John and Merrimack sts, will begin on the first MONDAY of September, to continue 11 weeks. English branches, with French Drawing, $6.00; Languages $8.00 extra. 2aug29tsep7

IMPORTANT REFORM CASE. A case is now in hearing at the Court House in this city, before P. O. Richmond, Esq., of this city, and the Hartford Insurance Companies—in the matter of a considerable loss sustained by Richmond by the burning of mill and machinery some two or three years since. The Referees are Judge Parker, of Cambridge, Judge Perley, of Concord, N. H., and Ebenezer Barker, Esq., of Charlestown.

It is supposed that a neighborhood strife, with his usual imbecility of intellect, either ignorantly misunderstood, or else willfully mis-construed, our sentiments, and hastened to charge us with tergiversation, prerogistation and inconsistency, as it frequently the case when self-conceit, ignorance, or malice, undertakes the perceptive faculties obtuse. The charge of inconsistency we can well bear; nor are we at all disturbed by the tri-weekly paper-shots from the pop-gun battery of the Robinsonic Arsenal. But to prevent misconception, we propose to discuss, at brief and feeble length, the general subject of Conservatism and Progress.

DANCING AND WALTZING. Mr V. Ganson will commence the 3rd term of his school of instruction, at Lawrence Hall, Ladies, Misses and Masters, at Mechanics' Hall, Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 7. See advertisement.

See advertisement of Bosom Pin found.

One Week Later from Europe.—Highly Important News.

The Royal Mail steamship Arabia arrived at Halifax on Wednesday morning, and forty minutes past, passed a large steamer ashore on Nantucket Shoals, name unknown.

She has 122 passengers.

The Europa and the Glasgow have been passed. The Franklin reported all safe.

The Great Britain sailed on the 10th inst. for Melbourne. Brts were taken the day before. Some of the fees will outsail her, did that the Great Britain will not make the passage yet under sixty days.

The U. S. Minister Gross who was made an LL. D., by the University of Vermont, and not Baron Gross, as reported, has returned. He never got a degree. But speaking of degrees, we have one for Mr. Hamsley, the historian, has been made an LL. D. by the "Oneonta."

ORGANIZATION OF A FREE FILIBUSTER PARTY. The New York Herald says: "An organization has been effected in this city, and in other parts of the country, with the avowed object of attempting a fresh invasion of the island of Cuba. We have reason to believe that it is so far complete that four thousand men have actually been enrolled, and that a descent on the island is among the leaders. A leader has been chosen, and we learn the public will be inclined to compliment the—filibusters—by calling them the brave men of Cuba."

The Herald, Post boldly asserts that the Principalities will be evacuated during the first week in September, and soon after, the fleets of England and France will leave the Turkish waters.

The funds have materially improved, but the Bourse remains inactive.

A great naval review had taken place at Spithead, before Her Majesty Queen Victoria.

Nothing of general importance has been received from France. The wheat crops were turning out well, and are reported to be only a two-thirds average yield.

The King of Holland's affair is drawing to a satisfactory conclusion.

The Russians have again defeated the Russians, having taken on the night of the 24 the strongly fortified fortress of Ibrail Kali, and dismantled the same with a gain of 220 pieces of artillery.

The Shah of Persia has openly declared that viewing as he does the question between Russia and Turkey as a decidedly just one, on the part of the last mentioned power, he will lend his aid to the cause of a war.

The Russian Minister at Teheran, demanded his passports.

The Monumental City was totally wrecked by the fire of May, while no her property from Port Philip to Sydney, and 16 persons perished.

The ship Ariel, with the Boston mail on board, arrived at Quarantine on Monday morning—her arrival was announced.

The King of Ava's war was more peculiarly different towards the British.

Trade is dull in India.

The Chinese Imperialists were preparing to attack Amoy. The insurgents have probably the Imperial force is meant) was within four miles of the city.

A private telegraph says they (the insurgents) had beaten back the Imperial fleet from before Nankin, and had concluded not to attack Canton until September.

The State of Maine, after charging the Portland Argus, the Montreal Sun, the New York Express, and the Boston Advertiser, with editorial discrepancy, accuses us of making use of its article on cosmic telegraphs without credit. We have no idea that the editor of The State of Maine was versed in electro-magnetic science; we were aware that the substance of the article alluded to, was originally from the celebrated engineer, Robert Stephenson, Esq., and so we gave the fullest credit to Mr Stephenson. We are glad to find it necessary to credit the State of Maine. We shall be ready, however, to give that paper its full due, though we do not always get it. Some of our leaders, of a less frequent piracy by other papers, we seldom complain.

INTERESTING TO HYDROPATHISTS. We are glad to learn that the Colonial Church Regulation Bill has at last passed the British House of Representatives, and a decisive point has been reached in the work of Church Liberation.—Liverpool Mail.

According to this bill the British Colonial Churches will be governed for the future in a manner somewhat similar to American Protestant Episcopal Churches. At first sight it will appear to many of the British clergy should throw up a bill providing for the introduction of Roman Catholic bishops into the government of the Colonial churches, and that the British Parliament should pass that law, when in England the law of mortmain is recognized. The following is the history of the bill in question: "It was prepared by the Bishops of the Church of England, at the earnest request of the Colonial Bishops. It was introduced and advocated by the Archbishop of Canterbury, who, strange to say, is an unyielding obstacle in the way of any similar action at home. It met little or no opposition, however, before Her Majesty Queen Victoria. Nothing of general importance has been received from France. The wheat crops were turning out well, and are reported to be only a two-thirds average yield.

The King of Holland's affair is drawing to a satisfactory conclusion.

The Russians have again defeated the Russians, having taken on the night of the 24 the strongly fortified fortress of Ibrail Kali, and dismantled the same with a gain of 220 pieces of artillery.

The Shah of Persia has openly declared that viewing as he does the question between Russia and Turkey as a decidedly just one, on the part of the last mentioned power, he will lend his aid to the cause of a war.

The Russian Minister at Teheran, demanded his passports.

The Monumental City was totally wrecked by the fire of May, while no her property from Port Philip to Sydney, and 16 persons perished.

The ship Ariel, with the Boston mail on board, arrived at Quarantine on Monday morning—her arrival was announced.

The King of Ava's war was more peculiarly different towards the British.

Trade is dull in India.

The Chinese Imperialists were preparing to attack Amoy. The insurgents have probably the Imperial force is meant) was within four miles of the city.

A private telegraph says they (the insurgents) had beaten back the Imperial fleet from before Nankin, and had concluded not to attack Canton until September.

The State of Maine, after charging the Portland Argus, the Montreal Sun, the New York Express, and the Boston Advertiser, with editorial discrepancy, accuses us of making use of its article on cosmic telegraphs without credit. We have no idea that the editor of The State of Maine was versed in electro-magnetic science; we were aware that the substance of the article alluded to, was originally from the celebrated engineer, Robert Stephenson, Esq., and so we gave the fullest credit to Mr Stephenson. We are glad to find it necessary to credit the State of Maine. We shall be ready, however, to give that paper its full due, though we do not always get it. Some of our leaders, of a less frequent piracy by other papers, we seldom complain.

INTERESTING TO HYDROPATHISTS. We are glad to learn that the Colonial Church Regulation Bill has at last passed the British House of Representatives, and a decisive point has been reached in the work of Church Liberation.—Liverpool Mail.

According to this bill the British Colonial Churches will be governed for the future in a manner somewhat similar to American Protestant Episcopal Churches. At first sight it will appear to many of the British clergy should throw up a bill providing for the introduction of Roman Catholic bishops into the government of the Colonial churches, and that the British Parliament should pass that law, when in England the law of mortmain is recognized. The following is the history of the bill in question: "It was prepared by the Bishops of the Church of England, at the earnest request of the Colonial Bishops. It was introduced and advocated by the Archbishop of Canterbury, who, strange to say, is an unyielding obstacle in the way of any similar action at home. It met little or no opposition, however, before Her Majesty Queen Victoria through the House of Lords, and no important amendment was made in it. The great principles embodied in the bill are, First—The necessity of Synodal action in the Church for accomplishing the work she is bound to do; Second—The right of the Church to

SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

MISS N. F. MCCOY will commence a School for Young Ladies, at her residence, 84 RICHARD HALL, corner of John and Merrimack sts, on MONDAY, Sept. 5th. Miss M. is a graduate of Mount Holyoke Seminary, and has had a long experience in the business of teaching. Terms moderate. Apply as above. 1aug29tsep5

NOTICE.

I. GARDNER,

WOULD inform his friends and the public that he has purchased the stock in trade of the late firm of WHITE & GARDNER, and will continue the business at the old stand, No. 3 Merrimack Square.

WHITE VARNISH,

For Pianos, Furniture, Carriages, or any other White Work.

Also, Japanned Leather Cloth,

A beautiful Article, with a fine lustre, for Wood, Iron or Tin Work.

IRON VARNISH,

Approved by Iron Work Manufacturers, &c.

RISC PAINT,

A beautiful article for painting Outside Painting, 50 Inks, SPIRITS TURPENTINE, Just received and for sale by I. GARDNER, No. 10 Market st. Lowell, Aug. 17, 1853. 3m

NEW FIRM.

HENEWAY & BURNAP,

HAVING purchased the Stock and Goods of David Merrill, would respectfully announce to the public that they intend to keep a full assortment of

CHOICE FAMILY GROCERIES,

And would solicit a continuance of the patronage of the old customers of the store, and the public generally. Store No. 3 Merrimack Square. Lowell, Aug. 16, 1853. 1aug16tf

NEW SONGS.

SWEET LILY MAY, ... H Avery
Oh! Sweet Lily May, ... Chas Loring
Lily Dale, ... Wm Hall
Lily Dale Quickstep, ... I D Wheeler
Lily Dale Polka, ... J Lincoln
The Child's Prayer, ... D Lyon
Prayer of the Orphan, ... D Lyon
Happy Thoughts of Home, ... D Lyon
Home, Sweet Home, ... D Lyon
Old Folks at Home, ... D Lyon
Old Folks Quadrilles, ... D Lyon
Old Folks Polka, ... D Lyon
Old Folks Waltz, ... D Lyon
Old Folks Schottische, ... D Lyon
Old Folks Polka Redowa, ... D Lyon
Old Folks Quickstep, ... D Lyon
Old Folks Galop, ... D Lyon
Old Folks Mazurka, ... D Lyon
Old Folks Varsovienne, ... D Lyon
Old Folks Gallopade, ... D Lyon
Old Folks Cotillion, ... D Lyon
Old Folks Lancers

HOPE MARY

...ALEMENT OVERS... RIES HAIR AS WE... ...ORATIVE. It... ...ing Beautifying the Hair. The... ...ation has now well known to re... ...ORATIVE. It is unlike all other...

...To cool the hair beautifully.
...To prevent the hair falling off.
...To promote the growth of the hair.
...To keep it in curl.
...To restore it to a healthy beautiful appearance.
...To prevent it turning grey.
...To clear the scurf from the skin.
...To keep the head cool.
...To be used on the heads of Children with the most wonderful success.

...ts needs confidence to respond to it, that is to effect the ...ich it is known to do. Also in many cases ...ness, it will restore the hair, in half, to its ...ness, which can be seen by applying it to a ...ir will then be restored with perfect success.

...PRE. LATE C. BARRY'S TRICOPHE... ...HAIR INVIGORATOR.

...ly compounded according to the rules of every ...ntleman who has used it for many years, and ...ation of the public, and restored those persons ...ldness to the head, he now, as tendery leaves ...ld, and restore those persons who are now ...ldness to the head, he now, as tendery leaves ...ld, and restore those persons who are now ...ness, to health, and restore those persons who ...ir to its original color, and those who are ...ir to its original color, and those who are ...ir to its original color, and those who are said regarding the division of Roman spoils among their victorious generals. A secret treaty entered into between Napoleon and Alexander at Tilsit, July 7th, 1807, is now proved that Russia should unite peaceably to Turkey in Europe, and receive her compensation in Asia, as far as she saw fit. It was also made part of the same arrangement that Russia should occupy Egypt, in obtaining possession of Egypt, the Island of Malta, and the fortress of Gibraltar; and all other treaties except French, Russian, Spanish and Italian, were to be excluded from the Mediterranean. It is quite probable that the existence of dangerous documents, on the part of Napoleon, to comply with the wishes of the English Imperial brother, dissolved their mutual agreement and hastened the downfall of the French Emperor, caused by those fine pictures of Rome, in conjunction with that of Russia.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Thursday, August 28, 1856.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with a call issued by the Whig State Committee, a WHIG STATE CONVENTION will be held at Music Hall, in Boston, on THURSDAY, the 18th DAY, at 10 o'clock A. M., to NOMINATE a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary, Treasurer, Auditor and Attorney General, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the Convention.

The Committee recommend that the Whig Electors in each Senatorial District choose as many Delegates as they are entitled to in the Legislature.

JOHN SARGENT, Secretary.

August 16, 1856.

Who Advertises on the Shortest System.

The Courier professes to be in favor of the shortest system, short, of course, as to honest ends, which we do it on as to obtain the desired effects. Without entering into the controversial question, it would have been necessary to have secured, two years in succession a majority of the Senate and two thirds of House of the Representatives to have a short system and without such majority of the people.

Those democrats, if any there were, who put on the people the district system, have nobly redeemed their pledges.

Of course, the Courier will zealously advocate the adoption of the new constitution.

The above jargonese remarks appeared on Tuesday morning last, in the Lowell Advertiser. Of their elaborate grammar we say nothing. We are aware it is an act of the greatest discourtesy to censure a man for any occasion; yet, since the above was not written by the editor proper of the Advertiser, and cannot without a direct insult be attributed to any one who can be entitled to seating, what the style and diction sufficiently indicate, that the article from which the above is taken was originally from the close quill of Father A. Hildreth, who was formerly Sheriff of this county, and we do aspersion without many misgivings—one day to the same sheriff again.

So you have begun in favor of the district system—are you, Mr Advertiser? Your's then has been rather a sudden conversion,—too sudden to have your change, fewer lines at no less days since! You were harping yourself hoarse in defence of the corporation system,—the White-and-Butler system; but now you have doubled on your own track, have mounted the hobby-horse of the district system, and ride it as the best measure is but a hobby-horse and a cane,) and have turned out a true blue, dyed-in-the-wool whig, democratic at that! Well, we shall see, we shall, in fact, of everything, save that, come what will, you are in the right market, ready to be bought, and determined not to be disheaved for!

But let no cant deceive you. Your yore of political life is as good as wound up. You are to be taken by the wind-pipe and choked to an ignominious death! You have been guilty too long and too hard. They will no longer be driven, like bleating sheep, before your incongruous wand; you will be used to subjugation by your qui hoic: in a word, no longer be under the yoke of anti-scourging rascals and famished knaves!

We shall enter into no discussion of principle with you as to principles you have none. But we tell you, in time, and before the time, that your best will not win; that the bargain of the "green room" will not be sanctioned, that Wilson will not be the next Governor, that Hallett will not be on the Supreme Bench, nor even on the Common Pleas Bench, that Butler cannot be President of the Senate, nor even obtain a seat in that body, and that the coalition dynasty will fall—together with its constitution it will fall—and great will be the fall of it!

Of course, the Courier will zealously advocate the adoption of the new constitution.

Two Weeks later from California!

The steamer Northern Light, from San Juan, arrived at New York on the evening of the 14th inst., with California dates of Aug. 1st, and $1,134,000 in specie.

She connected at San Juan with the steamer Carlos, which brought down $160,000 in specie.

The steamer Northstar, for Panama, also left San Francisco on the 1st inst., with $1,161,000 in gold.

The store-ship Warren was burnt in the San Francisco harbor 24th of July, together with her cargo, valued at $40,000. The store-ship Canonicus, also in the harbor, was in about great difficulty; both store-ships with their cargoes were owned by Comstock & Dibblee.

Ship Herbert which sailed from San Francisco for Calcutta, returned to that port and filled on the 25th of July, having the night previous been in collision with clipper ship Hesperus, bound to Shanghai.

The brig Pilgrim, from Santa Cruz for San Francisco, was driven ashore near Santa Barbara, 1st July, and went to pieces.

The steamer Golden Gate, from Panama, arrived on the 14th.

The ship Ariadne, at San Francisco from New York, on the morning of June 1st, in latitude 0, long. 93 W., came in contact with the ship Ocean Express, from Boston, with Calithumpian Band on board, and it is supposed the Reginald Heber, from Liverpool, and on the arrivals at San Francisco experienced very heavy weather off the Cape, and encountered many wrecks.

The crops in the Valley of the Great Salt Lake were backward, and high prices for provisions and vegetables ruled. Grasshoppers reported, report no sickness on the Plains.

Latest accounts from the Russian River settlement existed as Los Angeles, caused by the drunkenness of a band of negroes, who committed numerous murders and robberies. An armed force has been organized, and the perpetrated parties had been warned to leave within 24 days.

A very important decision has been rendered by the Supreme Court in California, to the effect that the mines of silver and gold within the limits of the State are the property, and the not to belong to the general government.—Judge Heydenfeldt and Wells assent to the opinion.

A severe battle came off recently between two rival tribes of Indians in Yuba county; over 300 fell on the occasion; 50 were killed outright, and three were killed and sixteen wounded; a large number chiefly were burnt with arrows.

Portland emigrants are arriving in California by the old Carson River and Johnson route. They have been treated smallpox, typhoid fever, and malignant scarlatina, excessively; all of a type of malignancy.

And similar declarations may be found in a from each and every one of the following named States, Illinois, Indiana, Maine, Magnolia, Wisconsin, Michigan, Lagoi, Evans, Gregory, John Mason, Gooc, and others.

We have heard at length read the declaration the journeymen carpenters have demanded not less than $3 per day, and the maximum of 8 hours. The employees of the eleventeen also struck for higher wages and fewer hours, but not less than work; $6 per day of nine working hours. The demands were accepted.

Disaster in California. Charles H. Baker, of Boston; Henry Cheever, of Salem.

In Oregon. Charles H. Howard, of New Hampshire.

Joaquin, the bandit, has been captured and beheaded, and all his gang either taken or dispersed.

The rust is injuring the wheat crop. Barley, oats and potatoes promise a heavy yield.

Accounts from the mining regions are more cheering.

Tax Rysults for Timothy. The epistle of, or, more properly speaking, for Timothy, published in to-day's Advertiser, and addressed to District Attorney Train, is one of the most extraordinary productions of the brazen intellect. In future ages, when some unborn D'Israeli shall again write the "Curiosities of Literature," doubtless this remarkable letter of Timothy's amazements will hold a justly conspicuous place. It is not our intention to examine it in detail at length; the game would not pay for the powder. But a single word will not be out of place. It would seem that some time ago Mr Train had to do with the composition of this singular effort. Our part is subsidiary and modest in the extreme; while another is egotistic, authoritative, dictatorial and overwise. It is replete with blunders; blunders of law, blunders of fact, blunders of grammar; but the greatest blunder of all is that it ever was permitted to be made public. The phrase, "the judicial bosom of Africa," is an apt illustration of the pomp (!) and elegance (!) of its diction; while the "claim" that he belongs to this "branch," and the threat as your District Attorney for not transmitting a sealed letter by private hands, (as he could not have done with a District violation of the provisions of the laws of the U. S.,) are sufficient illustrations of the shallowness of his legal abilities. The expression, "to turn a deaf ear to the just appeals of the oppressed against their oppressors," is quite a bold figure of speech in the mouth of so silly a miscreant. The attempt to cover up a gross venality and insincerity under the specious pretext of public spirit will pass for all it is worth. The allusion to "the Lowell Courier," and the attempt to to smear by classing us with "the party organ," are too palpably contemptible to receive any notice at our hands. It is not to be ignored, that the letter was published as committed itself to the Butler-Pearson combination. But we have already said more than we intended to have done on the filamenting spatic theorem. We have done.

The next Governor. Speculation is rife as to who is to be our next candidate for Governor. We have already expressed our preference for the brilliant and popular Choate; but shall cheerfully sustain any candidate a nation, given a prudent Convention of Massachusetts whigs may approve. However, among the many names which have been mentioned in connection to the succession, we cannot omit to notice that of the Hon. Robert Warenter, of Worcester. Judge Washburn is imperfectly known as an orator; but his abilities as a sound and well-trained lawyer, and with the honors of domestic peace; his opponents would one one hand scramble wounds as a monkey to hide the universal woe. One seeks to gain an ascendancy among astounded with Mendi; the other to spread over what we have, the pleasant mantle of sweet culture and waving harvests. One delights in the clash of arms—the other in the gentle ring. One would have a heart to carry death and destruction over the sea; the other would have the ocean whitened only with sails engaged in peaceful trade, and messages of love. One would have a Paris war the other twenty-five years of peace.

There is in the character of Mr Warenter an assertion of insolency, which heralded the advent of a true son of the soil of Massachusetts. There is no blood upon it. It is not wet with tears. It is unstained with the crimson of sin in every hand. It is worshipped at every fireside. It stares from our silver dollars. It is upon our hearts, and though less obtrusive and glaring than the sword, is more powerful than it in the hope and decisions of the world.

This is the man for our country some twenty years ago, and immediately took the field each through the daily press, as a moral Tell, and attacked the timid, the gentle, the generous, and the forgiving. His impotence or courtesy was proof against his brutality. Ex-master of private life, no slaughter of families by a gentleman ever softened his ruffianism. He stood on dunghills and crowed defiance to his foes. Of course such conduct would not believe it. Who in New York, if he had not tried further South he would have been a friendly assassin in order to show his courage by himself-defence. Seven times in the public streets of that City was Emmett hammered, trampled, kicked in eyes, leg, and the lash well-laid on his shoulders, and yet he lived. Such was the manly chivalry and fair-play of hotels which he frequented. Such was the blustering spirit of the times. When he was out of a job, he would

GIFT ENTERPRISE.

Invitations to School Teachers. Printed Ballot Tickets and Assistants in the Grammar Schools will be gratified to learn, from the following Resolutions, passed by the School Committee, July 30 1855, that their Salaries have been liberally advanced. This is up more than justice.

Resolved, That the assistant teachers in the Grammar and Intermediate Schools, who are now or shall hereafter be elected, shall receive for their services as follows:

For 1st year's services,	$205
2d " "	210
3d " "	220

Resolved, That the teachers of the Primary Schools, who are now, or shall hereafter be elected, shall receive for their services as follows:

For 1st year's services,	$215
2d " "	260
3d " "	265

Resolved, That the store-ship Release, from San Francisco for Colombia, returned to that port on the 25th of July, having the night previous been in collision with clipper ship Hesperus, bound to Shanghai.

The brig Pilgrim, from Santa Cruz for San Francisco, was driven ashore near Santa Barbara, 1st July, and went to pieces.

The steamer Golden Gate, from Panama, arrived on the 14th.

The ship Ariadne, at San Francisco from New York, on the morning of June 1st, in latitude 0, long. 93 W., came in contact with the ship Ocean Express, from Boston, with Calithumpian Band on board, and it is supposed the Reginald Heber, from Liverpool, and on the arrivals at San Francisco experienced very heavy weather off the Cape, and encountered many wrecks.

The crops in the Valley of the Great Salt Lake were backward, and high prices for provisions and vegetables ruled. Grasshoppers reported, report no sickness on the Plains.

Latest accounts from the Russian River settlement existed as Los Angeles, caused by the drunkenness of a band of negroes, who committed numerous murders and robberies. An armed force has been organized, and the perpetrated parties had been warned to leave within 24 days.

A very important decision has been rendered by the Supreme Court in California, to the effect that the mines of silver and gold within the limits of the State are the property, and the not to belong to the general government.—Judge Heydenfeldt and Wells assent to the opinion.

A severe battle came off recently between two rival tribes of Indians in Yuba county; over 300 fell on the occasion; 50 were killed outright, and three were killed and sixteen wounded; a large number chiefly were burnt with arrows.

Portland emigrants are arriving in California by the old Carson River and Johnson route. They have been treated smallpox, typhoid fever, and malignant scarlatina, excessively; all of a type of malignancy.

And similar declarations may be found in a from each and every one of the following named States, Illinois, Indiana, Maine, Magnolia, Wisconsin, Michigan, Lagoi, Evans, Gregory, John Mason, Gooc, and others.

We have heard at length read the declaration the journeymen carpenters have demanded not less than $3 per day, and the maximum of 8 hours. The employees of the eleventeen also struck for higher wages and fewer hours, but not less than work; $6 per day of nine working hours. The demands were accepted.

Disaster in California. Charles H. Baker, of Boston; Henry Cheever, of Salem.

In Oregon. Charles H. Howard, of New Hampshire.

Joaquin, the bandit, has been captured and beheaded, and all his gang either taken or dispersed.

The rust is injuring the wheat crop. Barley, oats and potatoes promise a heavy yield.

Accounts from the mining regions are more cheering.

The New Hotel Curse.

Ma Editor: The interest which the public are beginning to manifest in "The New Method of Curing Consumption, without drugs," and the fact that efforts are made in different places to suppress it, by subscribing curses, under the pretence of curing by artificial "—no, I should say a few words in order to put this matter fairly before the public. The loss of Curses disease without any drugs at all, we first assert, is fully proved by my works on "Health Nature," "Health," and "Psychology," published in March, Boston. And all this without any cure. But since this announcement, various attempts have been made to substitute "organic," and artificial "nutritive fluids" as called, in the form of drugs, and all this under the false auspices of the term of "Cures by Starvation." Whereas, the true Theory of Nutrition rejects all drugs, as the general rule, and all substitutes of nutrition, whether called "nutritive fluids," or "organic food."

For the past thirty years I have cured all forms of curable disease, without medicine, and physicians in every part of the country, recommend my system to their patients.

And here let me say, if it is not desirable to do something should be done to lessen the evil. Every small and insignificant fire, which is carrying its tens of thousands into an untimely grave every year. Is it not time that we, in the age of Progression. And it is not also, the age of drugs, the age of Parlor Nurses? The age of fortunes made in the sale of the vilest compounds ever offered to mortals?—such as "a sure from a dead man's skull," "infernal liquation" "the waters from horse tags," "the genital organs," "the waters from horse tags," "the genital organs," "the waters from horse tags," "the genital organs,"

NEW TAILORING SALOON

Over the Middle Door.

No. 5, MERRIMACK STREET,

Lowell, Feb. 1858. ly

M. SELTON'S TRICOFLUON, OR HAIR INVIGORATOR.

THIS new and valuable preparation is strongly recommended to the Ladies' notice. Prepared solely from vegetable substances, it effectually

DESTROYS ALL DISEASES OF THE SCALP, while at the same time it imparts a glossy lustre to the hair, and gives nourishment to the growth, preventing, cleansing, curling and beautifying the hair, all persons using it.

Falling off and turning Grey,

Imparting a beautiful color, preventing dandruff and all diseases of the skin. Price 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists, and wholesale and retail, by

C. F. SELTON,

DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Manchester, N. H.

Sept. 1, 1858. 3m

Wanted to Lowell, Mrs. BURBEE, 7 BAKER, 6 RIDDEL, 2, 4, 6 HALE & CO., M. H. COLBY and 2 STARKEY, from New York. 2

New Freight Arrangement

BETWEEN LOWELL AND NEW YORK.

THE Boston and Lowell Railroad Company have made arrangements between Lowell and New York, via Boston, Providence and Stonington, Norwich and New London Steamboat Lines, to run Freight Trains regularly every day from and after this date, and will be prepared to receive and forward Freight to and from New York and Lowell, with promptness and dispatch.

The through rates will be as low as by any other route.

For further information apply to W. H. JOURDAN, at the Freight House, Lowell, or to JOHN F. FURBER, No. 21 Broad Street, New York, or P. PARKER, No. 2 Long Wharf, Boston.

Lowell, Oct. 1, 1858. 3m

LINSEED OIL, PAINTS, &c.

1000 Gallons Linseed Oil (Raw)

" " (Boiled)

" " Linseed Oil Varnish

" " Furniture do

" " Rubber & Coach Japan

" " Copal Varnish

" " Turpentine

" " Lamp Oil

" " Benzine

" " Spirits Turpentine

" " Patent Dryer

" " Chrome Yellow

" " Chrome Green

" " Paris Green

" " Venetian Red

" " Yellow Ochre

" " Red Lead

" " Litharge

" " Whiting

" " Glue

" " Glass, 6x8 to 24x30

" " Putty

FACTORY LA'THES.

500 Hand Lathes, for Wood

" " Iron

" " Iron and Wood

" " Iron Planers

" " Drills

" " Screw Machines

" " Shafting

" " Pulleys

" " Hangers

" " Boxes

" " Gearing

" " Belting

" " Steam Packing

" " Gum Packing

" " Hemp Packing

" " Rubber Packing

" " Emery Wheels

" " Emery Cloth

" " Emery Paper

" " Files

" " Steel

" " Iron

" " Wire

" " Rivets

" " Nails

" " Spikes

" " Screws

" " Bolts

" " Nuts

" " Washers

" " Tacks

" " Brads

" " Sheet Iron

" " Sheet Zinc

" " Sheet Copper

" " Sheet Brass

" " Sheet Lead

" " Pipe

" " Tubing

" " Gas Fixtures

" " Lamps

" " Chimneys

" " Wicks

" " Burners

" " Globes

" " Shades

" " Lanterns

" " Tin Plate

" " Tin Ware

" " Stoves

" " Hollow Ware

" " Sad Irons

" " Coffee Mills

" " Spice Mills

" " Pepper Mills

" " Mustard Mills

" " Cutlery

" " Scissors

" " Shears

" " Razors

" " Razor Strops

" " Pocket Knives

" " Table Knives

" " Carving Knives

" " Forks

" " Spoons

" " Ladles

" " Skimmers

" " Tea Trays

" " Waiters

" " Tea Kettles

" " Coffee Pots

" " Tea Pots

" " Sugar Bowls

" " Cream Pots

" " Spittoons

" " Candlesticks

" " Candle Moulds

" " Candle Boxes

" " Lamp Wicking

" " Lamp Burners

" " Lamp Chimneys

" " Lamp Shades

" " Lamp Globes

" " Lamp Trimmings

" " Lamp Stands

" " Lamp Pendants

" " Lamp Brackets

" " Lamp Posts

" " Lamp Irons

" " Lamp Glasses

1792, Oliver Evans, a native of Philadelphia, first projected a steam engine meant to travel on a turnpike.

1819, The first vessel that crossed the Atlantic was the Savannah, in the month of June 1819, from Charleston to Liverpool. Henry Bell, of Scotland's engineer.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Friday, August 29, 1853.

FROM WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In response to the call of the Whig State Committee, a Convention of delegates from the several towns in the State met at Faneuil Hall in Boston, on Thursday, the 25th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M. Hon. JOHN DAVIS, Chairman of the Committee of State Whig Committee, called the Convention to order, and read the call under which they were assembled. On motion of Hon. Nathaniel P. Banks, Jr., Hon. Nathaniel Wright, of Lowell, was chosen President of the Convention, and the following gentlemen were chosen Vice Presidents, and Secretaries:

JOHN FAIRBENT, Secretary.

—A dear 19, 1853.

☞ FOR THE LATEST NEWS, SEE TELEGRAPHIC HEAD, IN ANOTHER COLUMN.

THE ANTI-SCHOOL ADVERTISER. The Advertiser has at last—at last—spoken out on the State School question. The editor, (not the editor proper,) says that "the sixth proposition in the new constitution was introduced for the purpose of fomenting a quarrel between the Catholics and Protestants of the State. What scientific and nothing else, was at the bottom of this movement." He further declares with considerable emphasis, that "as long as we have, the defeat of that proposition, and shall oppose it." The following is the proposition in question:

"All monies raised by taxation in the towns and cities for the support of public schools, and all monies which may be appropriated by the State for the support of common schools, shall be applied to and expended in no other schools than those which are conducted according to law, under the order and supervision of the authorities of the town or city in which the money is to be expended; and such moneys shall never be appropriated to any religious sect, for the maintenance, exclusively, of its own schools."

Here, then, we have the organ of the democratic party in this city committed openly against the whole common-school system—against those institutions to which we are indebted for all the good we see in life, and for all that we anticipate in the next—against education—against Protestantism—against every thing which has contributed to make us what we are—the model republic of the nineteenth century.

But hear his reasons:—"In the Catholic Bible societies, or in the Protestant Bible societies? Perhaps neither, possibly both."

Now it is difficult to perceive why the Advertiser should oppose common schools merely because, as it alleges, the Protestant Bible is common; since it owns as one thing to substitute the Douay version for King James', or to banish from the public schools all versions of the divine oracles together, though we confess a doubt as to the policy of such a step, we certainly borne in mind that the opposition which is now made to the common school cause, will hereafter not be in war against the details of the system of common-school education; as the entire motive is not, the desire to catch Irish Catholic votes; which, we remain that we will infallibly one day meets the other.

For reasons as all of equal force with the clause in question, not because we dislike the principles wherein it is based—for of that principle we do most unhesitatingly approve—but because we are satisfied with the constitution as it is, and do not, like the Advertiser, regard the Bible as a sectarian book, as a denominational manual, as the cutting system of State education. If, then, the Advertiser's reply to our interrogatory amount to anything, it amounts to precisely this, that that paper will advocate a "distribution of the State-school fund." In view of this fact, it may not be thought improbable that the enlightened democrats and freesoilers of Middlesex County,—what few such there are—like their brethren in Rhode Island, Ohio, New Jersey, Maryland and Wisconsin, regarding principles as above party, and education as superior to politics, will abandon the present corrupt standard, and unite with the whigs in defending the cause of education and the common schools!

Having answered our inquiry, the Advertiser proceeds to charge us with ignorance, because we classed F. A. Hildreth with his brother-in-law, B. F. Butler, while the former visit as a member of the Convention. Now we did not assert that Hildreth was a member of the Convention. We did, however, rank him with Butler in the captaincy of the Middlesex Clique. But we will now go even further than this. We not only deem Hildreth was not a member of that body—namely, a lobby-member, and that in his assess capacity of lobby-member he should not have been out for personality to use him, he has actually "pulled the wires" more effectually than he could have done, had he been formally present in the Assembly.

The Advertiser further asserts that the proposition under consideration had, we should say, found by Judge Parker, of Cambridge. Now Peter Powers, a coalition member of the late Convention, asserts to the contrary. And further claims that he introduced the bill, that it is his "founder," and that he will stait to it, whether it be a parent or not. He is also reported (on good authority,) to have said that he took great pleasure in signing a corporate his bill, and that when he selected Dan Foster as to do, Dan said that he (Peter) had better have appointed him (Dan) "at once as warrant to Peter Parley hatched Ishmael or the Ages now about as sane!!!!"

Now then, a few more "fellers" whom you are going to make President of the Senate next winter—is it, Mr. Advertiser? He is to be Senator from Middlesex County—is he? O Democracy, what art thou coming to!

☞ The lemon-coloured dog, Billy Robinson, with the usual swine, (!) informs us that he has been giving "aid and comfort" to the enemy. We were not aware of the fact before. The American does not see all it could do, with the aid of two editors and innumerable contributors and correspondents, to prove, what we are perfectly ready to admit, that our paper is conducted, in its high form of sections, lectures, reviews, epigrams, essays and critical articles, do not quite equal those of the Right Honorable Thomas Babington Macaulay. But with the single exception of "Jonathan Slick—an old back which was fixed very far from being fast—we deem nothing that exhibited evidences of superior talent in the whole range of literature published "A Very Remarkable Passenger," was an imitation and re-production of "Peter Simple." We do not say that Marryat's attacks, but, in our opinion, decidedly inferior in sustained energy, in compressed power, and in dramatic interest. We refer to the article of which it was a weak and shilly imitation. In conclusion, we assure the Advertiser that none have a more intense relish for, and more ability to acknowledge a "good hit," though at our own expense, than we ourselves. But we shall not reply to the Advertiser in detail until he answers more satisfactorily than he can now do.

☞ The weather is delightful.

ROBERT JOAQUIN. The Rangers who captured this villain were commanded by Captain Burbe. They met with the notorious murderer and party, consisting in all of his Calinilla Indians, at Panoche Pass, and after a desperate running fight Joaquin and one of his gang were killed, and two others prisoners, three managed to make their escape. The other robber is also killed, was known, says the Alta Californian, as "Three-fingered Jack," an old offender—a consummate villain with whose early exploits in California we are quite familiar. He is a native, we believe, of the country. He was the principal actor in a terrible tragedy which occurred in the spring of 1851, not far from Sonora. Two of Frenom's party were captured by a band of native Californians, and by the "Three-fingered Jack," and their persons horribly mutilated before death was dealt them. One was literally chopped alive! Jack (who derives his sobriquet from the mutilation of one of his hands, caused by its bursting of a gun) was taken under a carcel against the pommel of his saddle, while lassoing a bullock) was once a prisoner in the hands of the Vigilance Committee.

The Joaquin war has cost the State a good round sum of money, and has resulted in nothing more than is accomplished by a few days of a thief or robber by a constable or any other private citizen. The Joaquin affair reminds us much talk about in purely a fabulous character, whose exploits of villainy have been accumulating in enormity in the mind's eye, as we have, the dozen different places, and at the extremes of the State.

☞ Fitz Robinson accuses us in his concluding of remarks with having the rumor that Mr Macauley was a victim to opinion. Now Billy has always been remarkable for his knowledge of news. We blame him not. News is the only department of human knowledge with which he ever had the smallest acquaintance. But even this is mere blague. We obtained our knowledge of the rumor concerning Macauley, from the London correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune; though we had previously gumed as much from the private correspondence of an official of the British East India Company, in India. Opium eating is notoriously prevalent in India, and the British residency is no exception.

The item appears to have been copied from us into most of our exchanges. Hence its appearance in the Boston Post, with a charge on the Atlas in the N. Y. Post. If Billy had read the Tribune he would have saved himself this exhibition of his asinine zeal.

ECLECT. We have just received of the Boston publishers, James Monroe & Co., by the hands of James P. Walker, an American edition of Lowell, a neat and beautiful copy of Choate's pathetic and exquisite eulogy on the late Daniel Webster; a eulogy which is destined to live coevally with the great English language, as the embodiment of what the friends and colleagues of Mr Webster regarded as the most wonderful man. While we cannot read this pamphlet of 80 pages without a feeling of sadness that many of its estimates will not stand before the dread but impartial tribunal of posterity, we at the same time feel that it is a work of justice, in subdued passion, in sublimity of sentiment, and in the skill—price of 50 cents. Nothing this eulogy is without a rival in the annals of the forum. Men may compare it with the best of Demosthenes, of Cicero, of Chatham, and other great "stars" in oratory, if they will; in our opinion, all such comparisons are entirely foolish; for the great excellence of this splendid tribute are sought for in vain in all these. A speech by Fox, with his tears of pathos, is subdued passion, in sublimity of sentiment, and in

NEW TAILORING SALOON,

Over Seaborn's Jewelry Store,

Post Office Square.

Where you will find a full assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, which will be made to order in the best manner and latest style, at short notice and reasonable prices. Also, a full assortment of Ready Made Clothing, which will be sold at the lowest prices. Please call and examine for yourself.

Try us once, and you will surely call again.

D. D. COLBY, Jr.

Lowell, Dec. 1853. 1y47

SKELTON'S

TRICOFLUON,

OR

HAIR INVIGORATOR.

THIS new and valuable preparation, entirely free from all mineralous, is especially adapted to the Ladies' toilet, as a dressing for the hair, rendering it soft, pliable and glossy.

DOLLING OF THE DRESS.

Gives it the appearance, if required, of being new; and will add considerably to the beauty of the complexion, by giving it a healthy appearance, when it is used in the bath, and proceeding to

Polishing off and turning Grey,

Imparting to it a darker color, completely restoring it to its original color, and preventing it from falling off. This is no humbug, but a reality, as thousands can testify who have used it.

D. P. SKELTON.

DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST,

Hampshire, N. H.

Testified to before me, this 1st day of March, 1853, by D. P. SKELTON, Jr. WM. A. RICHARDSON, Justice of the Peace.

1y47 AGENTS.

New Freight Arrangement

BETWEEN LOWELL AND NEW YORK.

FOR FREIGHT ONLY.

THE Steamers LEXINGTON and NEPTUNE will run regularly between PROVIDENCE AND NEW YORK.

Bi-weekly—sailing from Providence on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, at 5 o'clock, and from Pier No. 1, North River, New York, on the days of their arrival at Providence.

The boats of this line will be FURNISHED on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, at 8 o'clock, with Passengers and Baggage. They are new and strongly built, and have every convenience for the safety and comfort of passengers.

Goods will be forwarded to and from Lowell by the Providence and Worcester Railroad, without change of cars.

Shippers will find this a desirable route for their freight, as the boats will leave Providence at the advantage of the tide, and will be towed to and from the city by powerful steamers.

Further information apply to W. H. JORDAN, 57 Broadway, Lowell; Holland Co., Worcester; A. RIPPIN, Agent, Pier No. 1, North st., Providence; C. WILLIAMS, 76 Broadway; [1] ostold

LINSEED OIL, PAINTS, &c.

100 BBLS. Linseed Oil, Pure and Boiled Oil

Common Brown Paints,

Lampblack,

Spanish Brown,

Yellow Ochre,

Chrome Green,

Chrome Yellow,

Prussian Blue,

Ultramarine Blue,

Patent Yellow No. 1, for Lamp Fluid,

Patent Yellow No. 2, for Lamp Fluid,

Chrome Green, for Lamp Fluid,

Ultramarine Blue, for Lamp Fluid,

Ultramarine Green, for Lamp Fluid,

Ultramarine Yellow, for Lamp Fluid,

Ultramarine Red, for Lamp Fluid,

Ultramarine Violet

Daily Journal of Courier.

Lowell, Saturday, Aug. 27, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

The Whig State Convention met in the Music Hall in Boston on Wednesday morning, and was called to order by Hon. Nathan Hale, Chairman of the State Committee, who nominated Hon. Robert C. Winthrop as President of the Convention, which was unanimously adopted by the Convention.

Mr. Winthrop then addressed the Convention as follows:

A RARE OPPORTUNITY OF VOTE.

This instrument proposes the election of members to forty-eight districts, by a plurality of votes: that each of the eight County districts shall be composed of five senatorial districts, and a plurality of votes shall elect: that the House of Representatives shall consist of 457 members, and of 411 members on the year when the valuation is to be fixed: that the Secretary of State, Treasurer, Auditor, and Attorney General shall be chosen by the people: that a plurality of votes shall be sufficient to elect all county and district officers, but a majority for all officers requiring for their election votes throughout the State: that judges of Probate Courts shall be appointed for six years: but Judges of Probate, Registers of Probate and Wards, Sheriffs, District Attorneys, and Trial Justices, shall be chosen by the people every two years: that all males over 21 years of age, not paupers and wards, who have resided in the State one year, and the town six months, shall have the right of voting, without the payment of a poll tax: that the cause of the people shall be taken every twenty years, upon the question of calling a Convention for the revision of the Constitution, and oftener if the vote of the people in town meetings assembled at the adjustment, shall require it. It is proposed to make jurors judges of the law in criminal cases; to abolish imprisonment for debt; to prohibit the use of school money by any religious sect; to require all new banks to adopt the New York system; and to change the time of elections to the Tuesday next following the first Monday in November.

But the most hateful feature of the new instrument is the proposed basis of representation. By this basis, 4 town of 7,000 inhabitants and one adjoining it of 4999 inhabitants, will each have but one representative. Through its provisions seven-tenths of the people of Massachusetts, a majority of the population of the State, will elect one-half the representatives. The county of Franklin, with 30,689 inhabitants will have 26 representatives, but Barnstable, with 23,997 inhabitants will be permitted to send only one-half that number.

Now though our citizens are party men, and will in party matters implicitly follow party leaders, we believe there is a sentiment of equity, instinct of Justice, which must redress them in spurn such a Constitution with loathing and disgust.

AUTOMATIC MOVEMENTS. The Advertiser thus has vented about again. He says we blundered in saying what he was "in favor of the district system," and that he has no "interest one way or the other in it." Well, neighbor, you are a fair traveller—an artful dodger—but you can never disguise the fact, that up to the time of the Convention, you advocated the district system; that, from the meeting of the Convention, to the day when we published a synopsis of the last whig platform, you bowed to the district system, and favored the franchises of the Conventions, and on the following day you came out mounting our platform, styling your new constitution a district system document, and you have been on to mount it ever since. But now, the bait not taking, you say you "have not uttered one word in it (the district system) being right." So Mr. Advertiser, you never—can't you! We are aware that, for a day or two past, you have been trying pretty closely—more closely perhaps than is convenient. But as you "pull the wires" for the Middlesex clique, you will excuse us for our frequent advances.

THE TRIPARTITE TREATY. All the world seems now to be in a state of excitement in regard to the proposed of England and France to the United States, for a tripartite treaty for the protection of Cuba. Some suppose that the reply to that letter, which it hitherto been delayed by the absence of Mr. French in Richmond, has lately been received by the British Secretary of State, Lord John Russell, on Mr. Crampton, British Minister at Washington, and Mr. Foreign Office, Feb. 1, 1853. Lord John says:

"It is doubtless perfectly within the competency of the American government to propose that a treaty should be made by Lord Malmesbury and M. Turgot, in reference to Cuba. Each government will then remain as free as it was before to make such treaties as it may deem necessary and a regard for the interests of its people may counsel."

The tone of Mr Everett's letter is adverted to in the following terms:

"I should have attended my obligations as Secretary of State in this correspondence, had not Mr Everett entered at large into arguments to which the ability to answer of the question before him hardly seemed to require.

The proposal of England and France to Spain when they made this proposal to that of the United States, was fully aware of the growth of power and extension of territory which has marked the progress of this country since the period of their independence. The acquisition of Florida in 1819, of Texas in 1844, and of California in 1848, had already taken place, and they did they require to be reminded of it in terms of the seven years' war, or of the American war.

The whole gist of Lord John's letter is contained in the following paragraph:

"Finally, while fully admitting the right of the United States to acquire possessions by fair means, and even any measure that may suit for it, he is not disposed to admit that any European power, as a fair way of acquiring."

J. J. RUSSELL."

Short Intercourse. The Lynn News says: "The Lowell American gravely charges the editor of the Courier with being a partner in the Lynn Weekly Reporter, and says that the Courier will come up to the "cap" income hereof" of his pecuniary circumstances. Ah!

Of course, we produce no immediately in journalizing; but we have already reminded the American of the saying which, doubtless, about the month of Pitt—that it is better to have words with all its acquaintance, than to have anything said of him whether good or bad. Hereby remaining in all their aggrieved deformity, as it the soul of the American. Fits Reporter is a great "stuff."

☞ The Advertiser asks, "will the Courier have the politeness to inform us how the adoption of the new constitution will lead to the secession of the entire?" Of course we will—nothing more easier, as the Packet did? And will the Advertiser have the politeness to inform us how the event transpired, that the exclusive of the southern States, they and eight counties of Massachusetts, would form a nation, and thereby bring any thing about? Or the remark of the Boston Post.

The recent relations on the boundary question between England and France to the United States

NEW EXCHANGE SALOON,

Corner Main and Merrimack Sts., Lowell.

Where Gentlemen will find a fresh supply of Cigars, Tobacco, Pipes, Canes, Umbrellas, &c., &c. Also, a choice assortment of Wines, Liquors, &c., for use, and put up in quart bottles, for family use.

Lowell, March 1, 1858. D. D. COLBY, Agt.

SKELTON'S TRICOPHLUON,

OR

HAIR INVIGORATOR.

THIS new and valuable preparation, entirely free from poisonous, is especially adapted to the Toilet and Nursery. Prepared from vegetable substances, it will not

SOIL THE SKIN OR DRESS, while at the same time it imparts a glossy lustre and a soft and silky appearance to the hair, and is unequalled to prevent, preserving, cleansing, curling and beautifying, and for restoring the hair.

Putting off and Growing Over.

Imported by all of our principal Druggists and Perfumers throughout the country.

. Put up in large bottles at 50 and 75 cts per bottle. Prepared and sold wholesale and retail by

G. P. SKELTON,

DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST,

Manchester, N. H.

Retailed in Lowell by MESSRS. MORRISON, P. SARGENT & KIDDER, Jr., & E. BALS & CO., M. S. CLEAVELAND & CO., ETC., ETC.

may1 eod&w3m

New Freight Arrangement

NEW'S BAY LOWELL AND NEW YORK.

COMMERCIAL LINE STEAM PROPELLERS BETWEEN PROVIDENCE AND NEW YORK.

Each vessel has a capacity of 1250 Tons burden, and will run regularly between Providence and New York on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and between Providence and New York on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 5 o'clock P. M. Insurance effected for the lower country of less and cheap.

Goods taken from the cars and delivered at the pier without charge.

Steamboat and Railroad receipts given for the amount of freight.

Shippers will please notify the Agent of the Company of the number of packages of goods sent, and the name of the vessel by which they are shipped.

Goods will be received and forwarded on the most favorable terms, and every attention paid to the interests of shippers.

For further information apply to

W. H. JOURDAN, Agent,

Providence and Worcester Railroad Co., Providence.

H. HOWARD, Agent, Lowell.

ISAAC ORNELL, Pier No. 11 N. R., New York.

may1 eod&w3m

LINSEED OIL, PAINTS, &c.

1000 Gallons Linseed Oil.

50 lbs Dutch Pink.

2 " Cassel Yellow, 12 Pittsburgh do.

1 " Prussian Blue.

1 " Indian Red, Lake, Umber.

10,000 lbs Whiting.

1,000 " Ground Spanish "

1,000 " Ground Paris "

1,000 " Ground Flint "

1,000 " Ground Zinc "

1,000 " Ground Lead "

1,000 " French Yellow.

1,000 " Chrome Green.

1,000 " Chrome Yellow.

1,000 " Prussian Blue Paris Green.

1,000 " Chrome Green Paris Green.

1,000 " Chrome Yellow Paris Green.

1,000 " Chrome Green Paris Green.

1,000 " Chrome Yellow Paris Green.

For sale by GEO. W. SIZER,

Merchant Building, Dutton st.

may1

500 Tons Coal.

500 tons best Lehigh Coal, delivered at the shortest notice, at the lowest cash price, by

may1 GEO. W. SIZER.

SYRUP AND OAK PUTTINGS

of all sizes, for sale by the subscriber, at the Lowell Steam Box Factory, Middlesex Street, Lowell.

may1 eod&w3m

Lowell, April 21, 1858.

NOTICE.

THE undersigned are prepared to receive Ice from Capital Lake, and will deliver the same to their customers. All persons below the mill can do the largest size of Ice to their advantage.

may1 eod&w3m

SYLVESTER & MYERS.

NEW GOODS.

H. C. LITTLEFIELD

HAS just received a large assortment of Ladies' Dress Goods, Prints, Ginghams, Muslins, Linen Goods, Hosiery, Gloves, Parasols, Sun Shades, Fancy Goods, Trimmings, Corsets, Balmoral Skirts, Hoop Skirts, Corset Jeans, Cotton Flannels, Bleached and Brown Cottons, Sheetings, Shirtings, Table Cloths, Napkins, Towels, Towelings, Crash, Quilts, Counterpanes, Blankets, Flannels, Cassimeres, Satinets, Tweeds, Cloakings, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Rugs, Mats, Window Shades, Paper Hangings, Borders, Fixtures, &c., &c., which will be sold at the lowest prices.

Lowell, May 1, 1858. may1

NOTICE.

THE Medical Professors are respectfully invited to attend Prof. Dixi's Lecture on Anatomy, at the Lowell Medical Institute, on Wednesday, May 5, at 10 o'clock A. M.

may1 eod&w3t

LUNCHES! LUNCHES!!

THE Lowell Lunch Room, No. 5 Merrimack Street, Lowell, is now ready to serve the public in superior style. Oysters, Soups, Meats, Pastry, &c., &c., will be furnished at the Lowell Lunch Room.

may1 eod&w3m* JOSEPH SAWYER.

THE BLACK DIAMOND.

THIS superior STOVE is now taking the place of all others in use. Those who are using the Stove will find it the best in the market. Those who are using other Stoves can exchange them for the Black Diamond, and pay the difference. Those who are not using Stoves can get the Black Diamond and pay for it in part or entire. The Stove can be seen at the store of

C. S. EASTMAN & CO., Agricultural Warehouse, No. 3 Merrimack Square.

Price is same as other good Stoves.

may1 eod&w3m

BOOT, SHOE AND JACKET CLOTH.

1 bale Colored Cotton Cloth.

1 case Cotton Flannel.

1 " Twilled Cotton, for Jackets.

For sale by GEO. W. SIZER, may1 Merchant Building, Dutton st.

SPERM, WHALE AND LARD OIL.

2000 Gallons Sperm Oil.

" Whale "

" Lard "

" Extra Lard Oil, Patent.

" Neatsfoot Oil.

" Crude Whale Oil.

For sale by GEO. W. SIZER,

may1 Merchant Building, Dutton st.

STRAW, HOOP AND SLAT CUTTING MACHINE.

THE subscriber has purchased the Straw, Hoop and Slat Cutting Machine, formerly owned by Messrs. Hall & Bancroft, and will keep constantly on hand a full supply of Straw, Hoop and Slat Cutting, which he will sell at the lowest cash prices.

Orders left at the Machine, or at the Lowell Steam Box Factory, Middlesex Street, will be promptly attended to.

may1 eod&w3m* JOSEPH SAWYER.

NEW GOODS.

H. C. LITTLEFIELD

HAS just received a large assortment of Ladies' Dress Goods, Prints, Ginghams, Muslins, Linen Goods, Hosiery, Gloves, Parasols, Sun Shades, Fancy Goods, Trimmings, Corsets, Balmoral Skirts, Hoop Skirts, Corset Jeans, Cotton Flannels, Bleached and Brown Cottons, Sheetings, Shirtings, Table Cloths, Napkins, Towels, Towelings, Crash, Quilts, Counterpanes, Blankets, Flannels, Cassimeres, Satinets, Tweeds, Cloakings, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Rugs, Mats, Window Shades, Paper Hangings, Borders, Fixtures, &c., &c., which will be sold at the lowest prices.

Lowell, May 1, 1858. may1

NOTICE.

THE Medical Professors are respectfully invited to attend Prof. Dixi's Lecture on Anatomy, at the Lowell Medical Institute, on Wednesday, May 5, at 10 o'clock A. M.

may1 eod&w3t

LUNCHES! LUNCHES!!

THE Lowell Lunch Room, No. 5 Merrimack Street, Lowell, is now ready to serve the public in superior style. Oysters, Soups, Meats, Pastry, &c., &c., will be furnished at the Lowell Lunch Room.

may1 eod&w3m* JOSEPH SAWYER.

PARIS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber is agent to sell several Pastes, of the best quality, at 25 cts per lb, and will deliver to any part of the city.

may1 eod&w3m* O. P. SKELTON.

BRUSHES AND CHEMIST,

Manchester, N. H.

Retailed in Lowell by MESSRS. MORRISON, P. SARGENT & KIDDER, Jr., & E. BALS & CO., M. S. CLEAVELAND & CO., ETC., ETC.

New Freight Arrangement

NEW'S BAY LOWELL AND NEW YORK.

COMMERCIAL LINE STEAM PROPELLERS BETWEEN PROVIDENCE AND NEW YORK.

Each vessel has a capacity of 1250 Tons burden, and will run regularly between Providence and New York on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and between Providence and New York on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 5 o'clock P. M. Insurance effected for the lower country of less and cheap.

Goods taken from the cars and delivered at the pier without charge.

Steamboat and Railroad receipts given for the amount of freight.

Shippers will please notify the Agent of the Company of the number of packages of goods sent, and the name of the vessel by which they are shipped.

Goods will be received and forwarded on the most favorable terms, and every attention paid to the interests of shippers.

For further information apply to

W. H. JOURDAN, Agent,

Providence and Worcester Railroad Co., Providence.

H. HOWARD, Agent, Lowell.

ISAAC ORNELL, Pier No. 11 N. R., New York.

may1 eod&w3m

LINSEED OIL, PAINTS, &c.

1000 Gallons Linseed Oil.

50 lbs Dutch Pink.

2 " Cassel Yellow, 12 Pittsburgh do.

1 " Prussian Blue.

1 " Indian Red, Lake, Umber.

10,000 lbs Whiting.

1,000 " Ground Spanish "

1,000 " Ground Paris "

1,000 " Ground Flint "

1,000 " Ground Zinc "

1,000 " Ground Lead "

1,000 " French Yellow.

1,000 " Chrome Green.

1,000 " Chrome Yellow.

1,000 " Prussian Blue Paris Green.

1,000 " Chrome Green Paris Green.

1,000 " Chrome Yellow Paris Green.

1,000 " Chrome Green Paris Green.

1,000 " Chrome Yellow Paris Green.

For sale by GEO. W. SIZER, may1 Merchant Building, Dutton st.

500 Tons Coal.

500 tons best Lehigh Coal, delivered at the shortest notice, at the lowest cash price, by

may1 GEO. W. SIZER.

SYRUP AND OAK PUTTINGS

of all sizes, for sale by the subscriber, at the Lowell Steam Box Factory, Middlesex Street, Lowell.

may1 eod&w3m

Lowell, April 21, 1858.

NOTICE.

THE undersigned are prepared to receive Ice from Capital Lake, and will deliver the same to their customers. All persons below the mill can do the largest size of Ice to their advantage.

may1 eod&w3m

SYLVESTER & MYERS.

NEW GOODS.

H. C. LITTLEFIELD

HAS just received a large assortment of Ladies' Dress Goods, Prints, Ginghams, Muslins, Linen Goods, Hosiery, Gloves, Parasols, Sun Shades, Fancy Goods, Trimmings, Corsets, Balmoral Skirts, Hoop Skirts, Corset Jeans, Cotton Flannels, Bleached and Brown Cottons, Sheetings, Shirtings, Table Cloths, Napkins, Towels, Towelings, Crash, Quilts, Counterpanes, Blankets, Flannels, Cassimeres, Satinets, Tweeds, Cloakings, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Rugs, Mats, Window Shades, Paper Hangings, Borders, Fixtures, &c., &c., which will be sold at the lowest prices.

Lowell, May 1, 1858. may1

NOTICE.

THE Medical Professors are respectfully invited to attend Prof. Dixi's Lecture on Anatomy, at the Lowell Medical Institute, on Wednesday, May 5, at 10 o'clock A. M.

may1 eod&w3t

LUNCHES! LUNCHES!!

THE Lowell Lunch Room, No. 5 Merrimack Street, Lowell, is now ready to serve the public in superior style. Oysters, Soups, Meats, Pastry, &c., &c., will be furnished at the Lowell Lunch Room.

may1 eod&w3m* JOSEPH SAWYER.

PARIS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber is agent to sell several Pastes, of the best quality, at 25 cts per lb, and will deliver to any part of the city.

may1 eod&w3m* O. P. SKELTON.

BRUSHES AND CHEMIST,

Manchester, N. H.

Retailed in Lowell by MESSRS. MORRISON, P. SARGENT & KIDDER, Jr., & E. BALS & CO., M. S. CLEAVELAND & CO., ETC., ETC.

SPIRITUAL TELEGRAPH.

THE Spiritual Telegraph, Vol. 1, Part 1, is received and for sale at the Periodical Depot, Merrimack Square.

may1

DR. SPOONER'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

THIS preparation is recommended to the public as a safe and reliable article for restoring the hair to its original color, preventing its falling off, and promoting a new growth where the hair has fallen out. It is also highly recommended for its cleansing and healing properties, and for the relief it affords in all cases of dandruff, humors, &c. It is perfectly harmless, and contains no poisonous ingredients. Those who have used it will not be without it. Those who have not, will find it a valuable article. Price 50 cts per bottle.

For sale by C. S. EASTMAN & CO., Agricultural Warehouse, No. 3 Merrimack Square.

Price is same all parts of the country.

may1 eod&w3m

SPRING GOODS.

THE undersigned is constantly receiving from Capital and Boston, and will keep on hand a full assortment of Ladies' Dress Goods, Prints, Ginghams, Muslins, Linen Goods, Hosiery, Gloves, Parasols, Sun Shades, Fancy Goods, Trimmings, Corsets, Balmoral Skirts, Hoop Skirts, Corset Jeans, Cotton Flannels, Bleached and Brown Cottons, Sheetings, Shirtings, Table Cloths, Napkins, Towels, Towelings, Crash, Quilts, Counterpanes, Blankets, Flannels, Cassimeres, Satinets, Tweeds, Cloakings, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Rugs, Mats, Window Shades, Paper Hangings, Borders, Fixtures, &c., &c., which will be sold at the lowest prices.

may1 H. C. LITTLEFIELD

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Monday, August 29, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

The Whig State Convention will be held at Concert Hall, Boston, on Wednesday, the 7th day of September next, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The several Whig Senatorial Conventions will be holden on the same day, at the usual places of meeting, for the purpose of choosing delegates to attend the State Convention, and to nominate Senators to be supported at the next election.

The several Whig Committees of the Commonwealth are requested to call the Conventions in their districts at the time when the number of Representatives to which they are entitled is known.

JOHN G. PALFREY, Chairman of the Committee.

August 15, 1853. 2aug15tsept7

TRUTHS AND NO TRUISMS.

A writer in the Boston Chronicle recreates himself by visiting Faneuil Hall on Saturday, 27th ult., when about as severe a scathing as was ever suffered by a transient mortal. We only regret that Tim is not a bigger man than he is, that there might be some appearance of fairness to fling at a gun. At present there is a most decided disproportion between the magnitude of the shot and the pliability of the game. The writer quotes Paul's bonfires to the unknown God, to avoid "profane and vain babblings," to "use a little wine for his stomach's sake;" he prays that "the Lord (will) give (Tim) understanding;" in fact there is an air of grave irony about the entire article, which, as an item on that we feel constrained to give a place in the whole, for the benefit of the miscellaneous reader. The writer alludes to the outgeneraling of the able advertiser, as "a man with a shocking bad hat," which, he says, "covers a pair of asses' ears;" he speaks of Mr Barnum's success as "a very proper proceeding"—he considers that Tim's sole object in procuring the writing of the letter to be a desire to get his name mixed up in delightful hotch-potch with the names of the governing element of the Middlesex district and Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas"—he thinks, in common with everybody else, that the letter, not written by Timothy Pearson, "first, because (our readers) system of free common school education either never was brought to bear upon Timothy, or, if brought to bear, found such insuperable difficulties to overcome, that the original and true elements of his head, that it failed utterly of accomplishing its object," and secondly, because "he has no high-toned, settled principle way of quoting the most common words in the English language, peculiar to himself"—but he very magnanimously absolves our friend from all blame, on the ground that "Timothy shares this infirmity of bad spelling in common with many great and good men, such as the Hicks, Downings, Dawsons, and others." Gov. Boutwell is made the subject of a killing thrust, for having given a commission of the Peace to an ignoramus who spells says, see, and cain Henry, Henery, Timothy's and hopeless of Hence. "Timothy's bad spelling is not his only misdemeanor; his reading and writing, and we retire now both to his style of composition and penmanship, are equally bad. The pot-hooks which he made when a child, are still visible in the letter warrants which he has issued in months past for the appreciation of A, B & C."

Soon, then, the letter, but in its style not diction, could not have been elaborated by our "learned brother" Tim, the writer concludes that "it came from the pen of the knight of the ready ink, or perhaps it was the joint production of the Lowell junto of politicians, legislators and politicians. By whomsoever written, it is a most flimsy, trashy affair."

"Now well spelling, well reading, well reading, writing and spelling, and as unfamiliar with the pages of Blackstone, Kent and Greenleaf, as a Hottentot from South Africa, knowing, in fact, like nonentity, no law at all; but even while delivering temperance lectures and exercising the law (and he will not practice the law) having already mixed with his suds. This is our right; or is the age of common sense and common browsers, Boston and others, who have made Timothy their agent for putting into operation the Sea Dow System in Lowell and vicinity. If he won't not drink every now and and then, we know of no man better qualified by nature and education to act as an 'advertiser,' as he decisively owns himself in the letter, under the ridiculous signature of 'Timothy Pearson, Esq.'

"In no other population in the United States, except a New England one, could an ignoramus, a barnstorming lecturer of a junior, like Pearson, have intruded with impunity upon the jurisdiction of a regular police magistrate, and proceeded, under a cirrate of doubtful constitutionality, to trifle with the liberties and property of the citizens. Precisely because he was utterly irresponsible, and without character or ability, was he made a tool of by the Maine Law-dam by the Boston Post. Now they see how the current is setting, that the law will speedily become a mere inoperative rope-in-sand, they are already in high dudgeon, and are casting about to his fate." After showing true, that Butler and the clique are about to abandon Tim to his fate, the writer truly remarks that "those who have suffered by foolishly obeying his precepts, can get no substantial satisfaction out of him, unless they do with a cowhide."

Finally, alluding to the prevention of the ball for Timothy, the writer exclaims: "Here is a sublime procession put into the mouth of a donkey."

We make these remarks, not as an "organ of rum," or as an "organ of temperance"—for neither the one nor the other will ever hold fellowship with the blackleg, Tim—but simply as "a passing portion."

UREE! UREE!! UREE!!! The Advertiser after goading a thousand of our readers to death upon the basis proposed by the new Constitution,—a variety of 700 idiosyncrasies and one old, (being it, of 699 inhabitants will each have but one representative," heaps forth, exclaiming, "Ha! ha! ha! ha!! Queer from the Exeter, N. H., News Letter, without credit!" In preparing the cyclopedia of the new constitution, published on Tuesday, we, of course, availed ourselves of the aid of similar compends, so any body else would in a similar case;—compends more bulky than ours, and, of course, less inviting in substance. And we assure the Advertiser that whenever we have occasion to copy, or compare an article merely statistical, we shall, when we can, avail ourselves of his assistance, the Advertiser is the only plagiarist, now, notwithstanding. Nor shall we be so foolish as to resent that charge on the Advertiser, when in compliance with the requisition of the law it set to the same. The remark in question came originally from Chester's speech on the district system, though the sentiment in which it there occurs is one of inordinate length. We are surprised, however, to see a gander like the Advertiser, imitating the manner of the American, which in a late issue crowed out of having made and appropriated a sentiment of Irving's forty years ago! But if we hear any thing more about, "borrowing," we may take occasion to make such an exposition of matters as will be not very creditable or popular to this neighborhood. Verily, Mr Advertiser, where do you get your daily police reports and your locals?

SHAMPOL. Napoleon's last chamber at St. Helena is now a statute, and the room in which he died is used for threshing wheat.

For the Journal and Courier.

THE TRUE GENTLEMAN.

This term used in course distinction to that of Old Fogy, is the name of a bipod which though not a tripod, has three legs, tyrones, prentices and a few professional speeches, on which is raised a platform, on and into which the public is invited to step, and hear what the gentleman standing at the erection, though quite a professional character, and good old Dr. Goldsmith, contrary to the world universally, fails to notice him in his interesting work, "Animated Nature." Singularly enough, Prof. Wilson does not. It remains for us, in the absence of any allusion therefore of the kind, briefly to notice some of his "particularities not mentioned by Abraham or natural history," as the Scotch say. Before going further we would say, that Old Fogy, that prehistoric sort of character is as old as our logical friend. They are not strangers. They have each taken a hand in every game of importance that has been played since the creation, and it must be confessed that for the most part Young America has held the trumps.

It was this same Old Fogy, rainfall old soul, who whispered in the ear of mother Eve, suddenly suggesting the propriety of letting the apple remain upon the tree, for and mellow through it looked; but this young genius, actuated by his love of something new, encouraged her to pluck it and eat, and something, new and unfortunate dame, having got into difficulty herself with the young American spirit, endeavored to draw as many after her as possible, because of the embarrassments of that unfortunate worthy Adam. This was the first great innovator and progression, and for about two thousand years everything moved on to suit him. Conservatism had become immensely unpopular, and but seldom if ever interfered, and then to no purpose. This biped was allowed to rush things in his own fanciful and characteristic style, until it became pointedly evident that his eccentric wings must be clipped, or the progress of days could no longer stay together in harmony without great danger of having their privacy broken in upon. Hippocrates therefore was adopted, and under its soothing influence this spirit of manifest destiny, the progressive power of the world, settled quietly down, was fed and clothed in the prescribed in former times. The world was obeyed out, and the winnings were, in the euphonious phrase of the day, "conservatism of modern times," so what."

This was all very well no doubt, but the rascal knowing a little bad French, must as usual use it in blowing a little about manifest destiny and the aims of this "Empire Republic" we said. The result was that Mr Bonnpante became decidedly in love with his destinies, and made quite a little about it, we may say, too—he was obliged to take a sea voyage for his health from which excursion he did not return until he was in everything but a condition to be fit for him to be of much service in bringing about the proposed annexation. But we digress—as annexations were not principally Billingsgate then of the editor of this paper. Since the first announcement, one "solitary and alone" remember has sent in his name; so Dipper Billy decides he over it like an old nut over a pan piece of cheese. The American is but sticking—let it stick! The voters of Massachusetts are of a red to quake for Billy!

AMERICAN EDUCATION. The New York Commercial Advertiser, in a very able article, so far as it goes, on this subject, says the highest duty of a journal owning that the hostility of the British priesthood in common schools is based upon the fact that they are the glittering and solid cement, and introduces the following personal allusion:

"Horace Mann, the apostle of Freeman's Bridge have a meeting this week, to organize for the coming campaign on American issues in ward two.

☞ Hon. Caleb Cushing has been invited, and is expected to address the people from the balcony of Hall, before the Maryland Institute, at its annual exhibition, early in October.

☞ John Neal says of Neal Dow that he knows him to be both unprincipled and treacherous.

☞ The Bellsbloom' Eagle says the oat crop this year has generally proved a failure in that section of Vermont.

☞ $7 $1000 have been raised at the Crystal Palace for the Washington Monument.

SUPERSATIVE MEANNESS. Under this caption, a correspondent of the Boston Herald, says:

"Yesterday morning, as aged man, who had been employed in the Lowell Machine Shop, had, on leaving the depot in this city, lost his pocket book, containing about $70 in money and valuable papers, county, if not quite, his only worldly goods. He was of course much distressed, but immediately advertised the loss and offered a reward of $50. A gentleman (I who came in the same train, observed the advertisement, picked up the purse, but quietly picked it up when it fell, and actually called at the house and collected (aside at least might and from the old man on restoring the property.

☞ "A young Englishman, of twelve residence in America," writes to the Commercial Gazette:

"Boston, however, needs no pillars of stone to perpetuate the memory of those who in every respect are truly good responsible officer, with a specific case, and a specific duty to perform, and who can be called to account for the manner in which he performs it. Having spoken years of extensive practice, I can safely say that I have never seen a case of Dysentery or Diarrhœa that Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry would not cure, if taken in season, and in accordance with the directions. Many cases of Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, and Summer Complaint, have been brought to my notice, in which this medicine has proved a perfect specific. Its action is prompt, and it never disappoints the expectations of the most sanguine. Having used it in my own family for many years, I can recommend it with confidence to others. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicines.

☞ Mr Mellus, the new Consul to London, gave a dinner in New York on Friday last, at which were present various notables. The toast of Mr Raymond, the editor of the N. Y. Times, was:

"The President's inaugural—its translated languages, the only language thoroughly understood in Europe, by Capt. Ingraham, in the Bay of Smyrna.

DISCOVERY. The Placerville Herald of the 20th, contains a letter from Mr Bowers, formerly Secretary of Utah, giving an account of the discovery of a fourth gold region on the great American desert, about 300 miles northwest of the junction of the Gila with the Colorado. The discovery is said to have been made by a party of Jew adventurers who attempted to cross the desert in search of a shorter route than that now known.

☞ Phineas S. Bridgeman has been appointed Postmaster at Substantown, Mass.

MISS S. FLETCHER,

FEMALE PHYSICIAN,

MAY be consulted at her residence, 218 Merrimack street, Lowell, on all diseases peculiar to females. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M. and from 2 to 5 P. M. 2aug15

MASTA'S INDIAN PULMONIC BALSAM.

For Colds, Coughs, INFLUENZA, SORENESS, BRONCHITIS, HOOPING COUGH, ASTHMA, AND FOR ALL DISEASES THAT LEAD TO CONSUMPTION!

REMEMBER the success of the cough is usually the result of inattention produced by trivial colds. It is a fact, though, which if allowed to continue ends in fatal consumption. Masta's Indian Pulmonic Balsam is a remedy

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & POWERS,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
AND DEALERS IN
PRODUCE OF EVERY DESCRIPTION,
SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.

Barrels and Casks.

CASK—Assorted, Coopers, Country or Factory, for sale by LEWIS—Eastern, Southern, Country or Factory, for CHARLES—Eastern, Southern, Country or Factory, for CHARLES—Eastern, Southern, Country or Factory, for sale by
CHARLES—Eastern, Southern, Country or Factory, for sale by
CHARLES—Eastern, Southern, Country or Factory, for sale by

Daily Journal & Courier.

Boyal Tuesday, August 30, 1853.

WING STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention of Indiana assembled at Indianapolis, at 11 o'clock, A. M. on Wednesday, August 10, 1853.

The several Towns and Cities in the different Counties of the State were represented, and the Convention was called to order by Gen. JAMES BLAIR, Secretary of State.

August 10, 1853.

THE CRYSTAL PALACE A FAILURE. At the time of the opening of the Crystal Palace we did not anticipate as great an epoch in the history of Labor as that of the London Exhibition; but we at least expected something adequate to the time—something to celebrate the progress, and to commemorate the intensification of Labor. Our hopes of it were complete—more magnificent than the result has warranted; and in speaking of its character, we did not hesitate to style it a great cosmopolite event. Facts, however, now assure it to be an entire failure—a special imitation of ingenious Yankee—without national character—without national interest—having no more kindred with the great exhibition of London, than a Brigade Muster with a General National Review. The fame of this burlesque affair is limited solely to the paid puffs of the New York journals; without these the pretended exhibition would scarcely have gone beyond the precincts of New York. These puffs are still continued, in spite of the groans of disappointment that they now all groan; and even after the British Commissioners, and all who have any respect for themselves, have retired in chagrin and disgust. Started as a money-making scheme, it has failed; and having informed the public of its failure, we shall say no more about it.

SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The royal mail steamship Europa arrived at New York this morning from Liverpool with 291 passengers.

The Atlantic arrived out at noon of Wednesday, the 24th, and the City of Manchester at the same time.

The Hermann left Southampton on the 17th, with 106 passengers, and a full cargo.

EASTERN AFFAIRS. No change had taken place since the announcement already received, that the Porte accepted the ultimatum in the note prepared by the four powers, and already a conduit up to the Czar.

A Divan had solicited the Hospodars to remain in the Principalities.

The correspondence between the Porte and the Hospodars, ordering the latter to retire, is published.

News from Servia mentions that Kisoutch was appointed Commander-in-Chief, and that the chiefs of the various districts were placed under his orders.

Reschid Pasha had informed Austria that any occupation of Servia by a foreign army would be regarded as a declaration of war.

Meantime, the Porte undertakes to preserve order in the provinces, and had sent 20,000 men to assist them.

GREAT BRITAIN. The Hermann took out reports of the long promised debate on Turkish affairs. It was generally regarded as unsatisfactory, and the English funds opened the next day.

Lord John Russell stated, in reply to Lord Dudley Stuart, that negotiations with the United States, regarding the Mosquito Territory, were still pending, but had not yet been brought to a satisfactory termination before the last mail.

The farce of canonizing a convention of the Churches was duly gone through, on the 16th, and it unanimously approved the Pope's decree.

Parliament was to be prorogued on the 20th, if nothing unforeseen occurred.

SPAIN. Spanish Consul-General Pizzaro was at Constantinople, and was authorized to name Turkish service if our should cease.

Trade is actively carried on, notwithstanding the interruption of business with Norway and Sweden by cholera.

Switzerland letters state that Tessino having received notice to make further concession to Austria, the federal council will not take the initiative in renewing negotiations with the Austrian government.

The Official Journal of the 19th inst. contains a decree discontinuing the state of siege of Vienna and Prague.

Austria has presented a memorandum to all the European governments.

FRANCE. Regnard, a Frenchman, tried on a charge of offering to assassinate Napoleon, was acquitted.

A number of Bibles were had been arrested at Mistes, France.

Paris correspondence is entirely filled with reports of the fete of the 15th. The Emperor did not call other topics. The weather was very favorable for the joint festival of Napoleon, and Assumption of the Blessed Virgin. A hundred thousand strangers were in the French capital on the occasion.

Prayers to grant eight millions of francs to pay legacies of Napoleon 1st, will probably be granted. Commercial failures to the payment of the Paris newspaper.

Trade in Paris was active.

HAYTIEN SCENE.—Why, lord b' money exclaimed the eccentric editor of the absent Corporal, dropping her knitting-work in sheer amazement at an item of news which the doctor had let loose to her from the telegraphic column of the Post, touching the departure of our new Minister to ye-am—who would have thought it?" "I have heard," she continued, more thoughtfully, while an expression of the deepest sympathy passed over her horrified visage, "I have heard a great deal said about Mr Pierce's removals, but no one has ever told me that he removed the Emperor of Hayti. I'm sure they must owe him some grudge for it, or else they would not have sent him to live among such a people. Why, this Mr Peter Soulsby is the man who has got that beautiful meadow dyestuff in his hair, that shows the two ends of the spring—I always thought them palette marks, don't say hoar, but I should have thought they might have let this poor man have staid at home, where he could have took pipes, and got himself cured on the principal diseases of them parts. It's hard-old nests than Madrid he'll be by the time he gets there, I'm no doubt, Though I'm sure, for the matter of that, as she warned her work from the objectionable stories of Isaac's travels in Timbuctoo, "I can never be wouldn't wish to deny a minister or any other section, to them that wish Spanish, or any other language."

YOUNG COLUMBIAN BOUNDS. We learn that a plan has been formed for the settlement of thirty-one rural districts in the vicinity of the capitals of Lafayette and Jefferson, on the Grand Prairies of Bayou and Bayou Company's Grants in Illinois.

☞ Wm. S. Wait, a compositor for last years connected with the Commercial Advertiser office, committed suicide on Sunday, hanging himself at his residence on Jersey-st. Cause unknown. Over $4000 were found in his pockets. He is believed to be a native of Boston.

BY TELEGRAPH—House Line.

Telegraph Office, Woonsocket's Falls, Mo'd Street—Journal's Office.

[Expressly for Specially Courier.]

NEW YORK, AUGUST 30th.

The last Lease, of Commodore Vanderbilt's line from New Orleans, the mail steamship Alabama, left on yellow fever on the 17th; also, Henry Walker, a seaman.

The United States mails the run from New York to Panama in 27 days, the quickest passage ever made between the two ports. Brigadier Valparaiso papers to the 13th, containing the particulars of the loss of the mail steamship Lima, on the 4th inst. on the coast of Peru. Reasons and not far from Santiago. The passengers, mails and a portion of silver was saved.

AN ACTIVE YOUNG LADY. The present editress of the magazine conducted by the factory girls at Lowell.—a Miss Farley, writes to a friend:—"I am now proprietor of the New England Offering. I do all the publishing, editing, canvassing, and as it is bound at any office, I can, in a hurry, help fold, and, sewer, stitch, &c. I have a little girl to assist me in the folding, stitching, &c. I do all the work, come from the printer's hands, is all my own work. I employ no agents, and depend upon no one for assistance. My edition is four thousand."

☞ The total number of deaths in New York for the week ending August 27th, was five hundred and fourteen, a decrease of four hundred and fifty-five on the previous week.

☞ The Philadelphia Ledger says that deaths during the same period was two hundred and forty-five.

CREW OF A BOSTON BRIG DROWNED. The Journal says, "A letter from Buenos Ayres says that the brig Ocean, of Boston, bound to Brig Cyrostadt, of Boston, has been foundered, as they had not been seen since they left Buenos Ayres, and are given up.

☞ The total number of deaths in New York for the week ending August 27th, was five hundred and fourteen, a decrease of four hundred and fifty-five on the previous week.

☞ The Philadelphia Ledger says that deaths during the same period was two hundred and forty-five.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald reports that Mr Marcy has answered Lord John Russell's letter, with's full endorsement of Mr Everett's position as to Cuba.

☞ Father Gavazzi has been invited to give a lecture on Religious Liberty in Newport, and has accepted the invitation.

Why is he not invited here? This must be looked to.

INQUISITION. The body of a new born child was found in the vault of a house in Purchase street, Boston, yesterday. An inquest was proceed to be a case of murder, but no arrest has yet been made. Coroner Smith was called to hold an inquest.

ARREST. The Vigilance Committee of Monterey, on Saturday last, arrested the Mayor, Hon. Charles Wilkes, for murder, on the 9th of June. He was held in bail in the sum of $5000 to appear on the 14th of September. He is now at the Criminal Court of Queen's Bench. Three more of the rioters of the 9th of June were also arrested, viz: Messrs. Hamilton, Pierre C. Brouillet and M. Moles. Moses was the general assistant chief engineer of the fire department.

ACCOUNT OF THE GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD. An accident occurred on the Grand Trunk Railroad, at Upton station. The locomotive Canisbeck, one of the most powerful freight engines, was on the road with a heavy train of freight cars for wood, when her five-ton fell in, and an explosion followed. Fortunately the engine was separate and sending her stations fast up the embankment, some of the heavy pieces being blown to a great height in the air, and descending with fearful violence. Lieut. Lieut Cornbrook, Indianapolis, and Mr. Wm. Wilson, Lowell, were killed instantly. Mr. Wilson was a native of Ireland, and was about thirty years of age. Lieut. Cornbrook was a native of Ireland, and was about thirty years of age. Lieut. Cornbrook was a native of Ireland, and was about thirty years of age.

CELEBRATION OF THE CAPE. All Capes were on the ground, and a grand display of rockets! It cannot be... Lowell, Sun.

☞ In Ward—Dodge.

Conviction by circumstantial evidence is a question which has agitated the public mind, I applied to Dodge, who is a lawyer, and he said, "Yes, I am sure of it." I have a little girl to assist me in the folding, stitching, &c. I do all the work, come from the printer's hands, is all my own work. I employ no agents, and depend upon no one for assistance. My edition is four thousand."

☞ The total number of deaths in New York for the week ending August 27th, was five hundred and fourteen, a decrease of four hundred and fifty-five on the previous week.

☞ The Philadelphia Ledger says that deaths during the same period was two hundred and forty-five.

CREW OF A BOSTON BRIG DROWNED. The Journal says, "A letter from Buenos Ayres says that the brig Ocean, of Boston, bound to Brig Cyrostadt, of Boston, has been foundered, as they had not been seen since they left Buenos Ayres, and are given up.

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & ROWLEE,
RAILROAD PRINTING STATIONERS,
SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.
RUN THE YEAR.

COAL—Anthracite (whites and red), Cumberland and Liverpool (bituminous), for the trade or consumer.
PLASTER—Ground, Calcined, Hair, Fertilizers.
CEMENTS—Roman, Portland, Keene's.
LIMESTONE—Burnt and Ground.
SALT—Fine, Coarse, Ground.
GRAIN—Corn, Oats, Rye, Barley, Meal, Feed.
HAY AND STRAW—A constant supply of all quantities.

THEO. PIKE, LATE H. MAY—Successor to HALL—corner 2nd Ave. to canal, offers, at lowest cash prices,
FLOUR—Genesee, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Rye, Buckwheat, Graham, Corn Meal.
GRAIN—Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, Barley, Malt.
FEED—Bran, Middlings, Corn and Cob Meal, Oil Cake.
SEEDS—Timothy, Clover, Flax, Hungarian, Millet, Broom Corn, Orchard Grass, Red Top, Blue Grass, Lucerne, Lawn Grass, Buckwheat, Canary, Hemp, Rape, Mustard, Cassia, Sugar Beet, Mangel Wurtzel, Ruta Baga, Carrot, Parsnip, Onion, Lettuce, Cress, Radish, Spinach, Cabbage, Cauliflower, Turnip, Beet, Squash, Pumpkin, Cucumber, Melon, Tomato, Egg Plant, Pepper, Sweet Corn, Sweet Marjoram, Summer Savory, Thyme, Sage, Parsley, Lavender, Rosemary, Wormwood, Rue, Coriander, Caraway, Dill, Fennel, Anise, Sweet Basil, Borage, Chamomile, Saffron, Tansy, Worcester Pearmain, Early Harvest, Sweet, Bellflower, Baldwin, Pippin, Russet, Golden Sweet, Seek-no-further, Porter, Rhode Island Greening, Roxbury Russet, Northern Spy, Hubbardston Nonsuch, Yellow Bellflower, Gravenstein, Red Astrachan, Early Joe, Sops of Wine, Jersey Sweet, Summer Rose, Early Harvest, Golden Pippin, Red Canada, Lady Apple, Porter, Early Strawberry, Summer Queen, Early Red Bough, Red Cheek Pippin, Fall Pippin, Fall Wine

Daily Journal & Courier.
Lowell, Wednesday, August 31, 1853

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

The Whig members of the Whig Party Central Committee of the STATE CONVENTION, to be held at Worcester, on Wednesday, the 14th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the several State offices to be filled at the ensuing election, and transacting such other business as may properly come before said Convention, hereby give notice that the number of Representatives to which they are entitled in said Convention, is Two Hundred and Eighty-Eight.

JOHN SARGENT, Secretary.
Boston, August 16, 1853. sept1&w2

The Constructors of the New Constitution.—On a careful and, we trust, candid perusal of the new Constitution, we have found such a category of inconsistencies, contradictions, omissions, and absurdities, as is startling even to us, who were from the first prepared for surprises. We have known the coalitionists long; we have known them well. We have summoned and witnessed with them; and we were prepared to witness almost any degree of absurdity without surprise. But, after all, we assure you that the new Constitution is such a batch of incoherent crudities as fairly astonishes us.

The new Constitution ordains that the secret ballot shall become part and parcel of the organic law of the Commonwealth. It ordains that the municipal officers in cities shall be chosen by ballots cast in caucus; and it at the same time ordains that the municipal officers in towns shall be chosen by ballots cast openly and viva voce! It ordains that town officers shall be chosen by the "qualified voters;" a State officer by a plurality vote; a State officer by a majority vote; and a United States officer by a plurality vote!

Where is the reason of this? Is it not clear by what blockhead would call "a distinction without a difference" between the two Constitutions, the difficulties in the choice of officers of the State government are increased rather than diminished. By the old Constitution, the Governor, Lieut. Governor, Senators, Auditor, and Attorney General must receive a majority of votes. By the new Constitution takes this power away from the Legislature and gives it to the people.—With the majority system in operation as we now stand, it will be utterly impossible to nominate officers by the people!

But this is not all. The new Constitution ordains that the cities shall be districted; it ordains that the cities shall neither be districted; but it permits (!!) some of the towns to district themselves, if they are determined to do so.

And the wonderful framers of this wonder of the new Constitution, vomited from first to last the effects of those who sought to fulfil the will of nine-tenths of the people, to do justice to the whole State by distributing both town and cities alike, had not the same privilege given shall be represented in their corporate capacity while it makes special provision that other towns shall not! It sets forth that the people ought to choose all officers; and in direct defiance of that declaration, it provides that the people shall not have power to choose some of their Senators!

Such some of the inconsistencies of the new Constitution—a document as remarkable for its own contradictions as it is detestable for its abominations. These are but a few—a mere—A full list would fill a chapter longer than the second of a Pumpkin, or the morning prayer of a Presbyterian. But the above will answer as specimens.

Gov. Pierce's Characteristics.—The N. Y. Express says of Gen. Pierce, that as a Chief Magistrate of a great country is, he will be a creature of high importance, especially when the times here in the United States are known. He is President of the United States Inn.

Seventy of your readers are to be formed and said epidemic, by new one sturdy, is not a Democrat—Democrat—Democrat—

PHILLIPS, GODDRUE & DOWER, RAILROAD PURCHASING AGENTS,
SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.

COAL—Anthracite, Lehigh and red ash, Cumberland, Pittsburg, Cannel and Bituminous, for sale by the cargo, from vessels' sides.
LUMBER—Boards, Scantlings, Cleaving, Pequea Island, Hemlock, Spruce, Pine, Hackmatack, Timber, Treenails, Clapboards, Shingles, Laths, Pickets, Posts, Rails, Plank, Scantling, Timber, Bo

I suppose it must have been two hours after midnight when I awoke from my sleep. I remember I undressed me with a full intent to go to bed, but after I had taken off my boots I was seized with a fit of horror which I observed a small piece of my conscience had not yet undressed. I was not then in a condition to pray; I was not then in a condition to ask forgiveness from every power; but thank God! I had presence of mind to retrieve for the worst. I put on my boots again, and, snatching up the bottle of laudanum, I hurried out, with a dark intention of destroying it, and of uttering upon towards me. But I stopped, and, as I turned back, I heard to put the bottom on the floor, I fired, and—

Two killed him, did you, shrieked the Span ard, closing hearing from his rest.

Murder! I have finished! said the traveller, and spoke he touched the bastrand of his

The instant that I fired the villain fell. I contrived by and severely pulling my cravat on, constricted up the bottom that he had dropped, crept cautiously along with my saline to my head to the stable. It was dark, I gathered my cattle, and I soon enabled my horse to proceed with speed. I carry a pocket compass, and in that my company I entered to the south, and by the direction of night I knew was in search on the village's body could be found. I had not gone far when I heard the shot. If it cost me my life, be still do the dog's duty.

The strangers and complex the Spaniard, by the time I had finished the shot-gun soldier, he observed the mark of a wound upon his neck. Good God, Gerardo, he said, the marks plow the Count Gomara was hanged in the city of Cartagena, more than two hundred years ago, and he has not been dead more than five travellers in last night.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Thursday, September 1, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

The Whig State Convention will be held in Faneuil Hall, Boston, on WEDNESDAY, the 14th day of September next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer and Receiver General, Auditor and Attorney General, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.

JOHN FARLEY, Secretary.

Boston, Aug. 10, 1853.

The speedy conclusion of another State election, and the consequent approach of the time for the assembling of the Legislature, will soon bring the shattered fragments of the heterogeneous coalition, not suggestive to candid democrats of this Commonwealth, of any thing but a confidently trust his suffrage in a free soiler!—Then to a democratic Governor, and has deceived many. Men have been induced to support a free soiler for county, district, representative and senatorial offices, under the belief that by voting for a democratic governor they were not jeopardizing the country.

Now this is a palpable mistake. If it were certain that a democratic governor would be chosen, there would be no danger, in any case, that a free soiler would be elected; though even then there would still exist many and imminent perils to our institutions. But at present the case is otherwise. It is mostly certain that there will be no choice of governor by the people directly, so long as the present system of voting remains in force. It will, therefore, devolve upon the Legislature to perform that duty, at their approaching session. It will, therefore, devolve upon the Legislature to choose the Governor. It becomes then a matter of primary importance to the Legislature to be of the proper complexion; for by their action alone we will certainly be the Governor.

Those of the Democratic members of the Legislature, who have been elected by the votes of their democratic constituents, on the express understanding that they would support the democratic candidate for Governor, and who are in favor of the coalesence principle of the union, are bound in honor to vote for the democratic candidate. The whole instrument will be rendered nugatory, if the Democrats of this morning, in an old article, urges the rejection of the whole body of the people at the election. We copy the concluding paragraph on the leader in the Columbian:

"There is one way to prevent the success of the Democratic party, and that is by voting for Free Soil candidates. Sparse is—kick it out or up, anything thing. But it should be borne that it should receive a thousand votes in the county of Suffolk, and if the friends can be of service in securing its triumphant rejection, and only in city, but throughout the State, that service we feel confident will be most cheerfully rendered."

The War Question. The aspect of affairs in Europe begin to look more and more squally. The prospect of an amicable adjustment is steadily diminishing. From an article in Willmer & Smith, we extract the following:

One thing seems now certain, namely: In an ultimatum with our declared principles and policy. We hope it will all end well, but the latter seem fixed. Constantinople by no means warrants the belief that the Emperor of Russia is mindful to what may have been the tenor of the proposals agreed upon at Vienna. It is not surprised that the Turks talk of being indemnified for their armaments. Omer Pasha is gaining his troops with great activity, and increasing the spirit and vigor of the army, of which his army has been brought. The Turks say that the Ottoman Empire is not to be dismembered; that when Russia has already taken from it the finest provinces, it will be time enough to say that the rest is impossible to say how the rest may be finally disposed of. Major McDonald, acting consul for Great Britain in the absence of Mr Muir, died of the epidemic on the 20th ult.

Russia by a Rose Mays. Edward H. Hathaway, of New Bedford, reports that he was robbed of $36, on Tuesday night, at the Eagle Hotel, in Charlestown, by a man who gave his name as David Smith, and slept in the room with him.

Masonic Fraternity. We learn that a certain miscreant, who passes as a minister of the Gospel of Truth, lately stood at a public meeting, that The can hold a Court with as much decorum as His Honor of our Police Court.

Sarsaparilla. Curious Alphabetical effect. One of twenty doses of men, between eighteen and twenty-eight years of age, on emigration in the United States, and most of the fraternity actually expect a similar honor. We "duly" say University in some such "clever" spot.

A terrible explosion occurred at Wheeling, Va., on Monday; twenty kegs of gunpowder exploded on the wharf, killing three persons instantly and throwing another into the river. The wharf boat was completely demolished, and the steamboat Ben Franklin No. 2 damaged. Several windows were shattered throughout the city.

Calamity. The Pittsburg Saville reports that a collection be taken in all the churches of Pittsburg to aid of the Fever sufferers in Can not Lowell she do something in the way of real charity? She should be pondered on.

The Boss Defeated says a gentleman on an adjoining town was so badly bitten in the hand by a grasshopper that he came near losing his arm, and in truth his life.

Timothy Lewis, aged 35, was drowned on Monday last, in Miller's River, at South Ashburnham, while attempting to cross the river on a log.

Two ladies walking under the telegraph wires in Cornwall, Orange county, N.Y., were struck by lightning on the 17th ult., and one was instantly killed; the other is recovering.

Gen. Wilson is preaching temperance in the Old Colony. He is a good temperance man.

A party of Hungary, D. L., caught turkey thanks to two bears.

CITY MATTERS.

Another Runaway. This noon Mr J. Johnson, a newspaper and telegraph operator in Wentworth's building, closed his store to go to dinner, and while absent his store was broken into and robbed of all its contents. The amount of property taken is not above $2000.

Returned. Rev. Mr Barry, who has been travelling for the benefit of his health, for several months past, has returned to this city. We are happy to see him looking much improved by his journey.

Installation. The installation of Rev. Augustus Woodbury, as pastor of the Lee street Unitarian Society, will take place next Sabbath.

Fire Fracas. The finest peaches we have ever seen are a new variety raised by E. H. Hall, of Chelmsford, some of which were brought into market this morning. They were bought by Col. Stratton, under the Museum, where the choicest fruits are always kept.

Sunday School. The musical friends of Mr Gilpatrick will be pleased to learn that the fall term of his Singing School will commence next Monday evening, in the John Street Baptist Church. The trifling cost of learning to sing is money well spent.

☞ In the Police Court, this morning, Patrick Lynch was fined $2 and costs for being drunk. Could not pay, and was committed to jail.

Washington Athenæum. This society, after a recess of two months, will meet at Mozart Hall, next Saturday evening, at 7 1-2 o'clock. Among other exercises, the following resolution will be discussed:—Resolved, That the hours of labor should not be regulated by any Legislative action. The friends of the society are invited to be present.—[Voz.

Books, Magazines, &c.

Redbook; or, What'll Buy My Watermelon? This is the title of the second volume of a new and beautiful series of juvenile books, entitled, My Uncle Toby's Library, by Francis Forrester, Esq. This library consists of twelve volumes, elegantly bound, and illustrated with a large number of fine engravings. The first volume, Arthur Ellerslie; or, Silver Bay, was noticed some time since. The second is now on our table. This will be speedily followed by Minnie Brown; or, The Clouds Gilt. The whole library will be completed in the course of the summer and fall.—Each number is a complete story in itself, but there is a connection between the whole series. Published by Geo. C. Rand, and for sale by Redding & Co., 8s Cornhill, to whom all orders should be addressed.

Putnam's Monthly. The September number of this interesting periodical has just arrived. It contains among other articles of interest, one on "Our New President," which is ably penned. G. P. Putnam & Co., New York, publishers. For sale at the booksellers.

Hawks's New Monthly. We have just received the September number of this unequalled Magazine, from Partridge & Co., Boston. For sale by A. P. Walker. We are also indebted to Merrill & Stowe for the same favor.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

Promotion. John McNeil, Esq., of Lowell, of Thomaston, has been promoted to the post of Surveyor, vice L. M. Parker resigned. Further appointments in the Boston Custom House:—Gideon A. Stiles, Inspector, vice McNeil promoted; Benjamin Hudson, Inspector, vice J. W. Davis, appointed Clerk. John H. Jackson, aid to the revenue.

Disasters on the Coast. About 12 o'clock yesterday morning the passenger station on the Boston and Maine railroad, in Somerville, was discovered by fire, which is believed to have been kindled by an incendiary. The loss is not far from $1000. There was no insurance. Although the engines have been put in the construction of another depot have been taken.

Fatal Railroad Accident. Near Lynn, upon the Eastern Railroad, on Monday last, an employed upon the road was struck by an approaching train and so much injured that he died in a short time. The accident happened in consequence of his stepping forward to brush some gravel from the track.

☞ The octogenarian fogy of the Advertiser has the effrontery to call the able and learned editor of the Atlas "scandalicus." This is quite rich, for such an "scandal" as he.

Fire Hounds. There are reports that the army of Honduras have mounted upon Guatemala, and have taken possession of the department of Chiquimula, the governor of which Guatemalian forces having deserted to General Cabañas. The movement was effected on the 16th of June. The advance are to the 25th of June from the capital. Departments are on the side of "Democracy of" their regions, that the intelligence is of little moment.

Railroad Collision. The Telegraph reports a collision on Monday night at the Philadelphia and Saratoga Railroad, near Saratoga, by which Daniel Osborn, of Delaware, was instantly killed. A passenger belonging to New Hampshire, was badly hurt, and several others more or less injured.

☞ A bill is before the British Parliament, which authorizes, by unanimous vote of ecclesiastical courts, the appointment of a commissioner, appointed by the crown for that purpose.

Ll. D. Since the sale-report that Horace Greeley had been made a doctor of civil laws, the papers have been corrected to twenty-seven, twenty-eight years of age, an emigration in the United States, and most of the fraternity actually expect a similar honor. We duly" say University in some such "clever" spot.

The manufacturers of B in the hands of purchasers will keep up its good reputation. We understand that the original manufacturers properties will be manufactured by Messrs. Hall & Co., at the old stand. Purchasers of Dr Brandreth's remedy are to be careful to observe that the name of Hall & Co. is on the box.

Alfred L. Sumner Adair. This medical student resides 9 from every head. The way of the Worcester magazine can't hold him.

Oh, Alfred dear, it's very queer,—and really I'm quite provoked,—that you should set the world a joking, by your conduct so absurd and so provoking. Oh, Alfred dear, it's very clear, (though I'm sorry to say it,) that you're a goose, (though I'm sorry to say it,) that you're a goose, (though I'm sorry to say it,) that you're a goose.

Why Is It to be Dumb? A writer in the Northampton Courier proposes the election of Henry Wilson, of Natick, and Henry E. Dwight, of Boston, as the Democratic candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor at the time.

This is one of the most ingenious suggestions which is to give the people their head. It will not meet a response, however, in those who have been accustomed not to be "dumb" in the contemplation of the past year. The democratic party has been "dumb" to the will of the people, and to the wishes of its own members, and has refused to be "dumb" to the dictation of the office and the office seeker. Is it the office and the office seeker that the democratic party is to be "dumb" to? Is it the office and the office seeker that the democratic party is to be "dumb" to? The Democratic party has pushed a great deal of modesty to the front in the way of nominations. The Democratic party has been "dumb" to the will of the people; that enough. Democrats would be sure to be "dumb" to give the Whigs the offices, and not to be "dumb" to the offices themselves. Democrats would be sure to be "dumb" to be content to their party. But Democrats could not be "dumb" to the dictation of the office and the office seeker

BEEF, PORK, LARD, HAM, POULTRY, BUTTER, CHEESE, EGGS, &c.

THE subscriber, having formed the co-partnership with Mr. CHAS. E. CARTER, late Merchant's Clerk, under the name of

JOSEPH MERRITT & CO.,

for the purpose of doing a Commission business in the above articles, would respectfully solicit a share of the public patronage.

JOSEPH MERRITT.

Lowell, April 10, 1855. apr19

HOSE'S SALVE

Has become a household word in this community, and is now used by all classes. It is a sure remedy for Piles, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Sore Lips, Sore Eyes, Sore Nipples, Scald Head, Ringworm, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Chapped Hands, Corns, Bunions, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Felons, Whitlow, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Wounds, Sprains, Chafing, Chapped Breast, Inflammation, Erysipelas, Mosquito Bites, Poisoned Wounds, Fever Blisters, Sore Heels, Chronic Sore Eyes, Tumors, Boils, Carbuncles, Fistula, Abscesses

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Friday, September 8, 1848.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

The Whig State Convention will assemble at Worcester, on Wednesday, the 20th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer and Receiver General, Auditor, Attorney General, and twelve Councillors, to be supported at the ensuing election.

The Whig Electors of the several Congressional Districts will also assemble at the same time and place, and nominate candidates for Electors of President and Vice President of the United States.

The Whig Electors of the several Senatorial Districts will also assemble at the same time and place, and nominate candidates for Senators.

The Whig Electors of the several Counties will also assemble at the same time and place, and nominate candidates for Sheriffs, Commissioners of Insolvency, and Clerks of the Courts.

The Whig Electors of the several Representative Districts will also assemble at the same time and place, and nominate candidates for Representatives to the General Court.

The Whig Electors of the several Cities and Towns will also assemble at the same time and place, and choose Delegates to the Whig State Convention.

The Whig Electors of the several Wards in the City of Boston will also assemble at the same time and place, and choose Delegates to the Whig State Convention.

The Whig Electors of the several Counties will also assemble at the same time and place, and choose Delegates to the Whig State Convention.

The Whig Electors of the several Districts will also assemble at the same time and place, and choose Delegates to the Whig State Convention.

The Whig Electors of the several Towns will also assemble at the same time and place, and choose Delegates to the Whig State Convention.

The Whig Electors of the several Wards in the City of Lowell

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 9, 1853. NO. 4160

NEW YORK LAND, FAR, POULTRY, BUTTER,

HOLT'S HAIR DYE!

HOLT'S HAIR DYE!

HOLT'S HAIR DYE!

The close of the carnival was not almost sufficient to account for the universal delight. Even at noon the spread through some of the crowded neighborhoods of the metropolis was undiminished in the least degree. Its height of fun in noise and popularity, he was about to make his final appearance. Jemmy, did kindly lead succulent to crown him with the laurels of their gratitude and admiration.

A moment of lamentation arose from the assembled multitude on account of the imperial song bird, but was soon drowned in the rich tones of the orchestra which performed the most enchanting melodies; while numerous harlequins in the picturesque garb of Shakspeare, bandied repartee and compliments in the fair recesses of the house, and a rain of fragrant flowers fell from above upon the delighted audience.

The actor this evening surpassed himself—He made an indescribable impression, holding the hearts of the thousands before him in his hat power. When the curtain fell, they rose en masse, and the universal shout, "Encore!" rang through the immense saloon. The reception given was of the most extended description. It was 3 jubilee, as if Venice welcomed home her bravest soldier, or the mighty Doge had just celebrated his espousal with the fair Adriatic. Bravado made a sign that he wished to speak, and immediately the stillness of death reigned around. He stepped forward and attended a graceful farewell to his beloved countrymen, thanking them for their generous encouragement and expert during his short but glorious career. The sions were renewed, bouquets were showered upon the stage; but Bravado raised his hand once more, and again silence was produced.

"My lords," cried he, with all the fire of an impetuous Italian, "this is the last day of the carnival; in an hour, this theatre will be metamorphosed into a ball room, and you will all be whirling in the giddy mazes of the mazourka. The actor's vocation never will become a shepherd, and the actress a milk-maid; but the latter would be a life-sick hermit, and the former would exclaim an eternal farewell. I will no more to lay aside my task forever, my promise upon your friendship, I would fain challenge you to take part in a pious and God-pleasing duty. While you are all hurrying in the bosom of your families, and revelling in the superabundance of the luxuries of our native continent languish in the deserts of Barbary, in the mines of Saxony plastic toil, fall and sink in the burning sands, their sight inhale the pestilential air of the streets. It is for this lady cause that I have come to the last time to assemble you, and that I ought be confident to purchase the freedom of my fellow-countrymen. Now has the hour arrived; to-night, in the palace Contarini, the most splendid of all the balls ever used—expects to receive from me the gift of Venice. I go thither; follow, my lords, and you, my noble ladies!"

The whole assembly rose. Bravado stepped quickly of the stage, and down the broad steps of the theatre, where placed himself at the head of the glittering crowd, marched quickly forward to the place of destination. They were greeted by the populace with loud applause, and the whole was accompanied their progress with songs.

In the eastern half of the Palace Contarini sat the Fallow Superior of the monastery of St. Ignatius. On his right was the professor of the Greek language at the University. The glorious procession, headed by Bravado, approached the threshold of the hall. The religious entered hastily, cast a curse of gold at the feet of their enemy, and cried with a voice almost choked by emotion: "Reverend father, I redress my word. Behold, for me, that Gold will accept not in my dying hour!"

"My son, be of good cheer! Amid all the offerings made to God from a pure heart, the sacrifice of Jephtha will not be the least in His sight."

The value of gold and precious stones piled up before the monk amounted to above a million of ducats; then the man requested; it was enough, and more than enough, to break the fetters of every servant-maid pining beneath the African yoke. To the noble ladies present he left the feeling voluntarily offered their chains, earrings, rings, their pearl-embroidered fans—everything with which they had adorned themselves. The Inquisitor was ready to receive and restore the noble deeds of the great, followed their example in this instance, and added their offerings to the sparkling store.

Never had the carnival terminated so triumphantly.

Now many days later, two ships sailed from the shores of Venice. On board the first was Bravado's wife, with his treasure, was setting forth to Africa, to complete his redemption enterprise; the other bore Boccolo and his father to Pavia—the latter with gold and lost ramifications of the celebrated tragedian.

GOUGH, THE TEMPERANCE LECTURER. Dr. Cudworth, editor of the British Banner, thus describes the appearance of Mr Gough when lecturing, in an article quoted in the New York Tribune:

Mr Gough is a well-adjusted mixture of the rare, strong, and delicate. He is short, in English Garment. Gough is, in all respects, a man of his voice, and in force of expression, on a scale considerably lower than the great Irish orators.

Seeing himself, he gives rest to his audience, and listens, both mental and physical. There is no nervous closeness of all over all the audience. Gough is not a man to impress one at first sight about to do anything remarkable. He sits down and seems unmoved from all sides. It was Johnson, as if Venice welcomed home her bravest soldier, or the mighty Doge had just celebrated his espousal with the fair Adriatic. Bravado made a sign that he wished to speak, and immediately the stillness of death reigned around. He stepped forward and attended a graceful farewell to his beloved countrymen, thanking them for their generous encouragement and expert during his short but glorious career. The sions were renewed, bouquets were showered upon the stage; but Bravado raised his hand once more, and again silence was produced.

"My lords," cried he, with all the fire of an impetuous Italian, "this is the last day of the carnival; in an hour, this theatre will be metamorphosed into a ball room, and you will all be whirling in the giddy mazes of the mazourka. The actor's vocation never will become a shepherd, and the actress a milk-maid; but the latter would be a life-sick hermit, and the former would exclaim an eternal farewell. I will no more to lay aside my task forever, my promise upon your friendship, I would fain challenge you to take part in a pious and God-pleasing duty. While you are all hurrying in the bosom of your families, and revelling in the superabundance of the luxuries of our native continent languish in the deserts of Barbary, in the mines of Saxony plastic toil, fall and sink in the burning sands, their sight inhale the pestilential air of the streets. It is for this lady cause that I have come to the last time to assemble you, and that I ought be confident to purchase the freedom of my fellow-countrymen. Now has the hour arrived; to-night, in the palace Contarini, the most splendid of all the balls ever used—expects to receive from me the gift of Venice. I go thither; follow, my lords, and you, my noble ladies!"

The whole assembly rose. Bravado stepped quickly of the stage, and down the broad steps of the theatre, where placed himself at the head of the glittering crowd, marched quickly forward to the place of destination. They were greeted by the populace with loud applause, and the whole was accompanied their progress with songs.

In the eastern half of the Palace Contarini sat the Fallow Superior of the monastery of St. Ignatius. On his right was the professor of the Greek language at the University. The glorious procession, headed by Bravado, approached the threshold of the hall. The religious entered hastily, cast a purse of gold at the feet of their enemy, and cried with a voice almost choked by emotion: "Reverend father, I redress my word. Behold, for me, that Gold will accept not in my dying hour!"

"My son, be of good cheer! Amid all the offerings made to God from a pure heart, the sacrifice of Jephtha will not be the least in His sight."

The value of gold and precious stones piled up before the monk amounted to above a million of ducats; then the man requested; it was enough, and more than enough, to break the fetters of every servant-maid pining beneath the African yoke. To the noble ladies present he left the feeling voluntarily offered their chains, earrings, rings, their pearl-embroidered fans—everything with which they had adorned themselves. The Inquisitor was ready to receive and restore the noble deeds of the great, followed their example in this instance, and added their offerings to the sparkling store.

Never had the carnival terminated so triumphantly.

Now many days later, two ships sailed from the shores of Venice. On board the first was Bravado's wife, with his treasure, was setting forth to Africa, to complete his redemption enterprise; the other bore Boccolo and his father to Pavia—the latter with gold and lost ramifications of the celebrated tragedian.

GOUGH, THE TEMPERANCE LECTURER. Dr. Cudworth, editor of the British Banner, thus describes the appearance of Mr Gough when lecturing, in an article quoted in the New York Tribune:

Mr Gough is a well-adjusted mixture of the rare, strong, and delicate. He is short, in English Garment. Gough is, in all respects, a man of his voice, and in force of expression, on a scale considerably lower than the great Irish orators.

Seeing himself, he gives rest to his audience, and listens, both mental and physical. There is no nervous closeness of all over all the audience. Gough is not a man to impress one at first sight about to do anything remarkable. He sits down and seems unmoved from all sides. It was Johnson, as if

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Saturday, September 3, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

The Whig State Convention will assemble at the Whig Hall, in Boston, on WEDNESDAY, the 28th day of September, at 11 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer and Receiver General, and Auditor of Accounts, to be supported at the November election.

August 18, 1853. JOHN C. PARK, Chairman.

THE ADVERTISER. We lately took occasion to put to our neighbor of the above name the question, whether that paper would support candidates for the legislature who, if elected, would assist to make Henry Wilson Governor. The Advertiser replies:—

"CERTAINLY WE SHALL for the best of all reasons, we must. If Bishop is not elected by the people, our representatives are sent to the Senate some other candidate than Bishop—they must send one."

Here, then, we have the organ of the Coalition for Middlesex county—a paper which professes to stand on the Baltimore platform, a paper pledged to resist all agitation of the slavery question in or out of Congress; a paper which sustains the administration of President Pierce, and which, we have every reason to believe, is supported by the administration—a paper which unequivocally avowing that it is ready with alacrity and zeal to assist in raising to the chief executive magistracy of this Commonwealth a man who is a sworn agitator—a man who has pledged himself, and continues to pledge himself over and over again, to agitate the question of slavery, to denounce the compromise measures of 1850, to resist the fugitive slave law, and to use all means in his power to procure the repeal of those measures! What fellowship can there be between such a paper and the Whig party? Is it the fugitive slave law, and to use all means in his power to procure the repeal of those measures! What fellowship will the South say to this? Is this the policy we were promised when Franklin Pierce, a young lawyer grown from the courts of New Hampshire, stood at the east wing of the Capitol and swore that oath which made the free men of the nation bound by it?

Is Franklin Pierce about to encourage Free-soil gubernatorial candidates all the country over? If this is Pierce's policy in the North right in South Carolina, it is right in Kentucky! Now has the hour arrived; and will this administration pursue the same policy in all the States? Will it first insult the moderating spirit of Calhoun, of Connelly Cavanaugh, of Massachusetts with an abolition governor? and next cause Clay and Calhoun to wince in their coffins by means of the same piece of policy? Will government follow into the hands of open Democracy, as it follows the footsteps of the Free-soilers, and the Whig party will be ground to powder accompanied their progress with songs.

In the eastern half of the Palace Contarini sat the Fallow Superior of the monastery of St. Ignatius. On his right was the professor of the Greek language at the University. The glorious procession, headed by Bravado, approached the threshold of the hall. The religious entered hastily, cast a purse of gold at the feet of their enemy, and cried with a voice almost choked by emotion: "Reverend father, I redress my word. Behold, for me, that Gold will accept not in my dying hour!"

"My son, be of good cheer! Amid all the offerings made to God from a pure heart, the sacrifice of Jephtha will not be the least in His sight."

The value of gold and precious stones piled up before the monk amounted to above a million of ducats; then the man requested; it was enough, and more than enough, to break the fetters of every servant-maid pining beneath the African yoke. To the noble ladies present he left the feeling voluntarily offered their chains, earrings, rings, their pearl-embroidered fans—everything with which they had adorned themselves. The Inquisitor was ready to receive and restore the noble deeds of the great, followed their example in this instance, and added their offerings to the sparkling store.

Never had the carnival terminated so triumphantly.

Now many days later, two ships sailed from the shores of Venice. On board the first was Bravado's wife, with his treasure, was setting forth to Africa, to complete his redemption enterprise; the other bore Boccolo and his father to Pavia—the latter with gold and lost ramifications of the celebrated tragedian.

GOUGH, THE TEMPERANCE LECTURER. Dr. Cudworth, editor of the British Banner, thus describes the appearance of Mr Gough when lecturing, in an article quoted in the New York Tribune:

Mr Gough is a well-adjusted mixture of the rare, strong, and delicate. He is short, in English Garment. Gough is, in all respects, a man of his voice, and in force of expression, on a scale considerably lower than the great Irish orators.

Seeing himself, he gives rest to his audience, and listens, both mental and physical. There is no nervous closeness of all over all the audience. Gough is not a man to impress one at first sight about to do anything remarkable. He sits down and seems unmoved from all sides. It was Johnson, as if

GENERAL SUMMARY.

☞ Old Adam Hyde, of Bridgewater, died on the 23d inst., at the ripe age of ninety-four years.

☞ Two children of Mr. Gardner, living on the road to Middleton, were drowned in a pond on Friday.

☞ Rev. Orin Fowler, late U. S. Consul at Rio Janeiro, died in Boston, on the 24th inst., of typhus fever, aged 52.

☞ The Boston Post says that the receipts of the Eastern Railroad, for the month of August, were $64,000.

☞ It is said that the brig Sarah, which went ashore, took fire, and blew up off Cape Cros, on before stated, had on board three hundred kegs of powder. The vessel and cargo were insured.

RECEIPTS, Sept. 1. At the election to-day delegates to the Convention, there were quite a number of votes, while the hard spell about 10 o'clock; and on an average throughout the ten hours, about 1 in 3 of the Middlesex delegates were polled.

☞ The Robbery of A. J. Simpson's Daguerreotype rooms, of 12 gold lockets, turns out to have been perpetrated by a young man named Stephen Morley, who had been a few days in Simpson's employ. Morley is only 18 years old. He was arrested in Boston, to-day, where he sold the lockets for safe—the proceeds of which Judge Court, he pleaded guilty, and was committed in default of $500 bail.

☞ Bayson, 43 Central Street, is to-day opening, direct from the latest New York importation, some remarkably beautiful brocatels, buntzes, and other dress and gold chintzes. Ladies will please "make a note of it."

FRIEND COFFIN—Saturday, Sept. 3. Tarwon Ridley, aged 72, drowned, six months Lowell residence.

Samuel B. Dow, lawyer of South Reading, deputy sheriff, sentence postponed till Friday next.

Joseph Hadley, lawyer of gold lockets from A. J. Simpson, bound over in $600 to Court of Common Pleas.

James Keegan, assault and battery, fined $3 and costs.

FORGERY. We learn from the Portsmouth Chronicle that Dr. Westbury Gilman, of Epping, was arrested by U. S. Deputy Marshal Towle, on Tuesday last, and taken before Hon. Asa Webster, Esq., U. S. Commissioner, on a charge of having, guilty, in connection with C. L. Godfrey, of Epping, of forging a marriage certificate and affidavit, whereby he fraudulently obtained a pension of $96, for a old lady in Epping. It is said $1200 was obtained. The arrest was effected till Tuesday, at 10, A. M., at which time it was found that Dr. Gilman was missing, leaving his sureties to pay the bonds for his appearance for his non-appearance. In the afternoon, Col. George, U. S. Attorney, notified the Commissioner that Dr. Gilman was not to be found, and requested that a hearing of the case vs. Godfrey might be held on Friday at 2 o'clock, at Epping, to which time and place the Commissioner adjourned the Court.

RAILROAD TREASURY. The Boston Saturday Gazette says that the Boston and Worcester Railroad has a new and curious invention for the use of railroads. It consists of a car-wheel, which, being placed at any station upon a rail road car, will receive the whole or all the fares of the conductor's office on the road, the passengers paying as usual, and the conductor of cars, whether baggage, let or fill, can not sell while the fare box is attached to the car-wheel. Even more motion to it than the present system, and more safety.

DEBT OF THE UNITED STATES. The outstanding funded debt of the United States amounts to $59,464,371. The amount included in the $60,000,000 promised to Texas not yet issued, is still to $1,000,000 of the debt already in existence.

An Boston Sun—Baltimore, Sept. 3. Mr. Gwin, one of the members of the New Orleans Delegation, arrived here this morning, and left for Washington this afternoon.

PHYSICIAN LOCKWOOD. The Massachusetts Medical Association have decided to give a course of lectures this season, and have engaged the Tremont Temple for the purpose. It is now contemplated to have the course on Sunday evenings. The following lectures will be delivered by Hon. Robert C. Winthrop.

DEATH OF A CHIPPENDALE. Mr James Dalton, aged 74 years, died suddenly of apoplexy, in Falmouth, Me., a day or two since.

☞ An attempt was made privately to fire the dwelling of Mr O. F. R. Jones, the British Consul at Norfolk.

☞ The number of changes of names in the State, during the year ending the present month, was forty-three. Under the new law such changes take place by authority of Judges of Probate, instead of by legislative enactment.—Under the last year of the old system, no less than one hundred and eighty-six persons had their names changed.

ARRIVAL. An Indian ship was lost on the 21st or 22d of June last, near the mouth of Bombay Harbor. When the vessel struck, the boats were got out, but, between those who got into the boats and those who were left, were crushed to death by the falling of the mast, three hundred persons lost their lives. Among the boats were mostly pilgrims returning from Arabia.

DEATH IN A STAGE COACH. The Kingston News records the death on Monday last of a lady in a stage coming from that village to Dalhi, Dalhousie. The lady had just arrived in the country from Scotland, and was on her journey to the village of Edgerton, she was found to be dead.

GUEST. One of our Boston exchanges, in speaking of a special ordination at Providence, says that Bishop Eastburn officiated, and Clergy were present from the different states in the diocese.

☞ The President's friends deny equivocally that there is any foundation for the rumored coolness between the President and General Dix, relative to the Spanish mission.

☞ The spoon taken out by the steamer Arabia, on Wednesday, amounted to $117,-000.

Fireman's Field. The Mansion Co., No. 13, of Lowell, arrived in this city at noon, yesterday, and marched to the Common, with Gilmore Co., No. 8, Capt. Rowell. The Lowell boys turned out in their best looking costumes, and made a fine display. The Volunteers turned their attention to the Common, and the Lowell boys were escorted to Taylor's Hall, where refreshments were provided for the entertainment of the visitors. The companies dined, we understand, in the Common Hall, and had a very good time, got up by the landlord, Mr. Dennis Taylor, of the old Lowell Island, and we are glad to see he don't know how many calls he has had to the Common. Mr. Taylor is another from Silver Grey Company, No. 10, Capt. Rowell, and we are glad to see such delightful times were in the best spirits, and the Lowell boys were in the best spirits, and the Lowell boys were in the best spirits, and the Lowell boys

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 5, 1858. NO. 4161.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.
TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.
Payable in advance—no deduction—if 50 cts. withdrawn!
Office—No. 29 CENTRAL STREET,
(Adjoining the Post Office.)

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at $1 per square for three insertions, and 25 cts. per square for each subsequent insertion. Payment required in advance, in all cases where an account is not open.
Yearly and Semi-annual advertisements inserted at prices according to the room and space occupied.
☞ The proprietor will not hold himself responsible for any notice of Marriages or Deaths, unless indorsed by the physician of the deceased.
☞ Advertisements not having a specified number of insertions will be continued until forbid, and charged accordingly.
☞ Transient notices must be paid for before insertion.
☞ Job Printing executed with neatness and despatch, and on reasonable terms.
☞ No paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing
NEATLY & PROMPTLY EXECUTED
AT THE
Lowell Daily Journal & Courier,
By S. J. Varney.

P. H. HIGGINS,
SLATER,
Proceeds to Canton, Lowell.
☞ Such accord with State, Tin, Zinc, or Copper, is not to be found. ap24

WM. C. GRAY,
DEPUTY SHERIFF,
Office—Court House, Lowell,
Assistance, No. 4 Clinton street.
Residence, No. 4 Tyler street.
Orders entered by Mail or Express will be promptly attended to. ap24

C. S. HASTMAN & Co.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
MANUFACTURERS OF
Pectoral Balsam and Hastman's Mineral Water,
CORNER STORE, HUNNE'S EXCHANGE,
LOWELL, MASS.
ap24

DAVID DANA,
OPPESMITH, BRASS FOUNDER,
AND MACHINIST,
Jackson street, opposite Hamilton Print Works.
1841

MUTUAL SHERIFF LIFE INS. COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office—No. 72 Commercial.

HUGH MAHON,
DRAPER AND TAILOR,
No. 53 Central st.,
LOWELL, MASS
ap24

J. G. CHASE,
CIVIL ENGINEER,
No. 9 Warren Block, (up stairs,
Corner of Merrimack and Dutton streets.
Lowell, Mass.
ap24

NOTICE TO FARMERS.
I would call the attention of Farmers to my IMPROVED PLOWS,
for sale at my shop in Lowell, on Jackson street. I have on hand at present a large assortment of other manufacturer's implements, which I will sell low for cash. Also, Cutting Boxes, Hay Cutters, Corn Shellers, Grain Cradles, Hay Rakes, Wire Screens, Wire Sieves, Wire Riddles, Wire Mats, Wire Work of all kinds, Wire Cloth, Wire Rope, Iron Pumps, Lead Pipe, Sheet Lead, Tin Pipe, Sheet Tin, Sheet Iron, Sheet Zinc, Sheet Copper, Copper Bottoms, Tinned Copper Bottoms, Copper Rivets, Tinned Copper Rivets, Iron Rivets, Tinned Iron Rivets, Copper Nails, Tinned Copper Nails, Iron Nails, Tinned Iron Nails, Copper Wire, Tinned Copper Wire, Iron Wire, Tinned Iron Wire, Brass Wire, Steel Wire, Zinc Wire, Brass Work of all kinds, Copper Work of all kinds, Tinned Copper Work of all kinds, Iron Work of all kinds, Tinned Iron Work of all kinds, Zinc Work of all kinds, Steel Work of all kinds, Lead Work of all kinds, Tin Work of all kinds, Sheet Iron Work of all kinds, Sheet Zinc Work of all kinds, Sheet Copper Work of all kinds, Sheet Lead Work of all kinds, Sheet Tin Work of all kinds, Sheet

Daily Journal & Courier.

9TH NO 8VA 11/81 HAL LITE

Parliament was prorogued on the 20th by commission. The speech was entirely congratulatory. America was not mentioned.

CITY MATTERS.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the City Central Committee at the Democratic Rooms, this (Saturday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock. A general attendance is requested.

Per order.

LOST!

Yesterday, between Hurd & Worthen's shops, a bunch of about SIXTY, or so large keys. They were dropped in Merrimack, Shattuck or Market streets. Any person finding the same, on dropping them in the Post Office, will be very much obliged.

Lowell, Sept. 2, 1852.

SHIP TO HALIFAX, ST. Northumberland, offers a fast sail of 48 hours. Steamboat Express leaves Boston at 6 o'clock, P. M. Passage $2.50.

For tickets apply on board, at the office on the wharf, foot of Lincoln street, Boston.

aug28 3m

MR. CHARLES LOCKWOOD. Last evening, agreeably to the request of a number of citizens, Mr. Lockwood delivered a most able and brilliant lecture on Temperance and the Maine Liquor Law, in the Kirk st. (Rev. Dr. Blanchard's) church. Mr. C. spoke over an hour; but we observed a very general regret that he stopped so soon! We hope he will favor the citizens once more before his last power with such admirable talents. He has fairly earned a commendation with notes; he is a most intimate friends and a brother in arms, and served with General Sir John Moore in the campaigns of the Peninsula.

Duelling in Chatham has broken up.

The war question will in speedy and unexpected manner. The Czar will evacuate the Principalities.

The king of Ava has submitted to the demands of the British authorities and peace has been proclaimed in Burmah. Trade in India is dull.

In China, the imperialists, who were assisted by foreigners, were repulsed by the insurgent forces in an attempt to recapture the city of Foo. The Chinese markets were generally dull.

The Divan recommends the sultan to accept the war.

Admiral Sir George Cockburn died recently aged 82 years, and Sir Charles Napier is reported to be at the point of death.

America will not occupy Rosetta.

A slight outbreak is reported in Servia.

The remains of Berlioche have been duly consigned by the sultan for Russian leavings.

Capitalists are wanted to construct a ship canal through the land of the Isthmus to the Black Sea, thus avoiding the mouth of the Dardanelles.

The emperor and empress of France have gone to Dieppe.

The minister of Austria is affianced to the princess Elizabeth of Bavaria.

The import duty on Mexican jobs into the two Sicilies has been doubled.

Some popular demonstration against the authorities were made in Leghorn.

The regent of lowadotta from Greece has been proclaimed.

The Danish war is at an end.

Gen. Mouticlon, who shared the fortunes of Napoleon's captivity at St. Helena, died in Paris recently.

A conspiracy of Mussulmen to kill Christians had just been discovered at Aleppo.

An Austrian interpreter officially announced that Austria has no intentions to encroach on the sovereignty of Turkey.

The appointment of the American Rights Commercial gave a splendid ball on board their vessel to the queen of Piedmont. Capt. Ingraham, who had left at Smyrna for Mr. Louis, was present.

DIRECTORY. To the published pamphlet entitled, Constitutions Proposition, the heirlooms wariners and clerks of the Convention have appended a note stating "Amendments adopted by the Convention," which do not appear. Such articles are printed in italic form and enclosed in brackets as point—point from printed proposed the Constitution." If there an amendment has been made, by adding words to an article or paragraph in the existing Constitution, the amendment is printed in italic."

A perusal of this note confirmed many in an idea to surmise that all was not right.

Execution of the same mechanical labor; and we had intended to institute a comparison between the two documents; but the publisher of the Lawrence Courier has, however, anticipated us, and, as an article of unusual ability has appeared two columns of gross frauds, culpable deceptions, and disreputation; in the said article we refer our readers to that. Our neighbor shows that there are serious, essential alterations interposed in almost every section, both verbal and substantive. What reliance can be placed on the probity and good faith of such ancient ignoramuses? How shall we honestly vote for the Constitution and what is understood? The matter, however, gives us little trouble, since we are considered that the whole fabric will be hauled to ruin together with its supporters and illiterate authors.

THE PRESS.

The Advertiser takes offence at our calling The Transcript and Chronicle no party papers. Because these papers have denounced the proposed Constitution and opposed its adoption, the Advertiser says they are Whigs, "Whigs all over!" Now that Chronicle has appointed Democratic delegates and the conduct of the Whig Governor, and the action of the late Whig Legislature; it is unnecessary to appeal to the record of the Republican, and has no Whig character about it, save that on all matters of principle and public interest, it speaks out against partisan and political obliquity. The Transcript is an avowedly independent paper, and has opposed as many as such as abounds in such extravagant exuberance, in Chonic's Eulogy on Webster. We should think that more than two thousand persons assembled to hear this "lion" of the American forum.

ANNEXATION TO HONOR HERSELF. A young woman, who called her name Jane White, attempted to drown herself in the Merrimack river, from the Bridge street, this forenoon, but was prevented by some people who watched her movements, and rescued her from a watery grave.

Her husband is employed as a boiler maker in the Boston & Lowell Railroad shops, and had just been discovered at Abegog

THE COURIER
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE.

FAST PRESSES,

JOB TYPE,

PRINTING

LOW PRICES

CARDS,
PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

Lovet's Wahpene

PHYSICIANS, DRUGGISTS & DEALERS,
SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS,
MANUFACTURE AND KEEP FOR SALE

PATENT MEDICINES

PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS,

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.

PATENT MEDICINES,

NEW TAILORING SALOON,

DR. TOBIAS'S
TRICOFLUON,
OR
HAIR INVIGORATOR.

SOLICE OF THE DEBIL

New Freight Arrangement

JEWELLER'S NOTICE!

NOTICE TO FARMERS.

SPRING OF COTTON SOBIETY.

HALF OF THOUSAND FLOWERS—

NEW SPRING GOODS.

BEAVER AND FELT HATS.

TOOTH POWDER.

NEW GOODS.

SPRING STOCK AND STYLES CLOTHS AND CLOTHING.

NEW DRIV STORE.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.

FOR SAL

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Tuesday, September 6, 1859

WING STATE COMMITTEE.

A meeting was held last night at the Whig Rooms, corner of Merrimack and Prescott streets, Lowell, when on motion of Mr. Nathaniel Wood, Mr. Wm. Perkins was chosen Chairman, and Mr. Wm. Hall, Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Wood, it was voted that the Chairman appoint a committee of one from each Congressional District to select the Whig State Committee for the ensuing year.

The Chairman appointed Messrs. Nathaniel Wood, Lowell, Moses Day, Lawrence, Wm. Hall, Lowell, Joseph Bowers, Haverhill, Nathaniel Wood, Newburyport, Wm. Perkins

THE COURIER.

JOB PRINTING

OFFICE,

Connected with Counting Room, Bindery, Stereotype, Electrotype, and Fancy Job Rooms.

This Office is supplied with all the materials necessary to execute every description of work, from the smallest Poster-Card to the largest Printing Card—together with all things pertaining to the art of Printing.

FAST PRESSES,

adapted to every description of work, from the smallest Poster-Card to the largest Printing Card—together with all things pertaining to the art of Printing.

JOB TYPE,

the proprietor believes that his facilities for executing every description of

PRINTING

are such as to enable him to answer all orders to the satisfaction of those who may favor him with their patronage.

The proprietor is prepared to execute promptly and on as

LOW PRICES

as can be offered any where.

BLANK BOOKS, AND MEDIUM POSTERS,

SHOP BILLS, PROGRAMMES,

CATALOGUES,

BILL HEADS, BLANKS,

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

SCRIBNER'S CARDS, TICKET PRINTING CHECK

PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

In black, blue or red ink, or Bronzes of every shade, on white or fancy colored paper.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of plain, pearl and fancy-tint envelopes, white, colored and marble CARDS, adapted to every description of work—in packs and in boards to suit the trade.

Lovet's Wahpene

WILL restore Gray Hair to its original color, and CURE FALLING HAIR, arrests a decay. To every person who has lost their hair, or is in danger of losing it, we say go to the Depot, No. 3 Tremont Row, New York, or to Dr. Burke, office 71 Chamber street, New York, and he will give you a bottle of the Wahpene, and if it does not do all we say it will, we will refund the money. Sold by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell; Hall & Co., Nashua; Hall & Co., Manchester; Dow & Co., Concord, and by druggists and dealers everywhere. Price 50 cents per bottle. For sale, wholesale and retail, by

STEPHEN MARCH, Proprietor,

No. 3 Tremont Row, Boston. Agent for E. Dupont Street, New York. Agent for Philadelphia, Stevens & Brother, No. 44 North Second street. Agent for Baltimore, Sands & Co., No. 4 South Calvert street. Agent for Albany, Wells & Co., No. 3 Exchange street. Agent for Buffalo, Hall & Co., No. 262 Main street. Agent for Cincinnati, Hall & Co., No. 3 Public Landing. Agent for Pittsburgh, Hall & Co., No. 56 Wood street. Agent for Chicago, Hall & Co., No. 3 Lake street. Agent for Detroit, Hall & Co., No. 3 Woodward's Block. Agent for Milwaukie, Hall & Co., No. 3 Wisconsin street. Agent for Toronto, Hall & Co., No. 3 Yonge street. Agent for Montreal, Hall & Co., No. 3 Great St. James street. Agent for Quebec, Hall & Co., No. 3 Palace street. Agent for Halifax, Hall & Co., No. 3 Granville street. Agent for St. John, N. B., Hall & Co., No. 3 Prince William street. Agent for Portland, Hall & Co., No. 3 Exchange street. Agent for Bangor, Hall & Co., No. 3 Main street. Agent for Augusta, Hall & Co., No. 3 Bridge street. Agent for Providence, Hall & Co., No. 3 Weybosset street. Agent for Worcester, Hall & Co., No. 3 Foster street. Agent for Springfield, Hall & Co., No. 3 Main street. Agent for Hartford, Hall & Co., No. 3 Main street. Agent for New Haven, Hall & Co., No. 3 Church street. Agent for Portland, Hall & Co., No. 3 Commercial street. Agent for Lowell, Hall & Co., No. 3 Merrimack street. Agent for Nashua, Hall & Co., No. 3 Main street. Agent for Manchester, Hall & Co., No. 3 Elm street. Agent for Concord, Hall & Co., No. 3 North Main street. Agent for Dover, Hall & Co., No. 3 Central street. Agent for Exeter, Hall & Co., No. 3 Water street. Agent for Portsmouth, Hall & Co., No. 3 Market street. Agent for Newburyport, Hall & Co., No. 3 State street. Agent for Salem, Hall & Co., No. 3 Essex street. Agent for Lynn, Hall & Co., No. 3 Market street. Agent for Boston, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for New York, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Philadelphia, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Baltimore, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Washington, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Richmond, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Charleston, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Savannah, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Mobile, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for New Orleans, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Galveston, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for San Francisco, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Sacramento, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Stockton, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Marysville, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Oroville, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Shasta, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Red Bluff, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Weaverville, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Trinity, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Humboldt, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Mendocino, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Sonoma, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Napa, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Solano, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Yolo, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Sutter, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Yuba, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Nevada, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Placer, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for El Dorado, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Amador, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Calaveras, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Tuolumne, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Mariposa, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Fresno, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Kern, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for San Luis Obispo, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Santa Barbara, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Los Angeles, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for San Diego, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for San Bernardino, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for San Mateo, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Santa Clara, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Santa Cruz, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for Monterey, Hall & Co., No. 3 Tremont Row. Agent for San Benito for hundreds of years, and would be no terror to the living. Let us, then, be thankful that we do not live in the days of witchcraft, when we should have fancied the world not big enough for two such great men as ourselves, and, instead of being friendly with him, would have fought him till one of us was killed. But then, with the Puritans it was the most spiritual, and, indeed, the only kind of marvel and miracle they understood and gloried in; and we should be fortunate indeed if we were ourselves free from any weakness.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Wednesday, September 7, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

A STATE CONVENTION of the WHIG PARTY of MASSACHUSETTS, will be held in the Town Hall in Pittsfield, on WEDNESDAY, the fourteenth day of September next, A. M. for the purpose of nominating a State Officer.

The several Whig Committees and Whig voters throughout the Commonwealth are requested to choose three times the number of Representatives to which they are entitled in the General Court.

JOHN BASCOM, Secretary.

August 16, 1853.

WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION.

A WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION will be held at Concord, on TUESDAY, the 13th day of September next, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The several Towns and Cities of the County are entitled to the following number of Delegates to represent them in said Convention, on account of the Governor's Council, viz:

FOUR S. LADD, Committee.

Concord, August 30, 1853.

The Convocation of the Proposed Constitution.

A correspondent of the Salem Register appears with a very lucid and able article, showing the ultimate purpose as to where and what the proposed Constitution may be. We propose to make a few extracts, altering the language in some trifling particulars, for the sake of condensation. The writer repels the charge of the Abolitionists, that Mr Otis P. Lord, &c., is the author of the sentence in the Boston letter.

In the passage of laws in the ordinary course of legislation, every bill must be reported written in a plain, round hand, without erasure and interlineation, with a wide margin, and written only upon one side of the sheet. The bill thus reported is subject to amendment in either branch until it is ordered to be engrossed. The engrossment thus ordered by the two branches is the transcript of the bill as amended, for in any of its stages it should be amended, by writing the same in a fair, round hand upon parchment, without erasure or interlineation. A committee appointed bills, reports that the bill is rightly and truly engrossed. After that neither branch nor both by themselves for its amendment, and if agreed to by the Governor and Council, it is signed by the signatures of the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House, and is sent to the Governor for his assent, and if signed by him it is deposited among the archives of the commonwealth.

If such care is proper in case of every spatial law or resolve passed by the Legislature, with what preeminent anxiety should the verification of the original, the protocol of any changes in the Constitution or fundamental law, in the Constitutional Convention the committee on the revision asked leave to report in print, and leave was given, and that the Printed Copy held in his hand during the last day of its session, a printed copy of the Constitution as reported. It was one of the first copies printed. Every member of the Convention knew that it's first issue was so erroneously and incorrectly printed, that before the morning adjourn, must a second edition, revised and corrected, was circulated among the members. Such was the assurance to be incorrect alas, and before night, these also multiply, a range was made, re-read and re-CORRECTED.

After all, on Monday evening, the last evening of the Convention, the appointing Judge of the Supreme Judicial Court having been omitted in all three of the printed editions, the Convention is to be a part of the fundamental law—if the matter sticks. This printed copy was carried out of the Convention by order of the Convention transferred to printers, and in the hands of a gentleman known as an instrument capable of verification and then of correction, and of carried out of the Convention, which adopted, if accepted, the people will have it as it is, and not as it is in the three months' mutilated, mismisled, erased and added to, it is put into the hands of the printers to be printed for the time being.

The people, to study their Constitution in Lowell, as they did their Bible in Geneva, in Scotland, the liberal person has it, and it is in print, and the people have it, and it is well written, and can not be disposed of with impunity.

The United States Government, in its various departments, has its printed copies of all official documents and instructions, acceptance of, one department, and the Constitution not yet the same presumption. That presumption will not be entertained, as to a Constitution. If it has been in a manuscript, and by very much more, it is not only an unofficial, but an untrusted and untrustworthy paper. The Constitution of Massachusetts will not be printed, and the Constitution of the United States will not even endorse a branches public, and that after the midnight of the first day of April.

To quote another, that, in a court of justice, it could be said that in "Constitution of the Proposed," as submitted, are not as they were, but as they were existing in the Convention. Certainly is indispensable. Doubt of such a character should be in the hold.

The article in the Lowell American, referred to yesterday, is a plain statement of the facts in relation to the Constitution unexpressed, and it must hardly with the arguments the power of any person that can be expressed after the publication of the Convention can do nothing to verify the Constitution as it was on the day after the Convention adjourned, on the second day of August, when the Constitutional Convention was no President; there was no Secretary; there was no Journal; but they had to adjourn to re-assemble in the Constitution of the Commonwealth, if indeed its have a Constitution and live under laws. At the present day, the Constitution may be sent to the second assistant and Mayor and Aldermen, and it is not to be LAWS by such an outrage.

Will the Convention adopt the instrument? It will be, for, We had it half them. Why should they not? We have had a recent from the people that it was wanted a change from the old Constitution, ultimately finding the negative, that the people were satisfied with it. Leaving individual wives to look for the new Constitution, and to find fault.

Having thus put before our readers the main plan of the Constitution, let us, in the next place, put this question to every candid man who reads these words: Have we any reliable evidence that the people are satisfied with the organization of the new system? Further comment is unnecessary.

☞ The Boston Commonwealth says that "the Democracy of Lowell would have a walk-over in the following Mr. Boutwell, on Saturday next." Well, we suppose they would have a walk-over if they had a candidate in the field. But they have not. The Democratic party has no candidate for Governor before the people, and will not have, unless they vote for Mr. Boutwell. The Democratic party is divided into two wings, and neither wing has the power to elect its candidate. Under these circumstances, the Democratic party has no candidate for Governor before the people, and will not have, unless they vote for Mr. Boutwell.

☞ The Boston Commonwealth says that the Democracy of Lowell would have a walk-over in the following Mr. Boutwell, on Saturday next.

THE COURIER
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE.

Corner of Merrimack and Middle streets, (entrance by the side door.)

FAST PRESSES,

Adapted to every description of work, from the smallest Circular to the largest Poster, and propelled by steam power, are among the many advantages possessed by this establishment.

JOB TYPE,

the proprietors believe that the facilities for executing any variety of

PRINTING

are such as to enable them to execute all orders in the neatest manner of their own firm and with their

The proprietors are determined to do work promptly, and on the

LOW PRICES

as can be offered by any others.

HANDBILLS AND BILLHEADS PRINTED,

CARD PLATES ENGRAVED,

CATALOGUES,

PROGRAMMES,

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

CARDS,

PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, or flowers of every shade, on paper of many elegant figures.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of plain, gold and bronzed embossed, white and colored CARDS, adapted for weddings, visiting cards, tickets of admission, &c. Orders by packets and in country mail to be punctually attended to.

Lovet's Wahpene

WILL cause Long Hair to be restored color, and prevent it from falling off. Whiskers, Moustaches, &c., will also be made to grow, and hair has the finest gloss and softness. Ladies will find it the best article in the world to keep the hair in curl, as it will curl, but to one half pass any article here, and will not injure the hair. Gentlemen will find it the best article to use after shaving. For sale at Dutcher's Perfumery, 5 Tremont Row, Boston, and at all the principal Druggists throughout the country. Price 50 cents per bottle. Where hair has been lost any W. B. Lovet, Boston, will send on receipt of 50 cents, a bottle of Wahpene, and on receipt of $1 will send a bottle of Wahpene and an ornamental comb that was worn by Wahpene Nonoto, the Indian Chief, who has hair 7 feet long. Wahpene Nonoto, the Indian Chief, when dead was found to be entirely bald. Wahpene is the hair restorer that was discovered by the Indians, and is now introduced to the white man. Wahpene Nonoto, the Indian Chief, when dead was found to be entirely bald. Wahpene is the hair restorer that was discovered by the Indians, and is now introduced to the white man. For sale by all Druggists. Price 50 cents per bottle.

JOSEPH BURNETT,
29 Tremont Row, Boston. Agent for E. Fairbank Stone-ware, Fairbank's Patent Lard Oil, Sperm and Whale Oil, Camphene, Burning Fluid, Lamps, &c. 1y

LOWELL WHISPERS.

FOR sale at the Periodical Depot, 5 Merrimack street, and by newsboys in all parts of the city.

NEW DRUG STORE.

THE subscriber has taken the store recently occupied by Mr. DEXTER, HOWE'S Patent Fancy Articles, Perfumery, Soaps, &c., for sale at wholesale and retail, at the lowest prices. Physicians' Prescriptions carefully compounded at all hours of the day and night. Country Merchants supplied on the most favorable terms. Remember the place, 5 Merrimack street, Lowell. JOHN C. DUTCHER.

NOTICE TO PERSONS

Who have purchased Patent Rights of Peters & Co. for Lowell and Chelmsford DAMAGED by the Flood of 1852, are requested to bring their papers to Mr. Stone's office, Merrimack Square, that the same may be endorsed by the Agent, and thereby secure to the purchaser the benefit of the Insurance Policy. STEPHEN MARSH, Agent.

ALL PERSONS

Who have purchased Patent Rights of Peters & Co. for Lowell and Chelmsford DAMAGED by the Flood of 1852, are requested to bring their papers to Mr. Stone's office, Merrimack Square, that the same may be endorsed by the Agent, and thereby secure to the purchaser the benefit of the Insurance Policy. STEPHEN MARSH, Agent.

RED BURR CONFECTIONERY.

THE subscriber would inform the public that he has removed to his new store, No. 14 Merrimack street, where he will be happy to see his friends and the public generally. Lowell, April 1, 1853. ALBERT BURR.

A CARD.

THE subscriber would inform his friends and the public that he has taken the store No. 14 Merrimack street, where he will be happy to see his friends and the public generally. Lowell, April 1, 1853. ALBERT BURR.

WORTH OF DOCTOR BOSSERT'S

WHICH he has annexed the complete supply of Lowell, and which he will sell at the Manufacturer's prices. Lowell, April 1, 1853. STEPHEN MARSH.

HALM OF THOUSAND FLOWERS

FOR sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers. Lowell, April 1, 1853.

DEATHS AND FELT HATS.

THE subscriber has just received a large assortment of the above goods, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Lowell, April 1, 1853. STEPHEN MARSH.

THE ORIENTAL PALACE, for the Cultivation and Preservation of the Hair, Whiskers, &c., is the only establishment in the city of Lowell where the genuine Oriental Preparations can be obtained. Lowell, April 1, 1853.

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY

IS WARRANTED TO CURE

SALT RHEUM, SCROFULA, OR KING'S EVIL,

BLOTCHES, SORES, PIMPLES, &c.

RED AND HAZEL FLOUR,

RECEIVED and for sale by the barrel or single bushel, at the store of the subscriber, No. 1 Merrimack square. Lowell, April 1, 1853. STEPHEN MARSH.

NOW OUT FOR FUN.

THE Comic Almanac for 1853 is now out, and for sale by the subscriber. Lowell, April 1, 1853. STEPHEN MARSH.

THE BEST

PERFUMERY, Soaps, Fancy Articles, &c., and for sale by the subscriber. Lowell, April 1, 1853. STEPHEN MARSH.

LOWELL ADVERTISER

FOR sale at the Periodical Depot, 5 Merrimack street, and by newsboys in all parts of the city.

LUCCA SALAD OIL.

WE have just received a fresh supply of the above Oil, which we offer for sale. CARLTON & HUTT, Apothecaries. Lowell, April 1, 1853.

THE BEST GOLD

2000 PENS

PENS, STOCK AND STEEL HOLDERS

AND CLOTHING.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, No. 5 Merrimack street, Lowell, April 1, 1853.

Dr. WM. H. HAYDEN,

DENTIST,

Office, No. 5 Merrimack street, Lowell, April 1, 1853.

ENGLISH & AMERICAN STATIONERY.

WE have constantly on hand a complete assortment of Stationery, Envelopes, Pens, Pencils, Inks, Letter & Receipt Books, Gold Pens and Pencil Cases, Portfolios, Pocket Books, Wallets, Purses, Combs, Brushes, Perfumery, Soaps, Fancy Articles, &c., &c., which we offer for sale at the lowest prices. Lowell, April 1, 1853. STEPHEN MARSH.

NEW SPRING GOODS.

RECEIVED this day, a large assortment of Fancy Goods, Perfumery, Soaps, &c., for sale by STEPHEN MARSH, No. 1 Merrimack square, Lowell, April 1, 1853.

CLOTH BOOTS!

BOOTS and SHOES, of every description, for sale by A. GILBERT, Jr. No. 1 Prescott Block, Lowell, April 1, 1853.

CARLTON'S FOOT-MACHINE!

IS the best and cheapest machine for the use of Boots and Shoes, and is in use in many factories in and near this city. Any person wishing to purchase a machine can see it in operation at my shop, No. 3 Prescott Block, Lowell, April 1, 1853. JOHN CARLTON.

From Dr. B. RIDDLE, Merrimack, author of John Bull and Brother Jonathan.

From Dr. DIMMOCK.

WINDOW SHADES.

WE have now on hand a large assortment of Window Shades, which we offer for sale at the lowest prices. CARLTON & HUTT, Apothecaries. Lowell, April 1, 1853.

$500

FACTORY LA VOISER.

50 pieces Dark Lawn, 7½
50 " Dark Lawn, 8½
50 " Picker Denims
50 " Dark Denims
50 " very superior Lawn
50 " very superior Lawn Fancy Stripes
50 " Dark Ground Prints

Now on sale at the "Factory Building, Dutton st.

apr1

500

FACTORY LA VOISER.

50 pieces Dark Lawn, 7½
50 " Dark Lawn, 8½
50 " Picker Denims
50 " Dark Denims
50 " very superior Lawn
50 " very superior Lawn Fancy Stripes
50 " Dark Ground Prints

Now on sale at the "Factory Building, Dutton st.

apr1

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.

THE subscriber has just received a large assortment of which he offers to customers, wholesale or retail, at the lowest prices.

DRUGS, CHEMICALS AND MEDICINES,

PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS, or family receipts, will be carefully compounded at all hours of the day or night.

Also, a fine assortment of

FANCY GOODS, TOILET ARTICLES, and PERFUMERY, which we will sell very cheap, in order to make room for a large invoice soon to expect to receive in a few days.

Also, for sale all the popular PATENT MEDICINES of the day.

C. G. EDGERLY & CO., Apothecaries, WYMAN'S EXCHANGE, LOWELL.

apr1

MERRIMACK, CONCORD & CORDAGE

AND CANVAS MILLS.

NUTTING'S FAN-FOLD PATENT.

THIS long famed combination of Windsors is still manufactured at the old stand, and the proprietor is prepared to fill orders for the same, or for any other kind of Shades, in the most approved manner, and on the most reasonable terms.

The Fan-Fold Patent Shade, which has been in use for the last two years, is universally admitted to be the most convenient and durable Shade ever invented.

The Shades are made of the best Cotton Cloth, and are finished in the most elegant manner, and are warranted to be perfectly satisfactory. The Fan-Fold Shade is made to fold in the form of a fan, and when pushed up, occupies but little room, and when down presents a handsome and perfectly flat surface. The Fan-Fold Shade is made to fold in the form of a fan, and when pushed up, occupies but little room, and when down presents a handsome and perfectly flat surface.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Thursday, September 8, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In pursuance of the call of the Whig State Central Committee, the Whig Delegates from the several Counties and Cities in the Commonwealth met in Convention at the Representative Hall, in Boston, on Wednesday, the 7th inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M., and were called to order by Hon. JOHN C. PALFREY, Chairman of the Committee.

On motion of Hon. CHARLES ALLEN, of Worcester, Hon. JOHN C. PALFREY was appointed President of the Convention, and Messrs. JOSEPH T. BUCKINGHAM, of Boston, and JOSEPH BARTLETT, of Cambridge, were appointed Secretaries.

The President then addressed the Convention as follows:

GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION:—I am deeply sensible of the honor you have conferred upon me in calling me to preside over your deliberations, and I can only express my regret that it has not been conferred upon some one more worthy of your confidence, and more competent to discharge the duties of the station. I shall endeavor to perform those duties to the best of my ability, and shall rely upon your kind indulgence for any errors I may commit.

The Whig party of Massachusetts has been called together by the Whig State Central Committee, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the offices of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer and Receiver General, Auditor and Attorney General, to be supported at the ensuing election in November next. It is the first time that the Whig party has been called together in Convention since the year 1848. Since that time, the Democratic party has had the entire control of the State Government, and has had the power to carry out its principles and measures. The Whig party has been in a minority, and has had no power to control the action of the Government. It has been a party of opposition, and has had no responsibility for the measures of the Government. It has been a party of criticism, and has had no responsibility for the measures criticised. It has been a party of resistance to measures which it believed to be wrong, and has had no responsibility for the measures resisted. It has been a party of remonstrance, and has had no responsibility for the measures remonstrated against. It has been a party of warning, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has warned the people would lead to disaster. It has been a party of reform, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has proposed for the reform of abuses. It has been a party of progress, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has proposed for the progress of the Commonwealth in the career of improvement. It has been a party of conservatism, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as destructive of the principles of the Constitution, and of the rights of the people. It has been a party of peace, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as tending to disturb the peace of the country. It has been a party of Union, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as tending to dissolve the Union. It has been a party of the Constitution, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as violations of the Constitution. It has been a party of the people, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as hostile to the rights of the people. It has been a party of law and order, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as tending to anarchy and violence. It has been a party of liberty, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as tending to slavery. It has been a party of humanity, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as inhuman and cruel. It has been a party of morality, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as immoral and corrupting. It has been a party of religion, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as irreligious and impious. It has been a party of intelligence, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as ignorant and debasing. It has been a party of the Bible, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as hostile to the Bible. It has been a party of the Union, and has had no responsibility for the measures which it has opposed as tending to disunion

THE OLD STAND

JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

Basement of Merrimack Bank, Middle entrance, Merrimack Square.

THE Proprietor has just added to his Office another

FAST PRESS, adapted to every description of work, from the smallest Poster down to the largest Sheet of Fancy Colored Paper. He has also a complete supply of well-chosen varieties of fashionable Type and Borders.

JOB TYPE,

the proportions whereof have the facilities for executing on any occasion of

PRINTING

in such an artistic form as cannot fail to attract the attention of those who may favor him with their patronage.

The prices will be found as

LOW PRICES

as can be afforded for work of the same quality.

HANDBILLS AND REDUCED POSTERS,
BILL HEADS AND CIRCULARS,
CATALOGUES,
CARDS, LABELS,
BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

PRINTED CARDS, TICKET PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, or Bronze of every shade, as ordered or fancy colored papers.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of plain, pearl and fancy colored cardboard, white and colored CARDS, adapted to every description of work, and for sale at the lowest prices.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, FEATHERS.

THE UNDERSIGNED would respectfully call the attention of the public to their large and well selected stock of Furniture, Feathers, &c., at their Ware Rooms, No. 22 Merrimack and 7 Central sts., Low-ell. Having purchased the entire stock of Furniture, Feathers, &c., of the late firm of Hall & Bancroft, we have recently made additions to our former stock, so that we can now offer to the public a stock of goods from the best manufactories, at reduced and unprecedented low prices. Purchasers will find it for their interest to call before purchasing.

Our increasing trade induces us to call our Goods at a small advance. We shall not be undersold in this city. Those favored with a call from the public are respectfully solicited to examine our stock and prices.

Our Goods will be sold for cash only, and delivered to any part of the town.

Those wishing to purchase Goods at wholesale will find it for their interest to call, as we are determined to sell our stock at such prices as will insure the sales, and must have room for the same.

J. O. WARNER,
ADELAIDE CLOUTH,
Late of the firm of Hall & Bancroft.

Lowell, Nov. 1, 1852. nov1

WOOD TO LET.

In the new building on Merrimack street, corner of Warren, a few rooms to let. Inquire of

A. M. WARREN & CO.

Lowell, Oct. 1, 1853. 1m

J. C. AYER & CO.'S

MEDICINES ARE ON SALE by the agents named in their advertisement. Should Lowell or Lowell-ville be omitted, it is an oversight.

The Cherry Pectoral is the best remedy we have to oppose to consumption. The experience of mankind must be our guide in the use of medicines, and we have the testimony of thousands in favor of this.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the best purgative medicine we can make, and we have the proof of it in the extensive use they have obtained.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best blood purifier we know how to make, and we have the proof of it in the cures it has made.

Ayer's Ague Cure is the best antidote we can make for the Fever and Ague, and we have the proof of it in the cures it has made.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, Cathartic Pills, Sarsaparilla, Ague Cure, and Liver Pills, are prepared by

J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.,
And sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. sep1

GOLD PENS.

THE subscriber has just received a large stock of Gold Pens, which he offers for sale, with or without sliver-ed holders. They are warranted to suit, every description of penmanship, and to be made of the best gold. Those wishing to purchase will find it to their interest to call before purchasing elsewhere, as I am determined to sell at low prices.

JERRY WALES.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. sep1

BARLEY REDUCER STORE.

THE undersigned would inform the former large stock of customers and the public generally, that he has just received from Boston and New York, an entire change of Goods, consisting in part of a large assortment of Broadcloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, Cravats, Stocks, Gloves, Hosiery, Suspenders, Shirts, Drawers, &c., &c., which he will sell at the lowest prices for cash.

SAML. HODGE, Jr.,
No. 2 Merrimack st.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. sep1

PRIVATE LOT

OF land for sale on Bridge street, Bleachery Heights; will be sold cheap by E. SHEPLEY.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. sep1

CALIFORNIA NOTICE.

LADIES and Gentlemen going to California, Gold, can be taken into a pure state from Flakes and Dust, at No. 15 Merrimack street, Lowell.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. sep1

MAGIC LACE VEILS.

THE most beautiful article in use for the protection of the face. For sale by

HOSFORD'S.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. sep1

WANTED,

IN EXCHANGE, Potash, Woolgrowed, and Saddlebags for which the highest market price will be paid in cash or goods. Apply to the subscriber at the Old Stand, No. 2 Merrimack st.

E. SHEPLEY.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. sep1

WILBER'S IMPROVED SALAMANDER

LARD OIL, warranted to burn in any lamp without chimney, for sale by E. SHEPLEY.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. sep1

BLOSSOM LARGE ENGRAVINGS,

JUST received a large assortment of Blossom Large Engravings, which will be framed to order in the neatest manner. Every variety in the Stock Warrant of Lady Jane Grey.

Also, a few of those beautiful Engravings from the Exhibition, engraved by Alfred Jones.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. sep1

BLANCHARD'S HAIR DYE.

BLANCHARD'S HAIR DYE, Nos. 1 and 2. Sold at No. 2 Merrimack st.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. sep1

PLATED TABLE CASTORS,

PLATED CAKE BASKETS, for sale by

HOSFORD'S.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. sep1

WASHING BLACK INK

IS not to be had in the city, but can be had at No. 2 Merrimack st. Also, Indelible Ink, Marking Ink, Cotton Ink, Silver Ink, Gold Ink, Bronze Ink, Red Ink, Blue Ink, Green Ink, Yellow Ink, Purple Ink, Orange Ink, Pink Ink, Brown Ink, Drab Ink, Lavender Ink, Crimson Ink, Scarlet Ink, Violet Ink, Chocolate Ink, Slate Ink, Fawn Ink, Buff Ink, Cream Ink, Ivory Ink, Pearl Ink, Gray Ink, Black Ink, Copying Ink, Writing Ink, Printing Ink, Lithographic Ink, Engraving Ink, Stamping Ink, Stencil Ink, Shading Ink, Tracing Ink, Drawing Ink, Sympathetic Ink, Invisible Ink, Chemical Ink, Magnetic Ink, Electric Ink, Galvanic Ink, Voltaic Ink, Ink Powders, Ink Pencils, Ink Erasers, Ink Stands, Ink Bottles, Ink Glasses, Ink Pots, Ink Cups, Ink Holders, Ink Pens, Ink Penholders, Ink Pencil Cases, Ink Pencil Holders, Ink Pencil Sharpeners, Ink Pencil Points, Ink Pencil Leads, Ink Pencil Rubbers, Ink Pencil Erasers, Ink Pencil Stands

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Friday, September 5, 1856.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION.

WHIG CAUCUS.

CITY MATTERS.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

FAIRBANKS' PATENT SCALES

400 Washington Street.

WINE STORE.

REMOVAL.

SINGING SCHOOL.

PATENTS.

WALTZING SCHOOL.

ELLIOTT'S QUADRILLE BAND

PERRY'S HUNGARIAN BALM.

LOWELL MARBLE WORKS.

CIGARS!

INDIAN PULMONIC BALSAM.

ROSE MARY AND CASTOR OIL

FLEXIFORM FURNITURE.

CHEAP BOOK STORE.

TO THE AFFLICTED

THE COURIER
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE.
Conducted on Reasonable Terms, and Executed promptly, in a workmanlike manner, and in the latest and most fashionable style.

FAST PRESSES,

Of the most approved description, combined and arranged, the proprietors of the Courier Printing Office—together with the assistance of well-chosen fonts of Job Type, Plain and Fancy—are enabled to execute every description of the proprietors believe that their facilities for executing orders with as much as to enable him to answer all orders in the as neat, tasteful, and workmanlike manner, and with as much expedition, as the nature of the work will admit.

JOB TYPE,

PRINTING

LOW PRICES

The proprietors intend to operate promptly and strictly on the

CASH SYSTEM,

and hope to be able to execute all orders to the entire satisfaction of those who may favor him with their patronage.

BILL HEADS, BLANKS, BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

BUSINESS CARDS, TICKET VISITING CARDS, CHECK

PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in town, blue or red ink, or bronze of every shade, on white or fancy colored paper.

☞ Address on hand, a good stock of plain, good cut-cornered, white and colored CARDS, adapted to every description of work—in packs and in boxes to suit purchasers.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, FEATHERS, &c.

UPHOLSTERY GOODS, FEATHERS, &c.

T. B. HOARE is the agent of Proprietors, Feather Dressing Establishment, Boston, and has for sale at the Factory Prices, 10 per cent. off for cash. Hoare, general superintendent, solicits the patronage of all in want of Feathers, Mattresses, &c.

We have recently made additions to our former stock of Furniture, Carpets, &c., and are now able to offer a large assortment of Furniture and Carpets, at low prices. We would invite the attention of all to an inspection of our stock.

Store open every evening, Sunday excepted. Entrance on the south side. Come this way before at the corner of Merrimack and Middle streets.

T. B. HOARE & CO.

Lowell, Dec. 1, 1852. 1y

ADELAIDE CLOTH,

A NEW ARTICLE for Ladies' Traveling Dresses, and for Cloaks, for Gentlemen's Overcoats, &c., for sale by E. BONGHTON & CO.

Lowell, Oct. 1. No. 31 Merrimack st.

STORE TO LET

In the Granite Block, Lowell, No. 31 Merrimack st. Inquire of

A. WHITNEY.

June 7, 1852. tf

G. G. ATER & CO.'S

MOURNING STORE,

No. 5 Merrimack Square, Lowell.

The increasing demand for this store is a manifest sign of its patron's discretion—the appearance of each of the proprietors is a guarantee of their attention to business.

If in an emergency or when a regular supply from a country store is not to be had, a mourning suit is to be prepared from the Ready-Made Clothing, it is the interest and inclination of the

Clothier and Merchant Tailor to attend to it.

MORE NEW GOODS.

THE subscribers have just received their large stock of Fall and Winter Goods, which they will sell at the lowest prices. Their stock consists in part of Broadcloths, Cassimeres, Satinets, Vestings, Cloakings, &c., which they will make to order in the most fashionable manner, and warrant to fit.

Also, a large assortment of Ready-Made Clothing, which they will sell at prices to suit the times.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1852. 3m

JAMES T. WALKER.

PARSLEY REDUCES STONE.

Dr. Hay has been constantly importuned for some and added to his stock of this valuable remedy, which he is prepared to furnish in any quantity. Also, Dr. Hay's Hair Restorative, Cologne, Lavender Salts, &c.

Sold by A. STORER, 79 Market st.

Lowell, Nov. 1, 1852. 3m

ANOTHER LOT

Of those Celebrated Cheap Cast Iron Cooking Stoves just received by E. BOSFORD & Co. No. 3 Merrimack st.

Nov. 1. 1852.

CALIFORNIA NOTICE.

LADIES, or Gentlemen going to California, Cuba, or any other tropical climate, will find it to their interest to call at No. 5 Merrimack Square, and purchase a Black Lace Veil.

BLACK LACE VEILS.

THE subscribers have just received a large assortment of Black Lace Veils, which they will sell at low prices.

G. G. ATER & CO.

HARDLIN, Dyer, Widegwood, and Sandgrinder, No. 5 Merrimack Square, Lowell. Orders left at the store will be promptly attended to. J. HARDLIN.

Lowell, Nov. 1, 1852. 3m

WM. HOWARD'S IMPROVED SALAMANDER Stoves for sale by E. BOSFORD & CO.

No. 3 Merrimack st.

Nov. 1, 1852.

ELEGANT MOREE TURKEYSTOP, Ottoman and Sofa Cushions, for sale by E. BOSFORD & CO. No. 3 Merrimack st.

Nov. 1, 1852.

We may explain our Steam Warerooms at Lady Fair Hall.

E. BOSFORD & CO.

Nov. 1, 1852.

The Ottoman Rocking Chair, for sale by E. BOSFORD & CO. No. 3 Merrimack st.

Nov. 1, 1852.

RAMSDELL BEAST SELECT M. CO. W. A. P. Ramsdell, President.

SUPERIOR PREPARATION, for tree, vine and shrub, for sale by E. BOSFORD & CO. No. 3 Merrimack st.

Nov. 1, 1852.

GOOD BREAD always obtained by using the SUPERIOR FAMILY YEAST POWDER.

Nov. 1, 1852.

PLATED TABLE CASTORS.

HAVE received a beautiful assortment of Table Castors, which I offer low. J. STONE, 19 Central st.

SUPERIOR BRONZE DOOR PLATES, for sale by E. BOSFORD & CO. No. 3 Merrimack st.

Nov. 1, 1852.

NOTICE.—Any person wishing to purchase a Piano Forte will find it to their interest to call at No. 5 Merrimack Square, and examine the stock of Pianos, which will be sold at low prices.

G. G. ATER & CO.

PIANO FORTES.

THE subscribers have just received a large assortment of Piano Fortes, which they will sell at low prices. Persons wishing to purchase will find it to their interest to call at No. 5 Merrimack Square, and examine the stock.

G. G. ATER & CO.

EXCELSIOR HAIR DYE!!

A preparation from the Locks themselves—not a mineral preparation, but a Dressing of the Hair.

THE subscribers, feeling grateful for the extensive patronage which has been bestowed upon them in the sale of their Excelsior Hair Dye, and knowing that its merits could be established only by its own intrinsic value, have spared no pains to render it worthy of the confidence of the public. Its operation is simple, and perfectly safe. It is not a dye, but a preparation of the Hair, which will change it to its original color, restore baldness, &c. The Excelsior Hair Dye is sold by all the principal druggists in the country.

HALDNESS! BALDNESS!!

Should any baldness exist, from the effects of sickness or the ravages of scrofulous humors, let him make immediate application to the

PALLING OR LOOSENING OF THE HAIR.

The Excelsior Hair Dye will prevent the hair from falling out, and will, when used, be invariably found to

DANDRUFF AND SCURF.

This preparation will entirely remove Dandruff or scurf, by the use, according to directions, of the Excelsior Hair Dye.

GRAY HAIRS RESTORED!!

If you have gray hairs, and wish to restore them to their original color, and thereby add to your personal appearance, apply to the Excelsior Hair Dye.

CHILDREN—will any be used upon the heads of children with the least injurious effect? No.

☞ Prepared only by LOWELL & HASKELL, Drug gists and Apothecaries, No. 1 Merrimack st., corner of Church st., Lowell, Mass.

For sale by Druggists and Fancy Dealers, and by Chemists, Perfumers, and Hair Dressers, throughout the United States.

A. STORER & CO., CARLETON & HOVEY, } Agents for Lowell.

BUTTERICK & MERRILL, } Agents for Lowell.

A. MITTERDGE,

MIDDLE STREET,

1500 ROLLS PAPER HANGINGS now open for inspection, at very low prices. A continuous purchasing of the whole stock.

Also, constantly on hand, a new article of Canvas for Floors, Entries, Stairs, Passages, &c., which is the best article ever brought to the city. It is free from the use of most pernicious and unhealthy mechanical, &c., and is warranted to wear longer than any other. Call and examine. Sold by the yard, or made up to order.

Painting, Papering and Glazing done with business and dispatch.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1852. 3m

BAKER'S PREPARED COCOA — Extract from the Medical Times, London, Dec. 6, 1851.

"This article is prepared from the choicest nuts, with the excision of the fibrous and woody portions, and the farinaceous matter which envelopes the seeds, and which also requires to be removed by the process of manufacture."

"Cocoa is a most valuable article of diet, and when genuine, is highly nutritious, and very easy of digestion."

"Baker's Prepared Cocoa is a most excellent preparation, and is entitled to the confidence of the public."

BLANCHARD, WEBSTER & CO.,

CORNER Fletcher and Dutton sts., Lowell, and No. 22 Commercial st., Boston, manufacturers of MORSE'S PATENT SAWS, adapted to every description of work—in packs and in boxes to suit purchasers. We would invite the attention of all to an inspection of our stock.

Lowell, Nov. 1, 1852. 3m

The following sizes are kept constantly on hand at the shop of the subscribers, viz:

24 inch Saws,	16	10
22	14	9
20	12	8
18	11	7

E. H. Beach, Lowell, Mass.
Wm. Hall, Jr., Chicopee, Mass.
Jas. T. Vaughn & Co., Boston, Mass.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Salem, Mass.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Lawrence, Mass.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Nashua, N. H.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Manchester, N. H.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Dover, N. H.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Exeter, N. H.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Portsmouth, N. H.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Great Falls, N. H.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Saco, Me.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Biddeford, Me.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Kennebunk, Me.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Portland, Me.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Bath, Me.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Augusta, Me.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Hallowell, Me.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Gardiner, Me.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Bangor, Me.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Calais, Me.
Wm. Ellis & Co., St. John, N. B.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Fredericton, N. B.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Woodstock, N. B.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Chatham, N. B.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Pictou, N. S.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Halifax, N. S.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Charlottetown, P. E. I.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Summerside, P. E. I.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Georgetown, P. E. I.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Montreal, C. E.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Quebec, C. E.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Three Rivers, C. E.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Sherbrooke, C. E.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Stanstead, C. E.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Toronto, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Hamilton, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Niagara, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Brantford, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., London, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Chatham, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Windsor, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Sandwich, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Amherstburg, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Port Stanley, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Goderich, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Sarnia, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Port Sarnia, C. W.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Port Huron, Mich.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Detroit, Mich.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Mackinaw, Mich.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Ogdensburg, N. Y.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Oswego, N. Y.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Rochester, N. Y.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Cleveland, O.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Sandusky, O.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Toledo, O.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Chicago, Ill.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Milwaukie, Wis.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Green Bay, Wis.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Galena, Ill.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Dubuque, Iowa.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Burlington, Iowa.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Keokuk, Iowa.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Fort Madison, Iowa.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Nauvoo, Ill.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Quincy, Ill.
Wm. Ellis & Co., St. Louis, Mo.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Alton, Ill.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Cairo, Ill.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Memphis, Tenn.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Vicksburg, Miss.
Wm. Ellis & Co., Natchez, Miss.
Wm. Ellis & Co., New Orleans, La.

THE BLACK DIAMOND.

THIS splendid STOVE is now taking the place of all others. Call and examine it at the Store of the subscribers. No one who examines it can be dissatisfied with it. Those who have used it say it is the best stove they ever saw. Those who have not used it will be well to examine this before purchasing. Call at the store of

D. B. LITTLEFIELD,
No. 2 Merrimack st.

BUTTS'S TOOTHACHE DROPS.

THIS valuable remedy is for sale by the subscribers. Those who are afflicted with the toothache will find these and you will be satisfied of their superiority over all others. Also, Butts's Dandelion Cough Drops, for sale by the subscribers. Also, Butts's Dandelion Cough Drops, for sale by the subscribers. Also, Butts's Dandelion Cough Drops, for sale by the subscribers.

Lowell, Nov. 1, 1852. 3m

BARTMAN & CO., Agents.

2000 Gold Standard Weight Watch Guards, for sale by BARTMAN & CO., Agents.

Price 12 cents per inch.

2000 Gold Standard Weight Watch Guards, for sale by BARTMAN & CO., Agents.

Price 12 cents per inch.

Now Land 10. Premium to Subscribers. Now Land 10. Premium to Subscribers.

Now 6 and 8 Middle st., Printing Office.

Now 6 and 8 Middle st., Printing Office.

BRIGHT & CARTER,

Successors to

BEEF, PORK, LARD, HAM, POULTRY, BUTTER, &c.

THE subscribers, having purchased the stock in trade of the late firm of Bright & Carter, would inform the public that they intend to keep a constant supply of the best articles in their line, and solicit a share of the public patronage.

BRIGHT & CARTER.

Lowell, April 10, 1852.

MARIANNE'S CELEBRATED

ROSE MARY

MARIANNE'S CELEBRATED

ROSE MARY

MARIANNE'S CELEBRATED

ROSE MARY

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Saturday, September 10, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with a vote of the Whig Central Committee, a WHIG STATE CONVENTION will be held at Worcester, on WEDNESDAY, the 28th DAY, the 28th day of September next.

The Whigs of the several Congressional Districts are requested to elect a number of Delegates, equal to the number of Representatives to which their respective districts are entitled in the next Congress.

JOHN DAVIS, Chairman.
JOHN C. PARK, Secretary.

August 16, 1853. 3m

WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION.

A WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION for Middlesex will be held at Concord, on TUESDAY, the 11th day of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for County officers.

The Whig Town and Ward Committees are requested to call Caucuses in their respective towns and wards, at such time as they may think proper, and choose Delegates to attend said Convention.

By order of the Whig County Committee.

JOHN C. PARK, Chairman.
Joseph P. Bigelow, Secretary.
September 7, 1853.

The Defeated Whig Party—Its Position.

That malignant hurricane—the Whig Party of Dana!—which recently swept from the tropical tubs of the whole brood of free subjects, on the inauguration of Franklin Pierce, has now entirely subsided. We never remembered a fair for the future of our party. We shall not die, but live, and be in active motion as before. Our organization still retains all its former achievements, would stand to defend. We have survived the severest fiends which have as yet by our opponents. On the election of Polk, it was said that the whig party was dead. That "death" of which Taylor died the national death of Clay fell! Democracy was humbled in the dust.

Four years after, and the whig party was again exhumed to have given up the ghost. Again doomed to dwell the mild—white blood was bled—not dead. Again, after seventy years, we arrived under the administration Gen. Cushing, and again did the whig party arise in glory. It was a time of triumph from the ashes of the Phœnix. All now admit—as does our duty—that since the days of Washington, the whig party, and it alone, has been party true.

But how does the whig party stand? When do we as a party stand? Why, we stand for the construction of a Pacific Railroad. In this we shall have the support of all the admirers of Mr. Benton's magnificent scheme. We are not indeed so strange, should both parties so unite—a most desirable result—as to make this a great question—the paramount question in our country's politics.

We advocate the development of our national resources by internal improvements, at the expense of the general Treasury. We advocate the speedy and economical construction of the Pacific road. Walker Tariff, on the principle of fostering American Labor. We advocate a Homestead Bill, with all reasonable opposition to the married and unmarried spirit of democratic "Rational Homestead," and we advocate on all occasions of faith, to all branches of honor, to all infinitudes of creation, to any practicalness or indulgence of that Omnipotent tendency which would circle Mexico, with Negro Slavery, from the Gulf to Cape Horn," to our fathers the origin of Freedom and eternal life. We remember the heroes of Andover and Concord, of Bunker Hill, of Independence, of the people! And we advocate a thorough Reformation of Democratic Administration—a reform of a party which has become the enemies of our Public Lands; a party in its declarations and supporters of principles.

Standing, as the whig party now does, all with a united front, the enemies of each—and an organized power—we have no fear for the union of the States. It cannot be—it will not be. Public Faith—will not be violated—the Constitution—will be preserved—the triumphs of the country and the prosperity of its citizens.

For the present, however, the politics of the State are of minor importance. Until the Polls of this State are closed, we shall not write upon politics. Until the Polls are closed we shall only express our views upon such matters as may be considered as the result of the triumph of the whig party. Until the Polls are closed we shall not write upon politics. Until the Polls are closed we shall not write upon politics. Until the Polls are closed we shall not write upon politics

THE SUBSCRIBER

JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

Has recently added to his establishment a large and complete assortment of

FAST PRESSES,

adapted to every description of work, from the smallest Show-Card to the largest Poster. Gentlemanly and experienced workmen are employed, and no pains will be spared to execute work in a manner equal to the best in the country.

JOB TYPE,

PRINTING

for which he is unable him to answer all orders in the exact manner desired by purchasers, and on as reasonable terms as the same work can be done elsewhere.

The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

LOW PRICES

will be offered, when consistent with good work.

BLANK BOOKS AND BLANKS,

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

BUSINESS AND VISITING CARDS,

PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in black, white or red ink, or Bronze of every shade, on white or black colored paper.

All kinds of Job Work, a good share of which is solicited, executed in the neatest manner, and at the shortest notice.

Orders by mail, a good share of which is solicited, executed, prices and colored CARDS, adapted to every description of work—in parts and in bunches—sent to any address.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, FEATHERS, &c.

THE subscribers having purchased the interest of E. B. Bancroft in the late firm of Bancroft & Co., and associated with them Mr. Thomas Bancroft, of Boston, a practical upholsterer, have formed a copartnership under the name of Bancroft & Co., and will continue the business at the old and well known Bancroft warehouse, No. 24 Merrimack Square, where they will keep constantly on hand a large assortment of Furniture, Carpets, Feathers, Mattresses, Bedding, &c., which they will sell at the lowest prices for cash. They would solicit a continuance of the very liberal patronage which has been extended to the late firm, and would assure the public that no pains will be spared to merit the confidence of purchasers.

THOMAS BANCROFT,
E. B. BANCROFT,
JOHN C. BANCROFT.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1858. sep2

STORE TO LET.

The fine store recently occupied by Mr. Hall, as a Boot and Shoe store, on Merrimack Square, is to let. Inquire of sep1 N. WHITNEY.

J. C. AYER & CO.'S

MEDICINAL COD LIVER OIL.—A specific remedy for Consumption, Scrofula, Chronic Rheumatism, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Pulmonary Complaints.

The Proprietors are happy to announce that a remedial agent so long sought for, and so much needed, has been obtained in a concentrated form, and can be administered with certainty of effect in the smallest compass. Those who have used the Oil, in its crude state, will appreciate the value of the present preparation, which has been extracted by the Proprietors from the best Oil, and is entirely free from the nauseous taste and smell which render the crude Oil so offensive.

Prepared and sold by

J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries,
Lowell, Mass.

sep27

GOLD PENS.

THE subscriber has just received a fine lot of Gold Pens, which he will sell at a low price. Call and see them at No. 11 Merrimack st.

sep27 J. WALKER.

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.

THE subscriber has just received a fine lot of Medicines, which he will sell at a low price. Call and see them at No. 11 Merrimack st.

sep27 J. WALKER.

O'BRIEN'S LOT

Is the place to get your Boots and Shoes cheap. Remember the place, No. 3 Merrimack Square.

sep27

CALIFORNIA NOTICE.

THE undersigned would inform the citizens of Lowell, and the public generally, that he has just returned from California, and has opened a store at No. 3 Merrimack Square, where he will be happy to see his friends and customers.

sep27 O'BRIEN.

BLACK LACE VEILS.

THE undersigned has just received a large assortment of Black Lace Veils, which he will sell at a low price. Call and see them at No. 11 Merrimack st.

sep27 J. WALKER.

FRANKLIN HOUSE.

THE undersigned would inform the public that he has taken the above house, and has had the same thoroughly repaired and refitted, and is now prepared to accommodate boarders and transient customers. The house is pleasantly situated, and is convenient to the business part of the city. Terms moderate.

sep27 P. HAMON.

WHEELER'S IMPROVED SALAMANDER SAFES.

THE subscriber has just received a fine assortment of the above Safes, which he will sell at a low price. Call and see them at No. 11 Merrimack st.

sep27 J. WALKER.

MISSES' MOROCCO SLIPPERS.

THE subscriber has just received a fine assortment of Misses' Morocco Slippers, which he will sell at a low price. Call and see them at No. 11 Merrimack st.

sep27 J. WALKER.

Every thing for Dress Warrant at Lady Jane Grey's.

sep27

Mr. Brown's Hair Restorative is the best article for the hair ever offered to the public. Sold by sep27 J. WALKER.

PLATED BARREL CANDLESTICKS.

THE subscriber has just received a fine assortment of Table Candlesticks, which he will sell at a low price. Call and see them at No. 11 Merrimack st.

sep27 J. WALKER.

PLATED CASTORS.

THE subscriber has just received a fine assortment of Castors, which he will sell at a low price. Call and see them at No. 11 Merrimack st.

sep27 J. WALKER.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber has just received a fine assortment of Gold Pens, which he will sell at a low price. Call and see them at No. 11 Merrimack st.

sep27 J. WALKER.

PARLOR MATCHES.

THE subscriber has just received a fine assortment of Parlor Matches, which he will sell at a low price. Call and see them at No. 11 Merrimack st.

sep27 J. WALKER.

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.

THE subscriber has just received a fine assortment of Medicines, which he will sell at a low price. Call and see them at No. 11 Merrimack st.

sep27 J. WALKER.

Mr. Brown's Hair Restorative is the best article for the hair ever offered to the public. Sold by

sep27 J. WALKER.

Every thing for Dress Warrant at Lady Jane Grey's.

sep27

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Sunday, September 10, 1899.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In pursuance of a vote passed by the Whig State Central Committee, at their meeting held at the Whig Rooms, in Boston, on WEDNESDAY, the 30th day of August, A. D. 1899, the Whig Delegates to the Whig State Convention, to be holden at Worcester, on TUESDAY, the 19th day of September, A. D. 1899, for the purpose of nominations of State Officers.

The Whig Delegates to the Whig Convention in the several Towns and Cities of the County are requested to elect delegates equal in number to the number of Representatives to which they are entitled in the General Court, at their Whig Caucuses.

By order of the Whig County Committee.

JOHN B. LADD, Chairman.

ISAAC P. RICHARDS, Sec'y.
September 7, 1833. 3t

WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Whig County Convention, for the County of Middlesex, will be held at Concord, on TUESDAY, the 19th day of September, A. D. 1899, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for County Officers.

The several Towns and Cities of the County are requested to elect delegates equal in number to the number of Representatives to which they are entitled in the General Court, at their Whig Caucuses.

By order of the Whig County Committee.

JOHN B. LADD, Chairman.

ISAAC P. RICHARDS, Sec'y.
September 7, 1833. 3t

GREEN WHIG RALLY—THE CAMPAIGN OPENS. The Whig meeting, at Jackson Hall, on Saturday evening, was well and fully attended; and the proceedings were marked with becoming enthusiasm. A Committee of three from each ward, was raised to nominate a list of delegates to the Pittsburg Whig State Convention. While the committee were preparing their report, JOSEPH WASTE, Esq., entertained the meeting with a spirited and telling speech.

The main story—"The Whig Party is dead"—was made the theme of several brilliant flashes of wit and humor, which were received with applause by the assembled hundreds. In the office of the Lowell Times were kept chimney cornices of parties and of the distinguished gone, now living in Europe. As soon as the managers reports the Census of one of these magazine, the prepared obituary is sent to press, and all England is speedily deaged in the habit of mourning. It sometimes happens that the announcement is false; and the speaker was of the opinion that the announcement of the whig party's demise was also premature—necessary to be withdrawn by the deserted politicians who first cast it on the waves.

If the reports are to be believed, the Democrats at National Politics, and spoke of the elements whereof parties are constituted. Parties, he said, they are bound in indissoluble bonds together;—how which he turned to State Politics, and remarked, with great felicity of expression, on the question of Representation under the new Constitution. By the new constitution representation was to be based on the same general principle on which British representation was based prior to the passage of the great Reform Bill. Old Sarum, with one voter, sent a representative to Westminster, while Birmingham, with a population of 100,000 inhabitants, had no voice in Parliament. The little town of Monroe, with a population of less than fifty, was now to retain one Representative, while another town with a population equal to one eighth part of Lowell, could return no more than one. Between Representation by area and Representation by district, he thought there was no great preference. For himself, he preferred a Representation of men.

The framers of the new draft of a Constitution had a desire to themselves in a position to secure here of which they would find it difficult to escape;—they must either give to all the towns and cities of the Commonwealth a Representation proportionate to that with which they had endowed Monroe—in which event, they would only secure a small State Legislature over all Beacon Hill, to hold all the Representatives; or they must subject the Senate and all similar terms to the same system of districts by which they had subjected the large cities. In which case, the towns would lose in the end what they cities, or cities, would not, if the were not willing to be aligned, to represent themselves all. They would be distributed; portioned them—patch here, and a patch there—would be represented; but the cities would return no Representative in the Senate or Representatives. The principle would be carried into effect in the hands of the small towns; but then it would be unconstitutional. Other speakers followed, the speaker sanctioned his remarks, frequently interspersed with enthusiastic applause, until the meeting was adjourned to the evening proposed their report, after which he left the stand, followed by the most inspiring plaudits of an intelligent audience. A list of the delegates will be found in another column.

THE APPROPRIATIONS, FRANCHISES, AND RAILROAD bill had undergone, formally, in the shape of the amendments of the Senate from the Banking and Manufacturing Committees, and the leading Democratic organ in this city, and we anticipated, at that time, that the other financial organ, that the Democratic party would be ashamed of its "illustrious predecessor," as soon as it could, with a decent appearance, cut loose from the high-handed measures of the abolition party went out together. We observe, however, that the News still maintains the most complete fealty to the organ of the Democratic party.

Seeing that Boston-Lawism still pretty certainly held both offices in the Democratic party, the Democratic organ has suddenly become anxious to have it understood that it is not in favor of the Union Bill. It says:—

"It is a well known fact that the democratic party is in no manner responsible for this law, nor ever was it.

And, in fact, the whole responsibility of the passage of the law rests upon the whigs."

It is evident that the Advertiser finds it necessary to guard out as plainly. The Democratic party they are bound in indissoluble bonds together;—how which he turned to State Politics, and remarked, with great felicity of expression, on the question of Representation under the new Constitution. By the new constitution representation was to be based on the same general principle on which British representation was based prior to the passage of the great Reform Bill. Old Sarum, with one voter, sent a representative to Westminster, while Birmingham, with a population of 100,000 inhabitants, had no voice in Parliament. The little town of Monroe, with a population of less than fifty, was now to retain one Representative, while another town with a population equal to one eighth part of Lowell, could return no more than one. Between Representation by area and Representation by district, he thought there was no great preference. For himself, he preferred a Representation of men.

The framers of the new draft of a Constitution had a desire to themselves in a position to secure here of which they would find it difficult to escape;—they must either give to all the towns and cities of the Commonwealth a Representation proportionate to that with which they had endowed Monroe—in which event, they would only secure a small State Legislature over all Beacon Hill, to hold all the Representatives; or they must subject the Senate and all similar terms to the same system of districts by which they had subjected the large cities. In which case, the towns would lose in the end what the

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. TUESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 13, 1853. NO 1168.

S. J. VARNEY, PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

Published every afternoon (Sundays excepted) at No. 27 CENTRAL STREET, (Adjoining the Post Office.)

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the usual rates. Liberal deductions will be made to those who advertise by the year. Notices of Marriages and Deaths are inserted free of charge. Obituaries, Resolutions of Associations, Communications, &c., are charged at the rate of one cent per line.

Job Printing of every description executed at this office with neatness and dispatch.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing OF EVERY DESCRIPTION EXECUTED AT THE "TIMES AND SENTINEL" AND Lowell Daily Journal & Courier, BY S. J. VARNEY.

WILLIAM S. GARDNER, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW, Hamilton Block, Central street, opposite the Post Office. LOWELL, MASS

HORNER & CAVERLY, ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW, Offices at Manny's Building, Central street, LOWELL. J. S. Horner, E. S. Caverly.

DEAN & DIENHOOR, ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW, Office—5 Sun street, SUNTON. BENJ. DEAN, JOSEPH A. DIENHOOR.

JOHN HAYNARD, DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY, No. 179½ Merrimack street, Prescriptions carefully compounded, and all boats stocked on the most reasonable terms.

STOVES! STOVES! STOVES! PHILLIPS, CONDUEUR & DOWNES, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN STOVES, HOLLOW WARE, &c., &c. Basement story of the St Catherine's Church, Merrimack st. PHILLIPS, CONDUEUR & DOWNES. (late) EDWARD G. MACK.

JOHN NEWELL, CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR, Hydraulic Engineering and Mechanical Draughting, No. 5 Merrimack street, (Lately occupied by Franklin Forbes.) References to J. S. Farwell, Esq.

ABNER FROST, SURVEYOR OF LUMBER.

MEASURER OF WOOD, At Wm. Livingstone's Office, Merrimack st., Lowell, Mass. ly55

ABEL WHITNEY, (SUCCESSOR TO MILES BARNEY) BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND STATIONER, No. 23 Merrimack street. ACCOUNT BOOKS MADE TO ORDER. Agent for the Pember School Union, Tract and Sun Day School Depository.

J. P. GOODWIN, DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY, Corner of Central and Dutton sts., Centralville.

WEAVER & BROTHER, No. 7 Central, and 24 Merrimack streets, Lowell, Mass., MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN ALL KINDS OF MARQUARY AND FINE PUNCHEON CANDLES, Sperm, Adamantine and Pure Lard CANDLES, Lamps, Burners, Wicks, &c., &c. ly

J. COBURN, DEALER IN FLOUR, MEAL, GRAIN, &c., No. 15 Merrimack street, opposite Prescott street, Lowell. Teams constantly employed to convey goods to all parts of the city. ly

P. H. HAGGERS, SHAVER, Over South entrance with Mass. Tel. Line, or Cooper's, in Hall. ly

WM. C. GRAY, DEPUTY SHERIFF, Office—Middlesex County Court House, Easement, No. 4 Common street, LOWELL, MASS. Orders received by Mail or Express will be promptly attended to.

C. S. HAPPMAN & CO., DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES, Patent and Proprietary Medicines, Perfumery, Soaps and Fancy Articles, Corner Merrimack and Market streets, LOWELL.

DAVID DANA, OPPRESSMITH, BRASS FOUNDER, And Tin-Plate Worker, Jackson street, near Prescott street, Lowell. Allorders promptly executed.

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK. JOSHUA HERSLIP, Agent, Office—No. 33 Commonwealth.

HUGH HARVEY, DRAPER AND TAILOR, No. 24 Central street, LOWELL, MASS.

J. G. CHASE, CIVIL ENGINEER, No. 3 Nesmith Block, (up stairs, Corner of Merrimack and Bell streets, LOWELL.

COBURN & MIXER, COMMISSION MERCHANTS: AND DEALERS IN SPARS, WHALE, LAND AND LINSEED OILS, AND TANNERS STOCKS, Factory Lowell, Mass. Factory Lawrence, Mass. Boston Office, 3 Commercial Wharf. BUTTER, CHEESE, PORK, LARD AND SALT, Nos. 1 and 2 Merrimack Block, LOWELL. Delmar Mixer, Alex. S. Coburn. JOHN MIXER.

JOHN PRESCOTT, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN W. I. GOODS, GROCERIES, PROVISIONS AND DOMESTIC FRUIT, &c., &c., No. 2 Prescott Block, (In fact from Merrimack Square Northwest Block, and Prescott street.) LOWELL, MASS. jan15 ly

SAMUEL HODGDON, (late) DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY, Corner of Merrimack and Jackson sts. LOWELL. Prescriptions carefully compounded at all hours of the day or night. jan15

EVERETT MANSUR, DEALER IN CHINA, GLASS AND CROCKERY WARE, Manufacturers' Corner, No. 50, Merrimack street, LOWELL. 110 Cumberland.

REEDS AND HARNESSES, MADE TO ORDER, AND WARRANTED, BY S. C. BROWN, Middle Street, near the Post Office, LOWELL. Steel Factory, Holliston..... Norton Factory, Norton

NOTICE.

This is to certify that GEORGE HERSICK has been in the employ of the subscriber for two years, and is honest and worthy for the sum of our Price Paste, and we recommend him to the public as a good workman. Any person employing him will find him faithful and honest. T. COLBATH & CO. Boston, April 19, 1851.

A. & S. STEVENS, POWER LOOM HARNESSES AND REEDS, And every description of MACHINE BELTS AND STRAPS, Central street, Fletcher st., and Appleton street, LOWELL, MASS. Agent for Stevens' Patent Duck Belting.

The Lowell Weekly Journal, a paper of the largest class, is published on THURSDAY MORNING, Price $2 per annum, in advance. Subscriptions received at the office of publication, or by mail post paid. Letters and communications for publication must be post paid, or they will not be attended to.

Job Printing of every description executed at this office with neatness and dispatch. Orders by mail must be post paid.

SAMUEL E. WOOD (Successor to S. Wood & Co.) No. 2 Merrimack Square, FLOUR, ALL KINDS OF GRAIN, SHORTS, &c. Also, Agent for the sale of COUNTRY PRODUCE.

C. WEBSTER, Manufacturer and Dealer in HORSETS, RIBBONS, LACES, ARTIFICIAL FLOWERS, MILLINERY GOODS, &c. No. 6 Merrimack street, (Nesmith's New Block,) LOWELL.

MRS. WEBSTER, Silk and Straw Bonnets, Hats and Caps, No. 6 Merrimack street, (Nesmith's New Block,) LOWELL.

BLANCHARD, WRIGHT & CO., COMMISSION MER-HANTS, No. 11 Commercial street, (No. 75 UNION STREET,) BOSTON. Boston, June 15, 1853. jy16ly

E. & J. BARTON & SARGEANT, BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS, 143 Washington street, BOSTON. Wholesale Booksellers in Lowell.

LOWELL MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, Organized and incorporated by the Legislature of Massachusetts, A. D. 1835. CAPITAL, $100,000. JOSIAH G. ABBOTT, President. JOHN A. KNOWLTON, Secretary. DIRECTORS: Josiah G. Abbott, Nathan Crosby, Jr., Thomas Hopkinson, Jonathan Tyler, Jr., Joseph Locke, Jr., Nathaniel Wright, Jr., Nathaniel Wood, Jr., Samuel Lawrence, Jr., Josiah G. Abbott and even to emigrate to Australia, California and the Mauritius, shows that the opponents of the movement is by no means confined to the lower classes. The fact is, that the middle class is the most conservative in England, and the most conservative section of the middle class is the aristocratic one. Indeed, the two extremities of society meet—the Tantrum and the Western World, and to complete that circle of civilization, which we are sometimes apt to think only encompasses the globe. In the interval between these extremes it would be extremely impolitic for us or any other Christian power to meddle; but, most of all should we attempt to interfere with the affairs of their sole monastery of the general darkness. But nonsense of every-day occurrence, and to the last degree contemptible, is sometimes more unmanageable and difficult to exist than master crimes like this one placed in the temple of fame, personified in the mysterious if antagonistic abstractions, mysteriously if antagonistic characters, mysterious if antagonistic abstractions, mysterious if antagonistic abstractions, mysterious if antagonistic abstractions

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 14 1853. NO. 4102

BRIGHTA CARTER,
Voiland 19

BEEF, PORK, LARD, TALLOW, SUET, BUTTER, &c.

THE subscribers, having leased the commodious premises recently occupied by Messrs. Hall & Bancroft, and more recently by Messrs. Hall & Co., as a Provision Store, are now prepared to receive and sell on commission all kinds of Provisions, and solicit a share of the public patronage. P. H. All other produce taken in exchange for Provisions.

J. S. LITTLE.
Rob Rosenthal, Gloucester.

Lowell, April 16, 1853. apl6

ROSE MARY

SPALDING'S LITHOGRAPHIC ESTABLISHMENT, 37 & 41 Court street, Boston, Mass.

THE proprietors of the above establishment would respectfully inform the Merchants of Rosemary and the surrounding country, that they have just completed the Steam Printing Press, and are now prepared to execute all kinds of Printing, Lithographing and Engraving, in the best manner, and on the most reasonable terms.

Boston, Jan. 1, 1853. 1y1

PARIS FOR SALE.

A MACHINE SHOP TO LET.

THE subscriber offers for sale or to let his valuable Machine Shop, situated on Market street, recently occupied by Messrs. Tyler & Co., and now by Messrs. Wright & Co. Power in the premises, with boiler and engine of 12 horse power. Also, a new and valuable Planing Machine, now in use. Inquire of MANUEL SARGENT & CO.

Lowell, Sept. 10, 1853. 3w

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWKER,
RAILROAD FREIGHT STATION,
SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS,

HAVE FOR SALE

COAL—Anthracite (white and red ash), Cumberland, Liverpool, Sydney—by cargo, afloat, or from store.
LUMBER—Eastern, Southern, Canada—Frames for Houses, Shingles, Clapboards, Pickets, Laths, &c.
SALT—Fine, Ground, Coarse, Liverpool, Turks Island.
NAVAL STORES and SHIP CHANDLERY, and a variety of other articles suitable to the country and coast trade.

Country Produce received on consignment, or to locate for sale.

Salem, Sept. 1, 1853. 3m

SKELTON'S
TRICOFLUON,
OR
HAIR INVIGORATOR.

THIS rare and valuable preparation entirely free from all poisonous ingredients, is now offered to the public. Prepared freely from vegetable ingredients, it can be used by

LADIES OR CHILDREN

with the most confidence in regard to it, that it is offered to the public. It will restore hair in 30 days, to any person, unless it is dead; but for many it causes, which, after the use of this article, will be the best active agent used.

Each confidence is reposed in it, that it is offered to the public on the following terms: If in 30 days, any person who has used it shall find that it has not restored the hair, the money will be refunded.

For sale by A. F. GREENOUGH, corner Bridge and Merrimack streets.

Lowell, Sept. 10, 1853. 3m

PROF. ALEX C. BARRY'S TRICOPHERON.

THE effects of the Barry's wonderful compound on the human hair are truly astonishing. Where the hair is falling off, or has fallen off, the Tricopheron will restore a new growth, unless the roots are entirely destroyed. Where the hair is prematurely turned gray, the Tricopheron will restore it to its original color, and will prevent it from turning gray. Where the hair is dry, harsh and lifeless, the Tricopheron will make it soft, glossy and luxuriant. Where the hair is coming out in handfuls, the Tricopheron will stop it from coming out, and will cause a new growth to spring up. Where the hair is matted and full of dandruff, the Tricopheron will remove the dandruff, and invigorate the roots, and cause the hair to grow luxuriantly. Where the hair is thin, the Tricopheron will cause it to grow thicker. Where the hair is gray, the Tricopheron will restore it to its original color. Where the hair is dry, the Tricopheron will make it soft, glossy and luxuriant. Where the hair is falling off, the Tricopheron will stop it from falling off, and cause a new growth to spring up. Where the hair is matted and full of dandruff, the Tricopheron will remove the dandruff, and invigorate the roots, and cause the hair to grow luxuriantly. Where the hair is thin, the Tricopheron will cause it to grow thicker. Where the hair is gray, the Tricopheron will restore it to its original color.

Prof. Barry's Tricopheron is the most wonderful discovery ever made in the world. It is the only article that has ever received a testimonial of the Faculty in a city of any respectability. Prof. Barry's Tricopheron is the only article that has ever received a testimonial of the Faculty in a city of any respectability. Prof. Barry's Tricopheron is the only article that has ever received a testimonial of the Faculty in a city of any respectability.

Prof. Barry's Tricopheron is the most wonderful discovery ever made in the world. It is the only article that has ever received a testimonial of the Faculty in a city of any respectability. Prof. Barry's Tricopheron is the only article that has ever received a testimonial of the Faculty in a city of any respectability. Prof. Barry's Tricopheron is the most wonderful discovery ever made in the world. It

W, register in the Journal office, on Tuesday next, the 9th inst., from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. Those who have already made application will please call and see if their names are registered. Those who have not made application must be present on the days above named, or they will not be registered.

JOHN W. ADAMS, Clerk.

Lowell, Sept. 7, 1852.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In pursuance with a vote of the Whig State Committee, assembled at the Town Hall in Pittsfield, on WEDNESDAY, the 1st day of September, 1852, the undersigned, Chairman of the said Committee, hereby gives notice that a State Convention of Delegates from the several Whig towns in the Commonwealth will be held at the City of Worcester, on WEDNESDAY, the 22d day of September next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, to be supported at the ensuing election, viz:

A Governor and Lieutenant Governor, Secretary, Treasurer and Auditor of the Commonwealth, and Attorney General.

JOHN C. LODGE, Chairman.

Boston, August 18, 1852. 3weod3

WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Whig County Convention for the County of Middlesex, will be held at Concord, on TUESDAY, the 21st day of September next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, viz:

The several County and Clerk of the County are requested to call Caucuses in their respective towns, and choose delegates to attend the Convention.

JOHN S. LAMB, Chairman of the Committee.

Concord, August 30, 1852. 3weod

ISAAC P. DAVIS, Sec'y.

September 7, 1852. 3weod

THE CALLING OF THE LATE CONVENTION. It is a fact worthy of consideration, that the late Convention was called by a minority of the people and against the will of the majority. This fact is memorable as showing the tendencies of the people, and as furnishing ground for which we, as a party, may confidently rely for success in the coming election. "Political influence" alone carried the scheme of the Convention; and it was by influence over a voting minority of the pseudonymously-called Reform Party could be brought to the desired mand. The question was first submitted to the people in 1851. On the election day of that year, not less than 187,000 votes were polled for the usual State officers; yet no more than 137,000 votes were polled on the question of calling the Convention, and 50,000 votes were cast against the Convention project! Moreover, it is clear that the 50,000 voters who refused to express any opinion on the subject were as much opposed to the scheme; hence it is fair to conclude, that the Convention was called by a minority of the people, and that in a full majority of 15,000 of the legal voters of the Commonwealth disregarded the scheme as unnecessary.

Now we find the case very different in 1853. A larger vote was polled for State officers, and a larger ratio of the voters refused to express any opinion on the general merits of the Convention scheme. The vote on the question of calling the Convention was not more than fifteen hundred less than it was in the previous year—that is, 1851. And more than 13,000 voters refused to vote at all. While over 13,000 voters went to the polls for the gubernatorial candidates, only 125,000 were cast on the question of summoning a Convention. The affirmative vote numbers 56,000, while the negative votes number 59,000; the sum of 56 and 59 is 115. Who belong to the latter class? And the ratio of those who refused to vote in 1852 was greater than that of those who refused in 1851, while the majority of the friends of the Convention was about the same. So that, adding the 13,000 who refused to vote in the Spring to the 59,000 who voted in the fall, we have a clear majority of about 5,000 intelligent men, who were opposed to the call of the people from the first.

We think the case, as above presented, is so clear as mathematics can make it. We wish that the people of Massachusetts would ponder on these facts; that they would not act too hastily; but that, by a thorough acquaintance with the whole subject, they will be enabled to perceive the true merits, and to act intelligently.

ENGLAND'S PILOT TOWARDS IRELAND. In our times we hear much said about British Free Trade. But those who dissent on the glories of British Free Trade, are equally full little aware how that system works towards Ireland. The truth is, there never was a more exclusive and diabolically policy than that pursued by Great Britain in Ireland; a Nation long oppressed, long declining, but now fallen to the lowly, lingering, dying to be a free nation—yea, dying to be free!

The British colonial system has been long carried to the quiescendo pitch, and its results are everywhere visible. Ruined farms, deserted villages, uncultivated wastes and moors, impassive mass of subjects, squalid hovels, almost all over Ireland; and the Nation which gave birth to Burke, to Grattan, to Goldsmith, to Moore, to Wellington, and to O'Connell, has become the prey of destitution and of desolation unwon! So that, as Mr. Meagher once said, there is but one trade—one that can be carried on successfully throughout all Ireland; and that one is the soul-soddening trade of the exciseman!

The legitimate result of all this is seen in the moral obliquity of the people—in the insecurity of property, of person; and a noted Irish writer and Irishman has remarked, that he dared not retire at night without praying that he might not wake up on the next morning and find his throat cut! Every dash by want and by poverty, the agony and despair of paupers, the misery of the starved Irish, the frightful mortality of deathless but starving living—all illustrate the sinfulness of England. She in contemplation of the Union, does not think of Ireland, Also, for that beautiful economy! Also, for the good old cause of Irish Liberty! Also, for the good old cause for which Henry Grattan died in the Senate, and Robert Emmy on the scaffold!

The Lowell Courier talks with exultant allusion of "the glorious Constitution of 1780." It is well known that many of the Whigs would like to go back into the past, if being their "glorious" that only can be "glorious" that is "old" and venerable, and very honestly laden with the dust of antiquity.—(Democrat.

It is quite too late—quite too late—for such a declaration to be made in relation to the Constitution, to charge us with forgiven. We either mean to make it or we do not mean to make it. Our position is clear; (we use this term in its true, not in its vague, sense,) then constitutional amendments may be made in the regular and constitutional manner, but we can not sustain the acts of Conventions by which the Constitution has been trampled in the dust. Men who believe that contrary is the fact of truth—who think the Constitution is every thing—who think it is sacred—because it owes the garb of sovereignty—and none others, will sustain a system of mere representation which is quite too late—quite too late—for such a declaration to be made in relation to the Constitution, to charge us with forgiven. We either mean to make it or we do not mean to make it. Our position is clear; (we use this term in its true, not in its vague, sense,) then constitutional amendments may be made in the regular and constitutional manner, but we can not sustain the acts of Conventions by which the Constitution has been trampled in the dust. Men who believe that contrary is the fact of truth—who think the Constitution is every thing—who think it is sacred—because it owes the garb of sovereignty—and none others, will sustain a system of mere representation which is a division of the school money and authority, it appears desirable that if either should be changed, it appears desirable that if either should be changed, it should unite to leave upon it.

Some children understand the Bible better than they do many of lessons—for they daily study it for the purpose of religion while they sleep through the lessons of history, which school children are seldom required to study.

Parents have no very great desire to indoctrinate their children in the forms of religious belief in the school house, and therefore there can be no reasonable objection, provided such one do it of his own expense. No one is compelled to learn the alphabet unless; but the spirit of the law is, that all the public money shall be equally applied to our school, which shall be open at a portion of the year as possible to all the children of the district.

CITY MATTERS.

FREE BRIDGE OVER MERRIMACK RIVER. At the last session of our Legislature an act of incorporation was granted to "The Proprietors of the Merrimack River Bridge." The object of the petitioners for this charter was to secure to the people of Lowell, Dracutt and adjoining towns, an early day, the free passage of the river at this point. This is to be accomplished by the building of a bridge, or by the purchase of Central and Pawtucket Bridges. The Proprietors hold their first meeting at Jackson House in this city, on three o'clock this afternoon.

THE FIREMEN'S MUSTER.

The general muster of Firemen from "all the region round about," which is to take place here to-morrow, for which the most ample arrangements have been made by our Board of Engineers, will doubtless be the largest, as well as the most attractive, brilliant and attractive display ever witnessed in Lowell. The occasion will be indeed a GRAND GALA DAY for our whole community.

Twenty-five companies from abroad have already given official notice of intention to be present. Adding the entire department of our own city, and we have an aggregate of about one thousand men, besides the sitting of sixteen full Band of music. Some of the companies from abroad will arrive to-night. The others will be in town early in the morning. The line will be formed at 10 A. M., and march as per official programme in another column. Dinner will be served at 12 o'clock, at which His Honor Mayor Mack, will preside. After dinner the trial of engines will take place on Dutton st, and the "play" of the hose, which purpose a desirably "long pole" has been raised.

The Levee in the evening, in Huntington Hall—which is large enough to accommodate a host of people—will be the last, but by no means the unfavorable of the pleasures of this triumphal programme. Our appetite will be round among "em."

THE DINNER.

The Firemen's dinner to-morrow will be served by Mr Charles A. Thissell, in Huntington Hall. The dinner hour is set at 12 o'clock, M.

RIOTS OR PROCESSIONS. For route of procession to-morrow, see the official "Order of Arrangements" in another column.

GONE. An ex-editor of this city was this morning made doubly happy by the sudden news from the land of gold—a present to his dear family circle. We congratulate the overjoyed father on the issue of this "double number," and are glad to see that another and little one are "no comfortable as could be expected. The wail of the A-mateur is requested to notice—as soon as he can recover his equilibrium.

E7 A social and literary levee will be given by the ladies of the Washington Athenæum this evening, at Mount Hall. Admission ten cents.

E7 No Police Court to-day, his Honor being absent from the city.

NEW HOUSE CARRIAGE. Ocean House Company, No. 1, of this city, this morning received their new hose carriage, built by the king manufacturer of fire apparatus, Hunneman & Co., of Boston, at a cost of about $500. It is a splendid carriage, and will make a fine show, in the procession to-morrow. The company consists of 16 members, all in uniform, except a new uniform, the caps fashioned after the London firemen. The company will receive the Massachusetts Engine Co., No. 3, of Pawtucket, R. I., who are accompanied by Gilmer's Cornet Band, at the Northern Depot, at 9 o'clock, and escort them to their quarters at the Merrimack House. The Ocean Company will be escorted by Marland's Cornet Band.

THE VICAR GONE MAD. The admirable domestic drama of the "Vicar of Wakefield" is to be repeated this week with a change of scene. Mr Lawrence to admit of his acceptation of the chief magistracy. We therefore turn with augmented anticipation to our former neighbor and esteemed fellow citizen—Hon. Ebony Jaccard, of Worcester. Democrat has no private business; the champion of no antagonism; with no friends to reward or foes to punish, should he stand on mere numbers?—the whigs voting almost to a man in favor of this measure—neither it had been so called that the veriest vagabond or grossest immigrant in Boston should have as great political weight, in their hundreds of the government as the sturdy farmer or thorough scholar of Essex. What do you think of them, the voting that the House of Representatives should be a check, so that the democratic majority in the Senate should be found on mere numbers;

BRIGHT & CARTER,

BEEF, PORK, LARD, HAM & CANVASS, BUTTER,

CHEESE, LARD OIL, &c.

No. 1 Faneuil Hall Square, Boston.

CIGARS.

200,000 HAVANA CIGARS

Consisting of

La Regalia,
La Fernandez,
La Concha,
La Carolina,
La Independencia,
La Flor de Cuba,

For sale by D. BIBA & CO., No. 2 Shattuck st., Boston.

TWO IMPORTANT PUBLICATIONS.

THE SUN SYSTEM OF MEDICINE, by Dr. Alcott, a complete and comprehensive compilation of the Botanical, Eclectic, Hydropathic and Homœopathic practice of medicine, price, in cloth, $1.25; in paper, 75 cts.

THE SUN SYSTEM OF HYDROPATHY, by Dr. Alcott, price, in cloth, $1.25; in paper, 75 cts.

The above works are published by the Sun Office, and for sale by all the principal booksellers throughout the country.

Orders addressed to the Sun Office, No. 15 Ann st., New York, will be promptly attended to.

SEE SUN!! CORROBORATIVE!!

THE SUN EVER EXTENDING in circulation! Read the Sun! Subscribe for the Sun! Advertise in the Sun! Buy and Circulate the Sun. The largest will be the cheapest. Subscribe for the largest. Advertise in the largest. Circulate the largest. Read the largest. Buy the largest. Sell the largest. Do the largest. Be the largest. Have the largest. Get the largest. Give the largest. Take the largest. Send the largest. Write the largest. Print the largest. Publish exclaiming to the storm, 'Put Bill on the water again quick, for I'm afloat.' The poor fellow, seeing himself drowned, threw on a garment, turned and plunged into the river again, where he remained until spared an hour, and, although shown water but his head, covered with clothes and in full view of the hundreds who lined the high banks. He claimants dared not release him in the water, for to be alive never occurred. "He would have died contented could he have carried one or three of them down with him!"

In the same issue, some of the citizens think that there was no law justifying such barbarity, while others say that the kidnapper so requested. Judge Collins, one of our most respected citizens, and several others, gave utterance as to their manner and authority, for which they replied. He was more like a cannibal than a Judge &c. They soon, however saw the sentiment of the community was strong against them, and drove off before an officer could be found to arrest them. A telegraphic despatch to the constable in Hanlon caused their detention there; but he was overawed by pompous United States officers, and they were allowed to go AGAIN. After their departure, the fugitive, afraid to come out there again, waded into the water up the stream, and got out above, and was found by some colored women fast on his foot in a cornfield. The women carried him off in a piece of safety, dressed his wounds, and kept him hid for so far as we have been informed.

The above is from an eye witness of the scene. As the Tribune will remark:— "Its statement is full of the strongest incitements to agony and horror." Here was a man not even suspected of committing any crime or vice, hunted and shot by ruffians whom he had just fed in innocently conducting a business, chased into a corn field, shot at with half after ball as river and finally, at point of death, dragged out exactly as if he had been a beast of an alligator or of prey, and all in view of what are claimed to be the Constitution and Laws of this free country! We believe this is a case of more atrocious, because UNMOVED was ever witnessed at Honolulu or Dahomey!

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Thursday, September 15, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

The Whig State Convention will be held in Worcester, on WEDNESDAY, the 28th day of September, at 11 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and other State officers to be supported at the next election; and also to appoint delegates to attend the Whig National Convention, to which they are entitled in the General Court, to stand with Clarendon, Hall, Hallowell, Hallowell, Hallowell

THE COMMERCIAL PRINTING

JOB PRINTING
OFFICE,
Corner of Merrimack and Middle streets,
LOWELL, MASS.

FAST PRESSES,
Skilled workmen, a large assortment of stock, from the smallest Pocket-Memo to the greatest Posting Card—together with an ample supply of the most modern varieties of fashionable type, and fancy

JOB TYPE,

the proprietor believes that his facilities for executing all descriptions of

PRINTING

in a manner to please customers, will continue to be as heretofore, without a rival.

REMEMBER THE MEDIUM POSTERS,
SHOP BILLS, PROGRAMMES,
CATALOGUES,
BILL HEADS, BLANKS,
BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,
CARDS, TICKET and VISITING CARDS, CHECKS
PLAIN AND FANCY
LABELS,

In black, blue or red ink, or bronze of every shade.

Let always on hand, a good stock of plain, good and fashionable envelopes, with printed cards, adapted to the convenience of such—in packs and in boxes to suit the trade.

Orders by mail or express, promptly attended to.

ADELAIDE CLOTH.
A NEW ARTICLE for Ladies' Traveling Dresses, cool for Summer and warm for Winter wear.
For sale by
D. G. LITTLEFIELD,
aug19 No. 46 Merrimack st.

SPOONS TO LEND.
In the most central location in Lowell, No. 35 Merrimack street, opposite Prescott.
Aug. 4, 1855. A. WHITNEY.

M. C. AYER & CO.'S
MEDICAL COD LIVER OIL—A popular remedy for Consumption and Throat Diseases.
The Medical Profession are now prescribing it as a remedy of great value in all cases where Cod Liver Oil is indicated, and the Proprietors are confident that the Oil is prepared in a manner to accomplish all the good results claimed in its administration only obtainable in expensive.
It is not necessary to mention its virtues, as they are known to all who have used it, and the Proprietors are satisfied that the Oil prepared by them is superior to any other in the market.
For sale by
A. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries, sept1 Lowell, Mass.

THE BLACK DIAMOND.
THIS splendid STOVE is for burning the slate of all kinds of coal, and is warranted to give entire satisfaction. Call and see it at the store.
For sale by
D. G. LITTLEFIELD,
aug19 No. 46 Merrimack st.

THE CONTINUOUS BLOWER.
THIS new and valuable article for Blacksmiths, is very cheap and will be sold low. Call and see it.
For sale by
D. G. LITTLEFIELD,
aug19 No. 46 Merrimack st.

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.
THE subscriber would inform his friends and the public that he has taken the store No. 3 Prescott block, (late Dodge's) and has fitted it up for the sale of Medicines, Chemicals and Physicians' Prescriptions put up at all hours of the day or night. Physicians may rely on having their orders faithfully executed at the shortest notice.
SAML. KINGSLEY.
Lowell, Aug. 1, 1855. aug6

ANOTHER LOT
OF those "well known" Boston Patriot Shawls to be received by E. BOSFORD & CO.,
sept1 No. 23 Merrimack st.

LADIES' CLOAKING SATIN.
THE most desirable article for Ladies' Cloaks, for sale by the yard (the best Satin and Pent to match) at
BLACK LACE VEILS.
THE largest stock in the city can be found at WARREN'S,
sept1 No. 3 Prescott block.

WARREN'S
Is the place to buy Hosiery, Gloves, Suspenders, Handkerchiefs, Neckties, Bosoms, Collars, Undershirts and Drawers, Fancy Goods, Perfumery, Pocket Books, Portmonies, Purses, Pocket Cutlery, Combs, Brushes, &c. sept1 No. 3 Prescott block.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.
THE following letter from Mr. Joseph Hall, of Bolton, Lancashire, England, is one of the many thousands which have been received testifying to the wonderful efficacy of these Medicines in the cure of Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers:
To Professor Holloway.
SIR—I have much pleasure in informing you of the wonderful cure effected by your Ointment and Pills in my case. For upwards of seven years I suffered from a bad leg, caused by a severe accident, and during that time I had the advice of many medical men, and tried numerous remedies, but without any benefit. I was induced to make a trial of your Ointment and Pills, and in the course of a few weeks I was perfectly cured. I have since recommended them to many persons, and they have in every instance been attended with the most beneficial results.
(Signed) JOSEPH HALL.
Sold by all Druggists throughout the United States, and by the Proprietor, Professor HOLLOWAY, 244, Strand, London.
Sept1 eow

FOR SALE.
THE subscriber offers for sale his house and lot on Fayette street, Belvidere, containing 8 rooms, with a good cellar, and a well of water. Also, a good stable and carriage house. Terms easy.
Lowell, Aug. 1, 1855. aug6 JOHN WARREN.

SPLENDID CLOTHS.
THE subscriber has received a splendid assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, which he will make to order in the most fashionable manner, and warrant to fit.
Lowell, Aug. 1, 1855. aug6 JOHN WARREN.

NEW TAILORING SALON,
Over Bachelor's Jewelry Store,
Corner of Central and Prescott Sts.

Where you are invited to call and examine the Stock of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, which are now being received, and will be made up in the best possible manner, and warranted to fit.
Lowell, Aug. 1, 1855. aug6 D. B. COLBY, Agt.

SKELTON'S
TRICOFLUON,
OR
HAIR INVIGORATOR.
THIS new and valuable preparation entirely free from all mineral poisons, is especially adapted to the Ladies' toilet, as it will impart a beautiful appearance to the hair.
SOOTHING OF THE SCALP, while at the same time it imparts a glossy lustre and a soft and silky smoothness to the broadest hair, preventing it from falling off, and causing, curling and keeping the hair in place.
Prepared only by
Physician and Chemist,
No. 3 Prescott block, Lowell, Mass.
For sale by
C. G. SMITH,
DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST,
Residence, No. 3 Kirk st.
Retailed in Lowell by J. W. BURBEEN, P. BAKER, J. C. HOWARD & CO., A. C. AYER & CO., H. D. CLARK & A. STRATTON, and by druggists generally.
aug6

Freight Arrangement
BETWEEN LOWELL AND NEW YORK.
THE Stonington Line of Steamers will run as large, and elegant Steamers as any in the world, and will leave Providence every day (Sundays excepted) at 5 P. M., on the arrival of the cars from Boston, and New York at 5 P. M. the same days.
Connecting with the Providence and Worcester Railroad Line, and the Boston and Providence Railroad Line, and the Norwich Line, and the Worcester and Nashua Line, and the Fitchburg Line, and the Boston and Lowell Line, and the Boston and Maine Line, and the Eastern Railroad Line, and the Portland

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Friday, September 16, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with a vote of the Whig State Central Committee, a WHIG STATE CONVENTION will be holden at the Town Hall in Fitchburg, on WEDNESDAY, the 14th day of September, at 11 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nomination of State Officers.

The several Towns and Cities in the Commonwealth are requested to elect a number of Delegates, equal to three times the number of Representatives to which they are entitled in the General Court, to attend said Convention.

JOHN SARGENT, Secretary.

August 10, 1853.

WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Whig Convention for the County of Middlesex, will be held at [illegible] on [illegible], the 17th day of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the State Senate.

The several Towns and Cities of the County are requested to elect delegates equal to three times the number of Representatives to which they are entitled in the General Court, to attend said Convention.

By order of the Whig County Committee.

JOHN S. LADD, Chairman.

Isaac F. Shepard, Sec'y.

September 7, 1853.

The Boston Times, Temperance and Rum. It is only a day or two since the Times abused the Whigs for being the allies of the Repealers. It then declared that the whole power of the Repealers was to be exerted in behalf of the Whigs, and referred to the former position of the editor of the Repealers' organ as substantiating the assertion. But recently a change has come over the spirit of the Times' dream. The State Temperance Convention has convinced the Times that the Whigs are the true veritable Temperance party, par excellence. The Times says:—

Whatever may be the object of the mass of its members, and we do not question their honesty and good intentions, it is clear as light that the whole purpose of the managers of the affair is to keep the whig party in power in Massachusetts. The person most prominent in it is no less a man than the Hon. Elisha Huntington, Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts, by virtue of coalition dissensions and whig votes. * * * * *

Another whig of "eminent gravity" concerned in this temperance movement is Mr Asahel Huntington, ex-Mayor of Salem, who cares no more for the cause of temperance than for the cause of the Chinese Emperor, but who is crafty as Satan, and knows that if a few hundred coalitionists in Middlesex, and half as many in Essex, can be deluded by the cry of "temperance reform!" his party will not be in quite so bad a way as it now is. The whole thing is a whig trick, and we hope that no coalitionist will be deluded by it. Did we not suffer by the folly of making side issues last year, and shall we allow the whigs to triumph in the same way again?

Now it would be gratifying to know which story is to be believed, and to which the Times will stand. For if the whig party is the ally of the Repealers, and at the same time the responsible author of the State Temperance Convention, surely there is duplicity and double-dealing somewhere. The truth is, and the Times sees it, that all parties have become so disgusted with the abolition party in both wings, that neither the Temperance men nor the Repealers, will ever trust it again. The Times sees, therefore, that there is no longer any hope for the party whose humble and passive parasite it has always been; and is constrained to clamor against all whigs, whether Maine Law men or Repealers.

A Practical Suggestion. We commend the following suggestion to the friends of the Maine Law. The Boston Courier says that not one of the speakers in the late State Temperance Convention "hinted that the simplest provision in the entire law is that which prescribes the mode of making a complaint. For the fact is, that any three citizens can procure a warrant by stating upon oath that they believe intoxicating liquor is sold in such and such a place and by such and such a person.—Now, why do not the "temperance" editors and orators proceed at once to enforce the law? There are plenty of liquor shops in Boston, and how is it that these "reformers" stand idle? They have the law as their shield. Let any three "temperance men" in Boston go to the Police Court Judge and make oath that liquor is sold in a certain locality—forthwith a warrant will be issued, and that warrant will be executed by Suffolk county constables. If the Maine Law possesses that efficacy which its professed friends claim for it, why do they not set the ball in motion? Why stand preaching about getting this man and that man into the Legislature? Here is the law—before it was enacted they promised everything, now with it, they still keep on talking, but do nothing."

Temperance Watchmen in Lowell should take this matter in hand. The suggestion will apply here.

Convention. The Free Soil State Convention commenced at Fitchburg yesterday, and Rodney French entertained them while the nominating committee were out. When they returned they reported Samuel G. Howe, of South Boston, for President, and E. L. Keyes, of Dedham, Aaron Bancroft, of Boston, J. T. Buckingham, of Cambridge, and ten others for vice presidents. Francis W. Bird was appointed chairman of the committee on resolutions, and a letter was read from Charles Sumner in favor of establishing a national policy on the Buffalo platform, and of sustaining the new constitution. The chair gave notice of a procession to escort Horace Mann, and then the convention adjourned till afternoon.

In the afternoon Mr Mann made the expected speech, and Henry Wilson was nominated for governor and Amasa Walker for lieutenant governor. This is according to the programme.

Uncandid. The Boston Times says: "The whigs are making desperate exertions to procure Mr Choate's consent to be their candidate, but we are quite confident that he has too much sense to allow of his being sacrificed for the sake of his party."

This is a fair specimen of the Times' uncandid and disingenuous mode of political warfare. Now the Times knows that no man is more sanguine of the success of the whig party in the coming State election than Mr Choate;—it knows that nothing but an urgent and constant press of private business could prevent that able and esteemed gentleman from serving our party with the greatest alacrity;—why then should it meanly insinuate that fear of defeat is the selfish and unmanly motive by which Mr Choate's conduct is directed? The insinuation is simply contemptible.

Gammon. The Advertiser has a string of extracts from whig papers designed to show that there is disaffection among them. The Courier is set down among the disaffected ones, because it disapproved of one of Gov. Clifford's appointments: "Tremendous logic!" Now if there were any disaffection in our party, all would know it, and the Advertiser would never have surcharged its columns with proofs of the fact. The mere attempt, the effort of the Advertiser, is a sure indication that the whigs are all united; and each, in truth, is the fact.

Philadelphia, Sept. 15. William Seygel, a fugitive slave, belonging to Dr. Whittridge, of Baltimore, was arrested in this city to-day, and had a hearing before Commissioner Ingraham. He acknowledged himself a slave, and was sent back without any excitement being caused.

Abbott's Life of Napoleon—Abbott's Plagiarism. The September number of Harper's Magazine contains an article headed—"Scenes in the Life of Louis XIV., by John S. C. Abbott." Although Mr Abbott publishes this article as original, the Hampshire Gazette asserts that it was published by the Living Age of May 29th, 1840. It is part of a translation from the French, by Anne T. Wilbur, under the head of "The Palace of Marly." Mr Abbott has confined himself to the sentiments of his author, rarely adopting the exact language.

We observe a simultaneous decrial of Mr Abbott's Napoleon by all departments of the press. Many papers call it a "whitewash." The New York Tribune, and many other journals of rank and note, speak of it as "twaddle." All agree that there will never be another John S. C. Abbott. A man who can apologize for Napoleon's divorce of Josephine, for his duplicity and treachery towards Venice, Genoa and all the Italian cities and Republics, is unworthy of confidence or of patronage.

Books, Magazines, &c.

Portraits and Memoirs of Eminent Americans—By John Livingston, of the New York Bar, New York: Cornish, Lamport & Co., 8 Park Place, 1853.

These two volumes contain 104 steel engravings of Lawyers, Merchants, Doctors, Judges, Members of Congress, Manufacturers, Bank Agents and others, who have become eminent, with brief and succinct memories of their lives and accomplishments. The characters here portrayed, are, for the most part, now living; they are all self-made men; from poverty, in many instances, these personages have climbed to enviable heighth on the ladder of local fame. A perusal of this work cannot fail to be of great service in encouraging those who are just beginning to fill responsible positions in society, to be virtuous, high-minded, honorable in all things, to live as they will wish they had done, should they obtain the goal of fame to which they so ardently aspire. Among the Lawyers here portrayed, are the late Jacob Burnet, of Ohio, Richard S. Coxe, of D. C., John Catron, Robert C. Grier, and John McLean, of the Supreme Court of the United States, Judge Colt, of Miss., Chancellors Pirtle and Bullock, of Ky., Chief Justice Harrington, of Delaware, General Pillow, Governor Brown, Judges Humphries and Fogg of Tennessee, Pickens of Alabama, Dutton and Foster of Connecticut, Chief Justice Lumpkin, Warren and Marsh, of Georgia, Justice Rost, of Louisiana, Judges Merrick, Willard, Phillips, and Fuller, of Massachusetts, Chancellor Walworth, Judges Edmonds and Brown, of New York, Judges Batile, D. M. Barringer, and Gilmer, of North Carolina, John R. Clay, of Pennsylvania, Attorney General Haynes, Angus Patterson, General Perry, and Hunt of South Carolina, and others.

Of such a phalanx, our country may well feel proud. The Bar is the pride of our country; the source whence come our Presidents, our Senators, our eloquent of speech, of thought, of Life. The selections in this work seem to have elicited the following remarks in the N. Y. Tribune:

Genius, it has been said, is sure to find its level. Upon no other theatre of human action is this so universally true as at the bar. The law is a stern mother, and deals with her children as the natives of a certain tribe of savages are reported to treat their infants, who, at their birth, are cast naked into the flood to baffet with its currents—those who can swim are cherished and caressed: those who cannot, perish without sympathy, and are remembered no more. This fable is a true type of that glorious profession, which has probably numbered among its members more men of brilliant genius and commanding talents than either the Church, the Cabinet, or the Army, and is second in the glory of its sons to Literature alone; a profession which, in the days of heathen antiquity, was illustrated by the matchless eloquence and incorruptible patriotism of a Demosthenes, and the vast and profound learning and versatile genius of a Cicero, which enlightened the ignorance and gloom of the dark ages with the torch of a Bracton and a Fleta, and reared upon the blood-stained wrecks of the ancient world, amid the clang and clash of barbarian hordes, the temple of Order and Justice, in symmetry and beauty; which, in more modern times, could boast the gigantic labors and unequalled attainments of a Coke, a Bacon, with his Jove-like intellect, a Hale, with his spotless purity of soul and incorruptible integrity—a Mansfield, with his plastic genius, moulding with heterogeneous materials a noble system of jurisprudence, unrivalled for its beauty, simplicity, and consistency—and a Marshall and Story to reflect back, with increased splendor from these "transatlantic" shores, the light they borrowed from the torch of Europe.

The above work is for sale by J. P. Walker, in this city.

Temperance Book—The Mysterious Parchment; or, Satanic License: Dedicated to Maine Law Progress—By Rev. Joel Wakeman, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Almond, N. Y. Boston: John P. Jewett & Co.

This is a very interesting book; its details are highly amusing. It is not strictly a work of imagination; some of the shocking incidents are from actual events—such as "the death of Howland" by falling from a bridge; Phillip Hopkins, who froze to death; Mrs Sturdevant, who was knocked down, her flesh and limbs stacked by a sharp knife, by a drunken husband, which resulted in her death—and others. For sale by James P. Walker.

Horrible Tragedy. Sherburne has been made the scene of one of the most awful murders that has for many years occurred. On Wednesday evening last, about 8 o'clock, John Chapman called at the house of Mr Reuben Cozzens, and told Mrs Cozzens that her son had been thrown from a wagon in Framingham and badly injured. She thereupon called up her husband, who had gone to bed, and upon his going to the field to catch his horse, Chapman killed him with a single blow of an axe. He then returned to the house and struck Mrs Cozzens a blow on the head which will probably prove fatal. Next he went to the chamber of the Irish hired man, and raised the axe to kill him, but the Irishman wrenched it from his hands, and Chapman then attacked him with the chamber pot, but finally fled from the scene without consummating the third murder which he had in his heart, and without obtaining the booty for which he has consigned his miserable soul to a living death. Mrs C. recovered sufficiently to relate the circumstances. Chapman is only 21 years old, and formerly lived with the old couple Cozzens.—Many people remember him as formerly attendant in the saloon at the Framingham railroad depot. It is believed he thought Mr Cozzens had a good deal of money in his house. The Irishman gave information of the deed to Mrs Paul, the nearest neighbor, who called assistance, and the whole region was alarmed, and the citizens turned out to pursue the murderer.

Significant. As significant of the dissatisfaction with which many intelligent freesoilers view their new abolition constitution, we observe that, in his letter to the freesoil State Convention, Hon. Charles Sumner alludes to [illegible] not in all respects satisfy our high idea of what the Constitution of this powerful, enlightened and refined Commonwealth should be."

CITY MATTERS.

The Firemen's Muster, yesterday, was the most brilliant and imposing display ever witnessed in Lowell. The arrangements for the occasion, by our efficient Department, were so thorough and admirable that everything went like clock-work, and no accident occurred to mar the agreeable excitement of the occasion. About a dozen of the companies from abroad remained here over night. Some of them left by the first trains this morning. Silver Grey Co., No. 10, and Empire, No. 5, of Lynn; Niagara, No. 3, of Cambridge, and Massachusetts, No. 3, of Pawtucket, left at 12 M. to-day. The Fire Kings, of Providence, are with us still—the guests of our Wamesit boys.

☞ The Judges for the trial of engines have not yet reported. We shall probably be able to publish their report to-morrow.

☞ The City Marshal and his police force were omnipresent yesterday, doing efficient service wherever and whenever that sort of service was required.

☞ Our programme of the celebration, in yesterday's paper, cost us a good deal of hard labor in its compilation,—yet the Morning News appropriates the entire account without a word of acknowledgment.

Thief Caught. Officer Williams arrested in this city, yesterday, the fellow who robbed the North Chelmsford Depot, on Wednesday.

Wamesit Engine Co., No. 3, of this city, entertain the Fire Kings, of Providence, by a dinner at the American House, at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Mazeppa Co. No. 10, had their Engine House splendidly decorated yesterday.

Grand Levee. The Firemen's Levee at Huntington Hall last evening was a splendid affair. In the early part of the evening, the Hall was densely crowded. Lowell made a proud display of many of her prettiest girls. But the attendance of ladies was inadequate to the need of the assembled gents. The best of order was preserved throughout. We observed many gentlemen who were dancing with male partners, but that does not suit our fancy. It is like carrying coals to Newcastle.

A Big 'Un. Mr J. T. Page, of Dracutt, sends us a peach that weighs half a pound and measures 9 1-2 inches round.

☞ Look out for $1 bills on the "Bank of Salisbury," Maryland—several of which have been offered here lately. It is a broken bank.

☞ We are indebted to our neighbor of Vox Populi for the report of the trial of Engines, which will be found in another column.

Clairvoyance. There are but few persons at this late day who do not believe in the practical power of Mesmerism—though men may differ in opinion as to the extent to which this power can be usefully applied. All sceptics, as well as all believers, we refer to the advertisement, in another column, of Dr. Swan and Madame Johnson, who have taken rooms for a short time at the American House.

☞ We are indebted to F. F. Pearl, of this city, for a mess of fine trout, caught in a lake "away down east," a little beyond the rising sun. Mr P. was one of a company of five or six who caught 800 pounds of these delicious fish in two days—weighing from one to eight pounds each.

Stoves, &c. Our readers are referred to the card, in another column, of N. J. Wier & Co., (successors to D. G. Littlefield,) 168 Merrimack street.

Police Court—Friday, Sept. 16. Jose Lucroy, for insulting a female on the street yesterday, was fined $2 and costs. Amos Hildreth, of Chelmsford, came to town yesterday to see "der machines," got too much elated with looking at a dissolving lump of sugar in the bottom of a tumbler, and this morning was brought before His Honor and was fined $3 and costs—which he could not pay, and was committed. Thos Fitzgerald, for an assault on his daughter, was committed to House of Correction six mos. Benj. Binks, for an assault on Elizabeth Binks, was fined six dollars and costs. Alexis Baker, for two complaints, one for being drunk and another for maliciously breaking glass, was fined $3 and costs, on the first, and $6 and costs on the other. Officer Miller pulled Baker from his lodging last night about 3 o'clock, from between two beds, where he had secreted himself, with two females lying in the bed, who said he was not there, but Miller knew better.

Trial of Engines.

The following regulations were made:—That the engines be divided into three classes—the first class to play through 400 feet of hose, the second, 350, and the third, 300.—That each Company select its own sized pipe. That they shall play twice perpendicularly, and once horizontally, the whole time allowed to each Company not to exceed four minutes. That, if the hose burst, the Company shall retire without another trial.

The following gentlemen composed the Board of Judges:—J. G. Chase, N. B. Favor, E. F. Watson, Horace Howard, S. W. Brown, and Wm. Fiske, all of Lowell. Chief-Engineer E. N. Holmes, and Engineer George E. Wyman, of Worcester, with one of the Danvers Board of Engineers, whose name we have lost.

The Company that commenced the trial, where 1

Rapid, No. 2, of Worcester, 40 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 inches, length of stroke, 16 inches. 1st trial, 100 feet high; 2nd trial, 95 feet high; 3rd trial, 132 feet in distance.

Excelsior, No. 1, of Lowell, 41 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 5 1-2 inches, length of stroke 16 inches. 1st trial, 95 feet high; 2nd trial, hose burst; 3rd trial, 137 feet in distance.

Bunker Hill, No. 2, of Charlestown, 60 men, Thayer, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 inches; length of stroke, 14 inches. 1st trial, 95 feet high; 2nd trial, hose burst; 3rd trial, 135 feet in distance.

Tiger, No. 4, of Lawrence, 75 men, Howard & Davis, builders; diameter of cylinder, 7 inches, length of stroke, 15 inches. 1st trial, hose burst; 3rd trial, 146 feet in distance.

Tornado, No. 4, of Worcester, 40 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 inches, length of stroke, 16 inches. 1st trial, hose burst; 3rd trial, 157 feet in distance.

Wamesit, No. 3, of Lowell, 41 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 5 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 16 inches. 1st trial, 85 feet high; 2nd trial, 98 feet high; 3rd trial, 150 feet in distance.

Massasoit, No. 6, of Lowell, 60 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 1-2 inches; length of stroke, 16 inches. 1st trial, 100 feet high; 2nd trial, 102 feet high; 3rd trial, 145 feet in distance.

Eagle, No. 5, of Danvers, 40 men, Leslie, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 inches, length of stroke, 00 inches. 1st trial, 95 feet high; 2nd trial, hose burst; 3rd trial, 145 feet in distance.

Lafayette, No. 7, of Nashua, 60 men

Thayer, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 14 inches. 1st trial, hose burst; 3rd trial, 131 feet in distance.

Fire King, No. 6, of Providence, 40 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 inches, length of stroke, 00 inches. 1st trial, hose burst; 3rd trial, 130 feet in distance.

Torrent, No. 2, of Haverhill, 55 men, Howard & Davis, builders; diameter of cylinder, [illegible] inches, length of stroke, 14 inches. 1st trial, 95 feet high; 2nd trial, 98 feet high, and hose burst; 3rd trial, 146 feet in distance.

Tornado, No. 6, of Roxbury, 65 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 15 1-2 inches. 1st trial, 108 feet high; 2nd trial, 104 feet high; 3rd trial, 148 feet in distance.

Mechanic, No. 2 of Newburyport, 61 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 17 inches. 1st trial, 88 feet high; 2nd trial, 90 feet high; 3rd trial, 147 feet in distance.

Tiger, No. 5, of Lowell, 41 men, Hunneman, builder, diameter of cylinder, 5 1-2 inches; length of stroke, 16 inches. 164 feet in distance, and hose burst.

Tremont, No. 7, of Roxbury, 60 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 3-8 inches, length of stroke, 16 inches. 1st trial, 138 feet high; 2nd trial, 120 feet high; 3rd trial, 156 feet in distance.

Yale, No. 1, of South Reading, 62 men, Jeffers, builder; diameter of cylinder, 10 inches; length of stroke, 11 inches. 1st trial, 112 feet high, and hose burst. No trial in distance.

Tiger, No. 2, of Dover, 40 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 5 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 18 inches. 1st trial, 104 feet high; 2nd trial, 104 feet high; 3rd trial, 161 feet in distance.

Empire, No. 5, of Lynn, 50 men, Leslie, builder; diameter of cylinder 7 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 15 inches. 1st trial, hose burst; 3rd trial, 147 feet in distance.

Massachusetts, No. 3, of Pawtucket, 52 men, Jos. Smith, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 9 inches. 1st trial, 75 feet high; 2nd trial, 80 feet high; 3rd trial, 143 feet in distance.

Merrimack, No. 1, of Manchester, N. H., 50 men Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 5 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 15 1-2 inches. 1st trial, 100 feet high, and hose burst, 3rd trial, 145 feet in distance.

Silver Grey, No. 10, of Lynn, 50 men, Howard & Davis, builders; diameter of cylinder, 7 inches, length of stroke, 16 inches. 1st trial, 85 feet high and burst; 3rd trial, 137 feet in distance.

Washington, No. 2 of Chelsea, 45 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 5 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 16 inches. 1st trial, 120 feet high; 2nd trial, 95 feet high; 3rd trial, 167 feet in distance.

Niagara, No. 3, of East Cambridge, 60 men, Thayer, builder; diameter of cylinder, 7 inches, length of stroke, 13 5-8 inches. 1st trial, 85 feet high, and burst their hose; 3rd trial, 115 feet in distance.

Tiger, No. 2, of Nashville, 50 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 inches, length of stroke, 15 1-2 inches. 139 feet in distance, and hose burst.

Deluge, No. 14 of Lowell, 41 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 5 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 16 inches. 1st trial, 110 feet high; 2nd trial, 95; 3rd trial, 137 feet in distance.

Water Witch, No. 11, of Lowell, 50 men, Hunneman, builder; diameter of cylinder, 7 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 18 inches. 1st trial, 120 feet high; 2nd trial, 125 feet high; 3rd trial, 153 feet in distance.

Mazeppa, No. 10 of Lowell, 41 men, Thayer, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 14 inches. 1st trial, 102 feet high; 2nd trial, 105 feet high; 3rd trial, 124 feet in distance.

Torrent, No. 12, of Lowell, 41 men, Thayer, builder; diameter of cylinder, 6 1-2 inches, length of stroke, 14 inches. 1st trial, 115 feet high; 2nd trial, 115 feet high; 3rd trial, 125 feet in distance.

Independent, No. 3, of Concord, 40 men, out of order, and did not play.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

Maine and Vermont Elections. The Maine Law has triumphed in Maine, but is defeated in Vermont. Such, at least, are the present indications. In Maine the whigs have elected twelve Senators; the democrats, five; the freesoilers, none; and six remain to be heard from. The House stands 48 whigs, 41 democrats, and 18 freesoil. One hundred and ninety-three towns have been heard from, in which the gubernatorial vote is as follows: Crosby (whig) 16,662; Pillsbury (anti Maine Law democrat) 24,397; Morrill (Maine Law democrat) 8,629; Holmes (freesoil) 5,474. The Morrill democrats and freesoilers are here merged. The last year's House stood—whigs 44, democrats 85, freesoilers 5.

A Fine Farm for Sale. Our friends are reminded that the Osgood Farm, at North Tewksbury, near the meeting house, is to be sold to-morrow P. M., offering a fine opportunity to any one desirous of retiring to a beautiful country residence. We are requested to say that those desirous of attending the sale will find accommodations for a free ride to and from the sale, at Shapleigh's auction room, at 2 o'clock P. M.

Boston Cards. Our readers are particularly referred to the Boston Card List, in another column. The advertisers in this list are among the most enterprising of the business men of Boston. They come to us through our prompt and efficient agent, S. M. Pettengill.

☞ The President has recognized Frederick W. Von Kanstrow as vice consul to Sweden and Norway for the port of St. Louis.

☞ Manly Ransom has been arrested for the murder of his wife in Spencer in 1851. He has lived in a secluded part of Northampton for more than a year, under the assumed name of George Brown.

☞ Bishop Elliott, of the Episcopal church in Georgia, appears to regret that Bishop Ives, of North Carolina, didn't die instead of turning Roman Catholic. "Again a few months," says Bishop Elliot, "and the church is troubled with the news that another of her bishops has gone, but alas! not to his grave!"

Accident. A colored boy, six years old, named Wm. Mandlin, was run over on Wednesday evening, at the corner of Hanson and Charles streets, and severely bruised by a horse and chaise. The boy was conveyed to his home in Southac street, and the driver agreed to pay all necessary expenses until his recovery.—[Boston Post.

Bound Over. Pliny H. Babbitt, Deputy Sheriff, of Barre, who was arrested on a charge of being an accessory before and after the fact, of the late burglaries in Barre, was examined before Justice Ware, of Fitchburg, on the 13th and 14th, and bound over in the sum of $4,000 to take his trial at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas.

Louisville, Sept. 15. General Shields is lying dangerously ill at Sparta, Ill. His mind at times is quite deranged.

New York, Sept. 14th. The Library Convention met this morning at University Chapel.

The Court of Bishops to-day discharged the presentment against Bishop Doane on his confession; at the same time declaring that the presenters had acted in the matter in good faith, and with the single view to the maintenance of the laws of the church.

Bishop Doane, after referring to the measures [illegible], says in conclusion that in the course of all these transactions human infirmity may have led him into many errors, which he deeply feels; he does not wish to justify or excuse them.

Cincinnati, Sept. 15. A Convention of Maine Law advocates yesterday nominated candidates for Representatives and Senators in the Ohio Legislature from this county. The nominees are mostly democrats.

Poughkeepsie, Sept. 15. A collision occurred on the Hudson River Railroad about two miles below this place, at a quarter past four o'clock this p. m., between a single engine and the Poughkeepsie passenger train going south, by which one fireman and two brakemen on the passenger train, and both engineers and firemen on the single engine were badly injured. Names not ascertained. No passengers were hurt. The engines are a perfect wreck.

☞ The third part of the United States Illustrated, (The West;) the third part of the U. States Illustrated, (The East;) the third and fifth parts of Meyer's Universum; have been received. They are published by Hermann J. Meyer, 164 Washington street, New York.—They are for sale by Frederick Parker, Esq., Appleton Block.

Forgery. A Greenfield Bank cashed a check for $950 recently, purporting to be drawn by a large business concern in the vicinity, and sent by express from New York for collection. On discovering that it was a forgery, the bank sent a messenger to New York, and found the money in the express office, the forger evidently having been afraid to call for it.

☞ A man in Georgia recently died from obesity. During the last part of his life, he increased in weight at the rate of two pounds a day, and weighed when he died not far from 660 pounds. He died suddenly.

☞ A gentleman married a woman in Boston on Sunday last, and on Monday his wife was a corpse. He was, therefore, a bachelor, a husband and a widower, in the brief space of 24 hours.

☞ It is stated that in making an estimate of the amount of iron contained in the iron mountain in Missouri, enough has been found above its base to make 105,000,000 tons. Now, if 5,000,000 only be converted into railroad iron, it would make 500,000 miles of road; and send off the remainder, at the rate of 1000 per day, would employ a railroad over 300 years to remove it.

Harrisburg, Sept. 15. The yellow fever has made its appearance at Montgomery, and 13 cases are already reported. Nine of them were brought from New Orleans, and the remainder originated among the Irish families. Six of thirteen persons attacked have died.

Baltimore, Sept. 15. The steamer Crescent City sailed from Norfolk on Tuesday, for Aspinwall, with the Georgia's passengers.

The cholera has re-appeared in Cumberland. There were twenty-two deaths between Saturday and Wednesday.

☞ A letter from Newport, Sept. 7th, states that the inmates of the Touro street House were alarmed by the cries of Mrs Morgan, and proceeded to rescue her from the hands of her husband, who was chastising her. Mr Isaac Howe got out a writ of habeas corpus, upon which the lady, with her servant and three children, was removed to the Bellevue House, and Rev. Mr Dumont was appointed guardian to her. Counsel were engaged for both parties, and the case will be heard this week. Mrs Morgan is a daughter of Dudley Selden.—[Post.

COAT AND PANT MAKERS WANTED, And constant employment given, by COLBY & CO., 4 Canal Block, Central street.

LATEST DATES. From Liverpool, ... Aug. 27 | Havre, ... Aug. 24. From London, ... Aug. 27 | San Francisco, ... Aug. 16.

Sales at Boston Stock and Exchange Board. Sept. 15, 1853.

[illegible]

THE LIVER PILLS. The Liver Pills of Dr. M'Lane were first used by him exclusively in his own practice. So efficacious were they in all cases of Liver complaint, that they became famous, and attracting the attention of the medical faculty generally ... Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills, also his Celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada. General Agents—BURR & PERRY, No. 1 Cornhill, Boston. Agents for Lowell—S. Kidder, Jr., Carleton & Hovey, J. C. Ayer & Co., C. S. Bowman & Co., W. W. Webber, and by Druggists generally.

INTERESTING CASE OF SCROFULA. [illegible]

MRS FOSTER'S CORDIAL. [illegible] CARLETON & HOVEY, Agents for Lowell.

HARTFORD LIFE INSURANCE CO., HARTFORD, CONN. [illegible] A. JAS. RICHMOND, Agent. Joel Spalding, Medical Examiner.

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK, Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1832. Capital $150,000. DIRECTORS. Seth Grosvenor, N. Y.; Geo. Fisher, Oswego; ... GEO. FISHER, Pres't. SAM'L HAWLEY, Sec'y. This long established Company are prepared to take every species of Fire and Inland Navigation Risks ... A. JAS. RICHMOND, Agent. Office No. 16 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell.

FIRE INSURANCE. OFFICE,—NO. 16 APPLETON BLOCK. Ætna Protection and Hartford Insurance Companies, HARTFORD, CONN. AGGREGATE capital paid in and invested according to law, ... Ætna Capital, Protection Capital, Hartford Capital ... A. JAS. RICHMOND, agent. Office No. 16 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell. April 26, 1852.

STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO., OF WORCESTER—Incorporated 1845. Capital, $100,000. JOHN DAVIS, Pres. | CLARENDON HARRIS, Sec. ... W. P. WEBSTER, Agent, Office in Wyman's Exchange.

CALIFORNIA RISKS taken by the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, on the most favorable terms. S. W. STICKNEY, Agent.

"A SPLENDID REMEDY." Devines' Compound Pitch Lozenge, THE WONDER OF THE WORLD, For Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Consumption, &c. The Great Remedy is at last discovered! CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED!! ... SOVEREIGN REMEDY! ... S. D. FULLER & CO., 8 Tremont Temple, Boston, Proprietors. Sold in Lowell by J. B. HAYES, S. KIDDER, Jr., and E. W. GIBSON.

CLAIRVOYANT EXAMINATIONS. Dr. Swan & Mad. Johnson, OF NEW YORK CITY. THESE well known, celebrated Mesmeric and Botanic Physicians, have arrived in town and taken Rooms at the AMERICAN HOUSE, Lowell, where they will remain for a short time, and will be happy to wait upon all those who may favor them with a call. ... MADAME JOHNSON.

VARIETIES.

COAT AND PANT MAKERS WANTED. At the City Hall Clothing Store.

ASSIGNEE'S NOTICE. [illegible] WILLIAM A. RICHARDSON, Assignee. Lowell, Sept. 14, 1853.

NEW BOOKS. [illegible] For sale by WATSON & SARGEANT.

Fire Insurance. METROPOLITAN FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE Co. ... EQUITABLE M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Concord, N. H. ... QUINCY M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Quincy. ... FARMERS' M. FIRE INSURANCE CO. JEREMIAH S. FOLSOM, Agent.

N. J. WIER & CO., (Successors to D. G. Littlefield,) COPPER, TIN PLATE, SHEET IRON WORKERS, ... STOVES, HOLLOW WARE, &c., &c. 168 Merrimack st.

TO LET. Store No. 48 Central street, now occupied by Geo. [illegible]

NOTICE. THE Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the [illegible] CARLETON & HOVEY.

RIMMEL'S TOILET VINEGAR.—Another supply of this desirable cosmetic and perfume ... For sale by CARLETON & HOVEY.

FOR SALE! THE TREMONT SALOON. [illegible] Manchester, N. H., Sept. 10, 1853.

TO WHOLESALE PURCHASERS OF RIBBONS, LACES, EMBROIDERIES, Silks, Velvets, Merinos, HOSIERY, HANDKERCHIEFS, MUSLINS & LINEN GOODS. GEO. TURNBULL & CO. BOSTON, ARE now opening their Fall Stock ... on Washington st. through to Winter st. ...

AUCTION SALES. Having a buyer constantly in the Market ... Geo. Turnbull & Co., 275 WASHINGTON STREET, AND 8 & 10 WINTER STREET. Boston, Sept. 12, 1853.

FOR SALE, a Pointer Dog of superior blood, about three years old. Apply to A. CUTTER, 15 Middle street.

TEMPLETON'S Engineer, Millwright and Mechanic's Pocket Companion ... For sale by WATSON & SARGEANT.

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store. JOSEPH T. JANES, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in every variety of GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, HATS, CAPS, UMBRELLAS, PERFUMERY, &c. &c. No. 140 Merrimack street, City Hall Building, LOWELL.

LINGARD'S History of England, vol. 3. Wordsworth's Miscellany, vol. 3. ... For sale by WATSON & SARGEANT.

WANTED. A JOURNEYMAN BRASS CASTER.—One well acquainted with the business can find steady employment and good wages, by applying to [illegible] 17 State st., Boston.

DAVIS'S EXPURGATOR [illegible] CARNEY, Apothecary, corner Kirk and Merrimack sts.

ZANOLI'S COLOGNE.—[illegible] CARNEY, Apothecary.

TOILET SOAPS.—[illegible] CARNEY, Apothecary, corner Kirk and Merrimack sts.

FOR THE HAIR.—[illegible] for sale by CARNEY, Apothecary.

A GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF BOYS' CLOTHING Just received at GILMAN & WORCESTER'S, City Hall, Merrimack st.

CHARLES T. CARNEY, APOTHECARY AND CHEMIST, Corner of Merrimack and Kirk Streets, LOWELL, DEALER IN Pure Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, and CHEMICAL APPARATUS. *Chemical Analyses and Examinations made on reasonable terms.

TO LET. Two Tenements [illegible] Apply to T. HARDY.

PEACH BRUSHES.—[illegible] E. BUSH.

FANCY GOODS AND PERFUMERY.—[illegible] E. BUSH, cor. Merrimack and Central streets.

SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES. MISS M. F. McKOWN proposes to open a School for Young Ladies, in this city, on the 19th of September next, at MOZART HALL, corner of John and Merrimack sts. ... D. S. Lowell, Aug. 6, 1853.

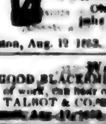
BOARD WANTED. BY a family consisting of three or four young persons, in a small respectable family. [illegible]

TO LET. [illegible] P. ANDERSON, Sept. 1, 1853.

GLENN'S True Verbena Water. THIS delightful perfume, prepared by a chemical process, from the best known plant ...

LEMON TRIPOLIA, ... sold in Lowell by C. T. CARNEY & CO., E. BUSH, ... CARLETON & HOVEY, J. C. AYER & Co., J. W. CARLTON, and E. W. GIBSON.

BOSTON VICE MANUFACTORY, No. 6 Salutation st., Boston, Entrance from 387 Hanover st., or 370 Commercial st. ... Warranted superior to any imported. ... Old Vices taken in exchange. ... JOHN WOOLLEY. Boston, Aug. 12, 1853.



WANTED. A GOOD BLACKSMITH. [illegible] C. P. TALBOT & CO.

WANTED. A YOUNG MAN [illegible] SWAN & STRAW'S.

SETTER PUPS FOR SALE. Two very superior Setter Pups of pure blood and fine appearance. Inquire of J. HARDING.

MISS S. FLETCHER, FEMALE PHYSICIAN. [illegible] ELECTRICITY ...

ALBERT HOWE, Teacher of the Piano Forte and Singing ... Lowell, Aug. 29, 1853.

HERRICK & TUTTLE, MASONS. [illegible]

L. M. PETTENGILL & CO.'S BOSTON BUSINESS DIRECTORY, September, 1853. The Fire Proof List and Boston ... S. M. Pettengill & Co., Newspaper Advertising Agents, No. 10 State street, Boston ...

PARKER & WHITE, Agricultural Warehouse AND SEED STORE. 59 & 63 Blackstone, 8 & 10 Gerrish Block, Boston. Manufacturers of and Dealers in all kinds of Agricultural Implements and Machines, at Manufacturers' Prices.

L. STEPHENSON & CO. Balance and Scale Manufacturers, No. 73 Water Street, Boston. DEARBORN'S Patent Balances, Large Platform Balances, Railroad Track Balances, Platform Scales, Counter Scales, &c.

ROXBURY RUBBER WARE ROOMS, 94 Washington st., Boston, Mass. THE Subscriber solicits a call from all who are in want of Rubber Goods. ... E. LEIGHTON. 94 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.

BENJ. B. MUSSEY & CO., Booksellers, Stationers, &c., WHOLESALE & RETAIL, 29 Cornhill and 31 Brattle Street, Boston.

JOHN P. LOVELL, Manufacturer, Importer and Dealer in Guns and Gun Materials, OF EVERY DESCRIPTION, No. 27 Dock Square (Up Stairs), Boston. (Four Doors East of Exchange st.)

LOCKWOOD & LUMB, PLUMBERS, No. 34 School Street, directly opposite City Hall, BOSTON.

New England Methodist Depository. No. 5 Cornhill, Boston. JAMES P. MAGEE, AGENT. Office of National Magazine, Ladies' Repository, Sunday School Advocate, Quarterly Review, Missionary Advocate.

ANSON PECK, Manufacturer of Combs, Dealer in Jewelry and Fancy Goods, Hair Brushes and Perfumery, LIBERTY TREE BLOCK, No. 2 Essex Street, near the Boylston Market, BOSTON.

Chimney Pieces and Pier Slabs Manufactured of Stone, by the PENRHYN MARBLE CO. (Patented 1852.) These are NEW and beautiful articles, in imitation of the richest marble, such as Lisbon, Italian, Pyrenese, Egyptian, Galway, Spanish, Sienna, Black, and others of the most rare and desirable kinds. In style and finish, they stand unequalled; are very highly polished, retain their beauty much longer than common marble, and are not injured by coal gas, smoke or acids. They have been extensively introduced into public and private buildings, giving perfect satisfaction to those who have tried them. The best references and testimonials can be given, showing their adaptedness for general use. While much superior in appearance, they are sold cheaper than anything of the kind in the market. In fact, the confidence with which they have thus far been used, gives the fairest evidence that the Penrhyn Marble, by its many advantages, will in a great measure supersede the use of all other. PIER SLABS and SHELVES for parlors, chambers, &c., together with Bronzed, Gilt and other kinds of Brackets, of various patterns, furnished to order. Architects, builders and all others, are invited to examine them. Arrangements have been made for the supply of the trade. Samples may be seen at the Ware Rooms of the Company, No. 3 Haskins Buildings, corner of Tremont Row and Howard Street, opposite Hanover street, (up stairs.) JOSEPH STORY, Agent.

SAILORS AND MARINES Who were in Government Vessels on the coast of California, from the commencement of the War with Mexico until September 30th, 1850, or during any part of that time, can obtain extra pay by applying to HORATIO WOODMAN, 26 Railroad Exchange, Boston, in person or by letter.

"EXTRA BURNING FLUID." WE use an Extra quality of Stock, and challenge any one to offer a better article of BURNING FLUID AND CAMPHENE than manufactured by us. Our prices are not lower than other dealers', but are as low. Orders respectfully solicited and satisfaction guaranteed. D. E. MILLS & CO., Boston, Aug., 1853. No. 60 Court St.

HOWE'S SEWING MACHINES. HAVING taken a license under the original Patent of Elias Howe, Jr., we are now manufacturing and selling the latest improved and most perfect operating Machines ever offered to the public, for the low price of $100 to $125. Also, Agents for the sale of WHEELER, WILSON & CO.'S SEWING MACHINES, at manufacturers' prices. ... NICHOLS & BLISS, 63 Hanover st.

W. PEARCE, PLUMBER, 33 & 35 Congress St., Boston, Mass., And 26 Market Square, Portland, Maine. Force Pumps, Water Closets, Bathing Apparatus, Plumbing Work, and Water Fixtures of every description executed in the best manner, in every part of the Union, with despatch.

TO SPORTSMEN. FIFIELD & RICHARDSON, 44 Washington St., Boston. Now offer for sale the largest and best assortment of DOUBLE and SINGLE GUNS, Of their own importation, ever offered in New England. Their stock also comprises every article necessary for the complete outfit of the SPORTSMAN OR ANGLER. COLT'S REVOLVERS, ALL SIZES.

JOHN P. JEWETT & COMPANY, Publishers and Booksellers, Nos. 17 & 19 Cornhill, Boston.

CYRUS T. CLARK, Paints, Oils, Glass, Artists' Materials, Painters' Colors, Paint Brushes, Varnishes of all kinds, Japanned Tin, for Signs, Gold and Silver Bronze, 61 Hanover St., opposite the American House, Boston.

J. P. HALL & CO., No. 1 Union Street, DRUGS, MEDICINES, ETC. [illegible]

REMOVAL. The subscribers have removed from Milk street, to the New and Spacious Store, Nos. 41 and 43 Federal Street, Where they will continue the IMPORTING AND JOBBING DRY GOODS AND CARPET BUSINESS. McGilvray, Wyman & Co.

Boston Business Directory. THE ONLY ESTABLISHED CASH Boot, Shoe, and Leather Store in Boston, is T. C. WALES & CO.'S, Manufacturers and Dealers, Nos. 18 Broad, and 46 Central Streets. "Be sure and call before purchasing."

JOHN A. HUGHES, Manufacturer of SHOW CASES, No. 7 Harvard Place, Ware Room No. 149 Washington Street, (Opposite the Old South Church,) BOSTON.

GREAT BARGAINS IN PIANOS. OLIVER DITSON, Publisher of Sheet Music and Music Books, 115 Washington Street, Boston, has in store a full stock of Pianos, Melodeons, Seraphines, and Reed Organs. For sale at $40 to $150 each, or to let, $6 to $10 per quarter. The large number offered affords a rare opportunity for those in want to make a satisfactory choice. If the person hiring should wish to purchase within one year, no charge for rent will be made ...

PRINTING MATERIALS Of all kinds, constantly on hand and for sale by HOBART & ROBBINS, New England Type and Stereotype Foundry, No. 66 Congress St., Boston.

EAYES & FAIRBANKS, Stationers and Account Book Manufacturers, No. 133 Washington Street, Boston. Agents for Loring's School Globes, ... Monochromatic Drawing Books.

F. W. SNOW, No. 91 Washington Street, Boston, Manufacturer and Dealer in the above-named Articles. It is needless to speak at length of their superior qualities, as the inventor has received Silver Medals for them here, as also a medal at the Great Exhibition in London, and never allows a pen to be placed on sale without a personal examination and test. N. B.—A great variety of pens, and gold and silver cases may be found at the above establishment. A liberal discount to the trade.

ARTISTS' SUPPLY STORE. M. J. WHIPPLE, 35 Cornhill, Boston. Prepared Oil Colors in Tubes, Canvas, and all supplies for Oil Painting. Materials for Drawing, and Crayon and Chromatic Painting.

R. H. SPALDING, Sole Manufacturer of the Original Porter's Burning Fluid. Also, Superior Camphene and Alcohol, Fluid Chandeliers, and Lamps of every description. Nos. 8 & 9 Tremont Row, Boston.

WHAT CAN BE HAD AT A. W. POLLARD'S, No. 6 Court Street ... Boston. MILITARY Cloths and Trimmings. Swords, Epaulets, Sashes, Army Laces, &c. REGALIA GOODS, with Laces, Stars & Emblems. THEATRICAL Costuming Articles, Laces, &c. Fencing Foils, Masks, and Battle Swords. BANNER SILKS, Fringes, Tassels, &c. Ornamental Trimmings for Engine Companies. United States Flags, Decorations, &c. REGALIA and Jewels for all the "Orders." Ballot Boxes and Balls, Gavels, &c., &c. Masonic Carpets, Diplomas and Books. If you want an article you do not know where to find, direct your orders as above. ONE PRICE ONLY.

DEARBORN'S ENGRAVING ESTABLISHMENT, And Depot for the sale of Note Papers and Fancy Cards. No. 28 1-2 School Street, Boston. Wedding, Address, and Invitation Cards Elegantly Engraved and Printed from Copper Plate. Door Plates, Seals, &c., Engraved. All articles appertaining to Weddings and Parties, such as Cake Boxes, Wedding Envelopes, Love Knots, Silver Wafers, De La Rue's Note Papers and Envelopes, Goffered and Plain, Embossed and Illuminated Note Papers, Envelopes and Cards. A great variety of Ball Cards, Orders of Dancing, &c.

DAGUERREOTYPE APPARATUS. Plates, Cases, Frames, Lockets, Chemicals, and every description of Goods used in the Daguerreotype business at the lowest Cash Prices. Orders promptly attended to. A supply of the celebrated "H. B." Plates constantly on hand. JOHN SAWYER & CO., 183 Washington Street.

CORBETT'S SHAKER COMPOUND SYRUP OF SARSAPARILLA. And Brown's Shaker Fluid Extract of English Valerian, and DEAN'S RHEUMATIC PILLS, For Sale by Raymond & Noyes, No. 11 Merchants' Row ... Boston. Sole Agents for the United States and Canadas. Also, by all the Principal Wholesale Druggists in the Cities.

PHILIP KEGLER & CO., Manufacturers and Importers of SURGICAL AND DENTAL INSTRUMENTS AND CUTLERY, No. 195 Washington, cor. Water St. (Up Stairs.)

Medical Notice to Females. DR. C. W. CALKINS, PHYSICIAN, SURGEON, AND ACCOUCHEUR, Office, 145 Pleasant Street, Boston. Special attention given to diseases of women and children. Many diseases considered incurable, or relieved only by an operation, permanently cured by means at once simple and safe. Married ladies who from ill health, malformation, or other causes, are exposed to great risk, or unusual suffering at the period of their accouchement, may learn how to avoid these dangers, by a timely application to Dr. Calkins either personally or by letter. Patients from the country, visiting Boston for medical aid, should be sure to call on him. Accommodations provided for those wishing to stay a few days in the city. All communications strictly confidential, and promptly replied to. Medicines sent to any part of the country, when desired.

HEINEMANN & JENKINS, Dealers and Importers of WATCHES, JEWELRY, AND SILVER WARE, Corner of Court and Hanover Streets, And Sign of Golden Californian. 291 Washington St., (under Marlboro' Hotel) BOSTON.

HOLMAN & FERNALD, Manufacturers of IMPROVED SALAMANDER SAFES, Vault Bank Locks, Bank Vaults, Iron and Steel Chests, Sewing Boxes, &c. (Warranted Fire and Burglar Proof.) 36 & 38 Congress Street ... Boston.

CIRCULAR BUILDING, Junction Marshall, Blackstone and Hanover sts. BOSTON. CARPET AND FURNITURE STORE, Wholesale for Cash, VERY LOW. W. D. B. BROOKS.

PEOPLE FROM THE COUNTRY, And others having Watches to be repaired, will find it for their advantage to call on J. H. FAIRBANKS, 66 Hanover Street, Boston, where work is well done and warranted.

E. E. HORN, Watches, Jewelry, Silver Goods, Solar Lamps, GIRANDOLES, AND VASES. No. 19 Hanover Street, Boston. N. B. Watches and Jewelry neatly Repaired.

Boston Business Directory. HARDWARE, METALS AND TOOLS. Samuel May & Co., No. 1 Broad Street, corner of State St., Boston. Tin Plates, Sheet and Plate Iron, Iron Wire, Copper, Sheet Brass, Copper, Lead and Iron Cut, ... Agents for the sale of Tremont Tacks and Machines, and of Smith's Portable Forges.

GEORGE WM. MERRILL, Dealer in Fancy Goods and Toys, 229 Washington St., under the Marlboro' Hotel, BOSTON.

C. MERRIFIELD, CHIROPODIST, Room 109 Washington Street, (Up Stairs,) BOSTON.

Fire Proof Safes. ANOTHER TESTIMONIAL. [illegible] BENJAMIN BARNES.

COMER'S INSTITUTE, 139 Washington Street ... Boston. Established A. D. 1840,—for practical Instruction in Writing, Book-Keeping, Navigation ...

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S Straight Needle, Perpendicular Action SEWING MACHINE, PATENTED AUGUST 12, 1851. 251 Washington Street, Boston.

DR. MUNROE Would respectfully inform the public that he has recently removed his office on Salem street, No. 31, opposite the Salem Market ... DR. MUNROE. Boston, Mass., 31 Salem street.

HERMAN'S CELEBRATED PREMIUM, HOT-AIR FURNACES. THESE Celebrated Furnaces, which have now stood the test for more than eighteen years ... LEOPOLD HERMAN, Late Bryant & Herman, Nos. 61 & 63 Congress Street, Boston.

DICKINSON TYPE FOUNDRY, No. 52 Washington Street, Boston. TYPES, and all other kinds of PRINTING MATERIALS, of superior quality, and at the lowest prices, for sale as above, by PHELPS & DALTON.

G. H. HALE & CO., Manufacturers and Dealers in RUBBER GOODS, No. 12 Bromfield Street, Boston.

WILDER'S Iron Safe & Lock WAREHOUSE, No. 25 Merchants' Row, Corner of Chatham Street, Boston.

JUDE SNOW & C. C. HALL, Importers, Jobbers, and Retailers of Dry Goods, CARPETING AND FLOOR CLOTHS, 128 & 130 Hanover St., (Old No. 61,) Boston.

SPRAGUE, SOULE & CO., Dealers in Plaster and Grindstones, NO. 7 T WHARF. BOSTON.

HENRY TOLMAN, 156 Washington Street, [illegible]

SPEAKING TUBES, [illegible] No. 25 Devonshire St., Boston.

Pond's Bosom Sewing Machine. [illegible]

JAMES PATTERSON, Manufacturer of every description of [illegible] WAREROOMS, Nos. 7 and 10 Chapman Place, Boston.

PHILLIPS & MOSELEY, Importers and Jobbers of all kinds of IRON, AND STEEL, NAILS AND DOORS, 62, 64, 66 Broad Street, Boston.

WAX THREAD SEWING MACHINES. WICKERSHAM'S PATENT. Adapted to sewing and closing with waxed thread all kinds of Boots and Shoes, with or without sole welts, superior to hand sewing, and with an immense saving of labor. Likewise, Fancy Sewing on Cloth and Leather. Also, Wickersham's Patent Machines for sewing Sails, Saddles, Hammocks, Valises, Awnings, Carpet Bags, Mattresses, Trunks, &c. The public are invited to call and see them in operation. Exclusive Rights for Towns, Counties and States, to sell and use said Machines, can be secured. For sale at No. 69 Hanover street, opposite the American House, Boston, by BUTTERFIELD & STEVENS, Proprietors and Manufacturers.

IMPORTANT TO YOUNG MEN. THIRTY DIFFERENT WAYS TO MAKE MONEY. I OFFER for sale upwards of thirty different Receipts, many of which have been sold the past year for five dollars a piece, and the whole comprising so many different ways to make money. In the sale of one of the articles alone, I have known young men the past year to make from five to twelve dollars per day; and in the manufacture and sale of any one of the articles, any young man of energy and ability can fail to make money. Address E. BOWMAN, Boston, Mass., enclosing one dollar, and the whole number of Receipts will be forwarded by mail. No letter taken from the office unless prepaid.

GEORGE T. CARRUTH & CO., Importers and Dealers in Tobacco, Cigars, Snuff, Pipes, Cigar Cases, Cigar Lighters, Tubes, &c. No. 65 Hanover, opposite Portland St., Boston.

NATHAN HASKINS, MACHINE BROKER, No. 6 & 31 Haverhill, and 2, 8, 7 & 6 Traverse Sts. Cor. of Haverhill and Traverse Sts. BOSTON. STEAM ENGINES AND BOILERS. New and second hand MACHINERY, of all descriptions and prices, bought and sold.

ELM STREET HOTEL, No. 9 Elm Street, ... Boston, Mass. M. J. BROCKWAY. BOARD $1 PER DAY.

C. TOLMAN & CO., Manufacturers and Dealers in every description of PLAIN & PAINTED WOODEN WARE, No. 40 Union St., (near Haymarket Square,) BOSTON. And No. 30 Courtlandt Street, NEW YORK. Milton Chaplin, George Handy, Carell Tolman.

MEDICINES, PAINTS, DRUGS, Dye-Stuffs, Oils, Copal, Asphaltum, and White Varnish, Zinc Paint, Window Glass, Imported Leghorn, Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps, Patent Medicines, &c., &c., for sale at the lowest market prices, by A. L. CUTLER, 48 India Street, Boston.

CARPETINGS. F. HARRIS, 163 Hanover Street, Dealer in Carpeting, Window Shades and Fixtures, Floor and Table Cloths and Mattings.

Boston and Chelsea Paper Company, Manufacturers and Dealers in PAPER HANGINGS, No. 4 Union Block, 51 & 53 Union St., Boston. MERRIAM & PALMER, Proprietors.

WANTED. A few men to sell two new books in the country. $600 a year salary guaranteed, and no risk. For particulars address JOEL FOSTER, 168 Hanover Street, BOSTON.

IMPORTANT TO BAKERS! CRITCHERSON'S IMPROVED BREAD MACHINE. DENIO & ROBERTS CONTINUE to manufacture this well-known Machine for making Ship Bread, Hard and Soft Crackers, Sugar and Soda Biscuit, &c. Corner of Commercial and Friend Streets.

JOHN GOVE & CO., Manufacturers of CLOTHING, And Importers of GENT'S FURNISHING GOODS, Nos. 28, 30, 32, 34 and 36 Merchants' Row, And No. 1 Market Square, Boston.

TERRY & BARNES, (Successors to Samuel Cutler,) LOOKING GLASSES, PORTRAIT & PICTURE FRAMES, CLOCKS AND TIME PIECES, 183 Washington (opposite Water) St., Boston.

J. PHILBRICK'S BOOK AND STATIONERY STORE, No. 63 Hanover Street, Under the American House, BOSTON. All New Books received as soon as published ...

$75.00 A MONTH Can be, and is made by selling DAYTON & WENTWORTH'S Colored Illustrated Historical and Biographical Books. For particulars, send for our general circular. DAYTON & WENTWORTH, 86 Washington Street, BOSTON.

WORLD'S FAIR PRIZE MEDAL FURNACE. CHILSON'S PATENT. THE use of several thousands of these superior Furnaces, the five first Premiums in this country, the London World's Fair Prize Medal ... CHILSON, RICHARDSON & CO.

BOSTON HAND STAMP CO. [illegible]

PREMIUM TRUSSES. A. P. BARTLETT, MANUFACTURER and Inventor of the well known Washington Suspender Bandage ... No. 186 Washington st., Boston, opposite Marlboro' Hotel.

Boston Business Directory. AARON R. GAY, No. 136 State Street, ... Boston. PAGED ACCOUNT BOOK MANUFACTURER, Wholesale and Retail dealer in FOREIGN & DOMESTIC STATIONERY.

BOSTON LAMP DEPOT. BURNING FLUID, Camphene, and Lamps of every description. Also, Gas Fixtures, in great variety, manufactured and for sale cheaper than any house in Boston. SMITH & TARBELL, 10 Washington Street, Boston.

"CYCLOPS" FILES, STEEL, and Locomotive Springs, Manufactured by Johnson, Cammell & Co., Sheffield, England. KELLOGG, COBB & CO., Agents, 51 & 53 Water Street, Boston.

TRY SPALDING'S ROSEMARY and Castor Oil, for the HAIR. [illegible]

CARPETINGS. WM. P. TENNY & CO. HAVE IN STORE A large and fresh stock of Carpetings, foreign and domestic manufacture, for sale on favorable terms. Hall over the Boston and Maine Railroad Depot, Haymarket Square.

CROSBY, NICHOLS & CO., BOOKSELLERS AND PUBLISHERS, No. 111 Washington Street, Boston. C., N. & Co. Publish Payson & Dunton's System of Penmanship, which is approved by all who have examined it.

BECK & CO., 120 Washington Street, ... Boston, PROPRIETORS OF ISAAC BABBITT'S Toilet Soaps & Creams. Manufacturers of Choice Perfumes, Hair Oils, Hair Dyes, superior cooking extracts of all kinds. General Agents for Boston Chemical Washing Powder.

SURGICAL & DENTAL INSTRUMENTS, 57 Tremont Row, Boston. French, English and American Pocket Cases, Amputating, Trepanning, Postmortem and Eye Instruments in Cases. Speculums, Bougies, Catheters, &c. French Anatomical Preparations. Skeletons, entire. Foetal, Adult and Separated Sculls. Articulated Hands and Feet. Anatomical Maps in sets, beautifully colored, showing the Osseous and Arterial Systems. A new kind of Rotary Galvanic Battery, to use without acids, always ready for use, very powerful, and highly approved by Physicians. Dental Instruments and Mineral Teeth. Gold Foil and Plate.—Platina Plate and Wire. Dental Chairs. Tooth Powder. Brushes and Boxes. Dental Book, &c. Wholesale and retail. BENJ. S. CODMAN, Proprietor.

AMARIAH STORRS, Wholesale Dealer in Cards, Card Board, Fancy Papers, R. Road Ticket Stock, &c. No. 25 Cornhill, ... Boston. Colored Papers made to order, and Cards or Tickets cut to pattern, at short notice.

Boots, Shoes and Rubbers. HENRY L. DAGGETT OFFERS a large Stock of good Boots, Shoes and Rubbers, adapted to the wants of the retail dealer, at the lowest prices, for cash. No. 20 Kilby Street, Boston.

REMOVAL—NEW HAIR STORE. C. KIRMES, 10 Tremont Street, near the Museum. French Hair Work Manufacturer, for Ladies and Gentlemen.

Sheet Isinglass, or Mica. To Stove and Lantern Manufacturers. For Compass Cards, Lanterns of all kinds, Stove and Furnace Doors, &c. It is superior to anything ever used for the above purposes, on account of not breaking or burning, but standing the most intense heat. Safety Lanterns, and Safety Lamps, of various sizes, a very superior article. Sold at No. 21 Union street, (up stairs,) Boston, by GEO. H. RUGGLES. N. B.—Specimens on Exhibition at Crystal Palace, New York.

JOEL S. HOLDEN, FURNITURE AND FEATHER WAREROOMS, 161 Hanover and 119 Blackstone Sts., Sign of the Mammoth Bedstead, BOSTON.

WIRE WORK. JAMES HENNESSEY, Manufacturer of wove wire, foundry Riddles, sieves, bird cages, and every description of wire work. No. 39 Court Square, Boston. West side of the Court House.

JAMES FRENCH, No. 78 Washington Street, Boston. Wholesale and Retail Dealer in all kinds of School, Miscellaneous and BLANK BOOKS. Papers, Pens and Stationery of every variety. Orders Solicited.

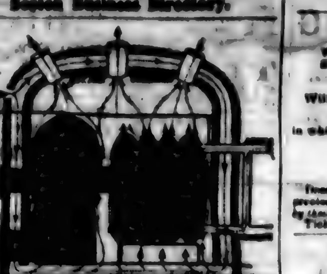
JONES & PRESTON, (Successors to Lyman Jones,) No. 7 Market Square, ... Boston. Manufacturers of Patent Balances, Platform, Counter, Railroad and Hay Scales, Tin Ware, &c. All kinds of Weighing Apparatus Repaired. SILAS JONES. WM. B. PRESTON.

BOGLE & SASSARD, Premium Ventilating and Gossamer WIG MAKERS, Draw attention to a new style of Wigs, called the Unshrinking Gossamer Wig, which for lightness, elegance, and durability, has never been equalled. Also the Ladies' Self-adjusting Wig, which adapts itself on the instant to the head, and is so natural as to defy detection, even by members of the same family. A large assortment always on hand. Depot for Bogle's Hyperion Fluid, for the Hair, Bogle's Hair Dye, Amole, Shaving Cream, &c. 227 Washington Street, Boston.

Clothing for the Million! Wholesale Department. Gentlemen's, Youth's and Little Children's Clothing, manufactured expressly for the New England Retail Trade. Dealers will find the Stock unusually large, comprising every grade and variety of Goods, from which selections can be made to great advantage for the Eastern, Western, Northern, and Southern Markets, and upon the most liberal terms. Also, a complete assortment of Gentlemen's and Youth's Furnishing Goods, &c. Travelers may here procure, at a moment's notice, complete outfits for the Parlor, at the Evening Soiree. Also, besides garments for Journeying. Strangers in the city, Gentlemen and Ladies, are invited to visit the great Clothing Emporium. Simmons' Oak Hall, Nos. 32, 34, 36 & 38 North Street, Boston, Mass.

FLINT & CONVERSE, Manufacturers and Dealers in BOOTS, SHOES AND RUBBERS, Shoe Stock and Findings, of all the finest qualities, and at low prices for cash. No. 11 Central Street, Boston.

Boston Business Directory.



FURNACES. B. W. DUNKLEE & CO.'S WARMING AND VENTILATING FURNACE. 10 Sizes, Wood or Coal, for Dwellings, School Houses, Stores, Churches, Halls, Factories, &c., &c. This Furnace has found its way among some of the most practical and scientific gentlemen of our land, who firmly believe that no Furnace extant can excel it in its power for warming, efficiency in pure ventilation, economy in fuel, durability of structure, convenience or arrangement, and perfection of principle. Success enables whoever properly set. Proofs are that MANY HUNDREDS of these are in operation in all parts of our own country, and in some parts of Europe to which we are permitted to refer those who want the best furnace made. 111 and 113 Blackstone Street, ... Boston.

REDUCTION IN PRICE OF BOGLE'S HYPERION FLUID, For Restoring, Preserving, and adorning the Hair, to the following low Rates, viz:— Bottles formerly sold at 50 cts., reduced to 25 cts. " " 75 " " 50 ". " " 100 " " 75 ". The many worthless imitations of this celebrated Hair Restorative, palmed on the public under the lure of cheapness, has determined the Inventor to crush them, by selling his famous "Fluid," at even a lower price than they can afford to sell their vile trash. At the same time, he assures the public that the "Hyperion" will always continue to be as good as heretofore, which has given it celebrity throughout the globe. This, with Bogle's "Electric Hair Dye," and other preparations, is sold by his Agents everywhere in the United States and Canadas. WM. BOGLE, Inventor & Proprietor, 227 Washington Street, Boston.

AUCTION SALES. BY E. S. PATCH, Office, No. 6, 7, 8 and 10 Commercial Square, Lowell.

Two story House and Cottage. On MONDAY, Sept. 19, at 10 o'clock,—A two story House and a Cottage, with the Land, situated on a short street leading from the south side of Salem street, opposite the Hospital.

Two Houses and 14,000 square feet Land on Congress st. On MONDAY, Sept. 19, at 3 o'clock,—Two two story Houses and a story and a half House and about 14,000 sq. feet of Land, on the street leading from Central street to the residence of Joshua Swan, Esq. The land is covered with bearing fruit trees, and surrounded by beautiful large elms.

Building, to remove. On TUESDAY, Sept. 20, at 3 o'clock,—A new two story wooden building 50 by 30 feet, on Middlesex street, opposite the Stone Yard. It may remain at a rent of $40 per year.

Building on Market street. On WEDNESDAY, Sept. 21, at 3 o'clock,—A two story and a half building on Market street, the same recently occupied by D. Hardy for an Auction Store. Also, two old ten-foot buildings.

House and Land on Middlesex street. On THURSDAY, Sept. 22, at 10 o'clock,—A two story house and land on Middlesex street (No. 16), opposite the upper Appleton Block.

Carriages, Harnesses, &c. On FRIDAY, Sept. 23, at 3 o'clock,—A large lot of Carriages, Harnesses, &c. See bills.

Administrator's Sale. By virtue of license of the Judge of Probate, I shall sell at Public Auction, on the 7th day of October, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on the premises,—So much of the Real Estate of James Dearsite, late of Lowell, deceased, as will raise the sum of $2054 66 to pay the just debts of said deceased and for charges of administration. Said Estate is described as follows: A two story brick house, barn, and about 7800 square feet of land, situated at the corner of Thorndike and Hale sts. Also, about one acre of land on the southerly side of Hale street, east of Boston and Lowell Railroad. Also, about 10 acres of land situated on the south side of Hale street, west of Boston and Lowell Railroad. Sale positive.—Terms at sale. JOSHUA SWAN, Adm'r.

Administrator's Sale. Will be sold at Public Auction, by license from the Hon. Court of Probate for the County of Middlesex, on MONDAY, the 10th day of October next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, the real estate of Thomas H. Hutchinson, late of Lowell, deceased, consisting of a farm with a good two story dwelling house and barn thereon, containing about eight acres, and situate on Stevens street, in the westerly part of Lowell. Said farm is almost a plain and well cultivated, and has upon it a large number of good fruit trees, and offers a rare chance for any one wishing to retire a short distance from the bustle and noise of the city. Sale on the premises. Conditions made known at sale. By order of JOHN B. DUBOIS, Jr., Adm'r. Lowell, Sept. 7, 1853.

AT PRIVATE SALE. One undivided half of about half an acre of Land with two Dwelling Houses thereon, situated on the corner of Central and Warren streets, Chapel Hill. Terms easy.—Inquire of C. B. RICHMOND or E. S. PATCH.

BY S. C. SHAPLEIGH. Office—3, 4 and 5 Commercial Square.

STOCK AT PRIVATE SALE. 8 shares in the Howard Insurance Company. 4 shares in the First Wesleyan Methodist Meeting House, Prescott street.

LINEN GOODS AT PRIVATE SALE. [illegible]

COAL AND WOOD. Best qualities of Red and White Ash Coal screened and delivered to order in best condition, at the lowest possible price. Also—All kinds Hard and Soft Wood in lots of small quantities. Cash paid for all kinds of second hand Furniture and Housekeeping Goods, Stoves, &c., to those who prefer to sell by private sale. S. C. SHAPLEIGH.

New Firm—New Store—New Goods. GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING STORE. GILMAN & WORCESTER HAVE taken one of the new Stores in the old CITY HALL BUILDING, No. 140 Merrimack street, Lowell, and have stocked it with entirely new Goods, with especial reference to the Fall and Winter trade. ... CLOTHS AND VESTINGS, ... READY MADE CLOTHING ... GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, ... HATS AND CAPS. [illegible] ALFRED GILMAN. Lowell, Aug. 25, 1853.

FARM FOR SALE. [illegible]

THREE CASES HATS. [illegible] GILMAN & WORCESTER'S.

AMUSEMENTS. LOWELL MUSEUM. W. L. AYLING, S. D. Johnson, Lessees and Managers. THIS EVENING, SEPT. 16, Will be performed the interesting Drama, entitled THE GALLANT FIREMAN, in which the whole strength of the Company will appear. To conclude with THE WIDOW!!! Doors open at 7 o'clock. Curtain will rise at 8 o'clock precisely. ... Tickets of admission to all parts of the house 25 cents.

WALTZING SCHOOL. MR V. GANSON WILL commence his first term at MECHANICS' HALL, on THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 8, at 7 1-2 o'clock, and continue TUESDAY and THURSDAY Evenings. Those wishing to learn to Waltz, will do well to give him a call, as but one school will be opened this season, ... admitted without a ticket. Terms—Gents $3.00, Ladies $2.00. Tickets can be obtained of Mr Ganson, at 25 Central street, next door to Franklin Book store, any day or evening. Schottische, Polka and Cotilion taught if desired. Dancing School to commence at the above Hall of which due notice will be given.

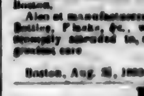
DANCING. MISS PIERCE, of Boston, begs to inform her former friends and patrons and the inhabitants of Lowell in general, that she purposes (if a sufficient number of pupils can be obtained) to have a Juvenile Class in DANCING, on WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY afternoons, Sept. 21, at ... Hall. ... Lowell, Sept. 17, 1853.

ELLIOTT'S QUADRILLE BAND Would respectfully inform the public, that they are prepared to furnish Music for Balls, Private Parties, Assemblies, &c. For terms apply to J. ELLIOTT, ... H. GARDNER, ... W. O. BROOKS, ... CARLTON, at the Band Room, No. 40 American Block. Any number of pieces furnished. Also Violin furnished for Private Parties. Lowell, Aug. 30, 1853.

NORFOLK AND PORTSMOUTH PACKETS. ALLEN & WELTCH'S LINE—From Rowe's Wharf, ON SATURDAY. The fine regular packet ship WILLOW, Higgins master, will sail as above. For freight, or passage, apply to S. S. ALLEN, or SAMUEL WELTCH, No. 126 State, corner of India st., or at No. 13 Rowe's wharf.

CITY POINT AND RICHMOND. ALLEN & WELTCH'S LINE—From Rowe's Wharf, ON WEDNESDAY. The fast sailing regular packet schr COURIER, Rogers, will sail as above. For freight or passage, having good accommodations, apply to S. S. ALLEN, or SAML. WELTCH, 126 State street, corner of India street.

REMOVAL. CHARLES W. HACKETT WOULD announce to his customers and the public, that he has removed from his store No. Central st., to No. 5 Welles Block, and that having sold nearly all of his former stock, he is now prepared to offer a NEW and CHOICE selected assortment of SEASONABLE GOODS, consisting of French and German THIBETS, in desirable colors. " " do. CASHMERES do. do. LYONESE CLOTHS in all qualities. BOMBAZINES in colors and black. Figured Drap de Austrians. Plain Mousseline de laine. All wool French Mousseline. Cotton and wool French and American do. French and Cashmere Shawls in new patterns. French Prints. do. Wrought Cashmere and Thibet. BLACK SILKS of the best make imported—highly lustred and soft finish, the qualities and prices of which cannot fail to give satisfaction. LINEN GOODS—a full assortment. Housekeeping and Domestic Goods. White Cambrics and Cambric Muslins. Book and Jaconet Muslins. Victoria and Bishop Lawns. Plain and Twilled FLANNELS in all colors. DOMESTIC GOODS in all varieties. GLOVES, HOSIERY, &c., &c. All of which will be exhibited with pleasure, and sold at low rates. I would invite particular attention to my stock of LINEN, HOUSEKEEPING and DOMESTIC GOODS, consisting of Linen Sheetings, Shirtings and Pillow Linens; Damask Covers; Napkins and Doylies; Damask, Bird's Eye and Huckaback Towelling; Scotch and Russia Diapers; Printing Linens from the celebrated manufacturers, Wm Orr & Co., Young & Co., Baxter, Oxham & Co. in all qualities; Rich Piece Colored Table Covers; All wool Embossed "; Turkey Red Furnitures; Curtain Muslins and Damasks; Imperial Toilet, Marseilles, Lancaster and Allendale Quilts; Bleached and brown Cottons in all grades; Flannels, etc. etc. We would say to customers in want of any of the above goods, that we have as good an assortment as can be found in the city, and will offer them at favorable prices. C. W. H. would take this opportunity to return his sincere thanks to the public for the generous patronage he has received ... NO. 5 WELLES BLOCK, MERRIMACK STREET.



WINE STORE. CHAMBERLAIN & WAUGH, (successors to Chamberlain & Powers,) No. 10 Central Street, Lowell, keep constantly on hand and for sale at wholesale and retail all kinds of CHAMPAGNE, Also, all kinds of WINES, BRANDIES, GINS of every kind and quality that can be found in Boston. ... Also at manufacturers' prices, all kinds of Demijohns, Bottles, Flasks, &c. ... JOHN CHAMBERLAIN, JR., JOHN WAUGH, Jr. Boston, Aug. 26, 1853.

NOTICE. F. GARDINER, WOULD inform his friends and patrons and the public generally, that he continues the business of manufacturing VARNISH and JAPAN, at the old stand of E. & F. Gardiner, Lancaster Building, Market street, where he has received and is constantly receiving all kinds of PAINTS, OILS, WINDOW GLASS, and VARNISHES of all descriptions. WHITE VARNISH, For Pictures, Coffins of Rooms, or very nice White Paint—a beautiful article, for sale as above. ENAMELLED BLACK. A beautiful black, with a fine lustre, for Wood, Iron or Cloth. IRON VARNISH. Expressly for Iron Work, Fences, Machinery, &c. ZINC PAINT. A beautiful article for inside or outside Painting. 30 bbls. SPIRITS TURPENTINE, Just received and for sale by F. GARDINER, No. 10 Market st. Lowell, Aug. 17, 1853.

ABIJAH COTTER, DEALER IN DOUBLE AND SINGLE SHOT GUNS AND PISTOLS. Also—Sporting Apparatus and Fishing Tackle of every description. Powder, Shot, Percussion Caps, &c., &c. FISHING RODS made to order. KEYS of all kinds made to order and LOCKS repaired. No. 15 MIDDLE STREET, Third door west of the Post Office, LOWELL, MASS.

LIFE AND FIRE INSURANCE. CHARTER OAK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN. $200,000 CAPITAL. [illegible] No. 8 Nesmith's New Block. E. MCINTIRE, Sec'y and Agent. July 26, 1853.

LIGHTNING RODS. [illegible] No. 21 Appleton Block, and examine a model of Spratt's Patent Lightning Conductors. ... FREDERICK PARKER, Agent for Lowell and vicinity. Lowell, June 17, 1853.

FRENCH SHIRT BOSOMS. 80 Doz. Plain, Fancy and Wrought Woven Pleated Bosoms ... WM. F. SHATTUCK, Central, corner Market st.

SILVER CORDS, ... [illegible]

GOLD CHAINS.—[illegible] JOSEPH RAYNES.

THE COURIER.

JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

Corner of Central and Middle streets,

(Immediately rear, next entrance.)

The Office is fitted up and with all the desirable modern improvements

FAST PRESSES

and with a large assortment of

JOB TYPE,

of the latest and most fashionable styles, we are prepared to execute

PRINTING

in the most elegant manner, and at as low prices as can be obtained in this city.

The proprietor is prepared to execute promptly and neatly

LOW PRICES

as can be offered any where,

BALL TICKETS, BILL HEADS, BLANKS, BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS, BUSINESS CARDS, TICKET AND VISITING CARDS, CHECK PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in black, blue or red inks, or Bronze of every shade, in the best manner.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of plain, pearl and colored cardboard, white and colored CARDS, adapted to every description of work—in packs and in boards to suit to order.

ADELAIDE CLOTH,

A NEW ARTICLE for Ladies' Traveling Dresses, Sacques, Cloaks, &c., for sale and made to order by S. BOSWORTH & CO.

No. 37 Merrimack st.

STORE TO LET

In the New Granite Building in Lowell, No. 32 Merrimack street.

Apply to J. WHITNEY.

July 9, 1853.

J. C. AYER & CO.'S

MEDICINAL COD LIVER OIL—a positive remedy for Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all Pulmonary Complaints.

The intrinsic value of this Oil as a remedial agent in the above diseases, is a matter of medical note in the profession, and only exists in reputation.

The Oil we offer to the public is prepared with the greatest care, and we have reason to believe, entirely free from impurities, upon which we can rest with confidence that the Oil is prepared in the most perfect manner, and is the best that can be obtained.

J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries, may19 Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass.

THE BLACK DIAMOND.

THIS splendid STOVE is for taking the place of all others. Its beauty of form, its unrivalled powers of radiation, its economy of fuel, its perfect regularity of draft, its numerous merits, can none being duplicated by its competitors, and its unsurpassed durability, are qualities which will do well to examine this before purchasing. I pro-pose to keep on hand a supply of oct3 No. 10 Merrimack st.

D. C. LITTLEFIELD,

WHITE'S TOOTHACHE DROPS,

THE ONLY SURE REMEDY for excruciating pain in the teeth, gums, face, head, ear, &c. Not an opium in giving casual and permanent relief. The most severe pain, in any tooth, instantly! Teeth have been saved by their use, and for the relief of Nervous Headache, they are unequalled. Sold by all druggists and dealers in patent medicines. They will preserve the teeth and cure the toothache. They will generate the teeth and cure the toothache.

Sold by A. P. GROSVENOR, Druggist, Wyman's Block, Lowell, Mass.

SPERM, WHALE AND LARD OIL.

2000 gallons Sperm Oil, 1000 gallons Whale Oil, 1000 gallons Lard Oil. For sale by nov1 Spring Lard Oil. For sale by Next door to Merrimack House.

COBURN & MIXER,

GOLD PENS.

THE subscriber has just added to his fixture large stock of Gold Pens, a good supply of the most approved kinds, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Call and examine for yourself. They are warranted to suit every description of penmanship, and to be made of the best materials, and to wear to every hand.

Also, a variety of pocketbooks, comfort and morocco, the cheapest in the market. The one with watch hole above, is the most convenient. The one with watch hole below, is the most durable. The one with neither above nor below, is the most convenient and durable of any, and is now better than the both sum of good qualities.

For chasing of pocketbooks, comfort and morocco, the Gold Pen is warranted. The one with watch hole above, is the most convenient and durable of any, and is now better than the both sum of good qualities.

Also, a variety of pocketbooks, comfort and morocco, the Gold Pen is warranted. The one with watch hole above, is the most convenient and durable of any, and is now better than the both sum of good qualities.

JAMES G. ELLIS,

sept3 No. 41 Merrimack st.

A SCOTCH LOT

Of Bone "Jack Towels" for sale by sept10 COBURN & MIXER.

CALIFORNIA NOTICE.

I HEREBY forbid all persons trusting Catherine Cook, on my account, as I shall not pay any debts of her contracting after this date. Witness my hand this 1st day of September, 1853.

JOHN COOK.

BLACK LACE VEILS.

THE subscriber has just received a full assortment of Black Lace Veils, Points, Wedges, and Embroidered Ky Veils, also a full assortment of Plain Black Veils, which he will sell at the lowest prices.

sept17 No. 41 Merrimack st.

WILDER'S IMPROVED SALAMANDER

SAFES, with Chubb's Patent Detector Locks, for sale by sept10 WILDER & RAND, Agents.

110 Central st.

SECURITY LARGE RESERVOIR.

JUST received and for sale by WILDER & RAND, Agents for the sale of Wilder's Improved Salamander Safes, at 110 Central st.

Also, Wilder's Safes deposited in the Lowell Savings Bank during the Bank Warrant of Lady Jane Grey.

Sir Walter Raleigh passing with his Wife.

Sir Walter Raleigh's Wife asking for Alms.

Anne Page, Reader and Teacher, retired from the Stage.

Farmer's Vocation.

The Temptation, Miller Arden, Jun., &c. Now offered at nearly reduced prices.

sept10 COBURN & MIXER.

RENOVATE HEADY RELIEF for sale by A. P. GROSVENOR, cor. Bridge and Merrimack sts.

EIGHTY-TOT TIMEPIECES, the best Clock in the world, all warranted to keep time of day hereafter, for sale by BARNES, at the Jewelry Store, 42 Central st., Lowell.

GOOD BREAD always obtained by using the Cal Yeast Powder for sale by JOHN FRANCIS, sign Red Bridge.

PLATED TABLE CASTORS.

HAVE a variety of patterns of these articles, which I offer low for cash. Call and see them.

sept10 COBURN & MIXER.

WATERS' BLACK INK

IS not corrosive, and will not injure the pen, pipe, quill or steel. Waters' Copying Ink is the best I ever used, and will not injure the pen, pipe, quill or steel. Waters' Copying Ink is the best I ever used, and will not injure the pen, pipe, quill or steel.

N. C. WATERS, Manufacturer, Worcester, Mass.

For sale by A. P. GROSVENOR, Druggist, Wyman's Block, Lowell, Mass.

WHITE'S FEMALE CORDIAL, for sale by A. P. GROSVENOR, cor. Bridge and Merrimack sts.

Warren st. Boston.

K. KIDDER, Jr., & CO.'S

CORN, WAFF, AND HOLE EXTRACTOR—Warranted to extract corn, wart, or hole in 15 MINS. Manufactured by the inventor, Dr. KIDDER, Boston.

CHEMICAL FOOD FOR HUMAN HAIR.—Lyon's Kathairon, or Chemical Food for the Human Hair, restores it to its original color, prevents its falling off, and promotes its growth. Sold by all druggists.

SOAP POWDERS.—Wholesale and retail at 110 Central st. J. WHITNEY.

FARMS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber has for sale several Farms, in or near Lowell. Apply at No. 37 Central st.

S. HADLEY.

PHILLIPS, [illegible] & CO.

[illegible]

COAL.

[illegible]

PLAINFIELD, Conn., Cumberland [illegible]

PLAINFIELD, Conn., Cumberland [illegible]

GRINDELIA ground, [illegible]

COTTON DUCK, CORDAGE, TWINE, &c.

HAVING purchased the entire stock of the factory, and a large assortment suitable for the trade, we offer the same for sale at the lowest market prices.

Orders promptly responded to.

CHARLES H. DALTON,

sept17 No. 37 Merrimack st.

BEAUTIFUL TEETH!

GARVIN & HOYEY, Apothecaries, over City Hall, have always on hand a large and beautiful assortment of Teeth, which they will insert in the most perfect manner, and warrant to be as good as the best. Also call attention to their Specialties for which they re-spectfully solicit a share of public patronage.

This Dentifrice is perfectly safe and very agreeable and may be used by anyone, as it will not injure the tooth and enamel in the most way. If the gums are tender and the teeth loose, it will restore them to health. If the gums are sore and the teeth decayed, it will restore them to health. If the gums are sore and the teeth decayed, it will restore them to health.

Chemical has been used successfully in the practice of Dentistry for many years, and is now offered to the public as a safe and effective remedy for the teeth and gums. It is to be a safer and perfectly safe dentifrice. The Cosmetic is a safe and perfectly safe dentifrice. The Cosmetic is a safe and perfectly safe dentifrice. The Cosmetic is a safe and perfectly safe dentifrice. The Cosmetic is a safe and perfectly safe dentifrice.

TOOTH POWDER.

WE have been long in search of a CHEMICAL DENTIFRICE and TOOTH WASH. The Cosmetic, Whitening and Preserving the Teeth. For Cleansing, Whitening and Preserving the Teeth. For Cleansing, Whitening and Preserving the Teeth. For Cleansing, Whitening and Preserving the Teeth. For Cleansing, Whitening and Preserving the Teeth.

Sold by A. P. GROSVENOR, Druggist, Wyman's Block, Lowell, Mass.

NEW SPRING GOODS.

RECEIVED this day, per Express, from Boston & Co.'s HATS; from Tom LEAP, and large stock of CLOTHING.

A. GILBERT, Jr.,

mch19 No. 1 Prout Block, Central st.

TOOTHACHE! TOOTHACHE!!

DR. SWAYNE'S EXTRACTION TOOTHACHE DROPS will cure, and instant in its cure, relieving in not more than one minute, and in no case, relieving in not more than one minute, and in no case, relieving in not more than one minute, and in no case published by uninterrupted success. Long may he live to make his native State respected throughout the nation.

A. W. S.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Saturday, September 17, 1853.

WING STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with a vote of the Wing County Convention, held at Lowell, a STATE CONVENTION will be holden at the Town Hall in the village of KENDALL GREEN, on the day of September, at 11 o'clock, A. M. for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Wing to the Senate of Congress, and for the transaction of such other business as may be deemed necessary. Representatives will elect be elected in the several Counties, in accordance with the Constitution of the State of Wing.

August 16, 1853.

WING COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Wing Convention for the County of Middlesex will be holden at Concord, on the 4th day of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for that County.

The several Towns and Cities of the County are requested to elect delegates equal to the Wing Representation in the House of Representatives, and to meet at the time and place aforesaid.

By order of the Wing County Committee.

ISAAC HITCHBORN, Secretary.
JOSIAH BARTLETT, Chairman.

Concord, August 27, 1853. 3m*11

The Greatest Good of the Greatest Number.

That government should be so administered as to secure the greatest good of the greatest number, is a most transparent and hackneyed truism. At the same time, it is a profound and recondite truth. No government, though administered by the ablest of men, was ever yet administered in this perfect accordance with this great sentiment. But practically, this apothem is known to every man. Every man, from the clerk of mercantile as subject as the meanest laborer, is a judge of government; it has been prostituted to the aggrandization of the present cabal, or private individuals, under the impression that minorities have no rights. Minorities have rights which no majorities should ever sacrifice, to the emergency ever so great.

Society in the aggregate owes certain duties to society in the individuality or specialty (if so to speak). No purpose of state, however great, can justify society in sacrificing the rights of private individuals. And when the stage which insists on the caption of this article is perverted to justify such a sacrifice, it becomes one of the most morally maniac ones ever uttered by man. It might well assume place beside those other vile maxims which openly is the basis of all tyranny: "A blunder is worse than a crime." "You Pagani we do eat." "Every man for himself, and God for us all, cried the elephant to the hindmost," &c.

Again, this adage has furnished more raw material for Democratic speeches, than all the clauses in the Constitution, or all the precepts of the Sermon on the Mount. It is the adage of a refuge of sublishness. To violate a single private right is beyond the sphere of any legitimate government; it is only within the province of the most abject despotism. And yet this is the basis of all the books are full.

Standing on the grave of the illustrious JOHN SERGEANT, of Lehigh, the late HENRY CLAY, Webster avowed, "Justice is the great interest of mankind." And well did the European and North American Happy had it been for this nation, if ever since 1842, the press, the bar, the pulpit, the Senate, the hustings and the halls of legislation had been faithful to that lofty sentiment. The dogma of National Expansion, which from the commencement of the Mexican War to the delivery of the last speech on Young America, would not then have made-deed the nation. But every man has for fashion that principle every man has built up Justice" where Hamlet bid the Crown of Denmark—in the wonder pulse!

Indeed, strike like these are no better than the ethics of Mandeville. That great philosopher-knave declared that vices were public virtues. But it must be confessed, that international law too, is very defective here. Were it not defective, we should never have read how the world continued tepid while nation destroyed nation, drying every spot on the green globe with their blood. There is a boundless field here for the moralist, for the philanthropist and for the grievance-monger.

Morality and politics have mutually receded from each other; nor will the political sentiment ever become rectified until this divorce between morality and politics has been healed.

☞ On the outside of this paper may be seen an interesting article on the Hon. Senator Everett, from the pen of B. W. Ball, Esq., of this city. The relations of the late Mr Webster with Mr Everett; the individualities of character incident to the two statesmen; the difference between Webster the great oak and Everett the less substantial but more graceful popular—are portrayed in a style of singular felicity and beauty. Mr Everett stands before his country as one of the most prominent candidates for the next presidency. It is not impossible that he will be the successor of Franklin Pierce. Should such be the case, Mr Everett will be the first of the doves in the Senate, and most profound scholar who had graced the Executive office. Of all the presidents, living or lagged the pardon of the Duke, (the old man eloquent," can alone be compared with Mr Everett for scholastic acquirements. Madison and Jefferson would gain honor from Mr Washington; would but be named in the same generation with the prince of New England men.

But while we are proud to name Edward Everett as a candidate for the presidency, we have a higher ambition for the talented graduate of Harvard. We should prefer to honor that he was engaged in the preparation of some great work—like that of Macaulay, or Livy, or Thucydides, or Robertson, or Gibbon, or Thiers, or even Pue—by which his name and his genius, surviving the oblivion of kings and country and vanities and pendulates, might become the deathless inheritance of unborn generations.

LATER FROM MEXICO.—New Orleans, Sept. 12. The steamer Texas arrived last night, with the California mail, and dates from Mexico to the 6th and Vera Cruz to the 9th. The Mexican Government is actively engaged in efforts to raise highway robberies, and several culprits had been executed. More troops were being sent to the interior, and efforts to expel Indians from Santa Anna continues his high-handed measures, assuming all powers on the slightest pretext, and violating the constitution. It is believed another revolution will follow his arbitrary and tyrannical course.

Our Minister, Mr Gadsden, was well received. The passengers per steamer Texas say Santa Anna had recovered so many of his old popularity the first ever known in Mexico. He is sustained, it is reported, by Spanish soldiers.

The number of interments by fever yesterday amounted to only forty. The fever is raging violently among the negroes.

Sept. 15. The earthquakes of the 11th was very general along the Isthmus, but was not severely felt.

The fever is raging at Covington, Madisonville, Slidell, Lewisburgh, Chrisman, and other places on the Lake. It is also raging badly at Baton Rouge, Iberia, and other more inland towns on the Red river. There have been many deaths at Jacksonville; and the whole Southern country is affected. It is declining here very rapidly. Deaths of the last 24 hours from 24 to 27. Interments yesterday, from fever, 47. The deaths at Mobile on Monday were 11—from fever, 27.

The Asia's news was received here on Tuesday, at noon. Sales of cotton on Monday, 600 bales; prices firm; middling 11c, and in good demand. Sales on Tuesday, 500 bales.

Sept 14. Dates from Galveston are to the 12th. The appearance of the crops was favorable.

Deaths last week from fever at Galveston were 27. The lake coast is still suffering frightfully.

Capt. H. L. Smith, of the engineer corps, died on Tuesday at Madisonville; he had previously lost five children by the fever.

New Orleans is sending more nurses to Mobile.

Interments in the city yesterday were 45—from fever 34. Sales of cotton yesterday 1000 bales; market firm; good middling 11 1-2—Coffee still advancing—Rio 11 1-2.

ARREST OF THE SARSBURG MURDERER. We learn that John Chapman, the murderer of Mr Cozzens in Sharlsbur, was brought in the city yesterday, in the care of Mr Twitchell, a brother-in-law of the accused, about nine o'clock last night. During the 24 hours between the perpetration of the murder and the time of his arrest, it is said the wretched criminal had been entirely without food, having at that time but one hundred himself in the hay-mow.

On being discovered he fainted away, and subsequently swooned two or three times before he was carried from the barn, was quite composed upon the subject of the tragedy. When asked if he was guilty, he declared he was not—admitted he called Mr Cozzens into the house, but said he did not assault him at all. This gives rise to some suspicion that Chapman might have had an accomplice; but he makes no further disclosures.

The prisoner was given into the custody of Deputy Sheriff Bannister, and conveyed to Framingham, where he was arraigned before Justice Bellows for examination. We do not think that the fact of a man being a journeyman tailor every day of his rights as a citizen. In a Court of Justice we delight to see the judge, jurymen, and attorneys, too, honor their places, and each in spite of the other, preserve his character as a man. It is a great and consistable power which can compel a jurymen to "keep the purview of the Crown," for acts not intended to be consequential to the Court.

☞ Chief Justice Shaw has returned from Berkshire circuit in season for the approaching sessions of the Supreme Court. He is now our greatest jurist, and we presume he found but few appeals which, where we have seen, he received great attentions from the bar and bench. We do not know of any point in which he was more improved except and that is in civility to the members of the bar who appear before him. In his no way would he be a rapid Indiana from England, where the Judges upon all occasions treat practitioners with gentlemanly and friendly civility. Lord Campbell of the Queen's Bench, himself assuming at the head of the English Judges in this respect. We all admire and respect Judge Shaw, and while we gladly recognize him as a great jurist in the law, more of us occasionally feel that he is sometimes a great bore, too.

☞ That Rev. Historian, in Harper's last number, makes upon it that Bonaparte aimed to establish a Republican Government after the model, in all the States of Europe, or like that primitive Republic of Rome, of which Julius Cæsar was President, and Brutus, Junius Brutus, Republique Française, on the 20 franc piece, and on the reverse, "Napoleon Empereur," &c. but all his kind subjects who frequented by the English Oligarchy. When will this stream of perverted history be stayed, or its baneful influence exposed by the venomers of the public morals!

EXPLOSION. Chief Justice Shaw and Rev. Dr. Thomas were passengers in the steamer Niagara, which arrived Thursday night from Liverpool.

HORSEMAN ROBBERY. Wm. Donahie was on Thursday held in $1000 for trial at the Boston Municipal Court, on a charge of stealing, at the corner of Prince street and South Square, a pocket-book from James Lowry, who appears to have been, some time since, a witness on board the Frigate Constitution. He states that Donahie pulled him down, took $9 from his pocket, and then kicked and beat him.

LOSS SURPRISED. The wag of the Lynn News, speaking of the great fire in that city, estimating 1200 wards, says it is very fortunate for some folks that Mr Chester has never completed an engagement with a few invited guests, sat down to a sumptuous dinner at the American House. After the inner man had been completely satisfied, an hour was most happily spent in the interchange of sentiment and brief speeches. Mr T. A. Crowley, officiating as toastmaster, presented a series of regular toasts happily adapted to the occasion.

DARKNESS MADE VISIBLE. Yesterday a French Canadian came to Lowell by the Northern train. He wished to go to some particular locality in the city, and as he could not speak a word of English, he got a friend had provided him with written directions. The writing, however, being in French, the poor fellow found himself no better off than with his original mother tongue. How he got over the difficulty we did not learn.

SCHOOL TEACHER THUMPANT. A case has just been decided before the Court of Common Pleas in Barnstable—Lucy Reasanal. A full meeting of the members of George F. Willey's Pynasie Singing School, is requested on Monday evening, at the Singing Room, on 8th street, to prepare for the Concert on Friday evening next. As the necessary arrangements for Monday have already been made it is hoped that time, all who wish them will be present.

DANCING SCHOOL. Prof. Davis commences his dancing school in Temple's Hall, Sept. 24th. As a teacher he is already favorably known in Lowell. See his advertisement.

MR. KOSSUTH IN LONDON. The young actress is gaining a host of friends among the patrons of the Museum. Her impersonations are marked by much power and discrimination, and the part that is quite captivating. She appears this afternoon in 'A Day in Paris,' and the 'Trumpeter of Dresghire.'

A HORSE CASE. Yesterday, in the Common Pleas Court, was tried an action brought by Mr Wm. Hall against Jas Hitchcock, both of this city, for damage of a horse. Norris keep a livery stable, and Hitcock hired of him a horse and carriage to go to Dracut, N. H., for the horse was a valuable one, and when taken from the stable was in sound condition; but when returned was badly damaged. The jury awarded damages to the plaintiff in the sum of $150, which we do not know the evidence. Bond for plaintiff—Butler and Webster for defendant.

POLICE COURT—Saturday, Sept. 17. Charles C. Meadows, for breaking into the depot of the Nashua & Lowell Railroad, in Chelmsford, and stealing $19 in bank bills on the 14th instant, was ordered to recognize in the sum of $300.

ATTEMPT TO RAPE. Col. George P. Sanger has been appointed District Attorney for Suffolk County, in place of Hon. Isaiah Porter, resigned. He is one of the Governor's aids, and one of the Board of Aldermen of Charlestown, and is a gentleman of talent. His father is editor of the capital publication of the American Almanac, and of the Law Register, which is a well read lawyer, and an excellent gentleman.

☞ N. P. Banks, jr., of Waltham, has accepted the invitation of the Middlesex South Agricultural Society, to deliver the address before the Society at their annual Cattle Show and Fair in Framingham on the 7th of October.

☞ Miss Kline has resumed Spirit of Mr Sargent, Wentworth's Building.

Matters rest here, notwithstanding reports on Paris Bourse that the suites had concluded to agree to the demand, provided—

First—That the four powers would guarantee against any new Russian demands.

Second.—That an order in council from principalities be given before an ambassador leave Constantinople for the Persian Gulf.

Rumors are already gaining ground that before Russia evacuates the principalities she will demand from Turkey expenses of occupation. The Turkish ministry, impatient, declare Turkey is willing to have the principalities formed into the four powers.

The Turkish squadron has arrangements. A decree of 10th calls out 50,000 reserves.

The Russian consul general in Egypt is recalled.

A change of Turkish ministry is looked for immediately after the settlement of the present crisis.

Friendly autograph letters had passed between the Emperor of Austria and the Sultan.

If the amended note be accepted by the czar, it was suspected the Russians would retire from the principalities, when the Turks would immediately return to Malta and Toulon.

Reports that the Black Sea squadron had raised the rate of interest on commercial bills to 4 per cent per month, are denied.

The queen's movements in Dunblin occupy the papers there. It is only set forth how Ireland is in a feverish excitement of loyalty, and that the enthusiasm of the common people is the result of ignorance and prejudice which had arisen at the time of the Stuarts. Nothing is said of the queen had insulted the exhibition two or three times.

John Gregory, the governor of Bahamas, is dead.

A railroad collision happened near London, on the 5th, but none were killed. Lords and other respectables were considerably shaken up, but not seriously injured.

Sir Charles Napier is dead.

The Liverpool cotton market is expected in London to settle difficulties between England and Morocco.

France.—The emperor and wife were still at Biarritz, where they were joined by the empress. All well in politics.

Our letters from France indicate the probability of a further reaction in breadstuffs. Rebellion has not yet been put down, but better than was expected. Slight snow storms are reported respecting the harvest.

Belgium.—A fair occurred at Liege, owing to the prosperity of the country, was attended by thousands. Vain attempts to excite similar disturbances to those which occurred by the Orangemen have made all Ghent and Brussels.—It was believed that government would not protect the Orangemen, but would by force compel upon the poets if required. Queen Victoria and Prince Albert visit Brussels soon.

Sweden.—A public meeting was held respecting the Russian loan.

Italy.—Newspapers publish the list of decorations conferred by the Pope on the occasion of the anniversary of the restoration of the Roman States to their Pontifical Sovereign. Also, Radetzky's order of the day announcing the death of the emperor.

Spain.—The Queen of Portugal is soon to be sent to Smyrna.

The Free Soil Governor. The nomination of Governor Seward by the Free Soil State Convention, when he said that the noble conduct of Capt. Ingraham was entitled to be the more—each of the free sailors!!!!! Mr Keyes should have been put to bed instantly.

☞ John M. Botts has accepted an invitation to speak to dinner in Newark, N. J.

Outrageous Treatment of a Woman by Watchmen.—Mary Ann Sullivan, called upon to last evening, and related the circumstances of the case as follows: It seems that Officer Dow, about 4 o'clock, in which the conduct of two of our city watchmen, if not in its enviable light.—The matter will probably be developed in the Police Court this morning.—Boston Bee.

Sewage and rumpers. Wednesday afternoon, five boys, inmates of the house of reformation, made their escape. They were not long out from the "house of correction" as we accidentally said in our last, before they were all back in their bare rooms. The 25th, whose name is Hopkins, was the last to return.

Further Freedom Shown by the Negroes.

The eastern question is more complicated than ever. The Czar's demands, which are rejected by Turkey in a grand council held on the 5th inst. The Turks declare in substance, "that the nation will remain faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the stipulations of the treaties of Kainardji Kainardja and of Adrianople, relative to the independence of the Ottoman worship, and that Z. M. regards it as a point of honor to watch over the maintenance of these rights without any attempt to interfere in matters, upon which the supervision of its spiritual privileges."

Which have been accorded by the august sanctions of the Orthodox Church. The Turks say, of which are maintained and confirmed by him; that the Ottoman Empire is ready to participate in a spirit of high justice in the determination to be adopted in common; Moreover, as the imperial patriarchates and clergy, and which constitute the Greek religion, etc., and which conjointly must be regarded as a new ground of those noble principles of justice which every society must regard hereafter as the basis of its relations with the Ottoman Empire, without prejudice whatever to the dignity of the Sublime Porte, and to the rights of its sovereignty. The Sublime Porte declares that the imperial Porte of Russia should demand it's rejection of the hereby offer to the Czar, and that the Russian troops shall not remain in the principalities.

It is the formal declaration of war. The Turks have no sovereign decision to be exercised, and the Czar's demands to be exercised, and moreover already in the possession of the Czar's demands. The Turks have been represented without a previous agreement with the Ottoman Porte, and with France, without prejudice whatever to the dignity of the Sublime Porte, and to the rights of its sovereignty. The Sublime Porte declares that the imperial Porte of Russia should demand it's rejection of the hereby offer to the Czar, and that the Russian troops shall not remain in the principalities.

The Russian consul general in Egypt has received orders to leave Egypt.

The

THE ADVERTISER.

JOB PRINTING OFFICE.

Corner of Central and Middle streets, (ENTRANCE ON THIS LATTER.)

This Office being furnished with all the desirable MODERN improvements

FAST PRESSES,

adapted to every description of work, from the smallest Poster-Notice to the genteel Pleasure Circular, together with an ample supply of variety of varieties of handsome Plain and Fancy

JOB TYPE,

the proprietor believes that his facilities for executing work in a neat and expeditious manner are such as to enable him to answer all orders at the satisfaction of those who may favor him with their patronage.

PRINTING

The proprietor is pledged to execute promptly and with

LOW PRICES

as can be offered any where.

BARNETT'S AND MEDICAL POSTERS, SHOP BILLS, PROGRAMMES, CARDS, &c. &c. &c.

BILL HEADS, BLANKS, BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

BUSINESS CARDS, TICKET VISITING CARDS, LODGE

PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, or Bronze of every shade, or white or fancy colored paper.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of plain, post-size office and commercial BLANKS, which will be furnished to every description, at the manufacturer's prices to the trade. Orders by mail promptly attended to.

No. 94 Merrimack st.

STORE TO LET.

In the most central location in Lowell, No. 30 Merrimack street. Apply to

Aug. 2, 1858. A. WHITNEY.

J. C. AYER & CO.'s

MEDICAL COD LIVER OIL.—A popular remedy for Pulmonary Complaints, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, and Consumption.

The medicine value of this Oil as a remedial agent in these complaints, for which it is chiefly used, is now so well established as to require no comment.

Its tonic properties are also very great, and those who have occasion to obtain a tonic, should not fail to use it, upon which we can only say that it is prepared from the purest article of Cod Liver Oil, and is chemically pure.

J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries, may19† Lowell, and sold by dealers.

THE BLACK DIAMOND.

THIS splendid STOVE is now taking the place of all others in the market. Those who have used it pronounce it the most perfect Stove in existence. It is a Cooking, Parlor and Office Stove, in one, and being constructed by its peculiar principle, it is impossible for it to smoke. Those who have not used it will do well to examine this before purchasing. I have them up on sale, at No. 6 LITTLEFIELD'S,

Merrimack st.

WHITON'S TOOTHACHE DROPS

THE ONLY SUREREMEDY in the supplying. A very few drops applied to the TOOTHACHE. Try them and you will be satisfied. Prepared and sold by the proprietor, Dr. WHITON, 3 Tremont row, Boston. For sale by druggists generally. Price 25 cents.

Also, Dr. WHITON'S CELEBRATED TOOTH POWDER, for preserving the teeth and gums. Price 25 cents.

For sale by C. H. SANFORD & CO., Lowell.

may19 eod3m

MILL REGISTER FOR THE PEOPLE

$4 BUREAU IN MONEY.—The advertiser, having had a large number of Mill Registers returned to him, which he had sent to purchasers, in consequence of the Mill Agents refusing to allow them to be used, and also the fact that the Mill Registers now in use are very inaccurate, and frequently cause disputes between the Agents and Operatives, he has therefore concluded to offer a premium of $4 for a Mill Register that will be correct, and that will be satisfactory to the Agents of the Mills. The Register must be so constructed as to show the number of pieces, and the number of yards in each piece, and the number of pieces per day. Operatives will be satisfied with no other Register. Any person wishing to obtain the above premium, can do so by calling upon the Advertiser, at his residence, No. 7 Hall street, Lowell, where the Register can be seen in operation. The Register is simple, and not liable to get out of order, and can be used by any person of ordinary capacity. Any person wishing to purchase the right to use the Register, can do so by calling upon the Advertiser, as above. Lowell, April 19, 1858. WM. H. HOWARD.

ap20 eod3m

JEWELLER'S SALE AND LAY OUT.

2000 DOLLARS

Worth of Jewelry, Watches, Silver Ware, Plated Ware, Fancy Goods, &c., &c., &c.,

Must be sold in the next 30 days, at the store of

No. 3 Merrimack st.

THE subscriber has just added to his former large stock of Gold Pens, a FINE supply of the most approved styles, which he will sell at a high or reduced price, to suit purchasers, or, perhaps preferable, at the lowest prices, will exchange for Old Gold or Silver, or Jewelry, which he must make a large amount of, and warrant for a term of years.

For the above reasons, he therefore invites the public to call and examine his stock, which will be found to be the largest and best assortment ever offered in this city, and which he will endeavor to sell at such prices as will induce purchasers to continue to favor him with their patronage.

Remember the place, No. 3 Merrimack st.

may19 eod3m

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWKER,

HAIR-CLOTH PERSIAN STRETCHER,

SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS,

MANUFACTURERS of every description of HAIR-CLOTH, suitable for Hotels, Steamboats, Railroad Cars, Furniture, &c. Also, Manufacturers of Curled Hair, Flour and Bran Bags, Bed Ticking, Cotton Duck, Curtain Drab, Table Covers, Piano Stool Tops, Hair Seating, Hair Cloth Skirting, Crinoline, Hair Cloth Facings, Hair Cloth Dress Shields, Hair Cloth Pads, Hair Cloth Collars, Hair Cloth Bustles, Hair Cloth Gaiters, Hair Cloth Boots, Hair Cloth Shoes, Hair Cloth Slippers, Hair Cloth Caps, Hair Cloth Hats, Hair Cloth Bonnets, Hair Cloth Trimmings, Hair Cloth Ornaments, Hair Cloth Flowers, Hair Cloth Feathers, Hair Cloth Ribbons, Hair Cloth Sashes, Hair Cloth Belts, Hair Cloth Bands, Hair Cloth Fringes, Hair Cloth Braids, Hair Cloth Cords, Hair Cloth Tassels, Hair Cloth Gimps, Hair Cloth Laces, Hair Cloth Edgings, Hair Cloth Insertings, Hair Cloth Galloons, Hair Cloth Ruffles, Hair Cloth Flounces, Hair Cloth Quillings, Hair Cloth Puffings, Hair Cloth Plaitings, Hair Cloth Gathers, Hair Cloth Tucks, Hair Cloth Pleatings, Hair Cloth Folds, Hair Cloth Rolls, Hair Cloth Bows, Hair Cloth Knots, Hair Cloth Ends, Hair Cloth Loops, Hair Cloth Eyes, Hair Cloth Hooks, Hair Cloth Buttons, Hair Cloth Buckles, Hair Cloth Clasps, Hair Cloth Pins, Hair Cloth Needles, Hair Cloth Thimbles, Hair Cloth Scissors, Hair Cloth Knives, Hair Cloth Forks, Hair Cloth Spoons, Hair Cloth Plates, Hair Cloth Dishes, Hair Cloth Cups, Hair Cloth Saucers, Hair Cloth Tea Pots, Hair Cloth Coffee Pots, Hair Cloth Sugar Bowls, Hair Cloth Cream Pots, Hair Cloth Slop Bowls, Hair Cloth Tea Trays, Hair Cloth Waiters, Hair Cloth Tea Kettles, Hair Cloth Spoon Holders, Hair Cloth Egg Stands, Hair Cloth Salt Cellars, Hair Cloth Pepper Boxes, Hair Cloth Mustard Pots, Hair Cloth Vinegar Cruets, Hair Cloth Oil Flasks, Hair Cloth Pickle Jars, Hair Cloth Preserve Jars, Hair Cloth Jelly Glasses, Hair Cloth Tumblers, Hair Cloth Wine Glasses, Hair Cloth Decanters, Hair Cloth Bottles, Hair Cloth Corks, Hair Cloth Stoppers, Hair Cloth Lamps, Hair Cloth Chimneys, Hair Cloth Shades, Hair Cloth Candlesticks, Hair Cloth Candle Snuffers, Hair Cloth Candle Moulds, Hair Cloth Candle Wicks, Hair Cloth Candle Boxes, Hair Cloth Matches, Hair Cloth Match Safes, Hair Cloth Fire Irons, Hair Cloth Fenders, Hair Cloth Andirons, Hair Cloth Shovels, Hair Cloth Tongs, Hair Cloth Coal Hods, Hair Cloth Coal Scuttles, Hair Cloth Ash Pans, Hair Cloth Ash Sifters, Hair Cloth Brooms, Hair Cloth Brushes, Hair Cloth Dusters, Hair Cloth Mops, Hair Cloth Pails, Hair Cloth Tubs, Hair Cloth Washboards, Hair Cloth Clothes Lines, Hair Cloth Clothes Pins, Hair Cloth Clothes Baskets, Hair Cloth Clothes Horses, Hair Cloth Clothes Wringers, Hair Cloth Clothes Mangles, Hair Cloth Clothes Irons, Hair Cloth Clothes Boards, Hair Cloth Clothes Presses, Hair Cloth Clothes Chests, Hair Cloth Clothes Trunks, Hair Cloth Clothes Bags, Hair Cloth Clothes Boxes, Hair Cloth Clothes Hooks, Hair Cloth Clothes Rods, Hair Cloth Clothes Poles

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Sept. 15, 1853.

WORCESTER COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Democratic Convention of Worcester County, for the nomination of County Officers, will be held at Worcester, on Tuesday, the 20th day of September, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, viz:

For Governor, His Excellency JOHN H. CLIFFORD, of Lowell.
For Lieutenant Governor, HENRY W. BENCHLEY, of Worcester.
For Secretary of State, JOHN A. KASSON, of Boston.
For Treasurer, JOHN W. PROCTOR, of Lynn.
For Auditor, JOHN M. EARLE, of Worcester.
For Attorney General, CHARLES ALLEN, of Worcester.

Each Town and City in the Commonwealth is entitled to one delegate to the Convention for every fifty votes cast for the Democratic candidate for Governor in 1852, and one for a fraction exceeding twenty-five votes. The Democratic Town and City Committees are requested to call Primary Meetings for the choice of delegates to the Convention, to be held on the day preceding the Convention, at such hour and place as they may deem expedient.

The Democratic Delegates from the several towns and cities in the County of Worcester, are requested to meet in their respective Senatorial Districts, at the following times and places, to nominate a candidate for Senator, to be supported by the Democratic Convention:

First District, comprising the towns of Blackstone, Bellingham, Franklin, Hopedale, Medway, Mendon, Milford, Millville, Northbridge, Upton, Uxbridge, Wrentham, and Worcester, at the Court House in Worcester, on Monday, the 19th day of September, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Second District, comprising the towns of Berlin, Boylston, Clinton, Harvard, Hubbardston, Lancaster, Leominster, Northborough, Princeton, Sterling, Southborough, Shrewsbury, Sutton, Westborough, and West Boylston, at the Court House in Worcester, on Monday, the 19th day of September, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

Third District, comprising the towns of Ashburnham, Ashby, Fitchburg, Gardner, Hubbardston, Lunenburg, Templeton, Townsend, Westminster, and Winchendon, at the Court House in Fitchburg, on Tuesday, the 20th day of September, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Fourth District, comprising the towns of Ashby, Dunstable, Groton, Pepperell, Shirley, Townsend, and Westford, at the Court House in Groton, on Tuesday, the 20th day of September, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

Fifth District, comprising the towns of Auburn, Brookfield, Charlton, Dudley, Leicester, Oxford, Spencer, Southbridge, Sturbridge, Webster, and Woodstock, at the Court House in Southbridge, on Wednesday, the 21st day of September, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Sixth District, comprising the towns of Barre, Hardwick, New Braintree, Oakham, Petersham, Phillipston, Rutland, Royalston, and Ware, at the Court House in Barre, on Wednesday, the 21st day of September, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

Seventh District, comprising the towns of Athol, Hardwick, Hubbardston, New Braintree, Petersham, Phillipston, Royalston, and Templeton, at the Court House in Athol, on Thursday, the 22d day of September, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Eighth District, comprising the towns of Bolton, Harvard, Lancaster, Leominster, Sterling, and Stow, at the Court House in Lancaster, on Thursday, the 22d day of September, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

Ninth District, comprising the towns of Berlin, Boylston, Clinton, Northborough, Southborough, Shrewsbury, Sutton, Westborough, and West Boylston, at the Court House in Worcester, on Friday, the 23d day of September, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Tenth District, comprising the towns of Grafton, Millbury, Northbridge, Sutton, Upton, Uxbridge, and Wrentham, at the Court House in Worcester, on Friday, the 23d day of September, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

Eleventh District, comprising the towns of Auburn, Charlton, Dudley, Oxford, Southbridge, Sturbridge, and Webster, at the Court House in Southbridge, on Saturday, the 24th day of September, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Twelfth District, comprising the towns of Brookfield, Leicester, Spencer, and Woodstock, at the Court House in Brookfield, on Saturday, the 24th day of September, at 2 o'clock, P. M NUTTING'S FAMILY PATENT.

NEW TAILORING SALOON,

SKELTON'S TRICOPLUON, HAIR INVIGORATOR.

New Freight Arrangement

1000 BBLS. COAL OIL, PAINTS, &c.

500 FACTORY LA UTHER.

A New Temperance Beverage.

PLATED WARE AT COST.

NEW FRUIT.

CHEAP CLOTHING.

NOTICE.

REMOVAL.

HOUSE AND LOT FOR SALE.

PAPER HANGINGS.

NOTICE.

A NEW SONG.

PAPER HANGINGS.

NOTICE.

LOOK OUT FOR FIRE.

CARLETON & DUTEY.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

A PERSEVERING WIFE.

DR. MORSE'S INDIAN ROOT PILLS.

UTERINE CATHOLICON.

Female Complaints.

PAINTS, OILS, &c.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.

LOVETT'S WASHERS.

NEW DRUG STORE.

NEW SONGS.

PAPER HANGINGS.

AT HOWELL & STRAW'S,

PAPER HANGINGS

READING FOR THE HOT WEATHER.

BUILDERS' HARDWARE.

LOOK OUT FOR FIRE.

OPENING OF COTTON HOSIERY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

HOOP SKIRTS.

CARLETON & DUTEY.

BOOK IS YOUR REMEDY!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

FEMALES.

Female Complaints.

Lovet's Wahpene

HOOP SKIRTS.

CARLETON & DUTEY.

MEDICAL.

BEEF, PORK, LARD, FISH, POULTRY, BUTTER, &c.

FARMS FOR SALE.

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWERS, RAILROAD FREIGHT STATION, SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.

BLANCHARD, WHEELER & CO.

CIGARS.

200,000 HAVANA CIGARS

FOR SALE.

TWO IMPORTANT PUBLICATIONS.

THE LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER

JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

FAST PRESSES,

JOB TYPE,

PRINTING

LOW PRICES

CARDS,

LABELS,

Book and Job Printing

PROMPTLY EXECUTED

A. KITTREDGE,

1500 BBLS. ROLLS PAPER MANUFACTURED.

EXCELSIOR HAIR TONIC!

A FRENCHMAN IN MISCHIEF.

PROF. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

CURE OF NERVOUS DISEASES.

ST. JAMES HOTEL.

SPERM WHALE AND LARD OIL.

2000 GALLONS

VERMONT OATS.

WINDOW GLASS.

500 BOXES

SPRING STOCK AND STYLES CLOTHS AND CLOTHING.

SILK REDUCED FOR THE PEOPLE.

"TIME IS MONEY."

FURNITURE, CARPETS, FEATHERS.

SPRAU POWERS AND SHOP TO LET.

SPRING STOCK.

BONNETS! BONNETS!!

THE COURIER JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

Corner of Central and Middle Streets,

(Immediately East Post Office.)

This Office being furnished with all the desirable modern improved

FAST PRESSES,

adapted to every description of work, from the smallest Visiting Card to the largest Posting Bill—together with an ample supply of appropriate, tasteful and handsome Type and Stock,

JOB TYPE,

the proprietor believes that the facilities for executing any description of

PRINTING

can such as to enable him to answer all orders to the entire satisfaction of those favoring him with their patronage.

The proprietor is prepared to execute promptly, and at as

LOW PRICES

as can be offered any where,

HANDBILLS AND BORDER POSTERS, SHOP BILLS, PROGRAMMES, CATALOGUES, BILL HEADS, CIRCULARS, BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS, PLAIN AND FANCY CARDS, TICKET AND CHECK LABELS,

&c. Always on hand, a good stock of plain, good and fine cardboard, white and colored, CARDS, adapted to every description of work, which will be furnished to order.

Book and Job Printing

EXECUTED NEATLY & PROMPTLY

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. TUESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER [illegible], 1855. NO. [illegible]

S. J. YANNEY, PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

BUSINESS CARDS.

NOTICE.

DAGUERREOTYPES

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing

EXECUTED NEATLY & PROMPTLY

RAILROADS.

RAILROADS.

INSURANCE OFFICES.

PAPER WAREHOUSE.

Cyrus W. Field & Co., COMMISSION MERCHANTS, No. 11 Cliff Street, NEW YORK.

CITY MATTERS.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

TO FARMERS.

PATENTS.

CLAIRVOYANT EXAMINATIONS.

CIVIL ADVERTISEMENTS.

AUCTION SALES.

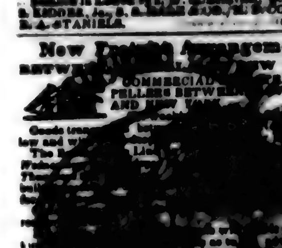
AUCTION SALES.

ECONOMY, CONVENIENCE & COMFORT.
NUTTING'S FAR-FAMED PATENT.
[illegible]

NEW TAILORING SALOON,
Over Sanborn's Jewelry Store,

[illegible]
D. D. COLBY, Agt.

TRICOPLUON,
OR
HAIR INVIGORATOR.
[illegible]
DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST,
[illegible]

New [illegible] Arrangement
BETWEEN [illegible] NEW YORK.
COMMERCIAL [illegible] STEAM PROPELLERS BETWEEN [illegible] PROVIDENCE AND [illegible]


[illegible]
Oct. 3, 1851.

1000 [illegible]
[illegible]
COBURN & NIXES.

500 [illegible]
[illegible]

DR. MARCHISI'S
UTERINE CATHOLICON.

THE Subscriber HAVING BE[illegible] AGENT FOR THE INVALUABLE MEDICINE, would respectfully invite the attention of the afflicted [illegible]
The CATHOLICON [illegible]
FEMALES.
Female Complaints.
[illegible]
REFERENCES.
[illegible]
J. B. MARCHISI & CO., Proprietors.
CENTRAL DEPOT, 304 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

PORTRAIT AND PICTURE FRAME MANUFACTORY,

REMOVAL.
[illegible]
THE VERY BEST ARTICLE
[illegible]
NOTICE TO FARMERS.
[illegible]
HATS.
[illegible]

HERE IS YOUR REMEDY!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS, AFTER 43 YEARS' SUFFERING.
[illegible]
WILLIAM GASPER.
[illegible]
FREDERICK TURNER.
[illegible]
Lovet's Wahpene
MARJAH.
[illegible]
JOSEPH BURNETT.
LOVET'S WAHPENE.
[illegible]
NEW DRUG STORE.
EDWARD BUSH [illegible] DRUGS, MEDICINES AND FANCY ARTICLES [illegible]
NEW BOOKS.
[illegible]

BRIGHT & CARTER,
[illegible]
ROSE MARY
[illegible]
A. P. GROSVENOR, [illegible]
[illegible]
CIGARS.
200,000 HAVANA CIGARS
[illegible]
TWO IMPORTANT PUBLICATIONS.
[illegible]
BED BUGS! COCKROACHES!!
[illegible]
COATS, PANTS, VESTS, AND GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS.
[illegible]

MACHINE SHOP TO LET.
[illegible]
MARVEL, SARGENT & CO.
PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWKER,
RAILROAD FREIGHT STATION,
SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.
[illegible]
CARLETON & HOVEY, Apothecaries, [illegible]
POWDER OF PEARLS.
[illegible]
CHARCOAL CONCRETE.
[illegible]
A NEW DISCOVERY.
THE HYDRO-ELECTRIC VOLTAIC CHAIN.
[illegible]
CARLETON & HOVEY.
JEWELLER'S NOTICE.
[illegible]
JOSEPH RAYNES.
[illegible]
VERMONT OATS.
9000 [illegible]
[illegible]
WINDOW GLASS.
500 [illegible]
COBURN & NIXES.
[illegible]

A. KITTREDGE,
MIDDLE STREET,
1500 ROLLS PAPER HANGINGS—just received [illegible]
[illegible]
ABNER KITTREDGE.
EXCELSIOR HAIR TONIC!
A purely VEGETABLE Preparation for promoting the Growth, Preservation and Beauty of the HAIR.
[illegible]
BALDNESS! BALDNESS!!
[illegible]
FALLING OR LOOSENING OF THE HAIR.
[illegible]
DANDRUFF AND SCURF.
[illegible]
HEADACHE! HEADACHE!!
[illegible]
CHILDREN [illegible]
[illegible]
Wholesale and retail Agents for Lowell, J. C. AYER & CO., CARLETON & HOVEY.

DR. MORSE'S
INVIGORATING
CORDIAL.
A PHENOMENON IN MEDICINE.
PROFESSOR MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR, OR CORDIAL.
The Eighth Wonder of the World.
[illegible]
CURE OF NERVOUS DISEASES.
[illegible]
MEDICINAL WONDER.
[illegible]
A STIMULANT THAT ENTAILS NO RE-ACTION.
[illegible]
CONSTITUTIONAL DEBILITY.
[illegible]
MARRIED PERSONS.
[illegible]
FURNITURE, CARPETS, FEATHERS.
[illegible]

THE COURIER
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE,
Corner of Central and Middle streets,
[opposite the Post Office.]
This Office being furnished with all the desirable modern improvements in
FAST PRESSES,
adapted to every description of work, from the mammoth Poster down to the smallest Visiting Card—together with a large supply of [illegible] plain and fancy
JOB TYPE,
the proprietor believes that his facilities for executing every description of
PRINTING
are such as to enable him to answer all orders to the entire satisfaction of those who may favor him with their patronage.
The proprietor is prepared to execute promptly, and at as
LOW PRICES
as can be offered any where,
MAMMOTH AND RAILROAD POSTERS, SHOW BILLS, PROGRAMMES,
CATALOGUES,
BILL HEADS, BLANKS,
BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,
CARDS,
PLAIN AND FANCY
LABELS,
[illegible]
Always on hand, a good stock of plain, pearl, enamelled, and marble paper [illegible] CARDS, adapted to every description of work—in packs and in boards—to be cut to order.

ADELAIDE CLOTH.
A NEW ARTICLE for Ladies' Travelling Dresses, very desirable goods, [illegible]
may19 No. 35 Merrimack st.
STORE TO LET
In the most central location in Lowell, No. 35 Merrimack st., Museum Building.
Aug. 4, 1853. A. WHITNEY.
J. C. AYER & CO.'S
MEDICINAL COD LIVER OIL—[illegible]
[illegible]
J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries, cor. Central and Jackson sts.
THE BLACK DIAMOND.
[illegible]
WHITE'S TOOTHACHE DROPS.
THE ONLY SURE REMEDY for that agonizing, nerve-destroying pain, the TOOTHACHE. [illegible]
C. S. EASTMAN & CO., Apothecaries, Wyman's Exchange, are the only agents for Lowell.
Price 25 cents per bottle.
SPERM, WHALE AND LARD OIL.
2000 Galls Bleached Winter Sperm Oil;
[illegible]
COBURN & NIXES.
Nos 4 and 5 Mechanics' Building.
GOLD PENS.
[illegible]
JAMES P. WALKER.
FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.
[illegible]
CALIFORNIA NOTICE.
[illegible]
BLACK LACE VEILS.
[illegible]
PLATED TABLE CASTORS.
[illegible]
WATERS' BLACK INK.
[illegible]
NOTICE.—I am receiving new Jewelry, Watches, Plated Tea Sets, Cake Baskets, [illegible]
JOSEPH RAYNES.
[illegible]

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 21, 1853. NO. 4175.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.
TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.
To those who pay in advance a deduction of 50 cts. will be made
Office—No. 27 CENTRAL STREET,
(Adjoining the Post Office.)
ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at $1 per square for three insertions, and 25 cts. per square for each subsequent insertion—to be paid for in advance, in all cases where an account is not open. Twelve lines or less constitute a square.
Yearly and Mercantile advertisements inserted at prices according to the room and place occupied.
The proprietor will not hold himself responsible for any error or omission that may occur, beyond the price charged for the advertisement.
Contracts for yearly advertising will be continued until an order is received for their discontinuance, and when discontinued in less than a year, the price of a whole year will be charged.
Court notices inserted at customary rates. Papers containing them will be filed and delivered to the advertisers without additional charge.
The Lowell Weekly Journal, a paper of the largest size, for the country, is published on FRIDAY MORNING, at the low price of $1.50 a year in advance, or $2 anytime during the year.
All arrearages will be on interest, after they are due.
Letters and communications by mail must be post paid.
No paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
NEATLY & PROMPTLY EXECUTED
AT THE OFFICE OF THE
Lowell Daily Journal & Courier,
By S. J. Varney.

WILLIAM S. GARDNER,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
Hamilton Block, Central street, opposite the American House,
LOWELL, MASS.

MORSE & CAVERLY,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Office—40 Mansur's Building, Central street,
LOWELL.
I. S. Morse, E. B. Caverly.

DEAN & DINSMOOR,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Office—5 State street, BOSTON.
BENJ. DEAN, J. DINSMOOR.

JOHN MAYNARD,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
No. 170½ Merrimack street.
Prescriptions carefully prepared, and Medicines delivered at all hours of the day or night.

CUSHING & MACK,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
STOVES, HOLLOW WARE, &c., &c.
Basement Story of the old Universalist Church, Merrimack street.
Dan'l S. Cushing, (jan1) Sewall G. Mack.

JOHN NEWELL,
CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.
Hydraulic Engineering and Mechanical Draughting,
No. 2 Savings Bank Building,
(Lately occupied by Franklin Forbes.)
Reference to J. B. Francis, Esq.

ABNER FROST,
SURVEYOR OF LUMBER,
AND
MEASURER OF WOOD,
At Wm. Livingston's Office, Thorndike st.,
LOWELL, MASS.

ABEL WHITNEY,
(SUCCESSOR TO MILTON BONNEY)
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND STATIONER,
30 Merrimack street.
Agent for the Sunday School Union, Tract and Mass. Sabbath School Societies.
Agent for Fire, Life and Health Insurance.
Aug. 6, 1851.

A. P. GROSVENOR,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Corner of Central and Centre sts., Centreville.

WEAVER & BROTHER,
No. 7 Central, and 35 Merrimack streets,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
ALL KINDS OF MAHOGANY AND FINE FURNITURE,
Carpets, Feathers, Curled Hair and Palm Leaf Mattresses, and Feather Beds of all kinds, Looking Glasses, Chairs, Clocks, &c., &c., &c.
John Weaver, C. G. Weaver.

J. COBURN,
DEALER IN
FLOUR, MEAL, GRAIN, &c.,
No. 24 Merrimack street, opposite Bridge street.
Families supplied and Goods delivered to order.

P. H. MAGUIRE,
SLATER,
Prescott street, Lowell.
Roofs covered with Slate, Tin, Zinc, or Copper, in the best manner.

WM. C. GRAY,
DEPUTY SHERIFF,
Office—Canal Block, Central street,
Residence, No. 4 Church street,
LOWELL, MASS.
Orders received by Mail or Express will be promptly attended to.

C. S. EASTMAN & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
MANUFACTURERS OF
Pawtucket Spring Soda and Mineral Water, CORNER STORE, WYMAN'S EXCHANGE,
LOWELL.

DAVID DANA,
COPPERSMITH, BRASS FOUNDER,
AND TIN-PLATE WORKER,
Jackson street, opposite Hamilton Print Works.
All orders promptly executed.

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INS. COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
JOSHUA MERRILL, Agent,
Office—No. 23 Central street.

HUGH McEVOY,
DRAPER AND TAILOR
No. 33 Central street, Lowell, Mass.

J. G. CHASE,
CIVIL ENGINEER
No. 2 Wentworth Block, (up stairs,)
Corner of Merrimack and Kirk streets,
LOWELL.

COBURN & NIXES,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS:
DEALERS IN
SPERM, WHALE, LARD AND LINSEED OILS, POTATO STARCH;
Factory Leathers, Brushes, Roller Cloth, Twine, Cards, Findings, &c.; Paints and Glass;
BUTTER, CHEESE, PORK, LARD AND SALT,
Nos. 4 and 5 Mechanics' Building,
Dutton street.
Chas. B. Coburn, [novl6tf] John Nixes.

JOHN PEARSON,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN
W. I. GOODS, GROCERIES, FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC FRUIT, &c., &c.,
No. 2 Savings Bank Building,
(1st door from Mosses Sugar Hardware Store.)
Shattuck st., Lowell, Mass.

SAMUEL KIDDER, Jr.,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY
Corner of Merrimack and Middle streets,
Opposite Unitarian Church.
[illegible]

STEPHEN MANSUR,
DEALER IN
HARD, CROCKERY, GLASS AND CHINA WARE,
No. 110 Central street.

REEDS AND HARNESSES,
MADE TO ORDER, AND WARRANTED, BY
D. C. BROWN,
Middle street, near the Post Office, LOWELL.
Reed Factory, Middlesex........Harness Factory, Warren st.

NOTICE.
This is to certify that GEORGE HEDRICK has been for the last ten years, and is now, our only agent in Lowell and vicinity for the sale of our Piano Fortes, and persons wishing to purchase our instruments will always find a choice assortment at his Warerooms, which will be sold at the same prices, and terms, as at our Manufactory, and warranted to give entire satisfaction.
Boston, April 19, 1851. T. GILBERT & CO.

A. & S. STEVENS,
MANUFACTURERS OF
POWER LOOM HARNESSES AND REEDS,
And every description of
MACHINE BELTS AND STRAPS,
Corner Fletcher st. and Western Avenue
LOWELL, MASS.
Alpha Stevens, Solon Stevens.
Belts and Straps, of superior quality, for all kinds of Machinery, furnished to any extent with very short notice. [illegible]

BLANCHARD, WRIGHT & CO.,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
No. 1 Fletcher street, LOWELL. No. 75 Commercial st., BOSTON.
June 14, 1853.

WATSON & SARGEANT,
BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS,
146 Merrimack street.
Book Binding in every variety. Blank Books made to order.

LOWELL MUTUAL FIRE INS. COMPANY.
—OFFICE—
Corner of Central and Market streets.
Risks taken in Massachusetts and New Hampshire.
JACOB ROBBINS, Sec'y.

E. O. F. CORLISS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW.
[illegible] No. 46 Central street,
LOWELL

BLANCHARD & UNDERWOOD,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
WEST INDIA GOODS AND GROCERIES, FOREIGN FRUIT, WOODEN AND WILLOW WARE, &c.,
At the Corner Store, Nos. 6 and 7 Savings Bank Building, corner of Middle and Shattuck sts.,
LOWELL.

MERRILL & STRAW,
(Successors to Powers & Bagley,)
PUBLISHERS, BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS,
Dealers in Paper Hangings, Borders, Blank Books, &c.
Blank Books made to order, and Paper ruled to any pattern.
Book Binding done with neatness and despatch.
No. 23 Central st., LOWELL.

S. S. HALE & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES.
RETAIL DEALERS IN
DRUGS, MEDICINES, PERFUMERY, TOILET ARTICLES, &c., &c.
Physicians' Prescriptions put up at all hours with the utmost care.
Pure SODA drawn at all seasons.
Corner of East Merrimack and Dandison streets, Belvidere.

C. P. TALBOT & CO.,
MANUFACTURERS OF
DYE WOODS AND CHEMICALS,
City Market House—LOWELL.

SAMUEL WOOD
(Successor to S. Wood & Co.,)
WHOLESALE DEALER IN
FLOUR, ALL KINDS OF GRAIN, SHORTS, &c.
Also Commission Merchant for the sale of
COUNTRY PRODUCE.
Market street—Opposite the Market House, Lowell, Mass.

C. WEBSTER,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
BONNETS, RIBBONS, LACES, ARTIFICIAL FLOWERS, MILLINERY GOODS, &c.,
No. 42 Merrimack street, (Nesmith's New Block,)
Lowell, Mass.
MRS. WEBSTER,
Silk and Straw Milliner, Same Store.

R. A. MILLER,
DAGUERREAN
ARTIST,
NO. 19 CENTRAL STREET.
(Next door to "Vox Populi" Office.)
R. A. MILLER has removed from Canal Block to No. 19 Central street, where he has fitted up a suite of Rooms superior to any in the city. He has also added an improved Skylight to better facilitate the mode of obtaining a NATURAL Picture, which every Artist cannot do.
DAGUERREOTYPES
TAKEN IN ALL THE
VARIOUS STYLES;
Crayons, Illuminated,
MAGIC BACKGROUNDS, &c.
DAGUERREOTYPES
Copied and Magnified
TO ANY SIZE DESIRED.
Old ladies, sick and deceased persons, taken at their residences.
The public are invited to call and examine specimens, as I have some of the
LARGEST AND BEST
DAGUERREOTYPES
IN THE CITY.
REMEMBER! MILLER has not the least connection whatever with the rooms at Canal Block, as he has removed to (next door to "Vox" Office,)
19 CENTRAL STREET.
Lowell, July, 1853.

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.
[illegible]
PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS,
[illegible]
FANCY GOODS, TOILET ARTICLES, and PERFUMERY,
[illegible]
C. S. EASTMAN & CO., Apothecaries,
WYMAN'S EXCHANGE, LOWELL.
POCKET CUTLERY.—[illegible] JACOB ROGERS.
[illegible]

RAILROADS.

BOSTON AND LOWELL RAILROAD.
ON and after MONDAY, August 1, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows, viz:
UPPER RAILROAD TRAINS
Leave Boston at 7.45 A. M., 12 M., and *5.30 P. M.
Leave Lowell at 8.00 A. M., 12.07 and 6.00 P. M.
* Stops at North Woburn.
ACCOMMODATION TRAINS
Leave Boston at *7.15 and *9.30 A. M., 2.30 and 6.30 P. M.
" Lowell at *7 and 10 A. M., *2, and *5 P. M.
* Stops at North Woburn.
WOBURN BRANCH TRAINS
[illegible]
WM. H. OSGOOD,
Agent Boston and Lowell Railroad Cor.
Boston, July 25, 1853.

NEW ROUTE BETWEEN BOSTON AND LOWELL.
SUMMER ARRANGEMENT—NO CHANGE OF CARS BY EITHER TRAIN.
Depots—Middlesex street, Lowell, Haymarket Square, Boston.
ON and after MONDAY, August 1st, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows:
[illegible]
F. H. NOURSE, Sup't.

LOWELL AND LAWRENCE RAILROAD.
SPRING AND SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.
ON and after MONDAY, June 6, 1853, Passenger Trains will run between Lowell and Lawrence as follows:
[illegible]
F. H. NOURSE, Sup't.
Lowell, June 7, 1853.

SALEM AND LOWELL RAILROAD.
SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.
[illegible]
F. H. NOURSE, Sup't.
Lowell, June, 1853.

NORTHERN RAILROAD.
THIS Road connects with the Passumpsic and Vermont Central Roads at White River Junction [illegible]
[illegible]
ONSLOW STEARNS, Agent.
Concord, N. H., June 20, 1853.

WORCESTER AND NASHUA RAILROAD.
PASSENGER TRAINS on this Road [illegible]
[illegible]
CONNECTIONS WITH OTHER ROADS.
[illegible]
FITCHBURG AND WORCESTER R. R. TRAINS,
[illegible]
J. W. STOWELL, Sup't.
Worcester, June 6, 1853.

AT HALF PRICE!
[illegible]
JAS. P. WALKER, 61 Merrimack st.
PREMIUM FLOUR.
[illegible]
SAML. H. WOOD, Corbet st.

RAILROADS.

NEW RAILROAD ROUTE
TO SARATOGA SPRINGS AND THE WEST.
SHORTEST AND ONLY DIRECT ROUTE, WITHOUT CHANGE OF CARS.
THE shortest and quickest Railroad Route to Saratoga Springs from Boston, [illegible]
[illegible]
S. A. CHAPIN, Sup't. Cheshire Railroad
Keene, N. H., July, 1853.

NASHUA AND LOWELL, WILTON, AND STONY BROOK RAILROADS.
SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.
ON and after MONDAY, Aug. 1st, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows:
UPWARD.
[illegible]
DOWNWARD.
[illegible]
GEO. STARK, Sup't.
Nashville, N. H., Aug. 1, 1853.

NEWBURYPORT RAILROAD.
SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.
ON and after MONDAY, June 6, 1853, Trains will run as follows:
[illegible]
NEW ROUTE TO BOSTON.
[illegible]
C. S. TENNEY, Sup't.
Georgetown, June 4, 1853.

RAILROAD AND STEAMBOAT ROUTE
FROM LOWELL TO BANGOR!
AND INTERMEDIATE LANDINGS ON THE PENOBSCOT BAY AND RIVER.
VIA BOSTON AND LOWELL R. R. TO BOSTON.
Thence by the Steamer PENOBSCOT, Capt. WM. FLOWERS, which leaves Boston every TUESDAY, at 5 o'clock, P. M., and every FRIDAY, at 5 o'clock, P. M.
Returning, will leave Bangor every MONDAY and THURSDAY, at 10 o'clock, A. M.
—FARE FROM LOWELL—
To Rockland, Thomaston and Camden, $1.50
[illegible]
Boston, May 13, 1853.

RARE CHANCE.
FARM FOR SALE.—[illegible]
[illegible]
FOR SALE.
[illegible]
Parker's Block, Centreville, Lowell.
ROOMS TO LET.
[illegible]
CHARLES B. COBURN.
Dr. W. D. VINALL, Dentist,
Office and Residence 58 Central street, Lowell.
Dr. V. having had much experience for the last 7 years in this city, feels no hesitancy in saying that all work pertaining to Dentistry submitted to him shall be executed in a style of workmanship not inferior to that of any other Dentist.
NOTICE.
This certifies that Mr. I. H. METCALF is our Agent in Lowell and vicinity for the sale of our PIANO FORTES, [illegible]
HALLET & ALLEN.
Boston, May 1, 1851.
PAINTED TEA TRAYS, [illegible]
S. MANSUR, 110 Central st.
FRESH GROUND WHEAT MEAL AND GROATS.—[illegible]
SAML. H. WOOD, [illegible]
FATAL HATS.
[illegible]
BRAITHWAITE'S RETROSPECT [illegible]
WATSON & SARGEANT.

INSURANCE OFFICES.

Insurance Agency.
Office No. 21 Appleton Block, Central st.
PERSONS wishing for insurance either on LIFE or against FIRE, in good, sound, reliable Companies, can be accommodated at No. 21 Appleton Block, over Page & Fay's Store, on Central street in this city.
The public are hereby assured that the subscriber will not act for any Company that does not, in his opinion, fully answer the aforesaid description.
FREDERICK PARKER.
Lowell, Nov. 12th, 1852.

Fire Insurance.
OFFICE, No. 21 APPLETON BLOCK
AMERICAN INSURANCE COMPANY OF PROVIDENCE, R. I.
CAPITAL $150,000.
W. HUMPHREY, Sec'y. ALLEN O. PECK, Pres't.
ATLANTIC FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF PROVIDENCE, R. I.
CAPITAL $150,000.
S. STEVENS, Sec'y. SUCHET MAURAN, Pres't.
SPRINGFIELD FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF SPRINGFIELD, MASS.
CAPITAL STOCK, $150,000.
EDMUND FREEMAN, President.
WILLIAM CONNER, Jr., Secretary.
WESTERN MASSACHUSETTS FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF PITTSFIELD, MASS.
CAPITAL $100,000.
J. C. GOODRIDGE, Sec'y. CHAS. M. OWEN, Pres't.
MERCHANTS' AND FARMERS' MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF WORCESTER, MASS.
C. L. PUTNAM, Sec'y. ISAAC DAVIS, Pres't.
The above named Companies, which are among the very best and soundest in New England, will insure on property in Lowell and vicinity on as favorable terms as other similar Companies.
Detached dwellings and Farmers' property insured for the term of five years at very low rates of premium.
Application for insurance may be made to the subscriber, at No. 21 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell.
FREDERICK PARKER,
Agent for said Companies.
Lowell, Oct. 28, 1852.

LOWELL TRADERS' AND MECHANICS' MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
OFFICE,—COURIER BUILDING, CENTRAL ST.
AMOUNT AT RISK—$4,000,000.
ABSOLUTE AND CONDITIONAL FUNDS,
$382,485.
Directors:
SEWALL G. MACK, President.
Thomas Nesmith, James H. Rand,
Andrew C. Wheelock, [illegible]
Joseph Converse, [illegible]
O. P. Stanford, George W. Bean,
JAMES DINSMOOR, Sec'y.
Lowell, June 29, 1853.

RELIABLE LIFE INSURANCE, ON A CAPITAL OF $2,500,000
SURPLUS $500,304.
THE National Loan Fund Life Insurance Company, of London, England, [illegible]
[illegible]
Boston Board of Directors—[illegible]
[illegible]
Medical Examiners.
FREDERICK PARKER,
Agent for Lowell and vicinity.
Lowell, Oct. 28, 1852.

[illegible] INSURANCE COMPANY.
Office—No. 17 Appleton Block, Central street,
LOWELL, MASS.
THIS Company continue to insure on Real and Personal Property to an amount not exceeding $5,000 on any one risk [illegible]
[illegible]
NATHAN ALLEN, President.
FREDERICK PARKER, Treasurer.
JOSHUA W. DANIELS, Secretary.
Lowell, Nov. 11, 1852.

UNITED STATES
LIFE INSURANCE,
ANNUITY AND TRUST COMPANY,
OF PENNSYLVANIA.
CAPITAL, 250,000 DOLLARS.
CASH PAYMENTS EXCLUSIVELY.
No Premium Notes, and no Assessments.
STEPHEN R. CRAWFORD, Pres't.
CHARLES G. IMLAY, Sec'y.
PLINY FISK, Actuary.
LOCAL BOARD OF REFERENCE:
Boston.
[illegible]
The "Mixed System" of Life Insurance adopted by this Company, [illegible]
CALIFORNIA Life Insurance and Permits for AUSTRALIA, OREGON, and the SANDWICH ISLANDS, at reduced rates of Premium.
GEORGE H. BATES, General Agent,
[illegible]
WM. LAMSON, Jr., Agent,
[illegible]
Dec. 28, 1852.

AMERICAN TEMPERANCE
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
HARTFORD, CONN.
Incorporated by the State of Connecticut.
Capital One Hundred Thousand Dollars,
$100,000,
Securely invested under the sanction and approval of the Comptroller of Public Accounts.
OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:
BARZILLAI HUDSON, President.
TERTIUS WADSWORTH, Vice President.
E. B. HALE, Secretary.
[illegible]
A. OSGOOD, Agent,
Office, Parker's Block, Centreville, Lowell.
June 16, 1853.

DRS. CARLTON & PERRY,
SURGEON DENTISTS,
[illegible]
DENTISTRY.
[illegible]
CRACKED WHEAT—[illegible]

MORTIMORE'S
RHEUMATIC COMPOUND.
THIS truly celebrated remedial preparation, affording alike for each and every description of RHEUMATIC COMPLAINTS, is already too well known and esteemed throughout the United States to require any lengthy notice of its paramount virtues. IT ERADICATES the hereditary agonizing and distressing disease from the system, and STANDS UNRIVALLED IN THE PHARMACY OF MEDICINE.
We do not propose to make unqualified statements, or to endorse a nostrum before the public, but simply to request those afflicted [illegible]
Sufferers Themselves,
[illegible]
MORTIMORE'S
RHEUMATIC COMPOUND
[illegible]
THE GREAT ALTERATIVE.
MORTIMORE'S
BITTER CORDIAL
AND BLOOD PURIFIER.
[illegible]
Restoring the Nervous System.
[illegible]
ALTERATIVE AND BLOOD PURIFIER
[illegible]
To the Sedentary it has proved itself
THE BALM OF GILEAD.
ESPECIALLY TO FEMALES.
[illegible]
W. V. ALEXANDER & CO., Proprietors,
[illegible]
April 1, 1853.

PAPER WAREHOUSE.
Cyrus W. Field & Co.,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
No. 11 Cliff Street,
NEW YORK.
Are Sole Agents in the United States
FOR
MUSPRATT'S superior Bleaching Powder.
[illegible]

FARM IN WESTMINSTER FOR SALE.
[illegible]
HOUSE LOTS.—RARE CHANCE.
NOW offered for sale, [illegible] BUILDING LOTS, [illegible]
Lowell, Jan. 19, 1853.
SPRING GOODS.
I have received, and am ready to exhibit at my store, No. 2 Canal Block, a well selected stock of CLOTHS, FANCY GOODS and VESTINGS, [illegible]
DANIEL H. DEAN.
ALLEN ON THE OPIUM TRADE.
[illegible]
JAS. P. WALKER, 61 Merrimack st.
DIRECT FROM THE SHAKERS.
A FRESH LOT of Corbett's Shaker Compound [illegible]
J. C. AYER & CO.'S
SPECTACLES and Spectacle Cases [illegible]
SHAKERS' HERBS.—[illegible]
WHITE TEETH.—[illegible]
JEWELRY.—[illegible]
DEODORIZING POWDER, [illegible]
NEW BOOKS.—[illegible]
[illegible]

"IF MY HUSBAND WERE TO DO SO."
A DOMESTIC INCIDENT.

'Poor woman! what a thousand pities it is for her!' said Mrs Grimes, with feeling. 'I wonder how she stands it. If my husband were to act so, it would kill me.'

'I could never stand it in the world,' added Mrs Pitts. 'It is a dreadful situation for a woman to be placed in. Mr Lockin used to be one of the best of men, and took the best possible care of his family. For years there was not a happier woman in town than his wife. But now it makes one's heart ache to look at her. Oh! it must be one of the most heart-breaking things in the world to have a drunken husband.'

'Well, all I've got to say,' spoke up Mrs Peters with warmth, 'is that I don't pity her much.'

'Why, Mrs Peters! how can you talk so?'

'Well I don't! Any woman who will live with a drunken husband, don't deserve pity. Why don't she leave him?'

'That is easier said than done, Mrs Peters.'

'I should think it a great deal easier than to live with a drunken husband, and have her life tormented out of her. If my husband were to do so, I'd leave him and I would not be twenty-four hours.'

Now Mrs Peters' husband was a most excellent man, and a sober man withal; and his wife was tenderly attached to him. In regard to his ever becoming a drunkard, she had as little fear as of his [illegible] Still, when she made her last remark, she looked towards him, for he was present, with a stern and significant expression on her countenance. This was not really meant for him, but for the imaginary individual she had supposed as bearing the relation towards her of a drunken husband.

'You would—would you?' Mr Peters replied, to the warmly expressed sentiment uttered by his wife.

'Yes, that I would!' half laughingly and half seriously returned Mrs Peters.

'You don't know what you are talking about,' spoke up Mrs Grimes.

'Indeed, then, I do! I consider any woman a fool who will live with a drunken husband. For my part I have not a spark of sympathy for the wives of drunkards—I mean those who live with the men who beggar and abuse them. More disgusting brutes—the very sight of whom ought to turn a decent woman's stomach.'

'You never were placed in such a situation, and therefore are not competent to decide how far a woman who continues to live with a drunkard is or is not to blame. For my part, I am inclined to think that in some cases, to live with the husband under these circumstances, is the least of two evils.'

This was said by Mrs Pitts.

'I think you are right there,' remarked Mr Peters. 'A woman feels towards her own husband, the father of her children, and the man who in life's spring time won her best and purest affections, very differently to what she does towards another man. She knows all his good qualities, and how he will would love, her, but for the sad infatuation from which he feels it almost impossible to break away. The hope that he will reform, never leaves her heart. When she looks at her children, even though abused and neglected, she cannot but hope that their father will yet be to them a true father. And this hope keeps her up.'

'All nonsense!' Mrs Peters replied warmly. 'Any woman is a fool to feed herself up with such fancies. There is only one true remedy, and that is separation. That's what I'd do, and what every woman of sense ought to do. Don't tell me about the hope of reforming—it's all nonsense. You would not catch me breaking my heart after that fashion for any man. Not I.'

The more Mrs Grimes, and Mrs Pitts, and others present, argued the side of the question, the more pertinaciously did she maintain the position she had assumed, until Mr Peters could not help feeling somewhat vexed, and some little hurt. He being her husband, and the only one who could possibly hold the relation towards her of a drunken husband, there must be the same towards him her indignation was directed—[illegible] possibility of his becoming a tippler.

After a while the subject was dropped, and at the close of the social evening, the friends separated, and went to their own homes.

It was, perhaps, about a month from the period at which this conversation occurred, that Mr Peters left his house early in the evening to attend a political meeting, to be gone, the time running high, and [illegible] at freely as water. He was in the habit of attending such gatherings, and of partaking of his portion of the cider, and at times of something a little stronger; but as he was a sober man, and a man too of strong and good sense, and firm principles, the thought of his ever partaking too freely never crossed the mind of his wife.

Regular in his habits, he was rarely out after ten o'clock on any occasion. But this time ten came, and even eleven, but he was still away. This was a circumstance so unusual, that his wife could not help feeling a degree of uneasiness. She went to the door and listened for him after the clock had struck eleven, and stood there for some time, expecting every moment to hear the sound of his footsteps in the distance. But she waited in vain, and at last re-entered the house, with a troubled feeling.

At last the clock struck twelve, and almost at the same time she heard her husband at the door endeavoring to open it with his night latch key. In this he was unsuccessful for some moments, and thinking that she [illegible] turned the key, Mrs Peters [illegible] opened the door for him. [illegible] had not locked it.

As she lifted the latch, the door was thrown suddenly against her, and her husband came staggering in. As he passed her, he lurched against the wall of the passage with such force as to [illegible] struck the other side, and then fell heavily to the floor.

The dreadful truth instantly flashed upon her. He was drunk. For a moment her heart ceased to beat. [illegible]

[illegible]

After some time she got him undressed and in bed. But she grew more and more [illegible]

'Oh, what if he should die!' she [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible]

'If my husband were to do so!' [illegible]

...till, still in a whisper, but a very expressive one, he looked him in the face with a look of indignation, and, pointing with a finger of scorn to the door, said, "Leave my house, sir!" Mr. Fowler left with his head bowed and his tail down, and his wife soon followed. Mr. Fowler says he is satisfied with his action and he feels that he has acted well in the matter.

Fowler's reformation of ears and wife, Mrs Fowler pays very cordial how she declared her self on the subject. She also placed in similar circumstances. If a my case she was led to...

...Oh, yes! if my husband were to do as he has...the happiest effect imaginable, and certainly not an end to the reprehensible drunkenness.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Wednesday, September 21, 1852.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

The Whig State Convention will meet in Concord on Wednesday, the 29th day of September next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to nominate candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Councillors, Senators and Representatives to the Congress of the United States for the ensuing year.

JOSIP ALBERT, Secretary.

Concord, Sept. 18, 1852.

WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Whig County Convention will be held at Concord, on TUESDAY, the 28th day of September next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:

The several Towns and Cities of the County are entitled to the following Delegates to the Convention:

Bow, 2; Pembroke, 3; Hopkinton, 4; Henniker, 3; Warner, 3; Webster, 2; Salisbury, 2; Boscawen, 3; Canterbury, 3; Loudon, 3; Chichester, 3; Pittsfield, 3; Epsom, 2; Northfield, 2; Concord, 6; Total, 49.

JOHN F. PEARSON, Chairman.
JAMES LADD, Clerk.

Concord, 7, 1852.

THE WHIG PARTY AND STATE RIGHTS. The Whig party has always been charged with the opposition made by the whigs to the adoption of the Federal Constitution, and the spring from this doctrine by the Constitution of the State, by which they are opposed to all change. They wish to have the Constitution preserved, in the belief that the old one will not thereafter be touched.

How the Times knows this to be a miserable falsehood. It knows that, since the people voted to call the late Constitutional Convention, the Whig party has made the best use of their time and influence to defeat it. It knows that one of its leaders said openly, and so distinctly as any party can be, the party of the State. It knows that it has not been—that we are willing to submit the question of the generality principle to all State, County and Municipal elections, for single officers and districts, for the double question of a Senate House representation, for a change of Executive tenure and pay—and, finally, for a vast variation of general, special and local legislation which has hitherto been demanded by the people, but withholden by the Democracy.

And if these reforms cannot be obtained and achieved through the ordinary legislature, the new Constitution being defeated, another Constitutional Convention will be called, and these reforms will be carried, in spite of every honorable opposition, in spite of the selfishness of both factions, and in spite of the attempts of One old Democratic and interested assemblies to crush out the progress of liberal ideas.

The whigs demand that Democracy shall succeed; that her policy shall be revised and radically amended; that the State administration, which has been a disappointment to the friends of progress, and that Massachusetts redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled.

PENSE SPEECH—20 Dozens. The great Dover Mesmerizer, in his very celebrated and profound work on the Philosophy or Spirit of Love, defines the same to be "the base of the...tem and of our economy." Now what this Democratic Pro...mean by virtue was never...exactly made out, and must be left to the...ation of society, as the social system...

That this sentiment is rapidly becoming manifest...no one pretends to...ny. Democratic leaders...ppointed, in the belief that the end one will not thereafter be touched.

How the Times knows this to be a miserable falsehood. It knows that, since the people voted to call the late Constitutional Convention, the Whig party has made the best use of their time and influence to defeat it. It knows that one of its leaders said openly, and so distinctly as any party can be, the party of the State. It knows that it has not been—that we are willing to submit the question of the generality principle to all State, County and Municipal elections, for single officers and districts, for the double question of a Senate House representation, for a change of Executive tenure and pay—and, finally, for a vast variation of general, special and local legislation which has hitherto been demanded by the people, but withholden by the Democracy.

And if these reforms cannot be obtained and achieved through the ordinary legislature, the new Constitution being defeated, another Constitutional Convention will be called, and these reforms will be carried, in spite of every honorable opposition, in spite of the selfishness of both factions, and in spite of the attempts of One old Democratic and interested assemblies to crush out the progress of liberal ideas.

The whigs demand that Democracy shall succeed; that her policy shall be revised and radically amended; that the State administration, which has been a disappointment to the friends of progress, and that Massachusetts redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled.

PENSE SPEECH—20 Dozens. The great Dover Mesmerizer, in his very celebrated and profound work on the Philosophy or Spirit of Love, defines the same to be "the base of the...tem and of our economy." Now what this Democratic Pro...mean by virtue was never...exactly made out, and must be left to the...ation of society, as the social system...

That this sentiment is rapidly becoming manifest...no one pretends to...ny. Democratic leaders...ppointed, in the belief that the end one will not thereafter be touched.

How the Times knows this to be a miserable falsehood.

It knows that, since the people voted to call the late Constitutional Convention, the Whig party has made the best use of their time and influence to defeat it. It knows that one of its leaders said openly, and so distinctly as any party can be, the party of the State. It knows that it has not been—that we are willing to submit the question of the generality principle to all State, County and Municipal elections, for single officers and districts, for the double question of a Senate House representation, for a change of Executive tenure and pay—and, finally, for a vast variation of general, special and local legislation which has hitherto been demanded by the people, but withholden by the Democracy.

And if these reforms cannot be obtained and achieved through the ordinary legislature, the new Constitution being defeated, another Constitutional Convention will be called, and these reforms will be carried, in spite of every honorable opposition, in spite of the selfishness of both factions, and in spite of the attempts of One old Democratic and interested assemblies to crush out the progress of liberal ideas.

The whigs demand that Democracy shall succeed; that her policy shall be revised and radically amended; that the State administration, which has been a disappointment to the friends of progress, and that Massachusetts redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled.

Abolitionism Repudiated.

An able denounce of thirty years' standing, writes to the Boston Atlas that he declares the time has arrived for "abolishing the Union for the sake of free trade. Not being prostituted to speak through the gagged and muzzled press, he sends his communication was kindly made public by the editors of the Atlas. We quote as follows:

The proceedings of the late Convention are calculated to strengthen the Free Soilers rather than the Democracy. And it is now well understood, that at the approaching election we must give the State government over to one or the other of the Free Soilers, and place in the Executive chair a rampant Whig, who has come into power on the Democratic—a man who deserted the Whig party when it was in power, and who has since...ed with those with whom in former days he would have spurned, and who would desert us whenever he thought it his interest. Such requirements are too much for me. I confess that when I look back upon the evils which have arisen from attempting to make one renegade Whig a Governor, I have no disposition to be a party...ty to another. Our efforts to elect Caleb Cushing have only brought disrepute upon the party, and I fear that an attempt to elect Henry D. Wilson would prove still more fatal. Other candidates...who...ld...ose whom in former days we have denounced as traitors, will...ed by the profession. He opposed Gov. Pierce at the last annual election. Here, then, can the honest Democrats of Massachusetts consent to make a...ort with Governor? If we succeed under such auspices, and fail, we should stand disgraced; and if we should succeed, the degree of success will be still greater and more damning.

I am aware that I shall be told that we shall put up a candidate of our own,—that Judge Bishop, or some other good Democrat, should put in nomination, and the Democrats are requested to support him. But at the same time I know that no one expects to elect our man by the power; and that in the Legislature we shall be required to support the Free Soil candidate. Now as I...ssily, is it honest in us to attempt to deceive the honest voters in our party, by a device like this? Look at it for a moment. We call a meeting of the Democrats in our respective towns, to elect delegates to attend a Democratic State Convention, to nominate a Democratic candidate for Governor; when we have no expectation or even design of electing him,—only when we have by all this machinery a pot in requisition to make the Free Soil Governor out of a Democratic one.

I confess, fellow citizens, I feel humiliated, when I contemplate such a farce. I feel, too, that the sterner democracy of Massachusetts, who have battled for principle for a long series of years, and have broken down the proud standard of the great Democratic party of the Commonwealth, will look upon us with scorn, as of the Free Soilers, who have sufficiently voted against every honorable candidate for the Presidency! Have we no men in our own party worthy of our confidence? Is it to be left to the office of Chief Magistrate? Are we reduced to such a point as Henry Wilson and Anson Burlingame, thereby fixing upon our party the everlasting reproach of having deserted our principles, and cast over to the enemy? Even if we should find ourselves in a minority in the State, we should be in the majority in the nation; and the very fact that we are deprived of the State Government would recommend us to favorable consideration of the national administration. Besides, by resuming our ancient and honorable ground, we should be able to bring our party into vested and regular form, and we should be able to place ourselves in a situation to build ourselves up on an enduring basis. When were we ever so prosperous as a party, as when we were a respectable minority, having a controlling influence, and gaining strength from year to year? Was it not the conduct of the part of the Democracy of the Union, and were they themselves in our own State?

Let us then break off these unnatural coalitions—these base, dishonorable alliances, which are losing us the regard of the democracy of the country. Let us reassert our principles, and place ourselves by the side of the great Democratic party of the nation, and in such a way we shall regain the reputation we formerly enjoyed. It is now but three years since the party was in power, in the navy, in the army, in the Treasury, in the Custom House, and in the Post Office, and in the Senate of the United States. Where is it now? Where is it now? Where is it now?

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. THURSDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 22, 1853. NO. 4176.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.
Payable one quarter in advance and the remainder at the end of the year.

Office—No. 23 CENTRAL STREET,
(Adjoining the Post Office.)

Advertisements inserted at $1 per square for three insertions, and 25 cents per square for each subsequent insertion to be paid for in advance, in all cases where an account is not open. Twelve lines or less constitute a square.

Yearly and Monthly advertisements inserted at prices to suit the times. Publishers will not hold themselves responsible for any error or omission that may occur, beyond the price charged for the advertisement.

Insertions for yearly advertising within the counting room hours will be changed as often as desired. Transient advertisements will be changed once a week, unless a longer time is paid for, when the price of a whole paper will be charged.

Notices of meetings inserted at customary rates. Papers containing them will be filed and delivered to the advertising committee gratuitously.

The Lowell Weekly Journal, a paper of the largest class, is published every FRIDAY MORNING, at the low price of $1 50 per year in advance, or $2 00 if not paid within the year.

All letters will be considered as subscriptions, and all letters and communications by mail must be post paid.

☞ No paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
NEATLY & PROMPTLY EXECUTED
AT THE
Lowell Daily Journal & Courier,
No. 23 Central Street.

WILLIAM A. GARDNER,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
Hamilton Block, Central street, opposite the American House.
Sept3 LOWELL, MASS. 6f

NORRIS & CAVERLY,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Office—49 Merrimack Building, Central street,
LOWELL. 2.2 C.
J. S. Norris, C. F. Caverly.

DEAN & DINSMOOR,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW, AND SOLICITORS IN CHANCERY,
Office—3 State street, BOSTON.
BENJ. DEAN. J. DINSMOOR.
oct14 6f

JOHN HAYNARD,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
No. 2 Merrimack Square,
Prescriptions carefully prepared, and Medicines delivered at all hours of the day and night. apr2 ly

CUSHING & MACK,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
STOVES, FURNACES, GRATES, &c. &c.,
Sanmont Story of the St Nicholas Church,
Central street,
LOWELL.
Wm CUSHING, (Jan1) EDWARD C. MACK.

JOHN NEWELL,
CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.
Dyden in Engineering and Mechanical Dingbatting,
No. 6 Savings Bank Building.
(Lately occupied by Franklin Patten.)
Reference—Hon. Josiah Quincy. 2m29

ABNER FROST,
SURVEYOR OF LUMBER,
AND
MEASURER OF WOOD,
At Wm. Livingston's Office, Thorndike st.,
LOWELL, MASS. 4ly*

ABEL WHITNEY,
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER, AND STATIONER,
32 Merrimack street.
ACCOUNT BOOKS MADE TO ORDER.
Blanks ruled to any pattern.

Agent for Pen, Ink and Pencil Sketching.

A. P. GROVENOR,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Corner of Central and Church sts., Chelmsford.
sep19 4ly

C. P. TALBOT & CO.,
MANUFACTURERS OF OIL, WOOD, DYE AND CHEMICALS.
City Market House, LOWELL.
C. P. TALBOT. (sep19) C. C. TALBOT.

PAPER WAREHOUSE.
Cyrus W. Field & Co.,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
No. 11 Cliff Street,
NEW YORK.
Are Sole Agents in the United States for the

BUSINESS CARDS.

REEDS AND HARNESSES,
MADE TO ORDER, AND WARRANTED, BY
D. C. BROWN,
Middle street, rear the Post Office, LOWELL.
Real Poultry, Medicine.....Narrow Factory, Warren st
may23

NOTICE.

This is to notify that GEORGE BRIDGES has been in our employ for one year, and is now our agent in Lowell and vicinity for sale of our Patent Shade Fixtures, and all orders or contracts with him will be duly executed by us. GEORGE BRIDGES is not authorized to collect any money, beyond the price charged for the articles sold.

Boston, April 19, 1853. 3m

A. & D. S. SYKES,
MANUFACTURERS OF Power Loom Hair Cloth and Seine,
And every description of
Machine Belts and Straps,
Corner Fletcher st. and Western Avenue
LOWELL, MASS.
Also, Agents for
Oakes' Patent Portable Steam Engines,
Nos. 11 Old Corner, No. 23 Cliff street, No. 104 Chatham street, New York.
Orders promptly executed. Manufactories that can be seen in use at any time.
Lowell, Nov. 19th 1852. 6m

Fire Insurance.
OFFICE, No. 81 APPLETON BLOCK
AMERICAN FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF PROVIDENCE, R. I.
CAPITAL $150,000.
W. HUMPHREY, Sec'y. ALLEN G. POPE, Pres't
B. STEVENS, Agent.

ATLANTIC FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF PROVIDENCE, R. I.
CAPITAL $150,000.
B. STEVENS, Agent.

SPRINGFIELD FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY.
CAPITAL $150,000.
WILLIAM CONNER, Jr., Secretary.
B. STEVENS, Agent.

NORTHERN MASSACHUSETTS MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, HAVERHILL.
CAPITAL $150,000.
J. C. GOODRIDGE, Pres't. CHAS. H. OWEN, Sec'y.
B. STEVENS, Agent.

MERCHANTS' AND FARMERS' MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF WORCESTER.
CAPITAL $150,000.
C. L. PUTNAM, Sec'y. ISAAC DAVIS, Pres't.
B. STEVENS, Agent.

The above named Companies will now be among the best and most reliable Companies in the country, and property in Lowell and vicinity on as favorable terms as any other Companies.

Insurance effected on property against loss by fire for the term of five years by one payment, and the premium will be returned to the assured, if they desire it, at the end of the term, without interest. Apply at the office of the Agent, No. 81 Appleton Block, over the Post Office.

B. STEVENS, Agent.
Lowell, Oct. 26, 1852.

LOWELL MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
—OFFICE—
Corner of Central and Middle streets, Gothic Block, Up Stairs.
DIRECTORS:
Samuel Lawrence, Josiah Richardson,
Nathaniel Wright, Jonathan Tyler,
Josiah Fiske, Jr., Joseph Locke,
Samuel Batchelder, Jr., Ezra Ripley,
Nathaniel Wood, Jr., Joseph Nesmith,
Jonathan Tenney, Jr., Samuel Lawrence, 2d.
SAMUEL LAWRENCE, President.
JOSEPH LOCKE, Secretary.
Insures Buildings, Merchandise and Furniture against loss or damage by fire, on favorable terms.
Lowell, Oct. 26, 1852.

LOWELL MUTUAL FIRE AND MECHANICS' MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
OFFICE—CORNER BUILDING, CENTRAL ST.
INSURE BUILDINGS,
ABSOLUTE AND CONDITIONAL PURS.
DIRECTORS:
Benjamin Perham, President.
Thomas Hill, Vice President.
Charles C. Chickering, Secretary.
Thomas E. Clarke,
Joseph Morse,
James Hildreth,
Jeremiah Burbank,
Jonathan Tyler.
RELIABLE LIFE INSURANCE, ON A CAPITAL OF
$2,500,000.
SCRIP $225,000.
THE Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Lowell, Incorporated by the Legislature of Massachusetts, and located at Lowell, offers to the public the following advantages:
1st. Perfect security, as the Company will be managed by the most careful and prudent men of Lowell.
2d. Economy, as the Company will be conducted on the principle of mutuality, and will be free from the expenses attendant upon companies conducted on the principle of stock.
3d. Participation in the profits of the Company, which will be annually ascertained and declared.
4th. Liberality, as the Company will be governed by the most liberal principles.
☞ The Company are compelled with the laws of the Commonwealth to deposit with the Treasurer of the State, for the benefit of the policy holders, $100,000 of Stock, which will be increased as the business of the Company may require.
☞ Persons desiring to effect insurance on their lives, will find it to their interest to call at the office of the Company, where they will be promptly waited upon by the Secretary, or any of the Directors.
☞ Policies will be issued on the most favorable terms, by the Office or the Agencies.
JOSEPH LOCKE, President.
CHARLES C. CHICKERING, Secretary.
Lowell, Jan. 11, 1853. 1y

UNITED STATES
LIFE INSURANCE,
ANNUITY AND TRUST COMPANY,
OF PHILADELPHIA.
CAPITAL, $250,000 DOLLARS.
Its Premium Notes, and no Accumulations.
CHARLES G. IMBRIE, President.
GEORGE FOULKE, Secretary.
☞ This Company continues to insure on the most favorable terms, on the Mutual Principle, without participation in profits, and on the Stock Principle, with participation in profits, as may be desired by the insured.
☞ The Directors have also established a Department for the Insurance of Children, on the Mutual Principle, which promises to be of great benefit to the community.
☞ The Company have also established an Annuity Department, by the Office or the Agencies.
☞ The Trust Department will receive Money on Deposit, and allow interest thereon, and will act as Executors, Trustees, Guardians, &c.
☞ The Company will receive applications and issue Policies at the Office of the Agent,
CHARLES C. CHICKERING, Agent,
No. 23 Central street, Lowell.
Lowell, June, 1853. 1y

NORTHERN RAILROAD.
ON and after Monday, June 27, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows:
Leave Lowell for Concord and Manchester at 7.30 A. M., and 2.30 P. M.
Leave Lowell for Concord at 12.30 P. M.
Leave Concord for Lowell at 8.30 A. M., and 5.30 P. M.
Leave Manchester for Concord and Lowell at 12.30 P. M.
Leave Concord for Lowell at 8.30 A. M., and from Boston at 5.30 P. M.
Leave Concord for Manchester at 8.30 A. M., and 5.30 P. M.
Leave Concord for Boston at 8.30 A. M., and 5.30 P. M.
Leave Concord for Lowell at 12

fly the pole and thin. She was leaning back in a monstrous arm chair, and her black dress gave a luxurious look and contrast to her pale, ill complexion and her coal black hair. Her eyes were closed, and her head was thrown back, but the moment she heard the door open she sprang up, and with a cry of joy, which showed how intensely she had been suffering, rushed forward to receive her husband. Behind him, however, was a tall, dark, and evidently foreign gentleman, who was keeping her ordinary visit. Her gay and careless manner, as she crossed the room, and her tone to the gentleman, showed that she was a practiced hostess. Her dress was of the richest and most elegant description, and her whole appearance was that of a lady of the first fashion. Her husband, on the contrary, was dressed in a plain suit of black, and looked like a man of business. He was a tall, handsome man, with a dark, thoughtful face, and a quiet, self-possessed manner. He was evidently very much attached to his wife, and was looking her ordinary visit. Her gay and careless manner, as she crossed the room, and her tone to the gentleman, showed that she was a practiced hostess. Her dress was of the richest and most elegant description, and her whole appearance was that of a lady of the first fashion. Her husband, on the contrary, was dressed in a plain suit of black, and looked like a man of business. He was a tall, handsome man, with a dark, thoughtful face, and a quiet, self-possessed manner. He was evidently very much attached to his wife, and was looking

---

CITY MATTERS.

Wood Dedicate Affairs. The Delegates appointed by the Common Council Boards met last night at the Common Council Room, City Hall, and organized by choosing Mr. Hall Chairman, and Mr. Bowers Secretary. For order Delegates to the County Convention. Ward 1—Hiram Wilson, Oliver Hovey, John Gordon, Ward 2—Joseph Gates, Ira Aiken, O. Parker, T. W. Wellington, Charles Edgerton.

Lowell Mechanics Association of Industrial Arts and the "Pirate's Legacy," both stirring musical entertainments, played this evening. For acting and full license for the order at this establishment. Go by night—laugh and be happy for a week.

Flora and the Muses. The grand floral and musical entertainment announced by Mr. Willey, with his juvenile minstrels, for Friday evening, in Huntington Hall, will be the crowning festival of the season. Let the people be there en masse—the Hall is large enough to accommodate a host.

Removed. Watson & Sargeant have removed their bookstore from Wentworth's Building to one of the large and handsome new stores in City Hall Building.

Cooper's Lager Beer. Watson & Sargeant, under the old City Hall Building, have just received the October number of this valuable and sterling miscellany and magazine. The present number is quite equal in character to the established reputation of the book. It contains numerous engravings, including patterns for embroidery and other ladies' work, music, &c.

Wednesday, Sept. 21. It is rumored here that France and England have joined in the remonstrance against the conduct of Com. Ingraham in the Koszta affair at Smyrna.

17 The Hungarians in New York have addressed a letter to Capt. Ingraham, thanking him for his manly conduct in the affair, and enclosed him $5 and costs. Bernard Higgins, for the officer, was fined $5 and costs.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

Arrivals—Port Mahon at Boston. By special telegraph despatch to the Courier we learn that Edwin C. Bailey has been appointed Post Master at Boston.

Congregational Farmers' and Mechanics' Annual Fair. The fourth annual exhibition of this Society, which is to be held in Lowell, takes place at Chelmsford Centre next Wednesday, 26th inst. This occasion will be one of considerable interest on account of the day being the two hundredth anniversary of the settlement of the town. An address, appropriate to the occasion, will be delivered by Dr. John C. Bartlett, of Chelmsford. We hope Lowell will be well represented on the occasion.

19 Wm. H. Dennis, (a Lowell boy,) now Civil Engineer of Tracy, N. Y., has resolved not to be reduced to so but to stereo hours a day.

17 The Secretary of War has issued an order convening the Medical Board for the examination of Assistant Surgeons, at New York on the 1st of October. The Surgeon-Generalship is now acting governor.

17 A colored man who undertook to get a living from the land of Uncle Sam, has become busy in northern New York, says the bumble-bee has to go down on the knees to get at de clover.

17 The amount of gold dust shipped from San Francisco during the past six months of the present year, is twenty-eight millions, nine hundred and ninety-nine thousand dollars. There was also shipped from Sonora and Sinaloa one thousand dollars in coin.

17 It appears that a "Mr A. L. MacLellan, Counsellor at Law," advertised for a party of July ovation in the village of Mt. Vernon, N. Y. The ovation was plagiarized almost entirely from the "Liberty" of Charles Sprague, Esq., of Boston, in the Old South Church, in 1825.

19 Dr. Miller, who seduced the wife of Alpheus Bowen, of Providence, and then murdered him while attempting to secure her from his bed, has been arrested in Jackson county, Florida.

19 John Chapman, the Sherburn murderer, is a native of Starks, Maine., and was brought up by religious parents who are members of the Methodist church.

17 The Wisconsin whig convention has nominated Henry L. Baird for Governor, Ignatius Finkney for Lieutenant Governor, J. A. Hadley for Secretary of State, and B. Pinkney for comptroller.

17 It was once said by a great commander—Prince Eugene of Savoy—that the most successful general records have commonly been those which have at once been raised to command, without having been employed in the petty evolutions and manœuvres which engage the attention of an inferior officer. We suspect that the same principle holds true in literature perhaps. The great tactics of statesmanship will, in general, be best understood by those who have had much practice in drilling petty squads.

A Vermonter Party. There was recently held in Shaftsbury, according to a correspondent of the Pittsburg Gazette, a party at which were assembled twenty-one persons, whose united ages amounted to 1841 years, making the average age of 77 1-2 years. The members were present with their wives, whose united ages amounted to 1001 years, the average age being 77 2-3 years. A dance was almost the only thing that was attempted, but the dancing was also been present, would have made the united ages 1041 years and the average 78 years.

Railroad to Cuba. On the second of September ground was broken by two hundred negro laborers for the extension of the Isacon Railroad to Cardenas.

17 It is stated that the Roman Catholics of California have succeeded in getting through the Legislature an act setting apart a portion of the Public School money for their benefit.

17 The first ship docked and loaded, that ever arrived in Paris, directly from the ocean, anchored in the Seine about a month since, and was the object of almost unprecedented curiosity to the denizens of that metropolis.

17 The corn and rye crop of the Connecticut river valley is universally superior to last year's yield. The potato crop is a good failure, in consequence of the rot. The tobacco yield is very large, and a half, under the name of George Bowen. He confesses the murder. A reward of $200 had been offered for his arrest by the Selectmen of Sprague. He has been apprehended in the Western part.

BY TELEGRAPH—Bain Line.

GREAT FIRE AT MANCHESTER, N.H.—PRINT WORKS BURNT.

One Million of Property Destroyed.

This morning the extensive D'Lion Print Works in Manchester, N. H., were discovered to be on fire. The fire was discovered first by J. P. Lord, the agent, who saw the light from his residence to the mill, he found that the fire was in the dry room, which was in the centre of the main mill. Mr Lord immediately entered the mill, closed the doors, gave the warning to the mill, and printing department, and then let on the water for fighting the flames, under a pressure of 80 lbs. to the inch.

This not checking the flames, he broke the main pipe in the centre of the building, which still produced no effect. All the hydrants were open in every department, but such was the dryness in the room that it was impossible to stay the progress of the flames, and they rapidly spread to every part of the building and by o'clock it was one mass of ruins.

The repairing, scouring and madder dye rooms, all separate from the main building, were saved—also the counting-room building. There was at at one time great danger to Granite Bridge, but it was stopped, as the wind blew from a defect in a flue. The loss must be nearly one million.

17 Sidney Webster, Esq., the President's private secretary, has returned to Washington from his visit to the East.

17 The pupils of several of the New York schools visited the Crystal Palace on Monday.

17 The Spartans used to whip a man for getting fat. Some of our modern Spartans among such a people.—Post.

17 John Hanley, aged about 70 years, committed suicide at his residence in this city this morning, by hanging. He was well known in this community as a market man.

Boston Exhibition
—OF—
SHAWLS, SILKS,
CLOAKS,
OTHER DRY GOODS,
—AT THE—
LADIES' EXCHANGE.

GEO. W. WARREN & Co.
Entire new stock just received of ALL the most desirable
FOREIGN & DOMESTIC DRY GOODS
HALF A MILLION DOLLARS VALUE
Many of which are of large stock to be sold at
GEO. W. WARREN & CO.,
190 Washington st.
sep19

TO WHOLESALE PURCHASERS
—OF—
RIBBONS, LACES,
EMBROIDERIES,
Silks, Velvets, Merinos,
HOSIERY, HANDKERCHIEFS,
MUSLINS & LINENS
GEO. TURNBULL & CO.
BOSTON,
Are now receiving their Fall Stock, and would invite the attention of Wholesale Purchasers to Winter Fabrics, which they are offering at unusually low prices. Their stock is complete in every department, and they are prepared to offer inducements to purchasers. sep20

AUCTION SALES.
Having a larger connexity in the Market, enables me to offer to my customers and the public generally, Goods at a less price than any other Auctioneer in Lowell. Sales every day at my Store, No. 3 Merrimack Square.
Geo. Turnbull & Co.,
273 WASHINGTON STREET, AND 8 & 10 WINTER STREET,
Boston, Sept. 11, 1855. sep12

THE PEOPLE'S CLOTHING STORE
—OF—
S. T. LANCASTER,
Nos 7 and 9 Appleton Block, Central st.
Has just received a large assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, Cassimeres and Asserters Doeskins, which he will make to order in the best manner, and at the lowest prices.
READY MADE CLOTHING
RICH FURNISHING GOODS.
All of which he will sell very low for cash.
☞ Remember, no one under the store through mistake. sep19

Fire Insurance.
METROPOLITAN FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE CO., Portland.
HOWARD FIRE INSURANCE CO., New Haven.
EQUITABLE M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Connecticut.
HAVERHILL M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Haverhill.
MECHANICS' M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Salem.
PEOPLE'S M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Boston.
FARMERS' M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Georgetown
Residence one Fairbanks and Appleton streets.
sep20

E. J. WIER & CO.,
COPPER, TIN PLATE & SHEET IRON WORKERS,
STOVES, HOLLOW WARE &c. &c.
No. 23 Merrimack street.
All orders promptly executed. sep15

THE Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Hallowell & Augusta Bank will be held at their Banking House, in Hallowell, on Monday, October 6th, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the choice of Directors, and the transaction of any other business that may legally come before them.
sep20 3w

MISS S. FLETCHER,
FEMALE PHYSICIAN.
May be consulted at No. 125 Merrimack street. She will see Ladies, for the present, at their residences, if they prefer it. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 to 5 P. M. sep20

ALBERT ROWER,
Fashionable Boot and Shoe Maker,
No. 2 Prescott Block, Merrimack st.
Lowell, Aug. 29, 1855.

HERRICK & TUTTLE,
HATTERS,
No. 5 Exchange Building, 37 Central street, (second floor,) Lowell. Custom work, of all kinds, promptly and elegantly done. sep20

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store.
JOSEPH T. JANES,
GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS,
No. 144 Merrimack street,
Lowell, Sept. 11, 1855. sep12

LEUCHSENRING BANK.
NOTICE is hereby given that the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Leuchsenring Bank will be held at the Banking House, on Monday, October 6th, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the choice of Directors, and the transaction of any other business that may legally come before them.
LEWIS HALL, President.
Lowell, Sept. 20, 1855. sep20 3w

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.
MIDDLESEX, ss. PROBATE COURT, Sept. 20, 1855.
ISAAC P. MORSE, Esquire, Guardian of ELIZABETH A. HOLDEN, of Lowell, in said County, Widow, and Heir-at-Law of ALFRED G. HARDY, late of Lowell, in said County, Deceased, intestate, has presented his petition for a license to sell and convey at private sale the following described real estate of said deceased, viz: the undivided one-third part of Mrs. Holden's dwelling house and land, situated on Merrimack street, in Lowell, and numbered 153 on said street, bounded as follows, viz: Northerly by land of Mrs. Holden, Easterly by Merrimack street, Southerly by land of Mrs. Holden, and Westerly by land of Mrs. Holden.
And said petitioner prays that he may be licensed to sell and convey the same at private sale, for the purpose of paying the debts of said deceased.
Ordered, That the petitioner give notice to all persons interested in said estate, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Lowell Daily Journal and Courier, three successive weeks, previous to the 4th day of October next, that they may appear at a Probate Court then to be held at Lowell, in said County of Middlesex, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.
By the Court.
Attest: JOHN PARKER, Register.
A true copy of the original order.
Attest: JOHN PARKER, Register.
sep20 3w

ISAAC P. MORSE,
Guardian of ELIZABETH A. HOLDEN.

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY,
EASTPORT, MAINE.
Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1853.
Capital, $100,000.
DIRECTORS.
Geo. Peabody, Eastport, Maine. Wm. Pierce, Calais, Me.
Geo. W. Wheeler, " Alvin Dockham, "
Jos. Eaton, Jr., " Wm. Hobart, "
I. C. Pierce, Albany, N. Y. Geo. Eaton, "
Wm. Hall, Jr., Eastport, Me. Wm. Pitt Fessenden, Portland, Me.
Isaac Hawley, Troy, "
Applications for Agencies may be promptly addressed to the Company.
GEO. PEABODY, President.
WM. HALL, Jr., Secretary.
sep20 3m

Boston and Island Navigation Ride.
A week open to shall be adequate to the security of the Public, and the convenience of Passengers, the Steamer will leave Lowell for Boston, every morning at 7 o'clock.
Returning, leave Boston at 5 o'clock P. M.
sep20

FIRE INSURANCE.
OFFICE—NO. 16 APPLETON BLOCK.
Mutual Protection and Merchant Insurance Company, of Providence.
CAPITAL, $200,000
Assets, 300,000
Liabilities, 200,000
Surplus, 100,000
Insures Dwelling Houses, Stores, Factories, Furniture, Merchandise, &c., on favorable terms.
Also, Agent for the Lowell and Hartford Joint Stock Life Insurance Company. Rates of premium same as those of Mutual Companies.
sep20 3m

STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO.
OF WORCESTER, MASS.
Capital, $100,000.
JOHN DAVIS, Pres. | CLARENDON HARRIS, Sec.
This very reasonable Company is now ready to transact business with those seeking insurance on favorable terms. Having commenced a new Agency in Lowell, I am prepared to receive applications for insurance. By the new system insured is secured to the Company, and the Company to the insured. Policies issued on the most favorable terms. Call and examine for yourself. For further information apply to JOHN C. PARKER, Agent,
Office in Hyman's Exchange.
sep20

THE CALIFORNIA MUTUAL MARINE and Inland Life Insurance Company, of San Francisco, California.
GEO. W. STORRS, Agent.
Jan. 31, 1855. sep20 1y

609 Washington Street.
The only manufacturers of Coleman's Patent Rotary Action Piano Fortes.
☞ A large assortment of Coleman's Patent Rotary Action Piano Fortes without the Rotary Attachment, always on hand. Also, a large assortment of Piano Fortes of other makers, which will be sold at the lowest prices, for cash or approved credit.
GEO. HEBARD, 39 Central st., Lowell.
GEO. HEBARD & CO., 609 Washington st., Boston.
Pianos to let, and Tuning and Repairing promptly attended to by T. Gilbert & Co.
Lowell, Sept. 1, 1855. sep11

IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC CIGARS.
C. W. STEWARD, 46 No. 20 Central st., Lowell, has just received from Cuba and Germany, and has always on hand, a large assortment of Cigars, which he will sell at wholesale or retail, at the lowest prices. Dealers will find it for their interest to call before purchasing elsewhere, as he will sell as cheap as can be bought in Boston.
Among his stock may be found the following brands, viz:
Regalia Grande, Regalia Britannia,
Regalia Media, Regalia Imperiales,
Regalia Cortez, Regalia Conchas,
Yara Principes, Regalia Reinas,
Yara Reinas, Regalia Primeras Hermosa,
Regalia Primeras Hermosa Rosa.
CELEBRATED CUBA CIGAR.
All Cigars warranted as represented, or no sale. Satisfactory terms will be afforded.
sep20

"A SPLENDID REMEDY."
Dorivine's Nervous Antidote or Lozenges,
THE WONDER OF THE WORLD.
For Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Consumption, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Pain in the Side, Back or Chest, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Tic Doloureux, Sick Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Hysterics, Spasms, Fits, Epilepsy, Palpitation of the Heart, Difficult Breathing, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Irregularities, Suppressions, Whites, Nervous Irritability, Debility, Sick Stomach, Vomiting, Loss of Appetite, Impurities of the Blood, Fevers, Ague and Fever, Intermittent Fever, Typhus Fever, Yellow Fever, Scarlet Fever, Typhoid Fever, Erysipelas, Measles, Small Pox, Mumps, Chicken Pox, Whitlow, Felon, Boils, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Gout, Piles, Fistula, Worms, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Colic, Cramps, Pains and Aches of all kinds, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Gravel, Stone in the Bladder, Retention of Urine, Incontinence of Urine, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Female Complaints, Barrenness, Sterility, Abortions, Miscarriages, Uterine Obstructions, Inflammations, Ulcerations, Prolapsus Uteri, Falling of the Womb, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Suppressions, Irregularities, Painful Menstruation, Change of Life, Diseases of Infants, Nursing Sore Mouth, Canker, Rash, Disorders arising from Dentition, Disorders brought on by Indiscretion, Exposure, Intemperance, Dissipation, Secret Habits, Impotency, Sterility, Involuntary Discharges, Spermatorrhœa, Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Nervous Irritability, Hypochondria, Blues, Mental Depression, Loss of Memory, Softening of the Brain, Paralysis, Epilepsy or Falling Sickness, Diseases of the Heart, Organic Weakness, Diseases of the Digestive Organs, Nervous Complaints of every name and nature, and Diseases of a Private Nature, however induced, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing, are speedily, thoroughly and permanently cured by the use of DORIVINE'S NERVOUS ANTIDOTE OR LOZENGES.
Prepared only by Dr. DORIVINE, Chemist, No. 120 Nassau street, New York.
Price $1 per box, or six boxes for $5.
Sent by mail to any part of the United States, Canada or California, on receipt of the money.
Sold by Druggists generally throughout the United States, Canada and California.
Agents wanted in every town in the United States, Canada and California.
Dr. DORIVINE may be consulted at his office, No. 120 Nassau street, New York, daily, from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Dr. DORIVINE, Chemist, No. 120 Nassau street, New York.
sep20 3m

TO FARMERS.

BEHOLD what to make a change in location and an increase in business, I will sell my entire stock of IMPLEMENTS, MACHINES and SEEDS at a sacrifice. Those wishing to purchase will find it to their interest to call at my store, No. 49 Central street, Lowell, Mass., where they will find a large assortment of Agricultural Implements, from Ox Yoke to Cart, Plough to Harrow, Cultivator to Horse Rake, Corn Sheller to Fanning Mill, Churns of all sizes and patterns, Grain Cradles, Scythes, Rakes, Forks, Hoes, Shovels, Spades, Axes, Hatchets, Hay Knives, Cutting Box, Corn Knives, Garden Rakes, Hoes, Spades, Shovels, Forks, Trowels, Pruning Knives, Shears, Saws, Hay Cutters, Grass Scythes, Grain Scythes, Grass Cradles, Grain Cradles, Rye Cradles, Hay Rakes, Horse Rakes, Hand Rakes, Hay Forks, Manure Forks, Spading

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 23 1853. NO. 4177.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.
TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.
Subscriptions payable in advance at the Office.
Office—No. 37 CENTRAL STREET,
(Adjoining the Post Office.)

Advertisements inserted at $1 per square for three insertions, and 25 cts. per square for each subsequent insertion. Those who advertise by the year, will be entitled to one square, Twelve lines or less constituting a square.

Notices and Marriages inserted gratuitously. Deaths charged as usual.

The Proprietor will not be responsible for the errors of others in advertisements, nor for the omission of insertion of notices, except to the extent of the amount received for such notices.

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG OF 17 YEARS STANDING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Alder, Doctor of Cow Green, Sedgefield, County of Durham, dated May 21st, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR—I am happy to inform you that my wife (who is now 67 years of age) has been cured of a bad leg of 17 years standing, by the use of your Ointment and Pills. For seventeen years she was afflicted with a most painful and obstinate ulcer on her leg, which prevented her from walking for the greater part of that time. Every other remedy had proved useless, and we had given up all hope of her ever being cured, when we were induced, by reading your advertisement, to try your Ointment and Pills, and, to our great joy, before she had used the first box, she began to feel relief, and by persevering with them for about three months, she was completely cured, and has been able to walk ever since. I am thankful to say that I am now in the enjoyment of good health, and am 70 years of age. I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

WILLIAM ALDER.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR—I have much pleasure in informing you that I have been cured of a most obstinate and dangerous Cough and Spitting of Blood, by the use of your Pills and Ointment. I had been under the care of a physician for nearly twelve months, and was reduced to a mere skeleton, and had given up all hope of ever being better, when I was induced to try your Pills and Ointment, and, to my surprise, before I had taken a dozen doses I found myself much better, and by persevering with them for a few months I was completely restored to health. I am now in the enjoyment of good health, and can recommend your Pills and Ointment to all persons afflicted with Coughs, Colds, or Consumption, as I am sure they will find them the best medicine in the world. I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

JAMES SMITH.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Graham Bell, Builder of Cow Green, Sedgefield, County of Durham, dated May 21st, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR—I have much pleasure in informing you that my wife has been cured of Sore Breasts by the use of your Ointment and Pills. She had been under the care of a surgeon for nearly twelve months, and was reduced to a mere skeleton, and had given up all hope of ever being better, when I was induced to try your Pills and Ointment, and, to my surprise, before she had taken a dozen doses she found herself much better, and by persevering with them for a few months she was completely restored to health. She is now in the enjoyment of good health, and can recommend your Pills and Ointment to all persons afflicted with Sore Breasts, as I am sure they will find them the best medicine in the world. I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

JAMES BELL.

Sold by the Proprietor, 244 Strand, (near Temple Bar), London, and by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the United States, at the following prices: 25 cents, 62½ cents, $1, $2, $3, $5, and $10 each.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disease are affixed to each box.

Dec. 20, 1852. 1y

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
NEATLY & PROMPTLY EXECUTED
AT THE "OFFICE OF THE
Lowell Daily Journal and Courier,
By S. J. Varney.

WILLIAM AMES,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
Southern Block, Central street,
LOWELL.

J. N. BEARD,
Counsellor at Law,
mch19 Lowell, Mass.

DEAN & DENSMORE,
ATTORNEYS and COUNSELLORS at LAW,
Office—5 Kent street, BOSTON.
DENS. DEAN, J. DENSMORE.
ly14

JOHN HAYNARD,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Prescriptions accurately prepared, and Medicines carefully selected and all sold warranted genuine.
apr23

CUSHING & HACK,
DEPOT OF DUNBAR'S
STOVES, HOLLOW WARE, &c., &c.
Manufactory, Nos. 1 and 2 Middle street, Lowell.
DAN. ALCUSHING, (1851) EPHRAIM G. HACK.

LOWELL & NEWELL,
CIVIL ENGINEERS AND SURVEYORS,
Hydraulic & Mechanical Engineering,
No. 5 Saunders Block Building,
(Entrance on Merrimack Street Passage.)
Refer to Locks & Canals, Lowell.
" J. B. FRANCIS, Esq.
ARVIN PROUT,
SURVEYOR OF LUMBER,
Residence at Wood,
At Wm. Livingstone's Office, Thorndike street,
LOWELL.
ap23

ABEL WHITNEY,
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND STATIONER,
Merrimack Square,
ACCOUNT BOOKS MADE TO ORDER.
Agent for the Pocket Cutlery of Rodgers & Son, Sheffield.
Also, Agent for the Patent Rubber Stamps.
Aug. 6, 1851. ly

A. P. GROSVENOR,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Corner of Central and Church sts., Chocorua Block,
sept24 eod3m

WEAVER & BROTHERS,
No. 1 Central, and 26 Shattuck street,
Dealers and Commission Merchants in
ALL KINDS OF MERCHANT AND FOREIGN FURS.
Orders, Packages and Letters from Agents of all kinds, and Factors and Packers from all sections, promptly attended to.
Jan. 1, 1853. ly

J. COBURN,
GRAIN,
FLOUR, MEAL AND HAY,
No. 14 Merrimack street, opposite Bridgeway,
Cash paid for Rye, Corn and Oats.
apr2 ly

COBURN & MIRR,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS:
AND DEALERS IN
SPERM, WHALE, LARD AND LINSEED
OILS, CANDLES, &c.
Factory Lechmere, Boston, Eagle Cove, Tenn.
Office, Portland, Me.
BUTTER, CHEESE, PORK, LARD AND SALT,
Also, Agents for Lowell,
Bottom street,
Cash Advances made. JOHN MIRR.

JOHN PEARSON,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN
W. I. GOODS, GROCERIES, PROVISIONS AND DOMESTIC PRODUCE, &c.,
No. 2 Merrimack Square, Lowell.
(Late from Messrs Rogers' Boarding House.)
Cash paid for Rye, Corn and Oats.
apr23

SAMUEL RIDDER, JR.,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY
Corner of Central and Church sts.,
Opposite Universalist Church.
Prescriptions—Medicines delivered to any part of the city.
apr23

STEPHEN MANSUR,
DEALER IN
HARD CROCKERY, GLASS AND CHINA WARE,
Gentlemen's Tools, &c. &c.
No. 3 Merrimack Square,
Lowell.

P. S. MACURDY,
HATTER,
Prescott Block, Lowell.
Hats sold cheap for Cash. Hats, Cts., Hat, or Cottage, to order.
ap23

W. C. GRAY,
DEPUTY SHERIFF,
Commissioner Block, Central street,
Over Southern Block,
LOWELL, MASS.
Orders received by Mail or Express will be promptly attended to.
mch26

C. & E. BUTLER & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
Pembroke Street Building, Corner of Central,
Proprietors of Butler's Sarsaparilla, Liverwort and Tar Cordial, Cherry Pectoral, Cough Drops, Hair Dye, Cologne, Lavender Salts, Pain Killer, Tooth Powder, Cough Candy, Pain Killer, Tooth Powder, Cough Candy, Pain Killer, Tooth Powder, Cough Candy

The cracks and crevices in the countries which, according to the old privileged Continental system, are constantly sounded by explorers, and their reports are never very reassuring; we now move and more convinced of the impossibility of dividing and dissolving this, our political, capacity really fitted to reveal to us the secret of its own existence, we can no better guard ourselves than the villagers can prevent Dukes and Commanders.—[Edinburgh Review.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Friday, September 26, 1852.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

A Whig Convention of the County of Middlesex, will assemble at Concord, on Tuesday, the 5th day of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating a Whig County Ticket.

By order of the Whig County Committee.

JOHN S. KEYES, Secretary.

Concord, September 7, 1852. 7tod11

A WORD OR TWO.—The lingering editor of the American will one day become distinguished. As a word-painter he has long since depicted ignorance he imagines that few besides him know whether Tamerlane and Timour the Tartar were one or two persons. We cannot pass over his misstatement without one parcel of the Constitutional Convention that Tamerlane's name, among his own countrymen, was Timour-Lenk, that is, Timour the Lame, and that Tamerlane is a corruption. Even supposing that

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 24, 1853. NO. 4178.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

Payments will be required in advance in all cases.

Office—No. 27 CENTRAL STREET.

(Up stairs, entrance next door to the Post Office.)

Advertisements inserted at 81 per square for three insertions, and 25 cents per square for each subsequent insertion—to be paid for in advance, in all cases where the parties are not known to be responsible.

Yearly and Semi-annual advertisements inserted at reduced prices, and no variation from the established rates.

Job Printing executed with neatness and despatch. All orders for printing will be considered as standing orders, and will be kept standing until countermanded, unless otherwise directed.

The Lowell Weekly Journal, a paper of the largest class, is published every Saturday morning, at $2 00 per annum, if paid within three months from the time of subscribing; $2 50 if paid within the year; and $3 00 if not paid within the year. No subscription taken for a less period than six months, and no paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publishers.

Letters and communications by mail must be post paid, except in the case of subscribers.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
EXECUTED WITH NEATNESS AND DESPATCH
AT THE "FOOT OF THE"
Lowell Daily Journal & Courier,
No. 27 CENTRAL STREET.

WILLIAM S. GARDNER,
ATTORNEY AT LAW AND SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY,
Hamilton Block, Central street, opposite the Merrimack House.
LOWELL, MASS. tf

MORSE & GLEASON,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Office over Merrimack Bank, Merrimack Square,
LOWELL.
L. S. Morse, E. B. Gleason. dec29

DEAN & DESHON,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Office—Merrimack Square, NORTHEAST CORNER,
Entrance on Merrimack street. LOWELL. tf

JOHN HAYWARD,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
No. 17, Merrimack Square.
Prescriptions carefully prepared, and Medicines faithfully dispensed at all hours of the day and night. apr30 tf

CUSHING & MACK,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
STOVES, ROLLER RANGES, &c., &c.
Kossuth Story of the Sad Chrysanthi Church,
LOWELL.
DAN CUSHING, } (Late) SAMUEL G. MACK.

JOHN PITKIN,
CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR,
Hydraulic Engineering and Mechanical Draughting,
No. 27 CENTRAL STREET,
(Lately occupied by Franklin Parker.)
Reference—J. P. Worcester, Esq., Dracut. tf

AZEL PRICE,
SURVEYOR OF LUMBER,
Residence at Mr. Livingston's Office, Thorndike st.,
LOWELL, MASS. tf

MEASURER OF WOOD,
At Wm. Livingston's Office, Thorndike st.,
LOWELL, MASS. tf

ABEL WHITNEY,
(SUCCESSOR TO MILTON BARRY)
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND STATIONER,
26 Merrimack street,
ACCURACY OF ASSORTMENT ORDER.
Agent for the Sunday School Union, Tract and Missionary Societies.
Agent for Fire, Life and Health Insurance. tf

A. P. GROVENOR,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Corner of Central and Jackson streets, Corporation.

WHEATON & BROWN,
No. 7 Central street, and at Merrimack street,
DEALERS IN
ALL KINDS OF GRAIN AND FINE FURNITURE.
Glauber, Epsom, Cream Tart and Rose Leaf
Saleratus, Pearlash, Cream Tartar,
Lemon Glasses, Cruets, Castors,
&c., &c., &c. C. G. WHEATON.

J. COBURN,
FLOUR, MEAL, GRAIN, &c.,
No. 15 CENTRAL STREET,
Flour supplied and Goods delivered to order. apr2

COBURN & BIXBY,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS:
DEALERS IN
SPERM, WHALE, LARD AND LINSEED OILS; POTASH & ASH;
Factory: Located on the Merrimack Canal, Tyngs Canal, Pollard, Boston, &c.; Factory and Store: BUTTER, CHEESE, POTASH, SALT, &c.
Nos. 1 and 2 Merrimack Building,
Dummer street. [nov12]

JOHN PEARSON,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN
W. I. GOODS, GROCERIES, PROVISION AND DOMESTIC GOODS,
No. 2 Savings Bank Building,
(In the Room formerly occupied by Hall & Whitney.)
Merrimack st., Lowell, Mass.

SAMUEL HIDDEN, Jr.,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY
(Corner of Merrimack and Jackson streets,
LOWELL, MASS.
N. B. Patent medicines put up in packages for Peddlers' Prescriptions carefully prepared. [ap30 tf

STEPHEN HANSON,
DEALER IN
HARD CROCKERY, GLASS AND CHINA WARE,
No. 119 Gorham street.

E. B. MERRIAM,
SLATER,
Prompt attention to orders left at
No. 27 South corner Main, Thorndike, Elm, or Cooper, in the Yard. tf

WM. S. GRAY,
DEPUTY SHERIFF,
CONVEYANCER, BROKER AND AGENT,
Exchange, No. 4 Central street,
LOWELL.
Orders received by Mail or Express will be promptly attended to. [apr30

C. S. HASTMAN & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
Prescriptions Opening Books and Blessed Wine, CORNER STORE, STEARNS'S EXCHANGE,
LOWELL. tf

DAVID BAIN,
OPPOSITE P. O. SPACE FOUNDER, AND TYPE-FOUNTS WORKER,
Authorized Agent for the Lowell Daily Journal and Courier.
All orders promptly executed. tf

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INS COMPANY,
JERSEY CITY.
Office—No. 21 CENTRAL STREET, LOWELL.

HENRY HOWARD,
DRAPER AND TAILOR,
No. 11 Merrimack Square,
Corner of Elm and Merrimack streets.

DENTISTRY.
DR. CARLTON & PERRY,
SURGEON DENTISTS,
No. 3, Central Street, Merrimack Square,
Corner of Elm and Merrimack streets.

DENTISTRY.

BUSINESS CARDS.

REEDS AND HARNESSES,
Office No. 40 Appleton street,
Mechanics Building, Entrance on Lower Merrimack st.
D. C. BROWN,
MIDDLE STREET, NEAR THE POST OFFICE, LOWELL.
New Factory, Middlesex. Harness Factory, Warren st
may27

NOTICE.
This is to notify that GEORGE HERRICK is no longer in my employ for the last six years, and is now, my own agent in love and variety for the sale of my Patent Pulley, and cautioning persons not to purchase any instruments with attempt to use my name, as I shall not be responsible for any debts of his contracting. All persons indebted to me are hereby notified to call and settle immediately, or they will be put into the hands of an officer for collection.
Lowell, Nov. 19th, 1852. FREDERICK PARKER.

Fire Insurance.
OFFICE, No. 31 APPLETON BLOCK
AMERICAN INSURANCE COMPANY OF PROVIDENCE, R. I.
CAPITAL $ 150,000.
W. HUMPHREY, Sec'y. ALLEN O. PECK, Pres't
AVIATION FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY, PROVIDENCE, R. I.
CAPITAL $150,000.
R. STEVENS, Sec'y. ROBERT MAURAN, Pres't
SPRINGFIELD FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY, SPRINGFIELD, MASS.
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $150,000.
WILLIAM CONVERSE, President.
WESTERN MASSACHUSETTS FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, SPRINGFIELD, MASS.
CAPITAL $150,000.
J. G. GOODRICH, Sec'y. CHAS. COLEY, Pres't.
MECHANICS' AND FARMERS' MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF NORWICH, CONN.
C. L. PUTNAM, Sec'y. ISAAC DAVIS, Pres't.
The above named Companies, which are among the most responsible in the country, will insure on the property in Lowell and vicinity on the most favorable terms. Applications for insurance, and for the renewal of policies and Premium Notes, may be left at the office of the subscriber, or at No. 31 Appleton Block, Central street.
JAMES H. DRAKE.
Lowell, Oct. 29, 1852. 3m

LOWELL TRADERS' AND MECHANICS' MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.
OFFICE—CORNER BUILDING, CENTRAL ST.
CAPITAL AND PREMIUM NOTES ..... $1,000,000.
ABSOLUTE AND CONDITIONAL FUNDS, ... $1,000,000.
Directors:
SEWALL CARLETON, Thomas Nesmith,
Andrew C. Wheeler, Thomas J. Coburn,
Thomas Hadley, Jr., Thomas C. Cushing,
C. F. Blanchard, James Draper.
SEWALL CARLETON, President.
C. F. BLANCHARD, Secretary.
RELIABLE LIFE INSURANCE, ON A CASH PLAN.
$2,500,000.
SURPLUS $250,351!
THE NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY, of Lowell, England, incorporated by Royal Charter, with a paid up capital of £500,000 sterling, and the advantage of a large and profitable business, offer to the citizens of Lowell the security of their well known name, and the following advantages, which are not to be found in any other Life Insurance Company in the world:
1st. The Premium for Insurance may be made in the Bonds of the United States.
2d. The Premium for Insurance may be made in the Bonds of the State of Massachusetts.
3d. The Premium for Insurance may be made in the Bonds of the City of Lowell.
4th. The Premium for Insurance may be made in the Bonds of the City of Boston.
FREDERICK PARKER, Agent,
Lowell, Nov. 11, 1852. No. 31 Appleton Block.

UNITED STATES
LIFE INSURANCE,
ANNUITY AND TRUST COMPANY,
OF PHILADELPHIA.
CAPITAL $1,000,000 DOLLARS.
CASH PREMIUMS RECEIVED.
No Premium Notes, and no Assessments.
CHARLES G. IMBRIE, President.
PLINY FISK, Actuary.
Office—Merrimack House, Lowell,
Every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.
GEORGE H. BAYDS, General Agent.
Also Agent for the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, and the Ætna Life Insurance Company of Hartford.
Human Life Insurance effected on the most favorable terms.
Dec. 20, 1852. 1y

MUTUAL BENEFIT
Life Insurance Company,
CHARTER PERPETUAL.
CAPITAL AND Premium Notes ..... $1,000,000.
Number of Policies Issued 7,791
Amount of Policies Insured $12,000,000
Robert G. Pennington, Pres't. Wm. C. Alexander, Sec'y.
Robert H. Gourlay, Vice Pres't. Robert A. Chew, Actuary.
Wm. C. Alexander, Assistant Secretary.
Executive Committee.
Robert G. Pennington, Andrew J. Stevens,
Robert H. Gourlay, Andrew S. Hallett,
Wm. C. Alexander, Jacob Harvey, Jr.,
Robert L. Patterson, Jacob Lorillard,
Robert C. Cornell, Vice Pres.
Medical Examiners.
Wm. Darrach, M. D., Consulting Physician.
Robert Bethune, M. D., Consulting Physician.
Wm. Darrach, Jr., M. D., Consulting Physician.
Wm. Darrach, Jr., M. D., Consulting Physician.
Wm. Darrach, Jr.,

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Saturday, September 24, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with one of the Whig State General Committee, a Whig State Convention will be held at Worcester, on TUESDAY, the 27th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M. for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary, Treasurer and Auditor of the Commonwealth, and two Members of Congress-at-large, to be supported at the ensuing November election; to be entitled in the General Court as elected; and Governor, Lieut. Governor, SAMUEL HOAR, Secretary.

August 20, 1853.

WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Whig Convention for the County of Middlesex, will be held at CONCORD, on TUESDAY, the 11th day of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M. for the purpose of nominating candidates for the State Senate.

The several Towns and Wards of the County are requested to elect delegates equal to three times the number of Representatives to which they are entitled in the General Court, and to forward the names of them, in season to attend said Convention.

SAMUEL HOAR, Secretary.

Isaac F. Bullard, Sec'y.

Concord, Sept. 1, 1853. 4ostd11

The Patriot-Orator Haggler.

This illustrious Irishman, whose brilliant orations have filled like angelic benedictions on the sympathising masses of our people in all quarters of the country, has yet been made the victim of an unfriendly, factious an opposition, from certain members of the politico-religious press, that will not permit the proper enjoyment of his first visit his subsided, to notice somewhat of his views on our national records.

For ourselves, we cannot understand why this worthy fugitive from foreign injustice should have been assailed on the butt of any man's malignity; we cannot perceive why objurgation should be visited on the head of one who, though tried as few men had ever been tried before, has never been false to his down-trodden country. Are his opponents friends to Old Ireland? so is he. What then should hinder their union? Why he should they cast obloquy on his fame?—Why should they not cheerfully hail him as their avowed and attached friends and commingle their tears with his, as he portrayed in those deep, impassioned, soul-stirring strains and the genius, the large hopes and the horror-scaling aspirations that were buried in the grave of the great Henry Grattan?

May not personal ambition have had to do with this? It may not have been that the manly policy advocated by the patriot Meagher tended to prejudice the prospects of one eldern with-pritchet, whose sagacity the archipelagoes cannot satisfy? Why else this opposition?—Why else this hollow apathy for the good old cause for which Daniel O'Connell in the Senate and Robert Emmet on the scaffold?

And such a fugitive, he landed among us in New York; an exile, without a country—uncertain of everything, save that, come what might, he was a Man, and would assert his manhood at any rate; with a reverence for God and the godlike in man; poor in the eye of wealth; and almost in genius, talent in the highest gifts, in the noblest traits of the race; with a wealth of imagination; pronounced for being right, and proscribed for not being wrong; full of the active-inergy in character; rich in sensibility; with a mine of valuable and rare learning, culled from Grecian and Roman history, from authors in all ages and countries, from ancient and modern literature; with more honor than a college of wit-crackers; versatile in gifts and powers of mind—unfathomable, as eloquent in mission and history and topics; his speech "a rich brogue," his habit sublimated nitrics; a man which the world "will not let die;" pleading that noblest cause, the loftiest ever pleaded by mortal lips, the cause of a perishing and sinning Nation.

This cause of his was that of a race, venerable in age, hoary in sorrow, peeled to the very white-heat of spoonodia, but patriotic fruary; long oppressed, long trodden under the best and head of the nations; battling against the world with marble constancy, hereafter to be a Nation—hereafter to be free! His cause was worthy of his advocate; the advocate was quite worthy of his cause. From those who, in themselves, judged his ethereal ill-advised or ill-mannered, can testify to this. Betrayed, outraged, persecuted, proscribed—amid disaffection at home and obloquy abroad—he sought to deliver that Nation from its thraldom, to bring that people forth from their long house of bondage, and to create a Republican sun among that black firmament of Conservative night!

Of all sorts and conditions of men he held the confidence and the sympathy. Everywhere were men glad to greet him; glad to be inspired and dazzled and amused by his brilliant diction, play of the most gorgeous rhetoric, by the resplendant scintillations of his Olympian genius, by the quick-flashing lightning of his analysis, by the mountain thunder of his logic, sensing through as pell-mell weighing a world with its power, each gorgeous as Mt. Blanc in his pride; basking in the warmth and cheerfulness of the Attic charm of his Democratic eloquence, in the magic spell of his enchantment!

Astonished with him here, his passion for an expiring nation, he traversed the length and breadth of the country, and met crowds and crowds, millions of all those of life, in all places of life; in gospel pulpits, in banquet halls, in theatres, in senate halls, in halls of legislation, among the remembrancers of the grandest and noblest, of by-gone scenes. In Boston, in Faneuil Hall; by Bunker Hill, where he made the gemel shaft speak out in tones so eloquent as his own; in New York, at Philadelphia, at Washington, at Cincinnati; in millions of admiring listeners; he unfolded his sad story, and let us know what manner of a man he was—a Republican did none reward to his presence to shake the hand of friendship as it struggled in the pressure. Freedom did weep—tears of all ranks and degrees flock to his arms to breathe over his lonely forehead the genial baptism of their, heaven breathe.

And everywhere, we think the real-interest of Mr. Meagher by certain members of this sectarian press, wholly unjustifiable and unmerited; and we regard it as the second duty of all to justify the cause of injured and oppressed humanity.

The New Constitution or Texas. The Legislature of Texas has taken the first step preparatory to enter the Union in one of the very silent arguments which has yet appeared.—The clause in the new Constitution reads as follows:

"It is all trials for criminal offences, the jury, after hearing the charge of the instructor of the Court, shall have the right in their verdict of guilty or not guilty, to determine the law and the facts of the case, but it shall be the duty of the Court to instruct the jury in the course of the trial, to decide upon the admission and rejection of evidence, and in his charge to the jury after delivering the trials and upon all evidence and the decision of questions of law and to allow bills of exceptions. And the Court may grant a new trial in case of misconduct."

The writer thinks that the clause reads admirably intended to be enforced in one place of such. It is: "The jury shall say whether the law against carrying dirk in the pocket is constitutional or not, in case the jury is of opinion that the law was unconstitutional, they would find the defendant not guilty. In the case of a slave—If any man on the jury thinks Congress had no right to pass the fugitive slave law, it should not be passed!" But it cannot be said of either the one or the other of these laws unless it applies to all laws.

There is a mistaken notion, that the Jury must find their verdict, Guilty or Not Guilty, without the right to find a general verdict, which is in fact the true state of the case.

The erroneous opinion that the learned Sir William Blackstone favored the policy of making justice judges of law as well as of fact, may be certified by the following extract from his Commentaries:

"When the evidence on both sides is closed, and indeed when any evidence hath been given, the jury cannot be discharged (unless in case of evident necessity) till they have given in their verdict; but are to consider of it and deliver it in, with the same forms as upon civil causes; they may (and usually do) consult upon their verdict in any private room, under the custody of proper officers, without meat or drink, unless by consent of the judge, which however is not usual in any case, except that of a corporation, where the custody of the mayor is sufficient. But they are not to converse with any stranger, nor even among themselves to separate from each other, nor to return to the court, till they are agreed in their verdict; unless, after they withdraw, the court thinks proper to adjourn, and then they are to be conducted to their respective inns by proper officers, to be ready to appear when called. And this is the reason why juries in cases of felony are kept so long without meat or drink, because they cannot be allowed to eat or drink at their own charges, and the sheriff is not bound to furnish them with any sustenance."

Beyond all question the above is and long has been the common law of England and has been the law of Massachusetts ever since the settlement of the country, unless the people adopt the work of the Convention upon the subject.

Any attempt to fortify this article of the common law-dealing juries by the language of Lord Erskine, must prove abortive. That great man has declared that it was the province of the jury to decide the law; he claimed that in cases of libel the character of the alleged libellous matter and the character of the author were questions of fact, and therefore to be determined by the jury as matters of law, but because they were matters of fact. Said he—

"I do not seek to exert powers into legislators or citizens; there must be a rule of action in every society, which it is the duty of the Legislature to construct, and of Courts to enforce, when created. I only support their right to determine guilty or innocence, where the matter charged is blended by the general issue with questions of the character. Such are libels, where the quality of the act itself, even independent of that, is not material, and consequently where precise principle or precedent of law, but is inseparably connected with the time when the place were, and the circumstances under which the defendant acted."

It is clear, therefore, that the clause in the new constitution, not only is in accordance with the views of Lord Erskine, but does not settle the principle upon which he was at issue with Judge Buller.

The Democracy and the Maine Law. At the Democratic State Convention held recently at Portland the following resolution in favor of the Maine Law was adopted amid great cheering:

Resolved, That all sumptuary laws controlling the natural rights of the people, are repugnant to the Democratic creed, and that it is the duty of the statute known as the Maine Liquor Law, in one of the most odious and offensive illustrations of that class of despotic and intermeddling enactments, it ought to be promptly repealed, as it was with the good morals which it pretended to observe, and with the private rights of the citizen, and with the free spirit of our institutions.

Defying the necessity of conciliating the Temperance, the Abolition Convention of Worcester declined to express an opinion on the Maine Law question. Dogberry suits them better than open, above-board conduct.

Determined to have a national democratic, open, and regular intercourse in Convention at Boston—and Shall.

Resolved, That as the possession of a Press devoted to the support of our National and State policy is indispensable to the success of the Democracy in the Commonwealth, this Convention earnestly recommend to the friends of National Union, a newspaper proposed to be published in Boston by Messrs. Rogers and Ellis, to be the organ and liberal support of the National Democracy.

It is high time that some paper was started to sustain the president; his vacillating course exhibits a prominence in weakness.

The New Constitution finds no favor in the eyes of the democratic party. None but the abolitionized democrats vouchsafe to support it. In the series of resolutions adopted at their late Convention, the National Democrats say:

That we however impossibly find ourselves constitution of Massachusetts may demand amendments, none are to be supported unworthy of the impartial and patriotic character of our people but such as are the result of the controlling principles of the legitimate democracy of the State, upholding the equal and unlimited spirit of the people and for posterity; that the adoption of the Constitution of the ratification of the people, although presenting some objectionable features, is entitled to the support of the democracy, will prove an obstacle in the way of the democracy, will prove an obstacle in the way of repeal it, collectively, as having failed to accomplish the objects for which it was framed by them of the freedom of election among a democratic people, and as being unsatisfactory to the liberties, as declared by its coalition associates, to perpetuate the free soil party in this Commonwealth.

Lt The Firemen's Muster at Natick yesterday, seems to have been anything but a happy affair. At the dinner table in the afternoon several of the firemen began pelting each other with the superfluous fruit, &c., which was succeeded by the free use of the crockery, knives and forks, &c., the upsetting of the tables, breaking down of the settees, &c., and the usual result marked the scene. Some four or five hundred of the rowdies then got hold of the hose, and by swaying it on one side, they soon brought it to the ground, badly injuring and defacing it. Expostulations and remonstrances from the Marshal and his aids, the captains of several of the companies, and others, were of no avail, and the disgraceful proceedings were then it takes us to tell the story, the mischief was entirely accomplished, and cast all the want the rowdies satisfied. Mr Sherman received his pay for the dinner in advance, and is probably made the value of the crockery, which is not small.

The New Orleans Epidemic.—New York, Sept. 20. S. O. Harris, an active member of the New Orleans Howard Association, has just arrived in the city. He states that when he left the disease there had entirely subsided from the district he had in charge. He thinks the fever, if not fed by immigration, will have the city before the first of October, but he cautions people against returning until there is an entire removal of cause. Up to the 8th the Howard Association had taken charge of about 5000 patients, at a cost of from $14 to $15 each. This whole number of cases so far as reported is 16,000, and of deaths, 8,000. The Association had received $90,000 in subscriptions throughout the country.—$18,000 has been the amount subscribed.

Democratic Tyranny. At the recent abolition Democratic Convention at Worcester, Kimball Hoster was the self-constituted chairman of the Committee on Resolutions. A resolve for the repeal of the fugitive slave law, with the exception of the 3d section, which was his duty to report to the Convention, he deliberately put his foot on and spat out the juice of his tobacco. Democratic!!!

LOUIS STRACK.

He is gone from among us—from earth—from every-be the hope of the Democracy of Massachusetts. He is sleeping his last sleep, as waking which knows no more the cold, chilled grave, in his final resting. For long years he was with us, his presence in office, his friendship, a prize to us, valued and dear. These years unbidden seemed here now, but, no, with the last tear, has gone to the dead! For brief months as yet have scarce rounded away, Since his—how cold—was the hand now lying dead by, Which, though outdoned our hearts, yet the latest hailed Alas! was that honor our fond hopes to fright!

Yet, he is gone! Disease, with its fatal shaft, Though his vigor was waning, health's rose was gone, For his path still his heart that he took would be still. Then again the fell arrow came and did its work, And consummation the thought to strike; But, no forgiven the spark just before its gone, Yet, he is gone! He is now in the tomb.

For distant land scenes of his own cherished home; Where his children, to grow, he was once with them; Many sisters and brothers he drew his last breath. Surrounded by friends, he died almost in death.

We regret that those sisters and kind friends were not, Who was afterwards arrested in the words may Ayer's New City. Subsequently Dunsen, one of the party, went to jail to see his company. Can they see this side more sympathy? Haven but poor doors, fed to last lingering cry; Yet, he is gone! He is now in the tomb.

Our Pastor and Friend whom we come loved so well,

CITY MATTERS.

NOTICE.

The Delegates to the State Convention, which assembles at Fitchburg on Wednesday, the 28th inst., are requested to meet at the Lowell Machine Shop, on MONDAY EVENING, 8pm. 8th, to fill vacancies.

per order.

For order.

State Whig Convention. Arrangements have been made to convey Delegates, and all who may wish to attend the Convention at Fitchburg on the 28th inst., over the Stony Brook and Fitchburg Railroads at half price, leaving Lowell every morning train, which leaves at quarter past seven o'clock. Delegates from the adjoining towns can avail themselves of the same arrangements, if desirable.

Lt The quarterly meeting of the Lowell Sabbath School Union will be holden at the Second Church to-morrow (Sunday) morning, at 7 o'clock.

Lt Rev. Mr. Howe, Pastor of the John street Baptist Church in this city, will commence a course of lectures to young people on Sabbath evening next, at half past six o'clock.

Lt We regret to learn the death of Mr. Allen Haggett, long known as the gentlemanly ticket seller of the Nashua and Lowell Railroad, which occurred at his residence, on High street, yesterday morning, of typhoid fever. Mr H. resigned his station on the road last spring on account of ill health.

Daring Robbery. Last night the sleeping room of the Cr Davis Brothers' in Nesmith's block was entered while the occupants were asleep, and robbed of $700 in bank bills, on the following checks: $172 on the Pleasant St. Exchange Bank, Portsmouth, N. H., all of which were marked O. W. Pembelton on the back; $10 on the Chasm Bank; Portland, Me.; $5 on the Webster Bank, Boston, and $10 on the Manufacturers Bank, Worcester, Mass. Fifty dollars reward is offered for the recovery of the property.

Mr. Wood's Concert. The Floral Concert given last evening at Huntington Hall by Mr Willey's Juvenile Class was a very excellent affair, while creditable to the gentleman himself and his school. We were both surprised and gratified at the musical talent displayed on the occasion, and particularly with the Chorus performances, which spoke loudly in praise of the careful and thorough instruction.

The Seine by the "Rose," "Dahlia," "Tulip" and "Reclaus" elicited our special attention.

We were also pleased to see so large and respectable an audience giving countenance to such an exhibition. Who that was present, can for a moment doubt the expediency of public instruction in that which so manifestly and effectually results in the cultivation of refinement, good taste, and general feeling, as every part of last evening's performances so strikingly proved?

Museum.—The "Vicar of Wakefield" is to be performed at the Museum, this afternoon.

Police Court.—Sept. 24. Yesterday, three cases came on to assault on three boys at Hale's Mills, the cause of which we did not learn; but the matter seemed to lead to quite a disturbance, and the Congregational Society was called and arrested Patrick Gallagher, when he was rescued from one of the party, but afterwards Sanders re-arrested Gallagher, with the assistance of Mr Benj. Willoughby, whom he struck for his resistance, when James Cary, a youngster, threw a stone at Willoughby, knocking him down and injuring him severely. Cary was afterwards arrested in the words may Ayer's New City. Subsequently Dunsen, one of the party, went to jail to see his company. Can they see this side more sympathy? Haven but poor doors, fed to last lingering cry; Yet, he is gone! He is now in the tomb.

Lt The Firemen's Muster at Natick yesterday, seems to have been anything but a happy affair. At the dinner table in the afternoon several of the firemen began pelting each other with the superfluous fruit, &c., which was succeeded by the free use of the crockery, knives and forks, &c., the upsetting of the tables, breaking down of the settees, &c., and the usual result marked the scene. Some four or five hundred of the rowdies then got hold of the hose, and by swaying it on one side, they soon brought it to the ground, badly injuring and defacing it. Expostulations and remonstrances from the Marshal and his aids, the captains of several of the companies, and others, were of no avail, and the disgraceful proceedings were then it takes us to tell the story, the mischief was entirely accomplished, and cast all the want the rowdies satisfied. Mr Sherman received his pay for the dinner in advance, and is probably made the value of the crockery, which is not small.

The New Orleans Epidemic.—New York, Sept. 20. S. O. Harris, an active member of the New Orleans Howard Association, has just arrived in the city. He states that when he left the disease there had entirely subsided from the district he had in charge. He thinks the fever, if not fed by immigration, will have the city before the first of October, but he cautions people against returning until there is an entire removal of cause. Up to the 8th the Howard Association had taken charge of about 5000 patients, at a cost of from $14 to $15 each. This whole number of cases so far as reported is 16,000, and of deaths, 8,000. The Association had received $90,000 in subscriptions throughout the country.—$18,000 has been the amount subscribed.

Democratic Tyranny. At the recent abolition Democratic Convention at Worcester, Kimball Hoster was the self-constituted chairman of the Committee on Resolutions. A resolve for the repeal of the fugitive slave law, with the exception of the 3d section, which was his duty to report to the Convention, he deliberately put his foot on and spat out the juice of his tobacco. Democratic!!!

GENERAL SUMMARY.

Lt We are indebted to the Hon. Edward Everett for copies of the Boston papers.

Lt We are indebted to Hon. John W. Weeks, of this city, for valuable public documents.

White State Convention. Waldham Delegates—George W. Lyman, Horatio Moore, G. A. Somerby, Samuel Kendall, R. Nichols.

Substitutes—Robenzer Hobbs, D. A. Kimball, F. Coolidge, E. Fiersons, Thomas Daniels.

County Conventions. Delegates—Josiah Nutter, James O. Moore, Windsor Fairbanks, R. Warren, Charles Hosmer.

Substitutes—Wm. Hobbs, Josiah Hastings, George Chalmers, W. S. Howard, W. A. Adams.

Lawson Cases. We learn that warrants have been issued in Waltham and adjoining towns, against several liquor dealers in that vicinity, made returnable to the Lowell Police Court, and that they will be tried here next week.

Lt Dire—That "Colonel Long John Abbott, of the Nexus," formerly "Colonel Long John Abbott, of the Mexican War," has retired from the Chair of the Editorial department, and assumed the newspaper proprietors in New England to offer him an editorial chair.

Sessions Accounts. Yesterday morning, early, Bartholomew Keefe, one of the night gang of stokers at the Rolling Mill, City Point, was arrested, charged with one of the large drums when he stumbled and fell directly upon it. He was committed to appear at the Police Court, and that they will be tried here next week.

Beyond all question the above is and long has been the common law of England and has been the law of Massachusetts ever since the settlement of the country, unless the people adopt the work of the Convention upon the subject.

Any attempt to fortify this article of the common law-dealing juries by the language of Lord Erskine, must prove abortive. That great man has declared that it was the province of the jury to decide the law; he claimed that in cases of libel the character of the alleged libellous matter and the character of the author were questions of fact, and therefore to be determined by the jury as matters of law, but because they were matters of fact. Said he—

"I do not seek to exert powers into legislators or citizens; there must be a rule of action in every society, which it is the duty of the Legislature to construct, and of Courts to enforce, when created. I only support their right to determine guilty or innocence, where the matter charged is blended by the general issue with questions of the character. Such are libels, where the quality of the act itself, even independent of that, is not material, and consequently where precise principle or precedent of law, but is inseparably connected with the time when the place were, and the circumstances under which the defendant acted."

It is clear, therefore, that the clause in the new constitution, not only is in accordance with the views of Lord Erskine, but does not settle the principle upon which he was at issue with Judge Buller.

The Democracy and the Maine Law. At the Democratic State Convention held recently at Portland the following resolution in favor of the Maine Law was adopted amid great cheering:

Resolved, That all sumptuary laws controlling the natural rights of the people, are repugnant to the Democratic creed, and that it is the duty of the statute known as the Maine Liquor Law, in one of the most odious and offensive illustrations of that class of despotic and intermeddling enactments, it ought to be promptly repealed, as it was with the good morals which it pretended to observe, and with the private rights of the citizen, and with the free spirit of our institutions.

Defying the necessity of conciliating the Temperance, the Abolition Convention of Worcester declined to express an opinion on the Maine Law question. Dogberry suits them better than open, above-board conduct.

Determined to have a national democratic, open, and regular intercourse in Convention at Boston—and Shall.

Resolved, That as the possession of a Press devoted to the support of our National and State policy is indispensable to the success of the Democracy in the Commonwealth, this Convention earnestly recommend to the friends of National Union, a newspaper proposed to be published in Boston by Messrs. Rogers and Ellis, to be the organ and liberal support of the National Democracy.

It is high time that some paper was started to sustain the president; his vacillating course exhibits a prominence in weakness.

The New Constitution finds no favor in the eyes of the democratic party. None but the abolitionized democrats vouchsafe to support it. In the series of resolutions adopted at their late Convention, the National Democrats say:

That we however impossibly find ourselves constitution of Massachusetts may demand amendments, none are to be supported unworthy of the impartial and patriotic character of our people but such as are the result of the controlling principles of the legitimate democracy of the State, upholding the equal and unlimited spirit of the people and for posterity; that the adoption of the Constitution of the ratification of the people, although presenting some objectionable features, is entitled to the support of the democracy, will prove an obstacle in the way of the democracy, will prove an obstacle in the way of repeal it, collectively, as having failed to accomplish the objects for which it was framed by them of the freedom of election among a democratic people, and as being unsatisfactory to the liberties, as declared by its coalition associates, to perpetuate the free soil party in this Commonwealth.

Lt The Firemen's Muster at Natick yesterday, seems to have been anything but a happy affair. At the dinner table in the afternoon several of the firemen began pelting each other with the superfluous fruit, &c., which was succeeded by the free use of the crockery, knives and forks, &c., the upsetting of the tables, breaking down of the settees, &c., and the usual result marked the scene. Some four or five hundred of the rowdies then got hold of the hose, and by swaying it on one side, they soon brought it to the ground, badly injuring and defacing it. Expostulations and remonstrances from the Marshal and his aids, the captains of several of the companies, and others, were of no avail, and the disgraceful proceedings were then it takes us to tell the story, the mischief was entirely accomplished, and cast all the want the rowdies satisfied. Mr Sherman received his pay for the dinner in advance, and is probably made the value of the crockery, which is not small.

The New Orleans Epidemic.—New York, Sept. 20. S. O. Harris, an active member of the New Orleans Howard Association, has just arrived in the city. He states that when he left the disease there had entirely subsided from the district he had in charge. He thinks the fever, if not fed by immigration, will have the city before the first of October, but he cautions people against returning until there is an entire removal of cause. Up to the 8th the Howard Association had taken charge of about 5000 patients, at a cost of from $14 to $15 each. This whole number of cases so far as reported is 16,000, and of deaths, 8,000. The Association had received $90,000 in subscriptions throughout the country.—$18,000 has been the amount subscribed.

Democratic Tyranny. At the recent abolition Democratic Convention at Worcester, Kimball Hoster was the self-constituted chairman of the Committee on Resolutions. A resolve for the repeal of the fugitive slave law, with the exception of the 3d section, which was his duty to report to the Convention, he deliberately put his foot on and spat out the juice of his tobacco. Democratic!!!

HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE CO.,
HARTFORD, CONN.

Persons wishing to effect insurance on their lives would do well to call at the office of the Agent, in Lowell, at No. 3 Appleton Block, over Elegant Vestibule.

The Company have been in operation for 20 years, and have paid over $1,000,000 losses by fire.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 12 M. and from 2 to 4 P. M.

JOHN BURKHARD, Agent.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. 3m

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY,
MILWAUKIE, WISCONSIN.

Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1850.

Paid and Securely Invested—Surplus from 40,000 to 50,000 Dollars.

DIRECTORS:

Peter Hoffman, N. Y., Lemuel Pomeroy, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Wm. H. Russell, " Lyman Dennison, " "
Wm. Bard, " Alfred Conkling, " "
Wm. Kemble, " Thomas Emerson, " "
J. V. L. Pruyn, Albany, J. F. Darby, " "
Wm. Parker, Troy, N. Y. Wm. Worthington, Milwaukie, Wis.
Wm. Hamilton, " " Jno. Plankinton, " "
A. B. Hawley, " "

Rates of Premium and Interest low.

Policies issued on favorable terms throughout the United States.

Paid in Lowell by J. B. Hayes, S. Kidder, Jr., and C. H. Gibbs.

IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC CIGARS.

G. W. Ayer & Co., No. 29 Merrimack st., Lowell, have just received a large assortment of Imported and Domestic Cigars, which they will sell at wholesale and retail, at the lowest prices.

Also, a large assortment of Pipes, Tobacco and Snuff, which they will sell by the quantity or single pound, at the lowest prices. Call and examine for yourself.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. 3m

CELEBRATED CUBA CIGAR.

G. W. Ayer & Co., No. 29 Merrimack st., Lowell, have just received a large assortment of the celebrated Cuba Cigar, which they will sell at wholesale and retail, at the lowest prices.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. 3m

Dr. Brown's Vegetable Tincture" gives tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and is the best remedy in every member of the entire system; the tone, then, the nervous system, and the whole constitution in healthy action, which is first, to clean heart, open the pores of the skin, and regulate the secretions of the glands and membranes of lining, when always follows a healthy state of brain and mind and vigor, and every nerve is again restoring to sound life and health. Dr. Brown's Vegetable Tincture" is composed of the purest vegetable extracts, and contains no mineral. Policies issued for either of the above sellers, by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by J. P. Bancroft & Co., Lowell, Sept. 10, 1853.

Lt Why what has Ayer and Hatfield John Buck Life Insurance Company, Philadelphia, issued the 1st policy of Mutual Company.

Lowell, Sept. 10, 1853. 3m

STATE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., Incorporated by the Legislature of Massachusetts, 1844.

JOHN DAVIS, President.
CLARENDON HARRIS, Secretary.

Policies issued on the most favorable terms. Applications with them examined. Being connected with the Company, I am prepared to effect insurance of Insurance. By law the interest derived is secured to the individual insured, and is not liable for the debts of the Company. Office in Lowell, No. 3 Appleton Block, over Elegant Vestibule. For further information apply to J. B. HAYES, Agent.

S. KIDDER, Jr.,
C. H. GIBBS,
Office in Warren's Buildings.

Lowell, Sept. 10, 1853. 3m

CALIFORNIA GOLD MINES and Life Insurance Company, for the best investment extant. Apply to A. W. STICKNEY, Agent.

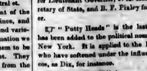
Jan. 21, 1853. 3m



400 Washington Street.

The only establishment in Boston with Patent Boiler Attachment for Steamboilers.

Lt A large assortment of Pianos, Melodeons, Piano Fixtures, &c., at wholesale, at Messrs. Chickering, Hallet, Davis & Co.'s Manufactory, at Boston, and warranted to give satisfaction, or the money will be refunded. Also, a large assortment of Pianos, Melodeons, &c., at GEO. HEDRICK, 36 Central st., Lowell.

Lt Mr. GILBERT is, with a single attention, the best Barber we have ever had in Lowell, and we say it from experience. He is always ready to wait upon you by day or night, and his shop is the best manner—and he keeps it in the best manner. Those who want a good shave, or a fashionable hair cut, will find the country, then call on Mr. GILBERT.

Lt Those in want of Boots and Shoes will find a large assortment, with other papers, and for honesty and fair dealing, will find no difficulty in getting what they want. Those who want a good shave, or a fashionable hair cut, will find the country, then call on Mr. GILBERT.

Lt The Depot for Dr. Hibbard's Wild Cherry Bitters, Dr. Brown's Vegetable Tincture, Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, Dr. Ayer's Hair Vigor, Dr. Ayer's Pills, for sale by J. P. Bancroft & Co., Lowell, Sept. 10, 1853. 3m

Lt Dr. Curtis's Cough Syrup, Balsam of Anise, Pectoral Drops, Liniment, and Sugar Coated FEMININE, TONIC & APERIENT PILLS, MADE FROM VEGETABLE EXTRACTS, SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.

DATE UNKNOWN.

COAL.—Lehigh (Mauch Chunk), Cumberland (Cross Creek), Pittston, for the trade, or in large or smaller lots.

WOOD.—Hard and Soft, Long and Short, by the cord, or in any quantity to suit purchasers.

FLOUR AND GRAIN—A constant supply of all standard brands.

BEEF, PORK, LARD, HAMS—Mess, Western Prime, Cargo, Chicago Smoked, Dried Beef, &c., in first store.

PROVISIONS—Boston Crackers, Pilot Bread, Butter, Cheese, Lard, Lemon, Butter, Sperm, Tallow, Adamantine, Star and Sperm CANDLES.

CHOCOLATE—Rose Brand, Vanilla, Cocoa, Broma.

CRYSTALLIZED—Soda, Concord Sugar, Loaf, Crushed, Powdered, Granulated, Coffee, Crushed and Brown SUGARS.

GROCERIES—Spices, Ground and Unground, Saleratus, Soda, Cream Tartar, Starch, Rice, Farina, Pearl Barley, Pearl Sago, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Macaroni, Mustard, Pepper Sauce, Soups, Pickles, Preserves, Jellies, Fruits, Nuts, Raisins, Figs, Dates, Prunes, Candies, Molasses, Syrups, Vinegar, Saltpetre, Rosin, Indigo, Matches, Blacking, Brushes, Twine, Wicking, Paper, Pails, Tubs, Brooms, Washboards, Clothes Pins, Starch, Blue, Soap, Pipes, Tobacco, Snuff, Cigars, &c., &c., for sale by

JOSEPH BAYNES.

LUCCA SALAD OIL.

WE have just received another original package of this superior article, which we offer for sale at a small advance in bottles or by the gallon.

JOSEPH BAYNES.

COLD SODA CRACKERS.—If the very favorable opinion of the public is any criterion, we shall continue to keep at all times the best article in Boston.

JOSEPH BAYNES.

BRANDIES.—Otard, Dupuy & Co.'s Superior Pale, Brandies this day to be the best article in Lowell—warranted to be pure and of the finest brands which import. For sale by BAYNES, 42 Central st. 42tf

LEMONS.—Just received, a large assortment of Lemons, Oranges and Sweetmeats, which we offer at the lowest market rates. Also, Lemon Syrup, Lemon Extract, Lemon Oil, &c., for sale by JOSEPH BAYNES.

COLD SODA CRACKERS.—Just received, a large supply of Cold Soda Crackers, which we offer at the lowest market rates. Also, Pilot Bread, Butter Crackers, Sugar Crackers, Wine Biscuit, Boston Crackers, &c., for sale by JOSEPH BAYNES.

CHOCOLATE.—Rose Brand, Vanilla, Cocoa and Broma Chocolate, for sale by JOSEPH BAYNES.

CRYSTALLIZED SODA.—Concord Sugar Crystallized Soda, put up in 1 lb. packages, for sale by JOSEPH BAYNES.

CRUSHED, POWDERED & GRANULATED SUGARS, for sale by JOSEPH BAYNES.

COFFEE.—Prime Java and Mocha Coffee, for sale by JOSEPH BAYNES.

SPICES.—Ground and Unground Spices, for sale by JOSEPH BAYNES.

SALERATUS, SODA, CREAM TARTAR, STARCH, RICE, FARINA, PEARL BARLEY, PEARL SAGO, TAPIOCA, VERMICELLI, MACARONI, MUSTARD, PEPPER SAUCE, SOUPS, PICKLES, PRESERVES, JELLIES, FRUITS, NUTS, RAISINS, FIGS, DATES, PRUNES, CANDIES, MOLASSES, SYRUPS, VINEGAR, SALTPETRE, ROSIN, INDIGO, MATCHES, BLACKING, BRUSHES, TWINE, WICKING, PAPER, PAILS, TUBS, BROOMS, WASHBOARDS, CLOTHES PINS, STARCH, BLUE, SOAP, PIPES, TOBACCO, SNUFF, CIGARS, &c., &c., for sale by JOSEPH BAYNES.

EXCELSIOR HAIR TONIC!

A powerful VEGETABLE PREPARATION for promoting the Growth, Preservation and Beauty of the HAIR.

THIS above has been thoroughly tested, and the result has been the most astonishing success. Its use is confined to restoring the Hair to its original color, when it is a tendency to turn grey, prevent the falling of the hair, and, in most cases, restore it to a rich, glossy and healthy condition for curling, eradicate the accumulation of dandruff, and keep the head free and cool. It is highly recommended to those who are troubled with Humors in the head, as a preventive of the same. Those having a pretty agreeable preparation, in the shape of a Hair Dressing, will find it

BALDNESS! BALDNESS!!

Should not be discouraged, as the use of a few bottles of the above will restore a new growth of hair in the course of two months. Sold at the Excelsior Hair Tonic Depot, 14 Merrimack street, Lowell.

CAUTION FOR LOOSENESS OF THE HAIR.

If this disease be neglected, it will prove the precursor of BALDNESS, which will be found to be the case in nine cases out of ten. Such persons will find a speedy remedy in the use of the Excelsior Hair Tonic.

DANDRUFF AND SCURF.

This disorder, in most cases owing to neglect on a weak state of the system, will be found to be the result of the use of the wrong ingredients, or the application of the same that is not suitable to the hair.

DANDRUFF!!

If you would be relieved of dandruff, and the diseases which are generally attendant upon it, you will find a speedy remedy in the use of the Excelsior Hair Tonic. It will speedily remove the dandruff, cleansing, curing and invigorating the scalp, and leaving it in a healthy state.

CHILDREN.—It may be used upon the heads of children with the most perfect safety.

Prepared and for sale by D. B. COLBY, Apothecary, Springfield, Mass. Price, 62½ cents, $1, $1 75 and $2 50 per bottle.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers in Patent Medicines, and Fancy Goods generally.

Wholesale and retail Agents for Lowell, J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries, 33 Central street.

D. B. COLBY, Agt. Springfield, Mass.

Over Seaborn's Jewelry Store.

Post Office Corner, (Up Stairs.)

Where may be found a fresh supply of Gossage, Perry, Old Brown Windsor, Low Dark and Transparent CHAMBERLAIN'S Pinch and Perry TOOTH-SOAPS—Also, Perry's Tooth Powder, Tooth Brushes, &c., &c. Also, a full assortment of Fancy Chalks and Perfumery, suited to all palates. Ladies and Gentlemen are invited to call and examine for themselves. Every Garment warranted to be as represented, or the money will be cheerfully refunded.

CARLETON & BRO.

apr14 ly Agents for Lowell.

JEWELLER'S NOTICE.

A NEW and splendid assortment of Jewellery, just received from the Importers, for sale by J. F. HOPPINGS, over Bridge and Kirk st.

PERFUMERY.

LUBIN'S Genuine Extracts, Cologne, Pinbeck's Essences, Bouquet du Roi, Otto—Vetiver—Sweet Ivy—For sale by A. P. CROSWELL.

mar29 Bridge and Kirk sts.

OIL AND RICE MEAL.

100 tons OIL MEAL in bbls. for sale low. Rice Meal, for sale at the lowest cash prices by

WM. WEST & SON.

WHITE WAX.—A superior article, just received and for sale by WM. WEST & SON.

WM. WEST & SON, Corner of Merrimack and John sts.

NEW BOOKS.

JUST received, a new stock of Books, for sale at the lowest cash prices by

J. F. HOPPINGS, over Bridge and Kirk sts.

WHITE'S DENTAIFE BALSAM.

A SAFE for Mouth's Sweet, Sound and Healthy Teeth, and Breath Sweet as Incense. Prepared and sold by Dr. WHITE, Lowell, and Druggists and Fancy Goods dealers on the same terms that I sell them.

SIDNEY HUNT, Proprietor.

PIANOS.—The subscriber has just received 12 Pianos, from the celebrated manufactory of Chickering & Sons, Boston, which he will sell at the lowest cash prices. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

J. F. WALKER, 51 Merrimack st.

NEW MUSIC BOOKS.—Tucker's Collection of Church Music, for the use of Choirs and Singing Schools. Also, Hastings' Church Music, for sale by J. F. WALKER, 51 Merrimack st.

WATCHES.—The best assortment that is to be found in any store in town, for sale by DAVIS, 3 Merrimack st.

FOREIGN SILVER COIN WANTED.

THE highest price will be paid for Foreign Silver Coin, by J. F. WHITNEY, 51 Merrimack st.

WATCH REPAIRING.

WATCHES, Clocks, Jewelry and Fancy Goods repaired in the best manner, and warranted, by DAVIS, 3 Merrimack st.

WATCH GLASSES.

A LARGE assortment of Watch Glasses, for sale by DAVIS, 3 Merrimack st.

PIANOS.—A new lot of fine and low priced Pianos, for sale by J. F. WHITNEY, 51 Merrimack st.

SEAL, PRESENTATION & DIRECTORY CURB CHAINS.

SEAL and Curb Chains, for sale by J. F. WHITNEY, Merrimack st.

SEALS.

500 Seals of all descriptions, for sale by J. F. WHITNEY, 51 Merrimack st.

WATCHES.

WATCHES warranted as represented, for sale by J. F. WHITNEY, Merrimack st.

WINDOW GLASS.

500 Boxes of Window Glass, for sale by

WM. WEST & SON.

TOOTH POWDER.

WHITE'S Dentaife Tooth Powder, is for sale by the principal Druggists and Fancy Goods dealers on the same terms that I sell them.

SIDNEY HUNT, Proprietor.

A. KITTREDGE,

MIDDLE STREET,

1500 SOLAR PAPER HANGINGS—just received, consisting in part of Gilt, Velvet, Satin, Damask, Rosewood, Marble, Stone, Oak, Mahogany, Walnut and Gilt Borders, Centre Pieces, Curtain Drapery, Fringes and Tassels, Gilt and Velvet Cornices, Window Shades, &c., &c., which will be sold at the lowest prices.

A. KITTREDGE.

NUTTING'S FAR-FAMED PATENT.

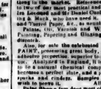
THIS long established article of Woodware is getting universal approbation, for the reason that there is no other article of Woodware that will stand the test, as this the many different situations it is required to do. Its superiority consists in the manner of constructing. A wooden hoop in the ordinary way, is made right, forcing out the air and dust, without in the least compressing the fibres of the wood, as in the case of the Nutting & Hall Hoop, and when soaked in water, will leave your wooden-ware to be removed from the frame at any time, and will not shrink, swell or warp, as is usual in any article. In short, it is the most durable, simple and economical article ever offered to the public.

Lowell, May 10, 1853. may10ly

NEW TAILORING SALOON,

Over Seaborn's Jewelry Store.

Post Office Corner, (Up Stairs.)



Where may be found a fresh supply of Gossage, Perry, Old Brown Windsor, Low Dark and Transparent CHAMBERLAIN'S Pinch and Perry TOOTH-SOAPS—Also, Perry's Tooth Powder, Tooth Brushes, &c., &c. Also, a full assortment of Fancy Chalks and Perfumery, suited to all palates. Ladies and Gentlemen are invited to call and examine for themselves. Every Garment warranted to be as represented, or the money will be cheerfully refunded.

D. B. COLBY, Agt.

apr14 Agents for Lowell.

SKELTON'S TRICOFLUON,

OR HAIR INVIGORATOR.

THIS new and valuable preparation entirely fills the long felt want of a reliable article for the Hair. Prepared only by C. P. SKELTON, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST, Manchester, N. H.

Sold at the Lowell Depot, 264 Merrimack street, Lowell, by A. P. CROSWELL, Bridge and Kirk sts.

New Freight Arrangement

BETWEEN LOWELL AND NEW YORK.

THE Proprietors of the Lowell and New York Freight Line, would respectfully announce to the public that they have made a new arrangement with the Boston & Lowell Railroad Company, by which they will run a Freight Train daily between Lowell and New York, leaving Lowell at 5 P. M. and arriving in New York the next morning at 10 o'clock. This arrangement will enable them to offer superior facilities for the transportation of freight, and they respectfully solicit the patronage of all those who wish to ship goods between the above points.

For further information apply to W. H. GRAHAM, Agent, Lowell Depot, or to WM. H. BROWN, Agent, Boston & Lowell Depot, Causeway st., Boston, or to MASON & CO., Pier No. 11 N. R., New York.

may3 ly

1000 OIL PAINTS, &c.

1000 Gallo English Linseed Oil;

1000 " Boiled do do

1000 " Raw do do

1000 " Coach Varnish; 12 Furniture do;

1000 " Rubbing Varnish;

1000 " Kelley & Co's Light Japan;

1000 " Coach Japan, Dark;

1000 " Boiled Japan;

1000 " Raw do

10 casks Boston Rosin;

10 " Spirits Turpentine;

10 " Venice Turpentine;

10 " Thomas's Extra Pale Green;

10 " Thomas's Extra Pale Chrome Green;

10 cases Chrome Yellow; 10 do do Green;

10 " Prussian Blue; 10 " Ultramarine;

COMSTOCK & MIER,

Banks 'n' Building, Dutton st.

apr1

FACTORY LATHES.

500 Lathes do do

500 " Spindles;

1 " Spool Lathe;

1 " Bobbin Lathe;

1 " Spool Reel;

1 " Bobbin Reel;

1 " Spool Machine;

1 " Spool Header;

1 " Bobbin Header;

COMSTOCK & MIER,

Banks 'n' Building, Dutton st.

apr1

500 FACTORY LATHES.

500 Lathes do do

500 " Spindles;

100 extra Cast do;

100 " Steel do;

100 " Spool Lathes;

100 " Bobbin do;

100 " Spool Reels;

100 " Bobbin do;

100 " Spool Machines;

100 " Spool Headers

Massive basing been effected by a change in the place of his trial, the meaning of which, supposing it to have any foundation, is that he was first brought to trial before the Camilla Committee, a comparatively a popular body, in which the phrase had not yet caught, which would not condemn him; and then he was tried before the Camilla Circuit Court, and the general assembly, as to call it, of the public, and in which the plebeian had the upper hand. It was by this latter body that he was condemned to death as a traitor, and under whose sentence he was thrown from the Tarpeian Rock. He was abhorred by the patricians, while his memory was reverenced by the plebeians. To talk of such a case as having fallen a victim to "Rome's democratic rabble" is to pervert history, not to throw light upon it; and Roman history is not so well understood as to be able to stand any additional perversion at the hands of modern writers.

Again, our author has put three words into the mouth of Cattiline, when addressing the here of his tale, "Patricians be we, and not slaves, cayest thou." Come tell me then, did the patrician blood of the grand Gracchi preserve them from a shameful doom, because they dared to speak, as free-born men, aloud and freely? Did his patrician blood save Fulvius Flaccus?" Now, whether Catiline was a bad man or not, there is no reason for believing that he was an ignorance, as any Roman would have proved himself who should have spoken of the Gracchi as patricians. They belonged to the Sempronian Gens and were plebeians. Nor was Fulvius Flaccus a patrician. He was a member of the Fulvian gens, which belonged to the plebeians, and it was not even Roman in its character and location until after the dispersion between the tarquins had become considerably advanced. Another mistake of Mr Butler's is in making the hero, Arvina, a patrician, and yet a member of the Cecelia gens, which was, though one of the most noble-est of the Roman houses, plebeian in its social and political character. But, though plebeians at Rome, the Cecilii were patricians of Praeneste. It was in this gens that the Metelli belonged, one of the haughtiest and most aristocratical of the Roman families. What we understand by the word aristocracy has little meaning in connection with Roman affairs. In the days before the Roman Constitution had become fixed, the great aristocratical leaders of the party of the optimates were merely plebeians, while not a few of the chiefs of the democratic party were patricians, the most conspicuous of the number being Julius Cæsar himself. His great ancestor, Pompeius, was a plebeian, as were many others of the leaders of the democratic party that was struck down at Pharsalia, and cut up root and branch at Philippi. The distinction of patrician and plebeian were kept up at Rome until her last days, but the Roman nobility did not consist merely of patricians, and nobility itself did not depend upon the "order" to which those who shared it belonged. It would require some room then we bestow upon the subject to show why this was so.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Monday, September 26, 1853.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In accordance with a vote of the Whig Central Committee, a WHIG STATE CONVENTION will be held at Worcester, on WEDNESDAY, the 12th day of October next, at 10 o'clock A. M. for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary, Treasurer, Auditor and Attorney General.

The several Towns and Cities of the County are requested to choose delegates to the above Convention on the basis of Representatives to which they are entitled in the Legislature of the present year.

By order of the Whig Central Committee.

JOHN B. LAMB, Chairman.
ISAAC P. DAVIS, Sec'y.
September 7, 1853. 3mtil

THE TEN-HOUR MEN of this city held a meeting on Saturday evening last, at Jackson Hall. Adams, Butler, and Young did the talking. The article in Thursday's Courier was made the staple of all their speeches. We were sorry that it was written in a somewhat extravagant style; but it served admirably as the raw material for caucus buncom, the style being pitched, as Kurnal Bostin would say, "for political effect." All allusions to a certain gentleman whose name report has connected with this paper, were designed to provoke public misunderstanding, they will fail to accomplish their object. That gentleman is ill not be likely to enter upon a personal war with Mr Butler, still less with Mr Adams. Whatever he may say of them with reference to their political conscientiousness, he has nothing to do with them as private individuals.

The allusions to the Courier as the "organ of the corporations," were simply contemptible. The Courier is the organ of its own publisher. It is the organ of nothing else; corporation, or other "body." Nothing could be more ridiculous than the logic used by the redoutable Kurnal and the other gentlemen who addressed the meeting, in reference to the recent retrenchment in the hours of labor. Without unnecessary verbiage, it was a retrospect of the facts.

The operatives petitioned for the retrenchment, urging the severity of the former system. The directors of the mills acceded to the prayer of the petitioners, admitting the necessity of retrenchment. Mr Butler pronounces this act unequivocal endorsement of his position;—we do not see that it affirms. What, then, is his position? If we understand him, he maintains that labor should be regulated by statute. But has the retirement system otherwise of the short hour system in other plans, and to a view of their own interest, enlightened somewhat by the light of humanity."

A SCRIBNITUS FOR SCRIBNITTUS. Elliot & Co., of this city, says the N. Y. Evening Post, have adopted, with success, a system of electrotyping moulds taken of type in wax, which is said to have a decided advantage over ordinary stereotyping. The process is a very simple one: Having taken a mould of the type in wax, they put it into a solution of copper, and apply to it a powerful galvanic battery, which causes the copper to be deposited with such accuracy upon the mould as to make a perfect copper face, which will last much longer than the ordinary metal face, without costing any more. They process seems indeed almost perfect. We understand that the Messrs. Harpers contemplate using it for their establishment.

THE ADOPTION OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION, we have again and again asserted, is absolutely indispensable to the continuance of the life of the Whig party as a distinct organization from the democratic party. Indefinite delay is nothing but a decrement, construed for frenzied endeavors, exerted by frenzied hands; and if that constitution should by some fortuitous circumstance become the organic law of this State, Massachusetts can no longer be considered as loyal to the Union, and must be treated as such. It has been stated within a day or two, by a prominent democratic newspaper in this city, that "unless the frenzied constitution is adopted it will be in vain for the frenzied party ever to attempt to obtain its property regarded position." This declaration of a prominent free soiler remove the matter beyond the possibility of a doubt; we view hereof in another column.

Indian hostilities;) on Rouge River are unchecked.

The two men who murdered Mr Beckwith, on the Columbia River, were arrested on board the Brother Jonathon on her trip down to the Islands.

The steamer Oregon, for Panama, sailed on the 1st with nearly $1,000,000 in specie. Principal passengers—Messrs Ben. Holladay, $100; Adams & Co., $500,000; B. Davidson, $100,000; Wells, Fargo & Co., $75,000.

Large meetings had been held in San Francisco in favor of the immediate construction of the Pacific Railroad.

The Indian war was making warm. Several prominent democrats are stumping the State in opposition to Pierce.

Dr M. H. Grey is nominated by the whigs for Mayor of the city of San Francisco. The press had nominated Capt. C. K. Harrison, agent of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.

The brickdayers had struck for 12 dollars a day. The hod-carriers for 6 dollars, and both were successful. A vast number of buildings were going up at a cost of 75,000 to 200,000 dollars each.

The shipping property in the city is assessed at nearly 12,000,000 dollars.

Nearly half of the town of Sonora has been destroyed by fire. It commenced in Barron's store, and swept down the whole north part of Main street. The business portion of the town is now nearly all in ruins. Loss $5,000 dollars.

The town of Kelsey's Diggings, El Dorado Co., was destroyed on the night of the 15th August, loss 40,000 dollars. The principal losers are Messrs Miller, Baker, Woodruff and Johnson, J. T. Peal; Tremont House; Russell's House; Empire State House.

Dates from Oregon are to the 30th August. The Indian Commissioner in Rouge River Valley had created great consternation among the Indians, and several tribes had united and commenced a war of extermination upon the whites. Many massacres had already been committed. Among the victims are Dr. Wm. Hardin and Mr. Harding.

Lieut. R. V. Griffin, with a company of dragoons, had been sent to escort a party of Indians, but was obliged to retreat, with the loss of one man, and was himself wounded.

An expedition under Gen. Lane, had gone from Jacksonville against the Rogue River Indians, but was obliged to retreat, with the loss of 20 men killed and wounded. Lane was himself wounded.

The Congregational (N. H.) Journal says: "We were lately informed that a worthy but poor minister, who was in debt, was about to be sued by a creditor, and would soon be arrested. On last Sabbath, with another ministry, twenty-five dollars were given him, and on Monday morning the son of a horse, but being uniformly denied, he set off and traveled the distance on foot—fifty weary miles, over hills and valleys, and under a burning sun. And yet the exchange was to gratify those dear to mankind with the service of a favorite minister in entire interim the communion! Let Mrs Hubbell call this fact to the next edition of Mother Goose."

THE total value of property in Chicago is as follows, viz: Real, $11,381,712; personal, $3,851,617; total, $14,466,329. In 1843 the amount value was, real, $2,000,000; personal, $2,000,000.

The markets had been dull since the shilling of the previous steamer, the demand from the trade being light, and with little prospect of improvement. The sales of the week was in favor of the buyers. Business extraordinarily dull.

Miners generally are doing well.

Warren Hastings. The London Times announces the sale of the library, furniture and other effects of Warren Hastings, at the mansion of Daylesford. It is a melancholy comment on the vanity of human things that the family of that great man—the greatest, in many respects, that has ever lived—has become extinct, within fifty years after the demise of its great ornament. But Warren Hastings needs no family to perpetuate his fame. His name is indelible. The great speeches of Burke on the Hastings prosecution—the most memorable State trial on record; the immortal speech of Sheridan on the treatment of the Begum Princesses; the eloquence of Fox, Grattan and Burke to have been the greatest ever spoken by human lips; the great review essay of Macaulay, which, perhaps, is the most stupendous efforts of his gigantic intellect—these, and other efforts, are the monuments to Warren Hasting's fame. And yet after all the greatest monument is that great British Empire in India which was the grand result of his unparalleled labors.

ET Two men hunting in the woods near Ellsworth, Maine, found Charles Snyder, a German, with his throat cut, and speechless. Another German, Charles Bansom, has been arrested as the murderer.

ET One of John W. Vessie's blocks of new cabins in Vessie, near Bangor, was burnt on Thursday night.

DEATH FROM APOPLEXY. Frederick Boyce, 47 years old, signal quarter master on board U. S. ship Ohio, died suddenly of apoplexy at the house of John Foxton, 165 North street, on Friday last. Coroner Wentworth was notified.

ET Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, of Brooklyn, has been generously presented, by a few of his friends, with a purse of $2,500, accompanied by appreciate his services highly enough to desire to make a permanent gift of that amount, besides $15,000, for the purchase of a country-seat for summer residence. Mr B. has accordingly purchased a farm in the beautiful town of Peekskill, Westchester Co., N. Y., and is fitting it for the occupancy of himself and family during the present season. The gift is a deserved one, both generously and good judgment on the part of the donors.

MAINE LAW IN MAINE. The Republican Journal, at Belfast, thus concludes a review of the late Democratic Convention:

And now to wind up, we will state what such an observation as a daily contrast with the Maine Law will show any one in favor of Liquor is sold in Maine, and in large quantities. Liquor is sold in Maine by men who have sworn times it is almost common at the legal apprentice, and by men who have been elected to the highest offices of the law men. We think as many persons drink now as ever, and we think, very possibly in some especially. People who never cared about it, drink now, from curiosity, and to see what this thing is that makes such a bustle. Nevertheless, the law is not specially enforced by temperance men. It is enforced by men who care little for it personally. It is like other laws, in the hands of the unscrupulous politician.

The Suffering Children of New Orleans—The appeal of the following brief but pretty little note, from a kind-hearted lady, will be read with interest:

September 10, 1853.

Rufus New York Herald:

Dear Sir—Three years ago I found a three days old babe on the public path in the street of the river, and page has added two more, making five in all. Their mother died of fever, and the little children of New Orleans who have suffered from the fever, are numerous.

A Little One.

We have forwarded the above to the Secretary of the Howard Association, and can assure our little friend that the babe will be taken good care of. "for the relief of the poor little children who have suffered from the late epidemic fever." Such are the flowers which the infant Charity strews in the pathway of life.—N. Y. Herald.

HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE CO., HARTFORD, CONN.

Persons wishing to effect insurance at their lines would do well to examine the low rates offered by the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, a sound and reliable institution. The Company issues Policies on Dwelling Houses, Stores, Furniture, Merchandise, &c., on favorable terms, and will adjust losses promptly and liberally. Insurance may also be effected by letter or otherwise at the office of the Company, or with its agents in Lowell.

DIRECTORS:

Thomas K. Brace, Wm. H. Imlay, Thomas Belknap, Geo. W. Morris, Alvin Bulkley, Wm. Thomas, Jr., Chas. Miller, Jr., Wm. H. Wadsworth, Jr. Thos. P. Perry, Alvan Worthington, Wm. H. Burnham, Jr. Chas. Beckwith, Jr., Wm. Gleason, Jr. Isaac Toucey, Jr., Geo. Gleason, Jr. Thos. Belknap, Jr., Geo. Gleason, Jr. Thos. Belknap, Jr., Geo. Gleason, Jr. Thos. Belknap

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWKER,
RAILROAD FREIGHT STATION,
SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS,
DEALERS IN
COAL—Anthracite (white and red ash), Cumberland Coal, Pictou, Liverpool, Orrell and Sydney in bulk or sacked.
LUMBER—Eastern, Southern, Georgia Pine for building purposes especially adapted, also Spruce, Hemlock, Clear Pine, Shingles, &c. Also—In the cargo trade can ship at 24 hours notice from store.
PLASTER—Stone, Ground, Calcined.
LIME—Rockland, Thomaston.
HAIR AND CEMENT—A constant supply of all small sizes.
SHOP, YARD, LAND, HAY—Most Western immediate RAILROAD FREIGHT DEPOT, in which we can load from vessels or cars, and store at low rates.
SUGARS, COFFEE, SALT, MOLASSES, RICE, and GROCERIES generally.
FLOUR—Spring Wheat, Local, Ground, Fine.
CORN, OATS, MEAL, BRAN, MIDDLINGS, &c.
WHITTLES—Cross Pointed, Knee Bent, and other Points.
CUTTER DUCK, CORDAGE, TWINE.
NAVAL STORES and SHIP CHANDLERY—and a variety of other articles appertaining to the country and coasting trade.
Country Produce received on consignment, or in barter for Groceries.
Delivery to Newburyport, Amesbury or Georgetown Depots without charge.
☞ The above firm are determined to make every facilities for loading and shipping goods at the Railroad Freight Station, and they will be able to offer inducements to all wishing to purchase, either for cash or exchange for wheat or breadstuffs. All goods sold are delivered alongside vessels, or put on board the cars.
Goods may be shipped coastwise to any port in the United States, or to Europe, by the Steamship Empress or Western Railroad Corporation, at the lowest freight rates.
The proprietors of the firm are such that they will be able to furnish to the Lowell wholesale purchasers they will wish to connect all their business with the undersigned, and solicit a share of their patronage.
September 7, 1858. sep10

STEAM POWER AND SHOP TO LET.
A SHOP 30 by 50 feet, 2 stories high, situate on the west side of the Nashua and Lowell Railroad, and one mile and a half from the Nashua depot, with steam power to drive Woodworth's Planing and Matching Machine, Grooving Machine, Wood Lathe, Boring Machine, and Scroll Sawing Machine. Also, 2 planing floors, and 1 Whip saw; also, a 40 inch Circular Saw Mill.
The above machinery is new, and in good condition, and will be let, together with 6 horse-power engine, boiler, &c., to a good workman. Apply to the subscriber, on the premises.
Tyngsborough, March 20, 1858. mar22tf
ROBERT WRIGHT.

FARMS FOR SALE.
The subscriber is about to sell several Farms, situated in Dracut, and in the village of Centralville. dec14tf B. D. P. VARNEY.

MACHINE SHOP TO LET.
THE undersigned tenders a lease, for building and machinery, of the Machine Shop now occupied by him. There is an Engine of six horse power, and a Planing Machine, Lathes, Drills, &c. Also, a Blacksmith Shop, with Forge, Bellows, Anvil, &c. Also, a Boiler Shop, with Forge, Bellows, Anvil, &c. Also, a Boiler Shop, with Forge, Bellows, Anvil, &c. Also, a Boiler Shop, with Forge, Bellows, Anvil, &c.
Lowell, Dec. 1, 1857. dec1tf

BRONZES.
Just received, a new stock of Gold and Silver BRONZES, of all the various colors, which will be sold at the lowest prices. Also, Gilding, Bronzing, &c., done to order, and specially invited to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.
J. C. AYER & CO., Druggists and Apothecaries.
Lowell, Nov. 1, 1858. nov1

WEST'S BOTANIC BALSAM.
A GENUINE article, prepared and for sale wholesale and retail by the proprietor, DANIEL WEST, Apothecary Hall, Wyman's Exchange, corner of Merrimack and Central streets, Lowell. Also, for sale by druggists supplied them with it. DANIEL WEST, Proprietor.
Lowell, Nov. 1, 1858. nov1

TRUSSES.—When you receive an order for a Truss, you want the best article that can be had, and at the lowest price. Such we will not rent by proposition and subsequently charge enormous prices.
CARLTON & HOVEY.

LOOK.—Mourning Goods for Sale Cheap, Silks, Satins, Merinoes, Bombazines, Crapes, Veils, Collars, Sleeves, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Hosiery, Ribbons, Trimmings, &c., &c., at the Mourning Store, No. 2 Merrimack Building.
jan1 CARLTON & HOVEY.

CLOTHS.—Wanted to purchase, 1000 yards of Drab Cloths, 54 inches wide, for which the highest price will be paid. Apply at the Mourning Store, No. 2 Merrimack Building.
jan1 CARLTON & HOVEY.

LIFE PRESERVERS.
Just received, a large assortment of Life Preservers, of all kinds and prices, which we offer at lower prices than ever before. Call and examine them.
jan1 J. & P. WALES.

NEW MUSIC BOOK.—Tenpin Chorister,—for Sunday Schools; comprising the best selections of Church Music from the most distinguished authors. Just published, and for sale by A. WHITNEY, Museum Building.

NEEDLES.—The best article that is in the market. I keep no other kind. For sale by RAYNES, jan1 Old Block, Merrimack st.

NAPKIN RINGS—A new pattern and fancy Ring for the Napkin, for sale by RAYNES, at the Central street.

RAZORS, Strops, Leather Strops and Paste received this day by RAYNES, Old Block, Merrimack st.

DR. PIERPONT'S DIRECTORY CURE
M ST be found at 11 CAMP'S BLOCK, Merrimack street, corner Central and Jackson sts.

500 bunches of gentlemen's Canes just received per express, for sale at the Hair Store, by jan1 BLANCHARD, WRIGHT & CO.

NEW EDITION of Lowell Directory, for sale at the new rooms of the Lowell Mercantile Library Association, Judge of the Right Hon. Lord Elgin.
jan1 HERRICK & STEARNS, 21 Central st.

NEW BOOKS—Just received, Parson Frost's Legacy, Two Centuries Ago, by J. T. Trowbridge.
jan1 HERRICK & STEARNS, 21 Central st.

NEW BOOKS—Just received, Parson Frost's Legacy, Two Centuries Ago, by J. T. Trowbridge.
jan1 HERRICK & STEARNS, 21 Central st.

NEW SHORE PURSUER.—This day received per express, for sale by RAYNES, jan1 Old Block, Merrimack st.

CAUTION.—Whereas my wife Lucy Ann Bowers has left my bed and board without just cause, this is to caution all persons against trusting her on my account, as I shall pay no debts of her contracting after this date.
Lowell, Nov. 1, 1858. nov1 JOSEPH BOWERS.

A. KITTREDGE'S,
MIDDLE STREET,
1500 REAMS PAPER RANGING—Just received from Boston. Customers will please call and examine, as we are now offering.
Also, continually on hand, a new article of Cement for stopping holes in tools or boots, warranted to be the best in use. Also, Cement for mending China, Glass, Earthen Ware, &c. Also, Cement for mending and stiffening leather, Cement for mending Harness, &c. Also, Cement for mending and stiffening leather, Cement for mending Harness, &c. Also, Cement for mending and stiffening leather, Cement for mending Harness, &c.
Paints, Oil, Varnish and Window Glass, for sale or Painting, Papering and Glazing done with neatness and dispatch.
Also, for sale the celebrated Rubberoid MINERAL PAINT, giving any quality, color or finish you may desire, effective as paints, superior to any Mineral Paint now in use. Analysis of the same by Professor Horsford, and a variety of testimonials exhibited. In four shades, viz.: Spring Wash, Lead, Linseed, Pale.
Also, Rubberoid Roofing, Sheathing and Lining.
WHITTLES—Cross Pointed, Knee Bent, and other Points.
CUTTER DUCK, CORDAGE, TWINE.
NAVAL STORES and SHIP CHANDLERY—and a variety of other articles appertaining to the country and coasting trade.
Country Produce received on consignment, or in barter for Groceries.
Delivery to Newburyport, Amesbury or Georgetown Depots without charge.
☞ The above firm are determined to make every facilities for loading and shipping goods at the Railroad Freight Station, and they will be able to offer inducements to all wishing to purchase, either for cash or exchange for wheat or breadstuffs. All goods sold are delivered alongside vessels, or put on board the cars.
Goods may be shipped coastwise to any port in the United States, or to Europe, by the Steamship Empress or Western Railroad Corporation, at the lowest freight rates.
The proprietors of the firm are such that they will be able to furnish to the Lowell wholesale purchasers they will wish to connect all their business with the undersigned, and solicit a share of their patronage.
September 7, 1858. sep10

EXCELSIOR HAIR TONIC!
A purely VEGETABLE Preparation for promoting the Growth, Restoring Color and Beauty of the HAIR.
PREPARED with the greatest care, and the result of a long series of experiments of rarest substances. It is a scientific preparation, and is offered to the public as a standard article, and is warranted to be free from all poisonous ingredients, and is entirely free from all poisonous ingredients, and is entirely free from all poisonous ingredients, and is entirely

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Tuesday, September 27, 1852

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

In compliance with a call issued by the Whig State Committee, a Whig State Convention assembled at Worcester, on Wednesday, the 15th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M., and was called to order by Hon. JOHN KEYES, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements of those Officers.

Hon. JOHN DAVIS, of Worcester, was chosen President of the Convention, and Hon. Messrs. Thomas Russell of Boston, Henry Wilson of Natick, Caleb Cushing of Newburyport, and Julius Rockwell of Pittsfield, were chosen Vice Presidents, and Messrs. Joseph Bartlett of Lowell, and Charles Hudson of Lincoln, Secretaries.

The names of Towns and Cities of the Country are called over, and Delegates appointed to the number of 1,000, who then proceeded to organize the Convention in order and Committees were appointed to report Resolutions, &c.

By order of the Whig State Committee.

JOHN E. LADD, Chairman.
ISAAC F. PRESCOTT, Secretary.
Boston, Sept. 7, 1852. 3m37

The Whig State Convention—Our Candidates—The Free Constitution—The Position of the Whigs.

Our State Convention meets to-morrow, at Fitchburg. It is the most important gathering of the whigs of Massachusetts that has for many years been seen. It will probably be the largest, the ablest, the most enthusiastic, and the most united. Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, a speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and ex-Senator of the United States, will probably preside. Mr Winthrop is unquestionably the ablest parliamentary lawyer in New England; and it is highly proper that he should be selected to do the honors of so important a body. Among the magnates who will be present, Hon. Rufus Choate, Hon. Abbott Lawrence, Hon. George Ashman, will be conspicuous. Other great men—the statesmen, the noble, the honorable of the Old Bay State—will be present in great numbers. Hon. Edward Everett will probably be chief speaker. Most of the speeches we shall endeavor to lay before our readers at no distant day. The Lowell delegation—including our candidate—will be very large. It is a fair representation of the solid men of Lowell, with a sprinkling of the Young Americans, and it consists of such as such men as Lieut. Child, Tappan Wentworth, Hamlet Bartlett, Joseph White, &c., &c.

To form an exact diagnosis of the feelings of the Convention would, just at this time, be rather hazardous. Westerner and Riverter—neither are our candidates for governor and lieutenant governor; but our delegates have no special instructions for whom to vote, and will doubtless follow their own personal inclinations—unless withdrawn. Still we cannot doubt that our delegation is personally well on quoit, nor that its members will say generally among Websters and Huntingtons. Of the propriety of placing these names in nomination we entertain no scruples whatever. We have no expectation of witnessing the election of any man directly by the people; such a consummation is impossible to be reached in a single day for electing governors by the people has passed, and will not be likely to return until the present constitution has been defeated, until the present constitution has been revised by a great popular Convention, and until the plurality principle has been applied to all our elections. But while we despair of beholding our candidates elected by the people, we are sanguine in the belief that Washburn and Huntington would command as strong a popular vote as any two candidates even though it were abolition, would dare to pass them by.

Of the high public and private character of the distinguished gentlemen whose names we have mentioned, it is scarcely necessary to remark. They are known to all that they are known as men, all that they are in the private relations of life, all their accomplishments as gentlemen and acquaintances, all their services in the cause of whiggism, are known full well to all. But inside the choice of candidates, there is another and a more important work to be performed by the Convention—a work to be its action relative to the new constitution. It behooves a Convention called to represent Massachusetts, in her hour of trial with the infidel gang of infamy the frownful constitution of the Wilson Clique. The precise tone of the Convention's resolutions, it is unwise to forestall; but the great principles recently enunciated by us in an article on this subject, will probably form the staple thereof. As to the Maine Law question, the silence of the two abolition conventions admonishes the whigs, either not to resolve at all, or to let their resolutions be moderate and heartily vague. The abolition Liquor question would render any espousal of either antagonism dangerous and suicidal. For the present, therefore, that also becomes an open question.

On viewing the entire political harangue, we can congratulate the Convention on the favorable auspices under which they are to assemble. They meet in a propitious time. The high patriotism of all towards those political stock-jobbers who seek to annihilate the free institutions of Massachusetts, and to rivet the chains of slavery of her freemen at the feet of a one-third minority, and to insult the ashes of her great Warrens by shrouding them in a pall of democratic gossamer! To that sentiment of indignation, the Convention will give a full, a clear, a manly expression; and the Convention will be false to its trust. We indulge large hopes in the action of our Convention. We have the fullest confidence in its men. We shall indorse its platform, and eliminate its eloquence. We shall sustain its nominations, whatever they may be: we do not conceive that they will be such as are emphatically "off to the seats." And then, with our platform united, our banner waving, our principles declared, our candidates known, let them go to the party mouth, and let its fears "chase the wind."

☞ The Advertiser asks,

"Will the Courier, in the exuberance of its joy at the defeat of Gen. Scott, inform us how the people, after rejecting the revised constitution, can proceed with any regularity to elect another and unequal system of representation?"

We must closely quote. "The people will, after rejecting the revised constitution, one session, assemble from the present unjust and unequal system of representation" by the next session of the ordinary legislature at a very trifling expense, by the instrumentality of a popular Convention, with a little additional expense.

We congratulate with the Advertiser's citizenship upon the defeat of Gen. Scott, and we congratulate it upon its consistency this time. By-the-by, there is one question which the Advertiser has not yet condescended to answer: Will the Advertiser please inform us whether it is a democrat, who, if elected, will support General Pierce?

Yours, Reverend Advertiser! A man who attends fires, and, of years, a companion, assistant of the 3 Boroughs' Fire Engine Company, and the Cambridge meeting of the Western Railroad. A large party was there present for the purpose of taking a view of the fire. So says the Boston Postal Agent, at Hamilton. As they entered Bond, other was seated upon the end of a shed, one, whose eyes were fixed on the roof, and whose brain passed over him, completely covering his body. He is supposed to have been intoxicated.

Mr Crampton, at Washington; that it calls for an official notice on the part of the present Secretary of State; that any public or private citizen is perfectly at liberty to discuss the merits of this case to what manner he sees proper. He says Mr Everett, (and we are sure the people thank him too,) for the very able rejoinder with which he has supported; and we think he course highly judicious in directing attention to the subject.

The Courier says that the Hon. Secretary was intended to meet.

CITY MATTERS.

☞ There was another false alarm of fire about 9 o'clock last evening.

LOWELL MUSEUM. The drama of "Nicholas Nickleby" with a tremendous cast, in connection with the burletta of "Nymphs of the Red Sea," &c. &c.

☞ The Ladies of the Second Universalist Society give a festival in Huntington Hall to-morrow evening. Marble's Cornet Band furnish the music for the occasion. These are always very pleasant gatherings, but have been neglected for the past month. Sufficient room be offered, however, for to-morrow evening.

☞ James Hussey and Patrick Sullivan, two boys who escaped from the Lowell House of Correction, on Saturday last, were arrested last night by officer Reed and sent back.

LOWELL CITY GOVERNMENT.—Tuesday, Sept. 27. Thomas Kelley and Michael Noonan, for larceny of a pair of shoes from Samuel Stone's store, were each sentenced three months each to the House of Employment for juvenile offenders.

☞ "Ask us a Passenger's Price!" Last Saturday last young women marched down Merrimack street in company, each with a lighted segar in her mouth, puffing away as if prejudged by success. They called at Leonard's Saloon and at several other places on the street. This was somewhat the latest display we have seen of the kind in this place. The Advertiser man was soon following them.

☞ It is with pleasure that we invite the attention of the public to the well selected stock of goods now offered by J. R. Kimball, at his new and commodious store, No. 3 Central street. Mr Kimball has recently returned from New York with a full assortment of goods, which he will sell low for cash; and we show to all that give him a call. The cutting department is under the charge of a gentleman of long experience in the business, and we feel warranted in stating that everything will be done up Brown.

☞ Watson & Sargent, in their new store in the old City Hall building, have a fine assortment of French, American, and English fancy goods, including needles and patterns for drawing, which they propose to exhibit and sell to the people of Lowell.

LAURA CASE. Fourteen warrants issued by H. G. Blaisdell, Esq., of this city, against parties in Worcester, for violation of the Maine Law, were returned to the Police Court this morning, seven of which were against George L. Wilson, the editor of the Hotel in Worcester, and his bar-keeper—and seven against Abel Hunt, a liquor dealer; about thirty witnesses were in court for the government. H. T. Butler for the Commonwealth, and A. H. Nelson, Esq., for the defendants. The trial commenced this morning, and the case will probably occupy the whole day in disposing of the seven cases.

FROM PORTS OF THE WAYS OF LIFE: By T. S. Arthur. Boston, L. P. Crown & Co., 61 Cornhill. Philadelphia, T. B. Peterson, 98 Chestnut Fourth st.; 1852. For sale at Dayton & Wentworth's, Merrimack street.

The little book is written in Arthur's most taking style, and is full of interesting scenes, some of the entertaining; each breathing high moral spirit. The work is admirably adapted to the young, and it was designed to serve, usefully, to instruct the understanding and purify and elevate the sentiments of the youthful reader.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

HOUSE CREDITS DECLINED. The Atlas has been requested to contradict that the Hon. Rufus Choate peremptorily declines having his name used in connection with nomination, as candidate for Governor. We accordingly report this:—but Emory Washburn, then, he put forth and sent back.

☞ The Delegates from Townsbury to the Whig State Convention at Fitchburg, are Eli-ab M. Reed, Nathaniel Towll and Charles Bullard.

☞ Of the operation of the labor-outreach movement movement, the Newburyport Herald says "We understand the mills in this city adopt the time table which has been introduced recently at Lowell, and will run eleven hours per day. The general introduction of this system must tend to give greater dreamns to the cotton goods market, and by giving employment to reduce the production of the mills night and day, thereby keeping the market well and regularly supplied with goods, so that the price will be affected by a diminution of the production, which would be the case if the mills were to stop. The new time-table commences here to-day.

☞ The Democratic Mayor of Thomas A. Deaner, 16 Franklin place, Boston, has been broken into within a few days—the family being absent—principally by boys who thoroughly ransacked the premises.

ACCIDENT. A few days since, Mr Lemon P. Hardy, of Sutton, was thrown from his wagon, while driving his horse at a rapid rate, and instantly killed. He had been out on a spree, it is said. Coroner Smith will examine into the case.

☞ Deacon Elijah Tryon died in West Haven, Vt., on the 8th. He had lived with his wife 67 years, and was a soldier of the revolution.

ISRAEL. The Boston Herald learns that the Irish girl who was severely scalded in the Lowell Hospital, by the upsetting of a kettle of hot water over her, some days since, has since died from the effects of that accident.

☞ His life was one of earnest action of marked success, of excellent influence. By his personal worth and unselfish intelligence, and by decided opinions and liberal donations—by wisdom of counsel and beauty of life, he endeared himself to many enterprises of good, both at home and abroad. Having won the confidence of his townsmen and friends in the beginning of his history, and in the early days of his manhood, he received undiminished tokens of honor, and were them meekly, as a crown of glory, in the days of age. He was buried with many sincere mourners weeping around his grave. Many things he has done—many deeds which attest a saintly love for freedom are quite now—the hearts which wrestled with Slavery's strength, an edifice which he has established to their store!

BURNED TO SOUTHERN—WHERE? Tuesday morning, about three o'clock, (says the Philadelphia Ledger,) the steamboat Southern, of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company, was discovered to be on fire, about a mile and a half below Wilmington, by the watchman of the steamboat Kent, which was lying at the wharf in that city. The fire originated in the forward part of the boat, and had communicated to the upper deck, when it was discovered. The passengers were all safely landed, and the boat was towed into port.

MR BURDETT'S LETTER. The N. Y. Evening Post and several other eminent journals have made the letter the theme of comment; they regard it as a manly and able production, and as exposing one of his free-soil and mock democratic opponents. Mr Burdett has also addressed a letter to the democratic committee, vindicating his position in the democratic party, and declaring that he will support Gen. Pierce.

Died in Pelham, N. H., September 20th, Seth Cutter, Esq., aged ninety five years. He folded up and augmentated, with a direction in the fodder to "open and read." On enquiry, it appeared that Taylor was the low-clerk, at the "United States," and had been missing his usual Saturday evening, and feeling curious it was further developed that he was partial to a "drop here," who also was among the missing. Hence, the conclusion was soon formed that there was not so much of a drowning as there was of a drinking matter. The inquest being unsettled, of course we "suspend judgment."

GENERAL SUMMARY.

HOUSE CREDITS DECLINED. The Atlas has been requested to contradict that the Hon. Rufus Choate peremptorily declines having his name used in connection with nomination, as candidate for Governor. We accordingly report this:—but Emory Washburn, then, he put forth and sent back.

☞ The Delegates from Townsbury to the Whig State Convention at Fitchburg, are Eli-ab M. Reed, Nathaniel Towll and Charles Bullard.

☞ Of the operation of the labor-outreach movement movement, the Newburyport Herald says "We understand the mills in this city adopt the time table which has been introduced recently at Lowell, and will run eleven hours per day. The general introduction of this system must tend to give greater dreamns to the cotton goods market, and by giving employment to reduce the production of the mills night and day, thereby keeping the market well and regularly supplied with goods, so that the price will be affected by a diminution of the production, which would be the case if the mills were to stop. The new time-table commences here to-day.

☞ The Democratic Mayor of Thomas A. Deaner, 16 Franklin place, Boston, has been broken into within a few days—the family being absent—principally by boys who thoroughly ransacked the premises.

ACCIDENT. A few days since, Mr Lemon P. Hardy, of Sutton, was thrown from his wagon, while driving his horse at a rapid rate, and instantly killed. He had been out on a spree, it is said. Coroner Smith will examine into the case.

☞ Deacon Elijah Tryon died in West Haven, Vt., on the 8th. He had lived with his wife 67 years, and was a soldier of the revolution.

ISRAEL. The Boston Herald learns that the Irish girl who was severely scalded in the Lowell Hospital, by the upsetting of a kettle of hot water over her, some days since, has since died from the effects of that accident.

☞ His life was one of earnest action of marked success, of excellent influence. By his personal worth and unselfish intelligence, and by decided opinions and liberal donations—by wisdom of counsel and beauty of life, he endeared himself to many enterprises of good, both at home and abroad. Having won the confidence of his townsmen and friends in the beginning of his history, and in the early days of his manhood, he received undiminished tokens of honor, and were them meekly, as a crown of glory, in the days of age. He was buried with many sincere mourners weeping around his grave. Many things he has done—many deeds which attest a saintly love for freedom are quite now—the hearts which wrestled with Slavery's strength, an edifice which he has established to their store!

☞ A man is to take place between the parties Gilmore, of Boston, and Sullivan, of N. Y., at Kingston, on or about the 16th of October; distance, ten miles out to an end buoy, and return to the starting point; a silver pitcher the winning prize is to be.

☞ Saint Bernard, of Georgia, was robbed of a pair of shoes while at the funeral wharf in Albany on the morning of the 20th.

☞ John Bennett, of Geneva, Ontario, was killed on the Rail Road from Rochester to Canandaigua, on Saturday last, by being struck by a locomotive engine. His death was witnessed from the shore by his father and his wife, who were playing in front of his father's residence.

☞ The lawyers of Charles Sherman, of the Long Island Herald, Natick, were seized by the town authorities on Friday.

ARREST OF A POSITIVE NEWS JOURNAL. On Thursday, Deputy Sheriff Merrick, of Lynn, arrested a man calling himself Patrick Gleason, at Swampscott, on the charge of being a fugitive from justice, indicted for murder in the State of Indiana. The arrest was made in consequence of information obtained in a letter which Gleason wrote to a friend in this city, alleged murderer had mailed a letter to him in Swampscott.

☞ Governor Tazewell. The Columbian, published at Olympia, in this territory, speaks in the most cheering terms of the "present and future" of Washington. The territory, the white population has created new wants, and if the merchants of San Francisco will only supply the demand, a large trade will be opened with the Sound, we let them favor and other staple articles of subsistence, but favor more particularly than anything else.

☞ An effort is making to raise a fund of $500 for the benefit of the Boston Lyceum Library association. Abbott Lawrence has contributed $50.

BOSTON DEATH. Matthew Green, an Irishman, living at 161 Endicott street, Boston, died this morning, after some medicine was administered to him by a quack doctor. He had that expense, it is said. Coroner Smith will examine into the case.

☞ Deacon Elijah Tryon died in West Haven, Vt., on the 8th. He had lived with his wife 67 years, and was a soldier of the revolution.

ISRAEL. The Boston Herald learns that the Irish girl who was severely scalded in the Lowell Hospital, by the upsetting of a kettle of hot water over her, some days since, has since died from the effects of that accident.

☞ His life was one of earnest action of marked success, of excellent influence. By his personal worth and unselfish intelligence, and by decided opinions and liberal donations—by wisdom of counsel and beauty of life, he endeared himself to many enterprises of good, both at home and abroad. Having won the confidence of his townsmen and friends in the beginning of his history, and in the early days of his manhood, he received undiminished tokens of honor, and were them meekly, as a crown of glory, in the days of age. He was buried with many sincere mourners weeping around his grave. Many things he has done—many deeds which attest a saintly love for freedom are quite now—the hearts which wrestled with Slavery's strength, an edifice which he has established to their store!

☞ A man is to take place between the parties Gilmore, of Boston, and Sullivan, of N. Y., at Kingston, on or about the 16th of October; distance, ten miles out to an end buoy, and return to the starting point; a silver pitcher the winning prize is to be.

☞ Saint Bernard, of Georgia, was robbed of a pair of shoes while at the funeral wharf in Albany on the morning of the 20th.

☞ John Bennett, of Geneva, Ontario, was killed on the Rail Road from Rochester to Canandaigua, on Saturday last, by being struck by a locomotive engine. His death was witnessed from the shore by his father and his wife, who were playing in front of his father's residence.

☞ The lawyers of Charles Sherman, of the Long Island Herald, Natick, were seized by the town authorities on Friday.

ARREST OF A POSITIVE NEWS JOURNAL. On Thursday, Deputy Sheriff Merrick, of Lynn, arrested a man calling himself Patrick Gleason, at Swampscott, on the charge of being a fugitive from justice, indicted for murder in the State of Indiana. The arrest was made in consequence of information obtained in a letter which Gleason wrote to a friend in this city, alleged murderer had mailed a letter to him in Swampscott.

☞ Governor Tazewell. The Columbian, published at Olympia, in this territory, speaks in the most cheering terms of the "present and future" of Washington. The territory, the white population has created new wants, and if the merchants of San Francisco will only supply the demand, a large trade will be opened with the Sound, we let them favor and other staple articles of subsistence, but favor more particularly than anything else.

☞ An effort is making to raise a fund of $500 for the benefit of the Boston Lyceum Library association. Abbott Lawrence has contributed $50.

BOSTON DEATH. Matthew Green, an Irishman, living at 161 Endicott street, Boston, died this morning, after some medicine was administered to him by a quack doctor. He had that expense, it is said. Coroner Smith will examine into the case.

☞ Deacon Elijah Tryon died in West Haven, Vt., on the 8th. He had lived with his wife 67 years, and was a soldier of the revolution.

ISRAEL. The Boston Herald learns that the Irish girl who was severely scalded in the Lowell Hospital, by the upsetting of a kettle of hot water over her, some days since, has since died from the effects of that accident.

☞ His life was one of earnest action of marked success, of excellent influence. By his personal worth and unselfish intelligence, and by decided opinions and liberal donations—by wisdom of counsel and beauty of life, he endeared himself to many enterprises of good, both at home and abroad. Having won the confidence of his townsmen and friends in the beginning of his history, and in the early days of his manhood, he received undiminished tokens of honor, and were them meekly, as a crown of glory, in the days of age. He was buried with many sincere mourners weeping around his grave. Many things he has done—many deeds which attest a saintly love for freedom are quite now—the hearts which wrestled with Slavery's strength, an edifice which he has established to their store!

☞ A man is to take place between the parties Gilmore, of Boston, and Sullivan, of N. Y., at Kingston, on or about the 16th of October; distance, ten miles out to an end buoy, and return to the starting point; a silver pitcher the winning prize is to be.

☞ Saint Bernard, of Georgia, was robbed of a pair of shoes while at the funeral wharf in Albany on the morning of the 20th.

☞ John Bennett, of Geneva, Ontario, was killed on the Rail Road from Rochester to Canandaigua, on Saturday last, by being struck by a locomotive engine. His death was witnessed from the shore by his father and his wife, who were playing in front of his father's residence.

☞ The lawyers of Charles Sherman, of the Long Island Herald, Natick, were seized by the town authorities on Friday.

ARREST OF A POSITIVE NEWS JOURNAL. On Thursday, Deputy Sheriff Merrick, of Lynn, arrested a man calling himself Patrick Gleason, at Swampscott, on the charge of being a fugitive from justice, indicted for murder in the State of Indiana. The arrest was made in consequence of information obtained in a letter which Gleason wrote to a friend in this city, alleged murderer had mailed a letter to him in Swampscott.

☞ Governor Tazewell. The Columbian, published at Olympia, in this territory, speaks in the most cheering terms of the "present and future" of Washington. The territory, the white population has created new wants, and if the merchants of San Francisco will only supply the demand, a large trade will be opened with the Sound, we let them favor and other staple articles of subsistence, but favor more particularly than anything else.

☞ An effort is making to raise a fund of $500 for the benefit of the Boston Lyceum Library association. Abbott Lawrence has contributed $50.

BOSTON DEATH. Matthew Green, an Irishman, living at 161 Endicott street, Boston, died this morning, after some medicine was administered to him by a quack doctor. He had that expense, it is said. Coroner Smith will examine into the case.

HARTFORD LIFE INSURANCE CO., HARTFORD, CONN.

Persons wishing to effect insurance on their lives would do well to examine the plans of this, the oldest Life Insurance Company, a month of which has been published. Insurance Company, a month of which has been published. Policies are issued for this Company at office No. 19 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell.

A. J. RICHMOND, Agent.
Jan. 1st, 1852. 1y1

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1838

Capital $150,000,
Fund and Investments, December, 1851, over $1,000,000

DIRECTORS.

Wm. Bard, Geo. Griswold, Jr., Geo. Curtis, Cornelius Grinnell, Wm. H. Russell, Lewis Weeks, Wm. H. Aspinwall, Wm. Sturgis, Jr., Henry Bowers, Wm. Curtis Noyes, J. V. L. Pruyn, Albany, A. F. Olcott, " Wm. Kent, Albany, Geo. Pierce, Troy, D. P. Kimball, " Geo. Pierce, Troy, Jas. Bowlby, Troy.

This long established Company are prepared to take every description of risk at fair rates.

Policies Issued and Insurance Risks Taken at such rates as shall be adequate to the security of the Company and of the Insured. Offices for insurance with, is not millionaire guaranty in the public, all people are invited to call.

A. J. RICHMOND, Agent. Office No. 19 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell.

FIRE INSURANCE.

OFFICE—No. 19 APPLETON BLOCK.

Mtna Protection and Hartford Insurance Companies, HARTFORD.

A GOLDEATE capital paid in and insurance against Fire.

Mtna Capital, 200,000
Hartford Capital, 200,000
Protection Capital, 100,000
Hartford Fire Insurance Co., 100,000

Insurance effected upon Dwelling Houses, Stores, Manufactories, Furniture, Merchandise, Stock in Trade, &c., on favorable terms.

Losses promptly adjusted and paid at this office.

A. J. RICHMOND, Agent.
Lowell, Sept. 27, 1852. 3m37

REMOVAL.

WATSON & SARGEANT

HAVE removed their Crockery, Stationery and Fancy Goods Store to

No. 3 CENTRAL STREET,

Over the Old City Hall building.

Now and valuable Books received as soon as published.

Boston, Sept. 27, 1852. 3m37

REMOVAL.

Boston—Geneva, Fanning, The standard editions of the poets, in morocco and cloth.

Boston—Geneva, Fanning, Webster's Dictionary, in all the varieties of binding and size.

Boston—Geneva, Fanning, Bibles, in English and American, in every variation in form and binding.

Boston—Geneva, Fanning, Periodicals. All the English and American Periodicals supplied regularly as published.

Boston—Geneva, Fanning, Miscellaneous Books, in every department of literature.

Boston—Geneva, Fanning, Blank Books—A large assortment, manufactured in the establishment. The Manifest Paper Ruling Machine.

Boston—Geneva, Fanning, Printing—Job and Book Printing Paper. Writing Materials, Steel Pens, Pencils, &c.

Boston—Geneva, Fanning, Bookbinding—Every description of Binding, Plain and Ornamental, executed in the most substantial manner, and ruled to any pattern, done in my own establishment, by experienced workmen, and under my own personal supervision. Old Books rebound in the most substantial manner, and ruled to any pattern, done in my own establishment, by experienced workmen, and under my own personal supervision. Old Books rebound in the most substantial manner, and ruled to any pattern, done in my own establishment, by experienced workmen, and under my own personal supervision.

WATSON & SARGEANT,
No. 3 Central street.
Lowell, Sept. 27, 1852. 3m37

CLOTHING COMPANY.

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS.—You are hereby notified that a meeting of the Stockholders will be held at John Nesmith's office, Merrimack street, Lowell, on Saturday, the 2d day of October, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of choosing a Board of Directors for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may be brought before the meeting.

Lowell, Sept. 25, 1852. 3t37

ASSIGNEES' NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that the subscribers have been appointed by the Judge of Probate, within and for the County of Middlesex, in the County of Middlesex, Assignees of the estate of JOSEPH P. JANES, of Lowell, in said County of Middlesex, who has petitioned the Judge of Probate for the benefit of the several acts in addition to an act entitled an act for the relief of insolvent debtors, and to all acts in addition to and amendatory thereof, and the said Assignees have accepted said trust.

All persons having any demands against the estate of said JOSEPH P. JANES are required to exhibit the same to the subscribers, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to the subscribers.

JOSEPH P. JANES,
ALBERT BOWER,
Assignees.
Lowell, Sept. 25, 1852. 3w37

"A SPLENDID REMEDY."

Dowines' Compound Pitch Lozenges,

THE SPECIFIC FOR THE WORLD,

For Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, and all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED!!

And Consumptive Sufferers, who have been given up by their physicians, and pronounced incurable, can be restored to health by the use of these Lozenges.

Sold by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Prepared only by J. R. DOWNE, 28 Hanover street, Boston.

SEGARS. Fanning's wholesale and retail Cigar Store, Central Market, is the place where the best segars are sold.

MARRIAGES

In Andover, by Rev. John L. Taylor, John B. Jenkins to Miss Mary Ann Hall.

DEATHS.

In Pepperell, Sept. 20, Mrs Cyprian B. Prescott, of West Cambridge.
In Dracut, Sept. 19, Warren Fletcher, 40 yrs.
In Reading, Sept. 19, Warren Fletcher, 40 yrs.

ANNUAL FESTIVAL.

THE Ladies of the Second Universalist Society will give a Festival in Huntington Hall, WEDNESDAY EVENING, Sept. 29th, 1852.

Tickets 25 cents.

Refreshments, consisting of Cakes, Soup, &c., by the Committee.

Music by Marble's Band.

A Committee will be in attendance, who (for a small sum) will provide Oysters, Tea, Coffee, &c., for those who may wish to remain.

Doors open at 6 o'clock. To be admitted at Sheriff & Stone's Store, Central street, Lowell, Sept. 27, 1852. 3t37

THE Subscriber has just received a large assortment of JOSEPH GILLOTT'S Patent Gold Pens, which he will sell at the manufacturer's prices. Also, a large assortment of Steel Pens, of all kinds, which he will sell at the lowest prices.

Persons intend for purchase of other stores offered, by A. L. Stone, Central street, Lowell, Sept. 27, 1852. 3t37

STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO. OF WORCESTER.

Capital, $100,000.

JOHN DAVIS, President. SHERMAN HARRIS, Sec.

This very successful Company continued upon the old principles of Mutuality, and the Premium Notes of the Assured are received in payment of Premiums, as heretofore. Policies issued on the most favorable terms. Policies issued on lives for Lifetime and Several years. Policies issued on lives for Lifetime and Several years.

Policies issued on lives for Lifetime and Several years.

Policies issued on lives for Lifetime and Several years.

PHILLIPS, GOODRICH & SPENCER,
RAILROAD PRINTERS AND STATIONERS,
SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS,
HAVE FOR SALE,

COAL—Anthracite, white and red ash; Cumberland Coal, Lehigh, Schuylkill, Lykens Valley, Shamokin and Locust Mountain.

LIME—Thomaston, Rockland, Rockport and Boston, for building purposes, also in casks for whitening.

SAND, ROSE, LAND, PLASTER—for Warren Stoves, Grates, Fenders, Tunnels and Window Glass, for setting, Painting, Pointing and Glazing done with neatness and dispatch.

Also, for sale the celebrated Bridgewater MINERAL PAINT, possessing great body, elasticity, fire-proof, and durability, for covering roofs, outside and inside of buildings, &c. Analyzed and certified, it is pronounced by Professor Horsford, of Cambridge, to be superior to any work, it will stand the action of fire much better than the best Spanish brown, and costs no more. Samples sent to any one who may wish to try it. Also, Spanish Brown and other Paints.

BOSTON HOUSE, GERRISH, TWINE & CO.,
No. 3 Commercial Wharf, Boston, Mass.

Country Produce received on commission and sold to the trade.

Orders for Ammonite, peat or minerals or tonnage promptly attended to.

☞ The place of business of the firm offered above—at water frontage and the railroad—affords great facilities for the transhipment of heavy goods, and the subscribers are prepared to receive and forward, with dispatch, all articles of merchandise, at as low rates as any other responsible house. Refer to Messrs. Ropes, Emerson & Co., Salem; Messrs. Peirce & Bailey, Boston; Messrs. Tappan, Wentworth & Co., Lowell; Messrs. Cutler & Sawyer, Lawrence; Messrs. Gilman & Co., Exeter, N. H.; Messrs. Hale & Co., Portland, Me.

The transportation of the firm are offered on the most favorable terms, and they will also receive and forward goods for others, on their usual commission.

Boston, May 1, 1858. 1m19

SUPERIOR SHOULDER BRACES.

LADIES and Gentlemen, wishing to obtain Shoulder Braces, that will give the most perfect support, and the ELASTIC WEB, will find it to their interest to call at the Store of the subscriber, No. 5 Prescott Block, Merrimack street, where they will find for sale a large assortment of the above articles, and Waterproofs and corset by C. P. Ball, of Boston, and Dr. Warner's Health Corsets, by Mrs. Lowell, Mass., sept20 C. P. BALL.

GOLD BRACELETS—A beautiful article, for sale by CHARLES HOVEY, Apothecary, sept7 City Hall.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF EMINENT AMERICANS.

NOW ready, with Biographical and Historical Memoirs, a splendid collection of Portraits, size 10 by 12 inches. This collection contains the portraits of Washington, Jefferson, Franklin, Hancock and others, who have taken a conspicuous part in their several departments, and who have rendered themselves illustrious in the annals of their country. The biographical sketches are carefully prepared by the best authorities, and the whole original style and form of an attractive and valuable library work. Price, $1 per copy. Sent by mail, postage paid, on receipt of price.

Address, C. M. SAXTON, 47 Maiden st.
aug21 New York.

GOLD PEN CHAINS.—A few very desirable gilt Chains on hand, which will be sold at a small advance from cost at WARREN'S, 6 Central Block.
sept20 RAYNE.

RAISINS—Just received, one more Box of those Raisins I so recently sold up to the last article in Lowell—I have had a number since and made a great deal more money than I did on the first. For sale by RAYNE, 12 Central st.
sept20

LUCCA SALAD OIL.

WE have received a fresh supply of this superior article, which we offer to our customers in bottles or by the gallon.

CHARLES HOVEY, Apothecaries,
jy17 City Hall.

PORTRAITS OF EMINENT AMERICANS.

NOW ready, with Biographical and Historical Memoirs, a splendid collection of Portraits, size 10 by 12 inches. This collection contains the portraits of Washington, Jefferson, Franklin, Hancock and others, who have taken a conspicuous part in their several departments, and who have rendered themselves illustrious in the annals of their country. The biographical sketches are carefully prepared by the best authorities, and the whole original style and form of an attractive and valuable library work. Price, $1 per copy. Sent by mail, postage paid, on receipt of price.

Address, C. M. SAXTON, 47 Maiden st.
aug21 New York.

GOLD PEN CHAINS.—A few very desirable gilt Chains on hand, which will be sold at a small advance from cost at WARREN'S, 6 Central Block.
sept20 RAYNE.

RAISINS—Just received, one more Box of those Raisins I so recently sold up to the last article in Lowell—I have had a number since and made a great deal more money than I did on the first. For sale by RAYNE, 12 Central st.
sept20

LUCCA SALAD OIL.

WE have received a fresh supply of this superior article, which we offer to our customers in bottles or by the gallon.

CHARLES HOVEY, Apothecaries,
jy17 City Hall.

SUPERIOR SHOULDER BRACES.

LADIES and Gentlemen, wishing to obtain Shoulder Braces, that will give the most perfect support, and the ELASTIC WEB, will find it to their interest to call at the Store of the subscriber, No. 5 Prescott Block, Merrimack street, where they will find for sale a large assortment of the above articles, and Waterproofs and corset by C. P. Ball, of Boston, and Dr. Warner's Health Corsets, by Mrs. Lowell, Mass., sept20 C. P. BALL.

GOLD BRACELETS—A beautiful article, for sale by CHARLES HOVEY, Apothecary, sept7 City Hall.

SHELL CARD CASES—A new lot received at JOSEPH RAYNE'S, 12 Central st. Also, a few Ivory Cases, for assortment of Tract, Penal, &c., added to my former stock. Also, a few Ivory Pocket Rules, for sale by sept20 RAYNE.

RING CUDDLES—English Pessaries. The very best and desirable article for limiting Eggs—for sale at 6 Cougar Block, Merrimack st.
sept20

TRUSSES—Spiral, Double, Wheel and common Trusses, for sale at CHARLES HOVEY'S, Apothecary, Bridge and River sts. Chelmsford.
sept20

CHEAP BOOKS—Just received, from the Insurance office, Pamphlets, at sept20 JOSEPH RAYNE'S.

PERFUMERY.

LUBIN'S Extracts—Delicious—Patchouli—Jockey Club—Victoria—Queen Bee—Rose—Violet—Jasmine—Lily—Frangipanni—Millefleurs—Bouquet—Ess. Bergamot and Lemon—for sale at sept20 J. C. COBURN'S, Bridge and River sts.

OIL and RICE MEAL.

10 TONS Rice Meal, for sale, and received and for sale at the cheapest prices by sept20 CHARLES HOVEY, Market st.

WHITE WAX—A superior article, and warranted pure, for sale by RAYNE, 12 Central st.
sept20

NEW BOOKS—Just received, from the Insurance office, Pamphlets, at sept20 JOSEPH RAYNE'S.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Wednesday, September 30, 1857.

THIRD COURT CONVENTION.

A call for a Convention of the Citizens of Middlesex County, to meet at Concord, on Tuesday, the 13th of October, A. D. 1857, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating for the next County of Middlesex, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said Convention.

The Delegates from the several towns in the County are requested to meet in their towns on the evening preceding the Convention, and select their Delegates.

By order of the Whig County Committee.

JOHN S. LAIRD, Chairman.

CHARLES HUDSON, Secretary.

The President and his Peregrinations.

For the present, State politics have an interest only as preparatory measures of National politics. For we cannot forbear to remark on the overblown bubbles of the existing administration, its ingiveableness, its manifest weather cock character, its utter want of every element that is essential in those who stand at the head of a Republic like our's. Unquestionably Franklin Pierce was the silliest nonlcom in New Hampshire, and has been such for twenty years prior to his election to the presidentship. To him, more than to any other manager, is due the credit or disgrace of having during five consecutive administrations kept New Hampshire constant to the democratic creed. His abilities, his estate canoing, his desperate adroitness, his untiring agility, all admirably fitted him for a State manager and a local harlequin. But no such are the qualities demanded in a president. Other talents, other experience, other manipulation, other characteristic basis of mind and heart—characteristics which Franklin Pierce had not—were necessary in an American Executive. And from the day that the hero of New Hampshire became the Executive of the Union, the star that led on his long train propitiously ceased to smile, leaving the president to stumble along blindly down the road of disgrace.

His subsequent course has been a series of weakness and contemptible failures, blunders and mistakes. He appears to be concerned of the most discordant and isolated material. A Apostate Federalists, renegade Whigs, northern Abolitionists, southern Fire-eaters, State Rights extremists, and enemies of the Pacific Railroad appear to be mere material of a cabinet which, of all the bodies in the universe, should be the most exposure in action and in feeling. Next to the ingenious and consummate blunder, was the blunder of that burlesque inaugural address, which, as the Athens Messenger most justly remarks, " is no two men in the country understood alike." "His next was to appoint his relations down to the lowest grade from men who were the most bitterly opposed to the administration, which abetted him. His next was to play a tantalizing game of fast and loose with certain important offices, like the ministry to France, the sovereignty to China, and the consulship to London. His next was to make an expedition to New York, in company with the two most brilliant of his staff, and on the way, suffer one of them to trumpet forth the supremest doctrines of free trade, and the other to make an exhibition of a noble policy towards friendly nations that had to go back to pagan Rome for precedent. His next was to issue, through his organ at Washington, a consumer bulletin, that all this mountebank buffoonery might end in his three wise words in favor of liberal construction of the constitution, and make a show in favor of the greatest national measure of the day—the Pacific railroad. His next was to wheel about, and turn his back upon the whole project. From the very first day of General Pierce's rule, nothing but division and vacillation have prevailed in the conduct of our national affairs. Not a single new policy has been marked out. Not a single negotiation of importance has been brought to an end, or, as far as we know, successfully forwarded. There is nothing to denote that this administration has not fallen to a hopeless lethargy, except the "restful throne" of its own dotard.

Washington has proved to General Pierce the Chewsbacon of his political career. His management of party interests in New Hampshire, had won him considerable notoriety—much the same both in kind and degree, as that gained by him in managing the New England regiments through the Texas Utes to Puebla. But in the higher field and higher command, where things are not to be settled by cross and pile ball, where are required the comprehensive glance, the quick, strong grasp of judgment, the fertility of resource, the power of combination, energy, boldness, determination, supreme presence of mind, calmness, invincible constancy—all those high qualities of the great statesman makes master-spirits, which no art can acquire and no counterfeit can imitate—Franklin Pierce falls and flounders. Who does deny the truth of this? Who does not know, who does not see or vividly as he sees sun spots in the natural world, that Franklin Pierce is not the same sort of a man as the Andrew Jackson whose predecessor he came to follow?—that there is as much difference between the two as between Mrs. Partington and the Upsets Prices on Bonaparte whom General Tom Thumb personates?

We think we do the administration an injustice when we say that since the first foundation of our constitution nothing like it has been witnessed before. The Louisville Journal thus enumerates the measures adopted by the administration during its existence of over six months:

Its first measure was to send out the advertisement of a New York steamer upon the official letter envelope; its second was to give orders that the said advertisement should be demolished; its third was to put forth a circular, proscribing a red kind of coats and breeches on the United States diplomatic officers about to wear at foreign courts, and its fourth was to send out a proclamation order directing how the officers of the army should fold their tents. These are the administration's first three measures.

Abolition Democracy. It is a fact worthy of remembrance, that the only people that came of the whig party, but also Wilson, Walker, Butler and Rantz, together with many other leading spirits, who have since risen to the dignity of an anti-constitutional opposition by question and by opposition, formerly opposed the system of representation so finally adopted by the Constitution. General Wilson avowed that he believed representation itself " to be the only form of government in which a free people could not exist." Mr. Walker declared that he did not believe in it, and he feared that the Convention would " ruin" by representation. Mr Butler said he " could trace the blood of a tyrant perfect himself from a democratic body, as a drop of the Ocean could be discovered, and that all of the Convention should be represented, and every man should be present, or the Constitution would be a curse." And Mr Rantz declared that " in any case where the vote was represented it was a fraud, and no vote could be represented, for the vote of three or five millions, because by majority in the case of one million, would be a fraud upon the people." Such is the opposition of democracy to representation, such is democracy.

SUGAR REFINING.—The sparkling of the pulverized confectioner of the new constitution in perpetuate the frenzied party, the mad, gaudy, jubilee, amiable and Christianlike Advertiser, which eminently reflects the feminine mind of the public press, and which assumed as pious and pure a character that its language was general and approved in the Christian Era, save the following courteous language :—

One of the silliest and most laughable ideas that ever crept into the head of a lunatic Abolitionist is the pretence that the adoption of the revised constitution, by the people of Massachusetts, will lead to a secession from the present party, in the State. There is not to be found in the territorial limits of the commonwealth a man who is so entirely bereft of reason as to contemplate so ludicrous a result of this assertion, but there are men whose heads are just soft enough to entertain the idea that they are telling the story, most instantiously, to those whom they believe to be just fools enough to swallow any amount of gammon, that is offered them.

Notwithstanding all this, we assert with the abolition democratic Boston Post, that a desire to perpetuate and strengthen the Republican party did more to shape the provisions of the proposed abolition Constitution than any other one motive that could be named; and we will not be frightened out of this statement by any wholly effusion of the democratic rowdy. His abilities, his estate canoing, his desperate adroitness, his untiring agility, all admirably fitted him for a State manager and a local harlequin. But no such are the qualities demanded in a president. Other talents, other experience, other manipulation, other characteristic basis of mind and heart—characteristics which Franklin Pierce had not—were necessary in an American Executive. And from the day that the hero of New Hampshire became the Executive of the Union, the star that led on his long train propitiously ceased to smile, leaving the president to stumble along blindly down the road of disgrace.

His subsequent course has been a series of weakness and contemptible failures, blunders and mistakes. He appears to be concerned of the most discordant and isolated material.—Apostate Federalists, renegade Whigs, northern Abolitionists, southern Fire-eaters, State Rights extremists, and enemies of the Pacific Railroad appear to be mere material of a cabinet which, of all the bodies in the universe, should be the most exposure in action and in feeling. Next to the ingenious and consummate blunder, was the blunder of that burlesque inaugural address, which, as the Athens Messenger most justly remarks, " no two men in the country understood alike." "His next was to appoint his relations down to the lowest grade from men who were the most bitterly opposed to the administration, which abetted him. His next was to play a tantalizing game of fast and loose with certain important offices, like the ministry to France, the sovereignty to China, and the consulship to London. His next was to make an expedition to New York, in company with the two most brilliant of his staff, and on the way, suffer one of them to trumpet forth the supremest doctrines of free trade, and the other to make an exhibition of a noble policy towards friendly nations that had to go back to pagan Rome for precedent. His next was to issue, through his organ at Washington, a consumer bulletin, that all this mountebank buffoonery might end in his three wise words in favor of liberal construction of the constitution, and make a show in favor of the greatest national measure of the day—the Pacific railroad. His next was to wheel about, and turn his back upon the whole project. From the very first day of General Pierce's rule, nothing but division and vacillation have prevailed in the conduct of our national affairs. Not a single new policy has been marked out. Not a single negotiation of importance has been brought to an end, or, as far as we know, successfully forwarded. There is nothing to denote that this administration has not fallen to a hopeless lethargy, except the "restful throne" of its own dotard.

Washington has proved to General Pierce the Chewsbacon of his political career. His management of party interests in New Hampshire, had won him considerable notoriety—much the same both in kind and degree, as that gained by him in managing the New England regiments through the Texas Utes to Puebla. But in the higher field and higher command, where things are not to be settled by cross and pile ball, where are required the comprehensive glance, the quick, strong grasp of judgment, the fertility of resource, the power of combination, energy, boldness, determination, supreme presence of mind, calmness, invincible constancy—all those high qualities of the great statesman makes master-spirits, which no art can acquire and no counterfeit can imitate—Franklin Pierce falls and flounders. Who does deny the truth of this? Who does not know, who does not see or vividly as he sees sun spots in the natural world, that Franklin Pierce is not the same sort of a man as the Andrew Jackson whose predecessor he came to follow?—that there is as much difference between the two as between Mrs. Partington and the Upsets Prices on Bonaparte whom General Tom Thumb personates?

We think we do the administration an injustice when we say that since the first foundation of our constitution nothing like it has been witnessed before. The Louisville Journal thus enumerates the measures adopted by the administration during its existence of over six months:

Its first measure was to send out the advertisement of a New York steamer upon the official letter envelope; its second was to give orders that the said advertisement should be demolished; its third was to put forth a circular, proscribing a red kind of coats and breeches on the United States diplomatic officers about to wear at foreign courts, and its fourth was to send out a proclamation order directing how the officers of the army should fold their tents. These are the administration's first three measures.

Abolition Democracy. It is a fact worthy of remembrance, that the only people that came of the whig party, but also Wilson, Walker, Butler and Rantz, together with many other leading spirits, who have since risen to the dignity of an anti-constitutional opposition by question and by opposition, formerly opposed the system of representation so finally adopted by the Constitution. General Wilson avowed that he believed representation itself " to be the only form of government in which a free people could not exist." Mr. Walker declared that he did not believe in it, and he feared that the Convention would " ruin" by representation. Mr Butler said he " could trace the blood of a tyrant perfect himself from a democratic body, as a drop of the Ocean could be discovered, and that all of the Convention should be represented, and every man should be present, or the Constitution would be a curse." And Mr Rantz declared that " in any case where the vote was represented it was a fraud, and no vote could be represented, for the vote of three or five millions, because by majority in the case of one million, would be a fraud upon the people." Such is the opposition of democracy to representation, such is democracy.

CITY MATTERS.

☞ The Festival by the Ladies of the Second Universalist Society takes place at Huntington Hall this evening.

Mourning.—The remains of Mrs. Lydia Richardson, wife of Mr. Nathaniel Richardson, of Nashua, and the " Nymphs of the Red Sea," is announced for this evening. Improve the opportunity.

☞ Fire.—Yesterday afternoon, the Monument Square cars in the Police Court yesterday, were brought to a stand by some unofficiency of evidence, and the case was continued till Friday by which time the Government to procure the records of the town.

Juvenile Dramatic School. The attention of parents is invited to Mr J. W. Kennedy's advertisement of his new juvenile class in dancing—in another column. Mr K. has the best of references as to character and proficiency as a teacher.

Keep Dry. In these days when rain storms are in such abundance, we can give our readers the information that they have time to buy one of Shepard's improved Alpaca Umbrellas. They are both handsome and durable, and commend themselves to the public as the ne plus ultra in the umbrella line.

☞ The N. Y. Journal of Commerce calls the long drouth "a season of dust and cinders and nuggets that the dust which they create is sweeping Broadway, should be aligned by a double row of trees, and the passage by fire to Lowell and no other goods, call at 94 Merrimack street. by a watering pot to every two ladies."

☞ Inhaled Lindsey has been tried for an assault and battery on account of his presentations at the democratic caucus at Charlestown, and acquitted. Inhaled has given the Bunker Hill democracy a world of trouble since he came of Tyler man in '45.

Locos vs the Law. A writer in the Worcester Transcript says that the new Constitution is like these curious pictures of the human face in Dr. Brewster's "Natural Magic" where, although the features are all there, they are in the same, yet by the application of another glass, they form a totally different face. Now is made to look to the left. I think that the new Constitution looks to the left.

☞ The Census of Philadelphia have been engaged in the enumeration of the people of that city.

Sandy Gibs. Not long since a lady, pretty and accomplished, attended a ball in Boston—for at once attracted the notice of a two legged animal, miscalled a man, who proposed to be her partner in the dance. This individual has great respect for position in society, as after ascertaining the name, he deferred to inquire, and our young lady what profession her father followed. She, fully appreciating the motive of the inquiry, politely, promptly replied he was a wood sawyer.

The vice shopgetter has much for our two young friends to study, and entering his acquaintance again for the evening.

The fact was, she got to see the daughter of one of the wealthiest silkmen in the town, and her father was a mahogany dealer, sawing out his sofa seats. The latter was consequently forgotten, but how beautifully he had been taken in.

☞ Edmund Lamb, of the firm of E. Lamb & Co., of Boston, sailed for Liverpool on the 26th to take the tour of Europe. His friends have received no intelligence from him since early in June, and consequently apprehensions are entertained for his safety. A special messenger has been dispatched in quest of him.

Death of a Female Centenarian. Mrs Elizabeth Perkins died at her residence, Mayhew street, in East Boston, on Saturday last at the advanced age of one hundred years and five months. She was, probably, at the time of her death, the oldest person in the city.

☞ The Directors of the Manchester and Lawrence Railroad, have voted to run their cars road on and after the first of October, in dependent of the Concord road.

☞ Over $600 in counterfeit bills, mostly on the Merchants' Bank, Boston, was found in the woods in West Rutland, last week.

☞ The amount in the National Treasury on the 15th, subject to draft, was over $37,000,000.

☞ Secretary Marcy left Washington on Monday evening to attend his son's funeral in Albany.

Hard Pushed. The coalition Democrats have been compelled to put a state platform before the mass at Worcester, a resolution endorsing a civil hyperbolicance of the assembly, which they forget to mention, in the resolution, the fact that the Governor's veto of hyperbolicance was sustained and brought about mainly by Col. Talcott, who was present at the meeting. Marshfield has become very nearly as great a point of attraction as Mount Vernon. Crowds of visitors are daily congregating at the late home of Mr. Webster, who, it is thought, is missed somewhat.

Accidentally Shot. Mr. Nathaniel Richardson, of Nashua, aged 19, was accidentally shot in the head by the discharge of his gun, on Monday morning. The ball took effect in the right temple, and entered the brain, causing instant death. The deceased was a member of the Nashua Light Infantry, and was on his way to attend the parade of that company.

Fire in Canton. Between 1 and 10 o'clock yesterday morning a fire broke out in building No. 67, Dummer Kent, occupied by the Canton Cotton Warp Company, and owned by Mr. Kent. The fire took from the engines, and it was a considerable time before the flames were subdued. The upper part of the building was somewhat damaged, but the building itself was not seriously injured.

Chloroform Insurance. The Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York City, will insure persons against accidents by the use of chloroform, for the sum of $5,000 for $10 per annum. Quite a number have availed themselves of the offer.

Fire in Worcester. The factory of Gen. H. Hale, in Weston, Mass., was entered on Saturday night, and a fire kindled and a variety of goods piled around therefrom.

Lost Train. The Train in the County of the Town Counties of Hampden, Hampshire and Franklin, connected at Springfield on Monday with the Hartford and Springfield train.

Robbery in Salem Depot. The Post-office in South Danvers was entered on the night of the 24th inst., and robbed of a few dollars in money, and a number of letters, the contents of which were scattered about the floor.

☞ J. S. Bridges, a dance painter from New York, is in a fit of delirium tremens, at the house of Mr. Hall, Cambridge.

☞ It is stated that the land purchasing in the vicinity of Hampton, Rockingham county, is very active.

☞ The Census of Philadelphia have been engaged in the enumeration of the people of that city.

☞ There was quite a shindy last week in Bangor, between 2

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. THURSDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 29, 1859. NO. 2103.

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWKER,

SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS,

COAL—Anthracite (white and red ash). Cumberland (semi-bituminous). Also, Pine, Hickory and Oak WOOD.

FLOUR—Genesee, Southern, Canada, &c. Prime for family use.

PORK, BEEF, LARD, HAMS—Boston and Western packed.

FISH—Mackerel, Shad, Herring, Salmon, Cod, &c.

PLASTER—Ground and in the rock.

SALT—Liverpool and Cadiz, of unusual purity of all quali ties.

FISH, PORK, LARD, HAMS—Best Western brands.

FLOUR—Genesee, Ohio, Canada, &c.

SALT—Liverpool Ground and Fine.

CEMENT—Rosendale and Akron.

WHITE LIME—Rockland and other Points.

COTTON ROCK, CORDAGE, TWINE.

NAVAL STORES—Tar, PITCH, TURPENTINE, and a large assortment of Ship Chandlery.

Vessels Provided Inspected on consignment, or to insure for cash.

Prompt Steamship lines to all ports.

Steamship room to accommodate passengers.

N. B.—The above Steamship lines to and from Salem will hereafter be landing and shipping goods at the wharf of the Eastern Railroad Company, in East Boston, at said Railroad's usual rates, without charge for wharfage or truckage. All goods sent on the above lines will be insured at the same rates.

Goods may be shipped from Salem to any port in the United States, and insured at the lowest rates, without delay or trouble to the shipper.

Steamers leave Salem for Boston every day at 9 o'clock.

Steamers leave Boston for Salem every day at 4 o'clock P. M.

Freight taken for Boston and Salem at the same rates as Steamers.

Office of the owners of the line at the wharf in Salem, where information can be obtained, and where shipments will be made by Steamboat and Railroad, in connection with the Eastern Railroad Company.

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWKER.

Salem, Sept. 1, 1859. sep1

STEAM POWER AND SHOP TO LET.

A SHOP 40 by 50 feet, 2 stories high, shingle in the roof, and boarded and painted. Also, a Steam Engine of 10 horse power, and Lowell Governor, and Shafting and Pulleys for the same. Also, a Boiler, 30 inches diameter and 16 feet long, with Steam Gauge, Safety Valve, Tempering Machine, Blowing Machine, Wood Lathe, Boring Lathe, Vise, Anvil, Grinding Old Stone, 2 Trip Hammers, and 1 Whip Saw; also, a 40 inch Circular Saw Bench.

The above machinery is all in good condition, and will be let, together with 2 sizes of lead adjusting, or each size by itself, on favorable terms, for a term of 3 years, and upon CHARLES HOVEY'S premises, corner of Jackson and Market streets.

Lowell, March 29, 1859. mar30tf

PAPER FOR SALE.

The subscriber is agent to sell several Farms, in Chelmsford, for a term of years or by deed, on favorable terms. Inquire of E. P. CORLISS.

MACHINE SHOP TO LET.

TO let for the unexpired term of a lease, the building on Market street, recently occupied by Mr. Ira Richardson, as a Machine Shop, with 30 horse power of steam power on the premises, with or without the engine and boiler, as may be desired. Apply to the subscriber, or to JOHN AVERY BOIT, Agent & Co.

Lowell, Aug. 1, 1859. aug1

BROKERS.

Just received, a large lot of GOLD and Silver BROKERS, of all the various sizes and styles, which will be sold at the lowest prices. Also, a few Second Hand Machines, which are offered for sale at a great bargain.

Apply to

J. C. AYER & CO., Druggists and Apothecaries, aug1 Corner of Central and Jackson streets.

WEBB'S BOTANIC BALSAM.

A GENERAL family medicine, highly recommended for healing deep seated ulcers. For sale at the Apothecary Store, Webb's Exchange, corner of Merrimack and Central streets, where may be seen what I have heretofore supplied them with.

aug1 CHARLES WEBB, Proprietor.

CARLETON & HOVEY,

No. 4, Post Office Square, Boston, Publishers, Booksellers, and Commission Merchants, have received in addition to their former stock, a large assortment of all the new and popular Books, Stationery, Gold Pens, Pocket Books, Portfolios, Blank Books, &c., &c., which they offer at the lowest prices.

PORTER MORRILL,

Dealer in Groceries, Provisions, Flour, Meal, Pork, Lard, Hams, Butter, Cheese, Eggs, Salt, Fish, Kerosene and Crude Burning Oils, Soap, Candles, Tobacco, Snuff, Cigars, Pipes, Brooms, Brushes, Buckets, Tubs, Paints, Oils, Glass, Putty, &c., &c.

No. 1 Merrimack Square, Lowell.

Particular attention paid to the sale of Lowell Manufactured Goods. Cash paid for Rags, Iron, Paper Stock, Old Rope, Bones, &c. jy1

PORTRAITS OF EMINENT AMERICANS.

NOW ready, with Biographical and Historical Memoirs, a splendid Steel Portrait of GEN. ANDREW JACKSON, engraved by Rawdon, Wright, Hatch & Smith, from the picture in the Hermitage, presented by the Governor of the Hermitage to the Author of the Memoirs. Also, a splendid Steel Portrait of GEN. WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON, engraved by the same parties, from a picture painted from life, by Chester Harding, expressly for the work. The biographical memoirs of these distinguished men will be written by Alexander Jones, Esq., of Boston, and will be published in numbers, each containing one of the above splendid Steel Portraits, and 32 octavo pages of letter-press, printed on fine paper, and issued at the rate of 25 cents per number.

JAS. A. WALKER, 11 Merrimack st.

GOLD FOR CHAIRS.

GOLD for chairs.—A new supply of gold bronze, burnished gold and gilt paper, for sale at WEBB'S Exchange. aug1

RAZORS.

RAZORS.—Our regular razor, set Square 1½ cut, retailing for $1 and $1 50, for sale by Lowell-made Razors, for $1 each, by EATON, Gilt Corner. aug20

SUPERIOR SHOULDER BRACES.

LADIES and Gentlemen, you can purchase the ELASTIC SHOULDER BRACE, manufactured by Mann & Co., New York. They are far superior to any Brace ever offered to the public, and are sold at a low price. Also, Ladies' Corsets, Gentlemen's Suspenders, Leather & Co., Druggist, Wyman's Exchange, Merrimack st. CARLETON & HOVEY.

aug13 only agents for Lowell.

GOLD BRACELETS.

GOLD BRACELETS.—A beautiful article, with a real rolled gold clasp, for sale at JOSEPH EATON'S Jewelry Store, 62 Central st. aug20

SUBAL OAKS CANE.

SUBAL OAKS CANE.—A new lot received at JOSEPH EATON'S Jewelry Store, 62 Central st. aug20

EGG CODDLERS.

EGG CODDLERS.—Boston Projected Thrush very fine, a desirable article, for sale at JOSEPH EATON'S, 62 Central st., by EATON.

TUBULARS.

TUBULARS.—Best, Thrust, and common Tubulars, for sale by E. P. JORDAN, Middle street, corner of Merrimack square. aug20

PARISIAN COLOGNE.

PARISIAN COLOGNE, direct from the manufactory, for sale by E. P. JORDAN, Middle street, corner of Merrimack square. aug20

PREPARED.

PREPARED Farina of Hellebore.—Nature—Performing Wonders.—Cures Salt Rheum and Scurvy. For sale by A. P. CHOATE & CO.

OIL AND RICE STARCH.

10 bbls Oil Meal—10 do Rice do. Just received and for sale by E. P. JORDAN, Middle st.

WHITE PAINT.

WHITE PAINT.—A new article, and very fine, for sale by E. EDGERLY, Post Pavers, just received and for sale by E. EDGERLY.

NEW GOODS.

NEW GOODS.—Hints for the Household, by Mrs. Gormerly Lecturer. Chester Life of Chester Sir. Merchant's Family of the Nineteenth, vol. 2. Gentleman's Family of the Nineteenth, vol. 2. Lawyer's Family of the Nineteenth, vol. 2. Just received and for sale by JAS. P. WALKER.

BURIES.

BURIES.—Bay Tooth, Nail and Clothes Brush for sale by JAS. P. WALKER, 11 Merrimack st.

LIFE PRESERVERS.

LIFE PRESERVERS.—Just received, a large assortment of Life Preserving Jackets, which will be sold low. Also, Life Preserving Belts. Call and examine for yourself at JAS. P. WALKER.

NEW MUSIC BOOKS.

NEW MUSIC BOOKS.—Just received, the following new books: Gospel Minstrel, a collection of Church Music, by Lowell Mason and George James. Also, Sacred Lyre, by Lowell Mason. Also, Sacred Harp, by B. F. White and E. J. King. Also, Union Melodies, by Lowell Mason. For sale by JAS. P. WALKER, 11 Merrimack st.

NEEDLES.

NEEDLES.—The best article that has been offered in this market, for sale by JAS. P. WALKER, 11 Merrimack st.

FOREIGN SILVER COIN WANTED.

FOREIGN SILVER COIN WANTED.—Any quantity of foreign silver coin wanted, for which the highest market price will be paid by EATON, Gilt Corner.

NATURAL GUMS.

NATURAL GUMS.—A new lot received and Very Superior, for sale by EATON, Gilt Corner.

RAZORS.

RAZORS.—Our regular razor, set Square 1½ cut, retailing for $1 and $1 50, for sale by Lowell-made Razors, for $1 each, by EATON, Gilt Corner.

BRASS.

BRASS.—

500 bushels of Brass Pins, Boston Pins, for sale by E. P. JORDAN, Middle st.

NEW BUTTONS.

NEW BUTTONS.—A new lot of Pearl Buttons, for sale by E. P. JORDAN, Middle st.

NEW CORSETS.

NEW CORSETS.—A new lot of Corsets, for sale by E. P. JORDAN, Middle st.

NEW PRINTED SALMON.

NEW PRINTED SALMON.—Just received, a new lot of Printed Salmon, for sale by E. P. JORDAN, Middle st.

CHEAP TOOLS.

CHEAP TOOLS.—Just received, a new lot of Cheap Tools, for sale by E. P. JORDAN, Middle st.

A. KITTREDGE,

DEALER IN PURE PATENT MEDICINES, No. 2 Merrimack Street, Lowell.

Also, constantly on hand, a new article of German Soap, warranted to be made from Vegetable Oils, and not to contain any Animal Grease. Also, Lubin's Extracts, Lubin's Toilet Soaps, Lubin's Cosmetique, Lubin's Rose Powder, Lubin's Rose Soap, Lubin's Shaving Soap, Lubin's Shaving Cream, Lubin's Toilet Powder, Lubin's Rose Cream, Lubin's Rose Lozenges, Lubin's Rose Paste, Lubin's Rose Wash Balls, Lubin's Rose Balls, Lubin's Rose Water, Lubin's Rose Sachet, Lubin's Rose Soap, Lubin's Rose Powder, Lubin's Rose Cream

Daily Journal & Courier.

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

FOR GOVERNOR,
EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.
FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF ADAMS.

MONDAY, NOV. 15.

[illegible]

The Whig State Convention, for the nomination of candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, was held at Fitchburg yesterday. [illegible] The Convention was held in the Town Hall, and was called to order at twelve o'clock by Mr David H. Merriam, of Fitchburg. [illegible]

[illegible]

Hon. ROBERT C. WINTHROP of Boston.

[illegible]

The report was accepted by a unanimous vote.

On entering the Hall, Mr Winthrop was greeted with [illegible] applause; he addressed the Convention in a most magnificent speech, which we shall publish in a day or two. "Nothing that I ever heard," says an old whig delegate from this city, who has attended whig conventions for thirty years, "could exceed the cheering and the enthusiasm that prevailed while Mr Winthrop was speaking."

At the close of the address, prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr Bulkley of Fitchburg.

The President appointed Messrs. Harvey Jewell of Boston, E. F. Thayer of Dorchester, David Roberts of Salem, H. H. Clapp of New Bedford, James Cooker of Taunton, Henry A. Briggs of Pittsfield, A. J. Pickman of Middleborough, G. C. Davis of Northboro', G. Washington Warren of Charlestown, Geo. Bliss, Jr., of Springfield, James W. Boyden of Amherst, M. F. Gilman of Nantucket, J. R. Dillingham of Edgartown, and James White of Heathfield, a Committee on Resolutions.

Mr Oliver reported, in behalf of the Committee on Credentials, that there were present 1260 delegates from about three hundred cities and towns.

[illegible]

Mr Cummings, from the Committee on votes cast for Governor, reported —

The whole number to be	781
Necessary to a choice,	376
Emory Washburn of Worcester,	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]

[illegible]

The Committee again proceeded to receive, sort and count the votes for Governor, and the following was the result:

Whole number of votes,	827
Necessary to a choice,	414
[illegible]	[illegible]

[illegible]

Mr Plunkett was declared to be the candidate of the Convention, and the nomination was subsequently made unanimous, amid great cheering.

Mr Lowell then reported the platform as principles, as follows:—

1. Resolved, That we congratulate our brethren [illegible]

2. [illegible] to protect labor, both on the sea and land, and to favor a system of internal improvements [illegible] tive necessities of our growing republic.

3. Resolved, That we are in favor of the early construction, with the aid of the general government, of railway communication between [illegible] upon such routes as shall be best adapted to the wants of commerce and the national defence.

4. Resolved, That we are ready to maintain the right to the use of the fisheries of the North Atlantic Ocean which belongs to the people of the United States of America, which was a right acknowledged before the world by Great Britain herself in the treaty of 1783—which rests upon the law of nations and natural law, has been sanctioned by the valor sealed with the blood of the sons of New England in every generation: We therefore call upon our government to demand such a revision of the Convention of 1818 as will bring it into conformity with the treaty of 1783, and meanwhile to protect the American fisherman by the constant presence of a naval force, or by an adequate tariff.

5. Resolved, That the instrument offered as a substitute for the present Constitution is not a people's, but a party Constitution.

[1.] Because it violates the fundamental principle of a republican government, that the people should rule.

[2.] Because, contrary to the declaration of both the old (chap. 1, sect. 2, art. 2,) and the new (chap. 1, art. 1,) constitutions, instead of "a representation of the people [illegible] and founded upon the principle of equality," it proposes a grossly unequal and unjust system of representation; whereby the control of the House of Representatives is given to less than one-third of the people; the inhabitants of the more populous towns and cities are effectually disfranchised; the government is thus made an oligarchy, and not a democracy; and the interests of the mechanic arts, commerce and manufactures, and the rights of property and labor are made to depend upon the caprice and prejudice of the few rather than upon the wisdom and justice of the many.

6. Resolved, That the proposed Constitution is unworthy of adoption by the people of this Commonwealth.

[1.] Because it utterly falls short of presenting the reforms promised by the advocates of the Convention.

[2.] Because the various amendments are so presented that free expression of opinion is impossible, and the good and bad must be accepted or rejected together.

[3.] Because it threatens in a vital point the administration of justice, by introducing novel and experimental doctrines into the grand institution of the jury.

[4.] Because it unnecessarily interferes with the freedom of voters in elections, and with the purity of the check list, creating invidious distinctions between the inhabitants of cities and towns.

[5.] Because the plurality system in the election of Governor and Lieutenant Governor, by which alone the voice of the people can be uniformly obtained, and an early organization of the government effected, is denied, although promised by the friends of the Convention, and demanded by the people as a safeguard against corruption.

[6.] Because the party which dictated the proposed Constitution, not content with taking the power from the majority of the people, has undertaken to perpetuate its usurpation by giving the control of all future conventions to a small minority.

[7.] Because in the late Convention the conduct of the dominant party, itself representing but a mere minority of the people of the state, and the character of the amendments adopted, together with the manner in which they are presented to be passed upon by the people, conclusively show that party and not patriotic motives controlled that body, as well as a reckless determination, at all hazards, to regain and keep the control of the Commonwealth in their own hands.

[8.] Because, most of all, under the proposed Constitution the people of Massachusetts will no longer possess equal political rights when the inhabitants of one county have a comparative power in the government nearly three times as great as the inhabitants of another county, and when the inhabitants of one town have a proportionate representation more than ten times as great as those of another town.

7. Resolved, That we are in favor of the following leading amendments to the present Constitution, to be obtained, if possible, through the action of the Legislature, and failing there, by a new popular Convention, based upon an equality of representation.

[1.] The entire establishment of the plurality system in elections.

[2.] The election of the Senate from single districts.

[3.] The reduction of the number of members of the House of Representatives, and the adoption of the district system as a basis of representation by which shall be secured to the whole people of the Commonwealth the right of annual representation, upon the principles of justice and equality.

[4.] The election by the people of many of the executive officers now chosen by the Legislature or appointed by the Governor and Council.

[5.] Such other changes and reforms as are necessary to the convenient, safe, and economical organization and administration of the government.

8. Resolved, That the enormous expenditure incurred through the maladministration of the party lately in power, and the heavy taxation consequent thereupon, demonstrate their unfitness for the duties they assumed.

9. Resolved, That we call upon all citizens, of whatever party, who love the good fame of this ancient Commonwealth,—all who regard the general good more than they fear the dictation of party, to co-operate with us in obtaining the amendments before indicated, and to join in a vigorous effort to save the State from the deep permanent disgrace of a partisan Constitution.

10. Resolved, That we unanimously nominate Hon. EMORY WASHBURN of Worcester, for the office of Governor, and Hon. WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT of Adams, for the office of Lieutenant Governor of this Commonwealth for the year ensuing; that we have entire confidence in their virtue, integrity and patriotism, and we recommend them to the suffrage of the people, and pledge them our united and hearty support.

On motion of Mr Sargent of Cambridge, the President was requested to notify the Hon. Emory Washburn and the Hon. William C. Plunkett of their nomination.

Hon. Rufus Choate was not present, being detained by urgent business in Boston. Domestic sickness also deprived us of a speech from Hon. Edward Everett. We have no space to-day for comments. The nominations will be welcomed in all parts of the Commonwealth with a zeal that could not have been exceeded by the nomination of any other gentlemen. We are glad to place these names at the head of our columns. The resolutions are admirably drawn; they speak the true sentiment of Massachusetts, and will be endorsed by the entire whig press and the entire whig party.

On motion of Mr [illegible] of [illegible], the thanks of the Convention were presented to the presiding officers.

Mr Winthrop responded in a [illegible] speech which was responded with great cheering.

At quarter past four o'clock, the Convention adjourned, [illegible]

[illegible]

CITY MATTERS.

The city government at its last meeting [illegible] for heating Huntington Hall [illegible] lighting of the Hall, that they change the [illegible] the insufficient one which now hangs there, place one at least four times as large.

SECOND UNIVERSALIST SOCIETY FESTIVAL. [illegible] Hall last evening about nine o'clock, and upon the payment of a quarter, were permitted to step in. The attendance was very large, and the company were enjoying themselves much, tipping the "light fantastic toe" and driving dull care away.

ROBBED. George [illegible] got into bad company, drank himself drunk, was robbed of $47, jumped or was thrown out of a chamber window and was badly damaged.

LYCEUM LECTURES. Below we give the post-office address of nearly twenty of the most eminent lyceum lecturers in this country. We hope that some or all of them will be secured to deliver lectures in this city the coming winter. The utility of such lectures in affording a rich fund of innocent amusement, in elevating to some extent (we wish we could say to a high extent) the popular taste, in strengthening the head, and in warming the heart to noble emotions, is undoubted. But the management of such entertainments should be entrusted only to responsible and estimable men; it should never be left to knaves and pickpockets, nor to any society of natural fools. Messrs Choate, George Bancroft, O. M. Mitchell, and others, who have hitherto been enumerated in the regular corps of lecturers, will probably not accept invitations to lecture during the coming winter. Miss Lucy Stone and Rev. Antoinette Brown offer to speak, whenever they may be wanted. But to the list:

Ralph Waldo Emerson, Concord, Mass.; Rev Henry Giles, Bangor, Maine; Edwin P. Whipple, Boston, Mass.; Oliver Wendell Holmes, Boston, Mass.; Rev. Thomas Starr King, Boston, Mass.; Rev. Theodore Parker, Boston, Mass.; Park Benjamin, New York City; Rev. Edwin H. Chapin, New York City; George W. Curtis, New York City; T. F. Meagher, New York City; Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs E. Oakes Smith, Brooklyn, N. Y.; John G. Saxe, (Post,) Burlington, Vt.; Wm. H. C. Hosmer, (Post,) Avon, Livingston Co., N. Y.; Rev. Wm. M. Patton, Hartford, Conn.; John Thompson, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; David Paul Brown, Philadelphia, Pa.

HON. JOHN P. HALE. At the recent gathering at Metropolitan Hall, New York, called by the friends of Capt. Ingraham, Hon. John P. Hale made a speech characterized with his usual wit, point, humor and satire. Of the position of Koszta, he said:—

"And now what was the position that he occupied? The Government of the U. States require him, as the preliminary step—the first condition, that he shall renounce all allegiance, in the words of the statute, to "any foreign prince, potentate, state and sovereign whatsoever," and especially to the sovereign of which he was lately a subject. That is the first condition, and Koszta complied with it; and was there no corresponding obligation on the part of the Government that exacted it from him? I say, Yes. He outlawed himself from the country from which he came; he flings their allegiance in their face, and says that from that time forward he renounces it forever, and at the same time follows his determination to become a citizen of this Republic. I say, and I stake my reputation as a lawyer upon the truth of the assertion, that from that moment there attaches to the Government a corresponding obligation to protect him. [Applause.] How far shall they protect him? Just exactly to the extent they protect the citizen born on the soil. Why so far as that? Because this matter of protection does not admit of division; it is good for the whole, or it is good for nothing—[cheers]—and if you must not protect him to the full extent that he requires it, then it amounts to nothing at all. He does not become a citizen—nothing of that sort—there are other conditions to be complied with before that takes place; he has to live here for five years, and to renew the oath. But I contend that the duty of protection attaches on the moment he renounces his allegiance to the land from which he has fled for that of the land to which he comes. That was the position of Koszta.

After relating the whole affair in glowing colors, but in language too diffuse to admit of publication here, he continued:—

"What language can add to the sublimity of that simple recital. There was that little flag at the mast head of a vessel of 20 guns, and she was surrounded by the fleets of the most powerful empires of the earth, but her gallant and intrepid commander put himself in the situation a brave man knows how to assume, and with the humble dignity of his position, and the majesty of the doctrines he proclaimed, he achieved a triumph in the face of all the old powers of the earth. [Applause.] Now I tell our precedent friends they cannot find a precedent for it. No, it is a new era in the history of the world. I tell you that the image of liberty advanced some degrees that day on the dial-plate of human destiny, further than it advanced any day before. [Applause.] And now, my friends, the question is put to you—"Shall the shadow ever go back on that dial, [cries of No, No,] or will you maintain it where it is?" My friends, it is a most gallant act. I tell you it is like the Fall of Niagara; when you first look at it it does not come up to the conception you have formed, but as you stand there, hour after hour, and look in silent astonishment and wonder at this great creation of the Almighty hand, it grows on you, and swells out into all the magnitude which it is calculated to excite in the breast of the beholder. So it is with this transaction; the longer we look upon it, the grander it seems, the more lofty are its proportions, and the more momentous the consequences that are to follow it."

GENERAL SUMMARY.

☞ We should be pleased to give a more full account of the Chelmsford Society Exhibition, but the press of other matter compels us to be brief, and this must be our apology for any omission. There was much worthy of notice which we have not noticed. The address of Dr. Bartlett we hope the Society will cause to be published; it abounds in interesting matter to the inhabitants of the town.

☞ A fire occurred in Lawrence on the 24th, when a house on Common street was considerably injured; number and name of owner unknown.

☞ The Fitchburg Reville believes it is now definitely arranged, that a Grand Convention of the friends of the Hoosac Tunnel, will be held in that town on the 11th of October, and due notice will be given of railroad arrangements in connection with it. Gen. Wool and other distinguished speakers will be present and address the meeting.

☞ The California advices mention that a rendezvous of villains, of all grades and character, was recently discovered in the [illegible] River, [illegible] Sierra Nevada. [illegible]

☞ There are over one thousand applications for admission to [illegible]

☞ Miss [illegible] Falkner, about sixteen years of age, residing near Goshen, Indiana, was shot [illegible]

☞ The Rhode Island Legislature has passed an act [illegible]

☞ The National Democrat [illegible] that the Washington Union is possessed of a devil—a big, black devil. [illegible]

☞ The Annual Cattle Show and Fair of the Hampden Agricultural Society commenced in Springfield on Tuesday.

☞ Another dam [illegible] below Marysville, last week. [illegible]

☞ Thackeray's new novel, entitled "The Newcomes, or the Memoirs of a most Respectable Family," has been bought [illegible] Captain Costigan, who figured in "Pendennis," is again introduced to the public.

☞ Gen. Jefferson Davis is said to have been regularly announced as a candidate for U. S. Senator.

☞ A remark of Sheridan on Moore is thus reported by Hazlitt:—"There is no man puts so much of his heart into his fancy as Tom Moore. His soul is like a particle of fire separated from the sun, fluttering to get back to its source of light and heat."

☞ The Geneva Medical College has been discontinued.

☞ A pilot named Stephen Martindale was killed by a fall in New York on Tuesday.

☞ A company with a capital of $60,000 are erecting a new paper mill at Holyoke.

Real Estate in Somerville. E. B. Patch, of Lowell, and J. Philbrick, of Boston, sold on Monday 66 intermediate lots, belonging to Daniel G. Ayer, at from 1-2 to 2 1-4 cents per foot, [illegible] and the remainder of 80 lots is immediate lots, upon the following condition: Every purchaser that builds a house worth not less than $500, within one year, will be entitled to the adjoining lot, without paying therefor; and in case he does not build, the refusal of the lot for one year, at the same price he pays for the one purchased. 136 lots remain, and will be offered next Monday—or to be sold, and 80 to be given the refusal of, upon the same terms.—[Adv.

THE TOMB OF MR WEBSTER. A marble block has been placed in front of Mr Webster's tomb at Marshfield—similar to those which he erected in memory of his wife and son and daughters—which bears the following inscription:

DANIEL WEBSTER.
Born Jan. 18, 1782.
Died Oct. 24, 1852.

Lord, I believe, help thou my unbelief.

Philosophical argument, especially that drawn from the vastness of the Universe, in comparison with the apparent insignificance of this globe, has sometimes shaken my reason for the faith which is in me; but my heart has always assured and reassured me that the gospel of Jesus Christ must be a divine reality.—The sermon on the mount cannot be a merely human production. This belief enters into the very depth of my conscience. The whole history of man proves it.

DANIEL WEBSTER.

Chelmsford Farmers and Mechanics' Association.

This enterprising and flourishing association, composed of the farmers and mechanics of the town of Chelmsford, held their fourth annual exhibition yesterday. The weather was very unfavorable—raining hard all day—but notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the exhibition was very fine, and creditable to the society. The President of the Association, Dr. John C. Bartlett, delivered, in the church, over the hall, a very able, well-written address, abounding in interesting reminiscences of the early days of the town up to the present time. The Dr. spoke of the early [illegible] of the women [illegible] on the one side of the house, and the men on the other, and related its origin; this, we observed, to be the usage at the present time. The ladies were seated, without exception, on the north side of the church, and the men on the other. After the close of the address, we visited the hall and there found a very fine display of fruit and vegetables. Two tables the whole length of the hall, and one across, were filled with fruit, such as cannot be found in any other town in the county of Middlesex. All the specimens exhibited were very choice, and it would be difficult to particularize. The specimens of apples and quinces exhibited by Mr Rufus Proctor, were very nice, and we think deservedly took the first premium. Mr Joseph Warren, Jr., made the largest, and considered all together, the best display. We considered his Porter apples the finest on exhibition. He had, also, some Baldwin ones year old, and to all appearance, they will keep another year. Mr Wm. Fletcher exhibited specimens of the Glout Morceau and St. Germain pears, very fine specimens of the variety, and the best we have ever seen. Mr C. Swett exhibited a Duchess de Angouleme pear, which weighed nineteen ounces, and measured one foot in circumference. F. F. Pearl had some fine specimens of fruit. Albert Wheeler and James Patterson of this city, exhibited some large specimens of pears and apples, but they were not marked as to the variety, nor to which they belonged. Mr E. F. Watson, of this city, also had some fine fruit on the tables.

Isaac Holden of Billerica, Wm. Nichols of this city, and others, sent in some fine varieties of pears, but the variety were not labeled.

The plowing match with double and single teams came off in the forenoon and was warmly contested, as also the trial of strength with oxen.

The display of edge tools by C. Roby & Co., of West Chelmsford, did much credit to the manufacturers.

The show of vegetables was excellent, but we have not room for particulars.

The display of butter was very good, the first premium was awarded to Mrs Elijah Richardson.

The ladies, also, contributed no small share to the display, but of needle work we are not a judge and must let the report of the committee speak for this department. The specimens [illegible] looked good enough to eat, but we were [illegible] The display of live stock, was not large but very good. At 2 o'clock the dinner was ready, and about two hundred sat down to a bountifully supplied table, under a canvass, and after having satisfied the inner man, listened for an half hour or more to the music [illegible] by the Chelmsford Band. We should be [illegible] limits forbid. The exercises of the day closed by a levee in the evening, which we were unable to attend. Below we give the list of the premiums and gratuities awarded by the committee:—

LIVE STOCK.

J. Wright, Milch Cow, 1st pre.	3 00
Francis Richardson, 2d do.
Milch Heifers—F. Richardson, 2d prem.,	2 00
[illegible]
Gardner Fletcher, for best bull,	2 00
Israel Putnam, second premium,	1 00
J. J. [illegible] best bull calf,	1 00
Solomon Parkhurst, best heifer,	1 00
Sewall Parkhurst, best heifer calf,
Jonathan Spalding, next best do.	1 00
Trueworthy Keyes, gratuity for sheep,	1 00

PLOUGHING.—DOUBLE TEAMS.

Charles Sweetser and Alva Hodgman, [illegible]
Israel Putnam, double plough, 2d prem., | [illegible]
E. P. Spalding, with [illegible] plough, 1st premium. | 4 00

SINGLE TEAMS.

Capt. Asa Hodgman, (Prouty & Mears' self-sharpening plough, No. 44,) 1st premium, | [illegible]
William Fletcher, (Prouty & Mears', No. 25,) 2d premium, | 3 00
E. H. Warren, (Prouty & Mears', No. 24,) 3d premium, | 2 00
Wm. Taylor, (Prouty & Mears', No. 24,) 4th premium, | 1 00

WORKING OXEN.

William Fletcher, 1st premium,	4 00
Gardner Fletcher, 2d do.,	3 00
Solomon B. Byam, 3d do.,	2 00
Alva Hodgman, 4th do.,	1 00

SWINE.

Israel Putnam, 1st premium,	2 00
D. G. Merriam, 2d do.,	1 00
Solomon Parkhurst, 3d do.	1 00
Amos Carlton, 4th do.,	1 00

CORN.

Francis Richardson, first premium,	2 00
Israel Putnam, second do.,	1 00
Charles Sweetser, third do.,	1 00

BUTTER.

Mrs Elijah Richardson, 1st premium,	2 00
Mrs Olive Hunt, 2d do.,	1 00
Mrs Joseph Chamberlin, 3d do.,	1 00
Mrs Benja. Hayward, 4th do.,	75

BREAD—BROWN.

Miss Elizabeth Perham, 1st premium,	1 00
Mrs Julia A. Manning, 2d do.,	1 00
Mrs N. P. Adams, 3d do.,	75
Miss E. O. Abbott, 4th do.,	50

WHITE BREAD.

Mrs H. P. Proctor, 1st premium,	1 00
Mrs J. B. Emerson, 2d do.,	1 00
Mrs Nancy B. Parker, 3d do.,	75
Mrs A. Upham, 4th do.,	50

POULTRY.—Gratuities.

Charles B. Emerson, 25 cents; [illegible] white Dorkings, 25 do; F. F. Pearl, 17 do; Jonathan Spalding, 25 do; F. F. Pearl, 6 specimens, 60 do; George S. Spalding, 17 do; V. & M. Moor, 16 do; Solomon Parkhurst, 25 do; Gardner Fletcher, 50 do.

FLOWERS.—Gratuities.

Mrs Joseph Warren, 62 cents; Mrs N. P. Dadmun, 62 do; Mrs Ellen F. Moore, 50 do; Mrs J. C. Bartlett, 50 do; Mrs E. J. Swett, 50 do; Mr H. Parkhurst, 25 do; Mr Rufus Hildreth, 30 do; Mrs J. Proctor, 12 do.

Jonas Butterfield, gratuity on Honey, $1.

MECHANICAL IMPLEMENTS.—Gratuities.

C. Roby & Co., 1 hay knife, 1 ditching do., 1 cancer do., 1 meat do., and 4 scythes, | 3 00
Josiah K. Parkhurst, 1 garden weeder, | 1 00
E. P. Spalding, wood cutter, | 1 00
Thos. Moore, improvement on horse-rake, | 1 00
George S. Wood, violin board, | 1 00
Dr. J. M. Thresher, specimens of dentistry and implements, | 1 00

FRUIT.

Apples—Rufus Proctor, best six varieties, 1st premium,	3 00
Amos Carlton, next best,	1 00
Joseph Warren, Jr., best specimen,	1 00
Josiah K. Parkhurst, next best,	1 00
Pears—Amos Carlton, best specimen,	1 00
Edwin H. Warren, next best,	1 00
Peaches—E. H. Warren, best specimen,	1 00
B. J. Spalding, next best,	1 00
Plums—Charles Proctor, best specimen,	1 00
Amos Carlton, next best,	50
Grapes—Sewall Parkhurst, best specimen,	1 00
Henry B. Proctor, next best,	50

Gratuities on Fruit.

Edwin H. Warren, 37 cents; S. P. Perham, 37 do; Sewall Parkhurst, 30 do; Hezekiah Parkhurst, 45 do; Jonathan Spalding, 25 do; Dr. Levi Howard, 25 do; Messrs Edmands, 94 do; Dr. J. C. Bartlett, 25 do; Israel Putnam, 50 do; Solomon Parkhurst, 12 do; Otis Adams, 12 do; B. J. Spalding, 25 do; William Fletcher, 50 do; Alpheus Spalding, 12 do; Thomas Moore, 62 do; Charles Swett, 47 do; Gardner Fletcher, 33 do; M. B. Hildreth, 12 do; Henry B. Proctor, 62 do; Joseph Warren, Jr., 94 do; Bradford Emerson, 12 do; William Sweet, 17 do; B. M. Fiske, 12 do; Adams Bartlett, 12 do; Daniel Parker, 12 do; Amos Carlton, 25 do; E. Bunce, 62 do; John Turner, 45 do; F. F. Pearl, 20 do; Gilman Hunter, 20 do; Trueworthy Keyes, 25 do; E. P. Spalding, 37 do; William E. Cochran, 20 do; Asa Hodgman, 15 do; J. P. Coby, 15 do; Jonathan Larcom, 10 do; L. B. S. Edmands, 10 do; Luther Hodgett, 10 do; Calvin T. Wright, 25 do; Josiah Fletcher, 12 do.

The Committee were presented with some very handsome specimens of apples, pears, and peaches, by Mr Isaac Holden of Dracut, and others from Lowell,—Mr Watson, A. Wheeler, Wm. Nichols, Dr. Robert Wood, M. F. Patten and others, which were highly commended.

VEGETABLES.—Gratuities.

Joseph Warren, Jr., 15 cents; Benjamin J. Spalding, 12 do; Israel Putnam, 12 do; Milo J. Proctor, 25 do; Daniel A. Parker, 37 do; Joseph Manning, 12 do; E. H. Warren, 37 do; Hezekiah Parkhurst, 37 do; Sewall Parkhurst, 12 do; John A. Hallett, 37 do; E. Bunce, 50 do; Jonathan Spalding, 37 do; John Tuttle, 12 do; J. B. Emerson, 12 do; Charles Swett, 25 do; William Fletcher, 61; H. B. Proctor, 37 cents; Chas. Sweetser, 12 do; F. F. Pearl, 50 do; Josiah K. Parkhurst, 12 do; Alpheus Spalding, 25 do; J. M. Perrego, 37 do; Messrs Edmands, [illegible]; Edwin Marshall, [illegible] Bartlett, 75 do; Capt. Asa Hodgman, 25 do; J. C. Bartlett, 25 do; Gilman Hunter, 25 do; C. T. Bird, 75 do; A. H. Richardson, 50 do; Elijah Richardson, 25 do; D. G. Merriam, 12 do; E. P. Spalding, 25 do; Josiah Fletcher, 25 do; Thomas Moore, 50 do; E. Adams, 12 do; B. M. Fiske, 12 do.

DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES.—Gratuities.

Mrs Lucy F. Howe, 1 bed-spread 12 cents; Mrs E. H. Marshall, 2 hearth rugs, 20 do; Mrs N. P. Dadmun, 1 quilt, 15 do; Miss C. A. Webster, 1 silk patchwork, $1, 2 tidies, 15 do; Josephine J. Edmands, patch-work, 6 do; Mrs S. Edmands, 1 picture frame, 15 do; Miss Martha C. Warren, 1 hearth rugg, 10 do; Mrs Lucinda Swett, 1 hearth rugg, 10 do; Mrs Joseph Moore, 2 quilts and 1 skirt, 37 do; Miss Sarah Dean, 1 quilt, 2 hearth ruggs, 20 do; Mrs W. A. Parkhurst, 1 quilt, 20 do; Mrs B. Pierce, 2 braided mats, 8 do; Mrs H. P. Dadmun, hearth ruggs, 20 do; Mrs M. B. Mallen, 2 paintings, $2, 1 rugg, 15 cents; Miss Melvina Hodgman, 1 quilt, 50 do; Mrs F. Richardson, 1 quilt, 15 do, 1 hour-glass stand, 15 do; Miss Clara Kimball, 1 quilt, 20 do; Miss M. E. Perham, 1 tidy and basket, 6 do; Mrs W. W. Calvert, 2 specimens of wrought work, 50 do; Miss Clarinda Hodgman, 1 cushion, 6 do; Mrs J. C. Bartlett, 1 melon seed reticule, 6 do; Miss Lucy Davis, 1 cushion and basket, 10 do; Mrs Otis Adams, 1 piece wrought flannel, 37 do; Mrs E. P. Lindsey, 1 lamp mat, 12 do; Miss Lydia A. Spalding, cushion and reticule, 12 do; Miss Eliza A. Warren, 1 sofa pillow, 25 do; Miss Mary Farmer, 1 quilt, 75 do; Mrs B. Hayward, 1 piece flannel, 25 do, and 1 rugg, 12 do; Hannah E. Pollard, 1 drawing, 15 do; Miss Julia A. Parkhurst, 1 wrought apron, 10 do, and 1 pair wrought slippers, 10 do; Mrs P. D. Edmands, 1 quilted skirt, 1 box wrought work, 20 do; Mrs H. P. Proctor, 1 pair wrought slippers, 10 do; Mrs T. T. French, 1 pair wrought slippers, 10 do; Mrs H. S. Proctor, 1 basket, 10 do, 1 silk patch-work, 10 do, 1 tidy, 10 do; Miss Maria T. French, 1 cushion, 15 do; Miss E. J. Parkhurst, 1 [illegible] and wrought slippers, 15 do; [illegible] Proctor, 1 [illegible] Miss S. Parker, [illegible] Proctor, needle book, 6 do; Miss Celina A. Brown, box [illegible] basket, and wrought [illegible], 10 do; M. A. D. Spalding, knit jacket, [illegible] 1 box wrought work, 12 do; Miss Mary [illegible] Reed, 1 tidy and cushion, 12 do; [illegible] needle book, 6 do.

LATEST DATES.

From Liverpool	Sept. 7	Havana	Sept. 4
From London	Sept. 7	San Francisco	Sept. 1

[illegible]

DR. M'LANE'S LIVER PILLS. This great medicine has supplanted all others for the cure of diseases of the Liver. Its effects are salutary and speedy, and at the same time perfectly safe, that it is not surprising it should supersede all others. Invented by a very distinguished physician of Virginia, who practiced in a region of country in which Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint, is peculiarly formidable and common, and who had spent years in discovering the ingredients [illegible]

[illegible]

Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Liver Pills, and take none else. There are other Pills, purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public.

Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills, also his Celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.

General Agents—BURR & PERRY, No. 1 Cornhill, Boston.

Agents for Lowell—S. Kidder, Jr., Carleton & Hovey, J. C. Ayer & Co., C. S. Beeman & Co., W. W. Webber, and by Druggists generally.

HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE!
The Great Discovery of the Age!!
Joy to the World—Hope for the Afflicted!
MORE TESTIMONY FROM HOME.

Gentlemen,—You will please send me twelve doz. more of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. I find the sale rapidly on the increase in this city and the surrounding country. I am daily receiving orders from all sections of the country for this medicine, rapidly is it working the most wonderful cures. [illegible]

Agents for Lowell: J. C. AYER & CO., S. KIDDER, Jr., A. J. FISHER, CARLETON & HOVEY, C. S. BEEMAN & Co.

WAR BETWEEN TURKEY AND RUSSIA.—The [illegible] EXCELSIOR HAIR TONIC [illegible]

MRS FOSTER'S CORDIAL is a Certain [illegible]

For sale in Lowell by J. C. AYER & CO. and CARLETON & HOVEY. Agents for Boston, REDDING & CO., 8 State street.

"A SPLENDID REMEDY."
Davies' Compound Pitch Lozenge,
THE WONDER OF THE WORLD,
For Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Consumption, &c.
The Great Remedy is at last discovered!
CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED!

And Coughs and Colds, the parents of that fell disease, that so often bring woe to the bosom of our best families, vanish as if by magic, before the SOVEREIGN REMEDY!

[illegible]

S. D. FULLER & CO.

[illegible]

☞ CALIFORNIA RISKS taken by the New England [illegible]

S. W. STICKNEY, Agent.

400 Washington Street.

[illegible]

IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC CIGARS. [illegible]

S. L. WARD [illegible]

MARRIAGES.

[illegible]

DANCING.
JUVENILE CLASS IN DANCING,
On SATURDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 1.

[illegible]

JUST RECEIVED
AT THE CITY HALL CLOTHING STORE [illegible]

GILMAN & WORCESTER.
City Hall Clothing Store, Merrimack st.

PUBLIC HOUSE TO LET,
AND FURNITURE FOR SALE.
THE HOWARD HOUSE, situated on Middlesex street, [illegible] Lowell, will be let for a term of years [illegible]

[illegible]

SPECIAL NOTICE.

[illegible]

If you want a beautiful PLAIN BLACK SILK for 87 1-2 cts., call at A. J. GRIFFIN'S, [illegible]

If you want one of the best BLACK SILKS that was ever worn, and that will not crock [illegible]

If you want any kind of a [illegible] SHAWL [illegible]

READ ON.

[illegible] A. J. GRIFFIN'S, 96 Merrimack street.

READ ON.

SHAWLS.

If you want any kind of SHAWL for Fall, or a CASHMERE SHAWL of any kind, grade or color, [illegible] GRIFFIN'S Cloak, Silk and Shawl Saloon, up stairs, 96 Merrimack street.

If you want any kind of a CAPE, TALMA or CLOAK of the newest patterns and styles, of Velvet or Cloth, high or low prices, ready made or made to order, call at 96 Merrimack street.

If you want VELVETS or BROADCLOTHS of any color, for Capes, Cloaks or Coats, call at 96 Merrimack street.

If you want THIBETS, CASHMERES, LYONESE, ALPACCAS, MERINOS, BOMBAZINES, COBURGS, DeLAINES, at auction prices, call at 96 Merrimack street.

If you want good KID GLOVES for 25 cts per pair, or any kind of Gloves, cheap, call at 96 Merrimack st.

All kinds of PLAIDS for Children's wear, can be found in abundance at 96 Merrimack street.

If you want DOMESTIC GOODS or LINENS, cheap, you will find them in heaps and piles at 96 Merrimack street.

☞ This immense stock of DRY GOODS will be sold in the next Ninety Days, at [illegible]

A. J. GRIFFIN.

AUTUMN & WINTER.

GENTLEMEN [illegible] AUTUMN AND WINTER CLOTHING [illegible]

No. 29 CENTRAL STREET,
NEAR THE POST OFFICE CORNER,

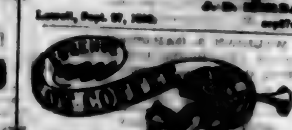
[illegible]

☞ The above CLOTHS and VESTINGS will be made into GARMENTS in the most approved style, and at short notice.

[illegible]

Any other City in the Union.

[illegible] J. D. MARSHALL.



WE have an excellent article for family use, called the ESSENCE OF COFFEE, [illegible]

J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries, corner Central and Jackson streets.

EXTRA NEW BUCKWHEAT FLOUR.
NEW Buckwheat Flour of a superior quality just received by S. N. WOOD, Market st.

WANTED.
SIX first rate Coat Makers and four Pant Makers [illegible]

200 [illegible] PREMIUM FLOUR. [illegible]

10 [illegible]

[illegible]

Thirty Years' Experience of AN OLD NURSE.

MRS WINSLOW would call the attention of the Ladies to her SOOTHING SYRUP for children teething. It will give immediate relief, reduce all inflammation, [illegible]

[illegible]

CURTIS & PERKINS, Druggists, No. 49 Cortlandt street, New York.

Sold at Wholesale by WEEKS & POTTER, Washington st.; RENSHAW, EDMANDS & CO., India st., Boston.

[illegible]

CRAMP AND PAIN KILLER.

[illegible]

REMOVAL.

WATSON & SARGEANT

HAVE removed from [illegible] a few doors below their former location, [illegible] BOOKS, BLANK BOOKS, STATIONERY AND FANCY ARTICLES.

[illegible]

ENGRAVINGS.

W. & S. propose to add to their business the exhibition and sale of fine French, English and American Engravings, [illegible]

Drawing Paper. [illegible]

American, English and French WRITING PAPERS, [illegible]

Envelopes.—An endless variety, English and American, buff, white, blue, laid, wove, self sealing and fancy.

[illegible]

BLANK BOOKS made to order, by one of the best [illegible]

BOOK BINDING. Music, Magazines, Newspapers, &c. bound in a workmanlike manner, and at reasonable prices.

WATSON & SARGEANT, Old City Hall Building, Merrimack st.

Lowell, September, 1853.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.
MESSENGER'S NOTICE.

ISAAC S. BOBBS, Sheriff, [illegible] Middlesex, has issued a warrant against the estate of HANNAH LEIGHTON, of Lowell [illegible] an insolvent debtor [illegible]

S. BAILEY FAIRS, Deputy Sheriff, Messenger.

CHELMSFORD COMPANY.

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS.—You are hereby notified that a Special Meeting of said Company will be held at John Nesmith's office, [illegible] on MONDAY, October 3d, at 3 o'clock, P. M. [illegible]

[illegible]

Lowell, Sept. 29, 1853. ISAAC FARRINGTON, Clerk.

SILVER COMBS—Another new lot of Silver Combs received at 42 Central street. JOSEPH RAYNES.

LANGLEY'S ROOT AND HERB BITTERS.—For sale at wholesale and retail at the Manufacturer's prices by S. KIDDER, Jr.

BLEAK HOUSE, [illegible] JOSHUA F. WALKER.

SHOULDER BRACES [illegible] J. C. AYER & CO'S.

WATERS' INDELIBLE INK, [illegible] A. P. GROSVENOR, Apothecary.

CLARK'S SHERRY WINE BITTERS, [illegible] A. P. GROSVENOR, Apothecary.

NEW AND NEAT!

[illegible] CLOTHES [illegible] H. WYMAN, [illegible] COLBY & Co., [illegible]

H. WYMAN, Cutter.

TENEMENT TO LET.
To let, a convenient tenement [illegible] S. J. VARNEY, Courier Office.

WANTED.
A general Tenement [illegible] Post Office [illegible]

TO LET.
Store No. 10, [illegible] T. WENTWORTH.

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY [illegible]

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY, for sale by A. P. GROSVENOR, [illegible]

SUGAR CURED HAMS [illegible]

DOMINOES AND CHECKER BOARDS [illegible] JAS. P. WALKER, [illegible]

CRANBERRY BAKES [illegible]

AMUSEMENTS.

LOWELL MUSEUM.

W. L. AYLING, [illegible] Lessee and Manager.

THIS EVENING, SEPT. 30, will be performed the interesting Play, entitled HONESTY THE BEST POLICY.

To conclude with
[illegible]

[illegible]

ELLIOTT'S QUADRILLE BAND

Respectfully give notice to their friends and the public, that they are prepared to furnish Music for Balls, Private Parties, Assemblies, &c. [illegible] W. T. ELLIOTT, [illegible] H. GARDNER, [illegible] W. O. BROOKS, [illegible]

☞ Any number of pieces furnished. Harp and Violin furnished for Private Parties.

Lowell, Aug. 26, 1853.

WAMESIT BANK.

THE Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Wamesit Bank, [illegible] on FRIDAY, October 7th, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

JOHN H. BUTTRICK, Cashier.

Lowell, Sept. 23, 1853.

WAMESIT BANK.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Stockholders [illegible]

JOHN H. BUTTRICK, Cashier.

RAILROAD BANK.

THE Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Railroad Bank, for the choice of Directors and the transaction of such other business as may legally come before them, will be held at the Bank on THURSDAY, the sixth day of October next, at nine o'clock, A. M.

A dividend will be payable on and after the third of October.

J. F. ROGERS, Cashier.

Lowell, Sept. 20, 1853.

PRESCOTT BANK.

THE Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Prescott Bank, for the choice of Directors, will be held at their Banking Room, on WEDNESDAY, October 5th, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

A Dividend will be payable on and after the 3d of October.

A. S. TYLER, Cashier.

Lowell, Sept. 26, 1853.

LOWELL BANK.

THE Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Lowell Bank, for the choice of Directors, and the transaction of any other business, will be held at the Bank on TUESDAY, Oct. 4th, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

A dividend will be payable on Monday, Oct. 3d, to holders of stock at the close of the Bank on 19th inst.

J. L. ORDWAY, Cashier.

Lowell, Sept. 19, 1853.

APPLETON BANK.

THE Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Appleton Bank, for the choice of Directors, will be held at their Banking Room, on MONDAY, the [illegible] day of October next, at 10 o'clock A. M.

It is our intention to pay [illegible]

JOHN A. BUTTRICK, Cashier.

Lowell, Sept. 17, 1853.

CAMBRIDGE CITY BANK.

THE Stockholders of Cambridge City Bank are hereby notified to meet at their Banking Room, on THURSDAY, the 6th day of October next, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, for the choice of Directors for the ensuing year, and the transaction of any other business that may legally come before them.

By order of the President and Directors.

E. RICHARDSON, Cashier.

Cambridgeport, Sept. 20, 1853.

LECHMERE BANK, EAST CAMBRIDGE.

THE Stockholders of the Lechmere Bank, East Cambridge, are hereby notified that their Annual Meeting for the choice of Directors, and for any other business which may come before them, will be held at the office of said Bank, No. 30 Cambridge street in East Cambridge, on FRIDAY, the 7th day of October next, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

By order of the Board of Directors.
EDMUND BOYNTON, President.

East Cambridge, Sept. 21, 1853.

BOSTON EXHIBITION
—OF—
SHAWLS, SILKS,
CLOAKS,
—AND—
OTHER DRY GOODS,
—AT THE—
LADIES' EXCHANGE.
GEO. W. WARREN & Co.

INVITE the special attention of ALL to their magnificent assortment of FOREIGN & DOMESTIC DRY GOODS
—OF—
HALF A MILLION DOLLARS VALUE.

Nearly every article of our large stock has been made to our own order, and it is therefore [illegible]

GEO. W. WARREN & CO.,
192 Washington st.

THE PEOPLE'S CLOTHING STORE
S. T. LANCASTER,
Nos. 7 and 8 Appleton Block, Central st.

HAS just received a large invoice of superior French, English, German and American DOESKINS, CASSIMERES, BROADCLOTHS, &c. [illegible]

READY MADE CLOTHING
AND
RICH FURNISHING GOODS.

[illegible]

COAT AND PANT MAKERS
WANTED,
At the City Hall Clothing Store, by GILMAN & WORCESTER.

FALL AND WINTER STOCK & STYLES
CLOTHS AND CLOTHING.

JOHN QUINN [illegible] at his Clothing Store, [illegible] on Canal Bridge, [illegible]

ROSEMARY AND CASTOR OIL—[illegible] JAMES F. WALKER.

GLENN'S
True Verbena Water.

THIS delightful perfume, prepared by a chemical process, from the hot house plant.

LEMON TRIFOLIA, [illegible]

SETTER PUPS FOR SALE.
Two very superior Setter Pups of pure blood [illegible] J. HARDING, [illegible]

FOR SALE, a Pointer Dog [illegible] A. COFFIN [illegible]

THREE CASES HATS.
[illegible] GILMAN & WORCESTER'S, Old City Hall Building.

LIFE AND FIRE INSURANCE.
CHARTER OAK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN.
$200,000 CAPITAL.

[illegible]

BRIGGS SALVE, for Burns, bruises, Sores, &c. &c. Sole agent in Lowell, S. KIDDER, Jr.

SPALDING & ROGERS' NORTH AMERICAN
COLOSSAL DRAMATIC EQUESTRIAN CIRCUS,
TWICE AS LARGE AS ANY OTHER CIRCUS IN THE UNION.

C. J. ROGERS, Manager. .... J. [illegible], Treasurer.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE Managers, aware of the [illegible] will exhibit at Lowell, South Common, on THURSDAY, Oct. 6th, for one day only. [illegible]

Admission 25 Cents—No half price.

The characteristics of this Establishment consist in its [illegible]

C. J. ROGERS, the best Dramatic Rider [illegible]
W. W. NICHOLS, the great American [illegible]
Mr E. WHITE, the [illegible]
Mons. CLARANCE, [illegible]
Mons. La THORN, the renowned [illegible]
A. P. DURAND, the world renowned Acrobat and Equestrian.
J. McFARLAND, the great Tight Rope Performer.
Mr H. ORMAND, the celebrated Acrobat [illegible]
[illegible]
Mrs W. LAKE, the brilliant Creole Gymnast; [illegible]
[illegible] PARSONS, LOGAN, CLARKE, WILSON, BROWN, [illegible]
[illegible] HAMILTON, the Tusk Clown; J. LA THORN [illegible], JUAN and HENRY.

Among the Novelties of the Establishment, which will be produced every night, will be found the great Scenic Spectacle

DE TROIS AMANTS!

in which will be introduced at considerable expense [illegible]

[illegible]

A whole Troupe (the largest in the United States) of Trained Performing Ponies [illegible] LILLIPUTIAN TRICK PONIES! [illegible]

[illegible]

ENTIRE DRAMATIC CORPS,

Embracing Actors and Actresses of acknowledged talent, [illegible] OLD PUT AND MAD ANTHONY WAYNE! [illegible]

[illegible] JOHNSON, [illegible]

REMOVAL.

CHARLES W. HACKETT

WOULD announce to his customers and the public, that he has removed from his store No. [illegible] to the Wallace Block, and that having sold nearly all his former stock, he is now prepared to offer a NEW and CHOICE assortment of SEASONABLE GOODS, consisting of

French and German THIBETS, in desirable colors.
do do CASHMERES do do
LYONESE CLOTHS in all qualities.
MERINOS [illegible]
[illegible]
All Wool French Mousselines.
Cotton and wool French and American do.
Vienna and French Cashmere Shawls in new patterns.
do Printed do do do Wrought Cashmere and Thibet.

BLACK SILKS

of the best make imported—highly lustred and soft finish; qualities and prices of which cannot fail to give entire satisfaction.

LINEN GOODS—a full assortment.
Housekeeping and Domestic Goods.
White Cambrics and Cambric Muslins.
Bishop, Mull, Nainsook, India Muslins.
Victoria and Bishop Lawns.
Plain and Twilled FLANNELS in all colors.
DOMESTIC GOODS in all varieties.
GLOVES, HOSIERY, &c. &c.

All of which will be exhibited with pleasure, and sold at low rates.

We invite particular attention to our stock of LINEN, HOUSEKEEPING and DOMESTIC GOODS, consisting of

Linen Sheetings, Shirtings and Pillow Linens;
Damask Covers; Napkins and Doylies;
Damask, Bird's Eye and Huckaback Towelling;
Scotch and Russia Diaper;
Printing Linens from the celebrated manufactures of Wm Orr & Co., Young & Co., Barbour, Gallan & Co., in all qualities;
Side Pasts Printed Table Covers;
All wool Embossed [illegible]
Turkey Red Furnitures;
Curtain Muslins and Damasks;
Imperial Tables, [illegible]
Quilts; Bleached and brown Cottons in all grades, &c. &c.

We would say to customers in want of any of the above, that we have as good an assortment as can be found in this city, and will offer them at favorable prices. C. W. H. would take this opportunity to return his sincere thanks to the public for the generous patronage which he has received during the last ten years, [illegible]

NO. 8 WALLACE BLOCK, MERRIMACK STREET.

BOSTON VICE MANUFACTORY,
No. 6 Saint Alban st., Boston.

[illegible] JOHN WOOLLEY.

Boston, Aug. 19, 1853.

PATENTS.

UNITED STATES AND FOREIGN AGENCY
FOR THE TRANSACTION OF PATENT BUSINESS, OFFICE, MIDDLE ST., NEAR THE POST OFFICE,
LOWELL, MASS.

THE undersigned is prepared to offer [illegible]

[illegible]

E. W. SCOTT.

30 FRENCH SHIRT BOSOMS. [illegible] WM. P. BRAZER, [illegible] Central, corner Hurd st.

NOTICE.

F. GARDINER,

WOULD inform his friends and the public generally, that he continues the business of manufacturing VARNISH and JAPAN, at the old stand, [illegible] PAINTS, OILS, WINDOW GLASS, and VARNISHES of all descriptions.

WHITE VARNISH,
For Pianos, Ceilings of Rooms, or any [illegible]

ENAMELLED BLACK.
A beautiful black, with a fine lustre, [illegible]

IRON VARNISH,
Expressly for Iron Work, Fences, Safes, &c.

ZINC PAINT,
A beautiful article for inside or outside Painting.
50 bbls. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.
Just received and for sale by F. GARDINER, No. 10 Market st.

Lowell, Aug. 17, 1853.

ABIJAH CUTTER,
DEALER IN
DOUBLE AND SINGLE SHOT GUNS AND PISTOLS.
Also—Sporting Apparatus and Fishing Tackle of every description.
Powder, Shot, Percussion Caps, Guns, &c.
FISHING RODS made to order.
KEYS of all kinds [illegible] and LOCKS repaired.
No. 13 MIDDLE STREET,
Third door west of the Post Office,
LOWELL, MASS.

NEW BOOKS.—Four Years in the Government Exploring Expedition; Uncle Tom's [illegible] A. WHITNEY, [illegible]

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN CHRISTIAN UNION. [illegible] A. WHITNEY.

[illegible]

TO WHOLESALE PURCHASERS
OF RIBBONS, LACES,
EMBROIDERIES,
Silks, Velvets, Merinos,
HOSIERY, HANDKERCHIEFS,
MUSLINS & LINEN GOODS.
GEO. TURNBULL & CO.
BOSTON,

ARE now opening their Fall Stock, and would inform customers that they have extended their premises from Washington st. through to Winter st.

Purchasers can have the advantage of selecting from a large and choice stock at a small advance on the cost of importation.

AUCTION SALES.

Having a buyer constantly in the Market, attending every facility to buy largely at the different Auction Sales, [illegible]

Geo. Turnbull & Co.,
275 WASHINGTON STREET, AND 8 & 10 WINTER STREET.

Boston, Sept. 17, 1853.

GOLD MEDAL FURNACE.
IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT!
W. & W. K. WHITE'S CELEBRATED CULVER FURNACE!

WE take pleasure to announce that this justly celebrated AIR WARMING AND VENTILATING FURNACE, [illegible] awarded the Gold Medal at the late Fair of the American Institute, held at New York, [illegible]

[illegible]

MIRROR MANTELS.

[illegible]

Furnace, Stove and Range Warehouse,
No. 11 FRANKLIN ST., BOSTON.
W. & W. K. WHITE.

WANTED.
A YOUNG MAN to learn the Dental Business. [illegible]

TO LET.
[illegible]

MISS S. FLETCHER,
FEMALE PHYSICIAN.

MAY be consulted at her rooms, [illegible] ELECTRICITY [illegible]

Lowell, Aug. 22, 1853.

CHOICE PERFUMES AND EXTRACTS. [illegible] CARLETON & HOVEY.

IMPROVEMENT upon Bonney's Patent [illegible] WATSON & SARGEANT.

THE LOCOMOTIVE ENGINE, [illegible] WATSON & SARGEANT.

CHARLES T. CARNEY,
APOTHECARY AND CHEMIST,
Corner of Merrimack and Kirk Streets, [illegible]
DEALER IN
Pure Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, and CHEMICAL APPARATUS.

[illegible]

FISH MARKET.
T. L. JENNINGS [illegible]

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

CITY OF LOWELL.

[illegible]

THOS. ORDWAY, City Clerk.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTICE.

A [illegible]

Lowell, Sept. 26, 1853.

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store.
JOSEPH T. JANES,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in every variety of
GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS,
HATS, CAPS, UMBRELLAS, PERFUMERY, &c. &c.
No. 140 Merrimack street,
City Hall Building,
LOWELL.

TO LET.
Store No. 42 Central street, now occupied by Geo. P. Elliot. [illegible]

ALBERT HOWE,
Teacher of the Piano Forte, and Dealer [illegible]

Lowell, Aug. 23, 1853.

A GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF BOYS' CLOTHING
Just received at GILMAN & WORCESTER'S,
City Hall, Merrimack st.

TO FARMERS.

BEING about to make a change in location and business, [illegible] IMPLEMENTS, MACHINES and SEEDS [illegible]

[illegible]

GEO. P. ELLIOT & CO.

LOWELL AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE.
No. 42 Central and 8 Prescott st.

Lowell, Mon., Sept. 26, 1853.

WINE STORE.

CHAMBERLIN & WAUGH, [illegible]

[illegible]

JOHN CHAMBERLIN, Jr.
JOHN WAUGH, Jr.

Boston, Aug. 31, 1853.

PERRY'S
HUNGARIAN BALM.

FOR PRESERVING AND BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR.

FOR giving to the Hair a soft and glossy appearance, removing Scurf and Dandruff, destroying Hair Eaters, curing Headache, and all Humors of the Scalp. [illegible]

PRICE 38 CENTS.

None genuine without the signature of J. A. PERRY, [illegible]

Prepared and sold wholesale and retail by BURR & PERRY, at the New England Family Medicine and Perfumery Store, No. 1 Cornhill, BOSTON.

Agents for Lowell—S. Kidder, Jr., Carleton & Hovey, J. C. Ayer & Co., C. S. Beeman & Co., and by Druggists generally.

DAVID HYDE,
No. 68 Central street, Lowell,
AND
No. 46 State street, Boston,
—DEALER IN—
STOCKS, MONEY, AND REAL ESTATE.
MEMBER OF THE BROKERS' BOARD, BOSTON.
Sta Boston Money Dept.

Money received to pay Notes, Bills, &c., in Boston. Dividends and Interest collected.

10 per cent paid for Money, and Stocks given to collateral.

Leave Lowell for Boston at 9 o'clock, A. M., and return at 2½ P. M.

VOCAL MUSIC.

GEO. F. WILLEY,

[illegible]

MUSIC.
MRS W. STEWARD, [illegible]

Fire Insurance.

METROPOLITAN FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE Co., Boston. [illegible]
HOWARD FIRE INSURANCE CO., Lowell. [illegible]
EQUITABLE M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Concord, N. H. [illegible]
HAVERHILL M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Haverhill.
QUINCY M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Quincy.
PEOPLE'S EQUITABLE M. FIRE INSURANCE CO. [illegible]
FARMERS' M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., [illegible]

[illegible]

E. O. WISE & CO.,
(Successors to D. C. Lincoln,)
COPPER, TIN PLATE & SHEET IRON WORKERS,
AND DEALERS IN
STOVES, HOLLOW WARE, &c., &c.
[illegible]

LIGHTNING RODS.

[illegible]

Lowell, June 17, 1853.

HERRICK & TUTTLE,
[illegible]

CLEAVER'S POMADE—[illegible] CARLETON & HOVEY.

ZINC PAINT.
[illegible]

DR. F. [illegible]

WILL be in Lowell, [illegible]

WALES' [illegible]

GOLD THIMBLES—[illegible] JOSEPH RAYNES.

AUCTION SALES.

BY E. G. PATCH.

[illegible]

JOSHUA SWAN, Adm'r.

[illegible]

JOHN H. DUSGIN, Jr., Adm'r.

AT PRIVATE SALE.

[illegible]

LOWELL MARBLE WORKS.

THE proprietor of the above-named Marble Works [illegible]
MONUMENTS AND GRAVE STONES
[illegible]
IRON FENCE AND GRANITE POSTS.
[illegible]

Lowell, May 24, 1853.

MYSTASSE
INDIAN PULMONIC
BALSAM.
For Colds, Coughs,
INFLUENZA, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, CROUP,
WHOOPING COUGH, ASTHMA, AND FOR ALL DISEASES THAT LEAD TO CONSUMPTION!

R [illegible]

[illegible]

In the month of October last, I took a violent cold which settled on my lungs. My side was lame and painful, and had a constant distressing cough. After two or three weeks, finding that the difficulty rather increased than otherwise, I applied to Dr. Muzzy, who gave me a bottle of his Indian Pulmonic Balsam, [illegible]

SAMUEL H. STANWOOD,
No. 31 Charles Street, Lowell.

In recommendation of Dr. Muzzy's Indian Pulmonic Balsam, I would speak from experience. Having a severe cough this last winter, for five weeks, [illegible]

WILDER LEEMAN.
Lowell, April 25th, 1853. 64 Lawrence Corp.

Being afflicted with constant and distressing cough [illegible]

MOSES S. GLEASON,
Merrimack House, Lowell.

I can speak highly of Muzzy's Indian Pulmonic Balsam. [illegible]

SOPHIA K. BEAVER.
Lowell, June 11th, 1853.

[illegible]

JULIUS LAFEVER.
Lowell, May 9th, 1853.

[illegible]

JOHN A. CALDWELL.
HANNAH M. CALDWELL.
Lowell, March 1, 1853. No. 1 Boott Corp.

[illegible]

A. WAGGOTT.
Lowell, April 8, 1853.

[illegible]

AARON BAILEY.
Lowell, Aug. 29, 1853.

BAGGETT'S VENOM OF TOOTHACHE. [illegible]

[illegible]

AUCTION SALES.

BY J. C. [illegible]

[illegible]

STOCK AT PRIVATE SALE.

[illegible]

LINEN GOODS AT PRIVATE SALE.

[illegible]

COAL AND WOOD.

[illegible]

S. C. [illegible]

[illegible] ALLEN & WELTON'S LINE.—From Rowe's Wharf, [illegible]

SAVANNAH AND BOSTON [illegible]

[illegible]

CITY POINT AND [illegible]
ALLEN & WELTON'S LINE.—From Rowe's Wharf.
ON SATURDAY.

[illegible]

TO THE AFFLICTED.
[illegible] LOWELL.

DR. [illegible]

[illegible]

Lowell, August 3, 1853.

[illegible]

A [illegible]

SYRUP.

[illegible]

TO CANCERS IN PARTICULAR, [illegible]

[illegible]

H [illegible]

[illegible]

W [illegible]

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 30, 1853. NO 4188.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

Payable in advance.

Office—No. 27 CENTRAL STREET,
(Adjoining the Post Office.)

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at $1 per square for three insertions, and 25 cts. per square for each subsequent insertion. Those not specified as to the number of insertions will be published till forbid, and charged accordingly.

Yearly and Monthly advertisements inserted at prices according to the space occupied.

☞ The proprietor will not hold himself responsible for any debts contracted in his name, unless he gives his written order therefor.

Communications on subjects of limited interest, and those containing flattering notices of individuals, will be charged at the rate of 10 cts. per line.

☞ Any person will be considered a subscriber who takes the paper from the office, or to whom it is sent by mail, and pays for it in advance.

☞ Any person wishing to discontinue his paper at the end of the year, will please notify us to that effect, or we shall consider it a new engagement.

☞ The paper will be discontinued at the expiration of the time paid for, unless renewed.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
NEATLY AND PROMPTLY EXECUTED
AT THE "OFFICE OF THE
Lowell Daily Journal & Courier.

A. H. FLANDERS, M. D.
Homœopathic Physician,
Having taken Dr. Kaan's Drug Store,
Before in G. Hess, M. D.

P. H. MAGUIRE,
HATTER,
Prescott street, Lowell,
(Up Stairs, over the Dry Goods Store, or Cooper, in the new Block.)

O. M. HART,
DEPUTY SHERIFF,
Office—Canal Bank Building, Central street,
LOWELL, MASS.
Orders reserved at the office, or at his residence, will be promptly attended to. 1m

C. S. HASTMAN & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
Have purchased
Pennyroyal Spring Soda and Mineral Water,
CORNER STORE, "EXCHANGE" BUILDING,
LOWELL.

DAVID DARE,
UPHOLSTERER, REPAIR & FURNISHER,
And Tin-Plate Worker,
Jackson street, opposite Prince Print Works.
☞ All orders promptly executed. 1m

MUTUAL SERENITY LIFE INS. COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
JOSHUA BERRILL, Agent,
Office—No. 23 Merrimack Square.

HUGH McEVOY,
DRAPER AND TAILOR
Lowell, Mass.

ABEL WHITNEY,
(Successor to MILTON MORSE,)
BOOKSELLER, STATIONER,
And Manufacturer of
ACCOUNT BOOKS OF ALL GRADES.
Agent for the Sterling Mutual Union, Trust and Mass. Mutual Fire Insurance Companies.
Agent for Fire, Life and Health Insurance Company, Aug. 6, 1853. sempdly

A. P. GROSVENOR,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Corner of Central and Centre sts., Chemeketa.

J. C. AYER & CO.'S
MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.
Are for Consumptive Affections, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold by Agents everywhere.

POPE'S MORNAIR.
☞ Call or send the boy at C. Gardner st., Wendell Block, and get a bottle. 3m

WEBB, HOWARD & CO.,
Successors to Geo. W. Bayley & Co.,
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN
Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods,
No. 7 Central street, Lowell.
Boston Office, No. 7 Franklin street.

POPE, WILLIAMS & CO.,
Successors to Pope, Tarbell & Co.,
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN
Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods,
No. 5 Central street, Lowell.
Boston Office, No. 7 Franklin street.

LUCCA SALAD OIL.
We have just received another assortment of this delicious OLIVE OIL, which we offer at reduced prices.
CARLTON & BOYET, Apothecaries.

J. C. AYER & CO.'S
MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.
Are for Consumptive Affections, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold by Agents everywhere.

A NEW DISCOVERY.
THE MEDICO-ELECTRIC VOLTAIC CHAIR.
Discovered by Professor Page, of Boston, and patented by him in the United States, England and France.
The operation combines nature nervous power, such as is produced by voltaic batteries, with the curative properties of medicine, and is the most powerful remedy ever discovered for the cure of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Paralysis, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Female Weakness, Nervous Debility, and all diseases of the nervous system.
Those who have used the Chair in this city and vicinity, pronounce it the most wonderful discovery of the age, and the only remedy that will cure Rheumatism.
Those who are afflicted with any of the above diseases, are invited to call at the Rooms of the Agent, and examine the Chair, and receive advice gratis.
Rooms at the Merrimack House, Lowell.
JAMES P. WALKER, Agent.

A. CATES & CO., Agents,
No. 5 Central street, Lowell.

WHALE AND LARD OIL.
200 BBLS. Whale and Lard Oil, of superior quality, for sale by apr13 Nos. 2 and 3 Boott Mills.

THE subscriber has just received a large assortment of Gold and Silver Watches, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Also, a fine assortment of Jewelry, Silver Spoons, Forks, Thimbles, Pencils, Gold Pens, &c. Watches and Jewelry repaired in a workmanlike manner, and warranted.
CHARLES H. SAWYER,
No. 4 Merrimack Square.

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.
THE subscriber has opened a store for the sale of Medicines, Chemicals, Perfumery, Fancy Articles, &c., at the old stand of Dr. Kaan, No. 3 Merrimack Square, where he will be happy to see his friends and the public generally.
Physicians' Prescriptions and Family Receipts will be carefully compounded at all hours of the day and night.
Lowell, Aug. 1, 1853. 1m
G. W. HOWARD.

CHARLES WOOD'S
PATENT SPRING BED BOTTOM,
Manufactured and for sale by CHARLES WOOD,
Middlesex street, Lowell.
Orders left at the Store of Messrs. Bowers & Merrill, Merrimack street, will be promptly attended to. 1y

NOTICE TO FARMERS.
A report on the comparative merits of Ruggles, Nourse & Mason's PATENT PORTABLE FURNACE and PLOWING APPARATUS, and other Furnaces, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Middlesex Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.
Also, a report on the same subject, by the Committee on Agricultural Implements, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Worcester County Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.
Also, a report on the same subject, by the Committee on Agricultural Implements, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Essex Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.
Also, a report on the same subject, by the Committee on Agricultural Implements, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Hampshire, Franklin and Hampden Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.
Also, a report on the same subject, by the Committee on Agricultural Implements, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Berkshire Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.
Also, a report on the same subject, by the Committee on Agricultural Implements, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Plymouth County Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.
Also, a report on the same subject, by the Committee on Agricultural Implements, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Bristol Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.
Also, a report on the same subject, by the Committee on Agricultural Implements, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Norfolk Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.
Also, a report on the same subject, by the Committee on Agricultural Implements, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Barnstable County Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.
Also, a report on the same subject, by the Committee on Agricultural Implements, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Dukes County Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.
Also, a report on the same subject, by the Committee on Agricultural Implements, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Nantucket County Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.
Also, a report on the same subject, by the Committee on Agricultural Implements, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Suffolk County Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.
Also, a report on the same subject, by the Committee on Agricultural Implements, will be found in the Report of the Trustees of the Middlesex County Agricultural Society, for 1853, page 49.

PATENTS.
AMERICAN AND FOREIGN.
Agency for Patents and United States Patent Office Reports.
No. 20 STATE STREET, BOSTON.
MESSRS. MUNN & COMPANY, in connection with the publication of the Scientific American, continue to act as Solicitors for Patents, examine into the merits of new inventions, and make the preliminary arrangements necessary to secure Patents in the United States, England, France, and other foreign countries.
Any person who has made a new discovery or invention, can ascertain, free of charge, whether a patent can probably be obtained, by writing a description of the same to MUNN & COMPANY.
Models of new inventions should be sent to the office, but are not necessary to the preparation of the specification.
Drawings must be executed in the most perfect manner, and should be made with pen and ink on bristol board.
The model or drawing should be accompanied by the fee, and all papers necessary to perfect the case will be prepared at the office.
Hints as to the most valuable inventions now needed, and other matters of interest to inventors, will be found in the Scientific American.
Information as to the best mode of introducing inventions into notice, and how to proceed to make sales, and all matters relating to the selling of patent rights, will be found in the Scientific American.
The Scientific American is published weekly, at the low price of two dollars a year, or one dollar for six months, and is filled with the most interesting and useful information in relation to the progress of the Mechanic Arts, Agriculture, Chemistry, and Manufactures, and is the best paper in the world for the purpose.
Specimen copies may be seen at this office.
Address MUNN & COMPANY,
No. 20 State street, Boston.

BRIGHT & CARTER,
Successors to
BRIGHT, CARTER & CO.,
Importers and Dealers in
BEEF, PORK, LARD, HAM, POULTRY, BUTTER, CHEESE, &c.
No. 3 Faneuil Hall Square, Boston.
☞ Boxes, Tubs, Pails, &c., constantly on hand.
Boston, Sept. 1, 1853. 3m

BRIGHT & CARTER,
Successors to
BRIGHT, CARTER & CO.,
Importers and Dealers in
BEEF, PORK, LARD, HAM, POULTRY, BUTTER, CHEESE, &c.
No. 3 Faneuil Hall Square, Boston.
☞ Boxes, Tubs, Pails, &c., constantly on hand.
Boston, Sept. 1, 1853. 3m

A. KITTREDGE,
MIDDLE STREET,
1500 ROLLS PAPER HANGINGS—Just received, and for sale at the lowest prices.
MORNING, at the low price of $2.50 a year in advance, at 27 Central street.
All notes will be so treated, after one year has elapsed.
☞ The paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the proprietor.

DAGUERREOTYPES
TAKEN IN ALL THE
VARIOUS STYLES!
Crayons, Illuminated,
MAGIC BACKGROUNDS, &c.
DAGUERREOTYPES
Copied and Magnified
TO ANY SIZE DESIRED.
Old ladies, sick and deceased persons, taken at their residences.
☞ The public are invited to call and examine specimens of all the styles of
LARGEST AND BEST
DAGUERREOTYPES
AT THE CITY.
19 CENTRAL STREET,
Lowell, July, 1853. 3PPM

SPRING GOODS.
Have received, and are ready to exhibit at my store, a full assortment of Carpeting, Oil Cloths, Mats, Paint Goods and Trimmings, of the various styles and patterns for the season, which I am prepared to sell at the lowest prices for cash or approved credit.
DANIEL H. PEAN.
Agent for the Lowell Manufacturing Company.
Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. 1m

BALANCE ON THE CHURCH TRADE.
THE subscriber has just received a large assortment of the justly celebrated Church Organs, manufactured by the builder's estimate. It commends itself to the attention of Churches, Societies, Seminaries, and Families, as the most perfect instrument of the kind ever offered to the public. Also, a few second hand Organs, which will be sold at a bargain. Also, Melodeons, Seraphines, and Cabinet Organs, of the best manufacture, and warranted. Also, Music Books, Sheet Music, Strings, &c., at wholesale and retail.
Please call and examine for yourselves, at the Music Rooms, No. 1 Merrimack Square, Lowell.
Lowell, Aug. 1, 1853. 3m

STEAM POWER AND SHOP TO LET.
A suite of Tenements, half shop in basement, with steam power, in the Merrimack Block, Middle street, Lowell. Apply to JOSEPH BAYLIS.
Lowell, Aug. 1, 1853. 3m

PORTLAND CEMENT.
Just received, and for sale by the subscriber, a large supply of Portland Cement, which he will sell at the lowest prices.
JAMES P. WALKER.

A NEW DISCOVERY.
THE MEDICO-ELECTRIC VOLTAIC CHAIR.
Discovered by Professor Page, of Boston, and patented by him in the United States, England and France.
The operation combines nature nervous power, such as is produced by voltaic batteries, with the curative properties of medicine, and is the most powerful remedy ever discovered for the cure of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Paralysis, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Female Weakness, Nervous Debility, and all diseases of the nervous system.
Those who have used the Chair in this city and vicinity, pronounce it the most wonderful discovery of the age, and the only remedy that will cure Rheumatism.
Those who are afflicted with any of the above diseases, are invited to call at the Rooms of the Agent, and examine the Chair, and receive advice gratis.
Rooms at the Merrimack House, Lowell.
JAMES P. WALKER, Agent.

CHARCOAL CONCRETE.
Charcoal Concrete is a new and valuable material, which will make a perfect and durable roof for dwelling houses, stores, factories, &c., at a cost of about one-fifth that of tin, and will last as long. It is applicable for flooring and plastering purposes, and is unequalled for stopping and filling up the interstices between the timbers of buildings. All goods and the above material are warranted to be as represented, or the money will be refunded. Orders for the goods or the material will be promptly attended to. Apply to or address the subscriber, at his office, No. 3 Merrimack Square, Lowell, Mass.
CHARLES H. SAWYER.
Lowell, Aug. 1, 1853. 3m

A. G. & S. STEVENS,
MANUFACTURERS OF
POWER LOOM HARNESSES AND REEDS,
And every description of
MACHINE BELTS AND STRAPS,
Corner Fletcher st. and Western Avenue
LOWELL, MASS.
Also, Patent Leather Belting, constantly on hand.
☞ Orders promptly attended to. 1y

THE Lowell Weekly Journal, a paper of the size, style and form of the Lowell Daily Journal and Courier, is published every Saturday MORNING, at the low price of $1.50 a year in advance, at 27 Central street.
All notes will be so treated, after one year has elapsed.
☞ The paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the proprietor.

DAGUERREOTYPES
TAKEN IN ALL THE
VARIOUS STYLES!
Crayons, Illuminated,
MAGIC BACKGROUNDS, &c.
DAGUERREOTYPES
Copied and Magnified
TO ANY SIZE DESIRED.
Old ladies, sick and deceased persons, taken at their residences.
☞ The public are invited to call and examine specimens of all the styles of
LARGEST AND BEST
DAGUERREOTYPES
AT THE CITY.
19 CENTRAL STREET,
Lowell, July, 1853. 3PPM

SPRING GOODS.
Have received, and are ready to exhibit at my store, a full assortment of Carpeting, Oil Cloths, Mats, Paint Goods and Trimmings, of the various styles and patterns for the season, which I am prepared to sell at the lowest prices for cash or approved credit.
DANIEL H. PEAN.
Agent for the Lowell Manufacturing Company.
Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. 1m

BALANCE ON THE CHURCH TRADE.
THE subscriber has just received a large assortment of the justly celebrated Church Organs, manufactured by the builder's estimate. It commends itself to the attention of Churches, Societies, Seminaries, and Families, as the most perfect instrument of the kind ever offered to the public. Also, a few second hand Organs, which will be sold at a bargain. Also, Melodeons, Seraphines, and Cabinet Organs, of the best manufacture, and warranted. Also, Music Books, Sheet Music, Strings, &c., at wholesale and retail.
Please call and examine for yourselves, at the Music Rooms, No. 1 Merrimack Square, Lowell.
Lowell, Aug. 1, 1853. 3m

RAILROADS.

NOTICE.
THIS is to notify the GEORGE HERBERT has been for the last ten years, and is now, our only agent in Lowell, and that he is not to be paid by us for any services he may render in purchasing our lumber, unless we already owe him for such services. We have no other agent in Lowell, and will not be responsible for any debts contracted by any person assuming to act as our agent, except as the above named.
All persons having lumber to sell, will please call on us at Boston.
Lowell, Sept. 19, 1853. 1w
GEO. HERBERT & CO

triotism and proud self-gratulation in his mood than of sympathy for the poor, or of opprobrium for the Rebels.

As he is fond of such, we lay before of all, let us cause him glimpse over the memory of home, in search of the like of some less brilliant but more to his unpolished taste.

"They come from home," he muttered to himself, "and where are they? My fare cried out for a dinner, and I'll be bound they have it. Oh! We are never used in my path, that has not preluded from before my face? Not one? Who knows with me, that has not fallen? Who ever fostered upon me, that has not exacted the tribute? Who dealt grim? Not one! not one! Enemies, hundreds, have died for it—friends, but few, of mine has lived to boast of it? Not one?"

* Let those who doubt this, think of Cowtoun and Cumnock, Paisley and Manse, and Stewarton!

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Friday, September 30, 1853.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF ADAMS.

ELECTION.....MONDAY, NOV. 14.

WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Whig Convention for the County of Middlesex, will be held at Concord, on TUESDAY the 11th day of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of choosing candidates for the State Senate.

The several Towns and Cities of the County are entitled to the same number of delegates to said Convention as they are severally entitled to be represented in the Legislature, or elected said Convention.

JOHN S. KEYES, Chairman.
ISAAC F. SHEPARD, Secretary.
September 7, 1853.

Penn Days Later from Europe.

New York, Sept. 29.

The steamer Washington arrived at this port at 5 o'clock, P. M. to-day, having left Southampton on the 14th, and Cowes on the 15th.

The Washington brings 243 passengers.

Last evening, off Fire Island, the Washington fell in with the ship Dreadnaught, from Baltimore for Australia, dismasted, and towed his into port. She has been abandoned, and is a crippled condition.

There was no increased pressure in the money market.

A panic was experienced on the Stock Exchange. Funds and foreign stocks were experienced a sudden and severe depreciation.

It was feared that the Bank would raise the rate of interest to 6 per cent.

The weather in England was again unfavorable for the harvest. The consequence of which breadstuffs at Mark Lane were firmer.

At Birmingham every branch of business was prosperous.

The hosiery trade of Nottingham was in a state of activity.

In the woollen districts there was no alternation of demand, but orders had an upward tendency.

In the Irish linen market everything was eagerly brought up at increasing prices. Taffeta was firmer at 2d per piece.

The Americs arrived out on the 11th.

The cholera was progressing in England.

The ship building yard and machine factory of Messrs. Scott, Sawyer & Co. at Millwall, on the Poplar, near London, was destroyed by fire on the 19th inst., the estimated loss being over $100,000.

The ship Mauna Loa arrived at Liverpool from Australia with 670,000 in gold. Her advices are to the 6th of June.

The weather in England having become favorable, the harvest prospects were improving.

The London Times announces that the Emperor of Russia had rejected the Turkish modification of the Vienna note, and that hostilities were imminent.

Previous accounts state that the English and French Consuls had left Sinope, creating a great excitement.

Omar Pasha, with a fresh corps of Russian troops upon Moldavia.

The Czar was to quit the Principalities on the 30th inst., and was to meet the Emperor of Austria at Olmutz on the 20th of September.

The troops of Omar Pasha on the lower Danube, insist on fighting the Russians, and it is rumored that the Pasha will not be able to endure their fanaticism, in order to effect further negotiations.

From Paris we learn that the Emperor had issued a decree, dated the 14th, by power of a Cabinet council held at St. Cloud, on the 11th inst.

In consequence of the financial measures of the government, the Bank of France has been authorized to reduce the rate of interest to 5 per cent.

The Moniteur publishes another detail of the statement that large quantities of Corn had been purchased by the French government.—The purchase of 19,000 hectolitres, made about six weeks since in England, for the army and navy, is the only fact of the kind, says that journal, which has come to its knowledge.

The United correspondence of the Morning Chronicle, states, that the municipal of Mr Sheridan, the Attorney General, was elected by the Council of Ministers at La Grande, on the 3d. It was generally believed that Mr Smith would be re-elected, although several journals had advocated an opposition candidate.

The last journals of the Hungarian Crown have been found in the same Danube. The jewels, by computation the Hungarian crown, and insignia, and the circlet of St. Stephen; the latter was almost destroyed by damp.

It is reported that the Persian city of Ispan has was nearly destroyed by an earthquake on the 12th of July.

Telegraphic accounts from Constantinople to the 20th of September state that the Turks were waiting impatiently for a manifesto from the Porte, explaining the position of Turkey with respect to the other powers. The Egyptian troops, after being reviewed by the Sultan, were to march to Shumla. All regular communication between Constantinople and the Russian ports was interrupted.

Vienna, Sept. 8. The warlike preparations of the Turks are carried on with unabated vigor, both in Bosnia and in Asia. The troops were literally day and night at the fortifications on the right bank of the Danube, and a speedy action has been received from Widdin to Shumla, and from Shumla to Varna.

Towards the end of August another detachment of 7000 men, with ammunition, passed a steam frigate and another vessel to Varna.

The Turkish troops on the neighborhood of Varna, is estimated at 60,000 men, with 200 guns. In the meantime fortresses and in the towns of the Balkan are gone of a large calibre. In Varna there are 40 batteries of heavy metal.

The naval and land force maintained in Omar Pasha's camp is highly spoken of, but the financial difficulties with which he has to contend are great.

Two Russian regiments had arrived at Bucharest, and the Russian commissariat had entered into contract for the supply of 500,000 great coats lined with leather for the troops; and this was thought indicative of a further complication of the difficulties, consequently the postponement of the evacuation.

A supplement of the Milan Gazette, of the 7th inst., publishes the sentence issued on the 16th ult. by a Council of War. The Council of War sitting at Milan, composed only four persons instead of the number of seven, on the 5th of February. Twenty-four were accused to death.

A Fleischmann, of Hamburg, offered money with the remains of Kossuth's body, but the Sultan refused to deliver it to the city, and Widdin the bones and slenderness (in that Providence, if) to Kossuth's remains, and the Sultan ordered a tomb of the finest marble will probably be built over it at the expense of the Porte. A splendid tomb is also to be erected in Shumla, to the memory of the Polish General Bem, who died there of typhus fever.

Mr. Peabody has raised the English and French Consuls from the rank of Consuls General to that of Ministers Plenipotentiary.

The London Times announces that the Emperor of Russia had rejected the Turkish modification of the Vienna note, and that hostilities were imminent.

Previous accounts state that the English and French Consuls had left Sinope, creating a great excitement.

Omar Pasha, with a fresh corps of Russian troops upon Moldavia.

The Czar was to quit the Principalities on the 30th inst., and was to meet the Emperor of Austria at Olmutz on the 20th of September.

The troops of Omar Pasha on the lower Danube, insist on fighting the Russians, and it is rumored that the Pasha will not be able to endure their fanaticism, in order to effect further negotiations.

From Paris we learn that the Emperor had issued a decree, dated the 14th, by power of a Cabinet council held at St. Cloud, on the 11th inst.

In consequence of the financial measures of the government, the Bank of France has been authorized to reduce the rate of interest to 5 per cent.

The Moniteur publishes another detail of the statement that large quantities of Corn had been purchased by the French government.—The purchase of 19,000 hectolitres, made about six weeks since in England, for the army and navy, is the only fact of the kind, says that journal, which has come to its knowledge.

It is reported that the Persian city of Ispan has was nearly destroyed by an earthquake on the 12th of July.

Telegraphic accounts from Constantinople to the 20th of September state that the Turks were waiting impatiently for a manifesto from the Porte, explaining the position of Turkey with respect to the other powers. The Egyptian troops, after being reviewed by the Sultan, were to march to Shumla. All regular communication between Constantinople and the Russian ports was interrupted.

Vienna, Sept. 8. The warlike preparations of the Turks are carried on with unabated vigor, both in Bosnia and in Asia. The troops were literally day and night at the fortifications on the right bank of the Danube, and a speedy action has been received from Widdin to Shumla, and from Shumla to Varna.

Towards the end of August another detachment of 7000 men, with ammunition, passed a steam frigate and another vessel to Varna.

The Turkish troops on the neighborhood of Varna, is estimated at 60,000 men, with 200 guns. In the meantime fortresses and in the towns of the Balkan are gone of a large calibre. In Varna there are 40 batteries of heavy metal.

The naval and land force maintained in Omar Pasha's camp is highly spoken of, but the financial difficulties with which he has to contend are great.

Two Russian regiments had arrived at Bucharest, and the Russian commissariat had entered into contract for the supply of 500,000 great coats lined with leather for the troops; and this was thought indicative of a further complication of the difficulties, consequently the postponement of the evacuation.

A supplement of the Milan Gazette, of the 7th inst., publishes the sentence issued on the 16th ult. by a Council of War. The Council of War sitting at Milan, composed only four persons instead of the number of seven, on the 5th of February. Twenty-four were accused to death.

A Fleischmann, of Hamburg, offered money with the remains of Kossuth's body, but the Sultan refused to deliver it to the city, and Widdin the bones and slenderness (in that Providence, if) to Kossuth's remains, and the Sultan ordered a tomb of the finest marble will probably be built over it at the expense of the Porte. A splendid tomb is also to be erected in Shumla, to the memory of the Polish General Bem, who died there of typhus fever.

Mr. Peabody has raised the English and French Consuls from the rank of Consuls General to that of Ministers Plenipotentiary.

Mons Vernal Cheyenne. A day or two since, we spoke of the Show as "a nice little pioneer edition of the Courier," on account of its small compass in which the evidence of our columns is fully reproduced in the columns of that lilliputian paper. The enterprising publisher of the Advertiser came out in a goodsized, looking unlarge at the word observer, calling to mind the comment for its use, and enquiring what, on earth, observer meant. We did not then deem it at to raise in detail the history of the origin of the word; but simply stated some of the modes in which it is now spoil, and the popular significance attached to it. We remarked at the same time that the phrase "observer edition" may now be considered as synonymous with "pocket edition." To this explanation, a writer in the News who signs himself "Bibliognostes," takes exceptions, and asks us where the phrase may be met with. We do not now remember any particular page in any particular book of any particular author by whom this expression is used; nor have now the leisure to look for such, but we have seen it many times in the course of our reading, and expect to see it many times again. We think it was Lord Bolingbroke who spoke of Richard Brady Sheridan as an observer edition of Alexander Pope; and the same expression is used by Carlyle in his History of the French Revolution, by Cowper and Southey in his Task, by John Randolph in an invective on Clay, and a distinguished orator of New England, some two years since, whose name, Webb, is an "observer or pocket edition of Charles Summer." If our friend in the Bible, correspondent of the News, is not satisfied with this exposition, we advise him to abandon his studies of literature, and confine his knowledge for four or five years in a thorough course of English reading; he will then require no one to quote authorities for one of the most common expressions in the English language.

The history of the origin of the word is simple enough. In the 16th and 17th centuries, there lived at Leyden, at Amsterdam, at Utrecht, and at other cities of Holland and Germany, a family of the name of Elsevir or Elsevier. All, or nearly all, the gentlemen of this family were devoted to the publication of books, and their name known as the most famous publishing house in all Europe. Hebrew, Greek and Roman works, of course, received their particular attention. As the books were a very superior style, and generally extremely, by an easy transition observer (Elsevir, or Brisevier) became synonymous with neat, portable and beautiful; and the most of their books were of a small octavo size, being 16 mo. and frequently 18 mo. "observer edition," as we before remarked, was used interchangeably with "pocket edition."

We have made these suggestions for the special accommodation of our learned friend, the correspondent of the News. Hereafter, however, we shall avoid such trifles.

The Commonwealth of the Ware Controversy. The Boston Commonwealth has not been seen afflicted with the gangrene; but the proceedings of the late Whig State Convention—the largest and most enthusiastic ever held—have over assembled in this State—seem to have made that paper more contagious and malignant than ever. It wants to produce the impression that the convention was a tame and farcical affair, but how to do this is a problem. It knows not how to solve. Its reporter has done all he could to misconstrue and misrepresent the proceedings; but even the reporter has failed to descend to that depth of infamy to which the editor continues to sink himself in his leader on this affair. But there are two facts that the Commonwealth can never "rub out." First, the whole country knows that the hundred and one gentlemen among the reasons it assigns for this lack of preachers is the fact that preaching is no longer a profitable job. The hundred and one, indeed, is esteemed a pretty fair payment in the majority of parishes, the country through. Hence the preaching of politics calls forth more men of talent than the preaching of righteousness—Law, it seems, journalizing and stealing promise and performance, have pretty well thinned the ranks of the gospel ministry. Even the ordinary "observer" and "elsevir" has not the knowledge to make preachers of talent and ambition aware. Our idea is that every church should have a parsonage house, a library and a good stiff salary for its minister. More beef, more coal, better breadstuffs, a better assortment of vegetables would prove to be an economy as to who will wear the cassock.

Burned to His Just Deserts, or Vegetable Newspaper. The Boston Commonwealth has been

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 31, 1858. NO. 4164.

A BEAUTIFUL COTTAGE RESIDENCE FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers his residence, situated on Pawtucket street, Lowell, and now occupied by himself, for sale. The house contains 10 rooms, with a good supply of water and all the modern conveniences. The lot contains about 10,000 feet of land, which will be sold with the house or separately, as may be desired. Apply to the subscriber on the premises.

Lowell, 16th May, 1858. CHARLES M. SHORT. may16dtf

TWO HOUSES FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale two houses, each side of Lowell depot, next east of the passenger depot, recently occupied by Eri J. Varney.

The houses are in the most central location in the city, and will be sold low, if applied for soon.

Lowell, May 19, 1858. may19dtf

OFFICES TO LET.

The offices in the Journal and Courier building on the corner of Merrimack and Jackson streets, will be rented cheap. Apply to IRA C. AYER & CO.

may21 Agents for Journal and Courier.

WOOLEN FACTORY FOR SALE OR TO LET.

The Mill and Machinery of the Tyler Woolen Factory, so well known as the Pioneer Factory. The Mill and Machinery are in good order, and in running order. Terms easy. Inquire for the present of the subscriber, on Central street, Lowell, and it is an excellent stand for business.

Lowell, June 21, 1858. C. F. TALBOT & CO., Central Street Bazaar, Lowell; Mass., or of JEREMIAH CLARK, Boston. jun21

STORE TO LET.

The premises now occupied by Chamberlain, Ay- er & Co., as a Dry Goods Store, corner of Merrimack and Central streets, are offered to let.

Apply to JAMES H. BRADLEY, Middle street, Lowell, Mass. jun21

WELLS HOUSE.

The Mill at No. 44 is a place of worship, and for the present is occupied by Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The Mill, together with the Machinery, will be rented cheap. Apply to the subscriber, on Central street, Lowell, Mass.

Lowell, July 7, 1858. jy7dtf

HOUSE IN LOWELL FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale his house, situated on Central street, with a lot of land containing about 6,000 feet. The house contains 10 rooms, and is in good repair. Also, a few shares will be sold if desired. For further information call on the subscriber, No. 7, COLLINS, 61 Central street.

Lowell, April 5, 1858. ap5dtf

DRUG STORE FOR SALE.

FREE TO ANY PERSON who wishes to purchase, Paine the elegant Stores and Fixtures of a well Known Drug Store, in this city, the best location in the city.

Lowell, May 3, 1858. may3dtf

FARM FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale his farm, containing 30 acres of land, situated directly in Dracut Centre, and in the immediate vicinity of the Methodist Church. The land is well adapted to the raising of grain, grass, &c., and will be sold on reasonable terms. Inquire of the subscriber, on the premises.

Dracut, Aug. 9, 1858. CHARLES P. HOWE. aug9dtf

TRUSSES

We have constantly on hand a fashionable Dry-cut Spring Truss, of our own invention. This great superiority over all others now in use, is that it can be worn with ease in all the body positions, and will not chafe or excoriate the skin. Also, Shoulder Braces, Suspensory Bandages, Elastic Stockings, &c. CARLETON & HOYEY, Druggists.

Boston Building.

COLLINS' CORSET-TED SHARPENER.—To be published in eight volumes, uniform with the Diamond Shakspeare, containing Introductory Remarks, Glossary and other Notes (the results of the leisure evenings of many years) by Collins' Corset-ted Sharpener, Esq., Author of "Lives of the Poets," "Lives of the Poets," &c. Page to the time of Shakespeare, 85. For sale by WATSON & SARGEANT.

NEW BOOKS.—Cooked, by the author of "Mary Powell," "Jane Eyre," &c. For sale by WATSON & SARGEANT, 25 Central st.

THE Subscribers are prepared to furnish Hotels, Steamboats, Boarding Houses, Families, &c., with Tea and Coffee, of the best quality, at the lowest prices. Orders left at the Factory, Tremont Row, or by the principal Dealers in the city, will be promptly attended to.

E. SARCHIS & CO., Proprietors.

CENTRAL DEPOT, 304 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

may19dtf

FARM IN WESTMINSTER FOR SALE.

The Farm now occupied by the subscriber, containing about 100 acres of land, pasturing, mowing and tillage, and all or more cattle can be kept through the season. Also, a small House and Barn adjoining, with 2 acres land. Apply to the subscriber on the premises.

Westminster, Aug. 16, 1858. aug16dtf

JUST WHAT HAS BEEN WANTED!—Lasting Blacking, Warranted not to Rub off. For sale by the proprietor, JAS F. ALLEN.

17 Merrimack st.

NEW BOOKS.—Uncle Sam's Emancipation; or, Light in Dixie's Land. By Sarah Willstone. Illustrated. Also, Lectures on Female Education, as Conducive to the Happiness, Respectability and Usefulness of Woman. By Rev. John Todd, author of "The Student's Companion," "Index Rerum," &c. For sale by WATSON & SARGEANT.

ENGRAVING AND COPPER-PLATE PRINTING.

The subscribers have purchased the Stock and the Copper-Plate Printing Establishment of Messrs. CUTLER & DUNBAR, and will continue the business at the old stand, No. 3 Merrimack street, Lowell, where they will be happy to receive the orders of their former customers, and of all others who may favor them with their patronage.

Lowell, May 10, 1858. may10dtf CHARLES H. CUTLER, JR. JOHN P. DUNBAR.

DR. MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON.

THE UNDERSIGNED has been appointed Sole Agent for the United States and Canada, for the above invaluable remedy, which he is constantly receiving from the Laboratory of the Inventor, in Florence, Italy, and which he can guarantee to be genuine.

FEMALES.

This distinguished remedy is known over the world as the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the cure of all those painful diseases peculiar to the female constitution, and which have heretofore entered the chill and nutriment of the most delicate frame. It is a remedy which, in a degree beyond that of almost every other medicine in existence, is suited to the weak and nervous, and to those of a sedentary habit. It is the only remedy ever introduced to the notice of the Medical Faculty in the United States, which has received the sanction of the Faculty in Europe, and the testimonials of the most eminent of the profession, as to the excellence of the Catholicon as a SPECIFIC, SAFE and SURE remedy in all cases of Uterine Disease, is unparalleled in the annals of medicine, to which the attention of Ladies and the Medical Faculty is respectfully solicited.

Pamphlets containing certificates from the most eminent physicians, and a treatise on the diseases of females, whether married or single—Pregnancy, Utero-Gestation, Parturition, Abortion, Menstruation, Fluxus Albus, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, or Whites, Falling of the Womb, Ulceration of the Uterus, Chronic Inflammation, Fluxion, Fluctus, &c., sent free of charge to any part of the country.

Price $5 per bottle, with full directions for use.

Sold by F. F. FOREMAN, 9 D. Utica, N. Y.
" H. H. HAY, 79 Maiden lane, N. Y.
" H. H. HAY, 8 Tremont Row, Boston.
" E. E. MARSH & CO., 10 Market st., Philadelphia.
" J. W. BROWN, 114 Baltimore st., Baltimore.
" DYOTT & SON, 56 North 2d st., Philadelphia.
" J. C. KELLY, 84 Main st., Cincinnati.
" J. P. DINSMORE, Pittsburgh.
" J. C. KELLY, 84 Main st., Cincinnati.
" J. P. DINSMORE, Pittsburgh.
" J. C. KELLY, 84 Main st., Cincinnati.
" J. P. DINSMORE, Pittsburgh.

Sold by Druggists generally throughout the United States and Canada.

Sold by CARLETON & HOYEY, Druggists, Boston Building, Lowell, Mass.

Lowell, Jan. 15, 1858. jan15dtf

CIGARS.

200,000 HAVANA CIGARS

Of the LATEST STYLES and PATTERNS, and for sale at wholesale and retail by may19 D. C. GILBERT, 24.

O'

THE LATEST STYLES AND PATTERNS, and for sale at wholesale and retail by may19 D. C. GILBERT, 24.

RAT POISON!

KILLS the largest Rats instantly. Also, Mice, Roaches, Ants, Bed-bugs, Flies, &c. Sold by all Druggists everywhere. Beware of imitations. Sold by CARLETON & HOYEY, Druggists, Boston Building, Lowell, Mass.

BUG POISON!

KILLS the largest Bed-bugs and Roaches instantly. Also, Flies, Ants, &c. Sold by all Druggists everywhere. Beware of imitations. Sold by CARLETON & HOYEY, Druggists, Boston Building, Lowell, Mass.

VERMIFUGE WATERHOUSE'S new and delightful preparation for Worms. Sold by CARLETON & HOYEY, agents for C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

may19 cor. Central and Jackson sts.

VERMIFUGE SALTS.

FOR sale by CARLETON & HOYEY, agents for C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

may19 cor. Central and Jackson sts.

ROLLER JACKET CLOTH.

15 Wide Extra Frenched and Raw Jersey Roller Jacket Cloth.

For sale by CORBURN & MIXER, Merchants' Exchange, Merrimack st.

NEW BOOKS.—Hugo and Queens, by John P. C. Neal.—Kitty and Clarence, by Mary J. Holmes.—Kitty and Clarence Ltd., by Mary J. Holmes.—Lucy Sandford, by Mrs. Grey.—Lucy Sandford Ltd., by Mrs. Grey.—Lucy Sandford Ltd., by Mrs. Grey.—Lucy Sandford Ltd.,

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Saturday, October 1, 1853.

FOR GOVERNOR,
EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF ADAMS.

ELECTION ..... MONDAY, NOV. 14.

WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Whig Delegates of the several towns in the County will be held at Concord, on TUESDAY, the 11th day of June next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of choosing Delegates to attend the Whig State Convention, to be holden at Worcester, on the 15th of September next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary, Treasurer, Auditor, and Attorney General, and Representatives to Congress, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented to the Convention.

JOHN S. LAUD, Chairman.

Geo. F. Porter, Jr., Sec'y.
September 7, 1853. 4tmtd

President Washburn's Address.

The following is a more correct report of that splendid speech of Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, of Boston, on becoming the Chair of the Fitchburg Whig Convention, on the 30th of September, 1853. In its tone and spirit, the speech is truly and eminently whiggish; and the fire and energy of the old Whig spirit breathes throughout. Mr Winthrop has a way of speaking which strikes home to the heart of all intelligent men. He does not like Everett and Summer, pre-write and commit to memory the precise words of his speech; nor, like John P. Hale, descant for two hours without elaborate preparation; so that he has all the benefit of careful study with all the readiness of extemporaneous discourse:

You may not have forgotten, fellow-citizens of Massachusetts, that of the organizations of ancient Convention in this place, not many days ago, it was ill at once discovered that the Presidential elect was among the missing. [Laughter.] A telegraphic despatch was soon afterwards received, stating that a steamboat accident, or a railroad accident, or some other accident, the details of which I have never yet seen explained, had prevented our friend from reaching his earliest destination. After the kind and flattering reception which you have given me, it may be hardly necessary to assure you that the humble substitute who now stands before you for presiding officer is on hand. [Cheers.] I am sure, gentlemen, thanks to a kind Providence, and a well-conducted railroad train, without delays, I shall be present at the next meeting. I will I could say as much for my Boston brethren, whose seats were vacant at the table behind the time. I will venture to believe, however, that they are all ready to step, with General Stark at Bennington, that though they come late, they will be ready to slay like and do their full share of the work to be done war and business. [Applause.]

I am here, gentlemen, with somewhat less of health and vigor, it may be, than when I had the first enjoyed, but with the same old Whig spirit with which I have met on all the many meetings in former years, unchanged and unchanging. I am here to invite you to all your accustomed places for advancing the honor, and the welfare of our beloved Commonwealth; and to assure the discharge whatever duties may belong to the distinguished position with which you have seen honored me.

Some years have elapsed, my friends, since I last had the privilege of being present at a Whig State Convention. I need not say that they have been eventful years;—eventful to our country, and eventful to the fortunes and the wealth, eventful to the Whig party. And I may be pardoned for remarking, too, that they have not been altogether uneventful to myself personally.

For my own part, however, I have no assertion to make, and no complaint to utter which is appropriate to remember; and I can have no criticism and no censure to bestow upon the course of unfeigned gratitude to the Whigs of Massachusetts, both for the unmerited honors which they have so often bestowed upon me, and for their repeated and generous efforts to confer upon me other honors which it was not my fortune to enjoy.

I can say sincerely, gentlemen, with a distinguished statesman, Horace Mann, in his late farewell address, from this very place,—"If you have thought me worthy to be called the man who was to have success. The men whom I promised, and whom I am always glad to call my friend, did actually have success, and it, at this moment, I am not disappointed, and it is almost the only subject for regret which this occasion has brought down with it, that he is understood to have positively declined a renomination for Governor. I heartily hope and trust that we shall be able to get another Governor, or another candidate, half as good. [Cheers.] Mr Washburn has given for our choice."

I might have said, gentlemen, that it was honor enough for me to persuade the men who had so long honored me, to remember that there is still another whom I have presided in a distinguished assembly, and who has now holds, and for whom I have, in some sort, been instrumental in the hands of the enemy, after he might lead on to victory. The other, whom I am not less happy to call my friend, and in whose promotion I can never feel anything but unmingled pleasure, I need not say, is Mr. Hillard, [Cheers.] Whom you will hope to have seen long and honorably and usefully filling a seat in the Senate of the United States, by his eloquence and to enlighten us with his counsels.

I deeply regret to inform you that Hiram is his family has been afflicted with sickness. [Three cheers were here given for Mr Everett.]

If my self-love, gentlemen, will not engage all whom we had hoped and expected to see, I am glad to perceive that a large number of many of whom you will recognize as veterans—members of Congress, either with heart or with the wish of Congress, and those who ought to have been members of Congress, and who are well known and accustomed to address you, and others whose acquaintance I am glad to make to-day, I trust, as an endorsement of any cause which they espouse. Among those present are Mr Alley, Mr Goodrich, Mr Rantoul, Mr Wentworth, Mr. Bell, and others, whose names have been already recognized.

But in looking before citizens, from these personalities, and in reverting to the past, in its relations to our party, to the Commonwealth, and to our country, I cannot so easily escape the reminiscences which have been called up by pathway and clouded our pleasures during the last few years. I am not disposed to dwell upon them,—to bigoted and bitter a partisan to go groups to our political opponents, or to indulge in expression of power, either in the matter or manner, in our own forum, thanks to a kind Providence, I do admit,—that the instruments of political power have not been in the hands of the Whig party. I will not say so much for my Boston brethren, whose seats were vacant at the table behind the time. I will venture to believe, however, that they are all ready to step, with General Stark at Bennington, that though they come late, they will be ready to slay like and do their full share of the work to be done war and business. [Applause.]

I am here, gentlemen, with somewhat less of health and vigor, it may be, than when I had the first enjoyed, but with the same old Whig spirit with which I have met on all the many meetings in former years, unchanged and unchanging. I am here to invite you to all your accustomed places for advancing the honor, and the welfare of our beloved Commonwealth; and to assure the discharge whatever duties may belong to the distinguished position with which you have seen honored me.

Some years have elapsed, my friends, since I last had the privilege of being present at a Whig State Convention. I need not say that they have been eventful years;—eventful to our country, and eventful to the fortunes and the wealth, eventful to the Whig party. And I may be pardoned for remarking, too, that they have not been altogether uneventful to myself personally.

For my own part, however, I have no assertion to make, and no complaint to utter which is appropriate to remember; and I can have no criticism and no censure to bestow upon the course of unfeigned gratitude to the Whigs of Massachusetts, both for the unmerited honors which they have so often bestowed upon me, and for their repeated and generous efforts to confer upon me other honors which it was not my fortune to enjoy.

I can say sincerely, gentlemen, with a distinguished statesman, Horace Mann, in his late farewell address, from this very place,—"If you have thought me worthy to be called the man who was to have success. The men whom I promised, and whom I am always glad to call my friend, did actually have success, and it, at this moment, I am not disappointed, and it is almost the only subject for regret which this occasion has brought down with it, that he is understood to have positively declined a renomination for Governor. I heartily hope and trust that we shall be able to get another Governor, or another candidate, half as good. [Three cheers were here given for Mr. Everett.]

I might have said, gentlemen, that it was honor enough for me to persuade the men who had so long honored me, to remember that there is still another whom I have presided in a distinguished assembly, and who has now holds, and for whom I have, in some sort, been instrumental in the hands of the enemy, after he might lead on to victory. The other, whom I am not less happy to call my friend, and in whose promotion I can never feel anything but unmingled pleasure, I need not say, is Mr. Hillard. [Cheers.] Whom you will hope to have seen long and honorably and usefully filling a seat in the Senate of the United States, by his eloquence and to enlighten us with his counsels.

I deeply regret to inform you that Hiram is his family has been afflicted with sickness. [Three cheers were here given for Mr Everett.]

If my self-love, gentlemen, will not engage all whom we had hoped and expected to see, I am glad to perceive that a large number of many of whom you will recognize as veterans—members of Congress, either with heart or with the wish of Congress, and those who ought to have been members of Congress, and who are well known and accustomed to address you, and others whose acquaintance I am glad to make to-day, I trust, as an endorsement of any cause which they espouse. Among those present are Mr Alley, Mr Goodrich, Mr Rantoul, Mr Wentworth, Mr. Bell, and others, whose names have been already recognized.

But in looking before citizens, from these personalities, and in reverting to the past, in its relations to our party, to the Commonwealth, and to our country, I cannot so easily escape the reminiscences which have been called up by pathway and clouded our pleasures during the last few years. I am not disposed to dwell upon them,—to bigoted and bitter a partisan to go groups to our political opponents, or to indulge in expression of power, either in the matter or manner, in our own forum, thanks to a kind Providence, I do admit,—that the instruments of political power have not been in the hands of the Whig party. I will not say so much for my Boston brethren, whose seats were vacant at the table behind the time. I will venture to believe, however, that they are all ready to step, with General Stark at Bennington, that though they come late, they will be ready to slay like and do their full share of the work to be done war and business. [Applause.]

I am here, gentlemen, with somewhat less of health and vigor, it may be, than when I had the first enjoyed, but with the same old Whig spirit with which I have met on all the many meetings in former years, unchanged and unchanging. I am here to invite you to all your accustomed places for advancing the honor, and the welfare of our beloved Commonwealth; and to assure the discharge whatever duties may belong to the distinguished position with which you have seen honored me.

Some years have elapsed, my friends, since I last had the privilege of being present at a Whig State Convention. I need not say that they have been eventful years;—eventful to our country, and eventful to the fortunes and the wealth, eventful to the Whig party. And I may be pardoned for remarking, too, that they have not been altogether uneventful to myself personally.

For my own part, however, I have no assertion to make, and no complaint to utter which is appropriate to remember; and I can have no criticism and no censure to bestow upon the course of unfeigned gratitude to the Whigs of Massachusetts, both for the unmerited honors which they have so often bestowed upon me, and for their repeated and generous efforts to confer upon me other honors which it was not my fortune to enjoy.

I can say sincerely, gentlemen, with a distinguished statesman, Horace Mann, in his late farewell address, from this very place,—"If you have thought me worthy to be called the man who was to have success. The men whom I promised, and whom I am always glad to call my friend, did actually have success, and it, at this moment, I am not disappointed, and it is almost the only subject for regret which this occasion has brought down with it, that he is understood to have positively declined a renomination for Governor. I heartily hope and trust that we shall be able to get another Governor, or another candidate, half as good. [Three cheers were here given for Mr. Everett.]

I might have said, gentlemen, that it was honor enough for me to persuade the men who had so long honored me, to remember that there is still another whom I have presided in a distinguished assembly, and who has now holds, and for whom I have, in some sort, been instrumental in the hands of the enemy, after he might lead on to victory. The other, whom I am not less happy to call my friend, and in whose promotion I can never feel anything but unmingled pleasure, I need not say, is Mr. Hillard. [Cheers.] Whom you will hope to have seen long and honorably and usefully filling a seat in the Senate of the United States, by his eloquence and to enlighten us with his counsels.

I deeply regret to inform you that Hiram is his family has been afflicted with sickness. [Three cheers were here given for Mr.

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. MONDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 6, 1856. NO 4165.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.
Payable in advance—subscribers delivered at 25 cts. per month.

Office—No. 30 CENTRAL STREET,
(Adjoining the Post Office.)

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at $1 per square for three insertions, and 25 cts. per square for each subsequent insertion. Liberal deductions to those who advertise by the month or year. Twelve lines or less constitute a square.

Yearly and Semi-yearly advertisements inserted at prices agreeable to the terms and space occupied.

Notices in reading columns 15 cts. per line.

Notices of Meetings, Lectures, Concerts, Sales, &c., 25 cts. per line.

Marriages and Deaths, 50 cts. each insertion.

Job Printing executed in the neatest manner, and at reasonable prices.

Letters and communications should be addressed to the Publisher, (post paid,) to insure attention.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
NEATLY & PROMPTLY EXECUTED
AT THE
Lowell Daily Journal & Courier,
No. 30 CENTRAL STREET.

A. H. FLANDERS, M. D.
Successor to
Dr. EDWARD ROBY,
No. 5, over Ayer's Hemp Store,
Entrance on Merrimack street.
jy30tf

P. S. MAGUIRE,
Pressed stone, Lowell.
All work warranted equal to any from the East. Jy8 dtf

WM. G. GRAY,
DEPUTY SHERIFF,
Office—Canal Block, Central street,
Residence, No. 5 Concord street,
LOWELL, MASS.
Orders executed by Mail or Express will be promptly attended to. ap14

G. S. EASTMAN & CO.,
DEGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
MANUFACTURERS OF
Peppermint Spring Water and Essence of Elecampane, CORNER STORE, HUNT'S EXCHANGE,
LOWELL, MASS.
ap14

DAVID DANA,
OFFICE SMITH, BRASS FOUNDER, AND MACHINIST,
No. 20 Merrimack street,
LOWELL, MASS.
1841

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INS CO. COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office—No. 33 Commercial street.
my26

SAMUEL BOUTON,
DRAPER AND TAILOR
No. 33 CENTRAL ST.,
LOWELL, MASS

ABEL WHITNEY,
(Successor to Nourse & Whitney,)
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND STATIONER,
No. 23 Merrimack street,
ACCOUNT BOOKS MADE TO ORDER
Agent for the Sterling Steam Type Foundry, Boston.
Agent for Pens, Pens, and Pens. my26

A. P. CROSBY,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Corner of Central and Church sts., Centralville.
my10 dtf

WEAVER & BROTHERS,
No. 7 Central, and 30 Merrimack streets,
ALL KINDS OF HARDWARE AND FINE FURNISHING GOODS,
CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, MATS AND RUGS,
Looking Glasses, Feather Dusters, Brushes, &c.
Agents for Lowell Patent Shade Fixtures.
jan1

J. COBURN,
DEALER IN
FLOUR, MEAL, GRAIN, &c.,
No. 25 Merrimack street, opposite Bridge street,
LOWELL, MASS.
Also Proprietor of Coburn's Patent Self-Sifting Flour Barrel.
jy26

COBURN & HILER,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
FOR THE SALE OF
SPERM, WHALE, LARD AND LINSEED OILS,
Factory Lard Oil, Stearine, Burning Fluid, Candles, Tallow, Soap Grease, Glycerine, Rosin, Tar, Pitch, Turpentine, Resin, Oil Cake, Meal, Bone Dust, Bone Manure, Ground Bone, Bone Black, Ivory Black, Animal Charcoal, Sperm Oil Soap, Castile Soap, Palm Soap, Yellow Soap, Mottled Soap, Shaving Soap, Hair Dye, Sperm Candles, Adamantine Candles, Star Candles, Tallow Candles, Wicking, Moulds, Candle Boxes, Candle Trimmings, Lamp Wicks, Lamp Burners, Lamp Chimneys, Lamp Shades, Lamp Fixtures, Lamp Trimmings, Lamp Glasses, Lamp Globes, Lamp Reflectors, Lamp Stands, Lamp Pipes, Lamp Tubes, Lamp Sockets, Lamp Caps, Lamp Screws, Lamp Rings, Lamp Collars, Lamp Nuts, Lamp Bolts, Lamp Washers, Lamp Springs, Lamp Wires and that, on his return from the South, he would be ready to address the people. Several other gentlemen were announced to address the meeting.

ELISHA HUNTINGTON, Chairman.

CITY MATTERS.

NOTICE.

The Whig Central Committee will meet in the Council Room, on MONDAY EVENING, Oct. 16, at 8 o'clock, A meeting is important. Per order,

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The Engineer and officers of the respectful Fire Company No. 1 are requested to meet at their house in the Hollow City engine of this City, on the morning of the funeral of their late brother, Thomas Bailey, at 10 o'clock. Per order, JOHN BAILEY, Foreman.

Boston, October 2, 1852.

☞ My Postmaster Goodhue, we regret to learn, is dead.

☞ Persons having articles belonging to the proprietors of the Museum, stored on their premises, will confer a favor by giving notice to Messrs. Hildreth and Chesley of the same.

Orrana Walker at the city marshal's office for a bill of baggage, stencils, &c., left at Huntington Hall on Wednesday evening last.

Extemporeneo. Messrs Ayling & Johnson, who were hauled out at the Museum on Friday last, have issued Willow Hall, and will continue giving performances three this evening, at the same establishment. We hope the success which they have manifested in fitting up their new exhibition-room, will be appreciated by the public, and that the patronage they receive will amply compensate them for their less in the interruption of their business. The place to night are the Honey-Moon and Uncle Sam.

Fire in Cambridge. Fire was discovered in the basement of Mr Todd, near the Benth House, in Cambridge, on Saturday morning,—but was extinguished by the timely arrival of the engines, without any great damage by fire and water. The fire communicated with the jewelry store adjoining, which was also considerably damaged.

☞ Hon. Abbott Lawrence has donated $500 to aid in the construction of a monument to the memory of Daniel Webster.

Grand Gale at the East.—St. John, N. B., Oct. 11. By telegraph from Bideford, it appears the gale extended to that town. It set in on the night of the 5th inst., and continued with great violence all day on the 6th. Two vessels are on shore, nearly high and dry, at the mouth of Lemington river. The Saco river has been unusually high, and much higher than ordinarily. At Rochester, several vessels are ashore. At Portsmouth, the gale was severe, and no wharves, booms, stores and boats.

Name him! According to the Commonwealth, the Whig newspaper Union says, a Whig "who has been a Representative and Senator, and has an unsullied character for integrity, has announced his intention of voting the Free Soil ticket for the first time."

A Novel Race.—On one of the streets of New York, on Thursday night last, was found a young man, about twenty years of age, and apparently a stranger, lying drunk in the sidewalk, with his throat cut in a frightful manner and his skull badly fractured. He was taken to the station house, and died in about one minutes. Neither the name of the deceased, the place of his residence, or how he came acquainted with the mysterious manner in which he came to his death, could be ascertained.

The Two Thousand.—The Boston Courier says that Henry W. Bishop and Emery Washburn were classmates in Williams College, and that Bishop is a Democrat and Washburn a Whig, that the nomination of his old friend is rather an inconvenience with his present relations. The Judge, however, cannot seriously look upon himself as a candidate for the office of Governor, and therefore will not decline. We think though it has two strings to its bow, can have but one bona fide candidate, and that one is Henry Washburn.

Correction. In a recent notice of a late publication, we accidentally assertted "Pen and Ink Sketches" to be by Miss A. Wahlmuth, whereas we intended to give the credit where it legitimately belongs, namely, to John Ross Dix, Esq., of Boston.

☞ About half-past ten o'clock on Saturday forenoon, fire broke out in the loft of the large brick stable, corner of Friend and Market streets, Boston, until recently owned by the Smith family. The stable was leased and occupied by Mr Dura Warren, as a livery stable, and for the keeping of sole horses. The loss is estimated at about $2,000 or $3,000, on which there is some insurance. The horses were all saved.

Hosiery. Rifle barrels, double barrel guns, pistols, powder flasks, shot pouches, and a quantity of keys of all kinds, were stolen from the store of Mr Wm. Read, Jr., on Friday night. A reward of $50 is offered by the owner for the property and the detection of the thief or thieves.

☞ Rev. C. W. Denniston, formerly the editor of "Old Colony Memorials," and recently appointed Chaplain to the Penitentiary, has now received the appointment of Consul to Tarentum. It is to be hoped he will remain there the rest of his days.

Cash Accounts. Hon. Mr Stebbins, of Providence, R. I., has been elected a vice president over the Chester county Baptist Church, Boston, Isle Dr. Sharp's. So he is possessor of much property.

Another Brass-and-money Caucus!—In the long list of wind-bags which the Commonwealth publishes in the heat of the Presidential campaign, we believe the "Brass Band" comes as having "done good service in the cause," and we confess we doubt if the end of Lexington, or Concord. We should like to hear the sun bray. Going out the rhythm of the Whig-songs, would hardly compare with such soul-stirring champagne as this.

☞ Abbott Lawrence has contributed his influence of honouring $5,000 to the Lawrence Institute of Technology, $5,000 to the Lawrence Scientific School at Cambridge, in addition to the same amount given by him to that institution in 1847.

☞ The New York Evening Post justly remarks that Mr Macey's house is calculated to do much harm among the working classes, and to inspire the whole civilized world with the most unbounded contempt for the people of this country. (Cheers.) He left his shop full of the spirit of the age, at the battle of Bunker Hill, where his clothes and his hat were pierced with bullets, for the enemy's guns; and he left not the contest till the independence of this country was achieved. (Applause.)

Sir, we believe the sun to be at the same distance—to-day that it was in the time of what is the campaign. We want a man who will have no truck, and not return to it, and we are fond forever from the miserable trash of unintelligible and reckless lies that have grown up for the last two or three years—(Applause.)

James Watson, Jr. The editor of the New-buryport Herald speaks of this gentleman from personal observation, and says:

"We now speak of Mr Washburn during one of the sessions of our Legislature, and he impressed us favorably as a man of ability, but of honesty and integrity; and no member of the Legislature stood more deservedly high among his fellows. He was a man of sterling worth, and his death will be lamented by the people of Worcester, the highest considerations of which he enjoyed."

[Expressly for the Daily Courier.]

LATER FROM EUROPE.

By Steamship Arabia, at Halifax.

The Vienna Conference Opens—Its Objects—The Christian Confession of Faith—Gold Discoveries in Australia.

The steamship Arabia arrived out at seventy-two minutes past 9, P. M., 17th. The Eastern question is the all-absorbing topic.

The Vienna Conference were in session attempting to smooth over difficulties, and it was reported that new considerations conciliatory to both Russia and Turkey would be made, but it was feared that in the meantime the armies of the Danube might come into collision.

The Servian Charge had notified the Porte that Servia would remain neutral in the event of a war.

The Cracow revolution is extending, but no decisive actions are reported.

The cholera was spreading in the English ports.

From France we have received nothing of general importance. Activity is noticed in the navy yards.

Latest. The King of Prussia had concluded not to go to the meeting of the Emperors at Olmutz, but will attribute for one of his ministerial ere was coming on in Spain, which was considered favorable to the party of disposing the Queen was freely discussed.

By the overland mail to England we learn that the U. S. Expedition, comprising the Susquehanna, Alleghana, Plymouth and Saratoga, sailed July 3d from Shanghae for Japan following by Rear Commodore Perry.

Paris, Sept. 30. The Pays states that the Emperor Nicholas has given positive orders that the Turkish difficulties will be settled without appeal to arms. The Patrie adds that the Emperor of Russia has declared, under any circumstances, commence hostilities; but the definite decision of Turkey cannot be known in Britain until the first of August next, via Cork.

Household Words. We have duly received the 6th number of the 7th volume of this valuable and popular English reprint, by Charles Dickens. This work has been issued for seven years, and its extraordinary literary talent and genius has been universally acknowledged, under any circumstances, commence hostilities; but the definite decision of Turkey cannot be known in Britain until the first of August next, via Cork.

twenty-seven articles—all equal to their predecessors in talent and interest. ✓

Sale of Horses. We call attention to the Commonwealth Horse Sale, to be held on Thursday next, at 10 o'clock, A. M. The steamboat Plymouth will leave Boston at 8 o'clock, A. M. for Weymouth, and return in the evening, and the sale will be held on the ground, rain or shine. Gentlemen in search of horses will find a good assortment at this sale.

Gone South. Hon. John P. Healy, of Boston, has happily alluded to the father of the Whig nominee for Governor, in his speech of the Pittsburg Convention:

Sir, Mr Washburn is not a stranger to us in the State from which he speaks. He is known to us. It is related of his father that when he was a boy at the battle of Lexington, reached him, he ran in his blacksmith's shop for his father's gun, and one of his neighbors, the old man, and the shot rattled upon his head. He instantly dropped the sword and inspired the whole civilized world with the most unbounded respect for the people of this country. (Cheers.) He left his shop full of the spirit of '76, at the battle of Bunker Hill, where his clothes and his hat were pierced with bullets, for the enemy's guns; and he left not the contest till the independence of this country was achieved. (Applause.)

Sir, we believe the son to be of the same stamp—that will have no truck, and not return to it, and we are fond forever from the miserable trash of unintelligible and reckless lies that have grown up for the last two or three years—(Applause.)

Henry J. Raymond, editor of the New York Times, is to deliver the address at the completion of the monument to the engineers of Arcola, at Harrytown, on the 5th of October.

☞ We are indebted to Hon. Chas. H. Peaslee for a copy of the "Abstract of the 7th Census," which has just been published.

BY TELEGRAPH—Sain Line.

Telegraph Office, Wentworth's Building, Main Street—1 o'clock, Opposite.

HARTFORD LIFE INSURANCE CO., HARTFORD, CONN.

Persons applying to effect insurance on their lives at once, will find the low rates offered by the Hartford Life Insurance Company, worthy their attention. The Company has been in operation for more than two years, and has a large capital, which is invested with great care, and is always available for the payment of losses. Policies issued on the Mutual plan, and on the Stock plan, at reduced rates. Call at the office, or address the President, or Secretary, at Hartford, Conn.

Applications will be received by the Agent at Boston, Exchange Buildings, Room No. 3, up stairs, entrance on Exchange Place, from 10 A. M. to 2 P. M. JOHN RICHMOND, Agent.

Hon. Governor Medill, Chairman.

NORTH WESTERN INSURANCE COMPANY, Incorporated by the Legislature of New York, in 1838. Capital $200,000.

Fire and Inland Navigation Risks, taken at rates as low as consistent with the safety of the insured and of the Company. If their long position with the Company entitles them to the public, of policies issued by this Company.

ALAR RICHMOND, Agent, Office No. 13 Appleton Block, Central street, Lowell.

FIRE INSURANCE.

OFFICE, NO. 18 APPLETON BLOCK

Ætna Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn.

Connecticut, Hartford, Conn.

AGGREGATE CAPITAL and assets of the above companies, according to last returns, $2,000,000

Insuring against loss or damage by fire in Lowell and adjacent towns, on favorable terms. Losses promptly adjusted and paid. Any one wishing to effect insurance will find it for their interest to call at the office of the subscriber, as above.

First class stockings of both and wood and their cost, for sale at the office of the subscriber, as above.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1852. sep1 3m

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO. OF WORCESTER—Incorporated 1845.

JOHN DAVIS, Pres. CLARENDON HARRIS, Sec.

This very successful Company continues to effect insurance upon their usual terms, having accumulated a surplus fund of over $100,000, which is invested in the most safe and productive manner. Applications may be made at the agency of the Company, at the office of the subscriber, as above.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1852. sep1 3m

THE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO., OF WORCESTER—Incorporated 1845.

JOHN DAVIS, Pres. CLARENDON HARRIS, Sec.

This very successful Company continues to effect insurance upon their usual terms, having accumulated a surplus fund of over $100,000, which is invested in the most safe and productive manner. Applications may be made at the agency of the Company, at the office of the subscriber, as above.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1852. sep1 3m

CIGARS

Wholesale and Retail Tobacconist, Snuff and Cigar Manufactory, and increasing demand for the EXCELSIOR HAIR TONIC from the Indians in all sections, is proof that they appreciate its virtues. Call and see for yourself, before entering the Hole. As a safe article it is unequaled—and is warranted to do all that is claimed.

Sold by Druggists and Fancy Dealers generally in the United States and Canada.

MRS FOSTER'S CORDIAL is the Choicest preparation ever offered to the afflicted for Asthma, Consumption, Coughs, Colds, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

WORMS! WORMS!

There is no disease more common among children, and few more fatal, than worms. Before you give your children any medicine, or nurse them for any disease, examine their stools, and see if worms are not the cause of their complaint. Dr. Spear's Vermifuge Comfits are unequaled—and is warranted to do all that is claimed.

Sold by Druggists and Fancy Dealers generally in the United States and Canada.

MARRIAGES.

In Andover, Sept. 29, Rev. B. Lincoln, Alfred Bray of Bray Ann Clifford, both of Lowell.

DEATHS.

Names of Deaths for the week ending Oct. 1.

Sept. 26, Mrs. Ann Dunn, 1 day, Adams.
" Helen F. Bennett, 7 mos., Adams.
" Mary Ann Bennett, 7 mos., Adams.
" Mary Ann Bennett, 7 mos., Adams.
" Mary Ann Bennett, 7 mos., Adams.
Sept. 27, Michael Gallagher, 28 yrs., consumption.
" Mary Ann Bennett, 7 mos., Adams.
" Mary Ann Bennett, 7 mos., Adams.
" Mary Ann Bennett, 7 mos., Adams

A. MATTESON,

1500

PROF. ALEX'R WEBER'S TRIUMPH!

DR. MARCHISI'S

UTERINE CATHOLICON.

FEMALES.

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWKER,

SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.

HEALTH! HEALTH!!

HEALTH OR NO SALE.

PHILLIPS, GOODHUE & BOWKER,

SALEM, MASSACHUSETTS.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.

FARM FOR SALE.

FARMS FOR SALE.

FARM IN WESTMINSTER FOR SALE.

TWO HOUSES FOR SALE.

WOOLEN FACTORY

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

TO LET.

STORE TO LET.

WHALING BLOCK.

DRUG STORE FOR SALE.

FARM FOR SALE.

FALL STYLE

HATS.

WM. P. BRAZER'S,

47 Central, corner of Market st.

DR. SLADE'S AROMATIC BITTERS

DR. SLADE'S AROMATIC WINE BITTERS

DR. SLADE'S AROMATIC BITTERS!!

DR. SLADE'S AROMATIC BITTERS!!

DR. SLADE'S AROMATIC BITTERS!!

THE DAILY JOURNAL & COURIER.

LOWELL, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1853.

Daily Journal & Courier.

LOWELL, Tuesday, October 4, 1853

FOR GOVERNOR,
EMORY WASHBURN
FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,

ELECTION.....MONDAY, NOV. 14.

WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Whig Convention for the County of Middlesex, will be holden at Concord, on Tuesday, the 18th day of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates to be supported at the ensuing election.

The Whig Representatives of the several towns in the County are requested to meet at their usual places of meeting, on Saturday, the 15th day of October next, at 3 o'clock, P. M., to choose delegates to said Convention.

Concord, Sept. 20, 1853.

SAMUEL HOAR, Chairman of Whig State Committee.

Whig Meeting in Watertown.

In pursuance of a call issued by the Whig Committee of Watertown, a large and enthusiastic meeting was held in the Town Hall, on Saturday evening last, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Town officers, to be supported at the ensuing election.

The meeting was called to order by Hon. Samuel Hoar, Chairman of the Whig State Committee, who nominated Hon. Ebenezer Hunt as Chairman of the meeting, and Hon. Charles Stearns as Secretary.

Mr. Hunt, on taking the chair, addressed the meeting in a few appropriate remarks, in which he said that the present was a time when every man should be found at his post, and that he hoped the meeting would be harmonious, and that all would unite in the support of such candidates as should be nominated.

Mr. Hoar then addressed the meeting in a speech of considerable length, in which he reviewed the political history of the country for the last few years, and the present position of parties. He said that the Whig party was the party of the Constitution, and that the Democratic party was the party of Nullification, Disunion and Secession. He said that the Whig party was the party of the Union, and that the Democratic party was the party of Disunion. He said that the Whig party was the party of Liberty, and that the Democratic party was the party of Slavery. He said that the Whig party was the party of Freedom, and that the Democratic party was the party of Despotism. He said that the Whig party was the party of Progress, and that the Democratic party was the party of Reaction. He said that the Whig party was the party of Peace, and that the Democratic party was the party of War. He said that the Whig party was the party of Economy, and that the Democratic party was the party of Extravagance. He said that the Whig party was the party of Honesty, and that the Democratic party was the party of Corruption. He said that the Whig party was the party of Principle, and that the Democratic party was the party of Expediency. He said that the Whig party was the party of Honor, and that the Democratic party was the party of Dishonor. He said that the Whig party was the party of Truth, and that the Democratic party was the party of Falsehood. He said that the Whig party was the party of Fidelity, and that the Democratic party was the party of Treachery. He said that the Whig party was the party of Wisdom, and that the Democratic party was the party of Folly. He said that the Whig party was the party of Virtue, and that the Democratic party was the party of Vice. He said that the Whig party was the party of Intelligence, and that the Democratic party was the party of Ignorance. He said that the Whig party was the party of Light, and that the Democratic party was the party of Darkness. He said that the Whig party was the party of Heaven, and that the Democratic party was the party of Hell.

Mr. Hoar then proceeded to show that the Democratic party had been the party in power for the last four years, and that it was responsible for all the evils which had been brought upon the country during that time. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Fugitive Slave Law was passed, and that it was responsible for that law. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Kansas and Nebraska Bill was passed, and that it was responsible for that bill. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Missouri Compromise was repealed, and that it was responsible for that repeal. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Ostend Manifesto was issued, and that it was responsible for that manifesto. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Gadsden Treaty was made, and that it was responsible for that treaty. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Cuban Question was agitated, and that it was responsible for that agitation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Black Warrior affair occurred, and that it was responsible for that affair. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Koszta affair occurred, and that it was responsible for that affair. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Mexican Boundary Question was settled, and that it was responsible for that settlement. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Tehuantepec Question was settled, and that it was responsible for that settlement. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Clayton and Bulwer Treaty was made, and that it was responsible for that treaty. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Reciprocity Treaty was made, and that it was responsible for that treaty. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Mexican War was declared, and that it was responsible for that declaration. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Mexican War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Mexican War was closed, and that it was responsible for that closing. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Mexican Territory was acquired, and that it was responsible for that acquisition. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Mexican Territory was settled, and that it was responsible for that settlement. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Texas Question was agitated, and that it was responsible for that agitation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Texas was annexed, and that it was responsible for that annexation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Tariff of 1846 was passed, and that it was responsible for that tariff. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Independent Treasury was established, and that it was responsible for that establishment. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Veto Power was abused, and that it was responsible for that abuse. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Bank of the United States was destroyed, and that it was responsible for that destruction. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Specie Circular was issued, and that it was responsible for that issue. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Panic of 1837 occurred, and that it was responsible for that occurrence. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Florida War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Seminole War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Creek War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Cherokee War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Black Hawk War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Indian Wars were carried on, and that it was responsible for those wars. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Revolutionary War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Declaration of Independence was made, and that it was responsible for that declaration. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Constitution was adopted, and that it was responsible for that adoption. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Union was formed, and that it was responsible for that formation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Colonies were settled, and that it was responsible for that settlement. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Continent was discovered, and that it was responsible for that discovery. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Creation took place, and that it was responsible for that creation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Universe was made, and that it was responsible for that making. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Chaos existed, and that it was responsible for that existence. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Eternity began, and that it was responsible for that beginning. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when God existed, and that it was responsible for that existence. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Heaven was created, and that it was responsible for that creation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Hell was created, and that it was responsible for that creation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Devil was created, and that it was responsible for that creation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Sin was created, and that it was responsible for that creation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Death was created, and that it was responsible for that creation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Eternity began, and that it was responsible for that beginning. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when God existed, and that it was responsible for that existence. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Heaven was created, and that it was responsible for that creation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Hell was created, and that it was responsible for that creation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Devil was created, and that it was responsible for that creation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Sin was created, and that it was responsible for that creation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Death was created, and that it was responsible for that creation.

Mr. Hoar then proceeded to show that the Democratic party had been the party in power for the last four years, and that it was responsible for all the evils which had been brought upon the country during that time. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Fugitive Slave Law was passed, and that it was responsible for that law. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Kansas and Nebraska Bill was passed, and that it was responsible for that bill. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Missouri Compromise was repealed, and that it was responsible for that repeal. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Ostend Manifesto was issued, and that it was responsible for that manifesto. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Gadsden Treaty was made, and that it was responsible for that treaty. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Cuban Question was agitated, and that it was responsible for that agitation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Black Warrior affair occurred, and that it was responsible for that affair. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Koszta affair occurred, and that it was responsible for that affair. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Mexican Boundary Question was settled, and that it was responsible for that settlement. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Tehuantepec Question was settled, and that it was responsible for that settlement. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Clayton and Bulwer Treaty was made, and that it was responsible for that treaty. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Reciprocity Treaty was made, and that it was responsible for that treaty. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Mexican War was declared, and that it was responsible for that declaration. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Mexican War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Mexican War was closed, and that it was responsible for that closing. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Mexican Territory was acquired, and that it was responsible for that acquisition. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Mexican Territory was settled, and that it was responsible for that settlement. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Texas Question was agitated, and that it was responsible for that agitation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Texas was annexed, and that it was responsible for that annexation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Tariff of 1846 was passed, and that it was responsible for that tariff. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Independent Treasury was established, and that it was responsible for that establishment. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Veto Power was abused, and that it was responsible for that abuse. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Bank of the United States was destroyed, and that it was responsible for that destruction. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Specie Circular was issued, and that it was responsible for that issue. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Panic of 1837 occurred, and that it was responsible for that occurrence. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Florida War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Seminole War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Creek War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Cherokee War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Black Hawk War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Indian Wars were carried on, and that it was responsible for those wars. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Revolutionary War was carried on, and that it was responsible for that war. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Declaration of Independence was made, and that it was responsible for that declaration. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Constitution was adopted, and that it was responsible for that adoption. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Union was formed, and that it was responsible for that formation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Colonies were settled, and that it was responsible for that settlement. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Continent was discovered, and that it was responsible for that discovery. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Creation took place, and that it was responsible for that creation. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when the Universe was made, and that it was responsible for that making. He said that the Democratic party had been in power when Chaos existed, and that it was responsible for that existence

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 5, 1853. NO 4187

S. T. FARNEY,
PURCHASER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.
Thirteen dollar paid in advance or delivered at $3 00 a month.

Office—No. 37 CENTRAL STREET,
(Adjoining the Post Office.)

Advertisements inserted at $1 per square for three weeks, and 25 cts. per square for each subsequent week. Liberal deductions will be made to those who advertise by the year, and to Merchants and others who advertise frequently and change their advertisements every week or fortnight. Notices inserted in reading matter, 10 cts. per line. Notices of Marriages and Deaths inserted gratis. Job Printing executed in a neat and expeditious manner, and at prices as low as the lowest.

Subscribers desiring a change of residence, will please leave their orders at the office, and they will be promptly attended to. Subscribers will also please state whether they wish their papers sent to the Post Office or to their residence.

Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions, and when they order the discontinuance of their papers, the publisher will expect payment to be made, as they cannot be sent longer without additional charge.

Postmasters are requested to act as agents for the Journal and Courier, and will be allowed a commission of 25 per cent. on all money they may collect and forward to the publisher.

Letters addressed to the publisher, must be post paid, or they will not be attended to.

Any person sending us a number of paying names from a list of subscribers, shall be entitled to a copy of the paper gratis, during the time he may be engaged in obtaining them.

Letters of business, or letters for publication, should be addressed to the publisher, and not to any individual connected with the establishment, as by such they are frequently delayed.

Communications, to insure attention, must be accompanied by the name of the writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of his responsibility.

Any person who will procure us five responsible subscribers, and forward the money for the same, shall receive the paper one year gratis.

Subscribers in Boston can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Cornhill.

Subscribers in New York can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 129 Nassau street.

Subscribers in Philadelphia can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 106 Chestnut street.

Subscribers in Baltimore can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 5 Calvert street.

Subscribers in Washington can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Pennsylvania Avenue.

Subscribers in Albany can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 408 Broadway.

Subscribers in Troy can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 253 River street.

Subscribers in Buffalo can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Exchange street.

Subscribers in Rochester can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Buffalo street.

Subscribers in Cincinnati can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Main street.

Subscribers in Louisville can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Fourth street.

Subscribers in Chicago can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Lake street.

Subscribers in Detroit can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Woodward's Block.

Subscribers in Milwaukie can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Wisconsin street.

Subscribers in Portland can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Exchange street.

Subscribers in Montreal can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Great St. James street.

Subscribers in Quebec can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Palace street.

Subscribers in Halifax can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Granville street.

Subscribers in St. John, N. B. can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Prince William street.

Subscribers in Charleston can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Broad street.

Subscribers in Savannah can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Bull street.

Subscribers in Mobile can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Royal street.

Subscribers in New Orleans can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Camp street.

Subscribers in Havana can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Tacon street.

Subscribers in Matanzas can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Alameda de Isabella.

Subscribers in Cardenas can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Commercio street.

Subscribers in Nassau, N. P. can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Bay street.

Subscribers in Kingston, Jamaica, can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Harbor street.

Subscribers in Port au Prince, Hayti, can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Rue de la Republique.

Subscribers in Aux Cayes, Hayti, can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Rue de la Grande Place.

Subscribers in Cape Haytien, Hayti, can be supplied at the Periodical Depot, No. 3 Rue de la Fort Daily Journal.

Lowell, Wednesday, October 4, 1848.

FOR GOVERNOR,
EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.
FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF BOSTON.

ELECTION — TUESDAY, NOV. 14.

WHIG COUNCIL.

The Whig Council will meet at Whig Hall, on THURSDAY EVENING, Oct. 5, at 7 o'clock.

By order of the Committee,
JOHN A. KNOWLTON, Sec'y.

CITY MATTERS.

WHIG CAUCUS.

The Whigs of Lowell are requested to meet at Faneuil Hall, on THURSDAY EVENING, Oct. 5, at 7 o'clock, to choose Delegates to the County Convention, to be held at Concord on Tuesday, the 10th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Lowell, Oct. 4, 1848.

☞ The Lyceum of the Jackson Mechanics will meet at Huntington Hall, this evening.

ANNUAL WOOL BALL. — To-morrow night, at Jackson Hall, there is to be another grand rally of the Whigs of Lowell. It is important that there should be a full attendance. Let the best speakers be present with their best speeches, at their command, and let a full representation of the party be present at home, to cheer, to vote and act.

CORRECTION. — Yesterday we stated that the Lovers of the Ballot to their Honorary Base Ball took place on Thursday evening next. We should have said on Friday. Our readers will please to take notice.

☞ Parsonage Gendron still lies very dangerously ill.

☞ Patrick Conley reported at the Police Court this morning for assault of $56 on Michael Sullivan. The money was afterwards found in the Oyster cellar, opposite the depot, and delivered to the owner.

A man was in custody at the interests of Justice, on Monday, (They say,) charged with the sale of an Indian Blanket to the wife of one of the Irish residents of this city, which, on washing, was found to be a mere piece of calico, and the wife duly taken in. Whether there are any who will pay for the purchase, we do not know, but the whole affair is delivered to a competent court of the attainment of justice.

☞ The Police Court this morning was occupied by the trial of Patrick Conley, for assault and battery on Michael Sullivan. The defendant was fined $10 and costs.

☞ The News sails upon the witnesses in the liquor cases before Preston, to call upon Jog Hooper to prove the sale of rum there. Don't all go at once now, give the Justice time.

LATEST FROM MEXICO. — New York, October 4. New Orleans papers of September 27 are received here and contain articles from Mexico, Vera Cruz, of dates to the 20th inst. The Mexican papers are full of the usual complaints of the Democratic party of this State. His manner as a conversationalist and advocate, and stands among the foremost, if not the very first of lawyers among his Democratic colleagues. His professional ability is such that he was engaged to deliver a course of lectures before the Lowell Institute, in the winter, and successfully delivered a course last winter on "The Science of Government, as exhibited in the Institutions of the United States of America." These lectures were well received, and were considered so valuable that they have been printed in a handsome octavo volume. While the volume was preparing for publication the Constitutional Convention was in session, and as one subject which comes the following passage: "If it," the Constitutional Convention, "is to be limited on Sunday and holidays, it ought to be limited on other days." Mr. Choate has incorporated this passage with the quotation from Gov. Tyler, who states that up to 11, to amend or put down the present constitution. It is for the purpose of amendment, it is unconstitutional and illegal; and this view of the writer is sustained by the opinion of the justice of the supreme judicial court, which may be found in a supplement to the sixth volume of reports by Cushing. If the Democratic enemies of the Union and the Democracy, as they did last year and have heretofore done, without utterly destroying all claim to fellowship with the true Democracy in other lands, and disgusting themselves. If they have not gone so far already with their brethren of other states, for an honest repudiation of fraudul heresies and fraudul contaminations, they must cut out free and clear of all future connection or alliance with that dangerous fanaticism."

NEWS, VIEW OF COMMON SCHOOLS. — The Boston Courier of Monday morning says: "We philosophically observe that Common schools teach children to be adepts in crime; to carry on their operations with skill, when the heart is corrupt; to be super secretary; to fear nothing, except public opinion. This is certainly strong testimony from those who live by the favor of our free institutions, and who, without the aid of the public schools would be all in all, and the rest of us nobody."

☞ Sergeant Brown, of the Mexican war, has been promoted to be second lieutenant in U. S. army.—He is cousin to the Emperor of Russia.

☞ Lord Ellesmere has written a letter to Mr Sedgwick, of the Crystal Palace, denying the report that he and the officers of the British army have been inhospitably treated while in New York.

☞ Some negroes belonging to a bachelor in Smithfield left for Free Soil, Ohio, Miss., crossed themselves by blowing him up one night last week with a keg of gunpowder. He was providentially saved through the next day.

☞ Macaulay's London publishers have written their American correspondents, that he and not yet furnished them with the manuscript of his third volume of the History of England.

☞ The word-battle over the bones of the Revolutionary soldiers, still continues to be fought.

☞ President Pierce has been considerably ill.

☞ Colonel Mickey declined the nomination of China.

☞ Capt. J. G. Long has been ordered to command the Saranac.

☞ The New York Printers have sent $300 to their brethren in New Orleans.

☞ Lewis Cass, Jr., son of Gen. Cass, is dangerously ill of typhus fever at Detroit.

☞ Jenny Lind is said to be worth $1,000,000.

☞ Mr. Webster is at the Switzerland in Nahant.

☞ Mr. Clay is at Ashland.

☞ Gen. Cushing has been appointed Minister to China.

☞ James B. Yeng, of New York, has been appointed Consul to Curacoa.

Secretary Dobbin, accompanied by Captain McQuinlan, started yesterday for the North, on a visit of inspection to the various Navy Yards. Jefferson Davis will be acting Secretary of the Navy during his absence.

☞ President Pierce has been considerably ill.

☞ Colonel Mickey declined the nomination of China.

☞ Capt. J. G. Long has been ordered to command the Saranac.

☞ The New York Printers have sent $300 to their brethren in New Orleans.

☞ Lewis Cass, Jr., son of Gen. Cass, is dangerously ill of typhus fever at Detroit.

☞ Jenny Lind is said to be worth $1,000,000.

☞ Mr. Webster is at the Switzerland in Nahant.

☞ Mr. Clay is at Ashland.

☞ Gen. Cushing has been appointed Minister to China.

☞ James B. Yeng, of New York, has been appointed Consul to Curacoa.

Secretary Dobbin, accompanied by Captain McQuinlan, started yesterday for the North, on a visit of inspection to the various Navy Yards. Jefferson Davis will be acting Secretary of the Navy during his absence.

POLITICIANS UNDERRATED. — Mr Barrett, who, for many years has been conductor on the Lowell Railroad, passed over the road in the forward express train passed through Medford, a young, pretty—and we presume, affectionate lady ensconced herself upon the platform in front of the station, and requested the conductor to stop the train that she might bid her lover. Mr Barrett complied instantly. The train was stopped, the lady left the car, kissed her lover lovingly, caressed her cast, and the train passed on.

DEATH OF JUDGE MERRILL. — Hon. James C. Merrill died at his residence in Dunbarton on the 29th inst., at an advanced age. Mr Merrill has been in feeble health for some time. He was one of the oldest members of the Suffolk bar, and long held the office of Judge of the Boston Police Court. He was a graduate of Harvard University, of the class of 1795.

STRANGE. — About noon on Monday, in Boston, a man named George McCulligan, heard a pan announce that "on Thursday evening, Mr. Gough, the distinguished American Temperance Lecturer, would lecture on 'Rum and Rumsellers on Temperance' at the Old Sansett Hall, Salem." Being a devoted admirer of Mr. Gough was resolved to attend. Accordingly, he went to the Eastern Railroad depot, and was immediately informed that the train would not start for Salem for two hours. Not to be disappointed, he went to the Boston Theatre, and was unconscious of the flight of time, until he found himself in Salem.

APPOINTMENT. — Mr James H. Young, of New York, has been appointed, Consul to Calcutta.

JUSTICE! ☞ Hoyer gives us pleasure to announce that he has been appointed, and particularly to pass a paragraph laudatory of the popular Dry Goods Store of F. A. Jones & Co., Nos. 1 & 2 Tremont Row, Boston. Ladies wishing to combine utility with economy, will find it a privilege to make their selections at this establishment.

"CHANGE OF SCHOOL HOURS at Boston. The school hours were changed on Saturday, the schools opening at 8 o'clock in the morning and closing at 12; and in the afternoon opening at 2 and closing at 4 1-2 o'clock.

☞ A gentleman of this city, whose kitchen in Angola, and hearing about cattles and a button, was killed in Mansfield last week.

☞ Sumner D. Bemis, formerly has Yoke promoted to be second lieutenant in U. S. army.—He is cousin to the Emperor of Russia.

☞ Lord Ellesmere has written a letter to Mr Sedgwick, of the Crystal Palace, denying the report that he and the officers of the British army have been inhospitably treated while in New York.

☞ Some negroes belonging to a bachelor in Smithfield left for Free Soil, Ohio, Miss., crossed themselves by blowing him up one night last week with a keg of gunpowder. He was providentially saved through the next day.

☞ Macaulay's London publishers have written their American correspondents, that he and not yet furnished them with the manuscript of his third volume of the History of England.

☞ The word-battle over the bones of the Revolutionary soldiers, still continues to be fought

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 6, 1853. NO 1186.

2 BIBLES WANTED!!!

150 Agents Wanted to sell Bibles.

Also, Testaments of all kinds, suitable for Country Peddlers, Colporteurs, Sabbath School Teachers, and Missionaries, at the lowest prices. Apply at the Depository of the American Bible Society, No. 128 Nassau street, New York. Bibles donated to the destitute in any part of the United States, or sent to any station on the Northern, Eastern or Western Railroads, free of charge.

N. B. Bibles donated to the destitute in any part of the United States, or sent to any station on the Northern, Eastern or Western Railroads, free of charge.

N. B. Bibles donated to the destitute in any part of the United States, or sent to any station on the Northern, Eastern or Western Railroads, free of charge.

EXCELSIOR HAIR TONIC!

A speedy VEGETABLE Preparation for promoting the Growth, Preservation and Beauty of the HAIR.

THE above has been thoroughly tested, and the most satisfactory evidence can be produced, proving that it is a valuable remedy for preventing premature baldness, and for restoring the hair where it has fallen off. It is also a most delightful dressing for the hair, rendering it soft, pliable and glossy, and will keep it in any desired position for the greatest length of time. It is also a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the scalp, such as dandruff, humors, &c., and for all cases of nervous headache it will be found a most valuable remedy.

Price 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all Druggists and Perfumers throughout the United States and Canada.

Depot, 199 Broadway, New York.

Dr. MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS BEEN APPOINTED SOLE AGENT FOR THE SALE OF THE ABOVE CELEBRATED MEDICINE, WHICH HAS BEEN USED IN THE PRACTICE OF THE LATE DR. MARCHISI, OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NAPLES, FOR THE LAST TWENTY YEARS WITH THE MOST ASTONISHING SUCCESS IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL DISEASES OF THE SEXUAL ORGANS, AND IS NOW USED BY HIS SUCCESSOR IN THE HOSPITAL OF THE INCURABLES IN NAPLES.

FEMALES.

This distinction is based on the fact that it will cure more diseases, (peculiar to females,) than any other medicine ever discovered.

[illegible] Sold by Druggists generally throughout the United States and Canada.

Principal Depot, 199 Broadway, New York.

HEADACHE! HEADACHE!!

If you have the Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, or any kind of Headache, you can be relieved from the intensity of the suffering, exhaustion and debility attendant upon it, by using Dr. MORSE'S INDIAN ROOT PILLS.

CHILDREN will generally require but one pill to relieve them.

Prepared only by LOWARD & CARDALL, Sole Proprietors, Auburn, N. Y.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers in Patent Medicines throughout the United States and Canada. Principal Depot, 199 Broadway, New York. Agents for Lowell, J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

CARLTON & BOVEE,

NEW SPRING GOODS.

RECEIVED and ready for inspection at No. 5 Merrimack Square, a full assortment of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Fancy Goods.

No. 1 Tuckerman Block. GILBERT, Jr.

WINDOW GLASS.

500 Boxes Window Glass, assorted sizes, for sale at manufacturers' prices, by

CARLTON & BOVEE.

PHOSPHATED PUMPKIN, for sale by the subscriber, manufacturer, dealer, retailer, druggist, and apothecary, at the sign of the Golden Mortar, No. 1 Tuckerman Block.

GILBERT, Jr.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.

I would call the attention of Farmers to the use of Phosphated Pumpkin, which I have for sale. It is the richest food for cattle in the autumn. It is also the richest manure for the garden, and will increase the amount of the green crop and its durability, and for the same reason will increase the amount of the crop of corn. Also, Phosphated Pumpkin Seed, which I have for sale at the same place. Also, Phosphated Pumpkin Seed, which I have for sale at the same place.

GILBERT, Jr.

BEST PORK, LARD, HAMS—best Wiltsby hams, Boston Mess Pork, Lard, Hams, for sale by

CARLTON & BOVEE.

SUGARS, COFFEES, TEAS, BOLASSES, RICE—best Sugars, Coffees, Teas, Molasses, Rice, for sale by

CARLTON & BOVEE.

WHITE LEAD—Pure White Lead, for sale by

CARLTON & BOVEE.

COTTON DUCK, CORDAGE, TWINE.

RAVENS DUCK and SHIP CHANDLERY—and a variety of other articles suitable to the country and trade for sale by

CARLTON & BOVEE.

BEAUTIFUL TEETH!

CARLET'S & BOVET, Apothecaries, since 1784, have received a fresh supply of their celebrated Tooth Powder, which is the most superior powder ever offered to the public, and has received a diploma at the Fair of 1851.

CARLET'S & BOVET'S Tooth Powder is the only one that can be used by those suffering from the tender gums, as it is composed of the purest vegetable substances, and is a specific for the cure of scurvy in the gums.

CARLET'S & BOVET'S Tooth Powder is the only one that can be used by those suffering from the tender gums, as it is composed of the purest vegetable substances, and is a specific for the cure of scurvy in the gums.

CHEMICAL CONCERTS.

"Cannot be surpassed in their electrifying properties, and when made from authentic specimens and under the most favorable circumstances, they form in addition to their other merits the advantage of being the most instructive and scientific of any of the popular entertainments of the day."—Boston Transcript. "A few minutes' inhalation of the gas will convince the most skeptical of its exhilarating properties."—Boston Courier. "Mr. Colton's Chemical Concerts have taken place in Boston and other cities, and have been highly commended by the press and the public."—Boston Atlas. "Mr. Colton's Chemical Concerts have taken place in Boston and other cities, and have been highly commended by the press and the public."—Boston Atlas.

CIGARS.

200,000 HAVANA CIGARS

Manufactured from Havana Tobacco, of the following celebrated brands:

Pantalon, Pomponio, Cabanas, Trabucos, Regalia, Conchas.

For sale by D. HILL & CO., No. 3 Hartford Block.

AT HERRILL & STRAW'S,

NO. 32 CENTRAL-ST., OPPOSITE THE P. OFFICE.

CARD PAPER RULING and BOOKBINDING done to order, on reasonable terms, and in a workmanlike manner.

HOUSE LOTS—RARE CHANCE.

A HOUSE LOT, containing about 6000 feet of land, situated on Fletcher street, near the Lowell Machine Shop. Said lot will be sold on reasonable terms. Apply to

JAMES C. AVER & CO.,

Apothecaries.

CIGARS.

A. & J. BAYNES CIGAR MANUFACTORY,

No. 6 Merrimack Square, Lowell.

FANCY SOAPS AND PERFUMERY.

A large assortment of fancy perfumery, for sale by

J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

TWO HOUSEKEEPERS.

TWO HOUSEKEEPERS, Rooms and Board, at No. 3 Tyler street, Boston. Inquire of

JAMES C. AVER & CO.,

Apothecaries.

TWO HOUSES FOR SALE.

TWO HOUSES for sale, on the west side of Gorham st. Lot 40 feet on Gorham st., and 100 feet deep. Apply to

JAMES C. AVER & CO.,

Apothecaries.

Lowell, May 18, 1853. myl8

OFFICES TO LET.

TWO pleasant and convenient Offices, on the corner of Central and Jackson streets, will be rented low. Apply to JAS. C. AYER & CO.,

Apothecaries.

WOOLEN FACTORY FOR SALE OR TO LET.

SITUATED in Perrys, N. H., on the Boston and Maine Railroad, 12 miles from Concord, and 70 from Boston. For further particulars call on or address the subscriber, Perrys, N. H.

To further particulars call on or address the subscriber, Perrys, N. H.

To further particulars call on or address the subscriber, Perrys, N. H.

TO LET.

TWO convenient Tenements in Centralville. Apply to A. P. GEROUSHUR.

STORE TO LET.

THE store No. 2 Tuckerman Block, now occupied by Messrs. Gilbert & Co., will be vacated on and after Dec. 1st, 1853. Apply to

CHAS. N. CARTER,

Hat Manufacturer, 2 Tuckerman Block.

Lowell, April 13, 1853. ap13tf

WELLS'S TOOTHACHE DROPS,

THE ONLY sure REMEDY for the excruciating pain of the Toothache. Sold by the proprietor, 2 Tuckerman Block, and by druggists and dealers in fancy goods and patent medicines generally. The most wonderful cures of Agues and Fevers, Chills and Fever, cured by them; and also the Ear-ache. The drops are perfectly harmless, and may be taken by the most delicate female or child with perfect safety. Try them. They will preserve the teeth and cleanse the gums.

C. E. EASTMAN & CO., Apothecaries, Wymore Block, Lowell, Mass. Sole Agents.

LUBIN'S EXTRACTS.

A LARGE ASSORTMENT just received by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell.

EXCELLENT BILLIARD SALOON FOR SALE.

THE Billiard Saloon in the basement of the Merrimack House is now for sale. Said saloon is one of the best in the country, and is now doing a good business. Said saloon will be sold on reasonable terms. Apply at the office of the Merrimack House.

Lowell, Aug 2, 1853. au2tf

STORE TO LET

In the Wyman Block, Merrimack Square. Inquire of

C. P. SKELTON.

FARM FOR SALE.

The Farm of Jacob Tyler, Tewksbury, containing 80 acres of land, well watered, with a good house, barn and sheds, and a young orchard of grafted fruit. The farm is pleasant in ward of a Farm with a healthy location. Also, a Farm of 40 acres, with a good house, barn and sheds, and a young orchard of grafted fruit. The farm is pleasant in ward of a Farm with a healthy location. Also, a Farm of 40 acres, with a good house, barn and sheds, and a young orchard of grafted fruit. The farm is pleasant in ward of a Farm with a healthy location.

Aug 3, 1853. au3tf

FALL STYLE HATS,

WM. P. BRAZER'S,

42 Central, corner of Market st.

THE HOUSEKEEPERS.—Horse Chestnut Starch. Perhaps in the most perfect article for starching linen ever offered to the public. It is the result of extensive practice of and relating to an article for the purpose, and is offered to the public with the confidence that it will give entire satisfaction. For sale by the principal Druggists in the adjoining Counties.

C. E. EASTMAN & CO., Proprietors.

CENTRAL DEPOT, 202 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

Aug 20, 1853. au20

PARE IN WESTMINSTER FOR SALE.

THE following described Lots of Land, situated on Westminster street, fronting Church, Wood and common streets, and Merrimack Square, in the City of Lowell, will be sold at public auction, on the premises, on THURSDAY, the 15th day of September next, at 10 o'clock A. M., viz:

Lot No. 1 contains 4,000 feet of land, more or less, and has a front on Westminster street of 40 feet, and extends back 100 feet. Lot No. 2 contains 4,000 feet of land, more or less, and has a front on Westminster street of 40 feet, and extends back 100 feet. Lot No. 3 contains 4,000 feet of land, more or less, and has a front on Westminster street of 40 feet, and extends back 100 feet. Lot No. 4 contains 4,000 feet of land, more or less, and has a front on Westminster street of 40 feet, and extends back 100 feet.

For further particulars apply to J. H. HOLBART, owner of the premises, or to

JAMES C. AVER & CO.,

Apothecaries.

Lowell, Aug. 16, 1853. au16

CIGARS.

200,000 HAVANA CIGARS

Manufactured from Havana Tobacco, of the following celebrated brands:

Pantalon, Pomponio, Cabanas, Trabucos, Regalia, Conchas.

For sale by D. HILL & CO., No. 3 Hartford Block.

AT HERRILL & STRAW'S,

NO. 32 CENTRAL-ST., OPPOSITE THE P. OFFICE.

CARD PAPER RULING and BOOKBINDING done to order, on reasonable terms, and in a workmanlike manner.

COATS, PANTS, VESTS, AND OVERCOATS

Of the LATEST STYLES AND PATTERNS, now ready for sale at the

No. 1 Tuckerman Block.

GILBERT, Jr.

BUG POISON!

FOR the immediate destruction of Bed Bugs and Roaches. Can be obtained at J. C. AYER & CO.'S, Apothecaries.

VERBENA WATER—A new and delightful perfume, for sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

RUSSIA SALVE—You were just received and for sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

GLENN'S PURE VERBENA WATER.

THE subscriber has just received a fresh supply of this article from the best manufacturer. Persons, or others, who have used it, will find it to be the best article in the market. Also, a fresh supply of Glenn's Sulphur Soap, which is one of the most valuable articles for the toilet ever offered to the public. For sale by the subscriber, No. 2 Tuckerman Block.

CHARLES A. BOVEE.

DAGUERREOTYPE AND AMBROTYPE MEDICINES.

Having given this their name have been bought with the greatest success, and are now offered to the public with the confidence that they will give entire satisfaction. Also, a fresh supply of Daguerreotype Materials, for sale by the subscriber, No. 2 Tuckerman Block.

CHARLES A. BOVEE.

DR. BLAIR'S GOLDEN PILLS.

Dr. BLAIR'S GOLDEN PILLS are the best remedy for the cure of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, and all kinds of Bilious Complaints. They are a safe and speedy cure for the above complaints. They are a safe and speedy cure for the above complaints. They are a safe and speedy cure for the above complaints.

For sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

NEW YORK HAIR DYE.

THE above is a new and splendid article for dyeing the hair. It is a safe and speedy cure for the above complaints. It is a safe and speedy cure for the above complaints. It is a safe and speedy cure for the above complaints.

For sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

CARLTON & BOVEE.

RAILWAY MEDICINES.

THE following Medicines are recommended for the prevention and counteracting of colds and fever, prevalent among Railway men, and are for sale by the subscriber, No. 2 Tuckerman Block. Also, a fresh supply of Daniel Evans's Cough Syrup. For sale by WATSON & BOVEE.

PHILLIPS' CHAMPION.

PHILLIPS' CHAMPION.—This article is superior to any other in use for the purpose for which it is intended, being a liquid and not a powder, and will not injure the most delicate fabric, having a cleansing and purifying effect upon the skin, and is a most delightful article for the toilet. It is also a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the skin, and is a most delightful article for the toilet. It is also a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the skin, and is a most delightful article for the toilet.

For sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

Mrs. S. HIDDEN'S CORDIAL.

Mrs. S. HIDDEN'S CORDIAL for Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, and all diseases of the bowels. This is a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the bowels. This is a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the bowels. This is a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the bowels.

For sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

BARRY'S PREPARED COCOA.

BARRY'S PREPARED COCOA.—Every one who has used it, pronounces it to be the best. It is a most delightful article for the toilet. It is also a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the skin, and is a most delightful article for the toilet. It is also a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the skin, and is a most delightful article for the toilet.

For sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

Lowell, Nov. 15, 1852. nov15

WATCHES.

I have now received my Fall supply of Watches, which I am selling at very low prices. Those who have been waiting for a good watch, will find it to their advantage to call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere. Also, a small House and Barn Jobbing, with 2 acres of land, for sale cheap.

H. HARTSHORN st.

NEW BOOKS.—Uncle Sam's Farm, by Edward Kellogg Esq. by James Wallworth, Hopeweed, Greenhand and Bunker Hill, by Jacob Abbott. Remarkable Providences, illustrating Practical Religion, by John Janeway. Lectures to Young Men, by Rev. John Todd. Just received by

JAS. F. WALKER, 11 Merrimack st.

ENGRAVING and COPPER-PLATE PRINTING.

The subscriber would respectfully inform her friends and the public that she has taken the room over the Post Office, formerly occupied by Mr. Bowers, where she is prepared to execute all kinds of ENGRAVING and COPPER-PLATE PRINTING, in the neatest manner and most reasonable terms. Paper and Cut Cards furnished to order.

Lowell, Nov. 15, 1852. nov15

COATS, PANTS, VESTS, AND OVERCOATS

Of the LATEST STYLES AND PATTERNS, now ready for sale at the

No. 1 Tuckerman Block.

GILBERT, Jr.

BELL HANGING.

THE subscriber would inform the public that he is prepared to repair Hooks and Bells of all kinds, with or without Steam Apparatus. Shop in the basement of the Merrimack House.

D. MORSE.

Lowell, May 14, 1853. my14tf

SILVER COINS, wanted by the subscriber, for which he will pay a liberal premium.

GOLD SPECTACLES.—The subscriber has just received a new assortment of Gold Spectacles, which he will sell at reasonable prices. Also, a fresh supply of Silver Spectacles. Shop in the basement of the Merrimack House building, 2d door north of Market st.

DANIEL BAYNES.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the public that he has taken the room over the Post Office, formerly occupied by Mr. Bowers, where he is prepared to execute all kinds of ENGRAVING and COPPER-PLATE PRINTING, in the neatest manner and most reasonable terms. Paper and Cut Cards furnished to order.

Lowell, Nov. 15, 1852. nov15

HOOPS AND HOOPSKIRTS,

Manufactured from the best materials, and in the most approved manner, and sold at the lowest prices, by the subscriber, No. 2 Tuckerman Block.

CHARLES A. BOVEE.

TRUSSES

We have received from the hands of Benjamin's Son several of their celebrated Trusses, which we are selling at the lowest prices. Also, a fresh supply of Benjamin's Son's Shoulder Braces. For sale by

CARLTON & BOVEE.

NEW BOOKS.—Le Petit Trianon on the Pompadour and Du Barry, by Mary Hay. Lectures to Young Men, by Rev. John Todd. Just received by

JAS. F. WALKER, 11 Merrimack st.

CARBO PIX.—Carbo Pix, or Mineral Tar, for sale by

J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

DR. BLAIR'S GOLDEN PILLS are the best remedy for the cure of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, and all kinds of Bilious Complaints. They are a safe and speedy cure for the above complaints. They are a safe and speedy cure for the above complaints. They are a safe and speedy cure for the above complaints.

For sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

NEW YORK HAIR DYE.

THE above is a new and splendid article for dyeing the hair. It is a safe and speedy cure for the above complaints. It is a safe and speedy cure for the above complaints. It is a safe and speedy cure for the above complaints.

For sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

CARLTON & BOVEE.

RAILWAY MEDICINES.

THE following Medicines are recommended for the prevention and counteracting of colds and fever, prevalent among Railway men, and are for sale by the subscriber, No. 2 Tuckerman Block. Also, a fresh supply of Daniel Evans's Cough Syrup. For sale by WATSON & BOVEE.

PHILLIPS' CHAMPION.

PHILLIPS' CHAMPION.—This article is superior to any other in use for the purpose for which it is intended, being a liquid and not a powder, and will not injure the most delicate fabric, having a cleansing and purifying effect upon the skin, and is a most delightful article for the toilet. It is also a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the skin, and is a most delightful article for the toilet. It is also a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the skin, and is a most delightful article for the toilet.

For sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

Mrs. S. HIDDEN'S CORDIAL.

Mrs. S. HIDDEN'S CORDIAL for Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, and all diseases of the bowels. This is a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the bowels. This is a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the bowels. This is a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the bowels.

For sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

BARRY'S PREPARED COCOA.

BARRY'S PREPARED COCOA.—Every one who has used it, pronounces it to be the best. It is a most delightful article for the toilet. It is also a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the skin, and is a most delightful article for the toilet. It is also a most valuable remedy for all diseases of the skin, and is a most delightful article for the toilet.

For sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

Lowell, Nov. 15, 1852. nov15

WATCHES.

I have now received my Fall supply of Watches, which I am selling at very low prices. Those who have been waiting for a good watch, will find it to their advantage to call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere. Also, a small House and Barn Jobbing, with 2 acres of land, for sale cheap.

H. HARTSHORN st.

NEW BOOKS.—Uncle Sam's Farm, by Edward Kellogg Esq. by James Wallworth, Hopeweed, Greenhand and Bunker Hill, by Jacob Abbott. Remarkable Providences, illustrating Practical Religion, by John Janeway. Lectures to Young Men, by Rev. John Todd. Just received by

JAS. F. WALKER, 11 Merrimack st.

ENGRAVING and COPPER-PLATE PRINTING.

The subscriber would respectfully inform her friends and the public that she has taken the room over the Post Office, formerly occupied by Mr. Bowers, where she is prepared to execute all kinds of ENGRAVING and COPPER-PLATE PRINTING, in the neatest manner and most reasonable terms. Paper and Cut Cards furnished to order.

Lowell, Nov. 15, 1852. nov15

COATS, PANTS, VESTS, AND OVERCOATS

Of the LATEST STYLES AND PATTERNS, now ready for sale at the

No. 1 Tuckerman Block.

GILBERT, Jr.

BUG POISON!

FOR the immediate destruction of Bed Bugs and Roaches. Can be obtained at J. C. AYER & CO.'S, Apothecaries.

VERBENA WATER—A new and delightful perfume, for sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

RUSSIA SALVE—You were just received and for sale by J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

GLENN'S PURE VERBENA WATER.

THE subscriber has just received a fresh supply of this article from the best manufacturer. Persons, or others, who have used it, will find it to be the best article in the market. Also, a fresh supply of Glenn's Sulphur Soap, which is one of the most valuable articles for the toilet ever offered to the public. For sale by the subscriber, No. 2 Tuckerman Block.

CHARLES A. BOVEE.

DAGUERREOTYPE AND AMBROTYPE MEDICINES.

Having given this their name have been bought with the greatest success, and are now offered to the public with the confidence that they will give entire satisfaction. Also, a fresh supply of Daguerreotype Materials, for sale by the subscriber, No. 2 Tuckerman Block.

CHARLES A. BOVEE.

DR. BLAIR'S GOLDEN PILLS.

Dr

Daily Journal & Courier.
Lowell, Thursday, October 9, 1851.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF ADAMS.

ELECTION.....MONDAY, NOV. 10.

WHIG COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Whig Convention by the County at Hamilton, will be held at Ipswich, on TUESDAY, the 14th day of October next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the State Senator and County Commissioner.

The several Towns and Districts in the County are requested to elect delegates equal to three times the number of Representatives to which they are severally entitled in the Legislature, and to meet at their usual places of holding their Town Meetings, on the 13th day of October next, to elect said delegates.

By order of the Whig County Committee.
ISAAC P. LANGE, Chairman of Committee.
ISAAC P. ADAMS, Sec'y. [wec11]

In the New Constitution Better than the Old?

The effort of the free soilers to prove that the new Constitution is worse, and is not needed in Massachusetts, has of late been generally abandoned. No such effort has been made for many weeks by the political writers of the constitution party. Driven from their attitude as offensive assailants, they now act on the defensive alone. Their claim now is, that, bad as the new Constitution is, it is a very easy prerelative to the old! Nothing could be more untrue than this. We shall now lay before our readers a synopsis of the history of the probable operations of the proposed system of House representation, originally published in the Boston Atlas. The constitutionalists has attempted to prove that these statements are incorrect; but as its objections amounted to nothing, we publish the proposed system without further notice of the reply. We hope that every reader will give these facts a patient, thorough and careful perusal:—

DRAFTED, in Essex county, has a population of 7946, and by the present Constitution elects 10 Representatives in ten years, or one for 7946 inhabitants; and by the new Constitution elects 10 Representatives in ten years, or one for 7946 inhabitants, being a gain of 0.

Under the proposed amendments, Cambridge would elect 40 Representatives in ten years, or one for 8706 inhabitants, a loss of two, while the other sixteen towns would elect 138, or one for 1113 inhabitants, being a gain of 25.

Under the present Constitution, the inhabitants resident in those sixteen towns elect 113, one-third more representation than the citizens of Cambridge.

Under the system proposed in the new Constitution, they will have more than three times as many.

The city of Worcester has a population of 18,956. There are fifteen towns in the same county that have a population of 18,937, eight less than Worcester.

Under the present Constitution Worcester elects 20 Representatives in ten years, or one for 9100 inhabitants, while those 15 towns elect 85, or one for 1077 inhabitants, under the proposed system Worcester will elect 19 Representatives in ten years, or one for 9991 inhabitants, a loss of one, while the 15 towns will elect 123 in ten years, or one for 1366 inhabitants, being a gain of 38.

Under the present Constitution these towns have a fraction over one-third more than Worcester.

Under the proposed amendment they will have more than three times the number, according to the last census.

There are six towns in Hampshire county that have a population of 17,169. The balance of the county has a population of 16,160.

Under the present Constitution, these 6 towns elect 70 Representatives in ten years, while the remaining 16,160 inhabitants elect 30.

Under the proposed system these six towns will elect the same number of Representatives in 10 in ten years, while the balance will elect 130, being a gain of 10, or about 66 one hundred.

Berkshire county has a population of 32,731. Under the present Constitution, these towns elect 32 Representatives in ten years, or one for 1023 inhabitants, being a gain of 2.

Under the proposed amendment, Pittsfield would elect 40 Representatives in ten years, or one for 1023 inhabitants, being a gain of 2.

Hinsdale, in Plymouth county, has a population of 2,000, and under the present Constitution elects 10 Representatives in ten years.

There are six other towns in the same county with a population of 4552, which elect 23 Representatives in ten years.

Under the proposed Constitution, Hingham will elect the same number, 10, in ten years, while the five other towns will elect 34, being a gain of 11, or about 70 per cent.

The towns of Hingham, North Bridgewater and Rochester have a population of 11,734.

There are nine other towns in the same county, with a population of 11,734.

Under the present Constitution, these three towns elect 60 Representatives in ten years, or one for 1956 inhabitants, while the other nine elect 60 Representatives in ten years, or one for 1979 inhabitants.

Under the proposed system these three towns will elect the same number of Representatives in ten years, while the other nine towns will be entitled to elect 92 in ten years, or one for 1645 inhabitants, being a gain of 32.

We might pursue this investigation through, and the whole result would be the same; however, but enough has already been shown to prove the fraud of the constitutionalists. We call on the Convention to use their utmost zeal and ardent labor to put down this fraud. One thing is certain more or more the honorable judges of the Supreme Court will be called upon to declare the fraud, for the people will not adopt it. Middlesex will be the determining county, for we have very nearly or more than one-fifth of the whole vote. Middlesex is the five counties lying west of that line, by the present and the proposed Constitution, and east of that line, a population of 662,811.

Under the present system Middlesex is entitled to elect 120 Representatives on an equality, or one for 7 inhabitants.

The 662,811 of the population living in the east part of the State are entitled to elect but 39 Representatives reasonably, or one for 3726 inhabitants.

Under the proposed system, the western counties elect 124 of the Representatives annually, or one for 1864 inhabitants; while the eastern portion elects one for 5741 inhabitants.

We might pursue this subject further; but enough has been said to show that our present system of representation is perfection itself, compared with the unjust and unequal scheme proposed by the Constitutionalists, to keep themselves in power.

THE MIDDLESEX COUNTY CATTLE SHOW AND FAIR. This exhibition was held at Concord, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The Society has recently purchased a lot of six acres of land, admirably adapted to exhibition purposes, on which they have erected a commodious building for the display of fruit and other articles offered for exhibition.

The show of cattle was very good; and some fine horses were also there.

Of swine there was the best show we have ever seen.

The display of fruit was admitted on all hands to be far superior to any former exhibition of the society.

The principal premiums awarded we give below.

The dinner was served in the Town Hall—But as there were more tickets sold than seats to accommodate, there was of course a large crowd pressent, and we contented ourself with a brief look at the tables from a back seat in the gallery. [We are glad to hear this, that, had as the new Constitution is, it is a very easy prerelative to the old! Nothing could be more untrue than this. We shall now lay before our readers a synopsis of the history of the probable operations of the proposed system of House representation, originally published in the Boston Atlas. The constitutionalists has attempted to prove that these statements are incorrect; but as its objections amounted to nothing, we publish the proposed system without further notice of the reply. We hope that every reader will give these facts a patient, thorough and careful perusal:—

DRAFTED, in Essex county, has a population of 7946, and by the present Constitution elects 10 Representatives in ten years, or one for 7946 inhabitants, and by the new Constitution elects 10 Representatives in ten years, or one for 7946 inhabitants, being a gain of 0.

Under the proposed amendments, Cambridge would elect 40 Representatives in ten years, or one for 8706 inhabitants, a loss of two, while the other sixteen towns would elect 138, or one for 1113 inhabitants, being a gain of 25.

Under the present Constitution, the inhabitants resident in those sixteen towns elect 113, one-third more representation than the citizens of Cambridge.

Under the system proposed in the new Constitution, they will have more than three times as many.

The city of Worcester has a population of 18,956. There are fifteen towns in the same county that have a population of 18,937, eight less than Worcester.

Under the present Constitution Worcester elects 20 Representatives in ten years, or one for 9100 inhabitants, while those 15 towns elect 85, or one for 1077 inhabitants, under the proposed system Worcester will elect 19 Representatives in ten years, or one for 9991 inhabitants, a loss of one, while the 15 towns will elect 123 in ten years, or one for 1366 inhabitants, being a gain of 38.

Under the present Constitution these towns have a fraction over one-third more than Worcester.

Under the proposed amendment they will have more than three times the number, according to the last census.

There are six towns in Hampshire county that have a population of 17,169. The balance of the county has a population of 16,160.

Under the present Constitution, these 6 towns elect 70 Representatives in ten years, while the remaining 16,160 inhabitants elect 30.

Under the proposed system these six towns will elect the same number of Representatives in 10 in ten years, while the balance will elect 130, being a gain of 10, or about 66 one hundred.

Berkshire county has a population of 32,731. Under the present Constitution, these towns elect 32 Representatives in ten years, or one for 1023 inhabitants, being a gain of 2.

Under the proposed amendment, Pittsfield would elect 40 Representatives in ten years, or one for 1023 inhabitants, being a gain of 2.

Hinsdale, in Plymouth county, has a population of 2,000, and under the present Constitution elects 10 Representatives in ten years.

There are six other towns in the same county, with a population of 4552, which elect 23 Representatives in ten years.

Under the proposed Constitution, Hingham will elect the same number, 10, in ten years, while the five other towns will elect 34, being a gain of 11, or about 70 per cent.

The towns of Hingham, North Bridgewater and Rochester have a population of 11,734.

There are nine other towns in the same county, with a population of 11,734.

Under the present Constitution, these three towns elect 60 Representatives in ten years, or one for 1956 inhabitants, while the other nine elect 60 Representatives in ten years, or one for 1979 inhabitants.

Under the proposed system these three towns will elect the same number of Representatives in ten years, while the other nine towns will be entitled to elect 92 in ten years, or one for 1645 inhabitants, being a gain of 32.

We might pursue this investigation through, and the whole result would be the same; however, but enough has already been shown to prove the fraud of the constitutionalists. We call on the Convention to use their utmost zeal and ardent labor to put down this fraud. One thing is certain more or more the honorable judges of the Supreme Court will be called upon to declare the fraud, for the people will not adopt it. Middlesex will be the determining county, for we have very nearly or more than one-fifth of the whole vote. Middlesex is the five counties lying west of that line, by the present and the proposed Constitution, and east of that line, a population of 662,811.

Under the present system Middlesex is entitled to elect 120 Representatives on an equality, or one for 7 inhabitants.

The 662,811 of the population living in the east part of the State are entitled to elect but

CITY MATTERS.

WHIG CAUCUS.

The Whigs of Lowell are requested to meet at Lowell Hall, on THURSDAY EVENING, Oct. 9, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating delegates to attend the Whig Convention to be held in Concord on Tuesday, the 14th instant. Per order.
Lowell, Oct. 8, 1851. WHIG COMMITTEE.

WHIG MEETING. We call the attention of the Whigs of Lowell to the meeting for the purpose of delegates to the Middlesex County Convention. To this Convention it will belong to choose candidates for Senators, County Commissioners, &c., which duty, considering the present position of parties, demands more than usual interest. Whigs, be in your hall, this (Thursday) evening, at Jackson Hall.

JUDGE DAVIS. At a meeting of the Mayor and Aldermen, last evening, the following resolutions were drawn:

Supreme Judicial Court, Cambridge, Oct. Term.
Samuel D. Austin, Ephraim Ursely Jenkins vs. G. O. Wheeler.

Court Common Pleas, Lowell, Oct. Term.—Joseph F. Trott, Charles B. Coburn, J. H. B. Ayer, David G. Lang, David W. Lincoln, Jr. vs. 3 Owners.

C. S. Circuit Court, Boston, Att. Term.—Grand Jurors—Abel Hollis, Leonard F. Jewett, Aaron Whipple. Petit Jurors—Lauriston Adams, W. L. North, Otis Allen.

HONORARY MEMBERS of the Mechanic Phalanx are informed to meet at the Company's Armory, Market Building, at 5 o'clock this afternoon, to arrange for the anniversary ceremonies to-morrow.

THE "SONS OF SOLDIERY," commanded by Capt. O. K. Cleaveland, accompanied by the Boston Brass Band, arrived in Lowell this forenoon, and were received by a detachment from our four Lowell companies (18 men from each)—[Pelham, Capt. Farmer; City Guards, Capt. Hosmer; Wetmo Light Guard, Lieut. Pulsifer; Jackson Musketeers, Lieut. Castles—the whole under command of Capt. Farmer, and accompanied by the Lowell Brass Band. They dine at the American House. The "Sons of Soldiery" is composed of past members of various Massachusetts companies.

THE GRAND CHURCH of Spalding & Rogers is in town. The Company will perform this afternoon and evening, and to-morrow, at two and seven o'clock. This Company has the reputation of having the best in the country.

PATTERSON.—Double teams—1st prem. $10, Nathan Brooks, Princeton; 2d, $7, Jacob Bolton, Jaffrey; 3d, $6, H. A. Chadbourn, Jaffrey; 4th, $4, John W. Rice, Sudbury. Single teams—1st prem. $8, Thos. Chamberlain; 2d, $6 Horace Heard, Wayland; 3d, $4, Nathan Smith, Waltham; 4th, $2, Wm. Whitney, Concord. Horse teams—Buckley Moore, Framingham; 2d, $5, Wm. Whitney, Jr., Concord; 3d, $4, Elijah Wood, Concord.

STEERS. Enoch Garfield, $4; Michael Flannery, $3; Wm. Wells, $2; J. Harrington, $1; Patrick Murphy, $1.

HEAD CATTLE. Alderney—1st, E. M. Tewksbury, $3; 2, A. B. Lewis, Framingham, $2; 3d, Isaac Fay, Framingham, $1. Devons—1st, Sleeper & Stevens, Hingham, $3; 2d, Joseph Ayrshires—J. D. Moore, Lowell, $3; 2, A. Stockbridge, Framingham, $2; Converse Smith, Waltham, $1. Ayrs—1st, Reynolds, of Concord, $3; 2d, Nathan Brooks, Princeton, $2; 3d, Isaac Fay, Framingham, $1.

HEIFERS. Milch Heifers—1st premium $6, Wm. Whitney, Concord; 2d, $4, Josiah Wheeler, Concord. Two years heifers—1st prem. $5, Wm. Whitney, Concord; 2d, $3, Isaac Fay, Framingham. Yearling heifers—1st prem. $4, E. G. Bond, Roxbury; 2d, $2, Wm. Whitney, Concord. Calves—1st, Wm. Whitney, Concord; 3d, $1, Wm. Whitney, Concord; 3d, $1, Wm. Whitney, Lowell.

FAT CATTLE. H. A. & S. A. Coburn, Lowell, $6; Nathan Pratt, Sudbury, $5; J. R. Moore, Concord, $4.

SWINE. John Gregg, Bedford, best 2 year old, $3; Lawrence, Lowell, 2d, $2; Nathan Pratt, Sudbury, $1, best 1 year old.

POULTRY. Turkeys—1st prem. $2, Wm. Whitney, Jr., Concord; 2d, $1, Wm. Whitney, Concord. Geese—1st premium, $3, Geo. F. Harwell, Lincoln. Fowls—1st premium, $3, Jos. A. Bennett, Concord; 2d, $2, S. Mason.

VEGETABLES. Best lot—1st premium, $3, J. B. Moore, Concord; 2d, $2, Abel H. Wheeler, Jr., Concord; 3d, $1, Wm. Whitney, Concord. Second do. Wheeler & Barrett, Concord; 2d, $2, Wm. Whitney, Concord.

FRUIT. Best collection, Abel H. Wheeler, Concord; 2d, $3, Josiah Wheeler, Concord. Second do. Wheeler & Barrett, Concord; 2d, $2, Wm. Whitney, Concord.

DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES. Best do. Mrs. Wm. Whitney, Concord; 2d, $3, Mrs. Josiah Wheeler, Concord. Second do. Mrs. Wm. Whitney, Concord; 2d, $2, Mrs. Josiah Wheeler, Concord.

FARMS. For reclaiming bog meadows, $12 to James Taylor of Carlisle. Best stock of farm—1st prem. $15, Elijah Wood, Concord; 2d, $12, Seth Wood, Concord; 3d, $10, Josiah Wheeler, Concord. Second do. Wm. Whitney, Concord; 2d, $8, Elijah Wood, Concord; 3d, $6, Josiah Wheeler, Concord.

PLOUGHING. Double teams—1st prem. $10, Nathan Brooks, Princeton; 2d, $7, Jacob Bolton, Jaffrey; 3d, $6, H. A. Chadbourn, Jaffrey; 4th, $4, John W. Rice, Sudbury. Single teams—1st prem. $8, Thos. Chamberlain; 2d, $6 S. Horace Heard, Wayland; 3d, $4, Nathan Smith, Waltham; 4th, $2, Wm. Whitney, Concord. Horse teams—Buckley Moore, Framingham; 2d, $5, Wm. Whitney, Jr., Concord; 3d, $4, Elijah Wood, Concord.

SPADING. Enoch Garfield, $4; Michael Flannery, $3; Wm. Wells, $2; J. Harrington, $1; Patrick Murphy, $1.

HOED CROPS. Alderney—1st, E. M. Tewksbury, $3; 2, A. B. Lewis, Framingham, $2; 3d, Isaac Fay, Framingham, $1. Devons—1st, Sleeper & Stevens, Hingham, $3; 2d, Joseph Ayrshires—J. D. Moore, Lowell, $3; 2, A. Stockbridge, Framingham, $2; Converse Smith, Waltham, $1. Ayrs—1st, Reynolds, of Concord, $3; 2d, Nathan Brooks, Princeton, $2; 3d, Isaac Fay, Framingham, $1.

HEIFERS. Milch Heifers—1st premium $6, Wm. Whitney, Concord; 2d, $4, Josiah Wheeler, Concord. Two years heifers—1st prem. $5, Wm. Whitney, Concord; 2d, $3, Isaac Fay, Framingham. Yearling heifers—1st prem. $4, E. G. Bond, Roxbury; 2d, $2, Wm. Whitney, Concord. Calves—1st, Wm. Whitney, Concord; 3d, $1, Wm. Whitney, Concord; 3d, $1, Wm. Whitney, Lowell.

FAT CATTLE. H. A. & S. A. Coburn, Lowell, $6; Nathan Pratt, Sudbury, $5; J. R. Moore, Concord, $4.

SWINE. John Gregg, Bedford, best 2 year old, $3; Lawrence, Lowell, 2d, $2; Nathan Pratt, Sudbury, $6, best 1 year old.

POULTRY. Turkeys—1st prem. $2, Wm. Whitney, Jr., Concord; 2d, $1, Wm. Whitney, Concord. Geese—1st premium, $3, Geo. F. Harwell, Lincoln. Fowls—1st premium, $3, Jos. A. Bennett, Concord; 2d, $2, S. Mason.

VEGETABLES. Best lot—1st premium, $3, J. B. Moore, Concord; 2d, $3, Abel H. Wheeler, Jr., Concord. Second do. Wheeler & Barrett, Concord; 2d, $2, Wm. Whitney, Concord.

FRUIT. Best collection, Abel H. Wheeler, Concord; 2d, $3, Josiah Wheeler, Concord. Second do. Wheeler & Barrett, Concord; 2d, $2, Wm. Whitney, Concord.

DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES. Best do. Mrs. Wm. Whitney, Concord; 2d, $3, Mrs. Josiah Wheeler, Concord. Second do. Mrs. Wm. Whitney, Concord; 2d, $2, Mrs. Josiah Wheeler, Concord.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. S. O. Johnson, of this city, for valuable files of the Cuba papers.

SHOEMAKING IN BOSTON. The clothing house of C. Chet, 17 Union street, was broken into Monday night, and robbed of $300 worth of goods.

The store of A. F. Wheaton & Co., 24 and 26 Northampton, was broken open on Monday night, and about $100 worth of furnishing goods stolen.

☞ The Mayor and Aldermen of Lynn offer a reward of $200 for the arrest of James Collins and Peter Fix, for the murder of Patrick McCabe.

☞ W. P. Hill, of New Hampshire, son of the late James Hill, has been appointed to a clerkship in the Boston Custom House.

☞ The Manchester Mirror states that the Merrimack and Connecticut River Railroad (formerly the Concord and Claremont) have come under a contract with the Vermont Central and Ogdensburgh roads to bring all their travel and freight for the next twenty-five years. The completion of this road will make the distance eighteen miles shorter from Ogdensburg to Boston.

THE LATEST OUTRAGE. The Boston Post, was launched from Mr M'Kay's shipyard, in East Boston, at precisely 12 o'clock on Tuesday. The vessel was of magnificent model, noble fabric to her destined home, successful in her voyages, and honorable to her builders and owners, and she passed to her mission on the day amid the crash of cannon and the cheers of the people. She entered Hamilton, in Boston

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 7, 1853. NO 4189

THIS COMBINES
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE,
Corner of Central and Middle streets,
(Adjoining the Post office).

This Office being furnished with entire materials is enabled to execute of the most improved construction, and from the smallest Poster down to the largest Flaring Card—together with its usual supply of well-chosen fonts of handsome plain and fancy

FAST PRESSES,

JOB TYPE,

the proprietor believes that his facilities for executing at any moment are such as to enable him to execute all orders in the most satisfactory manner, and at as low rates as any other office in this vicinity.

PRINTING

The proprietor is pre-determined to do the promptly and also

LOW PRICES

as can be offered any where.

MARKEMENTS, BUSINESS CIRCULARS,
SHOP BILLS, PROGRAMMES,
CATALOGUES,
BILL HEADS, BLANKS,
BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,
PRINTING CARDS, TICKET
PLAIN AND FANCY
LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, or Bronze of every shade, on white or fancy colored paper.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of plain, post mar-blue and colored paper, white and colored CARDS, adapted to every description of work—in packs and in blanks to be cut to order.

M'ELTON'S
TRICOFLUON,
OR
HAIR INVIGORATOR.

THIS new and valuable preparation, recently free from the Laboratory of the subscriber, is now offered to the public. Prepared from the most valuable materials, it will not fail to

RESTORE TO THE DEADS, while at the same time it imparts a glossy lustre and a soft and silky appearance to luxuriant hair, promoting the growth, preventing, cleaning, curling and keeping it in any desired position.

Bathing and Dressing Gray, imparting to it a darker color, completely restoring many cases. Also, for removing Dandruff, Scurf, &c.

☞ Put up in large bottles at 50 and 75 cts per bottle, prepared and sold wholesale and retail by

C. P. BRIGHTON,
DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST,
Manchester, N. H.

Sonfield to Lowell by and for sale by CHARLES P. SARGENT, Druggist, No. 4 Merrimack st. WALE & CO., M. S. GOLDTHWAIT & A. STARNES. 1y

New Freight Arrangement
BETWEEN LOWELL AND NEW YORK.
COMMERCIAL LINE STEAM PROPELLERS BETWEEN PROVIDENCE AND NEW YORK.

Connecting with the Providence and Worcester Railroad Line, leaving Lowell and New York every day, (Sundays excepted) at 5 o'clock, P. M.

Through Freight Tickets to and from Lowell via Providence and Prompt, and New York via Providence, Worcester and Norwich, will be issued at the Freight Office of the Company, and goods will be forwarded with the utmost regularity at least cost charges.

Shippers will find this the most convenient at the new Freight Depot.

Merchants and shippers of goods will find it to their interest to call at the office of the agents as to the advantages of this route, before shipping or making contracts with other lines.

For Freight or Passage apply to or address to W. H. JOURDAN, at the Providence and Worcester Railroad Co., Worcester; or to PIERCE & ARNOLD, Pier 19, North River, foot of Murray street, New York.

JOHN W. BROWN, Agent.
Oct. 7, 1853. 1m

LINSEED OIL, PAINTS, &c.
1000 Bbls Linseed Oil
50 " Boiled "
50 " Spirits Turpentine
50 " Lampblack
50 " Chrome Yellow
50 " Chrome Green
50 " Prussian Blue
50 " Ultramarine
50 " Vermilion
50 " Venetian Red
50 " Rose Pink
50 " Patent Yellow
50 " Drop Black
50 " Burnt Umber
50 " Raw "
50 " Burnt Sienna
50 " Raw "
50 " Yellow Ochre
50 " Paris White
50 " Red Lead
50 " Litharge
50 " Gold Size
50 " Japan
50 " Copal Varnish
50 " Coach "
50 " Furniture "
50 " Demar "
50 " Shellac "
50 " Patent Dryers
50 " Sperm Oil
50 " Whale "
50 " Lard "
50 " Neatsfoot "
50 " Tanners' "
50 " Castor "
50 " Olive "
50 " Palm "
50 " Tallow
50 " Rosin
50 " Beeswax
50 " Glue
50 " Glue Brushes
50 " Varnish "
50 " Paint "
50 " Whitewash "
50 " Sash Tools
50 " Flat Brushes
50 " Round "
50 " Fitch "
50 " Camel Hair Pencils
50 " Sable "
50 " Badger "
50 " Hog Hair "
50 " Duster "
50 " Sash Brushes
50 " Scrubbing "
50 " Shaving "
50 " Horse "
50 " Hair "
50 " Tooth "
50 " Nail "
50 " Clothes "
50 " Whisk "
50 " Shoe "
50 " Blacking "

THE COURIER

JOB PRINTING OFFICE.

Connected with this establishment are

FAST PRESSES,

and a large assortment of new and fashionable

JOB TYPE,

the proprietors therefore have the facilities for executing all kinds of

PRINTING

with neatness and despatch, and on to suit the times.

LOW PRICES

Orders may be left at the counter, or sent by mail, and will receive prompt attention.

HANDBILLS AND BUSINESS FORMS, SHOP BILLS, PROGRAMMES, CATALOGUES,

BILL HEADS, BLANKS, BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

PRINTING OF CARDS, TICKETS, WEDDING AND PARTY CARDS, CHECKS,

LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, or Bronze of every shade, on fancy colored cards.

We always on hand, a good stock of plain, paper and envelopes, which we will furnish at the lowest prices to every description of stock—in packs and in boxes—to suit retailers.

SKELTON'S

TRICOFLUON,

OR

HAIR INVIGORATOR.

THIS new and valuable preparation, discovered by Jesse Skelton, Jr., is respectfully submitted to the Ladies' and Gentlemen's consideration, as a remedy for which it prevents, and in most cases restores. It also prevents dandruff, and all diseases of the skin of the head, and by its use the hair is kept soft and glossy. Price 50 cts. per bottle.

SHEDDING OF THE HAIRS,

Prepared only by

C. P. SKELTON,

DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST,

Corner of Merrimack and Central sts.

New Freight Arrangement

BETWEEN LOWELL AND NEW YORK.

THE PROVIDENCE & STONINGTON STEAMSHIP COMPANY will run their splendid steamships PROVIDENCE and ARCTIC, between PROVIDENCE and NEW YORK, leaving each port every day (Sundays excepted) at 5 o'clock, P. M.

The fleet of the Line is in Providence at Steamboat Wharf, and in New York at Pier No. 1, North River, foot of Courtlandt street, and will sail punctually as above from each port. Passengers by this Line will find every comfort and convenience, and the Steamers are fitted up with Berths and State Rooms.

Passage, including meals and berth, $3.

Freight taken as low as by any other route.

For further information apply to W. E. JOURDAN, at the Providence and Worcester Railroad Co., Providence; E. PEPPER, Agent, Pier No. 1, North st., Providence; T. BUCKINGHAM, 16 Broadway, New York.

JOSEPH HAYES, Agent.

Lowell, Oct. 4, 1851. oct6

BOSTON OIL PAINTS, &c.

1000 lbs Pure Boiled Linseed Oil.
100 " Pure Spirits Turpentine.
500 " Pure White Lead, in Oil.
" " Ground " "
" " Dry "
" " Red " "
" " Yellow Ochre "
" " Venetian Red "
" " Lamp Black "
" " Chrome Green "
" " Chrome Yellow "
" " Chrome Orange "
" " Chrome Red "
" " Prussian Blue "
" " Paris Green "
" " Vermilion "
" " Rose Pink "
" " Gold Size "
" " Japan "
" " Copal Varnish "
" " Coach Varnish "
" " Furniture "
" " Damar "
" " Shellac "
" " Patent Dryers "
" " Sperm Oil "
" " Whale "
" " Lard "
" " Neatsfoot "
" " Tanners' "
" " Castor "
" " Olive "
" " Train "
" " Linseed "
" " Sweet "
" " Palm "
" " Cocoa "
" " Tallow "
" " Soft Soap "
" " Hard "
" " Saleratus "
" " Saltpetre "
" " Glue "
" " Rosin "
" " Alum "
" " Copperas "
" " Blue Vitriol "
" " Epsom Salts "
" " Glauber Salts "
" " Sal Soda "
" " Potash "
" " Whiting "
" " Paris White "
" " Putty "
" " Litharge "
" " Red Lead "
" " Sugar Lead "
" " Nutgalls "
" " Logwood "
" " Fustic "
" " Camwood "
" " Redwood "
" " Indigo "
" " Madder "
" " Cochineal "
" " Alcohol "
" " Aqua Ammonia "
" " Muriatic Acid "
" " Nitric Acid "
" " Oxalic Acid "
" " Sulphuric Acid "
" " Chloride Lime "
" " Chloride Soda "
" " Chloride Potash "
" " Cream Tartar "
" " Tartaric Acid "
" " Citric Acid "
" " Sulphate Quinine "
" " Sulphate Morphine "
" " Sulphate Strychnine "
" " Iodine "
" " Iodide Potash "
" " Bromine "
" " Bromide Potash "
" " Prussiate Potash "
" " Chloroform "
" " Ether "
" " Camphor "
" " Gum Arabic "
" " Gum Shellac "
" " Gum Myrrh "
" " Gum Opium "
" " Gum Camphor "
" " Gum Guaiac "
" " Gum Benzoin "
" " Gum Tragacanth "
" " Gum Assafœtida "
" " Gum Ammoniac "
" " Gum Copal "
" " Gum Kino "
" " Gum Aloes "
" " Gum Senna "
" " Gum Rhubarb "
" " Gum Ipecac "
" " Gum Jalap "
" " Gum Sarsaparilla "
" " Gum Dragon "
" " Gum Elastic "
" " Gum Turpentine "
" " Gum Tar "
" " Gum Pitch "
" " Gum Resin "
" " Gum Wax "
" " Gum Tallow "
" " Gum Lard "
" " Gum Suet "
" " Gum Butter "
" " Gum Cheese "
" " Gum Milk "
" " Gum Cream "
" " Gum Whey "
" " Gum Curd "
" " Gum Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Butter "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cheese "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Curd "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Milk "
" " Gum Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Whey Cream "
" " Gum Whey

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell: Friday, October 7, 1853.

FOR GOVERNOR,
EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF ARAM.

BOSTON ..... MONDAY, NOV. 14.

WHIG CONVENTION.

The Whig Convention of the County are requested to meet at QUINCY, on TUESDAY, the 11th day of next November, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for County officers, to be supported at the ensuing election; and also to choose delegates to attend the Whig County Convention, to be holden at Lowell, on the 14th day of November.

JUDGE WASHBURN. The Worcester Transcript contradicts the lying report that Mr. Washburn is opposed to the Homer Tunnel project.

Judge Washburn had an eighty with Judge Merrick for the Supreme Bench, and he did leave the country because he was not appointed. Now he is the improvement of his health. Judge Washburn's friends are not opposed to Judge Merrick, nor do the Webster men talk of putting a Webster man on the bench. John P. Healey, Esq., the former law partner of Mr. Webster, is the leading Whig candidate for Governor in the Worcester and in the Springfield districts. Mr. Healey is a Webster man, and Mr. Allen's dismal difficulties!" What a specimen of "Whig consistency!"

JUDGE WASHBURN. The Worcester Transcript contradicts the lying report that Mr. Washburn is opposed to the Homer Tunnel project.

Judge Washburn had an eighty with Judge Merrick for the Supreme Bench; and he did leave the country because he was not appointed. Now he is the improvement of his health. Judge Washburn's friends are not opposed to Judge Merrick, nor do the Webster men talk of putting a Webster man on the bench. John P. Healey, Esq., the former law partner of Mr. Webster, is the leading Whig candidate for Governor in the Worcester and in the Springfield districts. Mr. Healey is a Webster man, and Mr. Allen's dismal difficulties!" What a specimen of "Whig consistency!"

The Whigs of Lowell met last evening a la Webster people! Nothing more than a dull change of duty. Wherein lies the difference between Hon. Darling and Hon. Dorman? It is this: The one is at home; the other in a strange land. The one is quietly and unpretendingly with a secure, steadfast and unblemished character; the other, with a character, to say the least, questionable, and unblushingly sets up the paths of greatness! The one is a humble minister of Jesus, who, like his Divine Master, in his humanity, frequently knows not where to lay his head.

Let our trumpets sound anew the time of day over good brother. I would but remind the short of inspiration, that that which he has solemnly sworn to take his pride, and to which he has certain points of interest, and to which certain points of interest, and to which he has solemnly sworn to take his pride, and to which he has solemnly sworn to take his pride, and to which he has solemnly sworn to take his pride

THE COURIER
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE,
Corner of Merrimack and Middle streets,
(Adjoining the new Bridge.)

This Office being furnished with all the finished tools and materials

FAST PRESSES,

is prepared to execute every description of work, from the smallest Poster down to the present Printing Card—together with the largest supply of the choicest varieties of handsome Jobbing Type

JOB TYPE,

the proprietor believes that his facilities for executing every description of

PRINTING

in a style to be equalled only by himself, promptly, and at as reasonable rates as the same work can be done for anywhere.

The proprietor's old friends and customers, he trusts, will continue their patronage.

LOW PRICES

will not be offered by any others.

HANDBILLS AND BILLHEAD POSTERS,
SHOP BILLS, PROGRAMMES,
CATALOGUES,
BILL HEADS, BLANKS,
BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,
CARDS, TICKET AND CHECK
PLAIN AND FANCY
LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, or Bronzes of every shade, on white or fancy colored papers.

☞ Always on hand, a good stock of plain, pearl and fancy colored CARDS, ruled and printed to order.

SKELTON'S
TRICOFLUON,
OR
HAIR INVIGORATOR.

This rare and valuable preparation, combining materials from the vegetable kingdom, is especially adapted to the Ladies' toilet. Prepared solely from vegetable ingredients, it combines the

DOUBLE OF THE DESIRED, qualities at the same time. It imparts a glossy lustre and a soft and silky smoothness to the harshest hair, promoting its growth, preserving, cleaning, curling and beautifying the hair, and preserving the

HEALTHY AND NATURAL COLOR.

Requesting to R. a darker color, completely restraining scurf, dandruff, and all diseases of the skin.

☞ Put up in large bottles at 25 and 37½ cts per bottle. Prepared and sold wholesale and retail, by

C. O. SKELTON,
DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST,
Post Office Square, B. B.

Retailed in Lowell by I. W. SCRIBNER, F. BABON, S. KIDDER, Jr., E. S. HALE & CO., C. B. COLBY, and E. A. STANIELS. sep1dtf

New Freight Arrangement!

SPRING VALLEY, AND NEW YORK.

THE COMMERCIAL LINE STEAM PROPELLERS BETWEEN PROVIDENCE AND NEW YORK.

The subscribers have established the above line, to run regularly between the above ports.

Goods transported to and from Providence and New York on low and with special despatch as by any other Line.

The Steam of this Line will run to Providence on Monday, Thursday and Saturday evenings. They will run from New York on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. They are fitted up with every convenience for this route, and fitted with the utmost regard to the safety of boat and cargo.

Goods to be sent for Philadelphia and Baltimore at the most reasonable rates.

Insurance and shippers of goods will find it to their interest to fully inform themselves as to the advantages of said route, before shipping or engaging freight on other routes.

For further information apply to W. H. JOURDAN, office of Barry Spalding and Wheeler's Express, Providence; B. BUFFUM, Agent, foot Rhode Island Wharf, Providence; ISAAC ODELL, Pier No. 11 N. R., N. Y.; W. P. WILDER & CO., Agents, 21 Broadway, N. Y.

Oct. 1, 1851. oct1dtf

LOWELL OIL PAINTS.

1000 Tons Lead;
Linseed Oil;
Spirits Turpentine;
1 " Genuine Venetian;
1 " Common Brown Paint;
1 " Lehigh & Co's Light Japan;
1 " Dark Japan;
1000 " Red Lead;
1000 " Litharge;
1000 " Patent Yellow;
1000 " French Yellow;
1000 " Chrome Green;
1000 " Prussian Blue;
1000 " Paris Green;
1000 " Verditer;
1000 " Ultramarine;
1000 " Chrome Yellow;
1000 " Chrome Green;

For sale by
COBURN & MIXER,
Merrimack Building, Bottom st.

FACTORY LUBRICATING.

500 Gallons Sperm Oil;
" Patent Machine Oil;
" Clarified Whale Oil;
" Superfine Lubricating;
" Pure Cod Oil;
" Extra Winter Strained Lard;
" Lard Oil;
" Burning Fluid;
" Lamp Oil;
" Lamp Wicking;
" Extra Lubricating;
" Neatsfoot Oil;
" Tanners' Oil;
" Whale Oil;
" Sperm Candles;
" Adamantine do.;
" Star do.;

For sale by
COBURN & MIXER,
Merrimack Building, Bottom st.

RESOVAL.

The undersigned has removed his Store from Central to Market street, on the Market Building, where he will be pleased to see his friends in the new and more convenient position of his store to the public.

STEAM AND GAS FITTINGS

of all descriptions, such as Globe Valves, Taps, Elbows, Angle Valves, Bushings, Nozzles, &c., &c.

Wood and Cast Pumps, for Steam's STEAM GUAGE, a new and convenient article, attached to indicate the true pressure to the boiler.

GEO. DARTNELL, Jr.
Lowell, Jan. 1, 1853. jan1dtf

BOTTOM.

The Subscriber is now manufacturing by steam power, the famous qualities of Thompson's Mechanical Lard Oil, Sperm Oil, Whale Oil, and Spirits Turpentine, by E. BUSH, corner of Central and Merrimack sts.

LEECHES! LEECHES!!

The subscriber has just received a large supply of Prime American Medicinal Leeches, and would respectfully invite the public to inspect this valuable article, warranted to be of the finest description, as it has many advantages over the Shrub (or Leech.)

Also agent for Lowell for E. BUSH, corner of Central and Merrimack sts, under the church.

A New Temperance Beverage!

THE AMBROSIAL HEAD, put up in pint bottles, is one of the most palatable, delicious and healthy drinks ever in use. For sale at wholesale and retail by J. C. AYER & Co.

apr24 Corner of Central and Jackson sts.

PLAYING WARE OF THE FIRST QUALITY.

Ivory Bone and Wood Backs;
Ivory Bone and Wood Fronts;
Ivory Bone and Wood Bodies;
Ivory Bone and Wood Ends;
Ivory Bone and Wood Rules;
Ivory Bone and Wood Counters;
Ivory Bone and Wood Markers;
Ivory Bone and Wood Dominoes;
Ivory Bone and Wood Backgammon Boards;
Ivory Bone and Wood Chessmen;
Ivory Bone and Wood Chess Boards;
Ivory Bone and Wood Cribbage Boards;
Ivory Bone and Wood Tablets;
Ivory Bone and Wood Paper Folders;
Ivory Bone and Wood Paper Cutters;
Ivory Bone and Wood Tea Trays;
Ivory Bone and Wood Tea Boards;
Ivory Bone and Wood Tea Knives;
Ivory Bone and Wood Tea Caddies;
Ivory Bone and Wood Tea Forks.

For sale at the Lowell Ivory Turning and Playing Ware Factory.

JOSEPH BAYNES.

REGULAR JACKET CLOTH.

Black Kersey Jacketing and Sack Flannel;
Black Fancy Cassimere Cloths;
Black Satin Vest Cloths;
Black Vicuna Cloths;
Black Fancy Satin Vest Cloths;
Black Fancy Cassimeres;
Black Fancy Doeskins;
Black Fancy Satinets;
Black Fancy Cloths;
Black Fancy Tricots;
Black Fancy Cassimeres;
Black Fancy Doeskins;
Black Fancy Satinets;
Black Fancy Cloths;
Black Fancy Tricots;

For sale by
COBURN & MIXER,
Merrimack Building, Bottom st.

LEECHES! LEECHES!!

A PRIME LOT just received and for sale by E. BUSH, corner of Central and Merrimack sts.

Also agent for the Church.

READY REFERENCE BILL FILE—A very useful and convenient invention for filing bills and papers. For sale by WATSON & SARGEANT.

A MEDICINAL BEVERAGE—A cheap, delicious and refreshing beverage for the season of the year. For sale at the Apothecaries' prices, at wholesale and retail, by J. C. AYER & Co.

PREMIUM GOLD PENS.

50 Gold Pens, with Gold Holders, Warranted Without Fine Point, for sale by
C. B. COLBY,
Merrimack Building, Bottom st.

COAL, WARE AND IRON RECEIVING.

GAS LIGHT COAL, for sale by
JAMES P. WALKER,
31 Merrimack st.

SALERATUS.

Pearl American Saleratus, for sale by
E. BUSH,
Corner of Central and Merrimack sts.

A New Temperance Beverage!

THE AMBROSIAL HEAD, put up in pint bottles, is one of the most palatable, delicious and healthy drinks ever in use. For sale at wholesale and retail by J. C. AYER & Co.

apr24 Corner of Central and Jackson sts.

PLAYING WARE OF THE FIRST QUALITY.

Ivory and American Plated Ware, viz: Dinner & Table Knives and Forks, Carving Knives and Forks, Dessert Knives, Tea Knives, Soup Ladles, Mustard, Salt, Pepper, Cream and Sugar Spoons, Butter Knives, Pickle Forks, Tea Knives;

Lacking Issues, Mutilated and Missing Pages

At this time of initial microfilming the file is incomplete or imperfect as indicated. If any of the material is added at a later date it will be found in its proper place, or at the end of the reel concerned, or on a supplementary reel, in that order of preference.

October 8, 1853

Form 462

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. MONDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 10, 1853. NO. 4191.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.
To those who pay in advance a deduction of 50 cts. will be made

Office—No. 27 CENTRAL STREET,
(Adjoining the Post Office.)

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at $1 per square for three insertions, and 25 cts. per square for each subsequent insertion—to be paid for in advance, in all cases where an account is not open. Twelve lines or less constitute a square.

Yearly and Mercantile advertisements inserted at prices according to the room and place occupied.

☞ The proprietor will not hold himself responsible for any error or omission that may occur, beyond the price charged for the advertisement.

Contracts for yearly advertising will be continued until an order is received for their discontinuance, and when discontinued in less than a year, the price of a whole year will be charged.

☞ Court notices inserted at customary rates. Papers containing them will be filed and delivered to the advertisers without additional charge.

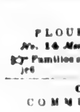
The Lowell Weekly Journal, a paper of the largest size, for the country, is published on FRIDAY MORNING, at the low price of $1 50 a year in advance, or $2 anytime during the year.

All sums will be on interest, after they are due.

☞ Letters and communications by mail must be post paid.

☞ No paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

BUSINESS CARDS.



Book and Job Printing
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
NEATLY & PROMPTLY EXECUTED
AT THE OFFICE OF THE
Lowell Daily Journal & Courier,
By S. J. Varney.

A. H. FLANDERS, M. D.,
HOMŒOPATHIC PHYSICIAN,
Rooms, over Ayer's Drug Store.
Refers to D. Holt, M. D. jy29d3m

P. H. MAGUIRE,
SLATER,
Prescott street, Lowell.
☞ Roofs covered with Slate, Tin, Zinc, or Copper, in the best manner. jy21 dtf

WM. C. GRAY,
DEPUTY SHERIFF,
Office—Canal Block, Central street,
RESIDENCE, No. 4 CHURCH STREET,
LOWELL, MASS

Orders received by Mail or Express will be promptly attended to. mar18dtf

C. S. EASTMAN & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
MANUFACTURERS OF
Pentucket Spring Soda and Mineral Water.
CORNER STORE, EASTMAN'S EXCHANGE,
apr14 LOWELL. dtf

DAVID DANA,
OPPERSMITH, BRASS FOUNDER,
AND TIN-PLATE WORKER,
Jackson street, opposite Hamilton Print. Works.
jun1 All orders promptly executed.

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INS COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
JOSHUA MERRILL, Agent,
Office—No. 23 Central street. may26

HUGH McEVOY,
DRAPER AND TAILOR
No. 53 Central st., Lowell, Mass
jan

ABEL WHITNEY,
(SUCCESSOR TO MILTON BOBBY)
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND STATIONER,
35 Merrimack street.
ACCOUNT BOOKS MADE TO ORDER.
Agent for the Sunday School Union, Tract and Mass. Sabbath School Societies.
Agent for Fire, Life and Health Insurance.
Aug. 6, 1851. aug6dly

A. P. GROSVENOR,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Corner of Central and Centre sts., Centralville.
aug30 dly

WEAVER & BROTHER,
No. 1 Central, and 20 Merrimack streets,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
ALL KINDS OF MAHOGANY AND PINE FURNITURE,
CARPETS, FEATHERS, CURLED HAIR AND PALM LEAF MATTRESSES, AND FEATHER BEDS OF ALL KINDS, LOOKING GLASSES, CHAIRS, CLOCKS,
&c., &c., &c.
JOHN WEAVER, jan31 O. G. WEAVER. ct

J. COBURN,
DEALER IN
FLOUR, MEAL, GRAIN, &c.,
No. 14 Merrimack street, opposite Bridge street.
☞ Families supplied and Goods delivered to order.
jy6 dly

COBURN & MIXER,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS
DEALERS IN
GRAIN, WHALE, LARD AND LINSEED OILS; POTATO STARCH; FACTORY LEATHER, BATTENS, ROLLER CLOTH, TWINE, CARDS, PICKERS, &c.; PAINTS AND GLASS;
BUTTER, CHEESE, PORK, LARD AND SALT,
Nos. 4 and 5 Mechanics' Building,
Dutton street
CHAS S. COBURN, [nov1dtf] JOHN MIXER.

JOHN MAYNARD,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
No. 170 Merrimack street.
Prescriptions carefully prepared, and Medicines delivered at all hours of the day or night. apr16dly

CUSHING & MACK,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
STOVES, HOLLOW WARE, &c., &c.
Basement Story of the 2d Universalist Church,
Merrimack st.
DAN'L CUSHING, (jan1) SAMUEL G. MACK.

JOHN NEWELL,
CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.
Hydraulic Engineering and Mechanical Draughting,
No. 8 Savings Bank Building,
(Lately occupied by Franklin Forbes.)
Reference to J. B. FRANCIS, Esq. dec20d1y

ASHER FROST,
SURVEYOR OF LUMBER,
AND
MEASURER OF WOOD,
At Wm. Livingston's Office, Thorndike st.,
feb9 LOWELL, MASS. dly

JOHN PEARSON,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN
W. I. GOODS, GROCERIES, FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC FRUIT, &c., &c.,
No. 3 Savings Bank Building,
(1st door from Moore Rogers' Hardware Store,) jan18 Merrimack st., Lowell, Mass. dly

SAMUEL KIDDER, Jr.,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY
Corner of Merrimack and Johnstreets
Opposite Unitarian Church.
☞ Particular attention paid to putting up Physicians' Prescriptions. Medicine delivered at any hour of the night.
jan1

STEPHEN MASSUR,
DEALER IN
HARD CROCKERY, GLASS AND CHINA WARE,
AGRICULTURAL PORCELAIN, &c.,
jan1 No. 110 Merrimack st.

WILLIAM S. GARDNER,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
Hamilton Block, Central street, opposite the Appleton House.
mar18 LOWELL, MASS. dtf

MORSE & CAVERLY,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Office—49 Kidder's Building, Central street,
LOWELL.
I. S. MORSE, E. B. CAVERLY.
dec31 ly

DEAN & DINSMOOR,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
OFFICE—3 State street, BOSTON,
BENJ. DEAN, J. DINSMOOR.
oct14 dtf

BUSINESS CARDS.

REEDS AND HARNESSES,
MADE TO ORDER, AND WARRANTED, BY
D. C. BROWN,
MIDDLE STREET, NEAR THE POST OFFICE, LOWELL.
Reed Factory, Middlest.....Harness Factory, Warren st
may23 dtf

NOTICE.

This is to certify that GEORGE HEDRICK has been for the last ten years, and is now, our only agent in Lowell and vicinity for the sale of our Piano Fortes, and persons wishing to purchase our Instruments will always find a choice assortment at his Warerooms, which will be sold at the same prices, and terms, as at our Manufactory, and warranted to give entire satisfaction.
T. GILBERT & CO
Boston, April 19, 1851. apr14dtf

ABIJAH CUTTER,
DEALER IN
DOUBLE AND SINGLE SHOT GUNS AND PISTOLS.
Also—Sporting Apparatus and Fishing Tackle of every description.
Powder, Shot, Percussion Caps, &c., &c.
FISHING RODS made to order.
KEYS of all kinds made to order and LOCKS repaired
No. 15 MIDDLE STREET,
Third door west of the Post Office,
LOWELL 31ARS. dtf
je28

HERRICK & TUTTLE,
MASONS,
Office, Courier Building, 97 Central street, (second floor.)
Orders for Mason work, of all kinds, promptly and satisfactorily executed. aug29dtf

CHARLES T. CARNEY,
APOTHECARY AND CHEMIST,
Corner of Merrimack and Kirk Streets,.....LOWELL,
DEALER IN
Pure Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, and CHEMICAL APPARATUS.
☞ Chemical Analyses and Examinations made on reasonable terms. sep5dtf

N. J. WIER & CO.,
(Successor to D. G. Littlefield.)
COPPER, TIN PLATE & SHEET IRON WORKERS.
ALSO DEALERS IN
STOVES, HOLLOW WARE, &c., &c.
106 Merrimack st.
All orders promptly executed sep15dtf

A. & S. STEVENS,
MANUFACTURERS OF
POWER LOOM HARNESSES AND REEDS,
And every description of
MACHINE BELTS AND STRAPS,
Corner Fletcher st. and Western Avenue
LOWELL, MASS.
ALPHA STEVENS, SOLON STEVENS.

Belts and Straps, of superior quality, for all kinds of Machinery, furnished to any extent with very short notice. Belts of all common widths; Lagging Leather for covering pulleys and drums; Lacing Leather, both round and Calcutta, and a superior article of Cement for joining Belts, constantly on hand, at such prices as cannot fail to suit the purchaser. feboddtf

BLANCHARD, WRIGHT & CO.,
COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
No. 1 Fletcher street, LOWELL. | No. 78 Commercial st., BOSTON.
C. F. BLANCHARD. WALTER BLANCHARD. GEO WRIGHT.
June 14, 1853. jel4dtf

WATSON & SARGEANT,
BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS,
143 Merrimack street,
WHITWORTH'S BUILDING,—LOWELL.
Book Binding in every variety. Blank Books made to order. dtf
dec30

LOWELL MUTUAL FIRE INS. COMPANY.
—OFFICE—
Corner of Central and Market streets.
Risks taken in Massachusetts and New Hampshire.
jan1 JACOB ROBBINS, Sec'y

H. G. F. CORLISS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW.
SEALD NO'S BUILDING, No. 48 CENTRAL STREET, jan18 LOWELL. ctf

BLANCHARD & UNDERWOOD,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
WEST INDIA GOODS AND GROCERIES, FOREIGN FRUIT, WOODEN AND WILLOW WARE, &c.,
At the Corner store, Nos. 6 and 7 Savings Bank Building, corner of Middle and Shattuck sts.,
LOWELL. dtf
jan8

MERRILL & STRAW,
(SUCCESSORS TO POWERS & BAGLEY,)
PUBLISHERS, BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS,
Dealers in Paper Hangings, Borders, Blank Books, &c.
Blank Books made to order, and Paper ruled to any pattern
Boo Binding done with neatness and despatch.
No. 33 Centre st., LOWELL
jan1 ctf

B. S. HALE & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
RETAIL DEALERS IN
DRUGS, MEDICINES, PERFUMERY, TOILET ARTICLES, &c., &c.
☞ Physicians' Prescriptions put up at all hours with the utmost care.
Pure SODA drawn at all seasons.
Corner of East Merrimack and Davidson streets, Belvidere
jan1 dtf

C. P. TALBOT & CO.,
MANUFACTURERS OF
DYE WOODS AND CHEMICALS.
City Market House,—LOWELL.
C. P. TALBOT, [oct8dly] THOS TALBOT

SAMUEL N. WOOD
(Successor to S. Wood & Co.,)
WHOLESALE DEALER IN
FLOUR, ALL KINDS OF GRAIN, SHORTS, &c
Also Commission Merchant for the sale of
COUNTRY PRODUCE
Market street—Opposite the Market House, Lowell, Mass

C. WEBSTER,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
BONNETS, RIBBONS, LACES, ARTIFICIAL FLOWERS, MILLINERY GOODS, &c.,
No. 43 MERRIMACK STREET, (Nesmith's New Block,)
Lowell, Mass.

MRS. WEBSTER,
Silk and Straw Bilinner, Sans Street.
jan14 1y

VOCAL MUSIC.

GEO. F. WILLEY,

Respectfully gives notice to his friends and the public, that he has resumed his private instruction in the principles of Music, and the cultivation of the Voice
In order to accommodate those who may not wish to take private instruction, he will open Classes for Ladies and Gentlemen, at moderate terms.
Music Room—the lecture room of Kirk Church.
Orders or notes for Mr Willey may be addressed to him at S. H. Shepard's Music Store, 77 Merrimack st., or at his residence, 84 Franklin square. may30dtf

MUSIC.

MISS G. W. STEWARD, formerly Miss Kemist, is prepared to give instruction on the Piano Forte, at her residence on the corner of Appleton and South sts.—Tuition, $6.00 for 24 lessons. apr19dtf

TO THE LADIES.—Lubin's Jockey Club, Verbena, West End, Bouquet de Esterhazy, Napoleon 3d, &c., just received, direct from Importers, by CARNEY, Apothecary, corner Kirk and Merrimack sts. may6

HAWTHORNE AND BILLARD.—Tanglewood Tales, for Girls and Boys—being a Second Wonder Book. By Nathaniel Hawthorne. Illustrated. Six Months in Italy. By Hon. George S. Hillard. The Political and Military History of the Campaign of Waterloo—translated from the French of General Baron De Jomini. By S. V. Benet, U. S. Ordinance. For sale by WATSON & SARGEANT. may6

TOILET SOAPS!—Low & Cleaver's Honey and Brown Windsor Soaps—Cleaver's celebrated "Musk Scented" Soap—White Windsor, and a large assortment of the most favorite kinds. For sale by CARNEY, Apothecary, may10 corner Kirk and Merrimack sts.

SAFETY FUSE.

50,000 feet Tyne, Bickford & Co.'s Patent Safety Fuse, for blasting rocks, for sale by manufacturers' agent,
C. MIXER.
may24dtf Basement Building, Dutton st.

FANCY GOODS AND PERFUMERY.
A new, elaborate and full assortment of Fancy Goods and Perfumery, for sale by CARNEY, Apothecary, may10 corner Kirk and Merrimack sts.

WINDSOR COURT LETTER PAPER.
For sale by
C. P. WALKER, 61 Merrimack st.

GOODS PERFUMED AND RESTORED.
Perfumes and Cosmetics, Perfumers, Cologuets, and Toilet Articles, for sale by CARNEY, Apothecary,
may10 corner Kirk and Merrimack sts.

RUSSIA SALVE, for Burns, Scalds, Cuts, &c., for sale agent in Lowell, S. KIDDER, Jr.

INSURANCE OFFICES

Fire Insurance.
METROPOLITAN FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE Co., Boston. Capital $300,000.
HOWARD FIRE INSURANCE CO., Lowell. Capital $100,000.
EQUITABLE M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Concord, N. H. Capital $250,000
HAVERHILL M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Haverhill.
QUINCY M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Quincy.
PEOPLE'S EQUITABLE M. FIRE INSURANCE CO Taunton.
FARMERS' M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Georgetown
JEREMIAH S. FOLSOM, Agent,
53 Central st., Lowell.
Residence cor. Pawtucket and Salem sts. sep16dly

AMERICAN TEMPERANCE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
HARTFORD, CONN.
Incorporated by the State of Connecticut.
Capital One Hundred Thousand Dollars,
$100,000,
Securely invested under the sanction and approval of the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS:
BARZILLAI HUDSON, President.
TERTIUS WADSWORTH, Vice President.
B. E. HALE, Secretary.
DIRECTORS:

Barzillai Hudson,	Tertius Wadsworth,
Francis Parsons,	Wm. W. Hoppin,
Albert Day,	James S. Horner,
Francis Gillette,	Edson Fessenden,
Noni Wheaton,	John H. Goodwin.

BOARD OF COUNSELLORS:
Hon. THOMAS B. WILLIAMS, Hartford, Conn.
Hon. ANDREW T. JUDSON, Judge U. S. Cir. Dist. Court of Conn
Hon. THOMAS CLARK, Treasurer of Conn.
Chancellor R. H. WALWORTH, Saratoga Springs, N. Y
Hon. NEAL DOW, Ex-Mayor of Portland, Me.
Dea. MOSES GRANT, Boston, Mass
JOHN A. FOOT, Esq., Cleveland, Ohio.
EDWARD C. DELEVAN, Esq. Ballston Centre, N. Y.
Hon. SALMA HALE, Keene, N. H.
A. W. BARROWS, M. D., Medical Examiner.
ARCHIBALD WELCH, M. D., Consulting Physician.
JOHN W. GRAVES, M. D., Examining Physician.
A. OSGOOD, Agent,
Office, Parker's Block, Centralville, Lowell.
June 10, 1850. je10tf

UNITED STATES LIFE INSURANCE,
ANNUITY AND TRUST COMPANY,
OF PENNSYLVANIA.
CAPITAL, 850,000 DOLLARS.
CASH PAYMENTS EXCLUSIVELY.
No Premium Notes, and no Assessments.
STEPHEN R. CRAWFORD, Pres't.
CHARLES G. IMLAY, Sec'y.
PLINY PICK, Actuary.
LOCAL BOARD OF REFERENCE,
Boston:
ENOCH TRAIN & Co. JAMES READ, Esq.
J. C. HOWE & Co. ALBERT FEARING, Esq.
REARCROFT CONYNGHAM & Co. H. M. HOLBROOK, Esq.
NEAL, CHALLENDER & Co. R. B. FORBES, Esq.
J. B. KINSLER & Co. Manufacturing, Jay, Esq.
GEORGE H. GRAY & Co. GEO. WILLIAM GOODWIN, Esq.
Hon. WM. G. BATES, Westfield.

The "Mixed System" of Life Insurance adopted by this Company, and at the least Eighth Office, secures all the combined advantages of the Stock and Mutual systems.—The Premiums to be paid in Cash; and the present value of Annual Dividends is payable in Cash, on demand, or deducted from future Premiums, at the option of the party insured.

CALIFORNIA Life Insurance, and Permits for AUSTRALIA, OREGON, and the SANDWICH ISLANDS, at reduced rates of Premium;

GEORGE H. BATES, General Agent,
New England Branch Office, 18 Congress st., Boston, corner of Post Office Avenue, a few doors from State st.
NATHAN ALLEN, M. D., Examining Physician for Lowell.

The above named Company is one of the very best in the country. Any information in regard to the same may be obtained by applying to the Agents in Lowell
WM LAMSON, Jr., Agent,
Residence, Appleton st.
Dec 28, 1852. dec28dly

RARE CHANCE.

FARM FOR SALE.—The subscriber being out of health, wishes to dispose of his Farm, and will give immediate possession. Said Farm is situated in Tyngsboro', about six miles from Lowell, and contains one hundred and fifty acres of land, well proportioned into tillage and pasturage. Also, about 200 apple trees, 100 of which are grafted, mostly Baldwins, in a bearing state; also a lot of peach trees. Fifty acres of the above is woodland. On the premises are a house, two barns and a mill house, and two wells of water.

Terms made easy, as one half of the purchase can be secured by a mortgage. If the Farm is sold, the Stock and Tools will be sold also.

For further information inquire of F. S. GEER, Middlesex Village, or JOHN WILSON, on the premises.
Tyngsboro', Feb 12, 1850 apr2

FOR SALE,

A FARM in Dracutt, Mass. 1 do. in Pepperell. 1 do in Townsend. 1 do. in Hooksett, N. H. 1 do. in Derry, N. H. 3 Dwelling Houses in Lawrence, Mass. 1 do. 1 Steam Saw Mill, in Auburn, N. H. 1 valuable brick Dwelling House, with Barn, &c., and 1-3 an acre of Land and a good variety of Fruit Trees in a bearing state.

1 lot of Land in Dracutt, suitable for a small farm, being near Lowell. Several wood lots with the growth of wood and timber.

Any of the above property will be sold cheap, and on easy terms, or exchanged for productive Real Estate in Lowell.

Farms bought and sold. Inquire of ATIS OSGOOD, Parker's Block, Centralville, Lowell. aug19dtf

ROOMS TO LET.

To rent, the large, commodious and pleasant rooms, lately occupied by the Courier Office, corner of Central and Hurd streets. Inquire at this office, or of CHARLES B. COBURN may31dtf

WOOLEN FACTORY FOR SALE OR TO LET,

SITUATED in Pelham, N. H., on the Mammoth Road, and known as the Peters' Factory. The Mill and Machinery are in first rate condition and in running order. Said Factory is suitable for the manufacture of Flannels or Fulled Cloth, and it is an excellent stand for a Clothier.

For further particulars inquire of C. P. TALBOT & CO., City Market House, Lowell, Mass., or of JEREMIAH HILL, near the premises.
Lowell, June 14, 1850. je14tf

FARM IN WESTMINSTER FOR SALE.

Said Farm contains 95 acres of Land, properly divided into mowing, tillage, wood and pasturage lands—is within one mile of the principal village, and six or seven miles only from Fitchburg. There is a House and Barn, Sheds, &c. attached, plenty of good water, and everything needful to make a good farm.

Also, a small House and Barn adjoining, with 3 acres of Land, to be sold low for cash.

For further particulars apply to J. M. MORART, corner of Joy and Myrtle sts., Boston. aug26tf

HOUSE LOTS.—RARE CHANCE.

NOW offered for sale, very pleasant and desirable BUILDING LOTS, situated on Broadway, within sixty rods of Hosers' and Cummins & Crosby's new Machine Shops, in one of the most healthy and best located sections of the city, where no abundance of good water can be procured easily. Said lots are situated on Broadway, between School street and Fairmount Canal. For further particulars, inquire of OSGOOD DANE, Somerville, or of JOSEPH GRIFFIN, near the premises, on Broadway.
Lowell, Jan. 18, 1853. jan18tf

FALL STYLE HATS, RECEIVED AT
WM. P. BRAZER'S,
aug20 47 Central, corner of Market st.

AT THE SIGN OF THE "TURK,"
Corner of Central and Jackson streets.
J. O. AYER & Co.
☞ Entrance on Jackson street. may29

DR. F. MORRILL

WILL be in Lowell, at his old residence on Middlesex street, EVERY AFTERNOON, where he may be consulted as usual. sp16tf

THE RED CABIN—Or the stirring and useful events of British Domination, as illustrated in their effects upon human character and destiny. By Warren Isham. With illustrations. Just published, and for sale by WATSON & SARGEANT, oct5 Old City Hall Building.

EDWARD BUSH, APOTHECARY,

DEALER in Drugs, Medicines and Chemicals for Physicians and Family use. Also, Fancy Goods of every description, Perfumery, &c. The public may place confidence upon Medicines compounded at this establishment, as a competent person is in charge during the temporary absence of the proprietor.

Corner Bridge and Central streets, under Rev. Mr Brewster's Church, Epsom. jy15

PATENT TEA TRAYS, in sets, neatly painted and japanned; also waiters of all sizes, for sale by
S. HANCOCK, 110 Central st. may19

CIGARS.

RAILR..ADS.

WINTER ARRANGEMENT ON THE BOSTON AND LOWELL RAILROAD.

ON and after MONDAY, October 3, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows:
UPPER RAILROAD TRAINS
Leave Boston at 7.45 A. M., 12 M., and *5.15 P. M.
Leave Lowell at 8.10 A. M., †8.15 and 5.45 P. M.
* Stops at North Woburn.
ACCOMMODATION TRAINS
Leave Boston at *7.15 and *9.30 A. M., 2.30 and 6.00 P. M.
" Lowell at *7.20 and 10 A. M., *3 and *4.30 P. M.
* Stops at North Woburn.
WM. H. OSGOOD,
Agent Boston and Lowell Railroad Cor.
Boston, Oct 1, 1853. oct4dtf

NEW ROUTE BETWEEN BOSTON AND LOWELL.

FALL ARRANGEMENT—NO CHANGE OF CARS BY EITHER TRAIN.
Depots—Middlesex street, Lowell, Haymarket Square, Boston.

ON and after MONDAY, October 3d, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows:
Leave Lowell for Boston at *6.00, †9.00 A. M., *12, M., †1.55, 4.15 P. M.
Leave Boston for Lowell at *7.45 A. M., †10.00 A. M., *12, M., 2.45, 6 P. M.
* Express Trains. † Connects with Train from Stony Brook Road. ‡ Connects with Train for Stony Brook Road.
Leave Lowell for Reading at 8.00, 9 A. M., 1.55 and 4.15 P. M.
Leave Lowell for South Reading, Greenwood, Stoneham, Wyoming, Edgeworth, Somerville and Charlestown, at 9 A. M., 1.55 and 4.15 P. M.
Leave Lowell for Melrose and Malden at 9 A. M., 1.55 and 4 P. M.
The above trains take or leave passengers at Tewksbury, Shed's and Burt's
The outward trains stop to take passengers at Whipple's Crossing, and the inward trains stop to leave them.
oct4dtf P. H. NOURSE, Supt.

SALEM AND LOWELL RAILROAD.

FALL ARRANGEMENT.

ON and after MONDAY, October 3, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows:
Leave Lowell for Salem at *8, A. M., and 4.15 P. M.
Leave Salem for Lowell at †10.30, A. M., and 6.00 P. M.
* Or on the arrival of the Stony Brook and Northern trains.
† Connects at Lowell with trains for Stony Brook and Northern Road.
All the above trains stop at regular Stations, and at Flag Stations when the signal is raised
P. H. NOURSE, Supt.
Lowell, Oct. 1, 1853. oc4dtf

LOWELL AND LAWRENCE RAILROAD.

SPRING AND SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.

ON and after MONDAY, June 6, 1853, Passenger Trains will run between Lowell and Lawrence as follows:—
Leave Lowell at 7.10 and 10.00 A.M. ; 2.45 and 6.30 P. M.*
Leave Lawrence at *8.00 A. M., †12.30, ‡4.10, ‡7.15 P. M.
* Connects with Trains from Stony Brook and Nashua and Lowell Roads
† Or on arrival of the Portland train.
‡ Connects at Lowell with Stony Brook Road for Groton, Fitchburg, Worcester and New York.
Passengers taking the 7.10 A. M. train from Lowell, may proceed, via Lowell and Lawrence and Boston and Maine Railroads to any station on said road and Portland, also via Nashua and Portland Road to Brunswick, Bath, Richmond, Gardiner, Hallowell or Augusta, and by Androscoggin and Kennebec Road to Buckfield, Lewiston, Monmouth, Winthrop, Readfield, Belgrade and Waterville, or by the Atlantic and St. Lawrence Road, to Yarmouth, Danville Junction, Mechanic Falls, South Paris, Bryant's Pond, Gorham, Northumberland, North Stratford or Island Pond, Vt., arriving at any of the above named places the same day.
The 2.45 P. M. train from Lowell connects at Lawrence with train for Haverhill, Exeter, Dover and Portland, or to any station on Kennebec and Portland Road
Passengers for Rockland, Thomaston, Camden, Belfast, Bucksport or Bangor, leave Lowell every day except Saturday in the 7.45 train to Portland, thence by Boat.
Through Tickets for any of the above named places for sale at the office of the Lowell and Lawrence Railroad, Middlesex street.
The 6.30 train will connect at Lawrence with train for Bradford and Haverhill.
☞ Passengers are not allowed to carry baggage above $50 in value, and that personal, unless notice is given and an extra amount paid.
F. H NOURSE, Supt.
Lowell, June 1, 1853. je4dtf

NORTHERN RAILROAD.

THIS Road connects with the Passumpsic and Vermont Central Roads at White River Junction, and is the most direct route from Lowell or Boston to the Canada and Northern parts of New Hampshire, Vermont and Canada, and is the only route over which cars run pass to and from the White River, St Johnsbury, Burlington, Rouse's Point, Ogdensburg and Montreal, or where the change o baggage is avoided.
On and after June 20, Passenger Trains, in connection with the cars of the Nashua and Concord Roads,
Leave Lowell at 8.30 A. M., and 12.45 P. M., for Lebanon, Wells River, St. Johnsbury, Montpelier, Barrington, and all points west of Lake Champlain, Rouse's Point, Ogdensburg, Montreal, &c., and for Bristol at 12.45 P. M.
Leave White River Junction for Boston and intermediate places at 7.10 A. M., 1.30 and 4 P. M., or on arrival of the cars from the Upper Roads, and Bristol at 8.30 A. M.
Numerous stages connect with the road, and leave Bristol for New Hampton, Hebron, Groton, &c.; Potter Place (Andover) for New London, Croydon, Newport, &c.; West Andover for East and West Springfield, Grantham, Croydon, &c.; Lebanon for Meriden, Claremont, &c.; Wells River for Bath, Littleton, White Mountains, &c.; St. Johnsbury for Lancaster, N. H., &c., Lyndon, Barton, Derby, Vt., Stanstead, Canada; Danville for Hardwick, Craftsbury, &c. Woodstock Depot for Quechee Village, Woodstock, Bridgewater, &c.; Bethel for Rochester, Hancock, Keene, Peterboro', Nashua, &c., Vt., and all principal towns in those directions.
Merchandise Trains daily, Sundays excepted, in connection with trains of Passumpsic and Vt. Central Roads.
ONSLOW STEARNS, Agent.
Concord, N. H., June 20, 1853. je20dtf

WORCESTER AND NASHUA RAILROAD.

PASSENGER TRAINS on this Road run as follows:—

Leave Worcester at	Arrive at Groton Junction at	Arrive at Nashua	Lowell
6.30 a. m.	8.05 a. m.	8.50 a. m.	9.40 a. m.
11.15 a. m.	12.50 p. m.	1.19 p. m.	1.10 p. m.
4.15 p. m.	5.35 p. m.	6.20 p. m.	6.10 p. m.

Leave	Arrive at Groton Junction at	Arrive at Worcester,
Nashua and Lowell,
7.20 a. m.	7.15 a. m.	8.15 a. m.
10.45 a. m.	11.30 a. m.	12.30 p. m.
5.00 p. m.	4.45 p. m.	5.30 p. m.

CONNECTIONS WITH OTHER ROADS.
Trains arriving at Nashua connect directly with trains of Concord, Boston, Concord and Montreal Northern, Passumpsic and Vermont Central R. R. The first and last and trains from Nashua connect with down trains of all the above roads—the third train with those of the Boston, Concord and Montreal, and Concord Railroads.
The 6.30 A. M. train to Nashua, (arrives that 10.30 P. M. to Nashua, which has no connection with upward Fitchburg train leaving Boston at 10 A. M.) connects with upward and down trains of Fitchburg Railroad, and Stony Brook Railroad to and from Lowell.
At Worcester the 6.30 A. M. train connects with steam boat train from New York via Norwich. 11.15 A. M. connects with Boston and Worcester, Providence and Worcester, Norwich and Worcester, and Western Railroad trains. 4.15 P. M. connects with trains from all above named roads, including the Express Train from New York and Albany. Trains arrive at 8.35 A. M. and 6.00 P. M. with the A. M. trains of all the above roads, including the Express Train to New York and Albany. Train arriving at 7.00 P. M. with the P. M. trains of the above roads. Train arriving at 7.00 P. M. with the New York Steamboat train via Norwich.
FITCHBURG AND WORCESTER R. R TRAINS, running in connection with Worcester and Nashua trains Leave Fitchburg at 8.45 and 9 A. M., 12.40 and 4.30 P. M. Leave Worcester at 6.30 and 11.15 A. M., 4.30 and 6.15 P. M.
FREIGHT TRAINS run daily each way between Worcester, Groton Junction, Nashua, Lowell and Fitchburg.
☞ For connections with the other roads at Worcester, Groton Junction and Nashua, see Snow & Wilder's Railroad Guide and Railway Guide.
☞ Through tickets are issued at Worcester for Boston, Lowell, Manchester, Wells River and White River Junction, at the office here by each of the different routes, via Nashua and Fitchburg; but no change of cars is necessary on the Nashua route.
Through trains with passengers and baggage only, stopping and starting from Lincoln Square.
J. W. STOWELL, Supt.
Worcester, June 6, 1853. jel3dtf

RAILROAD AND STEAMBOAT ROUTE FROM LOWELL TO BANGOR,
AND INTERMEDIATE LANDINGS ON THE PENOBSCOT BAY AND RIVER.

VIA BOSTON AND LOWELL R. R. TO BOSTON

THE splendid steamers PENOBSCOT, and CITY OF RICHMOND, which leave Boston every TUESDAY, at 5 o'clock, P. M., and every FRIDAY, at 5 o'clock, P. M.
Returning, will leave Bangor every MONDAY and THURSDAY, at 10 o'clock, A. M.
—FARE FROM LOWELL—
To Rockland, Thomaston and Camden, ... $4.25
Belfast and Searsport, ... 4.50
Bucksport, Hampden & Bangor, ... 5.00
For further information and Tickets apply at the office of the Boston and Maine R. R., Boston Depot, and at the Lowell and Lawrence Railroad Depot, Lowell.
Freight will be taken for and forwarded to Belfast, Bangor, Oldtown, Milford, Frankfort, Hampden, Winterport, Hampden Corner, Newburgh, Dixmont, Corinth, Exeter, Garland, Dover, Foxcroft, Sangerville, Dexter, Parkman, Abbott, Guilford, Sebec, Orneville, Atkinson, Monson, Greenville, Shirley, Blanchard, Kingsbury, Medford, Milo, Brownville, Williamsburg, Lincoln, Passadumkeag, Mattawamkeag, Patten, Island Falls, Oakfield, Smyrna, Houlton, Woodstock, Calais, Eastport, St. Andrews, St. Stephens, St. John, and all places on the Penobscot River and Bay.
Passengers will be called for and conveyed to the Steamboat Wharf in Boston, by a carriage in attendance for that purpose, without extra charge.
For freight or passage apply to
ENOCH TRAIN & CO., Boston.
HENRY E. BOYD, Agent, Bangor.
Boston, May 18, 1853. may19dtf

RAILROADS.

NEWBURYPORT RAILROAD.

Depot, west of the Tunnel, where all Trains will leave and arrive.

FALL ARRANGEMENT.

ON and after MONDAY, Oct. 3, 1853, Trains will run as follows:
Leave Newburyport at 7.00, 11.30 A. M., and 4.30 P. M.
" Bradford at 7.12 and 11.30 A. M., and 4.47 P. M.
" Georgetown at 7.16 and 11.36 A. M., and 4.52 P. M.
" Groveland at 7.24 and 11.44 A. M., and 5.00 P. M.
Arriving at Bradford at 7.36 and 11.50 A. M., and 5.12 P. M.
Leave Bradford at 8.10 A. M., 0 and 5.50 P. M. 0
" Groveland at 8.20 A. M., 2.10 and 6.30 P. M.
" Georgetown at 8.30 A. M., 2.20 and 6.40 P. M.
" Byfield at 8.40 A. M., 2.30 and 6.45 P. M.
Arriving at Newburyport at 8.50 A. M., 2.45 and 7.00 P. M.
* Or on the arrival of the 7 A. M., 10.45 and 5.15 P. M. train from Boston, via E. & No. Railroad.

NEW ROUTE TO BOSTON.

Passengers via the Newburyport and Boston and Maine Railroad, are ticketed through each train leaving Newburyport; and returning in the cars leaving the Depot at Haymarket Square, Boston, at 7 A. M., 12.45 and 5.15 P. M.
Passengers leaving Newburyport at 7 and 11.30 A. M., and Boston at 12.45 and 5.15 P. M., go through without change of cars or baggage.
Fare to Boston, One Dollar.
☞ Connecting at Newburyport with Trains on the Eastern Railroad, to all the Stations on the same road, and at Bradford with Trains over the Boston and Maine Railroad for Lawrence, Manchester, Salem, Exeter, Manchester and all the Stations on the Upper Route, and between Lawrence and Boston. Passengers over the Haverhill and Lawrence and Stony Brook Railroads, connect at Groton Junction with Trains for Worcester and South and Western New York and Canada.
Orders for Freight in Boston, may be left in Snow & Kentick's Order Box, at the Boston and Maine Freight Station; at Bradford & Haverhill, 183 Causeway st., and at Ariel Low's, Nos. 19 and 20 Blackstone st. Freight trains leave Boston at 9 A. M., and Newburyport for Boston at 6.30 and Georgetown at 7.30 A. M., and Bradford at 8 A. M., or on the Arrival of the Freight Trains of Boston and Lowell.
Leave Newburyport for Boston on this Road at 11 A. M. No freight received within thirty minutes of the time of train starting.
All freight remaining on the Stations of this Company, will be at the risk of the owner.

Daily Journal & Courier.

LOUISVILLE, Monday, October 10, 1853.

TICKET NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF ABOSE.

ELECTION.....on Tuesday, NOVEMBER 8TH.

WHIG CENTRAL CONVENTION.

A full Convention for the County of Middlesex, will be held at Concord, on Wednesday, the 19th day of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, viz:

Senator,
Councillor,
Senator,
Representative,
Sheriff,
Register of Deeds,
Commissioners,
Coroners.

JESSE P. BARTLETT, County Committee.
CHARLES R. ADAMS, Chairman.

Worcester, Oct. 1, 1853.

Will the Constitutional Amendments?

No man who is at all familiar with the queer organizations of Massachusetts in the events of the first Francis Revolution, but will readily call to mind the Vast succession of insurmountable obstacles which successively arose, rendering it impossible for the "patriots" to make their constitution march. A very similar train of obstacles now seem to beset the efforts of our modern quasi-patriots of Massachusetts, preventing them a short task in starting their new political machine. The present indications are that the constitution will not march.

There great obstacle present themselves in the way of the constitution's success. First, the great Whig party. The Whig party in Massachusetts is now numerically greater than now; it never was so large as now. Never did it present a more formidable barrier to all antagonistic movements. It is more thoroughly actuated by a spirit of action—never had it stronger motive for exertion—never was it inspired by a loftier enthusiasm—never was it situated more auspicious of victory—than at the present moment. This is the first obstacle to be overcome ere the constitution can successfully make.

The next great obstacle in the way of its success, is the National Democratic party. Two years since there was no such party. There could be no such a party. Four true Democrats were then to be found. Nearly all who had in previous years been misled by democratic name and name, had returned to their allegiance to the democratic field, had then seceded into the free-soil breed. At length the tide of reaction set in. Mad with rage at the election of free-soilers and Garrisonites to high and responsible positions, several thousands, with one spontaneous exertion, resumed their former posts of as democrats of the Jeffersonian, Jacksonian, Madisonian sort, as foundation. Within the current year, this tide of reaction has become heavier and stronger. Democrat after democrat has returned, penitent for the past, and resolute for the future. Entire Nephalisms, whole democratic Zebulons have been formed in this manner. Tribes following in the wake of tribes have gone home again—home, fast and progress, they have gone home again, the prodigal sons to the house of their fathers—and the end is not yet.

It is beginning more and more to be felt, that that the organization of the bankers is not all a dream. That sagacious progenitorster of former political events, Hazewell of the Boston Times, most significantly intimates that the banker party will yet become the principal element of the Massachusetts democracy. Under the Captainship of Bradford L. Wales, the bank democracy, the old, long-tried veterans invincible, present a very serious obstacle to the march of the new constitution.

A third obstacle in the march of the new constitution may be found in the instinctive justice of the people themselves, and in the determination of the constitution party itself to oppose the new instrument with all their heart, and all their might, and all their soul, and all their strength. Deeper than devotion to party —deeper than the lust for victory—deeper than any inferior instinct of the soul—there lies in the Agent of Assets a sentiment of equity, implanted there by the Almighty Justice Himself. To this great sentiment of justice the new constitution is flagrantly and violently obnoxious, and, we predict now, will be not as it deserves. Not until we endorse the dogma of total depravity shall we be made to believe that a constitution can be with all the human rights of man, with all the deepest sentiments of the human soul, will be adopted by the intelligent freemen of republican Massachusetts. As sure as justice is stronger in the heart of man than party spirit, so sure is the new constitution to be repudiated by the enlightened citizens of this ancient Commonwealth. In view, therefore of these three great obstacles, we conclude that the new instrument will never march; or if march it will, it must march only towards Chaos!

Fifteen Days Later from California.

ARRIVAL OF THE ST. ISABORE.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 4.

The steamer St Isabore just arrived from Aspinwall, with fifteen days' later dates from California, which were brought down by the John H. Brighton at Panama, with 700 passengers and one million three hundred thousand dollars in gold dust.

The steamer Illinois, from New York, arrived at Aspinwall on the 1st inst, and would start for California with about 700 passengers.

The Marquis of Pauzon is represented as being quite healthy.

The Illinois, for New York, had one million and a quarter of gold dust on freight.

The passengers per El Dorado reached Vera Cruz on the 3d inst, 14 hours from Alvarado, by rail.

The news generally possesses but little interest.

A destructive fire took place on the 7th of September last resulted in a considerable loss of property, including Second Garrison, and Hall's Foundry, Second Garrison. The new property when completed, and the contest closed.—The San Francisco Herald of the 16th ult. says:

Gen. Hall has not yet left Sonora, but will start in today or to-morrow.

The Democratic Convention which met on the 12th of September last resulted in a complete triumph for the Democracy, electing General Gardner, and Hon. Frank Pixley Lieutenant Governor. The vote polled was very large, and the contest close.—In San Francisco the Democratic ticket was elected by a very large majority.

Gen. Hall has not yet left Sonora, but will start in today or to-morrow.

The Democratic Convention which met on the 12th of September last resulted in a complete triumph for the Democracy, electing General Gardner, and Hon. Frank Pixley Lieutenant Governor. The vote polled was very large, and the contest close.—In San Francisco the Democratic ticket was elected by a very large majority.

$20 REWARD.

Daily Journal & Courier.

LOUISVILLE, Monday, October 10, 1853.

TICKET NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF ABOSE.

ELECTION.....on Tuesday, NOVEMBER 8TH.

WHIG CENTRAL CONVENTION.

A full Convention for the County of Middlesex, will be held at Concord, on Wednesday, the 19th day of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, viz:

Senator,
Councillor,
Senator,
Representative,
Sheriff,
Register of Deeds,
Commissioners,
Coroners.

JESSE P. BARTLETT, County Committee.
CHARLES R. ADAMS, Chairman.

Worcester, Oct. 1, 1853.

Will the Constitutional Amendments?

No man who is at all familiar with the queer organizations of Massachusetts in the events of the first Francis Revolution, but will readily call to mind the Vast succession of insurmountable obstacles which successively arose, rendering it impossible for the "patriots" to make their constitution march. A very similar train of obstacles now seem to beset the efforts of our modern quasi-patriots of Massachusetts, preventing them a short task in starting their new political machine. The present indications are that the constitution will not march.

There great obstacle present themselves in the way of the constitution's success. First, the great Whig party. The Whig party in Massachusetts is now numerically greater than now; it never was so large as now. Never did it present a more formidable barrier to all antagonistic movements. It is more thoroughly actuated by a spirit of action—never had it stronger motive for exertion—never was it inspired by a loftier enthusiasm—never was it situated more auspicious of victory—than at the present moment. This is the first obstacle to be overcome ere the constitution can successfully make.

The next great obstacle in the way of its success, is the National Democratic party. Two years since there was no such party. There could be no such a party. Four true Democrats were then to be found. Nearly all who had in previous years been misled by democratic name and name, had returned to their allegiance to the democratic field, had then seceded into the free-soil breed. At length the tide of reaction set in. Mad with rage at the election of free-soilers and Garrisonites to high and responsible positions, several thousands, with one spontaneous exertion, resumed their former posts of as democrats of the Jeffersonian, Jacksonian, Madisonian sort, as foundation. Within the current year, this tide of reaction has become heavier and stronger. Democrat after democrat has returned, penitent for the past, and resolute for the future. Entire Nephalisms, whole democratic Zebulons have been formed in this manner. Tribes following in the wake of tribes have gone home again—home, fast and progress, they have gone home again, the prodigal sons to the house of their fathers—and the end is not yet.

It is beginning more and more to be felt, that that the organization of the bankers is not all a dream. That sagacious progenitorster of former political events, Hazewell of the Boston Times, most significantly intimates that the banker party will yet become the principal element of the Massachusetts democracy. Under the Captainship of Bradford L. Wales, the bank democracy, the old, long-tried veterans invincible, present a very serious obstacle to the march of the new constitution.

A third obstacle in the march of the new constitution may be found in the instinctive justice of the people themselves, and in the determination of the constitution party itself to oppose the new instrument with all their heart, and all their might, and all their soul, and all their strength. Deeper than devotion to party —deeper than the lust for victory—deeper than any inferior instinct of the soul—there lies in the Agent of Assets a sentiment of equity, implanted there by the Almighty Justice Himself. To this great sentiment of justice the new constitution is flagrantly and violently obnoxious, and, we predict now, will be not as it deserves. Not until we endorse the dogma of total depravity shall we be made to believe that a constitution can be with all the human rights of man, with all the deepest sentiments of the human soul, will be adopted by the intelligent freemen of republican Massachusetts. As sure as justice is stronger in the heart of man than party spirit, so sure is the new constitution to be repudiated by the enlightened citizens of this ancient Commonwealth. In view, therefore of these three great obstacles, we conclude that the new instrument will never march; or if march it will, it must march only towards Chaos!

Fifteen Days Later from California.

ARRIVAL OF THE ST. ISABORE.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 4.

The steamer St Isabore just arrived from Aspinwall, with fifteen days' later dates from California, which were brought down by the John H. Brighton at Panama, with 700 passengers and one million three hundred thousand dollars in gold dust.

The steamer Illinois, from New York, arrived at Aspinwall on the 1st inst, and would start for California with about 700 passengers.

The Marquis of Pauzon is represented as being quite healthy.

The Illinois, for New York, had one million and a quarter of gold dust on freight.

The passengers per El Dorado reached Vera Cruz on the 3d inst, 14 hours from Alvarado, by rail.

The news generally possesses but little interest.

A destructive fire took place on the 7th of September last resulted in a considerable loss of property, including Second Garrison, and Hall's Foundry, Second Garrison. The new property when completed, and the contest close.—In San Francisco the Democratic ticket was elected by a very large majority.

Gen. Hall has not yet left Sonora, but will start in today or to-morrow.

The Democratic Convention which met on the 12th of September last resulted in a complete triumph for the Democracy, electing General Gardner, and Hon. Frank Pixley Lieutenant Governor. The vote polled was very large, and the contest close.—In San Francisco the Democratic ticket was elected by a very large majority.

$20 REWARD.

JOB PRINTING OFFICE.

FAST PRESSES,

JOB TYPE,

PRINTING

LOW PRICES

CARDS,

LABELS,

NELSON'S TRICOPHUON, HAIR INVIGORATOR.

Now Freight Arrangement.

1000

500

Lowell, April 19, 1858.

PHYSICIANS PRESCRIPTIONS,

PATENT GOODS, TOILET ARTICLES, and PERFUMERY.

PARKS FOR SALE.

MACHINE SHOP TO LET.

BRIGHT & BARTER,

DRY GOODS, FANCY GOODS, TOILET ARTICLES, &c.

CHAS. B. CARTER,

DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Lowell, April 19, 1858.

TOILET & TOOTH BRUSHES.

A LARGE INVOICE JUST RECEIVED BY

C. G. HARTMAN & CO.,

DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES.

DARLINGTON & HOVEY,

DRUGGISTS AND CHEMISTS.

Lowell, April 19, 1858.

PERFUMES.

DARLINGTON & HOVEY.

Lowell, April 19, 1858.

CARBOLIC SOAP.

DARLINGTON & HOVEY.

Lowell, April 19, 1858.

SOLD FREE.

Lowell, April 19, 1858.

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.

JARED P. WALKER.

Lowell, April 19, 1858.

RAILWAY MACHINES

SOLD FREE.

Lowell, April 19, 1858.

HAIR DYE.

Lowell, April 19, 1858.

Lowell, April 19, 1858.

Lowell, April 19, 1858

...gument of her policy, she went with her brother and sister-in-law to the theatre. The newspapers did not, however, report the fact. It was a private visit. Some months after, the Empress Eugenie, with the Prince Imperial, visited the theatre, and the fact was announced by him. On the 16th December she had a private visit, and received long and cordial applause. On the 17th she died. On that day she had written a prescription which Dr. Lecouf had ordered for her, describing; and when M. and Mrs Wainwright—who had left her with the Emperor—were asked how she was, they found that she was dead. The body was embalmed, and placed in a leaden coffin, which was the fourth to stay under the same three pressures on the lid(s), which otherwise protected it.

Mr Wainwright is now in a position to demand £10,000 from the various officers, but the claim was resisted; and being called on to prove an irrevocable intention he left England—in 1855, he commenced an action against the Imperials. The reasons for resisting payment was the alleged ground of deception; but the counsel went further, and on Saturday more than a dozen witnesses were called to prove that the Empress was perfectly sane, and the judge summed up in her favour. The jury were absent retired, and the judge solemnly asked them the important point. The foreman requested, unable to agree; while the other said, a unanimous, and not a civil answer should issue from the theatre of such a charge. In the following morning the jury brought in a verdict; and as the forgery on the Bank of England was not mentioned, Wainwright, afraid of apprehension, remained in France. Here the plaintiff's counsel, Mr. Bompas, Q.C., began his speech with an English officer; and while he remarked shame, his client's life was to be spared by him in the Palace for £2,000. One pension only was paid, the other dying in a few months after the execution was effected. Wainwright then left Boulogne, passed through France under a passport, was apprehended by the Prussian police; and that fearful person knows no step to retrace being found in his possession, he was confined at Paris for six months.

After his release he returned to London, intending to remain only four weeks hours. In a hotel near Covent Garden he drew down the blind, and remained incognito at first. But no fatal moment he forgot his habitual craft. A noise in the street startled him; incautiously he went to the window, and there beheld his friend. At that moment "a person passing by, caught a glimpse of his countenance, and exclaimed, "That's Wainwright, the bank forger." Further information was given to Forrester; he was soon apprehended, and his position became fearful enough.

The difficulty which then arose was, whether the prisoner should prosecute him for attempted fraud, whether the yet more terrible charge in connexion with Helen Abercrombie should be opened, or whether advantage should be taken of the forgery on the Bank to procure his expatriation for life. A consultation held by those interested, the Home Secretary was communicated with, the question, the opinions of the law officers of the crown were taken, and the result was that, under the circumstances, it would be advisable to try him on the forgery. This point was carried over, the capital punishment was foregone, and when found guilty, he was condemned to transportation for life.

The career of Wainwright is instructive. From the time that he quitted the simple rule of right, he wandered over the world under influences too fearful to dwell on; and he died in hospital at Sydney under circumstances too painful to be commemorated.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Tuesday, October 11, 1853

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

EMORY WASHBURN,

OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,

WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,

OF ADAMS.

ELECTION.....MONDAY, NOV. 14.

Fisher J. Stillbrick Sliding on Five Stockings Have we an Immigrant among us?

Many of our readers may not be aware that the Lowell Advertiser, the Lowell American, the Lowell Patriot, the Middlesex Freeman, and the Lawrence Sentinel, are each and all owned—silence and all—by Mr Ex-Sheriff Hildreth, of Lowell; and that the same master, in a very large sense, which is published in all. We will explain it.

The principal paper is the last above named as the Advertiser, which appears every morning in very dirty and disreputable form. Next to the Advertiser, the American is the chief paper in the above "Illustrious" group; and the manner in which they have been united unchangeably. One full half of what appears in the American is taken (i. e. the type is its standard matter) from the Advertiser. At Haverhill we lived with an English officer; and while he resided there, the Patriot life was to be saved by him in the Patriot for £2,000. One pension only was paid, the other dying in a few months after the execution was effected. Wainwright then left Boulogne, passed through France under a passport, was apprehended by the Prussian police; and that fearful person knows no step to retrace being found in his possession, he was confined at Paris for six months.

After his release he returned to London, intending to remain only four weeks hours. In a hotel near Covent Garden he drew down the blind, and remained incognito at first. But no fatal moment he forgot his habitual craft. A noise in the street startled him; incautiously he went to the window, and there beheld his friend. At that moment "a person passing by, caught a glimpse of his countenance, and exclaimed, "That's Wainwright, the bank forger." Further information was given to Forrester; he was soon apprehended, and his position became fearful enough.

The difficulty which then arose was, whether the prisoner should prosecute him for attempted fraud, whether the yet more terrible charge in connexion with Helen Abercrombie should be opened, or whether advantage should be taken of the forgery on the Bank to procure his expatriation for life. A consultation held by those interested, the Home Secretary was communicated with, the question, the opinions of the law officers of the crown were taken, and the result was that, under the circumstances, it would be advisable to try him on the forgery. This point was carried over, the capital punishment was foregone, and when found guilty, he was condemned to transportation for life.

The career of Wainwright is instructive. From the time that he quitted the simple rule of right, he wandered over the world under influences too fearful to dwell on; and he died in hospital at Sydney under circumstances too painful to be commemorated.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Tuesday, October 11, 1853

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

EMORY WASHBURN,

OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,

WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,

OF ADAMS.

ELECTION.....MONDAY, NOV. 14.

Fisher J. Stillbrick Sliding on Five Stockings Have we an Immigrant among us?

Many of our readers may not be aware that the Lowell Advertiser, the Lowell American, the Lowell Patriot, the Middlesex Freeman, and the Lawrence Sentinel, are each and all owned—silence and all—by Mr Ex-Sheriff Hildreth, of Lowell; and that the same master, in a very large sense, which is published in all. We will explain it.

The principal paper is the last above named as the Advertiser, which appears every morning in very dirty and disreputable form. Next to the Advertiser, the American is the chief paper in the above "Illustrious" group; and the manner in which they have been united unchangeably. One full half of what appears in the American is taken (i. e. the type is its standard matter) from the Advertiser. At Haverhill we lived with an English officer; and while he resided there, the Patriot life was to be saved by him in the Patriot for £2,000. One pension only was paid, the other dying in a few months after the execution was effected. Wainwright then left Boulogne, passed through France under a passport, was apprehended by the Prussian police; and that fearful person knows no step to retrace being found in his possession, he was confined at Paris for six months.

After his release he returned to London, intending to remain only four weeks hours. In a hotel near Covent Garden he drew down the blind, and remained incognito at first. But no fatal moment he forgot his habitual craft. A noise in the street startled him; incautiously he went to the window, and there beheld his friend. At that moment "a person passing by, caught a glimpse of his countenance, and exclaimed, "That's Wainwright, the bank forger." Further information was given to Forrester; he was soon apprehended, and his position became fearful enough.

The difficulty which then arose was, whether the prisoner should prosecute him for attempted fraud, whether the yet more terrible charge in connexion with Helen Abercrombie should be opened, or whether advantage should be taken of the forgery on the Bank to procure his expatriation for life. A consultation held by those interested, the Home Secretary was communicated with, the question, the opinions of the law officers of the crown were taken, and the result was that, under the circumstances, it would be advisable to try him on the forgery. This point was carried over, the capital punishment was foregone, and when found guilty, he was condemned to transportation for life.

The career of Wainwright is instructive. From the time that he quitted the simple rule of right, he wandered over the world under influences too fearful to dwell on; and he died in hospital at Sydney under circumstances too painful to be commemorated.

CITY MATTERS.

MIDDLESEX YEOMANRY. Shields' Artillery, Capt. Shields, arrived from the encampment at Concord, Monday forenoon, and marched to the Jackson House, where they will dine at the Revere at 1 o'clock this afternoon. They will return home this evening.

☞ No Police Court to-day, His Honor being absent.

CONFEDERATE LOVES. The committee of arrangements for the complimentary levee to be given Mr. Chesley, met at the Fire Department house last evening, and made partial arrangements for the same. The tickets are to be put at $1. J. J. Verney was chosen Treasurer, and E. L. Sled, James Watson and Wears Clifford, Finance Committee. The following gentlemen were chosen Floor Managers—T. G. Farmer, John Billings, I. A. Cutler, J. O. Peabody, Andrew Hood, B. C. Hamblen, C. A. Rogers, A. H. Foster, S. K. Pickering, Leonard Brown, Andrew Swapp, Charles Merrill. The meeting adjourned subject to a call from the Committee of Arrangements. The time for holding the Levee was left with the Committee on Music to decide.

RESIGN. The resignation of a public document this morning, by Hon. J. G. Abbott, gave rise to the report of sending a Cabinet appointment, which we are authorized to say is wholly unfounded.

THE PAY OFFICE. Those mechanics of dormancy, the city committee, met in council last evening, to decide on a candidate for the office of P. M. The meeting was somewhat stormy according to accounts, and ended in deciding that it was inexpedient for the committee to recommend any one. That each individual must go on his own hook. We understand that Hildreth protested against the meeting of the committee. Certain it is that he was not present at the early part of the evening—The meeting dissolved at a late hour, and the assistant committee retired, using words which are not found in the dictionary.

LARCENY. Michael Bagley, a lad 14 years old, was arrested this morning by Deputy Marshal Hurley, on Adams street, yesterday, and then by Deputy Sheriff Hurley, on Adams street, yesterday, and then by Deputy Sheriff Hurley, on Adams street, yesterday, and then by Deputy Sheriff

THE COURIER

JOB PRINTING OFFICE,

Corner of Merrimack and Market Streets,

LOWELL, MASS.

The Office is connected with all the desirable modern improvements, and

FAST PRESSES,

Propelled by a powerful Flaming Conflagration with a single ounce of coal consumes vicinity of human life, and

JOB TYPE,

Of every description, and

PRINTING

can safely be executed in the neatest, promptest, and most elegant manner, and will be offered by none.

LOW PRICES

Particular attention is given to the printing of

BANK BILLS, PROGRAMMES, CATALOGUES, BILL HEADS, &c.,

BLANK BOOKS, &c.,

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS,

CARDS, CHECKS, PLAIN AND FANCY

LABELS,

in black, blue or red ink, or Bronze of every shade, at Publishers' Prices.

All Orders are solicited, a good stock of plain, good and fancy Cards and Labels always on hand, and Printing executed in any description of workmanship, paste and in imitation of any Publication.

NELSON'S TRICOFLUON, OR HAIR INVIGORATOR.

THIS new and valuable preparation, from four generations, is especially adapted to the Ladies' toilet, as a preparation for the hair, and preservative of its

BEAUTY OF THE DESIGN.

While it gives a lustre, it imparts a glossy tissue and a soft and silky smoothness to the finished hair, promoting its luxuriance, preventing its falling off, and restoring it to its hair, and prevents premature baldness.

Nothing of real burning Gamp,

But it will restore hair, however prematurely destroyed, and all diseases of the skin.

Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Do not be put off with any other article.

C. P. SKELTON,
DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST,
Corner of Merrimack and Central Sts.

Sold also by WILLIAM B. RAND, Boston; SAMUEL HOPKINS, Salem; and by druggists generally throughout the country.

New Freight Arrangement

BETWEEN LOWELL AND NEW YORK.

THE NEW JERSEY AND STEAMBOAT CO. PELHAM PETERS, PROPRIETORS, PROVIDENCE

Are now running their splendid new 2d boats, viz:

The Steamer Providence, Capt. Wm. Peters,
The Steamer Pelham, Capt. Wm. Peters,

Which have been built expressly for the route, and fitted with the most approved machinery for ease and safety, and will leave Providence and Stonington at the usual hours of sailing from the foot of Pine street, New York.

The Pelham and Providence will find it to their interest to give the Merchants of Lowell, Lawrence and Manchester the advantage of their line for freight, as they will be towed by the Steamboat Massachusetts, Capt. Wm. Peters, from Providence to New York.

The Pelham and Providence will leave Providence and Stonington every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 5 o'clock, P. M.

The Steamboat Massachusetts will leave Providence every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 5 o'clock, P. M.

Freight received and forwarded by the above line between Lowell and New York at the lowest rates.

For further information apply to W. S. JOURDAN, of the firm of Jourdan, Ward & Co., Whitehall Slip, foot of Whitehall street, New York.

WM. PETERS, Providence.
W. S. JOURDAN, New York.

Oct. 4, 1853. 1m40

CHEAP OIL.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

CHARLESTON OIL PAINTS, &c.

1000 lbs. Lead, No. 1, 7½
500 " " " 2, 7
500 " " " 3, 6½
500 " Zinc, No. 1, 8
500 " " " 2, 7½
500 " " " 3, 7
500 " Colors, 10
500 " Varnish, 75
500 " Spirits Turpentine, 50
500 " Linseed Oil, 75

FACTORY LAMP WICKS.

500 Wicks, No. 1, 75
500 " " 2, 87½
500 " " 3, 1 00
500 " " 4, 1 12½
500 " " 5, 1 25
500 " " 6, 1 37½
500 " " 7, 1 50

Other Wicks of every description.

COBURN & MIXER,
Merrimack Building, Merrimack Street.

nov1 1m

REMOVAL.

THE Boston and Lowell Steam Dye House and Scouring Establishment has been removed from Prince street to Merrimack street, opposite the Lowell Machine Shop, where they will be happy to receive the favors of their friends and the public.

DYEING AND GAS PIPING.

All orders promptly attended to. Shaker Flannel, Yarn, Merino Shawls, Ribbons, &c., dyed to order.

GEO. DARRACOTT, Jr.,
Agent.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. 3m36

NOTICE.

THE Boston and Lowell Steam Dye House and Scouring Establishment has been removed from Prince street to Merrimack street, opposite the Lowell Machine Shop, where they will be happy to receive the favors of their friends and the public.

DYEING AND GAS PIPING.

All orders promptly attended to. Shaker Flannel, Yarn, Merino Shawls, Ribbons, &c., dyed to order.

GEO. DARRACOTT, Jr.,
Agent.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. 3m36

BOOKS.

THE Medical Professor, or Home Physician and Family Guide in Health and Disease, by Dr. Hall, for sale by G. HOVEY, Merrimack Street.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853.

BOOKS.

THE Medical Professor, or Home Physician and Family Guide in Health and Disease, by Dr. Hall, for sale by G. HOVEY, Merrimack Street.

Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853.

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 12, 1853. NO 4198.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

Published every afternoon (Sundays excepted) at No. 25 CENTRAL STREET, Corner of Merrimack Street.

(Advertising on the Front Page.)

Terms and Manuscript for publication must be left at the office before 12 o'clock, M., to insure insertion the same day.

Single copies of the Daily Journal and Courier may be had at the counter of the publication office, and of the carriers and newsmen.

Subscribers in Lowell and Manchester will be supplied with the paper at the rate of 25 cents per week, or 12½ cents for a single week, payable to the carrier.

Subscribers in the country will be supplied with the paper at the rate of $5 per year, payable in advance.

Twelve lines of Nonpareil type constitute a square.

Any person procuring us a new subscriber and paying in advance, shall receive the paper gratis for one week

Daily Journal & Courier.

S. S. WHITE, Tuesday, Oct. 13, 1863.

FOR NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR.

EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF BOSTON.

ELECTORS FOR MIDDLESEX DISTRICT.
G. WASHINGTON WARREN, of Charlestown.
LORENZO SABINE, of Framingham.
WINTHROP P. FAULKNER, of Acton.
F. O. PRESCOTT, of Windham.
GEORGE G. BRASTOW, of Somerville.
PETER LAWSON, of Ipswich.

CONVENTION.....MONDAY, NOV. 16.

Middlesex County Whig Convention.

The Whigs of Middlesex assembled in Convention at Concord, yesterday. The attendance was large—about 180 delegates being in attendance, and representing nearly all the towns in the County. The action of the Convention was particularly spirited.

At 11 minutes past 10 o'clock, the Convention was called to order by John S. Ladd, Esq., of Cambridge, Chairman of the County Committee.

On motion of Hon. Jones, of Lincoln, a Committee of five was appointed by the chair, to report permanent officers for the Convention, as follows:—Messrs Jones of Lincoln, Wilson of Concord, Hartwell of Hartford; Hill of Holliston, and Dumas of Charlestown.

On motion of Mr. Sabine, of Framingham, a committee of three, Messrs Norton of Watertown, Hartwell of Shirley, and Moore of Waltham, were appointed by the chair, to select and report the names of the vice presidents present.

On motion of Mr Moore of Lowell, the members of the County Committee present were requested to call the meeting to order for the choice of the Convention.

The chair made a permanent organization proposed through its chairman, Gen. Jones of Lincoln, the following list of officers was announced:

President—Gen. JAMES DALE, of Charlestown.

Vice Presidents—Hon. Ebenezer Bradbury, of Acton; Hon. Silas Hosely, of Framingham; Hon. Joseph Bellew, of Lowell; Hon. Samuel Adams, of Concord.

Secretary—Edward G. Parody, of Somerville.

Assistant Secretary—Wm. J. E. Kayes, of Cambridge.

Upon taking the chair, stated that it was fortunate that brevity should characterize the proceedings of the Convention, as many gentlemen present desired to attend another Convention in the course of the day. He congratulated the Whigs on the favorable auspices under which they met, and alluded to the divisions which now distract the late powerful Democratic party. While party ties were severed, it was unfortunate that the last Presidential election was decided on issues which were merely local issues to divide us. He alluded to the decline of the State Government of Massachusetts, and spoke in high terms of the public services of Hon. Henry Wilson, of Natick. He concluded with an exhortation to the delegates present, worthy of his position as they possess, to be harmony characterize all their deliberations, and to observe all other rules of order and all other questions subsidiary to the matters of the Whig party.

The committee on credentials reported 17 towns to be represented, and 180 delegates.

On motion of Isaac F. Shepard, Esq., a committee of five on business was appointed by the chair to present suitable resolutions for the action of the Convention, consisting of Messrs. Shepard of Somerville, Hudson of Lexington, Bacon of Lowell, Lawrence of Boston, and Hill of Watertown.

On motion of Mr Shepard, of Somerville, resolved, that as the names of the Conventions, as the Convention might not be known to the public, they be bound by the action of past Conventions.

On motion of Mr Bacon, of Somerville, it was resolved, that the Whigs of Middlesex will vote for such delegates who shall be found to be in favor of the nomination for the Governorship of Gen. Banks, and a provision for Reconstruction on the principles of equality.

The nomination by the nomination of a County Committee for the ensuing year, reported the following list, through its chairman, Mr. Heard, of Brighton:

John S. Ladd, of Cambridge; Isaac F. Shepard, Somerville; W. G. Wilson, Brighton; Isaac Bacon, Jr., Newton; W. A. Hudson, Lexington; C. G. Clark, Lowell; Daniel Adams, Townsend; Jo. G. Hall, Concord; Wm. Sabine, Stow; Charles Brown, Lexington; Daniel Buckman, Charlestown; Wm. Hartwell, Framingham; S. D. Dunbar, Bedford; Hill, Holliston; Wm. Moore, of Framingham; a committee of three, Messrs Norton of Watertown, Hartwell of Shirley, and Moore of Waltham, were appointed by the chair, to select and report the names of the vice presidents present.

On motion of Mr Moore of Lowell, the members of the County Committee present were requested to call the meeting to order for the choice of the Convention.

The following

THE COURIER
JOB PRINTING
OFFICE.

FACT PRESSES,

JOB TYPE,

PRINTING

LOW PRICES

CARDS, CHECKS,

LABELS,

SKELTON'S
TRICOPLUON,
HAIR INVIGORATOR.

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.

PATENTS.
AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

SHEET MUSIC.

MACHINE SHOP TO LET.

FURNITURE CARPETS FEATHERS.

Lowell's Wahpene

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 13, 1853. NO. 4194.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

Office—No. 37 CENTRAL STREET,
(Adjoining the Post Office.)

BUSINESS CARDS.

REEDS AND HARNESSES,
MADE TO ORDER, AND WARRANTED, BY
E. C. BROWN,
Reed Factory, Middlesex.....Harness Factory, Warren's

NOTICE.

DOUBLE AND SINGLE SHOT GUNS AND PISTOLS,

ABIJAH CUTTER,

HERRICK & TUTTLE,
MAKERS,

CHARLES T. CARNEY,
APOTHECARY AND CHEMIST.

Book and Job Printing
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
NEATLY & RAPIDLY EXECUTED
AT THE
Lowell Daily Journal & Courier,
By S. J. Varney.

A. H. FLANDERS, M. D.

P. H. MCGUIRK,
Pattern maker,

WM. C. GRAY,
DEPUTY SHERIFF,

C. S. HASTMAN & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,

DAVID DANA,
OPPOSITE WM. A. SAYLE'S FOUNDRY, AND TYE-PLATE WORKS,

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INS COMPANY,

HUGH MCEVOY,
DRAPER AND TAILOR

ABEL WHITNEY,

WEAVER & BROTHER,

ALL KINDS OF MAHOGANY AND PINE FURNI-

A. P. GROSVENOR,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,

WEAVER & BROTHER,

LOWELL MUTUAL FIRE INS. COMPANY,

H. G. P. CORLISS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,

SAMUEL B. WOOD,

SAMUEL HINDMAN, Jr.,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,

SAMUEL HINDMAN,

SAMUEL B. WOOD,

WILLIAM G. CORLISS AT LAW,

ROGERS & GUYNETT,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,

HALE & DONNELLAN AT LAW,

RAILROADS.

WINTER ARRANGEMENT ON THE
BOSTON AND LOWELL RAILROAD.

FALL ARRANGEMENT.

NEW ROUTE BETWEEN BOSTON AND
NEW YORK.

FALL ARRANGEMENT.—NO CHANGE OF CARS
BETWEEN THE TWO CITIES.

FALL ARRANGEMENT.

SALEM AND LOWELL RAILROAD.

FALL ARRANGEMENT.

LOWELL AND LAWRENCE RAILROAD.

SPRING AND SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.

SOUTHERN RAILROAD.

NEWBURYPORT RAILROAD.

FALL ARRANGEMENT.

NEW ROUTE TO NEW YORK.
LIFE INSURANCE,
ANNUITY AND TRUST COMPANY,
OF PHILADELPHIA.
CAPITAL, $500,000 DOLLARS.
CASH PAID-UP CAPITAL.
No Premium Notes, and no Assessments.

CHARLES G. IMBRIE, President,
FLINT PIKE, Actuary.

LEGAL REFERENCE.

BOSTONIAN'S
RHEUMATIC COMPOUND.

BOSTONIAN'S
RHEUMATIC COMPOUND

BOSTONIAN'S
BITTER CORDIAL
AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

THE GREAT ALTERATIVE.

BOSTONIAN'S
ALTERATIVE AND BLOOD PURIFIER

AMERICAN TEMPERANCE
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
HARTFORD, CONN.

Incorporated by the State of Connecticut.

Capital, One Hundred Thousand Dollars,
$100,000.

DAGUERREOTYPES
TAKEN IN ALL THE
VARIOUS STYLES:
Crayons, Illuminated,
MAGIC BACKGROUNDS, &c.

DAGUERREOTYPES
Copied and Magnified
TO ANY SIZE DESIRED.

LARGEST AND BEST
DAGUERREOTYPES
IN THE CITY.

R. A. MILLER,
DAGUERREAN
ARTIST,
NO. 19 CENTRAL STREET.

DAGUERREOTYPES

WOOLEN FACTORY FOR SALE OR TO LET.

PARK STYLE
HATS,
WM. P. BRAKER'S,

CIGARS.

FANCY GOODS AND PERFUMERY.

BARE CHANCE.

DAGUERREOTYPES

SPLENDID LOT—BARE CHANCE.

FACE STYLE
HATS,
WM. P. BRAKER'S,

CIGARS.

Daily Journal & Courier.
Issued, Thursday, October 2, 1856.

FOR GOVERNOR.
EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF ADAMS.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE.
G. WASHINGTON WARREN, of Charlestown.

FOR TREASURER.
LORENZO SABINE, of Framingham.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL.
WHITEHOUP E. PARSONS, of Lenox.

FOR AUDITOR OF ACCOUNTS.
F. O. PRINCE, of Winchester.

FOR GOVERNOR'S COUNCIL.
GEORGE O. HOLTON, of Somerville.
PETER LAWSON, of Dorchester.

ELECTED.....MONDAY, NOV. 10.

The Lowell Americans and Rum.

It is some time since we stooped so low into the gutter of political newspapers, as to notice the Lowell Americans. But as many honest Maine Law Men are stupid enough to place some small minimum of confidence in that unscrupulous sheet, a word or two on the subject may not be without relevancy. A day or two since, Mr Robinson delivered himself of the following extract:

We learn that a Temperance Committee, of some sort or other, (forgetting the advice of the State Convention,) have voted to question candidates for Governor and Council upon the Liquor Law. This is of a piece with the usual lack of shrewdness of those Life Boat men. The experience of last year shows that the people will not be thus driven, when they get. We trust that the free soil and reg. whig will successful candidates will refuse to answer their questions, and we guess they will.

Here is a direct stab at the whole pledge-system. But let us see how far, in the last sen., the editor of the American constituted himself an honest exponent of the views of the voters the burbled sorrows of his irony. In an editorial of the 19th of November, 1852, we find this same "Lowell American" thus gushingly lifting and blood-bathing Mr Davenport of Hopkinton and other nominees, because they vo-ted to censure the passage of the Maine Law" This same hack-writer who in 1855 shaved the whig sentiments because they v-ted to censure the passage of the Maine Law Men," has now turned on his own track, and hopes "that all and every regular free-soiler in candidates will refuse to answer their (the Maine Law Men's) questions!" Here certainly it's a-shes. Will then the Springfield Republican ask

What can be the cause of this sensitiveness on the part of the Americans? Is the cause? Is it conscious guilt? Is it the fear of the people? Is it the fear of the whig party? Is it thought that the whig party has basely deluded to the city in order to secure the election of Governor? Is it thought that the Know Nothings can thus secure to us a Governor?

Pennsylvania Republican—Philadelphia, Oct. 8. The Whig Members of Congress from the State of Indiana declined the nomination of a Convention held at Indianapolis, because the platform adopted by them was not sufficiently explicit in its support of the Nebraska bill. It is thought that the Democratic leaders desire Tree Persons' Water.

THE SUBSCRIBER, Proprietor of the above Water, would respectfully call the attention of the public to the following certificates:

HOWE'S HOUSE, Lowell, Dec. 1, 1852.

I have used the Tree Persons' Water for the last two years, and have found it a most excellent remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervousness, Sick Headache, and Costiveness. I have also used it in my family for Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, and Rheumatism, and have found it a most excellent remedy. I have recommended it to many of my friends, and they have found it to be all that is represented. I have also used it for Dyspepsia, and have found it a most excellent remedy. I have recommended it to many of my friends, and they have found it to be all that is represented. I have also used it for Dyspepsia, and have found it a most excellent remedy. I have recommended it to many of my friends, and they have found it to be all that is represented.

Prepared by Joseph C. B. Farnham, No. 9 Bond Street, New York. Sold by Druggists generally throughout the United States and Canada.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE, a Power Loom Carpet Tape at much below cost. Apply at 17 MIDDLE STREET.

FOR SALE, a Power Loom Carpet Tape at much below cost. Apply at 17 MIDDLE STREET.

BOSTON FIRE MANUFACTORY.

No. 3 Brimstone st. Boston.

Manufactured from 30 Thousand Pounds of Iron, Penny and Wrought Warren Plated Locks, Latches, Bells, Knobs, Escutcheons, &c. &c.

Warranted superior to any imported article, and sold at prices that defy competition. Dealers are invited to call and examine for themselves.

Jan. 19, 1853. 1yr[1]

NEW AND NEAT

These CLOTHES just entered in the Spring Fashion, at the store of COLBY & CO'S. CANAL BLOCK, Merrimack st.

HENRY WEAR

manufacturer the same this Spring, at the BOSTON CLOTHING AND ELEGANT CLOTHING HOUSE, and has attended new spacious rooms, at 3 Merrimack st. Under Mayo and Bowers, Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

S. WYMAN, Cashier.

GOODS AND WINTER STOCK & STYLES CLOTHS AND CLOTHING.

GOOD GOODS, where he will be pleased to see his old friends, generally, and as many new ones as may favor him with a call.

No. 4 Williams's Block, (up stairs,) Merrimack st.

HENRY WEAR.

Lowell, Sept. 17, 1852.

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store.

JOSEPH T. JAMES,

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in every variety of GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, HATS, CAPS, UMBRELLAS, VESTINGS, &c. &c.

No. 164 Merrimack street, Corner Shattuck.

apr15 LOWELL. 6tw

TEA.

95 Package COFFEE, BOSTON and Y. H. TEAS, for sale by the Agent for the above Magazines, and at the lowest prices, at the Tea Store, No. 3 Merrimack st. Lowell, April 10, 1853. 3m

A CARD.

DR. CLARKE'S ROSEMARY AND CASTOR OIL COMPOUND, manufactured for preserving the Hair—for sale by CHARLES H. SHIPLEY, Druggist, 3 Merrimack st.

apr15

MME. SCHETKY,

Professor of Music, Composer, Teacher, Pianist, &c. &c. &c. Residence, Merrimack and Elm sts.

apr15

POLISHING POWDER—A superior article for polishing Gold, Silver, Brass, Steel, Britannia, &c. &c. for sale by CHARLES H. SHIPLEY, 3 Merrimack st. apr15

HAIR BRUSH, BOOM PINS, RINGS, &c.

Just received and for sale by the subscriber, a large assortment of Hair Brushes, Boom Pins, Rings, Gilt Combs, Jewelry and Silver Wire Hairpins, for sale cheap at the Variety Store of CHARLES H. SHIPLEY, 3 Merrimack st. apr15

L. ANGELL'S SCOTCH AND IRISH BITTERS.—For the sale in wholesale and retail by the Proprietor, No. 9 Middle street.

apr15

V. P. B.

VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM.—This celebrated remedy for Coughs and Colds, for sale by apr15 CHARLES H. SHIPLEY.

PRENCH SHIRT BOSOMS.

20 Dozen Linen and Cotton Bosoms, for sale by apr15 W. F. BAKER'S.

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY and DEAD SHOT FOR RATS, by apr15 C. H. SHIPLEY.

TOM HARDY.

T. L. JENNINGS would give notice to his friends in general FISH MARKET is now in (one end) of the Market Building, on Merrimack st. where he will be pleased to see them, and will keep on hand a full supply of OYSTERS and LOBSTERS in their season. Fresh Shad and Salmon expected in next week. Also a fine place for Oysters and Refreshments.

Lowell, Feb. 21, 1853. 3m[1]

RETURNED FROM GREAT SALT LAKE VALLEY.

WALKER LEWIS

Would inform his friends and the public that he has returned from the diggings of Lowell and vicinity, where he has been for the last year, and has opened the SALOON under the Merrimack House, No. 1 Merrimack st. where he will be pleased to see his friends and the public generally, who are in want of anything in the line of Refreshments.

Lowell, Sept. 17, 1852.

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store.

JOSEPH T. JAMES,

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in every variety of GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, HATS, CAPS, UMBRELLAS, VESTINGS, &c. &c.

No. 164 Merrimack street, Corner Shattuck.

apr15 LOWELL. 6tw

TEA.

95 Package COFFEE, BOSTON and Y. H. TEAS, for sale by the Agent for the above Magazines, and at the lowest prices, at the Tea Store, No. 3 Merrimack st. Lowell, April 10, 1853. 3m

A CARD.

DR. CLARKE'S ROSEMARY AND CASTOR OIL COMPOUND, manufactured for preserving the Hair—for sale by CHARLES H. SHIPLEY, Druggist, 3 Merrimack st.

apr15

MME. SCHETKY,

Professor of Music, Composer, Teacher, Pianist, &c. &c. &c. Residence, Merrimack and Elm sts.

apr15

POLISHING POWDER—A superior article for polishing Gold, Silver, Brass, Steel, Britannia, &c. &c. for sale by CHARLES H. SHIPLEY, 3 Merrimack st. apr15

HAIR BRUSH, BOOM PINS, RINGS, &c.

Just received and for sale by the subscriber, a large assortment of Hair Brushes, Boom Pins, Rings, Gilt Combs, Jewelry and Silver Wire Hairpins, for sale cheap at the Variety Store of CHARLES H. SHIPLEY, 3 Merrimack st. apr15

L. ANGELL'S SCOTCH AND IRISH BITTERS.—For the sale in wholesale and retail by the Proprietor, No. 9 Middle street.

apr15

V. P. B.

VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM.—This celebrated remedy for Coughs and Colds, for sale by apr15 CHARLES H. SHIPLEY.

FRENCH SHIRT BOSOMS.

20 Dozen Linen and Cotton Bosoms, for sale by apr15 W. F. BAKER'S.

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY and DEAD SHOT FOR RATS, by apr15 C. H. SHIPLEY.

TOM HARDY.

T. L. JENNINGS would give notice to his friends in general FISH MARKET is now in (one end) of the Market Building, on Merrimack st. where he will be pleased to see them, and will keep on hand a full supply of OYSTERS and LOBSTERS in their season. Fresh Shad and Salmon expected in next week. Also a fine place for Oysters and Refreshments.

Lowell, Feb. 21, 1853. 3m[1]

RETURNED FROM GREAT SALT LAKE VALLEY.

WALKER LEWIS

Would inform his friends and the public that he has returned from the diggings of Lowell and vicinity, where he has been for the last year, and has opened the SALOON under the Merrimack House, No. 1 Merrimack st. where he will be pleased to see his friends and the public generally, who are in want of anything in the line of Refreshments.

Lowell, Sept. 17, 1852.

MISS E. FLETCHER,

FEMALE PHYSICIAN,

Has removed to her new residence, No. 12 Boyce st. where she will be pleased to see her friends and patients. Miss F. will not be found in her office on Merrimack st. after this date.

Lowell, Nov. 15, 1852. 3m

NEW HOUSE.

THE SUBSCRIBER has taken the house No. 12 Boyce st. where she will be pleased to see her friends and patients. Miss F. will not be found in her office on Merrimack st. after this date.

Lowell, Nov. 15, 1852. 3m

MISS E. FLETCHER,

FEMALE PHYSICIAN,

Has removed to her new residence, No. 12 Boyce st. where she will be pleased to see her friends and patients. Miss F. will not be found in her office on Merrimack st. after this date.

Lowell, Nov. 15, 1852. 3m

NEW HOUSE.

THE SUBSCRIBER has taken the house No. 12 Boyce st. where she will be pleased to see her friends and patients. Miss F. will not be found in her office on Merrimack st. after this date.

Lowell, Nov. 15, 1852. 3m

NEW AND NEAT

These CLOTHES just entered in the Spring Fashion, at the store of COLBY & CO'S. CANAL BLOCK, Merrimack st.

HENRY WEAR

manufacturer the same this Spring, at the BOSTON CLOTHING AND ELEGANT CLOTHING HOUSE, and has attended new spacious rooms, at 3 Merrimack st. Under Mayo and Bowers, Lowell, March 1, 1853. 3m

S. WYMAN, Cashier.

GOODS AND WINTER STOCK & STYLES CLOTHS AND CLOTHING.

GOOD GOODS, where he will be pleased to see his old friends, generally, and as many new ones as may favor him with a call.

No. 4 Williams's Block, (up stairs,) Merrimack st.

HENRY WEAR.

Lowell, Sept. 17, 1852.

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store.

JOSEPH T. JAMES,

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in every variety of GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, HATS, CAPS, UMBRELLAS, VESTINGS, &c. &c.

No. 164 Merrimack street, Corner Shattuck.

apr15 LOWELL. 6tw

TEA.

95 Package COFFEE, BOSTON and Y. H. TEAS, for sale by the Agent for the above Magazines, and at the lowest prices, at the Tea Store, No. 3 Merrimack st. Lowell, April 10, 1853. 3m

A CARD.

DR. CLARKE'S ROSEMARY AND CASTOR OIL COMPOUND, manufactured for preserving the Hair—for sale by CHARLES H. SHIPLEY, Druggist, 3 Merrimack st.

apr15

MME. SCHETKY,

Professor of Music, Composer, Teacher, Pianist, &c. &c. &c. Residence, Merrimack and Elm sts.

apr15

POLISHING POWDER—A superior article for polishing Gold, Silver, Brass, Steel, Britannia, &c. &c. for sale by CHARLES H. SHIPLEY, 3 Merrimack st. apr15

HAIR BRUSH, BOOM PINS, RINGS, &c.

Just received and for sale by the subscriber, a large assortment of Hair Brushes, Boom Pins, Rings, Gilt Combs, Jewelry and Silver Wire Hairpins, for sale cheap at the Variety Store of CHARLES H. SHIPLEY, 3 Merrimack st. apr15

L. ANGELL'S SCOTCH AND IRISH BITTERS.—For the sale in wholesale and retail by the Proprietor, No. 9 Middle street.

apr15

V. P. B.

VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM.—This celebrated remedy for Coughs and Colds, for sale by apr15 CHARLES H. SHIPLEY.

FRENCH SHIRT BOSOMS.

20 Dozen Linen and Cotton Bosoms, for sale by apr15 W. F. BAKER'S.

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY and DEAD SHOT FOR RATS, by apr15 C. H. SHIPLEY.

TOM HARDY.

T. L. JENNINGS would give notice to his friends in general FISH MARKET is now in (one end) of the Market Building, on Merrimack st. where he will be pleased to see them, and will keep on hand a full supply of OYSTERS and LOBSTERS in their season. Fresh Shad and Salmon expected in next week. Also a fine place for Oysters and Refreshments.

Lowell, Feb. 21, 1853. 3m[1]

RETURNED FROM GREAT SALT LAKE VALLEY.

WALKER LEWIS

Would inform his friends and the public that he has returned from the diggings of Lowell and vicinity, where he has been for the last year, and has opened the SALOON under the Merrimack House, No. 1 Merrimack st. where he will be pleased to see his friends and the public generally, who are in want of anything in the line of Refreshments.

Lowell, Sept. 17, 1852.

MISS E. FLETCHER,

FEMALE PHYSICIAN,

Has removed to her new residence, No. 12 Boyce st. where she will be pleased to see her friends and patients. Miss F. will not be found in her office on Merrimack st. after this date.

Lowell, Nov. 15, 1852. 3m

NEW HOUSE.

THE SUBSCRIBER has taken the house No. 12 Boyce st. where she will be pleased to see her friends and patients. Miss F. will not be found in her office on Merrimack st. after this date.

Lowell, Nov. 15, 1852. 3m

TWO HOUSES FOR SALE.

A correct two-story House on most eligible terms. Apply to the owner, on the west side of Gorham street, next house to the corner of Fletcher street, or to JOHN MORRISON, 3 Merrimack st. Lowell, Jan. 29, 1853.

Daily Journal & Courier.
Lowell, Friday, October 14, 1853.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF BOSTON.

SENATORS FOR MIDDLESEX COUNTY,
D. WASHINGTON WARREN, of Charlestown,
LORENZO SABINE, of Framingham,
WINTHROP P. FAULKNER, of Acton,
P. O. PRINCE, of Winchester,
GEORGE O. BRASTOW, of Somerville,
PETER LAWSON, of Dracut.

ELECTION.....MONDAY, NOV. 14.

Latest from Europe.

The steamship Canada arrived at Halifax early yesterday morning.

The steamships Canada, from Boston, arrived at Liverpool on the 5th, and the Atlantic, from New York, on Tuesday night, the 11th.

The steamer Hermann was detained at Havre on account of the gales, until Friday morning, the 30th.

On the 30th and 31th ult., there was a violent storm along the British and Dutch coasts, which caused great destruction of life and property. Rotterdam and other Dutch cities were inundated, and a great amount of property was destroyed in the Zuyder Zee, with one hundred lives. Also the loss of many vessels, from Hull to Hamburg, with some lives.

The Russian question is still undecided.

The combined English and French fleets had passed the Dardanelles and anchored before Constantinople.

The Emperor's offer was to be debated at Olmutz. Mr. Bourqueney was said to have severed diplomatic relations with Minister at Constantinople, that France perfectly approves the views expressed by America respecting this affair, and was ready to join Austria in her pacific remonstrances.

News had been received at Glasgow, that the Duke of Buccleuch was dangerously ill, and on the 10th ult., on her voyage from Glasgow to New York. Her case was hopeless.

GREAT RETAIN. The Bank of England had raised the rate of discount to five per cent.

The Court was in London.

Hostile politics were black. Much anxiety was felt concerning the issue of Turkish affairs by capitalists in some of the large cities in consequence of the war with Turkey. One meeting had been held at London to sympathize with the Greek insurrection. It was reported as a Russian demonstration, and few attended.

PRUSSIA. His Emperor and Empress were well received on their tour to Amiens and along the banks, and pretty well at Boulogne. They have returned to Paris. There is no other news.

All sorts of alarming rumors were circulated on the Bourse.

The French government had received a pacific communication from the Emperor of Russia.

General Juan de la Pezuela is appointed Captain-General of Cuba, and General Pavia Governor of the Philippine Islands.

CHINA. The insurgents continue their advances on Pekin. The Imperial Government was in great want of money. Provisions were becoming scarce in Canton. A hired fleet was blockading Ching Kiang, consisting of eight English and American vessels.

The Hong Kong correspondent of the London Daily News, writing August 7th, says:

"It was currently reported that Mr Marshall had, on behalf of the United States, offered the Emperor of China a loan of a million of dollars, and such offers, however, are now practicable. If this was true, it was stated that the British Plenipotentiary would send an envoy to the insurgents, to explain that Great Britain did not join in this offer.

There is an increased stringency in the Money market, and rates of discount had still further advanced.

Liverpool, to Oct. 1. Cotton market unsettled, and grades have declined from 1-4d-1-16.

Breadstuffs dull and unsettled. Flour declined 1s a 2s. Wheat and Corn have considerably advanced, closing with an upward tendency.

Faneuil Hall Open! Everett's Speech!

At the grand ratification meeting in Faneuil Hall, on Wednesday evening, the following resolves were adopted with great unanimity and enthusiasm:—

1. Resolved, By the Whigs of Suffolk, in Faneuil Hall assembled, that in regard to the approaching election as of the utmost moment; that the claims of its officers, in the present condition of parties, is a matter of universal importance within the purport of an entire new draft of the Constitution, making material changes in the frame of government under which we and our fathers have so long lived and prospered is a just subject of profound anxiety and alarm.

2. Resolved, That the formation of a Constitution of government is the highest and most responsible duty of freemen; that it should be discharged with calmness and moderation; free from the influence of fear, of bias, and with a single eye to the good of the whole people.

3. Resolved, That the proposed new Constitution is, in some of its leading features, the work of a single class, to the party object; that it destroys the equality of the Representative rights in the Senate, especially the right in a fair and equal representation, which is the vital principle of republican government; that it degrades the position and influence of the Judiciary; that it puts it in the power of the Executive to create by patronage a body of Judges to the present system of voting by districts, and thereby to control the whole; that, in overthrow the principles of justice in every department of the government, with the exception of a few minor propositions, the entire work is objectionable in the highest degree, and its opportunity is allowed to adopt the good and reject the evil, it is the duty of every patriotic citizen to oppose its adoption.

4. Resolved, That we are in favor of amending the Constitution as to secure to every citizen of the State, of small means or large, and of the large, the right of annual representation in proportion to their numbers and wealth; the adoption of the Quarterly vote in all instances; that the duration of the terms of our executive officers now appointed by the Executive, and by the Legislature, be shortened.

5. Resolved, That true to the principles which have characterized the Whig party, and recently reasserted in the Union of the States, and in the Commonwealth, we are in favor of extending the Constitution so as to secure to every person of full age, of whatever State, or country, or of the world, (Cheers.) Then had the Whigs been guilty of misgovernment! (No there's not a citizen dare charge.) The Democracy show a fairer array of names than those of Lowell, Cushing, Davis, and Everett, all of whom were her governors for five-sixths of their lives.

Fellow-citizens, there is another name of a high Governor of Massachusetts, which I am pressed by my lips, but may I not hope, that that name for years hence, (pointing to his son) may be written in the book of fame as that of another Governor? (Cheers.) I will not dwell on the high talents and high accomplishments of that name, (Cheers.) [The orator's son sitting by his father's side, was greeted with loud cheers.] He knows that I am a fond father, and will pardon me for saying that I am proud of my son.

Daily Journal & Courier.
Lowell, Friday, October 14, 1853.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF ALTON.

SENATORS FOR MIDDLESEX COUNTY,
WASHINGTON WARREN, of Charlestown,
LORENZO SABINE, of Framingham,
WENTWORTH F. FAULKNER, of Acton,
F. O. PRINCE, of Winchester,
GEORGE O. BRASTOW, of Somerville,
PETER HAWKEN, of Concord.

ELECTION ..... MONDAY, NOV. 14.

Later from Europe.

The steamship Canada arrived at Halifax early yesterday morning.

The steamships Canada, from Boston, arrived at Liverpool on Sunday the 16th, and the Atlantic, from New York, on Tuesday night, the 27th.

The steamer Humboldt was detained at Havre on account of a defect in her tubes, until Friday morning.

On the 25th and 26th ult., there was a violent storm along the British and Dutch coasts, which caused much loss of life and property—Rotterdam, Amsterdam and Dutch cities were inundated, and a severe shock of earthquake was felt in the Zuyder Zee, with one hundred lives.

The Boston Peace Commemoration, from Hull to Hamburg, with some lives.

The Eastern question is still undecided.

The combined English and French fleets had passed the Dardanelles and anchored before Constantinople.

The Kossuth affair was to be debated at Olmutz. Mr. Montgomery was said to have accused Capt. Ingraham, American Minister at Constantinople, that he seems perfectly approves the views expressed by Austria respecting this affair, and was ready to join Austria in her policy respecting it.

Many fine horses received at Glasgow, that the American ship Southerner laid aground at sea on the 15th ult., on her voyage from Glasgow to New York. The crew were saved.

GREAT BRITAIN. The Bank of England had raised the rate of discount to five per cent.

The Court was in Scotland.

Home politics were blank. Much anxiety was felt respecting the issue of Turkish affairs. Meetings were held in some of the large cities to sympathize with the Turks. One meeting had been held at London to sympathize with the Greek Christians. It was regarded as a Kossuth demonstration, and few attended.

FRANCE. The Emperor and Empress were well received on their tour of Normandy along the route, and pretty well at Boulogne. They have returned to Paris. There is no other news.

All sorts of alarming rumors were circulated on the Bourse of Paris.

The Paris government had received a pacific communication from the Emperor at Olmutz.

General Juan de la Pezuela is appointed Captain-General of Cuba, and General Pavia Governor of the Philippine Islands.

CUBA. The insurgents continue their advances on Tehin. The Imperial Government was in great want of money. Provisions were becoming scarce at Puka. A hired fleet was blockading Hong Kong, consisting of eight English and American vessels.

The Hong Kong correspondent of the London Daily News, writing August 7th, says:—

"It was confidently reported that Mr Marshall had, on behalf of the United States, offered the Emperor of China a loan of a million of dollars, and such active assistance as was practicable. If this was true, it was stated that the British Plenipotentiary would send an envoy to the insurgents, to suggest that Great Britain did not join in this affair."

There is increased stringency in the Money market, and rates of discount had still further advanced.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 1. Cotton market unsettled, and prices have declined from 1-16 to 1-8.

Breadstuffs are firm and upward. Flour advanced 1s. to 2s. Wheat and Corn have considerably advanced, closing with an upward tendency.

Faneuil Hall Open! Everett's Speech!

At the grand ratification meeting in Faneuil Hall, on Wednesday evening, the following resolves were adopted with great unanimity and enthusiasm:—

1 Resolved, By the Whigs of Suffolk, in Faneuil Hall assembled, that we regard the approaching election as of the utmost moment; that the decision of state affairs, on the present condition of parties, is a matter of universal importance, while the proposal of an entire new draft of the Constitution, making material changes in the frame of government under which we and our fathers have so long lived and prospered, is a just subject of profound anxiety and alarm.

2. Resolved, That the formation of a Constitution of government is the highest and most responsible of political duties; that it should be discharged with calmness and moderation, free from all party excitement, bias, and with a single eye to the good of the whole people.

3. Resolved, That the proposed new Constitution is, in some of its leading features, the fruit of party conventions for party objects; that it derogates from some of the fundamental rights of the citizen, especially the right to a just and equal representation, which lies at the basis of all republican government; that it degrades the character and attacks the independence of the Judiciary; that it puts it in the power of the Legislature to perpetuate the evils incident to the present system of voting by absolute majority; that in other leading provisions, it sacrifices the principles of justice to party expediency; and inasmuch as, with the exception of a few minor propositions, the entire instrument is submitted to the people as a whole, and no opportunity is allowed to adopt the good and reject the evil, it is the duty of every patriotic citizen to oppose its adoption.

4 Resolved, That we are in favor of assembling the Constitution so as to secure to every citizen of the state, alike of the small towns and of the large, the right of mature deliberation upon principles of justice and equality;—to the adoption of the plurality vote in all elections; and the choice by the people of many officers now appointed by the Executive, and elected by the General Court.

5. Resolved, That true to the principles which have at all times actuated us, we are determinedly attached to the Union of the States, and the Constitution which makes us one people. We regard them as the most precious legacy of our wise and patriotic fathers. In the language of Washington, "any projects or schemes the timorous voice of this national Union to our collective and individual happiness, necessitating ourselves to think and speak of it, as of the Palladium of our political safety and prosperity; watching for its preservation with jealous anxiety; discountenancing whatever may suggest even a suspicion that it can in any event be abandoned; indignantly frowning upon even the first dawning of every attempt to alienate any portion of our country from the rest, or to enfeeble the sacred ties that now long together the various parts."

6. Resolved, That in Emory Washburn and William C. Plunkett, we have candidates of ability, integrity and honesty; whose private lives are without reproach, and whose public services have been useful, honorable, and consistent; and that we unanimously ratify their nomination and pledge them our earnest and hearty support.

Mr. Everett's Speech.

The Hon. Edward Everett was then introduced by the Mayor, as an one of the fathers of the Union, and one of the most brilliant stars in its constellation; and was received with enthusiastic cheers.

After briefly returning his thanks for this cordial reception, which he felt confident was from no motive but his love for the Union and from an appreciation of the views of government and policy which he had endeavored to maintain—he referred to the proceedings of the Whig State Convention at Worcester. They had assembled in such immense numbers upon the occasion, to express their opinions upon the action of that body, and to give it their sanction, if they should deem it worthy, at which there was no doubt, and also to make all necessary preparations for the approaching election.

He deemed this election to be one of greater importance than any since the days of Washington, inasmuch as had for many years been called upon to attend, and he looked upon all subjects of much more consequence than was usually attributed to them by the people. He had, and had always acted upon the opinion, that the right of suffrage was one of the most important and valuable, as well as privileges, of freemen; and not it was an usual thing to find but one-half or even a third of the voters of the State absent from themselves from the polls. He regretted on this occasion the Whigs of Massachusetts would gather and all to the polls, on one of the single of doing their whole duty to the community, and thereby insure the success of their principles and measures, and prevent the choice of candidates of the minority by the legislature.

But this election was of the highest importance. In it was to be decided the acceptance or rejection of the new draft of the Constitution, by which very important changes have been made in the frame of government under which we have lived. As was well known, this was to be acted upon in eight distinct propositions, of which the first was the great question, comprehending an entire draft of the Constitution, and from its length and complexity, debarring the people from a full and careful examination, while the others, being short, were easily to be understood and judged. Some of the many propositions submitted to the Convention were carried by large majorities, some had passed, and others had been rejected by bare majorities; some, at least, by the casting vote of the Speaker; but the people were indebted to every one of the privilege of exercising the same discrimination. He would, if permitted, vote for some of the proposed amendments, but being called upon to give a complete whole, he must reject the whole. [Applause.] In this connection he referred to the action of the last Convention of 1820, when fourteen propositions were submitted with great care and propriety, and only nine were accepted.

Mr Everett next proceeded to consider the new Constitution, which he argued was not a party measure, reform or progress was necessary to democracy, but anti-republican, anti-republican and anti-democratic. It provided for no increase of representation, whereby less than one third of the people should have more than one half of the representatives, instead of giving to every man his full and equal power in the affairs of the Commonwealth. The equal and just distribution had been rejected upon the ground that the town system was coeval with the existence of the State, and that the Commonwealth had always prospered under that system, and was opposed to any change. Suppose the Whigs had taken this ground, would they not have been hailed by the Democracy in their ears! He had always been a friend of the system of town representation, as one of the great pillars of our liberty, and believed it would be a dangerous thing to give place to centralization; but to maintain that system it was necessary to give to towns more than their fair share of representation. He had read with great care the great writings on the subject, but had never found one definite principle, inhabitants, property, or anything by the rural districts, inhabitants, property, or anything by the rural districts, inhabitants, property, or anything by the rural districts

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 15, 1853. NO. 4908

HARNEY'S True Vermont Water.

This delightful article, prepared by a chemist per se, is a sure cure for or indigestion, dyspepsia, sick headache, flatulency, pain or uneasiness after eating, sour stomach, &c. It will kill the fragrance of the most sour or acrimonious stomach, and in a few days will restore the digestive organs to a healthy tone. Those who have been troubled with the above complaints, or any disorder of the stomach, will do well to give this water a trial. It is recommended by the most respectable physicians in the New England States.

LEMON TRIPOLIA.

Price 50 cents per bottle.

BITTER PUFF FOR SALE.

The subscriber has for sale a few bottles of the above valuable bitters, which he will sell at a low price.

J. HARDING, Cornhill.

PUP SALE. A pretty Dog of superior breed, broad nose and ears. Inquire of A. CUTTER'S Cash Store, Middle street.

BOSTON VICE MANUFACTORY.

No 6 Sumtion st, Boston.

Removed from 197 Hanover st., op 270 Commercial st.

Where Gun Sights Nickelsilvered and Gun Barrels bronzed.

Old Vices taken in exchange. Repairing done at the shortest notice and most reasonable prices.

J. HARDING, Gunsmith.

Boston, Aug. 19, 1853. 3m

NEW AND NEAT!

THE CLOTHIER and tailor would thank you for the favor of your custom, and respectfully inform the public that he has just received a new and splendid assortment of CHERRY WYMAN will continue to keep a full assortment of Ready Made Clothing, and will be pleased to see his friends and customers at the old stand.

E. WYMAN, Cutter. myo8

FALL AND WINTER STOCK & STYLES

CLOTHS AND CLOTHING.

JOHN QUINN respectfully informs his old customers and the public generally, that he has just received at his Clothing Store,

No. 8 Wyman's Block, (of Canal Bridge,) a superior stock of BROADCLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS, &c., which he will make up to order in the latest and most fashionable styles.

Also on hand a full assortment of READY-MADE CLOTHING, which he will sell cheap at the cheapest. myo7 3m

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store.

JOSEPH T. JAMES,

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in every variety of GENT'S FURNISHING GOODS, HATS, CAPS, UMBRELLAS, PERFUMERY, &c. &c.

No. 14 Merrimack street,

CITY HALL BUILDING, 4tw

LOWELL.

TEAS.

THE TEMPLE OF MYSTERY AND T. H. TEA.—Persons who visited the Crystal Palace, New York, must remember the Temple of Mystery in the Purity Grocery and Fruit Store, Eliot Block, next door to the Post Office, Lowell. myo7 4w

A REDUCED AND PERMANENT CHRISTIAN UNION. A Sermon preached in the Second Universalist Church, Lowell, by A. GUILTY.

SCHLOSSER'S SUDORIFIC AND CANTOR ANODYNE. For sale by Druggists generally, and by CARTER, Apothecary and Chemist, Merrimack st.

Lowell and Merrimack sts.

MUSIC SCHOOL. Cornhill, Tuesday, Aug. 9, 1853. Mr. CARTER, Dear Sir:—Having had a Piano in my School for the last year, I am happy to say that it has given entire satisfaction to myself and pupils. Yours truly, MARY E. BOURNE.

PURIFYING PUMICE. A superior article for cleansing the Teeth and Gums, and preserving the Enamel. For sale by CARTER, Apothecary and Chemist, Merrimack st.

BAY RUM. BOOTH PIER, HIRES, &c. A LARGE assortment of this at the lower prices for CASH. Also, Cologne, Florida Water, Lavender, &c. &c. Odeon Corner. Please call before you buy. oct7

LANGLEY'S ROOT AND HERB BITTER—For persons by S. SIMONDS, sole agent of Merrimack and John sts.

VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM—For the cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, &c. &c. For sale by CARTER, Apothecary and Chemist, Merrimack st.

FRENCH SHIRT BOSOMS.

30 Dozen Bosoms, ready for immediate use. Price 30 cents, manufactured at W. J. T. Shop.

H. CHASE, corner Bowers st.

DR. BERRY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

K Kennedy's Pulmonic Wine, for sale by S. SIMONDS, 47 Central, corner Market st.

FISH MARKET.

T. L. JENNINGS would give notice to the public that he has opened a Fish Market in the stand now occupied by Mr. Hall, Market Building, on Dutton street, where he will constantly on hand and for sale, Salmon, Shad, Mackerel, Bass and OYSTERS, CLAMS and LOBSTERS in their season. Promise to use every exertion to please those who may favor him with their custom. Lowell, June 4, 1853. 3m

EDWARD FROST, GREAT SALT LAKE

WALKER LEWIS feels thankful for the generous and liberal support he has received, and would respectfully inform the citizens of Lowell and vicinity that he has just received from the Great Salt Lake City, and has opened the GREAT SALT LAKE HOUSE, No. 1 Dutton Street, Building, Dutton street, where he will be glad to see his friends and the public generally. Please to give us a call.

Lowell, June 4, 1853. 3m

Dr. Peirson's pleasant visit to cunning Children's Hospital, Aug. 1, 1853.

RISE S. FLETCHER,

FEMALE PHYSICIAN.

MAY be consulted at her rooms, 118 Merrimack street. She will cure Deafness, and improve of Sight in a few days, by the use of Dr. Peirson's Improved Eye Waters. Also, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Paralysis of ELECTRICITY, in its application to the human system, successfully administered by the undersigned. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. Lowell, July 1, 1853. 3m

NEW BOOKS.—For sale by WATSON & SALISBURY, Corner of Merrimack and Prescott sts. Also, a variety of Stationery, Pens, Pencils, &c. &c. Lowell, Sept. 17, 1853.

SODA WATER, with CHOICE SYRUPS, similar to C. O. D. at CARTER'S, corner Elm and Merrimack sts.

CLARK'S SHERRY WINE BITTERS—For sale by A. P. SMITH, Druggist, Lowell.

K Kennedy's Medical Discovery, Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Prescription, for sale by S. SIMONDS, 47 Central, corner Market st.

DOMINOES AND GAMES BOARDS.—A large assortment. H. WOOD, Boston st.

EXTRA NEW BUCK WHEAT FLOUR.

N EW BUCK WHEAT FLOUR. H. WOOD, Boston st.

NEW BUCK WHEAT FLOUR.—A superior article, for sale by WATSON & SALISBURY, Corner of Merrimack and Prescott sts.

NEW BUCK WHEAT FLOUR.—FRESH GROUND, for sale by WATSON & SALISBURY, Corner of Merrimack and Prescott sts.

JUDD'S BAKING POWDER, and S. T. the best YEAST. Constantly on hand at BLANCHARD & UNDERWOOD, 1y 14 Merrimack and Middle sts.

A RNOLD'S SHOULDER BRACE, for the cure of Weak Shoulders, Round Shoulders, Curvature of the Spine, and are invited to call and examine them. Also, a full assortment of Trusses, Supporters, &c. &c. at the Lowell Drug Store.

BARRETT'S PETO ON TOOTHACHE. A good tooth last some! No more sleepless nights with the toothache! Peto on Toothache will cure you in a few minutes. Try it! Sold at wholesale and retail by J. & E. WALKER, Druggists.

Corner Merrimack and John sts.

CAMPHOR PINS.—A new lot come very fine, at 6 cents per paper, at the Lowell Drug Store.

SHAKSPEARE HERBS.—A fresh supply received by J. & E. WALKER, Druggists, Corner of Merrimack and John sts. Also, Cologne and Florida Water.

BOOK BINDERY.

E DWIN MARSH, Book Binder, No. 3 Merrimack Block, (up stairs,) Lowell.

THE NEW HOME SALVE.

Is a sure remedy for all burning and Scalding, Cuts, Bruises, &c. &c. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by CARTER, Druggist, Merrimack st.

BADGES.—Low prices for Badges from 1 to 50 cents for the day or for the best quality by Lowell, Lawrence, Nashua and Manchester Companies. For sale by SAYERS, 49 Central st.

ZEBRIDE COLOGNE.—A delightful perfume, for sale by CARTER, Druggist, Merrimack st.

PINE APPLE CHEESE from Portland, Pumpkin and Squash Pies.

H. CHASE & CO.

SPECTACLES AND EYEGLASSES.

GOLD SPECTACLES.

THE Subscriber has received, at 49 Central st., a large assortment of GOLD SPECTACLES, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Also, a large assortment of Silver and Steel Spectacles and Eyeglasses, Gold Pencils, Pencil Cases, Pocket Rules, Pocket Books, Portmonnaies, Port Gilles Pens, Pocket Knives, Razors, &c. &c.

FRIED OLD ENGLISH CHEESE.

W HITE FRYING—Oysters fried from the best of English Cheese manufactured in the country, for sale at the Lowell Drug Store.

WATSON & SALISBURY.

BEAUTIFUL DWELLING HOUSE FOR SALE.

A BEAUTIFUL DWELLING HOUSE, with all the modern improvements, situated on Andover street, about one mile from the Depot, will be sold at a bargain. Inquire of the subscriber on the premises.

JOHN WOODLEY.

Lowell, Aug. 19, 1853. 3m

BISS S. FLETCHER,

FEMALE PHYSICIAN.

MAY be consulted at her rooms, 118 Merrimack street. She will cure Deafness, and improve of Sight in a few days, by the use of Dr. Peirson's Improved Eye Waters. Also, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Paralysis of ELECTRICITY, in its application to the human system, successfully administered by the undersigned. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. Lowell, July 1, 1853. 3m

NEW BOOKS.—For sale by WATSON & SALISBURY, Corner of Merrimack and Prescott sts. Also, a variety of Stationery, Pens, Pencils, &c. &c. Lowell, Sept. 17, 1853.

SODA WATER, with CHOICE SYRUPS, similar to C. O. D. at CARTER'S, corner Elm and Merrimack sts.

CLARK'S SHERRY WINE BITTERS—For sale by A. P. SMITH, Druggist, Lowell.

K Kennedy's Medical Discovery, Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Prescription, for sale by S. SIMONDS, 47 Central, corner Market st.

DOMINOES AND GAMES BOARDS.—A large assortment. H. WOOD, Boston st.

EXTRA NEW BUCK WHEAT FLOUR.

N EW BUCK WHEAT FLOUR. H. WOOD, Boston st.

NEW BUCK WHEAT FLOUR.—FRESH GROUND, for sale by WATSON & SALISBURY, Corner of Merrimack and Prescott sts.

NEW BUCK WHEAT FLOUR.—FRESH GROUND, for sale by WATSON & SALISBURY, Corner of Merrimack and Prescott sts.

THE PHYSICIANS.—Bidwell, Bartlett and Davis' Medicines, for sale by S. SIMONDS, 47 Central, corner Market st.

SHOP TO LET, the adjoining Grocery, also Neutral Seats, Apply to H. WOOD, Boston st.

WOOD SAWED, SPLIT AND PILED.

THE Subscriber, having purchased the Steam Saw Mill, formerly owned by Messrs. Fisher & Bancroft, is now prepared to saw Wood, Boards, Shingles, &c. &c. Orders left at the Mill will be promptly attended to. Wood delivered in any part of the city. JOSEPH BRIGGS.

Lowell, April 16, 1853.

NEW BOOKS.—Uncle Sam's Palace, or the Reign of Gold, by Rev. Edward Beecher, D. D. Also, Lectures to Young Men, by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. Just received at WATSON & SALISBURY'S, Corner of Merrimack and Prescott sts.

DR. BLAKE'S AROMATIC BITTERS are a sure cure for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervousness of the Liver, Fever and Ague, and all Bilious complaints. They are a pleasant tonic, and will not intoxicate. Physicians recommend them in preference to any other bitters. Sold by all Druggists and Country Dealers. Manufactured by JOHN A. BLAKE, Chemist, Lowell, Mass. Sold by CARTER & SOYES, Druggists, Merrimack st.

LOOK OUT FOR FIRE.

I would call the attention of the public to a SAFE of the most secure against the ravages of Fire. They can be seen at my Store, No. 3 Merrimack Block, where I am now receiving a large assortment of Merchandise to Sales and Retail. Also, Agent for the New York Mutual Insurance Co. JOHN WOODLEY.

Lowell, May 18, 1853. 1y

PLOUGHS! PLOUGHS!

I would call the attention of my many friends and the public generally to my large assortment of PLOUGHS, at the Factory, Middle street, and at the extensive assortment at the Agricultural Warehouse, No. 3 Merrimack Block, where I am now receiving a large assortment of Merchandise to Sales and Retail. Also, Agent for the New York Mutual Insurance Co. JOHN WOODLEY.

Lowell, May 18, 1853. 1y

GOLD PENS.

THE subscriber has just added to his former large stock of Gold Pens, a fresh supply of the most approved kinds, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Persons about to purchase Gold Pens will find it for their interest to call at the Variety Store, No. 3 Merrimack Block, where they are warranted to suit every description of penmanship. Also, a large assortment of Pencil Cases, Pocket Rules, Pocket Books, Portmonnaies, Port Gilles Pens, Pocket Knives, Razors, &c. &c. JOHN WOODLEY.

Lowell, Sept. 17, 1853.

were on. The tide of public opinion and of public honor is on the turn. Loyalty to Great Britain is on the rise.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Concord, Saturday, October 18, 1856.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

EMORY WASHBURN,

OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,

WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,

OF ADAMS.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE TO CONGRESS,

GEORGE O. BRASTOW, of Framingham.
WINTHROP P. FAULKNER, of Acton.
F. O. PRINCE, of Winchester.
GEORGE O. BRASTOW, of Somerville.
PETER LAWSON, of Dracut.

ELECTION.....MONDAY, NOV. 14.

Hosea's Invisible World Displayed"—Correspondence of Three Generations—Great Excitement—Letter from Gov. Phips—Letter from Increase Mather.

"Hosea's Invisible World Displayed," was the title of an old dog-eared and mysterious-looking book, containing many useful and hair-standing superstitions; on demonology, witchcraft, sorcery, magic, and the communion of man with spirits, evil, good and devil[e]—And since, in the present crisis, we are to insist on the development of party-witchcraft, necromancy, diabolism, sorcery, imposture, pig-law, and nonpsense, we have thought it not unfit to be a part of the caption thereto.

The present runaway in the Locofocal post-office has roused more bobbish in this city than was ever superintended since the first erection of this earthly mausoleum of words; pattiers running and galloping on hacks, fast and all rush, to procure a chance to serve their country. No man knows whether this is a city or a bedlam.—Scarcely had the breath of the late postmaster's ordure set his eyes, as a telegraphic despatch brought Paul R. George to Locofocal post-haste; and on the following night Paul, Esquire, Dodge, (Kansai Ben, we mean,) well-buried in disguised cape and furs, were seen winding their way into a cellar kept by Capt. ——, where, with small beer and lemonade, they held their odd-night council, laying plans to secure the vacant office to the ex-sheriff, Hildreth.—The council of political brigands,—this colony of disinterested souls, ended its plan to send Paul to Washington with all despatch, there to "pull the wires" for the redoubtable Hildreth. Before daylight, this plan had become nearly cured; and while the city was yet silent as a fashion dance, and before yellow lamp-light had faded into the grey of morning, the odoryed scout; Paul—the figure without whom no pitch could succeed, was by the lakeside, on his way for the White House; and once Fisher went home to bed—but not to sleep.

On Monday following—the proposal to call a meeting of the city committee; but Fisher strenuously protested against their meeting.—In spite of Fisher, however, the committee met, and the art of tongue-lease was practised with great success.—"Closing" is certainly a great accomplishment. Whereas men once fought manfully in the battle-field, they now fight tragically in the light field. Cursing and gouging of brass make a powerful show in the meantime;—talking in a caucus is the moral-sublime of political wire-pulling. Pistol-shot has given way to brass-shot.—But, to our story.—Now, it was proposed in committee to ballot for candidates, the being in the interest of his brother-in-law Hildreth, who knows his own unpopularity with his party, and only desired better, sense, and with an hypocritical whine, requested, as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased, that no ballots should at that time be taken. So gullible were the assembled cuckoos, the deceitful bait took; and the committee adjourned one day, without taking action on the vacancy. The aspiring candidates are thus thrown in their own merits and talents for "managing." A word or two on two or three of the candidates, and we have done.

The democratic committee being removed by act of God, we naturally turn to the chief check—Mr Levi Hedge. Mr Hedge is postmaster pro tem; and perhaps always will be, pro public interest. So while "well-framed legislate hold habbah," it would not surprise us if our friend Hedge should be of the opinion, "There is a long chapter of chances, by either of which Fisher, his principal competitor, may get "floored," and Levi become a "long man." One thing, however, is certain—if Levi or any other aspirant cannot, by fair means, be ruffled as a cock-turkey in Autumn." But enough of Levi—

Next to Hedge, may be reckoned Hildreth himself. Having, after competition in April last, kindly withdrawn from the race in favor

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. MONDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 17, 1853. NO 4197

DR. SIM'S True Verbena Water.

THIS delightful preparation is obtained by chemical process from the best lemon juice.

LEMON PRINCIPLE.

Is confidently recommended to the ladies as producing, when used in the bath, a delightful softness and clearness of the skin, and as a most refreshing perfume for the handkerchief, and for removing the headache, languor, and nervousness, so often felt in crowded assemblies and in the heated season. For sale by the proprietor at the Apothecaries' Hall, No. 2 Tremont Row, Boston, and by druggists generally.

BETTER THAN EVER.

This very superior Hair Dye is now offered to the public, and it is confidently asserted that it is the best article ever manufactured. It is perfectly harmless, and will not injure the hair in the slightest degree, but will leave it soft and beautiful. For sale by all druggists.

Price 50 cents. 10 Middle street.

BOSTON TICE MANUFACTORY,

No. 6 Sudbury st., Boston,

Entrance from 107 Hanover st., or 272 Commercial st.

Warranted superior to any imported. Orders from Marble Workers solicited, which will be executed with promptness and despatch.

No pains saved to please purchasers.

JOHN WOOLLEY, Agent.

Boston, Aug. 29, 1853. 3m

NEW AND NEAT!

These CLOTHES just cleaned and pressed at the STEAM DYE HOUSE, No. 6 MIDDLE ST., Corner of Merrimack and John sts.

Where they will be happy to see the ones that have favored them with their patronage, and as many more as will favor them with a call.

Lowell, Sept. 10, 1853. eod

FALL AND WINTER STOCKS FITTED

AT

CLOTHING AND CLOTHING GOODS.

WILLIAM H. HOOKER, No. 3 Merrimack Square, would respectfully inform his friends and customers that he has just returned from New York with a large and well selected stock of Ready-Made Clothing, Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, Trunks, Valises, Carpet Bags, Umbrellas, Canes, Gloves, Hosiery, Suspenders, Neck Ties, Shirts, Collars, Bosoms, Drawers, Undershirts, &c., &c., all of which he will dispose of at the lowest possible prices.

Lowell, Sept. 10, 1853. eod3m

Gentlemen's Furnishing Store.

JOSEPH T. JANES,

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in every variety of GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS,

HATS, CAPS, UMBRELLAS, PERFUMERY, &c.,&c.

No. 24 Merrimack street,

Over Hale Bradley, LOWELL.

sept13 dtw

TEAS.

25 Pekoe TEAS—PEKOE for sale at 25 cts. per lb. Pekoe TEAS—PEKOE for sale at 25 cts. per lb. Pekoe TEAS—PEKOE for sale at 25 cts. per lb.

This is a superior article, and is recommended to families who want a good tea. Also, Young Hyson, Oolong, Souchong, Gunpowder, Imperial, and Hyson Teas, of all grades, for sale by AMERICAN AND FOREIGN CHRISTIAN UNION, 121 Nassau st., New York.

Lowell, Sept. 10, 1853. 3m A. WHITNEY.

SPALDING'S ROSEMARY AND CANTON SOAP—Unsurpassed for preserving the Hair, and as an article for the Toilet.

For sale by CARNEY, Apothecary, Corner Merrimack and John sts.

NEW SCHEME!!!—Only 5 cents. For the beautiful estate, 50 feet by CARNEY, Apothecary, Corner Merrimack and John sts.

POLISHING POWDER—A superior article for polishing Silver, Britannia, Tin, and Plated Ware, for sale by JOSEPH BAYNES, at his Jewelry Store, old stand.

sept10 Corner of Central and Market sts.

HAIR RESTORER, BOSOM PINS, RINGS, &c.—A LARGE assortment of Jewelry Goods, for sale by A. Lowell, and will be sold cheap for Cash, at 342 Essex st., Lawrence. Also, Gold Pens and Pencils, Silver Pencils, Pens and Holders for sale.

sept17 eod1m

LADD'S ROOT AND HERB BITTERS—For sale at wholesale and retail at the Manufacturer's prices by H. RIDER, Jr.,

sept7 corner of Merrimack and John sts.

VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM—This is a safe and reliable remedy for Coughs, Colds, for sale by CARNEY, Apothecary, Corner Merrimack and John sts.

FRENCH SHIRT BOSOMS.

Plaited, Ruffled, and Gentlemen's Dress Shirts. Please patronize me! I received at WM. F. SHAZEEN.

sept10 Corner of Central and Market sts.

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY for the Speedy Cure of Pimples, for sale by H. RIDER, Jr., Merrimack, cor. John st.

sept6

FISH MARKET.

THE subscriber would inform the public that he has recently taken the stand in the FISH MARKET in the basement of Huntington Building, on Merrimack street, where he will keep constantly on hand a supply of Fresh and Salt FISH, and OYSTERS. Also, Fish will be delivered to any part of the city. Give me a call and try for yourself and see how you like the new place.

sept10 eodtf BENJAMIN HOWE.

RETURNED FROM GREAT SALT LAKE VALLEY.

WILDER LEWIS would inform his friends and the public that he has frequently received, and still continues to receive, from the Great Salt Lake Valley, the Gold Dust, which he has for sale, and for which he will pay the highest price in cash, and has imported the following articles, which he will sell at the lowest prices for Gold Dust or Cash:

Gold Dust Scales and Weights, Assay Crucibles, Gold Pens, Gold Pencils, Gold Chains, Gold Lockets, Gold Rings, Gold Bracelets, Gold Sleeve Buttons, Gold Studs, Gold Pins, Gold Thimbles, Gold Spectacles, Silver Spectacles, Silver Pencils, Silver Pens, Silver Spoons, Silver Forks, Silver Thimbles, Silver Watches, Silver Chains, Silver Keys, Silver Seals, Silver Pencil Cases, Silver Pen Holders, Silver Sleeve Buttons, Silver Studs, Silver Pins, Silver Rings, Silver Bracelets, Silver Lockets, Silver Combs, Silver Fruit Knives, Silver Tea Spoons, Silver Table Spoons, Silver Soup Ladles, Silver Butter Knives, Silver Sugar Tongs, Silver Pie Knives, Silver Cake Baskets, Silver Fruit Baskets, Silver Pitchers, Silver Goblets, Silver Tea Sets, Silver Castors, Silver Cups, Silver Mugs, Silver Salts, Silver Pepper Boxes, Silver Mustard Pots, Silver Egg Stands, Silver Napkin Rings, Silver Tea Kettles, Silver Coffee Pots, Silver Waiters, Silver Trays, Silver Spittoons, Silver Candlesticks, Silver Snuffers, Silver Snuff Boxes, Silver Shoe Buckles, Silver Knee Buckles, Silver Garter Buckles, Silver Suspender Buckles, Silver Shoe Horns, Silver Tobacco Boxes, Silver Cigar Cases, Silver Pocket Books, Silver Purses, Silver Card Cases, Silver Pocket Knives, Silver Dirks, Silver Bowie Knives, Silver Pistols, Silver Canes, Silver Whistles, Silver Fans, Silver Opera Glasses, Silver Telescopes, Silver Compasses, Silver Thermometers, Silver Barometers, Silver Watch Keys, Silver Watch Chains, Silver Watch Guards, Silver Watch Seals, Silver Watch Stands, Silver Watch Cases, Silver Watch Crystals, Silver Watch Hands, Silver Watch Dials, Silver Watch Movements, Silver Watch Springs, Silver Watch Pinions, Silver Watch Wheels, Silver Watch Jewels, Silver Watch Screws, Silver Watch Glasses, Silver Watch Pendants, Silver Watch Bows, Silver Watch Bow Rings, Silver Watch Bow Screws, Silver Watch Bow Springs, Silver Watch Bow Pins, Silver Watch Bow Nuts, Silver Watch Bow Washers, Silver Watch Bow Springs, Silver Watch Bow Pins, Silver Watch Bow Nuts, Silver Watch Bow Washers.

WILDER LEWIS,

No. 2 Merrimack Square, Lowell.

sept10 eodtf

RISE A. FLETCHER,

FEMALE PHYSICIAN,

Will be found at her rooms, No. 11 Middle st., Lowell, Mass., where she may be consulted in relation to all diseases peculiar to females. Miss F. will also be happy to meet the married ladies of Lowell, at her rooms, on Tuesday and Friday afternoons, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

sept10 eod3m

NEW BOOKS.—For sale by WATSON & SAWYER, 3 Merrimack st., Lowell, and Portsmouth, N. H. Today's Era, by Prof. Benjamin Silliman, in two volumes, 12mo.

A Discourse on Domestic Economy, by Henry T. Tuckerman. Ideal for the Nursery.

Lectures on the Science of Architecture, for the use of Artisans, Students, and Amateurs, delivered by John Ruskin, author of "Modern Painters."

sept10

ZINC PAINT

REDUCED 33½ PER CENT! Issued in Tremont Oil, in all the various tints, is constantly on hand and for sale by sept10 eod3m WM. F. SHAZEEN.

NEW BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—A supply of the above article just received and for sale by BLANCHARD & UNDERWOOD.

sept10

JUST RECEIVED, per steamer ATLANTIC, a fresh supply of

WATSON'S VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM,

A RECOMMENDATION FOR EACH BOTTLE.

Also, WATSON'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS, for sale by the Agents, WATSON & SAWYER, 3 Merrimack st., Lowell, and Portsmouth, N. H.

sept10

TUTTLE'S TETH DE TOUTHACHE.—The most powerful remedy for the most terrible pain with which mankind are afflicted. Only 25 cents a bottle. Sold by druggists and apothecaries. TO BE had of them.

sept10 eod3m

BOSWORTH AND CASTOR OIL—A fresh supply received this day at the apothecary store of sept10 H. Merrimack street.

CURATIVE POMADE—A beautiful article for the hair—put up in a very neat manner, for sale by sept10 CARNEY, Apothecary.

NEW HOWE HAT.

THE subscriber has received from Brighton, the new HOWE HAT.

sept10 J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries.

ARNICA—For sudden and severe Injuries, I do not know of any thing to be used internally or externally that will heal more rapidly than this. For sale by CARNEY, Apothecary.

ZADOC'S COLOGNE—The celebrated article, for sale by CARNEY, Apothecary.

sept10

RING AND CHAIN, from Somerby Premium Factory, for sale by sept10 JOSEPH BAYNES.

GOLD SPECTACLES.

THE subscriber has just received a fine assortment of the above articles, which will be sold at the lowest prices. Also, a fine assortment of Silver Spectacles, and Silver Pencils, Pens and Holders, for sale by sept10 JOSEPH BAYNES.

JUST PUBLISHED, and for sale by JAMES FRENCH & CO., 178 Washington st., Boston, and by booksellers generally throughout the country, a new work, entitled

THE CHRISTIAN'S HOME IN HEAVEN.

By Rev. Edward Payson, D. D., late pastor of the Second Congregational Church, Portland, Me.

sept10 eod3m

A BEAUTIFUL RESIDENCE

FOR SALE.

THE subscriber will sell his house and lot of land, situated on Pawtucket street, containing about 10,000 feet of land, with a large number of fruit trees in full bearing. The house is in thorough repair, in the modern style, and contains all the conveniences for a small family. Also, a good stable, with a carriage house attached, and room to accommodate two horses. The above property will be sold low, and terms made easy. Any one wishing to purchase will do well to call and examine the premises, as the subscriber is determined to sell. Inquire of the subscriber, on the premises.

Lowell, 20th May, 1853. JOHN P. ADOLPH.

TWO HORSES FOR SALE.

A private individual, living in the country, will offer for sale two Horses, one a Bay Mare, 7 years old, weighs 1100 lbs., and is sound and kind in every respect, and is a lady's horse. The other is a Bay Horse, 6 years old, weighs 1200 lbs., and is sound and kind in every respect, and is a good family horse. Both of the above horses can be seen at the stable of Mr. Joseph Bailey, Tyler street, Lowell.

sept10 eod3m

TWO HORSES FOR SALE.

A private individual, living in the country, will offer for sale two Horses, one a Bay Mare, 7 years old, weighs 1100 lbs., and is sound and kind in every respect, and is a lady's horse. The other is a Bay Horse, 6 years old, weighs 1200 lbs., and is sound and kind in every respect, and is a good family horse. Both of the above horses can be seen at the stable of Mr. Joseph Bailey, Tyler street, Lowell.

sept10 eod3m

OFFICES TO LET.

Two pleasant and convenient Offices on the corner of Central and Prescott sts., will be rent low. Apply at sept17 eodtf Apothecaries.

TO LET.

Two convenient Tenements in Centreville. Apply at No. 5 Prescott street.

sept17 eodtf

STORE TO LET.

The old and well known stand now occupied by Mr. Wm. Hall, Jr., will be vacated on the 1st of October next. Inquire of sept17 eodtf WM. HALL, Jr.

STORE TO LET.

In the new block now building in Lowell, No. 36 Merrimack street, corner of Bridge st. Apply to aug 4, 1853. dtf A. WHITNEY.

PARMS FOR SALE.

The subscriber is agent to sell several Farms, at Ipswich, Essex, Hamilton, and other towns. Also, a Cottage House in Lowell.

sept10 eodtf H. G. P. COLLINS.

MACHINE SHOP TO LET.

TO let for the unexpired term of a year, the building on Jackson street, formerly occupied by Messrs. Bowers & Hoadley Shop. There is an Engine of 40 horse power in the building, which will be let with the shop if desired. Apply to the subscriber, or to Messrs. Bowers & Hoadley.

sept10 eodtf WILLIAM BRYANT & CO.

WELLES BLOCK.

To be let, the 4th story of the Welles Block, and the Counting and wholesale rooms on the 3d story. Also, the Basement Store, now occupied by Messrs. Hall & Allen. Apply to sept10 eodtf L. B. MARCHIS & CO., Proprietors.

LAND NEAR LOWELL FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale a small piece of Land for his retirement and shady situation for building. Inquire of the subscriber, on the premises, on Pawtucket street.

sept10 eodtf H. G. P. COLLINS, 49 Central street.

Lowell, April 1, 1853. dtf

DRUG STORE FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale his entire Drug, Paint, Oil, Dye Stuffs, &c., of the best selection and quality, with the fixtures, &c., of his store, which will be sold low for cash. Apply at the store.

sept10 eodtf

BRIGHT & CARTER,

BEEF, PORK, LARD, HAM, POULTRY, BUTTER, VEGETABLES, &c.

THE subscribers, feeling grateful for the patronage they have received from the public, would inform them that their Market will be at their old stand, where they will be happy to wait on their customers.

sept. 3. All orders promptly attended to.

JOSEPH BRIGHT.

JOHN CARTER.

Lowell, April 19, 1853. dtf

NEW DRUG STORE.

THE subscriber would inform the citizens of his native town and the public in general, that he has opened a new Drug Store in the old and well known stand on the corner of Central and Prescott streets, where he will be happy to wait on his friends and customers.

He trusts that his past experience in the business will enable him to give satisfaction to those who may favor him with their patronage. He will keep constantly on hand the Medical Dentistry, and a share of the patronage of the public is solicited.

sept10 eodtf JOSEPH BAYNES.

PORTRAITS OF EMINENT AMERICANS.

BY HENRY T. TUCKERMAN.

A series of their lives and actions. By John Lloyd Stephens, Hon. Edward Everett, Washington Irving, Hon. Daniel Webster, Hon. Henry Clay, Hon. John Quincy Adams, Commodore Perry, Commodore Decatur, Commodore Bainbridge, Commodore Hull, Commodore Porter, and Commodore Jones. Illustrated with splendid steel engravings. Just published and for sale by sept10 JAMES FRENCH & CO., 178 Washington st., Boston.

ENGRAVING AND COPPER-PLATE PRINTING.

The subscriber respectfully informs her friends and the public that she has taken the rooms over the store of Messrs. Bowers & Hoadley, where all orders for ENGRAVING and COPPER-PLATE PRINTING will be promptly executed.

sept10 eodtf MARY E. WEAVER.

FAMILY MEDICINE STORE.

THE subscriber has recently improved his store and added to his stock a large assortment of Medicines, Chemicals, Perfumery, Fancy Goods, Toilet Preparations, put up of the best quality, and Proprietary Medicines, which he will sell at the lowest prices. Physicians and families will find it for their interest to call and examine before purchasing, as much responsibility will be attached to sept10 eodtf JOSEPH BAYNES.

PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTIONS,

Or any remedies in whatever they may want, with as much care as at any store in the city.

sept10 eodtf JOSEPH BAYNES.

FANCY GOODS, TOILET ARTICLES, and PERFUMERY, which we will not name, in order to make room for a large stock we are expecting to receive in a few days, can be found at the popular PATENT MEDICINE STORE of

C. G. SWEETSER'S & CO., Apothecaries, sept10 WYMAN'S EXCHANGE, LOWELL.

FEMALES.

This destructive is based on the fact that it will cure more than nine cases in a time of any previous discovery, EACH, or

Female Complaints,

and is composed of the most concentrated Principles of all remedies, in a manner that will not destroy the stomach, but will act on the female family in fact. It has already received the approbation of thousands of females, and the most eminent members of the Medical Faculty in the United States, willing to abide the test, and having the regret for the past, that they have not used it in their practice. Any one wishing to test the efficacy of it can obtain a BOTTLE OF IT, FREE OF CHARGE, by calling at the office of the Agent, where they can see the Certificates of Ladies and Physicians in respectively served.

The Female Destructive is highly introduced by many popular Physicians, and in fact it is deemed by the most popular popularity shall be sustained by any matters but the Female Destructive. Those who have used it, say it is a "sure cure" and "no disappointment."

Sold by the Agent, at No. 3 Merrimack square, Lowell, Mass. Aug 5, 1853. dtf A. WHITNEY.

DR. MORSE'S

INVIGORATING

CORDIAL.

A FRESHNESS IN MEDICINE.

PROFESSOR MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR.

The Eighth Wonder of the Botanic World.

The Invigorating Cordial is a vegetable preparation, and has been brought with the greatest care and attention to its present perfection. It is a sure and safe remedy for the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervousness, Debility, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Piles, Fevers and Intermittents, Rheumatism, &c., and all diseases arising from a disordered stomach or impure blood.

CURES OF NERVOUS DISEASES.

Dr. Morse's Invigorating Cordial is the most wonderful and valuable medicine ever discovered in the world. It is the only medicine that will cure Nervousness, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Piles, Fevers and Intermittents, Rheumatism, &c., and all diseases arising from a disordered stomach or impure blood. It is the only medicine that will cure Nervousness, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Piles, Fevers and Intermittents, Rheumatism, &c., and all diseases arising from a disordered stomach or impure blood. It is the only medicine that will cure Nervousness, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Piles, Fevers and Intermittents, Rheumatism, &c., and all diseases arising from a disordered stomach or impure blood.

Dr. Morse's Invigorating Cordial is the most wonderful and valuable medicine ever discovered in the world in Raphael's heads, or perform its highest, and most difficult duties. Its [illegible] and [illegible] are [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

REMOVAL.

WATSON'S REMEDY!

HAVE removed from Merrimack Building to my new store, No. 2 Merrimack Square, where I shall be happy to see my old customers and friends.

WATSON'S NERVOUSNESS AND DEBILITY REMEDY

Is a sure cure for Nervousness, Debility, Sleeplessness, Dyspepsia, Impotency, Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Discharges, Impaired Memory, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Pain in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Loss of Power, Hysterics, Irritability, Depression, Wakefulness, Aversion to Society, Confusion of Ideas, Timidity, Trembling, Dizziness, Nervous Headache, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Universal Prostration and Inability to Perform the Marriage Duties, Impure State of the Blood, Wasting of the Frame, Diseases of the Kidneys, Blotches on the Face, Disease of the Bladder, Nervous Irritability, Seminal Emissions, Sexual Debility, Hypochondria, Sorrow, Gloomy Forebodings end of the wine-growing countries generally. Since a succession of bad seasons, however, there is a perceptible diminution in the annual yield of wine. It is true that it is very rare to see a vine absolutely sunk; but it is not uncommon to see those who have drunk more than is good for them. As a matter of course, where excess is indulged, the constant use of wine is considered by many as conducive to health and good morals; as beneficial from the febrile and inflammatory state of the system to which it leads, and to good digestion from their artificial activity of temper and quarrelsome mood which it induces. If the proportion of the cases of delirium tremens in the London hospitals which occur in or among wine-shops could be known, I have no question that it would furnish a strong fact from which to point the exhortations of a temperance lecturer. There is an added complication in the adulteration of wine, from the nature of the usual food of the common people. This, being principally vegetable, does not, especially in cold weather, supply the waste of nervous energy; but liquors, even when the appetite is satisfied, a certain dull, and indefinable craving, like being filled but not fed. We have often seen the sense of fatness and inertness by the mercenary glow and fluidity it gives to the languid blood; but the relief thus derived is like the heat of a fire of thorns, and there is thus constant inducement to repeat and increase the remedy. If the common people of Rome and its neighborhood could eat more meat and would drink less wine, there is little question that their health and morals would be the better for the change

Daily Journal & Courier

Lowell, Tuesday, October 18, 1853

WING NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
EMORY WASHBURN,
OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,
OF ADAMS.

SENATORS FOR MIDDLESEX COUNTY,
G. WASHINGTON WARREN, of Charlestown.
LORENZO RABINE, of Framingham,
WINTHROP L. FAULKNER, of Acton,
P. G. PRINCE, of Winchester,
GEORGE A. BRASTOW, of Somerville,
PETER LAWSON, of Dracut.

ELECTION.....MONDAY, NOV. 14.

The Tariff—How shall it be Changed?

Secretary Guthrie has issued a circular, in which he says that in consequence of the accumulation of the public money in the receiving Congress will probably enlarge the present tariff. The following is his circular

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, }
September 20th, 1853. }

SIR:—The increasing revenue and accumulating amount of money in the Treasury, render it most probable that the tariff of 1846 will be made a prominent subject of discussion and examination with a view to modification, during the approaching session of Congress. In the meantime, and at as early a day as may be, I am desirous to obtain from the most reliable sources, the best information of the working of the present rates of duty upon the leading branches of industry of the country, and of the effect to be expected from the proposed modifications. I shall rely with confidence on you to take an interest in the subject, and have given some attention to it, and perhaps have in the circumstances placed within your reach very valuable information, you will doubtless agree with me in considering it this Department your views thereon, and by furnishing the facts of which you may be cognizant to duty, which, according to such views, should be duty free, and of such articles or kinds upon which present duty should be reduced.

The existing tariff has been very much designed generally and substantially for revenue, and for a fair and equal protection both between the various sections of the country, and the various branches of industry, the same should be carefully understood by the people, and the reduction, if any, should be so arranged as to afford an equal participation in the benefit to each section, and to every industry. Articles which enter into our manufactures and those which do not come into competition with American products, are those about which there will be doubtless the least question. He also suggests to abridge the duties of the custom house by adding to the free list articles of general consumption and articles paying little duty. The plan proposed by the Secretary is substantially consonant with the most ultra-protectionist principles, and furnishes a very pertinent illustration of the manner in which democrats sometimes steal whig "thunder."

The returns for the year ending the 30th of June last, have been so far made as to give us an approximate statement of the imports and revenue for the year. Our imports for the year amounted to $261,000,000, and our revenue from this source to $58,000,000. The revenues from public lands and other sources, swell the amount to $61,000,000. It also appears that there is now in the Treasury a surplus of some $30,000,000, and this surplus is on the increase.

These facts furnish no abundant matter for reflection. Whether we can afford to pay for such heavy appropriations is a question of the greatest magnitude.

Moreover, under our present unfortunate system there is another important consideration which calls for the consideration of Congress on this subject. The $30,000,000 of surplus is taken from the circulating medium, and is locked up where it is as useless as the talent of the unprofitable servant hid in the earth. But this is not the whole extent of the difficulty. On our present tariff system in this State, our bills in circulation are sixfold greater than the specie in the vaults of the banks. On this proportion, the $30,000,000 of surplus in the vaults of the sub-treasury, actually deprives the people of the United States of a circulation equal to $180,000,000. This vast contraction of specie in the treasury is undoubtedly one cause of the scarcity of money. We are now prosecuting in the world the strange opposite of paying a high premium for the use of money, in consequence of the vast increase of the precious metals!

Our imports for the last year are in round numbers, $61,000,000, more than they were the preceding year. The large increase of gold from California and Australia will swell us but little, if we are to send the greater part of it out of the country.

It is plain, then, from all these facts, that the whole question of the tariff is again directly before the country, and we believe that the question of protection or no protection will ever again be agitated as it has been in previous times, or that it will ever again materially influence another Presidential election—for we believe it will not—but the attention of Congress being again called to a revision of the tariff, a thorough discussion of the matter will very generally result in a liberalization of the tariff, many duties may be expected, from a spirit of compromise, to be reduced, and many articles will receive incidental protection. But such are our views, we were such the opinions of even so staunch a protectionist as HENRY CLAY, in his later years. We favora protective tariff, and in framing one on which the Atlantic model, money were not without a strong protection, that the report had its foundation in stock-jobbing speculations. The next steamer will, no doubt, bring information which will relieve the question of all uncertainty.

CITY MATTERS.

NOTICE.

The Whig Central Committee are requested that there be a regular adjourned meeting of the Committee on WEDNESDAY EVENING, Oct. 19th, at 7 o'clock. A punctual attendance is requested. Per order,
LOWELL, Oct. 18, 1853. Sec.

TAKE YOUR TICKETS. Tickets for Mr Chinery's Benefit Lecture are now on sale, in the hands of the Committee of Arrangements. The Lecture will take place next Wednesday evening, in Huntington Hall.

Mr Chinery has suggested that the military and firemen attending the Levee appear in uniform.

☞ Dr Boynton's lecture, last evening, was listened to with the most perfect attention by a very large audience, in Jackson Hall. The interest in his lectures is constantly increasing—The Hamburg Band, George Nichols, from Navy Bay for Cienfuegos, was recently picked up at sea with captain and all hands dead, except the mate, and the cook. The vessel was carried into New Orleans.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF. Some scoundrel entered the premises of J. D. Prince, jr., Esq., on Sunday night, and destroyed two very fine and highly prized rose-bushes. A reward of five dollars will be offered for the detection of the perpetrator of the outrage.

APPOINTMENTS—OFFICE MAKES. Since the appointment of Hildreth to the Lowell Custom-office, it behooves the President, in conformity to the systematic policy of preserving a due balance between the "hards" and the "softs," to appoint Hon. I. W. Beard to the office of Naval Storekeeper.

☞ Mr. Beard has been appointed Sub-Treas'r.

NOW AGAIN WE'VE HAVE A POSTMASTER AMONG US. Mr. Hildreth has been appointed Postmaster for the city, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the decease of Mr. Dennis. Mr. Hildreth would be

REMOVAL.

WATSON & SERGEANT

HAVE removed from Merrimack's Building to one of the new stores in the Old One Hall Building, one door from Merrimack street, where they have for sale a large and well assorted stock of

BOOKS, BLANK BOOKS, STATIONERY AND FANCY GOODS,

AT WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

New and valuable books received as soon as published. Orders for books not in stock promptly attended to. Strictly one price.

Bibles—Quarto, Family, and all the smaller sizes, with and without clasps.

Testaments—Diamond, Pocket, Sunday School and Family, with and without clasps.

Prayer Books—Episcopal Prayer. The standard editions in Imperial, 8vo., demy, 12mo., & 18mo., and other pocket editions—all sizes and styles of binding.

Hymn Books—Episcopal Hymn Book, English and American. It is our intention to keep a full assortment. Any Book not in stock procured to order.

Periodicals—All the English and American Periodicals supplied regularly as published.

Music—Sheet Music, Music Books, and Musical Instruments kept low prices.

Blank Books—A complete assortment, manufactured by ourselves, under the superintendence of one of the firm, according to directions, at the Exchange Store.

Engraving—Visiting Cards, Wedding Cards, Business Cards, Seals, Dies, Stamps, Door Plates, Name Plates, &c., engraved in the best manner and on the shortest notice.

Printing—Circulars, Bill Heads, Blanks, Programmes, Cards, Pamphlets, Catalogues, Newspapers, &c., executed in the best manner and on the shortest notice.

WATSON & SERGEANT,
Old City Building, Merrimack street.
Lowell, September, 1853. sept6

LOWELL MARBLE WORKS,

Dutton St., near the Merrimack House.

THE proprietor of the above named Works thanks the public for the liberal patronage he has received, and respectfully solicits a large and increased share of the same.

MONUMENTS AND GRAVE STONES

of every description, of the best and cheapest of the best of Scotch and Scientific Marble and Slate Stone, will be furnished at short notice, and warranted to give satisfaction. Orders from abroad promptly executed. Persons wishing to purchase from $10 to $2,000, Also, Marble Mantels, Table Tops, Wash Stands, Centre and Table Tops manufactured at short notice, and Marble Sawing done to order.

IRON FENCE AND GRAVE POSTS, for enclosing Burial Lots in the Cemetery and elsewhere, of New Models and Patterns, in the neighborhood, for sale cheap.

DAVID NICHOLS.
Lowell, May 21, 1853. may21

WINE STORE.

HOLBROOK, BLAKE & WASON,

(successors to CHAMBERLIN & FOSTER,)

No. 181 Merrimack street, Lowell,

Keep constantly on hand and for sale at wholesale and retail, a full assortment of

CHAMPAGNE WINES, BRANDIES, GINS of every variety and brands of WINES, SHANDIES, GINS of every

Also, a full assortment of Cordials, Bitters, &c.

N. B. Orders from the country will receive prompt attention, and goods will be packed in such a manner as to prevent breakage.

Lowell, Aug. 31, 1853. sep1

NOTICE

E. G. & B. GRINER,

WOULD inform the friends and customers of the late firm of E. G. & B. GRINER, that they have returned from JAPAN, to the old stand of E. G. & B. GRINER, No. 3 Merrimack Square, where they will be pleased to see them, and have for sale a full assortment of PAINTS, OILS, WINDOW GLASS, and VARNISHES of all descriptions, viz:

WHITE VARNISH,

For Pictures, Carriages, Furniture, or any other White Paint—an beautiful article, with fine tints.

IRON VARNISH,

Expressly for Iron Work, Fences, Balustrades, &c.

RING PAINT,

A beautiful article for inside or outside Painting.

No skin. SPIRITS TURPENTINE,

Just received and for sale. E. GARDNER,
No. 18 Water st.
Lowell, Aug. 27, 1853. sep27eow

PERRY'S HUNGARIAN BALM.

FOR PRESERVING AND BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR.

FOR giving to the hair a rich and almost supernatural appearance, curing Dandruff and Scaldhead, preventing the hair from falling off, and restoring it to the Many that have become bald.

PRICE 75 CENTS.

Name engraved on the Government Stamp of J. A. PERRY, sole proprietor.

This valuable and wholesome and much to be desired article is now for sale by the following agents in Lowell, viz: Proprietor, No. 1 Harcourt, Boston.

Agents for Lowell—J. C. AYER & CO., Apothecaries; J. C. AYER & Co., C. C. SLEEPER & Co., and by druggists generally. sep21

WE have an excellent article for family use, called the BREAKFAST COFFEE, prepared from the Old Java. It boils clearbee and gives the real Java to the taste. Also, a superior article of spring rye, warranted to keep in any climate.

Our package 12½ cents and one fourth of Coffee.

We have been successful in keeping this article in all climates, and are prepared to furnish it in large or small quantities at the lowest prices.

J. C. AYER & Co., Apothecaries, corner Central and Jackson streets.

GROCERIES! SPECTACLES!!

GOOD Groceries and Spectacles can always be found at the northeast corner of Central and Jackson streets. The subscriber has now on hand a large and well assorted stock of Groceries, which he will sell for cash at the lowest prices. Persons wishing to purchase Groceries for cash will find it for their interest to call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere. Spectacles of every description, suited to the eyes of old or young, can be had at the above store. Remember the place, corner of Central and Jackson streets.

JOHN KNOWLES.
Lowell, Sept. 1, 1853. sep1

WOOD SAWS, Dimond and fluted ready for immediate use. Also, Circular Saws, &c., put on short notice and for sale by JACOB ROGERS, Heritage Block Building, City Square.

sep1

EAU DE COLOGNE.

EAU DE COLOGNE direct from the Importer, for sale by the case or single bottle, at the Drug and Chemical Store of

DAVID NICHOLS.

PLAID DRESS GOODS, &c.

200 PCS. Rich Goods for Dresses, Quilts, &c., only 6 cts. per yard, at the Cheap Store, corner of Central and Merrimack streets, by

E. T. HARDY.

PLAIN ALL WOOL DELAINES.

50 PCS. of Plain All Wool Delaines, for sale at 25 cts. per yard, at the Cheap Store of

E. T. HARDY.

FOOD FOR THE HAIR.—A large assortment of Jayne's Hair Tonic, Hair Dye, Hair Restorative, Hair Vigor, Hair Balsam, Hair Preservative, Hair Dressing, Ringler's Pomade, &c., &c., for sale by CARLETON & HOYEY.

PERFUMERY.

LUBIN'S extracts of Jockey Club, Rondeletia, Patchouli, Bouquet de Millefleurs, Frangipanni, Ess. Bouquet, and Rose Geranium, for sale by CARLETON & HOYEY.

TOILET SOAPS.—Lubin's, Windsor, Brown Windsor, Old Brown Windsor, Military, Honey, Almond, Rose, Palm, Castile, Shaving, Transparent, Glycerine, and Oatmeal, for sale by CARLETON & HOYEY.

EXCELSIOR HAIR DYE!!!

A purely VEGETABLE Preparation for promoting the Growth, Preservation and Beauty of the HAIR.

THE undersigned, RESTORING to the public a preparation for the Hair, which has been long tested, and the result of which has been to restore the hair to its original color. It is warranted to eradicate the Dandruff, prevent Baldness, and promote a new growth of hair. It will restore gray hair to its original color, and prevent it from falling off. It is the best article for curling, restores the nutritious qualities to the hair, removes the roots of which it is composed, and will not, like many others, injure the hair, but will not only bring about all the above results, but will add many years to the life of the hair.

BALDNESS! BALDNESS!!

Should any one desire to see the testimonials of the above facts of beautiful locks, by his make them at the Exchange Store.

FALLING OR LOOSENESS will be cured by the use of this article. It will prove the greatest preparation ever offered to the public. Try it, and be convinced of its merits.

Sold by the Proprietor, at the Exchange Store, Lowell, Mass., and by CARLETON & HOYEY, Lowell; and by druggists generally throughout the country.

DANDRUFF AND SCURF.

This disease of the head is generally the result of a weak state of the system, and, after the use of a few bottles, will be entirely removed by the use of this article. It is warranted to do so, according to directions, at the Exchange Store.

HEADACHE! HEADACHE!!

If you would be relieved of headache, and the gnawing sensation having originated in the stomach, you will be inspired with the everything, infecting or bad and consequently, use of this article. It will relieve you in a few minutes.

CHILDREN.—It may be used upon the heads of children with the happiest effect.

☞ Prepared only by LEONARD & CUNDALL, Drug Druggists and Fancy Chemists, Boston.

Sold by Druggists and Fancy Chemists, Perfumers, &c., throughout the United States and the Canadas.

Sold in Lowell by CARLETON & HOYEY, and by J. C. AYER & CO., CARLETON & HOYEY.

A. KITTREDGE,

MIDDLE STREET,

1500 ROLLS PAPER HANGINGS—just received and for sale at the lowest prices. Also, a large assortment of Window Shades, at new prices.

Also, a large assortment of new styles of Carpets for sale very low. Also, a new lot of Oil Cloths, for sale very cheap in the market. Reference can be had by applying at the store. Also, a new lot of Hair Cloths, for sale low. Carpets and Oil Cloths laid in the best manner. Also, a new lot of Hair Cloths, for sale low. Carpets and Oil Cloths laid in the best manner. Also, a new lot of Hair Cloths, for sale low. Carpets and Oil Cloths laid in the best manner.

REFERENCES.

P. B. Pearson, M. D., Ohio, N. Y.
Dr. Wm. Hall, Ohio, N. Y.
Dr. Wm. Hall, Ohio, N. Y.
Dr. Wm. Hall,

of departure rather than change. This tendency, as it does not describe, will given us speculation enough during the winter.

The Original and Striking, and her theatres, as they do not construct. The cause of Rome, represented by the wiles and graces of Garrick, Siddons, and Kemble, is the heart of England, Shakespeare under the unwritten touch of Kean.

The most graphic description of Russia ever published, and the most accurate of the people and their habits, manners, and character, is the noble production of Laurence Oliphant, a gentleman of fortune, of literary merit to those in which social and works of art are described, [illegible] an eye to [illegible] remarkable alike for the noble generosity of [illegible] groups [illegible] delicate and feminine characters. They exhibit a feeling of strong admiration for the human, and a warm and sympathetic heart, based on a sound judgment and genius so free from prejudice, narrowness, and bitterness as to be thoroughly familiar with the most humbled forms of social life, and yet so loyal to truth and so sensitive to the touch of the modern civilization. The best portrayer of "Cyprian" seem the most natural and spontaneous of the work; those in which the writer cannot conceal itself forth most freely and with the least effort. The warmly sympathetic and feminine nature of Madame de Staël—and though she had masculine powers there never was a more truly feminine nature than hers—ground conspicuously and sympathy; and her genius, various as it was, was never more decidedly and successfully displayed than in painting and analyzing the movements of the human heart and the human mind as modified by the forms and usages of society.

Daily Journal & Courier.

Lowell, Wednesday, October 19, 1853.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

EMORY WASHBURN,

OF WORCESTER.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,

WILLIAM C. PLUNKETT,

OF BOSTON.

SENATORS FOR MIDDLESEX COUNTY,

O. WASHINGTON WARREN, of Charlestown.

LORENZO SABINE, of Framingham,

WINTHROP L. FALKNER, of Acton,

F. O. PRINCE, of Winchester,

GEORGE O. BRASTOW, of Somerville,

PETER HANSON, of Dracut.

ELECTION.....MONDAY, NOV. 14.

The New War in Europe.

Negotiations are useless. War has begun.—Again are the plains of Europe to be dyed with carnage, and the gold of man. The systematic aggressions of the Autocrat Emperor of the North have achieved their premeditated result. War, already rampant in the Principalities, pending the pendulum 'mid armed intervention of Russia, has been formally declared by the Porte, at the suggestion of the Divan; and we are about to witness another of "Those wars that make ambition virtue."

What this shall be, no tongue can tell, no pen indite. Russia has the most physical power on her behalf; Turkey the most justice and God. England has all the wealth. It can scarcely be doubted, that, whether the integrity of the Ottoman Empire be preserved or not, Russia will strengthen herself by the contest—by becoming more familiarized with the use of "quick, prick, pomp and circumstance of glorious war" which she reveals to realize that she is emphatically a power on the earth—as well as by the acquisition of the fleet of wholly athirst, the final ruin and extinction of the Musselman faith.

As to Turkey—her case is truly desperate. Assailed by a power with which she could not in distinct successfully to cope—either approaching—her elder enterprising double-armed fighting—her resources fast exhausting—her finances in a state of the most fearful chaos. Our last hopes are, that she may obtain "indemnity for the past and security for the future"—that she may be able to redress her wrongs by her own right arm; our fears are that the day of her dismemberment draweth nigh.

Meantime, as the war proceeds, (as proceed it now appears it must,) the readers of the Courier may expect all those advantages of receiving the latest and fullest news, which the superior telegraphic arrangements of this paper guarantee. Our Telegraphic head will be put in constant requisition. Have an eye to it daily.

In connection herewith, we make a few brief extracts from the New York Herald. The articles from which we quote, bears internal evidence of having been written by Bennett himself, who has lately returned from Europe, and who, whether a blackguard or not, is certainly one of the most vigorous writers in the country. But to the extracts:—

The first result will be a general European war; and the first division of parties in the struggle will be that of moral sentiment. Russia on the one side, and Turkey, England, France, Denmark, Sweden, Prussia, Belgium, Switzerland, and some of the small States of Germany and Italy on the other side. Spain and Portugal, too, from their state of despotism, may open England and France, may, perhaps, be drawn into an active participation in the general melee. The Czar will move some time or three hundred thousand men into Turkey, from the North, while Austria will be compelled to pour in her auxiliaries from the rear-ward. Prussia, from her evident love of Muscovy, we may expect to see driven to the dangerous duty of standing aloof, against the sympathies of Louis Napoleon. On the other hand, the combined English and French fleets will not only give such defence to Constantinople as may be required, but will sweep the Mediterranean, the Black Sea, and with troops and munitions of war will crush again the Russians to the field. But it is yet too late in the season to detail a fleet of steamers to a special duty of the bombardment of St. Petersburg, and the destruction of the Russian naval force in the Baltic in which work the Dutch, the Swedes, and the Danes would doubtless co-operate most heartily. Simultaneously with these operations, and the passage of a French army across the Rhine into the south German States, and another French column, with its Dutch and German auxiliaries, across the Rhine, on the high road to Vienna.

* * *

What next? The revolutionary elements of Germany, Hungary, and Italy, the debris of the convulsions of 1848-9, will spring up, and play their terrible part in the fearful drama. The high prizes of naval and military promotion of the Czar will lead to many bold manœuvres, and consequents thus to the fierce activities of revolution.

Nor is it likely that the socialists and red republicans, who, they say, despair of all but their wanton against the political despots and civil and military usurpers of Europe, will let the antagonistic religious systems of the continent settle down into a permanent peace, and the old order of the Holy Father, and its spiritual as well as its temporal government be restored to the ancient dominion of the world in this era of growing and sweeping convulsions.

* * *

We can only say that the solution is being developed, which we have long foreseen and announced, which we by slow degrees, but surely, are drawing to a close in the political and religious history of the world, and which will be a blessing or curse from Mediterranean to Christianity—the Turkish power to be the predominating in Asia, in any event.

The rise and fall of England and France, succeeded by Turkey, is, to us, much to prevent the dawning of the morning in the east; a new moment calls upon the eastern governments of Europe and in Asia, and her present crisis all more quickly and decisively than the theory of Jerusalem. This prophecy does not Christ's kingdom, but the substantial existence of the Russian empire and the Russian people. Russia cannot but appear the destined agency of Christianity, before the interpretation of the prophecy need be understood by the many of Christendom, before the independence of the Ottoman power can be finally consummated against the encroachments of Russia.

* * *

Nor can we share in the erroneous opinions that, while all Europe is in a fever of war and revolution, we are to remain in a state of perfect security in the midst of all parties, as in a peaceable experiment with all, of the results of which we are to profit, but in which we are spared our Europe, and it will cross the Atlantic. It will extend to Cuba, it will overflow Mexico, it will be very apt to light again the flames of rebellion in Canada and all the northern British provinces.

For the Journal and Courier.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17, 1853.

MR. EDITOR:—On my arrival here Saturday morning, the 15th inst, I ascertained that the Lowell Post Office master was being discussed. Messrs. Beard and Hildreth were the two prominent candidates. It being understood that they were quite a number of candidates and candidates in the field, and that there was a fair prospect of a fight, the whole city was full of Beard's receiving it as the national candidate. At one time Beard was "sure" and five quarters ahead; but it was finally arranged that Hildreth the Post Office and after Beard something better, in order to induce his friends to withdraw him.

It is due to Mr Beard to state that if he receive anything it will be without his solicitation.

The documents are probably already on their way.

If there is any unusual excitement "no change," on receipt of this news, still the crowd that the administration goes in for harmony; and let them do it if they have'n got harmony enough this time.

Capt. Paul R. George has not been in Washington. Gen. Cushing is here and well, as usual, "chock full of days' works."

Yours Truly, C.

P. S. Since writing the above I have learned that Fisher A. Hildreth, Esq., is in town. He arrived late on Saturday evening, and left Monday at the National. He was Post Master before he left New York.

THE CONDUCT OF ARMS; or, the Great Debate on the Moral Relations of Peace and War. By Edward Beecher, D.D. Published by Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston. For sale by Merrill & Shaw.

Mr. Beecher's attractive volume contains 453 pages, illustrating one of the most debated subjects of discussion—anti-peace. The doctrine of the supremacy of the laws of conservation and preservation of mankind, forms the great characteristics of this masterly work—of the truth of which the discoverer, we shall hereafter see, is unconscious, bearing it to the reader to judge for himself.

Dr. Beecher believes in the pre-existence of the human race, and in the unity of the race, in its origin and continuance of sin, by his theory, as follows:

In a previous state of existence, God created all men with such constitutions, and placed them in such circumstances, as that the free agency of each individual would certainly result in sin. Under these circumstances, as the laws of benevolence required the greatest possible amount of happiness, God, with infinite wisdom, connected himself with the universe, and brought into existence the present system of things, in which each individual of the race is placed in

LOWELL DAILY JOURNAL AND COURIER.

VOL. XIX. THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 20, 1858. NO 1209.

S. J. VARNEY,
PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS—FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.
To favorable payin advance a deduction of 50 cts will be made.

Office—No. 27 CENTRAL STREET,
(Adjoining the Post Office.)

Advertisements not exceeding a square (12 lines) are inserted at 75 cts for the first insertion, and 25 cts. per square for each subsequent insertion. Monthly advertisements will be charged $3 per square for the first insertion, and 25 cts. per square for each subsequent insertion. Those not exceeding a square will be inserted at the rate of $3 per month. Special notices will be charged 25 per cent above the regular rates. Notices in reading matter will be charged 10 cts per line for the first insertion, and 5 cts per line for each subsequent insertion. Notices of Marriages and Deaths are inserted gratis.

Yearly and Semi-yearly advertisements inserted at prices according to the room and space occupied.

☞ The proprietors will not be considered responsible for any error or omission that may occur, beyond the price paid for the insertion of advertisements.

Contracts for yearly advertising will be confined exclusively to the business of their firm, and when the privilege of changing is desired, it must be specified in the contract. Contracts cannot be transferred without consent.

The Lowell Daily Journal, a paper of the size of this sheet, is published every morning, (Sundays excepted,) at 27 Central street, Lowell, Mass.

☞ Single copies of the paper may be had at the counter of the publication office, or of newsmen and carriers.

☞ All papers will be discontinued until arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Book and Job Printing
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
NEATLY & PROMPTLY EXECUTED
AT THE
Lowell Daily Journal & Courier,
27 CENTRAL STREET.

A. H. FLANDERS, M. D,
Rooms, over Ayer's Drug Store.
Below to D. Hosea, M. D. 1y1060ep

F. H. MAGUIRE,
SLATER,
Prescott street, Lowell.
☞ Roofs covered with Slate, Tin, Zinc, or Copper, to suit the owner. 1y1

WM. G. GRAY,
DEALER IN BOOKS AND PAPER,
Office—Canal Block, Central street,
Entrance, No. 4 Church street.

Orders received by Mail or Express will be promptly attended to. 1y1

C. S. HASTMAN & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES,
Postoffice Block, Merrimack Square, Lowell.
CORNER STORE, NYMAN'S EXCHANGE, LOWELL. apr15 ly

DAVID DANA,
OPPERSMITH, BRASS FOUNDER,
AND FINISHER,
Jackson street, opposite Hamilton Print Works.
jan1 ly

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INS COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
CHARLES H. CARNEY, Agent.
Office—No. 22 Commercial. may14

HOBBY McEVOY,
DEALER AND TAILOR
No. 53 Central st.,
Lowell, Mass

STEPHEN HASKUR,
HARD CROCKERY, GLASS AND CHINA WARE,
And Kitchen Furnishing Goods,
No. 119 Central street.

WILLIAM H. MORRILL,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
Boston Block, Merrimack Square,
LOWELL, MASS.
may6 ly

HORSE & CAVERLY,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Offices—Masonic Building, Central street,
LOWELL.

J. F. Moore, E. B. Caverly.

DEAN & DESBROOK,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Offices—6 Suit street, BOSTON.
BENJ. DEAN, J. DESBROOK.
oct14

CUSHING & HACK,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
STOVES, HOLLOW WARE, &c. &c.
Basement Story of the old Universalist Church,
Dec 25—1y (1857) Second-St. Merr.

JOHN PEWSLEY,
CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR,
Dyden.s in Engineering and Mechanical Draughting,
No. 5 Prescott Block,
Entrance from Prescott street, LOWELL.
Refers to Proctor Knight, Esq., Lowell.

ASHER PROUT,
SURVEYOR OF LUMBER,
And
MEASURER OF WOOD,
At Wm. Livingston's Office, Thorndike st.,
LOWELL, MASS. 1y37

JOHN PEARSON,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN
W. L. GOODS, GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c.
No. 2 Savings Bank Block,
(Is the Store formerly occupied by Hartson Bunn.)
jan18 ly

SAMUEL SIDDEN, Jr.,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Corner of Merrimack and John sts.
Opposite the Lowell Machine Shop.
☞ Particular attention paid to putting up Physicians' Prescriptions, Family Receipts, and Country Orders. 1y1

ROWELL MUTUAL FIRE INS. COMPANY.
—OFFICE—
Corner of Commercial and Merrimack,
Main Entrance Merrimack street, New Hampshire.
JACOB ROBBINS, Sec'y
jan1

ABEL WHITNEY,
DEALER IN
BOOKSELLER, PUBLISHER AND STATIONER,
Merrimack Square, LOWELL.
ACCOUNT BOOKS MADE TO ORDER.
Agent for the celebrated Hartford Pencils. 1y1

C. P. GROSVENOR,
DRUGGIST AND APOTHECARY,
Corner of Central and Dutton sts., Lowell.
may28 ly

WEAVER & BROTHERS,
No. 7 Central street, Lowell, Mass.
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
ALL KINDS OF HARDWARE AND FIRE PURSUITURE.
Carpets, Pantings, Rugs and Floor Loth
Mattresses and Feather Beds of all kinds,
Looking Glasses, Clocks, Musical Instruments, &c.
1y1

DR. CARLTON
SURGEON DENTIST.
Rm. 5, 6 and 7 Wentworth Block (corner Kennedy and Merrimack streets,
Corner of Kirk and Merrimack streets.
Lowell, Mass.

DENTISTRY.
All operations on Teeth, including Extracting, Filling, Scaling, Plugging, Inserting Artificial Teeth, &c. &c., performed in the most skilful manner, and warranted to give satisfaction.
MECHANICAL DENTISTRY EXECUTED IN ALL ITS VARIOUS BRANCHES.
DR. F. MORRILL,
Office in Lowell, on the old stand, No. 5 Merrimack Square, (Up Stairs.)
Office hours from 8 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Lowell, Jan. 1, 1858. 1y1

NOTICE.
This is to notify that GEORGE HERBERT has been for the last year, and is now, our only agent in Lowell for the sale of our Sewing Machines, and that no other person is authorized to sell them in Lowell. Any person having a Grover and Baker Machine, sold by any other person than said Herbert, will please call at our office, No. 18 Central street, and have the same adjusted.
Lowell, Sept. 1, 1858. 1m1

ABIJAH CUTTER,
DEALER IN
DOUBLE AND SINGLE-BARRELLED GUNS AND PISTOLS.
Also—Sporting Apparatus for Fishing Trade of every description.
Fishing Rods, Reels, Lines, Hooks, Corks, Floats, &c.
FISHING BOOTS—made to order.
KEEPS ON HAND—Powder, Shot, Caps and LOCKS repaired
No. 15 MID — STREET,
Third door west of the Merrimack House,
LOWELL, MASS.
apr26 ly

HERRICK & TUTTLE,
MANUFACTURERS OF
Office, Counter Building, 57 Central street, (second floor.)
Orders for Stamp work, of all kinds, promptly and carefully executed. 1y1

BLANCHARD & UNDERWOOD
MANUFACTURERS AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
WOOD AND WILLOW WARE, BROOMS, BRUSHES, FANCY GOODS, FOREIGN FRUIT, WOODEN AND WILLOW WARE, &c.,
No. 3 Merrimack Square, (Opposite the Merrimack House,)
LOWELL, MASS.
Orders promptly attended to. 1y1

MERRILL & STRAW,
(Successors to Hunt & Eaton,)
PUBLISHERS, BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS,
Have constantly on hand a full assortment of School and Blank Books made to order, and Paper ruled to any pattern.
☞ Binding done with neatness and despatch.
No. 48 Central street. 1y1

B. S. HALE & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES.
DRUGS, MEDICINES, PERFUMERY, TOILET AR-TICLES, &c.
☞ Physicians' Prescriptions put up at all hours with great care.
Patent Medicines at Proprietors' prices.
PURE SODA drawn in all seasons.
Corner of Bank Block, Merrimack street, Boarding House Square.
jan18 ly

C. P. TALBOT & CO.,
MANUFACTURERS OF
DYE WOODS AND CHEMICALS.
City Market House,—LOWELL.
C. P. Talbot, Thos. Talbot.

WATSON & SARGENT,
BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS,
AND
WHOLESALE AGENTS FOR
Waterman's Patent Pens,—Lowell.
Orders for Blank Books made to order. 1y1

CHARLES T. CARNEY,
APOTHECARY AND CHEMIST,
Corner of Merrimack and John streets, Lowell.
DEALER IN
Pure Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, and
CHEMICAL APPARATUS.
☞ Physicians' Prescriptions carefully made up from reliable sources. may28

S. J. WIER & CO.,
(Successors to D. G. Lincoln,)
COFFEE, TEA, PLATE & SHEET IRON WORKERS,
AND
DEALERS IN
STOVES, FURNISHING GOODS, &c. &c.
126 Merrimack st.
All orders promptly attended to. may24ly

A. & S. STEVENS,
MANUFACTURERS OF
POWER LOOM REEDS AND HEDDLES,
And every description of
MACHINE AND HAND STRAPS,
Corner Fletcher st. and Western Avenue,
LOWELL, MASS.
Alpha Stevens, Silas Stevens.

DEAN & DESBROOK,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Offices—6 Suit street, BOSTON.
BENJ. DEAN, J. DESBROOK.
oct14

THOMAS SALTS,
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes, of every description, Rubbers, Trunks, Carpet Bags, Whips, &c. &c.
No. 3 Merrimack Square, Lowell, Mass.
☞ Boots made to order, and repairing done in the best manner. Cash paid for Hides and Skins.
Lowell, Jan. 1, 1858. 1y1

SAMUEL E. WOOD
(Successor to E. Wood & Co.,)
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN
FLOUR, ALL KINDS OF GRAIN, SHORTS, &c
No. 2 Savings Bank Block,
LOWELL, MASS.
jan18 ly

G. W. RUSSELL,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
SORRETTS, BIRDSEYE, LORILLARD, AND FINE CUT,
SEE, BILLINGSLY GOODS, &c.,
No. 6 Hamilton Block, (Opposite the Post Office.)
jan18 ly

MRS. WEBSTER,
Silk and Straw Millinner, Hair Dresser,
jan18 ly

VOCAL MUSIC.
GEO. P. WILLEY,
Would inform his friends and the public, that he has removed his residence to No. 7 Hamilton street, where he will be found at all times, except when absent on business, or professional engagements, in order to accommodate those who may call with or without notice. Residence at East corner Church. ☞ Mr. Willey's Music Store, 17 Merrimack st., at the old stand of Nathan Richardson. 1y1

MUSIC.
MRS. W. STEWART, formerly Miss Bentley, is prepared to give instruction on the PIANO FORTE, in the most approved manner, at her residence, No. 7 Hamilton street, Lowell. Terms reasonable. 1y1

TO THE LADIES.—Lesley's Jockey Club, Tea Rose, West Leaf, Rogers' or Broadway, Tobaccos, Cavendish, Navy Cut, Cigarettes, Snuffs, &c. &c., for sale by CARNEY, Apothecary and Chemist, No. 126 Merrimack st. 1y1

H. HYMAN,
DEALER IN
Clothing, Hats, Caps, Furnishing Goods, Trunks, Valises, Carpet Bags, &c.
No. 4 Merrimack Block, on Canal Bridge,
Lowell, Mass.
☞ Cash paid for Rags. 1y1

FITCHBURG AND WORCESTER R. R. TRAINS.
Passengers for the Worcester and Fitchburg trains will take the cars of the Lowell and Lawrence R. R. at the Merrimack Square Depot, as follows:
FREIGHT TRAINS run daily each way between Worcester and Lowell, leaving Lowell at 7 A. M.
☞ For connections with the cars of the Lowell and Lawrence R. R., see time table of that road.
Fare to Boston, One Dollar.
Baggage will be checked and passed at Worcester or Fitchburg, and no charge for baggage to Boston, except on the same line by each of the different cars, the passenger will be charged for the same at the rate of 12½ cents per trunk.
Tickets for sale, passenger car attached, stopping at Waltham, Weston and Newton.
J. W. STOWELL, Sup't.
Worcester, June 6, 1853.

Dr. W. D. VIRALL, Dentist,
Office and Residence 99 Central street, Lowell.
☞ Dr. V. having had much experience in the practice of Dentistry, and also in the use of all such preparations as are necessary to the care of sound and decayed teeth, feels confident in saying that he can perform all operations in a manner that will give satisfaction to those who may favor him with a call. 1y1

DR. CARLTON
SURGEON DENTIST.
Rm. 5, 6 and 7 Wentworth Block (corner Kennedy and Merrimack streets,
Corner of Kirk and Merrimack streets.
Lowell, Mass.

DENTISTRY.
All operations on Teeth, including Extracting, Filling, Scaling, Plugging, Inserting Artificial Teeth, &c. &c., performed in the most skilful manner, and warranted to give satisfaction.
MECHANICAL DENTISTRY EXECUTED IN ALL ITS VARIOUS BRANCHES.
DR. F. MORRILL,
Office in Lowell, on the old stand, No. 5 Merrimack Square, (Up Stairs.)
Office hours from 8 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Lowell, Jan. 1, 1858. 1y1

NOTICE.
This is to notify that GEORGE HERBERT has been for the last year, and is now, our only agent in Lowell for the sale of our Sewing Machines, and that no other person is authorized to sell them in Lowell. Any person having a Grover and Baker Machine, sold by any other person than said Herbert, will please call at our office, No. 18 Central street, and have the same adjusted.
Lowell, Sept. 1, 1858. 1m1

ABIJAH CUTTER,
DEALER IN
DOUBLE AND SINGLE-BARRELLED GUNS AND PISTOLS.
Also—Sporting Apparatus for Fishing Trade of every description.
Fishing Rods, Reels, Lines, Hooks, Corks, Floats, &c.
FISHING BOOTS—made to order.
KEEPS ON HAND—Powder, Shot, Caps and LOCKS repaired
No. 15 MID — STREET,
Third door west of the Merrimack House,
LOWELL, MASS.
apr26 ly

HERRICK & TUTTLE,
MANUFACTURERS OF
Office, Counter Building, 57 Central street, (second floor.)
Orders for Stamp work, of all kinds, promptly and carefully executed. 1y1

BLANCHARD & UNDERWOOD
MANUFACTURERS AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
WOOD AND WILLOW WARE, BROOMS, BRUSHES, FANCY GOODS, FOREIGN FRUIT, WOODEN AND WILLOW WARE, &c.,
No. 3 Merrimack Square, (Opposite the Merrimack House,)
LOWELL, MASS.
Orders promptly attended to. 1y1

MERRILL & STRAW,
(Successors to Hunt & Eaton,)
PUBLISHERS, BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS,
Have constantly on hand a full assortment of School and Blank Books made to order, and Paper ruled to any pattern.
☞ Binding done with neatness and despatch.
No. 48 Central street. 1y1

B. S. HALE & CO.,
DRUGGISTS AND APOTHECARIES.
DRUGS, MEDICINES, PERFUMERY, TOILET AR-TICLES, &c.
☞ Physicians' Prescriptions put up at all hours with great care.
Patent Medicines at Proprietors' prices.
PURE SODA drawn in all seasons.
Corner of Bank Block, Merrimack street, Boarding House Square.
jan18 ly

C. P. TALBOT & CO.,
MANUFACTURERS OF
DYE WOODS AND CHEMICALS.
City Market House,—LOWELL.
C. P. Talbot, Thos. Talbot.

WATSON & SARGENT,
BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS,
AND
WHOLESALE AGENTS FOR
Waterman's Patent Pens,—Lowell.
Orders for Blank Books made to order. 1y1

CHARLES T. CARNEY,
APOTHECARY AND CHEMIST,
Corner of Merrimack and John streets, Lowell.
DEALER IN
Pure Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, and
CHEMICAL APPARATUS.
☞ Physicians' Prescriptions carefully made up from reliable sources. may28

S. J. WIER & CO.,
(Successors to D. G. Lincoln,)
COFFEE, TEA, PLATE & SHEET IRON WORKERS,
AND
DEALERS IN
STOVES, FURNISHING GOODS, &c. &c.
126 Merrimack st.
All orders promptly attended to. may24ly

A. & S. STEVENS,
MANUFACTURERS OF
POWER LOOM REEDS AND HEDDLES,
And every description of
MACHINE AND HAND STRAPS,
Corner Fletcher st. and Western Avenue,
LOWELL, MASS.
Alpha Stevens, Silas Stevens.

DEAN & DESBROOK,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
Offices—6 Suit street, BOSTON.
BENJ. DEAN, J. DESBROOK.
oct14

THOMAS SALTS,
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes, of every description, Rubbers, Trunks, Carpet Bags, Whips, &c. &c.
No. 3 Merrimack Square, Lowell, Mass.
☞ Boots made to order, and repairing done in the best manner. Cash paid for Hides and Skins.
Lowell, Jan. 1, 1858. 1y1

SAMUEL E. WOOD
(Successor to E. Wood & Co.,)
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN
FLOUR, ALL KINDS OF GRAIN, SHORTS, &c
No. 2 Savings Bank Block,
LOWELL, MASS.
jan18 ly

G. W. RUSSELL,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
SORRETTS, BIRDSEYE, LORILLARD, AND FINE CUT,
SEE, BILLINGSLY GOODS, &c.,
No. 6 Hamilton Block, (Opposite the Post Office.)
jan18 ly

MRS. WEBSTER,
Silk and Straw Millinner, Hair Dresser,
jan18 ly

VOCAL MUSIC.
GEO. P. WILLEY,
Would inform his friends and the public, that he has removed his residence to No. 7 Hamilton street, where he will be found at all times, except when absent on business, or professional engagements, in order to accommodate those who may call with or without notice. Residence at East corner Church. ☞ Mr. Willey's Music Store, 17 Merrimack st., at the old stand of Nathan Richardson. 1y1

MUSIC.
MRS. W. STEWART, formerly Miss Bentley, is prepared to give instruction on the PIANO FORTE, in the most approved manner, at her residence, No. 7 Hamilton street, Lowell. Terms reasonable. 1y1

TO THE LADIES.—Lesley's Jockey Club, Tea Rose, West Leaf, Rogers' or Broadway, Tobaccos, Cavendish, Navy Cut, Cigarettes, Snuffs, &c. &c., for sale by CARNEY, Apothecary and Chemist, No. 126 Merrimack st. 1y1

H. HYMAN,
DEALER IN
Clothing, Hats, Caps, Furnishing Goods, Trunks, Valises, Carpet Bags, &c.
No. 4 Merrimack Block, on Canal Bridge,
Lowell, Mass.
☞ Cash paid for Rags. 1y1

FITCHBURG AND WORCESTER R. R. TRAINS.
Passengers for the Worcester and Fitchburg trains will take the cars of the Lowell and Lawrence R. R. at the Merrimack Square Depot, as follows:
FREIGHT TRAINS run daily each way between Worcester and Lowell, leaving Lowell at 7 A. M.
☞ For connections with the cars of the Lowell and Lawrence R. R., see time table of that road.
Fare to Boston, One Dollar.
Baggage will be checked and passed at Worcester or Fitchburg, and no charge for baggage to Boston, except on the same line by each of the different cars, the passenger will be charged for the same at the rate of 12½ cents per trunk.
Tickets for sale, passenger car attached, stopping at Waltham, Weston and Newton.
J. W. STOWELL, Sup't.
Worcester, June 6, 1853.

Dr. W. D. VIRALL, Dentist,
Office and Residence 99 Central street, Lowell.
☞ Dr. V. having had much experience in the practice of Dentistry, and also in the use of all such preparations as are necessary to the care of sound and decayed teeth, feels confident in saying that he can perform all operations in a manner that will give satisfaction to those who may favor him with a call. 1y1

RAILROADS.

WINTER ARRANGEMENT ON THE BOSTON AND LOWELL RAILROAD.

CHANGE OF HOURS.

On and after MONDAY, October 3, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows:

Leave Boston at 7.30 and 8.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Leave Lowell at 8.15 A. M. and 2.30 and 6.30 P. M.
Leave Boston at 12 M. and 6 P. M.
Leave Lowell at 12.45 P. M. and 6.45 P. M.
Leave Boston for Nashua and Lowell Railroad 7.30 A. M.
Leave Lowell for Nashua and Lowell Railroad 7.30 A. M.
Boston, Oct. 1, 1853. WM. H. SWIFT, Agent.

NEW ROUTE BETWEEN BOSTON AND LOWELL.

CHANGE OF HOURS.

On and after MONDAY, Oct. 3, 1853, Passenger Trains will run as follows:

Leave Boston for Lowell at 7.45 A. M., 12.00 M. and 4.30 P. M.
Leave Lowell for Boston at 8.15 A. M., 12.45 P. M. and 6.45 P. M.
Leave Boston for Nashua at 7.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Leave Nashua for Boston at 8.15 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Leave Lowell for Reading at 8.00, 9 A. M. 1.25 and 4.15 P. M.
Leave Reading for Lowell at 8.30 A. M. 1.30 and 5.15 P. M.
Leave Boston for Reading at 7.45 A. M. 12.00 M. and 4.30 P. M.
Leave Reading for Boston at 8.15 A. M. 12.45 P. M. and 6.15 P. M.
CONNECTIONS WITH OTHER ROADS.
Lowell Passengers for Reading change at Wilmington.
Lowell Passengers for Nashua change at Concord, Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroads, Passengers for Concord change at Nashua.
Lowell Passengers for Boston change at Reading.
Lowell Passengers for Portland change at Reading.
Lowell Passengers for Portland change at Reading.
Each train to and from Grand Junction, connects with trains to and from Boston.
Each train to and from Nashua connects with trains to and from Concord, Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroads, with upward and downward trains of Nashua & Lowell Railroad, and with trains to and from Lowell.
Each train to and from Grand Junction, connects with trains to and from New York via Stonington Railroad.
Each train to and from Reading connects with trains to and from Boston.
Passengers over the Worcester and Nashua Railroad, will take the cars of the Lowell and Lawrence Railroad at the Merrimack Square, Boston, at 7 A. M., 12.45 and 5.45 P. M.
Passengers for Boston will leave Nashua at 7.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Passengers for Nashua will leave Boston at 7.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Fare to Boston, One Dollar.
Baggage will be checked through with Trains on the Worcester and Nashua Railroad, and no charge for baggage to Boston, except on the same line by each of the different cars, the passenger will be charged for the same at the rate of 12½ cents per trunk.
Tickets for sale, passenger car attached, stopping at Waltham, Weston and Newton.
J. W. STOWELL, Sup't.
Worcester, June 6, 1853.

FALL ARRANGEMENT.

NEW ROUTE BETWEEN BOSTON AND LOWELL.

On and after MONDAY, Oct. 3, 1853, Trains will run as follows:

Leave Boston for Lowell at 7.45 A. M., 12.00 M. and 4.30 P. M.
Leave Lowell for Boston at 8.15 A. M., 12.45 P. M. and 6.45 P. M.
Leave Boston for Nashua at 7.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Leave Nashua for Boston at 8.15 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Leave Lowell for Reading at 8.00, 9 A. M. 1.25 and 4.15 P. M.
Leave Reading for Lowell at 8.30 A. M. 1.30 and 5.15 P. M.
Leave Boston for Reading at 7.45 A. M. 12.00 M. and 4.30 P. M.
Leave Reading for Boston at 8.15 A. M. 12.45 P. M. and 6.15 P. M.
CONNECTIONS WITH OTHER ROADS.
Lowell Passengers for Reading change at Wilmington.
Lowell Passengers for Nashua change at Concord, Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroads, Passengers for Concord change at Nashua.
Lowell Passengers for Boston change at Reading.
Lowell Passengers for Portland change at Reading.
Lowell Passengers for Portland change at Reading.
Each train to and from Grand Junction, connects with trains to and from Boston.
Each train to and from Nashua connects with trains to and from Concord, Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroads, with upward and downward trains of Nashua & Lowell Railroad, and with trains to and from Lowell.
Each train to and from Grand Junction, connects with trains to and from New York via Stonington Railroad.
Each train to and from Reading connects with trains to and from Boston.
Passengers over the Worcester and Nashua Railroad, will take the cars of the Lowell and Lawrence Railroad at the Merrimack Square, Boston, at 7 A. M., 12.45 and 5.45 P. M.
Passengers for Boston will leave Nashua at 7.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Passengers for Nashua will leave Boston at 7.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Fare to Boston, One Dollar.
Baggage will be checked through with Trains on the Worcester and Nashua Railroad, and no charge for baggage to Boston, except on the same line by each of the different cars, the passenger will be charged for the same at the rate of 12½ cents per trunk.
Tickets for sale, passenger car attached, stopping at Waltham, Weston and Newton.
J. W. STOWELL, Sup't.
Worcester, June 6, 1853.

FALL ARRANGEMENT.

NEW ROUTE BETWEEN BOSTON AND LOWELL.

On and after MONDAY, Oct. 3, 1853, Trains will run as follows:

Leave Boston for Lowell at 7.45 A. M., 12.00 M. and 4.30 P. M.
Leave Lowell for Boston at 8.15 A. M., 12.45 P. M. and 6.45 P. M.
Leave Boston for Nashua at 7.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Leave Nashua for Boston at 8.15 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Leave Lowell for Reading at 8.00, 9 A. M. 1.25 and 4.15 P. M.
Leave Reading for Lowell at 8.30 A. M. 1.30 and 5.15 P. M.
Leave Boston for Reading at 7.45 A. M. 12.00 M. and 4.30 P. M.
Leave Reading for Boston at 8.15 A. M. 12.45 P. M. and 6.15 P. M.
CONNECTIONS WITH OTHER ROADS.
Lowell Passengers for Reading change at Wilmington.
Lowell Passengers for Nashua change at Concord, Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroads, Passengers for Concord change at Nashua.
Lowell Passengers for Boston change at Reading.
Lowell Passengers for Portland change at Reading.
Lowell Passengers for Portland change at Reading.
Each train to and from Grand Junction, connects with trains to and from Boston.
Each train to and from Nashua connects with trains to and from Concord, Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroads, with upward and downward trains of Nashua & Lowell Railroad, and with trains to and from Lowell.
Each train to and from Grand Junction, connects with trains to and from New York via Stonington Railroad.
Each train to and from Reading connects with trains to and from Boston.
Passengers over the Worcester and Nashua Railroad, will take the cars of the Lowell and Lawrence Railroad at the Merrimack Square, Boston, at 7 A. M., 12.45 and 5.45 P. M.
Passengers for Boston will leave Nashua at 7.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Passengers for Nashua will leave Boston at 7.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Fare to Boston, One Dollar.
Baggage will be checked through with Trains on the Worcester and Nashua Railroad, and no charge for baggage to Boston, except on the same line by each of the different cars, the passenger will be charged for the same at the rate of 12½ cents per trunk.
Tickets for sale, passenger car attached, stopping at Waltham, Weston and Newton.
J. W. STOWELL, Sup't.
Worcester, June 6, 1853.

NEW RAILROAD ROUTE
TO PASSUMPSIC RIVER AND THE WEST.
SHORTEST AND ONLY DIRECT ROUTE, WITHOUT CHANGE OF CARS.

NASHUA AND LOWELL, WILTON, AND STONY BROOK RAILROADS.

On and after MONDAY, Oct. 4th, 1858, Passenger Trains will run as follows:

Leave Lowell for Nashua and Northern Roads at 5.30 A. M. 12.00 M. and 4.30 P. M.
Leave Nashua for Lowell at 7.15 A. M. 12.30 P. M. and 6.45 P. M.
Leave Nashua for Wilton at 8.00 A. M. and 5.15 P. M.
Leave Wilton for Nashua at 6.30 A. M. and 4.45 P. M.
Leave Lowell for Stony Brook at 8.00 A. M. and 5.15 P. M.
Leave Stony Brook for Lowell at 6.30 A. M. and 4.45 P. M.
Connections will be made at Nashua for Manchester, Concord, Bellows Falls, Keene, Brattleboro', Windsor, Rutland, Burlington, Ogdensburg, Montreal, Plattsburg, Whitehall, Troy, Albany, and the West.
Connections will be made at Wilton for Milford, Peterboro', Hillsboro' Bridge, Antrim, Hancock, Bennington, Greenfield, Shirley, and Fitchburg.
Connections will be made at Stony Brook for Groton, Ayer's City, Shirley, Fitchburg, and Worcester.
Passengers for Boston will take the cars of the Lowell and Lawrence Railroad at the Merrimack Square Depot, Boston, at 7 A. M., 12.45 and 5.45 P. M.
Passengers for Nashua will leave Boston at 7.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Fare to Nashua, 25 cents.
Fare to Boston, One Dollar.
Baggage will be checked through with Trains on the Worcester and Nashua Railroad, and no charge for baggage to Boston, except on the same line by each of the different cars, the passenger will be charged for the same at the rate of 12½ cents per trunk.
Tickets for sale, passenger car attached, stopping at Waltham, Weston and Newton.
J. W. STOWELL, Sup't.
Worcester, June 6, 1853.

NEW RAILROAD ROUTE
TO PASSUMPSIC RIVER AND THE WEST.
SHORTEST AND ONLY DIRECT ROUTE, WITHOUT CHANGE OF CARS.

NASHUA AND LOWELL, WILTON, AND STONY BROOK RAILROADS.

On and after MONDAY, Oct. 4th, 1858, Passenger Trains will run as follows:

Leave Lowell for Nashua and Northern Roads at 5.30 A. M. 12.00 M. and 4.30 P. M.
Leave Nashua for Lowell at 7.15 A. M. 12.30 P. M. and 6.45 P. M.
Leave Nashua for Wilton at 8.00 A. M. and 5.15 P. M.
Leave Wilton for Nashua at 6.30 A. M. and 4.45 P. M.
Leave Lowell for Stony Brook at 8.00 A. M. and 5.15 P. M.
Leave Stony Brook for Lowell at 6.30 A. M. and 4.45 P. M.
Connections will be made at Nashua for Manchester, Concord, Bellows Falls, Keene, Brattleboro', Windsor, Rutland, Burlington, Ogdensburg, Montreal, Plattsburg, Whitehall, Troy, Albany, and the West.
Connections will be made at Wilton for Milford, Peterboro', Hillsboro' Bridge, Antrim, Hancock, Bennington, Greenfield, Shirley, and Fitchburg.
Connections will be made at Stony Brook for Groton, Ayer's City, Shirley, Fitchburg, and Worcester.
Passengers for Boston will take the cars of the Lowell and Lawrence Railroad at the Merrimack Square Depot, Boston, at 7 A. M., 12.45 and 5.45 P. M.
Passengers for Nashua will leave Boston at 7.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M.
Fare to Nashua, 25 cents.
Fare to Boston, One Dollar.
Baggage will be checked through with Trains on the Worcester and Nashua Railroad, and no charge for baggage to Boston, except on the same line by each of the different cars, the passenger will be charged for the same at the rate of 12½ cents per trunk.
Tickets for sale, passenger car attached, stopping at Waltham, Weston and Newton.
J. W. STOWELL, Sup't.
Worcester, June 6, 1853.

INSURANCE OFFICES

Fire Insurance.
METROPOLITAN FIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE Co., Boston, Mass. Capital $500,000.
HOWARD FIRE INSURANCE CO., Boston, Mass. Capital $200,000.
EQUITABLE M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Capital $200,000.
HAVERHILL M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Haverhill, Mass.
QUINCY M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Quincy, Mass.
PEOPLE'S EQ' ITABLE M. FIRE INSURANCE CO. Troy, N. Y.
FARMERS' M. FIRE INSURANCE CO., Glenville, N. Y.
The proprietors of these Agencies are prepared to make unqualified statements, or to refer to responsible parties in this city, but object to publishing the same in a newspaper.
JEREMIAH S. FINLSON, Agent,
No. 19 Central st., Lowell.
Residence on Pawtucket and Merrimack streets.

AMERICAN VENTURE FOR LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.
HARTFORD, CONN.
Incorporated by the General Assembly of Connecticut.
Capital One Hundred Thousand Dollars,
$100,000,
Securely invested under the conditions and supervised of the Insurance Commissioner.

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS:
Hon. THOMAS S. WILLIAMS, President.
TRUMAN WARD, Vice President.
Secretary—JOHN W. HOLCOMB.
Actuary—ELISHA PECK.
Surgical Examiner—JOHN HALL, M. D.
Consulting Physician—THOMAS M. BROWN, M. D.
Counsel—Hon. THOMAS S. WILLIAMS.
Auditing Committee—Hon. Andrew T. Judson, Judge U. S. Cir. Dist. Court.
Hon. Thomas S. Williams, Hartford.
Hon. Truman Ward, Hartford.
Hon. Andrew T. Judson, Hartford.
Hon. Samuel Tudor, Hartford.
Hon. Richard Bond, Hartford.
Hon. Samuel Fowler, Middletown.
Hon. Ralph Wheaton, Middletown.
Hon. Elisha Hall, Middletown.
Hon. Thomas Day, Hartford.
Hon. Ambrose Kingsley, Hartford.
Hon. Thomas Belden, Hartford.
Hon. Thomas Belden, Hartford.
Hon. Thomas Belden

lic; hence his determination to crush it in every part of the world.

Having thus briefly sketched his character, we can hardly stop his achievements. The five military exploits was against Abbas Mirza, the heir to the throne of Persia, who had crossed the Russian frontier. The latter was defeated by Field Marshal Paskiewitch, and peace concluded at Turkmanchai 1828. Peace surrendered two provinces, now known as the Governorates of Georgia and the Three Caucasia, and paid 10,000,000 of rubles.

The war with Turkey in 1828 commenced with the occupation of Moldavia and Wallachia, ending in the complete destruction of Silistria and Varna, and the capture of Adrianople, where peace was concluded in 1829. Turkey granted freedom of trade to all Russian subjects, free navigation to the vessels in the Black Sea, the protectorate over Moldavia and Wallachia to the Emperor of Russia, surrendered a fortress near the Caucasus, and paid ten millions of ducats.

